2. I make this affidavit in support of the Claimant's (my husband) application for the Defendant's committal on the basis of a breach of the interim injunction order made by the Edmonton County Court on affidavit

My police interview is on cd
3. I witnessed the terrible assault committed by the Defendant on my husband on 05 March 2018 and confirm the facts stated in my husband s affidavit dated
20 April 2018
4. Mr Cordell harassed, abused and repeatedly punched my husband on his face, causing him to bleed and to break two of his teeth, I tried to stop him but he would not listen to me.
5. We contacted the police who arrested both Mr Cordell and my husband. My husband was kept by the police overnight while he was a victim of the assault. The police could see the facial injuries, bleedings and damages sustained to his face and teeth but decided to keep him at the police station while he was a victim of the assault. Surprisingly I heard that Mr Cordell was arrested, interviewed and released on the same day. The police decided not to charge him for some unknown reasons.
6. I believe that the Police decision was wrong, as there is Clear evidence of assault, I was not interviewed while being a key witness to the incident. The Defendant should have been arrested and brought back to the Court following the breach of the injunction order so it could decide on his arrest.
7. I fear for my family safety and feels that the interim injunction with the London Borough of Enfield obtained on 09 January 2018
is not providing me and my family protection as the police refuses to enforce the terms of the order despite clear evidence that Mr Cordell has breached the terms.
The situation has left me and my family terrified. There's a letter from my GP which confirm that, as seen under exhibit RM1.

9. I feel let down by the system and constantly fear for my safety. I contacted my local authority (the London Borough of Waltham Forest) to be moved out of the estate as myself, husband and 3-year-old are afraid to stay there. However, Waltham Forest is not taking any actions at the moment.
10. I feel that the existence of the injunction has not provided the adequate protection to me and my family. As things stand the Defendant feels that the injunction is ineffective as the lack of actions from the police currently encourages him to act badly towards me and my family. We therefore hope that the Court will support us and take appropriate actions following the breaches.
11. I would therefore ask the Court to consider the application in light of the recent incidents, to commit the Defendant to an arrest and impose a sentence following his breaches of the injunction.

him that she was not shouting and that she was inside her bathroom giving her daughter a shower. She asked him why he came to her front door, that he was not allowed to be there, but the Defendant ignored her and continued to bang and kick on the door. This went on for about 5 to 10 minutes and caused a great deal of distress to his wife and daughter and made them scared for their safety. His daughter started crying because of the commotion and loud banging. The Defendant left after his wife asked his cousin to call the police. Mr Mathiyalagan stated that he telephoned the police on 101 to report the incident and was asked to go and make a statement at Edmonton police station. He stated that he did so in the morning of Tuesday 06 March 2018.

7. On 26/02/2018, Mr Mathiyalagan stated that he returned from work at 11:30pm and went to the kitchen to get something to eat; his wife and daughter were already asleep. At about 11:45pm, while he was in the kitchen, he heard loud banging noises on his front door and rattling noises on his letterbox. He thought that his cousin had returned from work and was knocking on the door to be let In, he went to the door and spoke in his language but there was no response. He then opened the door and saw the Defendant standing outside his front door. As soon as the Defendant saw him, he ran away. The matter was referred to the police, but no actions took place.

8. It is submitted that the Defendant should have been arrested, kept on remand and brought back to the County Court pursuant to CPR 65.47 which states as follows:

- This rule applies where a person is arrested pursuant to –
- a power of arrest attached to a provision of an injunction; or
- a warrant of arrest.
- The judge before whom a person is brought following his arrest may –
- deal with the matter; or
- adjourn the proceedings.

9. The Police are aware of the injunction order as they have been served with a copy of the same. However, they have failed to enforce the terms of the interim injunction.

10. The Claimant is therefore bringing an application for the Defendant's committal.

Incident of 15 March 2018

On Thursday, 15th March 2018, my wife and I took our 3-year-old daughter to school and as we came out of the block, we saw the Defendant standing outside the main entrance to Block 109-117 Burncroft Avenue. As we walked towards my car, the Defendant followed us swearing and shouting abuse at us. I could not remember the Defendant's exact words but there were lots of swearing words like 'fucking family, fucking bastards' and lots of 'bad words. As we got in his car, the Defendant walked back towards the block. As I went to drive out, I saw the Defendant standing by the main door to the block and videoing me and my family with his mobile phone and swearing and shouting abuse at us. I got out of his car, brought out my mobile phone and started to video the Defendant who continued swearing.

I stopped videoing Mr Cordell and turned to get back inside my car, but the Defendant pushed me to the ground from behind. The Defendant sat on top of me and started to punch me on the face and repeatedly banged my head on the ground. After a while, I managed to push him off.

6. I then went to my car to get something to defend myself and picked a piece of metal from my boot but I decided against using it, the Defendant rushed at me again and punched me in the face and I fell backwards to the ground. The Defendant then sat on my chest and started to punch me repeatedly on the face. By this time, my wife and daughter were crying, and my wife was screaming for neighbours to help but nobody came out. My wife tried to pull Mr Cordell off him as I was not able to defend myself, but she could not. She then grabbed the piece of metal from my boot and hit the Defendant with it as self- defence to stop him. Some neighbours come out of their flat after a while and the Defendant got off me and went into his flat. By then I was bleeding profusely on my lips and forehead and both my wife and I called the police and ambulance service.

11. The Defendant's mother Lorraine Cordell turned up as I was being attended to inside the ambulance and started to shout abuse at my wife and accused her of attacking her son.

12. The police took my mobile phone and my daughter's scooter that was inside my boot. The ambulance officers advised me to go to the dentist immediately to have my teeth attended to as two of my front teeth was broken and another two were wobbly. The ambulance carried out an, assessment of my injuries. A written report of my injuries can be seen in exhibit MM1.

13. The police phoned me as I was driving to the dentist and asked me to return to the estate. I was then arrested for assaulting the D even though I never assaulted him but all I kept on doing was to defend myself. I was held in a cell overnight and bailed the next day.

14. As a result of the assault, I had to have 3 teeth removed and replaced with dentures. A written report from my dentist can be seen in exhibit MM2.

15. The Defendant was also arrested, interviewed on the same day but released. I don't understand how this could have happened, while l being a victim of his assault was kept in a cell overnight. The Anti-social Behaviour team made enquiries to find out why the D. was not charged with breaching the terms of the Injunction order and they were told that no charges were made on the basis that I had apparently provoked the Defendant. This Is untrue as all I did on the day was to ignore him to take my daughter to school.

Incident of 15 March 2018

On Thursday, 15 March 2018, my wife and I took our 3-year-old daughter to school and as we came out of the block, we saw the Defendant standing outside the main entrance to Block 109-117 Burncroft Avenue. As we walked towards my car, the Defendant followed us swearing and shouting abuse at us. I could not remember the Defendant's exact words but there were lots of swearing words like 'fucking family, fucking bastards' and lots of 'bad words. As we got in his car, the Defendant walked back towards the block. As I went to drive out, I saw the Defendant standing by the main door to the block and videoing me and my family with his mobile phone and swearing and shouting abuse at us. I got out of his car, brought out my mobile phone and started to video the Defendant who continued swearing.

I stopped videoing Mr Cordell and turned to get back inside my car, but the Defendant pushed me to the ground from behind. The Defendant sat on top of me and started to punch me on the face and repeatedly banged my head on the ground. After a while, I managed to push him off.

7. I then went to my car to get something to defend myself and picked a piece of metal from my boot, but I decided against using it, the Defendant rushed at me again and I fell backwards to the ground. The Defendant then sat on my chest and started to punch me repeatedly on the face. By this time, my wife and daughter were crying, and my wife was screaming for neighbours to help but nobody came out. My wife tried to pull Mr Cordell off him as I was not able to defend myself, but she could not. She then grabbed the piece of metal from my boot and hit the Defendant with it as self- defence to stop him. Some neighbours come out of their flat after a while and the Defendant got off me and went into his flat. By then I was bleeding profusely on my lips and forehead and both my wife and I called the police and ambulance service.

8. The Defendant's mother Lorraine Cordell turned up as I was being attended to inside the ambulance and started to shout abuse at my wife and accused her of attacking her son.
9. The police took my mobile phone and my daughter's scooter that was inside my boot. The ambulance officers advised me to go to the dentist immediately to have my teeth attended to as two of my front teeth was broken and another two were wobbly. The ambulance carried out an assessment of [redacted] written report of my injuries can be seen in exhibit MM1.
10. The police phoned me as I was driving to the dentist and asked me to return to the estate. I was then arrested for assaulting the D even though I never assaulted him but all I kept on doing was to defend myself. I was held in a cell overnight and bailed the next day.
11. As a result of the assault, I had to have 3 teeth removed and replaced with dentures. A written report from my dentist can be seen in exhibit MM2.
12. The Defendant was also arrested, interviewed on the same day but released. I don't understand how this could have happened, while I am being a victim of his assault was kept in a cell overnight. The Anti-social Behaviour team made enquiries to find out why the D. was not charged with breaching the terms of the injunction order and they were told that no charges were made on the basis that I had apparently provoked the Defendant. This is untrue as all I did on the day was to ignore him to take my daughter to school.

Incident 01 March 2018

13. My wife was inside the bathroom giving our daughter a shower while my cousin was in the living room, I was at work. At about 11am, the Defendant came to our front door and started rattling the letterbox and knocking loudly on the door. My wife went to the door and asked who it was, and the Defendant replied, 'why are you shouting'. My wife told him that she was not shouting and that she was inside her bathroom giving our daughter a shower. She asked him why he came to her front door, that he was not allowed to be there, but the Defendant ignored her and continued to bang and kick on the door. This went on for about 5 to 10 minutes and caused a great deal of distress to my wife and daughter and made them scared for their safety. My daughter started crying because of the commotion and loud banging. The Defendant left after my wife asked his cousin to call the police.

14. We telephoned the police on 101 to report the incident and was asked to go and make a statement at Edmonton police station. I did so in the morning of Tuesday 06 March 2018

Incident 26/02/2018

15. I returned from work at 11:30pm and went to the kitchen to get something to eat; my wife and daughter were already asleep. At about 11:45pm, while I was in the kitchen, I heard loud banging noises on his front door and rattling noises on his letterbox. I thought that my cousin had returned from work and was knocking on the door to be let in, I went to the door and spoke in my language but there was no response. I then opened the door and saw the Defendant standing outside of my front door. As soon as the

AFFIDAVIT OF MRS REVATHY MATHIYALAGAN

I, Mrs Revathy Mathiyalagan, of Flat 117, Bumcroft Avenue, Enfield, EN3 7JQ make this statement believing it to be true and understand that it may be placed before court.
Insofar as the content of this witness statement is within my own personal knowledge it is true and insofar as it is not within my personal knowledge it is true to the best of my knowledge.

I WILL SAY AS FOLLOWS

1. I am the tenant of Flat 117 Burncroft Avenue, Enfield, EN3 7JQ. My flat is located two floors above Mr Cordell (thereafter 'the Defendant'). I live there with my husband Markandu and my child who is 3 years old. I have been housed to this Property with my family by the London Borough of Waltham Forest and have occupied the Property since 11 September 2016. The Property was given to me as a temporary accommodation.

2. I make this affidavit in support of the Claimant's (my husband) application for the Defendant's committal on the basis of a breach of the interim injunction order made by the Edmonton County Court on 09 January 2018.

3. I witnessed the terrible assault committed by the Defendant on my husband on March 2018 and confirm the facts stated in my husband's affidavit dated 20 April 2018.

4. Mr Cordell harassed, abused and repeatedly punched my husband on his face, causing him to bleed and to break two of his teeth. I tried to stop him, but he would not listen to me.

5. We contacted the police who arrested both Mr Cordell and my husband. My husband was kept by the police overnight while he was a victim of the assault. The police could see the facial injuries, bleedings and damages sustained to his face and teeth but decided to keep him at the police station while he was a victim of the assault. Surprisingly I heard that Mr Cordell was arrested, interviewed and released on the same day. The police decided not to charge him for some unknown reasons.

6. I believe that the Police decision was wrong, as there is clear evidence of assault, I was not interviewed while being a key witness to the incident. The Defendant should have been arrested and brought back to the Court following the breach of the injunction order so it could decide on his arrest.

7. I fear for my family safety and feels that the interim injunction with the London Borough of Enfield obtained on 09 January 2018 is not providing me and my family protection as the police refuses to enforce the terms of the order despite clear evidence that Mr Cordell has breached the terms.

The situation has left me and my family terrified. There's a letter from my GP which confirm that, as seen under exhibit RM1.

8. There were further incidents on 11 November 2017, on 02-03 January 2018, 01 March 2018 and 26 February where Mr Cordell harassed me, but the police did nothing despite evidence of him breaching the injunction order. All they would do will be to attend the Property, speak to him and leave without investigating the incidents.

9. I feel let down by the system and constantly fear for my safety. I contacted my local authority (the London Borough of Waltham Forest) to be moved out of the estate as myself, husband and 3-year-old are afraid to stay there. However, Waltham Forest is not taking any actions at the moment.

10. I feel that the existence of the injunction has not provided the adequate protection to me and my family. As things stand the Defendant feels that the injunction is ineffective as the lack of actions from the police currently encourages him to act badly towards me and my family. We therefore hope that the Court will support us and take appropriate actions following the breaches.

11. would therefore ask the Court to consider the application in light of the recent incidents, to commit the Defendant to an arrest and impose a sentence following his breaches of the injunction.

5. As the Court may be aware an interim injunction order was made ex-parte against the Defendant. Two applications for committal were made on 05 February and 20 April 2018 on the basis that the Defendant has breached some of the terms of the order. The matter has been listed for a hearing in the Edmonton County Court on 30 May 2018 to consider the two committal applications, the hearing is also a return hearing, the time estimate for that hearing is of two hours.

6. I make this second Witness Statement in support of the Claimant's application notice dated 10 May 2018 seeking to 1) Ask the Court for permission that the two committal applications dated 05 February and 20 April 2018 be dispensed with personal service on the basis that the Defendant has refused to accept service personally following our process server attempts to serve on 02 May 2018 arid 2) To ask permission from the Court to amend the committal application dated 20 April 2018 to include an additional breach of the interim injunction order by the Defendant on 01 May 2018. I would like the application notice to be considered ideally on papers but if not at the next hearing on 30 May 2018.

Backgrounds to the case

7. The Claimant obtained an interim injunction against the Defendant on 09 January 2018. Two committal applications were made against the Defendant on 05 February and 20 April 2018 on the basis that he has breached the terms of the interim injunction by making threats to me and another employee of Enfield Council. There were also incidents where the Defendant have physically assaulted one of his neighbours and acted in a threatening and intimidating way towards them. The two committal applications were sent to the Defendant by the Court by post but the Claimant failed to personally serve those two applications. A Court hearing took place on 01 May 2018 to consider the committal application dated 20 April 2018; however, District Judge Taylor adjourned the hearing of the application to 30 May 2018 to allow the Claimant time to personally serve the committal application.

Attempted service of the two committal applications dated 05 February and 20 April 2018.

8. After the hearing of 01 May 2018, the Claimant instructed a process server Mr Andy Philippou to personally serve the two committal applications on the Defendant. Mr Philippou attended the Defendant's address (109 Bumcroft Avenue, Enfield, EN3 7JQ) on 02 May 2018 and knocked repeatedly on the door but the Defendant, having identified himself as Simon Cordell, stated that he did not wish to open the door and therefore refused to accept personal service of the committal applications. A witness statement of attempted service from Mr Andy Philippou is attached to this witness statement under exhibit 'LM1'.

9. On the basis of the Defendant's refusal to accept personal service of the documents, the Claimant would like to make an application to dispense with personal service of the two committal applications pursuant to CPR 81.10(5)(a) which states that the Court may dispense with personal service of the committal application if it considers just to do so.

10. Additional breach of the interim injunction order following an incident which occurred on 01 May 2018

Mathiyalagan who is one of our witnesses in the committal applications. Such Behaviour was also displayed towards District Judge Taylor and members of staff and security of the Edmonton County Court.

1. On the day our case was called at 10.10am and the hearing proceeded in the Defendant's absence. The Defendant and his mother eventually arrived at 10.25am. As he came into the Court room, he kept on saying 'I'm not meant to be here, this is not meant to happen'. He then shouted out that the judge was conniving with me and Enfield Council as we wanted to keep him prisoner in his own home. He also stated that the County Court had no jurisdiction to hear the case and he wished to be heard by a jury. District Judge Taylor then responded by saying that this was a civil matter and he cannot use a jury. The Defendant then turned to me and waived a file of paper at me and said to me that he knows that I went to Westminster University, he also threatened that he was going to destroy me. He also accused me of killing his baby and of destroying his life. He continued to shout abuse and swore at everyone including the judge.
2. As the Defendant continued to act disrespectfully, District Judge Taylor asked the Defendant to calm down; he responded by calling her a corrupt judge, told her to shut up and swore at her. He was coming towards Mr Mathiyalagan (one of the Claimant's witnesses in the injunction and committal application) in an aggressive manner so I stood up between them to stop any risks of altercations. Two security guards were called and entered the Court room who asked the Defendant to calm down and to sit down. However, he became even more agitated and asked for their name, he also said that he will find out where they live and will come after their families. At that point District Judge Taylor ordered a short adjournment to allow the Defendant to calm down.

While waiting in the corridor outside the Court room, the Defendant kept on shouting abuse at me, Mr Mathiyalagan and other people waiting in the Court corridor. I then decided to go to the other side of the Court waiting area with Ms Geddes Kaur and Mr Mathiyalagan to avoid further abusive Behaviour from the Defendant; however, we could still hear him from the other end of the Court.

3. The Judge called the parties back in and directions were made including adjourning the hearing to 30 May 2018. As I left the Court building with Ms Kaur Geddes and Mr Mathiyalagan, the Defendant and his mother Lorraine Cordell were waiting outside of the Court entrance, on the other side of the road. The Defendant started shouting and abusing us. I then spoke to the Defendant and said to him that he was ruining people's life by his conduct. The Defendant tried to come after us, but his mother held him back. Because of his threatening and aggressive conduct, I had to take a different direction to my car to avoid the Defendant and ensure that the persons who were with me were safe. Ms Kaur Geddes was a party to the incident and a separate witness statement in support of the application notice is being provided by her.
4. The above incident constitutes a clear breach of the injunction order and I would like this to be added to the committal application dated 20 April 2018 and that it be considered at the hearing on 30 May 2018.

Mrs. Cordell,
Just to clarify, you are mentioning that the Council should copy you to all correspondence it sends to your son Simon Cordell. Your request raised earlier today relates to a committal application which we lodged in the Edmonton County Court on 20.04.2018. However, the service of that document was affected by the Court and not the Council. Therefore, as far as we are concerned the committal application was duly served upon Simon Cordell as it was sent by the Court on the address recorded against their system. You are welcome to raise the issue of service at the committal hearing but our view is that your email of today acknowledges the fact that your son has been received and therefore has been served with the committal application and secondly this application was sealed and served by the Edmonton County Court.

Dear Ludmilla Lyavoo
I understand when my son said in court where he wanted documents to be sent, but over Enfield Councils systems there is documents which state anything Enfield Council is sending to my son I have to be copied into it. Lemmy is well aware of this from a long time ago that anything Enfield Councils sends my son I have to be copied into it. Of cause anything I am copied into would not be classed as being served on my son, I should still be copied into everything and this should be on all Enfield Councils systems. We are still disputing the fact the order was served on my son correctly.

Dear Ms. Cordell,
I am the solicitor in conduct of the injunction proceedings against your son. It is my understanding that during his last attendance your son has expressed the fact that all correspondence in relation to the above case should be served to his personal address. We are therefore not aware that all court correspondence should be sent to you as you expressed in your email.
However, we confirm that an application for Mr. Cordell committal was issued on 20th April 2018, in the Edmonton County Court and a hearing has now been listed on Tuesday 1st May 2018 at 10am. The application was issued on the basis of a breach of undertaking. A copy of the application is attached to this email. Your son is advised to attend the hearing and to seek independent legal advice.

Dear Anna Sokol
I have just spoken to the ICO and they have told me to put a case into them, as I have asked for an update and not been given one. I have been told by the ICO there is strict guidelines on the 40-day limits given to comply with the request staffing issues does not bare any Weight to be outside the 40-day guidelines. Due to me needing this information due to a court case the ICO will be able to process my dispute much earlier than they would do due to this reason. I read the email you sent me and the ICO believe it is very unprofessional for an email to be sent like this when the guidelines for SAR are very clear.

Other Gateways for Disclosure

Contact Details for Third Party for use in Legal Proceedings

If you or your solicitor require the contact details of a third party in relation to pursuing legal proceedings, you can write to the Commander of the Borough where the incident occurred quoting Section 35 of the DPA. Your request will then be risk assessed to decide if it can be released.

Disclosure for Civil Action/Family Court Proceedings

Should you require disclosure of documents (or CCTV) held by the MPS for a Civil Action or for Family Court Proceedings, you may wish to apply for a disclosure order via the courts specifying which documents are necessary and why. Specifying what information within each document is necessary.

Please send the disclosure order to.

Your legal representative or HM Courts Service will be able to assist you with this. If the court case is not current but anticipated, you should request the documents under Section 35 of the DPA.

DIRECTIONS ORDER

Evidence in support of the application notice dated 20/04/2018 (part 10)

11. On 09/01/2018 the Court made an interim injunction order against Mr Cordell (the Defendant), attaching a power of arrest. The main terms of the order are summarised as follows:

The Defendant, Mr Cordell, be forbidden (whether by himself or by instructing or encouraging or permitting any other person:

Clause 3: from engaging or threatening to engage in conduct that is likely to cause physical violence and verbal abuse to the claimant's employees, tenants to the block of flats at Burncroft Avenue, Enfield.

Clause 4: From engaging or threatening to engage in conduct that is likely to cause intimidation, harassment, alarm and distress to the Claimant's employees, tenants and visitors to the block of flats at Bumcroft Avenue, Enfield.

Clause 5: From engaging or threatening to engage in conduct that is likely to cause nuisance and annoyance to the claimant's employees, tenants and visitors of flats at Burncroft Avenue, Enfield.

Clause 7: A power of arrest is attached to the above paragraphs.

12. The Defendants have committed several breaches by committing several acts of anti-social Behaviour against his neighbours. Mr and Mrs Mathiyalagan have been the victim of several incidents of harassment, intimidation and a serious assault on 15/03/2018. Despite the matter being reported to the police, they have failed to take actions against the Defendant to enforce the terms of the injunction.

13. The incidents are supported by the affidavit of Mr and Mrs Mathiyalagan dated 20/04/2018.

14. The most recent incident took place on 15/03/2018; the Defendant assaulted Mr Mathiyalagan who then tried to defend himself. Mr Mathiyalagan sustained personal injuries to his face and had to some of his teeth removed as a result of the assault. The injuries are supported by the ambulance officers' report, dentist records and letter from a GP which are exhibited in Mr Mathiyalagan affidavit dated 20/04/2018 and supporting this application.

15. The Police arrested the Defendant, interviewed him and released him.

16. On 01/03/2018, Mr Mathiyalagan stated that his wife was inside the bathroom giving their daughter a shower while his cousin was in the living room, he was at work. At about 11am, the Defendant came to their front door and started rattling the letterbox and knocking loudly on the door. His wife went to the door and asked who it was, and the Defendant replied, ‘why are you shouting’. His wife told him that she was not shouting and that she was inside her bathroom giving her daughter a shower. She asked him why he came to her front door, that he was not allowed to be there, but the Defendant ignored her and continued to bang and kick on the door. This went on for about 5 to 10 minutes and caused a great deal of distress to his wife and daughter and made them scared for their safety. His daughter started crying because of the commotion and loud banging. The Defendant left after his wife asked his cousin to call the police. Mr Mathiyalagan stated that he telephoned the police on 101 to report the incident and was asked to go and make a statement at Edmonton police station. He stated that he did so in the morning of Tuesday 06 March 2018.

17. On 26/02/2018, Mr Mathiyalagan stated that he returned from work at 11:30pm and went to the kitchen to get something to eat; his wife and daughter were already asleep. At about 11:45pm, while he was in the kitchen, he heard loud banging noises on his front door and rattling noises on his letterbox. He thought that his cousin had returned from work and was knocking on the door to be let In, he went to the door and spoke in his language but there was no response. He then opened the door and saw the Defendant standing outside his front door. As soon as the Defendant saw him, he ran away. The matter was referred to the police, but no actions took place.

18. It is submitted that the Defendant should have been arrested, kept on remand and brought back to the County Court pursuant to CPR 65.47 which states as follows:

- This rule applies where a person is arrested pursuant to –
- a power of arrest attached to a provision of an injunction; or
- a warrant of arrest.
- The judge before whom a person is brought following his arrest may –
- deal with the matter; or
- adjourn the proceedings.

19. The Police are aware of the injunction order as they have been served with a copy of the same. However, they have failed to enforce the terms of the interim injunction.

20. The Claimant is therefore bringing an application for the Defendant's committal.

Dear Mr Cordell,

Re: The London Borough of Enfield v Cordell Claim number: E00ED049

We are aware that at the hearing in the Edmonton County Court on 01 May 2018, an additional breach of the injunction took place as shouting: swearing and threats were directed to two of the Claimant's employees and one of your neighbours.

We therefore attach the following documents for your attention:

WITNESS STATEMENT OF MR LEMMY NWABUISI

I, Mr Lemmy Nwabuisi, of PO BOX 50, Civic Centre, Enfield, EN1 3XA make this statement believing it to be true and understand that it may be placed before court. Insofar as the content of this witness statement is within my own personal knowledge it is true and insofar as it is not within my personal knowledge it is true to the best of my knowledge.

I WILL SAY AS FOLLOWS

1. I am employed by the London Borough of Enfield as an Anti-Social Behaviour Coordinator in the Community Safety Unit. I have held this employment since August 2016. My role as an Anti-Social Coordinator consists of investigating and dealing with reports of anti-social Behaviour involving council and non-council tenants. My involvement with the Defendant was due to allegations of verbal abuse, threats, harassment and intimidation made against him by some of his neighbours.

DIRECTIONS ORDER

2. As the Court may be aware an interim injunction order was made ex-parte against the Defendant. Two applications for committal were made on 05 February and 20 April 2018 on the basis that the Defendant has breached some of the terms of the order. The matter has been listed for a hearing in the Edmonton County Court on 30 May 2018 to consider the two committal applications, the hearing is also a return hearing, the time estimate for that hearing is of two hours.

3. I make this second Witness Statement in support of the Claimant's application notice dated 10 May 2018 seeking to 1) Ask the Court for permission that the two committal applications dated 05 February and 20 April 2018 be dispensed with personal service on the basis that the Defendant has refused to accept service personally following our process server attempts to serve on 02 May 2018 and 2) To ask permission from the Court to amend the committal application dated 20 April 2018 to include an additional breach of the interim injunction order by the Defendant on 01 May 2018. I would like the application notice to be considered ideally on papers but if not at the next hearing on 30 May 2018.

Backgrounds to the case

4. The Claimant obtained an interim injunction against the Defendant on 09 January 2018. Two committal applications were made against the Defendant on 05 February and 20 April 2018 on the basis that he has breached the terms of the interim injunction by making threats to me and another employee of Enfield Council. There were also incidents where the Defendant have physically assaulted one of his neighbours and acted in a threatening and intimidating way towards them. The two committal applications were sent to the Defendant by the Court by post but the Claimant failed to personally serve those two applications. A Court hearing took place on 01 May 2018 to consider the committal application dated 20 April 2018 however, District Judge Taylor adjourned the hearing of the application to 30 May 2018 to allow the Claimant time to personally serve the committal application.

Attempted service of the two committal applications dated 05 February and 20 April 2018.

5. After the hearing of 01 May 2018, the Claimant instructed a process server Mr Andy Philippou to personally serve the two committal applications on the Defendant. Mr Philippou attended the Defendant's address (109 Bumcroft Avenue, Enfield, EN3 7JQ) on 02 May 2018 and knocked repeatedly on the door but the Defendant, having identified himself as Simon Cordell, stated that he did not wish to open the door and therefore refused to accept personal service of the committal applications. A witness statement of attempted service from Mr Andy Philippou is attached to this witness statement under exhibit 'LM1'.

6. On the basis of the Defendant's refusal to accept personal service of the documents, the Claimant would like to make an application to dispense with personal service of the two committal applications pursuant to CPR 81.10(5)(a) which states that the Court may dispense with personal service of the committal application if it considers just to do so.

Additional breach of the interim injunction order following an incident which occurred on 01 May 2018

7. A Court hearing on this matter took place on 01 May 2018 and the Defendant displayed aggressive and threatening Behaviour against me, one employee at Enfield Council Ms Balbinder Kaur Geddes and Mr

Mathiyalagan who is one of our witnesses in the committal applications. Such Behaviour was also displayed towards District Judge Taylor and members of staff and security of the Edmonton County Court.

8. On the day our case was called at 10.10am and the hearing proceeded in the Defendant's absence. The Defendant and his mother eventually arrived at 10.25am. As he came into the Court room, he kept on saying Tm not meant to be here, this is not meant to happen'. He then shouted out that the judge was conniving with me and Enfield Council as we wanted to keep him prisoner in his own home. He also stated that the County Court had no jurisdiction to hear the case and he wished to be heard by a jury. District Judge Taylor then responded by saying that this was a civil matter and he cannot use a jury. The Defendant then turned to me and waived a file of paper at me and said to me that he knows that I went to Westminster University, he also threatened that he was going to destroy me. He also accused me of killing his baby and of destroying his life. He continued to shout abuse and swore at everyone including the judge.

9. As the Defendant continued to act disrespectfully, District Judge Taylor asked the Defendant to calm down; he responded by calling her a corrupt judge, told her to shut up and swore at her. He was coming towards Mr Mathiyalagan (one of the Claimant's witnesses in the injunction and committal application) in an aggressive manner so I stood up between them to stop any risks of altercations. Two security guards were called and entered the Court room who asked the Defendant to calm down and to sit down. However, he became even more agitated and asked for their name, he also said that he will find out where they live and will come after their families. At that point District Judge Taylor ordered a short adjournment to allow the Defendant to calm down.

10. While waiting in the corridor outside the Court room, the Defendant kept on shouting abuse at me, Mr Mathiyalagan and other people waiting in the Court corridor. I then decided to go to the other side of the Court waiting area with Ms Geddes Kaur and Mr Mathiyalagan to avoid further abusive Behaviour from the Defendant; however, we could still hear him from the other end of the Court.

11. The Judge called the parties back in and directions were made including adjourning the hearing to 30 May 2018. As I left the Court building with Ms Kaur Geddes and Mr Mathiyalagan, the Defendant and his mother Lorraine Cordell were waiting outside of the Court entrance, on the other side of the road. The Defendant started shouting and abusing us. I then spoke to the Defendant and said to him that he was ruining people's life by his conduct. The Defendant tried to come after us, but his mother held him, back. Because of his threatening and aggressive conduct, I had to take a different direction to my car to avoid the Defendant and ensure that the persons who were with me were safe. Ms Kaur Geddes was a party to the incident and a separate witness statement in support of the application notice is being provided by her.

12. The above incident constitutes a clear breach of the injunction order and I would like this to be added to the committal application dated 20 April 2018 and that it be considered at the hearing on 30 May 2018.

Dear Anna Sokol and Gary Quan
I have just spoken to the ICO and they have told me to put a case into them, as I have asked for an update and not been given one.
I have been told by the ICO there is strict guidelines on the 40-day limits given to comply with the request staffing issues does not bare any weight to be outside the 40-day guidelines.
Due to me needing this information due to a court case the ICO will be able to process my dispute much earlier than they would do due to this reason.
I read the email you sent me and the ICO believe it is very un-professional for an email to be sent like this when the guidelines for SAR are very clear.

Edmonton County Court (2).WMA
[00:00:03] Dog Barking in the Background Noise.
[00:00:04] COURT AUTOMATED AUDIO.
[00:00:04] Stop barking.
[00:01:14] How are you doing. who am I Speaking to?
[00:01:17] I'm not here. Okay. Slow and steady. anyway, you made me laugh.

[00:01:23] how can the court help.
[00:01:24] You are good. You are good. Basically, I have had an application go through that was fraudulently put under the Companies Act by a gentleman called Lemmy who works for Enfield Council.
[00:01:33] it is Mr. Cordell on the phone. Simon Cordell basically hmm, the application wasn't ever served to me in accordance to the law and the prohibitions for service of Notice. So, what I initially done was I went up on the 1st of January this I was in a police cell and when I was in a police cell being detained, I had to have an appropriate adult my appropriate though I attended the police station and we had an interview with My solicitor at present after my Solicitor left and my appropriate left the police custody officer allowed the third-party company to come into the police cells and try to serve me. He never mentioned. He never gave me no forms while I was in the cell. I couldn't open the door and the affidavit of services said my home address. So, I believe I was never served. When I was in the cell I'm waiting for the records. Now what happened is I went to court and I explained this on. On the 5th of January four days after the 1st yeah, and the judge was there he was very kind and an A good judge and what he said is that he refuses to put the um the injunction order from me till he sees the affidavit of service.
[00:02:45] He refuses now I said to him in that courtroom. Is the tape being this courtroom being recorded. And he swore yes. Kept courtrooms being recorded and you can request a copy of the court case and you can hear it. I'm telling everybody that this is not on you. The injunction is not on you. So, on the 5th he told me it's not on me but what he would like to do is on the thirty yeah, which was.
[00:03:08] Yesterday. He would like to have another hearing. He would like to see the other day service and in that time of seeing the affidavit of service he will, hmm he will tell me on the thirtyeah,th whether it is activated yet or not.
Yesterday I didn't go because I was feeling too ill to go to court but was able to call my mother to attended for me. And what's happened is a number of judges come into place and she has now said that she's seen this affidavit of service. She agrees that I wasn't served in the police cell but while I was in the police cell a bloke went to my front door and he's put something through my front door an affidavit of service a notice of service. Now she's saying because I attended court on the 5th she believes I and I touched this service.
Now she's not only just started the injunction from starting from yesterday. She's saying it starts from the day when the judge said it wasn't on me which was which was the 5th. So, she's saying she's back in everything that's happened in between which is all fabricated stuff that made up loads of stories ger stories which I have got the video evidence for. Now what I'm upset about is I couldn't have been served on this day yeah because I have a camera in my corridor one in my front room one in my kitchen on 24-hour recordings so you can see while I was in the police station not getting served in accordance to the law. You can see someone post something through my letterbox because my letterbox is recorded. Then you can see that my mother comes to my home address and then she, while I'm in the police station she takes the paperwork she opens it up she gives it to another gentleman my uncle he plays with it in my front room they're all reading it throwing it over in the front the dog's jumping all over him for two or three hours the police officers come to my house and do a section 18 while I'm in the cell yeah and there, there look at everyone's playing with his paperwork in the front room then my mum leaves the house while I'm still in the police station on the cameras with the paperwork. So, when I come back home you can see me walk through my front door. My cameras and there's no paperwork in my flat. I've never been given this paperwork yet. But then I got told on the 5th I got told by my mother who walked out the house that the police wanted me to let them know there was someone doing saying my name in court. So, I attended on the 5th just to entertain what was happening.

[00:05:23] yes.
[00:05:23] Now I've been told that an injunction activated because they're saying I've been served notice but I could not be served notice if it was not in my house and it's never been given to me in my hand. So now I'm supposed to have an injunction order on me and a lower court put on me. And it's not just an injunction that starts from yesterday. It's an injunction. Now she's back to the 5th. that starts from the 5th when the judge clearly said on the 5th, he refuses to put this on me.
[00:05:48] Err yes, Sir. How can I help you right now?
[00:05:50] I get an injunction order me because your court because your directors and your court have caused a miscarriage in the law. Misconduct and I would like to be called back into court a statutory declaration of notice it's not I'd like to be out bring the video evidence of the affidavit being taken out of my house when I was in the police station. that I have not been served and I'd like the order revoked.
[00:06:11] Ok, so do you have the paperwork ready. hmm with regards to making this request for the judge to see you to bring you into court
[00:06:16] a statue.
[00:06:21] This is why I'm on the phone to yourself. I have got I could. I'm just asking you if you can help me feel the statutory declaration of notice in and have the case released it so I can show my evidence and that there is an error in law and that's putting me at risk. I've done a risk assessment for myself and I am not happy that I feel endangered walking out my front door off an endangered walking in my community corridor because this affidavit of service would never put, what was fulfilled within it is an even correct all the statements are made but made in a second perspective by.
[00:06:52] Mr. Mathiyalagan. But he's referring to days that his wife was there. So, if I get to trial for instance, I can't even question the first-hand evidence because she hasn't even done one statement herself. Somebody else has done all of her statements while she's not even in the house. Well even in the house her husband wasn't there and he said she. I want a first-hand statement and I would like to be able to question the integrity at trial of that statement and I can't do that because she's not even wrote a statement but you are holding a case against me anyway in any sense in ten days' time. And tomorrow is that is the six. This all happened on the first. Yeah. I've not been served in accordance to the law and the time limitation at 1980 means by tomorrow if I'm not served that the whole case no one can ever bring this case to me again. So, I don't by tomorrow. This can never be served and I'd just like to show you somebody the video evidence of the paperwork and taken up my house and have the case relisted for that I want the injunction revoked and I want to be released.
[00:07:55] I'm going to the Supreme Court with all the video evidence in my diary in my report and I'm goanna sue the directors in your court and I'm going to sue the directors at Wood Green and Highbury. I've already took them for holding me hostage you gave me an eight-year sentence so that's another story but.
[00:08:16] First things first in terms of getting it before the judge and getting this the video the hmm the evidence that you have before the judge, hm, how soon could you get it all ready for us.
[00:08:21] Has probably already got a full report of every single day of every email everything I've got videos of me coming home like yesterday I'm sitting in my house and they're attacking me the people are trying to act the Mathiyalagan's they're upstairs going bang, bang, bang I've got loads I'll go over I'll go over say six thousand videos yeah like different clips and audio of them attacking me my running around chasing me my bathroom flushing the toilet. I was 15 stone when I got in my house. I've lost I am eight stone now.

Yeah, I can't stop being sick every morning My heart I've been writing to the council from 14 to 16. I hope this is what happened. In layman's terms in full in 13. I've got Nick from gazebo handling stolen goods I've got put stringent bail conditions barred from central London bared from I had to give my passport to the police sign on police station every day at 4 plus a tag on my leg for 8 o'clock they ruined my life after a year I won the case for handling stolen goods they tried doing me for burglary but as for handling stolen goods anyway, yeah, for a gazebo that came out of a party building now I won the case by 14 in 14 this caused me problems in my 13 year relationships I lost my wifey, yeah, by 14 I won the case I went out my front door for five minutes when I went out some front door. Another girl called Shannon got with her living with her she's has got a white child was happy to be with her painting the kid's bedroom decorating doing everything for her eight months into it we agreed to have a baby eight months into it I've never had no disease and have no problems with me you end up had nothing I was in a 13 year relationship beforehand Yeah she gets a spot on the top of her ass Yeah this spot isn't even a problem to us she goes to the clinic and gets checked yeah to see if she's pregnant and the rest of it the woman says to het that the spot at the top of your ass might be herpes. So, she comes back and tells me while I'm painting the kid's bedroom for her and all of that she.
[00:10:08] Says this might be herpes or something like that so I say that is nothing it don't matter. Me and her never argue to date. Me and I still talk to this moment right now. Now what initially happened. Yes, I phoned up to the clinic and got all my medical notes. I got a clinic on recording and everyone on recording saying that there's nothing wrong with me. Now what happened is the police after, just as I got off the gazebo case the police threw a massive folder outside my front door now that massive folder.
[00:10:34] A bolder like a stone
[00:10:35] no a folder an Asbo application now this Asbo application was too big to fit through my letterbox. So, what happened is when you got left outside, I phoned my mother to come and get it and she brought it to lost property at Edmonton police station. I've got the stamp for it. Yeah. So, I never took the Asbo folder. But my mum photocopy the Asbo folder before she put it to lost property. So, I see copies of bits and pieces of it afterwards. Now what I noticed is that they were setting me up to grass six people are three people. I know and three that I don't know while I was on curfew in my house. They tried to turn me into a super grass.
[00:11:11] wow.
[00:11:11] So I went to Facebook. Yeah, and these people were holding events while I was on curfew. I copied the Facebook profiles. These people didn't even do them in like fake names are a lot like zombie stomp or ott they done them in their personal names on their personal Facebook accounts and I know some of them now but Facebook accounts proving I never done these events I refused to be a super grass so I looked at the paperwork and I noticed that.
[00:11:36] The police setting in their own personal statements that Section 144 was on all of these doors and all these events were indoors or outdoors so I went to court and I said to the court. Yeah, at trial trespass wasn't proven which is a requirement for the raised bow section of 1994 he said to me. They said they couldn't prove illegal and because they couldn't prove trespass, they couldn't prove illegality. So, I got all of the transcripts here the judge couldn't prove that I've done anything illegal. or that I had done anything.
[00:12:05] So now I know I have not done nothing. I think I've got the transcripts the judge said, now fifteen police officers went to call all the highest-ranking police officers. I kept asking for disclosure or unfold for the witnesses to attend court and the victims. No victims would attend. Court. Yeah. So now I've asked Why will no victims attend court. Yeah. So now look at all the police officers' statements and there was each police officer has done four statements four for the four for each one has done four statements in a second perspective for the victims and none of them are signed by the victims. So, I asked for the police PNB books of them go into the people's house police notebooks. They said they're being destroyed then never allowed to be destroyed. So, I asked for the audio to the 9 9 9 calls of these people calling and they said they've been destroyed. They're not allowed to be destroyed in criminal cases. So, then I started looking into it more but the audio is destroyed there's no 999 call. Let me look at these timestamps here to this place. I looked at all the timestamps and the 9 9 9 call centre times I so say I'm ringing you know they'd have a 10 o'clock stamp on this every day it starts at Number Zero and goes up to 15 hundred they get fifteen hundred calls a day. so, CAD: 500 happens every day and a copper knows that in his head. Now CAD 500 is nine o'clock. Yeah CAD: five hundred six hundred. Can't be eight O clock now that happens throughout my whole paperwork. were they made up the paperwork? They've got no victims now. I knew if they couldn't prove illegality in the court now, I knew that if I, I said to them well this is not fair you can't prove illegality in timestamps are wrong sections are on the doors. You've not talked about money once you say that you were inside a building. We've got the right to be inside a building. You have to prove a commercial business is being run under the license Act Apex 4.

[00:13:47] Dog Barking in the Background.
[00:13:47] They refuse. I showed them these buildings but no right. I'm not going to grass my friends up of these people. Yeah, you've got no right inside the buildings and you've not talked about money and your application once. So how can you fulfil the requirements of being in doors of the licensing Act that come. They didn't they couldn't do it. Yeah. So now I asked my friend and Sally Gilchrist and all the rest of them they made the application they say they don't care. I'm a brand bastard and I've been robbed. I've got hundreds of phone calls of all the executive directors of the call centres of everyone telling me that I have been robed They don't give a fuck. Yes. Because they couldn't get the application on me. Yeah. They started spreading out that I have got disease to try and make me run out of the fucking country. Sorry for swearing.
[00:14:28] No, no that is fine.
[00:14:28] They used my personal data and tried to make me run out of the country over a spot-on Shannon's ass and when they know there's nothing wrong with me, they can phone up evergreen clinic and Evergreen clinics got all of my medical notes. No there's nothing. I got all my medical notes from North Middlesex hospital and everything. Now Shannon's locked herself in a house and Hyde has locked themselves away and I've locked myself away. I won't go at my house because the maximum sentence if they did have enough a criminal conviction under the raves bill is six months in prison and a 20-grand fine. Yeah. They didn't have enough evidence.
[00:14:58] Knock at my front door.
[00:14:58] For a criminal conviction. who is that?
[00:14:59] Police will you open the door
[00:15:02] No I will not what for.
[00:15:03] No I am not opening the door what for.
[00:15:03] The police are at my front door trying to get me now, again
[00:15:11] As we speak.
[00:15:12] Yeah, as we speak, they're trying to activate the injunction because they cause they're in trouble because of the missing signatures. They are at my front door now banging trying to set me up again because they because they know I'm talking about the missing signatures and Steve Elesmore they're Borough Commander Jane Johnson I have got her on recording and she got put in Royal Diplomatic protection that she can put in Royal diplomatic protection you went to buy a command per spitting at me down the phone you've been robbed you can't have our borough commander I've got all the recordings of it I am saying that I never wrote this application I never done this and I never had the disease you lot are out of order doing this to me it is a breach of my human rights you allowing you you're tricking the members of the public and now the public are attacking me for what you are portraying to them now my neighbour started attacking me. This Mathiyalagan bloke on the top floor I helped him when he moved into the block someone some young boy had him by the front was going to bang him in his face and then I see the Mathiyalagan bloke because I was parking my car for the first, I knew that he'd been in my block for three weeks I said to him what's going on sort of thing, yeah, I Said to the young boy why you got him by the front. [00:17:28] Can you talk to us please.

