Im writing this on behalf of my nephew Simon Cordell. I acted as Simons appropriate adult on ____ while we was in interview with the duty Solicitor Simon was told he was charged with harrasment of his neighbour who lives above him while we was in interview they Police tried to say they was going to add a new charge of assault off the police which the duty Solicitor quickly got dismissed as Simon was not charged with this then I got a phone call again later that evening while I was at home to say they was going to do another interview later with Simon and they would call me to be Simons appropriate adult which they never did the next morning Simon was taken to court which I had to find out myself by calling police station and phone highbury magistrates court.
