  Simon requested to speak with me. Had 1:1 with him to enable him to ventilate his fears and anxieties. He complained about his admission as he feels it was unlawful for some of the mental health professionals who came to his house to assess him as he has already made a complaint about their attitudes and have recordings OF the visits. He also informed me that there is nothing wrong with him to be in hospital and to take anti-psychotic medication. He has been told that he will be given injection if he refused his oral medication after he has been seen by the consultant. He just wants to be discharged to continue with his business plan. After explaining to him about the reasons for his detention and the benefits of taking medication, also the longer he refused will prolong his stay in hospital. With a lot of reassurance, he agreed comply with medication if the consultant asked him to do so.

  Conversation with Simons mother
  Explained current treatment plan and mental state. Agreed Simon is taking the lorazepam however it has not made any notable change to his mental state. Explained that the next stage is antipsychotic medications as was stated at our first meeting. Mum says that Simon will refuses to take these, and she denies that he is delusional or paranoid. Simon continues to decline his antipsychotics as he does not think he needs them. We have explained the signs and symptoms that Simon is exhibited warrants the use of antipsychotics to prevent further deterioration in his physical and mental health. We have explained that if Simon continues to refuse tablets the next stage would be an injection. Simon's mum asked about when or if he will be moved to another ward, we explained that this depends on Simon's progress and how long it takes to make a fuller assessment of his needs. Simon's mum was concerned with the lack of activities on the ward and she feels this is contributing to his bad health, she says the only time there was an activity on the ward was when the solicitor on the ward and she felt these two things were linked.

7 NHS: Gabriel Daramola Nursing / Time 06:39 / Last Amended by Details: 23 Aug 2016 06:22 – "Simon at about 21:35hrs was called for his prescribed night medication. He was given his 1mg Lorazepam and 5mg Olanzapine tablet as prescribed for the night. He refused the 5mg Olanzapine, with claim that ward doctor that prescribed the medication did not discussed Olanzapine with him. He also went further to contradict himself that same prescribing doctor has instructed him that he does not have to take any anti-psychotic medication. Nursing staff then tried to explore the reason why he does not want to take his medication; Perhaps due to taste or difficulty in swallowing, so that alternative route could be explored when feeding back to the MDT during white board meetings. Instead of listening to the staff talking to him, he claimed to have taken picture and recording the staff present during the interaction. At this point, the staff asked him to delete the content if he had actually done that because it is not with his consent and it is not an acceptable practice. Instead of deleting the content of what he might have taken, he ran to his room to phone his mother, that he was being advised to take his prescribed medication against his will and that he could be given injection if he continues to refuse medication orally. The mother then phones the ward to inform the ward staff GD that her son, if going by the previous judgment they have got from the Supreme Court. Simon has the right to record any interaction at any public place, in which hospital is one of them. The mother went further to inform staff that she has spoken with the team doctor (no name given) about her son medication and that it was an agreement that Simon should only be taken 1mg Lorazepam now while subsequent medication review has to be weekly. Hence, they have not done further review, no staff should encourage son to take any anti-psychotic medication prescribed on the ward. The mother claimed that the said doctor and her were of the opinion to wait and see how Simon reacts to Lorazepam before he can think of taking any other medication. In addition to the above, Simon himself played the audio recording of interactions with doctor and social workers from the previous encounter, when trying to delete the one he did tonight. He then claimed that he has not present this recording in the court because he doesn't want that social worker in the recorded content sacked. However, the shift coordinator advised the mother to work with care team in a way that could enhance the best interest of Simon. Also, to encourage son to be compliant with his treatment plan as an inpatient on the ward. Furthermore, Simon to stop recording and taking picture of caring team without their consent because, it's not part of treatment package."

Simon at about 21:35hrs was called for his prescribed night medication. He was given his 1mg Lorazepam and 5mg Olanzapine tablet as prescribed for the night. He refused the 5mg Olanzapine, with claim that ward doctor that prescribed the medication did not discussed Olanzapine with him. He also went further to contradict himself that same prescribing doctor has instructed him that he doesn't have to take any anti-psychotic medication. Nursing staff then tried to explore the reason why he doesn't want to take his medication; Perhaps due to taste or difficulty in swallowing, so that alternative route could be explored when feeding back to the MDT during white board meetings. Instead of listening to the staff talking to him, he claimed to have taken picture and recording the staff present during the interaction. At this point, the staff asked him to delete the content if he had actually done that because it's not with his consent and it's not an acceptable practice. Instead of deleting the content of what he might have taken, he ran to his room to phone his mother, that he was being advised to take his prescribed medication against his will and that he could be given injection if he continues to refuse medication orally. The mother then phones the ward to inform the ward staff GD that her son, if going by the previous judgment they have got from the Supreme Court. Simon has the right to record any interaction at any public place, in which hospital is one of them. The mother went further to inform staff that she has spoken with the team doctor (no name given) about her son medication and that it was an agreement that Simon should only be taken 1mg Lorazepam now while subsequent medication review has to be weekly. Hence, they have not done further review, no staff should encourage son to take any anti-psychotic medication prescribed on the ward. The mother claimed that the said doctor and her were of the opinion to wait and see how Simon reacts to Lorazepam before he can think of taking any other medication. In addition to the above, Simon himself played the audio recording of interactions with doctor and social workers from the previous encounter, when trying to delete the one he did tonight. He then claimed that he has not present this recording in the court because he doesn't want that social worker in the recorded content sacked. However, the shift coordinator advised the mother to work with care team in a way that could enhance the best interest of Simon. Also, to encourage son to be compliant with his treatment plan as an inpatient on the ward. Furthermore, Simon to stop recording and taking picture of caring team without their consent because, it's not part of treatment package.

I write to inform you that the above-named gentleman has been accepted onto the caseload of the Enfield Early Intervention in Psychosis Service (EIS), and I am his Care Coordinator. The EIS work with service users and their families for up to three years for those aged between 1835 years of age, experiencing their first episode of psychosis, or those who are in the first three years of psychotic illness, living in Enfield.
The EIS offers treatment including:

1	Administration of anti-psychotic medicines
2	Psychological interventions including Cognitive Behaviour Therapy for psychosis and emotional problems, such as depression and anxiety
3	Family interventions
4	Vocational recovery
5	Relapse prevention & management
6	A harm minimisation approach to substance misuse
7	Care Coordination
8	1Social recovery activities

New service users are usually seen weekly to assist with engagement with the service and to help formulate care plans. The frequency of contact may extend over time depending on the service user's needs, the nature of their illness and other factors such as work and studies.
We are required by the Care Quality Commission (CQC) to maintain a record of health care checks made by GP's of mentally ill patients on their register.
Mentally ill people have increased morbidity and mortality compared with the general population. Many of them have unhealthy lifestyles resulting in poor physical health and increased mortality due to common life-threatening conditions and physical ill health. Risk factors, particularly Cardiovascular Disease, Chronic Obstructive Pulmonary Disease and diabetes should be identified and managed according to the relevant guidance through primary care settings.

Simon was well kempt, he was initially polite in that he called me 'miss', he remained seated for the interview. Quite intense eye contact. Spoke of several different folders that he has created in order to plan his festivals and events, told me that he has set up a charity which he intends to use to help people by benefiting beneficiaries of the UK. He has applied for lottery funding and intends to appoint 6 directors. I found it very hard to understand the activities of his charity, but it seemed to involve an online noticeboard where advertising space could be sold. Simon spoke about arranging for the red arrows to attend a future festival, has downloaded their website and made a folder for this. Simon struggled to stay on topic and had to be prompted several times back to the initial question. I explained the tribunal process to Simon and told him that I would be presenting the view of the team which is that we felt he is currently mentally unwell and would benefit from further time in hospital and treatment with antipsychotic medication. I told him that I thought he was overly preoccupied with his court cases and police conspiracies, and that his business plans were difficult to understand and seemed a little far reaching and unrealistic. I told him that we felt that the extent to which he is preoccupied with this was a symptom of mental illness I asked Simon to have a think about what he would want to do should the section be ended on Friday, as he has at times said he might stay informally. Simon reported feeling quite happy, sleeping well, eating well, happy to be sharing his plans with us and working on his businesses. Denied any abnormal perceptions or unusual experiences. Does not feel that he has a mental illness. After the meeting, I returned to Simon to let him know about the procedure regarding him reading the reports prior to the tribunal (which he has a right to do). Mental health act office confirmed that they will provide him with the reports likely on Thursday afternoon or Friday morning. Simon was holding the phone near his ear at this point, asked me to tell him my name (which he already knows) apparently for the benefit of the phone. I asked Simon if he was recording, it turned out someone was on the phone. Simon told me that he would like me to tell his representative (turned out to be partner, Katie) why I was detaining him in hospital. The encounter felt very confrontational, I told Simon that it was not appropriate for me to discuss his case with unknown others on the telephone and she is welcome to attend any future meetings if he would like. I ended the conversation at that point. Simon continued stand very close to me whilst I was unlocking the office door, and continued to hold the phone towards me, demanding that I say my name and explain why I thought he was ill (I showed him my badge and confirmed who I was) and he was quite intimidating in this respect."

Mr. Simon Cordell 109 Burncroft Ave Enfield Middlesex EN3 7JQ 24/11/2016
Re: Formal Complaint due to letter dated 29/11/2016 this Formal Complaint is to be added to the Formal Complaint dated 24/08/2016.
Dear Lemmy Nwabuisi and any other person who is copied in this letter.
I am writing this letter on behalf of Mr. Simon Cordell of 109 Burncroft Ave, EN3 7JQ regarding the letter you wrote dated the 29/11/2016 which was received on the 01/12/2016.
I am not sure if you are aware there is an ongoing formal complaint that is being addressed by Mr. Daniel Ellis from Complaints & Access to Information Team which addresses some of the information you have included into your letter, but I will be covering points in this reply and also forwarding it to the people it needs to be addressed to.
The 1st point I will address is the meeting you have set up for Mr. Simon Cordell on the 06/12/2016 at 14:00 hours at Enfield Civic Centre.
I do not believe that it is justified to hold this meeting before the formal complaint is dealt with as stated many points in your letter has been covered in my formal complaint dated 24/11/2016, also until I have the subject access request information dealt with and have a list of dates and times these so-called complaints were meant to have taken place and the reports from police that have been sent to Enfield Council, I do not think holding this meeting would be appropriate.
I have spoken to my solicitor in regards to this matter and on advice taken from him he has told me to give limited information until I have the subject access request, this is why my formal complaint did not have full information in it as my solicitor does believe we have a case to take legal action, and if any data is withheld as it was when I requested my last subject access request for all my information, I will have to take this up with the ICO.
However, it does seem there is more injustice going on within the ASB unit and Enfield Council then I had proof of before you wrote your letter dated 29/11/2016. There has been complaints put into Enfield council since 2014 about Mr. Simon Cordell's neighbours and what they were doing to him, Enfield Council and ASB unit took the option and done nothing, not even replied to my complaints, took no reports, and did not even looked at the video footage Mr. Simon Cordell has of the noise, the banging the intimidation my son has taken from his neighbours, and the way they are doing all they can to get Mr. Simon Cordell to move, the way he has been treated by Enfield Council by way of Enfield Council doing nothing to help him. You have been told many times the effect this is having on Mr. Simon Cordell's heath yet still choose to do nothing.
Yet as soon as Enfield Council gets reports against Mr. Simon Cordell you are willing to address these complaints. Once again, I will say I feel this is due to reports the police have put in to Enfield Council about Mr. Simon Cordell, Meetings that took place with the Met police and Enfield council in regards to Mr. Simon Cordell which Mr. Simon Cordell knew nothing about until after the fact, and the colour of Mr. Simon Cordell skin, why Enfield council have done nothing to address any issue Mr. Simon Cordell was having with his neighbours regarding what his neighbours was doing to him.

The Enfield Councils History
FOI Indexed

Mr. Simon Cordell has had his own place since 1999 and was housed by Enfield Council in 109 Burncroft Ave, Enfield, Middlesex, EN3 7JQ I believe in 2006 due to a fire that happened in his flat before this address, in this time Mr. Simon Cordell had no complaints put in about him until now 2016.
You have written in your letter multiple things to be addressed which Mr. Simon Cordell was meant to have done.
"Include using threatening, abusive and insulting words and language, aggressively demanding money, intimidation and making threats towards your neighbours. It is also alleged that on 4th October 2016, you banged on your ceiling and you later started to bang and kick at your neighbour's door. It is alleged that you were very aggressive and was shouting through your neighbour's door and that you then proceeded to drag his motorbike from where it was parked and started to smash it up".
At this point I will only say the above is untrue, once I have the information including all dates, times and complaints in order from my subject access request it will be at this time I will address each point of concern above.
You have also stated:
"It is also alleged that your dogs are left by themselves all day and night barking and causing noise disturbances to your neighbours".
Mr. Simon Cordell has had one dog only at his flat, when Mr. Simon Cordell was housed in 1999, he had a dog, no complaints were ever put in re Mr. Simon Cordell dog being left by herself all day and night barking and causing noise disturbances to neighbours and being neglected.
When Mr. Simon Cordell was moved into 109 Burncroft Ave, Enfield, Middlesex, EN3 7JQ I believe in 2006 he had the same dog, when she passed away in 2007, he got a new dog same bred and since 2006 there has been no complaints by neighbours of Mr. Simon Cordell leaving her alone all day and night or her barking all night and all day and him not looking after her and neglecting her, and her causing noise disturbances to his neighbours.
Mr. Simon Cordell does not leave his dog all day and night she is always looked after, if Mr. Simon Cordell is not going to be there overnight or for a long time during the day then the family look after the dog. So how someone can say she is left alone is beyond me.
Mr. Simon Cordell's dog is looked after very well she has never been left all day and all night alone, and I feel very angry any person could ever say Mr. Simon Cordell has ever mistreated and neglected his dog he is an animal lover as all our family are and we would never mistreat or neglected any animal.
Once again it seems beyond belief Mr. Simon Cordell has had his dog and no complaints has been put in by any neighbours about the way my son allegedly mistreats and neglects his dog since 2006, until now 2016.
It seems totally unbelievable my son could have his dog for so many years with not one complaint of mistreatment and neglect and now all of a sudden in 2016 my son mistreats and neglect his dog leaves her alone all day and night with the dog only now in 2016 causing noise disturbances to his neighbours. You can take that how it reads as I am so angry right now that any person could say the dog is mistreated and neglected, she is always cared for and loved and not left alone all day and night barking and making noise.

In fact, the dog that lives a few rows up barks more and makes more noise than Mr. Simon Cordell dog does its always barking and making a noise so does this mean they are going to have action taken against them? My son's dog only as a rule bark when someone comes into the building to Mr. Simon Cordell front door and this is only for a short time until the door is opened for them, there is also the fact Mr. Simon Cordell does not have many people at his flat the main people are his family, so his dog hardly barks at all.

Mr. Simon Cordell for the last 3 years does not even go out of his flat any longer due to what has been going on, he once in a while goes across to the shop but that is not often at all and only when the family cannot get what he needs as they are busy. If Mr. Simon Cordell has to go out for a meeting, he always has someone with him it has become this way due to how he has been treated by the Met police.
You have also stated:
• "Your neighbours have also alleged that you have installed a CCTV in the communal area with the camera pointing towards the main entrance to the block thereby making them to feel very uncomfortable when entering and leaving the block. Your neighbours have alleged that this is an invasion of their privacy".
I have already put an appeal in my formal complaint dated the 24/11/2016 in regard to the CCTV and I am awaiting a reply as to what information I need and how I address the appeal. I will say that the CCTV is for security, but so far has protected me due to malicious information that has been passed to people, but it was not installed for that reason but has helped in this the main reason it was installed was due to security.
But since the 14/08/2016 when the police themselves damaged the CCTV camera due to what they were doing to Mr. Simon Cordell, it has not worked. So, at this time there is no CCTV in operation in the communal area of the block the only CCTV that is operational at this time is the ones inside Mr. Simon Cordell flat itself. When Mr. Simon Cordell was on a phone call to SARAH FLETCHER on the 22/11/2016 she did say if the CCTV camera was facing Mr. Simon Cordell's front door there would be no problem with that this is at this time being acted on.
It also seems that this complaint has come in very late as if any neighbours felt that this was an invasion of their privacy why was this not acted on in 2013 when it was installed? Why has it taken them until 2016 to say they feel this is an invasion of their privacy?
In fact, I feel it has protected Mr. Simon Cordell's neighbours there has been crime in the area and many break ins within the housing estate where everyone lives, yet not one person has been effected in the block Mr. Simon Cordell lives in by crime and I believe this is due to the CCTV being there, and if anything happened to any of the neighbours in the block the police could obtain a copy. The CCTV camera does not show any neighbours living in the block, front doors or windows. And only showed part of the ground floor communal area leading up to Mr. Simon Cordell's own front door.

It also makes us feel the only reason that the neighbours have now said about the CCTV is due to what they are trying to say about Mr. Simon Cordell in these complaints, I feel that at this time the CCTV is the thing that protected Mr. Simon Cordell against what the neighbours have alleged, why else would it have taken them over 3 years to say they now felt it was an invasion of their privacy?
As said in my formal complaint the police don't like Mr. Simon Cordell and this has been for many years when the police go to Mr. Simon Cordell flat, he feels safer that the CCTV is there as it shows what the police are doing to Mr. Simon Cordell so makes him feel safer, has the police put a report in about the CCTV camera also?
As stated, these allegations are very serious and I would like them addressed as soon as possible but until I have the information, I have asked for so know what dates and times these complaints were put in I feel that Enfield council is only taking one side to this and that is the neighbours, as since 2014 all my calls and emails and letter about my complaints re the neighbours Enfield Council has done nothing to help me or Mr. Simon Cordell address this.
Mr. Simon Cordell feels he has no option left to him but to move away from his home due to what has been ongoing for a long time with no one addressing it. He feels that is the only way he will feel safe again from what the neighbours are doing to him, yet Enfield Council have said they will do nothing about this to help him and while this is ongoing it is affecting his heath more and more.

Mr. Daniel Ellis has said that my formal complaint should be addressed by the 14/12/2016 but is trying to compete this sooner, he has been told that no one within Enfield Council is addressing moving Mr. Simon Cordell to a new address and this needs acting on as soon as possible as what is going on cannot be left with nothing being done as this is making Mr. Simon Cordell's life hell living in fear, and so far I believe no one within Enfield Council is addressing moving Mr. Simon Cordell to a new place, this is unacceptable by any means for Enfield Council not to be addressing this issue, I have made many calls and not one person has called me back to gather information or give me an update if anything is being done about addressing a move for Mr. Cordell, so from what I can see once again Enfield Council is not acting in an appropriate manner.
I also believe when I get the information from the subject access request which can take up to 40 days this will incur more issues and I believe there will be data that needs to be corrected which Enfield Council holds on Mr. Simon Cordell, as under the data protection act data which is held has to be 100% accurate, I also believe it will help to clear up much information that you have included in your letter.
I have also asked that any letters sent to Mr. Simon Cordell are also sent to Miss Lorraine Cordell this was included in my email with the attached letters dated 24/11/2016 this has not been done with your letter why?

I would be most grateful if you could reply to this letter also including myself Miss Lorraine Cordell this can be done via my email lorraine32@bluevonder.co.uk or my address which is included in the letters dated 24/11/2016.

RECOMMENDATION
I met with Simon today on the ward and assessed him in preparation of the report. Simon recognised me immediately. He was warm, welcoming, polite, and co-operative throughout the meeting. He stated about half a dozen times that he is willing to work with the services and also willing to accept medication. It would be helpful if Simon will agree to stay in hospital to continue treatment as he appeared to have made good progress since admission. As part of the medical and nursing team I believe that Simon will benefit from staying in hospital for further assessment and continue treatment. GOODIE ADAMA Locum CMHN Early Intervention for Psychosis SIMON CORDELL

  TRIBUNAL + PLAN
  Simons MHA Tribunal went ahead this morning - the panel decided not to uphold the Section 2; therefore, Simon is now an informal patient. The judge made it clear to Simon that although they were discharging the section, they felt that he needed to work with the medical team and the nurses, and that they felt he needed support. Simon has agreed to remain in hospital informally so that we can continue to assess him and monitor his progress with medication, his time off the ward can be negotiated with nursing staff, we would recommend that this is escorted on the first instance then if goes well can be unescorted. Simon has also agreed to take his medication as prescribed (5mg olanzapine nocte, 1mg lorazepam nocte). he presents as calm and amenable, willing to work with health professionals, denying thoughts to harm self and others. If Simon were to change his mind and decide to leave over the weekend, it would not be appropriate to detain him under 5(2) unless his presentation and risks changed. If Simon wishes to leave hospital and his presentation is unchanged, we recommend that Simon be discharged with the HTT for follow up/monitoring/supervision with medication.

He lives alone in a one-bedroom flat. His mother is supportive and attended the hearing. Mr. Cordell had a troubled adolescence with periods spent in care and was homeless for a while. Mr. Cordell is not currently in paid employment, but he has ambitious plans to set up a company and a charitable organisation. He has a conviction for setting up illegal raves and is currently subject to an ASBO. 24/11/2014 He has been known to psychiatric services since 2014 and has undergone a number of assessments of his mental health but these have found that he was not detainable. He was discharged by services after non engagement in February 2016. He has expressed persecutory beliefs about a neighbour, the police and, at times, his mother. In the context of these beliefs, he has put CCTV cameras outside his flat and it appears that a neighbour was rehoused after a disagreement with him, but the exact circumstances were not clear. He has misused substances in the past. 24/11/2015 The factual details of the circumstances of the admission were not clear from the reports and the clinical team were not able to tell us whether or not he is on bail. It was Mr. Cordell who furnished us with a notice from the police that he is on bail for an offence of threats to kill. He is not due to be interviewed until October. It is unclear who the alleged victim of the complaint is. He is adamant that he is not guilty of this charge. Further, the report from the care co-ordinator stated it was his mother who called the police, but this was adamantly denied by Ms. Cordell. The care co-ordinator corrected his report to clarify that Mr. Cordell is not awaiting trial for burglary. 24/11/2016 Mr. Cordell thinks he was arrested and taken to the police station because of concerns expressed about the loud music he was playing. He was seen in custody and admitted to hospital. / 2 / 2. He has been in hospital since 16/08/2016. 3. He was assessed in the absence of medication and was prescribed medication on 19/08/2016 but refused it until 23-8-16. He has been compliant since that time. He wanted to research the side effects of the medication. Mr. Cordell is concerned that procedures are followed correctly. Issues and submissions 4. He requested immediate discharge from section. He would stay voluntarily and he is happy to continue with treatment and to see the team in the community. He does not accept a diagnosis of mental disorder but has stated that he will take treatment on the advice of the team. His mother thought that he has reacted to stress in the past and that he has been working very hard on his project. 5. The clinical team were not unanimous in their view. DR. Mills suggested that there had been a possibility that DR. CRANITCH, RC, had considered discharging him prior to the tribunal but on balance had decided not to. DR. Mills, having spoken to the RC, was of the view that detention was warranted given the degree of the disorder which is in their view a first episode psychosis. Mr. Ahmed, a staff nurse on the ward, was of the view that it was the nature of the disorder that warranted detention. The care co-ordinator, Mr. Adama, was of the view that the section should be discharged as Mr. Cordell had been adamant that he would engage with services. DR. Mills and Mr. Ahmed were concerned about his insight and the risk of non-compliance and deterioration. Tribunal's conclusions with reasons 6. The tribunal is satisfied that Mr. Cordell is suffering from a mental disorder. This is consistent with the signs and symptoms he has displayed which include a preoccupation with a business plan which is so ambitious and far reaching that it can be described as grandiose thinking. He has been working unceasingly on these plans and is in all likelihood suffering from a stress reaction. He has very limited insight. Over a period of two years Mr. Cordell has expressed beliefs about police and neighbours which may have some factual basis but in all likelihood are overvalued. 7. The tribunal is not satisfied that the nature of the disorder warrants detention. Mr. Cordell has never accepted treatment. We were unable to find that the signs or symptoms have responded to treatment or that they had deteriorated in the absence of treatment. Any problems that he has had with neighbours and his beliefs about persecution at the hands of the police appear to be longstanding. Despite these beliefs he has lived in the same place for 11 years. He has convictions but these do not relate to violence and are in connection with driving offences as a youth and with organising an illegal rave. He has been assessed before and not been found to be detainable. 8. The tribunal is not satisfied that the degree of the disorder warrants detention. He was thought disordered on admission, but these symptoms have settled. He poses no management problems. He is compliant with treatment and he gets on well with staff and patients. He was angry with his mother, but she is visiting and supports his discharge. He may not accept that he has a mental disorder but states that he is willing to engage with the assessment. He has stated that if the procedures are carried out properly, he will abide by them. We accepted his evidence. 9. The tribunal's decision on the first limb of the act meant that we were not bound to consider the risks other than as to how they related to the current degree of the disorder. We are satisfied that it is at least likely that he will continue to comply with treatment either as a voluntary patient or in the community. In any event he has never accepted treatment in the past and until recently has found not to be detainable. It was not clear that there had been a deterioration. He is on bail, but the police are not due to interview him until October 2016. We had his forensic history. We were not informed that he has any history of physical violence. / 3 / 13. We did not use our discretionary grounds for discharge. Judge Susan Rees Date 26/08/2016. Notice A person seeking permission to appeal must make a written application to the tribunal for permission to appeal. An application for permission must: 10. identify the decision of the tribunal to which it relates. 11. identify the alleged error or errors of law in the decision; and 12. state the result the party making the application is seeking. An application for permission must be sent or delivered to the tribunal so that it is received no later than 28 days after the latest of the dates that the tribunal sends to the person making the application: A. written reasons for the decision. B. notification of amended reasons for, or correction of, the decision following a review; or C. notification that an application for the decision to be set aside has been unsuccessful. (Note: This date only applies if the application for the decision to be set aside was made within the initial 28-day time limit, or any extension of that time previously granted by the tribunal.) If the person seeking permission to appeal sends or delivers the application to the tribunal later than the time required, then: 24/11/2017 the application must include a request that the tribunal extends the time limit under Rule 5(3)(a), and give the reason(s) why the application was not provided in time; and 24/11/2018 unless the tribunal extends time for the application to be made, a late application cannot be admitted. / 4 /"

Mr. Ahmed, a staff nurse on the ward, was of the view that it was the nature of the disorder that warranted detention. The care co-ordinator, Mr. Adama, was of the view that the section should be discharged as Mr. Cordell had been adamant that he would engage with services. DR. Mills and Mr. Ahmed were concerned about his insight and the risk of non-compliance and deterioration.

Tribunal's conclusions with reasons

6. The tribunal is satisfied that Mr. Cordell is suffering from a mental disorder. This is consistent with the signs and symptoms he has displayed which include a preoccupation with a business plan which is so ambitious and far reaching that it can be described as grandiose thinking. He has been working unceasingly on these plans and is in all likelihood suffering from a stress reaction. He has very limited insight. Over a period of two years Mr. Cordell has expressed beliefs about police and neighbours which may have some factual basis but in all likelihood are overvalued.

7. The tribunal is not satisfied that the nature of the disorder warrants detention. Mr. Cordell has never accepted treatment. We were unable to find that the signs or symptoms have responded to treatment or that they had deteriorated in the absence of treatment. Any problems that he has had with neighbours and his beliefs about persecution at the hands of the police appear to be longstanding. Despite these beliefs he has lived in the same place for 11 years. He has convictions but these do not relate to violence and are in connection with driving offences as a youth and with organising an illegal rave. He has been assessed before and not been found to be detainable.

8. The tribunal is not satisfied that the degree of the disorder warrants detention. He was thought disordered on admission, but these symptoms have settled. He poses no management problems. He is compliant with treatment and he gets on well with staff and patients. He was angry with his mother, but she is visiting and supports his discharge. He may not accept that he has a mental disorder but states that he is willing to engage with the assessment. He has stated that if the procedures are carried out properly, he will abide by them. We accepted his evidence.

9. The tribunal's decision on the first limb of the act meant that we were not bound to consider the risks other than as to how they related to the current degree of the disorder. We are satisfied that it is at least likely that he will continue to comply with treatment either as a voluntary patient or in the community. In any event he has never accepted treatment in the past and until recently has found not to be detainable. It was not clear that there had been a deterioration. He is on bail, but the police are not due to interview him until October 2016. We had his forensic history. We were not informed that he has any history of physical violence

13. We did not use our discretionary grounds for discharge.
Judge Susan Rees Date 26-8-16
Notice
A person seeking permission to appeal must make a written application to the tribunal for permission to appeal. An application for permission must:
10. identify the decision of the tribunal to which it relates.
11. identify the alleged error or errors of law in the decision; and
12. state the result the party making the application is seeking.
An application for permission must be sent or delivered to the tribunal so that it is received no later than 28 days after the latest of the dates that the tribunal sends to the person making the application:
- written reasons for the decision.
- notification of amended reasons for, or correction of, the decision following a review; or
- notification that an application for the decision to be set aside has been unsuccessful. (Note: This date only applies if the application for the decision to be set aside was made within the initial 28-day time limit, or any extension of that time previously granted by the tribunal.)

If the person seeking permission to appeal sends or delivers the application to the tribunal later than the time required, then:
24.11.2017 the application must include a request that the tribunal extends the time limit under Rule 5(3)(a), and give the reason(s) why the application was not provided in time; and 24.11.2018 unless the tribunal extends time for the application to be made, a late application cannot be admitted.

Simon has agreed to remain in hospital informally so that we can continue to assess him and monitor his progress with medication, his time off the ward can be negotiated with nursing staff, we would recommend that this is escorted on the first instance then if goes well can be unescorted. Simon has also agreed to take his medication as prescribed (5mg olanzapine nocte, 1mg lorazepam nocte). he presents as calm and amenable, willing to work with health professionals, denying thoughts to harm self and others. If Simon were to change his mind and decide to leave over the weekend, it would not be appropriate to detain him under 5(2) unless his presentation and risks changed. If Simon wishes to leave hospital and his presentation is unchanged, we recommend that Simon be discharged with the HTT for follow up/monitoring/supervision with medication."

  ATSP, asking to self-discharge HX and BG noted.
  Handover from ward doctor received and advised that PT is not detainable unless presentation massively changed. Simon is keen to be discharged today, he wants to visit his civil partner, take his dog out for a walk and "get back to normal". He also intends to go to AED for. CXR of his distal phalange of L small finger which he believes to be broken following an accident on the ward - slipped in the bathroom. Advised by staff that this was examined by duty doctor, and it was felt it is unlikely to be a fracture. He admits that he has benefited from his stay on the ward but feels that no further IP stay is necessary as he would feel much more comfortable at home. He initially suggested to go home today, stay overnight, and return to the ward. The plan from the day team was for PT to go out on escorted leave with staff and then gradually increase his leave and let him go out alone. He refused going out with staff due to "embarrassment" of walking with staff if he is seen by his neighbours/friends. I asked if he would be happy to be visited by HTT at home on discharge and he agreed. He confirmed he is happy to take his meds and to engage with HTT.
  He denied any suicidal thoughts or thoughts of self-harm, denied thoughts of harming others. Denied any hallucinatory experiences.
  MSE
  Looks kempt, good eye contact, rapport established Speech - normal rate, tone, volume, coherent Mood - euthymic, reactive affect Thoughts - no formal thought disorder, no thoughts of harming self/others, no delusional beliefs, forward looking Perception - denied hallucinations, not responding to unseen stimuli Risks:
  Risk of harm to self - low Risk of harm to others – low Risk of meds noncompliance and non-engagement with services- however PT confirms he will engage with HTT and take his meds and is not detainable
  Plan
  discharge with HTT follow up - NS to kindly arrange HTT referral PX 2 weeks TTA

Explained that he had been put on medication and has remained concordant whilst on the ward despite not really wanting to have medication, as he feels "I do not suffer with any mental health problems". He explained that "I will continue to take medication, but I need to speak to my DR. as I find it makes me drowsy and I'm not able to function properly". Simon informed HTT that he had attended Tribunal and was not found detainable under the MHA and was made informal so he was able to leave the ward, as he was an informal patient. He also informed the HTT that he needed to get out of hospital and continue to set up his business venture that he had been working on for several months, to which was to organise festival and venues all over the UK.

I explained although he was found to be informal, one of the recommendations from the tribunal was to continue working with the mental health service and remain concordant with his prescribed medication. I explained that this maybe for a short period of time, normally lasting up too about 7-10days. Simon was in agreement to meet with the HTT, but informed staff that he takes his medication late at night and would not be happy to take it early evening. I informed him that it was important to concord with medication and part of this care package was to monitor and supervise him taking medication. Simon continued to decline having his medication between 6pm-8pm but was happy to meet with HTT to MMS and check concordance with medication. It was agreed that ward will hand over his TTA'S for the next 3 days; ECRHTT will be able to prescribe on-going medication thereafter. Prescription chart will be up-loaded on Rio. Home visits this morning.

Simon appeared slightly elated in mood, pressured speech, However, during the visit, he was courteous and polite on approach. Preoccupied with that his psychiatric report from is not very correct.

Said that there are few paragraphs, which wrongly explain how he was detained. Said that he had been detained illegally and was placed in hospital for no reasons. He also denied making any threats to neighbours, denied any mental health problems. Said he has a CD as a prove, that the police was acting incorrectly. However, he said he is willing to work with HTT and will take medication. Simon expressed delusional thoughts about running a company at home. Second home visit this evening to supply medication - I left medication for this evening Said he is going to take it later, as he was busy at the moment.

Plan: discuss if HTT to supply all TTA'S or to supervise medication every evening.

4 NHS: VALERI KADRAS Nursing / Enfield HTT Home Visits this Morning. / Time 21:35 – "Simon appeared slightly elated in mood, pressured speech, However, during the visit, he was courteous and polite on approach. Preoccupied with that his psychiatric report from 25/8/16 is not very correct. Said that there are few paragraphs, which wrongly explained how he was detained. Said that he had been detained illegally and was placed in hospital for no reasons. He also denied making any threats to neighbours, denied any mental health problems. Said he has a CD as a prove, that the police was acting incorrectly. However, he said he is willing to work with HTT and will take medication. Simon expressed delusional thoughts about running a company at home. Second home visit this evening to supply medication - I left medication for this evening Said he is going to take it later, as he was busy at the moment. Plan: discuss if HTT to supply all TTA's or to supervise medication every evening."

Flat – 113 – George Quinton had Moved in & started to try and take my life away from me while hurting me with the other neighbours!
Stain Curtis (responsible) Mathiyalagan (Responsible)
All Morning: --
Mid-Day: --
In the Evening and of the Night!

The occupiers of Address 111 – 117 otherwise kenned as the tenants of Burncroft Avenue kept damaged my work studies by their temerarious actions towards me by banging on the floors and utilizing the taps in a tortures manner to dismay me!
The Enfield Homes and the Enfield Council staff aloud the past occupier of 113 Burncroft Avenue to assault me and now so does the new tenant George, even low I am kind and respectful towards him 117 and 111 Continued to victimizing me with 117 Continually, repeating to flushing the toilet when I went into the bathroom, so to be sick in my toilet because they make me ill by the already named keep on victimizing me with intent of using the same repeated items of the building fixtures to have tortures effects on me within my rented home is unfair living circumstances!
117 - 117 - Slamming their own living room, door closed!
117 - 113 - Slamming their own bedroom, door closed!
111 - Banging on the kitchen wall!
Whenever I contact the complaints departments, they made my issues of concern invisible!
A Drastic turn around in the decision that the Enfield council and the Enfield Homes came to since the start of the announcement when I put them into receipt of my Disrepair issues needs to get addressed and then fixed needs to get reanalysed, so in an effect I do not suffer any longer!

Summary!

My Heart has really started to hurt me every day, I am having an early aged mild heart attacks because of what Debra Andrews and the Mathiyalagan Markandu family as well as stain Curtis and George Quinton get and got away with, inclusively of what the police and local council members are getting away with each day by holding me hostage with no first hand witness and then on allowing my estate members to carry out their hate crime in a cover up to send me crazy or to an early death by flushing the toilet below me and bagging at me causing me sufferings and no peace also letting the named attack me when I am in the bathtub and getting undressed and this does not stop their I continue to get assaulted with the water taps getting slammed on and off causing a loud bagging sound at a fast rate and slamming object and or jumping on the floorboards above my head damaging my work studies and private family life and making me a Vulnerable person!
I have also had a lot of problems with eating because of what they keep all doing to me!
My dog has eaten its paws because of what the old tent of 113 and now the new tent of 113 and also that of the tents in the addresses of 117 and 111 are getting away with I have taken pictures of the damage this is doing to us in this flat!

t/c I spoke with Simon. It was just to get an update on how he was getting on with HTT. Simon spoke about the Tribunal and appeared upset about the reports. Particularly he was not happy that it has been documented that he threatened his neighbour and also that it was his mother who called the Police. He said he was angry with his mother and will never talk to her. There was no malice intended while he went on about what doctors, nurses and his mother did, are doing and will continue to do. Simon spoke on lots of topics - going from one issue to the other without finishing off the previous; had flight of ideas and speech was pressured. These appear to be normal to him.

Particulars of 31 alleged Breaches

Page 3272	(4) Sometime in September 2016 it is alleged that you confronted an elderly neighbour outside your block of flats, 109-119 Burncroft Avenue as he was going to the local park with another resident and started to shout abuse and threats at him and said to him 'I can get you over at the park, I know you go for a walk'.	1. Particulars of Breaches (4) Reply: 2. Particulars of Breaches (4) Reply: I never got arrested for Stain, but I did get arrested for Christine 95 Burncroft Avenue and Carron 99 Burncroft Avenue who were Stains mates who both lived in the block of flats next to mine in separate flats. While there made up case was going on Christine phoned the Enfield Civic Centre on the 31st October 2016 and reported an incident for the 06th August 2016, so, Lemmy went and created stains council history as he was dealing with George's bike case 113 Burncroft Avenue Above me that started on the 04th October 2016. That's why Stains council history starts with the 05th October adding Georges History he then goes to Debra's history the original 113 Burncroft Avenue tenant and adds that from 2015 and then goes to the 06th August 2016 what is before George's bike and should be imputed as so into the computer system and Debra's should be first. The reason the 06th August was put in was because Christine Phoned up on the 31s October 2016 just before she lost hers and Carrons Case on the 17th November 2016 because she wanted to cover everything up that she and those had done to me already illegally.

M.
11th November 2016
my former colleague, SARAH FLETCHER interviewed an elderly resident who wished to remain anonymous. He said that the Defendant approached him as he came out of his flat and started to shout abuse, swear at him and threatened to burn down the elderly neighbour's flat. The report continued that sometime around mid-September 2016. one of the Defendant's neighbours reported that the Defendant confronted him outside his block as he was going to the local park and started to shout abuse and threats at him and said to him "I can get you over at the park, I know you go for a walk". This incident-led to his arrest and to the matter being referred. to the Magistrates· Court.
A file note of the report is exhibited on page 31of the exhibit bundle LN1.

  Saw Simon this evening. He welcomed me into the living room. He was polite, spoke a great deal about his problems with the police and was generally talkative, then apologised for talking too much. He was kempt and dressed appropriately for the weather wearing a tracksuit. He said that he was doing ok, that he is taking his medication, however felt that he was not suffering for any kind of mental illness. I left him his medication as he said he was preparing a meal and once he had finished, he would take his medication.

SALLY GILCHRIST: Hello is this SALLY GILCHRIST.
Simon: It is Simon Mr. Simon Cordell I am glad that I got through to you.
SALLY GILCHRIST: HE DEAD
Simon: I am glad I got through to you.
Sally I am quite concerned about the position that you have left me in as the legal director executive director of your "skill" solicitor firm.
I hope that you just take 5 minutes to go through this with me because I hope and I think me and you are the only two that are going to resolve these problems otherwise I'm about to go public Sally yeah with everything Sally with what you have done to me and I have recorded loads of conversations of you, for the last few years of this case going on Sally I've got the laws in front of me now are you with me, Sally.
SALLY GILCHRIST: Yes, I am listening.
Simon: Are got the laws right in front of me and it says that an ASBO cannot be granted.
SALLY GILCHRIST: I cannot advise you.
Simon: I'm not asking you to advise me Sally I'm telling you right now yeah the reason that these police officers are in trouble yes is because Steve ELSMORE was told to go into the police computers and to create a case he has used other police officers report statements and he has amended them and open them up and he legally is not allowed to do this open them cases files and then edit them, the criminal standards have not been met if the whole case relies solely on Hearsay all of The Witness statements are not signed by Witnesses themselves they signed by the police officers and they should all be signed and for that reason if a member of the public refuses to sign something yeah then what should happen Sally.
Simon: Hello Sally, what should actually happened Sally Is it must go into the police computer as an MG6 which is Undisclosed information the police should not be filling out the forms on mg11 please witness statements and then using them as a witness statement and then adding their own personal witness statements this is confusing, I have the laws in front of me and it says that at High bury Corner.
SALLY GILCHRIST: This is the same conversation we keep having.
Simon: No sorry it is not the same conversation that we keep having because you keep avoiding the conversation. Sally It is you that keeps avoiding the conversation and situation because you signed for all the expenses on this case and you understand the corruption inside of the Anti-Social Behaviour Order and when you have been told at the earliest opportunities so for you to do something about it, you have not taken them opportunities.
SALLY GILCHRIST: This is the same conversation that we keep having.
Simon: No, it is not. No Sally you keep signing all the expenses to this case and you know that your job is at the end of it Sally yeah.
SALLY GILCHRIST: The matter is at an end.
Simon: No, the matter is not at an end because I still want it to go back to court and I have still not had a fair appeal since the start of the case from 2014 with a solicitor present that I have been allowed to have.
I am bringing this case back to court Sally and I have been on the phone to the court Sally and the courts have agreed that the case can go back through the courts again sally.
SALLY GILCHRIST: Well, OK, well I will wait to hear from u soon.
Simon: What you are doing is illegal Sally.
It to protect your job and yourself and you are not caring about the police officers at the other end and you're not caring about me or my other members on my housing estate in all of them forms fabricated then you are saying that if the conspiracy that I'm saying is true then it would be so big on the Metropolitan Police forces side that it just can't be true; well I am correct because none of the paperwork has any signatures, meaning that there aren't no members of the public signatures at the bottom of the paperwork in the folder and you need members of the public to bring an ASBO case against me.

Sally you are holding me for 8 years and the maximum; seven years sorry, and the maximum sentence is 6 months in prison two three years.
SALLY GILCHRIST: You are getting confused between criminal and civil law.
Simon: No but you called it an illegal offence.
SALLY GILCHRIST: There is no point in going over this again.
Simon: Yeah, but you, have called it an illegal offence and I have not been arrested.
Sally you called it the organisation of illegal raves illegal being the keyword.
SALLY GILCHRIST: I do not want to have this conversation.
Simon: That is what this case is the organisation of illegal raves and I have never been arrested for something that is illegal Sally you are the executive director of this country and you are looking after us.
SALLY GILCHRIST: I do not know why you keep ringing me up.
Simon: Because you are ruining my life and damaging my reputation on my Estate I cannot work with no other borough because you lot all fraudulently fabricated a load of paperwork and you put it through the courts, and I am the person that got accused.
Yeah but you're been you're all been you're altogether you all under the same salary and they're all trying to save your job Sally and you're ruining all these coppers careers and you're going to ruin my life as well Sally because you signed the expenses on this case and it has come up to a; bloody lot of money Sally you are taking the Mickey out of all of us, me and my neighbours are suffering because you used fraudulent evidence over one person being kept up overnight on 1 night.
I have got every Face book folder of all the evidence that I'm being accused of Sally and I've not handed them to you, yeah because I'm not a super grass, but I'm going to end up put them all online Sally, because I copied all the six events that I'm being accused of as they weren't me; so I went to Face book and I copied the whole Face book profiles that I got accused of in 2014 when you supposedly served me.
I showed that Ross phone up grass when you get on the phone to me, I showed that Ross phone that Ross when you get off the phone to me the barrister that you had, I showed him in the courtroom Sally I said look here is the folder of Chris Lurch's Face book proving that it is not me, but I am not giving it to you.
I have not got the time for this.
Sally, no you must have the time for it yeah, because you are holding me hostage Sally, you must have time Sally, you are holding me hostage.
You are dead.
Sorry.
I am recording this conversation right now again like I have already recorded you loads of times.
Ok.
I just heard you say to me that I am dead yeah, I am not dead Sally yeah what you are doing is against the law Sally.
I did not say that.
It is clear.
I did not say that.
OK well I hope you did not because I am going to play back in a second to myself and confirm.
Yeah, do that.

you're going to make this go public and you're going to cause a riot in London yeah and it says on then pages just under inspector Skinner's pages that it was white people that Commit this offence I am mixed race Sally how could I have done that and then gone outside the gates hours later you arrested Antony Harris in that building and Anthony Harris was on bail conditions at that time in the building for Andrew Rio's death.
He had got plastered all over the news; inspector Skinner caught him in that building he had him hostage it says it in the paper you arrested him at 10 o'clock then I turn up outside the gates that are surrounded and protected at 3 o'clock in the morning, yeah, then he dearest-ed Anthony Harris while he is on bail conditions and he arrested me outside of the gates Sally and set me up for it.
Another event; Sergeant Adrian combs landed in a helicopter, I spoke to Sergeant Adrian combs on the phone yeah, he age is an inspector for Essex police station and he owns; big boss limited, which represents all the festivals in London, his the big boss for all of the festivals and he says that he hates corrupt coppers and what you have done is corrupt to me, because he was the one going to Chris lurches house and yeah and he was the one doing all the searches talking to Chris he told Chris not to throw the event and Chris went to Essex and through the events I've got the newspaper articles of Sergeant Adrian combs landing in the helicopter in the field and taking pictures of them all with reporters and he then served them all an abatement notice and told them to get out of Essex; you're not allowed in there for 24 hours.
Sergeant Adrian combs has sent us the evidence of this and that he also sent the Metropolitan Police the evidence of this and then somehow my pictures have been put in place for this event now and so I have been accused of throwing this party.
Right, I have got to go Mr. Cordell I have other things to do I have got to go right now.
No Sally this is the law.
I have got to go I have got to go I have got to go I have got to go.
Sally no Sally no you are ruining my life because you want to keep your job you are wrong Sally.
You are wrong sorry you are wrong.
I got to go I got to go I got to go.
So, what are you going to do you are not going to help me you are doing the right thing then sally?
End of call phone hand.

1. Preamble

1.1 I am preparing this report for Simon Cordell's Mental Health Act Tribunal in my function as the ST4 doctor working at the Haringey Assessment Ward under the supervision of DR. CRANITCH (Consultant Psychiatrist in General Adult Psychiatry). I am a full member of the Royal College of Psychiatrists since 2015.

1.2 This report has been prepared for the Mental Health Tribunal hearing-w 26th August 2016. In preparing this report I have had access to Mr. Cordell's electronic patient record or RIO, and I have had personal knowledge of Mr. Cordell since 22nd August 2016.

2. History of Presenting circumstances

2.1 5/8/16 Mr. Cordell was arrested by police at his home after allegations that he had made threats to harm his neighbour and her children. The forensic medical examiner requested a mental health act assessment due to concerns about Mr. Cordell's mental state.

2.2 Assessing doctors felt that Mr. Cordell presented with features suggestive of mental illness, in particular paranoid persecutory ideas about the police and his mother Collateral history suggested deterioration in Mr. Cordell's mental state: that he has been withdrawn and expressed beliefs that the television is talking about him and paranoid ideas about his mother alongside recreational use of 'laughing gas' Neighbours had reported verbal aggression, playing loud music. Mr. Cordell presented with pressure of speech, angry and paranoid ideas about the police and the assessing doctors felt that Mr. Cordell had impaired insight about his condition and required further assessment in hospital.

3. Mental State Examination on admission

3.1 Appearance and Behaviour: medium height, slim mixed-race gentleman. Slightly dishevelled, dressed in black tracksuit, noted to be missing several teeth. Initially good rapport but became quite irritable at times
Speech: Fast rate, pressured speech. Tangential.
Mood: subjectively Tm really good', objectively appears elevated Thoughts: no formal thought disorder. Denied thoughts to harm him or others.
Perceptions: denied hallucinations
Insight: limited. Aware of reasons for admission but does not agree that he may have a mental illness"

3.2 "Simon stated that he has been very busy setting up his company recently. Spoke about working very hard and spending years 'studying'. He spoke in grandiose terms, describing his company as managing mental health services and working in the entertainment industry. He spoke about buying speakers for £50,000 each and hiring out equipment to Glastonbury and Isle of Wight festivals. Simon stated that he owns a 'city' and it is his job to understand the various roles that people have in society so that he can 'look after people'. When asked how he was able to fund these projects he described a system of fundraising using 'charity bars' and websites".

4. Physical Examination on admission

Jarvis of Enfield Triage Team after a referral by GP with a history of 9 months of anxiety symptoms which were exacerbated by an upcoming court date. Diagnosed as Adjustment reaction. DR. Jarvis suggested IAPT, gave option of sertraline, crisis plan, and contacts given

5.3 19/11/14 Mr. Cordell was referred to the home treatment team due to concerns about his mental state, |had become paranoid about his mother. 6.2 Mr. Cordell currently has an injury to his left 5th finger which is under review by ward doctors.

7. Medication prior to admission

7.1 None

8. Family History

8.1 Mr. Cordell's maternal grandmother suffered from a mental illness, most likely schizophrenia, for which she received clozapine treatment and had admissions to hospital.

9. Personal History

9.1 Mr. Cordell was born at North Middlesex University Hospital. He has a younger brother and sister. Mr. Cordell's father worked as a union representative and his mother ran her own computer company.

9.2 Mr. Cordell says he did not get on well with his father who was a violent man. He was violent towards Mr. Cordell, Mr. Cordell's mother, and siblings. Mr. Cordell left home at the age of fifteen and was homeless for a while. He was placed in to care after stealing a pint of milk. He was placed in a series of children's care homes around the UK but says that each time he would steal a car and drive back to London.

9.3 Mr. Cordell said he was pushed hard to achieve at school by his father and that he was "an A-star student" for most of the time. He says he was intelligent and would do the work at other times and as a result would often just "mess about" in class. He went on to college and studied engine mechanics, completing a city & guilds qualification. After leaving school he went on to get jobs in the construction industry.

9.4 Mr. Cordell says he has tried to build himself up a business for providing party entertainment, he is also setting up a charity. At the moment he says he is not able to earn from this due to the restrictions of his bail.

10.2 2015 Received a 5-year ASBO for organising illegal raves- not allowed to enter industrial or disused premises between 10pm and 7 am.

10.3 Mr. Cordell has stated that he is currently on bail for making threats to harm his neighbours; he has a court date relating to this on 8"[1] October 2016.

11. Drug and Alcohol History

11.1 Documented on RIO notes in December 2015 to have been using cannabis 'skunk' on a daily basis at that time.

11.2 Admitted to A+E in 2012 for assessment after allegedly using LSD and drinking a bottle of rum at a festival.

11.3 Mr. Cordell reports that he has not taken any illicit substances recently, has used cannabis occasionally in the past 'recreationally.' Mr. Cordell denies alcohol consumption or any drug use recently.

11.4 Unfortunately, I have been unable to find record of a urine drug screen since admission to hospital.

12. Social History

12.1 Mr. Cordell lives alone in a 1-bedroom flat which he says he owns outright. Ms. Cordell lives nearby and provides support to Mr. Cordell. There are also siblings and other extended family that live in the local area.

13. Progress on the ward

13.1 15/8/16 Upon admission to Haringey assessment ward, Mr. Cordell was clerked in by the SHO, who documented that Mr. Cordell presented as irritable, with pressured speech, tangential thought patterns, appeared elated and spoke of several projects of a grandiose nature including his business in the entertainment industry, buying speakers for £50,000 and hiring them to Glastonbury. Mr. Cordell described owning a 'city' and that it is 'his job to understand the various roles people have in society so that he can look after people.

13.2 16/8/16 Mr. Cordell refused routine blood tests, physical exam, and ECG on the ground that he treats his body like a temple. Mr. Cordell was documented as appearing settled and calm on the ward, eating and drinking well.

13.3 17/8/16 72-hour CPA review - Mr. Cordell presented with rapid speech, often talking about unrelated themes, and stated he felt he was being persecuted. Mr. Cordell became irate shouting at his mother, angry that she has not appealed his section. Mr. Cordell presented with paranoid persecutory and grandiose delusions with tangential thought pattern, no insight into mental health. It was agreed by the team to commence regular 1mg lorazepam bd.

13.4 18/8/16 little change in presentation, generally calm on the ward however quick to become agitated during interaction with staff, can be unpredictable. Refused prescribed lorazepam. Consented to physical exam, bloods, and ECG by SHO who also reviewed injury to 5^{iri} finger.

13.5 19/8/16 Presented as fairly settled and calm in mood, continued to refuse medication as prescribed. Discussed this with DR. Humphries and agreed to take night-time dose of lorazepam, which he subsequently did with lots of reassurance from staff.

13.6 20/8/18 Presented as calm in mood, polite and appropriate with peers, spent the day playing music on laptop with peers. Ate and drank well, attended to personal care.

13.7 21/8/16 Calm, slept well, accepted lorazepam as prescribed at night, however, refused olanzapine 5mg. Further discussion with nursing staff to explore his feelings about this, however Mr. Cordell told staff that he had been recording the interaction on his phone and taking pictures. Complained of painful finger, accepted PRN ibuprofen.

13.8 13 8.22/8/16 Nursing notes describe Mr. Cordell as quite settled however remains consumed with same preoccupations which he relates with pressured, uninterruptible speech, preoccupied with proving that he was wrongfully admitted to hospital. Otherwise interacting with peers appropriately, accepted 1mg lorazepam as prescribed, refused olanzapine.

13.9 23/8/16 Consultant review by DR. CRANITCH and MDT, during the interview Mr. Cordell spoke with pressure of speech, in an over inclusive and tangential fashion, largely preoccupied with injustices in the past particularly by the police which made it difficult for him to focus on the present. He also expressed rather grandiose plans about his business and his ability to help others in the world. Mr. Cordell denied any thoughts or threats to harm others and stated that he did not feel he was mentally unwell at present. Mr. Cordell however agreed to trial a small dose of olanzapine 5mg at night as recommended by DR. CRANITCH for psychotic symptoms.

13.10 24/8/16 Mr. Cordell has accepted his prescribed medication overnight and slept well.

14. Current Medication

14.1 Lorazepam 1mg nocte

14.2 Olanzapine 5mg nocte

15. Most Recent Mental State Examination (04/08/16)

15.1 Appearance and Behaviour –

Well kempt and casually dressed slim gentleman in his early thirties Staring eye contact, remained seated throughout the interview.

15.2 Speech –

Fast pace and very difficult to interrupt, normal volume and tone.

15.3 Mood –

Subjectively 'happy,' objectively appears quite irritable, reports sleeping well, good appetite, positive plans for the future, no plans, or thoughts to harm self or others.

15.4 Thought –
Evidence of tangentiality, struggled to stay on topic without repeated prompting. Overinclusive, spoke at length about minutiae of legal aspects of organising a festival, grandiose plans to help others across the country which were difficult to follow. Denied worries about the police, more focussed on health professionals and legal aspects of his admission to hospital and alleged wrongdoings

15.5 Perception –
No evidence of responding to abnormal perceptions, denied same.

15.6 Cognition –
Alert and orientated to time place and person.

15.7 Insight –
Mr. Cordell feels he does not have a mental disorder.

16. Factors affecting this hearing

16.1 Mr. Cordell has made recordings of assessments and other interactions with health professionals and police in the past and refers to this frequently. Mr. Cordell has attempted to make recordings of encounters with staff during his admission, there is a chance he may attempt to make recordings of tribunal proceedings.

17. Opinion and Recommendations

17.1 Mr. Cordell is currently suffering from a mental disorder:

17.2 He presents with persisting psychotic symptoms of paranoid persecutory delusions involving police and mental health services, he also presents with pressured speech, and has presented as elated and irritable, which may represent a mood disturbance Whilst Mr. Cordell has indeed had several encounters with the police and has a forensic history, it is my opinion that his interpretation and experience of these encounters goes beyond reality into beliefs of a delusional nature. These beliefs have dominated Mr. Cordell's life and his behaviour at the expense of his wellbeing and ability to function safely in the community.

17.3 In the past these persecutory ideas have also focused on family members and neighbours, one of his neighbours was also a service user and needed to be rehoused as a result of encounters with Mr. Cordell. Mr. Cordell presents with evidence of thought disorder; his speech is pressured and tangential upon interview.

17.4 His mental disorder is currently of a nature or degree to justify ongoing detention in hospital.

17.5 If he insisted on leaving the ward, we would ask our home treatment team to monitor him at home and offer him medication - historically Mr. Cordell has not engaged well with community services due to his lack of insight.

18. If Mr. Cordell is NOT discharged from his Section:

18.1 We would encourage Mr. Cordell to take antipsychotic medication, starting with a low dose and monitoring closely for response and any side effects.

18.2 We would titrate the dose antipsychotic medication according to his mental state and side effect profile.

18.3 Once regularly taking antipsychotic medication and stabilised in mental state we would start to introduce some leave from the ward initially escorted before moving to longer periods of unescorted leave.

18.4 Once deemed stable in mental state we would look at discharge to his home with home treatment team support and referral to community team.

RECOMMENDATION

I met with Simon today on the ward and assessed him in preparation of the report. Simon recognised me immediately. He was warm, welcoming, polite, and co-operative throughout the meeting. He stated about half a dozen times that he is willing to work with the services and also willing to accept medication.
It would be helpful if Simon will agree to stay in hospital to continue treatment as he appeared to have made good progress since admission. As part of the medical and nursing team I believe that Simon will benefit from staying in hospital for further assessment and continue treatment.

TIPS to make the most out of Voice Base the quality of a recording has a tremendous impact on machine transcription. A bit better quality will give a lot of better transcription results. Echoes and background noise are detrimental to machine transcription and should be minimized. Most smart phones record well if close to the people speaking. Voice Base has Android and iOS apps which record and upload to the Voice Base website. If you are interested in using Voice Base or our transcription and search engines for your own projects, please contact us regarding integration or API use.

  T/C - Simon informed me that DR. had told him he could self-medicate from now on. Dr's RIO entry did not explicitly say this although stated that he appeared stable at present, so benefit of doubt given. Simon, he said he was reluctant to take meds because he does not feel he needs it and because he has been experiencing side effects - feeling of electric shocks going through his head. He talked at length about his issues with mental health services and asked lots of questions about how things operate. Also asked me if there was anything negative written about him in his progress notes. Sounded very knowledgeable about mental health services, diagnoses, and mental health law. Eventually, he agreed to see me to be given the TTAs. Home visits this evening - was pleasant although slightly over-familiar with me - asked me personal questions such as if I am single and asked for my phone number. Speech was slightly tangential although normal rate, tone and volume, interruptible.
  TTA's delivered - 21 tablets of Olanzapine 5mg Plan

  Patient complained that the olanzapine was making him feel very tired. He appeared mentally stable in spite of his talkativeness which I later understood was his normal self. He told me that professionals have misunderstood it as a symptom of a mental illness. He was preoccupied with how he was treated during the MHA and false statements in various reports about him including police reports. He has spent significant amount of time putting things in correct perspective with both papers and audio-visual evidence. He has an advocate and he also talking to his lawyers.

Plan:
Full entry to follow.
Arrange TOC.

3 An Email from My Solicitor: Asbo / Proposed letter for Commissioner of Metropolitan Police / Time 16:01 – "Lorraine / Simon, Simon, I do not believe that it is in your best interests for me to serve the suggested amendments to the letter that I proposed sending to the Ms. SALLY GILCHRIST. The reason for this advice is similar to the advice given to you by Mr. Morris on 4th April 2016 and you decided to ignore his advice. A lot of the matters you raise I have previously advised you this can be dealt with by cross examination. Your instructions are simply that you have not organised, provided equipment, or been concerned in the organisation of illegal raves. In relation to all events with the exception of MILLMARSH LANE you dispute providing equipment or any intention to hold any events. In some you are visiting friends who are homeless and have a LAPSO notice confirming they are treating the building as their residence. The legal technicality you refer to i.e., absence of trespass does not prevent any parties from being held at the buildings in question amounting to anti-social behaviour. You are well aware of how anti-social behaviour is defined and loud music being played over two nights would satisfy this definition as it undoubtedly causes noise nuisance and distress to neighbors. Your defence to Progress Way is denying being in attendance inside the premises on any occasion and you merely dropped off keys. The question as to whether the premises were being squatted and the appropriate notice was on display to prevent trespass does not affect whether anti-social behaviour was caused. I have advised you that championing the rights of persons squatting in a building to hold a party where a couple of hundred people attend and justifying the event as not being a rave due to lack of trespass does not prevent the event from causing anti-social behaviour. Anti-social behaviour was clearly caused as a result of the Progress Way event. There is a significant risk that you will alienate the Judge if you advance the argument that anyone squatting can hold a loud party. The loud parties cause anti-social behaviour regardless of trespass / rave definition being satisfied. I ask you to reconsider whether the attached document should be served on the Respondent. This document I have copied and pasted from the amendments you made to the letter that I sent to you. The views you expressed in the letter and the requests made were your requests and legal challenges, so I have changed "we" to, "I, Simon Cordell" to reflect this. My view is that this document should not be sent but if you insist then please confirm this in writing. Type in your signature and email back to me please. Mr. Andy Locke is available for a conference on 13th September 2016 at his Chambers and following this conference a decision will be made whether to list the case for lack of disclosure or not. Please confirm your instructions on the service of the attached word document. I reiterate that I do not believe that it is in your interests to serve the document."