[00:17:35] because we have got to talk to you.
[00:17:35] You don't have to talk to me
[00:17:38] we need to find out what is going on.
[00:17:39] You setting me up because you've got no signatures on your paperwork, I've been telling you phoning you and you've been telling me that you won't you won't do what's in accordance to your reforms Act 2002.
[00:17:51] you are talking about something else that I am not here to talk to you about mate.
[00:17:51] I'm telling you that that you're holding me illegally in my house your company head is you falsified paperwork all your timestamps are wrong you've got no PNC B books you don't know audio of the CADS: and you're holding me in my house now you are at my front door because you want to try to activate an injunction and the injunction was never even put on me.
[00:18:08] So why are you in for. we are here because somebody has called us, to say that there is something that we need to talk to you about
[00:18:14] Not left my flat.

[00:18:17] Yeah I've got cameras in this flat right now I've got the way to express myself inside my own premises yeah I'll give my opinion but I'm not saying I don't like you I just don't right now I'll put them on the ground force I'll get on with the ground force very well yeah normally Yeah my problem is that the higher ranking cops decided to manipulate me because they don't like the colour of my skin they scribbled all the paperwork I'm a black boy on the block and there's nothing I can do about it.
[00:18:44] Simon we are not even here to deal with that, anything to do with that.
[00:18:44] So why are you here then.
[00:18:47] I just told you.
[00:18:48] Talking inside of my own house.
[00:18:49] we have had a call about something and we need to talk to you.
[00:18:49] Well I do not care I have got cameras in my house I've not left my premises and I'm talking in my own house it's my right to express myself in my house I don't care what other people can hear in my life I'm talking in my back garden.
[00:19:02] Simon it has nothing to do with what you are going on about.
[00:19:02] So what has he got to do with.
[00:19:07] I am not going to shout it out in the front here.
[00:19:07] I want you to tell me though the door you are not coming in my house.
[00:19:15] Open the door and we can have a conversation.
[00:19:15] You, I am not opening the door to you, I'm on the phone to the court and recording the conversation as where to talking I'm recording you and I'm talking to the court and I'm talking to everyone here now.
[00:19:26] Yeah.
[00:19:26] You've lot have attacked me and Shannon and used Shannon. Yeah, you've had me look you gave me nine year curfew you gave me a nine year curfew yeah when the maximum sentence if you did get arrested for a six month for the raves Bill a nine year curfew because I won't cross my friends up yeah I've got their Facebook accounts I never throw the parties yeah.
[00:19:44] Simon I have got nothing to do with that.
[00:19:44] But you are a police officer no I'm telling you an EGM matter I am telling you that it is an emergency general matter in regards to your company No I'm telling you something and I've informed you. What is your badge number of informed you that Steve Elesmore falsified paperwork I would like you to address these issues and take them with the greater relevance that they deserve I am illegally getting held in my house in 9 years right now? Yeah. When you didn't even arrest me for your organization of illegal raves but you forgot to arrest me. You forgot to arrest me if you did arrest me. The maximum sentence is six months. Somebody forgot to arrest me. and I am riding a nine-year curfew because of use lot.
[00:20:23] I have got no idea of what you are talking about.
[00:20:23] Well I'm telling you right now what I'm talking about and look at the first Asbo folder and look at all the signatures that P.C. Matalin done he done four statements from members of the public and none of them in a third perspective and none of them have the witness signatures at the bottom of them. So did another police officer and so did they all done four false statements. And none of them on MG 11 forms under the police investogory Act 1996. They filled out them MG 11 forms and they falsified the paperwork to detain me in my house illegally. I've been informing you and your colleagues and you refuse to act upon it. You just choose to discriminate me for other reasons.
[00:20:59] It is nothing to do with that I need to speak to you about another issue and once we have dealt with those other issues, we can sort that out
[00:21:02] I refuse.

[00:21:04] We need to speak to you.
[00:21:05] I refuse I'm talking to you now though my door. Yeah, and if you do not understand what talking to somebody is. Yeah. You want to clearly do more than talk to me because you want access to my premises. I'm refusing. I'm talking to you. Now tell me your problem. Tell me your problem. Leave me alone.
[00:21:21] Tell me your problem. Leave me alone respect our right to my privacy in my home and respect my equality to rights yeah. Respect That. I'm living in my home and I've got the right to express myself and talk in here
[00:21:34] Police Officer opens my Letter Box to Chat to me.
[00:21:34] Simon
[00:21:34] Yes.
[00:21:34] Right we have had a chat many of a times yeah mate.
[00:21:36] I don't know what. What's is your badge number and who are you
[00:21:40] I am "Mutter".
[00:21:40] Pardon.
[00:21:40] Open the door and we can have a discussion.
[00:21:40] No, I would like you to know who you are. I don't know. I don't believe that you are a police officer. Can you please tell me your badge number?
[00:21:48] And who you are. 6 6 3 / 7 6 3 and what is your name sir.
[00:21:57] Pc Armed?
[00:21:57] What Is the issue that you would you would like to deal with me. hang on then me stop the dog for a second please.
[00:22:05] Get out.
[00:22:07] Hello Sir.
[00:22:07] I'm sorry separatist but this is it.
[00:22:11] This is the daily life for me since I've been reporting about the timestamps being wrong and the things are no one will let me back into court. They spent over a million-pound holding in my house. Nine years is a long time to hold anybody yeah.
[00:22:24] Mutter.
[00:22:24] It says it says that you can't even hold a terrorist in his house for nine years here without there being a breach. Lady Howel from the Supreme Court and Prince Philip. Yeah. Oh, say you in their video documentary for the Supreme Court. It is against a person's human rights to detain them in a house. I can't walk out my front door before 10 o'clock, yeah, because the police officers are still working in the borough that done this to me. And they're knocking on my door every second trying to set me up. I want disciplinary action so I can feel safe walking out my front door before 10 o'clock and I want the curfew lifted off me for 9 years of 10 o'clock. Plus, on top of that I'm not allowed to hire and not give no one no one personal or otherwise personal means personal give I give you an unpaid get five years and otherwise means business. I wrote to thirty.
[00:23:09] In three boroughs in London. I've wrote to the other thirty-two boroughs. Yeah, and asked for my licence and that. They said because of the Asbo says the organization of illegal raves. It has the principle of being arrested for it and it is a criminal offence. They said not to go to special meetings with every borough to get my license and anytime I want to hold an event in London I would have to go on special committees in regards to these matters. Right now, I was already getting my license and before this I had the keys to my community hall Kemp Hall. I was managing can pull community when all the children next strip searching me in front of the children, I had I was to look to look festival.
[00:23:45] I own Lock to Lock Festival which is for Enfield Island Village put on I own ponders end festival which is for Bangladesh people I own Durant's Park Festival which is my park right next doors.

[00:23:56] Yeah, I own al l of these festivals but they stuck below 500 people. Yeah, I got given. I wrote a brand-new constitution 100 percent in my grammar and my writing, yeah. I don't get a rough draft I don't get no less than 98 percent. Yeah, I know every law and every Human Rights of by heart Yeah. Anyone can test me. I wrote a new constitution for the people but will print companies up to everything for the festival. I know the owner of Glastonbury and I know the owner of Isle Wight and they gave me all their management systems so I rewrote all of Glastonbury paperwork and all the wax paperwork and I made all the new paperwork for this area.
[00:24:31] Knocking at my front door by the police
[00:24:33] Will you leave me alone and stop threatening me within my own home. If you do not want to tell me what the allegations are please leave me alone and contact my solicitor.
[00:24:40] Ok if you do not open the door, we shall force entry.
[00:24:40] Well if you force entry you will going to get arrested because you have got no grounds and you got no reasonable cause. Yeah, you met you. Do you do it on a false allegation and you see this report in it and you see the rest and you see my camera evidence.
[00:24:55] Open the door.
[00:24:56] I got a gate behind here. You couldn't get in my house if you wanted to.
[00:24:57] well we will go through your windows.
[00:24:58] Well go through my windows.
[00:24:58] Well Ok we will do that
[00:25:05] Excuse me sir I'm goanna have to call you back in five minutes.

[00:25:07] But can I take your name and details for me trying to report get this injunction off me and the video evidence that I have got.
[00:25:12] Yes, my name is Paul and I am in the front office at Edmonton. We are here until 5pm
[00:25:20] I appreciate that, Paul. I'm sorry for you. You haven't gone. Just glad you got to listen. I understand what's really happening here Paul.

Evidence in support of the application notice dated 20/04/2018 (part 10)

21. On 09/01/2018 the Court made an interim injunction order against Mr Cordell (the Defendant), attaching a power of arrest. The main terms of the order are summarised as follows:

The Defendant, Mr Cordell, be forbidden (whether by himself or by instructing or encouraging or permitting any other person:

Clause 3: from engaging or threatening to engage in conduct that is likely to cause physical violence and verbal abuse to the claimant's employees, tenants to the block of flats at Burncroft Avenue, Enfield.

23. The incidents are supported by the affidavit of Mr and Mrs Mathiyalagan dated 20/04/2018.

24. The most recent incident took place on 15/03/2018; the Defendant assaulted Mr Mathiyalagan who then tried to defend himself. Mr Mathiyalagan sustained personal injuries to his face and had to some of his teeth removed as a result of the assault. The injuries are supported by the ambulance officers' report, dentist records and letter from a GP which are exhibited in Mr Mathiyalagan affidavit dated 20/04/2018 and supporting this application.

26. On 01/03/2018, Mr Mathiyalagan stated that his wife was inside the bathroom giving their daughter a shower while his cousin was in the living room, he was at work. him that she was not shouting and that she was inside her bathroom giving her daughter a shower. She asked him why he came to her front door, that he was not allowed to be there, but the Defendant ignored her and continued to bang and kick on the door. This went on for about 5 to 10 minutes and caused a great deal of distress to his wife and daughter and made them scared for their safety. His daughter started crying because of the commotion and loud banging. The Defendant left after his wife asked his cousin to call the police. Mr Mathiyalagan stated that he telephoned the police on 101 to report the incident and was asked to go and make a statement at Edmonton police station. He stated that he did so in the morning of Tuesday 06 March 2018.

27. On 26/02/2018, Mr Mathiyalagan stated that he returned from work at 11:30pm and went to the kitchen to get something to eat; his wife and daughter were already asleep. At about 11:45pm, while he was in the kitchen, he heard loud banging noises on his front door and rattling noises on his letterbox. He thought that his cousin had returned from work and was knocking on the door to be let In, he went to the door and spoke in his language but there was no response. He then opened the door and saw the Defendant standing outside his front door. As soon as the Defendant saw him, he ran away. The matter was referred to the police, but no actions took place.

28. It is submitted that the Defendant should have been arrested, kept on remand and brought back to the County Court pursuant to CPR 65.47 which states as follows:

- This rule applies where a person is arrested pursuant to –
- a power of arrest attached to a provision of an injunction; or
- a warrant of arrest.
- The judge before whom a person is brought following his arrest may –
- deal with the matter; or
- adjourn the proceedings.

29. The Police are aware of the injunction order as they have been served with a copy of the same. However, they have failed to enforce the terms of the interim injunction.

30. The Claimant is therefore bringing an application for the Defendant's committal.

The Defendant has breached the terms of the interim injunction order on 24.01.2018 by harassing and intimidating one of the Claimant's employees by calling her on her work number on two occasions. IN THE EDMONTON COUNTY COURT CLAIM NO:

BETWEEN:

THE LONDON BOROUGH OF ENFIELD Claimant

-and-

MR SIMON CORDELL Defendant

WITNESS STATEMENT OF MR LEMMY NWABUISI

I, Mr Lemmy Nwabuisi of PO BOX 50, Civic Centre, Enfield, EN1 3XA make this statement believing it to be true and understand that it may be placed before court.

Insofar as the content of this witness statement is within my own personal knowledge it is true and insofar as it is not within my personal knowledge it is true to the best of my knowledge.

I WILL SAY AS FOLLOWS

1. I am employed by the London Borough of Enfield as an Anti-Social Behaviour Coordinator in the Community Safety Unit. I have held this employment since August 2016. My role as an Anti-Social Behaviour Coordinator consists of investigating and dealing with reports of anti-social behaviour involving council and non-council tenants. My involvement with the Defendant was due to my role in investigating allegations of verbal abuse, threats, harassment and intimidation made against the Defendant by his neighbours.

2. I make this Witness Statement in support of the Claimant's application to vary the interim injunction order of 09th January 2018. This is my second statement in the above proceedings.

3. Background:

On 9th January 2018 at about 12:18pm, the Defendant telephoned me and accused me of killing his baby. He accused me of forging documents to get an Anti-Social Behaviour Order (ASBO) against him thereby making him a prisoner inside his own home and that this is now personal between us. He stated that he knows where I live in Enfield and that me and my family are not safe from him. He also stated that he has watched me leave the office and have followed me home, that he can 'get me' any time he likes and that I should watch my back.

4. The Defendant telephoned me again about thirty minutes later and left a voice message for me. He again accused me of killing his baby, that I was biased against him and that I was a criminal. He mentioned one of my colleagues by name and stated that he knows that she has a flat in Winchmore Hill and that she lives in Edmonton. He stated that he has 'stripped' our computers and obtained personal information about us. He made references to my company accounts, the university I attended and the course I studied. He also stated that he knows where all our houses are and that we are not safe.

5. The matter was reported to the police, Crime Reference: 5200718/18 and the Defendant was arrested at about 8:00pm on 9th February 2018 and released on bail on 10th February 2018 pending further investigation. He is due to report back to Woodgreen Police Station on 5th February 2018.

6. The interim injunction order which was made by the Court on 09th January 2018 excludes the Defendant from causing distress and harassment to the Claimant's employees. However, the interim injunction order is limited to the area of Burncroft Avenue, Enfield, EN3 and not necessary to my personal address or work place. In view of the Defendant's past conduct I have concerns that he may attempt to harass me and my family and would like the order to be varied to exclude the Defendant or his associates from approaching me at my work and home address.

Statement of Truth

I believe the facts in this Witness Statement are true.

WITNESS STATEMENT OF MS KAUNCHITA MAUDHUB

I, Ms Kaunchita Maudhub of London Borough of Enfield, Civic Centre, PO Box 50, Civic Centre, Silver Street, Enfield, Middx EN1 3XA make this statement believing it to be true and understand that it may be placed before court.

Insofar as the content of this witness statement is within my own personal knowledge it is true and insofar as it is not within my personal knowledge it is true to the best of my knowledge.

I WILL SAY AS FOLLOWS

1. I am employed by the London Borough of Enfield as an Anti-Social Behaviour Team Leader in the Community Safety Unit. I have held this employment since March 2016. My role as an ASB Team Leader consists of ensuring the effective management and co-ordination of the services within the Anti-social Behaviour Team, including line management of the ASB Officers. My involvement with the Defendant was due to my supervision of the work being carried out by Lemmy Nwabuisi - ASB Co-Ordinator within my team. Mr Nwabuisi was managing the investigation of complaints of anti-social behaviour, threats and intimidation involving Mr Simon Cordell.

2. I make this Witness Statement in support of the Claimant's application to vary the terms of the interim injunction order 09th January 2018.

3. On 09th January 2018, in a telephone message left by Simon Cordell (the Defendant) for Lemmy Nwabuisi, the Defendant referred to me as 'Kanichiwa' and stated that he knew I had a property in Winchmore Hill and that I lived in Edmonton. It would therefore appear that Mr Cordell has identified my personal home address and stated that he knows where I live. The contents of the voicemail are as follows:

' You killed my baby, it's a very simple thing you are biased Lemmy yeh, you went to Westminster you are supposed to be good at fucking litigation, you are a criminal, there are no signatures on the first ASBO and I am being held hostage in here, you can go into your offices. Pat and Steve say it in your release forms to each other and Kanichiwa and all your managers fucking computers. Listen I know what you've done Lemmy you're fucking out of order you shouldn't be working in that company, you've never checked the computers from before and you've allowed all this to happen to me. Go to bristolspotlight.co.uk – Robert Taylor was the bloke that was my barrister before and he's done exactly the same to me to somebody else as what he's done to me – caused a sex scandal with you'z lot in somebody else's name, locked them out, kidnapped, done everything to them, yeh and I was phoning you I got bare recordings telling you that these guys are setting me up, and this is out of order what they're doing, I'm the black boy on the block, all the times, their first application is as fraudulent as your fucking application Lemmy, and you think your gonna walk around this town with your children, living your life getting the salary that you're on and your gonna fucking earn the right to do this to people your supposed to be looking after and posting pictures that your all good at law, I,m better than you at fucking law Lemmy, I'm better than the executive director at criminal law as well.'

4. The matter was referred to the police and he was arrested on 09th January 2018 for threats to kill and has been released on bail on the following conditions: Not to contact directly or indirectly Lemmy Nwabuisi and not to engage in threatening conduct that is likely to cause physical or verbal abuse to the employees of the London Borough of Enfield. He is bailed to return to the police station on 5th February 18 at 19.00hrs.

5. The interim injunction order which was made by the Court on 09th January 2018 excludes the Defendant from causing distress and harassment to the Claimant's employees. However the interim injunction order is limited to the area of Burncroft Avenue, EN3 and not necessary to me personally and my workplace. I have also had a lot of problems with eaten because of what they keep all doing to me!

[00:01:27] Edmonton County Court Good morning.
[00:01:28] Hello how are you doing.
[00:01:28] I am fine.
[00:01:28] Is it possible to speak to Paul please.
[00:01:32] Err, who is calling.
[00:01:32] Em, Mr. Cordell. Simon Cordell.
[00:01:35] One moment please.
[00:01:35] Ok, Thank You.
[00:02:45] Hello Mr. Cordell.
[00:02:46] Hello how are you doing.
[00:02:47] Hi, not too bad.
[00:02:48] I was wondering, I just managed to turn on the site and everything, get ready basically to be up show you. Did you manage look at it.
[00:02:59] Hello.
[00:02:59] Hello I am here.
[00:03:00] Yeah, did you manage to look at it yet.
[00:03:03] At the site that I gave you the name to.
[00:03:06] Say that again.

[00:03:07] Did you manage to look at the website that I gave you the name to.
[00:03:10] Unfortunately it was not loading on my side.
[00:03:12] I didn't manage to punch it in but it was not loading.
[00:03:14] Ok, hmm
[00:03:17] Would you mind if I take your phone number. because I am actually siting at my colleagues' desk and then I'll call you back.
[00:03:23] Okay. Um I don't know this mobile number here.
[00:03:26] Hang on I can see it on my side it come up on my side.
[00:03:29] No, no.
[00:03:29] You can use that if you have got that number then.
[00:03:31] hang on bear with me let me just write it down.
[00:03:31] 07729243063.
[00:03:31] yeah, that is your phone number.
[00:03:45] Yeah. that is the number that I am using.
[00:03:46] Yeah, I can see it.
[00:03:49] OK,
[00:03:49] Just to Let you know when the court calls, we use a withheld number.
[00:03:52] Okay. That's perfect. Um, what I am trying to understand is where I actually stand whether the injunctions on me.
[00:03:58] I've got the video evidence to prove I wasn't served and that whole application has been forged from the beginning the first application the second application and a lot of them all have not got the SEALs some of them got the seals on from the court the seals and them but the first injunction order never had most seals on it and every SEAL was supposed to be signed by a law a case M v.
[00:04:17] Murphy I have got the case number here. And basically, they should be signed by a person I don't know who is actually authorized all this in the courthouse to happen but the first possession order was forged from the lower court.
[00:04:31] And I've got the proof of that. It was missing all of its signatures. The second injunction and then after the possession would they put an injunction order to cover the signatures. That was all forged and I've got all the evidence video recordings of the incidents plus the paperwork itself was fabricated under the Fraudulent Company Act and then the fraud that and in the second.
[00:04:51] Let me check the Case. And I need to check the court system for these two and then I will be in touch with you it is just that I am at my colleagues' desk.
[00:04:57] OK.
[00:04:59] I have got your number and you gave me a case number as well I need to read the order. So that we are on the same page.
[00:05:03] Okay.
[00:05:04] And we'll see what's going on.
[00:05:05] Okay, then.
[00:05:06] just to let you know when the court calls our number will not show
[00:05:09] Yeah, it's perfect. Thank you for your assistance. bye.
[00:05:12] No, no, it's finale right then bye.

Summary!

My Heart has really started to hurt me every day, I am having an early aged mild heart attacks because of what Debra Andrews and the Mathiyalagan Markandu family as well as stain Curtis and George Quinton get and got away with, inclusively of what the police and local council members are getting away with each day by holding me hostage with no first hand witness and then on allowing my estate members to carry out their hate crime in a cover up to send me crazy or to an early death by flushing the toilet below me and bagging at me causing me sufferings and no peace also letting the named attack me when I am in the bath tub and getting undressed and this does not stop their I continue to get assaulted with the water taps getting slammed on and off causing a loud bagging sound at a fast rate and slamming object and or jumping on the floorboards above my head damaging my work studies and private family life and making me a Vulnerable person!
I have also had a lot of problems with eaten because of what they keep all doing to me!
My canine has victualing its paws because of what 113 – 117 and 111 are getting away with I have taken pictures of the damage this is doing to us in this flat!
If what they do to me finally kills me then it would also kill a lot of other people in the process!

Burncroft Avenue, Enfield, Middlesex EN3 7JQ. With the above-named defendant responded from behind the front door and as on my previous attendance at the address asked, "who is it". After having identified myself as I had done so on my previous attendance and the nature of my attending and with the defendant stating he had no wish to open the door to me and therefore refusing to accept service personally of the aforementioned envelope containing the documents referred to in this my statement; I did ask on more than one occasion if the defendant would oblige by opening the front door. That I did after having being refused access to personal service at the address and with the letterbox to the address quite clearly being obstructed by what left like a 'wooden plate' proceed to find a fixing for the sealed envelope addressed to the above-named defendant containing the aforementioned documentation. That I did continue to affix the envelope whist the defendant continued to speak in what could be best described as in a nonsensical manner as the conversation bore no relevance to my attending the address or the nature of my attendance. The defendant continues^ to speak about the 'unlawful' act I was performing by affixing with a cable tie the sealed envelope in a plastic wallet to the external door hinge of 109 Burncroft Avenue, EN3 7JQ. That I did whilst performing this act explain to the defendant that by his refusing to open the door to me and by sealing access through the letterbox that by effecting 'lodgement' at the address in this manner was the only course of action left open to me. That I did having re-affirmed this to the defendant and his saying "what if someone takes this off in five minutes" state by virtue of our conversation and his knowledge of my action did not excuse his not wishing to be informed of the Claimant attempting to effect service upon the above-named Defendant. That I did at approximately 9.35.am affix with a cable tie in a plastic wallet attached to the side hinge 'barrel' of the door frame of 109 Burncroft Avenue, EN3 7JQ a sealed envelope addressed to the defendant in order that its content would have come to the attention of the Defendant.

2. This statement is true to the best of my knowledge and belief and I make it knowing that, if it were tendered in evidence, I would be liable to prosecution if I wilfully stated in it anything which I know to be false or did not believe to be true.

5. As the Court may be aware an interim injunction order was made ex-parte against the Defendant. Two applications for committal were made on 05 February and 20 April 2018 on the basis that the Defendant has breached some of the terms of the order. The matter has been listed for a hearing in the Edmonton County Court on 30 May 2018 to consider the two committal applications, the hearing is also a return hearing, the time estimate for that hearing is of two hours.

6. I make this second Witness Statement in support of the Claimant's application notice dated 10 May 2018 seeking to 1) Ask the Court for permission that the two committal applications dated 05 February and 20 April 2018 be dispensed with personal service on the basis that the Defendant has refused to accept service personally following our process server attempts to serve on 02 May 2018 arid 2) To ask permission from the Court to amend the committal application dated 20 April 2018 to include an additional breach of the interim injunction order by the Defendant on 01 May 2018. I would like the application notice to be considered ideally on papers but if not at the next hearing on 30 May 2018.

Backgrounds to the case

7. The Claimant obtained an interim injunction against the Defendant on 09 January 2018. Two committal applications were made against the Defendant on 05 February and 20 April 2018 on the basis that he has breached the terms of the interim injunction by making threats to me and another employee of Enfield Council. There were also incidents where the Defendant have physically assaulted one of his neighbours and acted in a threatening and intimidating way towards them. The two committal applications were sent to the Defendant by the Court by post but the Claimant failed to personally serve those two applications. A Court hearing took place on 01 May 2018 to consider the committal application dated 20 April 2018; however, District Judge Taylor adjourned the hearing of the application to 30 May 2018 to allow the Claimant time to personally serve the committal application.

Attempted service of the two committal applications dated 05 February and 20 April 2018.

8. After the hearing of 01 May 2018, the Claimant instructed a process server Mr Andy Philippou to personally serve the two committal applications on the Defendant. Mr Philippou attended the Defendant's address (109 Bumcroft Avenue, Enfield, EN3 7JQ) on 02 May 2018 and knocked repeatedly on the door but the Defendant, having identified himself as Simon Cordell, stated that he did not wish to open the door and therefore refused to accept personal service of the committal applications. A witness statement of attempted service from Mr Andy Philippou is attached to this witness statement under exhibit 'LM1'.

9. On the basis of the Defendant's refusal to accept personal service of the documents, the Claimant would like to make an application to dispense with personal service of the two committal applications pursuant to CPR 81.10(5)(a) which states that the Court may dispense with personal service of the committal application if it considers just to do so.

10. Additional breach of the interim injunction order following an incident which occurred on 01 May 2018

Mathiyalagan who is one of our witnesses in the committal applications. Such Behaviour was also displayed towards District Judge Taylor and members of staff and security of the Edmonton County Court.

5. On the day our case was called at 10.10am and the hearing proceeded in the Defendant's absence. The Defendant and his mother eventually arrived at 10.25am. As he came into the Court room, he kept on saying 'I'm not meant to be here, this is not meant to happen'. He then shouted out that the judge was conniving with me and Enfield Council as we wanted to keep him prisoner in his own home. He also stated that the County Court had no jurisdiction to hear the case and he wished to be heard by a jury. District Judge Taylor then responded by saying that this was a civil matter and he cannot use a jury. The Defendant then turned to me and waived a file of paper at me and said to me that he knows that I went to Westminster University, he also threatened that he was going to destroy me. He also accused me of killing his baby and of destroying his life. He continued to shout abuse and swore at everyone including the judge.

6. As the Defendant continued to act disrespectfully, District Judge Taylor asked the Defendant to calm down; he responded by calling her a corrupt judge, told her to shut up and swore at her. He was coming towards Mr Mathiyalagan (one of the Claimant's witnesses in the injunction and committal application) in an aggressive manner so I stood up between them to stop any risks of altercations. Two security guards were called and entered the Court room who asked the Defendant to calm down and to sit down. However, he became even more agitated and asked for their name, he also said that he will find out where they live and will come after their families. At that point District Judge Taylor ordered a short adjournment to allow the Defendant to calm down.

While waiting in the corridor outside the Court room, the Defendant kept on shouting abuse at me, Mr Mathiyalagan and other people waiting in the Court corridor. I then decided to go to the other side of the Court waiting area with Ms Geddes Kaur and Mr Mathiyalagan to avoid further abusive Behaviour from the Defendant; however, we could still hear him from the other end of the Court.

7. The Judge called the parties back in and directions were made including adjourning the hearing to 30 May 2018. As I left the Court building with Ms Kaur Geddes and Mr Mathiyalagan, the Defendant and his mother Lorraine Cordell were waiting outside of the Court entrance, on the other side of the road. The Defendant started shouting and abusing us. I then spoke to the Defendant and said to him that he was ruining people's life by his conduct. The Defendant tried to come after us, but his mother held him back. Because of his threatening and aggressive conduct, I had to take a different direction to my car to avoid the Defendant and ensure that the persons who were with me were safe. Ms Kaur Geddes was a party to the incident and a separate witness statement in support of the application notice is being provided by her.
8. The above incident constitutes a clear breach of the injunction order and I would like this to be added to the committal application dated 20 April 2018 and that it be considered at the hearing on 30 May 2018.

3. Our legal team was instructed that one serious incident took place in March 2018 where the Defendant assaulted one of his neighbours. As those acts were condemned by the interim injunction order, we decided to issue an application notice in Court for the Defendant's committal. The application was issued on 20 April 2018 and a hearing was listed in the Edmonton County Court for the 01 May 2018,10am.

4. I represented the Claimant at the hearing of 01 May 2018 and the parties were called approximately at 10.10am. The Defendant was not present, so the case started in his absence. The Defendant and his mother Lorraine Cordell eventually arrived at 10.25am. Employment Judge Taylor who was sitting in the Edmonton County Court was going to proceed to start again. However, the Defendant was unable to contain his agitation and essentially shouted and swore at Mr Mathiyalagan (one of our witnesses in the committal application), Lemmy Nwabuisi (Anti-social Behaviour coordinator officer for the Claimant), his mother and the Judge. He made some disparaging comments to me. The Judge called in security; one security guard was not sufficient and a second one was also called. The Defendant was extremely agitated, was swearing and refused to sit down and it did appear that he may strike someone, the security guards were between him and Mr Nwabuisi and Mr Mathiyalagan. Ms Lorraine Cordell was unable to calm her son down; Judge Taylor was unable to calm him down and the security guards also could not get him to back down. The Judge then adjourned the hearing for a short period, and we left the court room. We tried to locate a side room to sit in but none were available as the court was particularly busy, there was also no sitting room.

5. We were called back into court a few minutes later. The hearing proceeded with Mrs Cordell representing her son in his absence; he remained in the waiting room and could be heard being abusive throughout the hearing.

2. Mrs Cordell confirmed that the Application for Committal of 20.04.18 was received by post on 25.4.18. Postal service was confirmed as effected but not personal service. The Judge stressed postal service has to be affected given the implications of committal and that 14 days' notice be provided.

3. At this stage I made an application to dispense with personal service on the basis of the Defendant's conduct and the likelihood that he would refuse personal service. This was considered by the Judge and on balance given that it refers to potential committal of the Respondent the Judge preferred not to dispense with personal service. She did note the conduct of the Defendant. I queried that where personal service was refused if we could dispense with personal service. The Judge confirmed that where personal service is refused then we can come back to Court and apply to have personal service dispensed with.

4. I instructed a process server Mr Andy Philippou to personally serve the two committal applications on the Defendant. Mr Philippou attended the Defendant's address (109 Burncroft Avenue, Enfield, EN3 7JQ) on 02 May 2018 and knocked repeatedly on the door but the Defendant, having identified himself as Simon Cordell, stated that he did not wish to open the door and therefore refused to accept personal service of the committal applications. granted, the Claimant would like permission from the Court to effect service of the documents by Post and/ or through the Defendant's letter box.

6. While the hearing was taking place, the Defendant was constantly shouting throughout the hearing in the waiting room and had become much louder and his mother had to leave the court room to deal with him.
7. I had a conference with Mr Nwabuisi and Mr Mathiyalagan on the matter to allow the Defendant and his mother time to leave the court before we departed. When we did leave the Court building the Defendant and his mother were still outside across the road and the Defendant did proceed to shout at Mr Nwabuisi; I did tell Mr Nwabuisi not to respond to him but the Defendant was trying to come to our directions but was held back by his mother. We proceeded to walk away in the opposite direction to avoid him so we could reach our car without any disruptions.

DIRECTIONS ORDER

3. Our legal team was instructed that one serious Incident took place in March 2018 where the Defendant assaulted one of his neighbours. As those acts were condemned by the interim injunction order, we decided to issue an application notice in Court for the Defendant's committal. The application was issued on 20 April 2018 and a hearing was listed in the Edmonton County Court for the 01 May 2018, 10am.

4. I represented the Claimant at the hearing of 01 May 2018 and the parties were called approximately at 10.10am. The Defendant was not present, so the case started in his absence. The Defendant and his mother Lorraine Cordell eventually arrived at 10.25am. Employment Judge Taylor who was sitting in the Edmonton County Court was going to proceed to start again. However, the Defendant was unable to contain his agitation and essentially shouted and swore at Mr Mathiyalagan (one of our witnesses in the committal application), Lemmy Nwabuisi (Anti-social Behaviour coordinator officer for the Claimant), his mother and the Judge. He made some disparaging comments to me. The Judge called in security; one security guard was not sufficient and a second one was also called. The Defendant was extremely agitated, was swearing and refused to sit down and it did appear that he may strike someone, the security guards were between him and Mr Nwabuisi and Mr Mathiyalagan. Ms Lorraine Cordell was unable to calm her son down; Judge Taylor was unable to calm him down and the security guards also could not get him to back down. The Judge then adjourned the hearing for a short period, and we left the court room. We tried to locate a side room to sit in, but none were available as the court was particularly busy, there was also no sitting room.

5. We were called back into court a few minutes later. The hearing proceeded with Mrs Cordell representing her son in his absence; he remained in the waiting room and could be heard being abusive throughout the hearing.

DIRECTIONS ORDER

6. Mrs Cordell confirmed that the Application for Committal of 20/04/2018 was received by post on 25,4.18. Postal service was confirmed as effected but not personal service. The Judge stressed postal service has to be affected given the implications of committal and that 14 days' notice be provided.

7. At this stage I made an application to dispense with personal service on the basis of the Defendant's conduct and the likelihood that he would refuse personal service. This was considered by the Judge and on balance given that it refers to potential committal of the Respondent the Judge preferred not to dispense with personal service. She did note the conduct of the Defendant. I queried that where personal service was refused if we could dispense with personal service. The Judge confirmed that where personal service is. refused then we can come back to Court and apply to have personal service dispensed with.

8. I instructed a process server Mr Andy Philippou to personally serve the two committal applications on the Defendant. Mr Philippou attended the Defendant's address (109 Burncroft Avenue, Enfield, EN3 7JQ) on 02 May 2018 and knocked repeatedly on the door but the Defendant, having identified himself as Simon Cordell, stated that he did not wish to open the door and therefore refused to accept personal service of the committal applications. A witness statement of attempted service from Mr Andy Philippou is attached to this witness statement under exhibit 'BKG1'. •

9. On the basis of the Defendant's refusal to accept personal service of the documents, the Claimant would like to make an application to dispense with personal service of the two committal applications pursuant to CPR 81.10(5)(a) which states that the Court may dispense with personal service of the committal application if it considers just to do so. granted, the Claimant would like permission from the Court to effect service of the documents by Post and/ or through the Defendant's letter box.

10. While the hearing was taking place the Defendant was constantly shouting throughout the hearing in the waiting room and had become much louder and his mother had to leave the court room to deal with him.

10. I had a conference with Mr Nwabuisi and Mr Mathiyalagan on the matter to allow the Defendant and his mother time to leave the court before we departed. When we did leave the Court building the Defendant and his mother were still outside across the road and the Defendant did proceed to shout at Mr Nwuibuisi; I did tell Mr Nwabuisi not to respond to him but the Defendant was trying to come to our directions but was held back by his mother. We proceeded to walk away in the opposite direction to avoid him so we could reach our car without any disruptions.

Statement of Truth

I believe the facts in this Witness Statement are true.

Dear Anna Sokol and Gary Quan
I have just spoken to the ICO and they have told me to put a case into them, as I have asked for an update and not been given one.
I have been told by the ICO there is strict guidelines on the 40-day limits given to comply with the request staffing issues does not bare any weight to be outside the 40-day guidelines.
Due to me needing this information due to a court case the ICO will be able to process my dispute much earlier than they would do due to this reason.
I read the email you sent me and the ICO believe it is very un-professional for an email to be sent like this when the guidelines for SAR are very clear.

Dear Anna Sokol and Gary Quan
I have just spoken to the ICO and they have told me to put a case into them, as I have asked for an update and not been given one.
I have been told by the ICO there is strict guidelines on the 40-day limits given to comply with the request staffing issues does not bare any weight to be outside the 40-day guidelines.
Due to me needing this information due to a court case the ICO will be able to process my dispute much earlier than they would do due to this reason.
3923,
I read the email you sent me and the ICO believe it is very un-professional for an email to be sent like this when the guidelines for SAR are very clear.

Dear Anna Sokol and Gary Quan
I have just spoken to the ICO and they have told me to put a case into them, as I have asked for an update and not been given one.
I have been told by the ICO there is strict guidelines on the 40-day limits given to comply with the request staffing issues does not bare any weight to be outside the 40-day guidelines.
3932,
Due to me needing this information due to a court case the ICO will be able to process my dispute much earlier than they would do due to this reason.
I read the email you sent me and the ICO believe it is very un-professional for an email to be sent like this when the guidelines for SAR are very clear.

DIRECTIONS ORDER

Evidence in support of the application notice dated20/04/2018 (part 10)
10. On 09/01/2018 the Court made an interim injunction order against Mr Cordell (the Defendant), attaching a power of arrest. The main terms of the order are summarised as follows:

The Defendant, Mr Cordell, be forbidden (whether by himself or by instructing or encouraging or permitting any other person:
Clause 3: from engaging or threatening to engage in conduct that is likely to cause physical violence and verbal abuse to the claimant's employees, tenants to the block of flats at Burn croft Avenue, Enfield.
Clause 4: From engaging or threatening to engage in conduct that is likely to cause intimidation, harassment, alarm and distress to the Claimant's employees, tenants and visitors to the block of flats at Bumcroft Avenue, Enfield.
Clause 5: From engaging or threatening to engage in conduct that is likely to cause nuisance and annoyance to the claimant's employees, tenants and visitors of flats at Burncroft Avenue, Enfield.
Clause 7: A power of arrest is attached to the above paragraphs.

11. The Defendants have committed several breaches by committing several acts of anti-social Behaviour against his neighbours. Mr and Mrs Mathiyalagan have been the victim of several incidents of harassment, intimidation and a serious assault on 15/03/2018. Despite the matter being reported to the police, they have failed to take actions against the Defendant to enforce the terms of the injunction.

12. The incidents are supported by the affidavit of Mr and Mrs Mathiyalagan dated 20/04/2018.

13. The most recent incident took place on 15/03/2018; the Defendant assaulted Mr Mathiyalagan who then tried to defend himself. Mr Mathiyalagan sustained personal injuries to his face and had to some of his teeth removed as a result of the assault. The injuries are supported by the ambulance officers' report, dentist records and letter from a GP which are exhibited in Mr Mathiyalagan affidavit dated 20/04/2018 and supporting this application.

14. The Police arrested the Defendant, interviewed him and released him.

15. On 01/03/2018 Mr Mathiyalagan stated that his wife was inside the bathroom giving their daughter a shower while his cousin was in the living room, he was at work. At about 11am, the Defendant came to their front door and started rattling the letterbox and knocking loudly on the door. His wife went to the door and asked who it was, and the Defendant replied, 'why are you shouting'. His wife told him that she was not shouting and that she was inside her bathroom giving her daughter a shower. She asked him why he came to her front door, that he was not allowed to be there, but the Defendant ignored her and continued to bang and kick on the door. This went on for about 5 to 10 minutes and caused a great deal of distress to his wife and daughter and made them scared for their safety. His daughter started crying because of the commotion and loud banging. The Defendant left after his wife asked his cousin to call the police. Mr Mathiyalagan stated that he telephoned the police on 101 to report the incident and was asked to go and make a statement at Edmonton police station. He stated that he did so in the morning of Tuesday 06 March 2018.

16. On 26/02/2018, Mr Mathiyalagan stated that he returned from work at 11:30pm and went to the kitchen to get something to eat; his wife and daughter were already asleep. At about 11:45pm, while he was in the kitchen, he heard loud banging noises on his front door and rattling noises on his letterbox. He thought that his cousin had returned from work and was knocking on the door to be let in, he went to the door and spoke in his language but there was no response. He then opened the door and saw the Defendant standing outside his front door. As soon as the Defendant saw him, he ran away. The matter was referred to the police, but no actions took place.

17. It is submitted that the Defendant should have been arrested, kept on remand and brought back to the County Court pursuant to CPR 65.47 which states as follows:

- This rule applies where a person is arrested pursuant to -

24.11.2015 a power of arrest attached to a provision of an injunction; or

24.11.2016 a warrant of arrest.

- The judge before whom a person is brought following his arrest may-

(c) deal with the matter; or

(d) adjourn the proceedings.

18. The Police are aware of the injunction order as they have been served with a copy of the same. However, they have failed to enforce the terms of the interim injunction.

The Claimant is therefore bringing an application for the Defendant's committal.

DIRECTIONS ORDER

10. What other information will you be relying on in support of the application?
4. An interim injunction order was made against the Defendant on 09/01/2018.
5. The order was served personally on 10/01/2018 and the injunction has a power of arrest attached to it. The Defendant committed further breaches if the injunction and as a result two committal applications were issued by the Claimant respectively on
4. and on 20/04/2018.

6. A hearing took place in the Edmonton County Court before Employment Tribunal Judge Taylor who ordered that the proceedings be adjourned to 30/05/2018 on the basis that personal service of the committal applications did not take place pursuant to CPR 81.10(4).

7. On 02/05/2018 the Claimant instructed a process server to effect personal service of the two committal applications. However, the Defendant refused to accept service despite identifying himself to our process server. In view of the Defendant's refusal to accept personal service of the documents the Claimant is making the present application notice to seek the Court's permission to dispense with service pursuant to CPR 81.10 (5). The Court should also note that the Defendant's mother Ms Lorraine Cordell accepts that the two committal applications were received by Post in any event. There is a witness statement of attempted service from Mr Andy Philippou dated 08/05/2018 which is attached to this application dated 10/05/2018.

8. Further breaches of the injunction were also committed by the Defendant on inside and outside of the Edmonton Court County Court premises. The Defendant was shouting, swearing and made threats to two of the Claimant's employees and one neighbour who attend a Court hearing on the day. The incident is supported by the witness statements of Lemmy Nwabuisi and Ms Balbinder Kaur Geddes which are attached to this application.

9. As a result of the recent incident, the Claimant has decided to issue an application notice dated 11/05/2018 to include the incident in the committal application dated 20/04/2018. An amended committal application was prepared, and personal service was attempted upon the Defendant by our process servicer on 11/05/2018 but this was refused by the Defendant. There is a witness statement of attempted service from Mr Andy Philippou dated 11/05/2018. In view of the Defendant's refusal to accept an amended committal application, the Claimant would ask permission from the Court to dispense with personal service of the amended committal application and to allow service to take place by other means.

10. This application is made ex parte on the basis that the next hearing to hear the committal application is listed on 30/05/2018 and the Defendant needs to be served with the two committal applications and application notice dated 11/05/2018 at least 14 days in advance of the next hearing.

My Heart has really started to hurt me every day, I am having an early aged mild heart attacks because of what Debra Andrews and the Mathiyalagan Markandu family as well as stain Curtis and George Quinton get and got away with, inclusively of what the police and local council members are getting away with each day by holding me hostage with no first hand witness and then on allowing my estate members to carry out their hate crime in a cover up to send me crazy or to an early death by flushing the toilet below me and bagging at me causing me sufferings and no peace also letting the named attack me when I am in the bath tub and getting undressed and this does not stop their I continue to get assaulted with the water taps getting slammed on and off causing a loud bagging sound at a fast rate and slamming object and or jumping on the floorboards above my head damaging my work studies and private family life and making me a Vulnerable person!

