I visited Mr. Mathiyalagan at 117 Burncroft Avenue to day to look at the flooring following email from Mr. Cordell concerning noise as a result of wood flooring in the flat. I noticed that there is laminate flooring in the whole flat and ceramic tiles in the kitchen. Mr. Mathiyalagan stated that the flooring was already in the flat when they moved in. He stated that they do not make noise deliberately and that any noise from his flat is household noise. He also stated that as far as he is aware that the person living below them-), we not complained of noise and that he will be the one that will be affected if there are excessive issues from his flat. He also stated that he has asked the man- if they are causing noise disturbances arid he said they are not. He also requested that Mr. Cordell should contact the council if he is being disturbed by noise from his flat instead of harassing him and his family by banging on his front door, shouting abuse at him and his wife, threatening them and confronting them when they come into the block.
I informed him that laminate flooring can generate some noise and to be mindful of his neighbours while walking around inside his flat-
I then went and knocked at flat 113 but there was no response.

I visited 109 Burncroft Avenue on 17/03/2017 to hand deliver to post a letter through Mr. Cordell's door and as I got into my car to drive off after posting the letter, Mr. Cordell ran after me shouting and screaming abuse. I did not stop to speak to him, and he ran after me until I turned left into Green Street. As he was running after my car, he was shouting at people passing by to stop the car.
By the time I returned to the office, Mr. Cordell had telephoned me several times. I telephoned him back and he wanted to know whether I was the person that posted a letter through his letterbox and I said yes. He asked why I did not stop when he ran after me and I told him that I had another visit and did not have the time to stop and talk to him. He stated that he will not attend the meeting at the Civic Centre or any of the council and that I should come to his flat. I offered to have the meeting at a neutral venue like the local library or even at his mother's house, but he refused and shouted to shout abuse and accuse me of taking sides with his neighbours. He denied doing the things that he is accused of doing and stated that he is the victim and that the council have refused to deal with his complaints against his neighbours. He stated that he has been suffering noise disturbances from his neighbours since he moved into his flat and that the council have refused to deal with it. He alleged that the council is conniving with the police to victimise him and threatened to put in a complaint - against me, He continued shouting abuse and will not let me say a word, I then advised him that I will have to terminate the conversation as we were getting nowhere.

Mr. Mathiyalagan telephoned me to report that Mr. Cordell went to his fiat while he was at work and his wife was at home with his cousin and daughter and started to bang on his door and shout abuse and threats.   What they done to be cannot easily, get brushed off because I am not a robot!

The Enfield Council and the Enfield Homes employees aloud the original occupiers of 117 and 111 Burncroft Avenue inclusive of the new tent in 113 - who is name George Quinton Continued to victimizing me by: -- 117 woke me up by attacking me on purpose by stamping and dropping articles above my head!
Then 113 and 117 tenants kept on Continually, reiterating to flushing the toilet when I went into the bathroom, so to be sick in my toilet because they made me ill!
113 - 117 and 111 today kept on Banging with objects onto the internal main buildings walls and floors, so to intimidate surely me and maybe others living close by whom maybe present to an extent only worthwhile for the perpetrators selfless glory, In them perpetrators knowing that their behaviour would only leave all those getting victimized towards getting left by their wrongful actions as to being put into a state of a mental health patient and not rightfully with this occurring within mine and their rented or paid for homes!
The occupiers of 117 the Mathiyalagan family and also Stain Curtis off 111 Burncroft Avenue continue Slamming the water tap on and off, and now with George Quinton also involved I continue to document their Hate Crime towards me and report it to the relevant persons without any fair prosses of support and this is causing damage too my health and the buildings fixtures at an unacceptable rate!
They all mentioned in the address of 117 Burncroft Avenue keep Dropping articles on to their own wooden flooring to make loud banging noises all day and night towards me and the floor has not gotten fixed correctly in the address of 113 after Debra Andrews moved out, making me still suffer as George has taken over!
117 - 113 and 111 Slamming the main, communal entrance door closed!
Stain will not stop banging on the kitchen wall with intent of victimising me on a full 4-hour assault in collaboration with the other named in the address of 113 and 117!
Address of 117 Burncroft Avenue attacking me by the continual dismay of the kitchen draw being slammed shut or opened either way it got effectually, closed, to then anon after aurally perceive the sharpening of the kitchen utilities knifes to a fictitious extent to make a constructive sense of logic and reason, visible for explication of any benevolent character of themselves with the time need to look after an Adelson in today's word safely!

  My Heart has really started to hurt me every day, I am having an early aged mild heart attacks because of what Debra Andrews and the Mathiyalagan Markandu family as well as stain Curtis and George Quinton get and got away with, inclusively of what the police and local council members are getting away with each day by holding me hostage with no first hand witness and then on allowing my estate members to carry out their hate crime in a cover up to send me crazy or to an early death by flushing the toilet below me and bagging at me causing me sufferings and no peace also letting the named attack me when I am in the bath tub and getting undressed and this does not stop their I continue to get assaulted with the water taps getting slammed on and off causing a loud bagging sound at a fast rate and slamming object and or jumping on the floorboards above my head damaging my work studies and private family life and making me a Vulnerable person!

I have also had a lot of problems with eating because of what they keep all doing to me!
My dog has eaten its paws because of what the old tent of 113 and now the new tent of 113 and also that of the tents in the addresses of 117 and 111 are getting away with I have taken pictures of the damage this is doing to us in this flat!

Hello Ms. Cordell,
Thank you very much for your email, the content of which is very illustrative. I can confirm I have made contact with Mr. Jenkins and can also confirm according to Mr. Jenkin's recollection the officer did not mention their being tools in Simon's van. Regarding the officer's notebook, as you're aware the officer did make use of one on the day in question, of course its content will form part of my investigation. Going forward, I note that in their appeal findings the IPCC made direct reference to a transcript in your possession concerning a phone call between Broadsure Direct and KGM. Can you please send me a copy?

Dear Jamie Newman,
Thank you for the below email.
I believe you have spoken to Martin Jenkins and he has confirmed with you that when Mr. Cordell was spoken to by the police officer, Mr. Cordell used his phone to call Martin Jenkins and Martin Jenkins confirmed he told the police officer Mr. Cordell was insured to drive, and also the police officer never said anything about any tools to him on that phone call. I also made calls that day as my son also called me what was going on. I have asked many times to see a copy of the police officer note book, as until I saw the report from Jeanette Reilly, and it was confirmed the police officer did in fact have a note book, Mr. Cordell always said he took notes but the police officer even said in court he never and it was only the ticket he had used that day. The reason for asking for a copy is due to the fact of the name my son give and it is stated in his note book a name was given, then it seemed to change to Mr. Cordell saying he was homeless, but the police officer would have done checks of the name given, which I believe the note book proves my son give his correct name as there was no reason for him not to have done as he never done anything wrong. and this would have been confirmed when the police officer done his police checks. There is also one other issue and that is when Mr. Cordell asked for an inspector to be called due to what the police officer had said to the insurance company. Mr. Cordell was telling the inspector that the police officer had lied to his insurance company about tools being in the vane, all it would have taken was for the inspector to check the van at that time, he would have then seen something was really wrong as there were no tools and would have seen this, and this could have been addressed there and then without the need for my son to have been arrested. If there is anything you need for me, please let me know.

DIRECTIONS ORDER

I make this Witness Statement in support of the Claimant’s application for an injunction to stop the Defendant from causing Intimidation, harassment to me and other residents.

BACKGROUND

The problem with the Defendant started a few months after we moved into the property, after the Defendant approached me asking me to write a letter of support in relation to a problem, he was having with the lady that used to live at Flat 113 Bumcroft Avenue. I refused to write the letter and told the Defendant that I do not want to get involved as I did not have any problems with the lady. Since then, the Defendant has made living in this block difficult for me and my family. He has been very aggressive to my family and I and has continuously intimidated, threatened and harassed my wife, cousin and me.

The Defendant have repeatedly accused us of making noise inside our flat even though our flat is situated two floors above his and the person living directly below us have never complained to us about noise. He has shouted abuse at us, damaged our properties and aggressively demanded money from me. My family and I are constantly living in fear and my wife are frightened to stay at home and has had to accompany me to work on several occasions and stayed in the car with our young daughter until I finish work.

The Defendant has slashed my car tyres, damaged my fuse box and has physically threatened to hit me with a piece of wood. He has a big dog that he brings out with him without a lead when he approaches us, and he has used the dog to intimidate us. He also allows the dog to bark and run freely inside the communal hallway and staircase without a lead. I have reported all the issues to the police and Waltham Forest, the local authority that placed me in the property but each time the police attends, the Defendant will lock himself inside his flat and will refuse to answer his door.

1. On 6th August 2016 at 6pm, the Defendant threatened and shouted abuse at me and my wife, he aggressively demanded money from me and threatened to beat me up. He repeatedly swore at my wife, called her a 'witch' and tried to stop me from going up the stairs to my flat by standing in front of me and placing his hands on the railings.

15. On 09th June 2017, my cousin returned from work late at night and as he opened the main communal door, the Defendant came out of his flat and started to shout abuse at him. 19. On 28th June 2017 at 11:45am, the Defendant confronted my wife outside the main entrance door as she was going to pick up our daughter from school and demanded to talk to her. My wife told him that she cannot stop to speak with him as she was on her way to collect her daughter from school, but the Defendant ran after my wife, stood in front of her and started to shout at her. and bank details and that I must pay him to have them back. I told him that I will not pay him and to do whatever he likes with the details.

22. The constant verbal abuse, swearing, intimidation and aggressive behaviour from the Defendant towards my family and I have made it difficult for us to live in our own home. The fear of not knowing when we will be confronted with vile and aggressive behaviour as my wife, and I go out or return to our home has caused us severe stress and anxiety. My wife is afraid of leaving our flat on her own due to fear that the Defendant will confront and shout abuse at her. We are having to tip-toe inside our flat for fear of being accused of making noise even though we live two floors above the Defendant. The Defendant has caused us immense hardship by vandalising my property and although I cannot prove it, I am certain that the Defendant was responsible for slashing my car tyres, damaging my meter cupboard and removing my electricity fuse several times and restricting water flow to my flat, Also, I no longer park my car outside my block in Bumcroft Avenue because of the car being vandalized. I now park a few streets away, about ten or fifteen minutes from my home instead of outside my block which is about a minute from my flat. I do not see why we should have to live this way.

3. The Defendant is a secure tenant of the Claimant at 109 Burncroft Avenue, Enfield, Middlesex, EN3 7JQ. His tenancy commenced on 14th August 2006. I hereby attach a bundle of documents relating to this case as exhibit number LN1. A copy of the Defendant's tenancy agreement and terms and conditions are hereby attached at pages 1-24.

continued that sometime around mid-September 2016, one of the Defendant's neighbours reported that the Defendant confronted him outside his block as he was going to the local park and started to shout abuse and threats at him and said to him "I can get you over at the park, I know you go for a walk". Examples are that the Defendant banged on his front door while his wife was alone at home with their young daughter and shouted abuse at his wife and asked her to turn off the bathroom taps. 21. Similarly, further case notes exhibited at pages 47-52 show that another tenant who wishes to remain anonymous was being subjected to the Defendant's antisocial behaviour. While the Claimant's officers were outside flat 113, the Defendant came up to them and started to complain about his perceived victimization by his neighbours, the police and the council. While the Defendant was talking to the officers, Mr. Mathiyalagan came down the stairs and the Defendant said to him, "I'm going to the police station now with my evidence about you and I'm going to ruin your life". A file note of this report is exhibited at page 58 of the exhibit bundle and an email from Steve Stirk is at page 59.

25. On 14th May 2017, yet another neighbour who wishes to remain anonymous reported that the Defendant aggressively banged on her door, shouted abuse and threats at her and falsely accused her of making noise and coming into his flat to attack him. The neighbour stated that the Defendant later followed her to her car as she was leaving the block shouting abuse and wanting to know where she was going. 30.1 have enquired with the Mental Health Team whether the Defendant is currently known to the team and was informed that he is no longer under their care.

38. The Claimant's operatives have had difficulties in accessing the Defendant's flat to inspect the state of the property and the unauthorised works and modifications which the Defendant is purported to have carried out without a written consent from the Claimant. The Claimant has also been unable to check whether the Defendant Is restricting water supply/pressure to the properties above his since December 2016. The Defendant has admitted to restricting the water supply but has refused to allow the Claimant's maintenance operatives access to his property to investigate and rectify the problem.

39. The Defendant has intimidated the residents in the entire block and because of his behaviour, we have received numerous complaints from residents, requests to be transferred from the block and we have had to move a vulnerable tenant from the block.

40. I have made attempts to engage with the Defendant, but he has not been cooperative and has continuously displayed abusive and threatening behaviour towards the Claimant's members of staff and his neighbours. A Notice of Seeking Possession has been served on him and possession action is being considered. However, in the meantime, this injunction is required to ensure that the other residents are not subjected to further intimidation and harassment by the Defendant. This application is being made without notice because if the Defendant were given notice, he would intimidate the witnesses in an attempt to prevent the order being made.

I visited Mr. Mathiyalagan at 117 Burncroft Avenue to day to look at the flooring following email from Mr. Cordell concerning noise as a result of wood flooring in the flat. I noticed that there is laminate flooring in the whole flat and ceramic tiles in the kitchen. Mr. Mathiyalagan stated that the flooring was already in the flat when they moved in. He stated that they do not make noise deliberately and that any noise from his flat is household noise. He also stated that as far as he is aware that the person living below them-), we not complained of noise and that he will be the one that will be affected if there are excessive issues from his flat. He also stated that he has asked the man- if they are causing noise disturbances arid he said they are not. He also requested that Mr. Cordell should contact the council if he is being disturbed by noise from his flat instead of harassing him and his family by banging on his front door, shouting abuse at him and his wife, threatening them and confronting them when they come into the block.

I informed him that laminate flooring can generate some noise and to be mindful of his neighbours while walking around inside his flat-
I then went and knocked at flat 113 but there was no response.

He stated that he will not attend the meeting at the Civic Centre or any of the council and that I should come to his flat. I offered to have the meeting at a neutral venue like the local library or even at his mother's house, but he refused and shouted to shout abuse and accuse me of taking sides with his neighbours. I visited Mr. Mathiyalagan at 117 Burncroft Avenue to day to look at the flooring following email from Mr. Cordell concerning noise as a result of wood flooring in the flat. I noticed that there is laminate flooring in the whole flat and ceramic tiles in the kitchen. Mr. Mathiyalagan stated that the flooring was already in the flat when they moved in. He stated that they do not make noise deliberately and that any noise from his flat is household noise. He also stated that as far as he is aware that the person living below them-), we not complained of noise and that he will be the one that will be affected if there are excessive issues from his flat. He also stated that he has asked the man- if they are causing noise disturbances arid he said they are not. He also requested that Mr. Cordell should contact the council if he is being disturbed by noise from his flat instead of harassing him and his family by banging on his front door, shouting abuse at him and his wife, threatening them and confronting them when they come into the block.

I informed him that laminate flooring can generate some noise and to be mindful of his neighbours while walking around inside his flat-
I then went and knocked at flat 113 but there was no response.
17/02/2017:

I visited 109 Burncroft Avenue on 17/03/2017 to hand deliver to post a letter through Mr. Cordell's door and as I got into my car to drive off after posting the letter, Mr. Cordell ran after me shouting and screaming abuse. I did not stop to speak to him, and he ran after me until I turned left into Green Street. As he was running after my car, he was shouting at people passing by to stop the car.
By the time I returned to the office, Mr. Cordell had telephoned me several times. I telephoned him back and he wanted to know whether I was the person that posted a letter through his letterbox and I said yes. He asked why I did not stop when he ran after me and I told him that I had another visit and did not have the time to stop and talk to him. He stated that he will not attend the meeting at the Civic Centre or any of the council and that I should come to his flat. I offered to have the meeting at a neutral venue like the local library or even at his mother's house, but he refused and shouted to shout abuse and accuse me of taking sides with his neighbours. He denied doing the things that he is accused of doing and stated that he is the victim and that the council have refused to deal with his complaints against his neighbours. He stated that he has been suffering noise disturbances from his neighbours since he moved into his flat and that the council have refused to deal with it. He alleged that the council is conniving with the police to victimise him and threatened to put in a complaint - against me, He continued shouting abuse and will not let me say a word, I then advised him that I will have to terminate the conversation as we were getting nowhere.
05/05/2017:
Mr. Mathiyalagan telephoned me to report that Mr. Cordell went to his fiat while he was at work and his wife was at home with his cousin and daughter and started to bang on his door and shout abuse and threats. Dear Jamie
I cannot do the 14/06/2017 as I am at the hospital. And if you could do after 11:00 hours I would be grateful I know I am expecting to have an operation in the next 4 weeks but I am waiting for a call from hospital with date. And I do sometimes get calls from the hospital to go there on very short notice but I think we can work around this. If you can put some dates together I sure we can work something out.
Regards
Lorraine

I am writing this email in regards to the letter dated 18/05/2017 with notification of suspension of my benefit. I am writing this email on behalf of my son Mr. Simon Cordell due to his mental health issues. I believe from reading the letter that you have made the suspension of my benefit due to Mr. Cordell's DWP benefits stopping. The DWP did stop his benefits due to an error, but they have been reinstated without a break, please see the attached letter from the DWP.
I have also attached a letter confirming I Miss L Cordell is allowed to deal with any issues for my son Mr. S Cordell, which should already be on Enfield Councils systems Could you please get back to me as soon as possible with regard to this issue?

DIRECTIONS ORDER

I make this Witness Statement in support of the Claimant's application for an injunction to stop the Defendant from causing Intimidation, harassment to me and other residents.

BACKGROUND

The problem with the Defendant started a few months after we moved into the property, after the Defendant approached me asking me to write a letter of support in relation to a problem, he was having with the lady that used to live at Flat 113 Bumcroft Avenue. I refused to write the letter and told the Defendant that I do not want to get involved as I did not have any problems with the lady. Since then, the Defendant has made living in this block difficult for me and my family. He has been very aggressive to my family and I and has continuously intimidated, threatened and harassed my wife, cousin and me.

The Defendant have repeatedly accused us of making noise inside our flat even though our flat is situated two floors above his and the person living directly below us have never complained to us about noise. He has shouted abuse at us, damaged our properties and aggressively demanded money from me. My family and I are constantly living in fear and my wife are frightened to stay at home and has had to accompany me to work on several occasions and stayed in the car with our young daughter until I finish work.

The Defendant has slashed my car tyres, damaged my fuse box and has physically threatened to hit me with a piece of wood. He has a big dog that he brings out with him without a lead when he approaches us, and he has used the dog to intimidate us. He also allows the dog to bark and run freely inside the communal hallway and staircase without a lead. I have reported all the issues to the police and Waltham Forest, the local authority that placed me in the property but each time the police attends, the Defendant will lock himself inside his flat and will refuse to answer his door.

1. On 6th August 2016 at 6pm, the Defendant threatened and shouted abuse at me and my wife, he aggressively demanded money from me and threatened to beat me up. He repeatedly swore at my wife, called her a 'witch' and tried to stop me from going up the stairs to my flat by standing in front of me and placing his hands on the railings.
2. On 8th August 2016, the Defendant aggressively banged on my front door, shouted abuse at me and my wife and accused us of making noise. He then used a screwdriver to damage the lock on my electric meter cupboard and removed the fuse box thereby cutting off our electricity supply. I reported the incident to the police and was given reference number CAD 7934/August 2016.

My wife told him that she cannot stop to speak with him as she was on her way to collect her daughter from school, but the Defendant ran after my wife, stood in front of her and started to shout at her. and bank details and that I must pay him to have them back. I told him that I will not pay him and to do whatever he likes with the details.

22. The constant verbal abuse, swearing, intimidation and aggressive behaviour from the Defendant towards my family and I have made it difficult for us to live in our own home. The fear of not knowing when we will be confronted with vile and aggressive behaviour as my wife and I go out or return to our home has caused us severe stress and anxiety. My wife is afraid of leaving our flat on her own due to fear that the Defendant will confront and shout abuse at her. We are having to tip-toe inside our flat for fear of being accused of making noise even though we live two floors above the Defendant. The Defendant has caused us immense hardship by vandalising my property and although I cannot prove it, I am certain that the Defendant was responsible for slashing my car tyres, damaging my meter cupboard and removing my electricity fuse several times and restricting water flow to my flat, Also, I no longer park my car outside my block in Bumcroft Avenue because of the car being vandalized. I now park a few streets away, about ten or fifteen minutes from my home instead of outside my block which is about a minute from my flat. I do not see why we should have to live this way.

While the Claimant's officers were outside flat 113, the Defendant came up to them and started to complain about his perceived victimization by his neighbours, the police and the council. While the Defendant was talking to the officers, Mr. Mathiyalagan came down the stairs and the Defendant said to him, "I'm going to the police station now with my evidence about you and I'm going to ruin your life". A file note of this report is exhibited at page 58 of the exhibit bundle and an email from Steve Stirk is at page 59.

30.1 have enquired with the Mental Health Team whether the Defendant is currently known to the team and was informed that he is no longer under their care.

41. The Claimant's operatives have had difficulties in accessing the Defendant's flat to inspect the state of the property and the unauthorised works and modifications which the Defendant is purported to have carried out without a written consent from the Claimant. The Claimant has also been unable to check whether the Defendant Is restricting water supply/pressure to the properties above his since December 2016. The Defendant has admitted to restricting the water supply but has refused to allow the Claimant's maintenance operatives access to his property to investigate and rectify the problem.

42. The Defendant has intimidated the residents in the entire block and because of his behaviour, we have received numerous complaints from residents, requests to be transferred from the block and we have had to move a vulnerable tenant from the block.

43. I have made attempts to engage with the Defendant, but he has not been cooperative and has continuously displayed abusive and threatening behaviour towards the Claimant's members of staff and his neighbours. A Notice of Seeking Possession has been served on him and possession action is being considered. However, in the meantime, this injunction is required to ensure that the other residents are not subjected to further intimidation and harassment by the Defendant. This application is being made without notice because if the Defendant were given notice, he would intimidate the witnesses in an attempt to prevent the order being made.

I visited Mr. Mathiyalagan at 117 Burncroft Avenue to day to look at the flooring following email from Mr. Cordell concerning noise as a result of wood flooring in the flat. I noticed that there is laminate flooring in the whole flat and ceramic tiles in the kitchen. Mr. Mathiyalagan stated that the flooring was already in the flat when they moved in. He stated that they do not make noise deliberately and that any noise from his flat is household noise. He also stated that as far as he is aware that the person living below them-), we not complained of noise and that he will be the one that will be affected if there are excessive issues from his flat. He also stated that he has asked the man- if they are causing noise disturbances arid he said they are not. He also requested that Mr. Cordell should contact the council if he is being disturbed by noise from his flat instead of harassing him and his family by banging on his front door, shouting abuse at him and his wife, threatening them and confronting them when they come into the block.
I informed him that laminate flooring can generate some noise and to be mindful of his neighbours while walking around inside his flat-
I then went and knocked at flat 113 but there was no response.

By the time I returned to the office, Mr. Cordell had telephoned me several times. I telephoned him back and he wanted to know whether I was the person that posted a letter through his letterbox and I said yes. He asked why I did not stop when he ran after me and I told him that I had another visit and did not have the time to stop and talk to him. He stated that he will not attend the meeting at the Civic Centre or any of the council and that I should come to his flat. I offered to have the meeting at a neutral venue like the local library or even at his mother's house, but he refused and shouted to shout abuse and accuse me of taking sides with his neighbours. He denied doing the things that he is accused of doing and stated that he is the victim and that the council have refused to deal with his complaints against his neighbours. He stated that he has been suffering noise disturbances from his neighbours since he moved into his flat and that the council have refused to deal with it. He alleged that the council is conniving with the police to victimise him and threatened to put in a complaint - against me, He continued shouting abuse and will not let me say a word, I then advised him that I will have to terminate the conversation as we were getting nowhere.

Stain Curtis (responsible)
Mathiyalagan Family and friends (Responsible)
All-Day and All-Night!
The lack of protection makes me Terrified of the brutality I got made to withstand against in my self-defence!
The Enfield Homes and the Enfield Council staff aloud the original tenants of 117 and 111 Continue to victimize me also now with the new tent George of 113 by!
After the normal daily routine now of the already named attacking me in my bath room after waking me up happened today!
At the night time Stain played with his front door locks to try and scare me again!
The occupiers of 117 the Mathiyalagan family and also Stain Curtis off 111 Burncroft Avenue continue Slamming the water tap on and off, and now with George Quinton also involved I continue to document their Hate Crime towards me and report it to the relevant persons without any fair prosses of support and this is causing damage too my health and the buildings fixtures at an unacceptable rate!
They all mentioned in the addresses of 117 Burncroft Avenue keep Dropping articles on to their own wooden flooring to make loud banging noises!
117 - 113 and 111 Slamming the main, communal entrance door closed!
117 - 117 - Slamming their own living room, door closed!
117 - 113 - Slamming their own bedroom, door closed!
Stain banged on the kitchen wall again with intent of victimising me on a full 4-hour assaults!

Summary!

My Heart has really started to hurt me every day, I am having an early aged mild heart attacks because of what Debra Andrews and the Mathiyalagan Markandu family as well as stain Curtis and George Quinton get and got away with, inclusively of what the police and local council members are getting away with each day by holding me hostage with no first hand witness and then on allowing my estate members to carry out their hate crime in a cover up to send me crazy or to an early death by flushing the toilet below me and bagging at me causing me sufferings and no peace also letting the named attack me when I am in the bath tub and getting undressed and this does not stop their I continue to get assaulted with the water taps getting slammed on and off causing a loud bagging sound at a fast rate and slamming object and or jumping on the floorboards above my head damaging my work studies and private family life and making me a Vulnerable person!
I have also had a lot of problems with eating because of what they keep all doing to me!
My dog has eaten its paws because of what the old tent of 113 and now the new tent of 113 and also that of the tents in the addresses of 117 and 111 are getting away with I have taken pictures of the damage this is doing to us in this flat!

Simon: All right that is perfect, thank you.
Lemming: Hello.
Simon: Hello is that Lemmy I am speaking to.
Lemming: Yes, Yes, speaking.
Simon: How are you doing?
Lemming: Who am I speaking with, yes I am good I am good, is that Simon.
Simon: Yes that is correct, it is Simon.
Lemming: How are you doing, hi?
Simon: Well I am OK I am just generally OK, I was just phoning in regard to the letters that I have been receiving of yourselves I have never really spook to yourself in person about it and this is the first opportunity that I have had.
Lemming: OK.
Simon: So I just wanted to take that opportunity and explain to you about how I feel about your request from me to come to a meeting at the civic centre on Wednesday the 22nd of February 2017 in regard to allegations of Anti-Social Behaviour, Harassment, Intimidation and threatening behaviour and my concerns are; is it OK to go through them with you.
Lemming: Yes, yes we need to meet with you.
Simon: No, No, you would like to meet with me, Lemmy not that you need to meet with me Lemmy, this is the problem that I have Lemmy, yes the allegations that you are putting against me are of Anti-Social Behaviour and that is of a criminal nature and is under the 1994 Act, Harassment is under the 1997 Act which is also a criminal investigation and intimidation and threatening Behaviour also come under the harassment Act laws subsection B of that Act Lemmy and basically for any of these allegations to be put forward that have to the police been given to you by a member of the public from a call for services any person calling for your services you should pass that information over to the police and let the police deal with it I do not fell comfortably coming to an interview with yourselves in regard to allegations when I know that you are not police officers and these are criminal allegations if anything I believe that you should speak to my solicitor or that you should pass this information on along to the police and let the police do their own personal investigations and then if the police find any truth in the installations put to me then you could continue as Enfield council and as my 'lees holder providers for my tenancy I am quite concerned of the way that this is being brought forward in any sense what would I be doing coming to a police station to do a no comment interview Hum coming to meet you to do a no comment interview and are you still with me, Lemmy?
Lemming: Yes, I am here. '
Simon: And, my other concern, other further than that is that I never committed the offence or any other offence of this nature any way and that the police have already arrested me for these offences back in August and all found no truth in them as well.
Simon: So, now it has been long since August since these allegations were put in about me it has been over six months and because of the time limitation Act 1980 I think it is I believe then no case can be brought forward to any person after six months after that date, so this leaves me even further concern and the even further concern is that you are a part of a team right now; apart from the Anti-Social Behaviour Team and that team I have got criminal corruption placed against me, they have signed to a lot of corruption that has held me hostage in my home Lemmy and it has held me because I have got eight years for something that the maximum sentence that any person should get is six months and the maximum sentence should be a twenty thousand pounds fine and it has got Enfield councils signatures and your team members signatures all over it.
Lemming:
Simon: I am quite concerned about that as well and while I have an ongoing complaint in regard to my Human Rights being breached I would rather not met you lot personal without a solicitor being present. I also feel the concern that if I am in my own home. I have the maxim um extent to my own freedom of speech in my own home and that I have not left my house and I have did not threaten anybody or done anything else to anybody else of any slimier nature Lemming: ha, ha.

Simon: I am very concerned with what is actually happening and I feel that this is an attempt to protect your colleges rather than to do what is right for this housing estate and do what is right for Me Lemmy, year.
Lemming: [00:03:37] your, broke.
Simon: The only thing that I can do in my own house if I speak Lemmy and you should know that in your own house; is that no one can translate what is being said in my own house it would be a noise complaint in any sense in my own home I can swear I can do what I want, yes, as long as it is not going out to the public or it is directly done to someone it is a noise complaint and I have never had a noise complaint of yourselves in regard to anything.
Lemming:
Simon: Just these few issues that I have brought up here make me feel that it would not be right for me to attain a meeting with yourself and especially without not understanding what the actually allegations are I have asked for copy of the letters of complaints to be sent to me and I have still not been put in receipt of them, go on Lemmy
Lemming: Alright, hmm, after I sent the first letter to you I got an email from your mother asking for us to itemize the allegations made against you and I must stress that at the moment they are only allegations, nothing has been proven yet. Now last week I emailed to your mother, as you requested because, hmm, hmm, she will have.
Simon: My mother just waters it down for you lot because she knows that I understand the law, and she knows that I am not somebody that is going to sit there and feel intimidated, yes sorry go ahead and speak then please Lemming: Can I talk please.
Simon: Yes sorry go on.
Lemming: So hmm, hmm, I sent, err, I emailed last week, and she has not responded and because I have sent everything that she has requested on your behalf we now need to sit down with you to get through these allegations.
Simon: You are not a police officer low Lemmy.
Lemming: No, No hold on.
Simon: They are criminal installations they are not civil.
Lemming: Hang on, hang on; Hang on.
Simon: They are not civil.
Lemming: Mr., Cordell.
Simon: You are not a police officer, are you a police officer?
Lemming: Mr. Cordell; I wanted for you to finish can you allow me to finish.
Simon: Yes.
Lemming: Then when I am finished then maybe it will; be clearer.
Simon:
Lemming: Now as I have just said these are just allegations, and they are serious breach of your tenancy agreement we are dealing with these from December.
Simon: What points of my tenancy agreement are they a breach of because I have not been told what I have actually done.
Lemming: in the first letter I sent to you I did make it clear, and we are only carrying out civil investigations because these are a serious breach of your tenancy at agreement.
Simon: Lemmy, these allegations that you are bringing forward to me are from the 16th of February and any allegations that you are putting to me I got arrested in August for and I got arrested for two sets of allegations and both of them I got found not guilty for; OK, Lemmy, I got held in house hostage and I got even taken to a hospital for it I do not believe that you use the members of my estates signatures that are at the bottom of any paper work that they have used I do not think that it is in there the best interest or my interest I think it is for your own-self gain Lemmy and your colleges own self gain Lemmy, yes, right.

Lemming: We are investigating allegations that were put against.
Simon: And what was the latest allegation put forward Lemmy, what is the date of the latest letter of complaint that you have.
Lemming: The latest the last complaint; hold on let me just check in the paperwork, the incident was on the thirty-first of January.
Simon: On the thirty-first of January and what was that and can you explain to me what that allegation is to myself.
Lemming: Simon, 17th shouting abuse outside of your front door.
Simon: Shouting a bruise outside of my front door, Lemmy.
Lemming: Outside your neighbour's front door.
Simon: Outside my neighbour's front door Lemmy may I explain something to you yes; I live inside of a communal building if the police get called to my home it is under the 1961 police reforms act that the police were built on Lemmy yes, and let me explain to you Lemmy, yes.
The last thing that the police get call called to come to any place is unless a section or crime is committed and that would be a section four or five under the FA football riots what is what brought that law into place yes, swearing or being abusive place; in a public place Lemmy yes not a private place.
I have not left my communal building which I pay sub rent on and I have not left the front of my home, yes Lemmy.
Anything that happens in my building or this block is a community problem between ourselves and if the police get called it is because; or as a breach of the peace unless a crime is committed.
Lemmy you do not have the rights this is my home and you do not have the place to do what you are doing to me.
Lemming: But you have been banging on your neighbours front door.
Simon: No Lemmy, Lemmy, Lemmy you tell me that a manufacture never made the front door to be intended to be used Lemmy yes; all front doors are intended to be used Lemmy yes, and it is not my intention to look at a front door and not to use it Lemmy.
If I walk up to a front door and use it as the manufacture intended for it to be used then you tell me a crime that I have committed or an offence.
Lemming: Well I am not talking about crimes.
Simon: Well I am not committing any civil offence, the door is there to be knocked on; if there is a fire in my house I would go upstairs and knock on the front door and say hello.
I have not gone and knocked on any of my next doors, front doors houses in the last eleven years of living in this block more than six times, yes, and I have lived in this block long-time, you could not even divide six time between eleven years if you wanted to right now, Lemmy Lemming: OK, Mr. Cordell, your neighbours have provided evidence.
Simon: Lemmy if my neighbours have supplied you with evidence of anything then you need to give that to the police and you are not a police officer and you have no right of line of investigation against me in these proceedings.
Lemming: I will be very honest.
Simon: It is entrapment what you are trying to do is; Lemmy I am recording this conversation.

Lemming: Go on.
Simon: I am recording this conversation and what you are trying to do is entrap me under criminal investigations and you are not a police officer and your salary does not account for you to act in such a manner, it is a disgrace against Enfield council that you represent them in such a way to intimidate my human rights and you are not threatening me and I am not scared of you, I understand the land that I live of Lemmy, yes, and I understand the laws that I represent living of this land and my birth rights.
Lemming: Mr. Cordell I have not made the offence.
Simon: yes there is no offence or you I would be giving them to the police already and I am not coming to your office unless you come to mine; you are more than welcome to come to my home at any point of time that you want Lemmy and I will invite you in like a gentleman that I am then you can sit and talk tom me in regard to any issues that you may have otherwise than that I am not coming to your place to be entrapped.
Lemming: Hold on OK, can I just say something if you do not attended to the interview I will not give you no more opportunity, hello.
Simon: Hello Lemmy and you have to take it to the police and if you take it to court I will sue you for invasion of privacy and for the breach of my article thirteen, the right to my private and family life, Lemmy, Article two of my human rights, I will sue you for the right to; life and I will sue you for; Article three, the right not to be tortured by any state official or degraded or humiliated by any state official; that is Article three of my human rights Lemmy, do you understand, Lemmy I tell you that I stand stronger your laws are set out to protect us the members of the public Lemmy, you are using your powers in the wrong way.
Lemming: All right Mr. Cordell can I just sat something.
Simon: No Lemmy, if you want to call the police then call the police do not threaten me with criminal offences, you are not a police officer LEMMY.
Lemming: I am not threatening you.
Simon: So I do not need to come I do not have anything to answer to you, you are just my Lease holder I just give you money for my rent or the council or the government give you lot the money for my rent Lemmy, if there is any further problem than that you need to go to the police.
Lemming: You can allow me.
Simon: You need to go to the police.
Lemming: Can I explain where we go from here please; I know that to you Mr. Cordell if you do not got to the meeting with us I will not give you any more opportunity to attended and if you fall to attend that one.
Simon: Lemmy I cannot read and write Lemmy I cannot read and write the council know this I will not come to Edmonton Green I have got gangs that want to kill me in Edmonton green that is why I got placed in this house in the beginning it is on my council records that I cannot go to Edmonton Green and that I cannot go to Enfield Town, yes, so now I am sitting down in this house right now Lemmy and if you would like to come and have a meeting with me then you come to my address you arrange a time and a date I have not done anything wrong I am other in to you the opportunity to come and met me, yes, and if you do not want to take that opportunity then I have it on recording right now I am recording of this conversation, yes, you cannot force me to have the meeting at the civic centre I am telling you if you want to have a meeting with me you need to come here and I will have my solicitor waiting here for you as well Lemmy.
Lemming: I will have the meeting at a natural place I will not come to your property and I will not come to the civic centre I got corrupt police I have got Steven Ellesmere his fraudulent paperwork all in my folder right now holding me in my house for eight years Lemmy they fraudulent the time stamps to the paper work they have called me a black boy on the block thought the whole of the folder, and they tried to I turn me into a super grass to grass all of my friends up for events that I never done.