5 Email Me to Mother or Reverse: About my solicitor / I sent this to Josie. / Time 23:12 – "Dear Josie I do not understand why it is not in my best interests for you to serve the suggested amendments that I made in relation towards the letter you proposed sending to Ms. SALLY GILCHRIST. The reason I do not understand is: 1. Mr. Morris advice on 4th April 2016 was the same as what I had explained to yourself when the case had started dated 12th September 2014 as received on receipt by yourself and by method of email's and them emails referred to the respondent's application of an Asbo order quoting "That a case should not rely, solely, on hearsay" as mine seems to do by the police officers. 2. Most of the hearsay got reported to be third party and therefore carries less weight. 3. I want to show the true facts about the case as I am the one who is suffering because of untrue cut-and-paste facts that represent the basics of the respondent's case and that singed evidence being off fabricated police statements, as detailed in the amendments towards your letter to SALLY GILCHRIST, whom is already in receipt of such evidence but refuses to act upon such intelligence in accordance off the law and you advise me to ignore this even low I suffer. 4. I understand a lot of the matters that should get dealt with at court will be. 5. I still argue for a speedy and fair trial: and feel that when a judge asks the respondent to reply by a set date such as the 01/08/2016 as the judge HHJ PAWLAK has ordered for it to happen then it must. 6. The respondent should do so within the time duration as dated 01/09/2016 and agreed with the judge and then received with the correct response, as has not happened 7. I have been awaiting the reply since 00/02/2016 from an ongoing civil application that got dated 13th August 2014 so, to get a fair trial. 8. After waiting on the 01/09/2016 with no response I waited till the 02/09/2016 and telephoned the respondent I spoke with a lady called sally gill Hurst, she states that she has served paperwork to my solicitors at the beginning of august a month prior, after finishing our conversation I contacted my solicitor she explained to me that she was away on holiday and I must wait till she gets back on the 06th September 2016 9. I again put the phone down and called my solicitor firm's office to see if any paperwork had gotten served, I got told no. 10. On the 8th of August I spoke with my mother who explained to me that she had been in contact with my solicitor and I would receive a letter to sign to get sent to Sally Gill Hurst. 11. On me receiving this letter it raised the following concerns: -- A. The paperwork has not got served in time. B. In a preliminary hearing, so to be ready for the appeal, the judge ordered this to get achieved. C. The respondent has had another 6 months since 22/02/2016 from the start of the on goings as dated 13/08/2014 D. We are now at 08/09/2016 the appeal is on the 26/09/2016 this leads me to the concerns of once again the case being postponed, as it has already been ten times before. 12. I handed to article Six the right to a speedy and fair trial regarding some of my human rights being breached because of the on goings in the ASBO proceedings drafting clear corruption and fabricated evidence asking for the case to get investigated the correct paperwork to get served in accordance to my response. HHJ PAWLAK A. Yes, my instructions are clear, I organised non illegal raves or provide any equipment with an intention off holding an illegal rave and caused no Anti-Social behaviour on the dates sighted, and this is also to include Mill Marsh Lane with no exception. B. Yes, sometimes I visit my friends who are or were homeless. C. The legal technicality you state, I refer to i.e., absence of trespass does not prevent parties from being held in accordance off the law, may lead to a standalone anti-social behaviour order if a person commits a public order offence, to which I did not cause as I was not organizer neither did, I take part in the organisation of the party or did I commit any civil or criminal offence. D. In anyone un-regular occasion over the duration of the weekend I can an understand the noise nuisance and distress to neighbors this can cause if the allegations were to be true and not fabricated by the police as I can prove. I was not the organizer of the event. 13. The case got based on what the respondent based it upon and in my case, this is the organisation of illegal raves not the organisation of raves. 14. I proved indoor parties are not illegal unless there is a breach of the licensing act 2003 as this is the law for entertainment. 15. The word rave cannot get used when referring to inside of a building, as section 63 requires as a key element: unless trespass has taken place. 16. I proved I was not the organizer of the events as I was not. 17. That I never took part in any antisocial behaviour or intended or encouraged any other person to either. 18. Anti-social behaviour never got caused because of the Progress Way by me or my actions as I was only a visitor who caused no offence, I feel as my solicitor you should have my best interest at heart and if you Know a police officer to get caught for being corrupt for, the evidence that they have supported so your client faced a wrongful conviction of any sort you should not encourage them to not stand up for what is correct and right, so I do not understand why you would ask me to reconsider whether the attached document should get served on the Respondent. Amendments I made: -- 19. The amendments I made already got served on the 22/02/2016 and the Judge ask for the respondent to answer them questions from the 01/02/2016 and the respondent refuse to do, I insist for the challenges to get answered as it is my life that has gotten tarnished for civil proceedings. I confirm this in writing to you, I feel the meeting has got left by yourself to the last minute I requested this in a multitude of emails to get achieved well in advance to the date that you now sited a few days before the appeal, when I know that you have had ample amounts of time, so if this is the earliest time I will take it and I look forward to meeting Mr. Andy Locke, thank you, I do not see how the case will not get re listed due to lack of disclosure to be frank. 20. I do not understand why any solicitor would encourage me to go to trial or appeal and not draft out the police corruption that you can see making me accept the fabricated evidence and wrongful conditions, I know got imposed on myself under section 63 with no trespass taking place, this being said as for any of the incidents in the Asbo and with you knowing the true facts about them incidents being in private air. There is also the fabricated evidence I am standing against as for sure any solicitor works in Co Hurst towards the understanding off noun precedent in relation to the weight of any evidence put towards a client. I get concerned about the case, relying solely on hearsay by police. Is this correct in procedure? 21. However, I understand and take note, which all resident parties contained within the respondent's bundle, where held in single occasions and in places of residence and where not held as a running commercial business by myself or by any other to my knowledge. I also read any person may have a house or resident party in private air under the licensing act 2003 or where they live. To my understanding, each accused incident in the respondent's bundle is a place of residence and were, in fact, different people holding their own private parties at their places of residence. Aloe there may have been complaints regarding issues of concern about them house parties I was not the occupier of any of the accused locations; neither was I the hire of equipment and surely, not the organizer. I was establishing a hire company around the dates of the accused events and have provided evidence of the work I had been committing myself to, I was not trading at the time and whenever hiring out equipment I do with due care and responsibility, however I do not accept responsibility for other people's actions when hiring out such equipment in good faith. I take legal action for any persons when breaking my terms and conditions. I do not hire equipment to any person without being in the constraints of the law and in good business practice or without the correct ID. On one occasion I hired out a sound system in good faith on a pro Bono basis, this being of the understanding that no laws were being broken and as a Ltd company acting responsible. 22. I know, I should not be liable for them person's actions when hiring out equipment and having the correct protocols in place as I do. I do not feel it is right for me to get criminal punishments such as section 63 of the crime and disorder act 1994 and for that section to get then imposed against my freedom of movement and many other Human Right that have got breached by being pro-claimed under wrongful civil proceedings, as for a multitude of incorrect procedures and legislation I occurred, for an instance I got no previous nature offences of a similar sort as required by law when applying a standalone Asbo on a person's statue, as I felt I should've had the right to challenge the allegations under a true Criminal investigation, especially, when referring to the organisation of illegal raves as the respondent has headlined the offence to be. RE: SIMON CORDELL V. THE COMMISSIONER OF POLICE OF THE METROPOLIS APPEAL AGAINST THE IMPOSITION OFF AN ASBO—26TH EPTEMBER 2016 at; 10:00 AM. I will write even further with concerns regarding: 23. Your issues of concern dated 08/09/2016 that got received by email at the time 06:00 pm, as towards the letter drafted by yourself and amended by myself is the response as detailed below, with the listed concerns. I understand the correct protocols for the offences I am being accused of should get carried out in a manner to be of a high professional standard as required by law, so for me to defended myself, I am therefore not happy with the issues of police corruption not being addressed, by you self and all other legal persons, as I know I cannot stand a fair trial or appeal without them issues being rectified first and this is why the amendments have got made to your letter to Sally Gilchrest. I have suffered since 2014 for conditions that have got wrongfully, imposed upon me, and still awaiting an appeal, as my acting solicitor 08/06/2017 You drafted a letter requesting the respondent to remove any CARDS that have been placed in the Asbo bundle served to myself. Mr. Simon Cordell. I understand these cards are already inputted incorrectly, and you and the barrister must take notes of all of this information, as do, we, so to all achieve the same, in the understanding that I could not have and did not commit the alleged offices I gotten accused of that are within a vast majority of other CADS got contained within incorrect and blocked out context; such as the "ATT" Locations that are unreduced and Crown road and other locations such as Hardy Way, on the same day as progress way. I could not have committed, as I could not be in two places at once. There is a further issue in relation to a significant amount of Cards that should contain the ATT Locations that have got blocked out such as referred to as retracted and them CADS that also contain the Grid reference numbers that also prove other locations already, however I am even further worried about CADS such as all the listed and any in the format such as retracted where know person can, or can see the true CAD intelligence regarding the wrongful fabricated claims being held against my person, being so reviled for all to acknowledge. 24. I believe when all CADS get retracted, and a blocked, then that will help any barrister and put them in a better position to defend me, so for all Cads and pages in his Asbo application being served in an unedited format and so for me to understand the truth, to why the conditions got imposed upon myself since the ASBO'S on goings. 25. I am also seriously worried about the reasons the case has taken so long with all the evidence I supported towards my innocent plea, such as: - A. The incorrect timestamps. B. The facts of the conditions of law relating to a section 63 of the crime and disorder act being imposed upon myself for indoor house parties without trespass taking place. C. The Events, I am being accused of, no police officers spoke to any landlords or owners. 26. There has been no evidence of a breach under the Licensing act 2003. 27. No proof of organisation being presented against myself. There is also the matter being of; all incidents that are in the Asbo application with details to them members of the police involved, not having 101 books that are time stamped for them incidents and I once again would like to request them. 28. In relation to all cads that got a grid number of 53491,196790 and or ATT location of Crown road I request the police officers involved in attending the incident, attended court so to prove what PC ELSMORE stated to the Judge at the magistrates court on the date of trial to get a guilty plea against my person, not to be creditable in any weight, being of all the statements he made are in a copy of the court transcripts, which quote When making the Asbo application and redacting any intelligence he was sure all event on the 7th 8th June 2014 was in fact 100% progress way and he was sure there was no other parties / events in the borough on them dates. I intended for my acting barrister to use a copy of the magistrate's court trial transcripts on the date of the appeal. Please can you reply to this letter of concern? Kind regards Simon Cordell."

Subject: I sent this to Josie
Dear Josie I do not understand why it is not in my best interests for you to serve the suggested amendments that I made in relation towards the letter you proposed sending to Ms SALLY GILCHRIST.
The reason I do not understand is:

1. Mr. Morris advice on 4th April 2016 was the same as what I had explained to yourself when the case had started dated 12th September 2014 as received on receipt by yourself and by method of email's and them emails referred to the respondent's application of an Asbo order quoting "That a case should not rely, solely, on hearsay" as mine seems to do by the police officers.
2. Most of the hearsay got reported to be third party and therefore carry less weight.
3. I want to show the true facts about the case as I am the one who is suffering because of untrue cut-and-paste facts that represent the basics of the respondent's case and that singed evidence being off fabricated police statements, as detailed in the amendments towards your letter to SALLY GILCHRIST, whom is already in receipt of such evidence but refuses to act upon such intelligence in accordance off the law and you advise me to ignore this even low I suffer.
4. I understand a lot of the matters that should get dealt with at court will be.
5. I still argue for a speedy and fair trial: and feel that when a judge asks the respondent to reply by a set date such as the 01/08/2016 as the judge HHJ PAWLAK has ordered for it to happen then it must.

6. The respondent should do so within the time duration as dated 01/09/2016 and agreed with the judge and then received with the correct response, as has not happened

7. I was awaiting the reply since 00/02/2016 from an ongoing civil application that got dated 13th August 2014 so, to get a fair trial.

8. After waiting on the 01/09/2016 with no response I waited till the 02/09/2016 and telephoned the respondent I spoke with a lady called sally gill Hurst, she states that she has served paperwork to my solicitors at the beginning of august a month prior, after finishing our conversation I contacted my solicitor she explained to me that she was away on holiday and I must wait till she gets back on the 06th September 2016

9. I again put the phone down and called my solicitor firm's office to see if any paperwork had gotten served, I got told no.

10. On the 8TH August I spoke with my mother who explained to me that she had been in contact with my solicitor and I would receive a letter to sign to get sent to Sally Gill Hurst.

11. On me receiving this letter it raised the following concerns: --

A. The paperwork has not got served in time.

B. In a preliminary hearing, so to be ready for the appeal the judge ordered this to get achieved.

C. The respondent has had another 6 months sine 22/02/2016 from the start of the on goings as dated 13/08/2014

D. We are now at 08/09/2016 the appeal is on the 26/09/2016 this leads me to the concerns of once again the case being postponed, as it has already been ten times before.

12. I handed to article Six the right to a speedy and fair trial regarding some of my human rights being breached because of the on goings in the ASBO proceedings drafting clear corruption and fabricated evidence asking for the case to get investigated the correct paperwork to get served in accordance to my response.

HHJ PAWLAK

A. Yes, my instructions are clear, I organised none illegal raves or provide any equipment with an intention off holding an illegal rave and caused no Anti-Social behaviour on the dates sighted, and this is also to include Mill Marsh Lane with no exception.

B. Yes, in some I am visiting my friends who are or were homeless.

C. The legal technicality you state, I refer to i.e., absence of trespass does not prevent parties from being held in accordance off the law, may lead to a standalone anti-social behaviour order if a person commits a public order offence, to which I did not cause as I was not organizer neither did, I take part in the organisation of the party or did I commit any civil or criminal offence.

D. In anyone un-regular occasion over the duration of the weekend I can an understand the noise nuisance and distress to neighbors this can cause if the allegations were to be true and not fabricated by the police as I can prove. I was not the organizer of the event.

13. The case got based on what the respondent based it upon and in my case, this is the organisation of illegal raves not the organisation of raves.

14. I proved indoor parties are not illegal unless there is a breach of the licensing act 2003 as this is the law for entertainment.

15. The word rave cannot get used when referring to inside of a building, as section 63 requires as a key element: unless trespass has taken place.

16. I proved I was not the organizer of the events as I was not.

17. That I never took part in any antisocial behaviour or intended or encouraged any other person to neither.

18. Anti-social behaviour never got caused because of the Progress Way by me or my actions as I was only a visitor who caused no offence, I feel as my solicitor you should have my best interest at heart and if you Know a police officer to get caught for being corrupt for, the evidence that they have supported so your client faced a wrongful conviction of any sort you should not encourage them to not stand up for what is correct and right, so I do not understand why you would ask me to reconsider whether the attached document should get served on the Respondent.

Amendments I made: --

19. The amendments I made already got served on the 22/02/2016 and the Judge ask for the respondent to answer them questions from the 01/02/2016 and the respondent refuse to do, I insist for the challenges to get answered as it is my life that has gotten tarnished for civil proceedings. I confirm this in writing to you, I feel the meeting has got left by yourself to the last minute I requested this in a multitude of emails to get achieved well in advance to the date that you now sited a few days before the appeal, when I know that you have had ample amounts of time, so if this is the earliest time I will take it and I look forward to meeting Mr. Andy Locke, thank you, I do not see how the case will not get re listed due to lack of disclosure to be frank.

20. I do not understand why any solicitor would encourage me to go to trial or appeal and not draft out the police corruption that you can see making me accept the fabricated evidence and wrongful conditions, I know got imposed on myself under section 63 with no trespass taking place, this being said as for any of the incidents in the Asbo and with you knowing the true facts about them incidents being in private air. There is also the fabricated evidence I am standing against as for sure any solicitor works in Co Hurst towards the understanding off noun precedent in relation to the weight of any evidence put towards a client. I get concerned about the case, relying solely on hearsay by police. Is this correct in procedure?

21. However, I understand and take note, which all resident parties contained within the respondent's bundle, where held in single occasions and in places of residence and where not held as a running commercial business by myself or by any other to my knowledge. I also read any person may have a house or resident party in private air under the licensing act 2003 or where they live. To my understanding, each accused incident in the respondent's bundle is a place of residence and were, in fact, different people holding their own private parties at their places of residence. Aloe there may have been complaints regarding issues of concern about them house parties I was not the occupier of any of the accused locations; neither was I the hire of equipment and surely, not the organizer. I was establishing a hire company around the dates of the accused events and have provided evidence of the work I had been committing myself to, I was not trading at the time and whenever hiring out equipment I do with due care and responsibility, however I do not accept responsibility for other people's actions when hiring out such equipment in good faith. I take legal action for any persons when breaking my terms and conditions. I do not hire equipment to any person without being in the constraints of the law and in good business practice or without the correct ID. On one occasion I hired out a sound system in good faith on a pro Bono basis, this being of the understanding that no laws were being broken and as a Ltd company acting responsible.

22. I know, I should not be liable for them person's actions when hiring out equipment and having the correct protocols in place as I do. I do not feel it is right for me to get criminal punishments such as section 63 of the crime and disorder act 1994 and for that section to get then imposed against my freedom of movement and many other Human Right that have got breached by being pro-claimed under wrongful civil proceedings, as for a multitude of incorrect procedures and legislation I occurred, for an instance I got no previous nature offences of a similar sort as required by law when applying a standalone Asbo on a person's statue, as I felt I should've had the right to challenge the allegations under a true Criminal investigation, especially, when referring to the organisation of illegal raves as the respondent has headlined the offence to be.

RE: SIMON CORDELL V. THE COMMISSIONER OF POLICE OF THE METROPOLIS APPEAL AGAINST THE IMPOSITION OFF AN ASBO—26TH SEPTEMBER 2016 at;

10:00 AM

I write even further with concerns regarding:

23. Your issues of concern dated 08/09/2016 that got received by email at the time 06:00 pm, as towards the letter drafted by yourself and amended by myself is the response as detailed below, with the listed concerns. I understand the correct protocols for the offences I am being accused of should get carried out in a manner to be of a high professional standard as required by law, so for me to defended myself, I am therefore not happy with the issues of police corruption not being addressed, by you self and all other legal persons, as I know I cannot stand a fair trial or appeal without them issues being rectified first and this is why the amendments have got made to your letter to SALLY GILCHRIST. 25. I am also seriously, worried about the reasons the case has taken so long with all the evidence I supported towards my innocent plea, such as: -

- A. The incorrect timestamps.
- B. The facts of the conditions of law relating to section 63 of the crime and disorder act being imposed upon myself for indoor house parties without trespass taking place.
- C. The Events, I am being accused of no police officers spoke to any landlords or owners.

26. There has been no evidence of a breach under the Licensing act 2003.

27. No proof of organisation being presented against myself. There is also the matter of; all incidents that are in the Asbo application with details to them members of the police involved, not having 101 books that are time stamped for them incidents and I once again would like to request them.

28. In relation to all cads that got a grid number of 53491,196790 and or ATT location of Crown road I request the police officers involved in attending the incident, attended court so to prove what PC ELSMORE stated to the Judge at the magistrates court on the date of trial to get a guilty plea against my person, not to be creditable in any weight, being of all the statements he made are in a copy of the court transcripts, which quote When making the Asbo application and redacting any intelligence he was sure all event on the 7th 8th June 2014 was in fact 100% progress way and he was sure there was no other parties / events in the borough on them dates. I intended for my acting barrister to use a copy of the magistrate's court trial transcripts on the date of the appeal.

Please can you reply to this letter of concern?

Lorraine / Simon
Simon, I do not believe that it is in your best interests for me to serve the suggested amendments to the letter that I proposed sending to the Ms SALLY GILCHRIST. The reason for this advice is similar to the advice given to you by Mr. Morris on 4th April 2016 and you decided to ignore his advice. A lot of the matters you raise I have previously advised you can be dealt with by cross examination. Your instructions are simply that you have not organised, provided equipment, or been concerned in the organisation of illegal raves. In relation to all events with the exception of MILLMARSH LANE you dispute providing equipment or any intention to hold any events. In some you are visiting friends who are homeless and have a LAPSO notice up confirming they are treating the building as their residence. The legal technicality you refer to i.e., absence of trespass does not prevent any parties from being held at the buildings in question as amounting to anti-social behaviour. You are well aware of how anti-social behaviour is defined and loud music being played over two nights would satisfy this definition as it undoubtedly causes noise nuisance and distress to neighbours. Your defence to Progress Way is denying being in attendance inside the premises on any occasion and you merely dropped off keys. The question as to whether the premises were being squatted and the appropriate notice was on display to prevent trespass does not affect whether anti-social behaviour was caused. I have advised you that championing the rights of persons squatting in a building to hold a party where a couple of hundred people attend and justifying the event as not being a rave due to lack of trespass does not prevent the event from causing anti-social behaviour. Anti-social behaviour was clearly caused as a result of the Progress Way event. There is a significant risk that you will alienate the Judge if you advance the argument that anyone squatting can hold a loud party. The loud parties cause anti-social behaviour regardless of trespass / rave definition being satisfied.

I ask you to reconsider whether the attached document should be served on the Respondent. This document I have copied and pasted from the amendments you made to the letter that I sent to you. The views you expressed in the letter and the requests made were your requests and legal challenges, so I have changed "we" to, "I, Simon Cordell" to reflect this. My view is that this document should not be sent but if you insist then please confirm this in writing. Type in your signature and email back to me please.
Mr. Andy Locke is available for a conference on 13th September 2016 at his Chambers and following this conference a decision will be made whether to list the case for lack of disclosure or not.
Please confirm your instructions on the service of the attached word document. I reiterate that I do not believe that it is in your interests to serve the document.
Regards
Josephine

Specific disclosure requests by Simon Cordell.docx
Specific disclosure requests by Mr. Simon Cordell who insists the below is forwarded.
I, Simon Cordell am of the view that a lot of the CADs are fabricated and being used in support of this ongoing appeal.
Such as the Progress Way matters that is in reference to completely different geographical locations, some distance away from Progress Way.
The redacting of the CAD messages makes this extremely difficult to stand a fair trial against under my Human Rights, Article Six the Right to a fair trial.

Referring to the Grid numbers contained in the respondents bundle that do show that a large amount of the evidence being relied upon does in fact show wrong locations, leading further towards the matter of concerns regarding the CADs, when taking a clear insight to CAD 1047 of the 8TH June 2014, That does state the call name of a police officer on duty as PC Shink, who's grid reference location was 534380, 195513 this insight leads to other issues of concern to be highlighted and them issues being that of a vast majority of all other CADS relating to progress way, do in fact having the same Grid number as the officer on duty PC Shink, but on each CAD, the Call name has been redacted Mr. Simon Cordell believes the cads are of police officers not civil people and asks for the to be redacted.
I, Simon Cordell request all CADs / crime reports for all events cited in the ASBO application where reference is made to police attending the location in response to crimes being committed. This includes all incident numbers that do not include the relevant Cad intelligence contained in linked explicitly to and linked implicitly to, that is relevant to the bundle so that I can stand a fair appeal, this is to include crown roads party at the old man building on the 6th 7th 8th June 2014 as in cad 3319 and mutable others CADS.
I, Simon Cordell request disclosure of the CCTV of the persons breaking into the premises on the 25th May 2014, the CRIS and details of any persons arrested for criminal damage / burglary.
I, Simon Cordell request the full details of the original intelligence report inputted on 25th May 2014 and also reasons why there was a need to update this report on 19th June 2014. The Intelligence report should not be allowed in evidence under the hearsay rules as it is prejudicial to me. The report has been amended.
I, Simon Cordell question the accuracy and truthfulness of the statements, CADS etc. served in support of the above. I also question why some of the CAD reports have been redacted. I believe that the CAD's may well confirm the names of the real organisers, vehicle registrations etc. that will confirm no vehicle belonging to the Appellant being inside the venue. I also question the chronological sequence of the CAD reports due to the time stamps.

I, Simon Cordell specifically ask the Respondent to confirm why the event was not closed down or proof of trespass or evidence of profit being made as required under the licensing act 2003 and section 63 of the CJPOA, if it was in fact a rave.
I, Simon Cordell also asks why went the sound systems not seized under section 63 of the CJPOA.
I, Simon Cordell seek clarification as whether a section 144 LAPSO notice was on display or tress pass had taken place.
I, Simon Cordell question why the Respondent has not supplied any Cads from 6th June 2014, which is in fact the date when this event started and why so many Cads are missing from the 07th and the 08th June 2014.

ALMA ROAD - 24TH JULY 2014, I Simon Cordell will state that this date should be struck from the Respondent's bundle as there was no rave / Event.
I, Simon Cordell will argue that the court was wrong in principle in granting the original ASBO application as the Respondent made the original application based on me being involved in illegal raves. The Respondent did not establish this at the initial hearing and the District Judge erred in granting this ASBO.
It has been noted and said by PC Parcel that the I am known for class A drugs and or supplying drugs this was proved not to be true as can be read in a copy of the magistrate's court transcripts and that of the district judge agreeing to take no weight in such statements, why has this not yet been deducted?
In the interests of a fair hearing I, Simon Cordell request all Cad's cross linked and referred to should be served in an unedited format.
I feel that contained in the respondents bundle that there is so many fabricated irregularities, that they should be investigated, and I feel without this being done I will not stand a fair trial.
I also believe that all the anonymous witnesses are police officers. I do not believe that they are civilian witnesses and I require all anonymous witnesses to attend court to give evidence.
I, Simon Cordell also request that all disclosure is made in respect of the raves at the Old Man Building, Crown Road on 6th, 7th and 8th June 2016.

Dear Josie
I do not understand why it is not in my best interests for you to serve the suggested amendments that I made in relation towards the letter that you proposed sending to Ms SALLY GILCHRIST.
The reason I do not understand is because:

1. Mr. Morris advice on 4th April 2016 was the same as what I had explained to yourself when the case had started dated 12th September 2014 as received on receipt by yourself and by method of email's and them emails referred to the respondent's application of an Asbo order quoting "That a case should not rely solely on hearsay" as mine seems to do by the police officers. Most of the hearsay in any case is reported to be third party and therefore carry less weight in any case.
2. I want to show the true facts about the case as I am the one who is suffering because of untrue cut and paste facts that represent the basics of the respondent's case and that singed evidence being off fabricated police statements, as detailed in the amendments towards your letter to SALLY GILCHRIST, whom is already in receipt of such evidence but refuses to act upon such intelligence in accordance of the law and you advise me to ignore this even low I suffer.

3. I understand that a lot of the matters that should be dealt with at court will be.
4. I still argue for a speedy and fair trial: and feel that when a judge asks the respondent to reply by a set date such as the 1/08/2016 as the judge HHJ PAWLAK has ordered to happen it should.
5. The respondent should do so within the time duration as dated 01/09/2016 and agreed with the judge and then received with the correct response, as has not happened.
6. I have been awaiting the reply since 00/02/2016 from an ongoing civil application that is dated 13th August 2014 so to be able to have a fair trial.
7. After waiting on the 01/-9-2016 with no response I waited till the 2/09/2016 and telephoned the respondent I spoke with a lady called sally gill Hurst, she states that she has served some paperwork to my solicitors at the beginning of august a month prior, after finishing our conversation I contacted my solicitor she explained to me that she was away on holiday and that I must wait till she gets back on the 6th September 2016.
8. I again put the phone down and called my solicitor firm's office to see if any paperwork had been served to be told no.
9. On the 8TH August I spoke with my mother who explained to me that she had been in contact with my solicitor and that I would be reviving a letter to sign to be sent to Sally Gill Hurst.
10. On receiving this letter, it raised the following concerns.
11. The paperwork has not been served in time.
12. In a preliminary hearing, so to be ready for the appeal the judge ordered this to be achieved.
13. The respondent has had another 6 months sine 22/02/2016 from the start of the on goings as dated 13/08/2014
14. We are now at 08/09/2016 the appeal is on the 26/09/2016 this leads me to the concerns of once again the case being postponed, as it has already been ten times before.
15. I have handed to article Six the right to a speedy and fair trial in regard to some of my human rights being breached because of the on goings in the ASBO proceedings drafting clear corruption and fabricated evidence asking for the case to be investigated the correct paperwork to be served in accordance to my response to HHJ PAWLAK.
16. Yes, my instructions are clear, I did not organise any illegal raves or provide any equipment with an intention of holding an illegal rave and surely did not cause any Anti-Social behaviour on the dates sighted, this is also to include Mill Marsh Lane with no exception.
17. Yes, in some I am visiting my friends who are or were homeless at the time.
18. The legal technicality you state that I refer to i.e., absence of trespass that does not prevent parties from being held in accordance of the law, may lead to a standalone anti-social behaviour order if a person commits a public order offence, to which I did not cause as I was not organizer neither did, I take part in the organisation of the party or did I commit any civil or criminal offence. –

    -- In any one un-regular occasion over the duration of the weekend I can a understand the noise nuisance and distress to neighbours this can cause if the allegations were to be true and not fabricated by police as I can prove. I was not the organizer of the event.
19. The case is based on what the respondent based it upon and in my case, this is the organisation of illegal raves not the organisation of raves: -

20. I proved that indoor parties are not illegal unless there is a breach of the licensing act 2003 as this is the law for entertainment.
21. That the word rave cannot be used in a building as section 63 requires as a key element unless tress pass has taken place.
22. I proved that I was not the organizer of the events as I was not.
23. That I never took part in any anti-social behaviour or intended or encouraged any other person to neither.
24. Anti-social behaviour was not clearly caused as a result of the Progress Way by myself or my actions as I was only a visitor who never caused any offence.
25. I feel as my solicitor you should have my best interest at heart and if you Know a police officer to be caught for being corrupt for, the evidence that they have supported so that your client faced a wrongful conviction of any sort you should not encourage them to not stand up for what is correct and right, so I do not understand why you would ask me to reconsider whether the attached document should be served on the Respondent.
26. The amendments I made have already been served on the 22/02/2016 and the Judge ask for the respondent to answer them questions from the 01/02/2016 and the respondent refuse to do so.
27. I do insist for the challenges to be answered as it is my life that has been tarnished for civil proceedings, so I do confirm this on writing.
28. I feel that the meeting has been left by yourself to the last minute I have been requesting this in a multitude of emails to be achieved well in advance to the date that you have now sited a few days before the appeal, when I know that you have had ample amounts of time, so if this is the earliest time, I will take it and I look forward to meeting Mr. Andy Locke, thank you.
29. I do not see how the case will not get re listed due to lack of disclosure to be quite frank.
30. I do not understand why any solicitor would encourage me to go to trial or appeal and not draft out the police corruption that you can clearly see in turn making me accept the clearly fabricated evidence and wrongful conditions that I know have been imposed on myself under section 63 with no trespass taking place, this being said as for any of the incidents contained in the Asbo and with you knowing the true facts of them incidents being contained in private air.
31. There is also that of the clearly fabricated evidence I am standing against as for sure any solicitor works in Co Hurst towards the understanding of noun precedent in relation to the weight of any evidence put towards a client. I am concerned about the case, relying sole on hearsay by police. Is this correct in procedure?
32. However, I do understand and take note, that all resident parties contained within the respondent's bundle, were held on single occasions and in places of residence and were not held as a running commercial business by myself or by any other to my knowledge. I have also read that any person is entitled to have a house or resident party in private air under the licensing act 2003 or where they reside. To my understanding, each accused incident in the respondent's bundle is a place of residence and was in fact different people holding their own private parties at their places of residence.
33. Aloe there may have been complaints in regard to issues of concern about them house parties I was not the occupier of any of the accused locations; neither was I the hire of equipment and surely not the organizer.
34. I was establishing a hire company around the dates of the accused events and have provided evidence of the work I had been committing myself to. I was not trading at the time and whenever hiring out equipment I do with due care and responsibility, however I do not accept responsibility for other people's actions when hiring out such equipment in good faith. I do take legal action for any persons when breaking my terms and conditions.

I do not hire out equipment to any person without being in the constraints of the law and in good business practice or without the correct ID.

35. On one occasion I did hire out a sound system in good faith on a pro Bono basis, this being of the understanding that no laws were being broken and as a Ltd company acting responsible. I know that I should not be liable for them persons actions when hiring out equipment and having the correct protocols in place as I clearly do.

36. I do not feel that it is right for the respondent to obtain criminal punishments such as section 63 of the crime and disorder act 1994 and for that section to be then imposed against my freedom of movement and many other Human Right that have been breached by being pro-claimed under wrongful civil proceedings, as for a multitude of incorrect procedures and legislation that I have occurred, for instance I have no previous nature offences of a similar sort as required by law when applying a standalone Asbo on a person's statue, as I do feel I should of have had the right to challenge the allegations under a true Criminal investigation, especially when

37. referring to the organisation of illegal raves as the respondent has clearly headlined the offence to be.

RE: SIMON CORDELL V. THE COMMISSIONER OF POLICE OF THE METROPOLIS APPEAL AGAINST THE IMPOSITION OF AN ASBO - 26TH SEPTEMBER 2016 AT 10:00 AM

I write even further with concerns regarding: Your issues of concern dated 08/09/2016 that was received by email at the time:

06:00pm,

So as towards the letter drafted by yourself and amended by myself is the response as detailed below, with the listed concerns.

1. I understand that the correct protocols for the offences I am being accused of should be carried out in a manner to be of a high professional standard as required by law, so for me to be able to defend myself.

2. I am therefore not happy with the issues of police corruption not being addressed, by you self and all other legal persons, as I know I cannot stand a fair trial or appeal without them issues being rectified first, and this is why the amendments have been made to your letter to Sally Gilchrest Hurst.

3. I have suffered since 2014 for conditions that have been wrongfully imposed upon myself and still awaiting an appeal.

1.1 As my acting solicitor you drafted a letter requesting the respondent to remove any CADS that have been placed in the Asbo bundle served to myself Mr. Simon Cordell.

1.1.1.1 I understand that they cads are already inputted incorrectly and you and the barrister take note of this, as do , we all achieve this in the understanding that I could not have and did not commit the alleged offices that I have been accused of that are contained with a vast majority of other CADS within incorrect and blocked out context; such as the ATT Locations that are un-redacted and do state Crown road and other locations such as Hardy Way, on the same day as progress way so I could not have committed as I could not be in two places at once.

1.1.1.2 There is a further issue in relation to a significant number of Cads that should contain the ATT Locations that have been blocked out such as referred to as retracted and them CADS that also contain the Grid reference numbers that also prove other locations already.

1.1.1.3 However, I am even further worried about CADS such as all the listed and any in the format such as fully retracted where know person can or is able to see the true CAD intelligence in regards to the wrongful fabricated claims being held against my person, being so reviled for all to see.

1.1.1.4 I do believe when all CADS do get retracted and a blocked, then that will help any barrister and put them in a better position to defend me, so for all Cads and pages in his Asbo application being served in an unedited format and so for myself to understand the truth, to why the conditions have been imposed upon myself since the ASBO'S on goings.

2.1 I am also seriously worried about the reasons why the case has taken so long with all the evidence I have supported towards my innocent plea, such as: -

2.2 The incorrect time stamps.

2.3 The facts of the conditions of law relating to a section 63 of the crime and disorder act being imposed upon myself for indoor house parties without tress pass taking place.

2.4 The Events that I am being accused of no police officers have gone and spoken to any landlord's or owners.

2.5 There has been no evidence of a breach under the Licensing act 2003.2.5. No proof of organisation being presented against myself.

2.6 There is also the matter being of; all incidents that are in the Asbo application with particulars to them members of the police involved, not having 101 books that are time stamped for them incidents and I once again would like to request them.

2.7 In relation to all cads that do have a grid number of 53491,196790 and or ATT location of Crown road I request that the police officers involved in attending that incident attended court so to be able to prove that what PC ELESMORE stated to the Judge at the magistrates court on the date of trial to obtain a guilty plea against my person, not to be creditable in any weight , that being of all the statements he made that are contained in a copy of the court transcripts, which do quote: When making the Asbo application and redacting any intelligence he was sure that all event on the 7th 8th June 2014 was in fact 100% progress way and that he was sure that there was no other parties / events in the borough on them dates.

I intended for my acting barrister to be able to use a copy of the magistrate's court trial transcripts on the date of the appeal.

Pleas can you reply to this letter of concern Kind regards Simon Cordell

Dear Ms Gilchrist
RE: SIMON CORDELL V. THE COMMISSIONER OF POLICE OF THE METROPOLIS APPEAL AGAINST THE IMPOSITION OF AN ASBO - 26th SEPTEMBER 2016 AT 10AM
I refer to the above matter.
As you are aware Mr. Cordell's appeal is listed for 26th September 2016. On 4th April 2016 HHJ Pawlak made a direction that the Respondent prepare and serve on the Appellant and the court a schedule setting out the dates, times and locations of each incident and also to specify the alleged involvement of the Appellant in the organisation of the illegal raves by 1st September 2016.
You should also be in possession of a lengthy document prepared by the Appellant and his request for disclosure of all unredacted CAD's that the Respondent is relying on. The Appellant is of the view that a lot of the CADs used in support of the Progress Way matters are in reference to completely different geographical locations, some distance away from Progress Way. The redacting of the CAD messages makes this extremely difficult to check. The Appellant has prepared in his bundle a number of maps for each CAD. Can you please request that DC ELSMORE double checks the accuracy of the location of the CAD's relied upon and please provide unredacted CADs or remove CADs that are not geographically relevant. A request was also made for statements to be obtained from DS Val Tanner and DC Chapman in relation to any intelligence that the Public Order Unit holds that confirms Simon Cordell is an organiser of illegal raves. This information is crucial to Mr. Cordell's appeal as he disputes ever organising an illegal rave, under the legal definition.
Mr. Cordell also specifically requests that we obtain disclosure of a copy of all emails sent from DC ELSMORE or any officer involved in the investigation of this ASBO application against Mr. Cordell to the Public Order Unit in respect enquiries made by them in relation to Mr. Cordell's involvement in the organisation of illegal raves and the responses. The Bundle makes specific reference to DS Val Tanner responding to an enquiry in DC ELSMORE statement dated 26th June 2015. We request that DS Tanner provides a statement in relation to her conversations with Ms Lorraine Cordell and we also request that any recordings of these conversations be provided.

We also request that the Public Order Unit also discloses full details of all illegal events / raves that "Every Decible Matters" are linked to as it is Mr. Cordell's specific instructions that he is not an owner and does not have any business interest in "Every Decible Matters" and it is his instructions that it was "Every Decible Matters" that arranged the event on 9th August 2014 that Mr. Cordell is being blamed for.
We request all CADs / crime reports for all events cited in the ASBO application where reference is made to police attending the location in response to crimes being committed.
We thank you in advance and await the service of the schedule re Mr. Cordell's involvement in the raves as directed by HHJ Pawlak. Please provide by close of business today otherwise we will have to request that the case be listed for mention on Monday 12th September 2016.
We await hearing from you.
Yours faithfully

From: Rewired [mailto: re_wired@ymail.com]
Sent: 08 September 2016 23:12
To: Lorraine Cordell
Subject: I sent this to Josie

Dear Josie, I do not understand why it is not in my best interests for you to serve the suggested amendments that I made in relation towards the letter that you proposed sending to Ms SALLY GILCHRIST. The reason I do not understand is because:

1. Mr. Morris advice on 04th April 2016 was the same as what I had explained to yourself when the case had started dated 12th September 2014 as received on receipt by yourself and by method of email's and them emails referred to the respondent's application of an Asbo order quoting "That a case should not rely solely on hearsay" as mine seems to do by the police officers. Most of the hearsay in any case is reported to be third party and therefore carry less weight in any case.

2. I want to show the true facts about the case as I am the one who is suffering because of untrue cut and paste facts that represent the basics of the respondent's case and that singed evidence being off fabricated police statements, as detailed in the amendments towards your letter to SALLY GILCHRIST, whom is already in receipt of such evidence but refuses to act upon such intelligence in accordance of the law and you advise me to ignore this even low I suffer.

3. I understand that a lot of the matters that should be dealt with at court will be.

4. I still argue for a speedy and fair trial: and feel that when a judge asks the respondent to reply by a set date such as the 1/08/2016 as the judge HHJ PAWLAK has ordered to happen it should.

5. The respondent should do so within the time duration as dated 01/09/2016 and agreed with the judge and then received with the correct response, as has not happened

6. I have been awaiting the reply since 00/02/2016 from an ongoing civil application that is dated 13th August 2014 so to be able to have a fair trial.

7. After waiting on the 01/-9-2016 with no response I waited till the 2/09/2016 and telephoned the respondent I spoke with a lady called sally gill Hurst, she states that she has served some paperwork to my solicitors at the beginning of august a month prior, after finishing our conversation I contacted my solicitor she explained to me that she was away on holiday and that I must wait till she gets back on the 6th September 2016.

8. I again put the phone down and called my solicitor firm's office to see if any paperwork had been served to be told no.

9. On the 8TH August I spoke with my mother who explained to me that she had been in contact with my solicitor and that I would be reviving a letter to sign to be sent to Sally Gill Hurst. On receiving this letter, it raised the following concerns.

1. The paperwork has not been served in time.

2. In a preliminary hearing, so to be ready for the appeal the judge ordered this to be achieved.

3. The respondent has had another 6 months sine 22/02/2016 from the start of the on goings as dated 13/08/2014

4. We are now at 08/09/2016 the appeal is on the 26/09/2016 this leads me to the concerns of once again the case being postponed, as it has already been ten times before.

5. I have handed to article Six the right to a speedy and fair trial in regard to some of my human rights being breached because of the on goings in the ASBO proceedings drafting clear corruption and fabricated evidence asking for the case to be investigated our the correct paperwork to be served in accordance to my response to HHJ PAWLAK.

6. Yes, my instructions are clear, I did not organise any illegal raves or provide any equipment with an intention of holding an illegal rave and surely did not cause any Anti-Social behaviour on the dates sighted, this is also to include Mill Marsh Lane with no exception.

7. Yes in some I am visiting my friends who are or were homeless at the time.
8. The legal technicality you state that I refer to i.e. absence of trespass that does not prevent parties from being held in accordance of the law, may lead to a standalone anti-social behaviour order if a person commits a public order offence, to which I did not cause as I was not organizer neither did I take part in the organisation of the party or did I commit any civil or criminal offence.
9. In any one un-regular occasion over the duration of the weekend I can a understand the noise nuisance and distress to neighbours this can cause if the allegations were to be true and not fabricated by police as I can prove. I was not the organizer of the event. The case is based on what the respondent based it upon and in my case, this is the organisation of illegal raves not the organisation of raves: -
1. I proved that indoor parties are not illegal unless there is a breach of the licensing act 2003 as this is the law for entertainment.
2. That the word rave cannot be used in a building as section 63 requires as a key element unless tress pass has taken place.
3. I proved that I was not the organizer of the events as I was not. 4. That I never took part in any anti-social behaviour or intended or encouraged any other person to neither.
5. Anti-social behaviour was not clearly caused as a result of the Progress Way by myself or my actions as I was only a visitor who never caused any offence. I feel as my solicitor you should have my best interest at heart and if you Know a police officer to be caught for being corrupt for, the evidence that they have supported so that your client faced a wrongful conviction of any sort you should not encourage them to not stand up for what is correct and right, so I do not understand why you would ask me to reconsider whether the attached document should be served on the Respondent. The amendments I made have already been served on the 22/02/2016 and the Judge ask for the respondent to answer them questions from the 01/02/2016 and the respondent refuse to do so. I do insist for the challenges to be answered as it is my life that has been tarnished for civil proceedings, so I do confirm this on writing. I feel that the meeting has been left by yourself to the last minute I have been requesting this in a multitude of emails to be achieved well in advance to the date that you have now sited a few days before the appeal, when I know that you have had ample amounts of time, so if this is the earliest time, I will take it and I look forward to meeting Mr. Andy Locke, thank you. I do not see how the case will not get re listed due to lack of disclosure to be quite frank. I do not understand why any solicitor would encourage me to go to trial or appeal and not draft out the police corruption that you can clearly see in turn making me accept the clearly fabricated evidence and wrongful conditions that I know have been imposed on myself under section 63 with no trespass taking place, this being said as for any of the incidents contained in the Asbo and with you knowing the true facts of them incidents being contained in private air. There is also that of the clearly fabricated evidence I am standing against as for sure any solicitor works in Co Hurst towards the understanding of noun precedent in relation to the weight of any evidence put towards a client. I am concerned about the case, relying sole on hearsay by police. Is this correct in procedure? However, I do understand and take note, that all resident parties contained within the respondent's bundle, were held on single occasions and in places of residence and were not held as a running commercial business by myself or by any other to my knowledge. I have also read that any person is entitled to have a house or resident party in private air under the licensing act 2003 or where they reside. To my understanding, each accused incident in the respondent's bundle is a place of residence and was in fact different people holding their own private parties at their places of residence. Aloe there may have been complaints in regard to issues of concern about them house parties I was not the occupier of any of the accused locations; neither was I the hire of equipment and surely not the organizer. I was establishing a hire company around the dates of the accused events and have provided evidence of the work I had been committing myself to. I was not trading at the time and whenever hiring out equipment I do with due care and responsibility, however I do not accept responsibility for other people's actions when hiring out such equipment in good faith. I do take legal action for any persons when breaking my terms and conditions. I do not hire out equipment to any person without being in the constraints of the law and in good business practice or without the correct ID. On one occasion I did hire out a sound system in good faith on a pro Bono basis, this being of the understanding that no laws were being broken and as a Ltd company acting responsible. I know that I should not be liable for them persons actions when hiring out equipment and having the correct protocols in place as I clearly do. I do not feel that it is right for the respondent to obtain criminal punishments such as section 63 of the crime and disorder act 1994 and for that section to be then imposed against my freedom of movement and many other Human Right that have been breached by being pro-claimed under wrongful civil proceedings, as for a multitude of incorrect procedures and legislation that I have occurred, for instance I have no previous nature offences of a similar sort as required by law when applying a standalone Asbo on a person's statue, as I do feel I should of have had the right to challenge the allegations under a true Criminal investigation, especially when referring to the organisation of illegal raves as the respondent has clearly headlined the offence to be.

RE SIMON CORDELL V. THE = COMMISSIONER OF POLICE OF THE METROPOLIS APPEAL AGAINST THE IMPOSITION OF AN ASBO – 26TH SEPTEMBER 2016 AT 10:00 AM

I write even further with concerns regarding: Your issues of concern dated 08/09/2016 that was received by email At the Time: 06:00pm, So as towards the letter drafted by yourself and amended by myself is the response as detailed below, with the listed concerns.

1. I understand that the correct protocols for the offences I am being accused of should be carried out in a manner to be of a high professional standard as required by law, so for me to be able to defend myself.

2. I am therefore not happy with the issues of police corruption not being addressed, by you self and all other legal persons, as I know I cannot stand a fair trial or appeal without them issues being rectified first, and this is why the amendments have been made to your letter to Sally GUILLHURST. 3. I have suffered since 2014 for conditions that have been wrongfully imposed upon myself and still awaiting an appeal.

1.1 As my acting solicitor
you drafted a letter requesting the respondent to remove any CADS that have been placed in the Asbo bundle served to myself Mr. Simon Cordell.

1.1.1 I understand that they cads are already inputted incorrectly and you and the barrister take note of this, as do , we all achieve this in the understanding that I could not have and did not commit the alleged offices that I have been accused of that are contained with a vast majority of other CADS within incorrect and blocked out context; such as the ATT Locations that are un-redacted and do state Crown road and other locations such as Hardy Way, on the same day as progress way so I could not have committed as I could not be in two places at once.

1.1.2 There is a further issue in relation to a significant number of Cads that should contain the ATT Locations that have been blocked out such as referred to as retracted and them CADS that also contain the Grid reference numbers that also prove other locations already.

1.1.3 However I am even further worried about CADS such as all the listed and any in the format such as fully retracted where know person can or is able to see the true CAD intelligence in regards to the wrongful fabricated claims being held against my person, being so reviled for all to see.
1.1.4 I do believe when all CADS do get retracted and a blocked, then that will help any barrister and put them in a better position to defend me, so for all Cads and pages in his Asbo application being served in an unedited format and so for myself to understand the truth, to why the conditions have been imposed upon myself since the ASBO'S on goings. 2. I am also seriously worried about the reasons why the case has taken so long with all the evidence I have supported towards my innocent plea, such as: -
2.1. The incorrect time stamps.
2.2. The facts of the conditions of law relating to a section 63 of the crime and disorder act being imposed upon myself for indoor house parties without tress pass taking place.
2.3. The Events that I am being accused of no police officers have gone and spoken to any landlord's or owners.
2.4. There has been no evidence of a breach under the Licensing act 2003.
2.5. No proof of organisation being presented against myself.
2.6. There is also the matter being of; all incidents that are in the Asbo application with particulars to them members of the police involved, not having 101 books that are time stamped for them incidents and I once again would like to request them.
3. In relation to all cads that do have a grid number of 53491,196790 and or ATT location of Crown road I request that the police officers involved in attending that incident attended court so to be able to prove that what PC ELESMORE stated to the Judge at the magistrates court on the date of trial to obtain a guilty plea against my person, not to be creditable in any weight , that being of all the statements he made that are contained in a copy of the court transcripts, which do quote: When making the Asbo application and redacting any intelligence he was sure that all event on the 7th 8th June 2014 was in fact 100% progress way and that he was sure that there was no other parties / events in the borough on them dates. I intended for my acting barrister to be able to use a copy of the magistrate's court trial transcripts on the date of the appeal. Pleas can you reply to this letter of concern Kind regards Simon Cordell affidavit

My police interview is on cd
3. I witnessed the terrible assault committed by the Defendant on my husband on 05 March 2018 and confirm the facts stated in my husband s affidavit dated
20 April 2018
4. Mr. Cordell harassed, abused and repeatedly punched my husband on his face, causing him to bleed and to break two of his teeth, I tried to stop him, but he would not listen to me.
5. We contacted the police who arrested both Mr. Cordell and my husband. My husband was kept by the police overnight while he was a victim of the assault. The police could see the facial injuries, bleedings and damages sustained to his face and teeth but decided to keep him at the police station while he was a victim of the assault. Surprisingly I heard that Mr. Cordell was arrested, interviewed and released on the same day. The police decided not to charge him for some unknown reasons.
6. I believe that the Police decision was wrong, as there is Clear evidence of assault, I was not interviewed while being a key witness to the incident. The Defendant should have been arrested and brought back to the Court following the breach of the injunction order so it could decide on his arrest.
7. I fear for my family safety and feels that the interim injunction with the London Borough of Enfield obtained on is not providing me and my family protection as the police refuses to enforce the terms of the order despite clear evidence that Mr. Cordell has breached the terms.

10. I feel that the existence of the injunction has not provided the adequate protection to me and my family. As things stand the Defendant feels that the injunction is ineffective as the lack of actions from the police currently encourages him to act badly towards me and my family. Mental Health NHS Trust A University Teaching Trust

CIRCUMSTANCES LEADING TO ADMISSION

Arrested at his home address after his mother raised concerns about his mental state - he was allegedly verbally threatening towards his neighbour and (?) neighbour's children. Simon's mother called police who arrested him. He was seen by the FME at Wood Green police station, then referred for MHA.

CURRENT MEDICATION

Olanzapine 5mg

PERSONAL & FAMILY HISTORY

Mr. Cordell was born at North Middlesex University Hospital. He has a younger brother and sister. Mr. Cordell says he knows his maternal grandmother attempted suicide on a number of occasions and had had admissions to mental hospital. Mr. Cordell's father worked as a union representative and his mother ran her own computer company.

Mr. Cordell says he did not get on well with his father who was a violent man. He was violent towards Mr. Cordell, Mr. Cordell's mother and siblings Mr. Cordell left home at the age of fifteen and was homeless for a while. He was placed in to care after stealing a pint of milk He was placed in a series of children's care homes around the UK but says that each time he would steal a car and drive back to London.
Mr. Cordell said he was pushed hard to achieve at school by his father and that he was "an A-star student" for most of the time. He says he was intelligent and would do the work at other times and as a result would often just "mess about" in class. He went on to college and studied engine mechanics, completing a city & guilds qualification. After leaving school he went on to get jobs in the construction industry.
Mr. Cordell says he has tried to build himself up a business for providing party entertainment. At the moment he says he is not able to earn from this due to the restrictions of his bail.
Mr. Cordell has had one long term relationship which he describes as "my first true love". This is with a woman called Diana who is currently studying physiotherapy. They were together thirteen years, but he says she has moved back out of his flat in recent months. Mr. Cordell thinks this is secondary to the repeated involvement of the police in their lives and the stress this has caused.

Mr. Cordell says he does not smoke tobacco and does not drink alcohol.
Grandmother (? maternal) had BPAD and/or schizophrenia

PSYCHIATRIC HISTORY in brief

Has previously been open to Enfield EIS, discharged in March 2016 due to non-engagement - Has been assessed under the MHA in 2014 and early 2016 but was not detained as there was not sufficient evidence of a mental disorder

FORENSIC HISTORY

Mr. Cordell was put in a Young Offender's Institution at the age of 16 after repeated driving offences (driving without a license)

RECOMMENDATION
I met with Simon today on the ward and assessed him in preparation of the report. Simon recognised me immediately. He was warm, welcoming, polite and co-operative throughout the meeting. He stated about half a dozen times that he is willing to work with the services and also willing to accept medication.
It would be helpful if Simon will agree to stay in hospital to continue treatment as he appeared to have made good progress since admission. As part of the medical and nursing team I believe that Simon will benefit from staying in hospital for further assessment and continue treatment.

Official Statement of Mr. Simon Cordell

The Events Leading Up to My Wrongful Detention of my Detainee: -

The events leading up to my wrongful detention of my detainee that have been governed under civil proceeding, do in fact relate to the following incidents:- On the 25th June 2013 the Metropolitan police attended my home address that being of 109 Burncroft avenue Enfield En3 at around midday, the reason for them members of the met police to attend, was about a criminal allegation, one offence of the nature of burglary, to which I Mr. Simon Cordell did In fact dispute and proved my innocents at court.

On this occasion I was charged and then bail was denied I was then transferred to the world of scrubs her majesties pleasure HMP, the reason given for bail to be denied was because there was false and therefore wrongful criminal convictions that had been maliciously fabricated on the police national computer containing the wrongful convictions in my PNC , "to which I did disputed and then challenge and this has now been proven to be incorrectly inputted on my Criminal record and therefore myself to be correct, proof of this statement is contained within this official document as exhibit sc1, this exhibit contains the proof of 8 false criminal convection not in the court official registries (1 of the guilty verdict off failing to surrender of which was the reason I was denied bail.)

On the 28th June 2013 I did apply to the district judge to reconsider the application of bail to which he did choose to overturn in my favour. I was then granted bail with the following condition that the Prosecution's opposed bail was:

1. Possibility of committing further offences whilst on bail:
2. Possibility of Failure to surrender

Judge's Decision Bail Granted with the Following Conditions:

3. Surety of £1000 from Ms. Lorraine Cordell (To be surrendered to the nearest Police Station) - prior to release from Custody.
4. Residence @ 109 Burncroft Road, Enfield, EN3 7JQ
5. Not to enter the London Borough of Southwark
6. Surrender Passport to nearest Police Station
7. Report daily to Edmonton Police between 1400 - 1600do
8. Curfew 8pm - 6am (doorstep condition - the Defendant should show himself to any officer upon that person knocking on the front door.

I Mr. Simon Cordell had to abide to the strict regime of bail conditions until the date of 00/00/2014, this was the date set for trial, but before the start of the trial I was found not guilty due to the judge accepting my evidence of a till recipe of proof of punchers of a garden gazebo too which was the basis of the prosecution's evidence regarding the allegations of burglary.

While I was awaiting the on goings of the case to proceed to trial to defend my rights of a non-guilty plea, I felt I was being mistreated by the justice system as I knew I had not committed the offence I was being accused off and this lead me Mr. Simon Cordell to pre arranging a meeting by way of telephone, this was accomplished at my own free will, so for myself to be able to attend the silver street Mental health department, to help my self-document a true understanding of the facts that was present in my life of concern I exhibit proof of this contained and attached to this official document as sc2.

I also arranged an appointment with my Doctor who was named DR. Warren at number 1 nightingale Rd, Edmonton, this appointment was not arranged due to feeling Mentally unstable, but due to the duration of the time the court proceeding had occurred and the effect the Metropolitan Police wrongful claims of proceedings was therefore having on the ruining abilities of myself Mr. Simon Cordell being a high statue director for my own company running objectives.

On the date of 00/00/00, I Mr. S. Cordell was at my home addresses as noted above, with the following friends who are named 3 of 3 people not including myself Mr. Simon Cordell.
When to my unexpected attention I received a phone call on my personal mobile telephone. When I asked whom, the caller was, I received a name of a gentleman who claimed the name of Goody and the occupation of this gentleman is an amp Mental health worker, the nature of the reason given for the call was proclaimed to be about the appoint that was previously arranged months prior with my personal GP as dated above. I clearly remember when speaking to Goodies on the phone that of an appointment being pre-arranged at my own home address, as also noted above in this document.
On the agreed date that the appointment was made was 00/00/2015, the gentlemen whom I had previously had the telephone conversation with arrived at my home address with another team member who I know no to be called (Sandra) I invited them into my home, the flat was clean as I knew I had been expecting guest and also because of the general fact I keep a strict house upkeep policy, and as for this policy I like to have nice essential utilities and personal accessories on this day my cupboards were full of food and also that of my fridge and freeze, this was checked by Sandra and goodie to my surprise.
The meeting started to take place once I had asked every person to make them self's feel at home, the meeting started to initialise and I found myself and goodies conversation started to lead towards what I had been up to prior to the visit, I explained that I was in the process of establishing my own company.
Once the meeting had started, we all started to settle into conversation within the average time duration of 5 minutes, the ladies phone whose name is Sandra started to ring she then asked every person, if she can quickly answer the call, as she answered her phone she walked into my front entrance corridor, myself and goodie continued to chat about positive things that I had been applying my time to, when Sandra walked back into the room after finishing her call, she asked if the meeting can be stopped, as she had to leave due to her telephone conversation. Goodie explained to myself that he was happy with my mental health assessment and that he was going away on holiday for four weeks and that he would like to have a follow up meeting once he gets back from his work holiday leave, I explained I would be very happy to meet with himself again, as it was a pleasure to chat with himself.

At this stage in my life, I had worked hard to achieve in a positive view and it had taken me many years to save and buy what I knew to be needed to start the company I wanted to build I would have not been able to start without the help of my family.
I can clearly note that of the facts that by 2010 I had things in place and needed to start on my next step with building my website so I order my domain name http://toosmooth.co.uk on the 22/07/2010, my mother was going to try and help build the website as money was an issue and to build the type of website that was needed would have cost a lot of money.
The development of the Website took much longer than anticipated; this was due to the building process and also my mother's health.
The coding beside the website is of a large scale due to the 4 databases that was needed.

By 2012 the website was coming along I order 2 other domains http://toosmoothentertainment.co.uk and http://toosmoothentertainment.com 22/05/2012 these were ordered, I had also started looking ahead to the summer of 2013 to start bridging out with contacts and doing some unpaid work in the local community so to get my company name known in the public, and help my local community.
I had planned to order the company name just before the work started in 2013.
The following day after of Goodie attending my private home, I was again at home working on my company I remember this date to be 00/00/2015 as for I was programming parts of my website and finding things reasonably hard to achieve, I noticed a knock on my front door and went to see who it was, when I noticed a large group of people, when asking whom them persons were I was told the name of elan, she stated that her occupation was from the mental health department so I opened up my front door and asked what they wanted to speak to me about in the safety of knowing all was being recorded on CCTV. I showed some concern in regard to the team turning up to my address unannounced and that I felt that this was a breach of my privacy. I was un happy with the way I was spoken to by the Mental Health team, on this occasion, especially with the understand of what had been portrayed to me and that being that since goodie had gone away on leave that elan and the other people standing at my front door had been made case handlers of myself for no reason I was quite shocked and concerned as goodie was surely happy when he had left prior and never said anything of the sort, it was then explained to me that they wanted to do another assessment on me once again I explained that I had just let goodie into my home less than 2 days, the team soon left.
once again with the concern of being assessed without no true reason as I knew that I had mostly been indoors and had travelled to the shops a few times with friends and family with no concern about my well-being, after elan and team had arrived I called the mental health team so to find out why they had truly attended and to raise my
Official Statement of Mr. Simon Cordell.pdf
concerns, while achieving this I used a dictator to record the minutes of the conversation I managed to speak to Ellen herself and explained to her that I was happy for the team to have a meeting with my se
If they wanted but please could they contact myself first or have a true reason under the mental health act.
A few days later I revived a phone call of my mother and she seemed quite concerned for my wellbeing, on asking her what was wrong she explained that the early prevention team had called her mobile phone and told her that they were obtaining a warrant under a person of interest section 135 of the mental health act 1983, this was said to be for the reason that I would not allow them access into my home.
On the 00/00/2016 while at home with my mother and civil partner I received a knock on the front door, on opening the door there was a multitude of persons present when asking them who they were they expanded police officers and doctors awaiting to serve a warrant to enter my home under section 135 of the mental health act 1983 I explained to them that I was happy to allow the doctors and medical teams access once again so to be able to conclude their assessment but was not happy for members of the police to enter due to the sensitivity of my personal information as I still had ongoing complaints and cases that I was a subject towards, the police agreed to await outside.
Before the meeting started, I pressed play on my recording system so to be able to have a copy of the minutes of the meeting as I find professional best for all people's interest.
The general outcome of the meeting was that the warrant had been obtained illegal due to my self-having a recording of them being invited for a meeting into my home of my own free will prior and that I had allowed goodie entry into my home two days before they arrived at my front door unannounced, with no truth in decrease or evidence of an un stable mental mentality of mine, between and on them dates. The warrant issued was and is for a person who won't allow access to mental health teams to which I clearly did do; Ellen makes a full confection of this on CD.

I allowed the meeting to go ahead in any case and was assessed as being mental stable with no issues of concern.
When listening to the transcripts of the minutes that took place that day under the grounds of the assessment, after being confirmed as well by the doctors, I was then asked if I was happy to be assessed every day or once a week, I was not happy with this as I feel I have worked hard to achieve my goals and this would have a negative impact on my time and ability as it clearly is right now, I did however say that I will talk with my partner about this and come to an agreement. After taking to my civil partner, we decided that the mental health team had come to the right conclusion of me being well and that we were much more than capable of looking after our self and felt more commutable do this.
I soon received a letter asking myself to go to Edmonton green for another assessment as dated 2902/2016, I called the centre and explained that me and my partners had made our decision and that was that we can cope alone and if we ever find ourselves insure of any think that we will contact the mental health team.
The care team called my mobile phone 14 August 2016.

In response to the allegations of Threats to kill 14/08/2016

On the day in question, I was in my home address, all day my mother attended my home at around 3pm to collect my credit card as arranged leaving myself with no other source of money as for this I had no reason to leave my home. I have a text on my mobile phone and computer to prove this from my mother.
I was then fortunate another to have some good friends visit with their new born baby to which on their visit good news was announced that I will be the god father to the new born baby, my visitors stayed at my home address till around 7pm after their departure I was left at home alone and started to listen to a music CD that was given to me by my guests I continued to listen to music until at around 8pm, up and till I notice a very large amount of uniformed police officers entering my communal hall way and started to implosively bang on my front door intimating myself in my own place of residence.
I clearly remember approaching my front door with large concern for my safety as for I have other on goings cases against the Metropolitan police that are in the process of the IPPC.
As I approached my home front door, I had that of my mobile phone in my hand and called for assistance of members of my family who could be in support of me as they may be relevant as to a witness to any ongoing about to occur.
When asking the police, the reason for their presents at my home address the reply back was that of the remark, that they just wanted to speak to my person, I did reply back to them that I was not happy to speak to them self's as I knew I had done nothing un-law and was therefore a victim.
I do remember asking the police to contact my solicitors as a first point of contact for any incident as the police have a full understanding when attended my home address that my home has been my place of residents for over 11 years and I have no issues with surrendering to police.
After about a 40 minute interview of compulsive and aggressive knocking by on duty police officers on my front door, I choose to explained to them members of active police that they were being recorded by my CCTV, This caused a different reaction and the woman office who was knocking on my front door choose to cause a criminal offence by way of causing criminal damage to my personal property otherwise named as my CCTV equipment, she achieved this by staring straight into the camera and intentionally ripping out the cables in turn causing damage so that the crammers were no longer active.

As this happened while my mother attended with my uncle whom I had previously called and continued to recorded the ongoing on their mobile phone's crammers.
Another police officer a male offered to repair the damage that had been caused by the female officer by asking myself to pass them a screwdriver out of my letter box I found this an unusual request.

Official Statement of Mr. Simon Cordell.pdf

On arrival of my mother and uncle attending I felt much more at ease and secure of my own safety and opened my front door knowing I had all the evidence I need on CD and mobile phones to prove my innocents and the damage cause to my property.
As for other video footage I do dispute the allegations of the Quoted fact off being taken out of cell number 3 for a legal assessment by members of the MHA Mental Health Assessment Team as named AMHP worker Maggie fuller and 2 x Doctors of the names (---) and (---) whom did attended my cell while I was being recorded by CCTV as true as I am sure they did walk up to my cell hatch and verbally said to myself that I was being sectioned under the mental health act without caring out the correct procedures to obtain such regulations.
While the AMHP workers was at my cell door while being contained at wood green police station I did notice one of the doctors to be an official person that I had a complaint against for attending my home address in February 2016 and have a CD of evidence of the full mental health team of the day which does prove illegal entry into my home by way of completing a section 135 illegally in turn by stating to a judge under oath that I would not give access to my place of fixed resentence and is clearly admitted to be a lie on the CD as I have the evidence.
I Mr. S. Cordell did in fact find this to be un professional conduct as for I had been detained for 24 hours with no issues of concern for my safety or any other persons and was left in my cell while being a detainee with my full clothing inclusive of shoe lyses and belt and all other articles of personal clothing that in any case would be taken of a person acting with mental health issues of concern by the acting custody officer.
I also would like to make the correct notes regarding the statement of being seen by a police officer FME, as for this is not true to its statements as quoted in Mr. Goodie official statement as dated the 25th August 2016 on page 2 chapter 1.
I do not feel I was correctly pre assessed under the mental Health act 1983 at wood green police station never was I interviewed or charged for any criminal offence, as the camera evidence being becalmed will clearly show and for this reason, I also request a copy of the said official assessments doctors' notes made on the day,
I Know the truth to be on the 14th I was detained at my home address at around 9pm and booked into the police station I was then held for 23 hours until the official case handler came to my cell he asked me to contact my mother and ask for the video footage from my mother and uncles mobile phone and for my mother to attended the police station for an interview as in other occasion with the police I have needed an appropriate adult as I had learning difficulties such classed as reading and writing difficulties, I explained that I was willing to do the interview on my own as over the last 3 years of my life I have had much practice in reading and writing and have now improved on such needed skills, the police officer was not happy with my reply and re appeared a shot time latter with the Mental health team who never assessed me, in total I was detained for near on 30 hours taken to St Ann's Hospital and then first assed 72 hours after arriving for the first time so I understand I was detained illegally for the average of 100 hours.

Official Statement of Mr. Simon Cordell.pdf

Since detainee there has been many issues of concern that are to be raised and them issues of concern do in fact, contained wrongful personal information on the RIO data base and St Ann's computer systems inclusive of any other medical data in regards to doctor and client personal data and that information being not correct of it facts, so for any medical provisions to be able to use that information in a true positive method, as for that information can be proved to be fabricated and therefore false intelligence or classed as Intel.

Such fabricated medical intelligence was prepared by a DR. Rosemary Mill a St4 doctor in response for DR. JULIA CRANITCH, who states she has personal knowledge of Mr. S. Cordell, Since the 22nd of august which is understood to be the start of her Job title for St Ann's hospital, contained in a prepared doctor's statement that was requested to be served in a paper format as legal required for a tribunal.

on the 25th 08 2016 a prepared copy of the doctors' notes made from all nurse's assessment notes and their own personal involvement with myself, should have been served towards myself so to be able to prepare a fair deface for tribunal this should have been achieved by mid-day and was not. When staff was asked it was said my acting solicitor will be able to show myself a copy even low a consent form had been completed and submitted into St Ann's hospital.

I Mr. Simon Cordell feel that was I not served in accordance of the legalisation framework that represents the mental health act 1983, neither assessed at the correct opportunity falsifying my illegal detainee.