Dear Ms Lorraine Cordell,
We have attempted service of our committal applications dated 05.02.2018 and 20.04.2018 upon Mr Simon Cordell and also attempted service of our application to amend our committal application in light of the incident which took place at Court on 01.05.2018 but Mr Simon Cordell refused to accept personal service of those documents.
In light of Mr Cordell's refusal to accept personal service, the threats of violence towards the neighbours and the fact that a hearing has been listed on 30.05.2018, we have decided to issue an ex parte application for service to be dispensed with. The application was considered by Deputy District Judge Genn in the Edmonton County Court who made the following order:

24.11.2017 Permission to the Applicant is given to amend the application for committal
24.11.2018 Permission is given pursuant to CPR 81.10(5)
24.11.2019 (b) to serve the amended application by email on you.

In light of the Court order made by the Court this morning, the attached applications are deemed served upon Mr Simon Cordell. Please note that your son is entitled to seek independent legal advice.

DIRECTIONS ORDER

10. What other information will you be relying on in support of the application?

14. An interim injunction order was made against the Defendant on 09/01/2018.

15. The order was served personally on 10/01/2018 and the injunction has a power of arrest attached to it. The Defendant committed further breaches if the injunction and as a result two committal applications were issued by the Claimant respectively on

5. and on 20/04/2018.

16. A hearing took place in the Edmonton County Court before Employment Tribunal Judge Taylor who ordered that the proceedings be adjourned to 30/05/2018 on the basis that personal service of the committal applications did not take place pursuant to CPR 81.10(4).

17. On 02/05/2018 the Claimant instructed a process server to effect personal service of the two committal applications. However, the Defendant refused to accept service despite identifying himself to our process server. In view of the Defendant's refusal to accept personal service of the documents the Claimant is making the present application notice to seek the Court's permission to dispense with service pursuant to CPR 81.10 (5). The Court should also note that the Defendant's mother Ms Lorraine Cordell accepts that the two committal applications were received by Post in any event. There is a witness statement of attempted service from Mr Andy Philippou dated 08/05/2018 which is attached to this application dated 10/05/2018.

18. Further breaches of the injunction were also committed by the Defendant on inside and outside of the Edmonton Court County Court premises. The Defendant was shouting, swearing and made threats to two of the Claimant's employees and one neighbour who attend a Court hearing on the day. The incident is supported by the witness statements of Lemmy Nwabuisi and Ms Balbinder Kaur Geddes which are attached to this application.

19. As a result of the recent incident, the Claimant has decided to issue an application notice dated 11/05/2018 to include the incident in the committal application dated 20/04/2018. An amended committal application was prepared, and personal service was attempted upon the Defendant by our process servicer on 11/05/2018 but this was refused by the Defendant. There is a witness statement of attempted service from Mr Andy Philippou dated 11/05/2018. In view of the Defendant's refusal to accept an amended committal application, the Claimant would ask permission from the Court to dispense with personal service of the amended committal application and to allow service to take place by other means.

20. This application is made ex parte on the basis that the next hearing to hear the committal application is listed on 30/05/2018 and the Defendant needs to be served with the two committal applications and application notice dated 11/05/2018 at least 14 days in advance of the next hearing.

Dear Sirs
Re: The London Borough of Enfield-v- Cordell- E00ED049
We write further to the Claimant's ex parte application which was considered by Deputy District Judge Genn on 14/05/2018 in the Edmonton County Court.
The Claimant collected a copy of the Order, which was drafted shortly, after the hearing. However, paragraph 2 of the order is slightly ambiguous and incomplete. It reads as follows:
'Permission pursuant to CPR 81.10 (5) {b) to serve the amended application by email on Mrs Cordell, Defendant's mother because she has successfully brought previous proceedings to Defendant".
The Claimant's application notice Issued on 14/05/2018 and considered by the Judge requested the following:
The Claimant seeks permission from the Court to dispense with personal service of the applications dated 05/02/2018 and 20/04/2018 pursuant to CPR 81.10 (5) and;
To dispense with personal service of the application notice dated 11/05/2016
At the hearing it was explained to the judge that the Defendant has evaded personal service of the committal applications dated 05/02/2018 and 20/04/2018 and of the application notice dated 11/05/2018
The witness statements provided with the application also support the position. It was further explained that as a result of the; -- / 1 of 2.

Defendant's conduct we would seek permission to have service of the application dispensed with.
The Judge read the application and the Claimant's witness statements and agreed that service could not be affected and as a result agreed to have all 3 applications served by email upon the Defendant's mother Ms Mother, pursuant to CPR 81.10(5)(b).
Therefore, what is missing from the Court order Is an additional paragraph which gives the Claimant permission to serve BOTH committal applications 05/02/2018 and 20/04/2018 by email on Mrs Cordell. Such position was accepted by the Judge at the hearing but unfortunately Is not reflected in the Court Order. This was requested in the application notice and agreed by the Judge, we would therefore like the order to be amended accordingly.
We would be grateful if this letter could be passed on to the Judge to have the order amended accordingly. Please note that the next hearing on this case is Listed on 30 May 2018, 2pm and we would be grateful if the order could be amended as a matter of urgency. / 2 of 2.

Dear Ms Lorraine Cordell,

We have attempted service of our committal applications dated 05.02.2018 and 20.04.2018 upon Mr Simon Cordell and also attempted service of our application to amend our committal application in light of the incident which took place at Court on 01.05.2018 but Mr Simon Cordell refused to accept personal service of those documents.

In light of Mr Cordell's refusal to accept personal service, the threats of violence towards the neighbours and the fact that a hearing has been listed on 30.05.2018, we have decided to issue an ex parte application for service to be dispensed with. The application was considered by Deputy District Judge Genn in the Edmonton County Court who made the following order:

- Permission to the Applicant is given to amend the application for committal
- Permission is given pursuant to CPR 81.10(5)(b) to serve the amended application by email on you.

In light of the Court order made by the Court this morning, the attached applications are deemed served upon Mr Simon Cordell. Please note that your son is entitled to seek independent legal advice.

Dear Mr Cordell,

Claim number: E00ED049

We are aware that at the hearing in the Edmonton County Court on 01 May 2018, an additional breach of the injunction took place as shouting; swearing and threats were directed to two of the Claimant's employees and one of your neighbours.

We therefore attach the following documents for your attention:

1. An application notice dated 11.05.2018 seeking permission from the Court to amend the committal application dated 20.04.2018 to add the recent incident.

2. Amended application notice dated 20.04.2018

3. Affidavit of Mr and Mrs Mathiyalagan dated 20.04.2018

4. An amended draft order dated 20.04.2018

5. Witness statements of Mr Lemmy Nwabuisi and Mrs Balbinder Kaur Geddes dated 10.05.2018.

We will ask the Court to consider the attached application at the next court hearing listed in the Edmonton County Court on 30.05.2018.

You are entitled to seek independent legal advice.

Yours sincerely,

Dear Sirs
Re: The London Borough of Enfield-v- Cordell- E00ED049
We write further to the Claimant's ex parte application which was considered by Deputy District Judge Genn on 14/05/2018 in the Edmonton County Court.
The Claimant collected a copy of the Order, which was drafted shortly, after the hearing. However, paragraph 2 of the order is slightly ambiguous and incomplete. It reads as follows:
'Permission pursuant to CPR 81.10 (5) {b) to serve the amended application by email on Mrs Cordell, Defendant's mother because she has successfully brought previous proceedings to Defendant".
The Claimant's application notice Issued on 14/05/2018 and considered by the Judge requested the following:
The Claimant seeks permission from the Court to dispense with personal service of the applications dated 05/02/2018 and 20/04/2018 pursuant to CPR 81.10 (5) and;
To dispense with personal service of the application notice dated 11/05/2016
At the hearing it was explained to the judge that the Defendant has evaded personal service of the committal applications dated 05/02/2018 and 20/04/2018 and of the application notice dated 11/05/2018
The witness statements provided with the application also support the position. It was further explained that as a result of the; -- / 1 of 2.

DIRECTIONS ORDER

Date: 15/05/2018 - "URGENT" /

Defendant's conduct we would seek permission to have service of the application dispensed with.
The Judge read the application and the Claimant's witness statements and agreed that service could not be affected and as a result agreed to have all 3 applications served by email upon the Defendant's mother Ms Mother, pursuant to CPR 81.10(5)(b).
Therefore, what is missing from the Court order Is an additional paragraph which gives the Claimant permission to serve BOTH committal applications 05/02/2018 and 20/04/2018 by email on Mrs Cordell. Such position was accepted by the Judge at the hearing but unfortunately Is not reflected in the Court Order. This was requested in the application notice and agreed by the Judge, we would therefore like the order to be amended accordingly.
We would be grateful if this letter could be passed on to the Judge to have the order amended accordingly. Please note that the next hearing on this case is Listed on 30 May 2018, 2pm and we would be grateful if the order could be amended as a matter of urgency.

I got made to feel infuriated by the Enfield Councils and the Enfield Homes dissertated practice towards their Statutory Duty of conduct towards their clients, because it makes me sufferer every day and night by their staff's negligence after their intentional inflection of emotional distress that I gets inflected upon me, in the staff understanding the urgency of me having heating in my home and not correcting the issues of the Damp, Sound Proofing and one existence of the Heating!

Summary!

My Heart has really started to hurt me every day, I am having an early aged mild heart attacks because of what Debra Andrews and the Mathiyalagan Markandu family as well as stain Curtis and George Quinton get and got away with, inclusively of what the police and local council members are getting away with each day by holding me hostage with no first hand witness and then on allowing my estate members to carry out their hate crime in a cover up to send me crazy or to an early death by flushing the toilet below me and bagging at me causing me sufferings and no peace also letting the named attack me when I am in the bath tub and getting undressed and this does not stop their I continue to get assaulted with the water taps getting slammed on and off causing a loud bagging sound at a fast rate and slamming object and or jumping on the floorboards above my head damaging my work studies and private family life and making me a Vulnerable person!

I have also had a lot of problems with eaten because of what they keep all doing to me!

My canine has victualing its paws because of what 113 – 117 and 111 are getting away with I have taken pictures of the damage this is doing to us in this flat!

If what they do to me finally kills me then it would also kill a lot of other people in the process!

I have just spoken to the ICO and they have told me to put a case into them, as I have asked for an update and not been given one.
I have been told by the ICO there is strict guidelines on the 40-day limits given to comply with the request staffing issues does not bare any weight to be outside the 40-day guidelines.

Due to me needing this information due to a court case the ICO will be able to process my dispute much earlier than they would do due to this reason.
I read the email you sent me and the ICO believe it is very un-professional for an email to be sent like this when the guidelines for SAR are very clear.

My Heart has really started to hurt me every day, I am having an early aged mild heart attacks because of what Debra Andrews and the Mathiyalagan Markandu family as well as stain Curtis and George Quinton get and got away with, inclusively of what the police and local council members are getting away with each day by holding me hostage with no first hand witness and then on allowing my estate members to carry out their hate crime in a cover up to send me crazy or to an early death by flushing the toilet below me and bagging at me causing me sufferings and no peace also letting the named attack me when I am in the bath tub and getting undressed and this does not stop their I continue to get assaulted with the water taps getting slammed on and off causing a loud bagging sound at a fast rate and slamming object and or jumping on the floorboards above my head damaging my work studies and private family life and making me a Vulnerable person!
I have also had a lot of problems with eaten because of what they keep all doing to me!
My canine has victualing its paws because of what 113 – 117 and 111 are getting away with I have taken pictures of the damage this is doing to us in this flat!

If what they do to me finally kills me then it would also kill a lot of other people in the process!

Disrepair!

The level of service provided by the Enfield Council and the Enfield Homes teams staff is truly inadequate to the sufficient need services required, for an example when the staff are using the available granted money that comes from the community repair chest budget that gets granted for repairs they do no manage maintain and distribute the selfless cash within the relevant emergency sectors of highest priorities to a reasonable standard and in a practical time scale, as my rented council flats conditions are of the highest priorities but still continues to suffer alongside myself, once I had applied for the staff to initialize the capital and reasonable persons to rectify the repairs need, so to fix my home in a relevant time period and to a professional standard!

Dear Ms Lorraine Cordell,

We have attempted service of our committal applications dated 05.02.2018 and 20.04.2018 upon Mr Simon Cordell and also attempted service of our application to amend our committal application in light of the incident which took place at Court on 01.05.2018 but Mr Simon Cordell refused to accept personal service of those documents.

In light of Mr Cordell's refusal to accept personal service, the threats of violence towards the neighbours and the fact that a hearing has been listed on 30.05.2018, we have decided to issue an ex parte application for service to be dispensed with. The application was considered by Deputy District Judge Genn in the Edmonton County Court who made the following order:

1) Permission to the Applicant is given to amend the application for committal
2) Permission is given pursuant to CPR 81.10(5)(b) to serve the amended application by email on you.

In light of the Court order made by the Court this morning, the attached applications are deemed served upon Mr Simon Cordell. Please note that your son is entitled to seek independent legal advice.

Kind regards,

Dear Mr Cordell,

Claim number: E00ED049

We are aware that at the hearing in the Edmonton County Court on 01 May 2018, an additional breach of the injunction took place as shouting; swearing and threats were directed to two of the Claimant's employees and one of your neighbours.

We therefore attach the following documents for your attention:

1. An application notice dated 11.05.2018 seeking permission from the Court to amend the committal application dated 20.04.2018 to add the recent incident.

2. Amended application notice dated 20.04.2018

3. Affidavit of Mr and Mrs Mathiyalagan dated 20.04.2018

4. An amended draft order dated 20.04.2018

5. Witness statements of Mr Lemmy Nwabuisi and Mrs Balbinder Kaur Geddes dated 10.05.2018.

We will ask the Court to consider the attached application at the next court hearing listed in the Edmonton County Court on 30.05.2018.

You are entitled to seek independent legal advice.

Yours sincerely,

DIRECTIONS ORDER

Evidence in support of the application notice dated 20/04/2018 (part 10)

19. On 09/01/2018 the Court made an interim injunction order against Mr Cordell (the Defendant), attaching a power of arrest. The main terms of the order are summarised as follows:

The Defendant, Mr Cordell, be forbidden (whether by himself or by instructing or encouraging or permitting any other person:

Clause 3: from engaging or threatening to engage in conduct that is likely to cause physical violence and verbal abuse to the claimant's employees, tenants to the block of flats at Burn croft Avenue, Enfield.

Clause 4: From engaging or threatening to engage in conduct that is likely to cause intimidation, harassment, alarm and distress to the Claimant's employees, tenants and visitors to the block of flats at Bumcroft Avenue, Enfield.

Clause 5: From engaging or threatening to engage in conduct that is likely to cause nuisance and annoyance to the claimant's employees, tenants and visitors of flats at Burncroft Avenue, Enfield.

Clause 7: A power of arrest is attached to the above paragraphs.

20. The Defendants have committed several breaches by committing several acts of anti-social Behaviour against his neighbours. Mr and Mrs Mathiyalagan have been the victim of several incidents of harassment, intimidation and a serious assault on 15/03/2018. Despite the matter being reported to the police, they have failed to take actions against the Defendant to enforce the terms of the injunction.

21. The incidents are supported by the affidavit of Mr and Mrs Mathiyalagan dated 20/04/2018.

22. The most recent incident took place on 15/03/2018; the Defendant assaulted Mr Mathiyalagan who then tried to defend himself. Mr Mathiyalagan sustained personal injuries to his face and had to some of his teeth removed as a result of the assault. The injuries are supported by the ambulance officers' report, dentist records and letter from a GP which are exhibited in Mr Mathiyalagan affidavit dated 20/04/2018 and supporting this application.

23. The Police arrested the Defendant, interviewed him and released him.

24. On 01/03/2018 Mr Mathiyalagan stated that his wife was inside the bathroom giving their daughter a shower while his cousin was in the living room, he was at work. At about 11am, the Defendant came to their front door and started rattling the letterbox and knocking loudly on the door. His wife went to the door and asked who it was, and the Defendant replied, 'why are you shouting'. His wife told him that she was not shouting and that she was inside her bathroom giving her daughter a shower. She asked him why he came to her front door, that he was not allowed to be there, but the Defendant ignored her and continued to bang and kick on the door. This went on for about 5 to 10 minutes and caused a great deal of distress to his wife and daughter and made them scared for their safety. His daughter started crying because of the commotion and loud banging. The Defendant left after his wife asked his cousin to call the police. Mr Mathiyalagan stated that he telephoned the police on 101 to report the incident and was asked to go and make a statement at Edmonton police station. He stated that he did so in the morning of Tuesday 06 March 2018.

25. On 26/02/2018, Mr Mathiyalagan stated that he returned from work at 11:30pm and went to the kitchen to get something to eat; his wife and daughter were already asleep. At about 11:45pm, while he was in the kitchen, he heard loud banging noises on his front door and rattling noises on his letterbox. He thought that his cousin had returned from work and was knocking on the door to be let in, he went to the door and spoke in his language but there was no response. He then opened the door and saw the Defendant standing outside his front door. As soon as the Defendant saw him, he ran away. The matter was referred to the police, but no actions took place.

26. It is submitted that the Defendant should have been arrested, kept on remand and brought back to the County Court pursuant to CPR 65.47 which states as follows:

- This rule applies where a person is arrested pursuant to -

24.11.2020 a power of arrest attached to a provision of an injunction; or

24.11.2021 a warrant of arrest.

- The judge before whom a person is brought following his arrest may-

(e) deal with the matter; or

(f) adjourn the proceedings.

27. The Police are aware of the injunction order as they have been served with a copy of the same. However, they have failed to enforce the terms of the interim injunction.

The Claimant is therefore bringing an application for the Defendant's committal.

DIRECTIONS ORDER

14. As the Court may be aware an interim injunction order was made ex-parte against the Defendant. Two applications for committal were made on 05 February and 20 April 2018 on the basis that the Defendant has breached some of the terms of the order. The matter has been listed for a hearing in the Edmonton County Court on 30 May 2018 to consider the two committal applications, the hearing is also a return hearing, the time estimate for that hearing is of two hours.

15. I make this second Witness Statement in support of the Claimant's application notice dated 10 May 2018 seeking to 1) Ask the Court for permission that the two committal applications dated 05 February and 20 April 2018 be dispensed with personal service on the basis that the Defendant has refused to accept service personally following our process server attempts to serve on 02 May 2018 and 2) To ask permission from the Court to amend the committal application dated 20 April 2018 to include an additional breach of the interim injunction order by the Defendant on 01 May 2018. I would like the application notice to be considered ideally on papers but if not at the next hearing on 30 May 2018.

Backgrounds to the case

16. The Claimant obtained an interim injunction against the Defendant on 09 January 2018. Two committal applications were made against the Defendant on 05 February and 20 April 2018 on the basis that he has breached the terms of the interim injunction by making threats to me and another employee of Enfield Council. There were also incidents where the Defendant have physically assaulted one of his neighbours and acted in a threatening and intimidating way towards them. Claimant failed to personally serve those two applications. A Court hearing took place on 01 May 2018 to consider the committal application dated 20 April 2018 however, District Judge Taylor adjourned the hearing of the application to 30 May 2018 to allow the Claimant time to personally serve the committal application.

Attempted service of the two committal applications dated 05 February and 20 April 2018.

17. After the hearing of 01 May 2018, the Claimant instructed a process server Mr Andy Philippou to personally serve the two committal applications on the Defendant. Mr Philippou attended the Defendant's address (109 Bumcroft Avenue, Enfield, EN3 7JQ) on 02 May 2018 and knocked repeatedly on the door but the Defendant, having identified himself as Simon Cordell, stated that he did not wish to open the door and therefore refused to accept personal service of the committal applications. A witness statement of attempted service from Mr Andy Philippou is attached to this witness statement under exhibit 'LM1'.

18. On the basis of the Defendant's refusal to accept personal service of the documents, the Claimant would like to make an application to dispense with personal service of the two committal applications pursuant to CPR 81.10(5)(a) which states that the Court may dispense with personal service of the committal application if it considers just to do so.

Additional breach of the interim injunction order following an incident which occurred on 01 May 2018

19. A Court hearing on this matter took place on 01 May 2018 and the Defendant displayed aggressive and threatening Behaviour against me, one employee at Enfield Council Ms Balbinder Kaur Geddes and Mr

Mathiyalagan who is one of our witnesses in the committal applications. Such Behaviour was also displayed towards District Judge Taylor and members of staff and security of the Edmonton County Court.

12. On the day our case was called at 10.10am and the hearing proceeded in the Defendant's absence. The Defendant and his mother eventually arrived at 10.25am. As he came into the Court room, he kept on saying Tm not meant to be here, this is not meant to happen'. He then shouted out that the judge was conniving with me and Enfield Council as we wanted to keep him prisoner in his own home. He also stated that the County Court had no jurisdiction to hear the case and he wished to be heard by a jury. District Judge Taylor then responded by saying that this was a civil matter and he cannot use a jury. The Defendant then turned to me and waived a file of paper at me and said to me that he knows that I went to Westminster University, he also threatened that he was going to destroy me. He also accused me of killing his baby and of destroying his life. He continued to shout abuse and swore at everyone including the judge.

13. As the Defendant continued to act disrespectfully, District Judge Taylor asked the Defendant to calm down; he responded by calling her a corrupt judge, told her to shut up and swore at her. He was coming towards Mr Mathiyalagan (one of the Claimant's witnesses in the injunction and committal application) in an aggressive manner so I stood up between them to stop any risks of altercations. Two security guards were called and entered the Court room who asked the Defendant to calm down and to sit down. However, he became even more agitated and asked for their name, he also said that he will find out where they live and will come after their families. At that point District Judge Taylor ordered a short adjournment to allow the Defendant to calm down.

16. While waiting in the corridor outside the Court room, the Defendant kept on shouting abuse at me, Mr Mathiyalagan and other people waiting in the Court corridor. I then decided to go to the other side of the Court waiting area with Ms Geddes Kaur and Mr Mathiyalagan to avoid further abusive Behaviour from the Defendant; however, we could still hear him from the other end of the Court.

17. The Judge called the parties back in and directions were made including adjourning the hearing to 30 May 2018. As I left the Court building with Ms Kaur Geddes and Mr Mathiyalagan, the Defendant and his mother Lorraine Cordell were waiting outside of the Court entrance, on the other side of the road. The Defendant started shouting and abusing us. I then spoke to the Defendant and said to him that he was ruining people's life by his conduct. The Defendant tried to come after us, but his mother held him, back. Because of his threatening and aggressive conduct, I had to take a different direction to my car to avoid the Defendant and ensure that the persons who were with me were safe. Ms Kaur Geddes was a party to the incident and a separate witness statement in support of the application notice is being provided by her.

18. The above incident constitutes a clear breach of the injunction order and I would like this to be added to the committal application dated 20 April 2018 and that it be considered at the hearing on 30 May 2018.

Dear Kaunchita,
I write further to the hearing which took place at the Edmonton County Court on 30/05/2018. The Court ordered that Simon Cordell should undergo a medical assessment by the community legal team by no later than 13th June 2018. As a result of this order an appointment will need to be arranged and a report should be prepared and filed at Court by this deadline. The report shall deal with Mr Cordell's capacity to litigate and capacity to understand the meaning of the interim injunction dated 09/01/2018.
I will be therefore grateful if you could contact the Community Mental Health Unit and arrange for an appointment to be arranged urgently. Please note that at least 24 hours' notice need to be provided to Mr Cordell.
Finally, I would be grateful you could contact Community Mental Health Unit and ask them whether Mr Cordell was sectioned under the Mental Health Act and if we could have copy of the relevant documentations.
Many thanks.

Officers attended the location of Burncroft Avenue in relation to an allegation of threats to kill made towards the subject Simon CORDELL by a neighbour.
The neighbour stated to officers that on 31/05/2018
at approximately 1000Hours she was standing at her window with her two children which looks out onto the rear garden when the Simon has noticed her and shouted words to the effect of' You fucking bitch' I'm gone fucking kill you and your children' ' I've got a bomb for you, I will get in your block and kill you'. This has alarmed viw causing distress resulting in her calling the police.
Simon is known to suffer from mental health issues.
He was arrested for threats to kill and breach of injunction.
 ye PPD ***
This report was initially bragged as Green by the PPD. The Merlin was then assessed by Adult Social Worker Shannon Miles who states police research is not required as the subject is known to Social Care or the incident does not raise safeguarding concerns which warrants information sharing. If it becomes apparent research is required, Adult Social Care are to make contact with the PPD.
Adults
The Care Act 2014 states there is a duty to undertake the safeguarding of adults where a local authority has reasonable cause to suspect that an adult in its area has need of care and support, or is experiencing, or is at risk of, abuse or neglect, and is unable to protect himself or herself against the abuse or neglect or the risk of it. The need to safeguard protecting a vulnerable subject is paramount and I believe in keeping with the directions in the Care Act 2014, the health, safety and wellbeing of the subject outweighs the public interest risk of not sharing this information

IF NO CONSENT/UNABLE TO CONSENT:
Because of the incident, I have considered the following;
1. The individuals need for care and support including mental health
2. The Individuals vulnerability to abuse or neglect
3. The Individuals ability to protect themselves, the impact on the individual and their wishes, and
4. The risk of repeated or increasingly serious acts involving children, this or another adult vulnerable to abuse or neglect. The intelligence gathered has led me to the decision that I am over riding consent and share with social care for their intervention or allocation and promote the welfare; along with

  Dear EIS / Simon
  Re: Mr Simon CORDELL (11214451)
  I would be grateful if you consider re-opening this referral. This pt is well known to you. I contacted him following a police report - threatening to kill his neighbour.
  On the phone he sounded thought disordered and paranoid.
  He would be agreeable to see EIS. I am aware you recently close his referral following DNAs for clinic-based appointments. He is probably more likely to engage if he is seen at home (2 workers!).
  I also contacted his mother. She was angry at previous contact with mental health services because Simon has found out - she thinks this will break what little relationship they have. She was reluctant to talk on that basis.
  Regards

Officers attended the location of Burncroft Avenue in relation to an allegation of threats to kill made towards the subject Simon CORDELL by a neighbour.
The neighbour stated to officers that on 31/05/2018 at approximately 1000Hours she was standing at her window with her two children which looks out onto the rear garden when the Simon has noticed her and shouted words to the effect of ' You fucking bitch' I'm gona fucking kill you and your children' ' iv got a bomb for you, I will get in your block and kill you'. This has alarmed viw causing distress resulting in her calling the police.
Simon is known to suffer from mental health issues. He was arrested for threats to kill and breach of injunction.
 YE PPD * * ***
This report was initially bragged as Green by the PPD. The Merlin was then assessed by Adult Social Worker Shannon Miles who states police research is not required as the subject is known to Social Care or the incident does not raise safeguarding concerns which warrants information sharing. If it becomes apparent research is required, Adult Social Care are to make contact with the PPD.
Adults
The Care Act 2014 states there is a duty to undertake the safeguarding of adults where a local authority has reasonable cause to suspect that an adult in its area has need of care and support, or is experiencing, or is at risk of, abuse or neglect, and is unable to protect himself or herself against the abuse or neglect or the risk of it. The need to safeguard and promote the welfare; along with protecting a vulnerable subject is paramount and I believe in keeping with the directions in the Care Act 2014, the health, safety and wellbeing of the subject outweighs the public interest risk of not sharing this information

IF NO CONSENT/UNABLE TO CONSENT:
Because of the incident, I have considered the following;

8. The individuals need for care and support including mental health
9. The individual's vulnerability to abuse or neglect
10. The individual's ability to protect themselves, the impact on the individual and their wishes, and
11. The risk of repeated or increasingly serious acts involving children, this or another adult vulnerable to abuse or neglect.
The intelligence gathered has led me to the decision that I am over riding consent and share with social care for their intervention or allocation.

Dear EIS / Simon
Re: Mr Simon CORDELL (11214451)
I would be grateful if you consider re-opening this referral. This pt is well known to you. I contacted him following a police report - threatening to kill his neighbour.
On the phone he sounded thought disordered and paranoid. He would be agreeable to see EIS. I am aware you recently close his referral following DNAs for clinic-based appointments. He is probably more likely to engage if he is seen at home (2 workers!). I also contacted his mother. She was angry at previous contact with mental health services because Simon has found out - she thinks this will break what little relationship they have. She was reluctant to talk on that basis.
Regards

Police notification received regarding contact on 31.5.18. Reported to have made threats to kill his neighbour and her children.
He was arrested for threats to kill and breach of an injunction - outcome not known.
Contacted by phone - no answer then he called me back.
Long conversation.
Mood labile- calm, polite to irritable, aroused, accusing Difficult to follow content ■ sounded thought disordered Rambling about previous contact with MH services - difficult to follow.
Legalise references, human right act. Believes his rights were breached & that he has proof of injustice / illegal treatment
Reference to being part of several companies. Health worker and government are part of different companies Thinks he has been "set up".
" If I give you an amp, I'll get 5 years"
"I've been illegally detained in my home for 9 years"
"The government is trying to push me out of the country"
"They are trying to label me as having a disease"
"I'm not a super grass"
Neighbour upstairs has MH problems (her name is familiar to me from previous team). He blames MH services for allowing her to live there and cause him problems.
Has placed cameras in every room to record evidence of things which happen - will use this to defend himself States he is preparing a case for the supreme court, also has built a website to record injustices Constantly collecting evidence
States he initially trusted Goode but felt let down when he was later assessed under MHA
Would be prepared to meet someone from EIS if they visited him at home - would like to discuss some of the evidence he has gathered.
Does not want CRHTT - thinks they acted illegally in the past" giving me medication when I was not section 117". Plan - forward referral to EIS

  Dear Steven Hall
  As stated on the news phone call there is a lot of issues, and I would like a meeting with miss Millichap.
  I don't think lusting the emails would help I believe she would have a much better view regarding the issues by seeing the paperwork and evidence, I feel this will be the only way this will not be covered up like it has been for far too long now.
  If you can let me know as soon as possible if Miss Millichap is willing to have a meeting if she is not, I will take it higher.

[SEC=OFFICIAL] - URGENT
Dear Clare,
Please see attached interim injunction order that the London Borough of Enfield obtained against a council housing tenant (Simon Cordell of 109 Burncroft Avenue) in January 18. We attended court on 30th May 18 as the matter was listed for the return date for the injunction and for an application for committal following incidents which we submit have breached the terms.
At the hearing DJ Dias was concerned about Mr Cordell's mental health following submissions from his mother in his absence.
Although we have no evidence that he does not have capacity the Judge wants to satisfy herself that there are no issues in him understanding the injunction and the proceedings. Therefore, she has made an order (a draft of which is attached) including that:
By 4pm on 13th June the Defendant shall undergo a medical assessment by the community mental health team at an appointment to be arranged of which the defendant (Simon Cordell) shall be given at least 24 hours' notice and a report shall be prepared in relation to the Defendant's capacity to litigate and capacity to understand the meaning of the interim injunction dated 9th January 18 and that report shall be filed at court and served on each party to the litigation.

Apologies for the short timescale but could you please arrange for an appointment to be given to the defendant (Simon Cordell) as per the court order in order for these issues to be clarified.
It would also be useful for some clarification about if Mr Cordell has been known to mental health services previously including the history and assessments or any previous sections etc
Please let me know if you need any more detail or wish to discuss this further
We await your reply

My Heart has really started to hurt me every day, I am having an early aged mild heart attacks because of what Debra Andrews and the MathiyalaganMarkandu family as well as stain Curtis and George Quinton get and got away with, inclusively of what the police and local council members are getting away with each day by holding me hostage with no first hand witness and then on allowing my estate members to carry out their hate crime in a cover up to send me crazy or to an early death by flushing the toilet below me and bagging at me causing me sufferings and no peace also letting the named attack me when I am in the bath tub and getting undressed and this does not stop their I continue to get assaulted with the water taps getting slammed on and off causing a loud bagging sound at a fast rate and slamming object and or jumping on the floorboards above my head damaging my work studies and private family life and making me a Vulnerable person!
I have also had a lot of problems with eating because of what they keep all doing to me!
My canine has victualing its paws because of what 113 – 117 and 111 are getting away with I have taken pictures of the damage this is doing to us in this flat!
If what they do to me finally kills me then it would also kill a lot of other people in the process!

Dear Steven Hall
As stated on the phone call there is a lot of issues, and I would like a meeting with miss Millichap. I don't think listing the issues would help I believe she would have a much better view regarding the issues by seeing the paperwork and evidence, I feel this will be the only way this will not be covered up like it has been for far too long now.
If you can let me know as soon as possible if miss Millichap is willing to have a meeting if she is not, I will take it higher.
Regards

Dear Steven Hall
It has been some time since we spoke and we exchanged emails, I have not heard from you since I wrote you the email below and would like to know if Miss Millichap is willing to have a meeting with me or not, I do not think it is too much to ask for a meeting, but it does seem that the police are not willing to act on this unless I give them full facts so it can be investigated before we have the meeting, as said before I do not feel this will work as there is a lot of concerns regarding more than one issue there is also a lot of paperwork I would like Miss Millichap to see.
If Miss Millichap is not willing to see me for a meeting, please let me know by 18/06/2018 as I will take it higher, I do not feel I should need to explain to others which has been done many times before with nothing coming of it and it’s just like no one was spoken to.

[00:00:30] I have a case that seems to be ongoing since 2016. They keep putting claims in against me I'm not once in the lower court. It's been like 3 4 claims put in against me claim numbers. Not every single one of these claims. I've had two of them strike out and I look to have the third one now strikes out the fourth one strike out as well. Yeah, but the judges decided to play in favour of misconduct. She's acting in target malice which is a 12-year sentence for any judge. I've already got the previous judges from other cases that are already going up for disciplinary action and I don't think we need a judge from the lower court from down in your ends going up for disciplinary action.
[00:01:11] Can I just stop you their Sir,
[00:01:11] Yeah go on.

[00:01:34] I cannot hear you other the phone. Nothing Will happen.
[00:01:38] OK, can I make an appointment please. Can I make an appointment? Emergency application appointment to bring my evidence down to that courtroom. Yeah. Can you give me.
[00:01:45] No, it does not work like that, if you have evidence, you can bring it and put it in the post-box inside, but you do not need to come.
[00:01:51] I have video evidence I have video evidence I have taped evidence you can't send video to any court email yet you do your emails do you not accept a court.
[00:02:01] You come to the court drop in the post box in an envelope.
[00:02:06] It is in a CD, I would like to call an emergency application meeting, I would like you to put a statutory declaration of notice in against, towards the judge and I would like an EGM.

[00:02:19] I do not understand what you are saying.
[00:02:19] A Statutory declaration of notice means.
[00:02:22] I'm recording this conversation I'm goanna be putting this online.
[00:02:25] I'm Going to get this phone because you are recording.
[00:02:27] I'm allowed to record I'm allowed to take minutes of any meetings of any conversations we have.

Disrepair!

The Enfield Council and Enfield home should always stay open-minded towards their mandatory duties of care towards their client such as myself rather than members of the staff avoiding to deal with emergency problems of disrepair, as keeps happening every day that goes past without the correct follow ups getting insulated so for the needed work that must get completed within my rented home finally taking place and then getting finished!

Telephone call from Simon, long conversation, asking about his appointment he has been offered for next week, who made the referral and why.
Same discussed and remembers that they had already spoken with lain Williams.
Difficult to follow his conversation and to interrupt.
Says he has been on a 10pm curfew for the past 9 years afraid to leave his house as he feels the police have set this up.
Mistaken identity reports he has read all give descriptions of different people, 4 in total, not him.
All happened because of a party on Lincoln Road, he was not involved but happened because people were disturbed by the noise.
Because of the curfew says he lost his relationship with his first love has or had a second girlfriend.

Said he has been dialling 999 they get 15,000 calls per day; their time is going backwards on their records and do not have a RUN number.
Says he does not have a mental illness no previous contact with services has been good.
Sectioned in the past human rights broken, people coming into his house, says he was giving them access.
Has tape recordings and LinkedIn, Facebook pages of all involved, has set up a web page.
Discussed that they reason I had contacted him was to offer an appointment next Tuesday 11am, asking why we are coming, offered to see at Lucas House instead he declined this says prefers to be seen at home.
Asked why I am not treating with dignity and respect that he has told me all about my colleagues and their treatment of him and I have not apologised to him and investigating.
Discussed that he has the right to compliant which he says he already has and knows how to make a complaint, reported that he was taping our conversation and was making a digital copy which he has made of most interactions with people.
He agreed to a home visit next week.

Telephone call from Simon, long conversation, asking about his appointment he has been offered for next week, who made the referral and why.
Same discussed and remembers that they had already spoken with lain Williams. Difficult to follow his conversation and to interrupt. Says he has been on a 10pm curfew for the past 9 years afraid to leave his house as he feels the police have set this up. Mistaken identity reports he has read all give descriptions of different people, 4 in total, not him. All happened because of a party on Lincoln Road, he was not involved but happened because people were disturbed by the noise. Because of the curfew says he lost his relationship with his first love has or had a second girlfriend. Said he has been dialling 999 they get 15,000 calls per day; their time is going backwards on their records and do not have a RUN number.
Says he does not have a mental illness no previous contact with services has been good. Sectioned in the past human rights broken, people coming into his house, says he was giving them access. Has tape recordings and linked in, Facebook pages of all involved, has set up a web page. Discussed that they reason I had contacted him was to offer an appointment next Tuesday 11am, asking why we are coming, offered to see at Lucas House instead he declined this says prefers to be seen at home. Asked why I am not treating with dignity and respect that he has told me all about my colleagues and their treatment of him and I have not apologised to him and investigating. Discussed that he has the right to compliant which he says he already has and knows how to make a complaint, reported that he was taping our conversation and was making a digital copy which he has made of most interactions with people. Telephone call from Simon's mother Lorraine Cordell. Sounded tearful on the phone, reported that she has spoken with Simon and he told her that we went to see him today, myself and Amal. Said that he told her that the appointment went well and that we had told him there is nothing mentally wrong with him, that he does not need psychiatric services and is well. Says she is finding it distressing, very worried about her son as she believes, and everyone else can see that her son is ill. Said he is struggling to cope, not leaving the house, feels persecuted by his neighbours. Not managing the court case well. Believes that the has lost trust in services and feels he needs to build trust with professionals again.
Reported that when she was in court the information that was given was that her son had PTSD and was discharged form services, believes it was inaccurate and did not know where the information came from, though perhaps it was lain Williams as he had around the same time called to speak to Simon about his referral.

Discussed that we would need Simon's consent to discuss his case. Reported that her mother suffered with schizophrenia and she has a lot of experience around people who have mental illness not believing they have a mental health problem and don't require treatment. Says she is happy to encourage her son to engage with services as far as possible.

can you check the attached documents I want to send the court and say if it ok to send it please? it has to be short and to the point as Enfield council have not followed orders from the court 498,
Court-Letter-15th June 2018.pdf
15th June 2018 Case Ref: E00ED049
Attention of Judge Dias
I am writing this letter regarding the above case ref: E00ED049 and the hearing that took place on the 30th May 2018.
As stated, Mr Cordell did not attend court on this day due to him being unwell, this was explained to the court when we asked for the case to have an adjournment due to Mr Cordell being unwell.
A list of details was spoken about and at the end of the hearing you asked the barrister for the claimant to write the details down email them to you and you would then sign them off.
I have been waiting for the court order to be sent and as of today's date 15th June 2018 I have not had anything sent to me via the claimant.
In this time since the hearing on the 30th June 2018 I have called the court 3 times and been told there was nothing on the system and it can take up to two weeks. Today however I spoke to Paul and was told the order was sent out on the 05th June 2018 which the claimant was meant to send to me which they have not, I would say that the claimants would have had this order by now and cannot understand why they have not sent it as they were the ones that put the application in on the 14th May 2018 asking the court to make the order that everything is sent to me. Which I still need to make an application to the court to be able to get this removed, I do not believe the court should have accepted a without notice application from the claimants to the court regarding having all documents served on me without me being there.
At this point of time, I am not aware of anything that was due to take place and the claimants have not had any contact with me at all.
I need the order from the court so an application can be put to the court regarding many issues.
There are many issues I feel that happened in court on the 30th June 2018, but due to the claimant barrister stating in court that I was not allowed to speak on behalf of Mr Cordell I was not allowed to say the information was misleading which was stated in court. As you stated it was helpful me being there as you could ask things to me, but I still am very unsure as to why an adjournment was not granted due to Mr Cordell being unwell as this was not stated in court. It just seemed the claimant barrister in fact was saying I was not telling the truth that Mr Cordell was unwell, and you just seemed to accept that, and the hearing carried on.
I would also like to be able to pick up from the court the 3 bundles I handed in with my application of the 29th May 2018 which was not heard by the court as I will need the 3 bundles so that I am able to make a court application.
But as of today's date, 15th June 2018 I have had no information to the order that claimant barrister done for the court and sent to the court and was signed off by you so have no idea what is going on.
Regards
Lorraine Cordell

Dear Mrs Cordell
Please can you let me know if you have sent me those statements that you mentioned in a telephone conversation, by e-mail as I have not received them yet.
Please could you also confirm if Simon has seen a doctor yet about his finger, I know from our conversation he was not willing to go, and I was wondering if that was still the case.
Many Thanks

Dear Steven Hall
I was wondering if there was any update this has now been ongoing since the 24 May 2018 when I made the call and asked for a meeting to be setup. I cannot understand why it is taking this long to get a meeting setup. In my last email I asked for this to be addressed by today the 18/06/2018 which it has not as I not heard back to saying if a meeting will be setup or not.
Could you pls get back to me as soon as possible to address this.

Dear Steven Hall
It has been some time since we spoke and we exchanged emails, I have not heard from you since I wrote you the email below and would like t know if Miss Millichap is willing to have a meeting with me or not, I do not think it is too much to ask for a meeting, but it does seem that the police are not willing to act on this unless I give them full facts so it can be investigated before we have the meeting, as said before I do not feel this will work as there is a lot of concerns regarding more than one issue there is also a lot of paperwork I would like Miss Millichap to see. If Miss Millichap is not willing to see me for a meeting, please let me know by 18/06/2018 as I will take it higher, I do not feel I should need to explain to others which has been done many times before with nothing coming of it and it's just like no one was spoken to.

Dear Steven Hall
As stated on the phone call there is a lot of issues, and I would like a meeting with miss Millichap. I don't think listing the issues would help I believe she would have a much better view regarding the issues by seeing the paperwork and evidence, I feel this will be the only way this will not be covered up like it has been for far too long now. If you can let me know as soon as possible if miss Millichap is willing to have a meeting if she is not, I will take it higher.

Telephone call from Simon, long conversation, asking about his appointment he has been offered for next week, who made the referral and why. Same discussed and remembers that they had already spoken with lain Williams. Difficult to follow his conversation and to interrupt. Says he has been on a 10pm curfew for the past 9 years afraid to leave his house as he feels the police have set this up. Mistaken identity, reports he has read all give descriptions of different people, 4 in total, not him. All happened because of a party on Lincoln Road, he was not involved but happened because people were disturbed by the noise. Because of the curfew says he lost his relationship with his first love has or had a second girlfriend. Said he has been dialling 999 they get 15,000 calls per day; their time is going backwards on their records and do not have a RUN number.

Says he does not have a mental illness no previous contact with services has been good. Sectioned in the past human rights broken, people coming into his house, says he was giving them access. Has tape recordings and linked in, Facebook pages of all involved, has set up a web page. Discussed that they reason I had contacted him was to offer an appointment next Tuesday 11am, asking why we are coming, offered to see at Lucas House instead he declined this says prefers to be seen at home. Asked why I am not treating with dignity and respect that he has told me all about my colleagues and their treatment of him and I have not apologised to him and investigating. Discussed that he has the right to compliant which he says he already has and knows how to make a complaint, reported that he was taping our conversation and was making a digital copy which he has made of most interactions with people. He agreed to a home visit next week. The home visit is with EIS Amal Pomphrey.