Simon: I was working for this community I was working for lock to lock festival I had the keys to my community hall Lemmy I was doing everything constructive, and then they twisted my whole life around and I have got all the recordings for; I recorded everything that happens in my house Lemmy I have been putting complaints in asking you lot to protect me against these members of the public for months and you do not act on anything that I ask you lot to do but you are asking on fabricated claims against me.
Lemming: Mr. Cordell I have not received any complaints of you.
Simon: You just need to read the computers Lemmy to see the complaints that have not been followed up Lemmy.
Lemming: When was the last time that you made a complaint?
Simon: I have made loads of complaints I have got letters all over my computer now from emails correspondents none stop.
Lemming:
Simon: This is why Jackie Gubby was changed place because of their behaviour and then this is why Sarah Flexure has got put into Jackie Gubby place because I; the recording tapes that I have of them all in my home.
Lemming: Mr. Cordell when was the last time that you put a complaint in.
Simon: I have not put a complaint in for a few months because we are independent we live in a communal building that is independent if we want to deal with our issues, we deal with them ourselves.
Lemming: Thanks for clarifying that now there is a complaint which is a serious breach of tenancy and if you do not deal with this.
Simon: That you are not Lemmy I am dealing with this matter I have already spoke to you on the phone and told you that you are not a Police Officer: Lemmy you are threatening me for criminal offences I am not coming to I you to be set up Lemmy yes the evidence I have got you are endangering these people if you want to come and see the evidence of the recordings that I have of everything.
Lemming: How am I endangering.
Simon: Because I am holding the truth I am protecting them from the recordings of the evidence that I have of them Lemmy yes I am protecting them, if I go to the police station right now yes they all get arrested Lemmy, and they all look at big years I have been recording them for the last two years doing what they have done to me Lemmy and I have not done anything wrong to them.
If I go to meet any of my neighbours I would phone the police first and tell them that I am going up stairs and that I am recording it on my mobile phone and I have got the cad number for phoning the police up before I go upstairs Lemmy I protect myself in every single way and if you want to come and see this evidence plus see the evidence of what they do to me while I am in my home then you would agree with me and you would not want to follow these pep their claims because it is just going to get them into a whole heap of trouble and everybody else Lemmy you need to open your eyes and see the truth Lemmy yes.
Lemming: all I can say is we needed to clear this up if you do not.
Simon: Lemmy you are more than welcome to come to my here address if you want to clear this up there now and there is nothing to clear up in my eyes all there is fabricated stories that have got no truth in them and there is no true evidence supporting their claims or you would be at a police station and the police would be knocking at my front door. You just want me to come down there and blabber to you and then entrap myself Lemmy I am not going to do that and you are not a police officer and I am not entrapping myself with you if you want to come to my home then you are more than welcome too.

And if you have any other issues then contact the police Lemma and have a good day I have got respect for you but you do not seem to have any for me.
Lemming: Mutter.
Simon: And I am going to forward this to you I am going to get this recording transcribed up into transcribes and I will forward you a copy of the minutes of this meeting as well.
Lemming: OK, please do that.
Simon: I will do that.
Lemming: How soon will I be able to get them?
Simon: I will do it as quick as possible I will have to do them manually for you and I will try to have them done within the next two days and have them forwarded to yourself.
Lemming: All right then.
Simon: Thank you, Sir.
Lemming: I want you to attend a meeting next week and I will send you a letter.
Simon: Lemma, you are more than welcome to do that and I am going to forward you a letter to explain the reasons why, as well to a further why; that there is not any more to be said about these issues, if you want to phone the police you are more than welcome.
Lemming: I will not be going to the police.
Simon: They are criminal offences you cannot put criminal offences under civil law Lemmy.
Lemming:
Simon: A civil injunction even under the civil Act 1994 for civil offences has to be for civil practices, for a fact anything under a criminal nature will be placed under a CBO Asbo after court proceedings, Lemmy, yes.
Lemming: Mr. Cordell.
Simon: Lemmy these offences are last, yes.
Lemming: Allow me to enlighten you at the meeting.
Simon: We are talking about civil matters hear not criminal.
Lemming: No they are not they are criminal; Harassment is 1997, Anti-social Behaviour is 1994, Intimidation and threatening behaviour you can get ten years for that Lemmy,
Yes, Lemmy you can get ten years for that, I am telling you now that they are all criminal offences and that you should put them all to the police under the police reforms Acts you are not able to deal with this and your salary does not pay you to deal with this sort of issues.
Simon: I am not disputing that.
Lemming: So give them to the police and let them do their job and do what is right Lemmy and if the police find any truth in them statements or the evidence that you give to them then you can follow your lines of investigation but I tell, you know that there is no truth in them and the police will not follow any charges.
Lemming: Mr. Cordell, Mr. Cordell, if only you can listen to what I am say then perhaps we can start to get some were in regard to a breach of tenancy what is a civil matter.
Simon: A breach of my tenancy is a civil matter but the offences that you are saying are a criminal matter Lemmy, they are a criminal matter a civil matter is me kicking a football up the wall outside and somebody was upset a criminal matter is me going up to somebody and threatening them under a section 4, or 5, of that act and you commit this by going up to someone and listen and saying that I am going to do you something.
Criminal damage is criminal damage if I break something yes Lemmy, these things are criminal offences and civil are completely different.
You cannot simply missus your terms and conditions have to run in co-Hurst that represents us globally with treaties, you are wrong and you are making your own protocols and you do not have any right to do so.
Lemming: Mr. Cordell, Mr. Cordell.
Simon: Come on I have respect for you but I am not that idiot that you want on the floor or that person that you are expecting to be able to mangle up in the brain.

Lemming: I have not called you.
Simon: No I am not saying is that I am saying that you; that is the level that most people are deceived to be treated like by you and that is not what you are here for and these people are here or it is not their purpose in life to be treated wrongly and neither what they, or you should represent it is our human rights and what these laws are in place for, most people will just sit there and accept anything, because they do not study and pick up a book and reed and learn, yes, and they do not care about looking after other people any more yes or our history what built us all our building blocks of life Lemmy Yes people have no respect these days they forget themselves.
Lemming: OK.
Simon: I do Lemmy I study.
Lemming: Yes, Yes, Yes, whether the police would want to deal with it you need to come here.
Simon: There is no truth you cannot find any truth in them Lemmy you cannot make up things, you are not a judge, where is the tribunal and or where is my fair court hearing.
Lemming: I am not judging you.
Simon: OK, so where is the court, you should be calling me to a fair place where there is some fair judging going on, yes even you yourself if you get upset now with your company, you still have a union representation and this means that you are entitled to speak to a legal department and to have your day in court, so where is my day you are accusing me of these allegations and now you want me to come there and you are going to judge me, you do not have the right and you do not have the power to do that.
Lemming: Alright, OK, muttering.
Simon: And I am explaining to you know that there is no truth in anything we have done this meeting over the phone and I am recording it and I am saying that if you want to come to my home then you can, as I have even further evidence to prove my claims and I will play that evidence to you while you are in my house, yes I am not coining to the civic centre because I have got members of your team who signed all the Anti-Social Behaviour papers fraudulently to keep me in this house Lemmy, I am prang to come into your building at the moment, I am scared for my life
Lemming: Mutter.
Simon: I am scared to come to your building because of the corruption that is inside of it Lemmy or I would be there with all of my folders building a festival right now with you all.
Lemming: OK, OK, OK, if your response is that all the allegations are lies then I will take it that that is your repose.
Simon: Lemmy if I went to the newspapers and played this and showed what everybody all the corruption that is inside of your team and what is holding me in my house now or I just publicized that myself.
Lemming:
Simon: Here would be problems I have got a lot of emails here right now, if I decided to be irresponsible myself there would be a whole different game right now and I do think that anything that you are talking about would not matter after that other than what I show everybody; "The Truth."
Lemming: If you have got all of this evidence that you are saying, then I think you should do what you have to do.
Simon: Lemmy I have already done prepared statements if the police do come to me, but I think if I give them to you that it will just destroy more lives, I think.
Lemming: Yes, Yes, Yes, no problem, do what you have to do all I am doing is.
Simon: what are you attempting to do, what is your purpose, what do you want at the end of this yourself Lemmy.

Lemming: what I want is at the end of this for the alleged Harassment to stop the intimidation to stop.
Simon: The alleged harassment, intimidation to stop.
Lemming: To stop yes.
Simon: What is actually being accused of me what.
Lemming: Your neighbours have made allegations.
Simon: I have got my next door neighbour on tape right now Lemmy yes and I will play it to you right now, when I recorded them I have got them all Lemmy I record them all, and they are saying that we are doing this because we are trying to get a new council flat and all of this.
Lemming: How soon, can you get them videos to me?
Simon: All the videos of me, Lemmy you would have to go through my solicitor to get them Lemmy or you would have to come and see them personally in my home and you can bring another college; Two or three of you hear and you would all walk out and know the truth because of what you see, when you see all the work that I have done for this community and see everything that is here you will walk out of this door and say do you know what I have to hold my hand out to him; I tell you what come and see everything I challenge you to come and see what sort if a man I really am; I challenge you and your team to come here, and we will see if we can all do something that is constructive with everything else that is here that I have built, and we will see how far we can all go.
Lemming: No I am sorry we can meet at a neutral place.
Simon: Well I am telling you that you are allowed to bring your team to my house I pay you lot rent for this home Lemmy your team get paid their salary from this home the people I pay the rent to pay you your salary I mean Lemmy or even when I get benefits to help pay for it.
Lemming: You cannot make me come to your home.
Simon: I am not making you and that is just like you cannot make me come to your place I am inviting you, if you have a problem then I am saying that you are more than welcome to come to mine if anything there is not any members of the public here that is all criminals in here but in your work place I got evidence that there are criminals in there that are setting me up right now, so I am not coming to their.
I have got a stronger case than you have Lemmy.
Lemming: I am putting it in my report that you are saying that I am setting you up.
Simon: No I have got evidence that Steven Elsmore set me up with all of his signature on it and Enfield councils logo with all the rest of the police officers and I have got all the tape recordings them as well.
Lemming: why do you not go and give your evidence to the police.
Simon: Lemmy I have already been phoning them and the police will not pick up the phone any more.
The police know that they are that wrong I can phone them up right in front of you now, and they will not pick up the phone.
I have got so many recording of them of me reporting that they forged it and about the black boy on the block and all that being in my paperwork and all of this and then you can see on the other page about the white people that got reported to have done it in the 999
call, Lemmy it is disgracefulness, Lemmy I am an intelligent person I believe that you are two and I believe if you come here you would see sense and reason and you would believe in me as well and you would say do you know what something needs to be done about all of this here.
Lemming; Mr. Cordell, Mr. Cordell, we have been on the phone for over 45 minutes.
Simon: OK, well I accept that and I am going to forward you Lemmy in everything that has happened.

Lemming: OK, no problems then if you do not met me next Thursday then I will write to you again, OK.
Simon: Yes, OK, have a good day.
Lemming: Thank you very much.
Simon: And you too bye.
Lemming: Good bye.

Good Afternoon Martin speaking how can I help you
Hello can you put me through to Highbury and Islington Court please Who am I talking to.
Pardon.
Who am I speaking with Um, a client Mr. Cordell
[inaudible].

Okay. and do you have a case number Yeah. Do you have Google available to you by any chance?
Google.
Yeah, Google.
Why is that sir?
Because I want you to show you lot the case number and everything else. I have learning difficulties so it's easier for me to show people what is actually going on.
Err, we do not have access to do that sir
I'll have to go for it. all and there's so much, they have changed it so many times they are playing about with the case number. So many times, that I'm not too sure which one it is anymore.
Okay. Can, I think you can. I think your first and last name, Simon Paul Cordell.
That's fine.
What's your last name sir how do you spell it.
yeah. Okay, and your date of birth sir 26 of the first 1981
[inaudible]
okay, give me a moment sir I am just going to search the system
Pardon
can I confirm your address please sir?
109 Burncroft Avenue.
ok
When was your last hearing sir.
I'm 200 Um, in, Highbury Magistrates' Court. The last hearing was 2015 and then the appeal stage went into 2016 and 17, at Wood Green crown court.
We wouldn't have the crown Court ones we would only have the Magistrates Court.
Yes that is perfect.
I can see, Err, Um, on the 05th of October, 2016, um, uh, we had the herring, at Highbury Magistrates Court and it was in relation to, um, Threatening and abusive and insulting words is that what you are referring to.
No, that's not me. That's not me. I, in 2015 what I'm referring to is the organization of illegal raves an Asbo application that was, it was put onto me in 2014 and then I was held on an interim Order for about a year and a bit. Then I got taken to the court house. I knew I'd never done what I was being accused of and I've got set up by 20 police officers. No one would call no first-hand evidence. They will be missing a signature. I'm not the right colour skin to fit the crime that the cases are complete mess. They're holding me in my house for nine years. Well and a seven-year curfew for the Asbo from that Court and I've got all the case number and everything up and all of the hearing saying it's against the law for a case to rely solely on hearsay.
I've put all my evidence up now on the website I'm, I'm trust about to make that go public. If we can't sort this out for you to correct channels in a body. I'm going to go through out a body the, I'm trying to work out how to serve the report on the Court right now. Because they were legally.
There dead.
holding me in my house and if they said that that publicized in the newspapers that I have been done for the organization of illegal raves, I never got arrested so I should have been interviewed and arrested. They have the maximum sentence. If you did get arrested in six months in prison, somehow, I'm riding a seven-year curfew and there weren't even enough for criminal prosecution. I've got all that. The court hearings here saying that no case, the Highbury Court knew that no cases allowed to rely solely on hearsay. There's a website called horrific corruption.com I've just made it go live just now, but I only put it up for a little while because of the damage it may cause to people's lives that could be dealt with a bit more efficiently.

Okay. Do you know the actual day of the last hearing sir?
Yeah. I can get everything up for you right this second if you would like. I'm just give me two seconds.
Yes, please.
And I will get everything up for you. Err.
Okay.
Give me one second master files. Let's look at some in design files, let's go over to hear what we are looking for is something like the first Asbo folder. The second Asbo folder. Hang on one's second the first Asbo one of two there she is, so, allow, the case, for this one here, the court was herding the hearsay notice is there. Hang on a second.
[inaudible].
On behalf, witness statement. Douglas Skinner on behalf of the, on the 11th of September 2014
[okay] There dead
I've got the case number and I got all of that here, I can pull it all out.
Okay. And what's the case and what is the case number?
Um, give me one second. I'm just going through all of the paperwork on the front of it because there is so much there. They kept being sneaky and not putting them beside it. I can't even see the case number on it. I have got it somewhere in my paperwork, I would just have to go through everything to get it all out.
that's fine.
[inaudible]
normally it should just be on the front pages of the Asbo shouldn't it.
it should be. Yeah.
Yes, it's not. It wasn't signed by any judges or anyone. The judges all left and retired, and the appeal judge left and retired and the magistrate Judge for the appeal has retired, straight after and they spread, caused a sex scandal in my name to cover up what the police officers had done, that they were all missing, signatures, and that. Now me and my partner, both in fear of our lives were getting treated horrible by members of the public. We never done nothing wrong. We've never argued. Me and her, I've never had a problem together. So, so Sally Gilchrist in this court, the court had no right in doing what they've done. To put a smokescreen up to cover up what these coppers have done. Um, it might be in the second step. Second one.
[inaudible]
Which Crow Court did you go to Sir
Wood Green Crown Court?
[inaudible]
Index, there is so many cases that they keep plugging me with recently. It's been quite hard.
Yeah.
[inaudible]
What is it not showing up on the computer? there,
The thing is, the thing is, there's a lot, EM, yeah, I'm trying to find it sir, but there's quite a lot. I'm on the,
[inaudible]
You need more information ??(Said in the background to the man on the phone).

I will need more information on the phone because it is not coming up.
So you can't find an Asbo that has been put on me for seven years on them computers, No way. I've got the case papers here. All I know, is that on the 13th of August, 2014 the local Authority and the police held a consultation. I know that on the [inaudible] I can go for it. Let me just go through my website and get it, it's going to be on my website.
There dead (Third person in the back ground).
There dead
It all in there, I knew where it all is, I have got every court room that I was in every court case, I've got everything. I just take two seconds to go through it all.
[inaudible]. Third person
Give me one second. I'll give it to you all now it will just take a sec for the websites to load up quickly. You don't have good, good available to use lot, nah.
[inaudible]
Okay. Um, the date, the 6th of October, 2014 Asbo hearings, six of October, 2014 miss Sally Gilchrist legal executive case number was 1402490741 and the mentioning hearing, it was a mention hearing Andrew Locke was the Barrister Robert Taylor was the um, was the prosecution and it was in courtroom one, I think. Then the 22nd of the 10 2014 again. And then you've got the 5th of November 2014. You've got the 2nd of, the December 2014 there was 30 case, 30 times I attended the court for this Because I copied the I, they set me up, trying to accuse me of be off throwing. I was on curfew for a year for another case. I was working for kids with cellar palsy. Building a festival, I had pondered End festival I built Durant's park festival I built lock to lock festival. I had the keys to my community hall. I had a website called Too smooth with a charity Bar that I building a CIC association of building brand new model, constitution and that for everyone I had in like club on Brixton high street. And the police went to every single place, stripped me naked, done everything they wanted to do to me, and then they make, while I was on curfew, what they done was they grabbed all the people that were throwing parties while I was on curfew and then they.
Sir. called CADS and forged an Asbo
Sir, I hate you
Okay. Yeah. I've, I've checked it, and I need to put you through to Highbury Corner Yeah, that'd be, perfect. Thank you.
Do you have excuse me?
Uh, uh,, uh, , uh, , uh, , uh, , uh, , uh, , uh,

If you would like to know more by how HMCTS handles your personal data, visit www.Gov.uk/HMCTS. In a first instance, if you're required general information about our, your call is important to us, please hold and we will answer your call as soon as possible. Ring, Ring.
What the heck is going on.
Good afternoon you are through to Anna. How can I help?
Hello, how are you doing? Anna I just spoke to another assistant in your call centre I believe and he transferred me through to Highbury and Islington Court, to speak to them directly in regards to my issues of concern and the phone just rung out and hanged up in the end so I didn't end up managing to achieve to do what I set out to do. Is there any way you can help me manage this please?
They're not going to be able to get through to them now cause they that they close at 04:30. At 4:30.
if you need to speak to yeah, if you need to speak to them we can try again. If you call back tomorrow morning we can, we can put you through there with anything. I can help you with it as do need to speak to someone specifically there because we take their calls. You see?
Yeah I understand the reason you take their calls is because of me because they turned their call centre off after they set me up together. So, then that's why the no one could ring the court for about a year and then they put use lot in recently and to make it so I can't directly ask them questions in regards to what they've done to me and the way that they're illegally holding me and my house. That's, and that's why this call centres here now. So, I understand slightly, I don't want to cause use lot no problems because you know, but I just need to speak to them and I need to get released out of my property and I've got the evidence to prove what's happened to me. Um, so is there a direct number.
ok, have you um.
Can I take one extension to get through to the court. Sorry for being rude. I didn't mean to cut you off.
No, no, no. That's okay. No, we are the direct number. They don't take direct calls anymore. We, we deal with all the courts for the London magistrates' courts. Have you put your concerns in an email to them?
I have built a website and everything. I've got so many calls. I've spoken to them all, but when I speak to them there, I've got loads of recordings over my website. They go on a black bastard you have been robed sorry to be rude, or to use the same terminology as what they have towards me. But I've got all the 999 calls. I have called the nine, nine, nine call centre 220 times. I'm not even the right colour skins to fit the crime. What they've set me up for. And then they caused the sex scandal in mine and my partner's name and now they've gone for possession order which are proof that defrauded as well. Then another injunction order then another one that kept me tied in paperwork in my house torturing me knowing the truth of what they've all done and this and they won't help me in any form or way treat my Human rights. We've any taken respect, um, well the best thing that we can do.
What's your name sir.
Simon Cordell
what's your, Simon Cordell, how do you sell your surname.
Cordell.
Cordell.
and where did you, what day did you appear in court? did you have a court appearance.

The 6th of October. There were over 30 appearances for this happening between the higher between the crown court and this Court, but the six of October 2014 is one of the dates. And also, there's other days like 22nd of the 10th, 2014. Um, there is the 5th of November,
So, what is it, What is it that you want to ask them specifically?
Basically I'm being held for nine years a nine-year curfew in my house. I'm not allowed to do no business. Hire no amps to any person, personal or otherwise personal means if I give you an Amp as a friend, I can go to prison for Five years, otherwise means that I'm not allowed to off the 10 o'clock I'm not allowed on no industrial Estate. I'm not allowed to stop on no motor ways for no petrol. I'm not allowed to go to no 24-hour McDonald's. I'm not allowed to do anything. It's the organization of a legal raves.
His, won.
Must mean that you've been arrested year. They never arrested me. They did arrest me. The maximum sentence would be six months. Yeah, and it's 20 grands fine. Somehow, they gave me a seven-year curfew, knowing that I was already riding a year curfew for another case. I won just before that they accused me of tried to make me a Super grass and grass up six people three of a them, I know and three of them could be your children just trying to throw parties.
So I've copied all of their Facebook profiles into 2014 to proving that I never done this. I've looked through the paperwork.
His right.
that the police have gave me. All the CRIMITS go backwards in time than my nine, nine calls due to the call centres. I've check each, each, this is all supposed to be over one weekend someone had a party, and it kept some people up overnight. Um, I think there was one nine, nine, nine call. that was real and the rest were made up and basically, they have ruined my whole life for it and, and I can't do nothing. So, I would like to be released. I would like to my life to be reinstated and my Human Rights basically that is it, I have got the right to Equality.
To be released from your curfew.
Yes, I want the curfew dealt with send me a perfect call that dealt with it. Did you ever email, did you email your concerns to them?
Yeah, there was loads and loads and loads of recordings and they just kept pushing it aside, trying to kill me and spreading out this sex scandal in mine and my partner's name covering up a smoke screen covering everything up, what they come and basically.
ended up with no call centre.
Right.
on Highbury and Islington Court. They tried to kill me. That is the truth of what's happened. They tried to take my life away from me. I'm going to call tomorrow.
ok, hm, and I'll call tomorrow, and we'll leave it at that cause I don't want to get you to get involved in any of these problems.
Right, Yeah, we know we can't get through to them anyway because they all closed. So, I have made a note of what you've said, but obviously we were in the call centre when not actually based in the court So, we do not have access to any files or emails.
Do you have access to Google any of use lot?
No. Well, we don't usually, we only use it maybe to look up addresses and things like that. If you use a mobile phone, it don't have everything on it, but if you went to a website, just now like, and went to horrific corruption.com you can see the problem that I'm having, that is for the website, horrific corruption. I'm turning it off in about an hour or so, so everyone else can't see what's coming on to me but I'll leave it up for you, not just to have your own little read. Maybe. Alright use lot have a good day. Yeah.

Okay, so thanks for your call. Thank you, take care. Bye. Bye.

Please leave your message with contact details and we will get back to you soon as possible. Goodbye. After the tone, please record your message. Hello. I just spoke to a lady called Angela who was quite courteous in speaking to me, but after she finished done what she said she was going to do, which was passing me onto a gentleman called Jeremy Chambers. The phone number that she transferred me through to said that it's not recognized. So, if she is the secretary, the numbers that she, she's transferring me through are no longer their void. So, she should take that into account for transferring somebody over to them again because the same thing happened to me the other day as well. So, it isn't the first time that this is happened to me now that I tried to ring the number to get back through again. No one's picking up the phone. These issues are quite serious what I'm trying to get addressed and no one's taking them seriously. People are going back home every night having normal lives and they could have released me from these, from the stop's criminal activities that they, that they played a role in towards holding me illegally in my house.
And I've asked for the whistle blind policy to be taken into account. I've updated my website yet again, Horrific Corruption and I'm at a stage, I'm goanna keep trying to deal with these issues internally so that you can have control over the people at, over the people's careers. And the rest of their life's prospects. But use lot keep on advising me to go out of body, I've got a solicitor that's ready to take on the case. I've got a whole forum full of solicitors and ex coppers who have been overseeing everything from the beginning in 2014 and they've been furious. They had been asked to, they'd been trying to get me to go to the court to do injunctions against you to do all sorts against you before you even put an injunction on me or possession order I've been advising them no, because I didn't want the headache.

Yeah. But I think I'm going to have to go with their advice and we're going to start contacting the legal ombudsman with the website. We're going to start contacting other official people that are out of body and we'll see how this gets along for you lot and for myself. Um, I might try and call back again in a second and hope that maybe you're busy doing something else and I might actually get passed through to Jeremy Chambers or somebody that can help me. So, I'll give it another 15, 20 minutes before I start contacting my solicitors and everybody online and I'm very serious about this.

Please see attached notes of interview - The complainant is really frightened for his family - Mr. Cordell is very aggressive and has previously kicked him in the nose/face and threatened to hit him with a piece of wood; his wife is so scared that she accompanies him to work and waits in the car with their daughter for his shifts.

I visited Mr. Mathiyalagan at 117 Burncroft Avenue to day to look at the flooring following email from Mr. Cordell concerning noise as a result of wood flooring in the flat. I noticed that there is laminate flooring in the whole flat and ceramic tiles in the kitchen. Mr. Mathiyalagan stated that the flooring was already in the flat when they moved in. He stated that they do not make noise deliberately and that any noise from his flat is household noise. He also stated that as far as he is aware that the person living below them-), we not complained of noise and that he will be the one that will be affected if there are excessive issues from his flat. He also stated that he has asked the man- if they are causing noise disturbances arid he said they are not. He also requested that Mr. Cordell should contact the council if he is being disturbed by noise from his flat instead of harassing him and his family by banging on his front door, shouting abuse at him and his wife, threatening them and confronting them when they come into the block.
I informed him that laminate flooring can generate some noise and to be mindful of his neighbours while walking around inside his flat-
I then went and knocked at flat 113 but there was no response.

By the time I returned to the office, Mr. Cordell had telephoned me several times. I telephoned him back and he wanted to know whether I was the person that posted a letter through his letterbox and I said yes. He asked why I did not stop when he ran after me and I told him that I had another visit and did not have the time to stop and talk to him. He stated that he will not attend the meeting at the Civic Centre or any of the council and that I should come to his flat. I offered to have the meeting at a neutral venue like the local library or even at his mother's house, but he refused and shouted to shout abuse and accuse me of taking sides with his neighbours. He denied doing the things that he is accused of doing and stated that he is the victim and that the council have refused to deal with his complaints against his neighbours. He stated that he has been suffering noise disturbances from his neighbours since he moved into his flat and that the council have refused to deal with it. He alleged that the council is conniving with the police to victimise him and threatened to put in a complaint - against me, He continued shouting abuse and will not let me say a word, I then advised him that I will have to terminate the conversation as we were getting nowhere.

Before the Court will grant an order on any of the Grounds 1 to 8 or 12 to 16, it must be satisfied that it is reasonable to require you to leave. This means that, if one of these Grounds is set out in paragraph 3 to this Notice, you will be able to argue at the hearing in Court that it is not reasonable that you should have to leave, even if you accept that the Ground applies.

Before the court grants an order on any of the Grounds 9 to 16, it must be satisfied that there will be suitable alternative accommodation for you when you have to leave. This means that the Court will have to decide that, in its opinion, there will be other accommodation which is reasonably suitable for the needs of you and your family, taking into particular account various factors such as the nearness of your place of work, and the sort of housing that other people with similar needs are offered. Your new home will have to be let to you on another secure tenancy or a private tenancy under the Rent Act of a kind that will give you similar security.

There is no requirement for suitable alternative accommodation where Grounds 1 to 8 apply.

If your landlord is not a local authority, and the local authority gives a certificate that it will provide you with suitable accommodation, the Court has to accept the certificate.

One of the requirements of Ground 10A is that the landlord must have approval for the redevelopment scheme from the Secretary of State (or, in the case of a housing association landlord, the Housing Corporation). The landlord must have consulted all secure tenants affected by the proposed redevelopment scheme.

5. Court proceedings for possession of the dwelling-house can be begun immediately. The date by which the tenant is to give up possession of the dwelling-house is Monday the 24th of August 2017.

NOTES TO PARAGRAPH 5

Court proceedings cannot be begun until after this date, which cannot be earlier than the date when your tenancy or license could have been brought to an end.

This means that if you have a weekly or fortnightly tenancy, there should at least 4 weeks between the date this Notice is given and the date in this paragraph.

After this date, court proceedings may be begun at once or at any time during the following twelve months. Once the twelve months are up this Notice will lapse and a new Notice must be served before possession can be sought.

Operator: I am going to put Lemmy on the phone and I am going to transfer the call, thank you.
Simon: All right that is perfect, thank you.
Lemming: Hello.
Simon: Hello is that Lemmy I am speaking to.
Lemming: Yes, Yes, speaking.

Simon: How are you doing?
Lemming: Who am I speaking with, yes I am good I am good, is that Simon.
Simon: Yes that is correct, it is Simon.
Lemming: How are you doing, hi?
Simon: Well I am OK I am just generally OK, I was just phoning in regard to the letters that I have been receiving of yourselves I have never really spook to yourself in person about it and this is the first opportunity that I have had.
Lemming: OK.
Simon: So I just wanted to take that opportunity and explain to you about how I feel about your request from me to come to a meeting at the civic centre on Wednesday the 22nd of February 2017 in regard to allegations of Anti-Social Behaviour, Harassment, Intimidation and threatening behaviour and my concerns are; is it OK to go through them with you.
Lemming: Yes, yes we need to meet with you.
Simon: No, No, you would like to meet with me, Lemmy not that you need to meet with me Lemmy, this is the problem that I have Lemmy, yes the allegations that you are putting against me are of Anti-Social Behaviour and that is of a criminal nature and is under the 1994 Act, Harassment is under the 1997 Act which is also a criminal investigation and intimidation and threatening Behaviour also come under the harassment Act laws subsection B of that Act Lemmy and basically for any of these allegations to be put forward that have to the police been given to you by a member of the public from a call for services any person calling for your services you should pass that information over to the police and let the police deal with it I do not fell comfortably coming to an interview with yourselves in regard to allegations when I know that you are not police officers and these are criminal allegations if anything I believe that you should speak to my solicitor or that you should pass this information on along to the police and let the police do their own personal investigations and then if the police find any truth in the installations put to me then you could continue as Enfield council and as my 'lees holder providers for my tenancy I am quite concerned of the way that this is being brought forward in any sense what would I be doing coming to a police station to do a no comment interview Hum coming to meet you to do a no comment interview and are you still with me, Lemmy?
Lemming: Yes, I am here. '
Simon: And, my other concern, other further than that is that I never committed the offence or any other offence of this nature any way and that the police have already arrested me for these offences back in August and all found no truth in them as well.
Simon: So, now it has been long since August since these allegations were put in about me it has been over six months and because of the time limitation Act 1980 I think it is I believe then no case can be brought forward to any person after six months after that date, so this leaves me even further concern and the even further concern is that you are a part of a team right now; apart from the Anti-Social Behaviour Team and that team I have got criminal corruption placed against me, they have signed to a lot of corruption that has held me hostage in my home Lemmy and it has held me because I have got eight years for something that the maximum sentence that any person should get is six months and the maximum sentence should be a twenty thousand pounds fine and it has got Enfield councils signatures and your team members signatures all over it.
Lemming:
Simon: I am quite concerned about that as well and while I have an ongoing complaint in regard to my Human Rights being breached I would rather not met you lot personal without a solicitor being present. I also feel the concern that if I am in my own home. I have the maxim um extent to my own freedom of speech in my own home and that I have not left my house and I have did not threaten anybody or done anything else to anybody else of any slimier nature

Lemming: ha, ha.
Simon: I am very concerned with what is actually happening and I feel that this is an attempt to protect your colleges rather than to do what is right for this housing estate and do what is right for Me Lemmy, year.
Lemming: [00:03:37] your, broke.
Simon: The only thing that I can do in my own house if I speak Lemmy and you should know that in your own house; is that no one can translate what is being said in my own house it would be a noise complaint in any sense in my own home I can swear I can do what I want, yes, as long as it is not going out to the public or it is directly done to someone it is a noise complaint and I have never had a noise complaint of yourselves in regard to anything.
Lemming:
Simon: Just these few issues that I have brought up here make me feel that it would not be right for me to attain a meeting with yourself and especially without not understanding what the actually allegations are I have asked for copy of the letters of complaints to be sent to me and I have still not been put in receipt of them, go on Lemmy
Lemming: Alright, hmm, after I sent the first letter to you I got an email from your mother asking for us to itemize the allegations made against you and I must stress that at the moment they are only allegations, nothing has been proven yet. Now last week I emailed to your mother, as you requested because, hmm, hmm, she will have.
Simon: My mother just waters it down for you lot because she knows that I understand the law, and she knows that I am not somebody that is going to sit there and feel intimidated, yes sorry go ahead and speak then please Lemming: Can I talk please.
Simon: Yes sorry go on.
Lemming: So hmm, hmm, I sent, err, I emailed last week, and she has not responded and because I have sent everything that she has requested on your behalf we now need to sit down with you to get through these allegations.
Simon: You are not a police officer low Lemmy.
Lemming: No, No hold on.
Simon: They are criminal installations they are not civil.
Lemming: Hang on, hang on; Hang on.
Simon: They are not civil.
Lemming: Mr., Cordell.
Simon: You are not a police officer, are you a police officer?
Lemming: Mr. Cordell; I wanted for you to finish can you allow me to finish.
Simon: Yes.
Lemming: Then when I am finished then maybe it will; be clearer.
Simon:
Lemming: Now as I have just said these are just allegations, and they are serious breach of your tenancy agreement we are dealing with these from December.
Simon: What points of my tenancy agreement are they a breach of because I have not been told what I have actually done.
Lemming: in the first letter I sent to you I did make it clear, and we are only carrying out civil investigations because these are a serious breach of your tenancy at agreement.
Simon: Lemmy, these allegations that you are bringing forward to me are from the 16th of February and any allegations that you are putting to me I got arrested in August for and I got arrested for two sets of allegations and both of them I got found not guilty for; OK, Lemmy, I got held in house hostage and I got even taken to a hospital for it I do not believe that you use the members of my estates signatures that are at the bottom of any paper work that they have used I do not think that it is in there the best interest or my interest I think it is for your own-self gain Lemmy and your colleges own self gain Lemmy, yes, right.

Lemming: We are investigating allegations that were put against.
Simon: And what was the latest allegation put forward Lemmy, what is the date of the latest letter of complaint that you have.
Lemming: The latest the last complaint; hold on let me just check in the paperwork, the incident was on the thirty-first of January.
Simon: On the thirty-first of January and what was that and can you explain to me what that allegation is to myself.
Lemming: Simon, 17th shouting abuse outside of your front door.
Simon: Shouting a bruise outside of my front door, Lemmy.
Lemming: Outside your neighbour's front door.
Simon: Outside my neighbour's front door Lemmy may I explain something to you yes; I live inside of a communal building if the police get called to my home it is under the 1961 police reforms act that the police were built on Lemmy yes, and let me explain to you Lemmy, yes.
The last thing that the police get call called to come to any place is unless a section or crime is committed and that would be a section four or five under the FA football riots what is what brought that law into place yes, swearing or being abusive place; in a public place Lemmy yes not a private place.
I have not left my communal building which I pay sub rent on and I have not left the front of my home, yes Lemmy.
Anything that happens in my building or this block is a community problem between ourselves and if the police get called it is because; or as a breach of the peace unless a crime is committed.
Lemmy you do not have the rights this is my home and you do not have the place to do what you are doing to me.
Lemming: But you have been banging on your neighbours front door.
Simon: No Lemmy, Lemmy, Lemmy you tell me that a manufacture never made the front door to be intended to be used Lemmy yes; all front doors are intended to be used Lemmy yes, and it is not my intention to look at a front door and not to use it Lemmy.
If I walk up to a front door and use it as the manufacture intended for it to be used then you tell me a crime that I have committed or an offence.
Lemming: Well I am not talking about crimes.
Simon: Well I am not committing any civil offence, the door is there to be knocked on; if there is a fire in my house I would go upstairs and knock on the front door and say hello.
I have not gone and knocked on any of my next doors, front doors houses in the last eleven years of living in this block more than six times, yes, and I have lived in this block long-time, you could not even divide six time between eleven years if you wanted to right now, Lemmy
Lemming: OK, Mr. Cordell, your neighbours have provided evidence.
Simon: Lemmy if my neighbours have supplied you with evidence of anything then you need to give that to the police and you are not a police officer and you have no right of line of investigation against me in these proceedings.
Lemming: I will be very honest.
Simon: It is entrapment what you are trying to do is; Lemmy I am recording this conversation.
Lemming: Go on.
Simon: I am recording this conversation and what you are trying to do is entrap me under criminal investigations and you are not a police officer and your salary does not account for you to act in such a manner, it is a disgrace against Enfield council that you represent them in such a way to intimidate my human rights and you are not threatening me and I am not scared of you, I understand the land that I live of Lemmy, yes, and I understand the laws that I represent living of this land and my birth rights.

Lemming: Mr. Cordell I have not made the offence.
Simon: yes there is no offence or you I would be giving them to the police already and I am not coming to your office unless you come to mine; you are more than welcome to come to my home at any point of time that you want Lemmy and I will invite you in like a gentleman that I am then you can sit and talk tom me in regard to any issues that you may have otherwise than that I am not coming to your place to be entrapped.
Lemming: Hold on OK, can I just say something if you do not attended to the interview I will not give you no more opportunity, hello.
Simon: Hello Lemmy and you have to take it to the police and if you take it to court I will sue you for invasion of privacy and for the breach of my article thirteen, the right to my private and family life, Lemmy, Article two of my human rights, I will sue you for the right to; life and I will sue you for; Article three, the right not to be tortured by any state official or degraded or humiliated by any state official; that is Article three of my human rights Lemmy, do you understand, Lemmy I tell you that I stand stronger your laws are set out to protect us the members of the public Lemmy, you are using your powers in the wrong way.
Lemming: All right Mr. Cordell can I just sat something.
Simon: No Lemmy, if you want to call the police then call the police do not threaten me with criminal offences, you are not a police officer LEMMY.
Lemming: I am not threatening you.
Simon: So I do not need to come I do not have anything to answer to you, you are just my Lease holder I just give you money for my rent or the council or the government give you lot the money for my rent Lemmy, if there is any further problem than that you need to go to the police.
Lemming: You can allow me.
Simon: You need to go to the police.
Lemming: Can I explain where we go from here please; I know that to you Mr. Cordell if you do not got to the meeting with us I will not give you any more opportunity to attended and if you fall to attend that one.
Simon: Lemmy I cannot read and write Lemmy I cannot read and write the council know this I will not come to Edmonton Green I have got gangs that want to kill me in Edmonton green that is why I got placed in this house in the beginning it is on my council records that I cannot go to Edmonton Green and that I cannot go to Enfield Town, yes, so now I am sitting down in this house right now Lemmy and if you would like to come and have a meeting with me then you come to my address you arrange a time and a date I have not done anything wrong I am other in to you the opportunity to come and met me, yes, and if you do not want to take that opportunity then I have it on recording right now I am recording of this conversation, yes, you cannot force me to have the meeting at the civic centre I am telling you if you want to have a meeting with me you need to come here and I will have my solicitor waiting here for you as well Lemmy.
Lemming: I will have the meeting at a natural place I will not come to your property and I will not come to the civic centre I got corrupt police I have got Steven Ellesmere his fraudulent paperwork all in my folder right now holding me in my house for eight years Lemmy they fraudulent the time stamps to the paper work they have called me a black boy on the block thought the whole of the folder, and they tried to I turn me into a super grass to grass all of my friends up for events that I never done.
Simon: I was working for this community I was working for lock to lock festival I had the keys to my community hall Lemmy I was doing everything constructive, and then they twisted my whole life around and I have got all the recordings for; I recorded everything that happens in my house Lemmy I have been putting complaints in asking you lot to protect me against these members of the public for months and you do not act on anything that I ask you lot to do but you are asking on fabricated claims against me.