I Mr. S. Cordell was in fact shown a copy of the doctor's reports 20 minutes before the tribunal started by my acting solicitor due to a break down in communications and never had the opportunity to analyse any official documentation to in fact be able to stand a true legal defence.

As a matter of fact, the tribunal did go in my favour and I feel a fair and equal decision was made by the boards official panel this decision was of the conclusion as quoted the section 2 Mental Health act 1983 was removed of my statue of liberty and I agreed to the doctor's decision of staying in St Ann's hospital as a formal patient,

As the tribunal is held in St Ann's hospital there is less than a 5 minute walk from the assessment wing to where I have been detained while being assessed and on arriving back to the ward after the panel turned the decision in my favour I had the first opportunity to assess the doctors notes used in the tribunal in regards to myself that had been pre drafted and not severed to myself in accordance of the duration of the time limit that legal jurisdiction apposes and felt the need to correct wrongful lintel and state the true claims such tribunals should be based upon.

I have contained evidence that is overwhelming to the fact of the matters that I do quote within this official document of complaint.

This has led to my human rights 1998 being in breach such as the listed: -

- Article 3: Freedom from torture and inhuman or degrading treatment what is the prohibition on torture and inhuman or degrading treatment or punishment, this is one of the most important provisions in the Human Rights Act, and clearly states the following: -
- Article 3 is like the right to life article 2, the prohibition in Article 3 requires an official and effective investigation to take place where there are credible allegations of serious ill-treatment by public officials to which Mr. Simon Cordell claim and provide the supported evidence beyond reasonable doubt R V Bones, as provided within this official complaint.

The most obvious obligation that I claim my rights towards do in fact prevent State officials from torturing a person or subjecting them to inhuman or degrading treatment. This applies anywhere in the UK jurisdictions and this can include places outside the UK, as well as in UK prisons, hospitals, schools etc.
Any person's human rights may be affected within Article 3, whom is being contained within a government policy that does in fact put a person in a situation where they face inhuman or degrading treatment to which I Mr. Simon Cordell do feel I have been subject towards.

- Article 3 does require that public authorities take all steps to prevent torture and ill-treatment. This requires laws in place to adequately protect vulnerable groups from ill-treatment and for public officials to act so to protect vulnerable people from harm inflicted on them by others.
- Article 5: Right to liberty and security.
- Article 7: No punishment without law.

Hello Paige, the report took me a bit more time than I first thought to finish. I am sorry if I have caused you any inconvenience. I attach a copy of the two hospital reports and also that of my reply to them reports, this does include a personal statement and a copy of the assessments transcripts that took place at my home address in February before the 14/08/2016 incident, if you have any advice towards amendments please tell me, I have not sent the documents to any other person(s) other than yourself and ask for your guidance.
Many thanks again Simon Cordell

Mr. Cordell left home at the age of fifteen and was homeless for a while. He was placed in to care after stealing a pint of milk. He was placed in a series of children's care homes around the UK but says that each time he would steal a car and drive back to London.
   - Mr. Cordell said he was pushed hard to achieve at school by his father and that he was "an A-star student" for most of the time. He says he was intelligent and would do the work at other times and as a result would often just "mess about" in class. He went on to college and studied engine mechanics, completing a city & guilds qualification. After leaving school he went on to get jobs in the construction industry.
   - Mr. Cordell says he has tried to build himself up a business for providing party entertainment, he is also setting up a charity. At the moment he says he is not able to earn from this due to the restrictions of his bail.
10. Forensic History
    - Mr. Cordell was put in a Young Offender's Institution at the age of 16 after repeated driving offences (driving without a license)
    - 2015 Received a 5-year ASBO for organising illegal raves- not allowed to enter industrial or disused premises between 10pm and 7 am.

784,

- Mr. Cordell has stated that he is currently on bail for making threats to harm his neighbors; he has a court date relating to this on 8"[1] October 2016.

11. Drug and Alcohol History
    - Documented on RIO notes in December 2015 to have been using cannabis 'skunk' on a daily basis at that time.
    - Admitted to A+E in 2012 for assessment after allegedly using LSD and drinking a bottle of rum at a festival.
    - Mr. Cordell reports that he has not taken any illicit substances recently, has used cannabis occasionally in the past 'recreationally'. Mr. Cordell denies alcohol consumption or any drug use recently.
    - Unfortunately, I have been unable to find record of a urine drug screen since admission to hospital.
12. Social History
    - Mr. Cordell lives alone in a 1-bedroom flat which he says he owns
    - outright. Ms. Cordell lives nearby and provides support to Mr. Cordell. There are also siblings and other extended family that live in the local area.
13. Progress on the ward
    - 15/8/16 Upon admission to Haringey assessment ward, Mr. Cordell was clerked in by the SHO, who documented that Mr. Cordell presented as irritable, with pressured speech, tangential thought patterns, appeared elated and spoke of several projects of a grandiose nature including his business in the entertainment industry, buying speakers for £50,000 and hiring them to Glastonbury. Mr. Cordell described owning a 'city' and that it is 'his job to understand the various roles people have in society so that he can look after people.
    - 16/8/16 Mr. Cordell refused routine blood tests, physical exam and ECG on the ground that he treats his body like a temple. Mr. Cordell was documented as appearing settled and calm on the ward, eating and drinking well.
    - 17/8/16 72-hour CPA review - Mr. Cordell presented with rapid speech,
    - often talking about unrelated themes and stated he felt he was being persecuted. Mr. Cordell became irate shouting at his mother, angry that she has not appealed his section. Mr. Cordell presented with paranoid persecutory and grandiose delusions with tangential thought pattern, no insight into mental health. It was agreed by the team to commence regular 1mg lorazepam bd.

- 18/8/16 little change in presentation, generally calm on the ward however quick to become agitated during interaction with staff, can be unpredictable. Refused prescribed lorazepam. Consented to physical exam, bloods and ECG by SHO who also reviewed injury to 5iri finger.
- 19/8/16 Presented as fairly settled and calm in mood, continued to refuse medication as prescribed. Discussed this with DR. Humphries and agreed to take night-time dose of lorazepam, which he subsequently did with lots of reassurance from staff.
- 20/8/18 Presented as calm in mood, polite and appropriate with peers, spent the day playing music on laptop with peers. Ate and drank well, attended to personal care.
- 21/8/16 Calm, slept well, accepted lorazepam as prescribed at night, however, refused olanzapine 5mg. Further discussion with nursing staff to explore his feelings about this, however Mr. Cordell told staff that he had been recording the interaction on his phone and taking pictures. Complained of painful finger, accepted PRN ibuprofen.
- 22/8/16 Nursing notes describe Mr. Cordell as quite settled however remains consumed with same preoccupations which he relates with pressured, uninterruptible speech, preoccupied with proving that he was wrongfully admitted to hospital. Otherwise interacting with peers appropriately, accepted 1mg lorazepam as prescribed, refused olanzapine.

- 23/8/16 Consultant review by DR. CRANITCH and MDT, during the interview Mr. Cordell spoke with pressure of speech, in an over inclusive and tangential fashion, largely preoccupied with injustices in the past particularly by the police which made it difficult for him to focus on the present. He also expressed rather grandiose plans about his business and his ability to help others in the world. Mr. Cordell denied any thoughts or threats to harm others and stated that he did not feel he was mentally unwell at present. Mr. Cordell however agreed to trial a small dose of olanzapine 5mg at night as recommended by DR. CRANITCH for psychotic symptoms.
- 24/8/16 Mr. Cordell has accepted his prescribed medication overnight and slept well.

14. Drug chart

15. Appearance and Behaviour –

Well kempt and casually dressed slim gentleman in his early thirties Staring eye contact, remained seated throughout the interview.

Speech –

Fast pace and very difficult to interrupt, normal volume and tone.

Mood –

Subjectively 'happy', objectively appears quite irritable, reports sleeping well, good appetite, positive plans for the future, no plans or thoughts to harm self or others.

Thought –

Evidence of tangentiality, struggled to stay on topic without repeated prompting. Overinclusive, spoke at length about minutiae of legal aspects of organising a festival, grandiose plans to help others across the country which were difficult to follow. Denied worries about the police, more focussed on health professionals and legal aspects of his admission to hospital and alleged wrongdoings

Perception –

No evidence of responding to abnormal perceptions, denied same.

Cognition –

Alert and orientated to time place and person.

Insight –

Mr. Cordell feels he does not have a mental disorder.

16. Factors affecting this hearing

- Mr. Cordell has made recordings of assessments and other interactions with health professionals and police in the past and refers to this frequently. Mr. Cordell has attempted to make recordings of encounters with staff during his admission, there is a chance he may attempt to make recordings of tribunal proceedings.

16. opinion and Recommendations

Mr. Cordell is currently suffering from a mental disorder:

- He presents with persisting psychotic symptoms of paranoid persecutory delusions involving police and mental health services, he also presents with pressured speech, and has presented as elated and irritable, which may represent a mood disturbance Whilst Mr. Cordell has indeed had several encounters with the police and has a forensic history, it is my opinion that his interpretation and experience of these encounters goes beyond reality into beliefs of a delusional nature. These beliefs have dominated Mr. Cordell's life and his behaviour at the expense of his wellbeing and ability to function safely in the community.

- In the past these persecutory ideas have also focused on family members and neighbors, one of his neighbors was also a service user and needed to be rehoused as a result of encounters with Mr. Cordell. Mr. Cordell presents with evidence of thought disorder; his speech is pressured and tangential upon interview.
- His mental disorder is currently of a nature or degree to justify ongoing detention in hospital.

- If he insisted on leaving the ward, we would ask our home treatment team to monitor him at home and offer him medication - historically Mr. Cordell has not engaged well with community services due to his lack of insight.

17. If Mr. Cordell is NOT discharged from his Section:

- We would encourage Mr. Cordell to take antipsychotic medication, starting with a low dose and monitoring closely for response and any side effects.
- We would titrate the dose antipsychotic medication according to his mental state and side effect profile.
- Once regularly taking antipsychotic medication and stabilised in mental state we would start to introduce some leave from the ward initially escorted before moving to longer periods of unescorted leave.
- Once deemed stable in mental state we would look at discharge to his home with home treatment team support and referral to community team.

Copy of the Minutes of February's assessment when a Section 135 was wrongfully issued

The Beeping sound starts of interview.
"Muttering" Simon: all of you people are not coming into my house.
"Muttering" Mother: Three two doctors and one social worker.
"Muttering" "Continues."
Mother: How do I turn this television down?
Katie: I am not sure.
Mother: Simon it's not going to work out when you are talking outside.
Katie: Simon stops shouting.
Simon: I want to go through all of the corruption.
Katie: Simon, Simon.
Katie: Lorraine how do you shut the door.
Mother: Shut what door.
Katie: That door.
Mother: Oh, hold on, how do you turn this down I am turning it up.
Simon: How are you all doing welcome to my home, I am not too happy.
Sam: There is a few of us I am afraid. Simon: I understand.
Sam: Where is the best place for us all to seat?
Simon: Just take a seat anywhere you are all welcome to sit anywhere there are seats available for everybody.
Sam: Then we will explain why we are here.

Copy of the Minutes of February.pdf

Simon: I am not impressed with your "referring to Elan" I see you and meet you before and I see what happened to you before.

Mother: How many people are actually coming in that is needed to do this assessment.
Mother: The police said that they will wait outside.
Unheard voice:
Katie: No, he didn't.
Mother: No, he didn't he said that the police was going to wait outside.
Sam: OK. Simon: I am not impressed with the way that use lot are using your Mental Health powers to obtain a warrant to come into my house under false allegations, stating of facts that are not true to obtain it.
Simon: you may take a sit anywhere you have been welcomed in now and like take a sit.
Sam: OK.
Simon: You have been welcomed in now like I would rather you lot take a sit rather than I take a sit.
Sam: OK.
Simon: Take a sit, sir please.
Mother: No Sam, can I talk to you for a moment you said the police was waiting outside.
Simon: The police are not coming into these premises, you're not coming in, and you can get out.
Sam: Simon.
Simon: It's a breach of conditions.
Simon: I am explaining to the police.
Katie: You're not going to get anywhere.
Copy of the Minutes of February.pdf
Because right now I got conflicting cases going on with the police, and I do not want that having an effect on the ongoing because of this.
Mother: His got serious issues with police cases at the moment.
Sam: Could we just leave the door ajar and have the police at the entrance, is that OK with the police officers.
Sam: Yes, just leave the door open with the police not coming in, OK.
Katie: His exaggerated because of the police.
Simon: That is correct in practice and that is how it should be, that is professional.
Sam: OK.
Simon:
Sam: OK.
Sam: OK, sure.
Sam: So, Simon the reason that we're here today is because concerns have been raised.
"Noise in background made."
Sam: Oh, what's that?
Katie: Oh, it's all right, it part of the printer.
Sam: OK.
Sam: A bout your Mental Health and we have been asked to carry out something called a Mental Health Act assessment, so were her to decide whether or not you need to be detained.
Simon: Section 1 or 2 or 3 and maybe a 4 of the acts in an Emergency.
Sam: Err yes.
Simon: I understand your procedures.
791,
Copy of the Minutes of February.pdf
Sam: In order for that to happen and we have not decided anything yet that is why we want to talk to you.

Simon: There is no way that you can decide without being able to make an assessment of the case.
Sam: Let's just explain the legal situation first thing you can do you hip hop or so myself.
Mother: Let him, just talk Simon.
Sam: Two Doctors so there is: -
Doctor: ALBAZAZ
Sam: and~ Doctor: Amin
Simon: How you both doing.
Sam: For in order for the section to go ahead, they would both need to make medical recommendations and I would need to agree.
Sam: Err but we really just want to find out about how your mental health is two days.
Mother: So, who are all of the other people?
Sam: They are from.
Aman: I am from the Mental Health team.
Simon: So, I meet you the other day and I spoke to you on the phone and I got through, I got large concerns about yourself.
Alena: Yes OK.
Simon: Because this is how I am going to prove that you put wrong statements of facts in to get this yesterday I spoke to you and I spoke to you a couple of days ago and did I not say to you and you said to me at 14:22 I got you on the recording and I am going to play your voice to you in a second.
792,
Copy of the Minutes of February.pdf
Mother: You do not need to.
Simon: And I would like you to honest did I not say to you that you are allowed access to my house whenever you would like on the phone last week and the week before.
Alena: Yep, yes and that is what is in your notes.
Simon: So how has this court order was obtained under the grounds that I have not given you access, the form has been filled in and when you are filling that form in to get this court order it's supposed to be filled in there is a statement of facts that is said under oath to a judge, someone has filled that in incorrectly and you have just absolutely admitted that I have said that it's OK to you as I have given you permission to come into my house now.
Simon: So that court order is a breach of violations.
Sam: That is the other thing we got a warrant to come into the flat.
Simon: No, the warrant is self is valid by a judge, but the fulfilment of that warrant is incorrect.
Simon: Am I correct in practice madam.
Alena: You have said that I can come to the house the issue is seeing the doctors.
Doctor xxx: We came last week, and you did not allow us in.
Mother: Hold on can I accurately say some think.
Simon: May I say some think to you two days before that before you attended my premises for a month prior I had a gentlemen phoning me called Goodie I was speaking to him and we was making good relations and I liked this persons attitude I liked how he was talking to me and I thought maybe this person might be able to help me prospect and go forward in my life so were building good relationships we arrange a meeting for him to come around to my address his says OK his coming round his going to bring a friend a colleague, I said that is perfect he said his bringing Sandra with him, they both coming to this house I invite them in perfectly my house is tidy its smells clean they check the fridge and that then they sit down on the chair, Sandra sits actually were your sitting today yes Allan two minutes later her phone rings she gets up and she walks into the hall way and then she is on the phone in

Copy of the Minutes of February.pdf
the corridor yes this door is slightly gets left ajar and Goodie is sitting here I talk to Goodie and I showed Goodie my business plan and I start to start showing him things that I am doing in my life and things like how I am going to help this community and I am going to be a good tenant and resident of the United Kingdom, his happy he was saying that he was amazed I am amazed Simon to see the good things that you are doing and to see all the management systems and to see all the files that you have here, five minutes later the woman walks back in and she goes Goodie we got to leave, so she stops the interview that me and Goodie are having personally and they both leave the premises two days later Goodie says to me, I shake Goodies hand, Goodie says when I get back in four weeks I am your case handler Simon I am going on holiday in four weeks I am going to come and I am going to visit you in four weeks I said Goodie that will be nice to see you in for weeks yes.
Simon: Two days later yourself Alena and another Sandra turns back up to my front door the woman who was so rude when she come in and cut our interview.
Katie: No notification at all.
Simon: She never writes any notes down, she never took any information. Katie: Why did you not contact him?
Simon: now can I speak to yourself and I explained to you lot at the door that I do not feel comfortable that you have turned up un-announced, I have got a visitor coming to my house and I do not want them to know my personal life, right now I am trying to make a good impression of myself to people and not show them that you are here, this could be a business prospect or a business chance I might be able to have in the future, so you lot might tarnish that chance for me by being here, so please can you make your self-announced when your turning up to my address, which is fair and you took offence and you threatened me I have you on camera as well because I explained to you that you was on it and I said to you, you said to me that I am going to go and get an order and I am going to bring the police and come into your house I said you do not have the right to go and use your Mental Health powers like that.
Doctor xx: I think I did explain to you, that was not disputed to be the facts I told you clearly if you do not allow us access.
Mother: But he has allowed you access his allowed two sets of doctors.
Doctor xxx: Not to me.
Copy of the Minutes of February.pdf
Mother: No but he allowed two doctors.
Simon: No let him speak let him speak because I am going to listen to him no go on sir.
Simon: Sorry mother.
Katie: No stop.
Doctor xx: I told him that I am the independent psychiatrist and we were there to carry out a Mental Health assessment and you insist that we only talk to you outside and you did not want us to come in so we told you.
Katie: So, should you not notify him beforehand.
Doctor xxx: with the mental health assessment we do not need, I do not have to.
Simon: They do not have to the amp do not have to do that because they're two separate bodies.
Sam: Si I think if you got complaints about what has happened up till now that is fine, and you can make that.

Simon: Procedures.
Simon: No, it's not just complaints it's you are in my house right now under a statement that this woman has clearly just said to you has been filled out wrongly and being handed to a judge to breech my private and family life.
Sam: Well, we have used the warrant to gain access today.
Simon: Yes, but she is admitting that that warrant has been full filled wrong.
Simon: She is admitting that it has been filled wrongly to breach my Human Rights.
Sam: What I would like to focus on is your Mental Health at the moment and if you need any help with your Mental Health and what is going on with you, can we talk about that a bit for now Simon.
795,
Copy of the Minutes of February.pdf
Simon: Sir I am happy to talk with you, sir I am happy to talk with you, I am happy to talk to a degree with yourself and I am just going to go this with you.
Sam: Because how what is your own view about your Mental Health.
Simon: My own Health my Mental Health I am of good Health right now I am of good mind body and soul, right now if you would like to see the work rat I am doing I will show you what I am committing myself to every single day I can show you what I do myself, I feel a bit of an offence with the way things have gone because I was building good relationships with Goodie there two separate departments and one does need to refer the other one to yourself to come into this house Sharon has not been.
Mother: Sharon,
Simon: Sharon.
Mother: No Sandra, sorry.
Simon: Has not had permission of the department of Simon Clark, whom is the manager and Debbie is the manager of the other one they did not have the correct protocols in place for Sandra to be able to go and get this court order, but even low I am going to continue with what you are saying let's just forget about that it's finished.
Sam: At the moment you are talking quite fast, I know there are a lot of strangers that have come into your home and it must be a difficult situation.
Simon: I will speak fast.
Sam: Is this how you.
Katie: He is frustrated as well.
Sam: But is that, is this the usual self.
Simon: This is how I will find myself and I will explain my self simply if I find somebody who is of a higher profession and gets paid the living wage the same as you do when and got the education took to be able to look after myself or another member of the public I respect you the amount of time it would have took you to do that and the hardship it would take for you to get that stage so I know that I am educating myself an d that I am of a lower education to you so I believe that you should be able to understand and keep up the pace your time is valuable to yourself and valuable 'to me so I want to use that to its most efficient as possible if you want me to slow down and speak to you a bit slower.
Copy of the Minutes of February.pdf
Sam: If you could slow down because it would also show us that ability to be calm because that would make us be able to understand your mental Health at the moment.
Mother: Yes, but he does speak fast.
Sam: He always speaks very so this is Simon's usually personality. Mother: Yes, he speaks fast.
Simon: I might be a bit happier in general.

Sam: Yes, this is a difficult situation right now I appreciate that right now.
Simon: What is a difficult situation right now?
Sam: The Mental Health assessment.
Simon: The only difficult situation is the that this is being paired off on to me in such a way, when I am sitting here right now every day working my hardest righting files to look after every other member of the public and I am being treated differently I am an equal to your self's and we are all equals.
Doctor: We can understand all that we can understand all of that, but there Is concern raised about you that is why we are here, to assess the situation to see how and if you need any help or if we could offer any help, that is the reason why we are here.
Sam: How is your sleep at the moment?
Sam: Sorry to interrupt you Doctor.
Doctor xxx: So, it is because there is concern about you and that is why we are here.
Sam: How is your sleep at the moment?
Simon: But why are there concerns about me at the moment if I have not spoken to my doctor in years and use lot are the only people that seem to have that concern and that concern is based on this gentleman who has come to my door and I never gave him access.

Doctor xxx: No before that.
Simon: Before that the only other concern was that you lot came here on the 8th December 2016 and there was no issue there, I explained to your self's and everybody was comfortable and you all left me and if there was a concern you would have raised that yourself s as professionals.
Doctor XX: Tell us a bit about your neighbours.
Simon: My neighbours I got a letter of every single one of my neighbours here right now I got a letter from my next doors I got a letter of them; I got a letter of every person here now saying that I have lived here for eleven years.
Doctor xxx: Please allow me to talk to please when we talk, listen to us and we will do the same to you.
Simon: Yes, for sure year for sure OK.
Doctor xx: Yes please, yes so there is concern about you regarding the neighbours you feel that the neighbours are harassing you.
Simon: Who.
Mother: No that is totally wrong.
Sam: I think it would be better if you let Simon talk.
Doctor: No let him sort this. Simon: The only issue that I have had with my upstairs neighbour.
Doctor: No please let him talk.
Simon: The only issue that I have had with my upstairs neighbour is that she is under your team of assessments, she accepts money from you and she is supposed to have a network in place such as your self's, now I have been living in this house for eleven years she moved in here seven years ago she did she come here she was already an alcoholic the alcoholism takes perception takes over the perception of her Metal Heath she was paying for herself to be drunk, you lot have got duty of care of her, she would not get a liver transplant in them situations that is why she does not really get much assistance at the age she is of your self's I expect because there is other people who deserve the chance a lot more than what she does.

Sam: Have you had any difficulties with her.
Simon: Now what she does I have not had no conflicts with her.
Sam: OK.
Simon: But I have always helped her I pick her up and take her shopping yet I do like she would have her stuff coming in and I would lift her shopping upstairs, I would carry it up to her house I would see her and I would always be polite to her and say hello, bar, bar, bar I would lend her a £10.00 I would never let her in this house because I could feel something was wrong with her yet.
Katie: She used to knock and ask for money.
Simon: She used to knock on my door every day knocking, knocking, and knocking.
Simon: My last girlfriend used to be so paranoid for 13 years because of the amount she was knocking on my door and she being another female but I would never let this woman into my house I would keep her at arm's length I knew that she was a bit of an alcoholic so I would keep a few beers in my fridge for her I do not drink alcoholic myself I am t a total.
Doctor: Have you ever had any conflict with her have you ever threaten her.
Simon: Why would I threaten her I would never threaten another person.
Doctor xx: Never.
Simon: I got a letter of her right here that I am the best neighbour in the world I am going to show you them.
Doctor xx: Were.
Katie: She is causing problems.
Mother: He is having some problems with her in the sense that.
Simon: She won't leave me alone.
799,
Copy of the Minutes of February.pdf
Mother: basically, she won't leave him alone.
Simon: She keeps stalking me under the criminal justice act 1997.
Mother: She keeps putting the letters through his letter box.
Doctor: OK.
Mother: And basically, I have been trying to deal with the council with that and there is a year worth of emails.
Simon: And she is always drunk.
Doctor: What is the content of the letters?
Simon: I have some here, right now loads of them.
Mother: she is sorry, she is sorry for keep on banning.
Simon: No I am total I like to look after other people.
Doctor xx: We understand that in the past we have had some anti depression with depression and you.
Simon: I do not think that there is a person in this room that has not felt depression once before in their life's them self's.
Sam: No, No that's right.
Doctor xx: No, no talking about Mental Health issues, so you had depression.
Simon: When I was a kid, I hard upbringing in North London, Enfield but as you can see here right now, I have worked hard to keep myself up a float.
Doctor xx: Yes, yes that is good.
Simon: I keep myself clean I keep myself with every think I need.
Doctor xx: Have you taken any medication.
Simon: I got no need to take any medication.

Copy of the Minutes of February.pdf
Doctor xx: Not in the past Simon.
Simon: No, I have never taken medication.
Doctor: Never taken any medication.
Doctor: How was your desperation cured?
Simon: How was my depression cured, I meet and let the beautiful people in my life, and they have helped me along the road and every time somebody else might go somebody else new might come along and help me.
Doctor: And has recently had you been feeling low in mood and depressed.
Simon: Recently I just wanted to get my civil liberties back because they have been tarnished by the police because a section 63 what to a degree what they done is set me up for being my friends to black boys funny and I then knew that I could have not committed the crimes that I am being accused me of and another police officer knows this and he is coming as a witness a superintendent is coming to talk.
"shh"
Doctor xx: What crime are they.
Mother: We do not want the police to hear.
Simon: Listen there is serious issues there in a lot of trouble.
Sam: I mean we are not here to talk about all the criminal aspects, what we are really concerned about are your mental.
Simon: I am Mental.
Sam: What I want to do.
Simon: I am defiantly not mental.
Sam: Questions that we ask everybody to help us understand your mental Health at the moment do you, have you got any racing thoughts do you find your thoughts going very quickly.
801,
Copy of the Minutes of February.pdf
Simon: No all I find myself doing is working every day on my business plan if you want to see that I will show you.
Sam: that is fine and answer, their questions afterwards.
Sam: How is your sleep at the moment Simon?
Simon: I sleep perfectly 8 hours a day sometime 9 and that is at the most sometimes I tend to stay up latter than what I do in the night, sometimes I tend to work better on the computer at night times when It is quite and everybody is not making so much noise and there is not so much banging about Because I am doing a lot of writing so I stay up late sometimes it can change I can stay up a bit latter at nights but I then come back to the day time and make sure that I manage and everything mi make sure that all my paper work and ever think Is In correct order things like that I need to do then I can go back to my place of work my place of comfort which is their some times.
Doctor: Are you eating.
Simon: yes, I am eating.
Sam: how is your appetite are you eating OK and any I know you said.
Simon: I am a size 36 jeans.
Sam: Are you feeling any low mood at all.
Simon: I just want civil liberties given back to me.
Mother: A bit stressed but it is due to the court case.
Sam: OK.

Simon: A Section 63 should not be, I basally won my case in court and I won it In court and the judge new I won it because the facts of the matter are a section 63 you must have trespass for it's a key element for that law to exist, I do not have tress pass on my criminal record so I explained this to the judge so she said do you know what you are right, then what her done was said do you know what you are right then what she has done I got the transcripts what she done was breaching my human rights she told me that there is no difference between private air and public air.

802,

Copy of the Minutes of February.pdf

Mother: No know what she actual turned round her exact words was that basically the applicant the case was based on illegality by the applicant.

Simon: They darkened my name in the newspaper.

Mother: Yes.

Sam: Yes.

Sam: I just popped out to the police officers to let them know everything is all right so the only other thing, sorry to Interrupt that so the only other thing has you threatened any cops, so I know you're stressed at the moment has it ever affected you to the point where you have felt life Is not worth living or other things.

Simon: No, I just want to continue with all the things that I am writing, I when I show you what I am writing.

Sam: OK.

Simon: Wait a second, I got to wait for my computer to turn on.

Simon: Then you might be able to understand me.

Simon: This Is all the things I have been doing in my life I have been building a festival I been building my own constitution, learning everything that I need like getting all the systems that I need In place the health and safety files all of my food safety all the files I need to look after any other person all the support programs that are in the areas and stuff like that that can be done every think is all categorized then I got all like adult and youths files and all my contingency plan I got everything that I need I got all my disability rights and all the rest of it.

Doctor xx: Can you tell us exactly what your work is all about.

Simon: I built a festival and I built err a website and that website is going too basically.

Simon: Built a company that I can manage that is a worth it and I will be able to.

Katie: Is an entertainment company.

Copy of the Minutes of February.pdf

Simon: Yes, it is an entertainment company.

Simon: But at the same time I built a charity, basically I got the business directory and what I have done Is written a constitution I wrote the memorandum of articles and articles of association basically so what I can do is define different people in different areas so rather than just having a community hall where someone like a government would sponsor to the general public or to somebody a team of people of beatifies, so I made my web site so I can have six different beatifies "Directors" in different places across London.

Doctor: How long have you been building?

Simon: I have been building my company for about 10 years in total it takes time like the website.

Mother: Well, his been building it.

Doctor: Hold on please.

Doctor xx: How have you managed to get any jobs.

Simon: What do you mean within the website?

Doctor xx: Anywhere.
Simon: Yes, I have had jobs, but slowly but it was in slow little pieces, and I got shut down by the police as I explained, in the transcripts I got a judge saying to me that I have to have permission to have private party is like in my house.
Katie: It is an addiction.
Mother: I am sorry does anyone want a cup of tea or something.
Sam: And team: No were fine thanks.
Doctor: What do you do with the big printers?
Simon: There for part of the company.
Simon: There for graphics.
Simon: I will show you now.
804,
Copy of the Minutes of February.pdf
Katie: You know the sign writing that you 'put on vans.
Sam: Oh yes, I know.
Sam: It for posters and things.
Katie: yes.
Mother: Yes, posters and flyers and all that type of thing.
Sam: And like things for a festival.
Katie: Yes.
Mother: Yes.
Sam: OK.
Simon: No what It for is I got my catering trailer and so forth, which is going into my catalogue which is over there.
Sam: yes.
Simon: There are loads of sections and it is a bit hard to through with you.
Simon: You can have a look at it yourself; this is what I have been doing.
Sam: Hmm.
Simon: This is what I have been doing, this is the formation of the company which has to go to the commissioner and the director for CIC Company, now what this basically does is show how I am going to register the company and my interest in the company and how I would do it.
Simon: This is a description of company in which it intends to help.
Simon: Too Smooth's business directory it's a CIC Community Interest Company Association representing residents living in the whole of the United Kingdom and those who are signed as a member to its online functions, this is achieved by governing its members who are signed in use of the Too Smooth Business Directory and form. Too Smooth Business Directory is hosted within the World Wide Web.
805,
Copy of the Minutes of February.pdf
Simon: I will show you it I got a business directory and I got my own LTD company section, what I am going to do is donate the business directory section to 6 directors.
Doctor xx: So, what your company can do is help people in the whole of the United Kingdom and those who are signed a member to it functions.
Simon: Yes, that is correct.
Doctor: So, who gave you the authority to do such a thing?
Simon: Who gave me the authority?
Simon: Who gave me the authority if I own my own building, it's up to me if I want to sponsor it, if I wanted to sponsor you some think I got the right to sponsor it if I own it, it's up to me.

Simon: I own my own website I built the code behind my own website.
Doctor xx: No sorry I am just asking you how you can delusion that you can represent the residents of the whole United Kingdom.
Simon: What it does what you can do yes this is the form that you can have I am going to show you quickly now yes what you have to do is have to fill out this form here, now what I am doing is letting six other people help manage my company now normally you would have them six people defined in one area which would be just this area but because I got the internet and I am governing the internet I can have six separate directors one for this borough one for this estate one up in south then one there and that means that there all managers in different areas so that does make it so that I have a constitutions and defined what sections I want, because I am not governing just one building like the old community halls used to do I have done the whole of the United Kingdom.
Simon: So now I got six people that are all directors that will all have access to a section of my business directory now what they have is they have the power to give the rest of the residents on the estates a login now they can all long in and it has a face book link and the rest and they can click on that to the Donor cause to be a Donor to any cause selected so one person say there is 33 boroughs in the surrounding areas I would have 6 of the boroughs that are company directors yes so this will be one my mum would hopefully be one I would be one for this estate and there would be another one for another area and another one for another area and they will all have logins.
Copy of the Minutes of February.pdf
Sam: So, it is a way of expanding your business.
Simon: No, it's not a way of expanding my business what it does is expand a business in the community, not for myself. because what I do is give this to beneficial which is the commissioner of charities for England and Wales, this is who I am writing this to now asking him or her and showing them, this is my proposal to you this is what I built and this is how I want to help people and with this I will be one of the first people to govern the internet and I am going to sponsor my business directory to the people and that is how I move on.
Doctor: And then what is the benefit of this business of the people.
Simon: I will show you what they can do this is coming along and they can add a business card to a business card directory so that they can show other people their business new starting business and existing company profiles.
Mother: Here let me show you the website.
Simon: Why just let me just do what I am doing for a sec.
Mother: Then you can show them the business directory.
Simon: Look if you would like to take a read through it, but it is not some think that will take five minutes, it has taken a lot of work and a lifetime of work at that to be able to build it for the people exactly how was done, I am rewriting Glastonbury and others management system the same I am looking at the big people behind me and how they archived what they wanted to achieve I am achieving exactly the same goals but I am just doing it today in today's modern world year and that is it.
Sam: You mentioned before that before all of this happened that you were getting on quite well with Goodie is that some correct Simon, how would you be if you did not go the hospital today, would you be prepared to meet with Goodie again.
Simon: If I did not go to hospital.
Simon: Well year I would be happy to meet Goodie again of course, but it depends under what grounds there is no reason for me to worry about meeting him over than the fact being that I am just a good person doing the correct things.
Copy of the Minutes of February.pdf

Katie: Is he not on leave at the moment.
Woman: In the background: Yes.
Sam: Yes, I understand Goodie is on leave at the moment.
Mother: He is on leave. Mother: He has already agreed to meet Goodie again.
Sam: OK
Simon: "Referring to the doctor" If you would like to read a bit more sir, you just seem real interested and I love it when people are interested in my work yet.
Sam: I am just going outside to see how the police are. Mother: If you actually show him the website
Simon: He would probably understand a bit more.
Simon: Have you seen the website before.
Katie: No one would.
Simon: OK I am going to show the website now.
Katie: Basically, you can hire out sound equipment.
Doctor: So why have the police stopped him.
Mother: and what he wants to do is community events, he has done a couple in 2013, like he has done Ponders End festival with the council he done, Lock to Lock.
Simon: what I own at present is an LTD company which Is Too Smooth Ltd, which is my Hire of provisions company now what I want to do is keep Too Smooth Ltd as an umbrella company I want to be able to maintain my limited foundation under that and manage a charity in co-Hurst, if anything it Is for the community, what they can do is advertise in the business directory it's like 118 but It is a digital business directory.
Copy of the Minutes of February.pdf
Doctor: So, the charity is a business directory.
Simon: Yes, that is what it is.
Simon: And what they can do is you can come along and advertise your business, what you would do is set fee and that money will go to a chatty bar at the top and it goes to the local community.
Simon: This is another folder that I have built this is a charity that I have been building.
Simon: And this is also what I have been building for Bliss a sponsored walk that I have been building for a company called Dem's working alongside Bliss.
Simon: "Referring to another binder".
Sam: Simon I just wanted to ask you a few more and I know its 100 questions and you got all these strange people in your living room, but if I could ask you a few more questions, do you ever hear voices when no one is around.
Simon: No.
Sam: And the police I know you got these ongoing court cases and I do not want you to talk about the specifics of them, but do you think the police have a kind of conspiracy going or something going on with the police:
Simon: I will show you one or two things that are going on at the moment.
Simon: These are the letters going on with Debbie I am going to go through a couple of them with you so you can see a bit of everything that we have talked about.
Simon: Take a look at this "I show letters of Debbie."
Mother: Keep your voice down Simon.
Simon: The National call centre is a million-pound centre yet and Met cc time stamps can't go backwards. For other start what colour am I, can every one answer me what colour am I mixed race would everyone agree that I am mixed race or light skin for a start year now I would like to show you one little snip lit, here this is a 999 call.

Mother: Sh.

Copy of the Minutes of February.pdf

Simon: This is a 999 call and this is what I have been accused of, caller states on the day there were about 20 people pulling into this estate, I was in this house on this date yet I could never have done it, I could never have done It, I have not even done a house party for nothing for years, caller looks like they're planning to an illegal rave, caller states they have brought in alcohol and carrying decks, caller states they are carrying boxes.

Katie: Who's that at the door?

Mother: I am just doing it because he is talking about the court case.

Katie: His not doing anything wrong.

Simon: Please stop for a Sec.

Simon: Caller states he can see them bring boxes into the building and states there defiantly all there.

Simon: Caller states they are all males and females and are all white people.

Katie: There trying to listen to you outside.

Mother: There coming in and they can hear him.

Simon: All white people.

Mother: You're trying to hear what he is saying and talking about his accepting a court case.

Doctor xx: Yes, that is bad.

Simon: So that is impossible for me to have done as I am mixed race.

Simon: So that is one bad quite think yes but let me go to something else that is even worse that is a bigger problem yet.

Sam: I would Amal your part of the team could Goodie come.

Amal: It could be the way Goodie could come here or you could come to them.

Copy of the Minutes of February.pdf

Simon: Then what does this do this tarnishes my medical record, then when people what to see me looking after other people in life, it looks dead,

Because right now I got the cleanest name in the world apart from the police darkening my name in on the website to which I have not because I ha have the transcripts, I am going to prove that in a couple of weeks.

Sam: But Simon it won't all this is.

Simon: but I am going to have a clean name again and I do not want my name on no mental health charts yet.

Sam: But.

Simon: It won't all this is.

Sam: There is a difference between people carrying out an assessment to see if they have a Mental Health problem.

Simon: Yes, but this is an assessment right now.

Sam: Yes, this is an assessment.

Simon: But what we are talking about is as if I do have a problem and now you want me to go to meetings.

Sam: No but in order to have a proper understanding is whether or not, you got the illness. I need to see you a few times and for you to see a doctor.

Simon: Do you understand what that would do to your career if someone were to do that to you right now saying that, would put you under if someone come along and done that to you and your living, right now her then that would tarnish the rest of your career possibly.

Sam: Not necessary Simon because there is a difference between.

Simon: I am working hard.

Sam: I can see you have a really strong business face. What is there a difference between you being assessed and people cheeking that you are OK.
Simon: But it is not going to be the same as every time you have already done this. Same: No all I am saying is that is a few, perhaps have a meeting with one of the doctors in Goodies team.
811,
Copy of the Minutes of February.pdf
Simon: Why would you want that from me?
Sam: Because doctors have a pacific skill to do a proper further assessment.
Simon: Well, I feel that is what you done today, and you know that you are intelligent, and you know that you are going to leave me.
Sam: Well but I think it.
Simon: And you are going to know that I am healthy as any think.
Sam: Well, I just think that tit is just not in you want, it will be in a period of times over a period of time.
Simon: So, you say I need another assessment then another one in a few months, what you're telling me is that is not going to tarnish the rest of my life.
Sam: No because it may not be.
Simon: So, I am not going to get my medical record and it going to say Simon should not look after 50 kids today because his slightly mentally ill.
Doctor: Simon.
Sam: Simon is not having a diagnosis which has some thought completely different no one was diagnosing you with any mental illness at this point there has been concerns raised so it is just a matter of people wanting to do a further assessment and this is part of it and what I think we would like to do after today is for you to see someone.
Simon: I am going to take your advice for a little while.
Simon: As long as you're not sectioning me, and you are not a doctor.
Doctor: Simon, Simon because of all the things like this you could get shot up again "Muttering" from the services if the team follow you and see you for a couple I do not know for how long.
Sam: If you do not see people and they have just got these concerns the people will just worry about you.
812,
Copy of the Minutes of February.pdf
Simon: But there is no reason to worry about me.
Sam: Well, it is just because they haven't had the chance the opportunity to do a report and assessment.
Simon: I got my court case coming up soon and I cannot wait to prove my innocents and then finish the rest of what I am doing and put every one right once justice is done, I will be happier more than I am.
Doctor: So, this is it you are most likely most likely most likely accurately you will be discharged at the end of this if they cannot prove that you are mentally ill.
Sam: Health services in the future they can have a look and they will receive a copy of the assessment OK, what I need to do is just have a quick chat.
Katie: His never had any problems in his life.
Simon: Yes, I have never had any problems in my whole life, and I am 35 years old.
Sam: That is fine.
Katie: It is just how everyone going about it if you go about, it the wrong way, you are going to be defensive and that is what has happened.

Sam: Yes, I can understand that people coming into your room with some really negative issues from mental Health services.
Katie: It is not just that.
Sam: OK.
Katie: It is not just that this guy has gone mad.
Katie: It was not necessary to bring all of the police today to be honest.
Sam: I know well, I walked into this situation for the first time today.
Katie: There dead, so you do not know any previous.
Sam: Previous.
813,
Copy of the Minutes of February.pdf
Sam: What I would like to do is just have a quick word outside with the doctors just to quickly decide what we want to do and come in and let you know which will take a couple of minutes OK.
Sam: OK
Sam: Simon we are just going to pop outside with the doctors for a couple of minutes and then we will come back and let you know the outcome of the Mental Health assessment OK.
Simon: You have left your bag here.
Sam: I am coming back in I am not leaving it, but you can hang on to it, I am sure it will be safe here.
Doctor: Have you been out on your motorbike.
Simon: No not for a little while now.
Mother: No he has not been using it.
Simon: I have just been staying indoors and relaxing for a little while, but I have kept it as an asset to be able to sell when I need to make some thinking constructive with it.
Marry: Simon my name is Mary I am one of the senior partitions in the home treatment team
Colin: I am Colin
Simon: How are you both?
Marry: Both of us work in the home treatment team.
Simon: It must be a hard team to work in some time.
Mother: Can I ask a quick question.
Marry: Yes.
814,
Copy of the Minutes of February.pdf
Mother: Err due to the conditions that he has been put under by the police he will not go out because he feels low the police are constantly on him and he's worried.
Katie: Is worried that he will get put into prison.
Mother: So, he will not go out until all of this appeal is over with and everything else and he starts getting his life back.
Simon: I have actually been set up I never done anything.
Katie: Simon, Simon, Simon.
Mother: His got an assessment tomorrow with ESA and his no going to go up there until it is there anything the mental health team can do.
Simon: Have you got the warrant.
Mother: Yes.
Mother: And can say can you write on that and give us a copy that It was not executed and that he allowed you entry.
Sam: I suppose the best thing to say, well it is up to you, you let us in so I can suppose we can say that and then send it back to the court.
Katie: Yes.

Mother: Yes, but can I keep a copy of it please.
Sam: Yes, will give you a copy.
Mother: Yes wonderful, thank you.
Simon: Would use lot like a drink.
Marry: No thanks.
Gentlemen's voice: In answer to your question and I do not have a clear answer Muttering"
815,
Copy of the Minutes of February.pdf
Mother: No, it is not basically his on six conditions at the present moment until this goes to the appeal.
Katie: It is not a curfew, but it is because he is not allowed to go to places.
Mother: Like to go out down the motorway after 10:00 pm he is not allowed onto industrial estates and can't even stop at a petrol station '
Simon: I have been looking in her for over three years and I have not even been found guilty or arrested.
Mother: His got an appointment tomorrow I have contacted them and said that it is going to need to be rearranged told them that he was getting an assessment today.
Marry: Yes.
Mother: Hmm you suggested that I have contact with them.
Marry: Hmm Hm.
Mother: And basically, they asked me to update them today as to what is going on err, they're open till 8:00 pm tonight.
Marry: Hmm.
Mother: High bury and Islington.
Katie: High bury.
Marry: Islington.
Simon: I am barred from the whole of the central London.
Mother: Err the building because it is classified.
Katie: His not allowed in any form of industrial estate like you know were. Salisbury is and toys r us Great Cambridge Rd he can't go to the McDonald's after 10:00 pm or any think.
Simon: I cannot go MC Donald's or any think. "Muttering 816,
Copy of the Minutes of February.pdf
Simon: If I go into any night club I need permission any night club if I walk into a house party and you got more 20 people in your house I can go to prison the problem is normal you have got private air and public air I got freedom of speech in this house this is my private air and that Is what I believe this is our human right and what crated our statues of liberty's as human beings, now what they have done because the buildings are in side there treated as people private homes and that Is their way of living so now what they have done is breach all my human rights and all the rules and regulations and say that private air and public air are the same and that is what they have do to give me this application.
Simon: Now what the judge has written is she has written I am not allowed to have no private birthday parties in this house today if I give you an amp and you take an amp to your house if you have 20 people listening to music on that amp in your house then I can go to prison I full fit for your actions
Carl: Does it say 20.
Simon: Yes.
Katie: Yes.
Mother: Yes, but that is what is written in the section 63.

Simon: But they're not allowed to do that in a house in a house I allow as many people as I want like normally you are allowed as many people as you want in here.
Simon: Section 63 is for outdoors unless tress pass has taken place, but they want to use it in to do me I am standing up for everybody.
Mother: It's absolutely wrong and there is an appeal, but the appeal taking Marry: If it is your own place, you can do what you want.
Katie: No, he is not allowed under the. Marry: What is that a section 63.
Katie: I do not know the sections I just know what the Asbo restrictions cover.
Sam: Hmm Simon I will be showing you are pleased to hear that you are not going to be put under a section of the mental health Act today. Cheers in the room: - 817,
Copy of the Minutes of February.pdf
Sam: You are not going to the hospital what would in courage you to do is to meet up with goodies and see the doctor in the Goodies team because what I think is If we got some thinking on file to say that there has been an assessment no Mental Health illness was found so next time someone phones up, we got that on our record because if you get some contact to say that there is concern about Metal Health, we have a duty of care to check what is happening
Simon: A duty of care.
Sam: So, having the assessment getting out of the way
Simon: So now that you have said that this is exactly 'the point that I wanted to raise her upstairs your team does have a duty of care of her, now these letters are the letters that she has been writing me, I was in a 13-year relationship and she was stalking me, following me around but I never paid her too much bother to me because I did not have all the court dates and orders on me so I was not in my house all the time.
Simon: Eventually any way I broke up with my partner and this woman started writing me letters all of a sudden this shows how clearly drunk she was and her mental state of mind in the letters
Simon: She is like dear Simon; I thank you for your support through alcoholism Simon: So, she is admitting that she is always drunk.
Simon: I was a where that I knocked on your door and borrowed money approximate £7 around 8 times.
Simon: So, you can see that I am always giving her money.
Simon: I am always giving her money.
Katie: That is because she is asking for it.
Simon: Yes, she is knocking on the door.
Simon: And then she is like I do not have the way or the means of stalking you.
Simon: So, she clearly understands that she is stalking me and I am saying to her please can you stop what you are doing to me, she keeps writing it when she is drunk, it is an intrusion of my life.
Copy of the Minutes of February.pdf
Simon: Now because of the case I am spending 24 hours a day in my home, do you know what she does, sir she comes here and she get the tap in her flat the manufacture intended it to be built for a purpose and that is not in the way she uses it, what she is doing is sitting there at the tap and I mean she sleeps at the tap " Description of her using the tap" going bang, bang, bang what it was like is someone had turned the pressure up by the stop cock.
Doctor: Can I stop you there please.
Simon: What it is I cannot even take my clothes off in my own home as she will stamp and follow me bang, bang, bang, bang on the floor all the way into the bathroom.

Mother: He has so many witnesses I been trying to get the council to help with no luck.
Sam: Have you raped I mean, surely the housing officers are aware that the. Mother: I have been I have been. Simon: the police will not do anything.
Mother: I have been trying to deal with it, I have gotten emails upon emails upon emails that I have sent begging the council to deal with lady upstairs.
Mother: Even when I am here, she follows me into the bathroom.
Simon: There are loads of them here she writes me so many letters so many letters.
Simon: Yes, and none of my friends can take their clothes of in this house or nothing 'because of what she has been doing.
Mother: It feels like she is continuing on top of your banging.
Simon: What she does every time she hears a computer keyboard; what she does is she will stand there and she will (Mr. Simon Cordell makes a loud banging sound)
Sam: And it sounds like there is no sound proofing here at all low.
Mother: No there is not.
Simon: I cannot even work in this house because of her I mean I have been sitting down in this house for the last year still just waiting for her to stop banning and this can cause my sleep pattern to mess up a bit from time to time still.

Sam: No I am fine, I am fine.
Mother: And I got emails upon emails asking the council to address it because it is not fair on him, he feels as if he has no privacy in 'his own home.
Simon: Look Simon, thank you I think I have sorted it and I believe you and would bend over not to make an emissary of your life sorry I cannot see leaving just the wedged headboard.
Katie: There are plenty of people who have been here she has done it to me.
Simon: This is how drunk she is when she wrote this.
Katie: You can hear her.
Louise Brown: Do you live in this block too.
Katie: No but I am always here I am, here a lot and I am also here a lot when mum is not here, I mean a lot of things have happened.
Louise Brown: yes.
Katie: So it is not like he is making things up as it has been seen by a lot of other people and no one does anything as it is a council place for him.
Katie: I even told him that he should move away from here.
Louise Brown: Hmm.
Simon: But do you know what she means by the wedged head board yes like I said a Christmas last Christmas I brought her a box of chocolates yes and I gave everyone in the block a present yes times where hard for me as this time because I had not been up to much because I had been on curfew for two years all ready at that stage yes in this house Simon so I brought t them their boxes of chocolates then In a couple of months later in February she started doing all this banging on the tap on purpose and stamping bang, bang, banging but just before that she knocked on my door one day and asked me to go upstairs into her flat and help move her bed out this was the first time I had been into her flat I have not been in that flat for years since she has lived there but I still went up their as a gentlemen I went up there and I went in to her house and the house did smell right it was clean but it did not just smell clean so I felt funny as I am one of them people that as if "She is lazy why is her house not clean" how could she invite me In to her house like that so I quickly moved the bed fast and UN-done it and got it out of the house and got out and got straight back to my own house yes and that is why she wrote that funny bit about the head board .

Simon: You are being the best neighbour in the world Debbie, and this is the sort of letters she keeps putting into my front door.
Mother: Even the council 'has turned around and said that she has a fashion- nation with my son, but they're not doing nothing and it's driving him, he cannot even go into the toilet and have a bath as she is on top of him banging continued.
Louise Brown: Hmm OK.
Mother: Even when I am sitting here and I go to the toilet and she does not even know that it is me and she does the same to me and it does make you feel and the council are really not doing nothing about it what so ever.
Louise Brown: Hmm.
Mother: He knows that she has got problems.
Louise Brown: And this has been going on for how long a long time.
Mother: A year. Louise Brown: Oh right.
Mother: And I put a complaint in because dawn Alena is his council officer.
Louise Brown: Yes.
Mother: I was making phone calls and saying to dawn Alena, please try and address this you know please its going too far now.
Louise Brown: Yes.
Mother: And she wouldn't come out she wouldn't deal with it and wanted Simon to come up and visit her and basically, I put a complaint in and the they said that they're going to put it over to the anti-social team and they wouldn't do anything then a Louise brown took up the case after months of not doing any think and I am writing emails upon emails and then they come out she did 821,
Copy of the Minutes of February.pdf
not take one note and he have video tapes recordings and every think and you can hear it and you can hear the taps where she was using the taps and they had the pressure up so high the noise that come into his flat was terrible the noise she was just turning it on and off on and off on and off.
Mother: He could not even sleep propel.
Louise Brown: How old is she Simon.
Simon: She is four years old now.
Mother: How old is Debbie.
Simon: Oh, she is about 12 years older than me I would say.
Louise Brown: 12.
Katie: Oh, what the dog.
Simon: Oh no the dog is four, four years of age.
Louise Brown: Arr.
"Muttering"45:14 till 45:34 Katie: She might be older than that.
Mother: And like I put a complaint in because the Anti-Social Behaviour team was not dealing with it and they were not taking the issue seriously and that was put in October of last year and we have not heard a thing, so I keep asking them when are we going to get a response from the formal complaint that was put in because you are not addressing thing correctly.
Louise Brown: And nothing.
Mother: nothing she actually phoned because I think she made a mistake, because he phoned Louise, and it know I mean Debbie was going off constant banging and he could not work or any think and it is annoying to him so he phoned Louise up and he always gives out my number so she actually phoned me by mistake and I turned round and said to Louise I said I said she said is Simon Cordell there I said no who is it she said it Louise Brown.

Louise Brown: I am Louise brown.
Copy of the Minutes of February.pdf
Mother: Oh, so you are Louise brown can you tell me why you have not responded to my formal complaint I sure you have and I know "Muttering" and I have not deleted them err, yet in another email you will have a response fast and directly but it is still going on now and it is now February and sill nothing.
Marry: No response.
Louise Brown: It can take up to four months later.
Mother: Yes, I Know.
Louise Brown: Any way.
Mother: And I have even been up because he has knocked on her door a few times when she was bad and really banging the council has "Muttering" A bit so that you do not hear it so badly so bad when she is constantly banging.
Mother: I mean, even the other day he had his entire bathroom ceiling flooded and it knocked his entire electric out and basically, he had to call the Emergency.
Louise Brown: Yes, the Emergency.
Mother: And he went upstairs to say to her you have got a leak and it is all Flooding through my bathroom then and then the council come out and then she well it seems she has cleaned the mess up.
Louise Brown: Hmm.
Mother: And basically, they have re-laid the whole of her pipes like they have re-laid his heating because they were having issues with the heating systems, so they re-laid the pipes over the wall.
Katie: You can see them on the walls over there.
Louise Brown: Yes.
Mother: And basically, he turns round, and they turned round, then they phoned me, and they said has the ceiling dried out yet as they had to disconnect the whole light.
823,
Copy of the Minutes of February.pdf
Simon: My bathroom light is disconnected right now.
Mother: And.
Louise Brown: Yes.
Mother: And then I contacted them back the next day and I said to them the ceiling is still too wet to actually re connect that back up it would be dangerous.
Katie: So is there still no electric in the bathroom.
Mother: And I said you are going to need to leave to your going to need to let it dry out before you come and reconnect it back up, then I got a phone call from them say now they believe the leak is coming from 117 that is the third floor up.
Mother: Because it is privately leased their going to come down and speak to Simon today, so I said OK, no problem because they have then got to pay for the damage that was then done. Louise Brown:
Mother: Err so the people from 117 come down and they said we have got no leak we have had someone come in and check and there is no leak.
Katie: Simon.
Doctor: See you.

RESPONSE TO MENTAL HEALH REPORTS
Dated: 12/09/2016 Name: Mr. Simon Cordell
Home Address: 109 Burncroft Avenue Enfield, Middlesex EN3 7JQ
Email Address: Re_wired@ymail.com
Date of Birth: 26 Jan 1981
Hospital: St Ann's Hospital, St Ann's Road London N15 3TH MHA
Status: Mr. Cordell had been on a Section 2 of the Mental Health Act 1983 since the 15th August 2016 that was then changed at Tribunal on the 26/08/2016 to a voluntary patient as the Tribunal panel did not feel a section 2 was needed. As of the 27th August 2016 I was discharged to my home from St Ann's Hospital and I am being treated as a voluntary home patient, to date of this letter.
Responsible Clinician: DR. JULIA CRANITCH
Date admitted: 16th August 2016 is on the records and reports, but in the report of DR. Rosemary mills it clearly state on page number 5 Chapter 13 Progress on the Ward, that I was being detained from the 15th/8/2016.
On the 14/08/2016 the police attended my home address I was arrested around 20:00 hours and taken to Wood Green Police station for allegations that I had threaten someone, which is not true.
In the time I was in police custardy I did not see an FME doctor. I also did not see my solicitors who I had asked to see.
On the 15/08/2016 two Mental Health doctors and an amp worker did come to my cell door and told me I was being sectioned under section 2 of the Mental Health act this was around 16:30 hours. I was upset at this due to knowing I had not been legally assessed as no person had come in or out of my cell to do such an assessment as can be proved by the police Cell's CCTV, I was not even served any paper work other than my bail form and therefore held illegally after I was bailed.
No official person would say what was going on throughout my detention and for what reasons they continued to hold me after being granted bail,
Throughout my whole stay all I wanted was to see my solicitor and be interviewed and then released as I had done nothing wrong. Just after this the police handed me a bail form at around 16:46 through my cell flap, I was bailed with no interviewed and I still did not still get to see my solicitor,
When given the bail form there was two doctor and a Mental health worker also standing outside the closed cell door, who said to myself that I was being held under section 2 of the Mental health act.
I said to the Doctor I know who you are I have you on CD from February coming into my home and I also have a complaint in against you and continued to state that I had done nothing wrong in my whole detention. I explained my rights and feelings and explained to them that they should not do this to me and every person outside the cell door walked away for a while, to come back five minutes later and say to myself through the cell flap once again you are being sectioned. I did not have an assessment with a doctor for my Mental Health at the police station which can be proved by CCTV and know I was then being held illegally, in the police cell under a section 2 without being served any official paper work to them doctors' statements or being assessed.

On the 16/08/2016 an Amp worker visited me at the police station around 03:30 hours took me on his own and then said that I was then to be moved to St Ann's hospital at around 04:00 hours, as he was going by what the two previous doctors had reported.
When I was transferred to St Ann's Hospital, I spoke to know one other than a single duty SHO with a nurse present.
I personally understand I had my first true assessment 72 hours later on the 17/08/2016 when I saw some doctors, my mother and uncle was also present at this meeting.
In response to an Inpatient psychiatric report, that was for a mental health assessment, inclusive of a related Tribunal, that was compiled on the 26/08/16 for DR. JULIA CRANITCH.

- Preamble:

- 1.2 of DR. Rosemary Mills Report:

DR. Rosemary Mills a ST4 Doctor started to prepare her report for a DR. JULIA CRANITCH seven days after Mr. S. Cordell was admitted to St Ann's hospital, in regard to a Mental Health Tribunal as noted in chapter 1.2 on the date of the 22nd of August 2016.
If you then turn to the last page chapter 27 the date of completion was the 24th August 2016, and once again turn back to the first page of the report and take note to the top of the headed letter and read the 25th August 2016 as to be able to tell the correct times, of DR. Rosemary Mills processing her report.
Also, on the 23/08/2016 my mother had made many calls to the ward to speak to a doctor to which none called back, so she travelled up to the hospital to speak to a doctor. When a doctor who is named DR. Rosemary Mills, effectually attended and spoke with my mother. When she came on to the ward she explained to mother, that it was her 1st day working on the ward and for St Ann's Hospital and that she had just taken over from DR. Humphreys and apologised due to this for not knowing a great deal about Mr. Simon Cordell, she continued to explain that she would help my mother as much as she could.
So, I question the truth of the date and accuracy of DR. Rosemary Mills report as she had not been working for St Ann's Hospital as dated the start of her report and had never talked to me?
On the date of the 23/08/206, DR. Rosemary Mills was with another doctor that my mother had seen before.
The 1st time I Mr. Simon Cordell had a meeting with DR. Rosemary Mills was on the 24/08/2016.
I Mr. Simon Cordell was not served a copy of DR. Rosemary Mills report in the legal time limit required, so to be able to legally prepare myself for my tribunal, as I had previously requested.
I requested this information so to have been able to question the true facts of the statements of evidence, that are now contained within the context of DR. Rosemary Mills Inpatient Psychiatric Report and Goodies ADAMA Social circumstances report. I was only given the report a little while before my tribunal
826,
Report - Reply.pdf
was due to start so did not have time to read it before the tribunal started, I did say this to the tribunal panel.
I would also like to draw reference to amending DR. Rosemary Mills report and Goodies ADAMA report:

This is in high light towards my own personal records that are being held upon RIO system and any other form of electronic and paper format that any medical teams may use, so for them official people to be able to compile their reports, as referred to as any reports that may relate to the Doctor and clients personal & conferential information otherwise known as intelligence.
DR. Rosemary Mills clearly states in the short time of the two brief meetings held at St Ann's hospital between herself and I that she used such personal information gained and studied from them meetings, this was also inclusive of information contained in or on RIO and any other sources that she may have used, that do relate towards myself so that she and he could conclude their reports, such information is largely incorrect to is evidence and I therefore request that information to be rectified as to being amended. Under the data protection act 1998 all information held about a person has to be 100% correct this is not the case in my records and so far, I only have limited information that was put in the report for the tribunal.

- History of Presenting Circumstances 2.1 - 2.2 of DR. Rosemary Mills report:

DR. Rosemary Mills report has been concluded in receipt for DR. JULIA CRANITCH.
I question the statement of facts that the Intel contained in the report regarding past history, not to be conclusive, as towards not being true to their facts.
On the 14/8/2016 I Mr. Simon Cordell was arrested by police at my home address at around 20:00 hours and taken to Wood Green Police station, it was not the 15/08/2016 as stated in DR. Rosemary Mills report.
The reason for my arrest was allegations I had made threats to harm my neighbour, these are fake allegations and when I return to the police station for bail this will be proved as the police are already aware my home is covered by CCTV and this will prove I never left my home on this day so could not have made any threats to harm my neighbour.
In Goodies Report it is claimed that it was my mother who put the report into the police about these allegations; this is also not correct my mother never contracted the police and reported anything about me. It was me that called my mother at 18:41 and told her the police was at my home trying to get in, she rushed down to my home with my uncle where there was around 15 police officer at this point and they stated recording what was going on, as I told my mother through the door the police had ripped the wires out of my CCTV system to the front of my home.
I Mr. Simon Cordell have yet to be interviewed, so to be able to find out who stated such false allegations about my mother and myself I am yet to find out, but I do NOT believe it to be my mother.
My mother was also asked if she had called the police at the Tribunal by the panel and she did not know what they were talking about and replied no she had not called the police. She has now had time to read the report and is very upset towards a lot of things that have been said and are contained in the report.
There is also the issue of concern in chapter 2.1 - 2.2 of Rosemary Mills report in regards to the wrongful truth in the statement being used relating to a police FME seeing myself, while I was being detained at the Wood Green Police Station, this is not true I never saw an FME doctor while at Wood green Police Station the cell camera evidence will clearly prove this once served by Wood green Police station, There has been a request put in for this information to the police, inclusive of all other notes legally made while being detained in cell number 3 and if granted which I could not understand why it would not be, this will prove what I have said.

Chapter 2.2 of DR. Rosemary Mills Report:

States that I was assessed by the Mental Health Teams AMP worker and Doctors at Wood Green Police Station, this is not true, I know to be assessed I would have needed to be spoken to by the doctors and AMP worker this was never done, I was never was taken out of the police cell and spoken to by two doctors or even asked if I would speak to the doctors or AMP worker.
I had been in detention for over 20 hours in a police cell waiting for my solicitor so I could have my interview. I never saw my solicitor in all the time I was held I only spoke to them once on the phone, and after over 20 hours two doctors and an AMP worker came to my cell door and told me throw the cell flap that I was being sectioned under the Mental Health act under section 2, I was never served any official paperwork to say I was being sectioned under the Mental Health act.

Chapter 2.2 of DR. Rosemary Mills Report:

The assessing doctors felt that Mr. S. Cordell presented features suggestive of Mental illness, in particular paranoid precautionary some ideas about the police and his mother.
This is far from the true facts of events that took place on this date, I was left in my cell sleeping on camera with no problems of concern thought the whole of my detention, and this was while being recorded on police cell number 3 by camera, at the Wood Green Police Station.
I did also requested food to eat at three different times and the food was served with additional drinks. I asked for a blanket as I was cold, and I was also left with my shoelaces and belt on. I even remember I had to ask for toilet roll to which that was then given to myself, in my whole stay I never caused any concerns in regard to my Mental stability.

- DR. Rosemary Mills Report:

There is the matter of the wrongful information that is contained in the collateral history of Mr. S.
Cordell records and those claims are more fictional as to their statements in weight in any sense.

- DR. Rosemary Mills Report:

DR. Rosemary Mills is wrong with her information as towards the truth of events at no point of time have, I ever stated to anyone that I believe the Television is talking about me, I have been asked this a few times and also in the 72-hour assessment at St Ann's hospital, my reply was "at no point of time do I believe the TV talks to myself or the radio and neither do I hear voices." I have no symptoms of the kind they mention or asked me.

Of the report also states:

I have paranoid beliefs about my mother.
This statement could not be any further from the truth as throughout my whole life I have been raised with high standards of good statue and have a very close mother to son relationship, my mother and myself have always been close along with the rest of my family, we are always there for each other as a family should be, even at the age of 35 as I am on today's date, as of headed at the top of this letter.
To my understanding my mother and I are both in disbelief of the blunt fabricated statements contained in the reports, that we do not trust one and other and the prospect of there being any truth in such unjustifiable personal Intel, making claims of my own self being and claims of my mother's statements proclaimed to be the evidence contained and supported by the reports.
In Goodies first statement of his report that is regarding, Social Circumstances that was for the Mental Health Act Tribunal that is dated 25th August 2016, I ask any reader to please take note on page 2 and of the 1st paragraph of that report, under the heading of circumstances leading to admission, it clearly states that I Mr. Cordell was arrested at my home address after my mother raised concerns about my Mental state- I know this not to be true as does she. the report goes on to say he was allegedly verbally threatening to his neighbours and (?) neighbours' children and continues to state, Simon's mother then called the police who arrested him, I have talked with my mother and asked her if she made up such statements or if she has even spoken to the police on the date of the 14/08/2016 and her reply was and still is no and I trust her.

