I write further to my email to you and Mrs Lorraine Cordell. Our allocation manager has advised us that as Mr Cordell is an existing council tenant, he is entitled to apply for a transfer of tenancy and cannot make a rehousing application. I am advised that the application needs to be done via Mr Cordell's neighbourhood officer. I have emailed the officer and asked him to contact Mrs Cordell as soon as possible. Mrs Cordell is also encouraged to contact the Mental Health Team so they can support him with his MH issues and rehousing. I have amended the order to reflect the above and look forward to hearing from you.

Dear Trishna
Sorry to email you again this is the email I wanted to talk to you about, it would seem by the date stated in the below email of the 6th September 2018, would mean that once you had sent the amended order to Ludmilla instead of her contacting you regarding it she went right to Edmonton Country Court and asked for her ordered to be sealed and sent out. This is not acceptable and I am not happy I have spoken to Edmonton Country court and it is 100% Ludmilla order that the court has sealed. I would like to know what can be done about this as I know the reason why Enfield Council has done this and it is not just about the two bedroom it is about the discharged section also; the order was not discharged it was dismissed at court. Can you get back to me regarding this?

Lorraine

Subject: RE: Simon Cordell
Dear Angela Hague
I am writing this as I have an issue and I have been trying to resolve it with the new team my son has been put under but it seems I am having issues and therefore wondered if you could help as you were the last team to see Simon before the changeover. It seems due to the change over to the new team they want do anything until they see my son, but I believe the mental health team has enough information on their system to be able to help in this matter which I will explain below. As you may be aware, we were at court regarding Enfield Council and the neighbour's case on the 09/08/2018 and the case against Mr Cordell was dismissed forthwith, the reason for this is I believe for 1st time the judge saw what Enfield Council has been going along with the neighbours for a long time.
I believe the Mental health team are well aware what my son has been dealing with and what he states has been ongoing since 2014 and it should be of record on the systems the hell he has been living with what the neighbours have been doing since 2014, I know the mental health team are aware what the neighbours have been doing to my son due to being there more than once when my son has shown video and audio to the mental health team. I have asked more than once for the mental health team to help get my son move yet nothing has been done, and once again I am asking for help with this.
On the 09/08/2018 the judge ordered that Enfield Council move my son as the flat he is in is clearly not suitable, I also spoke to the judge about the need for a suitable two-bedroom property so that my son can have a spare room for his family so they could stay with him and support him. the judge agreed but it is this part that Enfield council are trying to get out of without the help and input of the mental health team, saying it would be more suitable for two 4244, bedroom property so Simon can get support from his family, Enfield Council is willing to move my son and there is going to be a hearing with the panel on the 28/09/2018 regarding moving my son, but unless the mental health team does a report saying he needs a 2-bedroom Enfield Council will only move him to a 1 bedroom. I do feel my son needs support and a 2 bedroom would allow family member to stay with him and help him and try and get him to understand he does need help.

My son has been locked away on his own in the flat he is in since 2013 living in hell due to what the neighbours are doing he does not go out, he is not getting the contract with others, only when the family attend his home for a few hours, and due to what he is living with he don't like people around there, which it has made it harder for the family to be there all the time to support him because of how and what he is living in with what the neighbours and Enfield Council has been doing. Therefore, I am asking for some help for a letter to be written from the mental health team saying a 2 bedroom would be more suitable as Simon could have someone with him and still be able to have his own space, as there would be a spare room for the family to stay in.

Lorraine Cordell

5 Enfield Council: The 2nd Housing Possession Order – Forged Claim "On 24th September 2018 at about 11.30am, one of the Defendant neighbours returned home from dropping her daughter at school and as she entered their block of flat, she noticed that the middle door on the ground floor was open as well as the Defendant front door. As she went up the stairs to their second floor flat, the Defendant dog came out of the Defendant flat and started barking at her. The neighbor had to run up the stairs to her flat to escape from the dog. It was reported that the Defendant dog is always barking whenever they go out or return to the block and the neighbor and 4 years old daughter are terrified."