Telephone call from Simon's mother Lorraine Cordell. Sounded tearful on the phone, reported that she has spoken with Simon and he told her that we went to see him today, myself and Amal. Said that he told her that the appointment went well and that we had told him there is nothing mentally wrong with him, that he does not need psychiatric services and is well. Says she is finding it distressing, very worried about her son as she believes, and everyone else can see that her son is ill. Said he is struggling to cope, not leaving the house, feels persecuted by his neighbours. Not managing the court case well. Believes that the has lost trust in services and feels he needs to build trust with professionals again.
Reported that when she was in court the information that was given was that her son had PTSD and was discharged form services, believes it was inaccurate and did not know where the information came from, though perhaps it was lain Williams as he had around the same time called to speak to Simon about his referral.
Discussed that we would need Simon’s consent to discuss his case. Reported that her mother suffered with schizophrenia and she has a lot of experience around people who have mental illness not believing they have a mental health problem and don't require treatment. Says she is happy to encourage her son to engage with services as far as possible.

Home visit today as arranged with Amal Pomphrey from EIS. Client previously under EIS from 2015 discharged in January this year, difficult to engage. History well known so not repeated.
Simon was friendly and welcoming into his home. Put his pet dog outside in the garden, visible through patio doors. Dog appeared in good health though Simon reported that his dog is stressed about his neighbours the police and mental health services to the point it has chewed some of the fur off his front paws.
Simon stood for some time keen to talk about the evidence he has gathered against the police, and local authority, has taped and logged everything on a website. Showed his website says not live as yet, all he has to do is click a button and it will show how he has been unfairly treated by the local authority and police. Website and all written video and audio recordings linked.

Showed a couple of examples CCTV inside his flat, conversation with ASBO team and written documents. Also showed us paper files that the has maintained in large ring binders, containing copies of e-mails and all correspondence. Informed us that he tapes all conversations he has with health, local authority and police staff. Has CCTV cameras placed internally and externally around his flat?
Spoke of how his issues began many years ago trouble with the police over holding illegal parties. Reported that he is currently not going out feels afraid. No restrictions placed on him regarding going out other than not allowed in Industrial areas or 24-hour venues such as MacDonald's or Tesco's. Reported recently in court with regards to his neighbour, representing himself does not feel he needs a solicitor. Recommendation is that he has an assessment with a psychiatrist. However, said he will not attend as the letter has not been properly dated and stamped and therefore believes he is not bound by it.
Mental state:
Simon was casually dressed, his hygiene appeared fair. He maintained good eye contact and rapport. His speech appeared slightly pressured difficult to interrupt but not irritable when interrupted.
Grandiose ideas around his intelligence, says he is a millionaire property from wealthy relatives who have deceased, successful businesses, earning hundreds and thousands of pounds.
Paranoid about his neighbours, believes they and others have spread information that he may have had herpes. Paranoid delusions believe his neighbours are deliberately following him from room to room banging on his ceiling. Believes they want to kill him. Though he did not express any thoughts of wanting to harm anyone. Believes he is being paid to look after vulnerable people in poor situations.
Appears to be a mood element to his condition pressured speech grandiose, tangential jumping from topic to topic. However, reported that at times his mood can be depressed and upset by his neighbours. On one occasion he drank some liquid in an attempt to poison himself, found by mother and taken to A&E discharged. Denied having any current suicidal ideation or thought to harm himself.
There was no evidence of any hallucinations. Personality appears to be intact.
Simon appears to lack insight, asked if he believes he has a mental health condition denied this said he has never taken medication as he does not believe he has any mental health problem to require medication.
Impression:
37-year-old male appears to have had a difficult childhood spoke about scars on his legs from beatings form his father. Wants to protect children, and vulnerable people believes it is his duty. 2015 diagnosed with psychotic illness and referred to EIS does not appear to have engaged with treatment offered, previously prescribed Olanzapine. Does not appear to require crisis team or mental health act assessment at this time. But would benefit from assertive follow up in the community. EIS state that has gone beyond EIS three-year treatment period. Plan therefore to refer to North Locality Team Locality Team. E-mail sent.
EIS agree to liaise and advise court regarding the request for a report.

Telephone call from Simon's mother Lorraine Cordell.
Sounded tearful on the phone, reported that she has spoken with Simon and he told her that we went to see him today, myself and Amal. Said that he told her that the appointment went well and that we had told him there is nothing mentally wrong with him, that he does not need psychiatric services and is well.
Says she is finding it distressing, very worried about her son as she believes, and everyone else can see that her son is ill.
Said he is struggling to cope, not leaving the house, feels persecuted by his neighbours. Not managing the court case well. Believes that the has lost trust in services and feels he needs to build trust with professionals again.
Reported that when she was in court the information that was given was that her son had PTSD and was discharged form services, believes it was inaccurate and did not know where the information came from, though perhaps it was lain Williams as he had around the same time called to speak to Simon about his referral.
Discussed that we would need Simon's consent to discuss his case. Reported that her mother suffered with schizophrenia and she has a lot of experience around people who have mental 3971, illness not believing they have a mental health problem and don't require treatment. Says she is happy to encourage her son to engage with services as far as possible.

Home visit today as arranged with Amal Pomphrey from EIS. Client previously under EIS from 2015 discharged in January this year, difficult to engage. History well known so not repeated.

Simon was friendly and welcoming into his home. Put his pet dog outside in the garden, visible through patio doors. Dog appeared in good health though Simon reported that his dog is stressed about his neighbours the police and mental health services to the point it has chewed some of the fur off his front paws.
Simon stood for some time keen to talk about the evidence he has gathered against the police, and local authority, has taped and logged everything on a website. Showed his website says not live as yet, all he has to do is click a button and it will show how he has been unfairly treated by the local authority and police. Website and all written video and audio recordings linked. Showed a couple of examples CCTV inside his flat, conversation with ASBO team and written documents. Also showed us paper files that the has maintained in large ring binders, containing copies of e-mails and all correspondence. Informed us that he tapes all conversations he has with health, local authority and police staff. Has CCTV cameras placed internally and externally around his flat?
Spoke of how his issues began many years ago trouble with the police over holding illegal parties. Reported that he is currently not going out feels afraid. No restrictions placed on him regarding going out other than not allowed in Industrial areas or 24-hour venues such as MacDonald's or Tesco's. Reported recently in court with regards to his neighbour, representing himself does not feel he needs a solicitor. Recommendation is that he has an assessment with a psychiatrist. However, said he will not attend as the letter has not been properly dated and stamped and therefore believes he is not bound by it.
Mental state:
Simon was casually dressed, his hygiene appeared fair. He maintained good eye contact and rapport. His speech appeared slightly pressured difficult to interrupt but not irritable when interrupted.
Grandiose ideas around his intelligence, says he is a millionaire property from wealthy relatives who have deceased, successful businesses, earning hundreds and thousands of pounds. Paranoid about his neighbours, believes they and others have spread information that he may have had herpes. Paranoid delusions believe his neighbours are deliberately following him from room to room banging on his ceiling. Believes they want to kill him. Though he did not express any thoughts of wanting to harm anyone. Believes he is being paid to look after vulnerable people in poor situations.
Appears to be a mood element to his condition pressured speech grandiose, tangential jumping from topic to topic. However, reported that at times his mood can be depressed and upset by his neighbours. On one occasion he drank some liquid in an attempt to poison himself, found by mother and taken to A&E discharged. Denied having any current suicidal ideation or thought to harm himself.
There was no evidence of any hallucinations. Personality appears to be intact.
Simon appears to lack insight, asked if he believes he has a mental health condition denied this said he has never taken medication as he does not believe he has any mental health problem to require medication.
Impression:
37-year-old male appears to have had a difficult childhood spoke about scars on his legs from beatings form his father. Wants to protect children, and vulnerable people believes it is his duty. 2015 diagnosed with psychotic illness and referred to EIS does not appear to have engaged with treatment offered, previously prescribed Olanzapine. Does not appear to require crisis team or mental health act assessment at this time. But would benefit from assertive follow up in the community. EIS state that has gone beyond EIS three-year treatment period. Plan therefore to refer to North Locality Team Locality Team. E-mail sent.
EIS agree to liaise and advise court regarding the request for a report.

Closed to EIS.

Summary!

My Heart has really started to hurt me every day, I am having an early aged mild heart attacks because of what Debra Andrews and the Mathiyalagan Markandu family as well as stain Curtis and George Quinton get and got away with, inclusively of what the police and local council members are getting away with each day by holding me hostage with no first hand witness and then on allowing my estate members to carry out their hate crime in a cover up to send me crazy or to an early death by flushing the toilet below me and bagging at me causing me sufferings and no peace also letting the named attack me when I am in the bath tub and getting undressed and this does not stop their I continue to get assaulted with the water taps getting slammed on and off causing a loud bagging sound at a fast rate and slamming object and or jumping on the floorboards above my head damaging my work studies and private family life and making me a Vulnerable person!
I have also had a lot of problems with eating because of what they keep all doing to me!
My canine has victualing its paws because of what 113 – 117 and 111 are getting away with I have taken pictures of the damage this is doing to us in this flat!
If what they do to me finally kills me then it would also kill a lot of other people in the process!

Disrepair!

I ended up receiving a service from the Enfield Councils and the Enfield Homes team's staff that caused me intentional infliction of emotional distress from their reckless disregard of lack of concern in addressing the damp issues within my flat!

Dear Trishna Please see attached documents that were sent from Enfield Council yesterday Kerai the 21/06/2018, sent to my email at 17:40 which I did not see till this morning.
They say they have put a hard copy in the post to me as of yet nothing has come.
They have not done anything of the order of 12/06/2018 we have had no dates for Simon to go see any doctors, yet on the order it states everything was meant to be done by the 13/06/2018, but yet the court order is dated the 12/06/2018

The only reason I got the order is I called the court 3 times 2 of them times I was told nothing was on the system and that it can take 2 weeks for us to get the order, the last call on the 15/06/2018 on the I spoke with Paul a member of court staff he said he did not know why I did not have the order and sent it in the post to me so I got that on the 19/06/2018 and I called Kiran.
I said to Kiran I will do a write-up over the next few days and send it to give a sort of time line things happened.

Lorraine

Thank you for the update really need to know if they will do the adjournment, and they have done nothing not even got the bundles to me on time, and never sent the court order of the 30/06/2018, when this should have been emailed to me as soon as they got it but was not, it was lucky I was calling the court.
But it's the same old thing and they just want to rail road my son, and why is none of the orders signed by a judge as they should have been, and why are they allowing an employment judge to hear this sort of case.

We offered him an assessment to establish if he had a current mental health problem that we could offer treatment for
Our offer to assess him was not connected to any legal matters. It might assist the Court to have an assessment from a specialist Forensic Psychiatrist who are experts in mentally disordered offenders and risk assessment and management

Dear Dr Scurlock,
I am the solicitor in conduct of a claim for an injunction against Mr Cordell and write in response to your email to Kaunchita Maudhub on 15th June 2018. I would need further clarification on the content of your email and hope you will be able to respond as soon as possible as a hearing has been listed on Tuesday 26th June 2018.

1. You explained that you have been trying to see Mr Cordell but he has not attended the assessments offered to him although he has phoned the assessment team.
2. Can you please confirm the dates of the assessments offered to Mr Cordell and details of the conversations that were held?
3. You mentioned that he had contact with various mental health teams and had one brief admission on the Haringey assessment ward in August 2016.
4. Will it be possible to have details of the contacts held and the assessment that was carried out? If possible, we would like a detailed history of the contacts/ admissions so we could provide the information to the Court.
5. You suggested that a report is to be commissioned from a Consultant Forensic Psychiatrist from North London Forensic Service as this is not something you would provide.
6. Can you please confirm what would the report achieve? If this is not a service you could provide, why did you department contact Mr Cordell and offered him an assessment in the first place?

I look forward to hearing from you.
Kind regards,

Dear Trishna Kerai
Please see attached documents that were sent from Enfield Council yesterday the 21/06/2018, sent to my email at 17:40 which I did not see till this morning.
They say they have put a hard copy in the post to me as of, yet nothing has come.
They have not done anything of the order of 12/06/2018 we have had no dates for Simon to go see any doctors, yet on the order it states everything was meant to be done by the 13/06/2018, but yet the court order is dated the 12/06/2018
The only reason I got the order is I called the court 3 times 2 of them times I was told nothing was on the system and that it can take 2 weeks for us to get the order, the last call on the 15/06/2018 on the I spoke with Paul a member of court staff he said he did not know why I did not have the order and sent it in the post to me so I got that on the 19/06/2018 and I called Kiran.

I said to Kiran I will do a write-up over the next few days and send it to give a sort of timeline things happened.
Regards
Lorraine

Summary!

My Heart has really started to hurt me every day, I am having an early aged mild heart attacks because of what Debra Andrews and the Mathiyalagan Markandu family as well as stain Curtis and George Quinton get and got away with, inclusively of what the police and local council members are getting away with each day by holding me hostage with no first hand witness and then on allowing my estate members to carry out their hate crime in a cover up to send me crazy or to an early death by flushing the toilet below me and bagging at me causing me sufferings and no peace also letting the named attack me when I am in the bath tub and getting undressed and this does not stop their I continue to get assaulted with the water taps getting slammed on and off causing a loud bagging sound at a fast rate and slamming object and or jumping on the floorboards above my head damaging my work studies and private family life and making me a Vulnerable person!
I have also had a lot of problems with eating because of what they keep all doing to me!
My canine has victualing its paws because of what 113 – 117 and 111 are getting away with I have taken pictures of the damage this is doing to us in this flat!
If what they do to me finally kills me then it would also kill a lot of other people in the process!

I found this unamusing because it's of no fault of my own and I feel as if when I should get supported by the Enfield Council and then four times within their statutory duties in rectifying the disrepair issues within my home such as the non-existent heating!

Summary!

My Heart has really started to hurt me every day, I am having an early aged mild heart attacks because of what Debra Andrews and the Mathiyalagan Markandu family as well as stain Curtis and George Quinton get and got away with, inclusively of what the police and local council members are getting away with each day by holding me hostage with no first hand witness and then on allowing my estate members to carry out their hate crime in a cover up to send me crazy or to an early death by flushing the toilet below me and bagging at me causing me sufferings and no peace also letting the named attack me when I am in the bath tub and getting undressed and this does not stop their I continue to get assaulted with the water taps getting slammed on and off causing a loud bagging sound at a fast rate and slamming object and or jumping on the floorboards above my head damaging my work studies and private family life and making me a Vulnerable person!
I have also had a lot of problems with eating because of what they keep all doing to me!

My canine has victualing its paws because of what 113 – 117 and 111 are getting away with I have taken pictures of the damage this is doing to us in this flat!
If what they do to me finally kills me then it would also kill a lot of other people in the process!

I am writing this email to find out if an adjournment has been granted by the court in case number EOOED049, the hearing is due to take place on the 26th June 2018, but we only got the count order from the hearing 30/06/2018 on the 19/06/2018 due to calling the court and Paul a member of staff sending it out.
We have asked for a solicitor to deal with this case and I know they wrote to the court last week asking for an adjournment, they called the count on the 22/06/2018 and was told they would get a reply to their request for an adjournment. I know this morning they had not heard from the court and called and was asked to send some things over to the court in order to deal with this adjournment, therefore could I please be advised if the adjournment was granted by the court.

00:02 Good morning, Barnet and Haringey mental Health Trust afternoon, good afternoon, Barnet and Harringay mental Health Care Marie speaking, how can I help.
00:04 Hello Marie It's Mr. Simon Cordell speaking here and I'm an Enfield um, tenant. I've been told, I've been informed today on the telephone that I'm supposed to be yet again having another appointment for an assessment within side of my own home by a mental health department team.

00:24 And I'm very concerned about the abuse of process cause this will be the 74th time that I've had to spend 74th day of my life recently that I have had to spend with these doctors why they're trying to set me up to, to, to be able to prescribe me as mentally ill when there's nothing wrong with me.
00:40 Right.
00:40 The reason that they again wanted to, sorry, I'm just wanting to continue to reason that yet again, we'll need to have another meet and it's because the number of judges concerned in another case in which they're trying to set off in an Asbo on me. They're trying to make the Asbo set of so I'll get to five years in prison because they know they was missing all the signatures in the beginning. Just they're just labelled either disease in the general public breach in my personal DPA when I never had nothing wrong with me. And I've got water recordings of the clinics for that. Plus, I bought all your doctors, Simon Clark, all the directors, our cooker and all that in my house. And I've got recordings of them in my house.
01:11 Right, Are you under Simon Clark's team.
01:14 Um, I think that once upon a time I was but, I think because of the complaint that I put in regards to him in the recordings I have of him, I think he's been pushed to the side. He got labelled that he wasn't the manager for five minutes or the director for five minutes? No, not a director, no more. Now he's a manager because when he dealt with me, he was a director and I've got recordings obviously and I made a website and that now, uh, and I got everything ready to go.
01:38 I wouldn't cause I'm scared in threat of what you're doing tomorrow. I'm about to go public and that's going to ruin over 150 people's homes and lives because I've got 150 names on my wall and I'm concerned about you lot. I'm goanna go public right now.
01:52 Right, Hold on, hold on. Um, what is this about an assessment.
01:58 Yes, this is another assessment and the 70 75th assessment that I've got in my diary of you is not containing me. That's the day is included that I had to spend in St Anne's hospital. And every time I've gone to a Tribune when people that there's nothing wrong with me. This is all started because I'm writing a nine-year curfew inside of my house right now, which is illegal for a terrorist to even do a nine-year curfew.
02:19 Right, Okay, hold on, hold on. You're gone way too fast for me now.
02:23 Are you on the community treatment order
02:25 no? No, there's nothing I've had. What initially happened is in 2014 I had a police case put against me. I won the police case after a year and it barred me from the whole of central London and it barred me from going anywhere. Like I had to signed on at police station at four o'clock in the day time, plus I had to be on curfew by eight o'clock after a year of being on this, um, curfew, I won the case. But in the meantime, of that, it made me and my thirteen-year relationship breakup. She left the door and I couldn't go out and chase her cause I was on curfew. I met another partner. Got with another partner. She was of a different ethnicity to; she was white and basically, I was looking after her child. We were all happy. There were no problems.
03:04 We had our own, but we she like she got a spot on the top of her arse when she went to go and check and see if she was having a baby. She come back and told me, while I was painting the kid's bedroom that she had this spot on her ass and that she was then on getting checked for herpes. Yeah. I said, it's not a problem. We'd be together. We were together for a few months. I come back home and I have a fit in my own home for five seconds. A little hunky Dunky Dory, one of my neighbours over hear and phone up the police. The police phone you lot up Yeah. And Use lot send out loads of people hmm, doctors to my front door. And you couldn't get access to,

03:35 Right and when was this?
03:36 This all started in 2014.
03:38 So, we are talking about 2014.
03:38 Year, and now because of year, and right now today because of the case, because, of the missing, because of all of this the police set me up and they gave me nine years. They went missing all their signatures on the application. So, each police officer done four statements pretending that four different people got kept up at one party that I never really through, I copied the Facebook profile which proves I never threw that party. It was somebody else. And I also looked and noticed that on the four statements of the people that got kept up overnight. There were no signatures at the bottom of them, so now each police officer has done for statements with no signatures that I've got the true Facebook accounts that I got set up for, yeah. Plus, on top of having the Facebook account, I've got police officers, statements from different boroughs proven that they initially pulled the party over when I wasn't there and they've, they stopped the people and wrote their names down as the organizers.
04:25 Now all of a sudden, because I'm complaining on the telephone about these things, which are my human rights, they're telling me down the phone that I'm a dead man, that I've been robbed. They're spreading stuff about me and my partners now. I've had your now because of that, your doctors started to come to my front doors, "seven" 52 times. They've come to my front door in my diary and I've got all the recordings for them all transcribed now, 24, something like 14 days in the hospital. I had to spend, which are one the case as well at tribunal now because I'm still complaining about these missing signatures and I've got to write another two and a half years in my house still. Yeah, from 20014 now until 2020 November. Yeah, and I'm refusing to ride another two and a half years and walk. I'm scared to walk out of my house before 10 o'clock for the curfew because the police are trying to grab me.
05:10 They're are trying to get in my house and put injunctions on me in my house on top.
05:13 of the one outside of my house. Now that now another judge has got worried because I've noticed that they're missing a load of stuff in the case again and what she's gone and done. is said, I've got have another order, but I let your doctors into my house less than a week ago and I've got them on recording a week ago again, and they were more than happy in my house and the recordings shows that they were happy and I don't see why I should have done another assessment.
05:35 Okay. who have you last had contact with?
05:40 I had two ladies come to my house. I've got them on recording their names, but I'm dealing with so many different names right now and I'm two trans comes, I can't remember their names, but I built a website, do you have googled available to you.
05:52 I don't my computers are not working our network is down.
06:00 Err, because.
06:00 Today
06:00 our computers are not working today
06:00 Yeah. I'm just, trying to get to the bottom of this um, can I take your name
06:05 My name is Mr. Simon Cordell.
06:08 Simon Cordell.
06:09 Yep.
06:09 The Judge is basically ordering it right now because she's saying that they; because they have put an Asbo on me outside of my house. Since they've done that, they have put a possession, order on me inside of my house they are trying to take my home.

06:20 Right, you one.
06:20 to try and ban me from the country. Yeah. Then after the possession order,
06:24 right.
06:24 sorry.
06:24 No go on
06:26 Sorry to interrupt but this is the mental health act office.
06:28 yeah.
06:31 Um, "WE KILL PEOPLE WHO, UM WHO ARE DETAINED ON SECTION, UM, ARE YOU UNDER SECTION?"
06:41 No, I'm section, yeah, of course. With them. Of course. With them. Of course. I'm not saying I've never been section, there's never been, nothing wrong with me. I've had to spend since.
06:49 Right, O.K.
06:49 I've been complaining about these signatures missing and being held in my house on a nine year curfew, that I've had the doctors come and attack me 73 times. The first time they come and attack me. Come with Simon Clark. Now, I had a record in my house. They come with council officers, police officers and everything.
07:05 Right, O.K.
07:05 Yeah, no, I've got that recording now. They all break down. The whole team breaks down the mental health team breakdown on that recording and they admit that they've filled in a section one 135 to get into my house illegally saying I wouldn't give them access.
07:18 Right, Ok.
07:18 when I had a meeting with them two days prior yet again.
07:21 Okay. So, when was this section 135 just one, three, five, one? When was that? What did that 07:26 the one 135 was issued in 2014 yeah. Si Note: I Should have said 2016"
07:29 year , Oh, Right, so we are still talking about 2014 then.
07:29 Year that's right. "Si note this was the wrong date said by myself"
07:32 yeah. Now, now in 2014. I'm writing an official complaint. Even now, I'm with the NHS advocacy in regards to it. I built a website and I've got all the audio recordings of them doctors coming in my house with a fake section 135 and admitting that we have filled it in illegally and all that and I have put them in the website. Yeah, now I have gone and built all brand-new pdf books, digital books that you flip open and everything and put all the pages of everything happens every day. I've kept an official report, year and I've done all the problem statements, factual questions and everything. Yeah. For it now. Yeah. Now these people that are working in your department, I believe we're going to be putting to disciplinary very shortly and they, you know, not themselves and I let all try to avoid evade disciplinary and they're not, they're trying to attack me again and they want in my house again and they want to label me as crazy when there's nothing actually wrong with me.
08:21 Yeah. And this is the 75th time that they're attempting to do it now. I knew that they would, that the judge was concerned about another case the other day that they've sent me up for that they have put a possession order in against me on top of the Asbo for nine years. They put an in junctional order in against me while in my house after the nine years and they put another injunction order and then another injunction order. Yeah. These people got five. Five People got hired into the civic centre Enfield. Yeah, because it takes Enfield Council and the Metropolitan Police to make an Asbo and a victim. Yeah. Now they never had no victim the council and the police. I've got all the signatures of them having the meetings, which they have to do by law in the council office. Yeah. Now because I'd been phoned the council saying, well, you're missing your signatures.

09:05 Please. Can you call an emergency general meeting, an EGM meeting and can you go back to the court rather than me, write to you lot, um, and putting, um, down all the corruption and the missing signatures and the timestamps that are wrong to your call centres? In the paperwork, it says that I'm a white person committed the crimes. Yeah. It says that all white males and all females are the ones that done it. Yeah. But I'm not even white, so how can I, now I've got the recording of all the doctors coming in my house and showing them all of this evidence. Yeah. And they're all going, yeah, you're right Simon. You're right, Simon. Now for some reason these doctors all admitting it on the recordings that I'm correct when we're going through all of the folders in my hose but they keep attacking me and keep coming to my front door and keep on wanting assessments.
09:47 Oh, Right Simon Um, is there a social worker that you are under?
09:51 I don't have no social worker. I'm a director, I'm and I'm a young person that is set to be an entrepreneur. I've built the festival papers I need to build; I've built everything. I've built print companies ready to establish. I'm legally not allowed to trade any company with inside my house or start any company in my house. If I want to work for any festival, I have to go to Enfield Council and they're the only Borough that I am aloud to work with. And I, and I've wrote to the other 32 boroughs and they've all said I'm not allowed to work with them because the order says.
10:18 the Organization of illegal raves. Yeah. But on the thing, I never got arrested. If something's illegal, you must be arrested for it. They never arrested me and gave me a nine-year curfew. The maximum sentence, if they did arrest me six months. So, you would only do three months in prison if the maximum sentence for any person caught doing parties is six months. So, why am I riding a nine-year curfew and I never even got arrested. Yeah. And now all these doctors are admitting what I'm saying is correct on tape, but they keep abusing their position and that's a criminal offense, breach of positions is it is a breach of process. Fair process. Yeah.
10:52 Simon, . What would, what would you like us to help you, how would you like us to move forward?
10:57 I would like, so I would like to, I would like the person that's supposed to be um, contact the person that's supposed to be coming to my house tomorrow, um,.
11:04 Right.
11:04 To contact me today.
11:06 Ok.
11:06 In regards to that me and if it has to be put over to another date,.
11:09 Right, OK.
11:09 I'd like it to be put forward to another date.
11:11 Okay. Okay. So, I'll take it. There was an appointment that there was someone due to come see you.
11:17 I had some body come to meet me less than, um, a week, two weeks, a week ago I called to called your departments and they sent two nurses and two nurses.
11:25 Ok.
11:25 they come in my house.
11:27 and you can't remember their names?
11:29 I got them on the recordings, but I have to play the recordings back to myself. I'm still not yet to transcribe them up.
11:34 Yeah.

11:35 I'm trying desperately to help you hear Simon and my network is down, our network is down if I could, if I could put you through to a team, I could could've done it by now. Um, but you can't remember the name. Um, what's, what's your date of birth?
11:49 26 of the first 1981 I just want to know who's coming to my house tomorrow.
11:55 Okay. Um, you mentioned Simon Clark several times to me.
12:00 Yeah. that was in the beginning of it all. And He, since I've, I've pinpointed him out he is disappeared sort of thing, but they keep sending all of their colleagues to my address.
12:10 Okay. And are those colleagues, do you think they come under Simon Clarks Team?
12:15 Um, some of them I initially did when, when the lady that come here the other day, Elaine, her name was, I think one of them is Elaine.
12:20 Yeah, Right, O.k.
12:22 Now, she, she was the one that had done, wrong, what I'm upset about is she's one of the people that I had on recording. Yeah. She's the main one that filled in the section 135 in 2014 illegally. Now, the other day I phoned up and arranged a meeting with use lot. They come out to my house and it's the same woman that I've got the complaint in against, sitting there listening.
12:39 Right.
12:39 I sill said to her that even low I know it's, you that I have got the complaint in against just come into my house. Anyway, I let her in my house anyway and I showed her everything that I have been building, against her yeah and then and I've got all that on recording on my dictator and on the video cameras in my front room and that I know she's, there run out and left. Now I've got some new doctors coming again tomorrow and I don't think why do the doctors need to keep coming to my home.
13:03 Right, Okay, well I can't answer that to be honest, hmm, right,
13:14 there in the recordings admitting that there's no signatures and tat white people commit the case. The doctors I have played I have showed all the doctors, my hospital notes saying that I didn't have no disease in 14 in this front room and I showed them, I paid audio, audio recordings of me speaking to those clinics as well. Then they still get all this happened to me, Shannon and Heidi till date and they've let all these rumours be spread about us and endangered our lives.
13:36 O.k.
13:36 To cover up these signatures.
13:38 Alright.
13:38 Now these doctors are trying to kill me and get me put into a hospital. I've already spent two weeks on my life inside of a hospital, when after getting labelled as a disease and they were so horrible. Judy Krzanich, the head of the hospital put me in front of a sex clinic in St Ann's. Now I'm watching all these girls queue up in St Ann's and I have to say to them and there banging at me from upstairs knowing what the neighbours were doing before I said to them, why?
13:58 Why are you lot?, Um, why are all of these girls going inside of there? they go that is a sex clinic sex, So, I was like so there is a sex clinic in here and I wrote them a waver and told them to go inside to the sex clinic and check with Evergreen Clinic and see if I've ever had anything wrong with me. Cause Evergreen clinics where I've always gone and they've always gave me my letters proving that there was nothing wrong with me. I had blood tests done after Shannon showed me the spot. I forced them. They said that they don't want to do tests because it's so common. A forced the blood test. When I've got the blood test, the woman phoned me back and she said to me, sit down Simon. You can't, I got it all on recording. You can't have sex with anyone again. You can't kiss anyone again. I was like, what? Even with protection, she was like, not even weed protection.

14:31 You can't cause there's a chance that you give it some, I'll put the phone down. I broke my heart. Yeah, now, she never called me for a consultation. They took me two weeks to get my head around it. When I ended up at the bottom of my mom's bed talking to her like a kid again, saying mum, this is what is being said about me. Mum year, Like boom, boom. This one was saying this. My Mom said did she call you for consultation. I went down to Evergreen clinic. Yeah, because I never had a consultation when I, when I sat there with the cliniticiton and looked at what the papers say. He said, I suggest you may have been a carrier of it yeah, in your blood Yeah. I've never had nothing, no symptoms with me. I've never had nothing on me. And then this government was so scared of what?
15:06 What happened and then missing signatures and timestamps. that they called use lot like, every single day of forcing you lot to come to my house knowing that I'm building a report and that it is going to damage these people's careers, the next person that comes to my front door is lost their job as well. Yeah. And I'm not my playing about all of the recordings and videos. I've, got I've done a proper website. It's not fair that they're using you lot to cover up what they've all done and 15:28 His won it.
15:28 use lot seem to be happy to go with the company you are representing A lot of them members seem to be happy for that to happen
15:34 Okay. Simon, Simon, would you mind very much if I made contact with Simon Clarke and gave him your phone number?
15:40 Um, I don't think Simon is the right person for me to be speaking to again right now. with everything that I'm building against him and what's happening to me. The doctors come into my house tomorrow. Yeah. I'm telling you I'm leaving this website live. I can get a phone under a section two in the hospitals. I'm allowed to compute in hospitals under section two and I've got the website loaded. With everything in it? Yeah, I've got all access to 20 million emails here. that I've not used once since this has happened. I've got 20 million emails, which are worldwide. Yeah. And I've got over 500,000 telephone numbers. Yeah. I will press return and multi spam everybody with everything, year, with what has happened, all the audios and videos and all of my diary and my report. Yeah. If anyone comes to my house and tries to bully me again tomorrow or abuse their position.
16:26 Right, Okay, hold on
16:26 so, so you can tell Simon that if anyone comes to my house tomorrow and tries to take me away when they all know that there's is nothing wrong with me.
16:32 Right I will tell you what, let me keep you Simon's number.
16:34 I am going public
16:34 I don't want to phone Simon Clark I'm writing a complaint against him. It would be prejudice towards the case on the ongoing is at present. I'll put a complaint with the NHS advocacy in regards to him and his behaviour in the way that he's left me and foul treating people.
16:49 Right, O.K.
16:49 It is over a hundred page document just there and my website. Now he's thousands of pages. Every day I do a diary, full diary, every email, this phone conversation I'm going to take that now and transcribe it and it's going to go inside the diary.
17:02 Mutter
17:02 I've got the full book.
17:06 C O. R. D. E. Double L.
17:09 Okay.

17:09 Alright. Um, bear with me. Hold on.
17:12 Okay.
18:01 Hello Simon.
18:03 Hello.
18:06 Hello, Sorry to keep you holding.
18:06 Err thank you, thanks
18:06 I got the Complaints numbers if it is any help to you.
18:09 I've already got complaint with in with the NHS Advocacy. I'll take it off.
18:11 Oh, you got them.
18:11 You know, I've already gotten an official complaint in with the NHS advocacy in the process.
18:16 O.K.
18:16 And that is what I'm saying?
18:16 O.K.
18:16 And basically.
18:18 Ok.
18:18 she's saying to me, look, can I just send it to everybody? And I'm saying no just hold back for a second because I don't want to ruin everyone's jobs.
18:24 Alright.
18:24 Yeah, I'm saying just hold it there. Hold it there for a second. Yeah. Even though I know what they'd done and what I had to go through and what I suffered because of them, I'm still acting better than them and saying just hold your finger on the button for a second now that I called the doctors the other day and let them in my house again now they have come to my door again and now they want to come to my door again tomorrow.
18:42 Right.
18:42 I'm going to tell her to press return and send it over to use lot.
18:46 Okay. Okay. Let me give you three numbers here. Okay. Have you got pen?
18:51 Yeah. Okay.
18:51 Okay. You can try the Barnet office.
18:56 Okay.
18:56 I got.
18:56 which is (0208) 702-3839 and there is the Enfield Office as well which is 02087026456 and there is our Haringey office, which is 0208
19:21 I got most of these already. I've got them in my report.
19:24 year you got that one.
19:24 and the people inside of the departments that I have dealt with, all of them I have got all of them because I've got a wall of shame. I've done a wall of shame. I've done, I've done, I've done everything.
19:24
19:31 I've met, made a new newspaper called horrific corruption.com and it's a blogging website. Yeah. Now I've made it all brand new out of adobe if you check adobe InDesign. Yeah. In designs. A good software to learn. It shows you how to make all the latest brand-new pdf books that flip open. Now I have every email because that was before this all started and your doctors got involved. There were 500 emails from 2014 to 2016 yeah. To the MP'S. And to the councils and to everyone in regards to what was happening with the case and in regards to my neighbours being left to attack me and the video evidence that I've got of my neighbours is attacking me yeah, and now your Mental Health team come here

20:07 for an instance, and when they come here, there was a woman called Debbie that lived above me now. She lived there for six years and I looked after her. Now she started attacking me. Now I thought. She was a nun,
20:18 Right.
20:18 but now I found that recently she wasn't a nun. She actually had two children. Debra Andrews, she is under your mental health teams. I explained that to the doctors, what she was doing to me in this, that house and showed them video all on the recordings and then they moved Debra out of the house into a hotel. Then they'd moved her back into the flat again and let her attack me again. Yeah, and they all knew that Deborah had her children taken away from her. Because Stain just recently told me, yes, Stain, told me that she had her children taken away from her and use lot have let her treat me like her children that you've lot have got taken away and she's been banging and done all of this. Now I have a letter, I've gone and met another woman afterwards. I've got another woman.
20:55 Right, Simon,.
20:55 Yes go on.
20:55 Right, can I stop you here because I think you're better off speaking to a patient experience advisor.
21:00 Ok.
21:00 If I can give you their name that their number because I don't want to repeating what you're telling me.
21:09 I apricate that I am so sorry.
21:09 if that will save your time yet.
21:11 I am sorry for going on but.
21:11 if that will save your time.
21:11 year.
21:11 year, It's 02087026705 or you can put it in writing to this address,.
21:24 Ok.
21:24 which is Barnet and Enfield and Haringey
21:27 yeah.
21:28 Mental health. NHS Trust.
21:32 Okay.
21:33 Patient experience team.
21:35 Okay.
21:37 St Ann's hospital.
21:40 Yea, Julia Cranach I have already got it all.
21:40 Yeah, you got it
21:43 It’s all in my email based off took all of the hospitals and everyone's names, all the MPs and everyone's, I phoned everyone, there was 500 emails. Yeah. So, the 500 emails that my mom was writing towards all of the director's formal complaints. Subject access requests, freedom of information and all that telling them that my neighbours are doing this to me and Debra is doing all that. I phoned my mum has given me all those emails so I phoned up all of the names on them, which is obviously, all the complaints have climbed up to the highest points of all the departments now. I phoned them up afterwards and recorded them all and like all the directors for all, most all of the companies recorded them all because I wanted to see what they were doing with the complaints. Now I have loaded all of them up and the departments, so just for like the mental health department, I've got like a hundred recordings of all the boss’s and everything that's gone on explaining to everyone and I have put them in the report and I've uploaded that to its own part in the website.
22:33 Then I've done the same for the police call centres. The same for the sexual clinics. The same for everyone, which proves all the evidence of what's been going on and what they've all been neglecting to have there when they were supposed to be acting as responsible people, reasonable people under the tout tool, laws of civil litigation, they, they have not acted reasonable or in compliance to what is actually going in regards to these things and I think that this is going to be a massive case and that a lot of people are going to learn.

22:57 All right, Simon
22:58 People are going to be changed from this.
22:59 Simon I think that your best talk call is to talk to patient experience.
23:00 Thank you, yeah, I will do,.
23:03 all right thank you madam.
23:06 You seem like a really nice person.
23:07 Thank you.
23:07 Do you know what I'm most probably not even goanna to put this in there I won't even put this in there. I'm even going to put this in there.
23:11 I hope everything goes ok\.
23:15 Err, well thank you.
23:15 There are people that I don't want to have an effect on.
23:17 Alright, thank you for that.
23:18 No, you have a good day.
23:20 You too.
23:23 Bye. Bye.

1500,
Defendant's conduct we would seek permission to have service of the application dispensed with.
The Judge read the application and the Claimant's witness statements and agreed that service could not be affected and as a result agreed to have all 3 applications served by email upon the Defendant's mother Ms Lorraine Cordell, pursuant to CPR 81.10(5)(b).'
Therefore, what is missing from the Court order is an additional paragraph which gives the Claimant permission to serve BOTH committal applications (05.02.2018 and 20.04.2018) by email on Mrs Cordell. Such position was accepted by the Judge at the hearing but unfortunately is not reflected in the Court Order. This was requested in the application notice and agreed by the Judge, we would therefore like the order to be amended accordingly.

We would be grateful if this letter could be passed on to the Judge to have the order amended accordingly. Please note that the next hearing on this case is listed on 30 May 2018, 2pm and we would be grateful if the order could be amended as a matter of urgency.
faithfully,

IN THE EDMONTON COUNTY COURT CLAIM NO:

THE LONDON BOROUGH OF ENFIELD Claimant

-and-

MR SIMON CORDELL Defendant

WITNESS STATEMENT OF MR JOHN IRVING

I, Mr John Irving, of 117 Burncroft Avenue, Enfield, EN3 7JQ (Leaseholder) make this statement believing it to be true and understand that it may be placed before court.

Insofar as the content of this witness statement is within my own personal knowledge it is true and insofar as it is not within my personal knowledge it is true to the best of my knowledge.

I WILL SAY AS FOLLOWS

1. I am the landlord of Flat 117 Burncroft Avenue, Enfield, EN3 7JQ. The flat is located just above the Defendant's. The Property is currently let to Mr Mathiyalakan and it is being occupied by him, wife and his children.

2. I make this Witness Statement in support of the Claimant's application for an injunction to stop the Defendant from causing intimidation, harassment and alarm to me, my tenants and other residents on Burncroft Avenue, Enfield, EN3 7JQ. The application also seeks access to the Defendant's Property to enable the Claimant to carry out checks on the Defendant's water pipes which are possibly affecting my tenant's water pressure and supply.

Background

3. In the evening of 12 July 2017, I met with one of the Council's in house legal surveyors, Mr Neville Gray with regards to an ongoing low water pressure issue. Mr Gray attended my property (Flat 117) at 11am on the day and agreed that the water pressure was not adequate. An attempt was made to gain access to the two flats immediately below, including the Defendant's but this was unsuccessful.

4. At approximately 17.00 hrs the same day I was contacted by the managing agent informing me that there was now no water at the flat. I contacted Mr Gray and we both decided to attend the Property out of hours. I arrived at the flat to discover that water had been totally cut off for approx. 30 minutes, but surprisingly shortly after our arrival a supply was resumed and with good pressure. This despite the fact that low pressure had been a continual problem since 27 December 2016. Thames Water and plumbers have attended my property on at least 5 occasions but could not find a reason for the low pressure.

5. The Defendant lives in Flat 109 and In conjunction with his mother/mediator, was contacted by Mr Neville Gray with the intention of inspecting his flat. However, this was declined by the Defendant. Although I was inside the block, (on the landing), I watched the discussion from the open window. It was obvious the Defendant was becoming increasing agitated by the raised voices and approaches towards Mr Gray. I could see that he was not comfortable with the situation, and he backed off. He seemed to be very vocal with an aggressive manner, which was intimidating; at this point Mr Gray called for the police to attend.

6. I wish to add that on a previous visit to the property on 26 January 2017, to resolve the low water pressure, the Defendant had informed me that he was restricting the supply and stated: 'you will not solve the problem as I am restricting their water supply'. This was mentioned to me in front of an independent witness, a plumber who was attending with me. As I was leaving my Property, I saw the Defendant in the communal hallway and asked whether he could reinstate the water pressure to my tenant's property, however he responded by saying 'I cannot do anything at the moment I will sort it out later'. This information has previously been reported to the Claimant.

Statement of Truth

I believe the facts in this Witness Statement are true.

Signed.....

Name: Mr John Irving

Dated this 28 day of July 2017

85,
Dear Dr Scurlock,
I am the solicitor in conduct of a claim for an injunction against Mr Cordell and write in response to your email to Kaunchita Maudhub on 15th June 2018.
I would need further clarification on the content of your email and hope you will be able to respond as soon as possible as a hearing has been listed on Tuesday 26th June 2018.
1. You explained that you have been trying to see Mr Cordell but he has not attended the assessments offered to him although he has phoned the assessment team.
Can you please confirm the dates of the assessments offered to Mr Cordell and details of the conversations that were held?
2. You mentioned that he had contact with various mental health teams and had one brief admission on the Haringey assessment ward in August 2016.
Will it be possible to have details of the contacts held and the assessment that was carried out. If possible, we would like a detailed history of the contacts/ admissions so we could provide the information to the Court.
3. You suggested that a report is to be commissioned from a Consultant Forensic Psychiatrist from North London Forensic Service as this is not something you would provide.
Can you please confirm what would the report achieve? If this is not a service you could provide, why did you department contact Mr Cordell and offered him an assessment in the first place?
I look forward to hearing from you.
Kind regards,
Ludmilla lyavoo

  [00:00:40] Is he alright.
  [00:00:40] Yes, she just has a scratch all the time when she is worried about the police coming here and that, Lady stop. It is when people are coming in, she has eaten all of her paws.
  [00:00:56] Worried about who coming in.
  [00:01:00] The police and yourselves.
  [00:01:01] Err,
  [00:01:01] She's has eaten all of her paws. see her paws she has got no paws, no fur on her feet.
  [00:01:07] she eats the compete paws because you've let Debbie Andrews who lived up above me when I informed you and Goodie and everybody that she was attacking me and I have got all of the videos.