Lemming: Mr. Cordell I have not received any complaints of you.
Simon: You just need to read the computers Lemmy to see the complaints that have not been followed up Lemmy.
Lemming: When was the last time that you made a complaint?
Simon: I have made loads of complaints I have got letters all over my computer now from emails correspondents none stop.
Lemming:
Simon: This is why Jackie GUBBIE was changed place because of their behaviour and then this is why Sarah Flexure has got put into Jackie GUBBIE place because I; the recording tapes that I have of them all in my home.
Lemming: Mr. Cordell when was the last time that you put a complaint in.
Simon: I have not put a complaint in for a few months because we are independent we live in a communal building that is independent if we want to deal with our issues, we deal with them ourselves.
Lemming: Thanks for clarifying that now there is a complaint which is a serious breach of tenancy and if you do not deal with this.
Simon: That you are not Lemmy I am dealing with this matter I have already spoke to you on the phone and told you that you are not a Police Officer: Lemmy you are threatening me for criminal offences I am not coming to I you to be set up Lemmy yes the evidence I have got you are endangering these people if you want to come and see the evidence of the recordings that I have of everything.
Lemming: How am I endangering.
Simon: Because I am holding the truth I am protecting them from the recordings of the evidence that I have of them Lemmy yes I am protecting them, if I go to the police station right now yes they all get arrested Lemmy, and they all look at big years I have been recording them for the last two years doing what they have done to me Lemmy and I have not done anything wrong to them.
If I go to meet any of my neighbours I would phone the police first and tell them that I am going up stairs and that I am recording it on my mobile phone and I have got the cad number for phoning the police up before I go upstairs Lemmy I protect myself in every single way and if you want to come and see this evidence plus see the evidence of what they do to me while I am in my home then you would agree with me and you would not want to follow these pep their claims because it is just going to get them into a whole heap of trouble and everybody else Lemmy you need to open your eyes and see the truth Lemmy yes.
Lemming: all I can say is we needed to clear this up if you do not.
Simon: Lemmy you are more than welcome to come to my here address if you want to clear this up there now and there is nothing to clear up in my eyes all there is fabricated stories that have got no truth in them and there is no true evidence supporting their claims or you would be at a police station and the police would be knocking at my front door. You just want me to come down there and blabber to you and then entrap myself Lemmy I am not going to do that and you are not a police officer and I am not entrapping myself with you if you want to come to my home then you are more than welcome too.
And if you have any other issues then contact the police Lemma and have a good day I have got respect for you but you do not seem to have any for me.
Lemming: Mutter.
Simon: And I am going to forward this to you I am going to get this recording transcribed up into transcribes and I will forward you a copy of the minutes of this meeting as well.

Lemming: OK, please do that.
Simon: I will do that.
Lemming: How soon will I be able to get them?
Simon: I will do it as quick as possible I will have to do them manually for you and I will try to have them done within the next two days and have them forwarded to yourself.
Lemming: All right then.
Simon: Thank you, Sir.
Lemming: I want you to attend a meeting next week and I will send you a letter.
Simon: Lemma, you are more than welcome to do that and I am going to forward you a letter to explain the reasons why, as well to a further why; that there is not any more to be said about these issues, if you want to phone the police you are more than welcome.
Lemming: I will not be going to the police.
Simon: They are criminal offences you cannot put criminal offences under civil law Lemmy.
Lemming:
Simon: A civil injunction even under the civil Act 1994 for civil offences has to be for civil practices, for a fact anything under a criminal nature will be placed under a CBO Asbo after court proceedings, Lemmy, yes.
Lemming: Mr. Cordell.
Simon: Lemmy these offences are last, yes.
Lemming: Allow me to enlighten you at the meeting.
Simon: We are talking about civil matters hear not criminal.
Lemming: No they are not they are criminal; Harassment is 1997, Anti-social Behaviour is 1994, Intimidation and threatening behaviour you can get ten years for that Lemmy,
Yes, Lemmy you can get ten years for that, I am telling you now that they are all criminal offences and that you should put them all to the police under the police reforms Acts you are not able to deal with this and your salary does not pay you to deal with this sort of issues.
Simon: I am not disputing that.
Lemming: So give them to the police and let them do their job and do what is right Lemmy and if the police find any truth in them statements or the evidence that you give to them then you can follow your lines of investigation but I tell, you know that there is no truth in them and the police will not follow any charges.
Lemming: Mr. Cordell, Mr. Cordell, if only you can listen to what I am say then perhaps we can start to get some were in regard to a breach of tenancy what is a civil matter.
Simon: A breach of my tenancy is a civil matter but the offences that you are saying are a criminal matter Lemmy, they are a criminal matter a civil matter is me kicking a football up the wall outside and somebody was upset a criminal matter is me going up to somebody and threatening them under a section 4, or 5, of that act and you commit this by going up to someone and listen and saying that I am going to do you something.
Criminal damage is criminal damage if I break something yes Lemmy, these things are criminal offences and civil are completely different.
You cannot simply missus your terms and conditions have to run in co-Hurst that represents us globally with treaties, you are wrong and you are making your own protocols and you do not have any right to do so.

Lemming: Mr. Cordell, Mr. Cordell.
Simon: Come on I have respect for you but I am not that idiot that you want on the floor or that person that you are expecting to be able to mangle up in the brain.
Lemming: I have not called you.
Simon: No I am not saying is that I am saying that you; that is the level that most people are deceived to be treated like by you and that is not what you are here for and these people are here or it is not their purpose in life to be treated wrongly and neither what they, or you should represent it is our human rights and what these laws are in place for, most people will just sit there and accept anything, because they do not study and pick up a book and reed and learn, yes, and they do not care about looking after other people any more yes or our history what built us all our building blocks of life Lemmy Yes people have no respect these days they forget themselves.

Lemming: OK.
Simon: I do Lemmy I study.
Lemming: Yes, Yes, Yes, whether the police would want to deal with it you need to come here.
Simon: There is no truth you cannot find any truth in them Lemmy you cannot make up things, you are not a judge, where is the tribunal and or where is my fair court hearing.
Lemming: I am not judging you.
Simon: OK, so where is the court, you should be calling me to a fair place where there is some fair judging going on, yes even you yourself if you get upset now with your company, you still have a union representation and this means that you are entitled to speak to a legal department and to have your day in court, so where is my day you are accusing me of these allegations and now you want me to come there and you are going to judge me, you do not have the right and you do not have the power to do that.
Lemming: Alright, OK, muttering.
Simon: And I am explaining to you know that there is no truth in anything we have done this meeting over the phone and I am recording it and I am saying that if you want to come to my home then you can, as I have even further evidence to prove my claims and I will play that evidence to you while you are in my house, yes I am not coining to the civic centre because I have got members of your team who signed all the Anti-Social Behaviour papers fraudulently to keep me in this house Lemmy, I am prang to come into your building at the moment, I am scared for my life
Lemming: Mutter.
Simon: I am scared to come to your building because of the corruption that is inside of it Lemmy or I would be there with all of my folders building a festival right now with you all.
Lemming: OK, OK, OK, if your response is that all the allegations are lies then I will take it that that is your repose.
Simon: Lemmy if I went to the newspapers and played this and showed what everybody all the corruption that is inside of your team and what is holding me in my house now or I just publicized that myself.
Lemming:
Simon: Here would be problems I have got a lot of emails here right now, if I decided to be irresponsible myself there would be a whole different game right now and I do think that anything that you are talking about would not matter after that other than what I show everybody; "The Truth."
Lemming: If you have got all of this evidence that you are saying, then I think you should do what you have to do.
Simon: Lemmy I have already done prepared statements if the police do come to me, but I think if I give them to you that it will just destroy more lives, I think.
Lemming: Yes, Yes, Yes, no problem, do what you have to do all I am doing is.
Simon: what are you attempting to do, what is your purpose, what do you want at the end of this yourself Lemmy.
Lemming: what I want is at the end of this for the alleged Harassment to stop the intimidation to stop.

Simon: The alleged harassment, intimidation to stop.
Lemming: To stop yes.
Simon: What is actually being accused of me what.
Lemming: Your neighbours have made allegations.
Simon: I have got my next door neighbour on tape right now Lemmy yes and I will play it to you right now, when I recorded them I have got them all Lemmy I record them all, and they are saying that we are doing this because we are trying to get a new council flat and all of this.
Lemming: How soon, can you get them videos to me?
Simon: All the videos of me, Lemmy you would have to go through my solicitor to get them Lemmy or you would have to come and see them personally in my home and you can bring another college; Two or three of you hear and you would all walk out and know the truth because of what you see, when you see all the work that I have done for this community and see everything that is here you will walk out of this door and say do you know what I have to hold my hand out to him; I tell you what come and see everything I challenge you to come and see what sort if a man I really am; I challenge you and your team to come here, and we will see if we can all do something that is constructive with everything else that is here that I have built, and we will see how far we can all go.
Lemming: No I am sorry we can meet at a neutral place.
Simon: Well I am telling you that you are allowed to bring your team to my house I pay you lot rent for this home Lemmy your team get paid their salary from this home the people I pay the rent to pay you your salary I mean Lemmy or even when I get benefits to help pay for it.
Lemming: You cannot make me come to your home.
Simon: I am not making you and that is just like you cannot make me come to your place I am inviting you, if you have a problem then I am saying that you are more than welcome to come to mine if anything there is not any members of the public here that is all criminals in here but in your work place I got evidence that there are criminals in there that are setting me up right now, so I am not coming to their.
I have got a stronger case than you have Lemmy.
Lemming: I am putting it in my report that you are saying that I am setting you up.
Simon: No I have got evidence that Steven Elsmore set me up with all of his signature on it and Enfield councils logo with all the rest of the police officers and I have got all the tape recordings them as well.
Lemming: why do you not go and give your evidence to the police.
Simon: Lemmy I have already been phoning them and the police will not pick up the phone any more.
The police know that they are that wrong I can phone them up right in front of you now, and they will not pick up the phone.
I have got so many recording of them of me reporting that they forged it and about the black boy on the block and all that being in my paperwork and all of this and then you can see on the other page about the white people that got reported to have done it in the 999
call, Lemmy it is disgracefulness, Lemmy I am an intelligent person I believe that you are two and I believe if you come here you would see sense and reason and you would believe in me as well and you would say do you know what something needs to be done about all of this here.
Lemming; Mr. Cordell, Mr. Cordell, we have been on the phone for over 45 minutes.
Simon: OK, well I accept that and I am going to forward you Lemmy in everything that has happened.
Lemming: OK, no problems then if you do not met me next Thursday then I will write to you again, OK.

Simon: Yes, OK, have a good day.
Lemming: Thank you very much.
Simon: And you too bye.
Lemming: Good bye.

My Heart has really started to hurt me every day, I am having an early aged mild heart attacks because of what Debra Andrews and the Mathiyalagan Markandu family as well as stain Curtis and George Quinton get and got away with, inclusively of what the police and local council members are getting away with each day by holding me hostage with no first hand witness and then on allowing my estate members to carry out their hate crime in a cover up to send me crazy or to an early death by flushing the toilet below me and bagging at me causing me sufferings and no peace also letting the named attack me when I am in the bath tub and getting undressed and this does not stop their I continue to get assaulted with the water taps getting slammed on and off causing a loud bagging sound at a fast rate and slamming object and or jumping on the floorboards above my head damaging my work studies and private family life and making me a Vulnerable person!
I have also had a lot of problems with eating because of what they keep all doing to me!
My dog has eaten its paws because of what the old tent of 113 and now the new tent of 113 and also that of the tents in the addresses of 117 and 111 are getting away with I have taken pictures of the damage this is doing to us in this flat!

DIRECTIONS ORDER

. I make this Witness Statement in support of the Claimant's application for an injunction to stop the Defendant from causing Intimidation, harassment to me and other residents.

BACKGROUND

. The problem with the Defendant started a few months after we moved into the property, after the Defendant approached me asking me to write a letter of support in relation to a problem, he was having with the lady that used to live at Flat 113 Bumcroft Avenue. I refused to write the letter and told the Defendant that I do not want to get involved as I did not have any problems with the lady. Since then, the Defendant has made living in this block difficult for me and my family. He has been very aggressive to my family and I and has continuously intimidated, threatened and harassed my wife, cousin and me.

. The Defendant have repeatedly accused us of making noise inside our flat even though our flat is situated two floors above his and the person living directly below us have never complained to us about noise. He has shouted abuse at us, damaged our properties and aggressively demanded money from me. My family and I are constantly living in fear and my wife are frightened to stay at home and has had to accompany me to work on several occasions and stayed in the car with our young daughter until I finish work.

. The Defendant has slashed my car tyres, damaged my fuse box and has physically threatened to hit me with a piece of wood. He has a big dog that he brings out with him without a lead when he approaches us, and he has used the dog to intimidate us. He also allows the dog to bark and run freely inside the communal hallway and staircase without a lead. I have reported

15. On 9th June 2017, my cousin returned from work late at night and as he opened the main communal door, the Defendant came out of his flat and started to shout abuse at him. My wife told him that she cannot stop to speak with him as she was on her way to collect her daughter from school, but the Defendant ran after my wife, stood in front of her and started to shout at her. The Defendant told my wife that he knows all our personal details including our full names, date of birth and bank details. The Defendant demanded that we should pay him some money and that my wife should tell me to come and talk to him. The Defendant also accused my wife of making noises inside our flat.

and bank details and that I must pay him to have them back. I told him that I will not pay him and to do whatever he likes with the details.

22. The constant verbal abuse, swearing, intimidation and aggressive behaviour from the Defendant towards my family and I have made it difficult for us to live in our own home. The fear of not knowing when we will be confronted with vile and aggressive behaviour as my wife and I go out or return to our home has caused us severe stress and anxiety. My wife is afraid of leaving our flat on her own due to fear that the Defendant will confront and shout abuse at her. We are having to tip-toe inside our flat for fear of being accused of making noise even though we live two floors above the Defendant. The Defendant has caused us immense hardship by vandalising my property and although I cannot prove it, I am certain that the Defendant was responsible for slashing my car tyres, damaging my meter cupboard and removing my electricity fuse several times and restricting water flow to my flat, Also, I no longer park my car outside my block in Bumcroft Avenue because of the car being vandalized. I now park a few streets away, about ten or fifteen minutes from my home instead of outside my block which is about a minute from my flat. I do not see why we should have to live this way.

2. I make this Witness Statement in support of the Claimant's application for an injunction to stop the Defendant from causing intimidation, harassment and alarm to other residents and their visitors on Burncroft Avenue.

3. The Defendant is a secure tenant of the Claimant at 109 Burncroft Avenue, Enfield, Middlesex, EN3 7JQ. His tenancy commenced on 14th August 2006. I hereby attach a bundle of documents relating to this case as exhibit number LN1. A copy of the Defendant's tenancy agreement and terms and conditions are hereby attached at pages 1-24.

4. The reports concerning the Defendant's alleged anti-social behaviour towards his neighbours was first brought to my attention in October 2016 when a case involving the Defendant and one of his neighbours was referred to me for investigation. The Defendant was reported to have caused frequent acts of harassment and anti-social behaviour against an elderly neighbour. The Defendant was arrested by the Police and bailed to a different address. The matter was referred to the Highbury Corner Magistrates' Court on 05 October 2016 where a first hearing took place. The Defendant pleaded not guilty and the trial was fixed for 17 November 2016. However, the trial did not proceed due to insufficient support as the elderly tenant was unable to attend Court due to health reasons. A copy of a letter from the Magistrate Court is attached to this statement at pages 25-26.

5. The Defendant was previously known to the Claimant and an anti-social behaviour order was made on 4 August 2015 by the Magistrates Court to prevent him from knowingly using or supplying property, personal or otherwise, for the use in a rave as defined in s.63(1) of the Criminal Justice Order Act 1994. The order was made for a duration of 5 years. A copy of the Order is at page 27 of the exhibit bundle.

continued that sometime around mid-September 2016, one of the Defendant's neighbours reported that the Defendant confronted him outside his block as he was going to the local park and started to shout abuse and threats at him and said to him "I can get you over at the park, I know you go for a walk". 11. I had meetings with Mr. George Quinton, one of the Defendant's neighbours on 16th December 2016 and 11th January 2017. He reported that he was experiencing problems with the Defendant's behaviour, and that on 4th October 2016, the Defendant aggressively banged on his ceiling and accused him of making noise. 13. I hereby attach a case history detailing incidents of reports from Mr. Mathiyalagan about the abuse, threats and persistent intimidation by the Defendant. The case history is at pages 35 to 40 of the exhibit bundle LN1. It shows that Mr. Mathiyalagan reported incidents too numerous to set out in this statement about abuse, threats, attempts to extort money and intimidation by the Defendant. Examples are that the Defendant banged on his front door while his wife was alone at home with their young daughter and shouted abuse at his wife and asked her to turn off the bathroom taps. He also removed his electricity fuse thereby

14. Other examples of aggressive and anti-social behaviour reported by Mr. Mathiyalagan were that on 21st January 2017, the Defendant aggressively banged on his door, swore and shouted abuse and threats at him and his family and accused them of making noise.

15. On 9th June 2017, the Defendant attacked Mr. Mathiyalagan's cousin in the communal hallway as he returned from work late at night by grabbing him on the arm and neck thereby causing bruising to his arm and neck. The Defendant also snatched his mobile phone from him as he tried to record the incident.

16. On 16th June 2017, the Defendant confronted Mr. Mathiyalagan's wife as she was exiting the main entrance at 11:55am and said to her that he had her bank and personal details. He also reported that the Defendant told his wife that he wanted her and her husband to pay him some money.

He also reported that as they left the block, the Defendant ran after them swearing and shouting abuse and demanded that he must pay him money if he wants him to leave him alone. The Defendant also said to him that he has all their personal details. A report of the incident is at page 40 of the case history.

20. Case history notes exhibited at pages 41-46 show reports of similar aggressive and intimidating behaviour displayed to Mr. Mathiyalagan was being experienced by another tenant who wishes to remain anonymous because of fear of reprisal from the Defendant.

21. Similarly, further case notes exhibited at pages 47-52 show that another tenant who wishes to remain anonymous was being subjected to the Defendant's antisocial behaviour. She had to be moved from the block because of the harassment from the Defendant and because she suffered from mental health problems and was particularly vulnerable and unable to deal with the threats and harassment from the Defendant.

22. On 7th February 2017, the Defendant approached the leaseholder of 117 Bumcroft Avenue and his plumber outside the block as they were attempting to resolve low water pressure issues affecting the flat. The Defendant informed the leaseholder that there were problems between him and his tenants but did not give specific details. The leaseholder explained to the Defendant that his tenants were experiencing low water pressure in their flat and that they were trying to fix the problem. The Defendant said to the leaseholder, “you will not resolve the problem as I am restricting their water supply”. The leaseholder later asked the Defendant to increase the water pressure and the Defendant stated, "I cannot do anything at the moment, I will sort it out later”. A report of this incident is at page 55 of the exhibit bundle.

A copy of the file note is pages 56-57 of the exhibit bundle.

24. On 8th May 2017, the Claimant's officers, Ms. Fletcher, a Neighbourhood officer who has since left the Council and Mr. Steve Stirk, a surveyor visited the Defendant's block of flats following reports of low water pressure to flats 109, 113 and 117 Bumcroft Avenue. While the Claimant's officers were outside flat 113, the Defendant came up to them and started to complain about his perceived victimization by his neighbours, the police and the council. While the Defendant was talking to the officers, Mr. Mathiyalagan came down the stairs and the Defendant said to him, "I'm going to the police station now with my evidence about you and I'm going to ruin your life". A file note of this report is exhibited at page 58 of the exhibit bundle and an email from Steve Stirk is at page 59.

25. On 14th May 2017, yet another neighbour who wishes to remain anonymous reported that the Defendant aggressively banged on her door, shouted abuse and threats at her and falsely accused her of making noise and coming into his flat to attack him. The neighbour stated that the Defendant later followed her to her car as she was leaving the block shouting abuse and wanting to know where she was going. The neighbour also reported that the Defendant allowed his dog to roam freely in the communal area of the block without a lead. A file note of the report is at page 60 of the exhibit bundle LN1.

26. On 28th May 2017, the Defendant was issued with a first instance Harassment letter by the police following allegations of harassment and threatening behaviour made to the police by his neighbour. A copy of the letter and the PC's statement are at pages 61-62 of the exhibit bundle LN1.

The Defendant later shouted abuse and swear words at Mr. Gray and would not allow him to approach his car. Mr. Gray has provided a witness statement in relation to this incident.

44. The Claimant's operatives have had difficulties in accessing the Defendant's flat to inspect the state of the property and the unauthorised works and modifications which the Defendant is purported to have carried out without a written consent from the Claimant. The Claimant has also been unable to check whether the Defendant Is restricting water supply/pressure to the properties above his since December 2016. The Defendant has admitted to restricting the water supply but has refused to allow the Claimant's maintenance operatives access to his property to investigate and rectify the problem.

45. The Defendant has intimidated the residents in the entire block and because of his behaviour, we have received numerous complaints from residents, requests to be transferred from the block and we have had to move a vulnerable tenant from the block.

46. I have made attempts to engage with the Defendant, but he has not been cooperative and has continuously displayed abusive and threatening behaviour towards the Claimant's members of staff and his neighbours. A Notice of Seeking Possession has been served on him and possession action is being considered. However, in the meantime, this injunction is required to ensure that the other residents are not subjected to further intimidation and harassment by the Defendant. This application is being made without notice because if the Defendant were given notice, he would intimidate the witnesses in an attempt to prevent the order being made.

I visited Mr. Mathiyalagan at 117 Burncroft Avenue to day to look at the flooring following email from Mr. Cordell concerning noise as a result of wood flooring in the flat. I noticed that there is laminate flooring in the whole flat and ceramic tiles in the kitchen. Mr. Mathiyalagan stated that the flooring was already in the flat when they moved in. He stated that they do not make noise deliberately and that any noise from his flat is household noise. He also stated that as far as he is aware that the person living below them-), we not complained of noise and that he will be the one that will be affected if there are excessive issues from his flat. He also stated that he has asked the man- if they are causing noise disturbances arid he said they are not. He also requested that Mr. Cordell should contact the council if he is being disturbed by noise from his flat instead of harassing him and his family by banging on his front door, shouting abuse at him and his wife, threatening them and confronting them when they come into the block.
I informed him that laminate flooring can generate some noise and to be mindful of his neighbours while walking around inside his flat-
I then went and knocked at flat 113 but there was no response.

I did not stop to speak to him, and he ran after me until I turned left into Green Street. As he was running after my car, he was shouting at people passing by to stop the car.
By the time I returned to the office, Mr. Cordell had telephoned me several times. I telephoned him back and he wanted to know whether I was the person that posted a letter through his letterbox and I said yes. He asked why I did not stop when he ran after me and I told him that I had another visit and did not have the time to stop and talk to him. He stated that he will not attend the meeting at the Civic Centre or any of the council and that I should come to his flat. I offered to have the meeting at a neutral venue like the local library or even at his mother's house, but he refused and shouted to shout abuse and accuse me of taking sides with his neighbours. He denied doing the things that he is accused of doing and stated that he is the victim and that the council have refused to deal with his complaints against his neighbours. He stated that he has been suffering noise disturbances from his neighbours since he moved into his flat and that the council have refused to deal with it. He alleged that the council is conniving with the police to victimise him and threatened to put in a complaint - against me, He continued shouting abuse and will not let me say a word, I then advised him that I will have to terminate the conversation as we were getting nowhere.

Dear LEMMY NWABUISI
I am writing this email as I have just spoken to my son Simon Cordell and I believe a meeting has been set for the 26/07/2017 at 12:00 at your office. We would still like to have the meeting but could the location be changed to my home 23 Byron Terrace N9 7DG. I think it would be too much for my son to come to the office. If you could get back to me, I would be grateful.
Regards
Lorraine

Dear Ms. Cordell,
The meeting is at 2pm and not 12:00. It was Mr. Cordell himself that requested for the meeting and he offered to come to the Civic Centre. The meeting will be held in council offices, however if there are any health reasons why Mr. Cordell is unable to attend council offices then you will need to provide us with a doctor's letter stating what the health issues are. Alternatively, Mr. Cordell can respond to the allegations made against him in writing if he does not wish to meet with us in council offices to discuss them.

I visited Mr. Mathiyalagan at 117 Burncroft Avenue to day to look at the flooring following email from Mr. Cordell concerning noise as a result of wood flooring in the flat. I noticed that there is laminate flooring in the whole flat and ceramic tiles in the kitchen. Mr. Mathiyalagan stated that the flooring was already in the flat when they moved in. He stated that they do not make noise deliberately and that any noise from his flat is household noise. He also stated that as far as he is aware that the person living below them-), we not complained of noise and that he will be the one that will be affected if there are excessive issues from his flat. He also stated that he has asked the man- if they are causing noise disturbances arid he said they are not. He also requested that Mr. Cordell should contact the council if he is being disturbed by noise from his flat instead of harassing him and his family by banging on his front door, shouting abuse at him and his wife, threatening them and confronting them when they come into the block.
I informed him that laminate flooring can generate some noise and to be mindful of his neighbours while walking around inside his flat-
I then went and knocked at flat 113 but there was no response.

By the time I returned to the office, Mr. Cordell had telephoned me several times. He asked why I did not stop when he ran after me and I told him that I had another visit and did not have the time to stop and talk to him. He stated that he will not attend the meeting at the Civic Centre or any of the council and that I should come to his flat. I offered to have the meeting at a neutral venue like the local library or even at his mother's house, but he refused and shouted to shout abuse and accuse me of taking sides with his neighbours. He denied doing the things that he is accused of doing and stated that he is the victim and that the council have refused to deal with his complaints against his neighbours. He stated that he has been suffering noise disturbances from his neighbours since he moved into his flat and that the council have refused to deal with it. He alleged that the council is conniving with the police to victimise him and threatened to put in a complaint - against me, He continued shouting abuse and will not let me say a word, I then advised him that I will have to terminate the conversation as we were getting nowhere.

Summary!

My Heart has really started to hurt me every day, I am having an early aged mild heart attacks because of what Debra Andrews and the Mathiyalagan Markandu family as well as stain Curtis and George Quinton get and got away with, inclusively of what the police and local council members are getting away with each day by holding me hostage with no first hand witness and then on allowing my estate members to carry out their hate crime in a cover up to send me crazy or to an early death by flushing the toilet below me and bagging at me causing me sufferings and no peace also letting the named attack me when I am in the bath tub and getting undressed and this does not stop their I continue to get assaulted with the water taps getting slammed on and off causing a loud bagging sound at a fast rate and slamming object and or jumping on the floorboards above my head damaging my work studies and private family life and making me a Vulnerable person!
I have also had a lot of problems with eating because of what they keep all doing to me!
My dog has eaten its paws because of what the old tent of 113 and now the new tent of 113 and also that of the tents in the addresses of 117 and 111 are getting away with I have taken pictures of the damage this is doing to us in this flat!

Disrepair!

The correct ISO standards for me to live inside of my flat safely do not get complied with by the Enfield Homes and The Enfield Council complaints departments and this is unfair for me to suffer with!

3 Directorate of Professional Standards: Our Meeting Today. / Jamie Newman - John O'Brien / Katie J Heath / Alexander Marshall / Lambeth Borough Brixton / Jeanette Reilly / Police Constable / Serious Misconduct Investigation Unit (SMIU2A) / Directorate of Professional Standards / Complaint against Police / Time 17:23 – "Good afternoon, Lorraine, thank you for taking the team to meet with this afternoon, I found our meeting very useful in enabling me to better understand your complaint. To confirm, the first thing I shall consider is a referral to the CPS. I shall begin by examining what consideration was given to such a referral by the previous investigator, Jeannette Riley. Under the legislation that governs police complaints it is possible to seek guidance from the CPS where there is an indication that a criminal offence may have been committed; it is this test that I shall apply. Leaving the CPS issue aside for a moment and the possibility of criminal charges, I acknowledge your request to have sight of the PC Geoghegan's MG11 and notebook. Such a disclosure can be made under Schedule 3 of the Police Reform Act 2002. I shall revisit this request once the possibility of a CPS referral has been addressed. However, I fully intend to comply with such a request, subject to necessary redactions. Going forward, in addition your original points of complaint I shall also attempt to provide a clear explanation for the issues surrounding the misconduct meeting occurring before you had the opportunity to appeal to the IPCC. As I stated to you earlier today, the MPS can only apologise for this oversight. Additionally, as agreed, if you could send me Dean's details, or forward mine to him, that would be very much appreciated. Of course, I'll keep you updated every step of the away. If you've any questions in the meantime please do get in touch."

Subject: Our Meeting Today.
Good afternoon, Lorraine,
Thank you for taking the team to meet with this afternoon, I found our meeting very useful in enabling me to better understand your complaint. To confirm, the first thing I shall consider is a referral to the CPS. I shall begin by examining what consideration was given to such a referral by the previous investigator, Jeannette Riley. Under the legislation that governs police complaints it is possible to seek guidance from the CPS where there is an indication that a criminal offence may have been committed; it is this test that I shall apply. Leaving the CPS issue aside for a moment and the possibility of criminal charges, I acknowledge your request to have sight of the PC Geoghegan's MG11 and notebook. Such a disclosure can be made under Schedule 3 of the Police Reform Act 2002. I shall revisit this request once the possibility of a CPS referral has been addressed. However, I fully intend to comply with such a request, subject to necessary redactions. Going forward, in addition your original points of complaint I shall also attempt to provide a clear explanation for the issues surrounding the misconduct meeting occurring before you had the opportunity to appeal to the IPCC. As I stated to you earlier today, the MPS can only apologise for this oversight. Additionally, as agreed, if you could send me Dean's details, or forward mine to him, that would be very much appreciated. Of course, I'll keep you updated every step of the away. If you've any questions in the meantime please do get in touch.

To use our website, simply go to www.met.police.uk. 01:14 [inaudible] 01:19 metropolitan police what is your reason for your call. 01:20 Hello. I'm just trying to resolve some issues that I'm having and there are quite high graded issues. I was just wondering if I could go throw them with yourself. 01:28 Okay. What issues are they. 01:30 Okay. One is I understand that there's a law which is called the efficiency act 1999 and 2003 and what the efficiency act says that. If I'm talking to any official like yourself. May I ask your name, who I'm actually talking to first? 01:50 Yeah. My name is non auditable. 01:51 pardon? 01:51 Yeah, my name is Nerida. 01:54 Nerida. And, and where are you attached to my ask? 01:59 What do you mean were I attached to? 02:00 What, police station or what part, what borough, what command center, or police station. 02:06 His dead. 02:06 You have not come throw to a police station; you have come throw to the 101 line the nonemergency line for the whole of London. 02:10 Yeah, the non-emergency line says to MET CC. I've gone through two itself, what center have I gone throw to Lambeth, Bow, who am I? What borough am I actually, what command center am I speaking to? What CCC? 02:21 Why don't you tell me what the reason is for your call and I will? 02:23 I'm just asking general inquiries. Who I'm actually talking to, which borough I'm actually talking to? Who am I actually talking to? 02:30 Ok, I'll give you the reference number, the reference number and my name are sufficient details to find out everything you need to know. What are you just telling? 02:37 Okay. What my problem is. under the efficiency Act 1999, if I tell you something that means that a colleague or another person that's representing the Metropolitan Police Badge has acted with misconduct and or Negligence, neglect or acted as an unreasonable person or has and is still at large still acting as an officer? You have a duty to force the oath of alliance that get signed up to and you have a duty to us as the public and yourself to actually report them. On goings now I've had to build a website because I've made multiple calls because I'm being held illegally in my house. Um, it's very clear that I'm being held illegally. I've had to build a website and I was wondering if you had Google available so I could show you why I'm actually complaining about I've had to build an official. Official Report. 03:26 Okay. You're calling to make a complaint. 03:28 Um, it's more than just a complaint, it's a matter of emergency. It's something that has to be dealt with today and should not be allowed to be allowed to continue. So yeah, it's a complaint, a complaint. We will lead off of this, but this is something that has to be dealt with as a, as a matter of an emergency, as a tire tear, graded level within the police force, there's corrupt offices that can be proved. I've got lots of police officers like yourself and lots of 'erm or servants like I've got lots of people from Met CCC, that I called and throughout asking for help for this and I've been left, told me I've been robbed and nothing. I've had to translate all of these recordings and now they're all on my website. And I was wondering if you could have Google so I can just show you before, because I have not made it go public yet, so I'm hoping we could. 03:28. 04:10 Yep. 04:10 still, there's still a chance that we can deal with this behind closed doors because I seem to have a lot of upper, 04:16 sorry to interrupt you, can I, is it because you'd been mistreated? 04:21 It's worse than I'm being. I'm being held captive in my house because police officers forged paperwork then missing all their signatures on the MGA 11 forms, I'm not the right color to fit the crimes in the beginning. Plus, the offense, the, they said the organization of illegal Raves, I never got arrested for something that's illegal, but they advertise in the newspaper that I have been arrested for something that is Illegal and I've gotten a, I've gotten a nine-year curfew, we'll say eight years. 04:45 There dead. 04:45 curfew and that eight-year curfew, if even if I did like wasn't enough evidence for criminal conviction, the maximum sentence a person should do is six months. I've got, I've got, I've got, I'm being held in my house with no signatures. Each police officers done four statements each and they're missing their signatures at the bottom of them. All of the timestamps to your 999-call center go backwards. 05:06 Well they're all of them to this one Pacific location progress way because they, and they had to. 05:12 There dead. 05:12 make up the witness calls and put them in; 05:14 Dead. You keep saying that I am is that you're dead. You keep saying down the phone because this is why I keep translating. If you want to go to the website and see like me prove the other people doing this. They're telling me I've been robbed. Just like you're telling me I'm dead. I don't think that that's fair that you keep repeating that to me and that you're being paid a salary to do so. I think it's unprofessional behaviour and I feel, I feel it is threatening my life. I fought for it and threatened my life for it. You can't blame me if you are saying something different because I don't believe that you are saying something different. I believe the term tape recordings I'm recording of this conversation now will prove that what I'm saying as the other officers and the other people that I've spoken to have told me, they've told me I've been robbed. 05:51 I'm a black boy on the block. If you go to my website right now, you have Google available to yourselves in there. Have you had Google available watch because I'm not made this go public and I've got a lot of emails here to send this out or make it go live and we can deal with this behind closed doors? You and your officials and me in a in a way where you're not going to try and take my life to cover up just to make sure that police officers don't lose their jobs. Yeah. Cause my life is more important than any job that any person is doing. Yeah, I believe that. I believe that you should have a look at this website. Use lot should, the website is called horrific corruption.com and you can see the Asbo by folded Were 06:31 non-Audible. 06:31 is this your website. Let me just take your name first so I know who I am speaking to. What is your name please? 06:35 My name is Mr. Simon Paul Cordell. 06:40 How are you spelling the surname please. 06:44 C. O. R. D. E.L.L. 06:45 Thank you and can I take your date of birth just for information. 06:48 The 2. 06:51 thank you and just to ask, are you at your home address now? 06:55 Yes, that's correct. I'm at my home address right this second. 06:58 O.K. can I take the address. 06:59 I'm about to go out but the address 109 Burncroft avenue. The website's about to go live right this second horrific corruption.com and the website and my address is 109 Burncroft avenue. I've got cameras in the front of my room and I've got cameras at my door. I've got audio equipment and my door and I've got and I've got a gate inside of my house to protect my safety. I also have a dog here and I do not intend to and do not want no police officers sent to my home address. The number of recordings I have of police officers coming into. 07:27 I am sorry to interrupt you Simon, listen what is your postcode? 07:30 E. Echo. November, 3, seven Juliet Quebec. 07:34 Okay. Is that in Enfield? 07:35 Yes, that's correct. 07:38 Burncroft, Burncroft Avenue. 07:38 Yes, that is correct. 07:38 Ok, 109 and you are at home at the moment. 07:41 Yes, that is correct. 07:44 So, what was your websites called horrific corruption.com. 07:45 the website is called horrific corruption.com and it's just going live right this second. It will be alive in less than three to five seconds from now and you can see all of them. You can see all the Asbo folders and you can see with the missing signatures you can see all the missing signatures in it. This Lemmy gentleman is now coming in 2016 for Enfield Council and he's made. 08:05 non-Auditable. 08:05 exactly the same, same, same misconduct as what I or claim that the police officers here done what they've actually done. What led me is actually been found to do now is he, while I was in hospital, because I got set up in a mental hospital because, and I've got the police officers who come into my house at that time and the councils on recording in there as well. 08:24 They all went through my medical notes. They're all going throw the Asbo and admitting that I'm not the right color. And then there's no signatures. But yet they've still, since 2014 been able to deal with these issues and being spreading in the general public that I've got disease when in my front room, in 2014 in in them recordings, they all admit that I'm, that I'm not the right color for the Asbo the signatures are missing and they go throw my medical notes and see I haven't got a disease so why have they victimize me and endangered Heidi life and Shannon's life and everyone else is to evade justice, which is them face facing, disciplinary for loss of their, for the things that they wrote and what they're making me Punishable and held captive in my house where I'm scared to leave my house before 10 o'clock cause they're still working in the same borough. 09:04 I've got the calls, when I phoned a police office. 09:06 You have. 09:06 for support the same polices friends are coming to my front door and they're telling me that I'm, I'm, I'm trying to do their friends. That isn't correct. Yeah. Now I've thought this horrific corruption.com and it proves what I'm saying, what they've done. Now Lemmy has gone himself and he has falsified all of his logs because I've got all of the council's history and the FOI through a freedom of information act of all of the claimants that was making claims of me. And on the phone, I phoned Lemmy and explained to Lemmy who's a council official for the Enfield Council. Who made the Asbo We've use lot in the beginning? I explained to Lemmy on the phone that um, please, can you tell me when the last complaint is against me? I don't see why I should have to come for, to the end field council to meet you. I've already been arrested for these cases that you're accusing me of and I've been found not guilty at. You're not a police officer. That's in treatment now. He went on the computer. You can hear him typing on the computer and he gives a date for the last claimant's claim. Me being cheeky, me. I said to him Well there out of the time limitation at 1980 on the phone. So Lemmy got, the hump. 10:08 Ok Simon. 10:10 yeah. 10:12 Sorry to interrupt you but I've just made a new description of what you have been saying to me, I'll just put all of this onto this call, what I'm going to give you the reference number and I am also going to attach this to my duty officer, who will be giving you a call back, to discuss this further with you. 10:28 Yeah, targeted malaise is as it's a 12-year sentence and breach of public office, which are clearly can prove that a lot of your workers have done beforehand. Before I spoke to you, um, it's a 12-year sentence. Well, and I'm not joking about here. I'm about to go public. If someone doesn't talk to me behind closed doors and clean this up neatly. Yeah. And someone trying to take me or put me in fear of my life or scare me out of the country that I was born in is a very large mistake by them. Yeah. Because no one else is going to endanger my life any further than what it's been endangered. 10:55 ok. 10:55 I'm going to leave that website on for half an hour and if use lot want to go through it and please get a superior to phone me and we and we see if we can sort this out in a professional manner. 11:05 There is a simple way for this all to be dropped. Yeah, I really did get set up for them Facebook profiles to be a grass and grass up two people that buggered off and left me on curfew and three kids. I don't know. That could be your children. That just want to buy sound systems and throw parties. Now while I was on curfew, I couldn't have thrown these parties. I'm being accused of then straight after they served me this folder and wanting me to grass up all these people, they're saying rib um rib um, ribbon. 11:32 Listen, what I'm going to do is I'm going to pass that up to my duty officer and they will be giving you a call back to discuss that with you sir. 11:37 The Facebook profile is on one, on the, on the first Asbo and you can check out. You can listen to some of yourselves and you can see the transcripts on the audios and you can start seeing how use lot have been treating me or your colleagues have been treating me While I want to, or why I want to know why they haven't acted the efficiency Act 1999. 11:54 and 2003 the efficiency act. Remember that? That's a good one. 11:59 Okay. Okay. let me speak because I have listened to you now so can you listen to me, please. 01:14 [inaudible]

01:19 metropolitan police what is your reason for your call.