As for the threats to kill and harm children this is not true at all. I did not leave my home address all day and would not harm or threaten a child, it is just not who I am. It continues to make wrongful claims such as I was seen by a police officer FME, which is not true at all. There is a clear issue's with misinformed intelligence, as to the claims of myself being verbal aggressive towards members of my neighbours, as the claims are not true, I have proof of a freedom of information request of myself, asking my local council if there was ever any issues relating to noise or any other complaints, in regards to my residence at, 109 Burncroft avenue for reference of the past 10 years that I have lived there and received the reply of no there has been no complaints so I exhibit proof of this as SC5, neither have I had any person knock at my front door with a negative view.
I once again question the accuracy of the intelligence report that does state:
That I use laughing gas recreationally, I Mr. Simon Cordell raises an issue with the date of such information, as for fact around the years of 2013 to 2014, I did experiment with some legal high's and never touched them since, neither have I thought about them.
As for the statements of myself having ideas, about the police and being paranoid towards them, I would like to make note of my true feelings, I do not feel paranoid about police officers, I just feel an injustice has been served upon myself, this has been achieved in relations towards pervious cases, I have now proven my innocents towards.
I also still have one up and coming court appeal, that I await, so to be able to prove my innocents towards, I was not found guilty under the applicant's case at the magistrates court and have the court transcripts as evidence of this and the truth being, of many other facts that are yet still to be presented at court and because of this I have recently been preparing my defence for this appeal, so I may talk about this a bit at present, as this case is within the next up and coming four weeks. I do not feel that this is abnormal for any person to feel the way I do, especially about their freedom being taken away, when they are clearly in the right.
My mother has also confirmed in the meeting with the doctors that when I talk about the police it is not paranoid it is the truth. There is a long history with myself and the police they do not leave me alone, this has been going on for over 20 years, yes, I agree some of it was justify by my actions at the time, but most was not justified. I am under no delusion that the police have a job to do, but I also know how I have been treated by the police and that is fact. In the report it is written I am paranoid but have the doctors ever asked me what I have gone through with the police to find out if it is paranoid or fact? I have not been asked once by any doctor.
- Mental State Examination on Admission:

Reference to Chapter 3.1:
In general, I can agree with a vast amount of the information that was drafted and served; I am however concerned about the issues of: -
- Being classed as dishevelled, as for a general appearance, I do obtain my dress code so to be of the nature of clean and well-dressed person, but due to being arrested at my home address, without no prior warning, I was wearing casual everyday indoor clothing and please explain to me what does having 4 teeth missing has to do with anything I was in an accident and lost my upper two front teeth I had a bridge fitted so they had to file down my teeth beside the 2 front ones, the bridge came out and I lost it, does this mean I have Mental Health issues?

- I do admit I have become irritable, but this was as I knew I had not been legally assessed and I had been detained in a police station, from the date of the 14th of august 2016, this was also with no interview or charge taking place while being detained. I was of no problem to any person; this does include myself.
- Speech I Mr. Simon Cordell would be the first person to admit that I do speak fast, If asked why I speak fast I would explain as a child I was classed as being tongue tied having a malformation restricting the movement of the tongue, this had an effect on my speech as a child I was under north Middlesex hospital they did not do the operation and was placed under speech therapy throughout school, I have always had to speak fast to get my words out so people could understand me this is who I am and the way I learned to deal with being tongue tied and the majority of people that I do meet tend to get along with myself and do not have an issue with it and other people do understand me, as did the nurses and patients who were at St Ann's Hospital during my stay, as noted in their reports, the assessments do state that I am a very polite person, I believe this to be as for my parents upbringing and life's toils, as one may say throughout a person's life.
- I am usually in a good mood as I still do re-quote and may be found by some persons as being slightly elevated, but this is part of my personality and constitutes to a positive impact, rather than a negative impact.
- When I denied not having thought about harming myself or others inclusive of having any perceptions or hallucinations this was and still is true.
- I do listen and take advice from medical professionals and judge what is best for me, this must also be said to be inclusive of other close friends and persons and together we do not come to the wrong conclusions, together we clearly do not believe I suffer with any Mental illness as the reports claim I may.

· DR. Rosemary Mills Report:

I agree that I have been setting up a company and this has taken me some time to complete due to raising money that is needed, while studying and getting the help or support to achieve my goals. This may be classed by some people, to be acting in a manner that is slightly grandiose, but I believe every person should set their goals high and achieve them set goals, to which I intend to one day complete.

24.11.2019 DR. Rosemary Mills Report:

I do not agree with the DR. Rosemary Mills statement, as when describing my company the truth seems to be slightly in tangled, as I do not recall saying that I intended on managing part of the Mental Health care's facilities, I do in fact clearly remember explaining that I intend for my company to be able to support people as deprived as some of the NHS and Mental Health teams patients, that they have to manage on a day to day basis and that I would in Co Host like for my company to have a steady upkeep of its regime as the NHS does.

As for me stating that I intended to buy speakers for 50,000 pounds, I did not state this and this statement is therefore not true, what I did explain was that when introduced to a young gentleman a few years back, whom had half of his arm decapitated, whom did visit me on more than one occasion; we both seemed to have very similar ambitions, both towards the love of music and good sound systems not to forget good people.

Report - Reply.pdf

One day my friend, explained that he had a sound system and asked me to visit him at his home address, as he explained where he lived, I noticed the distance of his travels, for whenever he had to visit me.
I found myself at this young gentlemen's, tower blocks, he lived on the 18th floor. On being asked to follow my friend into his bedroom I see the problem he was having with space; this was due to the size of his speakers and his disabilities.
He explained that he had the same dreams as I do this was before he had been in an accident. We both talked and what was explained for a while and took the understanding together that he needed the space in his room, so that he could be able to sort his life out. I worked a price out with him and paid him the price of each speaker.
When they were new their price was £50,000 pounds each and they are now much cheaper, to buy.
We are both still very good friends to date; I still see him he still has the same dreams and knows when I sort everything out with my company, he can be part of it.

- Physical Examination on Admission:

I agree with this section of the report.

- Psychiatric History Regarding DR. Rosemary Mills Report:

I am not happy with the DR. Rosemary Mills report due to the reasons being: Myself Mr. Simon Cordell's and family representatives, inclusive of civil partner and close net friends, who do support me and disagree with the negative statements used in the medical reports. We all therefore agree together, that a wide amount of information contained in RIO'S data base is widely inaccurate, such wrongful intelligence is amongst the statement that does quote; that I Mr. Simon Cordell have previously been diagnosed as to be suffering from nonorganic psychosis f29, as dated with reference towards 2015, as for fact, any person who is truly suffering from Schizophrenia and Delusion F20-F29 Schizophrenia, schizotypal and delusional, and other non-mood psychotic disorders, do in fact suffer with different symptoms to what I have clearly shown, while being closely monitored by health professionals, in St Ann's Care centre by their teams.

DR. Rosemary Mills Report:

Relating to a diagnosis of an Adjustment Disorder F35.2 in 2014, I Mr. Simon Cordell also question, this.

- On the 25/06/2013 the police came to my home they arrested me for burglary which I knew I did not do.
- The police charged me, why I do not know. I was remanded to prison due to incorrect records that are contained on my PNC, which I can prove to be wrong, this is getting addressed.
- My mother and myself had to appeal the decision made by the judge who had remanded myself to prison at the crown court, which I was then granted bail under 6 conditions.

1. Surety £1000 from Ms Lorraine Cordell, this is (To be surrendered to the nearest Police Station) - prior to release from Custody.
2. Residence @ 109 Burncroft Road, Enfield, EN3 7JQ.
3. Not to enter the London Borough of Southwark.
4. Surrender Passport to nearest Police Station.
5. Report daily to Edmonton Police between 1400 - 1600 hours.
6. Curfew 8pm - 6am (doorstep condition - the Defendant should show himself too any officer upon requests.)

Report - Reply.pdf

- Due to how much the police had kept tarnishing my life when I had clearly not done anything wrong, this caused stress in my long-time relationship till we had to depart from one and other, as she could not take know more with the police harassment.
- The case took over a year to deal with as the CPS would not give the discloser that my solicitors was asking for and the judge ordered them to give.
- After a year and on the day the trial was due to start the Judge discharged the changes and found me not guilty in July 2014 this was before the trial started.
- In this time my brother had a life changing accident.
- My Nan was diagnosed terminal and passed away 30/08/2014
- A close friend of the family passed away in Dec 2013
- A close friend of the family passed away May 2014
- A close friend of the family was diagnosed terminal and passed away on the 29/08/2014 the day before my Nan.

- Adjustment Disorder order means there is an event in your life one that you are not coping with. I admit that I had multiple things going on in my life but none that I was not coping with and I would not call this adjustment disorder.
- The facts are that the police knew that I could not have done what they were saying is, the errors on the police PNC database caused me to go to prison, and I feel victim to the way in which I was being treated
- by the courts, because of what was being told to the judge by the police and CPS, this is also inclusive
- of the period of time leading to how long the case was taking due to myself not getting discloser from the police after the judge ordered it, we did not get disclosed until the trial date,
- The reason why the prosecution would not give discloser was it because they knew that by giving me it, they would have got the case dismissed much earlier and this is what did happen in the end, for reasons such as the information I and my family had obtained.
- I could not do anything with my company and lost loads of contracts due to the bail conditions that I was under knowing and I knew that I had done nothing wrong so to be put under these conditions,
- I lost my long-time partner due to this due to the wrongful facts that the police claimed.
- Relating to a diagnosis of an Adjustment Disorder F35.2 in 2014, I Mr. Simon Cordell also question the truth of this statement and understand it not to be true, as to the events that took place on the date did not relate to such a diagnosis.
- I am again very concerned and unhappy with the following information being in breach of my rights that on the 11th /3/2014, it has been said that I Mr. Simon Cordell was assessed by the DR. Jarvis of the Enfield Triage Team this is said to be after a referral by my GP and while in that meeting I strongly disagree with the following: -

- I was not suffering from any symptoms, anxiety for nine months as stated due to being Mentally ill, as for the truth being that I was feeling that the duration of time, leading towards the on goings of the court case, up and till the conclusion of the ongoing, was having an effect on my way of life, until I was found not guilty.
- My doctor did not refer me to DR. Jarvis, as to in reality, I personally arranged the meeting and went there of my own free will and told my doctor what I had planned to do.
- I clearly was not suffering from a diagnosis of an Adjustment order, due to being correct and not been found guilty in regard to the issues I was having at the time.

On the 19/11/2016, it is said that I was referring to the home treatment team; this was due to concerns, that I Mr. Simon Cordell had become paranoid about my mother. I question the following: -
I question who referred me to the home treatment team and the specific too the reason why?
I question who stated that I had become paranoid about my mother as me and my mother have always been very close. I have spoken with, my mother and she has explained to myself that she was at her home address when she received a phone call from the Mental Health team staying that the police were at my flat, this call was made while I did not know.
My mother told the Mental Health team that she did not know why the police was at my home. She told the Mental Health team that the police keep going to my home for no reason.
The Mental Health team spoke to the police but kept my mother on hold on the phone and she could hear what was being said.
The Mental Health team asked the police why they were at my home.
And the police replied that they have been called to my flat, the Mental Health team asked by whom, which the police did not seem to know as they gave the Mental Health team 3 door numbers which do not even belong to my block. The police stated to the Mental Health team since they got there I had started shouting.
The Mental Health team asked the police to leave my flat, the phone call cut of at this point with the Mental Health team and my mother, so she does not know if anything else what was said.
I was not upset and was watching some TV before the police came to my home again for no reason, I had not done anything wrong. I do not always open the door to police, due to how they are with me and sometimes shout through my door to them. Until one of my family, can get to my address so they can see what is going on.
When the Mental Health did try to talk to me this night, I was upset due to what the police was doing they kept coming to my home for no reason I did not feel like speaking with anyone I just wanted to go back to watching some TV and having a rest and for the police to leave me alone,
I was not shouting and distressed so do not believe the police got a call from anyone on this day to be at my home.
The Mental Health team called back my mother and told her they would leave me alone that night and come see me again in a few days to see how I was feeling the Mental Health team did not say anything to my mother about it being unsafe to see me or feeling unsafe.

DR. Rosemary Mills Report:

I do not feel on the 08/12/2015 I presented myself as unwell, I feel it is only human for any person to have a bad day.
As you can see above, I have a great deal of problems due to the police and I do not feel that this makes me paranoid or delusional. Some people may find it hard to believe that I have so many problems with the police, but I do it is the truth, and my family and friends can also confirm this as well as many other people. I now feel I am being pushed in to not talking about the truth and what the police have done to me. Due to people stating and taking it as I am Mentality ill, I should not feel this way I should be able to talk about what is going on in my life as it is the truth. I have never been a danger to myself or towards any other person.

Rapid speech I do find that I tend to speak fast, and this is the way I have always been, it does not have a negative effect in regard to my family and friends and peers or relating to any business partner & clients I meet; I however do take note to the comment and will think about and try to speak slower from now on. But with this still in mind as said above I am still tongue tied and this is how I learned to speak I feel I should not have to change this due to people thinking I have a Mental Health illness; all it should take is for someone to ask me why I speaking so fast then I could explain. But people have not done this they have just said that I have a Mental Health problem due to this.
Thought disorder: I do not understand, why this has been noted down, as I do manage to maintain a positive form of thinking and my thoughts are constructive thoughts that are not over calculated or overwhelming to their facts.
I spoke mostly about misdiagnosis and mistreatment by police, as I have explained before, I have had years of on goings with the police, I know for sure that I can prove my statements, as from a young age my cases have been mostly NFA's regarding the police. I am in the process of an Appeal Court Case at the moment and that date is very near, I do not feel paranoid about the truth and I feel that I am looking forward to proving my innocents at court.
Paranoid persecutory delusions regarding conspiracies to damage my reputation and to kill me that have been organised by a global agency called Storm.
It seems there is a lot of information that has not been taken down correctly and then inputted on my Mental Health records and this is incorrect some people might say my Mental health records information is entangled, as for it is misleading to the true facts and the true understanding that should have been taken is yes, I do have issues with the police and as said before these issues are real. As also said, I have an upcoming Appeal in Sep 2016. Where the information that has been given directly from the police CAD system and them Cads, I have been given seem to be misleading to the true facts due to the time stamps and other inaccurate information, which should never be able to happen in any database system. The Police CAD system is a software database, when people call the police via 999 or 101 their call goes to the police control centre, a member of the control centre takes the call and inputs the data into their CAD system and it is then time stamped so if the person needs a police office to their home their system can do this ETC. This police system is called Storm in Scotland and met CC in London which is our Emergency 999 call centres, I attach a copy of the on goings at court and any reader can make their own assumption, as contained in Regards towards opinion & Recommendations Chapter 17 pages 7 of this Report.
I also dispute the fact that I have ever said or referred to subliminal messages through my TV or any other way.
I have been asked this by the Mental Health team on a number of occasions and by the doctors and I explain to them the same thing every time. My TV including anything else, such as a radio has never spoken to me before.
My TV is something I watch to relax maybe I will watch a film or a program to cut off from work things I am doing for my company or before I go to sleep, so I dispute that I Mr. Simon Cordell, referred to subliminal messages through my TV: I once again question the stability and accuracy of this statement, as for fact I did not quote this neither do I suffer from any dilutions or psychoses.

Mr. Cordell is said to have believed that upstairs neighbour was stalking him, the neighbour has since moved, and Mr. Cordell felt she was still harassing him and had CCTV of this.

I have not said that my ex-neighbour Debbie who once lived above me is still stalking me as I have not seen her since she moved.
I also believe what the Mental Health has on their system about this is incorrect.
My ex-neighbours name was Debbie and yes, I did have some problems with her. When Debbie moved in I got along and looked after her for around 5 years, at this point of time in my life I was still in a long relationship with my Ex Partner and Debbie use to come to our front door and ask to borrow money from us, which if we could help we would and did as I am that sort of person and so was my Ex partner, like if I saw her trying to carry shopping up to her flat I would help her curry it to the door of her flat as I think this is the right thing to do but I never went into her flat.
After me and my partner ended in July 2013 Debbie started to come down to my flat more and more and trying to bring me drinks and also still asking for money, I never let Debbie inside my flat. I would not take the drinks of her, for one thing, I don't drink and for a next reason I knew Debbie had a problem with drink so tried to say to her stop buying it and to stop drinking it.
Debbie started to send me letters and started banging on the floor in every room anywhere I went in my flat, she was above me; our flats do not have any sound proofing so you can hear most things.
The banging got worse and worse and she started banging on the tapes and pipes also I could not sleep I could not even go to the toilet without Debbie being above me.
I asked my mother if she could call Enfield Council as it was getting too much, which my mother did and also sent emails to them, I even called them myself. Nothing was being done by the council I told them I had CCTV of what was going on but they never asked to see it, in the one and only meeting I had with them they did not even ask to see all the evidence I have; I did offer more than once in the meeting to show them, the lady did not even write anything down.
I said to her that Debbie even attacked me outside the flat all of this was told to the council. Debbie was then moved out and I have not seen her since she moved.
I do state that I have many recordings of such past activates of me being victim to 113 Debbie and 117 Markandu's actions.
I attach a copy of transcripts relating to a video that I acclaim in relation to the Mathiyalagan Markandu, family as dated 00/00/2016 who live at 117 Burncroft Avenue, in response to the allegations of threats to kill which I now have to attend the police station for bail on the 10/10/2016.
This is a copy of the transcripts of the video footage of when I went upstairs to 117 on the top floor from my own flat, due to my members of my neighbours banging on the walls and floors to intentionally make my self-victim to their actions, at around 19:42:43 on the 05th September 2016, 20:42:43 a few days after leaving the hospital.

My personal CCTV that I have installed is for my own safety, it is not there to invading other people's personal lives or privacies, it is installed for my personal use and it fixture is mounted and contained within the internal hallway and is not a breach of the Data Protection Act 1998 "DPA".
DR. Rosemary Mills Report:
19/01/2016 I challenge the statements contained in the context of such report in regard to:
On the 19/01/2016 I was due to have a meeting with Goodie from the early Intervention team Goodie came to my flat with a lady I believe her name to be Diana. We all said hello to each other and seat down to talk. At this point Diana phone ring and she took the call and went into my hallway to speak.
I and goodie carried on speaking in my front room and a little while later the lady returned into the front room and said to Goodie sorry, but they would have to leave. Goodie got up to leave but did tell me he was going on leave for 4 weeks and would see me when he came back but if I needed any help, I could call the main team.
This chapter states that I am paranoid about people especially the police, as I have explained and supported evidence towards already, I am not wrongfully paranoid about a few members of the police, as I have overwhelming evidence of police corruption which they have caused. And those matters are in the high courts and IPPC hands inclusive of my solicitor and self being.
I would like to strengthen the truth about myself not being paranoid about over people I have no worries about paranoia and never put myself in harm's way to upset others, so I therefore feel no reason to be paranoid about other people inclusive of my mother and family.
But it seems due to talking about the police this makes me a paranoid person, maybe if someone seat down and heard what I was saying and read some of the reports I have, maybe they could see for themselves what I am saying is the truth.
But it seems when people are faced with something they do not want to or cannot understand, like something what I am face with in my life such as corruption in police cases can go on, this is wrong in today's modern world.
When any person gets accused of being a paranoid person and said to and have a Mental Health issue. Who can show the documented articles of corruption to any person on request in turn stating the truth about what there being accused of being paranoid about?
Why because people see the police as people that do no wrong. So, when a person says anything bad towards the police, they are the ones that have got to be in the wrong. It seems I can have all the paperwork in the world to prove what I am saying, yet in the eyes of the Mental Health team I have a Mental Health illness why because they will not open their eyes to the truth.
As for me not eating I eat very well I always have and my dog is also fed very well, I also look after my home and it is clean and tidy maybe there is lots of paperwork around as I am doing a lot for my company and also my appeal case, but I know where everything is and most of my paperwork is in binders.

DR. Rosemary Mills Report:

On the 22/01/2016 I was at my flat doing my paperwork waiting for some people to attend for a meeting about an up-and-coming event that was due to take place.

I heard my door and was thinking the people had turned up a little early, when going to the door and opening it I see doctors and other people wanting to come in my home. I told them I did not know anyone was coming and I had a meeting arranged. I was told that they did not have to tell me they were coming and could just come.

I told them the meeting I was due to have was a business meeting and it would not look good if the people I had the meeting with showed up and saw doctors and Mental Health workers so could they do this a next day. I did not say they could not have access to my property I just said it could not be on that day.

I dispute the fact that anyone could have made a diagnosis I was paranoid, suspicious, and grandiose with flights of ideas in such a little time that they were at my door. As all we spoke about was my meeting and that it was not convenient that day and could it be done on a next day due to the meeting I had already arranged.

I dispute any negative thoughts and feel that achieving to be a young entrepreneur in today's modern society may seem grandiose to some, but I know it to be a reality for many achievers.

I was shocked when I opened the door to see all these people.

I do not know why there was a need to apply for a 135 warrant as I had never not said they could not have access I just asked if this could be done on a next day due to my meeting which I do not think was too much to ask.

DR. Rosemary Mills Report:

On the 25/01/2016 the Mental Health team applied to the court for a 135 warrant to enter my home the warrant was valid for 3 months from the date of issue by the court.

The grounds that were used for the warrant was as below.

A person believed to be suffering from Mental disorder [has been] ~~[is being] [ill-treated]~~ [Neglected] [Kept otherwise than under proper control] [Being unable to take care of him/~~herself~~, is living alone] at My home address

How on earth could they say I was being [Neglected]?

How on Earth could they say I was [Kept otherwise than under proper control]?

How on Earth could they say I was [Being unable to take care of him/herself, is living alone] at My Home address?

In all the reports that have been made in regards to myself from Medical all intelligence data, prior to the teams requesting the section 135 warrant seem to say I had been Neglected, which I am sure if was true would be drafted in the reports.

In none of the reports, has it ever said I was out of control nor does it say while I have been living in my home there has been an incident relating to Mental health problems.

Also, in none of the reports did it say I could not take care of myself due to living alone, in no reports did it say I was not eating, in no reports did it say I did not have food in my home and they did check this when they come to my home and always saw I had food, I was always clean and my dog was always feed and was in good condition.

It goes beyond words how they were able to get a section 135 warrant issued by the court.

Report - Reply.pdf

On the 02/02/2016 is when they used the section 135 warrant to come to my home with police. On this date I was at home and had no visit of the medical team, as for this was the date when the section 135 of the Mental Health Act was applied for a court, as I have the true paper work served and the minutes for the meeting on CD.

DR. Rosemary Mills Report:

I was contacted by the Mental health team and explained to them in a phone conversation that I had spoken to my civil partner and we both that together after the on goings in the meeting that we will both monitor any issues of concern about my Mental health, alongside the rest of my family and friends and if ever any problems arise, we will contact the Mental health team as of date.

There have been no true problems other than the false allegation of threats to kill to date which I have proof of not leaving my home on the date in question on CD.

Past Medical History

DR. Rosemary Mills Report:

6.2. While at the police station being held as a detainee on the 14/08/2016 until the 16/08/2016, I had no health issues this does include the 16/08/2016, while being detained at St Ann's Hospital.

In St Ann's Hospital I was in full good Health right up and till the 17/08/2016, when I went to use the hospital toilet as I walked in to use the toilet I slipped on the wet floor and fell forward causing both of my small index fingers to snap forward, this caused me a large amount of pain.

The toilet was left in a foul manner before I had arrived and had clearly not been maintained all day, as for there was large amounts of human waste otherwise known as urine around the floor and on the toilet seat, I clearly remember there being no safety signs up as I walked into the room and once, I was inside so for any person to have been prior warned of such faults.

On noticing the damage caused to both my fingers on both separate hands I worried with concern as for the need I have for them. I care for my hands as they provide my abilities to earn a living.

I then got up and went straight to the staff room and reported the incident, I asked for it to be drafted into the Hospitals accident and report book and to have the Emergency medical provisions that I required, it was explained to myself that I will have to get the staff doctors to deal with the issue the next day.

On the 18/08/2016, I again asked for the incident report book to be updated, so as for any person to be able to explain the damage caused to my fingers, while I was under section 2 of the Mental health act 1983 while I was being detained at St Ann's hospital.

When at around 11:00am I showed a doctor, the reason I was given the opportunity to show a doctor was because of he had asked me to take part in routine checks, such as checking my heart rate, I showed the doctor the damage to both my fingers, I also expanded to the doctor the pain I was in and therefore suffering and that I required emergency assistance such as an x ray.

It was then explained to me that even low my left finger looked snapped they believed it to be swollen, I knew this not to be fluid in my left finger but for it to be part of my bone snapped, it was also explained by the doctor to me, that my right finger will heal and gain movement over time, I challenged this to the maximum extent I could at the time.

When comparing the snap to both of my small index fingers, I class my right finger to be a lot worse as for the reason being that I have lost full control of it and can no longer use it, not having any use of my right small finger has a large effect on my daily life for incidence I can no longer write with a pen as I once could and I have issues with picking anything up as I once could before.

I continued to report my concerns of my well-being in regard to my fingers with no true aid in emergency medical assistance apart from being prescribed ibuprofen an anti flamer tries and having my fingers taped together. I know that any person can clearly see the break in my left finger to date.
I am still in continuing pain due to the way it has repaired incorrectly, this lack of duty to care I believe has caused life time injuries to my abilities of my hand, in turn causing the absinth of any use from my left small finger, this really upsets me as I now feel disabled due to this accident and I know if I had my own liberty at the time I would have gone and received the medical help I needed, relating towards my Health.

- Medications Prior to Admission DR. Rosemary Mills Report:

I agree to the fact that I have never had any medication prescribed to myself in regards to Mental health issues as there has never been a need, however since I have been getting assessed by the Mental health team, I have now been prescribed tablets by the Teams Professionals.

- Family Histories:

DR. Rosemary Mills Report:
My Nan did suffer from Mental Health problems from 1989 she suffered from manic depression, this surfaced when my Nan started to have her Menopause at the age of 52 and was put on treatment for this which was HRT.
She started to take HRT and the family noticed changes in her she was on HRT for around 6 months and due to how it affected her Mental Health she was taken off it, my Nan was never the same after this and did have admissions to hospital. My Nan last stay in hospital was longer then needed to be and she took it to Tribunal where the Judge ordered that she be released from the section 3 she had been on until this stage my Nan had always been diagnosed with manic depression and she had never showed any signs of a person with schizophrenia should have shown. After what the judge said my Nan's diagnosed was changed to schizophrenia, I believe this was only done so she could be placed on the drug Clozapine as at this time only patients diagnosed with schizophrenia could be placed on this drug. My Nan stayed on Clozapine until her death on the 30/08/2014.

- Personal Histories:

9. DR. Rosemary Mills Report:
I only draw an issue with this statement in regards to my father, my father has never wanted bad for any of his children just for us all to act responsible and with dignity and pride, for he himself just had a strict up bringing, he has all ways been a working man and provided for his family and as a family we all love him very much.

- Forensic Histories:

DR. Rosemary Mills Report:

- I agree with the fact in this section of the report.
- This Is a List of my full bail conditions and a short summary relating to some issues of concern, section section.63 of the criminal Justice and Public order Act 1994 is for outdoor events all incidents I am are being accused of are all indoors and I did not commit.

The Defendant is prohibited from:
841,
Report - Reply.pdf

- Attending a rave as defined by s.63 of the criminal Justice and Public order Act 1994.
- Being concerned in the organization of a rave as defined by s.63 of the criminal Justice and Public order Act 1994.

- Knowingly using or supplying property, personal or otherwise, for use in a rave as defined by s.63 of the criminal Justice and Public order Act 1994.
- Entering or remaining in any disused or abandoned building.
- Entering or remaining on non-residential private property on an industrial estate between the hours of 10pm and 7am without written permission from the owner and / or leaseholder of the property; and
- Engaging in any licensable activity in an unlicensed premise.

- These conditions are for the whole of the UK, and I believe are a breach to my human rights under ASBO Legalisation.
- It was asked in court by my Barrister if I needed to go to a petrol station as well as other places like to do shopping between the hours of 22:00 hours and 07:00 hours such as a 24-hour Mac Donald's what will happen and it was explained that he would in fact be in breach of this ASBO the judge explained and said Well he will be arrested and have to prove in court I was going to get petrol.
- If I made a wrong turn when driving and turned into a non-residential private property on an industrial estate, I would be in breach of this ASBO.
- My mother also tried to ask things about the conditions what if he needed to go and get milk from Tesco's or a shop and the judge said Well, he will be arrested I can't even go to a shop between the hours of 22:00 hours and 07:00 hours without being in breach of this ASBO.
- If I was to go out for a night out, I would have to ask the owner to see if there licensed to make sure I am not in breach of my ASBO as I was told it is down to me to make sure they are licensed.
- No one wanted to define the conditions the applicant which is the Met Police wanted to make this a life time ASBO and made sure the conditions were correct so that after the 5 years they can apply to put a next 5 years in place because the judge would only allow the 5 years and not the life time ASBO.
- If illegal raves have not been proven which they were not, then why do my conditions for the ASBO still define illegal raves?

Part of my Barrister submissions that represented me, had been that the allegations were that I was involved in organizing illegal raves, but the applicant hadn't adduced evidence of trespass which is a requirement for proving that an indoor rave was illegal.
The Deputy District Judge ruled that the applicant did not need to prove illegality - all the needed to prove was I had acted in an anti-social manner, to which I had not acted in any anti-social manner within the whole case file.
In the view of my barrister this is a very questionable decision: firstly, the applicant based their case on the illegality of the raves rather than the fact of the raves themselves and secondly, without proof of 842,
Report - Reply.pdf
illegality the presumption of innocence leads to the conclusion that the raves were legal, and thus I being prohibited from engaging in an ostensibly lawful activity requires more careful consideration on issues of proportionality.
I have to agree with my barrister as when dealing with this case I was addressing the applicant case to prove that I had not been involved in organizing illegal raves, as this is what the application against me was.
The case was proven that I acted in an in an anti-social manner, but I don't understand by doing what. As the case against me was that I had organized illegal raves, and this part was not proven so what did I do that cause harassment, alarm, or distress to one or more persons not of the same household as myself?

- DR. Rosemary Mills Report:

The report states that; Mr. Simon Cordell has stated that he is currently on bail for making threats to harm his neighbours he has a court date relating to this on the 8th October 2016. This is clearly misinformed information as the true facts are, I was arrested on the 14/08/2016 and not allowed to be interviewed as they said I was not fit for interview and placed on a section 2 of the Mental Health act. The police bailed me until the 04/10/2016 for alleged threats to kill to what person or persons I still am not quite sure, as I am still yet to be interviewed. I am on bail to the police station on the 04/10/2016 and this is not a court date, as I have not been charged and will not as I do have a video that provides the evidence that I never committed such crimes as I never left my home.

Drugs and Alcohol History:

DR. Rosemary Mills Report:

I dispute and there for challenge the statement that is contained in the reports and in RIO that is in regards to my use cannabis on a daily basis, as at the time of the incident I clearly remember explaining when questioned, my reply to be no I do not.

DR. Rosemary Mills Report:

It is said that when I was admitted into hospital in 2012 for assessment after allegedly using LSD and drinking a bottle of rum at a festival.

This is not true as on the date in question the truth being, I was passed by another person a drink of rum and it contained LSD to my surprise.

DR. Rosemary Mills Report:

I was asked if I would do a drugs test and I agreed to do one. This never happened I asked about this more than once to be done which it was not.

Social History:

DR. Rosemary Mills Report:

I do live in a one-bedroom flat and deny ever saying that I or another person had paid to own it as I know this not to be true as of yet. I did however say that I would like to buy my flat from the council.

Diary of Events in Mr Simon Cordell's Life Since 2012 till Date 2016

22/07/2012	Stopped by police as my vehicle showed I did not have insurance, But I did have insurance; police took case to court via a summons which I did not receive and only found out about it once I got a letter from DVLA. I applied to have case reopened and won the case after showing my insurance. Fine and points removed from my licence.
14/08/2012	Case went back to 2005 and it was for a wrongful accused robbery in a shop, I was arrested on the 14/08/2012 (Case was NFA 18/09/2012 as it was not me.)

Then the police said tat I had No insurance, and seize my van, I told them about the error on the MED database and this information was on there own police systems. Police still seized my van which I had to pay again to get back police took the case to court under a summons for No Insurance. I won police case when I showed the court my insurance policy. Police are using this case in ASBO Case.
08/04/2013 (1 of 9)	I was Stopped by police as my vehicle showed up that I did not have insurance, I did have insurance; there was an error on the MED database and there were notes on police systems due to being stopped so many times before I told the police this. 10/07/2013	Woolwich Crown Court, The Court said that my Mother needed to attend due to the surety but she was in hospital having an operation.

Report - Reply.pdf

	The judge raised a point about the surety not being at court to confirm her position. The judge was informed surety mother was in hospital and does not need to attend as the surety is continuous. The judge did not agree and said as the surety was taken at the police station that she would need to attend court to re confirm her position as surety. This is wrong and despite me putting a relevant authority Choudhry v Birmingham Crown Court before the court, which is clear on the point the judge refused to accept it and said client has escaped custody by "the skin of his teeth."

	conviction via email by the court on the 17/02/2014 after us paying for it. Showing clearly that the failing to surrender had been dismissed by the court so why was it on my PNC record. Why had I been sent to prison due to this when clearly it should not be on Police Record that I was found guilty of this.
19/02/2014	Email was sent to Highbury Corner Magistrates Court to have all my PNC records checked, for cases that were heard by Enfield Court which Edmonton Police had dealt with. This took some time to address as there where a list of Records I wanted checked. On the 13/03/2014 my mother went to Enfield Magistrates Court to pick up the information requested, to be told there were 6 records that were not in the court registry and if they were not in the court registry they had not been in court. The lady told my mother she had not ever seen anything like this before and said it was very worrying. I am still trying to address this but no one seems to be able to help. How can there be 6 other records on my PNC yet they have never been to court.

12/09/2014	A bundle is said too have been served on Mr Simon Cordell at 109 Burncroft Avenue, to which I disputes. This Bundle was for the ASBO Case.
06/10/2014	Mr Simon Cordell was meant to have a hearing for an interim Order but legal aid had not been granted. Michael Carroll acting solicitor came to court the judge overturned and granted legal aid. The application for the Interim hearing the judge would not hear due to my solicitors not having time to go over the case papers as legal aid was not granted at this point. The CPS and police were not happy about this. Hearing was put off until the 22/10/2014
22/10/2014	Interim hearing could not go ahead due to Andy Locke Acting Barrister had a flood at his home address. CPS and Police were not happy about this and wanted it to go ahead. Judge told them it is not down to Mr Cordell he has attended court and rightfully he should have a barrister. Was put off until the 05/11/2014
29/10/2014	I was rushed to hospital had been sick for 5 days my kidneys was not working right and they had to give me high injects and IV dips to stop the sickness due to nitrous oxide I also had concerns as I had been manipulated with other concerns of health. I was in hospital until the night of the 03/11/2014 and I was told if I did not attend court on the 05/11/2014 they would go ahead without me. So I discharge myself.
04/11/2014 – 05/11/2014	Started to be sick again and I was up all night but needed to go to court the next day.
05/11/2014	Interim hearing and the order was granted. Andy Locke could not attend due to the flood in his home; a next Barrister came to court but had no paper work for the case I believe this is why the interim was granted as nothing was said in my defence.

19/11/2014	Home treatment team states I had become paranoid about my mother to which I and my mother dispute. Home treatment team attended my home address on this date and made a call to my mother. When the home treatment team turned up to my flat the police was already there, the Home treatment team phoned and spoke to my mother asking her, if she knew why the police was there, which she replied to them no, she also explained to the Home treatment team that the police kept coming to my flat for no reason. The Home treatment team then started to talk to the police and left my mother on hold. My mother heard what was said by the police to the Home treatment team as to why they were at my address again. The police said they had got a phone call, stating that I was shouting, they gave the Home treatment team 3 different door numbers to my entrance door, which where all wrong. Not one person new who was had made the 999 call to the police The Home treatment team told the police to leave. On this day I was fine until the police turned up at my flat once again. I was not shouting or upset, so do not really believe someone called the police, worried about me or if they did they were setting me up for what I do not know. Due to how the police are with me I do get upset and will not open the door so some times shout to the police through the door as I feel safer, I know the police do not leave me alone, so why would I open my door when I am on my own, I always feel safer waiting until someone I have contacted gets to my flat so they can see what is going on. Home treatment team told my mother I seemed to upset for them to talk to and she told them it is no wonder the police are going to his flat all the time when he has done nothing wrong.

23/11/2014	Police called my mobile number at around 11pm and asked for my entrance code to my communal building I asked and they would not give me there badge number or name but still wanted my entrance code, I gave a code with the last digit wrong for my concern of any person on the phone not being real police and the time of night. I was after concerned as was my friend and we left my house, shortly after leaving my flat me and my friend both got pulled over by the same police walking to my mothers, she found out who the officers were and this Intel was then updated in my Asbo by them police officers, stating I was looking for venues to hold raves to which I clearly dispute.

	Dept of Reproductive & Sexual Health, Flat 2, Rowan Court. Michael's Site, Garter Drive, Enfieild, Middx EN2 OJB. Tel No: 0208 375 2874 Fax No: 0208 375 7129 WCL/AMS/12xxxxxx Mr Simon 14 May 2015 Dear Mr I am writing at your request and this is a letter for your records. When you attended the sexual health clinic on the 8th May 2015 with your partner you explained that you were very upset. You explained that you have never had any symptoms of herpes in the mouth area or in the genital area. You had attended in November 2014 and had requested to have serology done for herpes simplex type 1 and type 2 although you have shown no symptoms; the serology results show that you have antibodies to herpes simplex virus type 1. I explained that this result means that you have been exposed to both viruses but it is not possible for us to tell whether you have oral or genital herpes as you have had no symptoms and the blood test does not tell us where the virus is. I have explained that the blood test results suggest that you are a carrier of herpes simplex virus. I want to again apologise that you have felt that the way you were informed about the results of the test was not-ideal and that you felt that you could not access any support following the diagnosis. If you need further support with this issue, you can ring for an appointment or attend our walk in service. Thank you.

22/01/2016	It is said Simon presented himself as paranoid, suspicious and grandiose with flights of ideas, clear evidence that he is suffering with a Mental disorder to which I totally dispute. Section 135 issued as Mr Cordell not allowing access to his property. Team was not allowed in due to other meeting I had planed.
25/01/2016	Section 135 was served at my home address not the 22nd /1/2016 and I was assessed to be well and the conclusion made by the team was not to detain myself. The minutes of the meeting are on CD and a copy of the transcripts are available at the bottom of the letter.

14/08/2016	Arrested at my home address for allegations of threats to kill to which I dispute. Arrested at 8pm detained in cell 3 wood green with CCTV I was not taken out of cell or talked to inside cell but through the flap by any doctors I was not legally assessed and not interview. I never saw any police FHM doctor. My bail sheet was given to me through the cell hatch at around 23 hours while being a detainee who was said to be incapable of interview, this is not true I was very civilised while being detained and left with shoe lassies and belt on.
15/08/2016	Detained under police powers till 5pm then granted bail by a bail sheet being given through cell three hatch Dr said through cell hatch at same time I am being sectioned without no assessment Maggie Fuller was present and still no interview, still not assessed legally. All days detainee at police station at about 28 hours I was talked to by one gentlemen who was an amp worker out of the cell he said he is allowing for me to be taken under the Doctors orders I tried to explain to him that I have a complaint against the Doctor prior to this incident and it makes the Doctor Bios and Prejudice towards any case relating to myself and that I was well of mind, with no change in decision by him. I was taken from the police cell at around 3 to 4 am on the 16th August 2016 and taken to St Ann's hospital after being held in from the 14th August 2014 and still had not been assessed I arrived at St Ann's Hospital around 5:30am an the SHO duty doctor see my self I tried to explain to her that I was not a danger to my self or any other person and that the allegations were wrong for threats to kill against my self and that I was being detained for no apparent reason. While waiting for a room in the hospital after being spoken to by the SHO, a gentleman awoke from his room and walked into the communal area to where I was, he plonked himself on the pool table I said hello to him he seemed over dosed on medication to my concern, he became over abusive in my presents towards the staff and soon after other patients appeared in the communal room awaiting to go in the garden, I soon was introduced to my room and then went to sleep, I awoke for lunch and dinner and latter toast.

16th August 2016	St Ann's Hospital still not legally assessed I woke up at 6:00am had lunch and so forth and then damaged my fingers at around 6:30 pm I was not treated correctly when I needing medical assistance I was told to await for an Hour and soon learnt that 7:30 was the time of staff change over and I explained what had happened to the next shift around 8:00pm who then explained to me I need to wait for from the doctor the next day. When I got realised from hospital the Laceration had 95% healed and I still had no movement what so ever of my finger so I started to studding about the damage to my left finger I learnt I had cut The function of the extensor digiti minimi which controls the movement of the little finger. When the muscle moves, it forces the little finger to bend and stretch. Sudden or unexpected movement of the finger or trauma to the finger may damage the muscle. Traction to keep the little finger from moving is typically recommended to treat such an injury. Till date I have still got no movement and the Lacerations was 2cm in width and is healing well, the Laceration is contained along The proximal phalanges which is the bones that can be found at the bottom of the right hand finger, this problem causes me great concern as I now feel disabled and that I will never regain the use of the finger. On the 16th August 2016 I was also asked to provide blood for my sugar levels and to take part in my temperature test I explained I was happy for this to be done and it was completed I was also weighed in, so I do not understand why it states I never aloud the tests to be carried out. I was not asked to take an ECG test on this date. As I was waiting to speak with staff out side the locked staff room I noticed the gentlemen whom I had seen on the pool table the day before, I said hello to him and he verbally bit my head of stating do I no him do not talk to him, challenging me in an intimidating manner I never reduced my self to his level I felt he was threatening me. Another inpatient walked over to me and showed me his ear I noticed a vast amount of physical damage that required previous medical treatment it contained a lot of stitches and was wiping from being so badly damaged, he explained to me that the gentlemen now arguing with me had been the person whom had attacked him and to be very careful I felt so sorry for him and could clearly see his pain, he continued to explain to me that I must take caution, due to the other mans rings on his hand, as this is what had caused the damage to him, by this time the hospitals staff took the over medicated man away and I then went back to my room.
17th August 2016	I was still being Illegal detained, up and till the first 72 hour meeting, what was the first true assessment with a doctor at St Ann's Hospital and at the police station. I had brook my fingers on the hospitals site and no nurse or doctor would take me to the outside hospital for an x-ray, this happened in St Ann's toilets while under there duty of care from the 16th August 2016 at around 6:30pm, when after the incident staff would not update the incident report book when I asked. Mother attended the 72 hour meeting with my uncle; A woman whom is a care worker had to leave the meeting due to there already being an official complaint put in to place in regards to her and others attending my home address in February. Inpatient was rude again to my visitors. I was also asked to take Lorazepam and given a leaflet today I explained that I did not need to take it and that I have a good sleep routine were I do not need an alarm clock as I get up by 5:30 am I also explained that I am tidy and washed and clean by 6:00 am by 6:30 I am ready and delegated to finishing of my agendas towards my companies best interests, and asleep by 10:00 pm

18/08/2016	I was asked to take an ECG test on this day and was more concerned with my fingers on showing them to the Junior Doctor; he was very pleasant but did not send me for x rays as needed and clearly requested. I also explained to him that I was not happy with taking Lorazepam in the morning and day as I was working on my statements for my up and coming appeal he did agree, so that I would only have to take the tablets at night, to which I was happy with, that night when going to take the medication I noticed a white tablet rather than a blue one and asked the name of the medication from the prescriber and was told clozapine tablets which is an antipsyctic medication. I asked if the dosage was stronger than the blue tablet and had the same effect and was told no, to which I still had never taken the blue tablet. I asked why I had not been given a plifs leaflet nor a consultation in regards to the medication change and called my mother. Another inpatient was waiting to speak to staff today out side the staff room front door the same as I had when the gentlemen whom had been causing the negative interactions came along and started another altercation with the standing inpatient this made me worried for the standing inpatient, mine and the staffs safety, then the trouble making inpatient was restrained by staff and I went in my room. REFUSED PRECTPION
19/08/2016	St Ann's Hospital St Ann's Hospital I was awoke today and prescribed medication to my surprise as it was agreed that I did not have to take any during the morning and at mid day right up and till night time I did not take it. My Solicitor arrived at St Ann's Hospital and we had a meeting in regards to my tribunal On going to collect my tablet which should have been Lorazepam there was once again a new tablet added with no assessment or plifs leaflet once again totally different to all up-to-date, I once again asked who had prescribed it in my absinth and was told my clinician whom I had yet seen, I asked the name of this tablet and was told Olanzapine I once again phoned my mother after refusing to take it and went and looked on the internet about the effects, regulations and laws on prescribing medication, to notice many incorrect procedures and a vast majority of people explaining on YouTube

13.1 Dr Rosemary Mills Report:

As stated in this document; I was arrested by police on the 14/08/2016 I was held in a police cell until the 15/08/2016 where I was told I was being sectioned under section 2 of the Mental Health act.
I then stayed in the police cell at wood Green Police Station until the 16/08/2016 and was moved to St Ann's at around 05:00 hours from Wood Green Police Station.
So I was not admitted to St Ann's hospital until the 16/08/2016 at around 05:30 hours
The report continues to state upon admission to Haringey assessment ward, Mr Cordell was checked in by the SHO, who did document the following issues that I dispute.

Irritable with pressured speech, as previously explained in this document of complaint I tend to speak fast I learned this way due to being tongue tied. And yes I was Irritable I had just spent nearly 2 days in a police station for something I had not done and then told before I could have an interview I was being sectioned under section 2 of the Mental Health act, when I had not even spoke to a doctor.

It was said by the SHO that I suffered from Tangential thought patterns.
A person suffering with Tangential thought patterns has a communication disorder in which the train of thought of the speaker wanders and shows a lack of focus, never returning to the initial topic. This differs from tangential thinking, in that the person does eventually return to the original point, I Mr Simon Cordell do not suffer from any form of thought disorder (TD) or formal thought disorder (FTD) or similar natured.

Appeared elated and spoke of several projects of grandiose nature included his business in the entertainment industry, buying speakers for £50,000 and hiring them to Glastonbury.
I dispute saying I was buying speakers as I all ready own them. As stated before in this document I own a very large PA sound system and have for some years now along with a lot of other things that is part of my company I also can prove this, people may seem as if they do not have a lot to some people that does not mean that is the case. Judging a person on their looks or what they seem to be is not always a good idea, what seems to have happened a great deal in the report.

Report - Reply.pdf

Mr. Cordell described owning a “City” and that it is his job to understand the various roles people have in society so that he can look after people.
When describing the true meaning of any conversations I may have had regarding the word city I would have been explaining about my life’s work and studies that I am building, a mini festival to which can be classed as its own city, regulated by HSE standards, legalisation and other needed professions to protect traders and public.

DR. Rosemary Mills Report:

16/08/2016 Mr. Cordell refused routine blood tests,
At this stage of being detained in St Ann’s hospital I was not offered an ECG I was in fact only offered a blood sugar level test which showed 65 and was also weighed. I do also remember having a temperature test put into my ear then having a blood pressure check-up, which was an appliance put around my arm.

DR. Rosemary Mills Report:

17/08/2016 On this date I was in a lot of pain with the injuries to my fingers that I had received while being detained at St Ann’s hospital and could not receive the standard of medical care I would have normally received if I could have attended on my own accord to an emergency hospital that would have also had available surgeons with an x ray machine that I would have visited.
I now can’t use my right finger anymore, because of this neglect by professionals. I will agree I was upset at what was going on I think I had a right to be. I wanted the medical assistance I needed and wanted to know why I had been sectioned and under what grounds as I was not a risk to myself or any other person and I believe under section 2 you need to be a risk to yourself or others. I kept asking this and explained I was not a risk to myself or others which they replied that section 2 does not rely on this factor or have to be part of it even low I was mental stable.

DR. Rosemary Mills Report:

On the 18/8/2016, I had asked staff if I could get my partner and mother to bring me hair cutters and a shaver with additional cloths in her attendance on the following day, to which they did agree that this could be done.
I was still in pain with my finger and asking staff to take me to the hospital for an x ray my left finger was just taped together and I was told that my right finger should just repair its self, to which it still has not.

DR. Rosemary Mills Report:

19/08/2016 I woke up about an hour before my solicitor arrived unexpectedly; I was calm and happy all day, as my solicitor had arrived at the hospital to help me prepare for the tribunal. I was latter upset after she had left by being prescribed another new medication without no leaflet or assessment even low the medication had been prescribed wrong already the day before, I was still in pain with my finger, I still took the Lorazepam but was shocked to be put onto other medication again.
When my mum and partner came up, they had my haircutters and shaver. My partner cut my hair.

13.7 DR. Rosemary Mills Report:

21/08/2016 I do not dispute the statement of facts contained within the report.

DR. Rosemary Mills Report:

22/08/2016 I have explained so many times in this document about why I speak fast. I was still upset as to how I had been sectioned and believed it to be incorrect. I agree I was settled and chatting with people on the ward. I agree I refused to take Olanzapine and I agree I did take Lorazepam.

DR. Rosemary Mills Report:

23/09/2016 I have explained so many times in this document about why I speak fast. And it was not over inclusive and tangential fashion.

I was not largely preoccupied with injustices of the past particularly the past by the police, this is ongoing and I had an Appeal case within a few weeks I did speak about this as this is a big factor in my life right now to make sure my case is ready for my Appeal case. So how can this be the past this is the present so how the doctors can say this is beyond me.

Again, it has been said that I am grandiose in regard to my business plans but this to be the case.

I have worked for many years on what I want for my company as I believe many other people do the same, are they grandiose?

I agree I do not have any thoughts about harming anyone else or myself as this is the truth and I did also say I did not feel I had a Mental Health illness and did not feel unwell as I did not and still do not.

I also agreed I would try a trial of a small doses of Olanzapine as I felt this is all they wanted to give me tablets and I felt very pressured to take them as I felt if I didn't, I would not be allowed home.

16.1 Rosemary Mills Report:

I Mr. Simon Cordell do not dispute the statement contained within the report but would like to high light the manner to which it is prevailed. At any professional meeting I obtain my right to take minutes of the meeting and under supreme courts previously trailed and tested cases it states I have the right to achieve this in a digital format, I did not go around the ward recording at any time as I know this to be a breach of the hospitals policy.

Why would there be a need to make an attempt to make a recording of the Tribunal Proceedings any type of Court or Tribunal Proceedings I can obtain a copy of the report by asking, sometimes there is a fee to pay which is not a problem.

I also feel if any professional has not got anything to hide, they should not fear being recorded.

Please also see read below:
https://www.medicalprotection.org/uk/practice-matters-issue-7/digital-dilemmas—patients-recording- consultations
A patient does not require your permission to record a consultation. The content of the recording is confidential to the patient, not the doctor so the patient can do what they wish with it. This could include disclosing it to third parties, or even posting the recording on the internet. So what does this mean for doctors?
But you should read the full document from the link above as it shows a lot more information.

- Opinion Recommendations Rosemary Mills Report:

I question the accuracy of the intelligence report in relation towards:
1. Mr. Simon Cordell presents himself with persisting psychotic symptoms of paranoid persecutory delusions involving police and Mental health services.
When a professional medical clinician is assessing any person so to be able to diagnose a Mental disorder, it is within the right and legalisation towards doctor and client that the correct judgments are made and I Mr. Simon Cordell do not feel that this is the case in this report. I also feel that once I get my full medical records from the Mental Health teams, I will find a lot more errors within them.
As can be told by the diary of events date 2012 to 2016 I have had many NFA and no convections this does lead me to the right understanding that I have been pursued by members of the police for crimes and offences I have not committed, it has led to myself being detained on mutable bail conditions for numerous cases throughout a fast proportion of my life, having a continues negative effect on my life to which I should not have to undergo while establishing my own company. There is also the fact that my diary only covers 2012 to 2016 so in fact there is a lot more history I have not included due to the time this would take and also how long it would make this document.
As previously explained, I do have an up-and-coming appeal date to which I know the evidence to be incorrect which was put forward by the police in this case.
I educe a snip lit of such court on goings to which I have suffered an interim order and conditions imposed upon myself, in total I was detained for this case and another case on conditions since September 2013 with a 3-week release in 2015 till date 2016.
This has breached my human rights as I never committed the offences in the first place, as I can and will prove.

Report - Reply.pdf
Some clear inaccuracies contained in my ongoing case lead to incorrect time stamps relating towards Emergency 999 calls contained within the Met Polices and applicants bundle as follows.

CAD	NUM	DATE	TIME	PAGE
CAD 999 call	2637	07/06/2014	08:18	Page 191 to 195
CAD 999 call	2672	07/06/2014	08:16	Page 196 to 198
CAD 999 call	3005	07/06/2014	09:22	Page 203 to 205
CAD 999 call	3037	07/06/2014	09:20	Page 179 to 183
CAD 999 call	10481	07/06/2014	22:47	Page 233 to 237
CAD 999 call	10506	07/06/2014	22:44	Page 238 to 241

Please note every day the met police call centre starts at CAD 01 and goes up to the average of 10,742 to 15,000 callers per day the clock is reset to 01 each day at 00:00 hours.

(We can tell this by the number of CAD incident numbers supplied, within the applicants ASBO bundle supporting the evidence supplied, for a standalone ASBO order to be gained against Mr. Simon Cordell.
On the average the Met police call centre will receive on the average of 300 callers per hour as marked and time stamped below.
Every half hour 150 calls are made to the emergency 999 call centre on the average Every 15 minutes is 75 callers on average- Every 7 half minutes is 33 callers on average- And 3 half minutes 17 callers on average.
Please take note to (CAD number / Incident Number 10481 7th June 14) this is the 10,481 Met police call of the 7th June 2014 time stamped 22:47 hours.
So, it is incorrect for (CAD 10506 7th June 14) externally inputted 25 calls later, to have an earlier time stamp of the 7th June 2014 at 22:44 hours.

- DR. Rosemary Mills Report:

The report states in the past these persecutory ideas have also focused on family members and neighbours this information is also not correct.

- DR. Rosemary Mills Report:

The report states: Mr. Simon Cordell's mental order is currently of a nature or degree to justify ongoing detention in hospital.
I Mr. Simon Cordell disputes this not to be correct, since I have been realised after the tribunal and spending time in hospital as a voluntary patient before the doctors discharged me the day after the tribunal, I have settled in at home quite well and my family and friends are happy with me as well.

In Regards towards Opinions & Recommendations Chapter 17.2.1, Pages 8 of Rosemary Mills Report:

I disagree that I have shown any signs of psychotic disorder symptoms and believe I should not be diagnosed with such claims. Over the past two years I have been assessed as to be well and I have never been talking to in regards to such problems by any doctor until my assessment at St Ann's hospital, to have been able to accept any treatment, to which I have now complied with and take the tablets which do make me suffer from bad side effects.

In Regards towards Opinions & Recommendations Chapter 17.2.2, Pages 8 of Rosemary Mills Report:

Since being assessed on benzodiazepine I have continuously complained and explained that I know the medications I am taking does not having a positive impact but rather a much larger negative impact. I yet wait to talk to a doctor about this once again.

In Regards towards the Patient ought to be Detained in the interest of his health Chapter 18.1 Pages 8 of Rosemary Mills Report:

Since being released from the hospital I have continued to keep my word in my letter and work alongside the Mental health team I have allowed access to my home address every day and taken the medication that I have been prescribed, even low I understand that any person whom has been sectioned under the Mental health act, after an assessment or clinical care, does not need to comply with section 117.
I still however do take the medication but strongly agree with my own assessment of myself and do not feel the medication is having a positive impact.

In Regards Towards in the Interest of Safety of Others Chapter 18.2 Pages 8 of Rosemary Mills Report:

I have never been a danger to any other person(s) intentionally or otherwise. I am very concerned with the electronic records as Doctor Rosemary Mills's reports states she used and gained other wrongful contained information from and I would like them amended, such records state the following:

The electronic records document anti-social and verbally aggressive behaviour by Mr. Cordell towards his neighbours, this is not true.
I do own a CCTV system this property doe's gets used for my own personal reasons. I am very upset that I have been accused of using my CCTV so to be able to interpreting other people's behaviour in a persecutory fashion.
My CCTV system is used in the accordance of the United Kingdom Laws.
In Regards towards Care Plan Chapter 20 Pages 8 and 9 of Rosemary Mills Report:
In reference to chapter 20.1 and 22, I did agree to stay on the ward informally and did do so this was for the duration of an extra two days, when I asked a member of staff if I can take section 17 leave of ward, I was told that I would need to speak to a doctor and when asked what my intentions were, I asked if I can stay at home the night as I missed my family and dog inclusive of my own bed so that I could if agreed come back to the hospital in the morning on explaining this to the Doctor, she explained to me that she was happy for me to work with the early prevention team from home after our conversation, to which I have been comply with.
In Regards towards Care Plan Chapter 22.1 Pages 9 of Rosemary Mills Report:
This plan has now been implemented and I have been noticing negative side effect from the medication prescribed, while being at home.

Hi Josephine
I attached the document as requested. Please stay advised that as I no longer represent Mr. Cordell, this document does not contain information based on what his current instructions are as between yourself and his barrister. This document got prepared for a specific purpose to deal with a response to HHJ Pawlak's letter. After consulting the client for some length of time, he informed both you and I that he did not wish for this document to get handed up. Instead, as you remember and against my firm advice, he asked me to hand up his own typed document which the Judge then read. I am not sure for which purpose the client wishes to use this document now, but maybe his barrister will want to advise him as to the best course of action and particularly, in terms of any hearsay applications, you remember that these got dealt with already and the Judge allowed the hearsay applications by the Crown. Please contact me if you require any further information.
Regards Andrew

3 Asbo Si Note: The Last Mention Hearing - "It was the 16/09/2016 and another day to do with the Asbo case. The main topic was disclosure and also, about a conference meeting that got booked with my barrister, Mr. Andy Locke, I will explain my version of the events that took place on the day in question and prior leading up to this. It too me, by my acting solicitors, that it had got arranged for myself to be in court by 09:30 hours, but shortly, later this gets rearranged to 09:00 hours so I could have taken part in a meeting, with my barrister, which I agreed to, I arrived at Court with my mother as agreed for 09:00 Am my barrister did not arrive until around 09:40 Am. On my barristers arrival we all moved into an unlocked side room for the arranged meeting, as we all took a seat so to discuss anything, Mr. Andy Locke apologised as he was not well, he continued to explain that he had received emails from Ms. Ward and that he need time to read them all, on trying to open the emails he realized he was having issues with connecting to the internet and after trying for some time he realised that he could not and then subsequently, retired out of the room to call Ms. Ward on his mobile telephone. In this moment he still had no time to talk to me as he had been on his phone to Ms. Ward at around 10:00 hours the court clerk called every person of interest relating to the case into court. Andy Locke came back into the conference room to warn us of the clerk's demands and turned back away, moving with a fast pass towards the courtroom, I remember trying to stop him to expand to him what my concerns were; (As we had not had a moment to talk) and I got concerned about the disclosure that would get asked for, I asked Andy Locke if he could ask the Judge to adjourn the case for 5 or 10 minutes so I could understand what was going on in my case with himself, which he then replied the answer of "no. On our travels towards the courtroom he explained that he believed the hearing was only for disclosure about the schedule. I said "I knew this not to be correct, and that is what I wanted to talk to him about," and again asked if he would ask the judge to postpone for 10 minutes," he yet again said no, at which point I asked why he did not want to speak to me, with the following question, should I act for myself then, We all then went into the courtroom and on entering the court I muttered to Mr. Andy Locke (who was ahead of me) the quote of; so, am I acting for myself then? He never replied and then talked to the Judge, in the judge taking understanding it got agreed for myself and barrister to talk outside of the courtroom. At this point I did not understand what was going on but followed him, it was at this point he turned around and said curtly, "I do not want you to speak", as me and my mother got closer to him he also informed me that it was not good to shout out in open court, which I had to agree with my mother who had witnessed all of this tried to explain to my barrister what I wanted to say about the disclosure not just being the schedule and asked Mr. Locke to explain what the schedule is. I also wanted to ask him questions about my human rights in regards towards the two article sixes referring to the rights to a fair and speedy trial that had gotten handed to the court on two different earlier hearings to which Mr. Andy Locke had not seen before as he was not present at the past couple of court hearings. He explained that the schedule was what the judge had asked for on the 04/04/2016 my mother replied this was not all the judge had asked for. Without replying Mr. Locke walked towards the courtroom, we followed, and it was at this point I said to him I think that I should represent myself because I was not being heard. On entering the court, Andy Locke addressed the Judge and said I did not want him to act for me. The Judge informed Andy Locke to remain in the courtroom, the judge asked what the case got listed for and the CPS addressed the Court and answered, they said to the judge that I had been sending letters to the court and CPS myself, this is not the case and I did not understand their comment. I then addressed by the judge and to his questions I replied yes, I wanted Andy Locke to be my barrister; I wanted time to speak to him so for both of us to each be clear about the reasons that I had asked for the case to get relisted due to non-disclosure. The Judge then addressed my barrister who also replied to his questions and said that he would still act as my barrister for me, the judge noted down that all issues between me and barrister where happy dealt with and continued to say that he was not the best person to be hearing this case and passed it over to your good self. On leaving the courtroom my mother me and my barrister went into a side room to talk, my mother and I explained that a letter had gotten handed to you on the 04/04/2016 he said he recognized nothing about this letter, so we handed it to him to read. Once he read this, he said he realized nothing about this and had only seen one document that kept saying “I Simon Cordell” to which I am not sure of what letter he refers to, my mother continued to explain that the letter handed to himself by Simon is why he wanted to talk to you before going into court, as this is an important part of the disclosure proving he's innocent in the case. He explained he only knew about the schedule to which my mother and I were concerned about as we understand this not to be all. Mr. Andy Locke also asked me if I had dismissed my solicitors which I replied no. My mother then made a call to my solicitor and enquired., as to what your good self-had ordered for disclosure. Ms. Ward stated she could not remember my mother being dumbfounded by this said you was sitting in the back of the courtroom, taking notes, and only last week said to me, again we should have everything that the judge had asked for in his original disclosure, plus; what got asked for in Simon’s letter and also the judge had made other addictions… at no point did Ms. Ward ever make me understand she did not know what was due to get disclosed, had she done this I would have asked her to re-list this to the court and asked for this to get clarified. My mother then handed me the phone to my solicitor I asked her if she knew about the letters That earlier, Mr. Andy Locke had told myself. I sent to the court and the CPS "on my own" that I had not sent. When continuing to talk with my solicitor on the phone I believed that I was in the know-how of the understanding that we was both still thinking and talking about the same thing and that being of the concept of the letter requested by you and in return handed back to yourself the judge your honor, on the date of 04/04/2016 which I had already agreed for you to be in receipt of, on this occasion my mother was once again present and my solicitor was also in court so she recognized about this letter also of the fact that I had not drafted it alone. It was at this point I said she was incorrect if she had said that I had pre-drafted the letter from start on my own as I had only amended it, she then said she did not draft the Letter and that I had written it, at this I called her a liar as I knew she drafted it and I then said to her I can prove what I state as I have the email you sent to me. Since court I checked the dates from when this letter got drafted by my solicitor and this was on the 03/04/2016 please read the relevant attached email and correspondence marked 03/04/2016 Ms. Ward. At same time while I was on the phone in a conversation, with my solicitor, and Mr. Andy Locke was listening, after I ended the phone call he then got up and said I will need to think about still representing you as you, as I heard you calling your solicitors a lair, he continued to say that if he would still continue to represent me, we would need to take place in a meeting at his chambers as the judge had ordered, at this point the meeting concluded with nothing spoke of about my Appeal yet again. When we were leaving the court, my mother told me that I was speaking about the wrong letter and email and the letter that she believed Andy Locke was talking about was the one my solicitor had drafted on the 08/09/2016 to Miss SALLY GILCHRIST. (Please see Attached email and letter marked 08/09/2016 Ms. Ward) she did not like the amendments I made to the letter that was on solicitor's letter headed paper so amended it on to non-letter headed paper and edited what I had wrote. She emailed this back asking me to confirm in writing and sign the letter if I confirmed I still wanted it to get sent. (Please see attached email and letter marked 08/09/2016 Ms. Ward 01) I believe this letter got sent also and I believe that you will see it never got signed to get sent, and my mother believes this is the letter Andy Locke is talking about that he saw, I cannot confirm this 100% as I never saw the letter in court nor did my mother. On Friday afternoon after returning from court my mother received an email attached from my solicitors this was the disclosure from Miss Silly Gilchrist that we had got given at court it was the schedule which you had asked for and also included “I am waiting for Andrew Locke's court note from today's hearing and I will revert to you in writing re the solicitor / barrister / client relationship and whether either Andrew Locke or I can continue to represent you in this matter." Please see the email it (marked 16/09/2016 Ms. Ward.)"