[00:01:14] Simon, do want to sit here and I will sit next to Angela.
[00:01:17] I'm going to sit there and wait because of control my computer so, that I show you what's actually going on.
[00:01:22] Well alright, OK.
[00:01:22] I'm upset because of.
[00:01:23] What actually happened is that I am getting attacked.
[00:01:24] I've showing everybody that I have hmm, I was in this house for a Gazebo in 2013 and I've been on curfew since 2013 and I'm not been allowed outside of this house. I'm scared because your colleagues keep attacking me and because the Metropolitan Police keep attacking me. I'm lots of 100% percent evidence to prove I'm correct. Now, everything I have done I have put into an official website which is a new a new thing and have made brand new books for everything all the latest Pdf Digital books, which is all of your work and everyone's else and their signatures.
[00:01:54] Like. This is the Asbo and this is how it all started. This is all the emails which there are five hundred Email's and this isn't complete but is in a digital version there was 500 e-mails to the MP's and the council 2013 I was I had the police knock at front door twenty-five police officers come into this house I had been throwing parties in London I would admit that I'm happy to admit that within the constraints of the laws.
[00:02:17] This was for the raves wasn't it.
[00:02:18] No, this is this wasn't raves.
[00:02:21] Oh.
[00:02:21] What this was I went to the Civic Centre I keep going to the business enterprise which you will be able to see in all of the emails, that are in all the index is to all of the book is will show you in a second and then basically I kept going to the Enfield Business centre to anyone else's showing them that I had built a festival and I trusted in Glastonbury management systems.
[00:02:37] So what I got was 32 folders.
[00:02:39] So every test you have to do to be yourself under the Mental Health Act I got the folder for all of your qualifications that you'd get for your city & Guiles.
[00:02:45] This isn't mental health Act assessment.
[00:02:48] This is this is a Mental Health thing but no I'm saying that if you are training to be a mental health worker, I put folder to which you have to take for your course.
[00:02:54] Err, OK.
[00:02:55] And You get past at the college for your city & Guiles the same for a Mathematics the same for a police officer because I trusted in the Glastonbury files and in the Isle of Wight folder, Isle of Wight turns the whole island into a city so it runs under one constitution and it is managed through.
[00:03:10] The same process is as a festival is that same framework legal frame it's the mini festival side we're inside of the city when you get the same paper it's not all the fault there's no a brand-new constitution.
[00:03:22] I have built a Too Smooth Website and there was charity for the people I've been building it from 2010 I spent over 500 grands on the website up and all the stuff I needed to meet the regulations.
[00:03:31] Gosh where did you get over 500 grands from.
[00:03:34] I saved a lot of money.
[00:03:34] my mum and that inherited a lot of money when my grandmother died and we inherit a couple of million pound into the Cordell family.
[00:03:39] On the menu and I threw the cold out of the House of course the carpet which my nan's left for me of a house in Scotland I'm half Scottish so because I'm half Scottish I put before I even got mixed race and people more stereotypical about prejudice, I'm about equally to the last to present to the West when the piece of land most white people gets stopped to Scotland and then they become a guest on Scotland so this is new Scotland's backyard. It says on the police station New Scotland Yard. Yeah, enough people precious to me to tie me up I'll be banned from the country because I think they don't want to be disciplined for what I can prove. He wants to know what initially happened is usually happen it's 2013 2014 or just from in 2012 I was going to the civic centre.

[00:04:20] Central Business was asking to stop a festival.
[00:04:23] They kept it seems to me pushing me out and kind of supporting me away. So, I went and met people. I got invited into a private party. My first party was in this area actually and I met a group of people are facing this much better being homeless and we're stuck in poverty. We got along with each other two fires on September there was a pipe for a black local Dylan. Same colour as me and it was in hope in central London in London but moved to a standstill was all in the newspapers and every bad one was watching on the news. Dylan was a mixed-race bloke working with white people and he got banned from the country also. There were loads of pictures and stuff made about him nothing and I was my exams they left the country. Now I've come in front of the Civic Centre to lend to business class I'm all over the place in the cars trying to sell the best way to pushing me out. So, I've met the people I've got infected an asylum system. I put up seven planes before 2010 report them as pie for about three four years of seven planes making the money to buy asylum system here. Now once I put my sound system, they have their first flight in the hope and last and they use me as a pawn. I said do you want to come. They wanted to build. Fair enough so I went down at first by I was about to leave. This was just about November 2010 straight off to November 2010. Because it is a bit of history to it so it's best to explain so you understand the winners and that's I'm not someone that's trying to be deceitful cover my tracks so I think I'm picking up funding constraints a little 2010 piece what should we talk about building first.
[00:05:43] Everybody off the Senate brings before you the other thing is, they believed what they were laughing gas. Think that's Microsoft's idea. It's not working against you.
[00:05:52] I didn't want to sell drugs to my friend. I sent a fake food and the plane the size of a full back group of people when I not feel like I wasn't giving nothing back to the people in festivals. So, I throw my on last summer showed me a grappling. So, I thought well at least I'm giving something back and taking some money and not these people I want them to give me a tenner for a ticket they are going to be are going to run the company when I was younger. I want to do something bigger than just mug everyone. So, I'll find the blues. The festival's getting intimate fast as it brings. I'm waiting for him to bring that to you. I'm being like 55 some kind of stairs down there. Those are medical bills all glass can be is not put him in. And why are you doing this to our festivals. It's all in the sun newspaper pollutants pop up out of London let's say because I want to be the same as you. That's how a couple of people. This is a way it's a legal way. It's a loophole in the law now I'm getting sick. That would explain what I explain. So, let me continue in there anyway. Let's get the money for sound systems. Then I went to my first party which was 2010. So, on our terms the festival's first and a fund sport offer a stepping stone to get up to the festival I one where I was going in my head start building the paperwork paying for the websites to be fair and I think I needed the piece come in. I offer my first part of my arm after 2010 2012 come with front end times on offer. The other was build and taken up for some tech or something that. I'm not making me up two chess pieces thrown away as an empty place that some people are living in over me and. So, we missed out on Ivan and then together it's the space from Mitt coming to the peace to come when I'm on my own with my scientist and for the first time. Then it hit me. My asylum system to the asylum system of ninety-five and ten on the second part with the others. So, I looked at the asylum system for a year and it given back to me in April 2012. You can check my first ever fly in London minor and give Riverside system was a mother can attend this. Yeah, you can check it one day Mother Keiko when me was a system where you can check it then your own son. When did mother care when he started to fight until April my first part? I have my ups and downs shut down about 10 random speakers and then all three parties to 2013 in London. So, I pity parties in London on my own for one-year 2013. I hope the peace come here and meet that is by 2012. Coming up the front parties is in London for a year.

[00:08:05] Why would they. Because they should have you and there is a build.
[00:08:09] I met through the year. Front part of the main perspective. She has six children. She's got a lovely heart. When they find out she's there to help the family she become part of the main of the network looking after everyone. So, I respect the fact that she's going to get children taken from her one day. So, I went to her house hundreds of flights. The house was a terrible state so I'm pretty cool mermaids. We got the washing machine from the outside. They put things where order came from you. It was like got kids were going to show is bringing us all the clothes for the homeless people were for me and all the home of all the animals were wearing these building six names and the young children hand I were in a broken system and we're cycle in the moment of change ourselves. I'm happy to do a. Yes, check and I'm happy to go into training programs. I got all the emotional support and mutual concern. The refugees are dropping food to lots of stuff but not in the year and I'm throwing parties. Well to put it in the peace come in me for the gazebo. Because what happened is there was a building up to that one you support. It was an empty shell. Yet there was a point that a year prior they put a hole in the wall next door is the family where they buried stuff now but they don't just burn anything they've done with a brand-new disease. But is this toxic next season so much now. The underwear was too back when it got, they found will be stuck getting burned. O'Brien you stuff that energy to. I didn't know I was on curfew in this house but the gazebo. Thanks. Now when I release, he's asked me to do a birthday party no one would do anything for us. I said give me a plot outside in the park. Yeah. I can accept her choice. Where was the peace Sharfstein. So somehow it was in the next closest place. Is this the O show that we go to the front of the old show and there's a hole in the wall? So, in that way that gone in the year before. I've looked through the hole and the hole are not being ripped on the foot for my own life. It's something I would like to own myself so what I wouldn't want to see it damaged yet so I was upset and being Laden in Pakistan, a pipe dream followed and that's what needs to be a stomach so that we're doing with a few women ever think when you read them. Read forever and I think so you can imagine anyway I fix up all my days. I'm in the long run because all produced a receipt for it and held them bad conditions for a year. Yes, for real but far from going to central London I had to give my passport to the police so I wasn't allowed to leave the country. I find some time there. Sure. Yeah. Plus, I had to be. I just signed up to Section 4 but then I was on February 8 o'clock in this house. My four-year relationship best Diana had come out of hospital nose or told me about what season I was a 10-year-old pregnant. We spent two years went to sleep together for a year now because of the curfew I get from where she wants making numbers Storey Book Original diary start pack

Living in such dreadful conditions on humane the flat would be nice if it was correct and kept up to the spare ISO standards but this simple upkeep gets this minute by the Enfield Council and the Enfield homes relevant departments of concern in reference towards the damp heating air ventilation and sound issues of disrepair!

When I first moved into this property and never understood the problems of disrepair, I was contempt and therefore happy while I enjoy the enjoyment out of the rented premises but since I noticed the issues, I raise of concern to the Enfield Council in Enfield homes correct departments and received no correct follow-ups I feel further if satisfied and disheartened in believing that the problems will ever get a dress in their responses time!

Subject: Update - Police Concerns Ms Cordell

I apologise for the length of time it has taken to make contact with you regarding your concerns.

I am sure you can understand that finding time in Helen Millichap's diary can be a challenge, I have however managed to find sometime for an initial telephone conversation with Helen Millichap.

I appreciate that you want to meet with Ma'am and a telephone call may not be exactly what you want.

That being said this will allow Helen to listen to some of your concerns with the hope of being able to progress them.

I have provisionally booked 1:30pm on Wednesday 11th July. Is that time convenient and suitable for you?

As previously mentioned, if you have any documents or correspondence which would assist Helen, you can forward these to me and I will make sure she is sighted prior to your meeting.

I have attached the link to the MPS complaints website should you feel you require it.

Originator: HAGUE, Angela 15 Jun 2018,14:25 [Nursing]

Telephone call from Simon, long conversation, asking about his appointment he has been offered for next week, who made the referral and why. Same discussed and remembers that they had already spoken with lain Williams. Difficult to follow his conversation and to interrupt. Says he has been on a 10pm curfew for the past 9 years afraid to leave his house as he feels the police have set this up. Mistaken identity reports he has read all give descriptions of different people, 4 in total, not him. All happened because of a party on Lincoln Road, he was not involved but happened because people were disturbed by the noise. Because of the curfew says he lost his relationship with his first love has or had a second girlfriend. Said he has been dialling 999 they get 15,000 calls per day; their time is going backwards on their records and do not have a RUN number.

Says he does not have a mental illness no previous contact with services has been good. Sectioned in the past human rights broken, people coming into his house, says he was giving them access. Has tape recordings and LinkedIn, Facebook pages of all involved, has set up a web page. Discussed that they reason I had contacted him was to offer an appointment next Tuesday 11am, asking why we are coming, offered to see at Lucas House instead he declined this says prefers to be seen at home. Asked why I am not treating with dignity and respect that he has told me all about my colleagues and their treatment of him and I have not apologised to him and investigating. Discussed that he has the right to compliant which he says he already has and knows how to make a complaint, reported that he was taping our conversation and was making a digital copy which he has made of most interactions with people. He agreed to a home visit next week. The home visit is with EIS Amal Pomphrey.

Telephone call from Simon's mother Lorraine Cordell. Sounded tearful on the phone, reported that she has spoken with Simon and he told her that we went to see him today, myself and Amal. Said that he told her that the appointment went well and that we had told him there is nothing mentally wrong with him, that he does not need psychiatric services and is well. Says she is finding it distressing, very worried about her son as she believes, and everyone else can see that her son is ill. Said he is struggling to cope, not leaving the house, feels persecuted by his neighbours. Not managing the court case well. Believes that the has lost trust in services and feels he needs to build trust with professionals again.

Reported that when she was in court the information that was given was that her son had PTSD and was discharged form services, believes it was inaccurate and did not know where the information came from, though perhaps it was lain Williams as he had around the same time called to speak to Simon about his referral.
Discussed that we would need Simon's consent to discuss his case. Reported that her mother suffered with schizophrenia and she has a lot of experience around people who have mental illness not believing they have a mental health problem and don't require treatment. Says she is happy to encourage her son to engage with services as far as possible.
Originator: HAGUE; Angela 19Jun 2018, 14:33 [Nursing]
Home visit today as arranged with Amal Pomphrey from EIS. Client previously under EIS from 2015 discharged in January this year, difficult to engage. History well known so not repeated.
Simon was friendly and welcoming into his home. Put his pet dog outside in the garden, visible through patio doors. Dog appeared in good health though Simon reported that his dog is stressed about his neighbours the police and mental health services to the point it has chewed some of the fur off his front paws.
Simon stood for some time keen to talk about the evidence he has gathered against the police, and local authority, has taped and logged everything on a website. Showed his website says not live as yet, all he has to do is click a button and it will show how he has been unfairly treated by the local authority and police. Website and all written video and audio recordings linked. Showed a couple of examples CCTV inside his flat, conversation with ASBO team and written documents. Also showed us paper files that the has maintained in large ring binders, containing copies of e-mails and all correspondence. Informed us that he tapes all conversations he has with health, local authority, and police staff. Has CCTV cameras placed internally and externally around his flat?
Spoke of how his issues began many years ago trouble with the police over holding illegal parties. Reported that he is currently not going out feels afraid. No restrictions placed on him regarding going out other than not allowed in Industrial areas or 24-hour venues such as Mac Donald's or Tesco's. Reported recently in court with regards to his neighbour, representing himself does not feel he needs a solicitor. Recommendation is that he has an assessment with a psychiatrist. However, said he will not attend as the letter has not been properly dated and stamped and therefore believes he is not bound by it.
Mental state:
Simon was casually dressed, his hygiene appeared fair. He maintained good eye contact and rapport. His speech appeared slightly pressured difficult to interrupt but not irritable when interrupted.
Grandiose ideas around his intelligence, says he is a millionaire property from wealthy relatives who have deceased, successful businesses, earning hundreds and thousands of pounds. Paranoid about his neighbours, believes they and others have spread information that he may have had herpes. Paranoid delusions believe his neighbours are deliberately following him from room to room banging on his ceiling. Believes they want to kill him. Though he did not express any thoughts of wanting to harm anyone. Believes he is being paid to look after vulnerable people in poor situations.
Appears to be a mood element to his condition pressured speech grandiose, tangential jumping from topic to topic. However, reported that at times his mood can be depressed and upset by his neighbours. On one occasion he drank some liquid in an attempt to poison himself, found by mother and taken to A&E discharged. Denied having any current suicidal ideation or thought to harm himself.

There was no evidence of any hallucinations. Personality appears to be intact.
Simon appears to lack insight, asked if he believes he has a mental health condition denied this said he has never taken medication as he does not believe he has any mental health problem to require medication.
Impression:
37-year-old male appears to have had a difficult childhood spoke about scars on his legs from beatings form his father. Wants to protect children, and vulnerable people believes it is his duty. 2015 diagnosed with psychotic illness and referred to EIS does not appear to have engaged with treatment offered, previously prescribed Olanzapine. Does not appear to require crisis team or mental health act assessment at this time. But would benefit from assertive follow up in the community. EIS state that has gone beyond EIS three-year treatment period.
Plan therefore to refer to North Locality Team Locality Team. E-mail sent.
EIS agree to liaise and advise court regarding the request for a report.
Closed to EIS.

New Speaker:	02:19	they never had problems getting access before
New Speaker:	05:14	Hello.
New Speaker:	05:36	Well, I am outside of this front door here now and no person is here outside of it and I can see the blocks in the line and there is no person standing outside of the rest, So, if somebody was going to be attended, pardon? that would be very unusual for them to be there. I've never known another person to make such a mistake.
New Speaker:	06:24	She is here, she was just around the corner. I will phone you back in a minute.
New Speaker:	06:24	Hi, sorry to keep you waiting.
Speaker 2:	06:26	Hello, How are you doing?
New Speaker:	06:26	I'm good. Sorry. I was in a hurry. Mr Crompton?
New Speaker:	06:29	Mr. Cordell. Cordell.
New Speaker:	06:31	Okay, please go ahead.
New Speaker:	06:32	I was just wanting to understand what laws are you actually wanting to hold this meeting with me under.
New Speaker:	06:37	Well your Solicitor, wanted to do.
New Speaker:	06:39	Not my solicitor.
New Speaker:	06:39	The judge.
New Speaker:	06:43	The Judge but your solicitor has instructed me so I'm not.
New Speaker:	06:45	Not my solicitor has instructed. my solicitor what's has been instructed is a judge has ordered for you to come into my house. I've had the doctors come on 73 other occasions to my address in the last, in the last three years I won’t. I've been on a curfew for, I'm on a nine-year curfew. The nine-year curfew, illegally got obtained against me. They falsified all the paperwork and missing the signatures. At the bottom of the folder, I started phoning the police and asking the police, please can, you're holding me for nine years. I never got arrested for this offense. The Organization of a legal Raves, you're setting me up.

Speaker 2:	07:17	I copied the Facebook profiles of the people that actually done the events and I have the Facebook profiles, but I'm not going to give them to you the police because I'm not getting paid your salary to be a, to be a grass or an informant. I never done any events, so I have the Facebook profiles. Now the maximum sentence. If they did arrest you for, for throwing parties is six months in prison. Yeah. So, you do three months in prison, three months out. I never even got arrested and they have legally given me nine years. I've looked at the victim statements. This is over four people being kept up over night because they heard music from the party and all that. Each police officer has done four statements and they're all missing their signatures now because they're holding me for nine years in my house on curfew.
Speaker 2:	07:57	I'm not allowed to leave and because I've noticed the signatures, I can't leave my house before nine o'clock because the police are trying to grab me outside. Then they've sent you doctors here 74 times. They start spreading personal data about me, pretending that I had the disease and stuff like that is in the public when there was nothing wrong with me and I've got all of the medical notes inside all the clinical notes. I've got hundreds of recordings of me calling there call centres explaining it.
New Speaker:	08:19	You are recording this conversation right now then.
New Speaker:	08:19	yes, because this is the minutes of are meeting and you are being paid right now as a civil servant to interact with me. So, I'm allowed to take minutes in a digital format. I'm allowed to take minutes in, in by writing of our conversation you are being paid to have this conversation with me so I'd like to record this conversation.
Speaker 2:	08:36	I've made a full official report and every person that has met me, I've took and I have transcribed up and I put them into a full report online, online with a website that I haven't published yet and now I've been doing this since 2012 making an official.
New Speaker:	08:51	So, who is your solicitor?

New Speaker:	08:51	I've just took a solicitor on just recently!
New Speaker:	08:53	What's the agency?
New Speaker:	08:53	The agency you just called the agency I believe or one your workers.
New Speaker:	08:58	So I have spoken to your solicitor this morning. So, the council approached me because the judge said that you need a mental capacity assessment to see if you understand.
New Speaker:	09:08	Whether I have been served a services.
New Speaker:	09:08	Can you let me finish first.
New Speaker:	09:13	Yeah.
New Speaker:	09:13	The conditions.
New Speaker:	09:13	of the injunction.
New Speaker:	09:13	Whether I understand the conditions of the injunction.
New Speaker:	09:13	And if you can undergo court.
New Speaker:	09:16	I understand that I have video evidence inside now,.
New Speaker:	09:19	you.
New Speaker:	09:19	I record every,.
New Speaker:	09:21	You, da, da, da.
New Speaker:	09:21	can I just explain.
New Speaker:	09:21	No, that is fine.
New Speaker:	09:21	Can I just explain, no, no, no.
New Speaker:	09:25	I am not here to judge anything.
New Speaker:	09:25	May I just explain something.
New Speaker:	09:25	So, I'm going to explain to you where the judge is wrong. Yeah, so.
New Speaker:	09:28	I can't have a conversation in the middle of the street and do an assessment.
Speaker 2:	09:34	I understand that but you're trying to gain access to my house and legally, yeah,.
New Speaker:	09:38	illegally, no, no, no.
New Speaker:	09:38	Yes, because it's abuse of position and unfair process. It's unfair.
New Speaker:	09:43	We asked you to agree?
New Speaker:	09:44	No, no, I'm being forced to have this appointment.
New Speaker:	09:46	If you don't want the appointment I can leave.
New Speaker:	09:46	I'm being forced,.
New Speaker:	09:47	I can leave, I don't have to be here.
New Speaker:	09:47	I'm being forced to have a meeting with you and if I don't have a meeting with you, I'm not allowed to have a trial and defend myself and that's what the judges have done in the, in the first case, they have also done this in the second case. Now this is a third court and they have used exactly the same tactics to avoid disciplinary action.
New Speaker:	10:02	I want.
New Speaker:	10:02	I will invite you into my house and I'm going to show you the evidence.

New Speaker:	10:04	I've made you aware.
New Speaker:	10:05	I do not need to see any evidence.
New Speaker:	10:05	No, I'm going to show you that I've got video.
New Speaker:	10:08	I don't.
New Speaker:	10:08	your saying whether I've been served or not.
New Speaker:	10:09	No, no, no.
New Speaker:	10:09	I have cameras inside my house.
New Speaker:	10:11	OK.
New Speaker:	10:11	No, you listen to me for a second yeah.

New Speaker:	10:15	Don't talk to me, you are raising your voice.
New Speaker:	10:15	I am not. I am tongue tied and I have.

The HHSRS and the housing Act 1985 inclusive of many other right of mine and many other people's rights mean that these problems of disrepair must not get left by the Enfield Council and the Enfield Homes teams to carry on the way is does as it is causing me to have no enjoyment out of my flat and emotional distress!

  1. Introduction

  A. This report is prepared at the request of London Borough of Enfield, Antisocial Behaviour Team following directions from the Edmonton County Court to undertake an assessment on Mr. Cordell.

  B. My instructions were received in a letter dated 5 July 2018 and outlined as below:

  C. Whether the defendant has the mental capacity to litigate and give instructions in his defence.

D. Whether the defendant understands the terms of the injunction order dated 9 January 2018.

2. Details of current proceedings

E. The current proceedings relate to an interim injunction order issued against Mr Cordell, at the Edmonton County Court on 9 January 2018.

F. This followed numerous complaints from neighbours about Mr Cordell's acts of harassment and antisocial behaviour.

G. However, it has been reported that Mr Cordell has continued to breach the order.

H. It has been reported that a neighbour has been assaulted, harassed and has received threats from Mr Cordell.

I. He has also made threats towards certain council employees.

J. The local authority issued applications for committal due to Mr Cordell's breach of the injunction, however the applications could not be considered due to concerns about his mental capacity.

3. Sources of information

K. I was provided with the following information to aid in the assessment:

1. Claim form for an injunction with supporting documents
2. Order for an injunction dated 9.1.2018
3. Report of Angela Hague from the Enfield Assessment Team
4. Court order made by DJ Dias, Edmonton County Court at the hearing on 30.05.2018 and 26.6.2018.

02,

L. I assessed Mr Cordell on 6 July 2018, at his flat 109 Burncroft Avenue, Enfield EN3 7JQ, accompanied by two officers from the Enfield Housing Team.

M. I can confirm that prior to my assessment; I explained to Mr Cordell my role and the purpose of my visit. I also explained to him that I was acting on the instructions of the Enfield Council at the directions of the Court.

4. Assessment of Mr Cordell

N. Mr Cordell spoke to us for a few minutes outside his flat and upon explaining the purpose of the visit, he allowed us into his flat.

O. He agreed to tie the dog outside in the garden.

P. The flat although disorganised with papers and folders scattered around, did not appear overly cluttered.

Q. Mr Cordell presented as a young, slim built, mixed-race male with reasonable hygiene.

R. We explained our roles and the purpose of our visit.

S. Mr Cordell informed us that he was recording our conversation.

T. Mr Cordell seemed very keen and enthusiastic to talk and we had to explain the reason of our visit several times to maintain some structure and focus.

U. He maintained appropriate eye contact and we managed to establish a rapport after a while.

V. His demeanour was polite and appropriate.

W. There was evidence of psychomotor agitation as he appeared generally restless and overactive.

X. Mr Cordell described his appetite and sleep pattern as fine.

Y. Objectively I would regard his mood as labile, rapidly fluctuating between euthymia (normal mood) and irritability.

Z. Mr Cordell's comprehension of information presented to him appeared adequate.

AA. He was able to understand the queries presented to him.

BB. His responses however were very elaborate and circumstantial.

CC. His speech was very pressured, difficult to interrupt and at times frankly rambling.

DD. There was clear evidence of thought disorder with flight of ideas (rapid shift of ideas with some superficial apparent connection).

EE. Mr Cordell struggled to sustain his goal of thinking as he often derailed to themes of relevance to him, digressing away from the topic of discussion.

FF. It was very difficult to obtain a direct response to the queries posed to him and follow his thread of conversation.

GG. 4.4. Mr. Cordell's thought content was replete with various delusional beliefs of persecutory and

HH. grandiose nature.

II. The spoke of an elaborate conspiracy which involves the Enfield local authority and the metropolitan police, dating back since 2013, when he claimed that he was arrested for putting up a gazebo in his garden which led to him being barred from visiting

03,

JJ. places in central London and placed on a curfew from 10 pm.

KK. Mr. Cordell informed that he followed these restrictions imposed on him for about a year and returned to Court and won the case.

LL. Mr. Cordell then went on to talk about Sally Gilcrest, the legal executive for the metropolitan police who he alleged set him up for a million pounds and brought on an ASBO against him, which ended with him being imposed on a nine-year curfew.

MM. Mr. Cordell stated that Sally Gilcrest in conjunction with the borough commander Jane Johnson and the community officer started spreading rumors that he was "suffering from herpes and has hurt a woman" which the neighbours in his block became aware of and started sending him messages addressing him as "you; black boy.

NN. Mr. Cordell implied that Sally Gilcrest colluded with the neighbours as she had a vested interest in getting him out of this country.

OO. He stated that the neighbours above him deliberately bang on his ceiling and have also subject him to other forms of harassment since 2014.

PP. Mr. Cordell implied that the neighbours were responsible for the miscarriage suffered by his then girlfriend and also held them responsible for the separation from his previous girlfriends.

QQ. He further stated that between 2014 and 2016, his mother has made numerous complaints to the council regarding the harassment he has been subject to and he has won a criminal case against his neighbours

RR. Mr Cordell then went on to elaborate his grievance against Lemmy, the officer who works for the Enfield local authority.

SS. He claimed that he received an email from Lemmy threatening that he would obtain a possession order against him and asking him to attend a meeting.

TT. He then stated that the ASBO that was served against him was not valid due to lack of signature.

UU. Therefore, Lemmy built a false case against him by using "lower grade cases "to pursue a possession order and subsequently an injunction order, by falsifying statements and using "statements from dead cases".

VV. According to Mr Cordell this was declared as invalid by a Judge, however Lemmy has continued to produce false orders against him in the way of a second injunction, which he claimed has never been served on him.

WW. Mr Cordell described this as "targeted malice" by Lemmy as he has used the injunction as a smoke screen to cover up the ASBO by providing false statements and witnesses.

XX. In addition, Mr Cordell also described a number of grandiose beliefs, stating that he was building a constitution on CIC, which he explained to be Community Interest Company. He also spoke of a number of other businesses.

YY. He was keen to show us the various documents, emails and recordings he has accrued as evidence to support his case.

4. I assessed Mr Cordell on 6 July 2018, at his flat 109 Burncroft Avenue, Enfield EN3 7JQ, accompanied by two officers from the Enfield Housing Team. I can confirm that prior to my assessment; I explained to Mr Cordell my role and the purpose of my visit. I also explained to him that I was acting on the instructions of the Enfield Council at the directions of the Court.

4. Assessment of Mr Cordell

- Mr Cordell spoke to us for a few minutes outside his flat and upon explaining the purpose of the visit, he allowed us into his flat. He agreed to tie the dog outside in the garden. The flat although disorganised with papers and folders scattered around, did not appear overly cluttered. Mr Cordell presented as a young, slim built, mixed-race male with reasonable hygiene. 5. Opinion and Recommendations

Mr Cordell is a resident at the Enfield borough, who was served an injunction on 9 January 2018, following numerous complaints by his neighbours of antisocial behaviour and harassment. Despite this, Mr Cordell has continued to breach the order with further incidents of harassment, threats and assault against the neighbours. In addition, it has been reported that some council employees have also received threats from Mr Cordell. According to available information, Mr Cordell has had sporadic contact with the mental health services and has been recently assessed by the Enfield Mental Health Assessment Service. During my assessment, Mr Cordell was preoccupied with a number of persecutory and grandiose delusional beliefs. In addition, he also presented with other symptoms such as labile mood, pressured speech, overactivity and flight of ideas. In my view, Mr Cordell's current presentation is consistent with schizoaffective disorder, which is recognised as an enduring mental illness.

I have received specific instructions to address the following issues:

1. Whether Mr Cordell has the mental capacity to litigate and give instructions to his defence?

As highlighted above, Mr Cordell's mental state is replete with complex persecutory delusional belief system. During my assessment, Mr Cordell was convinced that the local authority and the police have been colluding alongside his neighbours to pursue false claims and allegations against him. In his view, the possession order and the injunction order were based on false statements, created against him and this did not stand up in Court and therefore an injunction was not issued against him. In my view, although there are no significant deficits in Mr Cordell's comprehension or retention of information, his ability to process information relevant to the current proceedings is likely to be influenced by his underlying delusional beliefs. During my interaction, it was evident that his interpretation of events and actions of others are influenced by his abnormal beliefs. Mr Cordell perceives himself as a victim and is aggrieved by the injustice carried out against him. In my view,

Mr Cordell's ability to weigh the information relevant to the current proceedings is impaired due to his tendency to misinterpret any information presented to him to fit into his entrenched persecutory delusional beliefs. Moreover, Mr Cordell presents with significant thought disorder and it is unlikely that he will be able to give coherent instructions to the defence.
It is therefore my opinion that Mr Cordell lacks capacity to litigate and give appropriate instructions to the defence.
2. Whether Mr Cordell understands the terms of the injunction order dated 9 January 2018?
Mr Cordell is currently suffering from symptoms of schizoaffective disorder and presents with florid psychotic symptoms. His thinking and behaviour are influenced by his underlying persecutory beliefs. Mr Cordell is convinced that the injunction order is a cover up by the local authority for the errors and mistakes of the ASBO and therefore did not stand up in Court. Mr Cordell is convinced that the injunction order has been falsified by certain individuals (particularly Lemmy possibly in conjunction with others). He therefore does not value the order or the contents contained within it. In my opinion Mr Cordell's capacity to process the information relevant to the order is again impacted by his delusional beliefs.

Dear Sirs URGENT

Claim number: E00ED049- Edmonton County Court

We write further to the Order made by District Judge Dias following the hearing on 26th June 2018.

Paragraph 1 of the order states the following: 'By 4pm on 10 July 2018 the Defendant shall undergo a mental capacity assessment by a Consultant Psychiatrist at an appointment to be arranged of which the Defendant shall be given at least 24 hours' notice and a report shall be prepared in relation to the Defendant's capacity to litigate and capacity to understand the meaning of the interim injunction dated 09 January 2018 and that report shall be filed at court and served on each party to the litigation'.

We confirm that the Defendant was assessed by Dr Dhinakaran, a psychiatrist consultant on 5th July 2018. A copy of her assessment report is attached to this email and it confirms that the Defendant lacks capacity to litigate/ understand the terms of the injunction order.

The Claimant was also directed to file a witness statement in response to this assessment if so advised by 10th July 2018. We confirm that the Claimant has no comments to make at this stage. We have asked the Defendant's solicitors to contact the Enfield Assessment Mental Health team and instruct them to release the Defendant's medical documents so the Claimant could consider them and make further comments. However we have had no confirmation from the Defendant's solicitors as to whether the Defendant has provided the relevant consent and we therefore reserve the right to make further submissions until these documents are received by the Claimant.

Psychiatric Report on Mr Simon Cordell 109 Burncroft Avenue Enfield EN3 7JQ

1. Introduction

This report is prepared at the request of London Borough of Enfield, Antisocial Behaviour Team following directions from the Edmonton County Court to undertake an assessment on Mr Cordell. My instructions were received in a letter dated 5 July 2018 and outlined as below:

(1) Whether the defendant has the mental capacity to litigate and give instructions in his defence.
(2) Whether the defendant understands the terms of the injunction order dated 9 January 2018.

2. Details of current proceedings

The current proceedings relate to an interim injunction order issued against Mr Cordell, at the Edmonton County Court on 9 January 2018. This followed numerous complaints from neighbours about Mr Cordell's acts of harassment and antisocial behaviour. However it has been reported that Mr Cordell has continued to breach the order. It has been reported that a neighbour has been assaulted, harassed, and has received threats from Mr Cordell. He has also made threats towards certain council employees. The local authority issued applications for committal due to Mr Cordell's breach of the injunction, however the applications could not be considered due to concerns about his mental capacity.

3. Sources of information

3.1 I was provided with the following information to aid in the assessment:

1. Claim form for an injunction with supporting documents
2. Order for an injunction dated 9.1.2018
3. Report of Angela Hague from the Enfield Assessment Team
4. Court order made by DJ Dias, Edmonton County Court at the hearing on 30.05.2018 and 26.6.2018.

3.2 I assessed Mr Cordell on 6 July 2018, at his flat 109 Burncroft Avenue, Enfield EN3 7JQ, accompanied by two officers from the Enfield Housing Team. I can confirm that prior to my assessment; I explained to Mr Cordell my role and the purpose of my visit. I also explained to him that I was acting on the instructions of the Enfield Council at the directions of the Court.

4. Assessment of Mr Cordell

4.1 Mr Cordell spoke to us for a few minutes outside his flat and upon explaining the purpose of the visit, he allowed us into his flat. He agreed to tie the dog outside in the garden. The flat although disorganised with papers and folders scattered around, did not appear overly cluttered. Mr Cordell presented as a young, slim built, mixed-race male with reasonable hygiene. We explained our roles and the purpose of our visit. Mr Cordell informed us that he was recording our conversation.

4.2 Mr Cordell seemed very keen and enthusiastic to talk and we had to explain the reason of our visit several times to maintain some structure and focus. He maintained appropriate eye contact and we managed to establish a rapport after a while. His demeanour was polite and appropriate. There was evidence of psychomotor agitation as he appeared generally restless and overactive. Mr Cordell described his appetite and sleep pattern as fine. Objectively I would regard his mood as labile, rapidly fluctuating between euthymia (normal mood) and irritability.

4.3 Mr Cordell's comprehension of information presented to him appeared adequate. He was able to understand the queries presented to him. His responses however were very elaborate and circumstantial. His speech was very pressured, difficult to interrupt and at times frankly rambling. There was clear evidence of thought disorder with flight of ideas (rapid shift of ideas with some superficial apparent connection). Mr Cordell struggled to sustain his goal of thinking as he often derailed to themes of relevance to him, digressing away from the topic of discussion. It was very difficult to obtain a direct response to the queries posed to him and follow his thread of conversation.

4.4 Mr Cordell's thought content was replete with various delusional beliefs of persecutory and grandiose nature. The spoke of an elaborate conspiracy which involves the Enfield local authority and the metropolitan police, dating back since 2013, when he claimed that he was arrested for putting up a gazebo in his garden which led to him being barred from visiting places in central London and placed on a curfew from 10 pm. Mr Cordell informed that he followed these restrictions imposed on him for about a year and returned to Court and won the case. Mr Cordell then went on to talk about Sally Gilcrest, the legal executive for the metropolitan police who he alleged set him up for a million pounds and brought on an ASBO against him, which ended with him being imposed on a nine-year curfew. Mr Cordell stated that Sally Gilcrest in conjunction with the borough commander Jane Johnson and the community officer started spreading rumours that he was "suffering from herpes and has hurt a woman" which the neighbours in his block became aware of and started sending him messages addressing him as "you black boy". Mr Cordell implied that Sally Gilchrest colluded with the neighbours as she had a vested interest in getting him out of this country. He stated that the neighbours above him deliberately bang on his ceiling and have also subject him to other forms of harassment since 2014. Mr Cordell implied that the neighbours were responsible for the miscarriage suffered by his then girlfriend and also held them responsible for the separation from his previous girlfriends. He further stated that between 2014 and 2016, his mother has made numerous complaints to the council regarding the harassment he has been subject to and he has won a criminal case against his neighbours

4.5 Mr Cordell then went on to elaborate his grievance against Lemmy, the officer who works for the Enfield local authority. He claimed that he received an email from Lemmy threatening that he would obtain a possession order against him and asking him to attend a meeting. He then stated that the ASBO that was served against him was not valid due to lack of signature. Therefore, Lemmy built a false case against him by using "lower grade cases" to pursue a possession order and subsequently an injunction order, by falsifying statements and using "statements from dead cases". According to Mr Cordell this was declared as invalid by a Judge, however Lemmy has continued to produce false orders against him in the way of a second injunction, which he claimed has never been served on him. Mr Cordell described this as "targeted malice" by Lemmy as he has used the injunction as a smoke screen to cover up the ASBO by providing false statements and witnesses.

4.6 In addition, Mr Cordell also described a number of grandiose beliefs, stating that he was building a constitution on CIC, which he explained to be Community Interest Company. He also spoke of a number of other businesses. He was keen to show us the various documents, emails, and recordings he has accrued as evidence to support his case.

5. Opinion and Recommendations

Mr Cordell is a resident at the Enfield borough, who was served an injunction on 9 January 2018, following numerous complaints by his neighbours of antisocial behaviour and harassment. Despite this, Mr Cordell has continued to breach the order with further incidents of harassment, threats, and assault against the neighbours. In addition, it has been reported that some council employees have also received threats from Mr Cordell. According to available information, Mr Cordell has had sporadic contact with the mental health services and has been recently assessed by the Enfield Mental Health Assessment Service. During my assessment, Mr Cordell was preoccupied with a number of persecutory and grandiose delusional beliefs. In addition, he also presented with other symptoms such as labile mood, pressured speech, overactivity, and flight of ideas. In my view, Mr Cordell's current presentation is consistent with schizoaffective disorder, which is recognised as an enduring mental illness.

I have received specific instructions to address the following issues:

1. Whether Mr Cordell has the mental capacity to litigate and give instructions to his defence?

As highlighted above, Mr Cordell's mental state is replete with complex persecutory delusional belief system. During my assessment, Mr Cordell was convinced that the local authority and the police have been colluding alongside his neighbours to pursue false claims and allegations against him. In his view, the possession order and the injunction order were based on false statements, created against him and this did not stand up in Court and therefore an injunction was not issued against him. In my view, although there are no significant deficits in Mr Cordell's comprehension or retention of information, his ability to process information relevant to the current proceedings is likely to be influenced by his underlying delusional beliefs. During my interaction, it was evident that his interpretation of events and actions of others are influenced by his abnormal beliefs. Mr Cordell perceives himself as a victim and is aggrieved by the injustice carried out against him. In my view,

Mr Cordell's ability to weigh the information relevant to the current proceedings is impaired due to his tendency to misinterpret any information presented to him to fit into his entrenched persecutory delusional beliefs. Moreover, Mr Cordell presents with significant thought disorder and it is unlikely that he will be able to give coherent instructions to the defence.

It is therefore my opinion that Mr Cordell lacks capacity to litigate and give appropriate instructions to the defence.

2. Whether Mr Cordell understands the terms of the injunction order dated 9 January 2018?

Mr Cordell is currently suffering from symptoms of schizoaffective disorder and presents with florid psychotic symptoms. His thinking and behaviour are influenced by his underlying persecutory beliefs. Mr Cordell is convinced that the injunction order is a cover up by the local authority for the errors and mistakes of the ASBO and therefore did not stand up in Court. Mr Cordell is convinced that the injunction order has been falsified by certain individuals (particularly Lemmy possibly in conjunction with others). He therefore does not value the order, or the contents contained within it. In my opinion Mr Cordell's capacity to process the information relevant to the order is again impacted by his delusional beliefs.

Simon Cordell - assessment complaint [SEC=OFFICIAL]

Dear Lorraine,
I am writing further to our recent telephone conversation about your son's mental health assessment.
I have been provided with the following comments from the team handling the case:
On 30th May 2018, the Court ordered the Claimant (Enfield Council) to appoint a consultant psychiatrist to assess whether Mr Cordell has capacity to litigate. Before we arranged the appointment with the consultant psychiatrist, we sought approval from Mr Cordell's solicitors who were provided with the consultant's details and CV. The consultant was an independent consultant. The court does not appoint assessors. The solicitors did not oppose the proposed appointment and their consent was sought at all times, we also agreed the appointment with them including dates and times.
I can confirm that two council officers attended Mr Cordell's flat with the Consultant Psychiatrist at 9.30am on Friday 6th July 2018 and waited while the consultant assessed Mr Cordell. It was necessary to send the officers to ensure that the consultant was not at risk. Previously, on 3 July 2018, a previous consultant had met with Mr Cordell on her own to carry out an assessment but did not feel safe and had to leave without completing the assessment. The council officers were not part of the assessment and only attended the appointment to ensure that the consultant was not at risk.
I do understand from our conversation that you intend to pursue this matter further via solicitors.

Dear Steven Hall
It has been some time since we spoke and we exchanged emails, I have not heard from you since I wrote you the email below and would like to know if Miss Millichap is willing to have a meeting with me or not, I do not think it is too much to ask for a meeting, but it does seem that the police are not willing to act on this unless I give them full facts so it can be investigated before we have the meeting, as said before I do not feel this will work as there is a lot of concerns regarding more than one issue there is also a lot of paperwork I would like Miss Millichap to see.

If Miss Millichap is not willing to see me for a meeting, please let me know by 18/06/2018 as I will take it higher, I do not feel I should need to explain to others which has been done many times before with nothing coming of it and it's just like no one was spoken to.

As stated on the phone call there is a lot of issues, and I would like a meeting with miss Millichap. I don't think listing the issues would help I believe she would have a much better view regarding the issues by seeing the paperwork and evidence, I feel this will be the only way this will not be covered up like it has been for far too long now.

Subject: RE: Concerns for male
Hi Giudi,
SC was seen and assessed at home on 19th June.
He is not currently under a community team, the service has received several referrals since 2015 pertaining concern for his mental state, however upon assessment he's not been found to be so unwell that restrictive measures have to be taken to engage him.
He often presents with grandiose/paranoid ideations involving past involvement with police, and more recently involvement with the housing department and neighbour(s).
He is currently involved with court proceedings involving his neighbour/housing department arising from on-going dispute in which he alleges neighbour to be deliberating causing him distress by making noise (he appears to be noise sensitive).
Housing is exploring eviction proceedings in which information has recently been provided for court regarding his mental health needs.
I understand he is representing himself in court and the court has questioned his mental capacity/mental health to do so?
I also understand he has CCTV inside and outside the property and often tapes interactions with others.
He also has a dog on the premises and frequently makes reference to the evidence he has gathered about the alleged wrongs done to him by police, neighbours and housing department; a full ring-binder folder was observed in his flat with this alleged evidence.
There was no significant concern regarding his mental state when recently assessed to require a more intrusive intervention, he was not deemed to be psychotic but some acknowledgement of a paranoid personality type with grandiose beliefs.
He is reluctant to engage with mental health services as he does not believe he is mentally unwell and therefore does not wish to engage to explore possible treatment options.
The plan following the assessment was for a referral to be made to the North Locality Community Team for further engagement to build rapport over a period of time to try and engage/encourage him for further assessments and/or support.
Regards,
Debbie

Dear Daniel
Thank you for the reply, I believe what you have been told is misleading, as the council are very aware everything is recorded our side.
I also notice you have only covered one issue that was spoke about when you called me after my brother called you, but I had a feeling that would happen.
I do understand that things are complexed as Enfield Council has only ever gone one sided and never heard or wanted to hear anything we had to say, this was clearly shown in the call when you stated we have not been able to talk to anyone regarding issues, but that is the way that Enfield Council wanted it they just wanted to believe what they wanted, but only hearing one side to everything is not correct as there is two sides to everything.