01:20 Hello. I'm just trying to resolve some issues that I'm having and there quite high graded issues. I was just wondering if I could go throw them with yourself.

01:28 Okay. What issues are they.

01:30 Okay. One is I understand that there's a law which is called the efficiency act 1999 and 2003 and what the efficiency act says that. If I'm talking to any official like yourself. May I ask your name, who I'm actually talking to first?
01:50 Yeah. My name is non auditable.
01:51 pardon?
01:51 Yeah, my name is NERINDA.
01:54 NERINDA. And, and where are you attached to my ask?
01:59 What do you mean were am I attached to?
02:00 What, police station or what part, what borough, what command centre, or police station.
02:06 His dead.
02:06 You have not come throw to a police station; you have come throw to the 101 line the none emergency line for the whole of London.
02:10 Yeah, the non-emergency line says to MET CC. I've gone through two itself, what centre have I gone throw to Lambeth, Bow, who am I? What borough am I actually, what command centre am I speaking to? What CCC?
02:21 Why don't you tell me what the reason is for your call, and I will?
02:23 I'm just asking general inquiries. Who I'm actually talking to, which borough I'm actually talking to? Who am I actually talking to?
02:30 Ok, I'll give you the reference number, the reference number and my name are sufficient details to find out everything you need to know. What are you just telling?
02:37 Okay. What my problem is. under the efficiency Act 1999, if I tell you something that means that a colleague or another person that's representing the Metropolitan Police Badge has acted with misconduct and or Negligence, neglect or acted as an unreasonable person or has and is still at large still acting as an officer? You have a duty to the force to the oath of alliance that get signed up to and you have a duty to us as the public and yourself to actually report them. On goings now I've had to build a website because I've made multiple calls because I'm being held illegally in my house. Um, it's very clear that I'm being held illegally. I've had to build a website and I was wondering if you had Google available so I could show you why I'm actually complaining about I've had to build an official. Official Report.
03:26 Okay. You're calling to make a complaint.
03:28 Um, it's more than just a complaint, it's a matter of emergency. It's something that has to be dealt with today and should not be allowed to be allowed to continue. So yeah, it's a complaint, a complaint. We will lead off of this, but this is something that has to be dealt with as a, as a matter of an emergency, as a tire tear, graded level within the police force, there's corrupt offices that can be proved. I've got lots of police officers like yourself and lots of 'EM or servants like I've got lots of people from Met CCC, that I called and throughout asking for help for this and I've been left, told me I've been robbed and nothing. I've had to translate all of these recordings and now they're all on my website. And I was wondering if you could have Google so I can just show you before, because I have not made it go public yet, so I'm hoping we could.
04:10 Yep.
04:10 still, there's still a chance that we can deal with this behind closed doors because I seem to have a lot of upper,
04:16 sorry to interrupt you, can I, is it because you'd been mistreated?
04:21 It's worse than I'm being. I'm being held captive in my house because police officers forged paperwork then missing all their signatures on the MGA 11 forms I'm not the right colour to fit the crimes in the beginning. Plus, the offense, the, they said the organization of illegal Raves, I never got arrested for something that's illegal, but they advertise in the newspaper that I have been arrested for something that is Illegal and I've gotten a, I've gotten a nine-year curfew, we'll say eight years.

04:45 There dead.
04:45 curfew and that eight-year curfew, if even if I did like wasn't enough evidence for criminal conviction, the maximum sentence a person should do is six months. I've got, I've got, I've got, I'm being held in my house with no signatures. Each police officers done four statements each and they're missing their signatures at the bottom of them. All of the timestamps to your 999-call centre go backwards.
05:06 Well they're all of them to this one Pacific location progress way because they, and they had to.
05:12 There dead.
05:12 make up the witness calls and put them in;
05:14 Dead. You keep saying that I am is that you're dead. You keep saying down the phone because this is why I keep translating. If you want to go to the website and see like well me prove the other people doing this. They're telling me I've been robbed. Just like you're telling me I'm dead. I don't think that that's fair that you keep repeating that to me and that you're being paid a salary to do so. I think its unprofessional behaviour and I feel, I feel it is threatening my life. I fought for it and threaten my life for it. You can't blame me if you are saying something different because I don't believe that you are saying something different. I believe the term tape recordings I'm recording of this conversation now will prove that what I'm saying as the other officers and the other people that I've spoken to have told me, they've told me I've been robbed.
05:51 I'm a black boy on the block. If you go to my website right now, you have Google available to yourselves in there. Have you had Google available watch because I'm not made this go public and I've got a lot of emails here to send this out or make it go live and we can deal with this behind closed doors? You and your officials and me in a in a way where you're not going to try and take my life to cover up just to make sure that police officers don't lose their jobs. Yeah. Cause my life is more important than any job that any person is doing. Yeah, I believe that. I believe that you should have a look at this website. Use lot should, the website is called horrific corruption.com and you can see the Asbo by folded Were 06:31 non-Audible.
06:31 is this your website. Let me just take your name first so I know who I am speaking to. What is your name please?
06:35 My name is Mr. Simon Paul Cordell.
06:40 How are you spelling the surname please.
06:44 C. O. R. D. E.L.L.
06:45 Thank you and can I take your date of birth just for information.
06:48 The 26/01/1981.
06:51 thank you and just to ask are you at your home address now?
06:55 Yes, that's correct. I'm at my home address right this second.
06:58 O.K. can I take the address.
06:59 I'm about to go out but the address 109 Burncroft avenue. The website's about to go live right this second horrific corruption.com and the website and my address is 109 Burncroft avenue. I've got cameras in my front room and I've got cameras at my door. I've got audio equipment and my door and I've got and I've got a gate inside of my house to protect my safety. I also have a dog here and I do not intend to and do not want no police officers sent to my home address. The number of recordings I have of police officers coming into.
07:27 I am sorry to interrupt you Simon, listen what is your postcode?
07:30 E. Echo. November, 3, seven Juliet Quebec.

07:34 Okay. Is that in Enfield?
07:35 Yes, that's correct.
07:38 Burncroft, Burncroft Avenue.
07:38 Yes, that is correct.
07:38 Ok, 109 and you are at home at the moment.
07:41 Yes, that is correct.
07:44 So, what was your websites called horrific corruption.com.
07:45 the website is called horrific corruption.com and it's just going live right this second. It will be alive in less than three to five seconds from now and you can see all of them. You can see all the Asbo folders and you can see with the missing signatures you can see all the missing signatures in it. This Lemmy gentleman is now coming in 2016 for Enfield Council and he's made.
08:05 non-Auditable.
08:05 exactly the same, same, same misconduct as what I or claim that the police officers here done what they've actually done. What led me is actually been found to do now is he, while I was in hospital, because I got set up in a mental hospital because, and I've got the police officers who come into my house at that time and the councils on recording in there as well.
08:24 They all went through my medical notes. They're all going throw the Asbo and admitting that I'm not the right colour. And then there's no signatures. But yet they've still, since 2014 been able to deal with these issues and being spreading in the general public that I've got disease when in my front room, in 2014 in in them recordings, they all admit that I'm, that I'm not the right colour for the Asbo the signatures are missing and they go throw my medical notes and see I haven't got a disease so why have they victimize me and endangered Heidi life and Shannon's life and everyone else is to evade justice, which is them face facing, disciplinary for loss of their, for the things that they wrote and what they're making me Punishable and held captive in my house where I'm scared to leave my house before 10 o'clock cause they're still working in the same borough.
09:04 I've got the calls, when I phoned a police office.
09:06 You have.
09:06 for support the same polices friends are coming to my front door and they're telling me that I'm, I'm, I'm trying to do their friends. That isn't correct. Yeah. Now I've thought this horrific corruption.com and it proves what I'm saying, what they've done. Now Lemmy has gone himself and he has falsified all of his logs because I've got all of the council's history and the FOI through a freedom of information act of all of the claimants that was making claims of me. And on the phone, I phoned Lemmy and explained to Lemmy who's a council official for the Enfield Council. Who made the Asbo We've use lot in the beginning? I explained to Lemmy on the phone that um, please, can you tell me when the last complaint is against me? I don't see why I should have to come for, to the end field council to meet you. I've already been arrested for these cases that you're accusing me of and I've been found not guilty at. You're not a police officer. That's in treatment now. He went on the computer. You can hear him typing on the computer and he gives a date for the last claimant's claim. Me being cheeky, me. I said to him Well there out of the time limitation at 1980 on the phone. So Lemmy got, the hump.
10:08 Ok Simon.
10:12 Sorry to interrupt you but I've just made a new description of what you have been saying to me, I'll just put all of this onto this call, what I'm going to give you the reference number and I am also going to attach this to my duty officer, who will be giving you a call back, to discuss this further with you.

10:28 Yeah, targeted malaise is as it's a 12-year sentence and breach of public office, which are clearly can prove that a lot of your workers have done beforehand. Before I spoke to you, um, it's a 12-year sentence. Well, and I'm not joking about here. I'm about to go public. If someone doesn't talk to me behind closed doors and clean this up neatly. Yeah. And someone trying to take me or put me in fear of my life or scare me out of the country that I was born in is a very large mistake by them. Yeah. Because no one else is going to endanger my life any further than what it's been endangered.
10:55 I'm going to leave that website on for half an hour and if use lot want to go through it and please get a superior to phone me and we and we see if we can sort this out in a professional manner.
11:05 There is a simple way for this all to be dropped. Yeah, I really did get set up for them Facebook profiles to be a grass and grass up two people that buggered off and left me on curfew and three kids. I don't know. That could be your children. That just want to buy sound systems and throw parties. Now while I was on curfew, I couldn't have thrown these parties. I'm being accused of then straight after they served me this folder and wanting me to grass up all these people, they're saying rib um rib um, ribbon.
11:32 Listen, what I'm going to do is I'm going to pass that up to my duty officer and they will be giving you a call back to discuss that with you sir.
11:37 The Facebook profile is on one, on the, on the first Asbo and you can check out. You can listen to some of yourselves and you can see the transcripts on the audios and you can start seeing how use lot have been treating me or your colleagues have been treating me While I want to, or why I want to know why they haven't acted the efficiency Act 1999.
11:54 and 2003 the efficiency act. Remember that? That's a good one.
11:59 Okay. Okay. let me speak because I have listened to you now so can you listen to me, please. I have written it all down for you it is a recorded line as you said it is all written down for you and I will be passing this information on to my duty manager and you will be getting a call back.
12:07 Ok, Ok.
12:07 I got you a reference number Please.
12:16 Yes certainly.
12:16 the call reference number is Cad Carley Echo delta, seven five one, one seven of today's date.
12:28 Seven five and then today's date.
12:30 Yes.
12:30 That is Perfect. I'm sorry to have to call you about this.
12:33 No problem umm, As I say my duty officer will be giving you a call back to discuss this further with you.
12:40 thank you. Have a good day, sir.
12:43 ok you to.

2. I make this Witness Statement in support of the Claimant's application for an injunction to stop the Defendant from causing Intimidation, harassment to me and other residents.

BACKGROUND

3. The problem with the Defendant started a few months after we moved into the property, after the Defendant approached me asking me to write a letter of support in relation to a problem, he was having with the lady that used to live at Flat 113 Bumcroft Avenue. I refused to write the letter and told the Defendant that I do not want to get involved as I did not have any problems with the lady. Since then, the Defendant has made living in this block difficult for me and my family. He has been very aggressive to my family and I and has continuously intimidated, threatened and harassed my wife, cousin and me.

4. The Defendant have repeatedly accused us of making noise inside our flat even though our flat is situated two floors above his and the person living directly below us have never complained to us about noise. He has shouted abuse at us, damaged our properties and aggressively demanded money from me. My family and I are constantly living in fear and my wife are frightened to stay at home and has had to accompany me to work on several occasions and stayed in the car with our young daughter until I finish work.

5. The Defendant has slashed my car tyres, damaged my fuse box and has physically threatened to hit me with a piece of wood. He has a big dog that he brings out with him without a lead when he approaches us, and he has used the dog to intimidate us. He also allows the dog to bark and run freely inside the communal hallway and staircase without a lead. I have reported

37. On 9th June 2017, my cousin returned from work late at night and as he opened the main communal door, the Defendant came out of his flat and started to shout abuse at him. As my cousin brought out his mobile phone to record the incident, the Defendant snatched the phone from him. A struggle ensued as my cousin tried to get his phone back from the Defendant. The Defendant then physically attacked my cousin; he grabbed my cousin round his arm and neck and injured his arm thereby causing It to bleed. 41. On 28th June 2017 at 11:45am, the Defendant confronted my wife outside the main entrance door as she was going to pick up our daughter from school and demanded to talk to her. My wife told him that she cannot stop to speak with him as she was on her way to collect her daughter from school, but the Defendant ran after my wife, stood in front of her and started to shout at her. The Defendant told my wife that he knows all our personal details including our full names, date of birth and bank details. The Defendant demanded that we should pay him some money and that my wife should tell me to come and talk to him. The Defendant also accused my wife of making noises inside our flat.

42. On 30th June 2017 at 11:45am, the Defendant confronted my wife as she was leaving the block to go and pick up our daughter from school and accused her of slamming the door. My wife denied slamming the door and the Defendant called her a liar and proceeded to swear and shout abuse at her.

43. On 2nd July 2017 at 5:18pm, my family and I was going out to visit some friends and as we were about to exit the block, the Defendant popped his head out of his front door and asked me when I was going to hand over the money to him. I told him that I was not going to give him any money and that he should go and work so that he could earn some money. As we left the block, the Defendant came running after us and was shouting abuse and swearing at me and said to me that I should pay him some money if I want him to leave me and my family alone. The Defendant also said to me that he has all our personal details including phone numbers, date of birth and bank details and that I must pay him to have them back. I told him that I will not pay him and to do whatever he likes with the details.

44. The constant verbal abuse, swearing, intimidation and aggressive behaviour from the Defendant towards my family and I have made it difficult for us to live in our own home. The fear of not knowing when we will be confronted with vile and aggressive behaviour as my wife and I go out or return to our home has caused us severe stress and anxiety. My wife is afraid of leaving our flat on her own due to fear that the Defendant will confront and shout abuse at her. We are having to tip-toe inside our flat for fear of being accused of making noise even though we live two floors above the Defendant. The Defendant has caused us immense hardship by vandalising my property and although I cannot prove it, I am certain that the Defendant was responsible for slashing my car tyres, damaging my meter cupboard and removing my electricity fuse several times and restricting water flow to my flat, Also, I no longer park my car outside my block in Bumcroft Avenue because of the car being vandalized. I now park a few streets away, about ten or fifteen minutes from my home instead of outside my block which is about a minute from my flat. I do not see why we should have to live this way.

2. I make this Witness Statement in support of the Claimant's application for an injunction to stop the Defendant from causing intimidation, harassment and alarm to other residents and their visitors on Burncroft Avenue.

3. The Defendant is a secure tenant of the Claimant at 109 Burncroft Avenue, Enfield, Middlesex, EN3 7JQ. His tenancy commenced on 14th August 2006. I hereby attach a bundle of documents relating to this case as exhibit number LN1. A copy of the Defendant's tenancy agreement and terms and conditions are hereby attached at pages 1-24.

4. The reports concerning the Defendant's alleged anti-social behaviour towards his neighbours was first brought to my attention in October 2016 when a case involving the Defendant and one of his neighbours was referred to me for investigation. The Defendant was reported to have caused frequent acts of harassment and anti-social behaviour against an elderly neighbour. The Defendant was arrested by the Police and bailed to a different address. The matter was referred to the Highbury Corner Magistrates' Court on 05 October 2016 where a first hearing took place. The Defendant pleaded not guilty and the trial was fixed for 17 November 2016. However, the trial did not proceed due to insufficient support as the elderly tenant was unable to attend Court due to health reasons. A copy of a letter from the Magistrate Court is attached to this statement at pages 25-26.

5. The Defendant was previously known to the Claimant and an anti-social behaviour order was made on 4 August 2015 by the Magistrates Court to prevent him from knowingly using or supplying property, personal or otherwise, for the use in a rave as defined in s.63(1) of the Criminal Justice Order Act 1994. The order was made for a duration of 5 years. A copy of the Order is at page 27 of the exhibit bundle.

A file note of this report is exhibited at pages 28-30 of the exhibit bundle LN1.

7. On 8th August 2016, Mr. Mathiyalagan reported that the Defendant aggressively banged on his front door, shouted abuse at him and his wife and accused them of making noise. continued that sometime around mid-September 2016, one of the Defendant's neighbours reported that the Defendant confronted him outside his block as he was going to the local park and started to shout abuse and threats at him and said to him "I can get you over at the park, I know you go for a walk". This incident led to his arrest and to the matter being referred to the Magistrates Court. A file note of the report is exhibited on page 31 of the exhibit bundle LN1.

11. I had meetings with Mr. George Quinton, one of the Defendant's neighbours on 16th December 2016 and 11th January 2017. He reported that he was experiencing problems with the Defendant's behaviour, and that on 4th October 2016, the Defendant aggressively banged on his ceiling and accused him of making noise. The Defendant then went to the neighbour's flat upstairs and started kicking and banging on the front door and was swearing and shouting at. him. The Defendant later went downstairs, dragged the neighbour's motorbike from where it was parked and started to hit it with a piece of wood. A file note of the report is at pages 32-34 of the exhibit bundle.

12. On 22nd November 2016, during a telephone conversation with my former colleague Ms. Sarah Fletcher, the Defendant was heard saying to his mother, who was present with him, 'I'm goanna do her over, I'm goanna take her job just for fun' referring to Ms. Fletcher. A file note of the incident is at page 34A of the exhibit bundle.

13. I hereby attach a case history detailing incidents of reports from Mr. Mathiyalagan about the abuse, threats and persistent intimidation by the Defendant. The case history is at pages 35 to 40 of the exhibit bundle LN1. It shows that Mr. Mathiyalagan reported incidents too numerous to set out in this statement about abuse, threats, attempts to extort money and intimidation by the Defendant. Examples are that the Defendant banged on his front door while his wife was alone at home with their young daughter and shouted abuse at his wife and asked her to turn off the bathroom taps. He also removed his electricity fuse thereby

14. Other examples of aggressive and anti-social behaviour reported by Mr. Mathiyalagan were that on 21st January 2017, the Defendant aggressively banged on his door, swore and shouted abuse and threats at him and his family and accused them of making noise.

15. On 9th June 2017, the Defendant attacked Mr. Mathiyalagan's cousin in the communal hallway as he returned from work late at night by grabbing him on the arm and neck thereby causing bruising to his arm and neck. The Defendant also snatched his mobile phone from him as he tried to record the incident.

He also reported that as they left the block, the Defendant ran after them swearing and shouting abuse and demanded that he must pay him money if he wants him to leave him alone. The Defendant also said to him that he has all their personal details. A report of the incident is at page 40 of the case history.

20. Case history notes exhibited at pages 41-46 show reports of similar aggressive and intimidating behaviour displayed to Mr. Mathiyalagan was being experienced by another tenant who wishes to remain anonymous because of fear of reprisal from the Defendant.

21. Similarly, further case notes exhibited at pages 47-52 show that another tenant who wishes to remain anonymous was being subjected to the Defendant's antisocial behaviour. She had to be moved from the block because of the harassment from the Defendant and because she suffered from mental health problems and was particularly vulnerable and unable to deal with the threats and harassment from the Defendant.

22. On 7th February 2017, the Defendant approached the leaseholder of 117 Bumcroft Avenue and his plumber outside the block as they were attempting to resolve low water pressure issues affecting the flat. The Defendant informed the leaseholder that there were problems between him and his tenants but did not give specific details. The leaseholder explained to the Defendant that his tenants were experiencing low water pressure in their flat and that they were trying to fix the problem. The Defendant said to the leaseholder, “you will not resolve the problem as I am restricting their water supply”. The leaseholder later asked the Defendant to increase the water pressure and the Defendant stated, "I cannot do anything at the moment, I will sort it out later”. A report of this incident is at page 55 of the exhibit bundle.

23. On 24th February 2017, the Claimants officers Sarah Fletcher and Steve Kirk attended the Defendant’s property following reports of low water pressure in the

24. On 8th May 2017, the Claimant's officers, Ms. Fletcher, a Neighbourhood officer who has since left the Council and Mr. Steve Stirk, a surveyor visited the Defendant's block of flats following reports of low water pressure to flats 109, 113 and 117 Bumcroft Avenue. While the Claimant's officers were outside flat 113, the Defendant came up to them and started to complain about his perceived victimization by his neighbours, the police and the council. While the Defendant was talking to the officers, Mr. Mathiyalagan came down the stairs and the Defendant said to him, "I'm going to the police station now with my evidence about you and I'm going to ruin your life". A file note of this report is exhibited at page 58 of the exhibit bundle and an email from Steve Stirk is at page 59.

25. On 14th May 2017, yet another neighbour who wishes to remain anonymous reported that the Defendant aggressively banged on her door, shouted abuse and threats at her and falsely accused her of making noise and coming into his flat to attack him. The neighbour stated that the Defendant later followed her to her car as she was leaving the block shouting abuse and wanting to know where she was going. The neighbour also reported that the Defendant allowed his dog to roam freely in the communal area of the block without a lead. A file note of the report is at page 60 of the exhibit bundle LN1.

26. On 28th May 2017, the Defendant was issued with a first instance Harassment letter by the police following allegations of harassment and threatening behaviour made to the police by his neighbour. A copy of the letter and the PC's statement are at pages 61-62 of the exhibit bundle LN1.

Mr. Neville Gray attended the Defendant's flat again at about 5:39pm following reports from the leaseholder of flat 117 Burncroft House that the water supply had stopped completely, but the Defendant also refused him access. The Defendant later shouted abuse and swear words at Mr. Gray and would not allow him to approach his car. Mr. Gray has provided a witness statement in relation to this incident.

The Claimant's operatives have had difficulties in accessing the Defendant's flat to inspect the state of the property and the unauthorised works and modifications which the Defendant is purported to have carried out without a written consent from the Claimant. The Claimant has also been unable to check whether the Defendant Is restricting water supply/pressure to the properties above his since December 2016. The Defendant has admitted to restricting the water supply but has refused to allow the Claimant's maintenance operatives access to his property to investigate and rectify the problem.
48. The Defendant has intimidated the residents in the entire block and because of his behaviour, we have received numerous complaints from residents, requests to be transferred from the block and we have had to move a vulnerable tenant from the block.
49. I have made attempts to engage with the Defendant, but he has not been cooperative and has continuously displayed abusive and threatening behaviour towards the Claimant's members of staff and his neighbours. A Notice of Seeking Possession has been served on him and possession action is being considered. However, in the meantime, this injunction is required to ensure that the other residents are not subjected to further intimidation and harassment by the Defendant. This application is being made without notice because if the Defendant were given notice, he would intimidate the witnesses in an attempt to prevent the order being made.

I visited Mr. Mathiyalagan at 117 Burncroft Avenue to day to look at the flooring following email from Mr. Cordell concerning noise as a result of wood flooring in the flat. I noticed that there is laminate flooring in the whole flat and ceramic tiles in the kitchen. Mr. Mathiyalagan stated that the flooring was already in the flat when they moved in. He stated that they do not make noise deliberately and that any noise from his flat is household noise. He also stated that as far as he is aware that the person living below them-), we not complained of noise and that he will be the one that will be affected if there are excessive issues from his flat. He also stated that he has asked the man- if they are causing noise disturbances arid he said they are not. He also requested that Mr. Cordell should contact the council if he is being disturbed by noise from his flat instead of harassing him and his family by banging on his front door, shouting abuse at him and his wife, threatening them and confronting them when they come into the block.
I informed him that laminate flooring can generate some noise and to be mindful of his neighbours while walking around inside his flat-
I then went and knocked at flat 113 but there was no response.

By the time I returned to the office, Mr. Cordell had telephoned me several times. He stated that he will not attend the meeting at the Civic Centre or any of the council and that I should come to his flat. I offered to have the meeting at a neutral venue like the local library or even at his mother's house, but he refused and shouted to shout abuse and accuse me of taking sides with his neighbours. He denied doing the things that he is accused of doing and stated that he is the victim and that the council have refused to deal with his complaints against his neighbours. He stated that he has been suffering noise disturbances from his neighbours since he moved into his flat and that the council have refused to deal with it. He alleged that the council is conniving with the police to victimise him and threatened to put in a complaint - against me, He continued shouting abuse and will not let me say a word, I then advised him that I will have to terminate the conversation as we were getting nowhere.

Dear Mr. Vicky Jacobs

Thank you for taking the time to call me on the 23/06/2017, as spoke about please see the bank statement showing the DWP is still paying into my son's Simon Cordell Bank account, I have called the DWP to ask them to update that he is still getting benefits I do not understand why this has not been done. I am sorry it took a little longer to send the statement over to you, but I went to the bank 3 times and the machine was not working to print out statements. I have highlighted the payments from the DWP going into his account. Please let me know if you need any more information and if housing benefit has been restarted.
Best Regards
Lorraine Cordell

6. I make this Witness Statement in support of the Claimant's application for an injunction to stop the Defendant from causing Intimidation, harassment to me and other residents.

BACKGROUND

7. The problem with the Defendant started a few months after we moved into the property, after the Defendant approached me asking me to write a letter of support in relation to a problem, he was having with the lady that used to live at Flat 113 Bumcroft Avenue. I refused to write the letter and told the Defendant that I do not want to get involved as I did not have any problems with the lady. Since then, the Defendant has made living in this block difficult for me and my family. He has been very aggressive to my family and I and has continuously intimidated, threatened and harassed my wife, cousin and me.

8. The Defendant have repeatedly accused us of making noise inside our flat even though our flat is situated two floors above his and the person living directly below us have never complained to us about noise. He has shouted abuse at us, damaged our properties and aggressively demanded money from me. My family and I are constantly living in fear and my wife are frightened to stay at home and has had to accompany me to work on several occasions and stayed in the car with our young daughter until I finish work.

9. The Defendant has slashed my car tyres, damaged my fuse box and has physically threatened to hit me with a piece of wood. He has a big dog that he brings out with him without a lead when he approaches us, and he has used the dog to intimidate us. He also allows the dog to bark and run freely inside the communal hallway and staircase without a lead. I have reported was happening, the Defendant went back into his flat. We then called the police, they attended, and we explained what happened. The police then went and knocked on the Defendant's door, but he refused to let them in.

15. On 28th June 2017 at 11:45am, the Defendant confronted my wife outside the main entrance door as she was going to pick up our daughter from school and demanded to talk to her. My wife told him that she cannot stop to speak with him as she was on her way to collect her daughter from school, but the Defendant ran after my wife, stood in front of her and started to shout at her. The Defendant told my wife that he knows all our personal details including our full names, date of birth and bank details. The Defendant demanded that we should pay him some money and that my wife should tell me to come and talk to him. The Defendant also accused my wife of making noises inside our flat.

and bank details and that I must pay him to have them back. I told him that I will not pay him and to do whatever he likes with the details.

18. The constant verbal abuse, swearing, intimidation and aggressive behaviour from the Defendant towards my family and I have made it difficult for us to live in our own home. The fear of not knowing when we will be confronted with vile and aggressive behaviour as my wife and I go out or return to our home has caused us severe stress and anxiety. My wife is afraid of leaving our flat on her own due to fear that the Defendant will confront and shout abuse at her. We are having to tip-toe inside our flat for fear of being accused of making noise even though we live two floors above the Defendant. The Defendant has caused us immense hardship by vandalising my property and although I cannot prove it, I am certain that the Defendant was responsible for slashing my car tyres, damaging my meter cupboard and removing my electricity fuse several times and restricting water flow to my flat, Also, I no longer park my car outside my block in Bumcroft Avenue because of the car being vandalized. I now park a few streets away, about ten or fifteen minutes from my home instead of outside my block which is about a minute from my flat. I do not see why we should have to live this way.

I visited Mr. Mathiyalagan at 117 Burncroft Avenue to day to look at the flooring following email from Mr. Cordell concerning noise as a result of wood flooring in the flat. I noticed that there is laminate flooring in the whole flat and ceramic tiles in the kitchen. Mr. Mathiyalagan stated that the flooring was already in the flat when they moved in. He stated that they do not make noise deliberately and that any noise from his flat is household noise. He also stated that as far as he is aware that the person living below them-), we not complained of noise and that he will be the one that will be affected if there are excessive issues from his flat. He also stated that he has asked the man- if they are causing noise disturbances arid he said they are not. He also requested that Mr. Cordell should contact the council if he is being disturbed by noise from his flat instead of harassing him and his family by banging on his front door, shouting abuse at him and his wife, threatening them and confronting them when they come into the block.
I informed him that laminate flooring can generate some noise and to be mindful of his neighbours while walking around inside his flat-
I then went and knocked at flat 113 but there was no response.
17/02/2017:

I did not stop to speak to him, and he ran after me until I turned left into Green Street. As he was running after my car, he was shouting at people passing by to stop the car.
By the time I returned to the office, Mr. Cordell had telephoned me several times. I telephoned him back and he wanted to know whether I was the person that posted a letter through his letterbox and I said yes. He asked why I did not stop when he ran after me and I told him that I had another visit and did not have the time to stop and talk to him. He stated that he will not attend the meeting at the Civic Centre or any of the council and that I should come to his flat. I offered to have the meeting at a neutral venue like the local library or even at his mother's house, but he refused and shouted to shout abuse and accuse me of taking sides with his neighbours. He denied doing the things that he is accused of doing and stated that he is the victim and that the council have refused to deal with his complaints against his neighbours. He stated that he has been suffering noise disturbances from his neighbours since he moved into his flat and that the council have refused to deal with it. He alleged that the council is conniving with the police to victimise him and threatened to put in a complaint - against me, He continued shouting abuse and will not let me say a word, I then advised him that I will have to terminate the conversation as we were getting nowhere.

The Defendant told my wife that he knows all our personal details including our full names, date of birth and bank details. The Defendant demanded that we should pay him some money and that my wife should tell me to come and talk to him. The Defendant also accused my wife of making noises inside our flat.

20. On 30th June 2017 at 11:45am, the Defendant confronted my wife as she was leaving the block to go and pick up our daughter from school and accused her of slamming the door. My wife denied slamming the door and the Defendant called her a liar and proceeded to swear and shout abuse at her.

21. On 02nd July 2017 at 5:18pm, my family and I was going out to visit some friends and as we were about to exit the block, the Defendant popped his head out of his front door and asked me when I was going to hand over the money to him. I told him that I was not going to give him any money and that he should go and work so that he could earn some money. As we left the block, the Defendant came running after us and was shouting abuse, swearing at me, and said to me that I should pay him some money if I want him to leave me and my family alone. The Defendant also said to me that he has all our personal details including phone numbers, date of birth and bank details and that I must pay him to have them back. I told him that I will not pay him and to do whatever he likes with the details.

22. The constant verbal abuse, swearing, intimidation and aggressive behaviour from the Defendant towards my family and I have made it difficult for us to live in our own home. The fear of not knowing when we will be confronted with vile and aggressive behaviour as my wife, and I go out or return to our home has caused us severe stress and anxiety. My wife is afraid of leaving our flat on her own due to fear that the Defendant will confront and shout abuse at her. We are having to tip-toe inside our flat for fear of being accused of making noise even though we live two floors above the Defendant. The Defendant has caused us immense hardship by vandalising my property and although I cannot prove it, I am certain that the Defendant was responsible for slashing my car tyres, damaging my meter cupboard and removing my electricity fuse several times and restricting water flow to my flat, Also, I no longer park my car outside my block in Bumcroft Avenue because of the car being vandalized. I now park a few streets away, about ten or fifteen minutes from my home instead of outside my block which is about a minute from my flat. I do not see why we should have to live this way.

28. I make this Witness Statement in support of the Claimant's application for an injunction to stop the Defendant from causing intimidation, harassment and alarm to other residents and their visitors on Burncroft Avenue.

29. The Defendant is a secure tenant of the Claimant at 109 Burncroft Avenue, Enfield, Middlesex, EN3 7JQ. His tenancy commenced on 14th August 2006. I hereby attach a bundle of documents relating to this case as exhibit number LN1. A copy of the Defendant's tenancy agreement and terms. and conditions are hereby attached at pages 1-24.

30. The reports concerning the Defendant's alleged anti-social behaviour towards his neighbours was first brought to my attention in October 2016 when a case involving the Defendant and one of his neighbours was referred to me for investigation. The Defendant was reported to have caused frequent acts of harassment and anti-social behaviour against an elderly neighbour. The Defendant was arrested by the Police and bailed to a different address. The matter was referred to the Highbury Corner Magistrates' Court on 05 October 2016 where a first hearing took place. The Defendant pleaded not guilty, and the trial was fixed for 17 November 2016. However, the trial did not proceed due to insufficient support as the elderly tenant was unable to attend Court due to health reasons. A copy of a letter from the Magistrate Court is attached to this statement at pages 25-26.

31. The Defendant was previously known to the Claimant and an anti-social behaviour order was made on 4 August 2015 by the Magistrates Court to prevent him from knowingly using or supplying property, personal or otherwise, for the use in a rave as defined in s.63(1) of the Criminal Justice Order Act 1994. The order was made for a duration of 5 years. A copy of the Order is at page 27 of the exhibit bundle.

A file note of this report is exhibited at pages 28-30 of the exhibit bundle LN1.

continued that sometime around mid-September 2016, one of the Defendant's neighbours reported that the Defendant confronted him outside his block as he was going to the local park and started to shout abuse and threats at him and said to him "I can get you over at the park, I know you go for a walk". This incident led to his arrest and to the matter being referred to the Magistrates Court. A file note of the report is exhibited on page 31 of the exhibit bundle LN1.

37. I had meetings with Mr. George Quinton, one of the Defendant's neighbours on 16th December 2016 and 11th January 2017. He reported that he was experiencing problems. with the Defendant's behaviour, and that on 4th October 2016, the Defendant aggressively banged on his ceiling and accused him of making noise. The Defendant then went to the neighbour's flat upstairs and started kicking and banging on the front door and was swearing and shouting at. him. The Defendant later went downstairs, dragged the neighbour's motorbike from where it was parked and started to hit it with a piece of wood. A file note of the report is at pages 32-34 of the exhibit bundle.

38. On 22nd November 2016, during a telephone conversation with my former colleague Ms. Sarah Fletcher, the Defendant was heard saying to his mother, who was present with him, 'I'm goanna do her over, I'm goanna take her job just for fun' referring to Ms. Fletcher. A file note of the incident is at page 34A of the exhibit bundle.

39. I hereby attach a case history detailing incidents of reports from Mr. Mathiyalagan about the abuse, threats, and persistent intimidation by the Defendant. The case history is at pages 35 to 40 of the exhibit bundle LN1. It shows that Mr. Mathiyalagan reported incidents too numerous to set out in this statement about abuse, threats, attempts to extort money and intimidation by the Defendant. Examples are that the Defendant banged on his front door while his wife was alone at home with their young daughter and shouted abuse at his wife and asked her to turn off the bathroom taps. He also removed his electricity fuse thereby.

40. Other examples of aggressive and anti-social behaviour reported by Mr. Mathiyalagan were that on 21st January 2017, the Defendant aggressively banged on his door, swore and shouted abuse and threats at him and his family and accused them of making noise.

41. On 9th June 2017, the Defendant attacked Mr. Mathiyalagan's cousin in the communal hallway as he returned from work late at night by grabbing him on the arm and neck thereby causing bruising to his arm and neck. The Defendant also snatched his mobile phone from him as he tried to record the incident.

42. On 16th June 2017, the Defendant confronted Mr. Mathiyalagan's wife as she was exiting the main entrance at 11:55am and said to her that he had her bank and personal details. He also reported that the Defendant told his wife that he wanted her and her husband to pay him some money.

5:18pm and asked him when he was going to hand over the money. He also reported that as they left the block, the Defendant ran after them swearing and shouting abuse and demanded that he must pay him money if he wants him to leave him alone. The Defendant also said to him that he has all their personal details. A report of the incident is at page 40 of the case history.

46. Case history notes exhibited at pages 41-46 show reports of similar aggressive and intimidating behaviour displayed to Mr. Mathiyalagan was being experienced by another tenant who wishes to remain anonymous because of fear of reprisal from the Defendant.