Dear Mrs Cordell,
I write in response to your email below and further to our telephone conversation held a few minutes ago. As explained, it is not usual practice for a management transfer application to be forwarded to the applicant as this is a document which is usually completed by a housing officer and used internally. So please accept my apologies if you may have been advised previously that this would be the case. However, we are happy to discuss its contents with you should you wish to.
.I enclose a copy of the Enfield Housing Allocation Scheme, which is used by the exceptions panel before considering a management transfer application. I explained to you that if the application goes ahead tomorrow (this was the earliest exceptions panel meeting), Simon could only be considered for a transfer of property which is similar to the one he currently occupies (like for like transfer). You explained to me that you believe that your son requires supported accommodation. You also said that he has agreed to see a consultant of the Enfield Mental Health Team and was given an appointment on 31/08/2018 at 9.30am. I have explained that Simon will need to be assessed by the team in order to be considered for supported accommodation. On that basis you agreed to have the management transfer application deferred to be considered at the next panel meeting which will take place on 28/09/2018, this would allow more time for an assessment to be carried out by the Mental health team. Please confirm that this is agreed by yourself and Simon. I also confirmed that the exceptions panel meetings are attended by professionals which means that tenants or members of their family are not allowed to attend. However, the meetings can be attended by mental health workers. I hope this email answers your queries, please do not hesitate to contact me if you have further questions.

Dear Ludmilla Iyavoo

Could you please forward the housing management transfer application that Lemmy called me about last night 15/08/2018 at 16:15 hours, as I have the mental health team calling me regarding the like-to-like section in the application. I have not yet seen the application that has been filled in for my son by Enfield Council, and I would like to see it before it is submitted to the broad tomorrow. Also, would it be possible to get a copy of Enfield Councils guidelines and policies for the management transfer application, I do believe I have a copy but want to make sure I have the correct one. As you are aware at court it was stated I had to fill an application in by today, but it was not stated as to what application it was, and then it was found out the application had to be done by the council so all the wrong information was told to the judge, and as you are aware what I said to the judge regarding a 2 bedroom and then what Lemmy said to the judge that my son would not get one, then what the judge said to Lemmy regarding a 2 bedroom.

I do not want my son placed into a new home that is not going to be appropriate, I want to get it right for him, after all his health has gone downhill due to all the court cases and what the neighbours were and are still doing to him and Enfield council took no notice of the hell my son was living in all they done was believed the neighbours, then on top Enfield Council basically telling the courts there was nothing wrong with my son's health even though I was telling Enfield Council since the start of 2015 via emails the impact this was having on my son regarding what the neighbours were doing, I want Enfield Council to take this seriously as so far where my son has been concerned you have only blamed him for everything and gone one sided and never heard what my son or I have had to say, I believe if Enfield Council had done the correct investigations they would have seen there was a lot more going on here then what the neighbours was saying, but Enfield Council only blamed without wanting to know the facts. My son has to be re-housed and I want that to be done correctly even if more time is needed and this is not taken to the panel until next week, I do want it done as soon as possible due to what the neighbours are still doing, I don't want things rushed by Enfield Council because they know now they have done wrong and made beaches regarding my son I want it done correctly, as stated I want the mental health input if they are willing to give it as it seems since I put the complaint in they do not seem to want to talk with me as stated to you outside the court room, but that is being addressed and I am waiting for a call back today regarding the housing issue, I have spoken with a few people over the last week regarding this, but due to a change over with the people dealing with my son and him not given a named worker yet it has been hard. Also, can you tell me if I am allowed to attend the panel hearing and also maybe a mental health worker if they are willing to attend also?
I will await to hear from you today.

Dear Mrs Cordell,
I have emailed Michael Adu- Gyamfi and asked him to contact you as soon as possible, please note that he's aware of the deadline and will be in touch in due course. I have emailed a draft order to Trishna Kerai of Stuart Miller solicitors and I'm currently waiting her approval. Once I have this, I will be in a position to email the Court with the agreed order. I can't confirm the time it will take the Court to approve the order but as soon as this is done, I am sure Ms Kerai will contact you and let you know. We will contact the police regarding the discharge of the injunction order; however, we would need a sealed copy of the court order to be received first before such notification takes place.

Dear Ludmilla lyavoo
Thank you for the update email, as you will see form my below email I had already been told it would been a housing management transfer, my brother had a long talk with Nadine and he did try and speak to Michael Adugyamfi but he was in a meeting, Nadine kindly sent him an email with my email details for him to contract me, but the best phone number to call me on is [redacted] Would it be possible to have a contract email for Michael Adugyamfi as you know I am on a short time scale ordered by the judge of 7 days to get this addressed. Also, would it be possible to get the time scale as to when I will get the order form the court, and has the police been informed regarding the dismissal of both the injection orders.