I am Steve Elsmore, a Police officer attached to the Anti Social Behaviour Team within the London Borough of Enfield. I make this further statement regarding an ASBO matter in relation to Simon CORDELL.

On 16th May 2016, I was asked to check timings in relation to the schedule that is due to be served on the court.

Whilst searching for timings for Crimint HTRT00376798, I found an incident log attached to this Crimint. I do not recall previously seeing this log. Usually the inputting officer would put an indicator on the Crimint to say that there is an attachment. On this occasion there is no indicator referring to this attachment. It is possible that I may have previously missed this attachment due to the volume of incidents that I was searching through.

The attachment itself is an incident report from Canary Wharf Group and the incident summary states - Trespassers on site - illegal rave - forced entry shed 4 - Police tasked - no action - group left site. This is dated 12 January 2013.

The incident log details what action was taken by Canary Wharf Group during this particular incident. It also provides detail on the impact to the residents. On page 5 of the incident log there is an entry that states "P BOUZON (CW178) informs the ECC that the vehicle registrations that he gave me are actually the 2 vehicles that gained access through the fence and are located within the Shed 4 area".

One of the vehicles is MA57LDY. This vehicle was registered to Simon CORDELL as per the Crimint Report.

Email from C SCHERER (IFM) to P TWEDDLE (Co-MD):

From 15:00 when we all viewed the building, I have now had the power within turned off and the appropriate fuses removed.
Having sent communication earlier this morning to David Lindop / Joe Bowman, I have not heard back from either, but will inform accordingly and hand over the fuses.

Incident Report 74507 - January 14, 2013 11:15 - Debra Redwin

All external doors have now been closed, so the building is as secure as we can make it until we review and carry out more work on Monday morning.
This comment also applies to the damaged fence.

I am now taking a replacement padlock and chain to replace the one cut off during the break in, to the gate where concrete Jersey Blocks have now been positioned.
I shall leave the key with the patrol guard(s), who are now in place and collect this from them on Monday morning.

Leaving site now, though available on the phone if needed.

After spending 40mins, reading part of his notes, he said he will appreciate if I can amend it on RIO.
I explained to him my own job role is to monitor mental state and risk but not to amend any legal documents on RIO.
He said he will soon stop CRHTT not to visit him again since nothing tangible regarding his court case.
Appeared settled but still elated in mood and over talkative.
No thoughts of self-neglects elicited during the visit.
No evidence of psychosis extract during the visit.
Plan
No role for CRHTT to discuss about his discharge.

1 An Email from My Solicitor: Asbo / Fwd.: Your appeal at Wood Green Crown Court-26th September 2016 / Time 10:57 – "Please see emails forwarded below. FW Mon, Sep 19, 2016 at 10:47 AM. Simon, I am forwarding an email regarding Friday's hearing. I have discussed the matter with Michael Carroll himself. I personally cannot represent you any further. Michael Carroll has indicated that if you agree in writing that you will consent to being assessed by a psychiatrist as to your fitness to participate in the court proceedings by 1pm this afternoon in writing to michael@michaelcarrollandco.Com. then he will obtain funding so that you can be assessed. This will mean writing to the court to request that the appeal hearing date be vacated until this issue is resolved. If the Psychiatrist's opinion is that you are fit to participate in the court process, then you can proceed to represent yourself as you have expressed a desire to do so in the past. If the Psychiatrist's opinion is that you are not fit to participate in the court process, then the application will be to adjourn until such time as you are fit to participate in the proceedings. Can you please confirm whether you will agree to being assessed by 1pm (appointment to be notified in due course) this afternoon in order that we can notify the court? If you refuse to be assessed, then Michael Carroll & Co will write to the court to notify them that they are no longer willing to act as the solicitor / client relationship has irretrievably broken down. If you do not respond by 1pm this afternoon, Monday 19th September 2016 then Michael Carroll & Co will have no choice but to write to the court to confirm that there has been an irretrievable break down in the solicitor / client relationship and you wish to represent yourself. Can you please communicate by email from now on with Michael Carroll & Co Solicitors? Yours sincerely Josephine Ward. FW Sun, Sep 18, 2016 at 4:46 PM. Simon, please accept this email as written confirmation that I am no longer prepared to represent you. I am satisfied that there has been a complete breakdown in solicitor / client relationship. I also have concerns as to your capacity to follow and participate in the appeal proceedings. You are unwilling or incapable of listening to advice. You have questioned my professional and personal integrity. I have represented you for a very long time and continued to represent you in these proceedings because of the regard and respect that I have for your mother. In April 2016 I requested that you be assessed by a psychiatrist or give me access to your medical notes which you refused to do. You threatened to blacken my name on the Internet if I raised the issue again. You were recently sectioned in St Anne's hospital and you challenged that section and were released. I believe that you are not able to listen to advice. I believe that you are incapable of participating in proceedings. You insist on arguing points that are irrelevant and detrimental to your case. You do not allow the conferences to move on. The allegation against you simply is that you organised raves / parties that caused antisocial or had the potential to cause anti-social behaviour. See schedule forwarded to you on Friday. All the matters alleged you have already provided instructions and challenges to the allegations. Put as simply as possible you deny organising, providing sound equipment or sourcing premises for the purposes of holding raves / Parties. You challenged whether the events in question are illegal raves as trespass is not present. This argument has no bearing on your case as you deny and have repeatedly denied sourcing premises, providing equipment or organising any of the events with the exception of Mill Marsh Lane which you accept you were present for a small birthday party gathering (again no witness statement / witness details provided) I have advised you that it is my view that regardless of whether Progress Way was a private party (LAPSO loophole) or a rave the bottom line is that anti-social behaviour was caused due to noise nuisance / disorderly conduct. You seek to use the appeal proceedings to challenge the law by arguing that any person living in a commercial building under a LAPSO notice can hold moving in parties. They are not holding a rave as trespass is not present, but they are causing anti-social behaviour to neighboring residents when they hold events that cause extreme noise etc. On no occasion during your instructions did you say that you were living on the premises, nor did you state that your sound system had been seized. You are appealing against the Magistrates Court decision that you organised these events, provided sound equipment or sourced premises. You wish to introduce topics that have no bearing to the narrow issue which is did you organise or provide equipment for these events, which if they went ahead would or had the potential of causing anti-social behaviour. I am under no obligation to argue points that are not relevant to your appeal. I have copied Michael Carroll in in this email and you must now communicate with him as our relationship has irretrievably broken down. The case is listed again for disclosure if required on Wednesday before HHJ PAWLAK. A disclosure request must be submitted by Michael Carroll & Co before 4pm on Monday 19th September 2016 with the Respondent replying by 20th September 2016. Andrew Locke is declining to represent you also as he cannot hold a meaningful conference with you. You reject advice and have called me a liar. Simon, your capacity to follow and participate in proceedings needs to be assessed and until such time as it is, no solicitor will undertake your case or deal with you, nor will any barrister. I have taken advice from the Law Society on these issues and whilst I cannot disclose your recent sectioning to the court / Respondent I can decline to represent you until the issue is addressed as can Michael Carroll & Co. I wish you success in your appeal and I regret the breakdown in our solicitor / client relationship. Yours sincerely Josephine Ward."

When I was put on a section 2 I had been arrested which Michael Carroll will already be aware as they was my acting solicitor, I still have not been interviewed by the police as of yet and will prove I never did anything wrong due to CCTV I have when I return to the police station on the 04/10/2016. In the time I was in Hospital I did have an assessment and still released under the Tribunal. I agreed when released to be mentored on release which has been ongoing. Under section 117 I did not need to approve to carry on having home treatment, but I did agree to this. No one has had any concerns with me since I have been released. I have had other assessments prior to this, and the same conclusion was found I was well. I feel at this late stage of my Appeal there is not any time left, I have not had a meeting with my barrister yet and there is less than a week till the appeal is due to start, asking for an assessment is only going to put my Appeal off and I feel this is unfair. I have only ever asked for things to be done for my Appeal which should have been and in good time. I have not been disrespectful to my solicitor I have only ever asked for things to be done in good time for the Appeal.

I can send you the copy of the tribunal release from the section 2 if needed.

  I spoke to Simon on the phone a few days ago. He called to say that his solicitor has talked to him about a psychiatric assessment re fitness to appear in court. Simon said he has had numerous assessments, but I pointed out this one would be specific and current regarding fitness to appear rather than some of the other assessments such as for section or general mental health. He explained that he is currently preparing for a court hearing but when this is completed, he would like some help to look at training/courses to support his career ambitions. Simon said he will call in the next few weeks once the court hearing is over and we can arrange to meet to talk about what support he would like. Although Simon spoke quite quickly on a number of subjects, with a slight preoccupation of past assessments and contact with the police, the content did not appear odd or delusional

The already Complained about Loud and truculent banging in the bathroom got worse and this got achieved by George Quinton and the Mathiyalagan family slamming objects on to their floors with evil intent of malefactor actions in the Morning then all day and night Then 113 and 117 tenants kept on Continually, reiterating to flushing the toilet when I utilize it! Then 111 -117 kept Slamming the dihydrogen Monoxide tap on and off, and now with George Quinton also involved I continue to document their Hate Crime towards me and report it to the relevant persons without any fair process of support and this is causing damage to my health and the buildings fixtures at an unacceptable rate!

3 Asbo Si Note: A Letter to the Judge - "Page 1 As you were made aware at the mention hearing on the 22/09/2016 there is inaccurate data being held in my sons Simon Cordell PNC record, there are also errors in police officer's statements regarding my character within the Respondent case. I was very concerned that the court was once again able to see this inaccurate information and when made aware of the errors did nothing to rectify them. I called a helpline on the 23/09/2016 and explained about the inconsistencies on my PNC and the errors in the police officers' statements I was informed the ICO could address this matter while the case was still being heard and was told to put a form of concern into the ICO. I have now done this and believe you needed to be made aware. I believe my son's reputation has been diminished in this court and previously in the magistrate's court and am under the assumption this is a beach of my son's human rights, am I correct in my assumption? My son, when this case started, was refused legal aid; this was overturned by a judge sitting at the lower court due to these facts. The importance of what is at stake, the complexity of the case, the capacity to represent himself effectively. On the 21/09/2016 when you removed my son's solicitor from record the protection above was removed, you are aware my son cannot read and write effectively to deal with this trial. At this stage I would also like to draw your attention to your letter that was dated 22/02/2016 and section 4"4/ The Court will not and does not accede to any application for the Appellants Solicitors to come off the record or to cease acting for the Appellant Such an application was dismissed by His Honour Judge Morrison on the 19th of February 2016. If any attempt is made to repeat this application the Court will require it to be made in person by the Senior Partner of Michael Carroll & Co" On dismissing the solicitors who was acting for my son and not allowing them to be replaced I believe his rights to a fair trial were removed at this stage. Guide on Article 6 of the European Convention on Human Rights Effectiveness of the legal aid granted: The State is not accountable for the actions of an officially appointed lawyer. It follows from the independence of the legal profession from the State (STAROSZCZYK V. POLAND, 133), that the conduct of the defence is essentially a matter between the defendant and his counsel, whether counsel is appointed under a legal aid scheme or is privately financed. The conduct of the defence as such cannot, other than in special circumstances, incur the State's liability under the Convention (TUZINSKI V. POLAND (DEC.)). However, assigning a lawyer to represent a party does not in itself guarantee effective assistance (SIALKOWSKA V. POLAND, 110 AND 116). The lawyer appointed for legal aid purposes may be prevented for a protracted period from acting or may shirk his duties. If they are notified of the situation, the competent national authorities must replace him; should they fail to do so, the litigant would be deprived of effective assistance in practice despite the provision of free legal aid (BERTUZZF V. FRANCE, 30). It is above all the responsibility of the State to ensure the requisite balance between the effective enjoyment of access to justice on the one hand and the independence of the legal profession on the other. The Court has clearly stressed that any refusal by a legal aid lawyer to act must meet certain quality requirements. Those requirements will not be met where the shortcomings in the legal aid system deprive individuals of the "practical and effective" access to a court to which they are entitled (STAROSZCZYK V. POLAND, § 135; SIALKOWSKA V. POLAND, Page 2 114 - violation). I am no lawyer myself and I am trying to go through the human rights act which is a very long document and extremely difficult to understand. You were also aware my son and I have been working from older bundles and ordered the solicitors who were acting for my son before they were removed from record on the 21/09/2016 by your honor to pass the correct bundles to us. Upon seeing these bundles, it has come to light that there are statements we have never seen before this date and never have seen them before the trial of the lower court. I am not sure if these statements were added after the last trial when the appeal was applied for or if my son's last solicitor had these statements and they were not given to us. I do know they are dated before the last trial took place. How was my son ever meant to have a fair trial without having and seeing all the documents within the case against him? Upon also looking at my son's own bundle the barristers were using for this Appeal there were many documents missing from this bundle that I have had to take time to update this bundle to the correct version with all statements included as there were no statements in there and other documents, it was not even indexed, how was the barrister even meant to have dealt with this Appeal with so many documents missing. The police have targeted my son and family for many years, mostly being Simon Cordell, and I believe they have pursued a malicious prosecution against him also trying to include his brother's name in this case, this can be proven. The Magistrates court hearsay rules 1999 do not apply to the crown court. The defence do not accept that the Respondent has relied on the correct legislation to apply under the hearsay rules. In any event the Appellant requests that the Respondent call the witnesses who made CAD entries for cross examination. It is neither professionally appropriate nor suitable for the Appellant to call police officers and question their credibility, as proposed by the Respondent through their application under the Magistrates Court Hearsay Rules. The Appellant submits that questioning the credibility of one's own witnesses would not be permitted by the court. The Respondent has put forward no good reason for why these witnesses cannot be called. As to say it is not in the interests of justice to do so. The burden of proof and standard of proof are set high in this appeal case and you must find to be satisfied beyond reasonable doubt that the respondent case can be proven to the criminal standard in every aspect of the prosecution. I do not feel the Respondent application bundles could ever prove beyond reasonable doubt that the Appellant my son was concerned in the organisation of illegal raves / provided sound equipment for illegal raves. The Appellant my son and I is still not even sure what he is meant to be defending in this case and this has been asked many times for this to be explained. Even the Respondent skeleton argument bundle has had the word illegal removed from its case, but the definition of the word rave does make this illegal and this can clearly be seen from the Respondent original application bundle. The inaccurate data that is within the Respondent original application namely my son's PNC and statements of police which is relied on in the Respondent original application bundle, the large concern that the Respondent has refused to unedited the CAD's and intelligence reports they rely on in their original application bundle, why there was a need to update original intelligence reports, why no CAD reports was included for the 6th June 2014 in the original application, why there are so many missing CAD's, why the police refuse to admit in the lower court that CAD's they had in their original application bundle clearly relates to an illegal rave in Crown Road and CAD's from that have been placed in the Respondent original application bundle. (Please see freedom of information request to Enfield council in the Appellants bundle page 274 to 284 which clearly shows this) why they refuse to disclose information held on the police public order unit Scotland Yard systems and why STEVEN ELSMORE did not ask DS Val Tanner from the police public order unit in Scotland Yard to write a statement after he spoke to her Page 3 why STEVEN ELSMORE deleted emails that was sent to DS Val Tanner and received from DS YAL TANNER and he only felt the need to do an updated statement dated 26/06/2015 in regards to this what did he ask DS Val Tanner and what was he told? Why a statement was never asked from, from DS Chapman of the public order unit Scotland Yard who when he spoke to Miss Lorraine Cordell on the phone checked their system and told Miss Lorraine Cordell that Mr. Simon Cordell name was only listed on their systems once and that was the day he was arrested on the 19th July 2014, so how Steve ELSMORE can put in his updated statement that the public Order Unit hold no information about Mr. Simon Cordell and Enfield is beyond me. Why there are no pocketbooks of any police officers in the Respondent original application bundle. Why the Respondent original application that we collected on the 23/09/2016 from the solicitor's officer that was served by the Respondent in January 2016 to the court and the solicitors office, that we kept asking for from the solicitors and never got, has updated statements we have never seen dating back before the trial in the lower court. In a letter you wrote on the 22/02/2016 you asked the Respondent in section 5 (Please see below) this has never been done and we have never received this information by the Respondent."51 The Respondent is to serve by the 4th April 2016 a hearsay notice identifying by reference to pages of Bundle R what hearsay it wishes to rely on and why it should be admitted in evidence" The abuse of process is a great concern in regarding the Appellant's right to a fair trial. The evidence brought against the Appellant is not credible enough to prove the Respondent's application beyond reasonable doubt Prosecution's failure to prove the Respondent's application will entitle him an acquittal from Respondent's application. At this stage I ask Your Honour to discharge acquit this Appeal case for an anti-social behaviour order (ASBO) in favor of the Appellant Mr. Simon Cordell, and if this cannot be done the case be adjourned until matters in this letter are addressed and the Appellant Mr. Simon Cordell can have a fair trial, but the conditions he is on for this ASBO removed. Yours Sincerely."

As you were made aware at the mention hearing on the 22/09/2016 there is inaccurate data being held in my sons Simon Cordell PNC record, there are also errors in police officer's statements regarding my character within the Respondent case. I was very concerned that a court has once again been able to see this inaccurate information and when made aware of the errors did nothing to rectify them. I called a helpline on the 23/09/2016 and explained about the inconsistencies on my PNC and the errors in the police officers' statements I was informed the ICO could address this matter while the case was still being heard and was told to put a form of concern into the ICO. I have now done this and believe you needed to be made aware. I believe my son's reputation has been diminished in this court and previously in the magistrate's court and am under the assumption this is a beach of my son's human rights, am I correct in my assumption?

My son when this case started was refused legal aid; this was overturned by a judge sitting at the lower court due to these facts. The importance of what is at stake, the complexity of the case, the capacity to represent himself effectively. On the 21/09/2016 when you removed my son's solicitor from record the protection above was removed, you are aware my son cannot read and write effectively to deal with this trial. At this stage I would also like to draw your attention to your letter that was dated 22/02/2016 and section 4

"4/ The Court will not and does not accede to any application for the Appellants Solicitors to come off the record or to cease acting for the Appellant Such an application was dismissed by His Honour Judge Morrison on the 19th of February 2016. If any attempt is made to repeat this application the Court will require it to be made in person by the Senior Partner of Michael Carroll & Co"

On dismissing the solicitors who was acting for my son and not allowing them to be replaced I believe his rights to a fair trial were removed at this stage.

Guide on Article 6 of the European Convention on Human Rights Effectiveness of the legal aid granted:

The State is not accountable for the actions of an officially appointed lawyer. It follows from the independence of the legal profession from the State (STAROSZCZYK V. POLAND, 133), that the conduct of the defence is essentially a matter between the defendant and his counsel, whether counsel is appointed under a legal aid scheme or is privately financed. The conduct of the defence as such cannot, other than in special circumstances, incur the State's liability under the Convention (Tuzinski v. Poland (Dec.)).

However, assigning a lawyer to represent a party does not in itself guarantee effective assistance (SIALKOWSKA V. POLAND, 110 AND 116). The lawyer appointed for legal aid purposes may be prevented for a protracted period from acting or may shirk his duties. If they are notified of the situation, the competent national authorities must replace him; should they fail to do so, the litigant would be deprived of effective assistance in practice despite the provision of free legal aid (BERTUZZF V. FRANCE, 30).
It is above all the responsibility of the State to ensure the requisite balance between the effective enjoyment of access to justice on the one hand and the independence of the legal profession on the other. The Court has clearly stressed that any refusal by a legal aid lawyer to act must meet certain quality requirements. Those requirements will not be met where the shortcomings in the legal aid system deprive individuals of the "practical and effective" access to a court to which they are entitled (STAROSZCZYK V. POLAND, § 135; SIALKOWSKA V. POLAND,

I am no lawyer myself and I am trying to go through the human rights act which is a very long document and extremely difficult to understand.
You were also aware my son and I have been working from older bundles and ordered the solicitors who were acting for my son before they were removed from record on the 21/09/2016 by your honour to pass the correct bundles to us. Upon seeing these bundles, it has come to light that there are statements we have never seen before this date and never have seen them before the trial of the lower court. I am not sure if these statements have been added after the last trial when the appeal was applied for or if my son's last solicitor has had these statements and they were not given to us. I do know they are dated before the last trial took place. How was my son ever meant to have a fair trial without having and seeing all the documents within the case against him?
Upon also looking at my son's own bundle the barristers were using for this Appeal there were many documents missing from this bundle that I have had to take time to update this bundle to the correct version with all statements included as there were no statements in there and other documents, it was not even indexed, How was the barrister even meant to have dealt with this Appeal with so many documents missing.
The police have targeted my son and family for many years mostly being Simon Cordell, and I believe they have pursued a malicious prosecution against him also trying to include his brother's name in this case, this can be proven.
The Magistrates court hearsay rules 1999 do not apply to the crown court.
The defence do not accept that the Respondent has relied on the correct legislation to apply under the hearsay rules. In any event the Appellant requests that the Respondent call the witnesses who made CAD entries for cross examination.
It is neither professionally appropriate nor suitable for the Appellant to call police officers and question their credibility, as proposed by the Respondent through their application under the Magistrates Court Hearsay Rules.
The Appellant submits that questioning the credibility of one's own witnesses would not be permitted by the court. The Respondent has put forward no good reason for why these witnesses cannot be called. As to say it is not in the interests of justice to do so.

Burden of proof and standard of proof are set high in this appeal case, and you must find to be satisfied beyond reasonable doubt that the respondent case can be proven to the criminal standard in every aspect of the prosecution.
I do not feel the Respondent application bundles could ever prove beyond reasonable doubt that the Appellant my son was concerned in the organisation of illegal raves / provided sound equipment for illegal raves.
The Appellant my son and I is still not even sure what he is meant to be defending in this case and this has been asked many times for this to be explained. Even the Respondent skeleton argument bundle has had the word illegal removed from its case, but the definition of the word rave does make this illegal and this can clearly be seen from the Respondent original application bundle.
The inaccurate data that is within the Respondent original application namely my son's PNC and statements of police which is relied on in the Respondent original application bundle, the large concern that the Respondent has refused to unedited the CAD's and intelligence reports they rely on in their original application bundle, why there was a need to update original intelligence reports, why no CAD reports was included for the 6th June 2014 in the original application, why there are so many missing CAD's, why the police refuse to admit in the lower court that CAD's they had in their original application bundle clearly relates to an illegal rave in Crown Road and CAD's from that have been placed in the Respondent original application bundle. (Please see freedom of information request to Enfield council in the Appellants bundle page 274 to 284 which clearly shows this) why they refuse to disclose information held on the police public order unit Scotland Yard systems and why STEVEN ELSMORE did not ask DS Val Tanner from the police public order unit in Scotland Yard to write a statement after he spoke to her why STEVEN ELSMORE deleted emails that was sent to DS Val Tanner and received from DS YAL TANNER, and he only felt the need to do an updated statement dated 26/06/2015 in regards to this what did he ask DS Val Tanner and what was he told?

Why a statement was never asked from, from DS Chapman of the public order unit Scotland Yard who when he spoke to Miss Lorraine Cordell on the phone checked their system and told Miss Lorraine Cordell that Mr. Simon Cordell name was only listed on their systems once and that was the day he was arrested on the 19th July 2014, so how Steve ELSMORE can put in his updated statement that the public Order Unit hold no information about Mr. Simon Cordell and Enfield is beyond me.
Why there are no pocketbooks of any police officers in the Respondent original application bundle.
Why the Respondent original application that we collected on the 23/09/2016 from the solicitor's officer that was served by the Respondent in January 2016 to the court and the solicitors office, that we kept asking for from the solicitors and never got, has updated statements we have never seen dating back before the trial in the lower court.
In a letter you wrote on the 22/02/2016 you asked the Respondent in section 5 (Please see below) this has never been done and we have never received this information by the Respondent.
"51 The Respondent is to serve by the 4th of April 2016 a hearsay notice identifying by reference to pages of Bundle R what hearsay it wishes to rely on and why it should be admitted in evidence"
The abuse of process is a great concern in regarding the Appellant's right to a fair trial.

The evidence brought against the Appellant are not credible enough to prove the Respondent's application beyond reasonable doubt Prosecution's failure to prove the Respondent's application will entitle him an acquittal from Respondent's application.
At this stage I ask Y our Honour to discharge acquit this Appeal case for an anti-social behaviour order (ASBO) in favour of the Appellant Mr. Simon Cordell, and if this cannot be done the case be adjourned until matters in this letter are addressed and the Appellant Mr. Simon Cordell can have a fair trial, but the conditions he is on for this ASBO removed.
Yours Sincerely
Miss Lorraine Cordell

I visited Mr. Mathiyalagan at 117 Burncroft Avenue today to look at the flooring following email from Ms. Cordell concerning noise as a result of wood flooring in the flat. I noticed that there is laminate flooring in the whole fiat and ceramic tiles in the kitchen. Mr. Mathiyalagan stated that the flooring was already in the flat when they moved in. He stated that they do not make noise deliberately and that any noise from his flat is household noise. He also stated that as far as he is aware that the person living below them, we not complained of noise and that he will be the one that will be affected if there are excessive notices from his flat'. He also stated that he has asked the man if they are causing noise disturbances and he said they are not. He also requested that Mr. Cordell should contact the council if he is being disturbed by noise from his flat instead of harassing him and his family by banging on his front door, shouting abuse at him and his wife, threatening them and confronting them when they come into the block.
I informed him that laminate flooring can generate some noise and to be mindful of his neighbours while walking around inside his fiat I then went and knocked at flat 113 but there was no response.

DIRECTIONS ORDER

I make this Witness Statement in support of the Claimant's application for an injunction to stop the Defendant from causing Intimidation, harassment to me and other residents.

BACKGROUND

- The problem with the Defendant started a few months after we moved into the property, after the Defendant approached me asking me to write a letter of support in relation to a problem, he was having with the lady that used to live at Flat 113 Bumcroft Avenue. I refused to write the letter and told the Defendant that I do not want to get involved as I did not have any problems with the lady. Since then, the Defendant has made living in this block difficult for me and my family. He has been very aggressive to my family and I and has continuously intimidated, threatened and harassed my wife, cousin, and me.
- The Defendant have repeatedly accused us of making noise inside our flat even though our flat is situated two floors above his and the person living directly below us have never complained to us about noise. He has shouted abuse at us, damaged our properties and aggressively demanded money from me. My family and I are constantly living in fear and my wife are frightened to stay at home and has had to accompany me to work on several occasions and stayed in the car with our young daughter until I finish work.
- The Defendant has slashed my car tyres, damaged my fuse box, and has physically threatened to hit me with a piece of wood. He has a big dog that he brings out with him without a lead when he approaches us, and he has used the dog to intimidate us. He also allows the dog to bark and run freely inside the communal hallway and staircase without a lead. I have reported

63. On 9th June 2017, my cousin returned from work late at night and as he opened the main communal door, the Defendant came out of his flat and started to shout abuse at him. was happening, the Defendant went back into his flat. We then called the police, they attended, and we explained what happened. The police then went and knocked on the Defendant's door, but he refused to let them in.

67. On 28th June 2017 at 11:45am, the Defendant confronted my wife outside the main entrance door as she was going to pick up our daughter from school and demanded to talk to her. My wife told him that she cannot stop to speak with him as she was on her way to collect her daughter from school, but the Defendant ran after my wife, stood in front of her and started to shout at her. The Defendant told my wife that he knows all our personal details including our full names, date of birth and bank details. The Defendant demanded that we should pay him some money and that my wife should tell me to come and talk to him. The Defendant also accused my wife of making noises inside our flat.

68. On 30th June 2017 at 11:45am, the Defendant confronted my wife as she was leaving the block to go and pick up our daughter from school and accused her of slamming the door. My wife denied slamming the door and the Defendant called her a liar and proceeded to swear and shout abuse at her.

As we left the block, the Defendant came running after us and was shouting abuse and swearing at me and said to me that I should pay him some money if I want him to leave me and my family alone. and bank details and that I must pay him to have them back. I told him that I will not pay him and to do whatever he likes with the details.

70. The constant verbal abuse, swearing, intimidation and aggressive behaviour from the Defendant towards my family and I have made it difficult for us to live in our own home. The fear of not knowing when we will be confronted with vile and aggressive behaviour as my wife and I go out or return to our home has caused us severe stress and anxiety. My wife is afraid of leaving our flat on her own due to fear that the Defendant will confront and shout abuse at her. We are having to tip-toe inside our flat for fear of being accused of making noise even though we live two floors above the Defendant. The Defendant has caused us immense hardship by vandalising my property and although I cannot prove it, I am certain that the Defendant was responsible for slashing my car tyres, damaging my meter cupboard and removing my electricity fuse several times and restricting water flow to my flat, Also, I no longer park my car outside my block in Bumcroft Avenue because of the car being vandalized. I now park a few streets away, about ten or fifteen minutes from my home instead of outside my block which is about a minute from my flat. I do not see why we should have to live this way.

80. I make this Witness Statement in support of the Claimant's application for an injunction to stop the Defendant from causing intimidation, harassment and alarm to other residents and their visitors on Burncroft Avenue.
81. The Defendant is a secure tenant of the Claimant at 109 Burncroft Avenue, Enfield, Middlesex, EN3 7JQ. His tenancy commenced on 14th August 2006. I hereby attach a bundle of documents relating to this case as exhibit number LN1. A copy of the Defendant's tenancy agreement and terms and conditions are hereby attached at pages 1-24.
82. The reports concerning the Defendant's alleged anti-social behaviour towards his neighbours was first brought to my attention in October 2016 when a case involving the Defendant and one of his neighbours was referred to me for investigation. The Defendant was reported to have caused frequent acts of harassment and anti-social behaviour against an elderly neighbour. The Defendant was arrested by the Police and bailed to a different address. The matter was referred to the Highbury Corner Magistrates' Court on 05 October 2016 where a first hearing took place. The Defendant pleaded not guilty and the trial was fixed for 17 November 2016. However, the trial did not proceed due to insufficient support as the elderly tenant was unable to attend Court due to health reasons. A copy of a letter from the Magistrate Court is attached to this statement at pages 25-26.

83. The Defendant was previously known to the Claimant and an anti-social behaviour order was made on 4 August 2015 by the Magistrates Court to prevent him from knowingly using or supplying property, personal or otherwise, for the use in a rave as defined in s.63(1) of the Criminal Justice Order Act 1994. The order was made for a duration of 5 years. A copy of the Order is at page 27 of the exhibit bundle.

continued that sometime around mid-September 2016, one of the Defendant's neighbours reported that the Defendant confronted him outside his block as he was going to the local park and started to shout abuse and threats at him and said to him "I can get you over at the park, I know you go for a walk". This incident led to his arrest and to the matter being referred to the Magistrates Court. A file note of the report is exhibited on page 31 of the exhibit bundle LN1.

89. I had meetings with Mr. George Quinton, one of the Defendant's neighbours on 16th December 2016 and 11th January 2017. He reported that he was experiencing problems with the Defendant's behaviour, and that on 4th October 2016, the Defendant aggressively banged on his ceiling and accused him of making noise. The Defendant then went to the neighbour's flat upstairs and started kicking and banging on the front door and was swearing and shouting at. him. The Defendant later went downstairs, dragged the neighbour's motorbike from where it was parked and started to hit it with a piece of wood. A file note of the report is at pages 32-34 of the exhibit bundle.

90. On 22nd November 2016, during a telephone conversation with my former colleague Ms SARAH FLETCHER, the Defendant was heard saying to his mother, who was present with him, 'I'm goanna do her over, I'm goanna take her job just for fun' referring to Ms Fletcher. A file note of the incident is at page 34A of the exhibit bundle.

91. I hereby attach a case history detailing incidents of reports from Mr. Mathiyalagan about the abuse, threats and persistent intimidation by the Defendant. The case history is at pages 35 to 40 of the exhibit bundle LN1. It shows that Mr. Mathiyalagan reported incidents too numerous to set out in this statement about abuse, threats, attempts to extort money and intimidation by the Defendant. Examples are that the Defendant banged on his front door while his wife was alone at home with their young daughter and shouted abuse at his wife and asked her to turn off the bathroom taps. He also removed his electricity fuse thereby cutting off their power supply. Mr. Mathiyalagan reported the incident to the police and was given CAD 5753/23 December 2016. A file note of this incident is at page 37 of the exhibit bundle.

92. Other examples of aggressive and anti-social behaviour reported by Mr. Mathiyalagan were that on 21st January 2017, the Defendant aggressively banged on his door, swore and shouted abuse and threats at him and his family and accused them of making noise.

93. On 9th June 2017, the Defendant attacked Mr. Mathiyalagan's cousin in the communal hallway as he returned from work late at night by grabbing him on the arm and neck thereby causing bruising to his arm and neck. The Defendant also snatched his mobile phone from him as he tried to record the incident.

94. On 16th June 2017, the Defendant confronted Mr. Mathiyalagan's wife as she was exiting the main entrance at 11:55am and said to her that he had her bank and personal details. He also reported that the Defendant told his wife that he wanted her and her husband to pay him some money.

On 23rd June 2017, the Defendant came out of his flat with his dog and attacked Mr. Mathiyalagan's cousin as he returned from work at 11:35pm. He reported that the Defendant punched his cousin twice on the chest, tried to push him out of the block and snatched his mobile phone as he tried to record the incident.

5:18pm and asked him when he was going to hand over the money. He also reported that as they left the block, the Defendant ran after them swearing and shouting abuse and demanded that he must pay him money if he wants him to leave him alone. The Defendant also said to him that he has all their personal details. A report of the incident is at page 40 of the case history.

98. Case history notes exhibited at pages 41-46 show reports of similar aggressive and intimidating behaviour displayed to Mr. Mathiyalagan was being experienced by another tenant who wishes to remain anonymous because of fear of reprisal from the Defendant.

99. Similarly, further case notes exhibited at pages 47-52 show that another tenant who wishes to remain anonymous was being subjected to the Defendant's antisocial behaviour. She had to be moved from the block because of the harassment from the Defendant and because she suffered from mental health problems and was particularly vulnerable and unable to deal with the threats and harassment from the Defendant.

100. On 7th February 2017, the Defendant approached the leaseholder of 117 Bumcroft Avenue and his plumber outside the block as they were attempting to resolve low water pressure issues affecting the flat. The Defendant informed the leaseholder that there were problems between him and his tenants but did not give specific details. The leaseholder explained to the Defendant that his tenants were experiencing low water pressure in their flat and that they were trying to fix the problem. The Defendant said to the leaseholder, "you will not resolve the problem as I am restricting their water supply". The leaseholder later asked the Defendant to increase the water pressure and the Defendant stated, "I cannot do anything at the moment, I will sort it out later". A report of this incident is at page 55 of the exhibit bundle.

101. On 24th February 2017, the Claimants officers SARAH FLETCHER and Steve Kirk attended the Defendant's property following reports of low water pressure in the

It also appeared that the Defendant may have removed the wall between his kitchen and living room thereby creating an open plan living space. A copy of the file note is pages 56-57 of the exhibit bundle.

102. On 8th May 2017, the Claimant's officers, Ms Fletcher, a Neighbourhood officer who has since left the Council and Mr. Steve Stirk, a surveyor visited the Defendant's block of flats following reports of low water pressure to flats 109, 113 and 117 Bumcroft Avenue. While the Claimant's officers were outside flat 113, the Defendant came up to them and started to complain about his perceived victimization by his neighbours, the police and the council. While the Defendant was talking to the officers, Mr. Mathiyalagan came down the stairs and the Defendant said to him, "I'm going to the police station now with my evidence about you and I'm going to ruin your life". A file note of this report is exhibited at page 58 of the exhibit bundle and an email from Steve Stirk is at page 59.

103. On 14th May 2017, yet another neighbour who wishes to remain anonymous reported that the Defendant aggressively banged on her door, shouted abuse and threats at her and falsely accused her of making noise and coming into his flat to attack him. The neighbour stated that the Defendant later followed her to her car as she was leaving the block shouting abuse and wanting to know where she was going. The neighbour also reported that the Defendant allowed his dog to roam freely in the communal area of the block without a lead. A file note of the report is at page 60 of the exhibit bundle LN1.

104. On 28th May 2017, the Defendant was issued with a first instance Harassment letter by the police following allegations of harassment and threatening behaviour made to the police by his neighbour. A copy of the letter and the PC's statement are at pages 61-62 of the exhibit bundle LN1.

105. On 12th July 2017, Mr. Neville Gray, the Claimants repairs surveyor attended the Defendant's flat to investigate reports of low water pressure to the flats above the Defendant's flat but the Defendant refused him access. Mr. Neville Gray attended the Defendant's flat again at about 5:39pm following reports from the leaseholder of flat 117 Burncroft House that the water supply had stopped completely, but the Defendant also refused him access. The Defendant later shouted abuse and swear words at Mr. Gray and would not allow him to approach his car. Mr. Gray has provided a witness statement in relation to this incident.

v. The Defendant is in breach of the following conditions of his tenancy agreement.

w. Condition 10 - "You must not act in any way which causes, or is likely to cause, a nuisance or annoyance or is anti-social."

I have corresponded with the Defendant regarding the reports of anti-social behaviour made against him by his neighbours and invited him to meetings with his mother Lorraine Cordell, but he declined to attend. 11. The Claimant’s operatives have had difficulties in accessing the Defendant's flat to inspect the state of the property and the unauthorised works and modifications which the Defendant is purported to have carried out without a written consent from the Claimant. The Claimant has also been unable to check whether the Defendant Is restricting water supply/pressure to the properties above his since December 2016. The Defendant has admitted to restricting the water supply but has refused to allow the Claimant's maintenance operatives access to his property to investigate and rectify the problem.

12. The Defendant has intimidated the residents in the entire block and because of his behaviour, we have received numerous complaints from residents, requests to be transferred from the block and we have had to move a vulnerable tenant from the block.

13. I have made attempts to engage with the Defendant, but he has not been cooperative and has continuously displayed abusive and threatening behaviour towards the Claimant's members of staff and his neighbours. A Notice of Seeking Possession has been served on him and possession action is being considered. However, in the meantime, this injunction is required to ensure that the other residents are not subjected to further intimidation and harassment by the Defendant. This application is being made without notice because if the Defendant were given notice, he would intimidate the witnesses in an attempt to prevent the order being made.

Today when I was in my front room sitting on my main living room sofa and while I utilized my computer to studying the computer keyboard noises that gets made as I indicted gave away my destination within my habitation and the tents of 117 and the newly tenant of 113 capitalized on this fact and commenced jumping on the floor above me damaging my life's work studies!
I keep getting Vilipend by the original occupants of 117 and 111 and now also with the new addition of George Quinton slamming their dihydrogen Monoxide taps on and off at an expeditious rate for hours at a time and cannot get any repose or do any studying in this rented flat and the council and police will; not forfend me when I call or electronically mail them asking them to, I perpetuate to record the evidence in audio and video!

I visited Mr. Mathiyalagan at 117 Burncroft Avenue today to look at the flooring following email from Ms. Cordell concerning noise as a result of wood flooring in the flat. I noticed that there is laminate flooring in the whole fiat and ceramic tiles in the kitchen. Mr. Mathiyalagan stated that the flooring was already in the flat when they moved in. He stated that they do not make noise deliberately and that any noise from his flat is household noise. He also stated that as far as he is aware that the person living below them, we not complained of noise and that he will be the one that will be affected if there are excessive notices from his flat'. He also stated that he has asked the man if they are causing noise disturbances and he said they are not. He also requested that Mr. Cordell should contact the council if he is being disturbed by noise from his flat instead of harassing him and his family by banging on his front door, shouting abuse at him and his wife, threatening them and confronting them when they come into the block.
I informed him that laminate flooring can generate some noise and to be mindful of his neighbours while walking around inside his fiat I then went and knocked at flat 113 but there was no response.

By the time I returned to the office, Mr. Cordell had telephoned me several times. I telephoned him back and he wanted to know whether I was the person that posted a letter through his letterbox and I said yes. He asked why did not stop when he ran after me and I told him that I had another visit and did not have the time to stop and talk to him. He stated that he will not attend the meeting at the Civic Centre or any of the council and that I should come to his flat. I offered to have the meeting at a neutral venue like the local library or even at his mother's house, but he refused and shouted to shout abuse and accuse me of taking sides with his neighbours. He denied doing the things that he is accused of doing and stated that he is the victim and that the council have refused to deal with his complaints against his neighbours. He stated that he has been suffering noise disturbances from his neighbours since he moved into his flat and that the council have refused to deal with it He alleged that the council is conniving with the police to victimise him and threatened to put in a complaint. against me. He continued shouting abuse and will not Set me say a word. I then advised him that I will have to terminate the conversation as we were getting nowhere,

DIRECTIONS ORDER

I make this Witness Statement in support of the Claimant's application for an injunction to stop the Defendant from causing Intimidation, harassment to me and other residents.

BACKGROUND

The problem with the Defendant started a few months after we moved into the property, after the Defendant approached me asking me to write a letter of support in relation to a problem, he was having with the lady that used to live at Flat 113 Bumcroft Avenue. I refused to write the letter and told the Defendant that I do not want to get involved as I did not have any problems with the lady. Since then, the Defendant has made living in this block difficult for me and my family. He has been very aggressive to my family and I and has continuously intimidated, threatened and harassed my wife, cousin and me.

The Defendant have repeatedly accused us of making noise inside our flat even though our flat is situated two floors above his and the person living directly below us have never complained to us about noise. He has shouted abuse at us, damaged our properties and aggressively demanded money from me. My family and I are constantly living in fear and my wife are frightened to stay at home and has had to accompany me to work on several occasions and stayed in the car with our young daughter until I finish work.

The Defendant has slashed my car tyres, damaged my fuse box and has physically threatened to hit me with a piece of wood. He has a big dog that he brings out with him without a lead when he approaches us, and he has used the dog to intimidate us. He also allows the dog to bark and run freely inside the communal hallway and staircase without a lead. I have reported

24. On 28th June 2017 at 11:45am, the Defendant confronted my wife outside the main entrance door as she was going to pick up our daughter from school and demanded to talk to her. My wife told him that she cannot stop to speak with him as she was on her way to collect her daughter from school, but the Defendant ran after my wife, stood in front of her and started to shout at her. The Defendant told my wife that he knows all our personal details including our full names, date of birth and bank details. The Defendant demanded that we should pay him some money and that my wife should tell me to come and talk to him. The Defendant also accused my wife of making noises inside our flat.

and bank details and that I must pay him to have them back. I told him that I will not pay him and to do whatever he likes with the details.

27. The constant verbal abuse, swearing, intimidation and aggressive behaviour from the Defendant towards my family and I have made it difficult for us to live in our own home. The fear of not knowing when we will be confronted with vile and aggressive behaviour as my wife and I go out or return to our home has caused us severe stress and anxiety. My wife is afraid of leaving our flat on her own due to fear that the Defendant will confront and shout abuse at her. We are having to tip-toe inside our flat for fear of being accused of making noise even though we live two floors above the Defendant. The Defendant has caused us immense hardship by vandalising my property and although I cannot prove it, I am certain that the Defendant was responsible for slashing my car tyres, damaging my meter cupboard and removing my electricity fuse several times and restricting water flow to my flat, Also, I no longer park my car outside my block in Bumcroft Avenue because of the car being vandalized. I now park a few streets away, about ten or fifteen minutes from my home instead of outside my block which is about a minute from my flat. I do not see why we should have to live this way.

17. On 23rd June 2017, the Defendant came out of his flat with his dog and attacked Mr. Mathiyalagan's cousin as he returned from work at 11:35pm. He reported that the Defendant punched his cousin twice on the chest, tried to push him out of the block and snatched his mobile phone as he tried to record the incident.

18. On 28th June 2017, the Defendant confronted Mr. Mathiyalagan's wife as she was leaving the block at 11:45am, swore at her, shouted abuse and accused her of making noise inside her flat. 5:18pm and asked him when he was going to hand over the money. He also reported that as they left the block, the Defendant ran after them swearing and shouting abuse and demanded that he must pay him money if he wants him to leave him alone. The Defendant also said to him that he has all their personal details. A report of the incident is at page 40 of the case history.

20. Case history notes exhibited at pages 41-46 show reports of similar aggressive and intimidating behaviour displayed to Mr. Mathiyalagan was being experienced by another tenant who wishes to remain anonymous because of fear of reprisal from the Defendant.

21. Similarly, further case notes exhibited at pages 47-52 show that another tenant who wishes to remain anonymous was being subjected to the Defendant's antisocial behaviour. She had to be moved from the block because of the harassment from the Defendant and because she suffered from mental health problems and was particularly vulnerable and unable to deal with the threats and harassment from the Defendant.

22. On 7th February 2017, the Defendant approached the leaseholder of 117 Bumcroft Avenue and his plumber outside the block as they were attempting to resolve low water pressure issues affecting the flat. The Defendant informed the leaseholder that there were problems between him and his tenants but did not give specific details. The leaseholder explained to the Defendant that his tenants were experiencing low water pressure in their flat and that they were trying to fix the problem. The Defendant said to the leaseholder, "you will not resolve the problem as I am restricting their water supply". The leaseholder later asked the Defendant to increase the water pressure and the Defendant stated, "I cannot do anything at the moment, I will sort it out later". A report of this incident is at page 55 of the exhibit bundle.

flats above his. While inside his flat they noticed that the Defendant have installed a metal security gate inside his front door. It also appeared that the Defendant may have removed the wall between his kitchen and living room thereby creating an open plan living space. A copy of the file note is pages 56-57 of the exhibit bundle.

24. On 8th May 2017, the Claimant's officers, Ms Fletcher, a Neighbourhood officer who has since left the Council and Mr. Steve Stirk, a surveyor visited the Defendant's block of flats following reports of low water pressure to flats 109, 113 and 117 Bumcroft Avenue. While the Claimant's officers were outside flat 113, the Defendant came up to them and started to complain about his perceived victimization by his neighbours, the police and the council. While the Defendant was talking to the officers, Mr. Mathiyalagan came down the stairs and the Defendant said to him, "I'm going to the police station now with my evidence about you and I'm going to ruin your life". A file note of this report is exhibited at page 58 of the exhibit bundle and an email from Steve Stirk is at page 59.

25. On 14th May 2017, yet another neighbour who wishes to remain anonymous reported that the Defendant aggressively banged on her door, shouted abuse and threats at her and falsely accused her of making noise and coming into his flat to attack him. The neighbour stated that the Defendant later followed her to her car as she was leaving the block shouting abuse and wanting to know where she was going. The neighbour also reported that the Defendant allowed his dog to roam freely in the communal area of the block without a lead. A file note of the report is at page 60 of the exhibit bundle LN1.

26. On 28th May 2017, the Defendant was issued with a first instance Harassment letter by the police following allegations of harassment and threatening behaviour made to the police by his neighbour. A copy of the letter and the PC's statement are at pages 61-62 of the exhibit bundle LN1.

27. On 12th July 2017, Mr. Neville Gray, the Claimants repairs surveyor attended the Defendant's flat to investigate reports of low water pressure to the flats above the Defendant's flat but the Defendant refused him access. Mr. Neville Gray attended the Defendant's flat again at about 5:39pm following reports from the leaseholder of flat 117 Burncroft House that the water supply had stopped completely, but the Defendant also refused him access. The Defendant later shouted abuse and swear words at Mr. Gray and would not allow him to approach his car. Mr. Gray has provided a witness statement in relation to this incident.

A. The Defendant is in breach of the following conditions of his tenancy agreement;

30.1 have enquired with the Mental Health Team whether the Defendant is currently known to the team and was informed that he is no longer under their care.

14. The Claimant's operatives have had difficulties in accessing the Defendant's flat to inspect the state of the property and the unauthorised works and modifications which the Defendant is purported to have carried out without a written consent from the Claimant. The Claimant has also been unable to check whether the Defendant Is restricting water supply/pressure to the properties above his since December 2016. The Defendant has admitted to restricting the water supply but has refused to allow the Claimant's maintenance operatives access to his property to investigate and rectify the problem.

15. The Defendant has intimidated the residents in the entire block and because of his behaviour, we have received numerous complaints from residents, requests to be transferred from the block and we have had to move a vulnerable tenant from the block.

16. I have made attempts to engage with the Defendant, but he has not been cooperative and has continuously displayed abusive and threatening behaviour towards the Claimant's members of staff and his neighbours. A Notice of Seeking Possession has been served on him and possession action is being considered. However, in the meantime, this injunction is required to ensure that the other residents are not subjected to further intimidation and harassment by the Defendant. This application is being made without notice because if the Defendant were given notice, he would intimidate the witnesses in an attempt to prevent the order being made.

My Heart has really started to hurt me every day, I am having an early aged mild heart attacks because of what Debra Andrews and the Mathiyalagan Markandu family as well as stain Curtis and George Quinton get and got away with, inclusively of what the police and local council members are getting away with each day by holding me hostage with no first hand witness and then on allowing my estate members to carry out their hate crime in a cover up to send me crazy or to an early death by flushing the toilet below me and bagging at me causing me sufferings and no peace also letting the named attack me when I am in the bathtub and getting undressed and this does not stop their I continue to get assaulted with the water taps getting slammed on and off causing a loud bagging sound at a fast rate and slamming object and or jumping on the floorboards above my head damaging my work studies and private family life and making me a Vulnerable person!

I have also had a lot of problems with eating because of what they keep all doing to me!

The occupiers of 117 woke me up by attacking me on purpose by stamping and dropping articles above my head!
Then 113 and 117 tenants kept on Continually, reiterating to flushing the toilet when I went into the bathroom, so to be sick in my toilet because they made me ill!
They all mentioned in the addresses of 111 Burncroft Avenue keep making me unsafe in my own home and dropping articles on to their own wooden flooring to make loud banging noises while slamming the taps on and off at an un president rate!
113 - 117 and 111 today kept on Banging with objects onto the internal main buildings walls and floors, so to intimidate surely me and maybe others living close by whom may be present to an extent only worthwhile for the perpetrators selfless glory, In them perpetrators knowing that their behaviour would only leave all those getting victimized towards getting left by their wrongful actions as to being put into a state of a mental health patient and not rightfully with this occurring within mine and their rented or paid for homes!
The occupiers of 117 the Mathiyalagan family and also Stain Curtis off 111 Burncroft Avenue continue to Slamming the water tap on and off, and now with George Quinton also involved I continue to document their Hate Crime towards me and report it to the relevant persons without any fair process of support and this is causing damage to my health and the buildings fixtures at an unacceptable rate!
They all mentioned in the addresses of 113 and 117 Burncroft Avenue keep Dropping articles on to their own wooden flooring to make loud banging noises all day and night towards me and the floor has not gotten fixed correctly in the address of 113 after Debra Andrews moved out, making me still suffer as George has taken over!

Stain will not stop banging on the kitchen wall with intent of victimising me on a full 24-hour assault in collaboration with the other named in the address of 113 and 117!

After he introduced himself, SC said to him that there is some kind of war going on between him and other neighbours. SC also told him that he's got a load of issues with the police and that he was trying to sue them because he felt that they were treating him unfairly. He told SC that he was a musician and that he does not want anything to do with his issues.
Straight after he moved in, SC will come up to his flat at least once a week to shout at him and complain about loud banging from his flat and knocking pipes. SC would accuse him of making noise on purpose to wind him up and he will always explain to him that it is not true, that he does not make any banging noises inside his flat and that he cannot explain why the pipes were making knocking noises.

Dear Mr. Cordell,
Re: Reports of Anti-Social Behaviour, Harassment, Intimidation and Threatening Behaviour
I write with regards to reports of anti-social behaviour, intimidation, harassment and threatening behaviour made against you by your neighbours.
The reports include using threatening, abusive and insulting words and language, aggressively demanding money, intimidation and making threats towards your neighbours.
It is also alleged that on 4th October 2016, you banged on your ceiling and you later started to bang and kick at your neighbour's door. It is alleged that you were very aggressive and was shouting through your neighbour's door and that you then proceeded to drag his motorbike from where it was parked and started to smash it up.
It is also alleged that your dogs are left by themselves all day and night barking and causing noise disturbances to your neighbours.
Your neighbours have also alleged that you have installed a CCTV in the communal area with the camera pointing towards the main entrance to the block thereby making them to feel very uncomfortable when entering and leaving the block. Your neighbours have alleged that this is an invasion of their privacy.
If these allegations are true, they are in breach of the following terms and conditions of your Tenancy Agreement:

The truth is that on the morning of the 04/10/2016 I got up and had a bath, while I was in the bath I noticed a banging on my door, so I then got out of the Barth and wrapped myself in a towel, when asking who was at my front door, a voice replied police, I asked what they wanted and they explained to me that they wanted to arrest me, so I once again called my mother to attend and explained my concerns of the police presence to her. When I finally got to answer the door in my towel, the police arrested me, for criminal damage, I completely deny causing any damage to the complainant's property once I understood the circumstances and unannounced that I did not commit any crime I was accused of dragging a bike out of view of my neighbor's window and also accused of, then after smashing it up, this is as stated in the second complaints statements herein named George Quinton who lived at the home address off 113 Burncroft Avenue, Enfield London EN3 7jq. While at the police station I was denied bail for both cases I then got granted bail by the court after being detained in the police cell overnight, I was also placed on conditions not to go home to Burncroft Avenue, so I stayed at my mother's address this caused me time that I would have otherwise committed towards the running objectives of my up-and-coming companies launch at no fault of my own to add towards upset. When staying at my mother's house, I knew that I was being punished for crimes that I had not committed. In response to the allegations of threats to kill that were made against me, I then had to re attend the court as I was placed on court bail this was until the 17/11/2016 awaiting trial in both cases set for the same day, the day before trial my mother received a phone call from my representing solicitor firm who in turn explained that both cases had been NFA no further action taken, as I was innocent in the claims and then released to go home. At the time of me being at my mother's home she managed to help me start to achieve a positive impact in society once again without the presence of my neighbor's wrong doings, this was achieved in many different accepts. I never went home for a few days after the case was NFA, the reason I never went back was because I was reluctant of be put back into the same position again, where I was once again being set up and endangered. After speaking to a few of the right people around me and also that of my family members we all decided the best thing for me to do was make a phone call to my housing officer, whose name is Sarah Flexure, when speaking to her on the phone; I explained the on goings of what had been going on while living within the estate at my home. I explained to her that she is in charge of my housing estate and therefore she holds responsibility to the tenant's safety, I continued to express myself in regards to the correspondents that were sent to her office in respect to the past and up for that date problems also that of the telephone conversation we were having, so to be making sure of asking her if she could finally address them issues that I have of my concern about members of my fellow neighbor's, on doing this she told me that she had received letters of my neighbor's also of complaints."

After speaking to a few of the right people around me and also that of my family members we all decided the best thing for me to do was make a phone call to my housing officer, whose name is Sarah Flexure, when speaking to her on the phone; I explained the on goings of what had been going on while living within the estate at my home. I explained to her that she is in charge of my housing estate and therefore she holds responsibility to the tenant's safety, I continued to express myself in regards to the correspondents that were sent to her office in respect to the past and up for that date problems also that of the telephone conversation we were having, so to be making sure of asking her if she could finally address them issues that I have of my concern about members of my fellow neighbour's, on doing this she told me that she had received letters of my neighbour's also of complaints.

2. I make this Witness Statement in support of the Claimant's application for an injunction to stop the Defendant from causing intimidation, harassment and alarm to other residents and their visitors on Burncroft Avenue.

3. The Defendant is a secure tenant of the Claimant at 109 Burncroft Avenue, Enfield, Middlesex, EN3 7JQ. His tenancy commenced on 14th August 2006. I hereby attach a bundle of documents relating to this case as exhibit number LN1. A copy of the Defendant's tenancy agreement and terms and conditions are hereby attached at pages 1-24.

4. The reports concerning the Defendant's alleged anti-social behaviour towards his neighbours was first brought to my attention in October 2016 when a case involving the Defendant and one of his neighbours was referred to me for investigation. The Defendant was reported to have caused frequent acts of harassment and anti-social behaviour against an elderly neighbour. The Defendant was arrested by the Police and bailed to a different address. The matter was referred to the Highbury Corner Magistrates' Court on 05 October 2016 where a first hearing took place. continued that sometime around mid-September 2016, one of the Defendant's neighbours reported that the Defendant confronted him outside his block as he was going to the local park and started to shout abuse and threats at him and said to him "I can get you over at the park, I know you go for a walk". 11. I had meetings with Mr. George Quinton, one of the Defendant's neighbours on 16th December 2016 and 11th January 2017. He reported that he was experiencing problems with the Defendant's behaviour, and that on 4th October 2016, the Defendant aggressively banged on his ceiling and accused him of making noise. 13. I hereby attach a case history detailing incidents of reports from Mr. Mathiyalagan about the abuse, threats and persistent intimidation by the Defendant. The case history is at pages 35 to 40 of the exhibit bundle LN1. It shows that Mr. Mathiyalagan reported incidents too numerous to set out in this statement about abuse, threats, attempts to extort money and intimidation by the Defendant. Examples are that the Defendant banged on his front door while his wife was alone at home with their young daughter and shouted abuse at his wife and asked her to turn off the bathroom taps. cutting off their power supply. Mr. Mathiyalagan reported the incident to the police and was given CAD 5753/23 December 2016. A file note of this incident is at page 37 of the exhibit bundle.

14. Other examples of aggressive and anti-social behaviour reported by Mr. Mathiyalagan were that on 21st January 2017, the Defendant aggressively banged on his door, swore and shouted abuse and threats at him and his family and accused them of making noise.

15. On 9th June 2017, the Defendant attacked Mr. Mathiyalagan's cousin in the communal hallway as he returned from work late at night by grabbing him on the arm and neck thereby causing bruising to his arm and neck. He also reported that as they left the block, the Defendant ran after them swearing and shouting abuse and demanded that he must pay him money if he wants him to leave him alone. The Defendant also said to him that he has all their personal details. A report of the incident is at page 40 of the case history.

20. Case history notes exhibited at pages 41-46 show reports of similar aggressive and intimidating behaviour displayed to Mr. Mathiyalagan was being experienced by another tenant who wishes to remain anonymous because of fear of reprisal from the Defendant.

21. Similarly, further case notes exhibited at pages 47-52 show that another tenant who wishes to remain anonymous was being subjected to the Defendant's antisocial behaviour. She had to be moved from the block because of the harassment from the Defendant and because she suffered from mental health problems and was particularly vulnerable and unable to deal with the threats and harassment from the Defendant.

22. On 7th February 2017, the Defendant approached the leaseholder of 117 Bumcroft Avenue and his plumber outside the block as they were attempting to resolve low water pressure issues affecting the flat. The leaseholder explained to the Defendant that his tenants were experiencing low water pressure in their flat and that they were trying to fix the problem. The Defendant said to the leaseholder, “you will not resolve the problem as I am restricting their water supply”. The leaseholder later asked the Defendant to increase the water pressure and the Defendant stated, "I cannot do anything at the moment, I will sort it out later”. A report of this incident is at page 55 of the exhibit bundle.

It also appeared that the Defendant may have removed the wall between his kitchen and living room thereby creating an open plan living space. A copy of the file note is pages 56-57 of the exhibit bundle.

24. On 8th May 2017, the Claimant's officers, Ms Fletcher, a Neighbourhood officer who has since left the Council and Mr. Steve Stirk, a surveyor visited the Defendant's block of flats following reports of low water pressure to flats 109, 113 and 117 Bumcroft Avenue. While the Claimant's officers were outside flat 113, the Defendant came up to them and started to complain about his perceived victimization by his neighbours, the police and the council. While the Defendant was talking to the officers, Mr. Mathiyalagan came down the stairs and the Defendant said to him, "I'm going to the police station now with my evidence about you and I'm going to ruin your life". A file note of this report is exhibited at page 58 of the exhibit bundle and an email from Steve Stirk is at page 59.

25. On 14th May 2017, yet another neighbour who wishes to remain anonymous reported that the Defendant aggressively banged on her door, shouted abuse and threats at her and falsely accused her of making noise and coming into his flat to attack him. The neighbour stated that the Defendant later followed her to her car as she was leaving the block shouting abuse and wanting to know where she was going. The neighbour also reported that the Defendant allowed his dog to roam freely in the communal area of the block without a lead. A file note of the report is at page 60 of the exhibit bundle LN1.

26. On 28th May 2017, the Defendant was issued with a first instance Harassment letter by the police following allegations of harassment and threatening behaviour made to the police by his neighbour. A copy of the letter and the PC's statement are at pages 61-62 of the exhibit bundle LN1.

27. On 12th July 2017, Mr. Neville Gray, the Claimants repairs surveyor attended the Defendant's flat to investigate reports of low water pressure to the flats above the Defendant's flat, but the Defendant refused him access. Mr. Neville Gray attended the Defendant's flat again at about 5:39pm following reports from the leaseholder of flat 117 Burncroft House that the water supply had stopped completely, but the Defendant also refused him access. The Defendant later shouted abuse and swear words at Mr. Gray and would not allow him to approach his car. Mr. Gray has provided a witness statement in relation to this incident.

January 2017 inviting him for a meeting on 9th February 2017, 16th February 2017 for a meeting on 22 February 2016 and 16th March 2017 for a meeting on 22nd March 2017. These letters are exhibited at pages 63-70 of the exhibit bundle.
30.1 have enquired with the Mental Health Team whether the Defendant is currently known to the team and was informed that he is no longer under their care.

17. The Claimant's operatives have had difficulties in accessing the Defendant's flat to inspect the state of the property and the unauthorised works and modifications which the Defendant is purported to have carried out without a written consent from the Claimant. The Claimant has also been unable to check whether the Defendant Is restricting water supply/pressure to the properties above his since December 2016. The Defendant has admitted to restricting the water supply but has refused to allow the Claimant's maintenance operatives access to his property to investigate and rectify the problem.

18. The Defendant has intimidated the residents in the entire block and because of his behaviour, we have received numerous complaints from residents, requests to be transferred from the block and we have had to move a vulnerable tenant from the block.

19. I have made attempts to engage with the Defendant, but he has not been cooperative and has continuously displayed abusive and threatening behaviour towards the Claimant's members of staff and his neighbours. A Notice of Seeking Possession has been served on him and possession action is being considered. However, in the meantime, this injunction is required to ensure that the other residents are not subjected to further intimidation and harassment by the Defendant. This application is being made without notice because if the Defendant were given notice, he would intimidate the witnesses in an attempt to prevent the order being made.

She explained that they use to be acquaintances before the relationship went sour. She believes the whole problem started when he claimed the decoration in his flat was damaged as a result of a leak coming from her flat. She confirmed that she had a leak from her overflow a few months ago which has since been repaired but, the damage alleged had occurred.

After he introduced himself, SC said to him that there is some kind of war going on between him and other neighbours. SC also told him that he's got a load of issues with the police and that he was trying to sue them because he felt that they were treating him unfairly. He told SC that he was a musician and that he does not want anything to do with his issues.

Straight after he moved in, SC will come up to his flat at least once a week to shout at him and complain about loud banging from his flat and knocking pipes. SC would accuse him of making noise on purpose to wind him up and he will always explain to him that it is not true, that he does not make any banging noises inside his flat and that he cannot explain why the pipes were making knocking noises.