47. Similarly, further case notes exhibited at pages 47-52 show that another tenant who wishes to remain anonymous was being subjected to the Defendant's antisocial behaviour. She had to be moved from the block because of the harassment from the Defendant and because she suffered from mental health problems. and was particularly vulnerable and unable to deal with the threats and harassment from the Defendant.

48. On 7th February 2017, the Defendant approached the leaseholder of 117 Bumcroft Avenue and his plumber outside the block as they were attempting to resolve low water pressure issues affecting the flat. 50. On 8th May 2017, the Claimant's officers, Ms. Fletcher, a Neighbourhood officer who has since left the Council and Mr. Steve Stirk, a surveyor visited the Defendant's block of flats following reports of low water pressure to flats 109, 113 and 117 Bumcroft Avenue. While the Claimant's officers were outside flat 113, the Defendant came up to them and started to complain about his perceived victimization by his neighbours, the police and the council. While the Defendant was talking to the officers, Mr. Mathiyalagan came down the stairs and the Defendant said to him, "I'm going to the police station now with my evidence about you and I'm going to ruin your life". A file note of this report is exhibited at page 58 of the exhibit bundle and an email from Steve Stirk is at page 59.

51. On 14th May 2017, yet another neighbour who wishes to remain anonymous reported that the Defendant aggressively banged on her door, shouted abuse and threats at her and falsely accused her of making noise and coming into his flat to attack him. The neighbour stated that the Defendant later followed her to her car as she was leaving the block shouting abuse and wanting to know where she was going. The neighbour also reported that the Defendant allowed his dog to roam freely in the communal area of the block without a lead. A file note of the report is at page 60 of the exhibit bundle LN1.

Mr. Neville Gray attended the Defendant's flat again at about 5:39pm following reports from the leaseholder of flat 117 Burncroft House that the water supply had stopped completely, but the Defendant also refused him access. The Defendant later shouted abuse and swear words at Mr. Gray and would not allow him to approach his car. Mr. Gray has provided a witness statement in relation to this incident.

50. The Claimant's operatives have had difficulties in accessing the Defendant's flat to inspect the state of the property and the unauthorised works and modifications which the Defendant is purported to have carried out without a written consent from the Claimant. The Claimant has also been unable to check whether the Defendant Is restricting water supply/pressure to the properties above his since December 2016. The Defendant has admitted to restricting the water supply but has refused to allow the Claimant's maintenance operatives access to his property to investigate and rectify the problem.

51. The Defendant has intimidated the residents in the entire block and because of his behaviour, we have received numerous complaints from residents, requests to be transferred from the block and we have had to move a vulnerable tenant from the block.

52. I have made attempts to engage with the Defendant, but he has not been cooperative and has continuously displayed abusive and threatening behaviour towards the Claimant's members of staff and his neighbours. A Notice of Seeking Possession has been served on him and possession action is being considered. However, in the meantime, this injunction is required to ensure that the other residents are not subjected to further intimidation and harassment by the Defendant. This application is being made without notice because if the Defendant were given notice, he would intimidate the witnesses in an attempt to prevent the order being made.

I visited Mr. Mathiyalagan at 117 Burncroft Avenue to day to look at the flooring following email from Mrs Cordell concerning noise as a result of wood flooring in the flat. I noticed that there is laminate flooring in the whole flat and ceramic tiles in the kitchen. Mr. Mathiyalagan stated that the flooring was already in the flat when they moved in. He stated that they do not make noise deliberately and that any noise from his flat is household noise. He also stated that as far as he is aware that the person living below them-), we not complained of noise and that he will be the one that will be affected if there are excessive issues from his flat. He also stated that he has asked the man-if they are causing noise disturbances arid he said they are not. He also requested that Mr. Cordell should contact the council if he is being disturbed by noise from his flat instead of harassing him and his family by banging on his front door, shouting abuse at him and his wife, threatening them and confronting them when they come into the block.
I informed him that laminate flooring can generate some noise and to be mindful of his neighbours while walking around inside his flat-
I then went and knocked at flat 113 but there was no response.

By the time I returned to the office, Mr. Cordell had telephoned me several times. I telephoned him back and he wanted to know whether I was the person that posted a letter through his letterbox, and I said yes. He asked why I did not stop when he ran after me, and I told him that I had another visit and did not have the time to stop and talk to him. He stated that he will not attend the meeting at the Civic Centre or any of the council and that I should come to his flat. I offered to have the meeting at a neutral venue like the local library or even at his mother's house, but he refused and shouted to shout abuse and accuse me of taking sides with his neighbours. He denied doing the things that he is accused of doing and stated that he is the victim and that the council have refused to deal with his complaints against his neighbours. He stated that he has been suffering noise disturbances from his neighbours since he moved into his flat and that the council have refused to deal with it. He alleged that the council is conniving with the police to victimise him and threatened to put in a complaint - against me, He continued shouting abuse and will not let me say a word, I then advised him that I will have to terminate the conversation as we were getting nowhere.

The Defendant told LEMMY NWABUISI that he would watch him leave the office and he would have followed him home and he needed to watch his back. The Defendant called the

To Whom It May Concern:
I Miss Lorraine Cordell am writing this letter to say that I do object to pay the sum of £785.70 for preparing the Acknowledgment of Service to be paid by the claimant to the defendant. I confirm that I was also the person who filed the application for the claimant in order to get justice within this case. The judge who stated that there was no merit within the case I believe is wrong. I do understand that when the judge made his decision there was little evidence supplied by us. I am not a lawyer and upon receiving the Metropolitan police response to the application I realised my mistake when filing the application. I did make calls to the High Court to explain the error in the hope that they would be able to help me as they had done before, I stated that I would need more time to submit the evidence to the court that I would have to try and get legal help. The lady I spoke to stated that I could take my time in submitting the evidence, so I did not know I was on a time limit until we had received the letter from the court.

Letter to high court C0 2171 2017.pdf

At this time, the skeleton argument I was writing comprises of over 90 pages with regard to the errors that have occurred within this whole case since it started in 2014. This would be many more pages once completed.
The claimant and his family only ever wanted justice and the truth, the UK justice system is supposed to be one of the best within the world but in this case it has failed to see the truth, the police hold information on their systems which proves my son's innocence and when asked to provide this evidence they withheld it though we asked many times since 2014, not one judge has ordered the police to hand over this information, then the appeal judge removing my sons legal representation and stating he can do the case himself, How was a person with mental health problems, learning difficulties, health problems. meant to have coped with dealing with the appeal himself, nothing was put in place by the judge to address this, a few days prior to the appeal hearing I managed to find a solicitor willing to take the case on for the appeal, on 17 January 2017 the judge refused to allow the new solicitors a short adjournment which would have enabled the new solicitors to go over all the bundles, speak to the client which they had not done, the judge just dismissed it told them they had to be ready by the next morning if they could not be ready then my son would have to deal with the case himself, how is this justice, there is many other factors in this case that was incorrect and breached human rights.
The claimant as the courts was aware has mental health issues, he also has learning difficulties, and other health issues. The claimant receives benefits every two weeks of the sum of £201.30, which is £100.65 per week; this money has to cover all of his bills, water rates, 19.5% council tax shortfall, electric, gas, £5 a week for him to have a phone for emergencies, his food, hygiene items, and any other items to support living. I do not understand how he is meant to pay £785.70, just because a mistake was made in my endeavour to get justice for my son.
Below I will list dates that is within the application, and outline information I have recovered, which will show the police have information which proves my son is innocence. How could this miscarriage of justice been allowed to have happened?

12/01/2013 Canary Wharf:

On this date the claimant is accused of the organisation / or supply of equipment for an illegal rave.
The claimant has always disputed the account that the police stated in their application, he did not organise or was involved in any part of setting this party up or supply, hire or loan any equipment for this party.
The claimant did attend the party on this evening with his ex-girlfriend, they were there for a few hours before a person attacked the claimant at the party, the claimant was rushed to hospital, and the claimant does not know anything from this point in regard to this date as he was at the hospital.

Letter to high court C0 2171 2017.pdf

When the hospital released him, he returned with his girlfriend and the person that had driven him to the hospital to pick his car up, which had been left at the location, at this time the party had already ended it was around 07:00 hours.
Again, this case is outside the six months' time limit when the application was submitted to the court, so how has this case been proven by the Judge; any date outside the six months' time limit should only be used as reference to show prior history.
On the 12th of January 2013 the claimant did not cause any anti-social behaviour to any person.
07/04/2013 No Insurance and Section 5 of the Public Order Act:

Within Steve Elsmore statement dated 11/08/2014 public order matter. Although this date is outside of the six months' time limit from when the application was submitted to the court, Steve Elsmore still included this within his statement.
The claimant was arrested on this date due to an issue with his insurance not showing up on the MID database, the police stated in the intelligence report the claimant became abusive, hence why he was arrested for a public order matter and no insurance.
The claimant was charged and given a court date to attend court, and, on this date, he attended court to prove his innocence.
The claimant had witnesses that would prove he did not become abusive; there was no need for him to become abusive he had done nothing wrong; the case for the public order offence was withdrawn by the CPS at court and the claimant was found not guilty.
The insurance matter was addressed and proven the claimant did in fact have insurance so his vehicle in fact should never have been seized at a cost to take it out of the police compound of about £190.00 by the claimant that has never been recovered so was a loss to the claimant for no good reason.
There was information on the police's systems due to the claimant being stopped a number of times due to the error on the MID database showing he did not have insurance, which the claimant had tried to get addressed and so did I as to the reason why it was not showing on the MID database when in fact, he did have insurance no one could understand why he was showing as not insured.
Why then in fact did Steve Elsmore include this within the ASBO application and make it look as if the claimant had been found guilty of it by the court? I though false information on an application was illegal. Why has this case and the intelligence report been allowed to be used within this case?
So how has this been allowed to stay within this case for the judges to read and the statements are read out in court when the fact it should never have been entered into this case.
Letter to high court C0 2171 2017.pdf
All Steve Elsmore statements only act to show bad character towards the claimant within them and multiple errors and facts that are untrue and can be proven to be untrue. But it would be too long within this letter to list them all.
Please see below information regarding these two issues that is on the police's system.
The claimant did not cause any Anti-Social Behaviour on the 07th of April 2013.

24/05/2013 Old Police Station Ponders End:
On this date it is alleged by the police the claimant was looking for venues in which illegal raves could be held.
This is far from the truth on this date, I was contacted via phone by a person called Joshua, Joshua was homeless and at that time was staying at 204 High Street, Ponders End EN3 4EZ, this building is also known as the old police station, Joshua had contacted me due to being hungry and in need of food, he told him he would come and meet him in order to take him out and get some food as he had no money.
As the claimant approached 204 high Road the police stopped him, the claimant consented to being searched and having his car searched due to the police stating there was a strong smell of cannabis, the police did their search and found nothing. The police asked where he was going which he told them, he was going to meet a friend to get some food.
The claimant disputes stating to police that he could attract people to illegal raves and three-day events, the claimant does not know what Joshua said to the police so cannot comment on this as he was not with Joshua when the police were questioning Joshua.
This date is also outside of the six months' time limit from when the application was submitted to the court, again the judge has proved this case when this case is only meant to be used as reference, and the claimant did not cause any anti-social behaviour on the 24th of May 2013. Why are these cases being proven/?
20/04/2014 Cannabis 420 day:
Within Steve Elsmore statement dated 11/08/2014, it is made to seem that the claimant attended on this date without the knowledge of the organisers of this event and was not hired to be there by the event organiser's norm-co.uk. In fact, he was hired by norm-co.uk to attend the event that they had organised the claimant believes this event is legal and happens every year. The claimant was hired on a dry hire basis; the claimant was doing the job on a no profit basis. When norm-co.uk contacted the claimant, he was told that the person that they had hired had let them down at the last minute.

The claimant arrived at the location in Hyde Park he was approached by the police, the claimant explained why he was there that he had been hired by the organisers, the police stated to him he had not been hired by the organisers of the event, and that he was not supposed to be there, when the claimant was hired by the organiser's norm- co.uk they told him that this was a licensed event. The claimant did not use his equipment he did try to contact the organisers of the event but was unable to, the claimant left the location as the police had asked him to do and returned home.

Within the claimant's bundle there are emails to prove the above account of what the claimant has stated these emails are from norm-co.uk. The claimant did not cause any anti-social behaviour on the 20th of April 2014.

- 25/05/2014 Unit 5 St Georges Ind Est White hart Lane, N17:
In respect to this date the claimant did attend premises where homeless people were treating it as their home, the claimant had attended bringing food for the homeless people living in the premises, when the claimant got to the premises the homeless people was already in the premises living there, there was no music being played while he was present.
The claimant does admit he attended the premises in his van, when the police attended the premises, he allowed the police to search his vehicle, in his vehicle there were two speaker boxes with no drivers within them so they were unable to play music, he explained to the police that he used his van as storage, he did ask the police to note this, he did not have any other sound equipment in the vehicle.
Once the police had searched his vehicle which he allowed them to do, he was allowed to leave, and he made his way home.
The police did not seize anything within the claimant's van, which if the police believed there was going to be an illegal rave in the premises, they would have had the right to do this, but the police saw the speakers that were in the van could not play music. And he never had any other sound equipment in the van, this is why the police allowed him to leave.
At no time while the claimant was at the premises did anyone attend there dressed up stating there was going to be a party at the premises.
If the police had CCTV of people breaking into the premises why was this not submitted as evidence within this case?
Why was there a need to update the information report on the 19/06/2014?
The claimant did not cause any anti-social behaviour on the 25th of May 2014.
06/06/2014 to 08/06/2014 Progress way Enfield:
The claimant disputes the facts that are within the application, on the 06th of June 2014 he was at his home address with a friend, and also attended my home address Lorraine Cordell. His sister Deon was there, and a friend of the family Jamie Duffy who lived at the family's addresses.
On the 07/06/2014 he attended a leaving party for his cousin Dwayne Edwards who was leaving to go around the world for 12 months, the claimant was there at the leaving party till the early hours on the 08/06/2017, it has already been stated in the magistrates court there was a mistake in the paperwork and the claimant did not attend until the 08/06/2014 at around 02:00 hours. I also cannot understand why the claimant's brother name has been added to this case as an organiser. As stated in the magistrates court the claimant's brother had a serious life changing accident in April 2014, his brother had a number of substantial injuries, after this was stated before the magistrates trial the claimant's brother was never mentioned again, the reason for this the police knew of the RTA accident as they were called and the claimant's brother had to be airlifted to the Royal London Hospital. The police know my sons very well by face they do not even have to do a name check on them. So how this serious mistake could have been made is beyond me.

While the claimant was at the leaving party, he had got a call from someone he knew they had stayed at his home address a few weeks earlier and left their locker keys there, due to them being in the area they called the claimant and asked if he could drop the keys off to them, the claimant told them he was at a family party and that once he left, he would drop the keys off to them. He asked where they was and they gave the location as progress way, he told them that once he left the family party he would pick the keys up from his home address and drop them off to them, this is how the police saw the claimant coming towards them while they were standing at the gate at progress way on the 08/06/2017 at around 02:00 hours, the claimant had never been in side progress way, but due to the police knowing the claimant they went straight up to him and started to talk to him, the police was with people that worked for Enfield Council, they wanted to serve paperwork on the claimant, the claimant would not accept any paperwork and walked back towards the A10.
The claimant was not involved in organising or supplying any equipment at progress way.
The claimant did not act in any anti-social behaviour manner on the 06/06/2014, 07/06/2014 and the 08/06/2014.
Within ASBO application most of the data relates to Progress Way which relates to the dates of the 06/06/2014, 07/06/2014 and the 08/06/2014.
The police stated that the information contained within their bundle does not relate to another location and deny that an event was ongoing just down the road from progress way on the same dates as progress way, this was even stated under oath at court. The police denied that there was another event ongoing in Crown Road at the same time that Progress Way was ongoing.
They even confirmed to the judge when the Judge asked if anything related to another location, it was stated to the Judge everything that related to 06/06/2014, 07/06/2014 and the 08/06/2014 within their bundle related to progress way that nothing within the bundle for Progress Way related to another event.
A huge amount of data has been redacted by the police, I could understand if the redacted data only redacted the person's details name and address phone numbers etc that had made the calls to the police. But the redaction goes a lot further than this where there is whole pages redacted within one CAD which really makes the CAD useless being in the bundle, also the grid references why would so many be redacted I can understand the call location being redacted but why would there be a need to redact the ATT Location and Inc Loc. We asked every time we were in court for the CADs.
Letter to high court C0 2171 2017.pdf
to be un-redacted because we knew a fair amount related to Crown Road, which the police were denying, we also asked for all of the missing CADs, nothing ever came of our requests, none of the judges ordered this to be done.

Crown Road has a lot of history for events they were ongoing in this location from April 2014 till around June 2014, in fact maybe later than June 2014.
I do not really need to bring the intelligence reports and CADs up as the information I will supply later in this letter regarding Progress Way will become very relevant as to what the police are hiding. The reason I am going to go to some detail here is because I do not feel it is correct that the police are allowed to get away with what they have done within this case towards my son due to how much they dislike him and my family. And I believe it will show how much the police are willing to do in order to put everything onto my son.
Let me give you some CADs Numbers I will not go over everyone as there is a great deal of them and some have got so much redaction we can only wonder why.
CAD 2410:08/06/2014 all grid references are redacted, most of the second and third pages are redacted, but what gives this away as being Crown Road is what has been written by the call handler on page 4.
"Illegal rave going on opposite A&J Cars approx. 200 people1 drugs being openly sold and taken caller noticed them whilst on his way home, they're all over the Street."
"Linked to cads 1646 & 1768 08June".
Any police officer would know that A&J Cars is right by Crown Road, right opposite the Old Mann Building where the events was ongoing for months, and nowhere near Progress Way.
The CAD numbers 1646 and 1768 08 June are missing we were never allowed to have these.
CAD 3319:08/06/2014, Grid Reference below,
ATT Location: SOUTHBURY RD/CROWN ROAD
Map: Page 082, Grid Reference 534960,196240

Call Location: 93, BROADLANDS AVENUE, ENFIELD
GPA: YF [Division: YE: SX]
As we can see all the Grid Reference have been left in this one by mistake, I believe, once again any police officer would know 93, BROADLANDS AVENUE, ENFIELD is behind Crown Road, so in fact this CAD cannot belong to Progress Way.
Letter to high court C0 2171 2017.pdf
But this CAD tells us even more as there is a safety risk with it regarding a fragile roof, and subsequently gives details in regard to door numbers along Southbury Road and Crown Road. This also links to CAD number 3319. There is no mistaking this CAD links to the event that was ongoing at Crown Road. The police deny this they state no event was ongoing, yet it is a known fact the building was along Crown Road/Southbury Road have fragile roofs, the old man building has partly a glass roof.
These are just a few CADs that prove there was an ongoing event at Crown Road, it is also proven in the FOI request I put into Enfield Council, there is also a substantial amount of information within the intelligence reports that do not correspond in the way in which they should do, there is also errors within the timeline of some of the CADs, I do not see why the police have mislead the courts, the only reason is most of the information the police had related to Progress Way.
Also, the witness statements that was taken by police are meant to be written in the words of the witness signed and dated by the witness, all but one witness statement has been written and signed by police officers, not one witness statement identifies the claimant or a description, under the law I witness statement should be completed and signed and dated by the witness.

Now as said before I have done a lot of research, and I now put it to the police they knew full well my son had not done what they said he had done in this case. And that the police were hiding information.
Progress Way Event was relocated to Progress Way; the Metropolitan police know this already, but yet blame my son.
The location that this was meant to have happened In Essex a very senior police officer was being updated in regard to this event, due to the Essex police monitoring the event page on social media for some time, due to the brief location on the event page on social media, the very senior police officer was concerned due to it being very close with the border to the Metropolitan police area.
The very senior police officer due to being concerned contacted the Metropolitan police, information was given to the Metropolitan police in regards to the concerns with this event and area, there was information given so that the Metropolitan police could monitor the event page on social media, the senior officer asked for information of a senior officer within the Metropolitan police that would be on duty the full weekend the event was due to take place so that contact could be made regarding this.
On the 06th of June 2014 the Very senior police officer sent police to look for the location within the border of Essex, the police found the location this event was going to be taking place. Once the very senior police officer got the location, he went in a police helicopter and went to the location and landed in the field.
He had his file with all the information in it which included pictures of the known organiser, he went up to the known organiser who was white north European, after speaking to him the very senior police officer asked him to leave the land and served him a notice under S63 CJOPOA and a notice not to set up within 24 hours. The very senior police officer gave the known organiser 3 hours to pack up everything and leave the land and gave him an explanation of the offence he was liable to commit if he failed to comply with the direction.
Letter to high court C0 2171 2017.pdf
The organiser then relocated to progress way. Police are well aware organisers relocate if the police close an event down.
The claimant was nowhere near Essex on this day; he was not involved in the organisation or supply of equipment which the police are well aware of.
Yet the police want to blame him, and they were not going to stop until they got the ASBO on him and did not care what they covered up in the process of the information they had, I believe this is also why there is nothing really for the 06th June within the bundle for the ASBO application.
And why when asked over and over why we were never allowed to see the police officers packet notebooks, for any of the dates in their application.
20/06/2014 1 Falcon Park Neasden Lane NW10:
The claimant's is alleged to have been involved in the organisation and or supplied equipment for an illegal rave, the claimant disputes what the police have said, on this date the claimant had been contacted and asked if he would hire a sound system for a gentleman's birthday party. The claimant agreed to do so; the sound system and van were collected from the claimant's home. The claimant's terms. and conditions were agreed, and invoice signed, and a deposit was given to him.

At around 01:00 hours the claimant received a phone call from the person he had hired the sound system to; the person stated that the sound system and van was being seized by the police.
The claimant was very upset and could not at this stage understand why the police was seizing his equipment and van.
The claimant asked the location and took down the address, he had to get up and get dressed and leave his home it took him around an hour to reach the location, upon approaching the address he had been given he saw there was a lot of police around, he parked his car up got out and went up to the police to speak to them to find out what was going on, he showed the police the terms. and conditions of hirer, and the invoice.
The police at this point allowed the claimant into the building where he continued to speak to the police, the sound system had not been put away and the police allowed the claimant to start packing it away into his van, but the police stated they were confiscating it until they had looked into the matter.
The claimant gave the police all his contact information, and also took down the police officer information. About a week later the police contacted the claimant and told him he was allowed to come and pick his van and equipment up from the police station.
The claimant did not knowingly supply equipment for an illegal rave; he believed the hire was for a birthday party and it was all above board.
The claimant did not cause any antisocial behaviour on the 20th of June 2014.

19/07/2014 Carpet right A10 Enfield:

As stated previously by the claimant he was not involved in the organisation or supplied equipment on this date. And the claimant totally disagrees in regard to what the police have said in their application. The claimant on this day was driving down A10 he was heading towards McDonald's, as he was passing carpet right, he saw the police outside and he believed he saw a friend who he knew had been homeless, he was on the wrong side of the road so went down towards Southbury Road where he knew he could turn his car around. He parked his vehicle and walked to the location, upon arriving there he saw there was a lot of police, as soon as he got there he was standing on the pavement and the police arrested him to stop a believed breach of the peace, the claimant never entered the building, he was arrested outside.

Letter to high court C0 2171 2017.pdf

Within the CADs it clearly states there was around 20 people males and females all white approximate age 20. The claimant is mixed raced, The CADs start from 20:51 hours, the claimant was not arrested until 22:50 hours, some two hours after the police arrived at the premises.
There is a statement from Mr. Moses Howe who states he was hired by Mr. Anthony Harvey, he states Mr. Anthony Harvey was arrested by the police inside the premises but later de-arrested, the police have never disputed this.
As stated, before I have done a lot of research, I will deal with this research into this date below.
Officer in Charge Steve Elsmore states in his statement dated 11/08/2014 about a rave that happened in Croydon where a poor boy lost his life, and in fact has made it seem as if the claimant was part of this rave.
Officer in Charge Steve Elsmore did an updated statement dated 26/06/15 in this statement he stated about operation blue iris which relates to the Croydon rave, the Croydon rave I believe was called rum and base.

Officer in Charge Steve Elsmore states in this updated statement that he spoke with A/DS Tanner who works for the public order investigation unit at Scotland Yard, A/DS Tanner confirmed she had spoken to Miss Lorraine Cordell to Steven Elsmore. Blue iris was the operational name that related to the investigation into the Croydon rave.
My investigation has led to the information regarding Anthony Harvey being listed by Scotland Yard and all TV media as wanted regarding the Croydon rave his picture was published in the media along with a lot of others that was also wanted regarding the Croydon rave, on the 30th June 2014 Anthony Harvey handed himself into Ilford police station, Scotland Yard attended Ilford police station and took Anthony Harvey back to Scotland Yard for questioning, Anthony Harvey was questioned by 4 police officers at Scotland Yard, he was charged with violent disorder and some other things, he was released on bail with bail conditions. He spent around six hours in a cell.
The claimant had nothing to do with the Croydon rave, he was not present, and I believe this is confirmed in the updated statement of Officer in charge Steve Elsmore. The claimant did not organise or supply equipment in Croydon rave. Once again why has this been put in the application and worded as if my son had organised this, when clearly the police have information that he had nothing to do with this. The only reason I can see is that this was a high-profile case where someone unfortunately lost their life. And tainting my son with this event will make any Judge believe my son is such a bad person, I believe this amount to slander and or defamation of character.
The claimant did not cause any anti-social behaviour at Croydon rave as he was not there and had nothing to do with it.
Letter to high court C0 2171 2017.pdf
It seems Anthony Harvey was very unhappy in regard to how Scotland Yard was treating him they would not leave him alone, but he was still advertising the events he was putting on. One was for the 19th of July 2014 called The Raving Family That Rave in The Woods, Anthony Harvey even had special T-shirts made up with the wording The Raving Family on them, Anthony Harvey even put a request for anyone that had strong BOLTIES he could use.
It would seem that Anthony Harvey first location for the 19th of July 2014 was in Barking, Anthony Harvey then relocated to Enfield carpet right, he states that he begged the police to allow this to carry on, but they would not, and states fuck to Scotland Yard, a person that knows Anthony Harvey states they was all waiting at Southbury Road.
As stated, before Anthony Harvey was on bail, I believe one of those bail conditions was not to attend an illegal rave, as he states he is allowed to attend legal events only.
I believe that when Steve Elsmore spoke to A/DS Tanner, A/DS Tanner explained a lot more about Anthony Harvey then Steve Elsmore states in his updated statement. Even about the event at Barking which was due to me relocated.
"A/DS Tanner states that she had inputted a CRIMIT regarding a rave that was due to take place on 19th July 2014 in Barking. This rave was due to be at one location but was due to be moved to another location which had not disclosed."
Why did Steve Elsmore state in the lower court he had deleted emails to and from A/DS Tanner, why did Steve Elsmore not ask A/DS Tanner to do a statement, why did he feel it necessary to write what he says A/DS Tanner said to him. I know the public order investigation unit was told by Sir Bernard Hogan Howe to monitor all raves keep intelligence on them and try to put stop to them A/DS Tanner told me this on the phone when I spoke to her. And when I spoke to DS Chapman from the public order investigation unit, he confirmed they was looking into all raves, he also did a check on the claimant's name and stated within all the information they had they only had the claimant's name on their systems once, and that was to prevent a breach of the peace on the 19th of July 2014.

The claimant did not organise or supply equipment; the claimant did not cause any anti-social behaviour on this date.

24/07/2014 Admitted to police he setups raves:

On this date the claimant was driving down the Road after just leaving my home, he was on his way home via Alma Road, as he passed King Edwards Road, he saw the police in an unmarked police car the claimant knew it was the police as the police had stopped him before while on active duty, they were at this time indicating to do a right-hand turn out of King Edward Road onto Alma Road. But when they saw the claimant passed King Edward Road, they changed direction and turned left onto Alma Road to follow him after a short time the police put their blue lights on, and pulled him over to the side of the road opposite the BMW repair centre along Alma Road, the male officer who was in the passenger side of the police car got out and started to approach the claimant's car, the claimant opened his window a little and asked why he had been pulled over. The police officer said he was not sure why, but his colleague had instructed him to do this, his colleague was the police officer that the claimant knew. The police officer walked back to the unmarked police car then re-approached the claimant's car with his colleague the driver of the unmarked police car. I asked again what had been pulled over for, and the driver of the unmarked police car pulled out his truncheon and said the claimant had to get out of his car, and that if I declined his windows would be smashed. The claimant got out of his car as he had done nothing wrong and had nothing to hide, the claimant had not committed any offence whatsoever, the police stated to the claimant he had been pulled over because he was driving too close to the car in front of him, the driver who was in the car in front of the claimant never stopped and was not stopped by police. The claimant was then accused of having drugs, the claimant allowed police to search him and his vehicle nothing was found. The police then asked the claimant what he was up to, the claimant said that he was setting up his catalogue that he had been building with a friend, and that the website that was being built was nearly completed. The claimant said that he was trying to achieve positive effects within today's society with his business that he had been building. Once the police had completed all their checks they needed, they shook hands and went on our way.

Letter to high court C0 2171 2017.pdf

At no time did the claimant act in an anti-social manner towards the police.
It seems the police stated other things in their report that are very untrue, please see below.
"On Thursday 24th July 2014 at around 1625 hours, plain clothes officers from YE Gangs Unit had cause to stop the following male on ALMA ROAD EN3. Simon CORDELL. He was driving a silver Ford Focus VRM MA57LDY on which he is insured but is not the registered keeper. He was stopped as he was driving about 1" from the bumper of the car in front of him and his driving was erratic. He claimed to know the other driver; this male however approached officers saying he had been driving like that behind him since YR. CORDELL was obstructive as usual, refusing to get out of his vehicle etc. He stated that his solicitor has a big case going where all his criminal records will be wiped as Police have unlawfully picked on him for years etc. Of interest he stated that he has 4 brand new speaker systems at home which he is happy to loan people for raves etc and that he is inundated with requests to run raves. He stated that he has 20,000 followers on one social media network and 70,000 in another. He says that he could organize a rave and get 20,000 people at it without any problems. whatsoever, and that he gets lots of requests from anarchist type groups etc to run raves for them. Of note he claims Occupy London, Black Block and other anarchist groups have been asking him to organize one for Notting Hill Carnival so that they can "Cause carnage and mayhem".

The claimant is continuously being pulled up by the police for no reason this has been ongoing for the past at least 23 years, I believe the above comments within the police report shows this when it states CORDELL was obstructive as usual refusing to get out of his vehicle etc.
The claimant did not get out of his vehicle right away he did not know why he was being pulled again, so waited in his car to ask the police why he had been stopped. it is not a crime to sit in your car until the police approach.
Letter to high court C0 2171 2017.pdf
The police state in their report he was driving about 1" from the bumper of the car in front of him and the claimant driving was erratic.
If the claimant had been driving 1" from the bumper of the car in front of him, which I believe is impossible, and his driving was erratic, then surely the police would have arrested him for dangerous driving, the police always try and find a way to arrest the claimant for any reason they can, and I am hundred percent sure if the claimant was driving like this he would have been in the police station under arrest for it. The driver in the car that was in front of the claimant did not stop and speak to the police if he had done this why have the police not given the drivers details.
The claimant did not speak to the police in regard to loaning out his equipment for raves. The numbers that the police have stated that the claimant said he had in 2 accounts on social media is impossible and is unbelievable that the police have stated such information. The police have also stated that the claimant spoke of links to Occupy London, Black Block and other anarchist groups, the claimant has never been involved in any activist groups and is highly insulted that the police could say the name Black Block came out of his mouth, Black Block is a known NF group, so please why would the claimant have said such things when he is mixed race.
There is also concern with the date of this report, it was filed on the police's system, it would seem police were together when the reports were made for 2 dates in the application, when they must have already knew the police wanted to bring this application against the claimant. If you look at the below and look at the two URN numbers, you will see this.

27/07/2014 MILLMARSH LANE Enfield:
On this date the claimant is alleged to have organised a rave and/or supplied equipment, the claimant disputes this, there was some homeless people living in premises at MILLMARSH LANE, I had been invited to attend a 20th birthday party the claimant did not know about any rave only that a homeless person was having their 20th birthday party, there was only a few people there and they were the homeless people living there. The claimant did not have any equipment there, did not load any equipment or hiring the equipment.
The claimant did not act in any anti-social manner on this date.

Letter to high court C0 2171 2017.pdf
Within the police report it states the police had been given intelligence that a rave was due to take place, why is this intelligence not within the application.
The police report also states there was a large stack of speakers being powered by the claimant's van, I do not understand how this is possible the voltage for a sound system would be 240 V the voltage on a van is only 12 V this would make it impossible for a van to power a sound system.
It would also be of concern that when police were writing these reports, they were together (please see URN above). At this point, the police would have known the antisocial behaviour order application was going to be submitted and anything that was being added would go well with their case (True or untrue).
09/08/2014 to 10/08/2014 MILLMARSH LANE Enfield:
On this date the claimant is being accused of organising and or supplying equipment at MILLMARSH LANE Enfield, the claimant disputes this, the claimant was not involved in the organisation of any rave and did not supply equipment, police state this event was run by Every Decibel Matters, the claimant can confirm that he is not an employee of this organisation or a shareholder or a director and he has no controlling interest in the company. Information was supplied within the application by the director of Every Decibel Matters that confirms this.
On this date I had gone to see the people that was homeless that was living in MILLMARSH LANE Enfield, the police were well aware that homeless people were living in this location in premises from weeks earlier.
As stated before I have done a lot of research, it seems every decibel matters had police turn up at their addresses stating they would be arrested if they carried on with this event, the event location was meant to have been in Harrow, every decibel matters state on the date of the event they were in Harrow and police sent helicopters all day looking for them, they had no option but to relocate I believe this is when they relocated to MILLMARSH LANE, the claimant had no knowledge of this and was never in Harrow, and knew nothing regarding this being relocated to MILLMARSH LANE.
The officer in charge of the application Steve Elsmore has stated in one of his updated statements that the claimant knew Mr. Moses Howe, and that he has been stopped by police with Mr. Moses Howe once in the claimant's vehicle 2011.
The claimant does not dispute he does have knowledge of Mr. Moses Howe, Mr. Moses Howe is a sound engineer, in 2011 the claimant had been offered the management position at Club Juice in Green Street Enfield, the claimant would as part of his job role be organising events for Club Juice this would have included the claimant's sound system being within the venue. Due to the claimant in 2011 not having much knowledge of all the complicated knowledge needed setting up the sound system he asked people he knew if they knew a sound engineer, Mr. Moses Howe name was given, the claimant and Mr. Moses Howe agreed to meet and go to the venue check what would be needed in regards to equipment, and it was agreed that if it took off Mr. Moses Howe would be the sound engineer for club juice. When the police pulled the claimant and Mr. Moses Howe was in the vehicle, they were on their way to Club Juice, they were due to set the sound system up in order to allow testing.
Letter to high court C0 2171 2017.pdf
and make sure everything was in order. Within the weeks that followed they had set up one event that was due to take place at club juice, but due to how the police was with the claimant they kept pulling him up outside of Club Juice strip searching him and would not leave him alone, the claimant got so distressed and embarrassed that he told the owner of Club Juice he could no longer carry on and left the position. Since this time, the claimant has had no knowledge of what Mr. Moses Howe has been doing, Mr. Moses Howe is the director with Sean O'Connor of every decibel matter, as shown within the documents within the claimant's bundle.

If the claimant had a great deal of contact with Mr. Moses Howe, I am sure the police would have a lot more than one date on the police's system that the claimant had been with Mr. Moses Howe, the claimant as said above is pulled a great deal by the police and I believe that this would have been shown on the police's system. And not just one date in 2011.

CAD 9717 seems to have intelligence that was received by police on 09th August 2014, this CAD was never included in the applications bundle, I believe this intelligence would have been very helpful to the claimant and this is why it was never added to the application bundle. As we believe it would prove the police had no information on my son.

It seems throughout this case there has been a lot of CADs and intelligence reports that have not been included in the applications bundle; I believe the reason for this is that it would show that what has been stated within the application is very misleading. I believe also that is why we was never allowed to see them. I believe also that the police officers' notebook's which we were also never allowed to see would also show how misleading the application was towards the claimant.

There is a lot more information I have gained due to research I have done, there is also a lot more points within the application that are misleading and incorrect, there is a list of breaches under the data protection of information that is totally incorrect which can be proven. At this time there is a case ongoing with the ICO in regard to breaches that the police have stated in their application and also incorrect information on the claimant's PNC record, all of this information and a lot more was being bought up each time we attended court at the Magistrate's Court and the Crown Court. There have been so many breaches of human rights throughout this case I cannot understand how it has been allowed to have happened, there is a total miscarriage of justice and many other issues regarding his legal representation within this case.

At this time, the claimant does not leave his home he has not done since 2014 due to knowing the police are going to say he has done something that breaches the conditions, arrest him, and put him in prison,

Steve Elsmore has already done in updated statements, which in fact implies my son had breached his conditions in Nov 2014 by being on an industrial estate, which was totally incorrect.

The conditions the claimant is under breaches his human rights, it seems as though the barrister that was representing the police in this matter feels that it is acceptable to breach someone human rights knowingly.

You can see this on page 28 of the appeal transcript which the administrative court sent, they also only seen to be concerned in regard to the claimant going to a shop or petrol station. But the implications of the conditions go a lot wider, and no one has taken this into consideration. Please see below a list of information which is only a small list which the claimant cannot do.

Schedule of prohibitions You must not:

1. Be concerned in the organisation of a rave as defined by s.63(1) or s63(1A) of the Criminal Justice and Public Order Act 1994.

2. Knowingly use or supply property, personal or otherwise, for use in a rave as defined by s.63 (1) of the Criminal justice and Public Order Act 1994.
3. Enter or remain in any disused or abandoned building unless invited to do so in writing by a registered charitable organisation or local authority or owner of the premises.
4. Enter any non-residential private property (by which words buildings and an open enclosed and are intended to be individual) or an industrial estate between the hours of 22:00 and 07:00 without written permissions from the owner and a leaseholder of such property. If you can demonstrate that the purpose of your entry of such property is to purchase goods or services from any shop or garage or fuel supplier which is open to the public at such times. Then in such event, you may enter but you must not remain on such property for longer than 30 minutes and you may do so on only one occasion during each separate nine-hour period between 22:00 and 07:00 daily.
5. 5 Provide any service in respect of any licensable activity in an unlicensed premise.