Dear Ms Cordell,
Thank you for your emails.
I have made enquiries with our housing allocation manager and since Mr Cordell is an existing council tenant, he will need to apply for a transfer, so he does not need to make a new rehousing application. This transfer application must to be done via Simon Cordell's neighbourhood officer. I have emailed the officer in question and will ask him contact you as soon as possible. Can you please provide me with a preferred contact number so the officer can make an appointment with you and Mr Cordell? I have copied Mr Cordell's solicitors to this email.

I believe what we need as this is what we have just been told on the phone we need to do a housing management transfer to be able to get this done as Simon should not need to fill out a new housing application as he is already a tenant.

Speaker 1:	00:00	Visit Enfield.gov.uk. Otherwise, please choose from these six options so we can get you to the right team. press 1
New Speaker:	00:09	03/10/2018.
New Speaker:	00:09	regarding council tax, business rates and housing benefit inquiries. It's two please note with immediate effect, this is the only option that can help deal with these inquiries. For help with waste and recycling. Choose three for inquiries regarding homelessness, housing advice or Enfield council housing. Please press four or to ask about registrars, nationality and settlement checking and citizenship. It's five for help with anything else. Press six, thank you for holding.
Speaker 2:	00:55	[inaudible] [inaudible] [inaudible] yeah.
Speaker 3:	01:33	[inaudible] [inaudible] [inaudible]
Speaker 1:	01:47	just so you know, we're getting a lot more calls.
New Speaker:	01:51	Good afternoon I 'am customer services. You're speaking to Mek, how can I help?
Speaker 4:	01:54	Hello? How are you doing? Is it possible to speak to a personal to do with my complaint please and deal with my case load that is ongoing with inside of the Enfield civic centre?
Speaker 1:	02:06	Okay. Um, uh, one moment. So, this, this case has been passed on already to complaints team, complaints and information department.
Speaker 4:	02:17	Yes, that's correct. It's been ongoing for a long time and it's never been addressed. Also, I would like to understand what's happening with my housing in regards to a transfer, an emergency transfer that was supposed to have happened on the 16th of last month of octo
Speaker 1:	02:31	Okay.
Speaker 4:	02:32	September,
Speaker 1:	02:33	Are you in temporary accommodation.
Speaker 4:	02:35	No, I'm in, I'm a secure tenant, but I'm being, I've been victimized and assault in my house plus the erm employees for the Enfield Council have fraudulent fraud paperwork and put possession orders in which I can prove that they've done and they're still working inside of the company, like they are still dealing with my case. This person he's attacked me for two years since he started the company. Lemmy Nwabuisi. He fraudulently frauded, all of the paperwork and went for a possession order and he used the true perpetrators that I was already in contact with, the Enfield counsel and their complaints department, showing them what they were doing to me and he used the perpetrators to attack me. Basically, he's tried to take my life and my home and him and force me into prison under fraudulent claims that he created.

Speaker 4:	03:22	And I can prove this from your timestamps, so I want something done about it. He is now supposed to be dealing with a transfer house in transfer for me alongside with the solicitor. That I advised; he never had a solicitor and I advised him to get a solicitor, which I've got the recordings to prove because I told him on the phone, he had defrauded all of the paperwork and I could prove it from the time since I told him. Is he an illegal adviser? He, I knew that he had passed at Westminster. He said to me on the phone that um, no he isn't. He isn't acting as a legal profession. And I advised him to get a solicitor. He did get a solicitor, Lumina, I've got records speaking to their, her bosses and for her, for her previous company and I've got recordings of me explaining to her what Lemmy's done and what she, he's allowed, she's allowed to do and she still went for possession orders and still went for custodial sentences and.
New Speaker:	04:09	ok.
New Speaker:	04:09	court costs against me. I want something done.
Speaker 1:	04:12	Ok I see and the complaint is related to your housing situation?
New Speaker:	04:16	Yes, that is correct madam.
New Speaker:	04:16	It did.
New Speaker:	04:16	Okay. Um, I can bring up a veto from my system, but it's really because you're in front of the switch codes at the moment. Okay. So, it's really a beyond me at the moment. You will need to speak to the Enfield Council housing, regarding your housing situation because I don't have access to the system and regarding your complaint it's been passed on to complaints team. Let me just have a look at who is on duty today.
New Speaker:	04:40	Thank you.
New Speaker:	04:40	and I'll see if I can put you throw.
New Speaker:	04:43	Thank you.
New Speaker:	04:43	you are welcome
Speaker 2:	04:50	[inaudible]
Speaker 1:	04:52	okay. Just hold the line please. I will. Um, I'll see if I can put you throw but. I'll have to introduce the call. So, may I take your postcode please.
Speaker 4:	05:00	Echo November, three, seven Juliet Quebec

