Dear Mr. Cordell
Housing Benefit Notification
I have changed your Housing Benefit from 01/04/2013 to take account of new year benefit levels from April. I have decided that your benefit is now as follows:
£86.84 per week from 01/04/2013
How You Will Be Paid
Your benefit will be paid by directly crediting your rent account.
Notification of Council Tax Support
I have worked out your council tax support from 01/04/2013 to take account of new year benefit levels from April. I have decided that your benefit is now as follows:
£12.64 per week from 01/04/2013 How You Will Be Paid
£658.99 council tax support has been paid to your council tax account. The total amount of council tax support for 2013/14 is £658.99.
You will soon receive a Council Tax bill dated 14/03/13 that will tell you how much council tax you will now have to pay. On the back of the bill is a summary of how we have calculated your Council Tax.
Other Information
Appeal details for Housing Benefit, information on the Council Tax Support scheme and other information are included with this letter.
About Council Tax Support
In previous years, the Government has funded a national Council Tax Benefit Scheme which may have meant you did not pay Council Tax. The Government is abolishing the national Council Tax Benefit Scheme from 1 April 2013.
In its place, councils have been asked to set up local support schemes for council tax but the Government has given less funding than it currently costs. In Enfield, the shortfall in funding is over £4m a year.

Despite this funding shortfall, Enfield Council has agreed a new local Council Tax Support Scheme based on the previous national benefit scheme with some amendments. Details of the new scheme are available on our website, www.enfield.gov.uk/counciltaxonline.
Your Council Tax Support award has been based on this new scheme.
How Council Tax Support is worked out

Council Tax Support is worked out using the information supplied in your previous Council Tax Benefit claim and the amount of Council Tax expected for the property you live in.
We start with looking at if you are eligible for any discounts, such as single person discount.
We then turn your remaining amount of council tax into a weekly amount.
Pensioners, war widows of working age, and those receiving war disability payments will continue to be eligible for Council Tax Support for up to 100% of the Council Tax that you have to pay. For the remaining working age claims (aged up to 65) you can receive a maximum benefit of up to 80.5% of council tax due.
Claimants receiving the following benefits will automatically give you the full award less any deductions for non-dependents (other adults living with you):

- Income Support,
- Guaranteed Credit
- Income based job seekers allowance.
- Income related employment and support allowance

This means that if you are working age and not in a protected group, you will get 80.5% of your council tax as a benefit. If you are a pensioner or protected, you will get 100%.
For all other claims we look at your total income, any savings that you have and deduct from that a recommended allowance that you need to live on depending on your circumstances and family make-up.
For every £1 that your total income is over the recommended allowance we deduct 20p from the weekly maximum amount of Council Tax Support you can receive. The amount left is the Council Tax Support we give you each week.
All weekly amounts are then worked out for the year and paid to your Council Tax Account.
You will receive a bill setting out what contribution, if any, you are expected to pay towards Council Tax. See the back of the Council Tax bill which for information on how we can calculate your contribution.
Your sincerely

How Your Housing Benefit Has Been Worked Out

From 01/04/2013 your Housing Benefit will be £86.84 each week.
The rent you are charged each week is £92.49.
Housing Benefit cannot pay for some service charges that are included in your rent. The rent you pay has to be reduced by the amount of these service charges. These amounts are shown below:

Actual amount for Ineligible Water	£5.65
Total deductions for services	£5.65

The amount of rent after deducting these charges is called your maximum eligible rent. Your rent of £92.49 must be reduced by £5.65, to £86.84 each week. This is your maximum eligible rent.
The maximum Housing Benefit you can get is £86.84 each week. This figure is used when working out 'your total weekly Housing Benefit'.

Your Total Weekly Housing Benefit

As you are receiving Income Support, I can pay the maximum Housing Benefit of £86.84 each week.

Dear Mr Cordell

109 Burncroft Avenue Enfield EN3 7JQ

Notification of Suspension of Benefit Suspension of Housing Benefit

The law allows me to suspend your Housing Benefit payments in certain circumstances. I am writing to tell you that I have suspended payments from 08/07/2013 because we have been informed you are in prison.