For the sake of clarity, nothing in this order prevents the defendant from assisting, preparing for, engaging in licensed licensable activities,
This order expires on the 3 August 2020
Letter to high court C0 2171 2017.pdf
This order and its requirements amend a previous order imposed by Highbury Corner Magistrates Court.
Condition 4 states
Enter any non-residential private property (by which words buildings and an open enclosed and are intended to be individual) or an industrial estate between the hours of 22:00 and 07:00 without written permissions from the owner and a leaseholder of such property. If you can demonstrate that the purpose of your entry of such property is to purchase goods or services from any shop or garage or fuel supplier which is open to the public at such times. Then in such event, you may enter but you must not remain on such property for longer than 30 minutes and you may do so on only one occasion during each separate nine-hour period between 22:00 and 07:00 daily.
With this condition in place any non-residential property The Appellant would not be able to attend only for 30 minutes on one occasion during a separate nine-hour period:
This would include hospitals, police stations, 24-hour supermarkets, petrol stations, cinemas, restaurants, bars, night clubs and any other public place open to the public between these times that is non-residential The Appellant would only have a 30 minute window to be able to enter any non-residential building, however is not feasible that within 30 minutes The Appellant could be seen in a hospital within 30 minutes, how would it be feasible if The Appellant went to dinner at a restaurant they would be completed within 30 minutes, how would it be feasible if The Appellant wanted to go to a nightclub or late-night bar as it would only have 30 minutes, places that are open to the public should not be restricted to The Appellant how is The Appellant meant to have a normal family life. The Appellant cannot go to without written permission which would be degrading for The Appellant to have to ask each time he wanted to go somewhere and explain why he needed it to be confirmed in writing by the owner and/or leaseholder of the property, how
Letter to high court C0 2171 2017.pdf
this condition could be applied by any Judge and state it is not a beach of someone human rights is beyond me.

Conditions 2 states knowingly using or supplying property personal or otherwise for the use of a rave as defined under section 63.1 of the criminal justice and public order act,
The Appellants has spent the last 10 years building his business saving every penny and help from family it is within the entertainment industry, he will hire equipment out and his services, The Appellants business would seriously be affected, because if he hired his equipment and it ended up in an illegal rave The Appellant would be in breach of the conditions. When hiring out equipment you do ask what it is going to be used for, and you do have a contract that is in place, but what the person tells you their reason for hiring the equipment out is not always the correct reason and is not used for the purpose the person told you The Appellant would be in breach of these conditions. Also, if The Appellant loaned someone any personal belongings and that person ended up at an illegal rave then The Appellant would again be in breach of his conditions, even if the item were something that did not even constitute as being for an illegal rave.
Conditions 5 states provide any service in respect of any licensable activity in an unlicensed premise.
How is The Appellant meant to run his business, The Appellant would not be able to obtain a licence that has already been clarified by the police and councils due to the Antisocial Behaviour Order that is in place, The Appellant would not be able to offer his services also due to the restriction that he has only 30 minutes within a non-residential building, most events go to the late hours in the morning so even if there was a licensed premises and someone wanted to hire the services of The Appellant The Appellant would not be able to do this. The Appellant was also offered contracts within two nightclubs to be the manager if The Appellant were again offered contracts within nightclubs or late-night bars The Appellant would not be able to accept these contracts. I cannot even say why condition 5 has been imposed because condition 4 conflicts with condition 5 in certain parts. And who would want to hire or take on The Appellant if he had to ask for written permission which would be degrading for The Appellant to have to ask each time he wanted to go somewhere or had a contact and had to explain why he needed it to be confirmed in writing by the owner and/or leaseholder of the property,
These are just a few concerns with the conditions that The Appellant is under, there is other concerns with other conditions set at by the Courts that are of concern.
How this case could have been proven is beyond me, I have only done a brief account of information within this letter. there is a lot of information I have not included due to trying to keep this letter as short as I could.
I only wanted Justice for my son, but due to a mistake I done it seems there will be no Justice and the true facts will never be been known. And my son will suffer for something he did not do. I did call the High Court then I realised I had made a mistake and told them I was going to be late submitting documents due to trying to get help from a legal person. And as for the beaches of my son's human rights do, they do not matter.
There is so much wrong with this case, and the way the courts addressed it was not correct since 2014.
Best Regards

and alarm to me, my tenants and other residents on Bumcroft Avenue, Enfield, EN3 7JQ. The application also seeks access to the Defendant's Property to enable the Claimant to carry out checks on the Defendant's water pipes which are possibly affecting my tenant's water pressure and supply.

Background

3. In the evening of 12 July 2017, I met with one of the Council's in-house legal surveyors, Mr. Neville Gray with regards to an ongoing low water pressure issue. Mr. Gray attended my property (Flat 117) at 11am on the day and agreed that the water pressure was not adequate. An attempt was made to gain access to the two flats immediately below, including the Defendant's but this was unsuccessful.

4. At approximately 17.00 hrs the same day I was contacted by the managing agent informing me that there was now no water at the flat. I contacted Mr. Gray and we both decided to attend the Property out of hours. I arrived at the flat to discover that water had been totally cut off for approx. 30 minutes, but surprisingly shortly after our arrival a supply was resumed and with good pressure. This despite the fact that low pressure had been a continual problem since 27 December 2016. Thames Water and plumbers have attended my property on at least 5 occasions but could not find a reason for the low pressure.

5. The Defendant lives in Flat 109 and in conjunction with his mother/mediator, was contacted by Mr. Neville Gray with the intention of inspecting his flat. However, this was declined by the Defendant. Although I was inside the block, (on the landing), I watched the discussion from the open window. It was obvious the Defendant was becoming increasing agitated by the raised voices and approaches towards Mr. Gray. I could see that he was not comfortable with the situation, and he backed off. He seemed to be very vocal with an aggressive manner, which was intimidating; at this point Mr. Gray called for the police to attend.

6. I wish to add that on a previous visit to the property on 26 January 2017, to resolve the low water pressure, the Defendant had informed me that he was restricting the supply and stated: you will not solve the problem as I am restricting their water supply'. This was mentioned to me in front of an independent witness, a plumber who was attending with me. As I was leaving my Property, I saw the Defendant in the communal hallway and asked whether he could reinstate the water pressure to my tenant's property, however he responded by saying I cannot do anything at the moment I will sort it out later. This information has previously been reported to the Claimant.

2. I make this Witness Statement in support of the Claimant's application for an injunction to stop the Defendant from causing intimidation, harassment and alarm to other residents and their visitors on Burncroft Avenue.

3. The Defendant is a secure tenant of the Claimant at 109 Burncroft Avenue, Enfield, Middlesex, EN3 7JQ. His tenancy commenced on 14th August 2006. I hereby attach a bundle of documents relating to this case as exhibit number LN1. A copy of the Defendant's tenancy agreement and terms. and conditions are hereby attached at pages 1-24.

4. The reports concerning the Defendant's alleged anti-social behaviour towards his neighbours was first brought to my attention in October 2016 when a case involving the Defendant and one of his neighbours was referred to me for investigation. The Defendant was reported to have caused frequent acts of harassment and anti-social behaviour against an elderly neighbour. The Defendant was arrested by the Police and bailed to a different address. The matter was referred to the Highbury Corner Magistrates' Court on 05 October 2016 where a first hearing took place. The Defendant pleaded not guilty, and the trial was fixed for 17 November 2016. However, the trial did not proceed due to insufficient support as the elderly tenant was unable to attend Court due to health reasons. A copy of a letter from the Magistrate Court is attached to this statement at pages 25-26.

5. The Defendant was previously known to the Claimant and an anti-social behaviour order was made on 4 August 2015 by the Magistrates Court to prevent him from knowingly using or supplying property, personal or otherwise, for the use in a rave as defined in s.63(1) of the Criminal Justice Order Act 1994. The order was made for a duration of 5 years. A copy of the Order is at page 27 of the exhibit bundle.

Mr. Mathiyalagan has already provided a witness statement in support these proceedings to confirm that this incident happened. A file note of this report is exhibited at pages 28-30 of the exhibit bundle LN1.

7. On 8th August 2016, Mr. Mathiyalagan reported that the Defendant aggressively banged on his front door, shouted abuse at him and his wife and accused them of making noise. continued that sometime around mid-September 2016, one of the Defendant's neighbours reported that the Defendant confronted him outside his block as he was going to the local park and started to shout abuse and threats at him and said to him "I can get you over at the park, I know you go for a walk". This incident led to his arrest and to the matter being referred to the Magistrates Court. A file note of the report is exhibited on page 31 of the exhibit bundle LN1.

11. I had meetings with Mr. George Quinton, one of the Defendant's neighbours on 16th December 2016 and 11th January 2017. He reported that he was experiencing problems. with the Defendant's behaviour, and that on 4th October 2016, the Defendant aggressively banged on his ceiling and accused him of making noise. The Defendant then went to the neighbour's flat upstairs and started kicking and banging on the front door and was swearing and shouting at. him. The Defendant later went downstairs, dragged the neighbour's motorbike from where it was parked and started to hit it with a piece of wood. A file note of the report is at pages 32-34 of the exhibit bundle.

12. On 22nd November 2016, during a telephone conversation with my former colleague Ms. Sarah Fletcher, the Defendant was heard saying to his mother, who was present with him, 'I'm goanna do her over, I'm goanna take her job just for fun' referring to Ms. Fletcher. A file note of the incident is at page 34A of the exhibit bundle.

13. I hereby attach a case history detailing incidents of reports from Mr. Mathiyalagan about the abuse, threats, and persistent intimidation by the Defendant. The case history is at pages 35 to 40 of the exhibit bundle LN1. It shows that Mr. Mathiyalagan reported incidents too numerous to set out in this statement about abuse, threats, attempts to extort money and intimidation by the Defendant. Examples are that the Defendant banged on his front door while his wife was alone at home with their young daughter and shouted abuse at his wife and asked her to turn off the bathroom taps. He also removed his electricity fuse thereby.

cutting off their power supply. Mr. Mathiyalagan reported the incident to the police and was given CAD 5753/23 December 2016. A file note of this incident is at page 37 of the exhibit bundle.

14. Other examples of aggressive and anti-social behaviour reported by Mr. Mathiyalagan were that on 21st January 2017, the Defendant aggressively banged on his door, swore and shouted abuse and threats at him and his family and accused them of making noise.

15. On 9th June 2017, the Defendant attacked Mr. Mathiyalagan's cousin in the communal hallway as he returned from work late at night by grabbing him on the arm and neck thereby causing bruising to his arm and neck. The Defendant also snatched his mobile phone from him as he tried to record the incident.

16. On 16th June 2017, the Defendant confronted Mr. Mathiyalagan's wife as she was exiting the main entrance at 11:55am and said to her that he had her bank and personal details. He also reported that the Defendant told his wife that he wanted her and her husband to pay him some money.

17. On 23rd June 2017, the Defendant came out of his flat with his dog and attacked Mr. Mathiyalagan's cousin as he returned from work at 11:35pm. He reported that the Defendant punched his cousin twice on the chest, tried to push him out of the block and snatched his mobile phone as he tried to record the incident.

18. On 28th June 2017, the Defendant confronted Mr. Mathiyalagan's wife as she was leaving the block at 11:45am, swore at her, shouted abuse and accused her of making noise inside her flat. 5:18pm and asked him when he was going to hand over the money. He also reported that as they left the block, the Defendant ran after them swearing and shouting abuse and demanded that he must pay him money if he wants him to leave him alone. The Defendant also said to him that he has all their personal details. A report of the incident is at page 40 of the case history.

20. Case history notes exhibited at pages 41-46 show reports of similar aggressive and intimidating behaviour displayed to Mr. Mathiyalagan was being experienced by another tenant who wishes to remain anonymous because of fear of reprisal from the Defendant.

21. Similarly, further case notes exhibited at pages 47-52 show that another tenant who wishes to remain anonymous was being subjected to the Defendant's antisocial behaviour. She had to be moved from the block because of the harassment from the Defendant and because she suffered from mental health problems. and was particularly vulnerable and unable to deal with the threats and harassment from the Defendant.

22. On 7th February 2017, the Defendant approached the leaseholder of 117 Bumcroft Avenue and his plumber outside the block as they were attempting to resolve low water pressure issues affecting the flat. The Defendant informed the leaseholder that there were problems. between him and his tenants but did not give specific details. The leaseholder explained to the Defendant that his tenants were experiencing low water pressure in their flat and that they were trying to fix the problem. The Defendant said to the leaseholder, “you will not resolve the problem as I am restricting their water supply”. The leaseholder later asked the Defendant to increase the water pressure and the Defendant stated, "I cannot do anything at the moment, I will sort it out later”. A report of this incident is at page 55 of the exhibit bundle.

23. On 24th February 2017, the Claimants officers Sarah Fletcher and Steve Kirk attended the Defendant’s property following reports of low water pressure in the flats above his. While inside his flat they noticed that the Defendant have installed a metal security gate inside his front door. It also appeared that the Defendant may have removed the wall between his kitchen and living room thereby creating an open plan living space. A copy of the file note is pages 56-57 of the exhibit bundle.

24. On 8th May 2017, the Claimant's officers, Ms. Fletcher, a Neighbourhood officer who has since left the Council and Mr. Steve Stirk, a surveyor visited the Defendant's block of flats following reports of low water pressure to flats 109, 113 and 117 Bumcroft Avenue. While the Claimant's officers were outside flat 113, the Defendant came up to them and started to complain about his perceived victimization by his neighbours, the police and the council. While the Defendant was talking to the officers, Mr. Mathiyalagan came down the stairs and the Defendant said to him, "I'm going to the police station now with my evidence about you and I'm going to ruin your life". A file note of this report is exhibited at page 58 of the exhibit bundle and an email from Steve Stirk is at page 59.

25. On 14th May 2017, yet another neighbour who wishes to remain anonymous reported that the Defendant aggressively banged on her door, shouted abuse and threats at her and falsely accused her of making noise and coming into his flat to attack him. The neighbour stated that the Defendant later followed her to her car as she was leaving the block shouting abuse and wanting to know where she was going. The neighbour also reported that the Defendant allowed his dog to roam freely in the communal area of the block without a lead. A file note of the report is at page 60 of the exhibit bundle LN1.

26. On 28th May 2017, the Defendant was issued with a first instance Harassment letter by the police following allegations of harassment and threatening behaviour made to the police by his neighbour. A copy of the letter and the PC's statement are at pages 61-62 of the exhibit bundle LN1.

Mr. Neville Gray attended the Defendant's flat again at about 5:39pm following reports from the leaseholder of flat 117 Burncroft House that the water supply had stopped completely, but the Defendant also refused him access. The Defendant later shouted abuse and swear words at Mr. Gray and would not allow him to approach his car. Mr. Gray has provided a witness statement in relation to this incident.

10. 53. The Claimant's operatives have had difficulties in accessing the Defendant's flat to inspect the state of the property and the unauthorised works and modifications which the Defendant is purported to have carried out without a written consent from the Claimant. The Claimant has also been unable to check whether the Defendant Is restricting water supply/pressure to the properties above his since December 2016. The Defendant has admitted to restricting the water supply but has refused to allow the Claimant's maintenance operatives access to his property to investigate and rectify the problem.

54. The Defendant has intimidated the residents in the entire block and because of his behaviour, we have received numerous complaints from residents, requests to be transferred from the block and we have had to move a vulnerable tenant from the block.

55. I have made attempts to engage with the Defendant, but he has not been cooperative and has continuously displayed abusive and threatening behaviour towards the Claimant's members of staff and his neighbours. A Notice of Seeking Possession has been served on him and possession action is being considered. However, in the meantime, this injunction is required to ensure that the other residents are not subjected to further intimidation and harassment by the Defendant. This application is being made without notice because if the Defendant were given notice, he would intimidate the witnesses in an attempt to prevent the order being made.

MR. SIMON CORDELL

DIRECTIONS ORDER

1. I make this Witness Statement in support of the Claimant's application for an injunction to stop the Defendant from causing intimidation, harassment and alarm to me, other Council Officers and residents near his property on Burncroft Avenue, Enfield, EN3

7JQ. The application also seeks access to the Defendant's Property to enable the Claimant to carry out routine and maintenance inspections.

Background

2. The Defendant is a secure tenant of Flat 109 Burncroft Avenue, Enfield EN3 7QJ.

3. I first visited this property in the morning of 12 July 2017 at 11.00 am after complaints were made from the tenants at Flat 117 regarding the low pressure of their water supply. I knocked on the Defendant's flat at 109 but there was initially no answer, I had noticed that the front entrance door to the property was unlocked and slightly open; I could also hear a dog barking which appeared very aggressive. I shouted through the open door and explained that I needed to come to his property and check the water tap but he refused to come to the door. The Defendant was shouting and swearing at me to go away. At that time, I had immediately backed off and called the Claimant's call centre who then called his mother Ms. Lorraine Cordell, on my behalf who then attended the Defendant's Property with her brother. The Defendant's still refused access and was extremely vocal and so that visit did not proceed but was re-scheduled for Thursday 13 July and then changed to Monday 17 July as his mother was not available.

4. On 12 July 2017 at 5.39pm, I received calls from both the Leaseholder and the Managing Agents of Flat 117 advising that their tenants' (Mr. and Mrs Mathiyalagan) water supply had stopped completely. I also called the tenant of 113 (Mr. Quinton) and he had agreed to meet me at his property. I then called Ms. Cordell and expressed urgency of accessing his property.

also, this evening to check his stop cock. It was agreed for her to meet me at the property along with the tenant of 113 and the Leaseholder of 117. I contacted one of the Claimant's housing managers, Mr. Clive Green who expressed his concern of me attending out of hours, but it was then agreed that I could attend but call him as soon as I arrived and at ten-minute intervals.

5. On route to the property the Leaseholder of Flat 117 Mr. John Irving called and said that their pressure was on and normal and was off for approximately 30 minutes. The pressure was poor that morning and became non- existent the same evening for 30 minutes without explanation and then returned to normal better than it had been since December 2016, this caused me concern as there was a strong suggestion that the Defendant was restricting pressure to the tenants of Flats 113 and 117 who have both confirmed the problems. they have had and that the Defendant had said to them that he was controlling the water pressure previously.

6. Mr. Quinton of Flat 113 said that he has not. been at his property for 6 months as he is scared of the Defendant's violent conduct who had also banged and kicked on his front door previously.

7. The leaseholder of Flat 117 Mr. John Irving also reported to me that the Defendant has been demanding money off of his tenant at 117 to the value of £500.

8. The Defendant refused access again in the evening on 12 July 2017 but when I was about to return to my car he came out and although he was initially reasonable, he then started shouting and swearing at me outside the main communal front entrance. I backed away and made my way to my car, but he started following me continually showing aggression and using vile language, this must have been around 19.30pm. At that point I called

9. I awaited the Police and they spoke to the Defendant's mother Lorraine Cordell. The Defendant refused to come out or allow access. He wanted me to return on Monday of which I have now refused to do because of his threats and violence.

I visited Mr. Mathiyalagan at 117 Burncroft Avenue to day to look at the flooring following email from Mrs Cordell concerning noise as a result of wood flooring in the flat. I noticed that there is laminate flooring in the whole flat and ceramic tiles in the kitchen. Mr. Mathiyalagan stated that the flooring was already in the flat when they moved in. He stated that they do not make noise deliberately and that any noise from his flat is household noise. He also stated that as far as he is aware that the person living below them-), we not complained of noise and that he will be the one that will be affected if there are excessive issues from his flat. He also stated that he has asked the man- if they are causing noise disturbances arid he said they are not. He also requested that Mr. Cordell should contact the council if he is being disturbed by noise from his flat instead of harassing him and his family by banging on his front door, shouting abuse at him and his wife, threatening them and confronting them when they come into the block.
I informed him that laminate flooring can generate some noise and to be mindful of his neighbours while walking around inside his flat-
I then went and knocked at flat 113 but there was no response.

By the time I returned to the office, Mr. Cordell had telephoned me several times. He asked why I did not stop when he ran after me, and I told him that I had another visit and did not have the time to stop and talk to him. He stated that he will not attend the meeting at the Civic Centre or any of the council and that I should come to his flat. I offered to have the meeting at a neutral venue like the local library or even at his mother's house, but he refused and shouted to shout abuse and accuse me of taking sides with his neighbours. He denied doing the things that he is accused of doing and stated that he is the victim and that the council have refused to deal with his complaints against his neighbours. He stated that he has been suffering noise disturbances from his neighbours since he moved into his flat and that the council have refused to deal with it. He alleged that the council is conniving with the police to victimise him and threatened to put in a complaint - against me, He continued shouting abuse and will not let me say a word, I then advised him that I will have to terminate the conversation as we were getting nowhere.

2 Enfield Council 2nd Injunction Order Indexed: Received on the 25/06/2018 / Mr. Neville Gary Council Staff Statement Dated 01 August 2017 /. - "12. I first visited this property in the morning of 12 July 2017 at 11.00 am after complaints were made from the tenants at Flat 117 regarding the low pressure of their water supply. I knocked on the Defendant's flat at 109 but there was initially no answer, I had noticed that the front entrance door to the property was unlocked and slightly open; I could also hear a dog barking which appeared very aggressive. I shouted through the open door and explained that I needed to come to his property and check the water tap but he refused to come to the door. The Defendant was shouting and swearing at me to go away. At that time, I immediately backed off and called the Claimant's call center who then called his mother Ms. Lorraine Cordell, on my behalf who then attended the Defendant's Property with her brother. The Defendant's still refused access and was extremely vocal and so that visit did not proceed but was rescheduled for Thursday 13 July and then changed to Monday 17 July as his mother was not available."

DIRECTIONS ORDER

10. I make this Witness Statement in support of the Claimant's application for an injunction to stop the Defendant from causing intimidation, harassment and alarm to me, other Council Officers and residents near his property on Burncroft Avenue, Enfield, EN3 7JQ. The application also seeks access to the Defendant's Property to enable the Claimant to carry out routine and maintenance inspections.

Background

11. The Defendant is a secure tenant of Flat 109 Burncroft Avenue, Enfield EN3 7QJ.

12. I first visited this property in the morning of 12 July 2017 at 11.00 am after complaints were made from the tenants at Flat 117 regarding the low pressure of their water supply. I knocked on the Defendant's flat at 109 but there was initially no answer, I had noticed that the front entrance door to the property was unlocked and slightly open; I could also hear a dog barking which appeared very aggressive. I shouted through the open door and explained that I needed to come to his property and check the water tap but he refused to come to the door. The Defendant was shouting and swearing at me to go away. At that time, I had immediately backed off and called the Claimant's call centre who then called his mother Ms. Lorraine Cordell, on my behalf who then attended the Defendant's Property with her brother. The Defendant's still refused access and was extremely vocal and so that visit did not proceed but was re-scheduled for Thursday 13 July and then changed to Monday 17 July as his mother was not available.

13. On 12 July 2017 at 5.39pm, I received calls from both the Leaseholder and the Managing Agents of Flat 117 advising that their tenants' (Mr. and Mrs Mathiyalagan) water supply had stopped completely. I also called the tenant of 113 (Mr. Quinton) and he had agreed to meet me at his property. I then called Ms. Cordell and expressed urgency of accessing his property.

also, this evening to check his stop cock. It was agreed for her to meet me at the property along with the tenant of 113 and the Leaseholder of 117. I contacted one of the Claimant's housing managers, Mr. Clive Green who expressed his concern of me attending out of hours, but it was then agreed that I could attend but call him as soon as I arrived and at ten-minute intervals.

14. On route to the property the Leaseholder of Flat 117 Mr. John Irving called and said that their pressure was on and normal and was off for approximately 30 minutes. The pressure was poor that morning and became non- existent the same evening for 30 minutes without explanation and then returned to normal better than it had been since December 2016, this caused me concern as there was a strong suggestion that the Defendant was restricting pressure to the tenants of Flats 113 and 117 who have both confirmed the problems. they have had and that the Defendant had said to them that he was controlling the water pressure previously.

15. Mr. Quinton of Flat 113 said that he has not. been at his property for 6 months as he is scared of the Defendant's violent conduct who had also banged and kicked on his front door previously.

16. The leaseholder of Flat 117 Mr. John Irving also reported to me that the Defendant has been demanding money off of his tenant at 117 to the value of £500.

17. The Defendant refused access again in the evening on 12 July 2017 but when I was about to return to my car he came out and although he was initially reasonable, he then started shouting and swearing at me outside the main communal front entrance. I backed away and made my way to my car, but he started following me continually showing aggression and using vile language, this must have been around 19.30pm. At that point I called

18. I awaited the Police and they spoke to the Defendant's mother Lorraine Cordell. The Defendant refused to come out or allow access. He wanted me to return on Monday of which I have now refused to do because of his threats and violence.

Dear Jeanette
I am sorry I have not been in contact with Simon Statement but as said in an earlier email we heard from the coroner office and they are doing an inquest review on the 30/04/2015 which was very short notice to get everything ready for this hearing, as said I been dealing with getting all my late mothers files in order to be able to deal with this which has taken me some time, I am still chancing her bloods and other things and as this means a lot to the whole family due to the way my late mother passed away my time has been spent dealing with this. We have had to wait since 2013 for this complaint to even be looked at and my son has had to suffer the wait until he proved what the police had done. There is a number of issues with this complaint we want addressed which you know, I do not feel it was correct of you to pre write Simon statement and think he would just sign it when he had not even talked to you about the complaint. If you had wished you could have taken a statement from him in the meeting which would have taken some hours, but you choose not to do this, I am sure a person is meant to be there when a statement is taken by the police as it has to be what they have said. I am also still waiting for an email from the crown court with the transcript which you said the crown court would send to my email, can you tell me if you have been sent this yet also. If you have not got this is there any update to this. The statement is ready I spent the last few days writing it up when I should have been dealing with issues related to my late mother, I should have that over to you today or tomorrow in the morning. I am just waiting for Simon to say everything is correct in it and then he will sign it. Could you please let me know you have this email and that you will in fact wait till you get the statement before handing this over?

I am very busy as I still have not got everything done for the inquest review and only have a few days in order to get anything done for this also.
Regards
Lorraine

This means that, if one of these Grounds is set out in paragraph 3 to this Notice, you will be able to argue at the hearing in Court that it is not reasonable that you should have to leave, even if you accept that the Ground applies. Before the court grants an order on any of the Grounds 9 to 16, it must be satisfied that there will be suitable alternative accommodation for you when you have to leave. This means that the Court will have to decide that, in its opinion, there will be other accommodation which is reasonably suitable for the needs of you and your family, taking into particular account various factors such as the nearness of your place of work, and the sort of housing that other people with similar needs are offered. Your new home will have to be let to you on another secure tenancy or a private tenancy under the Rent Act of a kind that will give you similar security. There is no requirement for suitable alternative accommodation where Grounds 1 to 8 apply. If your landlord is not a local authority, and the local authority gives a certificate that it will provide you with suitable accommodation, the Court has to accept the certificate. One of the requirements of Ground 10A is that the landlord must have approval for the redevelopment scheme from the Secretary of State (or, in the case of a housing association landlord, the Housing Corporation). The landlord must have consulted all secure tenants affected by the proposed redevelopment scheme. Court proceedings for possession of the dwelling house can be begun immediately. The date by which the tenant is to give up possession of the dwelling-house is Monday the 24th of August 2017. - Page 9 - NOTES TO PARAGRAPH 5 - Court proceedings cannot be begun until after this date, which cannot he earlier than the date when your tenancy or license could have been brought to an end. This means that if you have a weekly or Fortnightly tenancy, there should at least 4 weeks between the date this Notice is given and the date in this paragraph. After this date, court proceedings may be begun at once or at any time during the following twelve months. Once the twelve months are up this Notice will lapse and a new Notice must be served before possession can be sought. Signed Anti-Social Behaviour Manager. Date; 0. On behalf of: Enfield Council / Housing Address: The Edmonton Centre / 36-44 South Mall London N9 0TN."

Before the Court will grant-an order on any of the Grounds 1 to 8 or 12 to 16, it must be satisfied that it is reasonable to require you to leave. This means that, if one of these Grounds is set out in paragraph 3 to this Notice, you will be able to argue at the hearing in Court that it is not reasonable that you should have to leave, even if you accept that the Ground applies.

Before the court grants an order on any of the Grounds 9 to 16, it must be satisfied that there will be suitable alternative accommodation for you when you have to leave. This means that the Court will have to decide that, in its opinion, there will be other accommodation which is reasonably suitable for the needs of you and your family, taking into particular account various factors such as the nearness of your place of work, and the sort of housing that other people with similar needs are offered. Your new home will have to be let to you on another secure tenancy or a private tenancy under the Rent Act of a kind that will give you similar security.

There is no requirement for suitable alternative accommodation where Grounds 1 to 8 apply.

If your landlord is not a local authority, and the local authority gives a certificate that it will provide you with suitable accommodation, the Court has to accept the certificate.

One of the requirements of Ground 10A is that the landlord must have approval for the redevelopment scheme from the Secretary of State (or, in the case of a housing association landlord, the Housing Corporation). The landlord must have consulted all secure tenants affected by the proposed redevelopment scheme.

5. Court proceedings for possession of the dwelling-house can be begun immediately. The date by which the tenant is to give up possession of the dwelling-house is Monday the 24th of August 2017.

NOTES TO PARAGRAPH 5

Court proceedings cannot be begun until after this date, which cannot he earlier than the date when your tenancy or license could have been brought to an end.

This means that if you have a weekly or Fortnightly tenancy, there should at least 4 weeks between the date this Notice is given and the date in this paragraph.

After this date, court proceedings may be begun at once or at any time during the following twelve months. Once the twelve months are up this Notice will lapse, and a new Notice must be served before possession can be sought.

Reply:
Sarah Fletcher neighbourhood officer from the council claims that on 22nd November 2016
during a telephone conversation between her, myself and mother that she overheard me threaten her by saying 'I'm going to do her over' and then 'I'm going to take her job just for fun'.
This is not true
The reason that it is not true is because what has now been stated to have occurred is more than just misinterpreted information of the so called Mid – day event.
The Council's memo of a telephone call on that day:
Is forged and therefore incorrect and is not supported by self and mother to be true facts that have been documented with a fair prosses by the statement maker. The context contained within side the statement had been fabricated so to support the claimants claim.
While also set out to avoid disciplinary action for the statement makers and hardworking colleague's incompetence leading to negligence and gross misconduct, set out against myself and then on afterwards having a negative effect also within my loved one's life's.
All what has been achieved by the Enfield Council since the start of my official complaint to themselves has gotten managed with criminal intention to put I in harm's way
From the of start of themselves handling my case load of an official work load.
Sarah Fletcher as mentioned whom once was a neighbourhood officer who did work in collaboration with the Enfield Council, states that she received a call from Mr. Simon Paul Cordell Whom is an Enfield secure resident within his housing tenancy that is attached to the address of 109 Burncroft Avenue at around the time of Mid – Day: 01:20Pm?

The time that Sarah Fletcher states she received the phone call is incorrect but not by far even low it is still 100% incorrect. I and my mother am sure of this as we cared very much so when deciding to make the phone call to my housing officer that we both documented down all relevant information accurately.
When doing so we noted down the precise time of 01:04Pm
I did get transferred by customer services when making the phone call to my housing officer about the way I was getting victimised, this did not take too long.
Once on the phone to Sarah Fletcher I started to explain to her a shorted down list of emergency issues that I was having wile renting my home.
1. That my mother had been contacting her and her team, while also contacting other official persons with relevance since the date of 00/00/2015
And this had continued up a till date and without any fair follow ups as company protocol states is mandatory.
And due to this lack of concern I had continued to suffer for a much further time frame than ever would have been if her and other persons jobs were followed correctly.

The call was transferred by the customer services team informing me that Mr. Cordell wished to discuss his housing option show to move.
I took the call- he sounded agitated and said that he had a few things that he wished to discuss with me.
He said he was calling in response to a letter that I had sent him requesting the removal of a CCTV camera that he had installed on the inner communal/fire door on the ground floor of the block.
He informed me that he would not be removing the camera as he believed he was legally allowed to have the camera as the communal area was his.
I explained that he was in breach of his tenancy conditions as permission had not been sought or granted for the installation and he could not install anything in the communal area as these belonged to the Council.
He maintained that his neighbour in another block had a camera and had taken the Council to court about it and won the case, I responded that I could not comment on other cases, but my position remains as per the letter I sent: That the camera was in breach of tenancy conditions, was invasive of the privacy of other residents in the block as it points at the outer communal door and should be removed by Friday 25th November, or the Council will remove it and charge him for the cost of doing so.
He then said that the camera was fake, so it did not need to be removed.
I responded that it did still need to be removed.
His voice was raised throughout the exchange, and I had to ask him to calm down and lower his voice more than once.
He then said that he wanted to move on to finding out about moving to another address.
He proceeded to give me a full history of his experiences with the police and previous housing management and alleged that 'Jackie', who had previously lived above him and 'Stan', his immediate neighbour on the ground floor, had victimised him over a long period of time and that he had done nothing wrong. This history was very full, and it was difficult to get a word in because he was so worked up so, I let him relay the information to me as it seemed like he wanted to get it off of his chest.

He was very derogatory about the police and previous housing staff who had signed a request for an Asbo application against him.
I told him that I could not comment about the previous action taken.
He then came on to more recent events and stated that there had been an incident between him and another resident where she had shouted at him out of her window because of him starting up a scrambler bike in his garden.
He maintained that he was courteous during the exchange, but the police came and arrested him because she told them that he had threatened to kill her and that he had been put in the mental hospital, had won his case in court and was able to go home as of today.
He said that he wanted me to give him 'points' so that he could move.
I explained that his best means of moving would be through a mutual exchange, but he was adamant that he did not want to do this and wanted to be moved in the same way that he moved into this property 1 l yrs. ago by being given points.
I explained that a transfer was unlikely based on what he had told me so far but that I could look into the position for him.
He said a lot about his perceived victimisation by his neighbours and expressed that he felt that I should I have a duty to protect him.
I explained that I had a responsibility to all residents living at Burncroft Avenue and took the opportunity to mention that I had received some reports about antisocial behaviour by him that I would need to discuss with him but suggested that we leave that for today.
He then put his mother on the line (she had been trying to interject throughout the conversation) who said she wanted to know why I had not responded to her messages to call her.
I apologised for this and explained that I have been very busy, but that I needed to know whether we had written permission from Mr. Cordell for us to speak to her - she said that there was a written note recorded on our files in
Mr. Cordell asked her what I was asking her and when she replied that I was querying permission I clearly heard Mr. Cordell say angrily and aggressively "I am goanna do her over" and then "I am goanna take her job just for fun".
I informed Mrs Cordell that I had overheard these remarks and that I was ending the call.
She said that her son had now left the room and she was talking to me.
I repeated that I would be ending the call and that she should put what she wanted to say in writing to me.

NOTES TO PARAGRAPH 4.

Before the Court will grant-an order on any of the Grounds 1 to 8 or 12 to 16, it must be satisfied that it is reasonable to require you to leave. This means that, if one of these Grounds is set out in paragraph 3 to this Notice, you will be able to argue at the hearing in Court that it is not reasonable that you should have to leave, even if you accept that the Ground applies.

Before the court grants an order on any of the Grounds 9 to 16, it must be satisfied that there will be suitable alternative accommodation for you when you have to leave. This means that the Court will have to decide that, in its opinion, there will be other accommodation which is reasonably suitable for the needs of you and your family, taking into particular account various factors such as the nearness of your place of work, and the sort of housing that other people with similar needs are offered. Your new home will have to be let to you on another secure tenancy or a private tenancy under the Rent Act of a kind that will give you similar security.

There is no requirement for suitable alternative accommodation where Grounds 1 to 8 apply. If your landlord is not a local authority, and the local authority gives a certificate that it will provide you with suitable accommodation, the Court has to accept the certificate. One of the requirements of Ground 10A is that the landlord must have approval for the redevelopment scheme from the Secretary of State (or, in the case of a housing association landlord, the Housing Corporation). The landlord must have consulted all secure tenants affected by the proposed redevelopment scheme. 5. Court proceedings for possession of the dwelling-house can be begun immediately. The date by which the tenant is to give up possession of the dwelling-house is Monday the 24th of August 2017.
NOTES TO PARAGRAPH 5 Court proceedings cannot be begun until after this date, which cannot he earlier than the date when your tenancy or license could have been brought to an end. This means that if you have a weekly or Fortnightly tenancy, there should at least 4 weeks between the date this Notice is given and the date in this paragraph. After this date, court proceedings may be begun at once or at any time during the following twelve months. Once the twelve months are up this Notice will lapse, and a new Notice must be served before possession can be sought. I visited Mr. Mathiyalagan at 117 Burncroft Avenue to day to look at the flooring following email from Mrs Cordell concerning noise as a result of wood flooring in the flat. I noticed that there is laminate flooring in the whole flat and ceramic tiles in the kitchen. Mr. Mathiyalagan stated that the flooring was already in the flat when they moved in. He stated that they do not make noise deliberately and that any noise from his flat is household noise. He also stated that as far as he is aware that the person living below them-), we not complained of noise and that he will be the one that will be affected if there are excessive issues from his flat. He also stated that he has asked the man- if they are causing noise disturbances arid he said they are not. He also requested that Mr. Cordell should contact the council if he is being disturbed by noise from his flat instead of harassing him and his family by banging on his front door, shouting abuse at him and his wife, threatening them and confronting them when they come into the block.
I informed him that laminate flooring can generate some noise and to be mindful of his neighbours while walking around inside his flat-
I then went and knocked at flat 113 but there was no response.

I visited 109 Burncroft Avenue on 17/03/2017 to hand deliver to post a letter through Mr. Cordell's door and as I got into my car to drive off after posting the letter, Mr. Cordell ran after me shouting and screaming abuse. I did not stop to speak to him, and he ran after me until I turned left into Green Street. As he was running after my car, he was shouting at people passing by to stop the car.
By the time I returned to the office, Mr. Cordell had telephoned me several times. I telephoned him back and he wanted to know whether I was the person that posted a letter through his letterbox, and I said yes. He asked why I did not stop when he ran after me, and I told him that I had another visit and did not have the time to stop and talk to him. He stated that he will not attend the meeting at the Civic Centre or any of the council and that I should come to his flat. I offered to have the meeting at a neutral venue like the local library or even at his mother's house, but he refused and shouted to shout abuse and accuse me of taking sides with his neighbours. He denied doing the things that he is accused of doing and stated that he is the victim and that the council have refused to deal with his complaints against his neighbours. He stated that he has been suffering noise disturbances from his neighbours since he moved into his flat and that the council have refused to deal with it. He alleged that the council is conniving with the police to victimise him and threatened to put in a complaint - against me, He continued shouting abuse and will not let me say a word, I then advised him that I will have to terminate the conversation as we were getting nowhere.