Speaker 1:	05:07	and your house number, sir?
Speaker 4:	05:08	109 Burncroft Avenue
Speaker 1:	05:11	109 ok, Mr. Simon Cordell.
New Speaker:	05:15	Yes, that's correct.
New Speaker:	05:16	Okay. Thank you.
New Speaker:	05:17	Okay, thank you.
New Speaker:	05:18	Just hold the line for a moment and I'll see if I can get through to the complaints team.
New Speaker:	05:22	Okay. Thank you.
New Speaker:	05:24	You're welcome.
Speaker 2:	06:09	[inaudible] [inaudible] [inaudible] [inaudible] [inaudible] yeah. [inaudible] [inaudible] [inaudible] [inaudible] [inaudible]
Speaker 4:	08:16	Hello Simon.
New Speaker:	08:16	Hello.
New Speaker:	08:16	Hi, you are throw to Mathew I am from the complaints team at Enfield Council.
New Speaker:	08:16	How are you doing? Mathew.
New Speaker:	08:25	Yeah I am alright how are you doing.
New Speaker:	08:25	Hmm. I am Okay. Not too happy to be quite honest. I'm very concerned about things I would like to get addressed. Is he, are you the person that could help me address, um, the framework and legal policies within the Enfield Council and its employees when they're not acting responsible or acting with neglect or misconduct? Can you help me in regards to them issues?
Speaker 1:	08:49	Yes so I work in the complaint team. Um, so my role is stop sort of take complaints, um, Log them to the relevant services. And I also respond to complaints as well. Um, the woman you spoke with on the phone to before said that you have got an active complaint from Enfield Council.
Speaker 4:	09:08	I've had multiple active complaints but they've been pushed aside and now a gentleman called Lemmy while I was putting complaints in of what they were allowed, what the, what the employee ums and directors were allowing to happen to me in my house, which I've got video evidence of. Um, they pushed away about 300 emails that are logged on your computer systems and they employed a gentleman called Lemmy Nwabuisi who works for the ASB team.
New Speaker:	09:36	Yep.
New Speaker:	09:36	and he has actually done and I can prove is I collected the data. I've collected a free freedom of information act from the Enfield Council but asking for any claims against me.
New Speaker:	09:46	Yep,

New Speaker:	09:46	of my neighbours. He's basically gone to the Enfield Council. He's a woman called Sarah Fletcher, was our neighbourhood office. while I was in a hospital when I wasn't in my property, she has found the perpetrators that live above and are in my first original 400 emails or 300 emails were about and basically, she Sarah Fletcher has phoned them.
Speaker 4:	10:07	The Perpetrators the true perpetrators who live up above me. She has, I'm let them forge a statement. Yeah, with three claims in it. What they initially done was phoned up the Enfield Council, wrote to the Enfield Council and when the Enfield Council received a letter on the 17th of the 10th 2016 of a them and it backdated a month prior. And what it said is the, I'm a drug addict and now that is how this started, so from a letter you lot receiving a letter which was which on the 17th 10, 16 saying that I'm a drug addict backdate in a month. Prior you use knew that I already had all these official emails in regards to these people and what they were doing and they were attempting to take my life Article 2 of my human rights and that they were, they were violating in my private and family life.
Speaker 4:	10:58	Article 13 and so fourth year. Now use lot new the seriousness of the original 400 complaints. Then when I'm not living in my house this Sarah Fletcher has invited the Mathiyalagan family, you lot received the first letter. Then they've made three telephone calls to use lot updated complaints. While I'm not in my house, so I'm living in my house. they have written a drug letter now three, updated telephone calls, then Sarah Fletcher, phones them up and ask them to come down to the civic centre on the 11th of the 11th 2016 she does a statement with them. They can remember the drug letter date, but they couldn't remember the three days of the phone calls that they made and update on your computer systems. So, they made a complete new three days up completely. So now that led to six days that they have made plus one more date, which was the drug letter date, seven days in total. So, but they couldn't remember the three telephones, the days that they telephoned you up on.
New Speaker:	11:59	yeah.
New Speaker:	11:59	when they send it.
New Speaker:	11:59
Speaker 1:	12:00	yeah, but before you go, before you go on is it alright if I ask a couple of questions. Um, can you say that it was Sarah Fletcher's basically who sort of Um sent a letter you are saying that she shouldn't have well, was Sarah Flexure a neighbourhood officer?