Please confirm if you are on remand or have been sentenced. If you have been sentenced, please confirm the date you were sentenced. Please reply within one calendar month of the date of this letter or we will cancel your benefit. Any delay may mean that you lose some benefit.

If you are awarded any benefit it will start from the Monday following the date, I receive the form. If you want me to consider awarding you benefit back to the date you made your original claim, you must tell me when you want the claim to start from, and the reasons why you failed to give me the information I asked for with your previous application.

Suspension of Council Tax Support

The law allows me to suspend council tax support payments in certain circumstances. I am writing to tell you that I have suspended your council tax support payments from 04/07/2013 because we have been advised you are in prison.

Applying for Further Help

If you wish to re-apply for further help to pay your rent based on your new circumstances, you can apply online at: www.enfield.gov.uk/benefitcalculator, within one month of the date of this letter. Any delay may mean that you lose some benefit.

Changes in your circumstances

If your circumstances change, you must tell us about them immediately. For example:

1. You start working or you earn more or less money.
2. Your benefits/tax credits change or are stopped.
3. You move home.
4. Your rent changes.

5. You go to stay with friends, family or go into hospital for more than 2 weeks.
6. You become a student or stop being a student.
7. Anyone comes to live with you, or someone moves out
8. Your savings change.
9. Your child leaves school or other education
10. You have a baby.
11. Someone dies.
12. Any other change which may affect your entitlement to benefit.
13. Someone else in your home has any of these changes.

If you don't tell us about a change, we may fine you or take legal action and you will have to pay back any money that you were not entitled to.

You can report a change in circumstance on our website at www.enfield.gov.uk/benefitsonline or by calling 020 8379 1000,

Alternatively, you can write to us telling us what has changed, when and if there has been a delay in telling us, why. You will also need to send evidence to support your claim. Further information is also available on our website www.enfield.gov.uk/benefits.

Right of Appeal for Housing Benefit

If you do not agree with the Housing Benefit decision, you must challenge it within one month of the date of this letter.

You can:

14. Ask us to explain our decision (by phoning 020 8379 1000)
15. Write and ask us to reconsider.
16. Write to us and ask for our decision to be looked at by the Independent Tribunal run by the Tribunal Service.

Your letter must be written in English, be signed by you and contain your name and address, the benefit you are appealing against and the grounds for your appeal. Please include any evidence that supports your appeal. Appeals about the income used in your Pension Credit Award will be forwarded to the Pension Credit Service as we are legally bound to use the figures, they give us.

If you disagree with a Local Council Tax Support Scheme decision

If you do not agree with the Council Tax Support Scheme decision, you do not have a formal right to appeal. However, you can still:

Ask us to explain our decision (by phoning 020 8379 1000)

Write and ask us to reconsider!

If you are still unhappy you can write to us to make a formal complaint

23

Your letter must be written in English, be received within one month of the date of this letter, be signed by you and give your name, address, grounds for reconsideration and any evidence.

To Whom It May Concern:
I am writing this letter after a letter I got dated 18/07/2013 about my housing benefit and council tax being suspended from the 08/07/2013 due to you getting information as to me being in prison. I was remanded to prison for I day and was released on the 28/06/2013.
I did call your offices on the 16/07/2013 to ask if my benefits for housing and council tax was still being paid due to me just finding out my D WP payments had been stopped. I was told on this date they were still being paid and the lady my mum spoke to on the phone told her that due to me having some issue I could get council tax reduction due to mental impairment and that the Lady would send out the paper work. I have put an appeal into the DWP about my claim being stopped and I am waiting to hear from them. Since I got released from prison after one day on the 28/06/2013 I have had nothing to live on I have not got any food or gas or electric at my address for the last few days as it has now run out and I have no way to live until the DWP looks at my appeal.