1 Enfield Council: / Email / To LEMMY NWABUISI. / Time 0:0 – "Dear LEMMY NWABUISI, I am sorry for the short notice, but we will not be able to attend the council meeting tomorrow 26/07/2017 at 14:00 hours the reason is we are indexing all the dates in your possession order; this is taking time due to there being mostly no times and some there is no dates just a month listed and there is so much to go over there is hours and hours of information we need to go over. There is also a great deal of emails that have to be printed off and other information. I wonder if it will be possible for you to get some information as to the days that are missing and times. I believe a person putting in complaints would at least know what sort of time of day this happened and what day. I would like to have everything in order and indexed and easy to go over so, as much detail as possible would be great. This will save a great deal of time for us and you. I would like to have everything in order and easy to go over so, as much detail as possible would be great. Please see the list of dates below and the information needed. - Dates of Breaches: 1. 06th July 2016: Would it please be possible to get a time frame for this, also on what date and time it was reported to Enfield council and log of it being entered into the database? 2. July 2016: Would it please be possible to get a date and time frame for this, also on what date and time it was reported to Enfield council and log of it being entered into the database? I believe if this really did happen and the person was left with no electric to their flat, they would have had to call an electrical contractor to fix this so should have the information regarding this. I do not think they would leave themselves with no electricity to their flat so would have tried to sort this right away. So should have the date and time frame for this and electrical contractor details. I do not believe it is right to blame someone when there is no proof that person has done anything wrong which he has not. The code for the main door has been the same for over 15 years and due to the time, the code being used by the tenants at the block to go in the numbers have faded so anyone can see the numbers to get the code for the main door, this has been done many times there have been people smoking in the block and taking drugs who does not live there in the main section of the communal area of the block. There have even been items taken from the block even 111 had their charismas tree taken. At this point of time, I wish to say Mr. Cordell had nothing to do with this and has never damaged any lock to a cupboard or removed a fuse box. 3. 06th August 2016: Would it please be possible to get a time frame for this, also on what date and time it was reported to Enfield council and log of it being entered into the database? 4. September 2016: Would it please be possible to get a date and time frame for this, also on what date and time it was reported to Enfield council and log of it being entered into the database? 5. 27th September 2016: Would it please be possible to get a time frame for this there seems to be 2 times on this date so, if possible, time frames for both please, also on what date and time it was reported to the Enfield council and log of it being entered into the database? 6. 28th September 2016: Would it please be possible to get a time frame for this, also on what date and time it was reported to the Enfield council and log of it being entered into the database? 7. 04th October 2016: Would it please be possible to get a time frame for this it seems there is more than one-time frame, also on what date and time it was reported to the Enfield council and log of it being entered into the database? 8. 22nd November 2016: Would it please be possible to get a time frame for this, also on what date and time it was reported to the Enfield council and log of it being entered into the database? I believe that Enfield council records telephone calls, I have asked repeatedly for all data the council hold including phone calls which I have still not been given, could I therefore have the recorded telephone call. 9. 08th December 2016: Would it please be possible to get a time frame for this, also on what date and time it was reported to the Enfield council and log of it being entered into the database? 10. 11th December 2016: Would it please be possible to get a time frame for this, also on what date and time it was reported to the Enfield council and log of it being entered into the database? 11. 14th December 2016: Would it please be possible to get a time frame for this, also on what date and time it was reported to the Enfield council and log of it being entered into the database? 12. 23rd December 201: Would it please be possible to get a time frame for this, also on what date and time it was reported to the Enfield council and log of it being entered into the database? Dear LEMMY NWABUISI,

I am sorry for the short notice, but we will not be able to attend the council meeting tomorrow at 14:00 hours the reason is we are indexing all the dates in your possession order; this is taking time due to there being mostly no times and some there is no dates just a month listed and there is so much to go over there is hours and hours of information we need to go over. There is also a great deal of emails that have to be printed off and other information. I wonder if it will be possible for you to get some information as to the days that are missing and times. I believe a person putting in complaints would at least know what sort of time of day this happened and what day. I would like to have everything in order and indexed and easy to go over so, as much detail as possible would be great. This will save a great deal of time for us and you. I would like to have everything in order and easy to go over so, as much detail as possible would be great. Please see the list of dates below and the information needed.

Dates of Breaches:

6th July 2016:

Would it please be possible to get a time frame for this, also on what date and time it was reported to Enfield council and log of it being entered into the database?

July 2016:

Would it please be possible to get a date and time frame for this, also on what date and time it was reported to Enfield council and log of it being entered into the database?

I believe if this really did happen and the person was left with no electric to their flat, they would have had to call an electrical contractor to fix this so should have the information regarding this. I do not think they would leave themselves with no electricity to their flat so would have tried to sort this right away. So should have the date and time frame for this and electrical contractor details. I do not believe it is right to blame someone when there is no proof that person has done anything wrong which he has not. The code for the main door has been the same for over 15 years and due to the time, the code being used by the tenants at the block to go in the numbers have faded so anyone can see the numbers to get the code for the main door, this has been done many times there have been people smoking in the block and taking drugs who does not live there in the main section of the communal area of the block. There have even been items taken from the block even 111 had their charismas tree taken.

At this point of time, I wish to say Mr. Cordell had nothing to do with this and has never damaged any lock to a cupboard or removed a fuse box.

6th August 2016:

Would it please be possible to get a time frame for this, also on what date and time it was reported to Enfield council and log of it being entered into the database?

September 2016:

Would it please be possible to get a date and time frame for this, also on what date and time it was reported to Enfield council and log of it being entered into the database?

27th September 2016:

Would it please be possible to get a time frame for this there seems to be 2 times on this date so if possible, time frames for both please, also on what date and time it was reported to the Enfield council and log of it being entered into the database?

28th September 2016:

Would it please be possible to get a time frame for this, also on what date and time it was reported to the Enfield council and log of it being entered into the database?

4th October 2016:

Would it please be possible to get a time frame for this it seems there is more than one-time frame, also on what date and time it was reported to the Enfield council and log of it being entered into the database?

22nd November 2016:

Would it please be possible to get a time frame for this, also on what date and time it was reported to the Enfield council and log of it being entered into the database?

I believe that Enfield council records telephone calls, I have asked repeatedly for all data the council hold including phone calls which I have still not been given, could I therefore have the recorded telephone call.

8th December 2016:

Would it please be possible to get a time frame for this, also on what date and time it was reported to the Enfield council and log of it being entered into the database?

11th December 2016:

Dear Ms. Cordell,
The meeting is at 2pm and not 12:00. It was Mr. Cordell himself that requested for the meeting, and he offered to come to the Civic Centre. The meeting will be held in council offices, however if there are any health reasons why Mr. Cordell is unable to attend council offices then you will need to provide us with a doctor's letter stating what the health issues are. Alternatively, Mr. Cordell can respond to the allegations made against him in writing if he does not wish to meet with us in council offices to discuss them.

I am writing this email as I have just spoken to my son Simon Cordell, and I believe a meeting has been set for the 26/07/2017 at 12:00 at your office. We would still like to have the meeting, but could the location be changed to my home 23 Byron Terrace N9 7DG. I think it would be too much for my son to come to the office.

If you could get back to me, I would be grateful.

Lemmy Nwabusi; Good morning ASB team speaking Lemmy speaking.
Simon; Hello Lemmy, how are you doing good morning it is Mr. Simon Cordell.
Lemmy Nwabusi; Hello Mr. Cordell, good morning.
Simon; Yeah, I was just wondering did you get the last two messages that was put onto your answer machine.
Lemmy Nwabusi; I have only just come in.
Simon; Ok I left a message on your answer machine on Friday for you.
Lemmy Nwabusi; I have not, I was not here.
Simon; Ok I understand that, and I also left a message over the weekend so I think you would have two messages on your answering machine in regard to your application.
Lemmy Nwabusi; I have literally just got in.
Simon; I have some Questions to ask you.
Lemmy Nwabusi; Ok go ahead.
Simon; Is it ok to ask you a question then?
Lemmy Nwabusi; Yeah, go ahead.
Simon; I just wanted to know how's your career because obviously you're working for Enfield Council what is a company, so I believe I am entitled to ask you. Are you trained as a solicitor Lemmy?
- A long period of Silence. –
Lemmy Nwabusi; Why what has that got to do with anything.
Simon; Because you gave me an official document. The reason I am asking you this question it's because you've are a trained solicitor and handed me an official letter that I have caught you personally posting through my letterbox.
Simon; I spoke to you outside with the police officers outside the front door when I caught you.
Simon; Now my concern right now is after reading this myself. I am quite well knowledge in the law and I'm concerned that you don't have no first-hand, material witnesses and you personally admit on tape recordings that there's no truth found in these allegations and I'm saying to you.
Lemmy Nwabusi; Hold on Mr. Cordell I said that they are just allegations.
Simon; Yeah, Lemmy their just allegations, now.
Lemmy Nwabusi; Yeah, and that is the reason why, yes, and that is the reason why I just wanted to speak to you.
Simon; Yeah, ok, so, but you cannot threaten to take my home.
Lemmy Nwabusi; And that is the reason why I just wanted to speak to you about it.
Simon; Yeah, ok, sorry, but you cannot threaten to take my home over allegations unless there is any truth found in all of this in this country. Lemmy Yeah, which is my largest concern. I feel that you are trying to Lemmy Nwabusi; No, it has to go before a judge, anyway.
Simon; No, Lemmy can I say something.
Lemmy Nwabusi; It is for the Court to decide.
Simon; You can hand
Lemmy Nwabusi; It is for the Court to decide.

Simon; You cannot hand. Lemmy can I just say something to you, normally I would have a fair trial or hearing, a preliminary hearing in regard to these issues or I would be able to sit down at a meeting and like I said to you, you would normally give them to the police and that would normally be the police. And then if the police find any truth in them, then you can follow through.

Lemmy Nwabusi; Muttering

Simon; The police have already arrested me for these allegations and found them not to be true.

Lemmy Nwabusi; This has got nothing to do with the police this is a civil matter

Simon; No, they are all criminal matters,

Lemmy Nwabusi; If I could explain it.

Simon; Lemmy all of what you are saying to me are criminal offences, Lemmy.

Lemmy Nwabusi; This is a breach of tenancy matter.

Simon; Lemmy all of what you are saying to me.

[02:35]

Lemmy Nwabusi; And because of your mother!

Simon; Lemmy what you are saying to me are criminal offences, yeah, Lemmy.

Simon; I am happy to meet with you anyway Lemmy and I'm happy to come to you lot because I built a book like I've explained to you a 600 page book of everyday of what they done to me in this house up to date with all of the recordings that I've got transcribed inside of it and you are now in my book Lemmy so anybody can hear your precise words that have come out of your mouth Lemmy now and like I said I'm going to show this to the public and I believe when I put my hand on my heart Lemmy.

I never wanted when I said to you in the first conversation that are transcribed the messages and I will send them to you after speaking to you

I felt your humanities for you I felt do you know what this is a person is coming to this situation and he is just following the lead of the other people so let him have a bit of time to analyse the situation and really know what I am saying has heart and meaning to it and that these people were trying to kill me Lemmy

Simon; police Lemmy these people trying to kill me Lemmy yeah.

- Yeah, you can't find to take my home off me over allegations unless any truth found in them in this country let me, I feel that you're trying to trick me.
- It has to go before a judge anyway, No. And these are the reasons that I wanted to speak to you. Yeah, but you can't pretend to take my home off me over allegations unless there's any truth found in them first.
- No, no, no Lemmy can I say something you can't.
- Go on.
- Ok so I can say something to you and you are normally I would have a fair trial I'll never hearing while claiming hearing loss low 4 or something like that in regards to these issues or I'll be able to sit down and you'll be able to give them to the police 214 time

[00:03:29]

- And I have been showing.

Lemmy Nwabusi; Mr. Cordell, Mr. Cordell, Mr. Cordell.

- In 2014 Lemmy may I say one thing to you listen to me listen to this it is important
- P2014 when it's all first started to me they started to victimize me yeah I started to get all my friends to stay here and we started to take witness statements of them and they were all victims as well so now I have got at least 30 friends throughout the last few years that I stayed in that have all done then nothing and to stop them going upstairs and taking things personally as well I've made them right witness statements on Stead and little willing to come to court with me let me hear and to top it off the allegations I'm saying against these not these. I've attempted to kill me let me yeah.

- What they doing to me is very bad Lemmy yeah, now what I have done when the doctors tried to come into my house to cover up what the police had done they come in my house and I had tape recording systems waiting for them let me know because I knew what they was trying to do trying to get me off road to cover the mess that use lots well your other colleagues have made and to cover up the mess that the police themselves have made yeah so I knew that I was coming and so did my loved ones and we are waiting in this house with tape recording systems for them doctors have been at my f why this has been going on and they have not found me crazy or anything wrong with me or her anybody I'm always very well minded and a very intelligent person let me

- Unwanted applications they broke into my house with a fake warrant and I have got them all on tape recordings from the meeting that they forced with a fake Warrant to get into my house Lemmy they also came with a council officer yeah now that cancel officer was in my house when all this was omitted on the tape recordings Lemmy now they all lose their jobs for ever Lemmy because I have handed it to a complaints department advocate for the NHS and she said to me Simon I'm scared to press enter on the keyboard I'm can understand they you know the law and you can see what you have wrote if you want me to press return I will press return yeah Lemmy that's how much trouble these people are in Lemmy
- These things that you are telling me.
- No, they have no me because I explained.
- No, it hasn't missed a call down listen please.
- Lemmy let Me Explain let me let me finish what I am saying and I will listen to you let me just finish let me finish because it's one thing let me.
- Don’t Tell me about court issues.
- I am saying let me finish let me please don't be rude to me let me let me I'll give you half an hour on the phone after let me please let me just finish let me because it does have relevance but you have to let me explain to you why it has relevance let me you have to let me explain myself to let me I listen to you you've got half an hour after I have finished we don't have to get off the phone let me so just let me finish please let me finish let me I do not want to talk to you this morning

[00:06:05]

- No Lemmy, you cannot tell me that you do not want to talk to me this morning you are trying to take my flat what do you mean that you don't want to talk to me Lemmy you're trying to take my flat off me and I am recording you
- Yeah, by all means recorded me.
- Yeah Lemmy yeah Lemmy see what I'm telling you I'm willing to come down to the Civic Centre right now I'm going to come down now my solicitor willing to come with me if you isn’t busy I've got a private solicitor let me I've been on the phone to your legal department the Civic Centre already to call him and to all the legal departments that letter that you sent me should have gone through their hands you shouldn't send legal letters if you're not trying to lose it yourself or have them checked and I phoned up the legal department of the Civic Centre already and are you with me Lemmy

- And I swear to God let me I know my rights so now what I'm trying to finish off with is that day when that house officer came into this house.
- In two thousand and fourteen and I recorded them I showed them exactly what name neighbors the Matthew the guns and Deborah were doing to me I walked up to the taps and show them you can listen to it on the tape recordings and see it was all the police were in here and I ask the council offices to protect me from what these people were making me fixing to let me and now you're telling me you're upset that I have knocked on the door yes I may have knocked on the door 6 times in the last 15 years of living in my house but that's to defend myself let me and to ask them to stop making me fixing because you lot won't take action and protect me know me neither will the police because you both signed a load of fools paperwork that has got me seven years of my life let me taken away if you make me homeless Lemmy I'm not legally allowed to be homeless I can't sleep in a park I can't sleep in a police station near me that only place I'm legally allowed to sleep is in a refuge where I won't sleep because I've already told you I've got gangs after m all I'm allowed to sleep in an industrial estate in commercial buildings so if you take away my flat away from me I'm legally allowed to go back to 2 what and all the copies that falls this paperwork and broke my human rights and use this flat as a prison cell you're going to show them for their true colors

- Because it is all going to come out because I am going to need somewhere to stay and I'm telling you it's going to be one of them where heart is where I should legally be allowed to stay Lemmy you are going to show them how bad these police officers and councilors really breached my human rights and how they use in my flat as a prison cell then me and you that I getting paid rent for this prison cell that I'm living in you took my personal home away from me let me I'm not allowed to hire equipment out to anybody personal or otherwise personal means if I give you an amp personally or a speaker or otherwise is business than me to me unless I have Enfield council's signature that is to any private birthday party that is to anything then me I am not allowed to do nothing I have a lot of Sound equipment sitting in a lock up and I can't use it I have to come to use them and I've wrote to every other borough has told me that use that are wrong in writing what you have stated because every department has its own licensing department let me and because it says illegal the organisation of illegal raves it is an illegal offence I have never been arrested for something that is illegal than me use not holding me in here and I have the true Facebook profiles of the people that you're setting me up to be but I don't see why I should have to hand them to use that to prove my innocence and grasshopper London up

[00:09:11]

- And use lot are trying to take my home off me when you are not protecting me let me yeah I'm telling you I have done nothing wrong here yeah and these allegations I have that woman from 117 saying we're doing this to get a new council flat we want new council flat I have her all and recordings Matthew the GUNSWAY 117 every time I have been to the front door to protect myself I bring this dictator phone that I'm using against you and record the conversations so anything you want to hear about what really happened I'll play the audio to you let me you still there Lemmy
- Whenever you are finished, I will start to talk I am letting you talk first like you asked me to

- OK Lemmy, I am happy to listen to you now.

[00:09:54]

- I have listened to you without interrupting you so I am going to say my beer please if you interrupt me, I will put the phone down.
- Ok and thank you for doing that for me let me let me.
- Alright and I have explained to you and it is in your rights to seek legal advice. The action Enfield Council is taken against you is not criminal it's for civil matter it's a breach of your tenancy agreement so it's within your rights.
- It is harassment. I have already been arrested and found not guilty for these offences.
- See what I am saying I'll listen to you.
- Ok I am sorry.
- I did not interrupt you I will put the phone down now all I am giving you some advice you have to write to take the advice or you can do whatever you like now.
- Now now that voice I need to give you if that this is a civil matter when Enfield Council house do you signed a tenancy agreement.
- 15 years ago
- And this is a breach of that tenancy agreement.
- No, I have not done what you are saying that I have done and I'm saying that I'm willing to come to the office today now and willing to have a meeting. Can you please set a date so I can come with you and show you my evidence and defend myself fairly.
- We have offices.
- Can you give me a date just to come and defend myself and show you what I'm legally telling you about being writing and let me show my side of the story and give me a date today now please and I'll bring my solicitor and you can bring your legal department and we can put my side down on to paper?
- I do not need a legal department present.
- Ok then can we arrange a meeting then you don't need a legal department so can I come to you then please let me I hope you know that this is getting recorded let me.
- It does not bother me whether you are recording it or not.
- Let me the general public will not agree let me you just come to work to pay for your mortgage the same as anybody else and your pet and gain your pension don't take things personally because you're upset than me because that's what you are doing.
- I am not upset.
- So can you set a date then please for me to come to the office like you was telling me to do that's all that we need to do is a date then I'm going to come to you and then I show you my deference and you can make your decision after I've shown you it

[00:12:27]

- Things will begin to make sense this conversation I am free on Wednesday so you choose your time when you want to come and you give me your mother the right to speak on your behalf so if you can also invite her to the meeting.
- Yes, that is correct.
- Lemmy and if I show you true of what they are doing to me in 2014

Lemmy Nwabusi; Mr. Cordell I am going to put this phone down

- No that's not correct I am just asking one question.

Lemmy Nwabusi; I am going to put the phone down

- Don't do that please, please don't do that no me because this is my home and I don't want you to do that.

- You asked me to arrange a meeting I am trying to do that.

Lemmy Nwabusi; Yes, you said Wednesday and I said 12 o'clock I am happy to do that with you and that would be perfect

- 12 1 clock on Wednesday is just fine so, so
- Ok what the Civic Centre what floor what room where do I meet you

Lemmy Nwabusi; If you come to the Civic Centre and go to reception, ask to speak to Lemmy

- And Lemmy if I bring you the video evidence can I ask you on that day at that meeting understand that you're going to be showing me points and I'm going to be showing you the true evidence that proves are never done these things that you're accusing me of yeah and I'm going to defend myself but if I show you the evidence of what they've been doing to me while I'm a tenant yeah while I was still a tenant in 2014 if you did find any truth I coz let me I want them to go to prison let me and I don't care about 10 years that woman and that man and so stand and so is Karen I've lost my right finger Lemmy

[00:13:57]

- I have been putting a naughty hospital because of them because they made false allegations and started let me when you see the truth of what has really happened you're going to realise that they should go to prison I can't even believe what you're telling me that I'm in trouble for isn't even a prosecutable offence and what you're using their signatures for right now against me or at least 10 years sentences and with the evidence that I have they won't just get 10 years they get 30 and have to pray that they end up consecutive and there be lucky to get Lemmy I am a very intelligent person and know what you are doing with these people signatures after I've been found not guilty it is out of order Lemmy let me I want you to treat them the same way as what you are trying to treat me for what they done to me in 2014 and up to date once I show you all the videos and bring all of my witness statements with me let me I want to be treated like a person as well but a person with credibility

Lemmy Nwabusi; Mr. call down we have been very, very, very patient 4 weeks what has been going on we have been patient with

- No Lemmy you have allowed it to go on you have not been patient I have been calling you and you have not been protecting me I have you all on recording in my flat and loads of other times asking you not to protect me I have also got the videos of Me showing the police and everything and telling them what my neighbors are doing and the police officers run out of my house and I have them on video

[00:15:03]

- I have them on video going please Simon don't get us involved don't show us that stuff I said to them you are supposed to protect me see when Jackie Gabby was in this house that is another time go and see her and say did you go into Simon's house with two police officers because I recorded her and she is telling me that she moved Debbie out of the house a week before to a hotel and what's Dan and what the Matthew the guns are doing is definitely not Debbie because she has put her into a hotel use not paid for Debbie who lived in 113 to be put in a hotel
- All right just give me one minute can I trust continua say something.
- They are very serious charges that I am saying to you lots and you all not doing anything about it and your key workers are my Witnesses because I have them on voice recordings.
- Lemmy, because of what you've done you're going to rap a lot of people up.

Lemmy Nwabusi; Mr. Cordell, can I just say something.

- Of course, you can say of course you can go on.

Lemmy Nwabusi; There are certain conditions that would have to be made if you do not want us to seek possession of your property number one you have to stop harassing your neighbours.

- I Never did harass my neighbors if I ever did anything it was just defend myself.

[00:16:02]

- Hold on hold on.
- I defend myself because use lot don't defend me let me.
- Hold on hold on Lemmy.

Lemmy Nwabusi; Let me finish for number one you have to stop harassing your neighbours

- I never have

Lemmy Nwabusi; Number two you have to give Enfield Council unlimited amount of access into your home when they want to come to see you

- Lemmy, I have allowed the council into my flat recently over six times in the last couple of weeks six or seven times they have been into my house.

Lemmy Nwabusi; No, no

- Lemmy, do you know why 117 can I say something to you.

Lemmy Nwabusi; This is Monday morning Mr. Cordell and I am not going to get into an argument with you

- Yes, and I agree with that too.

Lemmy Nwabusi; Thank you very much this phone call has lasted 16 minutes

- Yes, and I am glad that you have actually spoke to me and that you have spent 15 minutes of your page salary 15 minutes of your paid salary to look after a one of your client's tenants let me 15 minutes of your paid salary let me to look after one of your pay tenants when you're trying to take his flat let me

Lemmy Nwabusi; I am going to have to end this phone call you are coming on Wednesday with your mother so when you come on Wednesday, we will discuss everything

- And are you going to arrest these people when I show you everything true crimes that they have committed that they have done to me with real witness statements?

Lemmy Nwabusi; I am not going to

Lemmy Nwabusi; I am not going to I am not going

- Are you going to take the real Lines of Investigation and treat them the way that they deserve to be treated then Lemmy?

Lemmy Nwabusi; I am not going to, I am not going to, I am not the police.

[00:17:13]

- The police, "it is only the police that can deal with this."
- But you are not the police but you are dealing with harassment right now intimidation they're all criminal offences Lemmy they're all criminal and they've all been found not guilty by the police about me the police have said that have not been found guilty before Lemmy.

Lemmy Nwabusi; Err.

- Lemmy, I have been found not guilty I have been arrested and found not guilty already Lemmy, I went to an interview we spoke in the interview room for threats to kill.

- I have got the CD for it near me from when I went there a few months before you all started writing this the police found me not guilty c stand next door's Stan wrote a statement in June 2016 and what supposedly happened is I Stan pepper salt in me all the 2014 and I kept calling the council offices to come here and I know you would protect me by 2016 I was supposed to have said test done if I see you in the park I will get you if you keep doing what you're doing to me you're destroying my life and had his life and Shannon's life you're ruining my life and you've got no right all I've ever done is look after you stand and treat you with respect yeah that's all I've ever done for you and care for you like a father figure stands for you to be doing this for spoke to me is inhumane treatment and it accounts to torture yeah it's not fair so 2016 I'll supposedly said to Stan if you keep doing this to me I'll get up doing something to you because you don't even know Shannon's phone number or Heidi's phone number to make sure that they're ok I want something like this done I'll phone I phoned them right now I need to speak to both of them you've got no right in victimising me and then a your constitution should protect me it says that there should be no political Persuasion or oh I see Status nobody should be treated any different

Lemmy Nwabusi; The phone cuts out by Lemmy putting the phone down end of call

Lemmy Nwabusi;

Dear Ms. Cordell,
The meeting is at 2pm and not 12:00. It was Mr. Cordell himself that requested for the meeting, and he offered to come to the Civic Centre. The meeting will be held in council offices, however if there are any health reasons why Mr. Cordell is unable to attend council offices then you will need to provide us with a doctor's letter stating what the health issues are.
Alternatively, Mr. Cordell can respond to the allegations made against him in writing if he does not wish to meet with us in council offices to discuss them.

Dear LEMMY NWABUISI
I am writing this email as I have just spoken to my son Simon Cordell, and I believe a meeting has been set for the 26/07/2017 at 12:00 at your office. We would still like to have the meeting, but could the location be changed to my home 23 Byron Terrace N9 7DG. I think it would be too much for my son to come to the office.
If you could get back to me, I would be grateful.

RE: Mr. Cordell Notice of Seeking Possession [SEC=OFFICIAL]->LEMMY NWABUISI 25-07-2017.pdf
Dear LEMMY NWABUISI,
I am sorry for the short notice, but we will not be able to attend the council meeting tomorrow 26/07/2017 at 14:00 hours the reason is we are indexing all the dates in your possession order; this is taking time due to there being mostly no times and some there is no dates just a month listed and there is so much to go over there is hours and hours of information we need to go over. There is also a great deal of emails that have to be printed off and other information.
I wonder if it will be possible for you to get some information as to the days that are missing and times. I believe a person putting in complaints would at least know what sort of time of day this happened and what day.
I would like to have everything in order and indexed and easy to go over so, as much detail as possible would be great. This will save a great deal of time for us and you.
I would like to have everything in order and easy to go over so, as much detail as possible would be great.
Please see the list of dates below and the information needed.
Dates of Breaches:
6th July 2016:
Would it please be possible to get a time frame for this, also on what date and time it was reported to Enfield council and log of it being entered into the database?
July 2016:
Would it please be possible to get a date and time frame for this, also on what date and time it was reported to Enfield council and log of it being entered into the database?
I believe if this really did happen and the person was left with no electric to their flat, they would have had to call an electrical contractor to fix this so should have the information regarding this. I do not think they would leave themselves with no electricity to their flat so would have tried to sort this right away. So should have the date and time frame for this and electrical contractor details.
I do not believe it is right to blame someone when there is no proof that person has done anything wrong which he has not. The code for the main door has been the same for over 15 years and due to the time, the code being used by the tenants at the block to go in the numbers have faded so anyone can see the numbers to get the code for the main door, this has been done many times there have been people smoking in the block and taking drugs who does not live there in the main section of the communal area of the block. There have even been items taken from the block even 111 had their charismas tree taken.

At this point of time, I wish to say Mr. Cordell had nothing to do with this and has never damaged any lock to a cupboard or removed a fuse box.

I visited Mr. Mathiyalagan at 117 Burncroft Avenue to day to look at the flooring following email from Mrs Cordell concerning noise as a result of wood flooring in the flat. I noticed that there is laminate flooring in the whole flat and ceramic tiles in the kitchen. Mr. Mathiyalagan stated that the flooring was already in the flat when they moved in. He stated that they do not make noise deliberately and that any noise from his flat is household noise. He also stated that as far as he is aware that the person living below them-), we not complained of noise and that he will be the one that will be affected if there are excessive issues from his flat. He also stated that he has asked the man- if they are causing noise disturbances arid he said they are not. He also requested that Mr. Cordell should contact the council if he is being disturbed by noise from his flat instead of harassing him and his family by banging on his front door, shouting abuse at him and his wife, threatening them and confronting them when they come into the block.
I informed him that laminate flooring can generate some noise and to be mindful of his neighbours while walking around inside his flat-
I then went and knocked at flat 113 but there was no response.

By the time I returned to the office, Mr. Cordell had telephoned me several times. I telephoned him back and he wanted to know whether I was the person that posted a letter through his letterbox, and I said yes. He asked why I did not stop when he ran after me, and I told him that I had another visit and did not have the time to stop and talk to him. He stated that he will not attend the meeting at the Civic Centre or any of the council and that I should come to his flat. I offered to have the meeting at a neutral venue like the local library or even at his mother's house, but he refused and shouted to shout abuse and accuse me of taking sides with his neighbours. He denied doing the things that he is accused of doing and stated that he is the victim and that the council have refused to deal with his complaints against his neighbours. He stated that he has been suffering noise disturbances from his neighbours since he moved into his flat and that the council have refused to deal with it. He alleged that the council is conniving with the police to victimise him and threatened to put in a complaint - against me, He continued shouting abuse and will not let me say a word, I then advised him that I will have to terminate the conversation as we were getting nowhere.

Dear LEMMY NWABUISI
Mr. Cordell wanted to get all his information together to be able to show you, which would then show you that Mr. Cordell has been the victim of complaints which at not the truth. We were asking for information that is already being used against Mr. Cordell in your application. We were asking for the times that these complaints were meant to have happened. As there is only a limited number of times within the complaint, and we have a lot of information already which you have already been told we have taken over. As stated, a person putting in a complaint should at least know the time frame of when something was meant to have happened.

and alarm to me, my tenants and other residents on Bumcroft Avenue, Enfield, EN3 7JQ The application also seeks access to the Defendant's Property to enable the Claimant to carry out checks on the Defendant's water pipes which are possibly affecting my tenant's water pressure and supply.

7. In the evening of 12 July 2017, I met with one of the Council's in-house legal surveyors, Mr. Neville Gray with regards to an ongoing low water pressure issue. Mr. Gray attended my property (Flat 117) at 11am on the day and agreed that the water pressure was not adequate. An attempt was made to gain access to the two flats immediately below, including the Defendant's but this was unsuccessful.

8. At approximately 17.00 hrs the same day I was contacted by the managing agent informing me that there was now no water at the flat. I contacted Mr. dray and we both decided to attend the Property out of hours. I arrived at the flat to discover that water had been totally cut off for approx. 30 minutes, but surprisingly shortly after our arrival a supply was resumed and with good pressure. This despite the fact that low pressure had been a continual problem since 27 December 2016. Thames Water and plumbers have attended my property on at least 5 occasions but could not find a reason for the low pressure.

9. The Defendant lives in Flat 109 and in conjunction with his mother/mediator, was contacted by Mr. Neville Gray with the intention of Inspecting his flat However, this was declined by the Defendant. Although I was inside the block, (on the landing), I watched the discussion from the open window. It was obvious the Defendant. was becoming increasing agitated by the raised voices and approaches towards Mr. Gray. I could

10. I wish to add that on a previous visit to the property on 26 January 2017, to resolve the low water pressure, the Defendant had informed me that he was restricting the supply and stated: 'you will not solve the problem as I am restricting their water supply1. This was mentioned to me in front of an independent witness, a plumber who was attending with me. As I was leaving my Property, I saw the Defendant in the communal hallway and asked whether he could reinstate the water pressure to my tenant's property, however he responded by saying 'I cannot do anything at the moment I will sort it out later'. 10. I make this Witness Statement in support of the Claimant's application for an injunction to stop the Defendant from causing intimidation, harassment to me and other residents.

BACKGROUND

11. The problems. that I have encountered with this tenant have been a regular occurrence since the commencement of my tenancy. The Defendant would come to my flat three or four times a week, on occasion this would occur more frequently whereby he would extend this harassment to not only myself but to my visitors also often following them as they would leave the building. He would often play loud music after which he would become very argumentative and bang on my door accusing me and my visitors of maliciously making loud noises to annoy him.

12. The Defendant would often make threats to me and on one particular occasion the Defendant said to me, 'he is on a curfew for 12 days, but he would come 'after me' once this is over'.

13. The Defendant had also made accusations claiming that the noises I was allegedly causing had resulted in the sudden death of his child.

14. On another occasion on the 9th October 2016 the Defendant came to my flat banging on the door and when I answered immediately started shouting at me. He then went downstairs and about ten minutes later he approached my moped which was parked outside the building and started smashing it with a wooden stick. The damage that caused was to my vehicle was significant and prevented me from using it for some time and caused me to lose my job through lack of transport which was a requirement of my employment. The damage to the motorcycle was damage to tyres, the side panels, the headlights both front and rear along with both the breaks and the mirrors. The matter was reported to the Police who attended and arrested the Defendant. A crime reference number was obtained relating to this incident and I will be happy to provide this at the hearing when I attend. I also have a recording of conversation - between the Defendant and I where he admitted having caused damages to my moped. The recording will be provided at the hearing.

15. A further incident occurred with the Defendant around January 2017 whereby he came to my front door and started shouting and complaining about noise and that he was being wrongfully accused by the Police and accused myself and other tenants of 'being out to get him'. I asked him to leave but he refused to do this, so I then left my flat to stay at my friends as the Defendants behaviour had scared me. When I returned to the property a couple of days later, superglue had been inserted into the front entrance door lock preventing me from gaining access, this also caused the key to break.

16. This was reported to the council and an order was required to gain entry to my property. This was recorded under works order reference number 1814013/1.

17. Due to the erratic and abusive behaviour of this tenant I have been forced to flee my property because I feel scared and uncomfortable and I have not returned since. As a result of this I have also fallen into arrears, I am now facing homelessness.

Statement of Truth

I believe the facts in this Witness Statement are true.

Good afternoon, Lorraine,
Thank you for taking the team to meet with this afternoon, I found our meeting very useful in enabling me to better understand your complaint. To confirm, the first thing I shall consider is a referral to the CPS. I shall begin by examining what consideration was given to such a referral by the previous investigator, Jeannette Riley. Under the legislation that governs police complaints it is possible to seek guidance from the CPS where there is an indication that a criminal offence may have been committed, it is this test that I shall apply. Leaving the CPS issue aside for a moment and the possibility of criminal charges, I acknowledge your request to have sight of the PC Geoghegan's MG11 and notebook. Such a disclosure can be made under Schedule 3 of the Police Reform Act 2002. I shall revisit this request once the possibility of a CPS referral has been addressed. However, I fully intend to comply with such a request, subject to necessary redactions. Going forward, in addition your original points of complaint I shall also attempt to provide a clear explanation for the issues surrounding the misconduct meeting occurring before you had the opportunity to appeal to the IPCC. As I stated to you earlier today, the MPS can only apologise for this oversight.
Additionally, as agreed, if you could send me Dean's details, or forward mine to him, that would be very much appreciated. Of course, I will keep you updated every step of the away. If you've any questions in the meantime please do get in touch.

I know you said you would have no problem giving us the notebook and his statement and other information, does this mean we cannot get this information until after the investigation is completed? What will happen if PC G does not want to assist in this investigation, how long will you give him to reply to your letter before you decide he is not willing to assist in the investigation? I know this time we will have the right to appeal to the IPCC, if we are not happy, but I do believe there is enough information and I cannot see why the CPS would not want to take this further, the only reason I can see them not wanting to take this on is due to PC G is now Head of Criminal Justice, Centre for Social Justice. How long do you think it will take you to complete the investigation? Regards."

Deputy District Judge Perry asked for the case not to be reheard until 28 days thereafter and that maybe this can be worked out between the parties. As I explained to the Judge, we were in the process of getting a date to see a solicitor in this matter we have not been able to get to see one until today 31/08/2017 Shepherd and Harris & Co. at 15:00 hours, who are now putting an application in for legal aid, as my son is not well enough to deal with this case on his own and does need a solicitor to act on his behalf as there are many issues within Enfield Council case. There is going to be a large amount of paper work which will prove this. I have also emailed Enfield Council with the view of trying to set up a meeting, as throughout this Enfield Council has not had one meeting with my son to address the issues he was having going way back before any complaints was put in about my son. I am asking if the new date of 14/09/2017 could be extended so we can have the meetings with the solicitors and get all the paperwork and video and audio information we have and statements as to what the issues are within this case together. We did believe that we would have had just over 28 days to be able to do this, as this is what the judge ordered, but it seems the date is before the 28 days we were thinking we had to get everything in order, and due to the time, it has taken to have a 1st meeting with the solicitors the date of the 14/09/2017 gives us very little time to see if legal aid is granted and get this put in place. And have time to address the issues of concern in this case with the solicitors. I hope these issues can be dealt with and the date can be extended, if a reply can be made via this email, I would be most grateful Regards."