Speaker 4: 12:14 Yes. Sarah Flexure. She's, she, she, she works under Jeffry oman who is the neighbourhood office watcher? The Enfield council.

New Speaker: 12:22 yeah.

New Speaker: 12:22 have their own police force. The metropolitan police force initially did not want the neighbourhood officers' teams to be established in history in our history and our British history. And that is because they aren't part of their own force in real life what they are. Is there a council's police force? So, the neighbour team belong to yourselves and not to the metropolitan police. And that is in our history. Yeah. So, these people are responsible.

New Speaker: 12:49 yeah, yeah, yeah.

New Speaker: 12:49 and reliable to yourself.

New Speaker: 12:51 I know this I no lee um.

New Speaker: 12:51 They're responsible and reliable.

New Speaker: 12:52 Yeah.

New Speaker: 12:53 They're reliable and responsible to yourself and questionable to yourselves. Yeah. And two and two offers. Yeah. So now what I'm concerned about is Sarah Fletcher has done this. Yeah. This isn't even the initial problem on being held hostage in my house, but that's another, that's the beginning section.

Speaker 4: 13:08 This is what Lemmy has done. So, after Lemmy's Sarah Fletcher's called them down. I phoned up Sarah Fletcher and I have a recording of Sarah Fletcher. And I explained to her, and I know that she frauded all of this paperwork because I wasn't living in my house at the time. Yeah. So, I was living at my mother's house. Now I've got the record in our Sarah Fletcher. Sarah Fletcher left her job yeah, because of it. So, she's no longer employed as a neighbour team officer. But then what's happened is this Lemmy Newer Bush has been hired by yourselves. He's come straight out of West minister. So, he's done a degree in law supposedly in the house in an all the rest of it. And what he's done is he's picked up, um, Sarah Fletcher's work. Now he's over, he's overseas, he's not, he's refused to look at any of the 400 emails that all your complaints departments were dealing with all the MPs are tied in and everybody else are tied in asking, you lot to protect me.

Speaker 4: 14:04 And then what he's done is he said, if I don't come to the Enfield, council in regards to Sarah, and these meetings and these allegations, that thing has done, he's going to put a possession order in and now. He tried to entrap me into the civic centre, into the civic centre for meeting and I refused in the recordings to go for that meeting because I'm being held in my house already because of the Enfield, council created a frauded Asbo application with the metropolitan police in your offices, which I've got the paperwork to prove, which is a bit of another story and I'm riding a nine-year prison sentence in my house basically when I shouldn't be. Yeah, I never got arrested.

New Speaker:	14:04
Speaker 1:	14:43	before you go on, before you go on, I'm on, I'm on. I'm don't mean to interrupt you but I'm just trying to take notes. So, when I interrupt you don't take it the wrong way
Speaker 4:	14:49	Yeah, we'll I won't do that. I won't do that. I won't do that. I've, I've built notes for you, I've built notes for you and I'll give you access to a website in a second if you would like and that website is going to show you all of the evidence that I've built and everything can regard on the report that I've built and that report shows my.
New Speaker:	15:04	yep.
New Speaker:	15:04	losses, my hours, everything that I've suffered through out and everything and I would like that taken into account.
New Speaker:	15:09	yep.
New Speaker:	15:09	and I
Speaker 1:	15:10	I'm just taking notes.
New Speaker:	15:12	Yeah.
New Speaker:	15:12	too log this all down.
Speaker 4:	15:13	I'm going to be serving,
New Speaker:	15:15	Non auditable.
New Speaker:	15:15	I've got a solicitor firm and my solicitor firm is just letting me finish off the last bits and I'm going to come and officially serve the Enfield Council my full report and official report of all of what I'm talking about. I've gave enough opportunities for this to be resolved. Yeah. Um, from the initial problem of what's happened. Well, I'll, I'll go for the initial problem in a second of how it all started, but we're going to continue with up to date at present, if that's okay with yourself. Is that okay? Yeah.
Speaker 1:	15:42	Yes, yes. So, what I am writing in here. Lemmy has taken over from set.
Speaker 4:	15:47	Sarah Fletcher. Yeah. Yeah. And I want, here's what it is.
Speaker 1:	15:52	and he has refused to look at any of the letters, is that right?
Speaker 4:	15:54	Yeah. Well, no. pardon well he has refused to look at any of the emails on, on the computer, which is explaining the true facts of what was ongoing in the, in the, in these, on this housing estate. So, what my mother was writing to Enfield Council and I was writing to Enfield Council and he has refused to look at them, he has picked up Sarah Fletcher's work. And there was also another case well two other cases that were ongoing with two other neighbours where I'd been set up which I have proved now. I got arrested for the other two cases, one with Stan and one with a woman called Karen and one a boy called George three cases. They all set me up and I went to court and won all three cases. Now a woman called Jean Burton, who's the witness care protection team for Hackney. She emailed a woman called Konichiwa whose, whose Lemmy's line manage yeah.