I called the DWP today 24/07/2013 to see if there is any update on my claim and have been told as of to date there is no update. But they should have something in the next few days, I told them I have no way to live but they cannot speed anything up. They got my letter on the 19/07/2013 but it has yet to be scanned into their system. I am therefore asking if my housing benefit and council tax can be put back into place so there are no missing payments within my claim.

How Your Housing Benefit Has Been Worked Out for the period
From 08/07/2013 to 11/08/2013 your Housing Benefit will be £86.84 each week.
Claim reference: 1623514.
The rent you are charged each week is £92.49.
Housing Benefit cannot pay for some service charges that are included in your rent. The rent you pay must be reduced by the amount of these service charges. These amounts are shown below:
Actual amount for Ineligible Water £5.65
Total deductions for services £5.65
The amount of rent after deducting these charges is called your maximum eligible rent. Your rent of £92.49 must be reduced by £5.65, to £86.84 each week. This is your maximum eligible rent.
The maximum Housing Benefit you can get is £86.84 each week. This figure is used when working out 'your total weekly Housing Benefit'.
The amount of Housing Benefit has been worked out by comparing the money you have coming in each week, to an amount the Government has decided is the minimum that someone in your circumstances needs to cover basic living expenses.
Your Total Weekly Income
The amount of money you have coming in each week has been worked out as follows:
Total weekly income £0.00
Your Total Savings
If you have savings and capital over £6,000.00, an amount of £1.00 must be added to your weekly income for each additional £250.00, or part of £250.00 you have.

You have told me that you have no savings or capital, so I have added nothing to your weekly income. If you get savings credit in your pension credit, your savings have already been considered by the Pension Service and will not be shown on this letter.

Your Applicable Amount

Your applicable amount is made up of the following allowances and premiums:

Single claimant twenty-five or over

Total applicable amount

Your Total Weekly Housing Benefit

As your total weekly income of £0.00 is the same as or less than your 'applicable amount' of £71.70,1 can pay you your maximum Housing Benefit of £86.84 each week.

You may be entitled to Income Support or Jobseeker's Allowance. You should contact the Jobcentre Plus on 0800 055 6688 for more information.

How Your Housing Benefit Has Been Worked Out for the period

From 12/08/2013 your Housing Benefit will be £86.84 each week.

NI reference: JH653811D

Your maximum housing benefit is £86.84. This amount has not changed since 08/07/2013. Please look at that period for full details of how your maximum benefit has been worked out.

Your Total Weekly Housing Benefit

Since you are receiving Employment and Support Allowance (income related), you are entitled to the maximum Housing Benefit of £86.84 each week.

How Your Council Tax Support Has Been Worked Out

Based on your circumstances I have decided to assess your claim using the Working Age scheme.

From 08/07/2013 to 11/08/2013, your council tax support is £12.64 each week.

The maximum council tax support you could get.

Your council tax liability for the year is £818.62 which for this period is £15.70 each week.

The maximum council tax support you could get is therefore £15.70 each week. This figure is used when working out 'your total weekly council tax support'.

Your Total Weekly Income

The amount of money you have coming in each week has been worked out as follows:

Total Weekly Income £0.00

Your Total Savings

The Working Age scheme sets the amounts added to your weekly income if you have savings. If you have savings and capital over £6,000.00, an amount of £1.00 must be added to your weekly income for each additional £250.00, or part of £250.00 you have.

You have told me that you have no savings or capital, so I have added nothing to your weekly income. If you get savings credit in your pension credit, your savings have already been considered by the Pension Service and will not be shown on this letter.

Your applicable amount

Your applicable amount is made up of the following allowances and premiums:

Single claimant twenty-five or over £71.70

Total Applicable Amount £71.70

Your Total Weekly Council Tax Support

As your total weekly income of £0.00 is the same as or less than your 'applicable amount' of £71.70,1 can pay you your maximum council tax support of £15.70 each week.

A reduction of the maximum council tax support of £15.70 that you could get each week must be reduced by £3.06, to £12.64.

How Your Council Tax Support Has Been Worked Out