Dear Lorraine,
I am writing further to our recent telephone conversation about your son's mental health assessment.
I have been provided with the following comments from the team handling the case:
On 30th May 2018, the Court ordered the Claimant (Enfield Council) to appoint a consultant psychiatrist to assess whether Mr Cordell has capacity to litigate. Before we arranged the appointment with the consultant psychiatrist, we sought approval from Mr Cordell's solicitors who were provided with the consultant's details and CV. The consultant was an independent consultant. The court does not appoint assessors. The solicitors did not oppose the proposed appointment and their consent was sought at all times, we also agreed the appointment with them including dates and times.
I can confirm that two council officers attended Mr Cordell's flat with the Consultant Psychiatrist at 9.30am on Friday 6th July 2018 and waited while the consultant assessed Mr Cordell. It was necessary to send the officers to ensure that the consultant was not at risk.
Previously, on 3 July 2018, a previous consultant had met with Mr Cordell on her own to carry out an assessment but did not feel safe and had to leave without completing the assessment. The council officers were not part of the assessment and only attended the appointment to ensure that the consultant was not at risk.

I do understand from our conversation that you intend to pursue this matter further via solicitors.

Summary!
My Heart has really started to hurt me every day, I am having an early aged mild heart attacks because of what Debra Andrews and the Mathiyalagan Markandu family as well as stain Curtis and George Quinton get and got away with, inclusively of what the police and local council members are getting away with each day by holding me hostage with no first hand witness and then on allowing my estate members to carry out their hate crime in a cover up to send me crazy or to an early death by flushing the toilet below me and bagging at me causing me sufferings and no peace also letting the named attack me when I am in the bath tub and getting undressed and this does not stop their I continue to get assaulted with the water taps getting slammed on and off causing a loud bagging sound at a fast rate and slamming object and or jumping on the floorboards above my head damaging my work studies and private family life and making me a Vulnerable person!
I have also had a lot of problems with eating because of what they keep all doing to me!
My canine has victualing its paws because of what 113 – 117 and 111 are getting away with I have taken pictures of the damage this is doing to us in this flat!
If what they do to me finally kills me then it would also kill a lot of other people in the process!

Dear Sirs URGENT

Claim number: E00ED049- Edmonton County Court

We write further to the Order made by District Judge Dias following the hearing on 26th June 2018.

Paragraph 1 of the order states the following: 'By 4pm on 10 July 2018 the Defendant shall undergo a mental capacity assessment by a Consultant Psychiatrist at an appointment to be arranged of which the Defendant shall be given at least 24 hours' notice and a report shall be prepared in relation to the Defendant's capacity to litigate and capacity to understand the meaning of the interim injunction dated 09 January 2018 and that report shall be filed at court and served on each party to the litigation'.

We confirm that the Defendant was assessed by Dr Dhinakaran, a psychiatrist consultant on 5th July 2018. A copy of her assessment report is attached to this email and it confirms that the Defendant lacks capacity to litigate/ understand the terms of the injunction order.

The Claimant was also directed to file a witness statement in response to this assessment if so advised by 10th July 2018. We confirm that the Claimant has no comments to make at this stage. We have asked the Defendant's solicitors to contact the Enfield Assessment Mental Health team and instruct them to release the Defendant's medical documents so the Claimant could consider them and make further comments. However we have had no confirmation from the Defendant's solicitors as to whether the Defendant has provided the relevant consent and we therefore reserve the right to make further submissions until these documents are received by the Claimant.

Dear Lorraine,
That's great news.
Enough time for us to apply for legal aid and have that arranged. I doubt that they will arrange to assess him within the next 3 days, but if any issue, you can give Simon my number and ask him to contact me whilst you're away. Have a good trip.

Dear Trishna Kerai
Just would like to say thank you for all your help in this matter.
4050,
Just got home from the court it has been adjourned for 28 days so things can be done one of them is the assessment of my son. I am going away today and will be back on the 30th June, so I hope that the council does not arrange a date for this week for the assessment to take place.

  Telephone call from Lorraine Cordell's mother of Simon, said I sent a report to court without her or Simon's consent. She read out a progress note I had written in 15th June,
  unhappy as she is named and her son has issues with Trust.
  I am unable to see on Rio that I sent any reports to Enfield council. Lorraine agreed to e-mail me what she has with the details for her to review. Reported that she wishes to make a compliant.

Dear Angela Hague
Thank you for taking the time to spoke to me today, I have called before this date trying to speak to you regarding this but each time you were not in the office.
I also was wrong on the date of your assessment of Simon it was the 19th June 2018 at 11:00 hours, so, it was between this time the report was spent over to Enfield Council and they then used it in court on the 26th June 2018 which as stated on the phone we did not have access to your report on that day only Enfield Council did and the Judge.
I am very shocked that this report has been sent to Enfield Council as you were very aware there was going to be a court assessment of Simon and before Simon had the assessment with you, me and Simon made sure it was nothing to do with the court assessment that had been ordered, and you clearly told both of us your assessment had nothing to do with the court assessment one you just wanted to make sure Simon was ok.
Your assessment report has also been used when the court assessment was done Enfield Council passed that on to the doctor who was doing the assessment.
I also do not understand why my name is all over it stating things I did not say to you or anyone, I seems like all the mental health team want to do is make my son lose trust in me, stating things I am meant to have said and have not this been not the 1st time the mental health team has done this and I am not happy with what is going on here.
You are meant to be there to help people and yet the mental health team is causing more problems than anything else breaching someone trust is a very big issue and once again this has been done without a care of the impact that is going to cause.
This seems to not be the only information that has been given to Enfield Council as Enfield Council has said things in court multiple times even using incorrect information so I would also like to know where Enfield Council is being passed this information from about my son's health and why no consent has been given to pass this information over to Enfield Council. When I spoke with you I told you my son had lost all trust and this is the sort of reasons why reports being sent out to other body's when in fact there was no right to do so, my son has never given consent for any of his medical records to be given out to Enfield Council and we want to know the reason as to who and why this report was handed to Enfield Council, then used in a court of law and then passed to a doctor to do the court assessment, and is going to use in court many times what rights was used when this report was handed out and what duty of care was used.

I would like this looked into as soon as possible, and the person's name who is sending this information to Enfield Council and the department they work for, I would also like to know the complaints email as I believe what has been done regarding this is wrong in law and a breach of data protection as well as other breaches towards my son and the use of my name 4055, stating things, I did not say. Regards

Telephone call from Lorraine Cordell's mother of Simon, said I sent a report to court without her or Simon's consent.
She read out a progress note I had written in 15th June, unhappy as she is named and her son has issues with Trust.
I am unable to see on Rio that I sent any reports to Enfield council.
Lorraine agreed to e-mail me what she has with the details for her to review. Reported that she wishes to make a compliant.

Dear Trishna
I sent Simon the report and he read it. He says no way are the council getting his medical records he does not agree to this, could the council get a court order to get his medical records?

He is upset due to what it says about him, but he knows this hurts the council as well because they never done their job towards him and only ever taken one side and not wanted to hear a word we had to say, everything has just been put on him. I know he wants to see or chat to you this week, I know it was said for today, but I cannot do today, if you could give us a day for this week and time, I would be grateful.

Disrepair!

I got made to feel infuriated by the Enfield Councils and the Enfield Homes dissertated practice towards their Statutory Duty of conduct towards their clients, because it makes me sufferer every day and night by their staff's negligence after their intentional inflection of emotional distress that I gets inflected upon me, in the staff understanding the urgency of me having heating in my home and not correcting the issues of the Damp, Sound Proofing and one existence of the Heating!

Sorry I have not been in contract with you I have had many appointments that I could not miss. Simon spoke to me today and he does want a meeting with you as soon as possible. I cannot do Wednesday or Thursday this week but any other day would be fine if that is possible with you before the next hearing in court. Simon also asked if there was any update as to how this is going to be dealt with. He also asked will he need to attend court on the 09/08/2018 as he really does not feel up to it. Once again sorry I cannot be in contract with you.

Dear Trishna
I sent Simon the report and he read it.
He says no way are the council getting his medical records he does not agree to this, could the council get a court order to get his medical records?
He is upset due to what it says about him, but he knows this hurts the council as well because they never done their job towards him and only ever taken one side and not wanted to hear a word we had to say, everything has just been put on him. I know he wants to see or chat to you this week, I know it was said for today, but I cannot do today, if you could give us a day for this week and time, I would be grateful.

Dear Trishna

Sorry I have not been in contract with you I have had many appointments that I could not miss.
Simon spoke to me today and he does want a meeting with you as soon as possible.
I cannot do Wednesday or Thursday this week but any other day would be fine if that is possible with you before the next hearing in court.
Simon also asked if there was any update as to how this is going to be dealt with.
He also asked will he need to attend court on the 09/08/2018 as he really does not feel up to it. Once again sorry I cannot be in contract with you.
Regards
Lorraine

I have also had a lot of problems with eating because of what they keep all doing to me!
My canine has victualing its paws because of what 113 – 117 and 111 are getting away with I have taken pictures of the damage this is doing to us in this flat!

I have not received anything new from Enfield Council as of yet. He will need to attend, unless you have a medical note / doctor's letter explaining that he does not like to leave the house... I am available tomorrow or Wednesday, anytime if you and him wish to attend the office. Any time would be fine by me.

I hope you had a good holiday; I did email you the below email when you were away, and was wondering if there is any update, Simon called me today and is worried regarding the court hearing and if he will need to attend. I know also he would like to see you or maybe have a call with you before the court date. I was also wondering if there have been any updates from Enfield Council as they should have by now given a bundle and was wondering if anything new is in it.

I cannot do Wednesday or Thursday this week but any other day would be fine if that is possible with you before the next hearing in court. Simon also asked if there was any update as to how this is going to be dealt with. He also asked will he need to attend court on the 09/08/2018 as he really does not feel up to it. Dear Trishna
I sent Simon the report and he read it. He says no way are the council getting his medical records he does not agree to this, could the council get a court order to get his medical records?

He is upset due to what it says about him, but he knows this hurts the council as well because they never done their job towards him and only ever taken one side and not wanted to hear a word we had to say, everything has just been put on him. I know he wants to see or chat to you this week, I know it was said for today, but I cannot do today, if you could give us a day for this week and time, I would be grateful.

You will see that I have copied you and Mrs Cordell to my email to the Court, enclosing an application notice to appoint Mrs Cordell as Simon's litigation friend. Following the report produced by Dr Dhinakaran on 7th July 2018 which confirms Mr Cordell's lacks capacity to litigate, we believe that it will be reasonable that Mr Cordell be assisted by a litigation friend. Giving Lorraine Cordell's involvement in this case we are of the view that she will be the best person to be appointed as a litigation friend.
I have copied Mrs Cordell to this email correspondence as she's expected to be served and to respond to the application at the hearing. I will be grateful if you could seek instructions from Mr Cordell and let me know whether the application will be agreed or opposed. I would also like to have Mrs Cordell's position in response to the application ahead of the hearing.
I have asked that the application be dealt with by DJ Dias at the hearing on 9th August 2018, 10am.
I look forward to hearing from you.

9 Mother to the Enfield Council Ludmilla lyavoo about Housing Transfer the Judge Ordered: “Thank you for the update email, as you will see form my below email, I had already been told it would been a housing management transfer, my brother had a long talk with Nadine and he did try and speak to Michael Adugyamfi but he was in a meeting, Nadine kindly sent him an email with my email details for him to contract me, but the best phone number to call me on is 07807 333545. Would it be possible to have a contract email for Michael Adugyamfi as you know I am on a short time scale ordered by the judge of 7 days to get this addressed. Also, would it be possible to get the time scale as to when I will get the order form the court, and has the police been informed regarding the dismissal of both the injection orders."

Dear Trishna,
I write further to my email to you and Mrs Lorraine Cordell. Our allocation manager has advised us that as Mr Cordell is an existing council tenant, he is entitled to apply for a transfer of tenancy and cannot make a rehousing application.
I am advised that the application needs to be done via Mr Cordell's neighbourhood officer. I have emailed the officer and asked him to contact Mrs Cordell as soon as possible. Mrs Cordell is also encouraged to contact the Mental Health Team so they can support him with his MH issues and rehousing. I have amended the order to reflect the above and look forward to hearing from you.

[00:00:08] Emergency what service.

[00:00:08] Hello Can you put me through to the police please.

[00:00:09] Police, thank you.

[00:00:11] Sorry, I rung a second ago the phone was playing but I couldn't speak.

[00:00:17] Hello you are through to police emergency.

[00:00:18] Hello how are you doing. I've been contacting you in regards to issues I've been having in my house.

[00:00:21] You just recently yesterday sent a police officer out to my house.

[00:00:26] OK.

[00:00:26] And he was. He wasn't able to deal with any of the on goings. For some reason he heard he's passed it along to another gentleman. And every time my phone calls in regards to my neighbours attacking me they're flush in the toilet every time I go, above the toilet go to the toilet above my head. They're continuously banging above me when I'm getting in the bath. I understand the noise talks of law civil litigation.

I understand that Christy v Davey is the first ever people banging each of which calls noise pollution. The police keep saying this is a noise complaint and if you check on your computers. I've called you over 130 times in regards to getting assaulted. by these neighbours that I once helped. Now they keep saying you lot keep saying it's a noise problem. I'm very upset that you've not realized that this is turning to hate crime which is a crime because it says hate crime and it's from hate crime it's turned into attempted manslaughter. I want these people prosecuted for attempted manslaughter against me in my own home.

[00:01:20] But why is there, sorry, sorry hmm but why is it attempted manslaughter

[00:01:26] if it's a noisy neighbour.

[00:01:27] Thought OK if we go through this very slowly year you understand that we live in. We live in the UK and we live under our human rights which is a 1998 Human Rights and when in 1942 in our continental human rights in our human rights just in Article two it says the right to life. We have that within the UK here. Now when somebody tries to take away my right to life that becomes attempted manslaughter or attempted murder. Now also Article three if my Human Rights says that if any person physically assaults me or physically or mentally assaults me. Both of them said they touch me or they physically assault me not touch me. This will amount to torture. So, it says that in equal free physical or mental sufferings yeah which are right now I'm complaining about those mental sufferings that they're mentally attacking me and my sanity. And that this is amounting in the way that they're attacking me will leave me in a hospital and could leave me and leave me with heart pains anxiety I'm having high anxiety pains in my heart I keep writing into the council.

[00:02:32] OK, can I stop you there. Can I stop you there so, basically what you are saying is that you do not feel that it has been dealt with as adequately?
[00:02:36] two hundred and thirty phone calls to yourselves to you all I have got over.
[00:02:39] OK, OK.
[00:02:39] I have got over three hundred videos of you all
[00:02:39] OK, OK I am just trying to establish the facts here, so do you so do you want to make a complaint. Because I cannot comment on the way that police have dealt with that. Okay.
[00:02:51] I don't know all of the details.
[00:02:52] But you can handle it you can handle a case from this second, I'm informing you my neighbours woke me up again this morning attacking me.
[00:02:59] Right OK, so how were they attacking you I just needed to get some of the facts here.
[00:03:04] They are getting pots and pans from in their kitchen they're entering their front room with the pots and pans and they're smashing the pots and pans above where I sleep. They're also doing this when I go into the bathroom.
[00:03:14] Right OK,
[00:03:14] In their bathroom room they have --- floor.
[00:03:15] So, they are being extremely noisy and they are trying to antagonize you.
[00:03:19] Not extremely noisy and in the extreme legalism and ignore easy when I don't really legally eavesdrop into my privacy yeah into my private home and I listen to what room I enter into when I enter into them rooms. Yeah, they will follow me into them rooms with their hate crime and they will try to cover up them left fabricate that they've made. Yeah, they're trying to cover up the fabricated statements and the fact that they've killed my unborn child in my own firm. I've got the medical notes my turn and they put me and my partner through so much through so much mental stress in our homes and you know not protecting us that she had a miscarriage in our own home when we should be safeguarded and have the right to a private and family life or equal 13 with inside of my home.
[00:04:05] I paid the rent and I I'm a secure tenant and they're not even secure tenants I'm not I think I'm goanna call them a customer.
[00:04:16] I do understand what you're saying. OK.
[00:04:19] But this has already been dealt with so I can deal with one happy outcome. A complaint each of the comments. I think you speak for me.
[00:04:34] Thank you. Did you call you back to discuss the issue? You have the ongoing issue and you feel the police to support you.
[00:04:47] I called your calls and an me.
[00:04:53] Well I can't tell you because you should not have attended my party once in fact to in five years in recordings, I've shown them video evidence of the people I talk to me it.
[00:05:10] It's not something I can comment on.
[00:05:13] Would you come. You can do it. We can do is do what the NSIR signed you up to do.
[00:05:17] Listen, listen, you are not listening to me are you.
[00:05:17] Of course I am madam.

[00:05:22] No, you are not, no you are not.
[00:05:23] Of course I am madam.
[00:05:23] You're not
[00:05:23] I just have a different opinion to you.
[00:05:25] You are constantly speaking over me.
[00:05:27] I'm hurt, I just may have a different opinion to you for what your job tells you are there to do.
[00:05:29] If you want to listen to me about what I am going to tell you
[00:05:32] Your Constitution tells you that you must protect me.
[00:05:35] OK, I will wait until you are ready then I will wait until you are ready.
[00:05:35] year I will prefer that.
[00:05:36] Your Constitution tells you if someone calls you for as a CFS a call for services which I am calling you a member of the public. Your constitution that you sign so, that you can work for a company to friendly association social that you do you now.
[00:05:51] Right listen I am going to stop, I am going to stop you now, OK.
[00:05:51] You have NSIR regulations says this CD data says that you should protect me if I give you a graded listed issue yeah and perjury is of the highest attempted manslaughter.
[00:06:01] Listen to me, Listen to me.
[00:06:02] You Look grading your issues.
[00:06:02] Listen, listen, listen.
[00:06:03] You need to get a police officer to my house within 60 seconds of someone doing it and take the evidence, under the evidence Act 1941.
[00:06:06] If you are not prepared to listen to me, I am going to have to clear the line.
[00:06:10] I am recording this and I am going to put this into my report.
[00:06:13] Yeah and I'm goanna play this back to the general public and within the next couple of weeks or months with everything else that I've recorded I've got your call centres is calling me a black bastered and telling me that I have been robbed down the phone I have every one of them.
[00:06:22] I do not believe that for one moment.
[00:06:26] do you want me to play it to you right now.
[00:06:26] This is something that you can discuss with
[00:06:30] don't challenge me.
[00:06:31] I am not challenging you.
[00:06:32] Don't challenge me if I'm telling you that I have got the evidence.
[00:06:33] I am clearing the line now.
[00:06:35] okay. you are being totally unreasonable.
[00:06:37] Can I please take a Cad number to this call, please.

[00:00:01] Emergency Service.
[00:00:02] Hello can you put me through o the police Please.
[00:00:02] Police Thank you.
[00:00:03] Thank you.
[00:00:09] Hello you are through to the police, what is your emergency.
[00:00:09] Hello. I have a few questions to ask you. I'm trying to I have noticed something yeah; some people were trying to set me up upstairs which the police. No, it's Mr. Simon called at 109 Burncroft Avenue.
[00:00:21] I've been complaining about Mathiyalagan and Rethety err Mathiyalagan they can live at 1 1 7 Burncroft Avenue. Now I've let stuff go on for two years I've been phoning your call centres continuously recording all of these things. I made a website called horrific corruption and I've loaded uploaded all the recordings and done the transcripts and it proves everything I've been talking about. Now the conversation that I want to have with you is very serious.
[00:00:46] Hello Sir you have called the emergency line.
[00:00:46] Yes, this is this is about terrorism. It's about terrorism about bombing people up and about and about fake fraudulent names, marriages and fake names. Yeah. And in fulfilling in court case paperwork and in setting me up in a fake marriage name yeah
[00:01:00] Now what the terrorism I'm trying to explain here is this. Yeah, the reason I've explained to you the history is that this has gone on for two years now just recently. 1 1 7 who live upstairs. put another application in with the council. Now what they thought when they put their application in with the council was, they put a doctor's note in the application in that doctor's note it has her real address in her previous address which is 14 Netley Road Walthamstow then they have lined over and put 1 1 7 Burncroft Avenue. So, I done checks on 14 Netley Road and start to do my homework when the people are setting me up. If that makes any sense now what I find is very concerning. Now the woman the woman upstairs goes by Ravity Mathiyalagan.
[00:01:43] She used R A V A T HY.
[00:01:46] Sir sorry we are on the emergency line and this if for something that is taking place right now.
[00:01:51] I'm explaining to you that let me explain to you where there is terrorism and that goes 100 houses her sister, I found her sister her sisters is a suicide bomber a lite suicide bomber and that they've got their forged their marriage name forge their marriage names with fake names.
[00:02:06] Were does the sister live.
[00:02:07] You see the sister the sisters live in. I'm not too sure where the sister is living at present but they have over 100 houses in their name yeah.
[00:02:14] How do you know that this is a suicide bomber if you do not know where she lives
[00:02:16] Because what I've done is there from there from there from what do you call it from Sri Lanka and in 2009 Sri Lanka was having a war year a Genocide war that lasted for 1983.
[00:02:31] And what makes you think that she apart of that.

[00:02:42] What does that have to do with her connection.
[00:02:42] No, no, no, no, no. Now what. What happens is Rethity is not her real name. The name that she's is filling all of the court paperwork's in with and go into court against me is not her real name. She owns over 50 houses in a real name. Then she went to the marriage place and used a fake marriage name which I can prove here now because I have got all of their marriage certificates all the sensor records and everything here. She forged her marriage a first name and forced her last name so that she can get a council flat and hide the other hundred houses that were hit in a real name. I found the other 100 houses. Yeah, I've got one hundred houses in real life that she really Young's no dad really owns none the less she built over a million pound. Yeah, I find all of the paperwork they send in over a million pound to Sri Lanka through school's children's schools in that yeah, and kid's schools.
[00:03:32] Right Sir can you go down to the police station with all that information and all that paperwork.
[00:03:36] Yeah, I will do that 100%.
[00:03:38] Can you do that now go down to the police station.
[00:03:39] I will tell you I'm being serious with you I'm not mucking about. I'm not 100 percent.
[00:03:44] All right Sir go down to the police station now go straight to Edmonton
[00:03:44] Sure. I will do that.
[00:03:47] Thank you bye, bye.

Dear Trishna,
I write further to my email to you and Mrs Lorraine Cordell. Our allocation manager has advised us that as Mr Cordell is an existing council tenant, he is entitled to apply for a transfer of tenancy and cannot make a rehousing application.
I am advised that the application needs to be done via Mr Cordell's neighbourhood officer. I have emailed the officer and asked him to contact Mrs Cordell as soon as possible. Mrs Cordell is also encouraged to contact the Mental Health Team so they can support him with his MH issues and rehousing. I have amended the order to reflect the above and look forward to hearing from you.

TN THE COUNTY COURT AT EDMONTON Claim No: E00ED049
Before District Judge Dias
THE LONDON BOROUGH OF ENFTELD
and Claimant
MR STMON CORDELL
Defendant

ORDER

UPON hearing Solicitor for the Claimant and Defendant, the Defendant's mother, the Defendant's uncle, and the Defendant not attending
UPON the Court reviewing the psychiatrist report of Dr Dhinakaran dated 08 July 2018 confirming that the Defendant lacks capacity to litigate and/or capacity to understand the terms of the injunction order made on 09 January 2018
UPON the Defendant's mother Mrs Lorraine Cordell, confirming that she will engage with the Claimant and assist the Defendant's neighbourhood officer in making a housing management transfer application on or before 16 August 2018.
UPON the Claimant agreeing that it will deal with the housing management transfer application as quickly as possible after being made.
This is in progress and it was stated my son would need a 2-bedroom place due to needing someone with him. The council is already trying to get away with this by saying a like to like place which I see they are trying to do a 1-bedroom place.

And UPON the Defendant's mother agreeing to engage with the Enfield Mental Health Unit team so the Defendant could receive assistance with his mental health conditions and housing.
The above section is wrong I did not agree to engage with Enfield Mental Health Unit team, so the Defendant could receive assistance with his mental health conditions and housing. (What was stated I was dealing with the mental health team due to a complaint, and it was stated I would ask the mental health team if they would help regarding moving Simon, this is being done ATM, I cannot say my son will take assistance with his mental health conditions, due to the fact that will be down to him and not me I can try and get him to get help, but it's not down to me if he takes it.
IT IS ORDERED:
The interim injunction order dated 09 January 2018 be discharged forthwith.
It was stated it would be dismissed not discharged the judge asked them if they wanted discharged or dismissed and they stated dismissed, I see now why they are trying to change this to discharged. As discharged means discharge is an unconditional discharge where the Court finds that a crime has technically been committed, but that any punishment of the defendant would be inappropriate, and the case is closed. It has never been proven that my son done anything.
The Claimant's claim and application for an injunction dated 09 January 2018, the Claimant's applications for the Defendant's committal dated 05 February 2018 and 20 April 2018 and the Claimant's application notice dated 07 August 2018 do stand dismissed.
The Claimant should serve a copy of this order upon the Wood Green Police station.
This should be all police as it on record and if he gets arrested at any police station this can come up if it's not removed from full record.
There be no order as to costs save for detailed assessment of the Defendant's publicly funded costs.

My son has to be re-housed and I want that to be done correctly even if more time is needed and this is not taken to the panel until next week, I do want it done as soon as possible due to what the neighbours are still doing, I don't want things rushed by Enfield Council because they know now they have done wrong and made beaches regarding my son I want it done correctly, as stated I want the mental health input if they are willing to give it as it seems since I put the complaint in they do not seem to want to talk with me as stated to you outside the court room, but that is being addressed and I am waiting for a call back today regarding the housing issue, I have spoken with a few people over the last week regarding this, but due to a change over with the people dealing with my son and him not given a named worker yet it has been hard. Also, can you tell me if I am allowed to attend the panel hearing and also maybe a mental health worker if they are willing to attend also? I will await to hear from you today."

Could you please forward the housing management transfer application that Lemmy called me about last night 15/08/2018 at 16:15 hours, as I have the mental health team calling me regarding the like-to-like section in the application.
I have not yet seen the application that has been filled in for my son by Enfield Council, and I would like to see it before it is submitted to the broad tomorrow.
Also, would it be possible to get a copy of Enfield Councils guidelines and policies for the management transfer application, I do believe I have a copy but want to make sure I have the correct one.

Dear Ms Cordell,
Thank you for your emails. I have made enquiries with our housing allocation manager and since Mr Cordell is an existing council tenant, he will need to apply for a transfer, so he does not need to make a new rehousing application.
This transfer application must to be done via Simon Cordell's neighbourhood officer. I have emailed the officer in question and will ask him contact you as soon as possible. Can you please provide me with a preferred contact number so the officer can make an appointment with you and Mr Cordell? I have copied Mr Cordell's solicitors to this email.

Could you please send me the link to the application form as I have been looking all day my brother even went up to the civic centre and they could not give him a link they said there is not one.

I wanted to get this done as soon as possible and Enfield Council website is not great to use.

2 The Enfield Council Ludmilla Iyavoo & Neighbourhood Watch Team Manager Michael Adu-Gyamfi to Mother about Housing Transfer the Judge Ordered: "I write in response to your email below and further to our telephone conversation held a few minutes ago. As explained, it is not usual practice for a management transfer application to be forwarded to the applicant as this is a document which is usually completed by a housing officer and used internally. So please accept my apologies if you may have been advised previously that this would be the case. However, we are happy to discuss its contents with you should you wish to. I enclose a copy of the Enfield Housing Allocation Scheme, which is used by the exceptions panel before considering a management transfer application. I explained to you that if the application goes ahead tomorrow (this was the earliest exceptions panel meeting), Simon could only be considered for a transfer of property which is similar to the one he currently occupies (like for like transfer). You explained to me that you believe that your son requires supported accommodation. You also said that he has agreed to see a consultant of the Enfield Mental Health Team and was given an appointment on 31/08/2018 at 9.30am. I have explained that Simon will need to be assessed by the team in order to be considered for supported accommodation. On that basis you agreed to have the management transfer application deferred to be considered at the next panel meeting which will take place on 28/09/2018, this would allow more time for an assessment to be carried out by the Mental health team. Please confirm that this is agreed by yourself and Simon. I also confirmed that the exceptions panel meetings are attended by professionals which means that tenants or members of their family are not allowed to attend. However, the meetings can be attended by mental health workers. I hope this email answers your queries, please do not hesitate to contact me if you have further questions."

Dear Ludmilla lyavoo
Could you please forward the housing management transfer application that Lemmy called me about last night 15/08/2018 at 16:15 hours, as I have the mental health team calling me regarding the like-to-like section in the application. I have not yet seen the application that has been filled in for my son by Enfield Council, and I would like to see it before it is submitted to the broad tomorrow. Also, would it be possible to get a copy of Enfield Councils guidelines and policies for the management transfer application, I do believe I have a copy but want to make sure I have the correct one. As you are aware at court it was stated I had to fill an application in by today, but it was not stated as to what application it was, and then it was found out the application had to be done by the council so all the wrong information was told to the judge, and as you are aware what I said to the judge regarding a 2 bedroom and then what Lemmy said to the judge that my son would not get one, then what the judge said to Lemmy regarding a 2 bedroom.
I do not want my son placed into a new home that is not going to be appropriate, I want to get it right for him, after all his health has gone downhill due to all the court cases and what the neighbours were and are still doing to him and Enfield council took no notice of the hell my son was living in all they done was believed the neighbours, then on top Enfield Council basically telling the courts there was nothing wrong with my son's health even though I was telling Enfield Council since the start of 2015 via emails the impact this was having on my son regarding what the neighbours were doing, I want Enfield Council to take this seriously as so far where my son has been concerned you have only blamed him for everything and gone one sided and never heard what my son or I have had to say, I believe if Enfield Council had done the correct investigations they would have seen there was a lot more going on here then what the neighbours was saying, but Enfield Council only blamed without wanting to know the facts. My son has to be re-housed and I want that to be done correctly even if more time is needed and this is not taken to the panel until next week, I do want it done as soon as possible due to what the neighbours are still doing, I don't want things rushed by Enfield Council because they know now they have done wrong and made beaches regarding my son I want it done correctly, as stated I want the mental health input if they are willing to give it as it seems since I put the complaint in they do not seem to want to talk with me as stated to you outside the court room, but that is being addressed and I am waiting for a call back today regarding the housing issue, I have spoken with a few people over the last week regarding this, but due to a change over with the people dealing with my son and him not given a named worker yet it has been hard. Also, can you tell me if I am allowed to attend the panel hearing and also maybe a mental health worker if they are willing to attend also?

I will await to hear from you today.

Thank you for your emails.
I have made enquiries with our housing allocation manager and since Mr Cordell is an existing council tenant, he will need to apply for a transfer, so he does not need to make a new rehousing application. This transfer application must to be done via Simon Cordell's neighbourhood officer. I have emailed the officer in question and will ask him contact you as soon as possible. 3 Mother to the Enfield Council Ludmilla lyavoo & Neighbourhood Watch Team Manager Michael Adu-Gyamfi about Housing Transfer the Judge Ordered: "I am not saying my son needs are of supported accommodation as I believe in Enfield Council teams that means him being place in accommodation where a person looks after people that are in supported accommodation and my son would not know this person or have any options. What I am saying is what I said in court that I would like my son to have a two-bedroom accommodation so that the very supported family he has got can be with him, which the whole family has agreed to help we are a very close family and we are always there for each other when help is needed. The enclosed Enfield Housing Allocation Scheme only has limited information regarding management transfer application and I am sure there is a more detailed management transfer policy within Enfield Council. At this stage we do agree to have the management transfer application deferred I have spoken to Simon regarding this, we do not want things rushed and not done correctly with all information, I believe the next panel is on the 28/09/2018 as you have stated. I know an appointment has been booked on the 31/08/2018 at 9.30am as yet that is all the information we have been given as this was told to me to over the phone yesterday, I am not sure yet who it is with, but we should get a letter regarding this shortly. As stated, I am dealing with this and at this time need no help due to the ongoing complaint that is being addressed which goes into many issues. I know you have asked more than once if you can contract them, at this time we do not agree with this due to issues that are being dealt with in the complaint and I do not want any more confusion then there already is with data."

52. Transfer Form the Enfield Council Ludmilla lyavoo & Neighbourhood Watch Team Manager Michael Adu-Gyamfi to Mother about Housing Transfer the Judge Ordered:
"I write in response to your email below and further to our telephone conversation held a few minutes ago. As explained, it is not usual practice for a management transfer application to be forwarded to the applicant as this is a document which is usually completed by a housing officer and used internally. So please accept my apologies if you may have been advised previously that this would be the case. However, we are happy to discuss its contents with you should you wish to. I enclose a copy of the Enfield Housing Allocation Scheme, which is used by the exceptions panel before considering a management transfer application. I explained to you that if the application goes ahead tomorrow (this was the earliest exceptions panel meeting), Simon could only be considered for a transfer of property which is similar to the one he currently occupies (like for like transfer). You explained to me that you believe that your son requires supported accommodation. You also said that he has agreed to see a consultant of the Enfield Mental Health Team and was given an appointment on 31/08/2018 at 9.30am. I have explained that Simon will need to be assessed by the team in order to be considered for supported accommodation. On that basis you agreed to have the management transfer application deferred to be considered at the next panel meeting which will take place on 28/09/2018, this would allow more time for an assessment to be carried out by the Mental health team. Please confirm that this is agreed by yourself and Simon. I also confirmed that the exceptions panel meetings are attended by professionals which means that tenants or members of their family are not allowed to attend. However, the meetings can be attended by mental health workers. I hope this email answers your queries, please do not hesitate to contact me if you have further questions."

Dear Ludmilla, lyavoo
Could you please forward the housing management transfer application that Lemmy called me about last night 15/08/2018 at 16:15 hours, as I have the mental health team calling me regarding the like-to-like section in the application. I have not yet seen the application that has been filled in for my son by Enfield Council, and I would like to see it before it is submitted to the broad tomorrow.
Also, would it be possible to get a copy of Enfield Councils guidelines and policies for the management transfer application, I do believe I have a copy but want to make sure I have the correct one.
As you are aware at court it was stated I had to fill an application in by today, but it was not stated as to what application it was, and then it was found out the application had to be done by the council so all the wrong information was told to the judge, and as you are aware what I said to the judge regarding a 2 bedroom and then what Lemmy said to the judge that my son would not get one, then what the judge said to Lemmy regarding a 2 bedroom.
I do not want my son placed into a new home that is not going to be appropriate, I want to get it right for him, after all his health has gone downhill due to all the court cases and what the neighbours were and are still doing to him and Enfield council took no notice of the hell my son was living in all they done was believed the neighbours, then on top Enfield Council basically telling the courts there was nothing wrong with my son's health even though I was telling Enfield Council since the start of 2015 via emails the impact this was having on my son regarding what the neighbours were doing, I want Enfield Council to take this seriously as so far where my son has been concerned you have only blamed him for everything and gone one sided and never heard what my son or I have had to say, I believe if Enfield Council had done the correct investigations they would have seen there was a lot more going on here then what the neighbours was saying, but Enfield Council only blamed without wanting to know the facts.

My son has to be re-housed and I want that to be done correctly even if more time is needed and this is not taken to the panel until next week, I do want it done as soon as possible due to what the neighbours are still doing, I don't want things rushed by Enfield Council because they know now they have done wrong and made beaches regarding my son I want it done correctly, as stated I want the mental health input if they are willing to give it as it seems since I put the complaint in they do not seem to want to talk with me as stated to you outside the court room, but that is being addressed and I am waiting for a call back today regarding the housing issue, I have spoken with a few people over the last week regarding this, but due to a change over with the people dealing with my son and him not given a named worker yet it has been hard.
Also, can you tell me if I am allowed to attend the panel hearing and also maybe a mental health worker if they are willing to attend also? I will await to hear from you today.

Lorraine Cordell

Dear Mrs Cordell,
I have emailed Michael Adu- Gyamfi and asked him to contact you as soon as possible, please note that he's aware of the deadline and will be in touch in due course.
I have emailed a draft order to Trishna Kerai of Stuart Miller solicitors and I'm currently waiting her approval. Once I have this, I will be in a position to email the Court with the agreed order. I can't confirm the time it will take the Court to approve the order but as soon as this is done, I am sure Ms Kerai will contact you and let you know.
We will contact the police regarding the discharge of the injunction order; however, we would need a sealed copy of the court order to be received first before such notification takes place.

Thank you for the update email, as you will see form my below email, I had already been told it would been a housing management transfer, my brother had a long talk with Nadine and he did try and speak to Michael Adugyamfi but he was in a meeting, Nadine kindly sent him an email with my email details for him to contract me, but the best phone number to call me on is 07807 333545.
Would it be possible to have a contract email for Michael Adugyamfi as you know I am on a short time scale ordered by the judge of 7 days to get this addressed.
Also, would it be possible to get the time scale as to when I will get the order form the court, and has the police been informed regarding the dismissal of both the injection orders.

Dear Ms Cordell,
Thank you for your emails.
I have made enquiries with our housing allocation manager and since Mr Cordell is an existing council tenant, he will need to apply for a transfer, so he does not need to make a new rehousing application.
This transfer application must be done via Simon Cordell's neighbourhood officer. I have emailed the officer in question and will ask him to contact you as soon as possible. Can you please provide me with a preferred contact number so the officer can make an appointment with you and Mr Cordell? I have copied Mr Cordell's solicitors to this email.

Introduction

This is Enfield's Housing Allocations Scheme. It tells you how we assess applications for housing and allocate social rented homes owned by Enfield Council and partner housing associations to households on Enfield's Housing Register.

Enfield is a very popular place to live. Many people want to rent a Council or housing association in Enfield. We expect demand for social rented homes in Enfield to increase as a result of the current economic climate and cuts in public expenditure including government welfare reform policies.

We have a severe shortage of housing. Just under 8,000 households are looking for this type of home through our Housing Register. On average 400 households join the Register each month. We expect to let 775 homes next year of which only 212 homes will have 3 or more bedrooms.

We are committed to increasing the supply of homes in the borough and our 15 year Housing Strategy describes our plans for doing this.

Most people on Enfield's Housing Register will never be offered a Council or housing association home. They will need to consider other housing options. This would include low cost home ownership schemes and renting from a private landlord.

Enfield Council's Aims

Enfield's Housing Allocations Scheme has been developed in a way that supports the Council's aims of:

- Fairness for all
- Building Strong Communities
- Growth and Sustainability

- Fairness for all

Fairness for all will be demonstrated in the following ways through the Allocations Scheme:

- Setting the Allocations Scheme within a wider housing advice and options approach
- Assisting applicants with a disability, older people and those with support needs to apply for housing through the Housing Register
- Enabling housing applicants to exercise choice through our choice based lettings system and taking preference into account when we make direct offers
- Maximising the supply of accessible homes for those with a disability

1965,

- Enabling everyone to understand how social rented housing is allocated through:
    - Having a revised Allocations scheme that is transparent and reasonably simple, clear, easily understood and accessible
    - Explaining who makes decisions, how long people may have to wait to be housed
    - Managing expectations and raising awareness by providing facts and figures about local pressures and the amount of housing available for letting
    - Monitoring and publishing better quality information about the people we house and the properties we let
    - Explaining what is being done to increase the amount of social rented housing

- Building Strong Communities

Building Strong Communities will be demonstrated in the following ways through the Allocations Scheme:

- Addressing severe overcrowding within social rented homes
- Supporting households back into work and creating a more balanced mix of residents on every housing estate in the borough.
- Requiring housing applicants to have a local connection with Enfield to be considered for affordable and social rented homes in the borough.
- Developing local lettings plans to address specific issues on estates or neighbourhoods.

- Growth and Sustainability

- Make best use of social rented homes by:
    - Addressing under occupation
    - Bringing empty homes back into use quickly
    - Regenerating Council-owned estates
    - Enabling tenants to participate in mobility schemes

1966,

Enfield Council's values are:

- One Team – Working together across teams, departments and partners to deliver the best possible services for Enfield's residents.

- Customer First – Treating the community, colleagues and partners with fairness and respect, listening and responding to their needs and designing our services around the people we serve.

- Achieving Excellence – Consistently striving to deliver standards of excellence through ambition, creativity, innovation, pride in our achievements and a 'can-do' attitude to new challenges.

- Empowering People – Enabling our staff and the local community to make informed choices and giving our staff the skills, knowledge and confidence to improve services, take personal responsibility, accept risk and recognise success.

We are committed to continuously improving our housing options and advice services and actively embedding these values within our services to improve customer satisfaction.

What we took into account when devising Enfield's Housing Allocations Scheme

As well as Enfield's aims and values, a wide range of documents including national and regional guidance, legislation, local strategies and consultation feedback has been taken into account when putting together this Housing Allocations Scheme for Enfield. These are set out in detail in Appendix 3.

Enfield's Vision for housing in the borough

Enfield has a vision for housing in the borough which is set out in its 15 year Housing Strategy. The vision is:

> "increase the supply of well-managed, good quality and affordable homes; promote housing choices and build strong neighbourhoods"

The Aims of the Strategy are:

Aim 1: Address housing need and promote personalised housing advice, options and choices

Aim 2: Increase housing supply to meet the needs of local people

Aim 3: Improve the quality of homes and neighbourhoods and contribute to strong communities

Enfield's Allocations Scheme makes an important contribution to achieving these aims.

The Aims of Enfield's Housing Allocations Scheme 2012-17

The aims of Enfield's Housing Allocations Scheme are

- To have a scheme that is clear and easily understood by everyone by
    - Adopting a simplified points scheme for assessing housing need and quotas for allocating social rented homes
    - Increasing the number of demand groups from 4 to 6 to make it clearer who is being allocated social rented homes
    - Publishing a clear summary of our allocations scheme and make it available at our offices and on the Council's website.

- To ensure social rented homes are allocated in a fair, flexible, efficient and accountable way by:
    - Following legislative requirements, case law, national, regional and local strategies and policies
    - Monitoring lettings and publishing better quality information about the people we house and the homes we let
    - Using information technology to register and assess housing applications on line
    - Improving customer satisfaction by putting in place better systems, processes and procedures for assessing applications and allocating social rented homes
    - Reviewing annually Enfield's local priorities for social rented homes

- To ensure the scheme allows the Council and its partner organisations to make best use of Enfield's social rented homes by
    - Keeping nomination agreements under review
    - Putting in place reciprocal arrangements with housing associations where the council has approved an emergency or exceptional transfer because of harassment, domestic violence or hate crime
    - Addressing under-occupation and severe overcrowding within social rented homes

1968,

- To enable housing applicants to have a choice of or express a preference about the social rented housing they would like to live in by
    - Managing expectations about the availability of social rented housing in the borough by providing applicants with sufficient information to help them make informed choices about where they live from a full range of housing options including social rented homes, affordable home ownership and private rented homes.
    - Minimising the use of accommodation provided by Enfield Council for households owed the full housing duty under the homelessness law
    - Taking applicants' preferences into account as far as possible when making direct offers
    - Enabling applicants to exercise choice through the choice based lettings system

- To assist in building sustainable and cohesive neighbourhoods in Enfield by
    - Giving priority to households with a local connection
    - Regenerating our Council-owned estates
    - Supporting households back into work and creating a more balanced mix of residents on every housing estate in the borough.

Enfield's Statement on Choice

Enfield's Allocations Scheme has been framed to allow applicants to express preferences in the type of property and area in which they wish to live, and between the Council and housing associations as landlords.

Choice is enabled through:

- most vacant social rented homes being advertised through the Choice Based Lettings system, Home Connections
- applicants' preferences being taken into account as far as possible when the Council makes them a Direct Offer
- many, but not all, categories of housing applicants having the opportunity to receive more than one offer.

Information being published regularly on the websites of the Council and the Home Connections on the letting of vacant social rented homes in the borough including where homes were located, the type of homes let, which categories of applicants were housed, how many were let by choice based lettings and how many were let by direct offer, approximate waiting times for different categories of applicant. This information will enable applicants to compare their own circumstances with those housed and understand better their own chances of being housed. In the context of a severe shortage of Council and housing association homes in Enfield and the concentration of most social rented homes the east of the borough, it may not be possible to fulfil applicants' preferences.

Enfield expects applicants to be flexible, consider compromising and decide what is most important when making decisions about their preferences for a social rented home: that is, area, type of housing and preferred landlord.