I am asking if the new date of 14/09/2017 could be extended so we can have the meetings with the solicitors and get all the paperwork and video and audio information we have and statements as to what the issues are within this case together. We did believe that we would have had just over 28 days to be able to do this, as this is what the judge ordered, but it seems the date is before the 28 days we were thinking we had to get everything in order, and due to the time, it has taken to have a 1st meeting with the solicitors the date of the 14/09/2017 gives us very little time to see if legal aid is granted and get this put in place. And have time to address the issues of concern in this case with the solicitors. I hope these issues can be dealt with and the date can be extended, if a reply can be made via this email, I would be most grateful

Miss Lorraine Cordell

at 5:18pm, my family and I was going out to visit some friends and as we were about to exit the block, the Defendant popped his head out of his front door and asked me when I was going to hand over the money to him. I told him that I was not going to give him any money and that he should go and work so that he could earn some money. As we left the block, the Defendant came running after us and was shouting abuse, swearing at me, and said to me that I should pay him some money if I want him to leave me and my family alone. The Defendant also said to me that he has all our personal details including phone numbers, date of birth and bank details and that I must pay him to have them back. I told him that I will not pay him and to do whatever he likes with the details.

27. The constant verbal abuse, swearing, intimidation and aggressive Behaviour from the Defendant towards my family and I have made & difficult for us to live in our own home. The fear of not knowing when we will be confronted with vile and aggressive Behaviour as my wife and 1 go out or return to our home has caused us sever stress and anxiety. My wife is afraid of leaving Our flat on her own due to fear that the Defendant will confront and shout abuse at her. We are having to tip-toe inside our flat, for fear of being accused of making noise even though we Dive too floors above the Defendant. The Defendant has caused us immense hardship by vandalizing my property and although I cannot prove If, I am certain that the Defendant was responsible for slashing my oar tires, damaging my meter cupboard and removing my electricity fuse several times and restricting water flow to my flat. Also, I no longer park my oar outside my block In Burncroft Avenue because of the car being vandalized I now park a few streets away, about ten or fifteen minutes from my home Instead of outside my block which is about a minute from my flat. I do not as to why we should have to live this way.

I find his conduct against the spirit of the Civil Procedures Rules which encourage parties to cooperate, communicate and try to resolve dispute out of Court. 18. I make this Witness Statement in support of the Claimant's application for an injunction to stop the Defendant from causing Intimidation, harassment to me and other residents.

BACKGROUND

19. The problem with the Defendant started a few months after we moved into the property, after the Defendant approached me asking me to write a letter of support in relation to a problem, he was having with the lady that used to live at Flat 113 Bumcroft Avenue. I refused to write the letter and told the Defendant that I do not want to get involved as I did not have any problems. with the lady. Since then, the Defendant has made living in this block difficult for me and my family. He has been very aggressive to my family and I and has continuously intimidated, threatened and harassed my wife, cousin and me.

20. The Defendant have repeatedly accused us of making noise inside our flat even though our flat is situated two floors above his and the person living directly below us have never complained to us about noise. He has shouted abuse at us, damaged our properties and aggressively demanded money from me. My family and I are constantly living in fear and my wife are frightened to stay at home and has had to accompany me to work on several occasions and stayed in the car with our young daughter until I finish work.

21. The Defendant has slashed my car tyres, damaged my fuse box and has physically threatened to hit me with a piece of wood. He has a big dog that he brings out with him without a lead when he approaches us, and he has used the dog to intimidate us. He also allows the dog to bark and run freely inside the communal hallway and staircase without a lead. I have reported and bank details and that I must pay him to have them back. I told him that I will not pay him and to do whatever he likes with the details.

22. The constant verbal abuse, swearing, intimidation and aggressive behaviour from the Defendant towards my family and I have made it difficult for us to live in our own home. The fear of not knowing when we will be confronted with vile and aggressive behaviour as my wife, and I go out or return to our home has caused us severe stress and anxiety. My wife is afraid of leaving our flat on her own due to fear that the Defendant will confront and shout abuse at her. We are having to tip-toe inside our flat for fear of being accused of making noise even though we live two floors above the Defendant. The Defendant has caused us immense hardship by vandalising my property and although I cannot prove it, I am certain that the Defendant was responsible for slashing my car tyres, damaging my meter cupboard and removing my electricity fuse several times and restricting water flow to my flat, Also, I no longer park my car outside my block in Bumcroft Avenue because of the car being vandalized. I now park a few streets away, about ten or fifteen minutes from my home instead of outside my block which is about a minute from my flat. I do not see why we should have to live this way.

06/02/2017 :08/02/2017:
I visited Mr. Mathiyalagan at 117 Burncroft Avenue to day to look at the flooring following email from Mrs Cordell concerning noise as a result of wood flooring in the flat. I noticed that there is laminate flooring in the whole flat and ceramic tiles in the kitchen. Mr. Mathiyalagan stated that the flooring was already in the flat when they moved in. He stated that they do not make noise deliberately and that any noise from his flat is household noise. He also stated that as far as he is aware that the person living below them-), we not complained of noise and that he will be the one that will be affected if there are excessive issues from his flat. He also stated that he has asked the man-if they are causing noise disturbances arid he said they are not. He also requested that Mr. Cordell should contact the council if he is being disturbed by noise from his flat instead of harassing him and his family by banging on his front door, shouting abuse at him and his wife, threatening them and confronting them when they come into the block.
I informed him that laminate flooring can generate some noise and to be mindful of his neighbours while walking around inside his flat-
I then went and knocked at flat 113 but there was no response.
17/02/2017:
Telephone call from Mr. Cordell regarding the letter sent to him to attend the Civic Centre on 22/02/2017 to discuss the ongoing reports of harassment, verbal abuse and threatening behaviour made against him by his neighbours. File note of the telephone conversation attached.

I visited 109 Burncroft Avenue on 17/03/2017 to hand deliver to post a letter through Mr. Cordell's door and as I got into my car to drive off after posting the letter, Mr. Cordell ran after me shouting and screaming abuse. I did not stop to speak to him, and he ran after me until I turned left into Green Street. As he was running after my car, he was shouting at people passing by to stop the car.
By the time I returned to the office, Mr. Cordell had telephoned me several times. I telephoned him back and he wanted to know whether I was the person that posted a letter through his letterbox, and I said yes. He asked why I did not stop when he ran after me, and I told him that I had another visit and did not have the time to stop and talk to him. He stated that he will not attend the meeting at the Civic Centre or any of the council and that I should come to his flat. I offered to have the meeting at a neutral venue like the local library or even at his mother's house, but he refused and shouted to shout abuse and accuse me of taking sides with his neighbours. He denied doing the things that he is accused of doing and stated that he is the victim and that the council have refused to deal with his complaints against his neighbours. He stated that he has been suffering noise disturbances from his neighbours since he moved into his flat and that the council have refused to deal with it. He alleged that the council is conniving with the police to victimise him and threatened to put in a complaint - against me, He continued shouting abuse and will not let me say a word, I then advised him that I will have to terminate the conversation as we were getting nowhere.
05/05/2017:
Mr. Mathiyalagan telephoned me to report that Mr. Cordell went to his fiat while he was at work and his wife was at home with his cousin and daughter and started to bang on his door and shout abuse and threats. He stated that he was at work and was scared for his wife and daughter. I advised him to call the police.
08/05/2017:

Mr. Mathiyalagan telephoned to report an incident that happened this morning as he was leaving the block to go to work. He stated that as he walked down the stairs, he saw Me Cordell talking to 2 council officials and as he walked past, Mr. Cordell threatened him by shouting that he was going to ruin his life and that he was going to the police with evidence about him. Morning Lorraine,
Firstly, apologies for my delayed reply! I had intended to reply much sooner. I think I am correct in saying that the necessity for your son's arrest was associated with PC G's uncertainty as to the address provided. This is something I will discuss in the report. Can I ask, from where did you get the impression that your son's name was not in PC G's pocketbook?
To reiterate, I would be more than happy share documents with you at the end of the investigation. As per the Police Reform Act, subject to the harm test. Was there any particular reason you would want them sooner?
I expect the investigation to conclude in October incidentally. I was intending on giving PC G three weeks, what are your thoughts on that?
Re PC G's current occupation, I can assure you it would have no bearing on this matter whatsoever.

Dear Jamie Newman
Thank you for the update email and I also hope you are well; can I ask a few things please now that you have had time to go over the documents and information. Regarding PC G notebook is my son's name at the top and has it been checked if a radio check was done on my son on that day, I find it hard to believe that my son's name is not in PC G notebook as and my son refused to give his name and that is why he was arrested, how would he have had my son's details to talk to the insurance companies which there is no dispute that he did and he would have needed my son's details to be able to give them to the insurance companies, which would mean he unlawfully arrested my son. I know you said you would have no problem giving us the notebook and his statement and other information, does this mean we cannot get this information until after the investigation is completed?
What will happen if PC G does not want to assist in this investigation, how long will you give him to reply to your letter before you decide he is not willing to assist in the investigation?
I know this time we will have the right to appeal to the IPCC, if we are not happy, but I do believe there is enough information and I cannot see why the CPS would not want to take this further, the only reason I can see them not wanting to take this on is due to PC G is now Head of Criminal Justice, Centre for Social Justice. How long do you think it will take you to complete the investigation?
Regards

Lorraine Cordell

Good afternoon, Lorraine,
I hope this email finds you well.
Further to our meeting last month I have written to PC G to give him the opportunity to participate in the reinvestigation,
I await his reply. When and if he replies I shall of course let you know. Regarding a CPS referral, having reviewed the evidence I am currently of the view that such a referral should be left to the determination of our Appropriate Authority (A.A. - senior officer who reviews my report) upon the conclusion of the investigation. As it stands, I see nothing to prohibit such a referral, should the A.A. think it appropriate. As you know, should the A.A. elect not to refer the matter to the CPS, you would of course have a right of appeal to the IPCC along those lines. If you have any questions for me, please do let me know.

Good afternoon, Lorraine,
Thank you for taking the team to meet with this afternoon, I found our meeting very useful in enabling me to better understand your complaint. To confirm, the first thing I shall consider is a referral to the CPS. I shall begin by examining what consideration was given to such a referral by the previous investigator, Jeannette Riley. Under the legislation that governs police complaints it is possible to seek guidance from the CPS where there is an indication that a criminal offence may have been committed, it is this test that I shall apply. Leaving the CPS issue aside for a moment and the possibility of criminal charges, I acknowledge your request to have sight of the PC Geoghegan's MG11 and notebook. Such a disclosure can be made under Schedule 3 of the Police Reform Act 2002. I shall revisit this request once the possibility of a CPS referral has been addressed. However, I fully intend to comply with such a request, subject to necessary redactions. Going forward, in addition your original points of complaint I shall also attempt to provide a clear explanation for the issues surrounding the misconduct meeting occurring before you had the opportunity to appeal to the IPCC. As I stated to you earlier today, the MPS can only apologise for this oversight. Additionally, as agreed, if you could send me Dean's details, or forward mine to him, that would be very much appreciated. Of course, I will keep you updated every step of the away. If you've any questions in the meantime please do get in touch.

2 Directorate of Professional Standards: Jamie Newman - John O'Brien / Katie J Heath / Alexander Marshall / Lambeth Borough Brixton / Jeanette Reilly / Police Constable / Serious Misconduct Investigation Unit (SMIU2A) / Directorate of Professional Standards / Complaint against Police / Time 17:31 – "Dear Jamie, thank you for the update reply. Due to never seeing PC G statement written after what happened on the day, and never having access to any documents since, I rely on what was said in court from PC G and also the 1st report after the 1st investigation that the DPS did, which you are now redoing due to what the IPCC said. PC G stated there was no notebook in court; he stated Mr. Cordell was arrested due to him not giving his details so they could be confirmed he stated Mr. Cordell had said he was homeless. But Mr. Cordell knew there was a notebook he saw PC G writing in it on the day he was arrested and knew he had given his details as if he had not how would PC G have been able to speak to the insurance companies. In the Crown Court Appeal in went a lot deeper my son had a barrister, and he knew what to ask. When PC G got into trouble after the audio tapes was played and the judge got really upset due to knowing that PC G had not told the truth the Judge asked for all documents the police office had replied on in this case. PC G passed a statement to the judge he had in his hand that he had been using in court. The judge was not happy with the statement as there was no date and timed marked, PC G said to the Judge that the statement he was using was a copy, it was my son barrister said there seemed to be a time on the back. My son's barrister had also PC G about the ticket issues and PC G said he did not have it in court, the judge stated at the start of the hearing he was on the understanding the notebook had been used. The judge was really not happy and told PC G to leave the court room but not the court building, and that he wanted all the original document in court for him to see regarding this case. The judges heard the summing up and went out to decide. The CPS went outside in this time I believe to speak to PC G. As when the Judges came back in and said my son had won his appeal and that he was not happy with what had gone on in this case, the CPS stated to the judge this was a paper-based file case and things get mislaid in this sort of files. The judge asked if the audio could be kept and placed on file in case it needed to be used later. Which we agreed to, and we then left the court. It was not until we got the 1st report from the DPS, and the notebook was in there that it was confirmed there was in fact a notebook all a long so why did PC G lie to us and the judges saying it was only a proforma and the statement he wrote when he got back to the police station. Until we got the DPS report the only word we had that PC G used his notebook on that day was my son. And I am sorry, but it does not cut it that PC G could get away with saying his arrest was needed due to uncertainty as to the address provided. When a person is stopped or spoken to the police like my son was a radio check would be carried out to check to see if the person were wanted or anything else. The police have my son's address on their system so the address my son gave would have been checked and shown as correct on the police system. My son did not need to lie he give PC G his insurance cert with no problem he had done nothing wrong, so would have had no need to give a wrong address as he would know it would have shown on the police system, why would my son say he was homeless? It was not my son that lied it was PC G and I believe that has already been proven. I believe 3 weeks is enough time for PC G to come forward and is acceptable. If the inspector had done his job when he come to the road side when my son asked if one could have been called this could have all been avoided, but instead he just went with what the police officer said and did not brother to check what my son was saying. Something always come to mind here and that is what was written in the subject access request I got back from my son's insurance company; this was after the time we spent trying to stop the insurance company cancelling my son's insurance and going to courts. When I saw this, it hurt as we knew the police had not told the truth and in the subject access request there was nothing to say my son was not in the wrong. There was no sorry there was nothing and this is just wrong. My son was the one that had the bad mark against his name for a long time until it was proven in the appeal court, not the police officer and this is still the case to this day the police officer has done nothing wrong in everyone's eyes when he did do wrong. He has been allowed to move on in his life, my son was the one spending all the time to clear his name not the police officer when my son had done nothing wrong. "[...] Which is obviously ... we're in an awkward situation as well because [Data Subject] and [Data Subject] mum is constantly ringing us up. They don't understand that obviously we are going to take a police officer's views over obviously one of our policyholders because obviously a police officer's job is obviously to tell the truth and not to lie." This is the action of most people's view but in this case the police officer was not telling the truth my son was. And my son was the one being made to suffer when he had not done anything wrong. But yet people believe the police in everything they say. I know you have said PC G's current occupation. I can assure you it would have no bearing on this matter whatsoever. Maybe I see it another way his occupation is Head of Criminal Justice, Centre for Social Justice, can't you see the irony in this he is trying to find justice for people, but what he did in this case was never justice at his own hands, the DPS never served justice for my son, yet they knew PC G had lied in this whole case, and that PC G took it to the courts and again never told the truth and perjury himself two times in a court of law. PC G seems to think this is acceptable he still applied for his job roll where he is working to make sure justice is fair for all. I am sure if he had admitted to breaking the law in what he did he would not be in the position he is in now I do find this very relevant that is how I feel, and my son does. Best Regards."

The Defendant would come to my flat three or four times a week, on occasion this would occur more frequently whereby he would extend this harassment to not only myself but to my visitors also often following them as they would leave the building. He would often play loud music after which he would become very argumentative and bang on my door accusing me and my visitors of maliciously making loud noises to annoy him. 4. The Defendant would often make threats to me and on one particular occasion the Defendant said to me, 'he is on a curfew for 12 days but he would come 'after me' once this is over'. 5. The Defendant had also made accusations claiming that the noises I was allegedly causing had resulted in the sudden death of his child. 6. On another occasion on the 09th of October 2016 the Defendant came to my flat banging on the door and when I answered immediately started shouting at me. He then went downstairs and about ten minutes later he approached my moped which was parked outside the building and started smashing it with a wooden stick. The damage that caused was to my vehicle was significant and prevented me from using it for some time and caused me to lose my job through lack of transport, which was a requirement of my employment. The damage to the motorcycle was damage to tires, the side panels, the headlights both front and rear along -Page 122 - with both the brakes and the mirrors. The matter was reported to the Police who attended and arrested the Defendant. A crime reference number was obtained relating to this incident and I will be happy to provide this at the hearing when I attend. I also have a recording of a conversation between the Defendant and I, where he admitted to have caused damages to my moped. The recording will be provided at the hearing. 7. A further incident occurred with the Defendant around January 2017 whereby he came to my front door and started shouting and complaining about noise and that he was being wrongfully accused by the Police and accused myself and other tenants of being out to get him. I asked him to leave but he refused to do this so I then left my flat to stay at my friends as the Defendants behaviour had scared me. When I returned to the property a couple of days later, superglue had been inserted into the front entrance door lock preventing me from gaining access, this also caused the key to break. 8. This was reported to the council and an order was required to gain entry to my property. This was recorded under works order reference number 1814013/1. 9. Due to the erratic and abusive behaviour of this tenant I have been forced to flee my property because I feel scared and uncomfortable and I have not returned since. As a result of this I have also fallen into arrears, I am now facing homelessness. - Statement of Truth - I believe the facts in this Witness Statement are true. Signed .... Name: Mr. George Quinton. Dated: 07th day of August 2017."

I have enquired with the Mental Health Team whether the Defendant is currently known to the team and was informed that he is no longer under their care. 33. While the Defendant was talking to the officers, Mr. Mathiyalagan came down the stairs and the Defendant said to him, "I’m going to the police station now with my evidence about you and I’m going to ruin your life”. A file note of this report is exhibited at page 58 of the exhibit bundle and an email from Steve Stirk is at page 59.

25. On 14th May 2017, yet another neighbour who wishes to remain anonymous reported that the Defendant aggressively banged on her door, shouted abuse and threats at her and falsely accused her of making noise and coming into his flat to attack him. The neighbour stated that the Defendant later followed her to her car as she was leaving the block shouting abuse and wanting to know where she was going. The neighbour also reported that the Defendant allowed his dog to roam freely in the communal area of the block without a lead. A file note of the report is at page 60 of the exhibit bundle LN1.

26. On 28th May 2017, the Defendant was issued with a first instance Harassment letter by the police following allegations of harassment and threatening behaviour made to the police by his neighbour. A copy of the letter and the PC's statement are at pages 61-62 of the exhibit bundle LN1.

27. On 12th July 2017, Mr. Neville Gray, the Claimants repairs surveyor attended the Defendant's flat to investigate reports of low water pressure to the flats above the Defendant's flat, but the Defendant refused him access. Mr. Neville Gray attended the Defendant's flat again at about 5:39pm following reports from the leaseholder of flat 117 Burncroft House that the water supply had stopped completely, but the Defendant also refused him access. The Defendant later shouted abuse and swear words at Mr. Gray and would not allow him to approach his car. Mr. Gray has provided a witness statement in relation to this incident.

JJ. The Defendant is in breach of the following conditions of his tenancy agreement;

KK. Condition 10 - "You must not act in any way which causes, or is likely to cause, a nuisance or annoyance or is anti-social."

LL. Condition 21 - "You must not abuse, harass, make offensive comments and/or malicious allegations, use or threaten to use violence against any of our officers or agents, or against a councillor. This applies at any time and in any place. We may report the matter.to the Police".

MM. Condition 31 - "You must take care not to cause damage to your property or the property of your neighbours".

NN. Condition 33 - "You must keep the inside of your property clean and in reasonable decorative order".

OO. Condition 34 - "You must not use the property in any way that may cause a health and safety hazard or encourage vermin and/or pests (for example, by hoarding items inappropriately)"

PP. Condition 53 - "You must keep the inside of the property, the fixtures and fittings and glass in the property in good repair during the tenancy"

11. I have corresponded with the Defendant regarding the reports of anti-social behaviour made against him by his neighbours and invited him to meetings with his mother Lorraine Cordell, but he declined to attend. Letters were sent to him on 29th November 2016 inviting him for a meeting on 6th December 2016, 31st

31st January 2017
9th February 2017, 16th February 2017 for a meeting on 22 February 2016 and 16th March 2017 for a meeting on 22nd March 2017.
The Claimant has also been unable to check whether the Defendant Is restricting water supply/pressure to the properties above his since December 2016

January 2017 inviting him for a meeting on 9th February 2017, 16th February 2017 for a meeting on 22 February 2016 and 16th March 2017 for a meeting on 22nd March 2017. These letters are exhibited at pages 63-70 of the exhibit bundle.

30.1 have enquired with the Mental Health Team whether the Defendant is currently known to the team and was informed that he is no longer under their care.

56. The Claimant's operatives have had difficulties in accessing the Defendant's flat to inspect the state of the property and the unauthorised works and modifications which the Defendant is purported to have carried out without a written consent from the Claimant. The Claimant has also been unable to check whether the Defendant Is restricting water supply/pressure to the properties above his since December 2016. The Defendant has admitted to restricting the water supply but has refused to allow the Claimant's maintenance operatives access to his property to investigate and rectify the problem.

57. The Defendant has intimidated the residents in the entire block and because of his behaviour, we have received numerous complaints from residents, requests to be transferred from the block and we have had to move a vulnerable tenant from the block.

58. I have made attempts to engage with the Defendant, but he has not been cooperative and has continuously displayed abusive and threatening behaviour towards the Claimant's members of staff and his neighbours. A Notice of Seeking Possession has been served on him and possession action is being considered. However, in the meantime, this injunction is required to ensure that the other residents are not subjected to further intimidation and harassment by the Defendant. This application is being made without notice because if the Defendant were given notice, he would intimidate the witnesses in an attempt to prevent the order being made.

stated that soon after he moved into his flat, he went around to SC's fiat to introduce himself. After he introduced himself, SC said to him that there is some kind of war going on between him and other neighbours. SC also told him that he has got a load of issues with the police and that he was trying to sue them because he felt that they were treating him unfairly. He told SC that he was a musician and that he does not want anything to do with his issues.

Straight after he moved in, SC will come up to his flat at least once a week to shout at him and complain about loud banging from his flat and knocking pipes. SC would accuse him of making noise on purpose to wind him up and he will always explain to him that it is not true, that he does not make any banging noises inside his flat and that he cannot explain why the pipes were making knocking noises.
Mr. Quinton stated that on
M
04/10/2016, he was sleeping when SC started to bang on his ceiling, but he ignored him. SC then came up and started kicking at his door and he still ignored him. SC then went downstairs, dragged Mr. Quinton's motorbike from where he parked it, threw it on the ground and started to hit it with what he believed to be a mop pole, he is not sure how many times he hit it. He then called the police, and they came and took him away, CAD No. 3309/4 Oct. 2016.
N
11/12/2016, SC came up to his flat 3 times to shout abuse and complain about noise from his flat. Mr. Quinton explained that the first time, he was running a bath when SC came and knocked on the door to complain about knocking pipes. He did not open the door and he shouted abuse at him and his friends and called them homophobic names. He later came back again to bang on his door and shout further abuse. He also made threatened him and his exact words are I am off curfew in 12 days, when I'm, I am coming for you he shouted further abuse and walked off. Mr. Quinton stated that he is not sure why he came back the second time, but he assumed that it was because of the pipes again. He later came back again the third time and this time he opened the door because he has had enough. SC complained about noise from his flat and he told him that he was not making any noise. SC then went on to tell him that he has been away for a long time and that his family was coming to look after his dog. He asked SC if he knew anything about his bike and SC replied You know what, I am a grown man I'm not goanna lie, it was me that smashed your bike and I was gutted that the stick broke and I couldn't smash it up more. He then asked SC about his tyres which was punctured with a knife, and he denied cutting them. He then explained to SC that the knocking pipes has nothing to do with him and that he does not bang or make deliberate noise and he advised SC to play his music over the noise if it happens again as there is nothing he can do about the pipes and the noise as it is the nature of the building. SC said cool, fair enough and walked off and as he walked off, he turned around and gave him a dirty look.
About a week later, 2 of his friends left his flat and a short while later he heard SC running out of the front door. Soon after one of his friends called and told him that they have just had a confrontation with SC in the street.
His friend informed him that SC ran up to them in the street and confronted his friend Jazz about the knocking pipe noises from his fiat. Jazz told SC that it has nothing to do with him. SC then head-butted Jazz and as Jazz fell on the floor, SC jumped on top of him and started to punch him. His other friend Jevon who was with Jazz at the time pulled SC off Jazz and held him until 2 Turkish men came and separated them.
Mr. Quinton stated that the police did not contact him to update him on what action was taken against SC regarding his smashed bike. He stated that he has recording of SC admitting to smashing up his bike and played the recording to me. Although it was very faint, but you could make out what sounded like SC talking about smashing the bike. He stated that he wants to sue SC for criminal damage, he also wants to take out a restraining order against him and possibly an injunction.

He stated that his friends Simon Cocks (07393285528), Julian Jackson (07387277163) and Jazz Bramble (07375651241) are willing to provide witness statements and will attend court to give evidence on his behalf. He also wants us to find out why what action the police took regarding his smashed bike.

08/02/2017:
I did an announced visit to Mr. Quinton at 113 Burncroft Avenue following recent email from Mrs Cordell concerning noise disturbances from the flat as a result of wooden flooring but there was no response, I then telephoned Mr. Quinton and left a voice message for him.

Home visit to Ms. Deborah Andrews flat. Attendees Dawn
Allen TMO and CPN Bola Quadri Horne visit to Ms. Andrews advised that her neighbour at number 109 has for the past few months harassed, intimidated, stalked her and made a life a complete misery. He continuously plays loud music, bangs on her ceiling and door alleging that she is monitoring his movements in his flat. She feels petrified by his presence and as a result refused to leave her flat for fear bumping into him on her way out. She has missed a few appointments with her social worker as a result, she has now been subjected to making home appointments pending the time this matter is resolved. She explained that they use to be acquaintances before the relationship went sour. She believes the whole problem started when he claimed the decoration in his flat was damaged as a result of a leak coming from her flat. She confirmed that she had a leak from her overflow a few months ago which has since been repaired but, the damage alleged had occurred.

The recent event which took place a week ago. She was on her way out to attend her appointment with her CRN when he apprehended her and threatened to kill her. She was pretty shaken from the incident that instead of attending her appointment, returned home immediately. She advised that she contacted the police but, was not taken seriously as they assumed, she was drunk at the time of the call. She advised that she was not in the list drunk but, just the way she spoke due to her condition. She still was not taken seriously and had to abandon the call.

She found this very frustrating and advised that it was not the first time this would happen to her. Her GPN also confirmed her statement and expressed her dissatisfaction at the way she was treated.
I felt completely let down by the police and became frightful for her safety especially, as she knows the perpetrators has shells in his flat.
I observed in her flat that her floors were very creaky, I was made aware by Dawn that most of the flats in the block are like that. Unfortunately, the creakiness exacerbates the noise level in the fiats and cause more problems. than usual.
I advised that I would contact the police to make further enquiries. I will also contact MHT to enquire if Mr. Cordell is known to them. At some point the perpetrator will need to be interviewed and a warning letter issued on him. I will contact the repairs team and try to arrange a surveyor to visit her flat and see what assistance nan be offered
I further advised that her case will be investigated, and an officer will get back to her to discuss further with her. Her CPN and TMO will be kept informed of updates

Hi Dolly,
Nick and I attended while ago and spoke to the A while ago when she originally called Police. At the time she did not want us to speak to her neighbour as things had got better. The lady handed us a letter about what had happened but none of it made any sense.
We believe she was suffering from mental health issues. On another occasion we popped round to see her, and she would not come and speak to us so instead she spoke through her letterbox to us.
The male at 109 - Simon Cordell who is causing the problems. is very well known to Police and is also very anti Police. I know some Officers went around and spoke to him and things seemed to get better After that we have had no further calls from the lady.
We will try and get around to see her when were back on duty on Monday.
Kind Regards

Good afternoon, Mark,
Could you kindly assist with this query please. Following reports of ASB by the above tenant, my colleague and I visited her this morning and were alarmed by the nature of her complaints. She has in the past few months being constantly harassed, intimidated, bullied, stalked and threatened to kill by her neighbour at 109.
As a result of his behaviour, she has become too scared to leave her flat for fear of what may happen to her. She is a vulnerable tenant who requires support from services.
However, the unsettling behaviour exhibited by number 109, has hindered her from attending her appointments and exacerbated her condition. At the moment, she feels very disorientated / agitated and will like the harassment to stop.
She advised that she had reported this to the police a few times but, was not taken seriously.

I will appreciate if you could stop over at to reassure her that the matter is being dealt with and also to stop by 109 and advise him that you are aware of what is going on and the repercussions should it continue.
Thank you for your support and assistance

Insofar as the contents of this witness statement are within my own personal knowledge it is true and insofar as it is not within my personal knowledge it is true to the best of my knowledge. I Will Say as Follows 1. I am employed by the Claimant as an in-house lawyer and have been so employed since September 2016.1 have had the main conduct of this claim. 2. I am making this witness support in support of the Claimant's application notice dated 03rd January 2018, seeking to set aside the orders made by the Court respectively on 13th December 2017 and 02nd January 2017. - Claimant - Page 22 - Backgrounds facts 3. This matter was allocated to the Claimant's Legal Services department in August 2017, following many complaints received from some of the Claimant's employees and residents living in the same block as the Defendant. The Claimant's anti-social behaviour team instructed our legal services to issue an application for an injunction under the Anti- Social Behaviour, Crime and Policing Act 2014. 4. An ex-parte application was made and the Court made an interim injunction order against the Defendant on 9th August 2017. The matter was re-listed for a return hearing on 21st August 2017 but adjourned to 25th September 2017 where the Defendant attended with his legal representative. The Defendant indicated that it wished to defend the claim and some directions order was made. 5. The parties were ordered to file their directions questionnaire by 23rd October 2017; however, this deadline was overlooked by me and the Court made an order on 06th November 2017 asking the Claimant to file a completed directions questionnaire by 4pm on 17th November 2017. A copy of the Order can be found under exhibit L11. 6. On 17th November 2017 at 11 ;59, I sent an email to the Court on the following address: enauiries@edmonton.countvcourt.asi.Gov.uk. with a copy of the Claimant's directions questionnaire. The Defendant's solicitors were also copied into this email. A copy of this email is attached in exhibit LI2. 7. Just before filing the directions questionnaire with the Court, I contacted the Defendant's solicitors on 16th November 2017, Mr. Emmanuel ONWUSIRI of VLS Solicitors, with a suggested draft directions order. However, he responded by saying that it was not necessary to agree directions in the proposed form. He was therefore fully aware of the fact that I was about to file the Claimant's directions questionnaire. A copy of my email correspondence to Mr. ONWUSIRI can be found in exhibit LI3. Page 23 - 8. I then received an order from the Court dated 13th December 2017, advising me that a judge has considered the file and having seen that the questionnaire was received on 20th November 2017, has decided to apply the sanction as set out in the order dated 06th November 2017. As a result, the Claim was struck out and the interim injunction made on 09th August 2017 was discharged. A copy of the order is attached under exhibit LI4. 9. Upon receiving the above order, I emailed the Defendant's solicitors Mr. ONWUSIRI and advised him that the Court made the order in error as the Claimant had filed the directions questionnaire electronically on 17th November 2017. Mr. ONWUSIRI was fully aware of this fact as he was copied into the email. A copy of my email to Mr. ONWUSIRI dated 15th December 2017 can be found under exhibit LI5. 10. On 14th December 2017,

Ms. Zena NDEREYIMANA on behalf of the Claimant's legal services emailed the Edmonton County Court advising that Claimant's directions questionnaire was emailed to the Court on 17th November 2017 and provided evidence in support. The email requested that the Court reconsider the order dated 13th December 2017 as the Claimant has complied with the earlier directions order made on 06th November 2017. A copy of the email correspondence to the Court can be found in exhibit LI6. 11. The Claimant has received no response from the Court following the email it sent out on 14th November 2017. 12. On 03rd January 2017 I received an order from the Edmonton County Court ordering the Claimant to pay the Defendant's costs of the action on a standard basis to be assessed if not agreed. Please refer to exhibit LI7. The order was made after the Defendant's representatives filed an application notice at Court on 21st December 2017. The application was only received by the Claimant on 27 December 2017 and as l was on annual leave, the application notices only came to my attention on 03rd January 2017, so I was not able to respond. Page 24 - 13. It was inappropriate for the Defendant's representatives to have made this application as he was fully aware of the fact that our directions questionnaire was dully filed at Court on 17th November 2017. He was copied in to all the correspondence sent to the Court. He was also advised by me that the Court must have made an error when it stated to have received the order on 20th November 2017 while clearly it received it electronically on 17th November 2017. I am of the view that the Defendant's representatives have taken advantage of the situation as when making this application he already knew of the fact that the Claimant's questionnaire was filed on 17th November 2017 and there could be a possibility of the Court reconsidering its decision of striking out the Claim. I find his conduct against the spirit of the Civil Procedures Rules which encourage parties to cooperate, communicate and try to resolve dispute out of Court. The Court order dated 02nd January 2018 could have been avoided had the Defendant acted with more fairness and this conduct has partly triggered the necessity to make this application notice which means that the Claimant is now incurring more costs. 14. I am also instructed that since the Court made the interim injunction order on 09th August 2017, the Defendant's anti-social behaviour has ceased towards the neighbors and no complaints have been received from them. I am therefore of the view that the residents and employees of the Claimant could be prejudiced if the Claim and interim injunction order were not reinstated. 15. As a result of the above, we would like the Court to set aside the orders made on 13th December 2017 and 02nd December 2018. The Claimant would also like the Claim and interim injunction to be reinstated and an order that the Defendant pays the Claimant's costs as his conduct has led to the necessity to make the present application. Page 25 - Statement of Truth Signed... Dated this 03rd January 2018. I believe the facts in this Witness Statement are true. Backgrounds facts

3. This matter was allocated to the Claimant's Legal Services department in August 2017, following many complaints received from some of the Claimant's employees and residents living in the same block as the Defendant. The Claimant's anti-social behaviour team instructed our legal services to issue an application for an injunction under the Anti-Social Behaviour, Crime and Policing Act 2014.

4. An ex-parte application was made, and the Court made an interim injunction order against the Defendant on 09th August 2017. The matter was re-listed for a return hearing on 21st August 2017 but adjourned to 25th September 2017 where the Defendant attended with his legal representative. The Defendant indicated that it wished to defend the claim and some directions order was made.

5. The parties were ordered to file their directions questionnaire by 23rd October 2017; however, this deadline was overlooked by me, and the Court made an order on 06th November 2017 asking the Claimant to file a completed directions questionnaire by 4pm on 17th November 2017. A copy of the Order can be found under exhibit L11.

6. On 17th November 2017 at 11 ;59, I sent an email to the Court on the following address: enauiries@edmonton.countvcourt.asi.Qov.uk. with a copy of the Claimant's directions questionnaire. The Defendant's solicitors were also copied into this email. A copy of this email is attached in exhibit LI2.

7. Just before filing the directions questionnaire with the Court, I contacted the Defendant's solicitors on 16th November 2017, Mr. Emmanuel ONWUSIRI of VLS Solicitors, with a suggested draft directions order. However, he responded by saying that it was not necessary to agree directions in the proposed form. He was therefore fully aware of the fact that I was about to file the Claimant's directions questionnaire. A copy of my email correspondence to Mr. ONWUSIRI can be found in exhibit LI3.

DIRECTIONS ORDER

8. I then received an order from the Court dated 13th December 2017, advising me that a judge has considered the file and having seen that the questionnaire was received on 20th November 2017, has decided to apply the sanction as set out in the order dated 06th November 2017. As a result, the Claim was struck out and the interim injunction made on 09th August 2017 was discharged. A copy of the order is attached under exhibit LI4.

9. Upon receiving the above order, I emailed the Defendant's solicitors Mr. ONWUSIRI and advised him that the Court made the order in error as the Claimant had filed the directions questionnaire electronically on 17th November 2017. Mr. ONWUSIRI was fully aware of this fact as he was copied in to the email. A copy of my email to Mr. ONWUSIRI dated 15th December 2017 can be found under exhibit LI5.

10. On 14th December 2017, Ms. Zena NDEREYIMANA on behalf of the Claimant's legal services emailed the Edmonton County Court advising that Claimant's directions questionnaire was emailed to the Court on 17th November 2017 and provided evidence in support. The email requested that the Court reconsider the order dated 13th December 2017 as the Claimant has complied with the earlier directions order made on 06th November 2017. A copy of the email correspondence to the Court can be found in exhibit LI6.

11. The Claimant has received no response from the Court following the email it sent out on 14th November 2017.

12. On 03rd January 2017 I received an order from the Edmonton County Court ordering the Claimant to pay the Defendant's costs of the action on a standard basis to be assessed if not agreed. Please refer to exhibit LI7. The order was made after the Defendant's representatives filed an application notice at Court on 21st December 2017. The application was only received by the Claimant on 27 December 2017 and as l was on annual leave, the application notices only came to my attention on 03rd January 2017, so I was not able to respond.

MR. SIMON CORDELL

DIRECTIONS ORDER

13. It was inappropriate for the Defendant's representatives to have made this application as he was fully aware of the fact that our directions questionnaire was dully filed at Court on 17th November 2017. He was copied in to all the correspondence sent to the Court. He was also advised by me that the Court must have made an error when it stated to have received the order on 20th November 2017 while clearly it received it electronically on 17th November 2017.

I am of the view that the Defendant's representatives have taken advantage of the situation as when making this application he already knew of the fact that the Claimant's questionnaire was filed on 17th November 2017 and there could be a possibility of the Court reconsidering its decision of striking out the Claim. I find his conduct against the spirit of the Civil Procedures Rules which encourage parties to cooperate, communicate and try to resolve dispute out of Court. The Court order dated 02nd January 2018 could have been avoided had the Defendant acted with more fairness and this conduct has partly triggered the necessity to make this application notice which means that the Claimant is now incurring more costs.

14. I am also instructed that since the Court made the interim injunction order on 09th August 2017, the Defendant's anti-social behaviour has ceased towards the neighbours and no complaints have been received from them. I am therefore of the view that the residents and employees of the Claimant could be prejudice if the Claim and interim injunction order were not reinstated.

15. As a result of the above, we would like the Court to set aside the orders made on 13th December 2017 and 02nd December 2018. The Claimant would also like the Claim and interim injunction to be reinstated and an order that the Defendant pays the Claimant's costs as his conduct has led to the necessity to make the present application.