Mr. Quinton stated that on 04/10/2016, he was sleeping when SC started to bang on his ceiling, but he ignored him. SC then came up and started kicking at his door and he still ignored him. SC then went downstairs, dragged Mr. Quinton's motorbike from where he parked it, threw it on the ground and started to hit it with what he believed to be a mop pole, he is not sure how many times he hit it. He then called the police and they came and took him away, CAD No. 3309/4 Oct. 2016.
On 11/12/2016, SC came up to his flat 3 times to shout abuse and complain about noise from his flat.
Mr. Quinton explained that the first time, he was running a bath when SC came and knocked on the door to complain about knocking pipes. He did not open the door and he shouted abuse at him and his friends and called them homophobic names. He later came back again to bang on his door and shout further abuse. He also made threatened him and his exact words are 'I'm off curfew in 12 days, when I'm, I am coming for you', he shouted further abuse and walked off. Mr. Quinton stated that he is not sure why he came back the second time, but he assumed that it was because of the pipes again. He later came back again the third time and this time he opened the door because he has had enough. SC complained about noise from his flat and he told him that he was not making any noise. SC then went on to tell him that he has been away for a long time and that his family was coming to look after his dog. He asked SC if he knew anything about his bike and SC replied 'You know what, I'm a grown man I'm not goanna lie, it was me that smashed your bike and I was gutted that the stick broke and I couldn't smash it up more'. He then asked SC about his tyres which was punctured with a knife and he denied cutting them. He then explained to SC that the knocking pipes has nothing to do with him and that he does not bang or make deliberate noise and he advised SC to play his music over the noise if it happens again as there is nothing he can do about the pipes and the noise as it is the nature of the building. SC said cool, fair enough and walked off and as he walked off, he turned around and gave him a dirty look.
About a week later, 2 of his friends left his flat and a short while later he heard SC running out of the front door. Soon after one of his friends called and told him that they have just had a confrontation with SC in the street. His friend informed him that SC ran up to them in the street and confronted his friend Jazz about the knocking pipe noises from his flat. Jazz told SC that it has nothing to do with him. SC then head-butted Jazz and as Jazz fell on the floor, SC jumped on top of him and started to punch him. His other friend Jevon who was with Jazz at the time pulled SC off Jazz and held him until 2 Turkish men came and separated them.
Mr. Quinton stated that the police did not contact him to update him on what action was taken against SC regarding his smashed bike. He stated that he has recording of SC admitting to smashing up his bike and played the recording to me. Although it was very faint, but you could make out what sounded like SC talking about smashing the bike. He stated that he wants to sue SC for criminal damage, he also wants to take out a restraining order against him and possibly an injunction.
He stated that his friends Simon Cocks (07393285528), Julian Jackson (07387277163) and Jazz Bramble (07375651241) are willing to provide witness statements and will attend court to give evidence on his behalf. He also wants us to find out why what action the police took regarding his smashed bike.
08/02/2017:

I did an announced visit to Mr. Quinton at 113 Burncroft Avenue following recent email from Ms. Cordell concerning noise disturbances from the flat as a result of wooden flooring but there was no response. I then telephoned Mr. Quinton and left a voice message for him.
07/03/2017: 27/07/2017:
I telephoned Mr. Quinton for updates on any recent incidents and he stated that there has been none as he has been staying at his flat. He stated that he has been staying with friends and family and only goes back to his fiat to check his letters.
He stated that he will give a witness statement and will attend court if required to do so.

Mr. Simon Cordell 109 Burncroft Ave Enfield Middlesex EN3 7JQ 24/11/2016
RE: Formal Complaint dated 24/11/2016:
To Whom It May Concern:
I am writing this letter on behalf on my son Simon Cordell of 109 Burncroft Ave, EN3 7JQ. Over the past few years my son has been having some issues with his neighbours this started due to what the police wrote about him in the newspapers about an ASBO that was granted by the lower courts in the newspaper the truth was not printed in the newspapers or on the Met Police website, the judge did grant the ASBO order but not on the grounds the police case was for we are still trying to work on how this was done to this day, this was not related to his neighbours why the police took this action it was due to lies by the police, this case is still waiting an appeal hearing at the crown court which will be held Jan 2017.
It was after this was printed in the newspaper and on the met website my son started to have issues with neighbours banging all the time and the way they were treating him and talking about him and not letting him have any rest to sleep due to the banging all the time emails were sent to Enfield Council yet very little was done yet my son has video footage of it which the council has never wanted to see or4 take any reports, this has made his heath suffer, I feel this was due to what the police have been telling Enfield Council and Enfield Council just taking the word of the police without asking my son or myself to explain as since all this started Enfield Council has not wanted to help in any way, could this be due to the colour of my son's skin as I am lost for words that Enfield Council has done nothing to help.
My son has been a tenant for many years now with no complaints about him until this all started above and things were put in the newspapers for all to see when my son had done nothing wrong and will prove this at his appeal in Jan 2017.
The police do not like my son and have not for the past 21 years and there is a lot of issues that Enfield Council is not aware of about the police and my son this is getting addressed with the IPCC and police complaints, and we are now sorting out legal action as to what this has done to our lives over the years this has been ongoing the legal action is taking time due to how long this has been ongoing with the police.
There is also a subject access request attached to this email which I am asking for everything Enfield Council hold information about in regard to my son, this will also include any police reports that the police have handed to Enfield Council. If this needs to be handed to the correct department to deal with this or there is a cost pleases advice via this email, I have also included a letter of authority from my son so I can act on his behalf.
I do already know there is data being held by Enfield Council that is not correct and I want to be able to get this correct under the data protection act.

On the 14/08/2016 my son had some friends round to his home they came there at around 13:30 hours, after they left the police showed up at his address to arrest him this was due to one of the neighbours said my son had gone out in his garden at 17:10 hours looked up at her windows and made threats to kill, this person lives 3 gardens down from my son on the 2 floor at 105 Burncroft Ave EN3 7JQ, this is imposable as my son did not go out in his garden he was with his 4 friends and there baby in his home all day and videos were taken while they were at his flat, his friends have made statements to say this as they did not leave his flat until around 18:15 hours, not long before the police came to my son's home. I Miss L Cordell even went around his flat as he needed some things. In fact, my son does not go out of his home, and this has been for some time now due to how he is being treated.

When he was arrested on the 14/08/2016 my son was held in the police station sectioned under the mental health act and could not be interviewed so was put on bail until the 04/10/2016 when he was due to go back to the police station to be interviewed.
On the 04/10/2016 my son was getting ready at his home for me to pick him up for the bail to return, when I got a phone call from my son to say the police was again at his flat to arrest him this was around 1 hour before he was due to be at the police station, I went to his flat and was told by the police they wanted to arrest him I told them he was getting ready to go to the police station for a bail to return, the police again arrested my son for criminal damage due to something his neighbour said who lives above him, but he had not been out of his home he was in fact in the bath when the police came to his home.
Both cases for the 14/08/2016 and the 04/10/2016 were dropped by the CPS this was done on the 15/11/2016 with no case to answer towards my son, yet my son was victimised and had false accusations put against his name and arrested.
My son is scared to go home due to what the neighbours are doing, saying, and putting false allegations into the police, it seems they really do not want him to live there and will do anything they can to get him out.
On the 16/11/2016 I tried to speak to my son's housing officer SARAH FLETCHER to see what could be done and update her to what was ongoing her phone was set to do not disturb so I asked for an email to be sent over for her to call me as a matter of emergency, no one returned a call back to me.

Since the 16/11/2016 I have been calling every day to speak to SARAH FLETCHER her phone is always set to do not disturb and I have asked for emails to be sent every day for her to call me back as a matter of emergency, I even asked to speak to her manager or any person in their team but it seems all their phones are set to do not disturb so I asked for emails to be sent for a call back, no one called me back.
I was also told that the police had been in contact with the council and that SARAH FLETCHER would talk to me about this when she called this was on the 21/11/2016 and I was told that SARAH FLETCHER would 100% call me that day.
On the 22/11/2016 I went to my son's home and there was a letter from SARAH FLETCHER dated the 18/11/2016 which was to do with 1 CCTV camera my son has outside his front door, this CCTV camera does not impose on any person's rights, it does not show any person's front door who lives in the block or windows. In fact, on the 14/08/2016 when the police went to my son's flat to arrest him when they noticed the CCTV camera, they ripped the wire out and since this time it has not worked this is also getting address with the police. In the letter SARAH FLETCHER said the CCTV camera had to be removed by the 25/11/2016 or Enfield Council would remove the CCTV camera and costs would be charged to my son for any repairs which there is none. At seeing the letter, I was upset as it seemed SARAH FLETCHER could take the time to write this letter but not call me when each email that was sent said it is a matter of emergency, I speak to her.
I tried to call and again like each other time I call it takes an hour or over to be able to speak to anyone, due to being busy I had to cut off to leave my son's flat and was going to call again later.
When I got home, I showed my son the letter from SARAH FLETCHER he himself was upset for some reason as me that she could take time to write this letter but not call us back. So, he then called this time he did get to speak to SARAH FLETCHER and yes, he was upset due to what has been going on and said many times he was upset that she had not called, and they spoke about the CCTV camera which my son said he wants to appeal it having to be taken down. They also spoke about my son being moved out of his flat to a new place, SARAH FLETCHER replied she cannot do anything to do that and the only way for him to move was by way of housing moves and he should sign up to that and nothing else can be done. My son did not explain fully as he was really upset. SARAH FLETCHER also said that there had been complaints put in about my son but said it not the right time to address this and that would be addressed at a next time, so it seems that Enfield Council does address complaints from other people but not my son or on behalf of my son, as I am still waiting for replies to complaints that were put in 2014 and 2015 about my son's neighbours.

After my son spoke to her he passed me the phone, I asked why she had not called me back and was told that it not my tenancy, which I replied there has already been sent a letter of authority sent to Enfield Council some time back I believe it was maybe between 2013 to 2015 this was sent there was more than one of them sent which I can prove as they were sent via emails which I still have, which gives me Miss Lorraine Cordell authority to deal and speak to anyone at Enfield Council on behalf of my son and it would be on their systems as it was emailed and I knew they had it. My son at this in the background also said I have authority to deal and speak to anyone at Enfield Council and it's on their systems. Due to my son speaking in the background I went to a next room to speak; my son came into the room and was going on about writing the letter of complaint about what had been going on and that she could end up losing her job if she did not deal with this correctly. It was at this SARAH FLETCHER said she could no longer talk to me that my son had made threats towards her and told me to put it in writing what I wanted to say put the phone down.

I feel at this time Enfield Council is doing nothing to help my son they don't even want to speak to me so I can explain fully what is going on. My son is under the early intervention team and they are willing to help my son get moved as they themselves have seen what is going on. They would do this by way of writing a letter to Enfield council if asked to do so by Enfield Council.

- I would like to speak to someone as this cannot be left like this and my son is suffering due to all of this. My contact number is 07807 333545.
- I would like to find out if Enfield Council is willing to move my son due to the reasons in this letter and the help of the early intervention team.
- I would also like full dates and times that my son's neighbours have put any complaints in and what they have said he has done and on what date.
- I would a full report of any police reports that have been given to Enfield Council by the police about my son.
- I would like information as to how to appeal about removing my CCTV camera and be allowed not to remove it until this appeal has happened, as so far this is the only thing that has proven my son has done nothing wrong.

Regards

Miss Lorraine Cordell Mr. Simon Cordell

Re: Formal Complaint due to letter dated 29/11/2016 this Formal Complaint is to be added to the Formal Complaint dated 24/08/2016.
Dear Lemmy Nwabuisi and any other person who is copied in this letter.
I am writing this letter on behalf of Mr. Simon Cordell of 109 Burncroft Ave, EN3 7JQ regarding the letter you wrote dated the 29/11/2016 which was received on the 01/12/2016.
I am not sure if you are aware there is an ongoing formal complaint that is being addressed by Mr. Daniel Ellis from Complaints & Access to Information Team which addresses some of the information you have included into your letter, but I will be covering points in this reply and also forwarding it to the people it needs to be addressed to.
The 1st point I will address is the meeting you have set up for Mr. Simon Cordell on the 06/12/2016 at 14:00 hours at Enfield Civic Centre.
I do not believe that it is justified to hold this meeting before the formal complaint is dealt with as stated many points in your letter has been covered in my formal complaint dated 24/11/2016, also until I have the subject access request information dealt with and have a list of dates and times these so-called complaints were meant to have taken place and the reports from police that have been sent to Enfield Council, I do not think holding this meeting would be appropriate.
I have spoken to my solicitor in regards to this matter and on advice taken from him he has told me to give limited information until I have the subject access request, this is why my formal complaint did not have full information in it as my solicitor does believe we have a case to take legal action, and if any data is withheld as it was when I requested my last subject access request for all my information, I will have to take this up with the ICO.
However, it does seem there is more injustice going on within the ASB unit and Enfield Council then I had proof of before you wrote your letter dated 29/11/2016. There has been complaints put into Enfield council since 2014 about Mr. Simon Cordell's neighbours and what they were doing to him, Enfield Council and ASB unit took the option and done nothing, not even replied to my complaints, took no reports, and did not even looked at the video footage Mr. Simon Cordell has of the noise, the banging the intimidation my son has taken from his neighbours, and the way they are doing all they can to get Mr. Simon Cordell to move, the way he has been treated by Enfield Council by way of Enfield Council doing nothing to help him. You have been told many times the effect this is having on Mr. Simon Cordell's heath yet still choose to do nothing.

Yet as soon as Enfield Council gets reports against Mr. Simon Cordell you are willing to address these complaints. Once again, I will say I feel this is due to reports the police have put in to Enfield Council about Mr. Simon Cordell, Meetings that took place with the Met police and Enfield council in regards to Mr. Simon Cordell which Mr. Simon Cordell knew nothing about until after the fact, and the colour of Mr. Simon Cordell skin, why Enfield council have done nothing to address any issue Mr. Simon Cordell was having with his neighbours regarding what his neighbours was doing to him.

Mr. Simon Cordell has had his own place since 1999 and was housed by Enfield Council in 109 Burncroft Ave, Enfield, Middlesex, EN3 7JQ I believe in 2006 due to a fire that happened in his flat before this address, in this time Mr. Simon Cordell had no complaints put in about him until now 2016.
You have written in your letter multiple things to be addressed which Mr. Simon Cordell was meant to have done.
"Include using threatening, abusive and insulting words and language, aggressively demanding money, intimidation and making threats towards your neighbours.
It is also alleged that on 4th October 2016, you banged on your ceiling and you later started to bang and kick at your neighbour's door. It is alleged that you were very aggressive and was shouting through your neighbour's door and that you then proceeded to drag his motorbike from where it was parked and started to smash it up".
At this point I will only say the above is untrue, once I have the information including all dates, times and complaints in order from my subject access request it will be at this time I will address each point of concern above.
You have also stated:
"It is also alleged that your dogs are left by themselves all day and night barking and causing noise disturbances to your neighbours".
Mr. Simon Cordell has had one dog only at his flat, when Mr. Simon Cordell was housed in 1999, he had a dog, no complaints were ever put in re Mr. Simon Cordell dog being left by herself all day and night barking and causing noise disturbances to neighbours and being neglected.
When Mr. Simon Cordell was moved into 109 Burncroft Ave, Enfield, Middlesex, EN3 7JQ I believe in 2006 he had the same dog, when she passed away in 2007, he got a new dog same bred and since 2006 there has been no complaints by neighbours of Mr. Simon Cordell leaving her alone all day and night or her barking all night and all day and him not looking after her and neglecting her, and her causing noise disturbances to his neighbours.

Mr. Simon Cordell does not leave his dog all day and night she is always looked after, if Mr. Simon Cordell is not going to be there overnight or for a long time during the day then the family look after the dog. So how someone can say she is left alone is beyond me.
Mr. Simon Cordell's dog is looked after very well she has never been left all day and all night alone, and I feel very angry any person could ever say Mr. Simon Cordell has ever mistreated and neglected his dog he is an animal lover as all our family are and we would never mistreat or neglected any animal.
Once again it seems beyond belief Mr. Simon Cordell has had his dog and no complaints has been put in by any neighbours about the way my son allegedly mistreats and neglects his dog since 2006, until now 2016.
It seems totally unbelievable my son could have his dog for so many years with not one complaint of mistreatment and neglect and now all of a sudden in 2016 my son mistreats and neglect his dog leaves her alone all day and night with the dog only now in 2016 causing noise disturbances to his neighbours. You can take that how it reads as I am so angry right now that any person could say the dog is mistreated and neglected, she is always cared for and loved and not left alone all day and night barking and making noise.
In fact, the dog that lives a few rows up barks more and makes more noise than Mr. Simon Cordell dog does its always barking and making a noise so does this mean they are going to have action taken against them?
My son's dog only as a rule bark when someone comes into the building to Mr. Simon Cordell front door and this is only for a short time until the door is opened for them, there is also the fact Mr. Simon Cordell does not have many people at his flat the main people are his family, so his dog hardly barks at all.

Mr. Simon Cordell for the last 3 years does not even go out of his flat any longer due to what has been going on, he once in a while goes across to the shop but that is not often at all and only when the family cannot get what he needs as they are busy. If Mr. Simon Cordell has to go out for a meeting, he always has someone with him it has become this way due to how he has been treated by the Met police.
You have also stated:
• "Your neighbours have also alleged that you have installed a CCTV in the communal area with the camera pointing towards the main entrance to the block thereby making them to feel very uncomfortable when entering and leaving the block. Your neighbours have alleged that this is an invasion of their privacy".
I have already put an appeal in my formal complaint dated the 24/11/2016 in regard to the CCTV and I am awaiting a reply as to what information I need and how I address the appeal. I will say that the CCTV is for security, but so far has protected me due to malicious information that has been passed to people, but it was not installed for that reason but has helped in this the main reason it was installed was due to security.

But since the 14/08/2016 when the police themselves damaged the CCTV camera due to what they were doing to Mr. Simon Cordell, it has not worked. So, at this time there is no CCTV in operation in the communal area of the block the only CCTV that is operational at this time is the ones inside Mr. Simon Cordell flat itself. When Mr. Simon Cordell was on a phone call to SARAH FLETCHER on the 22/11/2016 she did say if the CCTV camera was facing Mr. Simon Cordell's front door there would be no problem with that this is at this time being acted on.
It also seems that this complaint has come in very late as if any neighbours felt that this was an invasion of their privacy why was this not acted on in 2013 when it was installed? Why has it taken them until 2016 to say they feel this is an invasion of their privacy?
In fact, I feel it has protected Mr. Simon Cordell's neighbours there has been crime in the area and many break ins within the housing estate where everyone lives, yet not one person has been affected in the block Mr. Simon Cordell lives in by crime and I believe this is due to the CCTV being there, and if anything happened to any of the neighbours in the block the police could obtain a copy. The CCTV camera does not show any neighbours living in the block, front doors or windows. And only showed part of the ground floor communal area leading up to Mr. Simon Cordell's own front door.
It also makes us feel the only reason that the neighbours have now said about the CCTV is due to what they are trying to say about Mr. Simon Cordell in these complaints, I feel that at this time the CCTV is the thing that protected Mr. Simon Cordell against what the neighbours have alleged, why else would it have taken them over 3 years to say they now felt it was an invasion of their privacy?
As said in my formal complaint the police don't like Mr. Simon Cordell and this has been for many years when the police go to Mr. Simon Cordell flat he feels safer that the CCTV is there as it shows what the police are doing to Mr. Simon Cordell so makes him feel safer, has the police put a report in about the CCTV camera also?
As stated, these allegations are very serious and I would like them addressed as soon as possible but until I have the information, I have asked for so know what dates and times these complaints were put in I feel that Enfield council is only taking one side to this and that is the neighbours, as since 2014 all my calls and emails and letter about my complaints re the neighbours Enfield Council has done nothing to help me or Mr. Simon Cordell address this.
Mr. Simon Cordell feels he has no option left to him but to move away from his home due to what has been ongoing for a long time with no one addressing it. He feels that is the only way he will feel safe again from what the neighbours are doing to him, yet Enfield Council have said they will do nothing about this to help him and while this is ongoing it is affecting his heath more and more.

Mr. Daniel Ellis has said that my formal complaint should be addressed by the 14/12/2016 but is trying to compete this sooner, he has been told that no one within Enfield Council is addressing moving Mr. Simon Cordell to a new address and this needs acting on as soon as possible as what is going on cannot be left with nothing being done as this is making Mr. Simon Cordell's life hell living in fear, and so far I believe no one within Enfield Council is addressing moving Mr. Simon Cordell to a new place, this is unacceptable by any means for Enfield Council not to be addressing this issue, I have made many calls and not one person has called me back to gather information or give me an update if anything is being done about addressing a move for Mr. Cordell, so from what I can see once again Enfield Council is not acting in an appropriate manner.
I also believe when I get the information from the subject access request which can take up to 40 days this will incur more issues and I believe there will be data that needs to be corrected which Enfield Council holds on Mr. Simon Cordell, as under the data protection act data which is held has to be 100% accurate, I also believe it will help to clear up much information that you have included in your letter.
I have also asked that any letters sent to Mr. Simon Cordell are also sent to Miss Lorraine Cordell this was included in my email with the attached letters dated 24/11/2016 this has not been done with your letter why?
I would be most grateful if you could reply to this letter also including myself Miss Lorraine Cordell this can be done via my email lorraine32@bluevonder.co.uk

Dear Ms Cordell,
Re: Mr. Simon Cordell -109 Burncroft Avenue - COM 1885.
I write with reference to your letters of complaint dated 24th November 2016 copies of which were received via email on 24th November 2016, 5th December 2016 and 8th December 2016.
I will respond to the issues you raised as follows.
1. Anti-Social Behaviour Order
We are aware that the police applied for an Anti-Social Behaviour Order (ASBO) which was granted on 4th August 2015 against your son in relation to activities that cations away from Burncroft Avenue. We are aware that your son is appealing against the ASBO and we are therefore unable to comment further.
2. CCTV
We can confirm that a letter was sent to your son by SARAH FLETCHER, Neighbourhood Officer on 18th November 2016 giving him until 25th November 2016 to remove the CCTV that he had installed on the internal communal door leading to flats 109 and 111 Burncroft Avenue and facing towards the main door of the block. We can also confirm that another letter was sent to him on 29th November 2016 by Lemmy Nwabuisi, Anti-Social Behaviour Officer in relation to complaints received from your son's neighbours concerning the CCTV. concerns a breach of tenancy conditions and will be addressed separately from this complaint.

3. Allegations of Anti-Social Behaviour

You referred to alleged issues that your son was having with his neighbours; however, you' did not specify which neighbours and or provide a specific time frame when these complaints were made. We have checked our records since 4h August 2015 and found two records of telephone complaints received from your son. One on 20h August 2015 and again on 26h January 2016 which related to noise and the issues he was having with a neighbour. These concerns were dealt with at the time by relevant officers.

We note your comment that your son has been a tenant for many years and that there have been no complaints about him until the publication of the ASBO against him on 4th August 2015. However, our records show that since your son's tenancy began on 14th August 2006, there has been at least one previous complaint against your son from another neighbour prior to the ASBO.

We are aware of the alleged incident that happened on 4th October 2016 as this was reported to us and this will be addressed separately as part of ongoing Anti-Social Behaviour investigations.

We note your comments regarding the police and must advise that you take up any issues with the Independent Police Complaints Commission. We also note your comment regarding an alleged incident on 14th August 2016. This was not reported to the Council and should be a matter for the police. We note your comment that your son is scared to go home due to the alleged issues with his neighbours.

Regarding the allegations of ASB against your son and the issues regarding his dog, we note your comment that you do not think it is justified to attend the meeting with Lemmy Nwabuisi prior to your formal complaint being addressed. We note your comment that you have been advised by a solicitor to wait for the SAR. We also note your comments in relation to the letter sent by Lemmy Nwabuisi on 29th November 2016 regarding reports of anti-social behaviour made against your son by his neighbours and that you will address these once the SAR is received. Please note that these allegations are serious breaches of tenancy conditions and will be addressed separately as part of an ongoing investigation. We have attempted to meet with your son to discuss the allegations made against him and give him the opportunity to respond. It is important that these issues are addressed, and another meeting will be arranged to facilitate this in due course.

- Subject Access Request (SAR)

The SAR that you have submitted is being responded to separately in accordance with required timescales.

- Communications

We are aware that you left messages for SARAH FLETCHER on three occasions between 16 and 21 November 2016 and she was not available at these times. We confirm that she spoke directly with Mr. Simon Cordell by telephone on 22nd November 2016.

- Housing Options

As a single resident living in a one-bedroom property, the Council considers that your; son is suitably housed. We do not have sufficient evidence in relation to your son's allegations of anti-social behaviour against his neighbours to be able to refer him for a transfer on the housing register.

He can make an online application himself to be placed on the housing register by visiting the Council Housing pages of the Enfield Council website at www.enfield.Gov.uk. His eligibility for transfer will then be assessed by the Housing Options team in accordance with Council policy and they will advise whether his application is accepted.

Alternative options to move are available to him through the mutual exchange scheme, where tenants are able to swap their home with another tenant, and the fresh start scheme, where tenants can be supported in moving to a private rented home. Re: Formal Complaint due to letter dated 29/11/2016 this Formal Complaint is to be added to the Formal Complaint dated 24/08/2016.
Dear Lemmy Nwabuisi and any other person who is copied in this letter.
I am writing this letter on behalf of Mr. Simon Cordell of 109 Burncroft Ave, EN3 7JQ regarding the letter you wrote dated the 29/11/2016 which was received on the 01/12/2016.
I am not sure if you are aware there is an ongoing formal complaint that is being addressed by Mr. Daniel Ellis from Complaints & Access to Information Team which addresses some of the information you have included into your letter, but I will be covering points in this reply and also forwarding it to the people it needs to be addressed to.
The 1st point I will address is the meeting you have set up for Mr. Simon Cordell on the 06/12/2016 at 14:00 hours at Enfield Civic Centre.
I do not believe that it is justified to hold this meeting before the formal complaint is dealt with as stated many points in your letter has been covered in my formal complaint dated 24/11/2016, also until I have the subject access request information dealt with and have a list of dates and times these so-called complaints were meant to have taken place and the reports from police that have been sent to Enfield Council, I do not think holding this meeting would be appropriate.
I have spoken to my solicitor in regards to this matter and on advice taken from him he has told me to give limited information until I have the subject access request, this is why my formal complaint did not have full information in it as my solicitor does believe we have a case to take legal action, and if any data is withheld as it was when I requested my last subject access request for all my information, I will have to take this up with the ICO.
However, it does seem there is more injustice going on within the ASB unit and Enfield Council then I had proof of before you wrote your letter dated 29/11/2016. There has been complaints put into Enfield council since 2014 about Mr. Simon Cordell's neighbours and what they were doing to him, Enfield Council and ASB unit took the option and done nothing, not even replied to my complaints, took no reports, and did not even looked at the video footage Mr. Simon Cordell has of the noise, the banging the intimidation my son has taken from his neighbours, and the way they are doing all they can to get Mr. Simon

Cordell to move, the way he has been treated by Enfield Council by way of Enfield Council doing nothing to help him. You have been told many times the effect this is having on Mr. Simon Cordell's heath yet still choose to do nothing.
Yet as soon as Enfield Council gets reports against Mr. Simon Cordell you are willing to address these complaints. Once again, I will say I feel this is due to reports the police have put in to Enfield Council about Mr. Simon Cordell, Meetings that took place with the Met police and Enfield council in regards to Mr. Simon Cordell which Mr. Simon Cordell knew nothing about until after the fact, and the colour of Mr. Simon Cordell skin, why Enfield council have done nothing to address any issue Mr. Simon Cordell was having with his neighbours regarding what his neighbours was doing to him.

Mr. Simon Cordell has had his own place since 1999 and was housed by Enfield Council in 109 Burncroft Ave, Enfield, Middlesex, EN3 7JQ I believe in 2006 due to a fire that happened in his flat before this address, in this time Mr. Simon Cordell had no complaints put in about him until now 2016.
You have written in your letter multiple things to be addressed which Mr. Simon Cordell was meant to have done.
"Include using threatening, abusive, and insulting words and language, aggressively demanding money, intimidation and making threats towards your neighbours.
It is also alleged that on 4th October 2016, you banged on your ceiling, and you later started to bang and kick at your neighbour's door. It is alleged that you were very aggressive and was shouting through your neighbour's door and that you then proceeded to drag his motorbike from where it was parked and started to smash it up."
At this point I will only say the above is untrue, once I have the information including all dates, times, and complaints in order from my subject access request it will be at this time I will address each point of concern above.
You have also stated:
"It is also alleged that your dogs are left by themselves all day and night barking and causing noise disturbances to your neighbours."
Mr. Simon Cordell has had one dog only at his flat, when Mr. Simon Cordell was housed in 1999, he had a dog, no complaints were ever put in re Mr. Simon Cordell dog being left by herself all day and night barking and causing noise disturbances to neighbours and being neglected.
When Mr. Simon Cordell was moved into 109 Burncroft Ave, Enfield, Middlesex, EN3 7JQ I believe in 2006 he had the same dog, when she passed away in 2007 he got a new dog same bred and since 2006 there has been no complaints by neighbours of Mr. Simon Cordell leaving her alone all day and night or her barking all night and all day and him not looking after her and neglecting her, and her causing noise disturbances to his neighbours.
Mr. Simon Cordell does not leave his dog all day and night she is always looked after, if Mr. Simon Cordell is not going to be there overnight or for a long time during the day then the family look after the dog. So how someone can say she is left alone is beyond me.

Mr. Simon Cordell's dog is looked after very well she has never been left all day and all night alone, and I feel very angry any person could ever say Mr. Simon Cordell has ever mistreated and neglected his dog he is an animal lover as all our family are and we would never mistreat or neglected any animal.
Once again it seems beyond belief Mr. Simon Cordell has had his dog and no complaints has been put in by any neighbours about the way my son allegedly mistreats and neglects his dog since 2006, until now 2016.
It seems totally unbelievable my son could have his dog for so many years with not one complaint of mistreatment and neglect and now all of a sudden in 2016 my son mistreats and neglect his dog leaves her alone all day and night with the dog only now in 2016 causing noise disturbances to his neighbours. You can take that how it reads as I am so angry right now that any person could say the dog is mistreated and neglected, she is always cared for and loved and not left alone all day and night barking and making noise. In fact, the dog that lives a few rows up barks more and makes more noise than Mr. Simon Cordell dog does its always barking and making a noise so does this mean they are going to have action taken against them? My son's dog only as a rule bark when someone comes into the building to Mr. Simon Cordell front door and this is only for a short time until the door is opened for them, there is also the fact Mr. Simon Cordell does not have many people at his flat the main people are his family, so his dog hardly barks at all.

Mr. Simon Cordell for the last 3 years does not even go out of his flat any longer due to what has been going on, he once in a while goes across to the shop but that is not often at all and only when the family cannot get what he needs as they are busy. If Mr. Simon Cordell has to go out for a meeting, he always has someone with him it has become this way due to how he has been treated by the Met police.
You have also stated:
• "Your neighbours have also alleged that you have installed a CCTV in the communal area with the camera pointing towards the main entrance to the block thereby making them to feel very uncomfortable when entering and leaving the block. Your neighbours have alleged that this is an invasion of their privacy."
I have already put an appeal in my formal complaint dated the 24/11/2016 in regard to the CCTV and I am awaiting a reply as to what information I need and how I address the appeal. I will say that the CCTV is for security, but so far has protected me due to malicious information that has been passed to people, but it was not installed for that reason but has helped in this the main reason it was installed was due to security.
But since the 14/08/2016 when the police themselves damaged the CCTV camera due to what they were doing to Mr. Simon Cordell, it has not worked. So, at this time there is no CCTV in operation in the communal area of the block the only CCTV that is operational at this time is the ones inside Mr. Simon Cordell flat itself. When Mr. Simon Cordell was on a phone call to SARAH FLETCHER on the 22/11/2016 she did say if the CCTV camera was facing Mr. Simon Cordell's front door there would be no problem with that this is at this time being acted on.

It also seems that this complaint has come in very late as if any neighbours felt that this was an invasion of their privacy why was this not acted on in 2013 when it was installed? Why has it taken them until 2016 to say they feel this is an invasion of their privacy?
In fact I feel it has protected Mr. Simon Cordell's neighbours there has been crime in the area and many break ins within the housing estate where everyone lives, yet not one person has been effected in the block Mr. Simon Cordell lives in by crime and I believe this is due to the CCTV being there, and if anything happened to any of the neighbours in the block the police could obtain a copy. The CCTV camera does not show any neighbours living in the block, front doors or windows. And only showed part of the ground floor communal area leading up to Mr. Simon Cordell's own front door.
It also makes us feel the only reason that the neighbours have now said about the CCTV is due to what they are trying to say about Mr. Simon Cordell in these complaints, I feel that at this time the CCTV is the thing that protected Mr. Simon Cordell against what the neighbours have alleged, why else would it have taken them over 3 years to say they now felt it was an invasion of their privacy?
As said in my formal complaint the police don't like Mr. Simon Cordell and this has been for many years when the police go to Mr. Simon Cordell flat, he feels safer that the CCTV is there as it shows what the police are doing to Mr. Simon Cordell so makes him feel safer, has the police put a report in about the CCTV camera also?
As stated, these allegations are very serious and I would like them addressed as soon as possible but until I have the information, I have asked for so know what dates and times these complaints were put in I feel that Enfield council is only taking one side to this and that is the neighbours, as since 2014 all my calls and emails and letter about my complaints re the neighbours Enfield Council has done nothing to help me or Mr. Simon Cordell address this.
Mr. Simon Cordell feels he has no option left to him but to move away from his home due to what has been ongoing for a long time with no one addressing it. He feels that is the only way he will feel safe again from what the neighbours are doing to him, yet Enfield Council have said they will do nothing about this to help him and while this is ongoing it is affecting his heath more and more.

Mr. Daniel Ellis has said that my formal complaint should be addressed by the 14/12/2016 but is trying to compete this sooner, he has been told that no one within Enfield Council is addressing moving Mr. Simon Cordell to a new address and this needs acting on as soon as possible as what is going on cannot be left with nothing being done as this is making Mr. Simon Cordell's life hell living in fear, and so far I believe no one within Enfield Council is addressing moving Mr. Simon Cordell to a new place, this is unacceptable by any means for Enfield Council not to be addressing this issue, I have made many calls and not one person has called me back to gather information or give me an update if anything is being done about addressing a move for Mr. Cordell, so from what I can see once again Enfield Council is not acting in an appropriate manner.

I also believe when I get the information from the subject access request which can take up to 40 days this will incur more issues and I believe there will be data that needs to be corrected which Enfield Council holds on Mr. Simon Cordell, as under the data protection act data which is held has to be 100% accurate, I also believe it will help to clear up much information that you have included in your letter.

16/12/2016: I met with Mr. Quinton today at the Civic Centre to discuss his complaints against Mr. Simon Cordell. Mr. Quinton stated that the problems started soon after he moved into the block in April 2016. He stated that soon after he moved into his flat, he went around to SC's flat to introduce himself. After he introduced himself, SC said to him that there is some kind of war going on between him and other neighbours. SC also told him that he has got a load of issues with the police and that he was trying to sue them because he felt that they were treating him unfairly. He told SC that he was a musician and that he does not want anything to do with his issues.

Straight after he moved in, SC will come up to his flat at least once a week to shout at him and complain about loud banging from his flat and knocking pipes. SC would accuse him of making noise on purpose to wind him up and he will always explain to him that it is not true, that he does not make any banging noises inside his flat and that he cannot explain why the pipes were making knocking noises.

Mr. Quinton stated that on 4/10/16, he was sleeping when SC started to bang on his ceiling, but he ignored him. SC then came up and started kicking at his door and he still ignored him. SC then went downstairs, dragged Mr. Quinton's motorbike from where he parked it, threw it on the ground and started to hit it with what he believed to be a mop pole, he is not sure how many times he hit it. He then called the police, and they came and took him away, CAD No. 3309/4 Oct. 2016.

On 11/12/16, SC came up to his flat 3 times to shout abuse and complain about noise from his flat.

Mr. Quinton explained that the first time, he was running a bath when SC came and knocked on the door to complain about knocking pipes. He did not open the door and he shouted abuse at him and his friends and called them homophobic names. He later came back again to bang on his door and shout further abuse. He also made threatened him and his exact words are 'I'm off curfew in 12 days, when I'm, I am coming for you', he shouted further abuse and walked off. Mr. Quinton stated that he is not sure why he came back the second time, but he assumed that it was because of the pipes again. He later came back again the third time and this time he opened the door because he has had enough. SC complained about noise from his flat and he told him that he was not making any noise. SC then went on to tell him that he has been away for a long time and that his family was coming to look after his dog. He asked SC if he knew anything about his bike and SC replied, 'You know what, I'm a grown man I'm not goanna lie, it was me that smashed your bike and I was gutted that the stick broke and I couldn't smash it up more'. He then asked SC about his tyres which was punctured with a knife, and he denied cutting them. He then explained to SC that the knocking pipes has nothing to do with him and that he does not bang or make deliberate noise and he advised SC to play his music over the noise if it happens again as there is nothing he can do about the pipes and the noise as it is the nature of the building. SC said cool, fair enough and walked off and as he walked off, he turned around and gave him a dirty look.

About a week later, 2 of his friends left his flat and a short while later he heard SC running out of the front door. Soon after one of his friends called and told him that they have just had a confrontation with SC in the street. His friend informed him that SC ran up to them in the street and confronted his friend Jazz about the knocking pipe noises from his flat. Jazz told SC that it has nothing to do with him. SC then head-butted Jazz and as Jazz fell on the floor, SC jumped on top of him and started to punch him. His other friend Jevon who was with Jazz at the time pulled SC off Jazz and held him until 2 Turkish men came and separated them.

Mr. Quinton stated that the police did not contact him to update him on what action was taken against SC regarding his smashed bike. He stated that he has recording of SC admitting to smashing up his bike and played the recording to me. Although it was very faint, but you could make out what sounded like SC talking about smashing the bike. He stated that he wants to sue SC for criminal damage, he also wants to take out a restraining order against him and possibly an injunction.

He stated that his friends Simon Cocks (07393285528), Julian Jackson (07387277163) and Jazz Bramble (07375651241) are willing to provide witness statements and will attend court to give evidence on his behalf. He also wants us to find out why what action the police took regarding his smashed bike.

04/10/2016: Mr. Quinton stated that on 4/10/16, he was sleeping when SC started to bang on his ceiling, but he ignored him. SC then came up and started kicking at his door and he still ignored him. SC then went downstairs, dragged Mr. Quinton's motorbike from where he parked it, threw it on the ground and started to hit it with what he believed to be a mop pole, he is not sure how many times he hit it. He then called the police, and they came and took him away, CAD No. 3309/4 Oct. 2016.

11/12/2016: On 11/12/16, SC came up to his flat 3 times to shout abuse and complain about noise from his flat.
Mr. Quinton explained that the first time, he was running a bath when SC came and knocked on the door to complain about knocking pipes. He did not open the door and he shouted abuse at him and his friends and called them homophobic names. He later came back again to bang on his door and shout further abuse. He also made threatened him and his exact words are 'I'm off curfew in 12 days, when I'm, I am coming for you', he shouted further abuse and walked off. Mr. Quinton stated that he is not sure why he came back the second time, but he assumed that it was because of the pipes again. He later came back again the third time and this time he opened the door because he has had enough. SC complained about noise from his flat and he told him that he was not making any noise. SC then went on to tell him that he has been away for a long time and that his family was coming to look after his dog. He asked SC if he knew anything about his bike and SC replied, 'You know what, I'm a grown man I'm not goanna lie, it was me that smashed your bike and I was gutted that the stick broke and I couldn't smash it up more'. stated that soon after he moved into his flat, he went around to SC's fiat to introduce himself. After he introduced himself, SC said to him that there is some kind of war going on between him and other neighbours. SC also told him that he has got a load of issues with the police and that he was trying to sue them because he felt that they were treating him unfairly. He told SC that he was a musician and that he does not want anything to do with his issues. Straight after he moved in, SC will come up to his flat at least once a week to shout at him and complain about loud banging from his flat and knocking pipes. SC would accuse him of making noise on purpose to wind him up and he will always explain to him that it is not true, that he does not make any banging noises inside his flat and that he cannot explain why the pipes were making knocking noises.
Mr. Quinton stated that on 4/10/16, he was sleeping when SC started to bang on his ceiling, but he ignored him. SC then came up and started kicking at his door and he still ignored him.

SC then went downstairs, dragged Mr. Quinton's motorbike from where he parked it, threw it on the ground and started to hit it with what he believed to be a mop pole, he is not sure how many times he hit it. He then called the police, and they took him away, CAD No. 3309/4 Oct. 2016.

On 11/12/16, SC came up to his flat 3 times to shout abuse and complain about noise from his flat. Mr. Quinton explained that the first time, he was running a bath when SC came and knocked on the door to complain about knocking pipes. He did not open the door and he shouted abuse at him and his friends and called them homophobic names. He later came back again to bang on his door and shout further abuse. He also made threatened him and his exact words are I am off curfew in 12 days, when I am, I am coming for you he shouted further abuse and walked off. Mr. Quinton stated that he is not sure why he came back the second time, but he assumed that it was because of the pipes again. He later came back again the third time and this time he opened the door because he has had enough. SC complained about noise from his flat and he told him that he was not making any noise. SC then went on to tell him that he has been away for a long time and that his family was coming to look after his dog. He asked SC if he knew anything about his bike and SC replied You know what, I am a grown man I am not goanna lie, it was me that smashed your bike and I was gutted that the stick broke and I could not smash it up more. He then asked SC about his tyres which was punctured with a knife, and he denied cutting them. He then explained to SC that the knocking pipes has nothing to do with him and that he does not bang or make deliberate noise and he advised SC to play his music over the noise if it happens again as there is nothing he can do about the pipes and the noise as it is the nature of the building. SC said cool, fair enough and walked off and as he walked off, he turned around and gave him a dirty look. About a week later, 2 of his friends left his flat and a short while later he heard SC running out of the front door. Soon after one of his friends called and told him that they have just had a confrontation with SC in the street.

His friend informed him that SC ran up to them in the street and confronted his friend Jazz about the knocking pipe noises from his fiat. Jazz told SC that it has nothing to do with him. SC then head-butted Jazz and as Jazz fell on the floor, SC jumped on top of him and started to punch him. His other friend Jevon who was with Jazz at the time pulled SC off Jazz and held him until 2 Turkish men came and separated them.

Mr. Quinton stated that the police did not contact him to update him on what action was taken against SC regarding his smashed bike. He stated that he has recording of SC admitting to smashing up his bike and played the recording to me. Although it was very faint, but you could make out what sounded like SC talking about smashing the bike. He stated that he wants to sue SC for criminal damage, he also wants to take out a restraining order against him and possibly an injunction.

He stated that his friends Simon Cocks (07393285528), Julian Jackson (07387277163) and Jazz Bramble (07375651241) are willing to provide witness statements and will attend court to give evidence on his behalf. He also wants us to find out why what action the police took regarding his smashed bike.

08/02/2017:

I did an announced visit to Mr. Quinton at 113 Burncroft Avenue following recent email from Mrs Cordell concerning noise disturbances from the flat as a result of wooden flooring but there was no response, I then telephoned Mr. Quinton and left a voice message for him.

07/03/2017:27/07/2017:

I telephoned Mr. Quinton for updates on any recent incidents, and he stated that there has been none as he has been staying at his flat. He stated that he has been staying with friends and family and only goes back to his flat to check his letters.

He stated that he will give a witness statement and will attend court if required to do so.

Dear Jean,
We received a phone call from a Mr. John Bates on behalf of his friend Mr. Stanley Curtis. He explained that Mr. Curtis is 83 and having to attend court to give evidence against a male named Simon Cordell who verbally abused him. We are aware of Simon Cordell as Steve/Pat obtained an ASBO against him for illegal raves etc. I believe he is also a council tenant (I need to check)
Could you initially contact Mr. Curtis - obtain his address and the reasons he is going to court? Also ascertain what support he needs. It is not an open case as such but depending on your findings we Research conducted on Northgate - shows that Sarah Fletcher is the housing officer. I spoke to Sarah who is aware of issues with Simon Cordell and the action against him - however, she said she needs to gather more information as she has had a member's enquiry from Waltham Forest. As to our view she has not had any complaints or court action. Therefore, it is possible that the legal process has been taken by the police.

16/11/2016:
I received a call from Thomas Jones - Witness Care he advised that the CPS have dropped the case off Simon Cordell. Reason - Not enough evidence to provide a realistic prospect of any conviction. In further discussion Thomas said DC Campbell was of and- has now returned; however, he said he will contact Mr. Curtis in relation to the current position of the matter. I asked Tom if the CPS will be writing to Mr. Curtis directly - he said they should advise accordingly. Tips given to report further incidents and keep records.

I received a call from Thomas Jones
O2.
Visited Christine (flat 97 Burncroft Avenue) and Karen (flat 105).
Christine stated that she witnessed the September when Mr. Cordell threatened Mr. Curtis. She stated that she was with her neighbour Karen when they heard Mr. Cordell shouting and as they came out to see what was happening, she saw Mr. Cordell shouting at Mr. Curtis. She alleged that he was shouting abuse and threats, and that Karen told him to leave Mr. Curtis alone, that he is an old man.
Mr. Cordell then started shouting abuse and threats at Karen.
Christine stated that she is not prepared to give a statement and that she will not keep incident logs.
We then met with Karen outside the block.

She stated that she and Christine witnessed the incident that happened in September, she stated that Mr. Cordell was shouting abuse and threats at Mr. Curtis and that she told him to leave Mr. Curtis alone as he is an old man and that Mr. Cordell then turned against her and started threatening her. She stated that she is not afraid of him when she is on her own, that her only concern is that she is looking after 2 very vulnerable children, and she will not be able to defend herself and them if Mr. Cordell was to attack her when she is with them. She is happy to make a statement and will log any further incidents.

Friday 4th Nov 16. And emotional support was provided. At the time he was having problems. remembering the timeline of dates pertaining to incidents, said he was quite friendly with Simon Cordell - leading up to current events - and was somewhat perplexed as the sudden change in the attitude of the accused.
Mr. Curtis and other alleged residents felt the problem could have something to do with a resident named Miss who has since moved Mr. made reference to Simon Cordell boasting in having something to do with her departure.

Mr. was trying to recall events and said it could have been in the month of July, when Simone Cordell shouted abuse, swore at him, and threatened to burn his flat down Mr. did not call the housing or police to report the threat. His friend, another resident who did not want his name mentioned, said that it was it was on DD.
6th July. Mr. A| could not quite remember when the second incident occurred but said that it was around mid-September. Simon Cordell approached Mr. m outside his flat, when Mr. | was on his way to the fields and threatened him. A lady called Karen also a resident of Burncroft witness the threat and asked Mr. Cordell to the leave him alone.
With encouragement from other residents - Mr. called the police a few days after the threat to make a report.
Mr. A|THE police a lot of police some with riot gear-entered his flat with officers posted to the front and rear of the building. They managed to coax Mr. Cordell out of his flat and arrested him.
The case has since been heard in court and Simone Cordell pleaded not guilty. He has been bailed with conditions - to stay away from Mr. | and also not to enter the Burncroft area.
Mr. is required to stand witness in court on the EE.
17th Nov 2016. However, Mr. is feeling quite anxious and feels there may be reprisals to him giving evidence. I asked Mr. if he would like me to attend the hearing in support he said yes, he would not mind. I also visited another resident Christine to get her account of things.
Action Contact the witness service and arrange a pre-court trial visit and other assistance.
Possibly arrange transportation on the day of the hearing - and for the pre court trial visit Any other assistance /support we can provide Mr. with.

16/12/2016: I met with Mr. Quinton today at the Civic Centre to discuss his complaints against Mr. Simon Cordell. Mr. Quinton stated that the problems. started soon after he moved into the block in April 2016. He stated that soon after he moved into his flat, he went around to SC's flat to introduce himself. After he introduced himself, SC said to him that there is some kind of war going on between him and other neighbours. SC also told him that he has got a load of issues with the police and that he was trying to.

sue them because he felt that they were treating him unfairly. He told SC that he was a musician and that he does not want anything to do with his issues.
Straight after he moved in, SC will come up to his flat at least once a week to shout at him and complain about loud banging from his flat and knocking pipes. SC would accuse him of making noise on purpose to wind him up and he will always explain to him that it is not true, that he does not make any banging noises inside his flat and that he cannot explain why the pipes were making knocking noises.
Mr. Quinton stated that on 4/10/16, he was sleeping when SC started to bang on his ceiling, but he ignored him. SC then came up and started kicking at his door and he still ignored him.

SC then went downstairs, dragged Mr. Quinton's motorbike from where he parked it, threw it on the ground and started to hit it with what he believed to be a mop pole, he is not sure how many times he hit it. He then called the police, and they came and took him away, CAD No. 3309/4 Oct. 2016.

On 11/12/16, SC came up to his flat 3 times to shout abuse and complain about noise from his flat.

Mr. Quinton explained that the first time, he was running a bath when SC came and knocked on the door to complain about knocking pipes. He did not open the door and he shouted abuse at him and his friends and called them homophobic names. He later came back again to bang on his door and shout further abuse. He also made threatened him and his exact words are 'I'm off curfew in 12 days, when I'm, I am coming for you', he shouted further abuse and walked off. Mr. Quinton stated that he is not sure why he came back the second time, but he assumed that it was because of the pipes again. He later came back again the third time and this time he opened the door because he has had enough. SC complained about noise from his flat and he told him that he was not making any noise. SC then went on to tell him that he has been away for a long time and that his family was coming to look after his dog. He asked SC if he knew anything about his bike and SC replied, 'You know what, I'm a grown man I'm not goanna lie, it was me that smashed your bike and I was gutted that the stick broke and I couldn't smash it up more'. He then asked SC about his tyres which was punctured with a knife, and he denied cutting them. He then explained to SC that the knocking pipes has nothing to do with him and that he does not bang or make deliberate noise and he advised SC to play his music over the noise if it happens again as there is nothing he can do about the pipes and the noise as it is the nature of the building. SC said cool, fair enough and walked off and as he walked off, he turned around and gave him a dirty look.

About a week later, 2 of his friends left his flat and a short while later he heard SC running out of the front door. Soon after one of his friends called and told him that they have just had a confrontation with SC in the street. His friend informed him that SC ran up to them in the street and confronted his friend Jazz about the knocking pipe noises from his flat. Jazz told SC that it has nothing to do with him. SC head-butted Jazz and as Jazz fell on the floor, SC jumped on top of him and started to punch him. His other friend Jevon who was with Jazz at the time pulled SC off Jazz and held him until 2 Turkish men came and separated them.

Mr. Quinton stated that the police did not contact him to update him on what action was taken against SC regarding his smashed bike. He stated that he has recording of SC admitting to smashing up his bike and played the recording to me. Although it was very faint, but you could make out what sounded like SC talking about smashing the bike. He stated that he wants to sue SC for criminal damage, he also wants to take out a restraining order against him and possibly an injunction.

He stated that his friends Simon Cocks (07393285528), Julian Jackson (07387277163) and Jazz Bramble (07375651241) are willing to provide witness statements and will attend court to give evidence on his behalf. He also wants us to find out why what action the police took regarding his smashed bike.

Yesterday evening the perpetrator was banging on the ceiling (the complainant lives above perpetrator) and then came upstairs and tried to kick the door in. He was very aggressive, shouting through the door. He then went outside, dragged the complainant's motorcycle from its parking space and started smashing it up. The police were called, and the perpetrator was arrested.

Dear Jean,
We received a phone call from a Mr. John Bates on behalf of his friend Mr. Stanley Curtis. He explained that Mr. Curtis is 83 and having to attend court to give evidence against a male named Simon Cordell who verbally abused him. We are aware of Simon Cordell as Steve/Pat obtained an ASBO against him for illegal raves etc. I believe he is also a council tenant (I need to check)

Could you initially contact Mr. Curtis - obtain his address and the reasons he is going to court? Also ascertain what support he needs. It is not an open case as such but depending on your findings we not may be able to assist.

As to our view about Mr. Curtis she has not had any complaints or court action. Therefore, it is possible that the legal process has been taken by the police.

16/11/2016: I received a call from Thomas Jones - Witness Care he advised that the CPS have dropped the case of Curtis v Cordell. Reason - Not enough evidence to provide a realistic prospect of any conviction. In further discussion Thomas said DC Campbell was of ill - has now returned; however, he said he will contact Mr. Curtis in relation to the current position of the matter. I asked Tom if the CPS will be writing to Mr. Curtis directly - he said they should advise accordingly. Tips given to report further incidents and keep records.

16/11/2016: Visited Christine (flat 97 Burncroft Avenue) and Karen (flat 105). Christine stated that she witnessed the September when Mr. Cordell threatened Mr. Curtis. She stated that she was with her neighbour Karen when they heard Mr. Cordell shouting and as they came out to see what was happening, she saw Mr. Cordell shouting at Mr. Curtis. She alleged that he was shouting abuse and threats, and that Karen told him to leave Mr. Curtis alone, that he is an old man. Mr. Cordell then started shouting abuse and threats at Karen. Christine stated that she is not prepared to give a statement and that she will not keep incident logs.
We then met with Karen outside the block. She stated that she and Christine witnessed the incident that happened in September. She stated that Mr. Cordell was shouting abuse and threats at Mr. Curtis and that she told him to leave Mr. Curtis alone as he is an old man and that Mr. Cordell then turned against her and started threatening her. She stated that she is not afraid of him when she is on her own, that her only concern is that she is looking after 2 very vulnerable children, and she will not be able to defend herself and them if Mr. Cordell was to attack her when she is with them. She is happy to make a statement and will log any further incidents.

DIRECTIONS ORDER

28. I make this Witness Statement in support of the Claimant's application for an injunction to stop the Defendant from causing intimidation, harassment and alarm to other residents and their visitors on Burncroft Avenue.

29. The Defendant is a secure tenant of the Claimant at 109 Burncroft Avenue, Enfield, Middlesex, EN3 7JQ. His tenancy commenced on 14th August 2006. I hereby attach a bundle of documents relating to this case as exhibit number LN1. A copy of the Defendant's tenancy agreement and terms. and conditions are hereby attached at pages 1-24.

30. The reports concerning the Defendant's alleged anti-social behaviour towards his neighbours was first brought to my attention in October 2016 when a case involving the Defendant and one of his neighbours was referred to me for investigation. The Defendant was reported to have caused frequent acts of harassment and anti-social behaviour against an elderly neighbour. The Defendant was arrested by the Police and bailed to a different address. The matter was referred to the Highbury Corner Magistrates' Court on 05 October 2016 where a first hearing took place. The Defendant pleaded not guilty, and the trial was fixed for 17 November 2016. However, the trial did not proceed due to insufficient support as the elderly tenant was unable to attend Court due to health reasons. A copy of a letter from the Magistrate Court is attached to this statement at pages 25-26.

31. The Defendant was previously known to the Claimant and an anti-social behaviour order was made on 4 August 2015 by the Magistrates Court to prevent him from knowingly using or supplying property, personal or otherwise, for the use in a rave as defined in s.63(1) of the Criminal Justice Order Act 1994. The order was made for a duration of 5 years. A copy of the Order is at page 27 of the exhibit bundle.

32. On 6th August 2016, the Defendant threatened and shouted abuse at Mr. and Mrs Mathiyalagan tenants of 117 Burncroft Avenue. He aggressively, demanded money from him and threatened to beat him up. The Defendant also repeatedly swore at Mr. Mathiyalagan's wife, called her a 'witch1 and tried to stop the Mr. Mathiyalagan from going up the stairs to his flat by standing in front of him and blocking his advance by placing his hands on the staircase railings. Mr. Mathiyalagan has already provided a witness statement in support these proceedings to confirm that this incident happened. A file note of this report is exhibited at pages 28-30 of the exhibit bundle LN1.

33. On 8th August 2016, Mr. Mathiyalagan reported that the Defendant aggressively banged on his front door, shouted abuse at him and his wife and accused them of making noise. Mr. Mathiyalagan reported to us that he believes that the Defendant used a screwdriver to damage the lock on his meter cupboard and removed the fuse box thereby cutting off their electricity supply. Mr. Mathiyalagan reported this incident to the police and was given reference number CAD 7934/August 2016. A file note of this report is exhibited at pages 28-30 of the exhibit bundle.

34. On 27th September 2016, Mr. Mathiyalagan reported that the Defendant confronted him as he returned to his flat with his wife and young daughter and threatened and swore at him and demanded money from him. A file note of the report is on pages 28-30 of the bundle.

35. On 28th September 2016, Mr. Mathiyalagan reported that the Defendant aggressively banged on his door and threatened and shouted abuse and swear words at him and his wife. The Defendant also aggressively demanded money from Mr. Mathiyalagan. A file of the report is at pages 28-30 of the exhibit bundle.

36. On 11th November 2016, my former colleague, Sarah Fletcher interviewed an elderly resident who wished to remain anonymous. He said that the Defendant approached him as he came out of his flat and started to shout abuse, swear at him, and threatened to bum down the elderly neighbour's flat. The report continued that sometime around mid-September 2016, one of the Defendant's neighbours reported that the Defendant confronted him outside his block as he was going to the local park and started to shout abuse and threats at him and said to him "I can get you over at the park, I know you go for a walk". This incident led to his arrest and to the matter being referred to the Magistrates Court. A file note of the report is exhibited on page 31 of the exhibit bundle LN1.

37. I had meetings with Mr. George Quinton, one of the Defendant's neighbours on 16th December 2016 and 11th January 2017. He reported that he was experiencing problems. with the Defendant's behaviour, and that on 4th October 2016, the Defendant aggressively banged on his ceiling and accused him of making noise. The Defendant then went to the neighbour's flat upstairs and started kicking and banging on the front door and was swearing and shouting at. him. The Defendant later went downstairs, dragged the neighbour's motorbike from where it was parked and started to hit it with a piece of wood. A file note of the report is at pages 32-34 of the exhibit bundle.

38. On 22nd November 2016, during a telephone conversation with my former colleague Ms. Sarah Fletcher, the Defendant was heard saying to his mother, who was present with him, 'I'm goanna do her over, I'm goanna take her job just for fun' referring to Ms. Fletcher. A file note of the incident is at page 34A of the exhibit bundle.

39. I hereby attach a case history detailing incidents of reports from Mr. Mathiyalagan about the abuse, threats and persistent intimidation by the Defendant. The case history is at pages 35 to 40 of the exhibit bundle LN1. It shows that Mr. Mathiyalagan reported incidents too numerous to set out in this statement about abuse, threats, attempts to extort money and intimidation by the Defendant. Examples are that the Defendant banged on his front door while his wife was alone at home with their young daughter and shouted abuse at his wife and asked her to turn off the bathroom taps. He also removed his electricity fuse thereby.

cutting off their power supply. Mr. Mathiyalagan reported the incident to the police and was given CAD 5753/23 December 2016. A file note of this incident is at page 37 of the exhibit bundle.

40. Other examples of aggressive and anti-social behaviour reported by Mr. Mathiyalagan were that on 21st January 2017, the Defendant aggressively banged on his door, swore and shouted abuse and threats at him and his family and accused them of making noise.

41. On 9th June 2017, the Defendant attacked Mr. Mathiyalagan's cousin in the communal hallway as he returned from work late at night by grabbing him on the arm and neck thereby causing bruising to his arm and neck. The Defendant also snatched his mobile phone from him as he tried to record the incident.

42. On 16th June 2017, the Defendant confronted Mr. Mathiyalagan's wife as she was exiting the main entrance at 11:55am and said to her that he had her bank and personal details. He also reported that the Defendant told his wife that he wanted her and her husband to pay him some money.

43. On 23rd June 2017, the Defendant came out of his flat with his dog and attacked Mr. Mathiyalagan's cousin as he returned from work at 11:35pm. He reported that the Defendant punched his cousin twice on the chest, tried to push him out of the block and snatched his mobile phone as he tried to record the incident.

44. On 28th June 2017, the Defendant confronted Mr. Mathiyalagan's wife as she was leaving the block at 11:45am, swore at her, shouted abuse and accused her of making noise inside her flat. He said to her that he knows all her personal details and that of her husband including their full names, date of birth, phone numbers and bank details. He also reported that as they left the block, the Defendant ran after them swearing and shouting abuse and demanded that he must pay him money if he wants him to leave him alone. The Defendant also said to him that he has all their personal details. A report of the incident is at page 40 of the case history.

46. Case history notes exhibited at pages 41-46 show reports of similar aggressive and intimidating behaviour displayed to Mr. Mathiyalagan was being experienced by another tenant who wishes to remain anonymous because of fear of reprisal from the Defendant.

47. Similarly, further case notes exhibited at pages 47-52 show that another tenant who wishes to remain anonymous was being subjected to the Defendant's antisocial behaviour. She had to be moved from the block because of the harassment from the Defendant and because she suffered from mental health problems. and was particularly vulnerable and unable to deal with the threats and harassment from the Defendant.

48. On 7th February 2017, the Defendant approached the leaseholder of 117 Bumcroft Avenue and his plumber outside the block as they were attempting to resolve low water pressure issues affecting the flat. The Defendant informed the leaseholder that there were problems. between him and his tenants but did not give specific details. The leaseholder explained to the Defendant that his tenants were experiencing low water pressure in their flat and that they were trying to fix the problem. The Defendant said to the leaseholder, “you will not resolve the problem as I am restricting their water supply”. The leaseholder later asked the Defendant to increase the water pressure and the Defendant stated, "I cannot do anything at the moment, I will sort it out later”. A report of this incident is at page 55 of the exhibit bundle.

It also appeared that the Defendant may have removed the wall between his kitchen and living room thereby creating an open plan living space. A copy of the file note is pages 56-57 of the exhibit bundle.

50. On 8th May 2017, the Claimant's officers, Ms. Fletcher, a neighbourhood officer who has since left the Council and Mr. Steve Stirk, a Surveyor visited the Defendant's block of flats following reports of low water pressure to flats 109, 113 and 117 Bumcroft Avenue. While the Claimant's officers were outside flat 113, the Defendant came up to them and started to complain about his perceived victimization by his neighbours, the police, and the council. While the Defendant was talking to the officers, Mr. Mathiyalagan came down the stairs and the Defendant said to him, "I'm going to the police station now with my evidence about you and I'm going to ruin your life." A file note of this report is exhibited at page 58 of the exhibit bundle and an email from Steve Stirk is at page 59.

51. On 14th May 2017, yet another neighbour who wishes to remain anonymous reported that the Defendant aggressively banged on her door, shouted abuse and threats at her and falsely accused her of making noise and coming into his flat to attack him. The neighbour stated that the Defendant later followed her to her car as she was leaving the block shouting abuse and wanting to know where she was going. The neighbour also reported that the Defendant allowed his dog to roam freely in the communal area of the block without a lead. A file note of the report is at page 60 of the exhibit bundle LN1.

52. On 28th May 2017, the Defendant was issued with a first instance Harassment letter by the police following allegations of harassment and threatening behaviour made to the police by his neighbour. A copy of the letter and the PC's statement are at pages 61-62 of the exhibit bundle LN1.

DIRECTIONS ORDER

January 2017 inviting him for a meeting on 9th February 2017, 16th February 2017 for a meeting on 22 February 2016 and 16th March 2017 for a meeting on 22nd March 2017. These letters are exhibited at pages 63-70 of the exhibit bundle.
30.1 have enquired with the Mental Health Team whether the Defendant is currently known to the team and was informed that he is no longer under their care.

20. The Claimant's operatives have had difficulties in accessing the Defendant's flat to inspect the state of the property and the unauthorised works and modifications which the Defendant is purported to have carried out without a written consent from the Claimant. The Claimant has also been unable to check whether the Defendant Is restricting water supply/pressure to the properties above his since December 2016. The Defendant has admitted to restricting the water supply but has refused to allow the Claimant's maintenance operatives access to his property to investigate and rectify the problem.

21. The Defendant has intimidated the residents in the entire block and because of his behaviour, we have received numerous complaints from residents, requests to be transferred from the block and we have had to move a vulnerable tenant from the block.

22. I have made attempts to engage with the Defendant, but he has not been cooperative and has continuously displayed abusive and threatening behaviour towards the Claimant's members of staff and his neighbours. A Notice of Seeking Possession has been served on him and possession action is being considered. However, in the meantime, this injunction is required to ensure that the other residents are not subjected to further intimidation and harassment by the Defendant. This application is being made without notice because if the Defendant were given notice, he would intimidate the witnesses in an attempt to prevent the order being made.

Threats and intimidation (General)

Perpetrator has been harassing complainant for a while in relation to alleged noise nuisance. Yesterday evening the perpetrator was banging on the ceiling (the complainant lives above perpetrator) and then came upstairs and tried to kick the door in. He was very aggressive, shouting through the door. He then went outside, dragged the complainant's motorcycle from its parking space and started smashing it up. The police were called, and the perpetrator was arrested.