New Speaker:	16:44	No auditable
New Speaker:	16:44	And she told me,
Speaker 1:	16:46	okay,
Speaker 4:	16:46	yeah, Konichiwa. She in, I've got that email in that email. She, Explained um, Jeanette, Jeanette. or whatever her name is explains to Konichiwa that I have won the cases and I'm going to be released back home. So now Konichiwa, or whatever name is up, she, she messages Lemmy and she tells Lemmy to go to Stan's house. And to George's and that and to give them diaries. So Lemmy go to their houses and he gives them diaries telling them I'm goanna be coming back home and I've won the cases. Um, there's another day. Arrange that shortly. The day after with demo. So Lemmy arrange to go back the second day in his own personal notes when he gets back to the civic centre, he writes in his notes, which I've retrieved on his personal notes, that he noticed that there was no camera in my corridor.
Speaker 4:	17:36	So he writes that in his own notes and he didn't ever think I was going to get them. The next day he starts forcing hand delivering letters to my front door saying I've got to remove the camera. And knowing that the camera's not there and he's still force letter saying that I've got to think about the water pressure, which is another part of what's going on. Now he knows there's no cameras. Then he knows that the water pressure has been checked six times already by Sarah Fletcher a surveyor Thames Water the private plumber and Enfield Council plumber and all of them have said that there is no problem, now their force handwriting letters trying to get into my house and break into my house. Yeah. Now why? Why they're trying to break.
New Speaker:	18:16	Is this Lemmy.

New Speaker:	18:16	Yeah. Lemmy is forcing hand. Yeah.
New Speaker:	18:20	Non Auditable.
New Speaker:	18:20	Pardon? Pardon?
New Speaker:	18:23	Who is it that is trying to force letters on to you.
New Speaker:	18:23	Lemmy, Lemmy, Lemmy, Lemmy and other team members.
Speaker 4:	18:26	Yeah. Now you've got other players and there is a reason by hand. Lemmy doing this, but we're just, I'm just going through the Lemmy part now. What Lemmy does is iPhone Lemmy up and in the recording to Lemmy. I say to Lemmy, I'm not willing to come for the meeting with, you Lemmy and the reason I'm, I'm, I've just found it. I was okay to go through this conversation with you Lemmy, Lemmy say yes, he is happy to talk with me. I said, this is the first time I've spoken to Lemmy and the reason I was speaking to you is because my mother just shown me all of the emails for the first time that I didn't know that was going on. Now you're trying to, you and all the other team members are trying to kill my mother in emails and overload her as an enterprise, knowing that she's a single person and all she's trying to do is protect her son me, which is within our human rights and the rights for us to live in this country and it's in all your equality policies.
Speaker 4:	19:14	Yeah, diversity, equal opportunities to found a new de. All of your, all of the talk that you use lot the company seems to give the enterprise use what represent gives. Yeah. Now Lemmy, Lemmy, Lemmy, what he done because I'm on the phone to Lemmy, I asked, Lemmy, can you please go onto the computer and can you check the last complaint against me? Now this is on the seventh month of 2017 we're having this conversation now. Lemmy gets upset and he goes on the computer here him typing like that in the recording. And he checks the date and he go to me are the 1st of January. So now when he says the 1st of January, I know the laws that I represent. So, I say to him, Lemmy, you're out at the time limitation Act. Yeah. These cases that you're trying to put me to force me to the civic centre for meeting for are out of the time limitation act, I've already been arrested for them and I've already been fan not guilty in court.
Speaker 4:	20:06	Yeah. So, if you've had new information given to you, Lemmy, you're not a police officer. Give that to the police and the police do their investigations and then if you believe that there's, I'm found guilty then you as Enfield council can, you could represent Enfield council, can do whatever you believe is in the best interest for the rest of your Clow clients. Yeah. And what Lemmy does is he gets the hump and he puts the phone down now he copies all of Sarah Fletcher's work and he slams it in 31 seven times into a processional order and he slams a possession or the through my front door hand delivers it the next day and he goes to take my flat off me and steal it. Now he's copied and paste it. Now you can tell that the first statement that they'd done was we've Sarah Fletcher. Yeah, in a somehow a possession order got made in between that and all these got sent.