The penalties for refusing offers are clearly set out in this Scheme. For example, applicants who think they may be able to hold out for a house rather than a flat in their area of their choice may find their housing application is cancelled if they refuse offers of accommodation the Council believes are reasonable and meet the needs of the applicant's household.

The following circumstances outline where it is particularly unlikely that the Council can fulfil every aspect of applicants' preferences:

- Where an existing Council or housing association tenant has to be moved urgently
- Where the applicant needs accommodation which rarely becomes available, e.g. wheelchair-adapted accommodation or homes with 4 or more bedrooms
- Where an applicant has not engaged with the choice based lettings system and the Council has decided to make them a direct offer

Reviewing Enfield's Allocations Scheme

There will be an on-going review of Enfield's Allocations Scheme during the first year of operation. Minor amendments will be agreed by the Cabinet Member for Housing and Area Improvement to address practical issues revealed by the on-going review or made necessary due to further legislation or case law. Major changes will be reported back to Cabinet at the end of one year.

1971,

Valuing Equality, Diversity and Accessibility

Enfield has one of the most diverse populations in London and the council is working hard to strengthen and build sustainable communities and neighbourhoods. We value our diverse community and will seek to ensure all applicants have fair access to the Allocations Scheme and services we provide.

We have carried out a comprehensive Equalities Impact Assessment of our Allocations Scheme which is available on Enfield's website:

www.enfield.gov.uk/housingpolicies

A summary Housing Equalities Report is produced annually which describes the people who apply for and are allocated Enfield's council and Housing association homes. A copy is available on the Council's website.

Accessibility

In order to ensure that everyone is able to access housing advice and assistance and, where appropriate, bid for housing through our choice based lettings system, Home Connections, we provide the following:

- The Housing pages of Enfield Council's website
  - Enfield's website has been built to be accessible to those who are hard of hearing or visually impaired. It is compatible with popular screen readers and can be navigated easily using a series of keyboard shortcuts.
  - For those that have difficulty reading, have limited vision or for those for whom English is not a first language Enfield's website has text-to speech technology and all pages can be translated into one of 65 languages
  - For those with visual impairments the website has been designed to allow you to select the colour scheme that you find easiest to view such as black on white or white on blue.
- Literature
  - Information is available to download from the Enfield Council's website and from Home Connections website
  - Letters and documents can be translated on request to a language of your choice if English is not your first language.
  - We provide quick guides which show you how to bid online, over the phone or via text message.

1972,

Access to the internet

We know that not everyone has access to a computer and the internet. There are a number of places across the borough that people can go to in order to access the internet for free. Internet access is available at all Enfield libraries. Website information on internet access and computer hire in Enfield's libraries is available at this address:

http://www.enfield.gov.uk/info/442/libraries-computers_and_the_internet/227/internet_access_and_computer_hire_in_libraries
Other places where you can use a computer to find out about housing options in Enfield include:

Enfield's Housing Options and Advice Service

For those who have never used a computer before or who want a quick refresher course the libraries also offer training on how to access the internet.

Finding out how social rented homes are allocated in Enfield

Enfield's priorities for allocating social rented homes will be reviewed annually and published on Enfield's website here:

www.enfield.gov.uk/socialhousingpriorities

We will report on the outcomes of our Allocations Scheme and publish information on the Council's website so that our applicants, residents and partners can understand what we are doing and how well we are performing.

You can go to Appendix 1 to find out facts and figures about the amount and location of social rented housing in Enfield.

How to apply to Enfield's Housing Register

Most people can apply for housing by making an application to join Enfield Council's Housing Register. There are legal rules that mean that some people are not able to join the Housing Register. Information about who is not eligible to apply is set out in pages 20 to 21.

Every application for housing is considered and decided in accordance with this Allocations Scheme.

Tenants of Enfield Council or tenants of housing associations living in Enfield who wish to move to another social rented home are assessed, prioritised and registered on the Housing Register in the same way as other housing applicants.

Applicants to whom Enfield Council has accepted a duty to house because they are homeless are automatically placed on the Housing Register.

Making an application online to be placed on the Housing Register

The online application system was set up in 2013 to make it easier for customers

- to apply for housing at a time that suits them
- to receive a faster assessment of their application and chances of getting a council or housing association home.
- to be provided with information and advice on a full range of housing options.

If you don't have a computer to make an online application, you can access computers at the below local offices.

- At local libraries across the borough
- Enfield's main office at the Civic Centre, Silver Street, London EN1 3XL
- John Wilkes House, 179 High Street, Ponders End, London EN3 4EN

If an incomplete application form is received, applicants will not be registered.

1974,

Rights of the Applicant

Our Allocations Scheme has been framed to ensure that an applicant has the right to request information to enable them to assess:

- How their application is likely to be treated under the Scheme. In particular, whether they are likely to be regarded within the reasonable and local preference categories.
- Whether a home appropriate to their needs is likely to be made available to them and, if so, how long they can expect to wait to secure a successful move.

We will also ensure that applicants are:

- Treated fairly, with respect and without prejudice.
- Notified in writing of any decision made regarding their application for rehousing and the grounds on which that decision was reached.
- Given the opportunity of review against decisions made in respect of their application. For further information regarding reviews go to the section for Rights of Information, Review and Complaints on page 89.

What do we expect from Applicants?

In this Allocation Scheme we will outline what our applicants can expect from us, but there are also some things that we expect from them:

Honesty

We will be honest with our applicants. We will keep them informed of the progress of their application and we will explain any decisions that we make, including how we made them. In turn we expect applicants to be honest about your circumstances so that we can fairly assess their housing need and ensure they receive the right housing advice to suit them. Social housing is in very short supply and we will do everything that we can to ensure that best use is made of it.

Applicants must:

- Provide all information requested that is, or may be, relevant to their application for rehousing
- Advise of any changes in circumstances. This includes, but is not restricted to;
    - any changes to their address including change of tenure
    - the birth of a child
    - the removal of someone from their application
    - the addition of someone to their application

If we discover that the applicant or someone acting on their behalf have wilfully supplied false information or have failed to provide us with information that is relevant to their application in order to gain a social rented home we will immediately cancel their application.

If the applicant has obtained a social rented home through the Housing Register and it is discovered that they or someone acting on their behalf has supplied false information or failed to provide us with information that would have been relevant to the applicant's ability to secure that social rented home we will work with their landlord to end the tenancy.

It is an offence to obtain, or attempt to obtain, a tenancy by deception. S.171 of the Housing Act 1996[11] makes it an offence to knowingly or recklessly provide or withhold information when applying for housing and subsequently if your circumstances should change.

Anyone suspected of giving false information or withholding relevant information is also liable to be prosecuted and fined up to £5000.

Courtesy

We will always be polite to applicants and treat them with respect. We ask that applicants treat our staff in the same way, and verbal or physical abuse will not be tolerated. Anyone using abusive, racist or derogatory language will be politely asked to stop. Failure to do so will result in a written warning. Should this behaviour continue we will either only communicate with them in writing or may instead reduce their priority or cancel their application depending on the severity of their actions.

Requesting, Sharing and Verifying Information

Where an applicant has been assessed and may have priority under Enfield's Allocations Scheme, the Council will seek further information or supporting evidence from a variety of third parties. In applying for housing in Enfield, the applicant gives the Council permission to share information with third parties and make further enquiries to finalise the assessment of their housing application.

In order to offer the applicant appropriate advice and to assess their application, it may also be necessary to contact those people or organisations whose details have been provided in addition to any other relevant parties whose details come to light during our enquiries. This may include:

- Cross checking the information given by the applicant against the full Register of Electors of the London Borough of Enfield or any other Council.
- Cross checking the information given by the applicant with other Council sections e.g. Housing Benefit, Council Tax and other Council and Benefit Agencies.

1976,

- Contacting current and previous landlords.
- Sharing information with partner Housing Associations (Registered Social Landlords).
- Cross checking with data matching companies e.g. Experian or other credit reference agencies. These agencies will record details of any search made whether or not the application proceeds.
- Other third parties considered relevant to the application.

Applicants may also be asked to provide further evidence in order to verify the information given to us. This includes but is not restricted to;

- Photographic proof of ID (passport or driving licence).
- Proof of any welfare benefits claimed
- Birth certificates for each household member included on the application.
- National Insurance Number.
- Proof of current and/or previous addresses (utility bill, bank statement, Council Tax payment book).
- Proof of income (pay slips for four weeks if paid weekly or last two months if paid monthly), a letter from their employer confirming their annual salary; tax returns / business accounts to evidence self-employed work.
- Passport size photo.
- Immigration documents.
- Information regarding property ownership.

Failure to provide information requested when required to do so may result in the following outcomes:

- a delay in finalising the assessment of the application or the application being cancelled if information is not provided within 4 weeks
- an offer of a social rented home being withdrawn if information required is not provided within 24 hours.

Applicants would then need to submit a new application if they wanted to reapply to join Enfield's Housing Register.

Where appropriate, any information provided by the applicant may be shared with partner housing associations (registered housing providers or registered social landlords).

Assessing and prioritising applications for housing

The Law

The law requires all local authorities to have an Allocations Scheme for determining priorities and a procedure to be followed in allocating social rented housing in their districts.

Reasonable preference

Under Part 6 of the Housing Act 1996[1] (as amended) Enfield's Allocations Scheme is framed to ensure 'reasonable preference' (also known as a head start) to some applicants. They are summarised below:

- People who are homeless
- People occupying insanitary, overcrowded or otherwise unsatisfactory housing
- People who need to move for medical or welfare reasons, and
- People who need to move to a particular location, for example to be nearer to special medical facilities.

Enfield Council also has some groups of applicants which it will give a local reasonable preference. These are:

- Enfield's Council tenants who need to move because, due to changes in welfare benefit entitlement, they can no longer afford to occupy their current homes and need to move to a smaller home
- Enfield's Council tenants who need to move because their home is part of an estate regeneration scheme
- Enfield's Council and housing association tenants who are severely overcrowded because they lack 2 or more bedrooms

Appendix 3 defines the housing circumstances which Enfield will have regard to when awarding an applicant reasonable preference.

Who is ineligible for Housing?

By law, social rented housing can be allocated to eligible people.

The following groups of people are defined in law[2] as ineligible for an allocation of housing and are therefore cannot join the Housing Register:

[1] S166A(3) Housing Act 1996, as amended by S147 of the Localism Act 2011
[2] S160ZA, Housing Act 1996, as amended by S146 of the Localism Act 2011

1978,

People subject to immigration control

People are not eligible if they are subject to immigration control or they are a person from abroad which the Secretary of State has prescribed is ineligible. These include people from abroad who are subject to immigration control under the Asylum and Immigration Act 1996 unless they are:

- already a secure or introductory tenant of the Council or an assured tenant of housing allocated to them by a Council; or
- in a class prescribed by regulations made by the Secretary of State.

People prescribed as ineligible for an allocation in any regulations made by the Secretary of State unless they are:

- already a secure or introductory tenant of a Council or an assured tenant of housing allocated to them by a Council.

People prescribed by Enfield as being ineligible for an allocation of social rented housing

Behaviour

(1) People who have supplied false or misleading information on their application for housing.

(2) Any applicant who has paid money to obtain a tenancy with either the Council or a housing association operating within the Borough.

(3) Any applicant, partner or other member of their household has been convicted of, or had legal action taken against them for violence, racial harassment, threatening behaviour, any physical or verbal abuse towards staff and residents in the applicant's neighbourhood. Legal action here includes convictions, serving of injunctions, notice of intention to seek possession, court order, revocation of licence to occupy.

An applicant who suffers from a mental illness and has either been convicted or has had legal action taken against them as defined above shall not be ineligible if the conduct in question was directly attributable to their mental illness. In these circumstances the Council will usually require medical evidence to help determine the applicant's eligibility.

Applications from people excluded under this section will need to demonstrate a change in behaviour. Usually, applications under (1) will be reconsidered after 12 months, and applications under (2) and (3) after five years, during which there has been no repeat occurrence. Earlier reviews may be considered.

Assets, Income and Savings

If an applicant or their partner owns a property or a share in their property, or have enough assets (£50,000 savings) or income (£70,000 – household with children or £40,000 – single person or couple without children) to meet their own housing need, they will be ineligible to apply for housing.

The Council will review these financial limits during the first year of the scheme and annually thereafter.

More information on current financial limits is contained in Appendix 2

Applicants under the age of 18

Anyone aged 16 or over (except those described above as 'ineligible' for housing) can apply to the Council to join the Housing Register. Some landlords, however, may only offer tenancies to applicants under the age of 18 if they have a guarantor.

Homeless applicants post 9th November 2012 who are placed into private rented accommodation

Homeless applicant's that are owed a full housing duty by Enfield Council will in most cases be housed in the private rented sector. However, the council is aware that there may be some rare situations where it would not be suitable for a person to live in private rented accommodation. The Council will decide whether the applicant's circumstances are so exceptional that it would not be suitable for them to live in the private rented accommodation.

Right of Review

Applicants have a right of review against any decision taken by the Council to cancel their application from Enfield's Housing Register on grounds of ineligibility. See the section on Rights of Information, Review and Complaints on page 89, which gives information on how to request a review of a decision taken by the Council.

Other things we take into account

In addition to legislation, local authorities have to make sure their housing allocations policies comply with

- decisions made by judges in court cases (case law)
- government guidance on how to implement the law and case law

1980,

We will also take account of additional factors relevant to the needs of the applicant. They include:

- The urgency of an applicant's housing need
- How long the applicant has been on the Housing Register
- The financial resources available to a person to meet their housing needs
- Other locally defined reasons

The severe shortage of social rented homes in Enfield means the Council must make best use of housing stock in the borough by taking into account the availability and suitability of all alternative housing options and solutions for meeting an applicant's housing need.

Reasons for canceling Housing Register applications

Applications on the Housing Register will be cancelled and removed for a number of reasons including the following: the applicant

- Has been evicted because of rent arrears after they apply to the Housing Register
- Has been involved in proven or evicted for anti-social behaviour after they apply to the Housing Register
- No longer wants to be housed
- Has died
- Has had a change in their immigration status and is no longer eligible to be on the Housing Register
- Has been housed by Enfield Council or a Housing Association
- Is a person prescribed by the Secretary of State in regulations as ineligible

1981,

An Overview of Enfield's Allocation Scheme

Enfield Council uses a points system for assessing applications for council and housing association homes. Enfield Council's Points Scheme is described in more detail in pages 31 to p39.

Grouping Housing Applicants

All applicants for social rented housing will be placed in one of 6 groups as follows:

1. Council and Housing Association tenant applicants
(also known as Transfers)

These are existing tenants of Enfield Council and housing associations in Enfield who need to move because:

- their current home is too small or too big for them
- they have high health and well-being reasons for needing to move
- they have an exceptional or emergency reason for needing to move

Reciprocals

Enfield Council expects housing associations to respond to the exceptional and emergency needs of their tenants by using their own housing stock.

In exceptional circumstances the Council may agree to assist housing association tenants on a reciprocal basis by making the housing association tenant one direct offer of suitable alternative accommodation.

All reciprocal arrangements are agreed on a discretionary basis and the Council retains the right to decline a request.

Reciprocals are only agreed when there is no material loss to the Council in terms of available housing stock. In most cases, this means that the Council will expect back a property of equal or larger size than the home offered. The home must also be comparable in terms of quality and type.

In exceptional circumstances, the Council may agree to accept two smaller homes in exchange for a larger home of the same number of bedrooms. This will only be considered where there is no other re-housing option available to the applicant and where there is a strong welfare reason to support the request.

The Council expects to receive back the replacement home within twelve months of the housing association tenant's start date for their new tenancy.

1982,

The housing association concerned will be required to provide a written commitment to the terms of the reciprocal, as agreed by Enfield Council.

If the direct offer is unreasonably refused the reciprocal arrangement concerned will be cancelled.

2. Estate Regeneration Tenants with Decant Status
(also known as Decants)

These are tenants of Enfield Council living on council-owned estates that are going to be knocked down and rebuilt. Applicants will need to have been given Decant Status to qualify for inclusion in this group.

The Council has plans for regenerating Council housing estates in the borough and will need to move on average 600 tenants between 2012 and 2017. Enough social rented homes will need to be set aside each year to achieve these moves.

The terms of any moves, including priorities for moving, will be set out in a separate offer to affected tenants. Tenants required to move will be supported to find alternative accommodation and where necessary direct offers will be made.

Tenants of Enfield Council who live in a home that is due to be redeveloped in the future as part of a regeneration programme, but have not yet been awarded Decant Status, will have their application assessed under Group 1 criteria.

3. Special Applications and Quotas

Quotas will be allocated to the following groups:

- Young single people who have been in the care of Enfield Council and require one bedroom homes
- Residents living in Enfield supported housing schemes who are ready to live independently in one bedroom homes
- Former Armed Services personnel who fall within one or more of the statutory reasonable preference categories and have urgent housing needs
- Bereaved spouses and civil partners of members of the Armed Services leaving Services Family Accommodation following the death of their spouse or partner
- Enfield's New Generation Scheme which plans to help a small number of adult children of Council tenants to move into independent accommodation. Applicants qualify if:
  - > the applicant is engaged in approved education, training or work and/or
  - > there is severe overcrowding in the household would be lessened

1983,

- Enfield Council employees whose tenancy and home goes with their job and the Council has agreed to move them to an alternative social rented home due to ill-health or retirement.

  > 1st priority if releasing a 3 bedroom home or the home occupied is needed for another employee

- Applicants with a legal right to succeed to an Enfield-owned social rented home which is larger than required. The Council will require applicants to move to smaller accommodation

- Applicants with no legal right to succeed to an Enfield Council home but is occupying a home larger than the applicant needs and the Council has agreed to house the applicant into a smaller home

- Single people with a physical disability, learning difficulty, mental health issue who have been assessed by one of Enfield's Housing Panels as needing an independent home (Studio or 1 bedroom homes as required)

- No other housing circumstances apply but the applicant has been awarded:

  > A high health and well-being priority

  > A medium health and well-being priority

- Enfield's Key Workers as set out in Appendix 5

- Post Homelessness (Suitability of Accommodation) Order 2012: Households in accommodation provided by Enfield Council owed a full housing duty under the homelessness law with exceptional needs that are not suitable for living in the private rented sector

- Applicant is homeless but Enfield Council does not owe the full homelessness duty towards them following an assessment. This group includes non-priority homeless and intentionally homeless cases. Applicants will be considered for studio and one bedroom homes only.

- Private Rented Sector Tenants or households living with family / friends with no health and well-being issues.
  > Applicant lacks 3 bedrooms

- Applicants who have been assessed and recommended for housing by Enfield's Fostering or Adoption Panels in the following circumstances:
  - as an approved Foster Parent
  - as an approved family or friend's foster carer
  - an approved adoptive parent application

- Applicants agreed for housing through Enfield's established Multi Agency Public Protection Arrangements (MAPPA)

1984,

- Emergency and Exception Priority cases requiring an urgent move (e.g., through the National Witness Mobility Scheme, Enfield children safeguarding cases, etc.) which have been approved by the Exceptions and Special Applications Housing Panel.

Each category of applicants will be prioritised on the basis of points and the date of their application to the Housing Register.

4. Households in accommodation provided by Enfield Council owed a full housing duty under the homelessness law
(also known as Tenants in Enfield's Temporary Accommodation)

The Localism Act 2011 introduced important changes to the way that councils can provide accommodation for homeless people. After the 9th November 2012 councils have been able to house homeless applicants in the private rented sector. Depending whether you applied before or after 9th November 2012 will determine whether the council can offer you private rented sector housing. How this works is explained below.

1) Pre November 2012 homeless applicants

If you applied to Enfield Council as a homeless person before 9th November 2012 and the council owes you a full housing duty, the council cannot by law offer you accommodation in the private rented sector. These households will have been provided with temporary accommodation

These households will be prioritised in date of order of moving into accommodation provided by Enfield Council unless:

- The household is a working household and has been assessed as experiencing financial hardship because income from work is not enough to meet rent payments. These households will be treated as top priority in this demand group and made a direct offer of suitable accommodation as soon as possible. Where there are two working households experiencing financial hardship needing the same sized home, the date they moved into this type of accommodation will determine priority. A quota of homes will be made available for this group.

- Non-working households given accommodation by Enfield Council under the homelessness law where the household's welfare benefits have been reduced by Government welfare reform and the Council has carried out an assessment and decided that they are not in a position to find work and are experiencing financial hardship. These households will be treated as second priority in this demand group and made a direct offer of suitable accommodation as soon as possible. Where there are two such households, the date of moving into this type of accommodation will decide priority. A quota of homes will be made available for this group.

2) Post 9th November 2012 homeless applicants

If you applied to the council as a homeless person on or after 9th November 2012 and the council owes you a full housing duty, the council is able to offer you accommodation in the private rented sector in discharge of the full housing duty.

These households will have been placed in temporary accommodation; pending an offer of a private rented accommodation. Applications will be prioritised in date order of moving into temporary accommodation provided by Enfield Council.

5. Mobility Applicants

This demand group enables the Council to make best use of special and adaptable Council and housing association homes in the borough for people that need them.

Applicants in this group include:

- existing social rented tenants who need a transfer or need to be housed because they are currently living on an estate which is to be rebuilt/regenerated
- those who live in the private rented sector and it has been agreed by the Exceptions and Special Applications Housing Panel that a social rented home is the best option for the household.
- Households in accommodation provided by Enfield Council owed a full housing duty under the homelessness law and they need a home which has one or more of the following features:

- Is all on one level internally,
- has level access from the street / outside
- is adapted for mobility or wheelchair use.

Homes of the type outlined are in very short supply and applicants for them will be housed in date order unless the Exceptions and Special Applications Housing Panel decides otherwise.

Access to this type of accommodation will be decided by:

- a Health and Well-being Assessment which results in a medium or high rating

and

- an assessment by an Occupational Therapist confirms the need for a home of the type offered to Mobility applicants

Priority is determined by the date of Enfield's Occupational Therapy assessment. This date is overridden if the applicant is a serving or former member of the Armed or Reserve Forces who have serious injury, medical condition or disability sustained as a result of their service.

The priority of applicants in Group 5 may be reduced for the same reasons as applicants in Groups 1, 2, 3 and 4, that is for having rent arrears, being involved in anti-social behaviour which has resulted in legal action being taken by the landlord.

6. Older Applicants

This group includes:

- Older people who qualify for special housing designed for their housing and support needs
- People over 55 with a disability may be considered at the discretion of the Council

Types of homes that each group will be considered for

Applicants in Groups 1, 2, 3 and 4

If a housing applicant is placed in one of the groups 1, 2, 3 or 4 and have enough priority to be housed, they will be considered for 'general needs' social rented homes. A general needs home has been built without any special adaptations or modifications which help people cope better with mobility or other disability issues.

Some general needs social rented homes that become available for letting have adaptations because they were installed for a previous tenant. Where adaptations have been installed in the past, it may be possible to use the adaptations in the home for another housing applicant with similar mobility or disability requirements or let as it is to a new tenant with no mobility or disability requirements.

Applicants in Group 5

Applicants in Group 5 who have enough priority to be housed will be allocated homes which have one or more of the following features which the applicant needs:

- all on one level internally,
- have level access from the street / outside
- and / or are adapted for mobility or wheelchair use.

Applicants in Group 6

Applicants in group 6 who have enough priority to be housed will be allocated homes which are designated for older people with housing and support needs. See the section on Applicants in Group 6 seeking a home for older people which describes this type of home in more detail.

1987,

How Enfield assesses a housing applicant's priority

This section sets out how the priority of applicants for different types of homes will be assessed.

There are three different systems for prioritising applicants, one of which will be applied depending on which Group the housing applicant has been placed in.

- For applicants in Groups 1, 2, 3 and 4 who are applying for general needs social rented homes see the definition in the section (see pages 24 to 27) Applicants in Groups 1, 2, 3 and 4, a points and date order system is used to assess priority.

- For applicants in Group 5, priority for housing is informed first by a health and well-being assessment carried out by the Council's Housing Options and Advice Team and then an assessment carried out by an Occupational Therapist[3].

- For applicants in Group 6, housing and support needs are assessed to decide priority. The system for this is set out in the section on Applicants in Group 6 seeking a home for older people.

Applicants in Groups 1, 2, 3 and 4 who are seeking a general needs social rented home

Applicants in Groups 1, 2, 3 and 4 will be given a base number of points. Where applicants are given a base number of points, the base number can be increased for reasons which are set out in the section on Increasing Base Points (See page 43).

Because of the severe shortage of social rented housing in the borough, Enfield Council cannot help everyone who would like to move into a social rented home. As a result Enfield Council has selected a limited list of housing circumstances which the Council considers most in need of assistance or will assist with Enfield's priorities and objectives for social rented housing in the borough. Enfield's priorities and objectives for social rented housing in the borough are set out in its draft Statutory Tenancy Strategy.

The housing circumstances of housing applications which will be given points to assess their housing need are set out below. The list also shows the base number of points these applications will receive:

[3] An occupational therapist works with people of all ages to help them deal with the effects of disability caused by physical or psychological illness, ageing or accident. In the housing field, they make recommendations on what type of home and what type of adaptations to a home would be suitable for people who have a disability.

Enfield's Points Scheme

Applicants will be placed into one of 6 Demand Groups. Their applications will be awarded points to measure their housing priority.

Assessment of Health and Well-being Issues

A Health and Well-being priority will not be considered where

- The applicant or member of the household has a temporary health and well-being issue. Examples include:
  - pregnancy
  - having a common cold, flu, blocked nose or cough
  - a broken leg
- The applicant or member of their household is waiting for the outcome of a medical condition if it is unclear how they will be affected in the long term

How Health and Well-being issues will be assessed

Applicants wishing to be assessed for health and well-being points are required to complete a Health and Well-being Assessment Form.

The Health and Well-being Assessment will be carried out by a Medical Assessment Officer and will be based on the information completed on the Self-Assessment Form. Applicants should not ask their GP or anyone else to write to us. We may request supporting evidence from the applicant's GP, Hospital Consultant, social worker or other relevant professional identified by the Applicant

Applicants should not ask us to reassess their health or independence needs unless they have changed significantly since they were last assessed, for example, the applicant has been diagnosed with a new health problem, or their independence has been reduced

Issues to be considered

Health and Well-being issues to be considered by a Medical Assessment Officer during the assessment include:

- How and to what extent the applicant's current living conditions affect their illness or disability or well-being.
- An applicant's housing need
- How a current health issue affects the applicant or member of the household
- The severity of the health issue and how long it has lasted
- The cumulative effect on the whole household where there is more than one person in the applicant's household with a severe illness or disability.

1998,

- Past health issues and the extent to which the applicant's symptoms have been controlled or improved by treatment

- The reasonableness of putting in place 'in-situ' solutions such as aids and adaptations to enable the applicant to continue living in their present home

The Medical Assessment Officer may recommend a particular type of home that is suitable for the applicant.

A Housing Officer within the Housing Options and Advice Service will consider:

- An applicant's financial and other resources

- The availability of 'in-situ' solutions such as aids and adaptations to enable the applicant to continue living in their present home

- The availability of alternative housing solutions, including private rented homes

Poor Quality homes and Disrepair

The Council is committed to improving poor quality housing, whatever the tenure. Our Private Sector Housing Team can arrange property inspections, and can offer advice and support to owners and landlords on how to make homes safer. Where necessary, they will take enforcement action. This may include issuing a statutory notice ordering the landlord to undertake the work to repair the home. Where the landlord does not carry out the repairs, the Council may carry out the works in default or take action to prosecute the landlord.

Where there is disrepair and the applicant states that the health and well-being issue is related to the poor state of repair of the property then the Council will expect the property owner, landlord or Agent to remedy the disrepair.

Where possible, we encourage tenants and occupiers to stay in their homes.

If an applicant's housing is assessed as being of poor quality, including hazards identified under the Housing Health and Safety Rating System, we will award five points.

Applicants who move into unsuitable housing and request housing assistance from Enfield Council

Applicants with a pre-existing medical condition who move into a private rented home that does not meet their needs will be expected to find alternative private rented homes. This provision in the Allocations Scheme is designed to prevent applicants from deliberately worsening their housing conditions to take advantage of the health and well-being criteria to enhance their housing priority. In these cases, no health and well-being priority will be awarded. The Council will provide advice and assistance to help the applicant find somewhere else to live.

Applicants who agree to a mutual exchange and move into unsuitable housing

Applicants with a pre-existing medical condition who agree to a mutual exchange and move into a social rented home which does not meet their needs will be deemed to have deliberately worsened their housing conditions and not be awarded a health and wellbeing priority. The Council will provide advice and assistance to help the applicant find another place to live. This will include help to find a private rented home through Enfield's Fresh Start rent deposit Scheme.

Applicants receiving disability and other related benefits

Applicants who are entitled to disability benefits will not receive an automatic award of health and well-being priority. Applicants will be assessed in accordance with the Allocations Scheme/

Health and Wellbeing Priority with Definitions:

Health and Well-being Priority will be only awarded to applicants who have been assessed as needing to move to an alternative council or housing association home.

The priority level and definitions are set out below:

Priority Level	Suggested Definition
High	Urgent need to move This is where the applicant's current living conditions: • put the applicant's life at risk* if they do not move, or • causes the applicant to be completely housebound and they would regain substantial independence if an alternative property were made available, including needing a level access home because the applicant is a wheelchair user. *risk to life here does not include terminal illness or illnesses that involve unpredictable crises
Medium	An applicant's living conditions are unsuitable but their need to move is less urgent and not life threatening but if left unresolved, their quality of life will deteriorate
Low	The applicant's living conditions cause them difficulty in carrying out their daily activities but this is neither life threatening nor would greater harm or progression of the illness be caused if they did not move.
Zero	One of the following applies: • Applicants current housing situation has no adverse impact on the health issues presented, or • A move would offer no improvement; or a solution other than moving into a social rented home is available, e.g. the adaptation of the current home, a move to a private rented home.

Exceptional Reasons for needing to live in Enfield

Points for exceptional reasons for needing to live in Enfield may be awarded in the following circumstances:

- A close relative needs the support of the applicant and there are no other support services available in the community
- The police have asked Enfield to house someone through the National Witness Mobility Scheme.

Enfield's Definition of working

Working Households
This Scheme supports Enfield's corporate aim of Growth and Sustainability and will contribute to the economic growth of Enfield.

Enfield wants to encourage people who can, to work and to raise levels of aspiration and ambition in the borough. Increased priority will be given to applicants who are working.

Definition of Working Households
Working households are those where the applicant or their partner is in employment.

For the purposes of this Allocations Scheme employment is described as having a permanent contract, working as a temporary member of staff or being self-employed.

Applicants will only qualify if the worker has been employed for 6 out of the last 12 months.

Verification will be sought at the point of application as well as at the point of making an offer of a council or housing association home.

For verification, applicants will be asked to provide:

- Employed applicants:
  - payslips (pay slips for the last four weeks if paid weekly or the last two months if paid monthly or a letter from their employer confirming their annual salary;
  - the most recent P60
  - the last 3 months of bank statements
- Self-employed applicants:
  - Most recent tax returns and business accounts to evidence self-employed work.
  - The last 3 months of bank statements

2005,

Reducing an applicant's housing priority

Where applicants on the Housing Register have a priority for housing, their priority for housing may be reduced to zero points if tenants[4] are in arrears with their rent and owe more than eight times the weekly accommodation charge[5] or have not maintained a repayment agreement for 6 months. The detail is set out in a separate guidance note.

Tenants may be considered for housing in exceptional circumstances, for example where the case for housing is urgent or it is in the Council's interest to house the applicant (e.g. for estate regeneration decant reasons) or where an applicant has suffered unavoidable debt, such as having to pay for funeral costs. Discretion will also be used on the repayment period where rent arrears have arisen due to unavoidable debt. This decision will be taken by the Exceptions and Special Applications Housing Panel (ESAP)

Applications where priority has been reduced because of rent arrears will have their points reduced to zero and their application will become inactive until the arrears are cleared or an agreement to repay them has been maintained for 6 months.

[4] Includes Council and housing association tenants, private rented tenants and tenants in accommodation given to them by any local authority under the homelessness legislation

[5] Weekly accommodation charge means charges an applicant is liable to pay for their accommodation including service charges, water rates and other charges – see local authority guidance

Applicants in Group 6 seeking a home for older people

The process of assessment of and prioritising applications for homes for older people has to include measuring an applicant's housing need as well as measuring their need for housing-related support. The latter also includes an assessment of health and well-being needs. Having both types of assessment ensures that the applicant fits the criteria for Supporting People (SP) funding which funds the services in homes for older people schemes. SP funding requires compliance with the Supporting People Quality Assurance Framework (SPQAF).

Local lettings plans will be put in place for schemes for older people during the 12 months following this Allocations Scheme coming into force. The aims of each scheme's local lettings plan include maintaining an appropriate mix of housing support needs which can be catered for in each scheme to ensure the health and well-being of all residents and staff.

The following paragraphs set out how housing need and housing-related support needs for sheltered housing applications are measured.

Measuring Housing Need

To measure Housing need, an applicant for sheltered housing should be able to say 'Yes' to one or more of the following types of circumstances:

Group 6 - Housing Need
Circumstances	Classification of these circumstances
The applicant has an urgent need to move This is where the applicant's current living conditions: • put the applicant's life at risk* if they do not move, or • cause the applicant to be completely housebound and they would regain substantial independence if an alternative property were made available. *risk to life here does not include terminal illness or illnesses that involve unpredictable crises	High

2007,

Group 6 - Housing Need
Circumstances	Classification of these circumstances
The applicant's current Council or housing association home is too big for them	High
An applicant's living conditions are unsuitable but their need to move is less urgent and not life threatening but if left unresolved, their quality of life will deteriorate	Medium
The applicant is working with the council to prevent becoming homeless	Medium
The applicant is a homeless applicant in temporary accommodation provided by Enfield Council	Medium
Due to age, frailty or infirmity the applicant is unable to mobilise with ease and manage stairs in their current home and would benefit from a supported housing environment to promote independence and well-being and there are no other suitable options for meeting their needs.	High
The applicant satisfies proposed local connection hardship criteria	High
The applicant has urgent and exceptional circumstances agreed by the Exceptions and Special Applications Housing Panel	High
An applicant's living conditions cause them difficulty in carrying out their daily activities but this is neither life threatening nor would greater harm or progression of the illness be caused if they did not move. An applicant's daily activities would be made easier if an alternative property was offered.	Medium

Assessing the level of Housing-related Support needed by an applicant for sheltered housing

An applicant's housing support needs for sheltered housing is assessed against five types of housing support needs in sheltered housing. There will also be an assessment of health and well-being needs.

- Assessing an Applicant's Housing-related Support Needs for Sheltered Housing

The table below shows the five types of housing support needs in sheltered housing and the type of activity that would address them. An applicant will be assessed against each of the five types of housing support need and be awarded a level of points.

Group 6 – Assessment of Housing-related Support Needs Groups of Housing Support needs in Sheltered Housing and activities that would address them	Score if applicant would benefit from any activity in each group
Support Need 1: Being financially better off The applicant needs • support with maximising their income including help to apply and obtain the right benefits • help with budgeting to reduce their debts • help with obtaining paid work or keeping their job going.	Yes = 1 No = 0
Support Need 2: Enjoy and get more out of life The applicant will • keep or improve their quality of life • feel less isolated • get involved in the leisure/cultural/faith/informal learning activities you enjoy • achieve meaningful personal goals • Establish contact with external services/family/friends	Yes = 1 No = 0
Support Need 3: Be healthy The applicant will be able to better manage • their physical health	Yes = 1 No = 0

2009,

Group 6 – Assessment of Housing-related Support Needs Groups of Housing Support needs in Sheltered Housing and activities that would address them	Score if applicant would benefit from any activity in each group
• their mental health issues • their substance misuse • Being able to live independently with the right help, aids and adaptations
Support Need 4: Staying safe The applicant will • Be safe from fearing or being a victim of assault, burglary or anti-social behaviour • Feel safe to leave their home • Know how to protect themselves and deal with the risk of harm	Yes = 1 No = 0
Support Need 5: Making a positive contribution • Greater choice and/or involvement and/or control at service level and within the wider community • Service users will acquire skills and confidence to manage their own affairs	Yes = 1 No = 0

Health and well-being assessment

There are 4 possible health and well-being priorities (shown below) and each one is worth the points shown in the table below. The definitions of health and well-being are set out below.

Priority Level	Definition
A	Urgent need to move This is where the applicant's current living conditions: • put the applicant's life at risk* if they do not move, or • are so unsuitable that the applicant cannot be discharged from hospital, or • cause the applicant to be completely housebound and they would regain substantial independence if an alternative property were made available. *risk to life here does not include terminal illness or illnesses that involve unpredictable crises, e.g., xxxx.

2010,

Priority Level	Definition
B	An applicant's living conditions are unsuitable but their need to move is less urgent and not life threatening but if left unresolved, their quality of life will deteriorate
C	The applicant's living conditions cause them difficulty in carrying out their daily activities but this is neither life threatening nor would greater harm or progression of the illness be caused if they did not move. An applicant's daily activities would be made easier if an alternative property was offered.
Zero	One of the following applies: • Applicants current housing situation has no adverse impact on the health issues presented • A move would offer no improvement; or a solution other than moving into a social rented home is available e.g. adaptation of the current home, a move to a private rented home.

Health and Well-being Priority Level	Score

- Calculating Housing-related Support Levels for sheltered housing applicants

Calculating whether an applicant has low, medium or high housing related support needs comes from multiplying the score from the Housing-related Needs for Sheltered Housing with the score for the Health and Well-being assessment

That is:

Housing-related Needs Score x Health and Well-being Assessment Score = Housing-related Support Score

Housing Related Support Score	Level of Housing Related Support Needs
15-20	High
6-14	Medium
1-5	Low

Bringing Housing Need and Housing Related Support scores together

The matrix below summarises how applicants' housing need and housing-related support scores will be prioritised.

		Housing-related Support Needs
		H	M	L
Housing Needs	H

Scoring an H for Housing Needs plus an H for Housing-related Support Needs means an applicant would have high priority for sheltered housing. Conversely, scoring an L for Housing Needs plus an L for Housing-related Support means an applicant would have low priority for sheltered housing.

The colours red, amber and green highlight the distinction; with red indicating high need, amber indicating medium need and green indicating low need.

Another way of illustrating this is in the following table:

Housing Need	Housing Related Support	Coded as
High	High	HH
High	Medium	HM
High	Low	HL
Medium	High	MH

Prioritising between Group 6 applicants – final step

A sheltered applicant assessed as having a housing need will be prioritised by:

- The local lettings plan for the sheltered scheme and the level of housing-related support currently being catered for. For example, if there are already tenants in a sheltered scheme with high levels of housing-related need, adding an additional person may stretch resources too far. If that would the case, then applicants with lower housing-related support needs would be looked at.

- Applicants will be chosen in terms of level of their housing related support need (high, medium or low) which is supportable at the time by a sheltered scheme, and where these are equal by date of application, and where these are equal, by length of residence in Enfield.

Some worked examples on working out sheltered housing application scores

Ms X
On Housing Support needs for sheltered housing Ms X would benefit from 4 out of the 5 types of housing-related support needs shown. Her score for this is therefore 4.

On Health and Well-being, Ms X has been awarded priority level C. Her score for this is therefore 2.

Multiplying these two scores together: 4 x 2 = 8

A score of 8 equates with a Medium level of support needs

Ms X's Housing-related Support level is Medium (M).

Ms X's Housing Need is scored as High (H)

Her overall prioritisation for sheltered housing would be MH.

Mr Y
On Housing-related Support needs for Sheltered Housing Mr Y would benefit from 5 out of the 5 outcomes shown. His score for this is therefore 5.

On health and well-being, Mr Y has been awarded priority level B. His score for this is therefore 3.

Multiplying these two scores together: 5 x 3 = 15

Mr Y's Housing-related Support level is High (H).

Mr Y's Housing Need is scored as H.

His overall prioritisation for sheltered housing would be HH

Matching both the above cases against the matrix below, both applicants have a high priority for sheltered housing.

If a home became available for which they were both suitable, they would be prioritised by first looking at existing housing-related support needs in the sheltered scheme(s) they had expressed a preference for and a decision made on whether their housing-related support needs could be catered for. If they could, then in the example of prioritising these two applicants for a sheltered home, Mr Y's circumstances would be given priority because his housing supported needs are higher than Mr X's.

Definition of a Household

We will only consider applications to house the applicant, their partner, their immediate family, and anyone else with an exceptional need to live with them (and which is the 'eligible household' or household for the purpose of this scheme). This is because we have such a severe shortage of larger properties, so families need to consider whether other people living in their household could move into smaller properties of their own.

Partner
Partner means someone who lives with the applicant as a partner, or who would live with them if they were able to. This includes mixed-gender and same-sex couples, whether or not they are married or in a civil partnership.

Immediate Family
Immediate family means the applicant's children or their partner's children, aged 21 or less, who live with the applicant all the time, or for four or more nights every week. If a child is living with a partner or has his/her own children, s/he may not be included on the application unless they have an exceptional need to live with the applicant.

Immediate family does not include the applicant's (or their partner's) parents, grandparents, brothers, sisters, aunts, uncles, grandchildren, nieces, nephews, cousins, friends or lodgers – unless they have an exceptional need to live as part of the household. Please note that the applicant's children, or their partner's children, aged 21 or over will not be included as part of the household for the purposes of being re-housed, unless the children have an exceptional need to live as part of the household (see below).

Separating
If the applicant and partner are separating, they must provide us with evidence of who is legally allowed to remain in the property, such as a court property order detailing to whom the property is assigned. Accommodation for children will be allowed for with only one parent, on whom the children are dependent.

Exceptional reasons
In order for a relative to be included in the application under the ground of exceptional reason they would normally need to be living with the applicant and have done so on a long term basis.

People who have an exceptional need to live with the applicant means people who are not included in the definition of 'immediate family', but who have a real need to live as part of the household in order to give or to receive care or support. This may include:

- A child (of the applicant or partner) aged 21 or over, who cannot live independently because of a disability or care need

- A carer, if someone in the household needs full-time care and no one in their immediate family is able to provide this. In exceptional cases consideration will be given to a household containing a person with a disability who has an occasional need for a carer to stay overnight

- An adult (or elderly) relative who needs to receive care. This includes a relative living elsewhere who is no longer able to live independently and requires a higher level of care and support. For some elderly people, moving to sheltered accommodation is the best alternative

- Children who have been born since the registration date, or other children aged under 21 where it is proved that the main applicant is the sole legal guardian and that there is no other available legal guardian who could reasonably accommodate the children.

Where a household has been accepted as homeless and qualifies for housing under Demand Group 4, the application can include anyone who we accepted as part of the original homelessness application. For families with children aged 22 or older, the Council will encourage them to seek independent housing if possible, to increase the chance of the applicant being rehoused in a reasonable time.

Other people living with the applicant

The Council assesses who is eligible for rehousing, and bases its assessment of what size property someone needs using this definition.

It does not mean that other people cannot live with the household, even if it makes them overcrowded, but the Council will not take them into account in assessing the need for rehousing.

Some households will feel overcrowded but not be eligible for overcrowding priority, because we do not include everyone living there in one application. Council and Housing Association tenants who make themselves overcrowded may be in breach of their tenancy conditions.

- Tenants with children aged 21 or over
  If we agree to house a council or housing association tenant and we agree to rehouse immediate family but not everyone else who is currently living in the property, the tenant is responsible for ensuring none of the remaining occupants continue to live in the property after they have moved out.

- Applicants who live with family or friends who are not part of their immediate family

- Applicants may be rehoused separately from them – for example, if the applicant and their partner or children live with the applicant's parents in their home.

If it is a council or housing association home and when the applicant moves, the home would be too big for the tenant(s), the offer made to the applicant may be contingent upon them also taking up an offer of an alternative tenancy.

If an applicant moves in with a council or housing association tenant and the property becomes overcrowded, the applicant can apply to the Housing Register in their own right. In such cases overcrowding priority may not be awarded and alternative housing options should be considered.