I met with Mr. Quinton today at the Civic Centre to discuss his complaints against Mr. Simon Cordell. Mr. Quinton stated that the problems. started soon after he moved into the block in April 2016. He stated that soon after he moved into his flat, he went around to SC's flat to introduce himself. After he introduced himself, SC said to him that there is some kind of war going on between him and other neighbours. SC also told him that he has got a load of issues with the police and that he was trying to.

sue them because he felt that they were treating him unfairly. He told SC that he was a musician and that he does not want anything to do with his issues.
Straight after he moved in, SC will come up to his flat at least once a week to shout at him and complain about loud banging from his flat and knocking pipes. SC would accuse him of making noise on purpose to wind him up and he will always explain to him that it is not true, that he does not make any banging noises inside his flat and that he cannot explain why the pipes were making knocking noises.
Mr. Quinton stated that on 04/10/2016, he was sleeping when SC started to bang on his ceiling, but he ignored him. SC then came up and started kicking at his door and he still ignored him. SC then went downstairs, dragged Mr. Quinton's motorbike from where he parked it, threw it on the ground and started to hit it with what he believed to be a mop pole, he is not sure how many times he hit it. He then called the police, and they came and took him away, CAD No. 3309/4 Oct. 2016.
On 11/12/2016, SC came up to his flat 3 times to shout abuse and complain about noise from his flat.
Mr. Quinton explained that the first time, he was running a bath when SC came and knocked on the door to complain about knocking pipes. He did not open the door and he shouted abuse at him and his friends and called them homophobic names. He later came back again to bang on his door and shout further abuse. He also made threatened him and his exact words are 'I'm off curfew in 12 days, when I'm, I am coming for you', he shouted further abuse and walked off. Mr. Quinton stated that he is not sure why he came back the second time, but he assumed that it was because of the pipes again. He later came back again the third time and this time he opened the door because he has had enough. SC complained about noise from his flat and he told him that he was not making any noise. SC then went on to tell him that he has been away for a long time and that his family was coming to look after his dog. He asked SC if he knew anything about his bike and SC replied, 'You know what, I'm a grown man I'm not goanna lie, it was me that smashed your bike and I was gutted that the stick broke and I couldn't smash it up more'. He then asked SC about his tyres which was punctured with a knife, and he denied cutting them. He then explained to SC that the knocking pipes has nothing to do with him and that he does not bang or make deliberate noise and he advised SC to play his music over the noise if it happens again as there is nothing he can do about the pipes and the noise as it is the nature of the building. SC said cool, fair enough and walked off and as he walked off, he turned around and gave him a dirty look.
About a week later, 2 of his friends left his flat and a short while later he heard SC running out of the front door. Soon after one of his friends called and told him that they have just had a confrontation with SC in the street. His friend informed him that SC ran up to them in the street and confronted his friend Jazz about the knocking pipe noises from his flat. Jazz told SC that it has nothing to do with him. SC then head-butted Jazz and as Jazz fell on the floor, SC jumped on top of him and started to punch him. His other friend Jevon who was with Jazz at the time pulled SC off Jazz and held him until 2 Turkish men came and separated them.
Mr. Quinton stated that the police did not contact him to update him on what action was taken against SC regarding his smashed bike. He stated that he has recording of SC admitting to smashing up his bike and played the recording to me. Although it was very faint, but you could make out what sounded like SC talking about smashing the bike. He stated that he wants to sue SC for criminal damage, he also wants to take out a restraining order against him and possibly an injunction.
He stated that his friends Simon Cocks (07393285528), Julian Jackson (07387277163) and Jazz Bramble (07375651241) are willing to provide witness statements and will attend court to give evidence on his behalf. He also wants us to find out why what action the police took regarding his smashed bike.

08/02/2017:
I did an announced visit to Mr. Quinton at 113 Burncroft Avenue following recent email from Mrs Cordell concerning noise disturbances from the flat as a result of wooden flooring but there was no response. I then telephoned Mr. Quinton and left a voice message for him.
07/03/2017: 27/07/2017:
I telephoned Mr. Quinton for updates on any recent incidents, and he stated that there has been none as he has been staying at his flat. He stated that he has been staying with friends and family and only goes back to his fiat to check his letters.
He stated that he will give a witness statement and will attend court if required to do so.

I visited Mr. Mathiyalagan at 117 Burncroft Avenue to day to look at the flooring following email from Mrs Cordell concerning noise as a result of wood flooring in the flat. I noticed that there is laminate flooring in the whole flat and ceramic tiles in the kitchen. Mr. Mathiyalagan stated that the flooring was already in the flat when they moved in. He stated that they do not make noise deliberately and that any noise from his flat is household noise. He also stated that as far as he is aware that the person living below them-), we not complained of noise and that he will be the one that will be affected if there are excessive issues from his flat. He also stated that he has asked the MAU-'F they are causing noise disturbances arid he said they are not. He also requested that Mr. Cordell should contact the council if he is being disturbed by noise from his flat instead of harassing him and his family by banging on his front door, shouting abuse at him and his wife, threatening them and confronting them when they come into the block.
I informed him that laminate flooring can generate some noise and to be mindful of his neighbours while walking around inside his flat-
I then went and knocked at flat 113 but there was no response.

I visited 109 Burncroft Avenue on 17/03/2017 to hand deliver to post a letter through Mr. Cordell's door and as I got into my car to drive off after posting the letter, Mr. Cordell ran after me shouting and screaming abuse. I did not stop to speak to him, and he ran after me until I turned left into Green Street. As he was running after my car, he was shouting at people passing by to stop the car.
By the time I returned to the office, Mr. Cordell had telephoned me several times. I telephoned him back and he wanted to know whether I was the person that posted a letter through his letterbox, and I said yes. He asked why I did not stop when he ran after me, and I told him that I had another visit and did not have the time to stop and talk to him. He stated that he will not attend the meeting at the Civic Centre or any of the council and that I should come to his flat. I offered to have the meeting at a neutral venue like the local library or even at his mother's house, but he refused and shouted to shout abuse and accuse me of taking sides with his neighbours. He denied doing the things that he is accused of doing and stated that he is the victim and that the council have refused to deal with his complaints against his neighbours. He stated that he has been suffering noise disturbances from his neighbours since he moved into his flat and that the council have refused to deal with it. He alleged that the council is conniving with the police to victimise him and threatened to put in a complaint - against me, He continued shouting abuse and will not let me say a word, I then advised him that I will have to terminate the conversation as we were getting nowhere.

Mr. Mathiyalagan telephoned me to report that Mr. Cordell went to his fiat while he was at work and his wife was at home with his cousin and daughter and started to bang on his door and shout abuse and threats. She has missed a few appointments with her social worker as a result, she has now been subjected to making home appointments pending the time this matter is resolved. She explained that they use to be acquaintances before the relationship went sour. She believes the whole problem started when he claimed the decoration in his flat was damaged as a result of a leak coming from her flat. She confirmed that she had a leak from her overflow a few months ago which has since been repaired but, the damage alleged had occurred.

I met with Mr. Quinton today at the Civic Centre to discuss his complaints against Mr. Simon Cordell. Mr. Quinton stated that the problems. started soon after he moved into the block in April 2016. He stated that soon after he moved into his flat, he went around to SC's flat to introduce himself. After he introduced himself, SC said to him that there is some kind of war going on between him and other neighbours. SC also told him that he has got a load of issues with the police and that he was trying to.

sue them because he felt that they were treating him unfairly. He told SC that he was a musician and that he does not want anything to do with his issues.

Straight after he moved in, SC will come up to his flat at least once a week to shout at him and complain about loud banging from his flat and knocking pipes. SC would accuse him of making noise on purpose to wind him up and he will always explain to him that it is not true, that he does not make any banging noises inside his flat and that he cannot explain why the pipes were making knocking noises.

Mr. Quinton stated that on 04/10/2016, he was sleeping when SC started to bang on his ceiling, but he ignored him. SC then came up and started kicking at his door and he still ignored him. SC then went downstairs, dragged Mr. Quinton's motorbike from where he parked it, threw it on the ground and started to hit it with what he believed to be a mop pole, he is not sure how many times he hit it. He then called the police, and they came and took him away, CAD No. 3309/4 Oct. 2016.

On 11/12/2016, SC came up to his flat 3 times to shout abuse and complain about noise from his flat.

Mr. Quinton explained that the first time, he was running a bath when SC came and knocked on the door to complain about knocking pipes. He did not open the door and he shouted abuse at him and his friends and called them homophobic names. He later came back again to bang on his door and shout further abuse. He also made threatened him and his exact words are 'I'm off curfew in 12 days, when I'm, I am coming for you', he shouted further abuse and walked off. Mr. Quinton stated that he is not sure why he came back the second time, but he assumed that it was because of the pipes again. He later came back again the third time and this time he opened the door because he has had enough. SC complained about noise from his flat and he told him that he was not making any noise. SC then went on to tell him that he has been away for a long time and that his family was coming to look after his dog. He asked SC if he knew anything about his bike and SC replied, 'You know what, I'm a grown man I'm not goanna lie, it was me that smashed your bike and I was gutted that the stick broke and I couldn't smash it up more'. He then asked SC about his tyres which was punctured with a knife, and he denied cutting them. He then explained to SC that the knocking pipes has nothing to do with him and that he does not bang or make deliberate noise and he advised SC to play his music over the noise if it happens again as there is nothing he can do about the pipes and the noise as it is the nature of the building. SC said cool, fair enough and walked off and as he walked off, he turned around and gave him a dirty look.

About a week later, 2 of his friends left his flat and a short while later he heard SC running out of the front door. Soon after one of his friends called and told him that they have just had a confrontation with SC in the street. His friend informed him that SC ran up to them in the street and confronted his friend Jazz about the knocking pipe noises from his flat. Jazz told SC that it has nothing to do with him. SC then head-butted Jazz and as Jazz fell on the floor, SC jumped on top of him and started to punch him. His other friend Jevon who was with Jazz at the time pulled SC off Jazz and held him until 2 Turkish men came and separated them.
Mr. Quinton stated that the police did not contact him to update him on what action was taken against SC regarding his smashed bike. He stated that he has recording of SC admitting to smashing up his bike and played the recording to me. Although it was very faint, but you could make out what sounded like SC talking about smashing the bike. He stated that he wants to sue SC for criminal damage, he also wants to take out a restraining order against him and possibly an injunction.
He stated that his friends Simon Cocks (07393285528), Julian Jackson (07387277163) and Jazz Bramble (07375651241) are willing to provide witness statements and will attend court to give evidence on his behalf. He also wants us to find out why what action the police took regarding his smashed bike.
08/02/2017:
I did an announced visit to Mr. Quinton at 113 Burncroft Avenue following recent email from Mrs Cordell concerning noise disturbances from the flat as a result of wooden flooring but there was no response. I then telephoned Mr. Quinton and left a voice message for him.
07/03/2017: 27/07/2017:
I telephoned Mr. Quinton for updates on any recent incidents, and he stated that there has been none as he has been staying at his flat. He stated that he has been staying with friends and family and only goes back to his fiat to check his letters.
He stated that he will give a witness statement and will attend court if required to do so.

Insofar as the content of this witness statement is within my own personal knowledge it is true and insofar as it is not within my personal knowledge it is true to the best of my knowledge.

I WILL SAY AS FOLLOWS

I am the tenant of Flat 113 Burncroft Avenue, Enfield, EN3 7JQ. My flat is located the next floor above the Defendant's. I have lived at this property since the 2nd of May 2016.

10. I make this Witness Statement in support of the Claimant's application for an injunction to stop the Defendant from causing intimidation, harassment to me and other residents.

BACKGROUND

11. The problems. that I have encountered with this tenant have been a regular occurrence since the commencement of my tenancy. The Defendant would come to my flat three or four times a week, on occasion this would occur more frequently whereby he would extend this harassment to not only myself but to my visitors also often following them as they would leave the building. He would often play loud music after which he would become very argumentative and bang on my door accusing me and my visitors of maliciously making loud noises to annoy him.

12. The Defendant would often make threats to me and on one particular occasion the Defendant said to me, 'he is on a curfew for 12 days, but he would come 'after me' once this is over'.

13. The Defendant had also made accusations claiming that the noises I was allegedly causing had resulted in the sudden death of his child.

14. On another occasion on the 9th of October 2016 the Defendant came to my flat banging on the door and when I answered immediately started shouting at me. He then went downstairs and about ten minutes later he approached my moped which was parked outside the building and started smashing it with a wooden stick. The damage that caused was to my vehicle was significant and prevented me from using it for some time and caused me to lose my job through lack of transport which was a requirement of my employment. The damage to the motorcycle was damage to tyres, the side panels, the headlights both front and rear along.

with both the breaks and the mirrors. The matter was reported to the Police who attended and arrested the Defendant. A crime reference number was obtained relating to this incident and I will be happy to provide this at the hearing when I attend. I also have a recording of conversation - between the Defendant and I where he admitted having caused damages to my moped. The recording will be provided at the hearing.

15. A further incident occurred with the Defendant around January 2017 whereby he came to my front door and started shouting and complaining about noise and that he was being wrongfully accused by the Police and accused myself and other tenants of 'being out to get him'. I asked him to leave but he refused to do this, so I then left my flat to stay at my friends as the Defendants behaviour had scared me. When I returned to the property a couple of days later, superglue had been inserted into the front entrance door lock preventing me from gaining access, this also caused the key to break.

16. This was reported to the council and an order was required to gain entry to my property. This was recorded under works order reference number 1814013/1.

17. Due to the erratic and abusive behaviour of this tenant I have been forced to flee my property because I feel scared and uncomfortable, and I have not returned since. As a result of this I have also fallen into arrears, I am now facing homelessness.

Statement of Truth

I believe the facts in this Witness Statement are true.

t/c I rang Simon's mother, Lorraine not her landline 0208 to speak with Simon. I could hear him very clearly in the background saying and referring to me "stay away from me; you have ruined my life". He did not wish to speak with me. Lorraine however said that he was fine and that he has been staying with her. I said to Lorraine that I will call at another time and hope to get him in a better mood.

16/12/2016: I met with Mr. Quinton today at the Civic Centre to discuss his complaints against Mr. Simon Cordell. Mr. Quinton stated that the problems. started soon after he moved into the block in April 2016. He stated that soon after he moved into his flat, he went around to SC's flat to introduce himself. After he introduced himself, SC said to him that there is some kind of war going on between him and other neighbours. SC also told him that he has got a load of issues with the police and that he was trying to.

sue them because he felt that they were treating him unfairly. He told SC that he was a musician and that he does not want anything to do with his issues.

Straight after he moved in, SC will come up to his flat at least once a week to shout at him and complain about loud banging from his flat and knocking pipes. SC would accuse him of making noise on purpose to wind him up and he will always explain to him that it is not true, that he does not make any banging noises inside his flat and that he cannot explain why the pipes were making knocking noises.

Mr. Quinton stated that on 4/10/16, he was sleeping when SC started to bang on his ceiling, but he ignored him. SC then came up and started kicking at his door and he still ignored him. SC then went downstairs, dragged Mr. Quinton's motorbike from where he parked it, threw it on the ground and started to hit it with what he believed to be a mop pole, he is not sure how many times he hit it. He then called the police, and they came and took him away, CAD No. 3309/4 Oct. 2016.

On 11/12/16, SC came up to his flat 3 times to shout abuse and complain about noise from his flat.

Mr. Quinton explained that the first time, he was running a bath when SC came and knocked on the door to complain about knocking pipes. He did not open the door and he shouted abuse at him and his friends and called them homophobic names. He later came back again to bang on his door and shout further abuse. He also made threatened him and his exact words are 'I'm off curfew in 12 days, when I'm, I am coming for you', he shouted further abuse and walked off. Mr. Quinton stated that he is not sure why he came back the second time, but he assumed that it was because of the pipes again. He later came back again the third time and this time he opened the door because he has had enough. SC complained about noise from his flat and he told him that he was not making any noise. SC then went on to tell him that he has been away for a long time and that his family was coming to look after his dog. He asked SC if he knew anything about his bike and SC replied, 'You know what, I'm a grown man I'm not goanna lie, it was me that smashed your bike and I was gutted that the stick broke and I couldn't smash it up more'. He then asked SC about his tyres which was punctured with a knife, and he denied cutting them. He then explained to SC that the knocking pipes has nothing to do with him and that he does not bang or make deliberate noise and he advised SC to play his music over the noise if it happens again as there is nothing he can do about the pipes and the noise as it is the nature of the building. SC said cool, fair enough and walked off and as he walked off, he turned around and gave him a dirty look.

About a week later, 2 of his friends left his flat and a short while later he heard SC running out of the front door. Soon after one of his friends called and told him that they have just had a confrontation with SC in the street. His friend informed him that SC ran up to them in the street and confronted his friend Jazz about the knocking pipe noises from his flat. Jazz told SC that it has nothing to do with him. SC then head-butted Jazz and as Jazz fell on the floor, SC jumped on top of him and started to punch him. His other friend Jevon who was with Jazz at the time pulled SC off Jazz and held him until 2 Turkish men came and separated them.

Mr. Quinton stated that the police did not contact him to update him on what action was taken against SC regarding his smashed bike. He stated that he has recording of SC admitting to smashing up his bike and played the recording to me. Although it was very faint, but you could make out what sounded like SC talking about smashing the bike. He stated that he wants to sue SC for criminal damage, he also wants to take out a restraining order against him and possibly an injunction.

He stated that his friends Simon Cocks (07393285528), Julian Jackson (07387277163) and Jazz Bramble (07375651241) are willing to provide witness statements and will attend court to give evidence on his behalf. He also wants us to find out why what action the police took regarding his smashed bike.

Letter of complaint received from Mr. Cordell's mother; copy attached.
16/12/2016: 11/01/2017:
I met with Mr. Quinton today at the Civic Centre to discuss his complaints against Mr. Simon Cordell. Mr. Quinton stated that the problems. started soon after he moved into the block in April 2016. He stated that soon after he moved into his flat, he went around to SC's flat to introduce himself. After he introduced himself, SC said to him that there is some kind of war going on between him and other neighbours. SC also told him that he has got a load of issues with the police and that he was trying to.

CLAIM NUMBER: D02EDO73

IN THE EDMONTON COUNTY COURT

{CLAIMANT}

THE MAYOR AND BURGESSES OF THE LONDON BOROUGH OF ENFIELD

-AND-

(DEFENDANT)

MR. SIMON CORDELL

sue them because he felt that they were treating him unfairly. He told SC that he was a musician and that he does not want anything to do with his issues.

Straight after he moved in, SC will come up to his flat at least once a week to shout at him and complain about loud banging from his flat and knocking pipes. SC would accuse him of making noise on purpose to wind him up and he will always explain to him that it is not true, that he does not make any banging noises inside his flat and that he cannot explain why the pipes were making knocking noises.

Mr. Quinton stated that on 04/10/2016, he was sleeping when SC started to bang on his ceiling, but he ignored him. SC then came up and started kicking at his door and he still ignored him. SC then went downstairs, dragged Mr. Quinton's motorbike from where he parked it, threw it on the ground and started to hit it with what he believed to be a mop pole, he is not sure how many times he hit it. He then called the police, and they came and took him away, CAD No. 3309/4 Oct. 2016.

On 11/12/2016, SC came up to his flat 3 times to shout abuse and complain about noise from his flat.

Mr. Quinton explained that the first time, he was running a bath when SC came and knocked on the door to complain about knocking pipes. He did not open the door and he shouted abuse at him and his friends and called them homophobic names. He later came back again to bang on his door and shout further abuse. He also made threatened him and his exact words are 'I'm off curfew in 12 days, when I'm, I am coming for you', he shouted further abuse and walked off. Mr. Quinton stated that he is not sure why he came back the second time, but he assumed that it was because of the pipes again. He later came back again the third time and this time he opened the door because he has had enough. SC complained about noise from his flat and he told him that he was not making any noise. SC then went on to tell him that he has been away for a long time and that his family was coming to look after his dog. He asked SC if he knew anything about his bike and SC replied, 'You know what, I'm a grown man I'm not goanna lie, it was me that smashed your bike and I was gutted that the stick broke and I couldn't smash it up more'. He then asked SC about his tyres which was punctured with a knife, and he denied cutting them. He then explained to SC that the knocking pipes has nothing to do with him and that he does not bang or make deliberate noise and he advised SC to play his music over the noise if it happens again as there is nothing he can do about the pipes and the noise as it is the nature of the building. SC said cool, fair enough and walked off and as he walked off, he turned around and gave him a dirty look.

About a week later, 2 of his friends left his flat and a short while later he heard SC running out of the front door. Soon after one of his friends called and told him that they have just had a confrontation with SC in the street. His friend informed him that SC ran up to them in the street and confronted his friend Jazz about the knocking pipe noises from his flat. Jazz told SC that it has nothing to do with him. SC then head-butted Jazz and as Jazz fell on the floor, SC jumped on top of him and started to punch him. His other friend Jevon who was with Jazz at the time pulled SC off Jazz and held him until 2 Turkish men came and separated them.

Mr. Quinton stated that the police did not contact him to update him on what action was taken against SC regarding his smashed bike. He stated that he has recording of SC admitting to smashing up his bike and played the recording to me. Although it was very faint, but you could make out what sounded like SC talking about smashing the bike. He stated that he wants to sue SC for criminal damage, he also wants to take out a restraining order against him and possibly an injunction.
He stated that his friends Simon Cocks (07393285528), Julian Jackson (07387277163) and Jazz Bramble (07375651241) are willing to provide witness statements and will attend court to give evidence on his behalf. He also wants us to find out why what action the police took regarding his smashed bike.
08/02/2017:
I did an announced visit to Mr. Quinton at 113 Burncroft Avenue following recent email from Mrs Cordell concerning noise disturbances from the flat as a result of wooden flooring but there was no response. I then telephoned Mr. Quinton and left a voice message for him.
07/03/2017: 27/07/2017:
I telephoned Mr. Quinton for updates on any recent incidents, and he stated that there has been none as he has been staying at his flat. He stated that he has been staying with friends and family and only goes back to his fiat to check his letters.
He stated that he will give a witness statement and will attend court if required to do so.

Address: 109 Burncroft Avenue Dated: 14/10/2016 Enfield London EN3 7JQ
To whom it may concern Issues of concern: Local Authorities and Metropolitan Police Consultation that was in Regard to the Applicant On the 13th of August 2014 the local authority and the police held a consultation meeting in regard to the Appellant and reached a decision to be taken in the matter of a stand-alone Antisocial Behaviour Order (ASBO) order to be placed upon the Appellant Statue of Liberties. An anti-social behaviour order (ASBO) (2003) is / was a civil order made in the United Kingdom against a person who has been shown, on the balance of evidence, to have engaged in anti-social behaviour. The order was introduced by Tony Blair in 1998 with the legal framework and protocols to create a successful Antisocial Behaviour Order (ASBO) application. Within the Antisocial Behaviour Order (ASBO) guidance it states Voluntary solutions and other remedies should be considered by the pursuant, prior to the multi-agency working together in Co-Hurst at a statutory conference, regarding any application. Any of the following voluntary solutions and alternative remedies should have been considered and then implemented, prior to an application for an Antisocial Behaviour Order (ASBO) being considered but was not. Mediation: - Verbal and written warnings from the relevant authorities including Police: - Support Packages: - Diversionary schemes and activities: - Rehabilitation programs: - Criminal investigation: - The above list is not exhausted to its limits.

At no point of time has the applicant been given any of the above listed opportunities, neither has he been asked to attended any official meetings prior to this Antisocial Behaviour Order (ASBO) application and this should have been the opportunity to talk to him about a pre-warning or other actions that could have been taken.
Please also take note to page number 15 (taking a strategic approach) which clearly states: "The more serious the behaviour, the greater the likelihood that the court will grant a geographically wide order, order's that seek to operate in the whole of England and Wales will not be granted without evidence to the actual or potential geographical extent of the problem. Further detail about further effective prohibitions is given in Chapter 7."
For the applicant legally to have any conditions imposed, of such a wide scale of areas without correct proof to that extent, is another breach of applicant's Human Rights. The Antisocial Behaviour Order (ASBO) that was granted in the lower court upon the applicant is wrongly executed for the whole of the UK.

Section 63 of the Criminal Justice (Raves) Bill and related Act: -

The Criminal Justice and Public Order Act 1994 is an amendment to the Raves Bill and states the following: -

Section 63 Powers to remove persons attending or preparing for a rave.

(1) This section applies to a gathering on land in the open air of 20 or more persons (whether or not trespassers) at which amplified music is played during the night (with or without intermissions) and is such as, by reason of its loudness and duration and the time at which it is played, is likely to cause serious distress to the inhabitants of the locality; and for this purpose: -

(a) Such a gathering continues during intermissions in the music and, where the gathering extends over several days, throughout the period during which amplified music is played at night (with or without intermissions). and

(b) "Music" includes sounds wholly or predominantly characterised by the emission of a succession of repetitive beats.

(1A) this section also applies to a gathering if: -

(a) It is a gathering on land of 20 or more persons who are trespassing on the land; and

(b) It would be a gathering of a kind mentioned in subsection (1) above if it took place on land in the open air.

In Reference to Section 63: -

As noted in the highlighted copy of a Section 63 above and then in reference to take the correct notes about the fundamental basics of the building blocks of the Antisocial Behaviour Order (ASBO) application that has now been brought against the Appellant, will in fact reveal that all incidents that are sighted within the case bundle are of incidents when a person(s) personal living quarters, was or is contained in a building otherwise known as a place of residence, this key element mentioned and noted does play a vital factor in the on goings of the case at present, as for sure trespass must be present for a gathering to amerce in a building this must also be inclusive of 20 or more persons, so for any officer or official person(s) to be confident of their evidence supporting the incident's in question, so for them incidents to constitutes to the word rave.
Within the respondent's bundle, that is representing an Antisocial Behaviour Order (ASBO) order, no police officers chose to follow the true lines of investigation that is needed to fulfil the key elements to obtain such an act, against the Appellants statue of liberty's when using section 63 of the criminal and justice act 1994 and therefore the word rave cannot and should not be met to the criminal standards needed to obtain a Proven verdict.
The investigating police officers had ample opportunity to achieve such goals, but never did and therefore it must be agreed to the quoted, this case does not meet the criteria for the incidents accused within its context and supported evidence.

This clearly leads to the Fraud Act 2006 by abuse of position: -
(1) A person is in breach of this section if he—
(a) Occupies a position, in which he is expected to safeguard, or not to act against, the financial interests of another person,
(b) Dishonestly abuses that position, and
(c) Intends, by means of the abuse of that position—
(I) To make a gain for himself or another, or
(ii) To cause loss to another or to expose another to a risk of loss.
(2) A person may be regarded as having abused his position even though his conduct consisted of an omission rather than an act.
Issue of the Word "Illegal being Used: -
The second issue is the terminology regarding the word "illegal" the word Illegal also raises concerns of issues relating towards what the respondent's case has been brought in motion for, all of the accused incidents that the respondent has alleged I took an organisation (role / or supplied equipment in, do in fact relate to the entertainment industry, what is governed under the licensing act 2003.
As previously stated in this letter of concern, all incidents sighted in the Antisocial Behaviour Order (ASBO) application do in fact relate to indoor private events and trespass has not been investigated under any police officer's codes of conduct, neither does the CPS challenge nor dispute this fact, so there is no argument to the issue of illegality under the trespass grounds.

This only leaves the licensing act 2003 having to be found in breach to prove the word illegal in the entertainment industry when a police officer is in pursuit of a case relating to the investigation of the organisation of illegal raves, as the respondent and officers have pro claimed it to be.
When reading a copy of the licensing act 2003 as amended on the 7th January 2013 for the processes of creation of an investigation or defence towards a person's rights, any person doing so will have to take note to appendix four of that Act, which clearly states it is not illegal to provide any entertainment within a back garden or place of residence, in fact the only clause relating to in private air is that no person shall have the right to charge for money with a few of making a profit and if a profit is made without true intention then the licensing act 2003 has no breach, with this full and whole understanding I believe that any person will agree that the respondent does not have the right to base their case on the fact of organising an illegal rave as no illegal concept has been adduced to be proven.
Issues of the Word "Illegal being Used: -
As a third concern regarding the issue of the word "illegal being used does also make me take reference to the following:
From the early stages of the application the Appellant felt the need to defend his legal Rights, as any other member of united kingdom and associated treaties should also do, this being said to be leading towards the wrongful accusations against any illegal allegations of criminal nature that any person(s) find themselves in defence towards, that any person(s) know they have not committed, neither am I in the wrong for just simply not understanding the crime I am being accused of but still playing a role in such criminal activities in turn as a figure of speech being blind towards my own actions and there consequences, such as the incident that have clearly been contained within the Antisocial Behaviour Order (ASBO) application.
I know it would be morally wrong for me not to stand up and quire this matter myself as for I know the true facts, as I know this case should not be sitting in its civil capacity, when it clearly states an offence of an illegal natured concept this is a breach of a multitude of my human rights and should be managed under criminal legalisation and regulations in a criminal court, especially without no previous history of similar natured offences being present and this is also inclusive of no pre remand warnings ever being issued. In the understanding of civil and criminal law, were some thinks is alleged to have taken place that is said to have been illegal the correct Police procedure in them circumstances are that a crime will be created under the crime and disorder act 1998, in pursuit from the police reforms. act 1964, by way of a victim or witness making a report to police and then for members of the police to be allocated the incident in hand so for them to be able to start any needed investigations, this does also depend on the matter of relevance to the initial report and will be risk assessed and graded apriority to the listing to the resources available at the time.

The investigations may lead to an arrest what will lead the detainee to his or her statuary legal rights. In the early 1980's the police did have the power to take cases to court without the decision of any other governing body, but now in 2016 the burden relays solely on the CPS who are in collaboration with Revenue and customs. Prosecution Office and is headed by the Director of Public Prosecutions (DPP) who is independent but subject to the superintendence of the Attorney General that is accountable to members of Parliament that do work for the prosecution services. If charged any person's rights are gained under section 24 and 25 which does relate to the rights of any person charged and the minimum standards of criminal procedure.

An issue I raise is my case seems. to sit in its civil capacity at court with none of the above regulations and my rights being carried out with accordance of the United Kingdom laws; as it clearly is stated as an illegal offence, I ask please can any person explain this to me? As I have no previous convictions of similar nature offence, neither was the Antisocial Behaviour Order (ASBO) application a CBO, Antisocial Behaviour Order (ASBO) on conviction, it is in fact a stand-alone Antisocial Behaviour Order (ASBO) and the legal guidance is for the application not to be based upon criminal natured activities.

Before I continue with the principles of the respondent's case which has been educed with the title of "the organisation of illegal raves, so to highlight the true aspects of the legal definition needed to be met in reference towards "the role needs to be proved to the criminal standards so for a judge to impose a Proven verdict in relation to organising"

National Standards Incident Recording Regulations: -

I would first like any reader to have a full understanding of the knowledge needed to be addressed at this point of this complaint in reference to the "NSIR" what is the national standards incident recording regulations that are governed under the Regulation of Investigatory Powers Act 2000.

The NSIR does quote the following, when any state official is recording police information them procedures must comply in accordance with the national standards incident recording polices and them person(s) are to:

Ensure that all police information is held in accordance with the law Support all correct decisions that are made through the intelligence process with utmost respect for "Vision and Purpose Statements for Crime Recording (NCRS & HOCR)" what are in respect to the Home Office Counting Rules for Recorded Crime.

Provide a fair and auditable decision-making process.

Corroborate all related and interlinked information.

Allow all information to be shared in compliance with the data protection Act 1998 and Regulation of Investigatory Powers Act 2000.

Policing Values:
The College of Policing "Code of Ethics" set out nine explicit values that are intended to ensure standards of professional behaviour for both police officers and police staff:

1. Due responsibility with issues of Openness	2. Due responsibility with issues of Integrity	3. Due responsibility with issues of Accountability	4. Due responsibility with issues of Respect	5. Due responsibility with issues of Leadership
6. Due responsibility with issues of Fairness	7. Due responsibility with issues of Selflessness	8. Due responsibility with issues of Objectivity	9. Due responsibility with issues of Honesty

CPS REVIEWING OF CASE FILES: -
Duty Prosecutors must apply the Code for Crown Prosecutors when reviewing any case received from the police and continue to do so during the life of a case, to be satisfied that there is sufficient evidence to provide a realistic prospect of conviction against each defendant for each offence and that it is in the public interest to proceed.
Crown Prosecutors must also consider any human rights issues that arise.
The Joint Performance Standards: -
Standard 1 – Police will undertake an effective, early investigation to reduce use of pre-charge bail: -
Standard 2 – Police will obtain 'key evidence' before referral to a prosecutor for a charging decision: - 438,
Standard 3 – Police will themselves charge or NFA cases in accordance with the DPP's Guidance on Charging: -

438,

Standard 4 – CPS will provide an immediately accessible service for the telephone referral of cases: -
Standard 5 – CPS will ensure early face-to-face consultations are provided for serious, sensitive, and complex cases: -
Standard 6 – CPS will ensure that charging decisions are consistent and in accordance with the Code for Crown Prosecutors and appropriate legal and policy guidance.
Police Personal Conduct: -
These values underpin all policing functions and in respect of police personal conduct and require all person(s) working for the police service to "behave in a manner, whether on or off duty, which does not bring discredit on the police service or undermine public confidence in policing" (See Standard 9 – Conduct). The Code explicitly states that complying with the National Crime Recording Standard (NCRS), which is the central rules from the Home Office that do comply with the Counting Rules for Recorded Crime (HOCR), is an example of meeting the standards.
Regards to NSIR Standards: -
With further regards to NSIR standards that do define any communication from any person to be otherwise known as a "CFS a caller for services" a CFS is any person(s) by whatever means of contact, about a matter that comes to police attention, and which is required by the NSIR to be recorded. There are a number of minimum data standards to be complied with when recording information on an incident record:

An incident unique reference number (URN)
The time and date the report was received.
The method of reporting.
A clear and accurate time and date the report was recorded.
Details of the person making the report (name, address, and telephone number)
Sufficient information to describe the location and nature of the report.
The opening and closing category.
Also, the Time and date of initial and closing classification.
Contained within the respondent Antisocial Behaviour Order (ASBO) application I take a problem with there being no URN numbers to a vast amount of the official documents contained within the respondent's bundle. The Prosecution Team Manual of Guidance For the preparation, processing, and submission of prosecution files 2011 (Incorporating National File Standard 2015) also states the importance to case files URN numbers and continues to quote the following: -

UNIQUE REFERENCE NUMBER ("URN")

An URN must be allocated to a case file at the earliest opportunity to allow tracking and monitoring of the case where possible. This process should start at the CPS pre-charge advice stage where the URN will be recorded on the MG3/3A.

1.3.2

When completing a case file, the URN must be entered on all MG forms. The endorsement of the URN on each page of each form ensures that if material becomes separated from the file, it can be easily identified and maintains continuity.

1.3.4

Allocating an URN for case files involving multiple offences and/or offenders will need to be closely monitored to avoid duplication. Specific guidance on when and how these case files should be numbered is contained at 2.4 of Section 2. This includes obtaining guidance from the CPS regarding the splitting or merging of case files.

439,

General Principles Charges for any offences may be included in the same file with the same Unique Reference Number (URN) if those charges:
Are founded on the same facts, or: -
Form, or are a part of a series of, offences of the same or a similar character. As a result, case files containing charges which are not linked in either of the ways mentioned above will need to be split into separate files, each with a different URN.

Organisation: -

In dispute to the Organisation role in the respondent's pursuit for a convection for organising illegal raves, the applicant has not adduced no evidence in support of such a claim, I submitted a plea of innocents as for sure I know that I am innocent and because of that reason, there is no truthful evidence relating to the wrongful accusations that I find myself defending my character towards, this case leaves me every day of my life knowing that I never organised any event sighted in the respondent bundle leaving me suffering the consequences and if the allegations were true I believe the police intelligence would be able to prove some of the following as they have not got the following:

- No evidence of flyers,
- No evidence of breaches of the licensing act.
- No evidence of promotion on Social Networking Sites
- No evidence of Sound equipment sited within the Antisocial Behaviour Order (ASBO) event dates being used for private reasons, neither seized under self-commercial gain.

- No evidence of Video footage proving any origination or delegation roles.
- No evidence of forensics.
- No evidence of trespassing.
- No evidence of Voice recordings.
- No evidence of a past duration of time relating to any arrest of my person of a similar natured offence.
- No evidence of and therefore a complete absinth of firsthand oral evidence of victims.
- This complete absinth also includes no police PNB notebooks, for all dates wrongfully accused and sited within the Antisocial Behaviour Order (ASBO) application.
- Not to forget the complete disappearance of all CAD related emergency 999 / 101 calls, that I am in pursuit of disclosure towards, that do relate to the audio voice recordings that have been said to have been destroyed by police, the emergency 999 / 101 call voice recordings are governed by United Kingdom and continental legalisation and Standard Functional Specifications for Law Enforcement Computer Aided Dispatch (CAD) Systems. standards protected by communication standard operating procedures "SOP" and in all incidents should not be destroyed when they are part of an ongoing trial or appeal and this is to include, the commence of a Proven verdict otherwise known as a convection as them files should remain intact for up to 50 years after.

Hearsay I challenge the following points of concern: -

The respondent when seeking pursuit of the Asbo application that was applied at the lower court in conjunction to their powers, so for the respondent to Adduce an application notice of (Hearsay Evidence under Civil Proceeding) Rule 1999.

The applicant took dispute to the legal factors of such a hearsay notice and declined the application.

The reason for the dispute was and is that the respondent is relying on the whole president of their case solely being based on hearsay evidence, with no substance of firsthand evidence and a complete disappearance of civil person(s) under oath supplying oral evidence, in turn no VPS witness, this does also include any other support of key materials that would aid in any convection as evidence.

The notice to rely solely on hearsay was put before the judge on the 11/09/2014 and 30/10/2014 to Highbury Corner Magistrates Court this was challenged but was allowed by the judge sitting at the lower court. How can anyone stand a fair trial when no witnesses can be called? And all of the civil witness statements, not being signed by the witness themselves.

Hearsay applications under the Magistrates Courts (Hearsay Evidence in Civil Proceeding) Rule 1999 to reply solely on hearsay within the Antisocial Behaviour Order (ASBO) application have been put in on the 23/02/2016, 17/08/2016 to Wood Green Crown Court for the appeal hearing, this was challenged, this also has been allowed by the Judge hearing the appeal case. How can anyone stand a fair trial when no witnesses can be called?

The truthiness and accuracy of the witness statements that are contained in the format of an MG11 witness statement form.

Also, the capacity the court sits in as for the Antisocial Behaviour Order (ASBO) proceeding sit in their civil capacity, but the respondent's application states an offence of a criminal nature such as the organisation of illegal rave, so for any person to understand what rules the case should really be imposed to so that the Appellant could stand a legal and justified fair trail cannot clearly be established, this is for the reasons as listed below.: -

Magistrates and Crown Courts have different regulations when the court houses are sitting in a true and fair civil capacity when at trial and appeal.
A criminal case as the respondent application clearly states it is, has a different views towards the rules of hearsay, than a civil case does and requires a section 9 or 10 to be educed into the case proceedings, if the section 9 or 10 requirements are not agreed by the Judge, or challenged by any applicant, due to a witness not given oral evidence in court, then the context of their statement holds less weight and may not be read out in court verbally aloud that is to say on its own, by any members of the prosecution and in turn becomes inadmissible in criminal cases, but under civil proceeding where there is no criminal element, then them hearsay rule do not comply and the Civil Evidence Act 1995 will in fact apply, in any ongoing proceedings that are in pursuit of an Anti-social Behaviour Order, the Civil Evidence Act 1995 rules should come into force and will allow the admissibility of hearsay without an exception other than a hearsay notice, because of the clear difference that is allowed in the proceeding of criminal and civil law relating to hearsay and the respondent's case being of a mixture of both laws, this leads me to the understanding that I could not stand, what must be a speedy and fair trial in respect to, The Universal Declaration of Human Rights (UDHR) 1948, the Human Rights Act 1998 (the Act or the HRA) and the European Convention on Human Rights (ECHR) 1953.

MG5: Police report

MG5 – CASE SUMMARY GUIDANCE NOTES
Any person being accused of an offence under the criminal justice public order act 1994 should be arrested and an mg5 case summery form should be filled out in accordance with code A of the pace codes of conduct.
The prosecutor, defence and court will then need to be informed about what happened when the defendant was interviewed, and the guidance contained in the header to section 2 of the MG5 should be followed.
Where the suspect refuses to answer certain questions or to answer satisfactorily, after due warning, a court or jury may draw such inferences as appear proper under the Criminal Justice and Public Order Act 1994 sections 36 and 37.
In such circumstances section 2 on the MG5 should record that a no comment interview took place, special warnings were given (as set out in a - e below) and also record the questions that were asked following the warning. The exact words used should be recorded rather than paraphrasing.
For an inference to be drawn the suspect must be told, in ordinary language:
a) What offence is being investigated?
b) What fact they are being asked to account for.
c) This fact may be due to them taking part in the commission of the offence.
d) A court may draw a proper inference if they fail or refuse to account for this fact.
e) A record is being made of the interview and it may be given in evidence if they are brought to trial.

Orders on Conviction: -

441,

An order comes into effect on the day it is made.
Will be of a CBO nature the provisions relating to the CBO are in Part 2 of the Anti-Social Behaviour, Crime and Policing Act 2014 (the "Act"). The provisions come into force on 20 October 2014.

The dates of the on goings of the Antisocial Behaviour Order (ASBO) proceedings are listed below: -

12/09/2014	A bundle is said to have been served by police on the Appellant at 109 Burncroft Avenue, to which he disputes. This Bundle is said to be for the Antisocial Behaviour Order (ASBO) Case, a letter of complaint was made and served to the police in regard to not being served with the full true details and the bundle still remains in Edmonton police stations lost property the receipt is in my mother's name as she found it outside my front door.

06/10/2014	The Appellant was meant to have a hearing for an interim Order, but legal aid had not been granted. Michael Carroll acting solicitor came to court the judge overturned and granted legal aid. The application for the Interim hearing the judge would not hear due to my solicitors not having time to go over the case papers as legal aid was not granted at this point. The CPS and police were not happy about this. Hearing was put off until the 22/10/2014
22/10/2014	22/10/2014 Interim hearing could not go ahead due to Andy Locke Acting Barrister had a flood at his home address. CPS and Police were not happy about this and wanted it to go ahead. Judge told them it is not down to the Appellant he has attended court and rightfully he should have a barrister. Interim hearing was put off until the 05/11/2014

As can be seen from the details above the Antisocial Behaviour Order (ASBO) was not put before a Judge until the 22/10/2014 due to no fault of the Appellant and should still fall within the commence date of the CBO being legal jurisdiction.

Where an order on conviction is sought, police must supply sufficient details to the Prosecutor to justify application for the order sought and any documentation must be attached to the file. Such orders include:

An exclusion order, such as being banned from licensed premises or sporting grounds.

Anti-Social Behaviour Order.

Protection from Harassment Act restraining order.

Compensation order – may be made on conviction, where there has been some personal injury, loss, or damage to any person, for the offence charged or taken into consideration. Courts often award compensation at the first hearing, so it is important that, where known, an estimate of the cost of loss or damage is included on the MG5 form. Additionally, full details of any victim likely to be awarded compensation should be shown on an MG6 form.

Issues with the Independent Members of the Public's Witness Statements: -

I continue to raise even larger concerns of issue with regards towards the Independent members of the public's witness statements, not being signed by the witness them self but by active police officers on duty. I am also further concerned and raise issue with there being no statement of truth attached to all of the mg11 witness statement forms, both issues are a criminal offence of the Fraud Act 2006 as follows: -

1. Fraud

(1) A person is guilty of fraud if he is in breach of any of the sections listed in subsection (2) (Which provide for different ways of committing the offence).

The sections are: -

(a) Section 2 (fraud by false representation): -

(b) Section 3 (fraud by failing to disclose information), and: -

(c) Section 4 (fraud by abuse of position).

(3) A person who is guilty of fraud is liable: -

442,

(a) on summary conviction, to imprisonment for a term not exceeding 12 months or to a fine not exceeding the statutory maximum (or to both).

(b) On conviction on indictment, to imprisonment for a term not exceeding 10 years or to a fine (or to both).

All MG Forms. are Managed under Guidance From: -

All mg forms. are managed under guidance from the home office, so for the evidential and authenticity standards to be complied with, so for all associated tools required to create, transport, and store a Digital Witness Statement (DWS) is completed with sufficient evidential authenticity and integrity.

The Key Requirements of Digital Witness Statements are: -

1. The witness must be fully aware of the implications of signing.

2. The mechanism for proving a document must be agreed by the National Prosecution Team.

3. Where vector representations of signatures are used, these shall use open standards and must also include a simple image of the signature.

Criminal Procedure and Investigations Act 1996 places a duty on investigators to pursue all reasonable lines of enquiry and to record and retain all relevant material.

Supervisors must check that the file complies with the National File Standard content as per the Director's Guidance.

All cases charged by police will be notified to the CPS through an amended MG5, to be known as the 'Police Report'. It is crucial that the content of the MG5, including the case and interview summaries, are objective, fair and balanced and are of the highest quality. This is because all the stakeholders (e.g., prosecutors, court, and defence) rely upon its contents. A poor quality MG5 is likely to lead to wasted time, increased costs, and delayed proceedings. In all cases the supervisor must complete the 'Supervisor's Certification'. This certifies that the information in parts 1 to 7 of the Police Report is an accurate summary of the available evidence in the case. It also ensures that the file has been built to the required standard. If it has not been possible to obtain all necessary information to ensure the file has reached the required standard, an MG6 must be completed to indicate why and when missing information/evidence will be available.

The MG6 should also record the information necessary for common law disclosure in accordance with R v DPP, ex PARTE LEE. It should also take account of all reasonable lines of enquiry and confirm that relevant agreed targets for the capture/submission of evidence have been identified correctly.

R v DPP, ex PARTE LEE (1999) 2 Cr App. R 304, DC 2.2.11

Following the decision in LEE, the prosecutor should consider disclosing the following, at pre-committal stage, in the interests of justice:

Previous convictions of the victim, or any material that might assist an application for bail.

Anything that may assist the defence to argue that there should be no committal at all, or committal on a lesser charge.

Anything that may assist an argument for abuse of process.

Information that may assist the defence to prepare for trial where delay may affect such preparation (i.e., witnesses police officers have spoken to that they do not intend to rely upon).

This information is not always going to be disclosed to the defence since Justice Kennedy said this would depend very much on what the defendant chose to reveal about the nature of his case.

These are only examples and must not be construed as a definitive list of categories.

In all cases the prosecutor must consider disclosing in the interests of justice any material that is relevant to sentence (e.g., information that might mitigate the seriousness of the offence or assist the accused to lay blame in whole or in part upon a co-accused or another person).

There are Three Types of Witness Statement: -

Narrative statements: -
Made by the people who have played a part in the event at issue?
Production statements: - made by people who are employees, who have access to computer systems. or documents, but: - Cannot testify as to how the information was entered on to the systems, as it may have been done by other people in the organisation.
Statements by expert witnesses:
Include analysis and comment and can include personal opinion within their professional remit.
What is a VPS Witness Statement?
This is a statement made by the victim of a criminal offence. It is recorded on form MG11, and the content relates to the effect the offence has on them.
The Purpose of VPS forms. are: -
These statements provide the victim with an opportunity to state how the offence has affected them:
Physically Emotionally Psychologically financially, or in any other way victim, an opportunity to say if they require further support, or wish to claim compensation.
To provide the Home Office and the courts with information on these matters and allow them to take an account of the consequences of the offence on the victim. These statements are voluntary and are separate to other statements. They are disclosed to the defence.
Victim Personal Statements: -
When a VPS is used in court the VPS is put before the court after conviction in the sentencing bundle. (Impact Statement)
If a police officer takes a witness statement in England, Wales or Northern Ireland, they must record it on an MG11 form.
All investigating police officers must keep the original copies of all witness statements in the case file and send copies to the Crown Prosecution Service.
Before a witness signs a witness statement the investigating police officers must always explain to whomever is filling out the form: the perjury clause before they make the statement.
A statement taken in this form meets the legal requirements, and so they may not have needed to attend court:
But you must make it clear the Home Office cannot guarantee they will not have to attend the court because the court and the defendant have the right to call any witness to attend and give oral evidence.
When any police officer questions the witness they must make sure of the following: ask all relevant questions to satisfy their duty under the Criminal Procedure and Investigations Act 1996, so to be able to pursue all reasonable lines of enquiry whether they point towards or away from the suspect.
The Antisocial Behaviour Order (ASBO) Witness Statements Do Not Contain Signature of Truth: - PRACTICE DIRECTION 22 – STATEMENTS OF TRUTH
Documents to be verified by a Statement of Truth are: - 1.1

Rule 22.1(1) sets out the documents which must be verified by a statement of truth. The documents include: -
(1) A statement of case,
(2) A response complying with an order under rule 18.1 to provide further information,
(3) A witness statement,

444,

If an applicant wishes to rely on matters set out in his application notice as evidence, the application notice must be verified by a statement of truth.
1.5
The statement of truth may be contained in the document it verifies or it may be in a separate document served subsequently, in which case it must identify the document to which it relates.
Form of the Statement of Truth: -
2.1

'[I believe] [the (claimant or as may be) believes] that the facts stated in this [name document being verified] are true.'
2.2
The form of the statement of truth verifying a witness statement should be as follows:
'I believe that the facts stated in this witness statement are true.'
2.3
Where the statement of truth is contained in a separate document, the document containing the statement of truth must be headed with the title of the proceedings and the claim number. The document being verified should be identified in the statement of truth as follows:
(3) Statement of case: 'the [defence or as may be] served on the [name of party] on [date]',
(4) Application notice: 'the application notice issued on [date] for [set out the remedy sought]',
(5) Witness statement: 'the witness statement filed on [date] or served on [party] on [date]'.
Who may Sign the Statement of Truth?

Legal representative is defined in rule 2.3(1). A legal representative employed by a party may sign a statement of truth. However, a person who is not a solicitor, barrister or other authorised litigator, but who is employed by the company and is managed by such a person is not employed by that person and so cannot sign a statement of truth. (This is unlike the employee of a solicitor in private practice that would come within the definition of legal representative.)
However, such a person, may be a manager and able to sign the statement on behalf of the company in that capacity.
Inability to persons to read or sign documents to be verified by a statement of truth: -
3A.1

Where a document containing a statement of truth is to be signed by a person who is unable to read or sign the document, it must contain a certificate made by an authorised person.
Consequences of failure to verify: -
445,
If a statement of case is not verified by a statement of truth, the statement of case will remain effective unless it is struck out, but a party may not rely on the contents of a statement of case as evidence until it has been verified by a statement of truth.
4.2
Any party may apply to the court for an order that unless within such period as the court may specify the statement of case is verified by the service of a statement of truth, the statement of case will be struck out.
4.3
The usual order for the costs of an application referred to in paragraph 4.2 will be that the costs be paid by the party who had failed to verify in any event and forthwith.
Penalty: -
Attention is drawn to rule 32.14 which sets out the consequences of verifying a statement of case containing a false statement without an honest belief in its truth, and to the procedures set out in rule 81.18 and paragraphs 5.1 to 5.7 of Practice Direction 81 – Applications and proceedings in relation to contempt of court.
Possession etc. of articles for use in frauds, Fraud Act 2006: -

Making or supplying articles for use in frauds
(1) A person is guilty of an offence if he makes, adapts, supplies or offers to supply any article—
(a) knowing that it is designed or adapted for use in the course of or in connection with fraud, or
(b) Intending it to be used to commit, or assist in the commission of, fraud.
(2) A person guilty of an offence under this section is liable— (a) on summary conviction, to imprisonment for a term not exceeding 12 months or to a fine not exceeding the statutory maximum (or to both).
(b) On conviction on indictment, to imprisonment for a term not exceeding 10 years or to a fine (or to both).
8. Fraud Act
"Article" (1) For the purposes of— (a) sections 6 and 7, and (b) the provisions listed in subsection (2), so far as they relate to articles for use in the course of or in connection with fraud, "article" includes any program or data held in electronic form.
All Impact statements are also signed by police, but second third hand information.
PNBs are requested as disclosure: -
The official pocketbook is a most important document which, when properly used, provides the greatest support in court, and constitutes protection against false or mistaken attack upon the character of an officer or a member of staff.

It is a basic principle of police procedure that police officers and appropriate police staff will keep notes of their day-to-day duties to which they may later refer.
Every operational Police Officer, including Police Community Support Officers (PCSOs), members of the Special Constabulary, & Firearms. Enquiry Officers shall carry an official PNB when on duty and will ensure that is maintained.

It is fundamental that these notes should be made at the time of the incident, which is being recorded or, where circumstances prevent this, as soon as practicable after the event.
The pocket notebook must always be carried by officers and staff engaged on operational patrol, response and beat duties. Staff engaged in all other types of duty will carry their pocket notebook when performing duties where they are likely to encounter a scenario where a pocket notebook record is required.
The PNB is an official document, which is subject to disclosure in connection with any criminal investigation. The PNB is maintained by an individual, but ultimately belongs to the Metropolitan Constabulary.
Pocket Notebook records will be made in the following circumstances: -
a. Where the Police and Criminal Evidence Act 1984 require a record and none exists.
b. Details of audio recording interviews as highlighted in paragraph 5.1 of Code E.
c. Unsolicited comments made by a suspect outside the context of a formal interview, which may be relevant to an offence.
d. Evidential matters, civil and criminal where not recorded in another original document.
e. PNC and other police information database checks.
f. Critical, domestic and hate crime incidents.
g. Property found or handed to officers.
h. Under Section 170 of the Road Traffic Act 1988, where any party insists that the accident is recorded.
I. Arrests and incidents which may give rise to evidence in a criminal offence.
j. Incidents where the officer thinks a complaint will be made (bring to a supervisor notice as soon as possible.)
k. Observations / surveillance where no official log exists.
l. Any information that an officer regards as relevant to any aspect of police work should be recorded. If in doubt, record everything.
The information, which should be recorded at any scene, will vary. The following is a guide to the minimum information required: -
a. Time.
b. Exact location.
c. Occurrence or offence.
d. Name, age (DOB), occupation, address, self-defined ethnicity and telephone number of persons involved.
e. Name, age (DOB), occupation, address, self-defined ethnicity and telephone number of witness/informants.
f. Details of action by police officers and others. 'Direct speech' should be recorded in the pocketbook.
Where a suspect makes any comment, which might be relevant to an offence, (including a reply after caution) the comments must be recorded in the PNB, and where practicable the person shall be given the opportunity to read the record and to certify and sign it as accurate or indicate the respects in which that person considers it inaccurate. Any refusal to sign should be recorded.
Even when there is collaboration, unless the circumstances are for some reason exceptional, each officer should make a note in their own book and not rely on a note in another officer's book. If one officer has no recollection of a point observed or of a remark remembered by a colleague, they should not incorporate such a matter into their book. An entry, whether made in consultation with a colleague or otherwise, must reflect only genuine personal observation and recollection.

It is the responsibility of all officers to keep their PNBs updated. Supervisors are to ensure compliance by inspecting officers' PNBs on a regular basis and endorsing the PNB accordingly.
Officers will retain their current and last two completed PNBs (if less than two years old). All other PNBs should be submitted to District Administration, where they will be stored until two years old. PNBs that are over two years old will be stored in alphabetical order at the Central Archive Facility. Once the PNBs are over seven years old, they will be destroyed as confidential waste.
Overview of the role of CCC: -

1. CCC was formed in January 2008 upon completion of the C3i programme. This saw public telephone contact and control of the deployment of MPS uniform policing assets move from a central Information Room (IR) located at New Scotland Yard; 32 local control rooms. (known within the MPS as CAD (Computer Aided Despatch) Rooms). and three independent Telephone Operator Centres (TOC), to three purpose-built contact and deployment centres located at Lambeth, Hendon, and Bow.
2. CCC now operates within the Public Contact Portfolio of Territorial Policing (TP) as a single Operational Command Unit (OCU). CCC handles all emergency and non-emergency telephony for the MPS, co-ordinates the despatch of initial response to incidents for Borough Operational Command Units (BOCUs), provides command and control infrastructure for major incident and event policing through the Special Operations Room (SOR) and command and control for critical incidents.
On 6 October 1998, BT introduced a new system whereby all the information about the location of the calling telephone was transmitted electronically to the relevant service rather than having to read it out (with the possibility of errors). This system is called EISEC (Enhanced Information Service for Emergency Calls).
"The Communications Provider shall, to the extent technically feasible, make accurate and reliable Caller Location Information available for all calls to the emergency call numbers '112' and '999', at no charge to the Emergency Organisations handling those calls, until the time the call is answered by those organisations."
When a person(s), provide Open reach with a customer's name and address they pass it to BT's 999 Call Handling Service. BT in turn uses that information to route 999 calls and passes the location on to the Emergency Authority (EA). Then the emergency services allocate the order of importance, the information they need is:
Postcode - this route the call to the EA serving that geography and is used by the EA to locate the caller.
End Username for: Consumer -the person most likely to make the call (not always the bill payer).
The End Username recorded and listed on the Emergency Services Database may be different to the Directory Listing and the two details are separate entries on the input xml provided by a CP when placing an order with Openreach.
The separate End Username provided is only used to populate the details held on the Emergency Services Database and assist the emergency services with handling 112 and 999 calls effectively.

For WLR3, Openreach takes responsibility only for passing the address information to the Emergency Services Database.
For MPF, it is the CP's responsibility to pass the address information to the Emergency Services Database.
In a short summery the first CFS caller for services, person that calls any emergency 999 handler will speak to is a B-com operator, B-com accept responsibility for passing the callers location and telephone number on to British Telecom who, then route the incident with the same intelligence already gained to the emergency services desired.
Another issue of concern that I raise within this letter, is in regards to a vast majority of incidents, otherwise known as Cads that have been inter Linked with unrelated incidents and information, that is to say from what I am being accused of at court and that information being supported as hearsay evidence, which has a true outcome of containing incorrect geological address information relating to the Antisocial Behaviour Order (ASBO) application, where on the dates that I do take reference towards, was on the 08th June 2014 at Progress Way Enfield London, where in any sense it would have been impossible for the incident the applicant has been accused of to have played a role that had a negative effect on any other persons way of life. Due to them locations distance being so far apart from one another, as can been seen by the Distance as the Crow Flies and Distance by Land Transport, which does in fact show that the distance between progress way and the initial location of the CFS emergency 999 callers, are too far apart for the respondent accusations for truth to be found upon, so because of this reason they have now been calculated into miles of distance as detailed below and them places are as follows, with geological markers supplied from:-

The above table lists some of the locations from the CADs giving mileage,
There are CADs that have all of the MAP ref blocked out, so these cannot be researched and them Cad's incident numbers are as follows: -

5206:7JUN14: -

The appellant requests, the reply to why would there be a need to block out any cad/ Map data? And for such redactions to be fully disclosed served in a non-edited format

449,

I find it hard to understand with reason, with reference to why police officer(s) would be sent to a location that the person was not at, as it seems. PC Steve Elsmore is trying to imply in his statement dated the 24/09/2016 pages 327 to 332.
Also, there is the matter regarding data blocked out in a multitude of CFS Emergency calls relating to: -
CAD 3151
2410 to list a few more, I can understand some Names and some Addresses but clearly not what I request as disclosure so that I can read what is needed to stand a fair defence, there is clearly a lot more data being blocked out that is vital to the on goings of this case.
There is a problem with Cads missing like linked CAD 2456 /7 shown on many pages as shown on page 290.
The reason given by the respondent in court about explicitly linked to and implicitly linked to CADs seems. very unreliable and could easy be proved by showing the judge these missing CADs are not linked in any way.
In statement of PC Jason Ames dated the 15/08/2014 it states CAD 9717 which related to intelligence, why has this been withheld also?
Using the jurisdictional GIS information and the law enforcement map layers, the dispatcher has a tactical view of the city and/or dispatch area. The map can be controlled by specific CAD commands, such as zoom-and-pan, or pre - set commands, such as zooming to the address of a selected call for service.

The dispatcher can map/view all units and open calls for service for an area or the city. Units and calls are labelled on the map.

Geofile Maintenance: -

The creation of a comprehensive Geofile is a significant undertaking. The system should support the creation and maintenance of the Geofile using an available Mapping / GIS
The Geofile contains the geographic information that is the basis for many decisions in a communications centre. The system needs to provide the ability for an agency to enter and update all Geofile data, including the physical address and the X/Y/Z coordinates.
The Geofile is used to validate and standardize location and address information. It is also used to cross-reference addresses and locations with law enforcement-defined reporting areas, X/Y/Z coordinates, ZIP codes, and other identifiers. The Geofile contains sufficient information to ensure that an address is valid. Furthermore, it provides cross-references to addresses and locations using common place names (e.g., business names, parks, hospitals, and schools) and street aliases.
It includes information such as direction of travel on particular streets and can identify the side of a street for a specific address. It is assumed that all addresses in the RMS. are validated using the system Geofile.

The Time stamps are inaccurate relating to police CAD's Information: -

Inaccuracy's leading to incorrect time stamps contained within the applicant's bundle created by Steve Elsmore on the 13/8/2014.

Clock Synchronization Interface and synchronize all servers and CAD workstations work in Co-Hurst with the Master Time Clock (Net clock). This ensures that each workstation and server provide an accurate time stamp.

Time Protocol (NTP): -

A Network Time Protocol (NTP) server is a reference time server used in a network for the management of precise time to various system devices. The server recognizes all Ethernet devices that request a time source and ensures that the time is distributed properly from machine to machine. In this way every piece of equipment over the network infrastructure with a time display and Ethernet connection will remain uniform and match each other. These servers are internal to a facility and require no breach of a firewall to receive time. When used alone without a master clock, an NTP server solely conveys time to Ethernet devices.

A Master Clock: -

A master clock, on the other hand, does more than convey time to Ethernet devices. It also has the ability to distribute time to multiple different clock systems. or retrofit with existing clocks systems. through its programmable relays. In addition, a master clock is capable of scheduling various incorporated systems. to shut on and off at desired times automatically. All settings of the master clock can easily be configured through an easy-to-use web interface via an internet capable device. Additional functions do not present in an NTP server include Daylight Saving Time changes, 12 or 24-hour formats, and the possibility of adding a countdown feature.

When have you put them together?
Aside from their differences, a master clock and NTP server actually have the ability to work with each other to provide an even better timing solution for a given facility. When the two are paired together, the master clock will receive accurate time from the NTP server to distribute to all clocks in its system, while the NTP server will sync all networked devices to the same time it provides for the master clock. Combining both the capabilities of a master clock and an NTP server ensures that every clock, computer, printer, and any other device with an Ethernet connection will display the exact same time, all while having the added features of a master clock.
Real-Time Mapping: -
All aspects of a CAD system must be optimized for rapid response time and system reliability. Since time is of the essence, the CAD system must accurately provide a data and time stamp for every activity. CAD systems. collect the initial information for an incident and then provide the information to one or more RMS. systems.
Logging: -
CAD will log all actions including security violations and attempted breeches, errors, changes, and updates. Logs should be viewable and searchable by the system administrator.
No CAD voice recordings of the original 999 / 101 calls being made: -
Communications Data Standard Operating Procedure: -
In this document the definition of (CD) will mean Communications Data: -
This Standard Operating Procedure (SOP) establishes procedures that ensures the Police Service of (hereinafter 'Police') manages its acquisition and use of communications data (CD) in accordance with legislation, and the Home Office 'Acquisition and Disclosure of Communications Data' Codes of Practice.
The procedures described in this SOP are founded on the provisions of the Regulation of Investigatory Powers Act 2000, (RIPA) Part 1, Chapter 2 (the Act) which provides a legal basis for the lawful access to CD by public authorities including police forces.
The main purpose of the Act is to ensure that the relevant investigatory powers are used in accordance with ECHR.
The Act requires that human rights principles be followed. Officers must ask themselves the following questions before utilising any of the powers under this Act:

451,

Is the proposed action lawful?
Is the proposed action necessary (for a legitimate aim)?
Is the proposed action proportionate to the crime or incident being investigated (not a sledgehammer to crack a nut)?
Is the proposed action non-discriminatory?
In 2014, the Data Retention and Investigatory Powers Act 2014 (DRIPA) was introduced. This was in response to the European Court of Justice (ECJ) judgment of 8th April 2014 which declared a previous Data Retention Directive (2006/24/EC) invalid. DRIPA makes clear that anyone providing a communications service to customers in the UK, regardless of where that service is provided from, should comply with lawful requests made under the Act and requires relevant companies to retain certain types of CD for up to 12 months, so this may later be acquired by law enforcement and used in evidence.

The Acquisition and Disclosure of Communications Data Code of Practice (CoP) was issued by the Home Office and approved by Parliament on 1 October 2007 and subsequently amended on 25 March 2015. The CoP provides guidance to public authorities on the correct procedures for accessing CD under the provision of the Act. The CoP is deemed admissible in evidence in both criminal and civil proceedings.
Part 1, Chapter 2 Regulation of Investigatory Powers Act 2000 (RIPA) (the Act) defines communication data into three separate types. Number three of three being:
Traffic Data (section 21(4)(a)) – data comprised in or attached to a communication for the purpose of the postal or communication service – incoming call data, cell site / location information, call line identity, and other records. Authorisation
CD may only be sought if a DP believes it is necessary for one or more of the following statutory purposes to which I do claim disclosure towards:
For the purpose of preventing or detecting crime or of preventing disorder (S22(2) b).
For the purpose, in an emergency, of preventing death or injury or any damage to a person's physical or mental health, or of mitigating any injury or damage to a person's physical or mental health (S22(2) g).
To assist investigations into alleged miscarriages of justice (Article 2(a)).
Repeat CFS Caller's: -
There is a clear issue contained within the respondent's application for an Antisocial Behaviour Order (ASBO) order in regard to repeat callers CFS, there is a huge number of instances where a duplicate call in the Antisocial Behaviour Order (ASBO) can be identified, the call handler on the dates of the incidents in question must cross-reference the CAD to the original CFS. The calls must be correctly linked for future retrievability but are not and have still been added to the case file by the developing and investigating police officer in such a way that it is hard for any person to be able to clearly define the difference from each suspected victim and I do not understand how this is fair or correct to display evidence in such a way to gain a Proven plea against any citizen of the state.
Disclosure with Regards to the Communications Data Bill: -
Communications Data Bill is the Bill that provides an updated framework for ensuring the availability of communications data and its obtaining by public authorities. It contains standard provisions in respect of, amongst other things, orders and regulations, commencement, and extent. The new regime replaces Part 1 Chapter 2 of the Regulation of Investigatory Powers Act 2000 ("RIPA") and Part 11 of the Anti-Terrorism Crime and Security Act 2001 ("ACTSA") and sits alongside the Data Retention (EC Directive) Regulations 2009. The Bill is in three Parts.