Speaker 4:	20:58	You can tell on the history there and then straight away Lemmy's already prepare the statement covering up all the information that he's put in the possession order he calls the Mathiyalagan's down again on the 2nd of August, 2017 and he makes them, they happily sign the forged paperwork that Lemmy's made and then they spend two years chasing me around in a court trying to steel my flat, making up allegations while this woman's chasing me and attacking me slamming toilet. I've got videos in every room record in every room of my house on what they've done to me in my font room and bathroom kitchen. Now the reason that they've turned evil, my neighbours have turned on me is because a sex scandal was created in my name and uh, and against me and my partner, which Enfield council played a massive role involved in. Now the way that I can prove that the council played a role in this is they put an Asbo against me and while I'd been on curfew for a year in my house, so I hadn't gone out and hadn't done nothing.
Speaker 4:	21:57	I was working for Enfield Council I took the keys from the local community Hall, Kemp hall and I was managing Kemp hall . I was doing kids with cellar palsy at winch mill Hill festival. I was doing lock to lock. Festival, with Enfield Council down next to Enfield lock. I was doing ponder end festival. Are you still their sir?
New Speaker:	22:17	Yes I am still listening.
New Speaker:	22:17	So I was a valued member to the community and I was making good commitments and ties to on relationships with people, networking and I was working alongside yourselves cause you're the red badge that use at represent this on every street post. and everything what is in all of the paperwork and the invoices that I got put through my bank account for doing these events. And so.
New Speaker:	22:38	year.

New Speaker:	22:38	I can prove that there was a conflict of work under the 1998 act when the Enfield council initially agreed to do this application for Asbo to be put through.
New Speaker:	22:48	yep.
New Speaker:	22:48	There is three different sorts of Asbo's.
Speaker 4:	22:51	Yeah. There's a county court order. There's a standalone Asbo. Yeah. Which is what they've put on me. A standalone Asbo which is for like kicking a football up the wall. Then there's a CBO Asbo. Now CBO Asbo is what they should have most probably tried to put on me. And what that means is after criminal conviction they can put an Asbo on you. Yeah. So, if something says the organization of illegal raves, it's illegal, means illegal. So, I should have been arrested yeah, they never arrested me for this case. Yeah. If you did get arrested for throwing a party and you did go through the proper channels, get arrested, go for the police station, go to court. The maximum sentence is six months in prison. Yeah. Six months in prison and a 20-grand fine. Somehow, they forgot to arrest me.
New Speaker:	23:40	What was the Asbo filed for.
New Speaker:	23:40	the organize the name.
Speaker 4:	23:42	The name of the application. Why we, it's called the organization of illegal raves. Yeah, that's what they're saying. Now I've got the paperwork here proven. I was never Found guilty.
New Speaker:	23:50	There all dead.
New Speaker:	23:50	I was never. found guilty in court. Yeah. Now what initially happened is if you picture this year for us, if you, okay. Cause if you, you know the area I suspect. Yeah. You've got, I'm on curfew for a year in my house for the gazebo case. I'm barred from central London. I've got a sign on eight o'clock every single day at the police station. I've got a tag on my leg and I've got bean in doors by 8 O'clock. I lost my first partner of 13 years, my first ever love yeah. And I've been with for 13 years. Diana, because she kept walking out of the door and I couldn't chase her after eight o'clock or nothing because I was like a little kid on curfew.
Speaker 4:	24:24	Yeah. I ended up with not I, I, while me and Diana broke up. I went out and met another partner. Yeah. I never had no problems with his partner. Me and her today have never argued. Yeah. At the same time as I met this new partner, the police served the Asbo folder outside my front door. Now that Asbo folder says it was created in your civic centre by Steven Ellis and by a Jane Johnson our commander now for an Asbo to be made. You need members of the public. Yeah. Now each police officer done a statement this hole Asbo is over people getting keep up overnight. At one place? Progress way. Yeah. Progress way is opposite. The BMW the new BMW factory on Lincoln Road? Yeah. Where they sell BMWs. You know what I'm talking about sir?

New Speaker: 25:12 Yeah.

New Speaker: 25:12 Now there's another place Southbury train station at Southbury train station.