Family members who are not currently living with the applicant

Anyone who is part of the immediate family can be included in the application, even if they do not currently live with the applicant:

- If members of immediate family live abroad, they can be included on the application, but the Council will not award priority for them until the family have the right to reside in the UK
- If members of the immediate family live elsewhere in the UK, they can be included on the application, but we encourage families to consider applying to be rehoused where they live, especially if the demand for housing is lower there
- Children of a shared residence order can only be included on one application, with the parent who is the main care provider. This means that the children live with the applicant for more than half the week (four nights or more). We will require evidence of this.
    - Any consideration of a larger home in the context of a shared residence order will also take account of affordability. Where the applicant claims welfare benefits, welfare benefit regulations enable only one of the parents, the designated 'main carer', to receive additional benefit for extra bedrooms required.

General Points

If an applicant wishes to include people not in their immediate family on their housing application, they must explain on their application why it is necessary for them to live with the applicant. The applicant may also be required to provide evidence such as: a court order, benefit entitlement, a social services or occupational therapy assessment. If an applicant has not had a care assessment for a relative, we may require the applicant to arrange one. If the person coming to live with the applicant is moving from abroad, we will require evidence that they have recourse to public funds or a sufficient sponsorship undertaking in place.

If the applicant has priority for housing and assessed as requiring a one bedroom or studio home and have children who visit on a regular basis, they will be assessed as requiring a one-bedroom property rather than a studio.

Anyone included on the application must not have a legal interest in any other property. The applicant or any member of their household cannot be included on more than one live housing register application at any one time.

Working out the size of home needed by Applicants

The Council will work out the size of home suitable for the applicant and members of their household reasonably expected to live with them regardless of how the applicant uses their current home.

The Council will use two bedroom standards:

- One for Council-owned homes
- One for homes in Enfield owned by housing associations under nomination agreements

The bedroom standard for Council-owned homes

A notional number of bedrooms will be allocated based on the age, sex, marital status and relationship to family members, as follows:

- A married or cohabiting couple or single parent will be entitled to one bedroom
- pairs of adolescents from their 10th birthday and above of the same sex will be expected to share a bedroom
- pairs of children of either sex aged up to their 10th birthday will be expected to share a bedroom
- children of the main applicant who are aged over 21 will be expected to share a bedroom with a same sex sibling who is younger, including where that younger sibling is under the age of 10 (unless there are safeguarding issues).
- Where Enfield has accepted that the relatives listed have an exceptional reason for living with the main applicant, they will be expected to share a bedroom with the applicant's children where they are the same sex (unless there are safeguarding issues):
    - nieces, nephews, step children and grandchildren
- Where Enfield has accepted that an older relative has an exceptional reason for living with the main applicant e.g. an older (60+) grand/parent(s), aunt or uncle, they will be entitled to a bedroom of their own

Entitlement to an Additional Bedroom

An extra bedroom may be considered where:

- A household is overcrowded in their current home, and
    - includes an adult child of the main applicant aged over 21 who has significant care needs being met by their family and
    - alternative housing options are not suitable for that dependent adult

2018,

- The applicant has been approved as a Foster Parent or Family or Friend's Foster Carer
- An applicant has a child with behavioural syndromes including extreme hyperactivity or autism and a Health and Well-being assessment has confirmed the applicant needs their own room
- An applicant's household includes a child who uses a wheelchair and/or needs significant equipment (e.g. hoists) to be able to live at home.
- someone in the household needs full-time care and no one in their immediate family are able to provide this. In exceptional cases consideration will be given to a household containing a person with a disability who has an occasional need for a carer to stay overnight.

Applicants requesting homes with one bedroom less than the household needs

- Housing applicants may let the Council know if they would prefer to receive an offer of a social rented home which is one bedroom less than their household needs. The Council will not make offers of homes where the household would be severely overcrowded (that is, two or more bedrooms short).

- An applicant who chooses to move into a home with one bedroom less than they need will not be awarded Overcrowding Points for a transfer at a later date except in exceptional circumstances

Under occupying households giving up larger homes

- Council and Housing Association tenants under-occupying their home, who would normally qualify for a one bedroom and are giving up a 3, 4 or 5 bedroom house or a 4 or 5 bedroom flat, could be offered a 2 bedroom home suitable for 3 people (2B/3P) but not a two bedroom home suitable for 4 people (2B/4P). Applicants awarded an additional room for reasons outlined above must be able to demonstrate to the Council they can afford the rent from earned income or benefits.

Council Undertakings

- We will consider anyone we have made an undertaking to offer a particular size home to as part of a legal agreement

Calculating the Size of Home Needed by Applicants

The following table shows how Enfield will calculate the size of home needed by different sized households. It should be noted that lettings of social rented homes with 4 or more bedrooms are rare: during the period 2007/08 to 2010/11 there were only 50 social rented homes with 4 and 5 bedrooms let in Enfield out of a total of 3425 lettings.

Applicants who are overcrowded and living in a Council or housing association home are advised to read Enfield's approach to dealing with overcrowding

Space standards for bedrooms will be taken into account when deciding whether an offer is suitable. Minimum space standards that will be taken into account are set out in the London Housing Design Guide[6]. The minimum area of a single bedroom should be 8 sq m. The minimum area of a double or twin bedroom should be 12 sq m with the minimum width of a double/twin room being 2.75 m.

2021,

Allocating Council and Housing Association Homes in Enfield

Target Allocations

Each year the Council will give guidance on the number of households to be rehoused for each Demand Group.

Deciding how many homes will go to the Demand Groups

Before the start of each financial year the Council will estimate the number of Council and housing association homes in Enfield likely to become available for letting in the coming 12 months.

Homes for older people will be allocated to applicants in Group 6.

Level access, ground floor, mobility- and wheelchair adapted homes will be allocated to applicants in Group 5.

When sharing out the remaining Council and housing association homes

- The Council will estimate the percentage of general needs homes required for Group 2 applicants who need to move under the Council's estate regeneration plans and the number of homes required for care leavers in Group 3. A percentage of homes will be allocated to these groups.
- The Council will give a percentage of the remaining homes to each group of applicants in Groups 1, 3, and 4
- A maximum of 5% of relets[8] will be put forward for Group 1 applicants under the Mayor of London's pan-London Mobility Scheme called "housingmoves".

[8] Relets are homes which have been let before and have become available again for letting. They do not include homes that are newly built and have been handed over to Council to be let for the first time.

2022,

An EXAMPLE of sharing out available general needs homes to each of the Demand Groups 1, 2, 3 and 4 is shown below:

Size of home	Group 1	Group 2	Group 3	Group 4	TOTAL
Homes with 1 bedroom	20%	20%	50%	10%	100%
Homes with 2 bedrooms	30%	40%	5%	25%	100%
Homes with 3 or more bedrooms	40%	40%	5%	15%	100%

Example

In the example above, if there were one hundred one bedroom homes likely to become available, 20 could be allocated to applicants in Group 1, 20 could be allocated to applicants in Group 2, 50 could be allocated to applicants in Group 3 and 10 could be allocated to applicants in Group 4.

Responding to changes in the lettings forecast

If too many homes have been set aside for Group 2 applicants compared with the forecast, then the extra homes will be allocated to Group 4 applicants.

More specific targets for categories in each Demand Group

Within each Demand Group we will have more specific targets for how many properties should be allocated to applicants in each category.

Targets are based on meeting the housing needs of applicants and will be kept under review during the year and may be adjusted to respond to changing circumstances.

How we allocate different types of vacant homes amongst the Demand Groups

This section describes how Enfield will fairly distribute different types of homes across all the Demand Groups.

Our property rating system for allocating homes

All vacant general needs homes will be scored using a simple Rating System based on:

- The type of property, (for example a house or flat)
- The floor level (low rise or high rise).

Some worked examples are in the table below:

Property Example	Dwelling Type House = 1 Maisonette = 2 Flat = 3	Floor Level LR - Street level = 1 LR in a block with up to 6 floors = 2 HR any floor in a block with more than 6 floors = 3	Score
Flat on first floor of a 2 storey house	3	2	5
Flat on ground floor of 2 storey house	3	1	4
Flat on 5th floor of a Low Rise block	3	2	5
Flat on 5th floor of a High Rise block	3	3	6
Flat on 10th floor of a High Rise block	3	3	6
Maisonette on 5th and 6th floors of a High Rise block	2	3	5
House	1	1	2

Monitoring Outcomes

The Allocations Team will monitor outcomes from the Rating System and take corrective action to address any imbalance in the different types of homes between the Demand Groups.

2024,

Which homes will applicants be able to bid for or receive a Direct Offer?

Here we explain which housing applicants can bid for a Council or housing association home using the choice based lettings system, Home Connections, or be made a direct offer.

Applicants in Groups 1, 2, 3 and 4 will be able to bid for or receive a direct offer of a general needs home. The section on Types of homes that each group will be considered for which explains what a general needs home is.

Applicants in Groups 5 and 6 will be made direct offers.

Applicants in Groups 1, 2, 3 and 4 needing General Needs Homes

A limited pool of applicants will be created from Groups 1, 2, 3 and 4.

Based on current estimates there will be around 1,200 applicants in the pool who can either bid for a general needs social rented home or be made a direct offer of one. The pool will be kept under review.

How we allocate particular types of homes

This section explains the type of applicants we prioritise for homes with particular types of facilities, amenities or layout.

Houses

Maisonettes with gardens, as well as terraced, semi-detached or detached houses are included in this definition.

Houses are in very short supply and will normally be only considered for families with children under the age of 15. Exceptions to this rule are where:

- A council tenant gives up a 4, 5 or 6 bedroom house under the Council's Under-occupation Scheme
- Tenants living in houses who are required by the Council to move as part of an estate regeneration programme, a Compulsory Purchase Order, a Closing Order or to release a specialised home.

Houses which have two living rooms will be allocated as though the second living room is a bedroom. This is provided that the rooms have not been knocked through into one and the kitchen is large enough for chairs and a table for dining.

Homes with gardens/safe play areas

Homes with gardens or safe play areas will be prioritised wherever possible for applicants who have received a recommendation for this facility from a medical Assessment Officer or Occupational Therapy Team.

Ground floor flats

Ground floor flats with level access will be prioritised for applicants who have been awarded priority on health and welfare grounds as needing these homes unless there are no applicants waiting for this type of home.

Level access (wheelchair), mobility and adapted homes

These types of homes are defined as:

- Level access homes designed for people confined to wheelchairs, and include space for a wheelchair

- Homes with no extra space which are accessible for people with mobility issues.

Level access homes will be prioritised for applicants who have had a health and well-being assessment that resulted in a recommendation for this type of home.

Mobility- and wheelchair-adapted homes will be prioritised for applicants who have undergone a health and well-being assessment that resulted in a recommendation for one or both of these types of home.

How we let Council and Housing Association homes

This section explains how vacant social rented homes are let either through the Choice Based Lettings System or by the Council matching an applicant with a suitable home, also known as a Direct Offer.

Choice Based Lettings (CBL) – Home Connections

Adverts

Most vacant council and housing association homes will be advertised on Enfield's Choice Based Letting website called Home Connections

Vacant properties may also be posted weekly to housing applicants in Enfield who have requested a paper copy of the adverts.

Other methods of advertising may also be used to ensure the information reaches as many people as possible.

Each advert will identify key features of the property

- How big it is
- Whether it is suitable for people needing accessible housing
- Who is the landlord
- What type of tenancy agreement is being offered
- What the rent and any service charges are

Withdrawing a Property after it has been advertised on Home Connections

In exceptional circumstances the Council may have to withdraw a home from the CBL system after it has been advertised and bids received. These circumstances are:

- it is needed for a household in emergency or urgent priority
- it has been incorrectly advertised.

If a home has been incorrectly advertised it may be withdrawn at any point prior to an applicant signing the tenancy agreement. This is because it is essential that the Council makes best use of all housing stock to meet the needs of applicants on the Housing Register.

2027,

Bidding

A bid can be placed using the Website or by phone.

By placing a bid, an applicant is saying to the Council that they would like to receive a formal offer of the home if their bid is successful.

Applicants are given their own unique User ID and password.

Applicants must keep their User ID and password safe and are not allowed to share their own User ID or password with anyone else or use anyone else's User ID or password to make a bid for a home that is advertised on Home Connections.

The Choice Based Lettings System is not a first come, first served service.

- Applicants can bid between Wednesday and Sunday each week.
- The advert for each home will show a closing date for bids.

Placing a bid using the Home Connections Website

The Home Connections website can be accessed through the following web addresses:

- Enfield council's website at www.enfield.gov.uk/ and enter 'choice based lettings' in the Search box
- Home Connections website at www.homeconnections.org.uk/
- Council Housing' website http://www.enfield.gov.uk/councilhousing and click on the 'Choose - your home' quick link.

Placing a Bid by Phone

Bids can also be placed by phone on 0845 402 7882 and then by following the instructions.

Helping Applicants to place bids

Applicants can get help with bidding from any of the following

- Friends and family
- Their Social Worker
- Their housing advice worker

2028,

- Their Key Worker if living in supported housing
- A local library can provide training on how to access the internet

Applicants must make sure their User ID and password are kept safe

Reviewing who is and who is not placing eligible bids

The bidding activity of all applicants is kept under review. If an applicant has been awarded priority for housing we would expect them to bid for a home.

What happens if applicants with enough priority do not bid?

Applicants who have not placed any bids within prescribed time limits set out below will be contacted to find out why. They will be offered help and support which includes.

- finding out whether a home being advertised is suitable for their needs
- help with placing a bid
- understanding their expectations about the kind of council or housing association home they are looking for and the availability of these homes
- advice on alternative housing options

When will applicants be contacted?

- Applicants who need a studio, or home with one bedroom will be contacted after 3 months if they have not placed a bid.
- Applicants who need a home with two bedrooms will be contacted after 3 months if they have not placed a bid.
- Applicants who need homes with 3 or more bedrooms will be contacted after 6 months.

These time limits reflect the availability of homes for letting in Enfield with fewer homes with three or more bedroom homes becoming available for letting.

If, after receiving help and support an applicant still does not place bids they will be made a direct offer of a home after the period of time set out below:

- For applicants needing a studio, or one bedroom home the council will make a direct offer if no bids have been placed 6 months after the date of receiving help and support.

2029,

- For applicants needing a two bedroom home the council will make a direct offer if no bids have been placed within 6 months after the date of receiving help and support.
- For applicants needing a home with 3 or more bedrooms, the Council will make a direct offer if no bids have been placed within 9 months of receiving help and support.

Making direct offers will be subject to the availability of homes for letting.

Maximum Number of bids an Applicant can place in one week

Applicants may bid for a maximum of 3 properties per week.

If an applicant places more than 3 bids, only the first three made will be considered.

Bidding for the right home

All applicants must take care when selecting and bidding for homes.

Before bidding for a vacant social rented home an applicant must consider the following issues to ensure the home they thinking of bidding for meets their needs:

Things to think about will include:

- Recommendations made by the Council following a Health and Wellbeing assessment. Any medical and/or disability needs of the applicant or someone in their household must be considered.
- Ease of access to a child's school
- Ease of access to any care or support needed by the applicant or someone in their household
- Ease of access to work
- Ability to afford the rent using earned income or benefits. Further information Affordability is set out in Appendix 8 which also includes information on budgeting tools.
- Access to local transport including buses and trains
- Applicants wishing to place a bid are strongly advised to:

2030,

- visit the area where the vacant social rented home is situated to help them decide if it is suitable for their needs

- speak to their family, friends or advisors about the home they are thinking of bidding for

An eligible bid

An eligible bid is one which is

- for a property of the right size for which the applicant is eligible

- for the right Demand Group

- meets any specific criteria in the advert

Bids for homes where the applicant's circumstances do not meet the advertised criteria will not be accepted.

IMPORTANT

ALL APPLICANTS MUST ONLY BID FOR A SOCIAL RENTED HOME THEY HAVE CONSIDERED THEY CAN REASONABLY AFFORD AND ARE PREPARED TO MOVE INTO. IF AN APPLICANT BIDS FOR A HOME AND RECEIVES A FORMAL WRITTEN OFFER FOR THE PROPERTY, THE CONSEQUENCES OF REFUSING THE OFFER OF THE CHOSEN HOME CAN BE SERIOUS.

The consequences of refusing an offer are described in the Allocations Scheme

Short listing successful Bidders

The Housing Allocations Team will start short listing successful bidders after the deadline for bidding has closed. The deadline for bidding is usually midnight on Sunday.

Shortlisted applicants with the highest priority will be contacted with the viewing details and be invited to view the vacant property. The viewing must take place within the time available. Applicants who are not able to do so or need help to view a property must the Allocations Team. An applicant who does not follow this procedure will be treated as having refused the property.

If an applicant accepts the property they will be given advice on moving in and their application on the Housing Register will be cancelled.

If the property is refused it will be offered to the next bidder with the highest priority.

Circumstances in which an applicant will not be shortlisted for, or offered a social rented home

Enfield Council reserves the right to refuse to shortlist or to make an offer of a social rented home to an applicant, for example, new information becomes available which requires a fresh assessment of the applicant's housing need.

Direct Offers

Where the Council matches an applicant to a suitable available home and makes them an offer of it, this is called a Direct Offer. There are some types of social rented homes that will usually be let by Direct Offer. There are also some types of applicants who will usually be made a Direct Offer. These are set out below:

Homes which will be let by direct offer

Where a home has been advertised through the CBL system once and has not attracted a successful bidder then it will be let by Direct Offer. This will ensure the property is let quickly to a household in need. We will have regard to an applicants' preference for the areas in the borough they want to live in but will not always be able to take this into account, e.g. the applicant has specified an area in which there are few social rented homes. Refusing a direct offer of a home on the grounds that it is not in the applicant's area of preference will not be accepted as a reason.

Applicants to whom a Direct Offer will be made

Direct Offers are designed to help an applicant to find a home if they need to do so urgently or have been unable to find a home themselves. The circumstances for a Direct Offer include:

- The applicant is a Council tenant who needs to move for exceptional and emergency reasons. Reciprocal arrangements may apply for Housing Association Tenants. The offer made will be 'like for like', that is, it will be similar to the applicant's existing accommodation. However, discretion will be used to alleviate severe overcrowding at the same time.

An applicant who is not engaging with the Choice Based Lettings System and not bidding, even after the Council has provided or offered help and support as set out in the section on Reviewing who is and who is not placing eligible bids

- An applicant has been awarded a High Health and Well-being need and the Council decides an urgent move is more likely to be achieved quickly with a Direct Offer than through the Choice Based Letting System
- An applicant placed in accommodation because they are owed a full housing duty by Enfield Council under the homelessness law, and the Exceptions and Special Applications Housing Panel decide a Direct Offer should be made for exceptional reasons. Exceptional reasons include:

2032,

- the lease of the home currently occupied is about to come to an end and no other housing options are available or
- the household has assessed disability needs requiring an urgent move
- financial hardship

- Homes on one level, mobility and wheelchair-adapted homes (Group 5 Applicants)

  Direct offers will take into account recommendations from Health and Well-being assessments and occupational therapy assessments as well as the area the applicant has expressed a preference to live in although the latter cannot always be taken into account. See section on Enfield's Statement of Choice for further details.

- Homes for older people

  During the first year of this Allocation Scheme, consultation and planning will take place to introduce access to the CBL system for letting homes for older people

Letting of homes with Affordable Rent Tenancies

Besides Council and housing association homes that are rented at significantly lower than full market rents, the Choice Based Lettings system, Home Connections, will also advertise some housing association properties with higher rents which can be up to 80 per cent of local market rents.

These homes will be clearly marked as 'Affordable Housing' when advertised in Home Connections.

Affordable housing rents are usually includes service charges that you will need to pay for the home.

Please note that Enfield will continue to advertise all the homes it owns at the standard rent level.

Bidding for Affordable Rent homes

All applicants with enough priority can bid for homes advertised as Affordable Rent homes in exactly the same way as for other advertised properties.

If an applicant is successful the housing association may want to check they have enough income to pay the higher rent, whether working or on benefits. If the applicant is currently a housing association tenant the rent they pay on their present home will not be affected by this change.

Fixed term tenancies

The tenancies for affordable housing and some other housing association properties may now be for a shorter period than the present lifetime tenancies offered by housing associations. The phrase 'Fixed term tenancy' in the adverts will help applicants identify these properties.

The tenancy details will be explained to successful applicants when viewing the property.

Verification of Applications

Housing Officers will verify applications before making an offer of a Council or Housing Association home to a successful bidder or by way of a Direct Offer. Applicants are advised to gather in advance all documents required for verification of their application in order to avoid losing an offer of a home.

We will confirm:

- The property meets the applicant's needs in terms of size and assessed need.
- The Applicant is eligible to be made an offer. Reasons why an applicant may be ineligible for housing are described in the section - Who is ineligible for Housing? An example include the applicant's immigration status has changed and they are no longer eligible for housing
- The Applicant has not acquired a legal or beneficial interest in any other home
- The Applicant's priority for housing has reduced. Reasons for reducing an applicant's priority are described in the section on Reducing an applicant's housing priority. In exceptional circumstances where an urgent move is required the Exceptions and Special Applications Housing Panel may decide to waive the requirement to reduce priority

An offer will be withdrawn if an application cannot be verified within 24 hours or fraudulent information is uncovered.

Outcomes for applicants who refuse an offer of a home

Outcomes for applicants who have received a formal written or verbal offer of a social rented home whether they bid for through the Choice Based Lettings System or through a direct offer, and which they refuse or are deemed to have refused are set out below:

- Group 1 – Exceptional and Emergency Transfers
  Where Enfield has agreed a transfer of an existing social rented tenant for Exceptional and Emergency reasons (Group 1) the applicant will be made one offer of a suitable alternative home. If that offer is refused the applicant's status of Exceptional and Emergency Transfer will be removed and no further offers of accommodation will be made.

- Group 1 – Social Rented Severely Overcrowded Transfers
  Where Enfield has agreed a transfer of an existing social rented tenant who is severely overcrowded (lacks two bedrooms) (applicant in Group 1) and the applicant has refused two offers of a suitable alternative home (whether these were chosen by the applicant through the CBL system or made by direct offer), the applicant will be unable to access the choice based lettings system or receive a direct offer of a social rented home for a period of 12 months

- Group 2 – Social Rented tenants who have to move because their estate is being rebuilt
  Where an applicant in Group 2 (existing social rented tenants who have to move because their estate is being rebuilt) has refused two offers of a social rented home (whether these were chosen by the applicant through the CBL system or made by direct offer), a Possession Order will be sought to protect the Council's and other tenants' interests in ensuring the estate regeneration programme is not held up. A third and final offer that meets the requirements of the household will be made when eviction is due.

- Group 3 Applicants
  For applicants in Group 3 the outcome for refusing offers is set out in the table below:

2035,

Categories of applicant	No. of offers applicable	Outcome if offers refused
• Residents with support needs who have been assessed as needing an independent home (Enfield's Supporting People move on)	2	No further offers will be made. Housing application will be cancelled.
• Single people under 25 leaving Enfield Council's care	2	No further offers will be made. Housing application will be cancelled
• Former Armed Services personnel who fall within one or more of the statutory reasonable preference categories and have urgent housing needs	2	No further offers will be made. Housing application will be cancelled.
• Bereaved spouses and civil partners of members of the Armed Services leaving Services Family Accommodation following the death of their spouse or partner	2	No further offers will be made. Housing application will be cancelled.

• Enfield New Generation Scheme applicants (small number of adult children of existing Enfield Council tenants to move into independent accommodation)	1	No further offers will be made. Housing application will be cancelled.
• Enfield Council employee whose Council home goes with their job and the Council has agreed to move them to an alternative social rented home because of ill health or retirement ○ if releasing a 3 bedroom home or home occupied is needed for another employee	2	No further offers will be made. Housing application will be cancelled.
• Applicant has legal right to succeed to an Enfield-owned social rented home which is larger than required. Council requires applicant to move to smaller accommodation	2	If both offers are refused, the Council will take possession action and one further offer will be made at the time of applying for

Categories of applicant	No. of offers applicable	Outcome if offers refused
○ Applicant is releasing a home with 3 or more bedrooms ○ Applicant is releasing a 2 bedroom home		an eviction order.
• Applicant has no legal right to succeed to an Enfield–owned Council or Housing Association home but is occupying a home larger than the applicant needs and the Council has agreed to house them into a smaller home because it would otherwise owe them a full housing duty under the homelessness legislation ○ applicant is living in a home with 3 bedrooms more than they require ○ applicant is living in a home with 2 bedrooms more than they require ○ applicant is living in a home with 1 bedroom more than they require	2	No further offers will be made. Housing application will be cancelled. The Council will start possession proceedings. The applicant will be found intentionally homeless if they present as homeless.
• No other housing circumstances apply but applicant has been awarded ○ A high health and well-being priority ○ A medium health and well-being priority	1	No further offers will be made. Housing application will be cancelled.
• Enfield Key Worker	1	No further offers will be made. Housing application will be cancelled.
Post Homelessness Order 2012: • Households in accommodation provided by Enfield Council owed a full housing duty under the homelessness law that are assessed as not suitable for living in the private rented sector	1	No further offers will be made. Their housing application will be cancelled, Enfield's housing duty discharged and applicants will need to find their own accommodation.
• Applicant is homeless and has been provided with accommodation in Enfield by another local authority	1	No further offers will be made. Housing application will be cancelled.

Categories of applicant	No. of offers applicable	Outcome if offers refused
• Applicant is homeless but Enfield Council does not owe the full homelessness duty towards them (includes non-priority homeless and intentionally homeless cases)	1	No further offers will be made. Housing application will be cancelled.
• Emergency & Exceptional Priority requiring an urgent move (e.g., as part of a National Witness Mobility Scheme, Enfield children safeguarding cases, etc.)	1	No further offers will be made. Housing application will be cancelled.
• Applicants referred through Enfield's established Multi Agency Public Protection Arrangements (MAPPA)	1	No further offers will be made. Housing application will be cancelled.
• Enfield's Fostering and Adoption Panel quota cases ○ for homes with 3 or more bedrooms	2	No further offers will be made. Housing application will be cancelled.
• Private rented sector tenants or living with family or friends ○ Lacking 3 bedrooms ○ Lacking 2 bedrooms ○ Lacking 1 bedroom	1	No further offers will be made. Housing application will be cancelled.

- Group 4 - Pre-9th November- 2012 applicants: Households in accommodation provided by Enfield Council owed a full housing duty under the homelessness law. Where the household has refused two offers of a Council or Housing Association home (whether these were chosen by the applicant through the CBL system or made by direct offer), the Council will discharge its duty towards the household and cancel their accommodation. The household will be expected to either take the second offer of a social rented home or make their own housing arrangements.

- Group 5 – Applicants applying homes which assist with mobility needs
  Applicants in this group have a wide range of mobility and access needs. Enfield Council will work with applicants in Group 5, through its Occupational Therapy service, to ensure applicants' mobility and access needs are met. However, there is a severe shortage of social rented housing in the borough, particularly of mobility- and wheelchair adapted homes. The Council will try to meet all needs possible through assisting with adaptations to suitable homes but will require applicants to make compromises. For example, a suitable home may not always be in the area of choice an applicant wants.

Where an applicant's mobility needs are low and suitable adaptations have been offered, the Council will place their housing application in abeyance for 12 months after 2 offers are refused.

Where an applicant's mobility needs are high, for example, the applicant needs a wheelchair-adapted home; the Council will keep the housing application open until the requirement for a suitable home is resolved as long as the applicant accepts that the Council may not be able to offer accommodation in the area of their choice. If the applicant does not compromise on the area of choice, then the application will be cancelled after 2 offers have been made and the applicant will have to make their own arrangements to find a suitable home.

- Group 6 – Applicants for homes for older people

Where applicants refuse 2 offers of a home for older people, no further offers will be made and the application will be cancelled.

Right of Review
Applicants have a right of review regarding the outcome from refusing an offer. More information can be found in the section on Rights of Information, Review and Complaints.

Publishing the Results

We will publish information about the homes we let and the people we let Council and housing association homes to. This information can be found on the Housing pages of Enfield Council's website (www.enfield.gov.uk).

Our Summary Annual Equalities Report published on the Council's website provides more detailed information about the homes we let.

Enfield's Statutory Tenancy Strategy and Tenancy Policies

This section sets out what a Statutory Tenancy Strategy and tenancy policies are and how they relate to each other.

Enfield's Statutory Tenancy Strategy

Enfield is required by law to have a Tenancy Strategy which sets out the matters to which social landlords in its area should have regard to when setting their tenancy policies.

The matters social landlords should have regard include a local authority's objectives for its area and for social housing in its area.

Enfield's Tenancy Strategy is available as a separate document on Enfield's website here:

www.enfield.gov.uk and type 'Tenancy Strategy' in the search box.

Tenancy Policies

All social landlords are required to publish Tenancy Policies. Tenancy policies set out the following information:

- What types of tenancies social landlords grant
- The circumstances in which social landlords will grant a tenancy of a particular kind
- Where tenancies are for fixed terms, the length of the term
- The circumstances in which social landlords will grant a further tenancy when the existing tenancy comes to an end

Current Tenancy Policies for all social landlords working in Enfield, including one for Council-owned homes, can be found on Enfield's website:

www.enfield.gov.uk and type 'Tenancy Policies' in the search box

Local Lettings Plans

Local Lettings plans will operate for Council and housing association owned Estate Regeneration Schemes where new homes will be built. They will also operate where we consider that there is an overriding need to respond to local conditions.

They will:

- Have clear aims and align with priorities set out in Enfield's Housing Strategy, Tenancy Strategy, Tenancy Policy and the priorities of Enfield's Allocations Scheme
- Accord with relevant legislation and statutory guidance
- Be area or estate based
- Be time-limited
- Matters which could be considered in a Local Lettings Plan include:
    - Commitments made to Council tenants who were decanted from estates to be regenerated
    - The proportion of incoming tenants with experience of maintaining a tenancy.
    - Vulnerable households in need of support
    - Child density
    - Flexibility in relation to occupancy levels
    - Tenants choice strategy
    - How low or high demand homes will be let
    - Reversing the impact of Anti-social behaviour
- Have an Equalities Impact Assessment where it is relevant or proportionate.
- Be clearly communicated to housing association partners and other relevant stakeholders including tenants and residents
- Be monitored regularly to ensure the aims of LLPs are being met
- Be reviewed at regular intervals to ascertain whether an LLP is still relevant

If a Local Lettings plan is in operation then this will be stated on the advert for a property. When a Local Lettings Plan applies, the property will be advertised for applicants satisfying stated criteria

Tenancy Agreements and Types of Tenancies

Applicants who accept an offer of social rented housing will be asked to sign a Tenancy Agreement. A Tenancy Agreement is a contract between the applicant (the tenant) and their landlord (e.g. Enfield Council or a Registered Social Landlord). It sets out the rights and responsibilities between the tenant and the landlord, for example, the tenant will agree to pay the rent on time and the landlord agrees to keep the home in good repair.

Tenancy Agreements will vary depending on whether the landlord is Enfield Council or a Registered Social Landlord.

Homes owned by Enfield Council	Homes owned by Housing Associations
Starter tenancy Applicants who have never held a social rented housing tenancy before are given an introductory tenancy that lasts for 12 months. Introductory tenancies are easily brought to an end if the tenant breaks the conditions of the tenancy at any time during the 12-month period. Legislation requires the courts to give possession of the home back to the Council if proof is provided that the tenant broke the conditions of an introductory tenancy. Existing tenants of Enfield Council or a Registered Social Landlord who have transferred to another home owned by Enfield Council are not given this type of tenancy	Introductory tenancy Applicants who have never held a social rented housing tenancy before are given an introductory tenancy that lasts 12 months. Introductory Tenancies are easily brought to an end if the tenant breaks the conditions of the tenancy at any time during the 12-month period. Legislation requires the courts to give possession of the home back to the Council if proof is provided that the tenant broke the conditions of an introductory tenancy. Existing tenants of Enfield Council or a Registered Social Landlord who have transferred to another home owned by a Registered Social Landlord are not given this type of tenancy.
Secure Tenancy This type of tenancy is given to a tenant by the Council after an Introductory Tenancy has ended and provided the tenant has kept to the tenancy conditions during its 12 month term. The rights and obligations of a secure tenancy are all set out in an Act of Parliament (the Housing Act 1985). If the Council wants to repossess a secure tenancy, the courts have discretion about whether they give the home back to the Council.	Assured Tenancy This type of tenancy is given to a tenant by an RSL after an Introductory Tenancy has ended provided the tenant has kept to the tenancy conditions during its 12 month term. Some of the rights and obligations for Assured Tenancies are set out in an Act of Parliament (The Housing Act 1988) but most of the terms and conditions in an RSL assured tenancy follow guidance of the regulator of RSLs, the Tenancy Services Authority. For some breaches of assured tenancy agreements, the courts have no discretion and have to give the home back to the RSL if they request it.

	Affordable rent tenancies These are fixed term tenancies (e.g. lasting for 5 years or more) at rents up to 80% of market rents and can be renewed or brought to an end when the fixed term is finished.
No tenancies can be brought to an end without a possession order being granted by the Courts

Where the household includes a couple (married, civil partnership or cohabiting), a joint tenancy will be created.

Applicants aged 16/17

Applicants who are 16 or 17 may apply to the Housing Register. If a person aged 16 or 17 accepted an offer of social rented housing they will be given a "tenancy in trust" for them and then given a tenancy agreement in their own name when they reach 18.

2045,

Confidentiality and Access to Personal Information

Employees of the Council and Enfield Council Housing will treat all information provided by applicants in accordance with the Council's confidentiality procedures and with any inter-agency protocols that apply to particularly sensitive information known to the council.

Our approach to sharing information is set out in the section on Requesting, Sharing and Verifying Information.

Access to Information

All applicants for housing have the right to see information held about them by the Council, in accordance with the Data Protection Act 1998.

The right applies to all personal information regardless of the date that information was recorded.

All applicants are entitled to information about how their application for a social rented home was assessed and also about their prospects of being housed.

An applicant will be entitled to receive in writing the Council's decision not to consider them for housing because of unacceptable behaviour by them and reasons for the decision.

Rights of Information, Review and Complaints

This section tells you about housing applicants' right to information, review of decisions and when to complain.

Rights of Information and Review

The Housing Act 1996[9] gives housing applicants the right to know the facts of their case which have been or are likely to be taken into account by Enfield Council or Enfield Homes when considering their application to join the Housing Register or to make them an offer of a social rented home.

Applicants are entitled to receive this information in writing together with information that explains how and by when they can request an internal review of a decision made that they do not agree with.

Homeless applicants have an additional right of review under Section 202 of the Housing Act 1996 about the suitability of any offer of a social rented home.

Which decisions in this Allocations Scheme can a housing applicant ask to be reviewed?

A housing applicant can ask Enfield Council Housing to review the following decisions:

Type of Decision	Who will deal with an internal review
• Deciding outcome of request to review ineligibility for housing	Enfield's Housing Options and Advice Service: Team Leader / Review Officer level
• Whether facts have not been taken into account in assessing a housing application	Enfield's Housing Options and Advice Service: Team Leader / Review Officer level
• Whether the Housing Register application should be cancelled	Enfield's Housing Options and Advice Service: Team Leader / Review Officer level
• Reducing priority for housing for rent arrears	Enfield's Housing Options and Advice Service: Team Leader / Review Officer level
• Review of outcomes of refusing an offer of a Council or housing association home	Enfield's Housing Options and Advice Service: Team Leader / Review Officer level

2047,

Timescale for requesting a review

When an applicant receives a decision in writing (by post or email) about their housing application, they can request a review of it within 15 working days.

At the same time as requesting a review, the applicant, or whoever they would like to represent them, should also provide any additional details or information they would like Enfield Council Housing to take into account.

Both the request for a review and any additional details and information an applicant would like considered should be sent in writing (by post or email) to Enfield Council Housing. The table above outlines which organisation deals with the review of particular types of decisions. The letter containing the original decision will say which organisation will deal with any review.

How we will deal with a request for a review

When we receive a request for a review, we will write to the housing applicant within 5 working days:

- Acknowledging receipt of their request for a review
- Explaining the review procedure;
- Explaining that the housing applicant will know the outcome of the review within 20 working days, unless a longer time is agreed with the applicant.

When we receive the housing applicant's written representation, we will review our original decision, taking into account any additional information and any other relevant facts. A more senior officer than the one who made the original decision will carry out the review.

We will let the applicant know the outcome of a review in writing. Where we confirm our original decision, we will explain why.

Appendix 1 – Social Rented Housing in Enfield

The Size of Enfield's Housing Register

On 31st March 2015 there were 2,581 applicants on Enfield's Housing Register.

Of this number

On average around 1,000 applicants join the Housing Register each year.

Enfield's Housing Register is reviewed annually. Applicants who do not have enough priority for housing are removed after one year unless they tell the council they want to stay on the Register.

Some Facts about Housing Need in Enfield

At 31st March 2015 there were

- 2,764 homeless households living in temporary accommodation
- 322 applicants living in private rented homes and social rented homes were overcrowded by one bedroom. 62 applicants were severely overcrowded because they lacked two or more bedrooms.

Appendix 2 – What was taken into account when writing Enfield's Allocations Scheme

When writing the Housing Allocations Scheme for Enfield, the Council took into account a wide range of documents and information. These included government guidance, legislation, legal cases, best practice and new national and regional government policy. The main documents and information we have taken into consideration are set out below:

Legislation

- Housing Act 1996, Part VI
- Localism Act 2011

Predicting the supply of social rented homes in Enfield every year

Every year we estimate how many and the size of homes that might become available for the letting to applicants on Enfield's Housing Register by:

- Taking as a guide the number and size of lettings in the previous year
- Taking account of any new homes that will be built and completed in the coming year from our Development Programme involving Housing Associations
- Reviewing the number of homes that are undergoing major repairs and likely to have the repairs completed during the coming year
- Reviewing how many homes are likely to become vacant in the year and how many of these will not become available for letting in the coming year because they need major repairs or might be demolished as part of a regeneration scheme.
- Reviewing the number of social rented homes that might be bought through right to buy sales that will not become available for letting.

We use these predictions to monitor lettings throughout the year to see that the three main types of housing applicant (homeless, transfers and others) access an appropriate share of available social rented homes.

Consultation and engagement

Community engagement and involvement has shaped the development of a revised Allocations Scheme for Enfield with feedback showing how community involvement made a difference.

Appendix 3 – List of housing circumstances regarded as a reasonable preference

Part 6 of the Housing Act 1996 (as amended) expects local authority housing allocations schemes to give a 'reasonable preference', or a head start, to the following groups of applicants for social rented housing:

- People who are homeless
- People occupying insanitary, overcrowded or otherwise unsatisfactory housing
- People who need to move for medical or welfare reasons, and
- People who need to move to a particular location, for example to be nearer to special medical facilities.

Giving a reasonable preference to an applicant does not mean they will have automatic priority for a social rented home.

The lists below set out the housing circumstances that Enfield will have regard to when awarding reasonable preference:

Insanitary, overcrowded and unsatisfactory housing conditions

Nationally defined circumstances:

- Lacking bathroom or kitchen
- Lacking inside WC
- Lacking cold or hot water supplies, electricity, gas, or adequate heating
- Lack of access to a garden for young children
- Sharing living room, kitchen, bathroom/WC
- Property in disrepair
- Poor internal or external arrangements
- Young children in flats above ground floor

2058,

Locally defined circumstances

- Enfield's Council tenants who need to move because, due to changes in welfare benefit entitlement, they can no longer afford to occupy their current homes and need to move to a smaller home
- Enfield's Council tenants who need to move because their home is part of an estate regeneration scheme
- Enfield's Council and housing association tenants who are severely overcrowded because they lack 2 or more bedrooms

People who need to move on medical or welfare grounds (criteria may apply to any member of the household)

Nationally defined circumstances

- A mental illness or disorder
- A physical or learning disability
- Chronic or progressive medical conditions (e.g. MS, HIV/AIDS)
- Infirmity due to old age
- The need to give or receive care
- The need to recover from the effects of violence (including racial attacks) or threats of violence, or physical, emotional or sexual abuse
- Ability to fend for self-restricted for other reasons
- Young people at risk
- People with behavioural difficulties
- Need for adapted housing and/or extra facilities, bedroom or bathroom
- Need improved heating (on medical grounds)
- Need sheltered housing (on medical grounds)
- Need ground floor accommodation (on medical grounds)
- Need to be near friends/relatives or medical facility on medical grounds
- Need to move following hospitalisation or long term care

2059,

Appendix 4 – Assets, income and savings

If you have sufficient financial resources to resolve your own housing need, you will not be eligible to apply for social rented housing.

The Council will review the financial limits during the first year of the scheme and annually thereafter. We will take into account any significant changes in:

- house prices in the Borough;
- income levels;
- the availability of affordable home ownership;
- private rents.

The financial limits applicable at 5 November 2012 are:

- Household gross income greater than £70,000, or savings greater than £50,000 for families seeking properties with two or more bedrooms
- Household income greater than £40,000 or savings greater than £50,000, for single people or couples seeking a studio or one-bed flat.

If you own a property, or a share in a property, and the value of your share is greater than the savings limit, then you will be assessed as having sufficient financial resources and be ineligible to go on Enfield's Housing Register.

If you are aged 60 or over you may still be eligible for sheltered housing if you also have a support need.

If you own a share in a property but are unable to live there, for example, if your relationship has broken down – then we will assess your financial circumstances on the basis of the money that could reasonably be expected to be released if the property was sold.

2060,

Appendix 5 – Enfield's Quota Schemes

Quota Housing Schemes play an important role in

- Meeting housing need and preventing homelessness
- Encouraging residents to develop local connections in the area
- Building mixed and sustainable communities

The number of homes set aside for each quota scheme will be kept under review to ensure they continue to meet local priorities.

Enfield's Children Leaving Care

Studio and one bedroom homes will be made available to young people leaving the care of the local authority who are owed a duty by Enfield Council under the Children (leaving care) Act 2000. The size of this quota varies year on year to meet need from these housing applicants. Enfield Council's Children and Families Services usually nominate these applicants. In exceptional circumstances a reciprocal arrangement may be agreed with another local authority who has been placed in Enfield at the discretion of Enfield Council. For more information see Care Leavers Housing Panel.

Residents Moving on from Enfield's Supported Housing Schemes

Studio and one bedroom homes are made available for specific Enfield Council Supported Housing Schemes which receive Supporting People funding to address the needs of residents with support needs.

An applicant will be put forward by the Supported Housing Scheme provided

- their support needs have been addressed and they are suitable for independent living
- renting privately is not an option

Foster parents and adoptive parents

Enfield's Fostering or Adoption Panels may nominate from the following:

- Approved Foster Parents
- Approved family or friend's foster carer
- Applicants approved for adoption

New Generation Enfield Residents Scheme

Studio and one bedroom homes may be made available under the New Generation Enfield Residents scheme. Applicants for this scheme will include single people and childless couples living with parents in Enfield Council homes meeting the following criteria:

- Aged between 25 and 60
- Have lived with parent(s) continuously for at least 3 years and
- The parent(s) has lived in a council property owned by Enfield for at least 3 years
- The applicant and/or their partner (if a childless couple) are working – see section on Enfield's Definition of Working

Within this group of applicants, priority will be given to moving an adult child/couple where this would help resolve or reduce severe overcrowding in the parental Council-owned home.

Enfield's Key Workers

Enfield's Key Workers are people in professions that are important to maintaining local services, particularly in health, education and community safety.

Enfield uses the Government's definition of Key Worker that is set out in its Homebuy literature. This can be found on the Homebuy website:
http://www.homebuy.co.uk/key_worker_eligibility.aspx

Key Workers can purchase homes at a below market level price. The definition of a key worker will be reviewed annually so that additional classes of occupations can be included if necessary.

A key worker can apply for Council or housing association homes in Enfield provided their main place of work is in Enfield.

Applicants who have sufficient finances to resolve their housing need by renting or buying in the intermediate housing sector (e.g. below market rent or shared ownership) or the private sector will be given information and advice on alternative housing options.