Under the Data Protection Act 1988 the Met police are to also obliged to release to the any person information it holds about them or their address on any system including the CAD system and Therefore I request all information requested within this official document of complaint.

For Civil Cases to Request a Witness: -

We Request Full Disclosure: -

We request full disclosure of the contents contained in MG6: Case file evidence/information.
We request full disclosure of the contents contained in MG6B: Police officer/staff misconduct records.

All Cads and any Missing Cads, in Unedited Format: -
The Appellant requests copies from the local council authority environmental teams. under the environmental act 1990 this is to disclose any CD relating to a section 80 abatement notice of noise nuisance from amplified music, sighted within the Antisocial Behaviour Order (ASBO) application in pursuit of the respondent.
In regard to MG9: we request the following Witness to attended court.
1. The applicant Needs a Solicitor to help
In regard to MG10: Witness non-availability the applicant requests full disclosure.
We request full disclosure of the police PNB books to all officers sited in events contained in the incidents within the Antisocial Behaviour Order (ASBO) application inclusive of all officers who attended Crown Road and other sited CFS location's addresses.
The Disclosure Process: -
For the purposes of disclosure, "document" means anything on which information of any description is recorded. This includes written material as well as photographs, plans, drawings, and video and sound recordings. Importantly, it also includes any electronic records such as e-mails.
The disclosure process is a statutory duty under the Criminal Procedure and Investigations Act 1996 including Codes of Practice (CPIA). The general rule in English litigation is that the parties should have access to all relevant documents, including those of their adversary. This "cards on the table" approach is also enshrined in the Civil Procedure Rules relating to disclosure.

There is also a Common Law duty on the prosecutor to disclose material before the duty arises under the Act, where it is significant, e.g., a victim's previous convictions or information that might affect a bail decision.
There is also a duty on the police to provide the CPS with information that may mitigate the seriousness of an offence. The investigator must inform the prosecutor as early as possible whether any material weakens the case against the accused.
A party must disclose documents that are, or were in the past, in its control. This means that in addition to having to disclose any documents that are in the actual physical possession of a party, a party must also disclose documents that have been lost or have been disposed prior to litigation. Those documents must be described, and an explanation given of the circumstances in which they were lost or disposed of.
In practical terms, a reasonable search will often involve the retrieval of any relevant files held in a central filing system, by individual staff or from archives or storage, the retrieval of any relevant electronic records and the retrieval of diaries if they are likely to be relevant to any of the issues. The extent of the search which must be made will depend on the circumstances of the case and has to be proportionate to the value of the claim.

When Does the Duty to Disclosure Arise?

Giving disclosure is normally done by each party preparing a list of the documents it is disclosing and serving it on the opposing party. The list of documents must be in a prescribed form and will include the disclosure statement (see below). The list is in three parts:

1. Documents presently in the disclosing party's control which that party does not object to being inspected.

2. Documents presently in the disclosing party's control which that party objects to being inspected.

3. Documents that have been in the disclosing party's control but are no longer the list will give each document a reference number, will specify its date and will give a concise description.

Not everything that is revealed to the CPS will be disclosed to the defence. Generally, a Prosecutor's duty to disclose unused material to the defence is triggered by: A not guilty plea in the magistrates' court, or: -

- A committal, i.e., the service of evidence in an indictable only case sent to the Crown Court under section 51(1) Crime and Disorder Act 1998 or on transfer of a case for trial to the Crown Court.

A person making a false disclosure statement without an honest belief in its truth faces the prospect of contempt of court proceedings. Therefore, it is important that the duty of disclosure is fully understood and complied with.

1.14.4

The duty of disclosure continues as long as proceedings remain, whether at first instance or on appeal.

1.14.5

All of the unused material is revealed to the prosecutor by way of schedules on forms. MG6B, C, D, and E

There is an agreement between the CPS and ACPO that crime reports, and incident logs will be revealed to the CPS as a matter of routine.

Information must be recorded at the time it is obtained / seized, or as soon as is practicable after that, material must be recorded in a durable or retrievable form.

If it is not practicable to retain the original record, e.g., because it forms. part of a larger record which is to be destroyed, the information must be transferred accurately to a durable and easily retrievable form. Photocopies are acceptable. Details of relevant phone calls concerning a case must also be recorded.

Continuing Duty: -

The duty of disclosure continues until the proceedings are concluded. If after serving its list a party becomes aware of further documents that should have been disclosed, it must notify the opposing party by preparing and serving a supplemental list of those documents.

Disclosure Forms: -

1.14.8

There are four different types of disclosure forms. as follows: -

MG6B – This gives details of the discipline record and convictions (if any) of any police officer/member of police staff that is involved in the case. It also includes Penalty Notices for disorder. If no officer/member of police staff has a disciplinary consideration (or conviction) there is no need to put the form on the file, an entry on the MG6 to this effect will suffice. This form can also be used to declare the convictions/disciplinary matters of employees of other investigative agencies on behalf of whom the CPS prosecutes e.g. UK Border Agency.

MG6C – The schedule of relevant non-sensitive material will be disclosed to the defence and any material described on it may also be disclosed to the defence on instruction from the CPS. Material that must be listed on the schedule covers all relevant unused non-sensitive material recorded, retained or generated during the course of an investigation. The exception to this is material seized during the course of a major investigation which has not been examined due to its lack of immediate and apparent relevance to the investigation. This falls outside the CPIA and is not 'unused material' but its existence must be recorded on form MG11 with the appropriate caption, i.e., 'the following material has not been examined by the investigator or disclosure officer and is considered not to fall within the CPIA definition of prosecution material'. If an item of unused material contains both sensitive and non-sensitive material, it must be listed on the MG6C as being an 'edited version' or 'edited' e.g., a pocket notebook entry containing both the personal details of a witness and the circumstances of the arrest. Block out the sensitive part (witness details) on a copy of the original with a dark marker pen (never white correcting fluid). The original must never be marked. Do not list the unedited version on the MG6D.

MG6D – The schedule of relevant sensitive material will not be disclosed to the defence because it is not in the public interest to do so. You must state the reason why the item should not be disclosed to the defence. For example, details that identify an observation post must not be disclosed to the defence. If there is no sensitive material in a case, endorse form MG6D to that effect and submit it with the MG6C and MG6E. Where you think you have material that is very sensitive, such as information from a covert human intelligence source (CHIS), make contact with the prosecutor who will refer you, as necessary, to the appropriate person for advice.

MG6E – Disclosure Officer's Report. On the MG6E the following information must be brought to the attention of the CPS: Material which contains a first description of an offender (Para 7.3 CPIA Code of Practice). or Material which might undermine the prosecution case or assist the defence. The disclosure officer must record on the form the following: Whether the undermining or descriptive information was originally listed on the MG6C or MG6D the original item number from the MG6C or D. Briefly, the reason for it being recorded on the MG6E, e.g. 'Contains first description of suspect', or 'May cast doubt on reliability of witness'.

The prosecutor must always inspect, view or listen to any material that could reasonably be considered capable of undermining the prosecution case against the accused or of assisting the case for the accused. The Disclosure officer may need to consult with and allow the prosecutor to inspect the retained material.

Failure to Disclose: -

Any party's disclosure obligations are governed under the Civil Procedure Rules require it to disclose documents which could be very detrimental to its chances of success, but which the opponent may not know exists until disclosure. This is an onerous obligation, much stricter than that in many other jurisdictions and the extent of these obligations often takes litigants by surprise. In order to ensure that parties comply fully and honestly with their disclosure obligations, the rules provide for very serious consequences where a party fails to comply with those obligations.

Firstly, making a false disclosure statement can potentially put the person making the statement in contempt of court. Secondly, a party's credibility will be seriously weakened if it transpires that it has destroyed or failed to disclose a relevant document, whether or not this omission was deliberate. Thirdly, where a party fails to disclose a document which is damaging to its case and a fair trial is no longer possible, its case may be struck out altogether. Fourthly, deliberate destruction of relevant documents is likely to be a contempt of court and may constitute the offence of attempting to pervert the course of justice. Documents damaging a party's case should not be withheld or destroyed under any circumstances. Finally, where a document was not disclosed, it cannot later be relied on in court except with the court's permission.

It has already been proven and concluded that Steven Elsmore has deleted emails sent to Val Tanner, asking for information as this was stated in the lower court at trial. The applicant knows that for a fact discloser is being held and that disclosure would give credibility to the Appellant innocent.

Preservation of Documents: -

Because of the potential sanctions outlined above, it is important to preserve intact all relevant documents from the time litigation is contemplated. If a party has a routine procedure for destruction of documents, such as the deletion of computer backup files or e-mail, this should be stopped until the documents have been examined by lawyers and confirmed not to be potentially disclosable.

Documents of possible relevance to the pending action must not be destroyed. All persons within an organisation who have responsibility for documents should be made aware of these obligations.

Fraud Act 2006: -

Fraud by failing to disclose information a person is in breach of this section if he: -

(a) Dishonestly fails to disclose to another person the information which he is under a legal duty to disclose, and: -

(b) Intends, by failing to disclose the information: -

(I) To make a gain for himself or another, or: -

(ii) To cause loss to another or to expose another to a risk of loss

The right to Fair Trial: -

Appellant is asking for a Former Judge to examine the role of police officers, who present the applicant cases of an Antisocial Behaviour Order (ASBO) against himself.

The Appellant is asking for this case to be terminated or dismissed under the grounds of Article 6 of the European Convention of Human Rights, with regards to the Right to a Fair Trial Act 1998.

Which in legal terms, should be the best means of separating the guilty from the innocent and protecting against injustice. Without this right, the rule of law and public faith in the justice system collapse. The Right to a Fair Trial is one of the cornerstones of a just society.

Article 6 the Right to a Speedy and Fair Hearing: -

The applicant declares the right to a speedy a fair trial what is fundamental to the rule of law and to democracy itself.

The right applies to both criminal and civil cases, although certain specific minimum rights that are set out in Article 6 applies only in criminal cases.

The right to a fair trial is absolute and cannot be limited. It requires a fair and public hearing within a reasonable time by an independent and impartial tribunal established by law. The procedural requirements of a fair hearing might differ according to the circumstances of the accused.

The right to a fair hearing, which applies to any criminal charge as well as to the determination of civil rights and obligations, contains a number of requirements and I believe the causes below full within them requirements.

The concept of a fair trial involves fairness to the prosecution and to the public as well as to the defendant: DPP v Makin [2006] EWHC 1067.

Data protection Act 1998: -

http://www.legislation.gov.uk/ukpga/1998/29/data.pdf

The Information contained and held on the police Nation computers is not accurate to its information.

Statements of police in the Antisocial Behaviour Order (ASBO) have incorrect information that is being held on the police systems.

Regarding Previous Convictions that should be in respect of the Data Protection Act 1998: -

MG16: Bad character: -

As has: as if to say in a past occurrence of an duration of time and can still: as if in to be explaining to day as present in accordance to the date at the top of this official letter, any person(s) of interest can look inside the case files and openly read a copy of the applicants criminal record otherwise known and named as a "PNC" record, this conferential and official document, Should not be available and is an Abuse of Process as no official MG16 form supporting a Bad character reference has been abused into the Asbo case files.

For this reason, the applicant also reverses his rights of the Rehabilitation of Offenders Act 1974 and states time spent to any convection's.

Any pervious offences contained within do not relate to a similar natured offence such as the respondent has based their case upon.

There is all so an ongoing investigation in relation to errors on his PNC record which are slowly being rectified, there is evidence supplied from the court house in response to the stated ad this will be supplied on request to the relevant persons of interest and there for the applicant does not agree with any records of his criminal record.

MG16: Bad character: -

As has and can also still be seen, is a copy of the applicant's criminal record otherwise known and named as a "PNC" record, this conferential and official document being openly present for any person to read in the Asbo case files is an Abuse of Process as no official MG16 form regarding Bad character supporting a bad character reference has been abused into the case files.

Abuse of Process: -

Abuse of process is defined as something that is so Unfair and wrong with the prosecution that the court should not allow a prosecutor to proceed with what is, in all other respects, a perfectly supportable case (Hui Chi-Ming v R [1992] 1 A.C. 34, PC). 'Unfair and wrong' is for the court to determine on the individual facts of each case.

The inherent jurisdiction for the correct to agree to so for them to stop a prosecution to prevent an abuse of process is to be exercised only in exceptional circumstances: Attorney General's Reference (No 1 of 1990) [1992] Q.B. 630, CA; Attorney General's Reference (No 2 of 2001) [2004] 2 A.C. 72, HL.

The essential focus of the doctrine is on preventing unfairness at trial through which applicant is prejudiced in the presentation of his or her case.

As contained in a copy of the lower court transcripts on the day of trial, while under oath PC Steve Elsmore stated to the district Judge that "Intel would be by open source and checked by an officer but was not done by him." When in fact it is his login that created and printed the applicant's bundle, this can be proved by his signature and also by the computer ID log that must be used to print the data and use the (CD) that is contained within the Police National Computer and now has been submitted and is contained with the applicants bundle and is verified at the top of most of the pages or within the Antisocial Behaviour Order (ASBO) application.

PC Elsmore continued to state under oath that he did not carry out any further investigations in regard to speaking to the owners of any premises to fix that of a notice of trespass or conviction or of two as the codes of practice say the main investigating officer must. He stated "I have not personal spoken to the owners of the venue"

PC Elsmore states under oath "There was a rave on an adjourning Road but not on that day." (Please Take Note Here of inspector Hamill stating under oath that he was sure all locations were to do with progress way on this date.)
"Phone calls received were not relating to Crown Rd Rave on that day.
On the day in question phone calls related to this particular rave. (Progress Way)"
Witness 1 – Inspector Hamill –R. O – 11.15 Am
Statement contained in tab 9-lead.
DEF XEX
Intel would be by open source, checked by an officer but was not done by me.
The rave was taking place indoors.
I have not personal spoken to the owners of the venue. (No true line of investigation to prove trespass)
I only see the D on the Saturday on the evening of the 7th Saturday. (This was in fact early Hours of the 8th at around 1:00am.)
I did not go inside; the gates were closed.
I did not see any vehicles.
D'S Van registration is known to the police, but I would not personally know.
There were vehicles parked but I did not notice whether defendants van was there.
He was not aware of people squatting in that building at that time.
(Hearsay of officers continues D @ venue but (unreadable text) Officer (unreadable text) but is Not present here today.)
There was a rave on an adjourning RD but not on that day. (Please Take Note Here of inspector Hamill stating under oath that he was sure all locations were to do with progress way on this date I believe a copy of his PNB book will prove he attended Crown Road on the same date.)
Phone calls received were not relating to Crown Rd Rave on that day. (But are contained within the respondent's bundle)
On the day in question phone calls related to this particular rave. (Progress Way) (A clear example of abuse of power)
A vast number of CADS that are contained within the respondent bundle representing an Asbo application are printed in Pc Steve Elsmore name and as the leading investigator he would know the truth to what has been concealed and how he complied such intelligence to present any case files.
Contained within them cads printed out by Pc Steve Elsmore is a huge majority of the locations that are retracted in other words (blocked out so no person can see the true locations) This leads to concerns regarding important and relevant aspects of disclosure so for the applicant to be represented at appeal with a fair hearing?)
In fact, crown road is 2 miles away, so quite a far distance from progress way.
Also from research that was gained, from newspaper articles and freedom of information requests made to the local council, that where put in pursuit of a search for the truth, about the true on goings for the dates that the applicant stands wrongfully accused of by way of incidents that are compiled in the respondents bundle and that surely do relate to Crown Road and not progress way, determines the right truth by explaining that there was a completely different incidents reported by CFS callers to a house / ware house party or maybe even a rave that took place and police attendance was requested by them members of the public. The freedom of information request applied to and in receipt from the local council, inclusive of additional evidence such as the local newspaper report/ articles have since been adduced into the applicant's defence bundle and served on the prosecution.

to the on goings another house party a five-minute drive from progress way and if not for the grid numbers being not blocked out inclusive of other landmarks such as A&J cars based in Enfield, I would not have been able to prove my innocents in the on-going application leading to an un fair trial.
CAD number 2410 date 08th June 2014 Page number 288 states different CFS callers reporting incidents with the attached land mark of a well-known building next doors to the initial reason for the emergency CFS call, that land mark produces a running company what is named A& J cars Crown Road, Enfield what is a taxi services and is next doors to the crown road party. "The applicants would not have been able to prove his innocence in this case, cad if it were not for A & J cars being left in the context of the emergency 999 / 101 call, CAD, as for sure the developers of the Antisocial Behaviour Order (ASBO) application, when using such information retracted the true location, giving the intelligence in the cad a fake pretence to be progress way, this is the same for many of the other Cads retracted and contained within the ASBO application.

Termination and a Stay of Proceedings: -

The applicant requests termination of proceedings or a stay of proceedings to be ruled by the court in the ongoing civil proceeding, with immediate effect and in turn terminating or halting further legal process in the Antisocial Behaviour Order (ASBO) appeal. I again ask for the court to subsequently terminate the case or apply a stay and resume proceedings based on events taking place after the stay is ordered.

The Harassment Act 1997: -

The Protection from Harassment Act 1997
The Act was originally introduced to deal with stalking. However, since 1997 it also covers the aspects of conduct, including:
Harassment motivated by race or religion: -
Some types of anti-social behaviour: -
Some forms. of protest.
The Act gives both criminal and civil remedies such as two different criminal offences: -
Pursuing a course of conduct amounting to harassment: -
A more serious offence where the conduct puts the victim in fear of violence.
Harassing any person(s) includes any of the following: - Alarming a person(s) or: - Causing a person(s) distress.
The key element to be contained within an incident is a negative "course of conduct", which can include speech, should normally involve conduct on at least two occasions, although there are exceptions to this.
In addition to the criminal offences, a civil court can impose civil injunctions in harassment cases as well as awarding damages to the victim for the harassment.
Section 1 of the 1997 Act states: - that a person must not pursue a course of conduct which "amounts to harassment of another" and which "he knows or ought to know" amounts to such harassment. Such conduct should lead to a criminal penalty (under section 2).
Section 7(2) of the Harassment Act 1997 states, that, "harassing a person includes alarming the person or causing the person distress". A "course of conduct" is defined in section 7(3) creating an understanding that conduct should be made on at least two occasions.

The definition of a “course of conduct”
Is defined in section 7 of the 1997 harassment Act and makes it clear that the Act protects an individual from collective harassment by two or more people.
The Act provides three possible defences to a charge or allegation of harassment. Where harassment has been proved, the defendant would have to show one of the following: -
1. That the conduct was for the purposes of preventing or detecting crime: -
2. It was pursued under an enactment or rule of law; or: -
3. In the particular circumstances the conduct was reasonable; it is for the courts to decide whether the conduct was in fact reasonable in the circumstances.
Section 2 of the 1997 Act states the following: -
“A person who pursues a course of conduct that is in breach of section 1 is guilty of an offence”.
The offence is subject to a maximum penalty of six months’ imprisonment, or a fine of up to £5,000, or both, and is arrestable. Conduct includes Speech relating towards verbal harassment.
There are three elements of the offence:

There must be a “course of conduct”, not just a single act.
It has to amount to harassment.
The person must know, or ought to know, that the conduct amounts to harassment.
For the last point, section 1(2) makes it clear that the person should know that the conduct amounts to harassment “if a reasonable person(s) in possession of the same information” would think that it did as well.
Harassment Civil Provisions Section 3 of the 1997 Act: -
Permits for a person(s) to take civil proceedings in respect of any on goings of harassment. This includes “apprehended” harassment as well as actual harassment.
In such civil proceedings the applicant can or should seek a “non-harassment” order, and/or damages.
Section 3(2) of the Harassment Act provides for damages to be available for (among other things) ‘any anxiety caused by the harassment and any financial loss resulting from the harassment’.
Section 3(3) makes the breach of a non-harassment order a criminal offence, punishable in the magistrates’ court with up to 6 months' imprisonment, and/or a £5000 fine, or in the crown court with up to 5 years' imprisonment and an unlimited fine.
Noise Abetment Notice Section 80: -
The Councils Environmental Protection Team (EPT) are there to investigate complaints about noise made from certain commercial and licensed premises and events within the Councils boroughs, such as some of the following.
Noise from factories: -
Industrial units: -
Construction sites: - Shops: - Pubs: - Clubs: -
Restaurants and takeaways: -
Noise from residential student blocks/halls of residence, would generally be referred to the university who own the property: -
Low level/minor noise problems. and/or a one off/isolated report suggesting there is not a persistent problem emanating from Housing or social landlord providers property may be referred to Housing or the appropriate landlord for investigation as a possible tenancy breach.

This includes noise from businesses carrying out construction work on domestic property i.e. Noise from businesses carrying out sandblasting on a domestic property.
Where a reporting person(s) or victim submits a noise report for the first time, the noise and nuisance team will endeavour to contact them to acknowledge their report and provide advice to prevent further nuisance. A noise information pack will be sent to them together with a noise nuisance diary. If consent has been provided by the reporting person or victim a letter will be sent to the accused to advise them an allegation has been received. Highlighting to the accused, a problem they may not have been aware they were causing, may be sufficient to resolve the issue at an early stage.
The noise report will be logged as an enquiry within the services customer relations management system (Siebel) if not already done so, updated and closed until either the noise diary is returned, or further reports/evidence are received. Copies of any correspondence sent/received will be uploaded on to the enquiry.
Where noise has been witnessed and deemed unreasonable by an Out of Hours team response officer, for the first time, the noise and nuisance team will endeavour to contact the reporting person or victim to discuss the issue and offer advice. (If not previously provided) and consent sought to send a warning letter to the occupier/s at the address where the noise was witnessed.

Reports where noise has been witnessed are always considered on their merits, and a case may be opened, and further enforcement action taken as appropriate.
Cases will be opened where noise is deemed a statutory nuisance that could warrant a Section 80 Noise Abatement Notice being served or where noise is witnessed on a second occasion and is deemed a potentially persistent problem.
The following evidence may be used to support a noise nuisance investigation, however, does not solely determine what constitutes a statutory noise nuisance. Professional judgement is necessary to decide if the complaint can be considered a statutory nuisance.
Evidence, which may be used to support an investigation, includes.
Noise diaries: -
Calls to the Council and the Out of Hours service to report that the noise is Ongoing: - Visits by officers and Out of Hours service to witness the noise: -
Witness statements from officers/Out of Hours officers and the reporting Person/victim: - Evidence from noise monitoring equipment.
Noise Diaries: -
Noise diaries completed by the reporting person or victim(s) can assist the noise and nuisance team in deciding whether the problem is actionable or reasonable by providing details of.
The nature of the problem: -
The frequency, time of day and nature of the noise.
Where an abatement notice is to be served, this should be drafted and served within 7 days, starting with the day on which the relevant officer was first satisfied that the nuisance existed, or was likely to occur or recur.
Where an abatement notice is to be served, this should be drafted and served within 7 days, starting with the day on which the relevant officer was first satisfied that the nuisance existed, or was likely to occur or recur.
MOTIVE – deliberately using noise to cause annoyance or distress, the noise and nuisance team will consider the circumstances under which the noise was witnessed.

Is the behaviour reasonable?
Is it intentional?
Can it be controlled?
Has the accused failed to comply with a previous request to abate the nuisance?
THE NOISE AND NUISANCE TEAM recognises that there is no set decibel limit that needs to be exceeded for noise to be categorised as a 'statutory nuisance'. Noise that could potentially be a statutory nuisance includes.
Loud music: -
Loud TV: -
Loud parties: -
Playing musical instruments: -
D.I.Y at unreasonable hours: -
Dogs barking for prolonged periods: -
Cockerels crowing: -
Alarms: -
By way of example, loud music which occurs every other day for a few hours after midnight is likely to be a nuisance, a cockerel crowing in an urban garden at 5am most summer mornings could be a nuisance and deliberate banging which occurs solely to cause irritation could also be a nuisance.
If the noise and nuisance team need to gain entry to a property to carry out a seizure of noise making equipment or for the silencing of an internal alarm, an application will be made to the Magistrates Court for a warrant to do so.

Where an internal alarm is sounding, and a breach of the notice has been witnessed a warrant is required to gain access to the property in order to silence the alarm and abate the nuisance.
Where it is intended that the noise and nuisance team will be undertaking a seizure of noise making equipment from a property, it is likely that entry would be refused if attending at the property without a warrant. Such action would then make the occupiers aware of the intention to seize noise making equipment, with the potential for items. to be removed from the property before officers are able to return with a warrant.
The officer should attend at the court number given or if not given a court number go to the listings office to find the relevant court number. Once in court the officer should present only the application and the 3 warrants to the court clerk. The officer should have the abatement notice, OOH reports, witness statements and any other relevant information in case they are requested by the court. Proceedings will be as follows.
The officer will be sworn in and will then present the application.
- The magistrate will then ask any questions they feel are relevant.
- If the warrant is granted all 3 copies of the warrant will be signed.
- The noise and nuisance team keep the applicant's copy.
- The occupier's copy is left at the seizure/alarm address once the works have been carried out.

The court's copy is returned to the court after the seizure/alarm silencing has taken place with the second page of the warrant completed.
Seizing Noise Equipment (Seizures): -
The Council's principal power to seize noise equipment is contained in section 81(3) of the Environmental Protection Act 1990. The Act states: 'Where an abatement notice has not been complied with the local authority may, whether or not they take proceedings for an offence under section 80(4), abate the nuisance and do whatever may be necessary in execution of the notice'.

Following a breach of an Abatement Notice the case officer will discuss with the noise and nuisance team Supervisors/Managers as to whether it is appropriate to send a PACE letter (refer to section 10.0) to the person on whom the notice was served or a letter of intention to prosecute advising that legal proceedings are being considered.
The applicant is now left with the understanding that the Antisocial Behaviour Order (ASBO) application was created in the understanding that by pc Steve Elsmore and other officers acting in such a manner of the claims. listed within this document and or by allowing other officers to use his id logging to gain such wrongful and illegal convections they did do so upon oath to the legal services, new Scotland yard London sw1h bog Reference number L/107087/sag and stated that they was sure that the defendant was responsible for the acts to which particulars had been given, in respect to the complaints made and developed by them self's which are all concealed within the Antisocial Behaviour Order (ASBO) application, in turn knowingly and deliberately while intentionally misusing his or hers and their powers of conduct, while and with complete disregard for law and associated regulations, to aid in a manner to which was reckless and caused extreme disregard for the applicants and other human life's, creating a breach of many human rights as some are listed within this document in accordance towards the relevant issues of concern in regards to accountably breaches. The rights to respect for each person(s) Human right "Articles" are of fundamental importance. Any invasion of the rights must be strongly justified.
All "public authorities" for the purposes of the Human Rights Act 1998, are directly subject to the legal obligation imposed by section 6 of that Act to act compatibly with Convention rights, the state cannot discharge its obligations under ECHR Article 8 in relation to the retention and storage of data.
ASBO is disproportionate: -
The applicant states that the Antisocial Behaviour Order (ASBO) is disproportionate and it prevents him from engaging in lawful business. The Antisocial Behaviour Order (ASBO) prevents the applicant from applying for licenses to hold events within each local council's boroughs, without alerting each individual council of the offence imposed upon himself, named "The organising of illegal raves" being present as a convection, as this is relevant to the information required by the local councils as for the nature of the offence.

Any other person(s) would be treated different and would not have to sit on an official special committee at a board room meeting in relation to each different ward licensing that is being applied for due to this convection, as the applicant now has to do because of the similarity of the offence that is being put towards the application for event licensing.
An Antisocial Behaviour Order (ASBO) order must not be classed as a criminal record as procedure rules and the guidance applied states, but due to the description of the respondent's accusations all rules do not legally comply.
And due to this the applicant has emailed each individual council; ward and was put in receipt information by each relevant department, the official documents raise the issue of concern regarding a statement dated 10/02/2016 what was written by Miss Lorraine Cordell, which a no fault of the applicants own, does not seem to be in the Appellant's Bundle and clearly should have been, which proves the fact that a mutable amount of calls was made by Miss Lorraine Cordell in seeking a response from Local councils and police forces licensing teams, so to obtain information stating weather the Appellant would be able to get licensing for events he wanted to manage, the reply back (please read enclosed statement as exhibit sc1)

The Appellant who is in receipt of the official documents received will state that it has been explained by all councils that whilst he is subject to an ASBO order relating to the entertainment industry he will be prohibited from applying for any entertainment license and any license application will automatically fail and therefore this is disproportionate.
The applicants mother did an updated statement that is dated 10/02/2016 the reason being due to what was written within the Skeleton Argument for the Respondent: Page 5 section 20:
"As to the particular prohibitions endorsed upon the applicant and the respondent stating, significant effort was made by the Respondent and by the court to ensure that any legitimate business activities that the Appellant wished to undertake would in no way be inhibited by this order. For the Appellant to provide recorded music to a gathering of people he would either need to have a license for that event or to provide the music on a licensed premise for fewer than 500 people with a general license to play recorded music (sec s.1 and Sch. l of the Licensing Act 2003). This order specifically does not preclude him from providing regulated entertainment under the auspices of a valid license."
This is a breach of the applicant's human right as he should not need a license to play music in private air unless he is charging money with a view of making a profit. Corruption is an enormous obstacle to the realization of all human rights — civil, political, economic, social and cultural, as well as the right to development. The core human rights principles of transparency, accountability, non-discrimination and meaningful participation, when upheld and implemented, are the most effective means to fight corruption. In 2013, the Human Rights Council requested its expert Advisory Committee to submit a research-based report to the Council at its twenty-sixth session in June 2014 on the issue of the negative impact of corruption on the enjoyment of human rights, and to make recommendations on how the Council and its subsidiary bodies should consider this issue (resolution 23/9). The Advisory Committee submitted its final report on the issue of the negative impact of corruption on the enjoyment of human rights in 2015 (A/HRC/28/73).
The applicant has designed a business plan, this creates community events leading to an international festival and that sets out clearly the plans for events including marketing, safety, stalls etc. and also specifically refer to co-operating with the police. The ASBO prevents such applications from being successful.

The applicant will state that he was never involved in the organisation of any illegal raves as sighted in the respondents bundle and as defined under section 63 of the CJPOA 1994.
The applicant will state "that he was not rude to police but does feel like he cannot even go out for the day, with some of his friends, without getting stopped and searched by members of the police.

I Mr. S Cordell: -- made a phone call to the Enfield Council's supposed to be reasonable persons I spoke to a case handler named Lemmy Nwabuisi. He and his colleges had been harassing my mother with fabricated claims. to protect their team members Pat and Steve, whom had both illegally fabricated statements of truth and created a falsified Asbo application against me in pursuit of stopping me by any means necessary from showing the general public the truth of what they had done, as I can. When on the phone as can be heard I asked Lemmy to go on the computer and check what the last fake allegation is against me and also asked him to provide the date and time, he did do as I requested and because of this I explained to him that the accused allegations were out of the time limit Act 1980, on top of me being an innocent person.

06/03/2017: 08/02/2017:
I visited Mr. Mathiyalagan at 117 Burncroft Avenue today to look at the flooring following email from Mrs Cordell concerning noise as a result of wood flooring in the flat. I noticed that there is laminate flooring in the whole fiat and ceramic tiles in the kitchen. Mr. Mathiyalagan stated that the flooring was already in the flat when they moved in. He stated that they do not make noise deliberately and that any noise from his flat is household noise. He also stated that as far as he is aware that the person living below them, we not complained of noise and that he will be the one that will be affected if there are excessive notices from his flat'. He also stated that he has asked the man if they are causing noise disturbances and he said they are not. He also requested that Mr. Cordell should contact the council if he is being disturbed by noise from his flat instead of harassing him and his family by banging on his front door, shouting abuse at him and his wife, threatening them and confronting them when they come into the block.

I informed him that laminate flooring can generate some noise and to be mindful of his neighbours while walking around inside his fiat I then went and knocked at flat 113 but there was no response.

He asked why did not stop when he ran after me and I told him that I had another visit and did not have the time to stop and talk to him. He stated that he will not attend the meeting at the Civic Centre or any of the council and that I should come to his flat. I offered to have the meeting at a neutral venue like the local library or even at his mother's house, but he refused and shouted to shout abuse and accuse me of taking sides with his neighbours. handler named Lemmy Nwabuisi. He and his colleges had been harassing my mother with fabricated claims. to protect their team members Pat and Steve, whom had both illegally fabricated statements of truth and created a falsified Asbo application against me in pursuit of stopping me by any means necessary from showing the general public the truth of what they had done, as I can. When on the phone as can be heard I asked Lemmy to go on the computer and check what the last fake allegation is against me and also asked him to provide the date and time, he did do as I requested and because of this I explained to him that the accused allegations were out of the time limit Act 1980, on top of me being an innocent person."

Summary!
My Heart has really started to hurt me every day, I am having an early aged mild heart attacks because of what Debra Andrews and the Mathiyalagan Markandu family as well as stain Curtis and George Quinton get and got away with, inclusively of what the police and local council members are getting away with each day by holding me hostage with no first hand witness and then on allowing my estate members to carry out their hate crime in a cover up to send me crazy or to an early death by flushing the toilet below me and bagging at me causing me sufferings and no peace also letting the named attack me when I am in the bathtub and getting undressed and this does not stop their I continue to get assaulted with the water taps getting slammed on and off causing a loud bagging sound at a fast rate and slamming object and or jumping on the floorboards above my head damaging my work studies and private family life and making me a Vulnerable person!

I have also had a lot of problems. with eating because of what they keep all doing to me!
My dog has eating its paws because of what 113 – 117 and 111 are getting away with I have taken pictures of the damage this is doing to us in this flat!

To Whom It May Concern:
I am writing this email to find out who is dealing with my case, I have made phone calls to find out so I can have the paperwork sent to me via this email. I would also like an update as to the bail to return custardy record of the 14/08/2016, as it seems. the police officer in charge of that case never started the bail to return custardy record of the 14/08/2016 but yet I was interviewed for this on the 04/10/2016 and charged at 03:15 hours on the 05/10/2016, this would have been well out of time of the 24 hours' time limit they have as I had already done around 21 hours in custardy on the 14/10/2016. I feel them using the new arrest I was arrested for on the 04/10/2016 not to be correct to have interviewed me for the case of the 14/08/2016, I would be most grateful if someone could please get back to me with an update and could all the files be sent to me via this email including the custardy records for the 14/08/2016 and the 04/10/2016.

I interviewed the Complainant. He reported that the issues have been ongoing for about 18 months (He, his wife and daughter have lived Burncroft Avenue in temporary accommodation provided Waltham Forest DC for 2.5yrs). Please see attached notes of interview - The complainant is really frightened for his family - Mr. Cordell is very aggressive and has previously kicked him in the nose/face and threatened to hit him with a piece of wood; his wife is so scared that she accompanies him to work and waits in the car with their daughter for his shifts.

I visited Mr. Mathiyalagan at 117 Burncroft Avenue today to look at the flooring following email from Mrs Cordell concerning noise as a result of wood flooring in the flat. I noticed that there is laminate flooring in the whole fiat and ceramic tiles in the kitchen. Mr. Mathiyalagan stated that the flooring was already in the flat when they moved in. He stated that they do not make noise deliberately and that any noise from his flat is household noise. He also stated that as far as he is aware that the person living below them, we not complained of noise and that he will be the one that will be affected if there are excessive notices from his flat'. He also stated that he has asked the man if they are causing noise disturbances and he said they are not. He also requested that Mr. Cordell should contact the council if he is being disturbed by noise from his flat instead of harassing him and his family by banging on his front door, shouting abuse at him and his wife, threatening them and confronting them when they come into the block.

I informed him that laminate flooring can generate some noise and to be mindful of his neighbours while walking around inside his fiat I then went and knocked at flat 113 but there was no response.

By the time I returned to the office, Mr. Cordell had telephoned me several times. I telephoned him back and he wanted to know whether I was the person that posted a letter through his letterbox, and I said yes. He asked why did not stop when he ran after me, and I told him that I had another visit and did not have the time to stop and talk to him. He stated that he will not attend the meeting at the Civic Centre or any of the council and that I should come to his flat. I offered to have the meeting at a neutral venue like the local library or even at his mother's house, but he refused and shouted to shout abuse and accuse me of taking sides with his neighbours. He denied doing the things that he is accused of doing and stated that he is the victim and that the council have refused to deal with his complaints against his neighbours. He stated that he has been suffering noise disturbances from his neighbours since he moved into his flat and that the council have refused to deal with it, He alleged that the council is conniving with the police to victimise him and threatened to put in a complaint. against me. He continued shouting abuse and will not Set me say a word. I then advised him that I will have to terminate the conversation as we were getting nowhere,

Care Coordinator: SOOBAH APPADOO- Allocated August 2018
Report prepared by: SOOBAH APPADOO
Sources of Information: Electronic Documentation on Rio Nearest Relative: Ms. Cordell (mother)
Date of this report: 7th November 2018
Who you are and in what capacity you know the patient, how long you have worked with them: My name is SOOBAH APPADOO?
I am a CPN with the above-named team. I have been asked to compile this social circumstance report in support of above-named patient's Mental Health Review Tribunal (MHRT) appeal against his detention under Section 2 of the Mental Health Act. Mr. Cordell was admitted on section 2 on the 26th of October 2018.

Mr. Cordell was previously under the care of the Early Intervention Team for 3 years. The Early Intervention Team discharged him in June 2018 and at that point he was referred to our team. There is a suggestion on RIO notes that he did not engage well with that team.
I was allocated to Mr. Cordell in August 2018. We offered him an appointment at his flat on the 31st of August. Mr. Cordell rang our office the day before and spoke to me. I informed him that I am his new Care Coordinator. He said that he had been seen for "76 days by his CC" and there was "nothing wrong with me". He said that the reason we want to see him is to "cover for missing signatures?". He said he "will ruin anyone who come to my house" and he has "recording cameras and audios" to ruin us. He said if you come to my house "I fucking will scar you for life". He used foul languages throughout this contact. He said that I "can take the fucking referral and stick it up my ass". He said that he does not want to see us. I could not interrupt him: very verbally aggressive with pressure in speech". I did manage to say that we are a different team from Lucas House, and we want him to have a fresh start- He said, "I don't fuck care."
Further to that the MDT advised that we should assess Mr. Cordell in clinic due to the potential risks. We then offered him an appointment on the 28th of September which Mr. Cordell did not attend.

Barnet, Enfield, and Haringey Mental Health NHS Trust

My report is based on the information which I have extracted from RIO and my telephone conversation with Mr. Cordell's mother.

Psychiatric history

On the 16th of August 2016 Mr. Cordell was admitted to CFH under Section 2 of the MHA. He was discharged on the 27th of August 2016. According to RIO notes Mr. Cordell "was arrested at his home address after his mother raised concerns about his mental state - he was allegedly verbally threatening towards his neighbour and (?) neighbour's children. Simon's mother called police who arrested him. He was seen by the FME at Wood Green police station, was then referred for MHA."
He appealed against his Section. The Mental Health Review Tribunal discharged him from Section 2 on the 26th of August 2016.

Leading to current admission

As I stated above leading to this admission Mr. Cordell did not attend appointments offered to him by our service. Subsequently due to the allegations made against him I was advised to attend a Safeguarding meeting for an alleged victim. In that meeting I was informed by the Council that Mr. Cordell has a past and current history of physical and verbal aggression towards residents in the building. I was informed that the council has tried to work with Mr. Cordell but to no avail. I was informed that Mr. Cordell was getting easily irritated even by the sound of a flushing toilet; this happened very recently, and he threatened the resident concerned. The Council was of the opinion that these are signs of mental illness and suggested that BEH should proceed with a MHA. The Council argued that this is for the protection of others as well as Mr. Cordell's own safety.
Subsequently the council sent us a copy of 'Anti-Social Behaviour, Tenancy concerns and breaches- pre-action letter' which contained a chronology of alleged incidents dating from 2016. These alleged incidents were in the meaning of an antisocial behaviour presentation.

On the 17th of October Mr. Cordell was discussed in our MDT meeting. A decision was made to conduct an MHA. An MHA was attempted on the 19th of October. Mr. Cordell did not cooperate, and the assessment did not take place.

On the 23rd of October, an application for a warrant was made but was declined on the grounds "that there was insufficient recent evidence that he was being "kept under proper control" as he is living alone and "insufficient recent medical evidence that "he is unable to care for himself.
According to RIO, on the 25th of October Mr. Cordell was arrested for breaching a harassment order. It was alleged that he was aggressive towards the police and spat at them. He was assessed at the police station. On interview he had pressure of speech, delusions about his neighbours and the police and housing ganging up against him. He denied drug use. He said that does not have a mental disorder. The doctors who assessed Mr. Cordell found him "hypomanic, with flight of speech, grandiose and thought disordered."

Forensic history
Nil known.

Risk History
According to the Risk Assessment on RIO notes Mr. Cordell had expressed suicidal thoughts in the past. This was related to stress from court cases. The date is not stated in the Risk Assessment. Around that time, he said that he had researched ways of harming himself (poisoning, OD, hanging). He had said in the past that he tried to hang himself aged 16 when he was in a young offender's institute. He had said that he needed resuscitation. He tried to hang himself a second time after he was sentenced by a judge aged 20. He had said that he drank Nitrous Oxide in 2014 with intent to die.
According to his Risk Assessment he was regularly a victim or witness of his father's violent behaviour.
There are recent reports from the Council regarding alleged aggressive behaviours towards other residents. In June 2018 he was apparently involved in court case with the neighbours who he apparently threatened to harm.

Social circumstances
Personal History
Mr. Cordell is single. He has a partner. He has no children. He was born in Enfield and did his schooling in Edmonton. Left school aged 16. He studied and worked in mechanics and road works, electrical and computers after he left school (mother's report)
Accommodation
Mr. Cordell lives in a 1-bedroom flat on the ground floor. The flat has necessary amenities/facilities to allow independent living.
Employment
He is not currently in employment Finances.
He claims. ESA and needs to make an application for PIP.

Views of family
I telephoned Ms. Cordell on the 7th of November 2018. Ms. Cordell told me that neighbours have been "terrorising" his son since 2014 in particular a neighbour on the 2nd floor. Ms. Cordell told me that whilst her son is in hospital her nephew has been staying in the flat to look after the dog. The nephew has reported that the occupier on the 2nd floor have been "banging" on the floor. She said that the neighbour then realised that her son is not in the flat when they saw the nephew coming out of Mr. Cordell's flat. She told me that since the 26th of October the "banging" has stopped. She said that she has complained about the neighbour herself but thinks these situations are misinterpreted by the council and the mental health services and her son is then seen as the perpetrator and or being mentally unwell. Ms. Cordell stated that the sound proofing is lacking, and the noise is real. Other neighbours have made allegations that Mr. Cordell has been aggressive towards them. She said that there is no evidence of this; police have seen CCTV and found that her son had not left the flat at the time when these incidents were alleged to have happen. Ms. Cordell gave another example in 2016 where it was alleged by a neighbour that her son had made threats to kill him. She said that the police initially charged her son with making threats to kill; after seeing video evidence they charged him with a 'Public Order Offence.' She said that around the time of this alleged incident her son was in his flat with some friends. Her son was not allowed to his flat and was bailed to her flat where he stayed until December 2016. She said that the CPS after seeing evidence dismissed the case a day before the trial. She said that the council has never taken the responsibility to look at evidence; the allegations made against her son (physical assault, letting his dog on the loose) have not been proven. She said that on the 9th of August in court the Judge ordered Enfield Council to move her son to a 2-bedroom flat but the Council wants/plans to evict him instead. She said that the Council has no grounds to apply for her son's eviction.

She said that her son has a one-bedroom flat. She said that he does not want to live there. She said that he needs a 2-bedroom flat with the plan that his cousin could stay with him to provide emotional support. She said that her son has everything he needs in the flat. She told me that her son is very independent in activities of daily living; his personal care is extremely good; he cooks for himself, maintains the flat and takes responsibility for his bills. She told me that he has no financial difficulties/no debts.

She said that her son has a work history. In 2010 he was planning to set up a business in the entertainment industry. He has also built websites in relation to this. At present he is not in employment. He is in receipt of Employment Support Allowance but needs to make an application for Personal Independent Payment.

I asked her if she thinks her son has a mental illness; she told me that he suffers from stress and anxiety due to issues with the neighbours but does not think he has a mental illness. She said that the judged looked at evidence and did not grant a warrant in October 2018 for a mental health act to take place at her son's flat.

I asked Ms. Cordell if she thinks her son could benefit from support from the community team. She said that he could do with some support but "we should stop labelling him as being delusional as he is not delusional."

After-Care

Potentially Mr. Cordell care/treatment would be delivered via the Care Programme Approach. I am the allocated Care Coordinator, and he will have a responsible clinician in the community.

My role would be first of all to build a relationship with Mr. Cordell as I have only met him on 2 occasions. I will try to motivate him to engage with myself and the multidisciplinary team. As his Care Coordinator I will review Mr. Cordell regularly independently and with the Community RC.

We have a Team Clinical Psychologist, and it would be vital for Mr. Cordell to have some form of talking therapy. This is on the basis of the stress and anxiety that his mother states he suffers from.

We have a Dual Diagnosis Worker in the team who could offer drug counselling if necessary.

We have an organisation called 'Remploy' which is funded by the Local Authority. Potentially they could support Mr. Cordell to find work. They meet regularly with clients whilst they are in work and also liaise with employers.
I could support Mr. Cordell in making an application for PIP. Alternatively, he could get that support from 'Enfield Well-Being Connect.'
The Mental Health Enablement Team could provide support in tenancy management as well as support to access education/training and work.
Opinion and recommendations
I have met Mr. Cordell on two occasions only and I have not had the opportunity to assess him in the community. A rapport needs to be established with him.
On the basis of recent events, history of risks to self and alleged risks towards others and taking into account the views of the MDT on the ward I think that he would benefit from a longer stay in hospital. This is in-order for the MDT to assess him comprehensively to determine if he has a severe and enduring mental illness such as schizophrenia/psychosis. If it is determined that he has a severe mental illness then this should be treated accordingly whilst he is in hospital.

I visited Mr. Mathiyalagan at 117 Burncroft Avenue to day to look at the flooring following email from Mrs Cordell concerning noise as a result of wood flooring in the flat. I noticed that there is laminate flooring in the whole flat and ceramic tiles in the kitchen. Mr. Mathiyalagan stated that the flooring was already in the flat when they moved in. He stated that they do not make noise deliberately and that any noise from his flat is household noise. He also stated that as far as he is aware that the person living below them-), we not complained of noise and that he will be the one that will be affected if there are excessive issues from his flat. He also stated that he has asked the MAU-'f they are causing noise disturbances arid he said they are not. He also requested that Mr. Cordell should contact the council if he is being disturbed by noise from his flat instead of harassing him and his family by banging on his front door, shouting abuse at him and his wife, threatening them and confronting them when they come into the block.
I informed him that laminate flooring can generate some noise and to be mindful of his neighbours while walking around inside his flat-
I then went and knocked at flat 113 but there was no response.

17/02/2017:

I visited 109 Burncroft Avenue on 17/03/2017 to hand deliver to post a letter through Mr. Cordell's door and as I got into my car to drive off after posting the letter, Mr. Cordell ran after me shouting and screaming abuse. I did not stop to speak to him, and he ran after me until I turned left into Green Street. As he was running after my car, he was shouting at people passing by to stop the car.
By the time I returned to the office, Mr. Cordell had telephoned me several times. I telephoned him back and he wanted to know whether I was the person that posted a letter through his letterbox, and I said yes. He asked why I did not stop when he ran after me, and I told him that I had another visit and did not have the time to stop and talk to him. He stated that he will not attend the meeting at the Civic Centre or any of the council and that I should come to his flat. I offered to have the meeting at a neutral venue like the local library or even at his mother's house, but he refused and shouted to shout abuse and accuse me of taking sides with his neighbours. He denied doing the things that he is accused of doing and stated that he is the victim and that the council have refused to deal with his complaints against his neighbours. He stated that he has been suffering noise disturbances from his neighbours since he moved into his flat and that the council have refused to deal with it. He alleged that the council is conniving with the police to victimise him and threatened to put in a complaint - against me, He continued shouting abuse and will not let me say a word, I then advised him that I will have to terminate the conversation as we were getting nowhere.
05/05/2017:
Mr. Mathiyalagan telephoned me to report that Mr. Cordell went to his fiat while he was at work and his wife was at home with his cousin and daughter and started to bang on his door and shout abuse and threats. I am writing this email to find out who is dealing with my case, I have made phone calls to find out so I can have the paperwork sent to me via this email. I would also like an update as to the bail to return custardy record of the 14/08/2016, as it seems. the police officer in charge of that case never started the bail to return custardy record of the 14/08/2016 but yet I was interviewed for this on the 04/10/2016 and charged at 03:15 hours on the 05/10/2016, this would have been well out of time of the 24 hours' time limit they have as I had already done around 21 hours in custardy on the 14/10/2016. I feel them using the new arrest I was arrested for on the 04/10/2016 not to be correct to have interviewed me for the case of the 14/08/2016, I would be most grateful if someone could please get back to me with an update and could all the files be sent to me via this email including the custardy records for the 14/08/2016 and the 04/10/2016.

Summary!

My Heart has really started to hurt me every day, I am having an early aged mild heart attacks because of what Debra Andrews and the Mathiyalagan Markandu family as well as stain Curtis and George Quinton get and got away with, inclusively of what the police and local council members are getting away with each day by holding me hostage with no first hand witness and then on allowing my estate members to carry out their hate crime in a cover up to send me crazy or to an early death by flushing the toilet below me and bagging at me causing me sufferings and no peace also letting the named attack me when I am in the bathtub and getting undressed and this does not stop their I continue to get assaulted with the water taps getting slammed on and off causing a loud bagging sound at a fast rate and slamming object and or jumping on the floorboards above my head damaging my work studies and private family life and making me a Vulnerable person!

I have also had a lot of problems. with eating because of what they keep all doing to me!

My dog has eaten its paws because of what 113 – 117 and 111 are getting away with I have taken pictures of the damage this is doing to us in this flat!

  t/c to Lorraine, Simon's mother and I asked if I could speak with him. Lorraine told me that Simon was sleeping but I could clearly hear him say that he did not wish to speak with me. I asked Lorraine about Simon's court case. He was due to report to court for sentencing on 17 and Lorraine did not answer and rather asked if I could get Simon moved from his current accommodation. I said to Lorraine that Simon should contact me to discuss his housing needs. Lorraine then said that Simon agreed to call me tomorrow to discuss his housing.
  I did not have time and opportunity to ask about Simon's mental state and mood. Or whether or not he is taking medication.

Threats and intimidation (General)
Perpetrator has been harassing complainant for a while in relation to alleged noise nuisance. Yesterday evening the perpetrator was banging on the ceiling (the complainant lives above perpetrator) and then came upstairs and tried to kick the door in. He was very aggressive, shouting through the door. He then went outside, dragged the complainant's motorcycle from its parking space and started smashing it up. The police were called, and the perpetrator was arrested.

16/12/2016: I met with Mr. Quinton today at the Civic Centre to discuss his complaints against Mr. Simon Cordell. Mr. Quinton stated that the problems. started soon after he moved into the block in April 2016. He stated that soon after he moved into his flat, he went around to SC's flat to introduce himself. After he introduced himself, SC said to him that there is some kind of war going on between him and other neighbours. SC also told him that he has got a load of issues with the police and that he was trying to.

sue them because he felt that they were treating him unfairly. He told SC that he was a musician and that he does not want anything to do with his issues.
Straight after he moved in, SC will come up to his flat at least once a week to shout at him and complain about loud banging from his flat and knocking pipes. SC would accuse him of making noise on purpose to wind him up and he will always explain to him that it is not true, that he does not make any banging noises inside his flat and that he cannot explain why the pipes were making knocking noises.
Mr. Quinton stated that on 4/10/16, he was sleeping when SC started to bang on his ceiling, but he ignored him. SC then came up and started kicking at his door and he still ignored him. SC then went downstairs, dragged Mr. Quinton's motorbike from where he parked it, threw it on the ground and started to hit it with what he believed to be a mop pole, he is not sure how many times he hit it. He then called the police, and they came and took him away, CAD No. 3309/4 Oct. 2016.
On 11/12/16, SC came up to his flat 3 times to shout abuse and complain about noise from his flat.
Mr. Quinton explained that the first time, he was running a bath when SC came and knocked on the door to complain about knocking pipes. He did not open the door and he shouted abuse at him and his friends and called them homophobic names. He later came back again to bang on his door and shout further abuse. He also made threatened him and his exact words are 'I'm off curfew in 12 days, when I'm, I am coming for you', he shouted further abuse and walked off. Mr. Quinton stated that he is not sure why he came back the second time, but he assumed that it was because of the pipes again. He later came back again the third time and this time he opened the door because he has had enough. SC complained about noise from his flat and he told him that he was not making any noise. SC then went on to tell him that he has been away for a long time and that his family was coming to look after his dog. He asked SC if he knew anything about his bike and SC replied, 'You know what, I'm a grown man I'm not goanna lie, it was me that smashed your bike and I was gutted that the stick broke and I couldn't smash it up more'. He then asked SC about his tyres which was punctured with a knife, and he denied cutting them. He then explained to SC that the knocking pipes has nothing to do with him and that he does not bang or make deliberate noise and he advised SC to play his music over the noise if it happens again as there is nothing he can do about the pipes and the noise as it is the nature of the building. SC said cool, fair enough and walked off and as he walked off, he turned around and gave him a dirty look.

About a week later, 2 of his friends left his flat and a short while later he heard SC running out of the front door. Soon after one of his friends called and told him that they have just had a confrontation with SC in the street. His friend informed him that SC ran up to them in the street and confronted his friend Jazz about the knocking pipe noises from his flat. Jazz told SC that it has nothing to do with him. SC then head-butted Jazz and as Jazz fell on the floor, SC jumped on top of him and started to punch him. His other friend Jevon who was with Jazz at the time pulled SC off Jazz and held him until 2 Turkish men came and separated them.
Mr. Quinton stated that the police did not contact him to update him on what action was taken against SC regarding his smashed bike. He stated that he has recording of SC admitting to smashing up his bike and played the recording to me. Although it was very faint, but you could make out what sounded like SC talking about smashing the bike. He stated that he wants to sue SC for criminal damage, he also wants to take out a restraining order against him and possibly an injunction.
He stated that his friends Simon Cocks (07393285528), Julian Jackson (07387277163) and Jazz Bramble (07375651241) are willing to provide witness statements and will attend court to give evidence on his behalf. He also wants us to find out why what action the police took regarding his smashed bike.

movements in his flat. She feels petrified by his presence and as a result refused to leave her flat for fear bumping into him on her way out. She has missed a few appointments with her social worker as a result, she has now been subjected to making home appointments pending the time this matter is resolved. She explained that they use to be acquaintances before the relationship went sour. She believes the whole problem started when he claimed the decoration in his flat was damaged as a result of a leak coming from her flat. She confirmed that she had a leak from her overflow a few months ago which has since been repaired but, the damage alleged had occurred.

Threats and intimidation (General)

Perpetrator has been harassing complainant for a while in relation to alleged noise nuisance. Yesterday evening the perpetrator was banging on the ceiling (the complainant lives above perpetrator) and then came upstairs and tried to kick the door in. He was very aggressive, shouting through the door. He then went outside, dragged the complainant's motorcycle from its parking space and started smashing it up. The police were called, and the perpetrator was arrested.

I met with Mr. Quinton today at the Civic Centre to discuss his complaints against Mr. Simon Cordell. Mr. Quinton stated that the problems. started soon after he moved into the block in April 2016. He stated that soon after he moved into his flat, he went around to SC's flat to introduce himself. After he introduced himself, SC said to him that there is some kind of war going on between him and other neighbours. SC also told him that he has got a load of issues with the police and that he was trying to.

sue them because he felt that they were treating him unfairly. He told SC that he was a musician and that he does not want anything to do with his issues.
Straight after he moved in, SC will come up to his flat at least once a week to shout at him and complain about loud banging from his flat and knocking pipes. SC would accuse him of making noise on purpose to wind him up and he will always explain to him that it is not true, that he does not make any banging noises inside his flat and that he cannot explain why the pipes were making knocking noises.
Mr. Quinton stated that on 04/10/2016, he was sleeping when SC started to bang on his ceiling, but he ignored him. SC then came up and started kicking at his door and he still ignored him. SC then went downstairs, dragged Mr. Quinton's motorbike from where he parked it, threw it on the ground and started to hit it with what he believed to be a mop pole, he is not sure how many times he hit it. He then called the police, and they came and took him away, CAD No. 3309/4 Oct. 2016.
On 11/12/2016, SC came up to his flat 3 times to shout abuse and complain about noise from his flat.
Mr. Quinton explained that the first time, he was running a bath when SC came and knocked on the door to complain about knocking pipes. He did not open the door and he shouted abuse at him and his friends and called them homophobic names. He later came back again to bang on his door and shout further abuse. He also made threatened him and his exact words are 'I'm off curfew in 12 days, when I'm, I am coming for you', he shouted further abuse and walked off. Mr. Quinton stated that he is not sure why he came back the second time, but he assumed that it was because of the pipes again. He later came back again the third time and this time he opened the door because he has had enough. SC complained about noise from his flat and he told him that he was not making any noise. SC then went on to tell him that he has been away for a long time and that his family was coming to look after his dog. He asked SC if he knew anything about his bike and SC replied, 'You know what, I'm a grown man I'm not goanna lie, it was me that smashed your bike and I was gutted that the stick broke and I couldn't smash it up more'. He then asked SC about his tyres which was punctured with a knife, and he denied cutting them. He then explained to SC that the knocking pipes has nothing to do with him and that he does not bang or make deliberate noise and he advised SC to play his music over the noise if it happens again as there is nothing he can do about the pipes and the noise as it is the nature of the building. SC said cool, fair enough and walked off and as he walked off, he turned around and gave him a dirty look.

About a week later, 2 of his friends left his flat and a short while later he heard SC running out of the front door. Soon after one of his friends called and told him that they have just had a confrontation with SC in the street. His friend informed him that SC ran up to them in the street and confronted his friend Jazz about the knocking pipe noises from his flat. Jazz told SC that it has nothing to do with him. SC then head-butted Jazz and as Jazz fell on the floor, SC jumped on top of him and started to punch him. His other friend Jevon who was with Jazz at the time pulled SC off Jazz and held him until 2 Turkish men came and separated them.
Mr. Quinton stated that the police did not contact him to update him on what action was taken against SC regarding his smashed bike. He stated that he has recording of SC admitting to smashing up his bike and played the recording to me. Although it was very faint, but you could make out what sounded like SC talking about smashing the bike. He stated that he wants to sue SC for criminal damage, he also wants to take out a restraining order against him and possibly an injunction.
He stated that his friends Simon Cocks (07393285528), Julian Jackson (07387277163) and Jazz Bramble (07375651241) are willing to provide witness statements and will attend court to give evidence on his behalf. He also wants us to find out why what action the police took regarding his smashed bike.
08/02/2017:
I did an announced visit to Mr. Quinton at 113 Burncroft Avenue following recent email from Mrs Cordell concerning noise disturbances from the flat as a result of wooden flooring but there was no response. I then telephoned Mr. Quinton and left a voice message for him.
07/03/2017: 27/07/2017:
I telephoned Mr. Quinton for updates on any recent incidents, and he stated that there has been none as he has been staying at his flat. He stated that he has been staying with friends and family and only goes back to his fiat to check his letters.
He stated that he will give a witness statement and will attend court if required to do so.

06/02/2017 :08/02/2017:
I visited Mr. Mathiyalagan at 117 Burncroft Avenue to day to look at the flooring following email from Mrs Cordell concerning noise as a result of wood flooring in the flat. I noticed that there is laminate flooring in the whole flat and ceramic tiles in the kitchen. Mr. Mathiyalagan stated that the flooring was already in the flat when they moved in. He stated that they do not make noise deliberately and that any noise from his flat is household noise. He also stated that as far as he is aware that the person living below them-), we not complained of noise and that he will be the one that will be affected if there are excessive issues from his flat. He also stated that he has asked the MAU-'f they are causing noise disturbances arid he said they are not. He also requested that Mr. Cordell should contact the council if he is being disturbed by noise from his flat instead of harassing him and his family by banging on his front door, shouting abuse at him and his wife, threatening them and confronting them when they come into the block.
I informed him that laminate flooring can generate some noise and to be mindful of his neighbours while walking around inside his flat-
I then went and knocked at flat 113 but there was no response.
17/02/2017:
Telephone call from Mr. Cordell regarding the letter sent to him to attend the Civic Centre on 22/02/2017 to discuss the ongoing reports of harassment, verbal abuse and threatening behaviour made against him by his neighbours. File note of the telephone conversation attached.

I visited 109 Burncroft Avenue on 17/03/2017 to hand deliver to post a letter through Mr. Cordell's door and as I got into my car to drive off after posting the letter, Mr. Cordell ran after me shouting and screaming abuse. I did not stop to speak to him, and he ran after me until I turned left into Green Street. As he was running after my car, he was shouting at people passing by to stop the car.
By the time I returned to the office, Mr. Cordell had telephoned me several times. I telephoned him back and he wanted to know whether I was the person that posted a letter through his letterbox, and I said yes. He asked why I did not stop when he ran after me, and

I told him that I had another visit and did not have the time to stop and talk to him. He stated that he will not attend the meeting at the Civic Centre or any of the council and that I should come to his flat. I offered to have the meeting at a neutral venue like the local library or even at his mother's house, but he refused and shouted to shout abuse and accuse me of taking sides with his neighbours. He denied doing the things that he is accused of doing and stated that he is the victim and that the council have refused to deal with his complaints against his neighbours. He stated that he has been suffering noise disturbances from his neighbours since he moved into his flat and that the council have refused to deal with it. He alleged that the council is conniving with the police to victimise him and threatened to put in a complaint - against me, He continued shouting abuse and will not let me say a word, I then advised him that I will have to terminate the conversation as we were getting nowhere.

Mr. Mathiyalagan telephoned me to report that Mr. Cordell went to his fiat while he was at work and his wife was at home with his cousin and daughter and started to bang on his door and shout abuse and threats. He stated that he was at work and was scared for his wife and daughter. I advised him to call the police.

Mr. Mathiyalagan telephoned to report an incident that happened this morning as he was leaving the block to go to work. He stated that as he walked down the stairs, he saw Me Cordell talking to 2 council officials and as he walked past, Mr. Cordell threatened him by shouting that he was going to ruin his life and that he was going to the police with evidence about him. He stated that he did not respond.

The reason I am asking the above is due to what happened in the police station. On the 14/08/2016 I arrested for threats to kill and taken to Wood Green police station as Edmonton police station was having some work done to it. The custardy record time started at around 20:15 on the 14/08/2016, I was held in detention until the 15/08/2016 where I was found unfit for interview and sectioned under section 2 of the mental health act. I was bailed to return to the police station at 16:46 on the 15/18/2016, the bail return date was the 04/10/2016 at 14:00 hours. I had made no threats to kill to any persons but by this time I had already been held in custardy for around 21 hours, due to being put on a section 2 of the mental health act I was still being held at Wood Green police station as there were no places in hospital, I was taken to hospital on the 16/08/2016 in the early hours of the morning. On the 04/10/2016 I was getting ready to attend Edmonton police station for my bail to return for threats to kill my mother was due to pick me up at around 13:15 hours. At around 12:50 hours the police again came to my home to arrest me I had done nothing wrong, I was arrested and taken to Edmonton Police station the custardy record started at around 13:30 hours for this new case I had been arrested for which was for criminal damage. Before I could be interviewed, I had to see doctors to see if I was fit for an interview which took around 6 hours. In this time my mother spoke to the custardy officer and was told that they had not started the timer for the bail to return for the threats to kill they was running from the new arrest timer of 13:30 hours at around 19:15 hours PC Campbell called my mother to say they were ready for interview, that he had called my solicitors and could she make her way to the police station. When at the police station my mother asked about why the timer had not started for the threats to kill for the 14/08/2016 arrest which I was bailed to return for today at 14:00 hours, PC Campbell said they did not need to start it that they had joined both cases together and now he was dealing with both cases. In the interview my mother also tried to get down about the timer and asked my solicitor to add this to the interview. I was charged at 03:15 hours on the 05/10/2016 The problem I have is why the custardy record timer was never started for the case of the 14/08/2016 on the 04/10/2016 yet I was still interviewed for this case, they had just around 3 hours left on this timer and would have run out of time within their 24 hours with all the time I was being held before charge. Could you please get back to me about the above as it seems. the police are trying to lose around 21 hours of me being held by police on the 14/08/2016, and I would like an update to the above matter? Would it also please be possible for you to send me the paperwork and statements and custardy records for the 14/08/2016 / 15/08/2016 and the 04/10/2016 / 05/10/2016 via this email and give me an update about the trial and if I will need to see you, please."