Speaker 4: 25:17 You've got the old man build in, which is the white building opposite the train station. Now if you, if the old man building while I was on curfew, you can check in your files cause you lot went they're enough times, I've got all of the, I've requested all of the paperwork for freedom of information acts and you sort of gave me the evidence proving that you lot went there yourselves on noise abatement teams didn't that and serve notice on them. God knows how many times. Now that you've got a group of people that are living in that building. The old man building while I 'am on curfew, I don't know now this gentleman has, there's a gentleman called Chris well let's call him Chris. He's his throwing a party in Essex's. Now the police have shut him down. A bloke, there's a police officer called Adrian Combs in Essex. Now agent Combs owns a company called big boss limited and he's in charge of every festival in the country. What he does is all the paperwork under the polices it big boss limited and you can check your up on the internet and he does all Glastonbury the lot. So, he's a, he's a top.

Speaker 1: 26:15 Yeah. Before you go on Mr Cordell before, before you go in terms of your complaint as a hole who is your complaint against, is it the Asbo behaviour team and Lemmy or Speaker 4: 26:26 I've got all of the directors on recording and I've been talking to them about their whistle blowing procedures and policies and I've got the full cabinet here. Yeah. And what my problem is.

New Speaker: 26:37 Arr.

New Speaker: 26:37 is that I've got all have a littler and recording. I've got every single one of them. I've got over 200 recordings here of me explaining to them all the different problems about the Mathiyalagan's, how they were selling another house and living upstairs as temporary accommodation and had been left to attack me. Yeah. Use lot are holding me for nine years. Yeah. See a standalone Asbo yeah. Is not supposed to be a form of punishment by any form of way of means people get released. Yeah. From prison by early release of curfew. A curfew should never have been put inside of a standalone Asbo so, I shouldn't never be on curfew if six months, if you aren't got enough for criminal conviction, at court how can you give me a nine-year curfew even if you did have enough criminal conviction and maximum is six months.

Speaker 4:	27:22	Now I'm phone in use I and I'm explaining to you. I've got the police Asbo folder and every police office; all this is over. People getting kept up overnight. I spoke to this big boss, limited Adrian Combs and he said to me, he, what happened, and I've got all the notes here for it. He was phoning this bloke called Chris up telling Chris not to throw a party. Chris kept putting the phone down on him, not realizing who he was, that he's a, he's a represent a good police officer to know he's in charge of all the festivals. He's given Chris a chance, but Chris was being a rude person and putting the phone down him. So, Adrian got in and helicopter. Chris tried to throw the party in Essex. Adrian got in a helicopter, I've got loads of news reporters putting them in the helicopter and he landed in the field and he shut Chris down.
Speaker 4:	28:05	He gave Chris Lurcher a noise abatement notice, which he's gave me all the paperwork for and he let them press all of it in the press newspapers. So, I have got all of the newspaper press saying that Chris throwed, this party. Now Chris has shut the party down because he's got kicked away and he's come to Enfield and he's gone to progress way. He never realized that the other lot were in the old man building. So, any cars from Essex have followed him to progress way the rest have got on trains and they've got at Southbury train stations seen the old man building turned on and they've walked straight into the old man building now. So, you can imagine all of the foot patrols have gone into the old man building and a couple of cars gone down to progress way. Now this is not my fault, the Adrian Combs sent the metropolitan police all of his work and sent a picture of Chris or white person in the folder.
Speaker 4:	28:56	Now the metropolitan police and the Enfield Council took Chris's picture out of it and put my picture in it. Yeah. Now imagine that. Yeah, put my picture in. And what made things worse was there was no phone calls to progress way or about progress way because no one really went to progress way. Everyone ended up at the old man building. So now all of the recordings say all of the nodes for the old man building are there all the nine, nine, nine. Calls. So, when I opened up the Asbo, it says crown road, crown road, crown road, the old man building. Now under oath. When I got the police officers under oath on that day in call, we asked them, are you sure when you created this folder with the council that every one of these are progress way? He says under oath. Yeah, we're, I'm sure that all of these crowns wrote, there was no party at crown road on this day. He's a 100% sure. Now he's lied because he forgot to take the X to Y locations out of it. He blocked out all the, all of the names of the streets, but when you check the X extra Y locations, they all show crown road all of nine, nine, nine calls in that Asbo are Really? Crown road. Yeah.

New Speaker: 30:01 Yeah.

Speaker 1: 30:02 Mr. Cordell before we're going to, we're going to have to wrap this call up, so what,

Speaker 4: 30:06 why would you want to wrap it up? If I'm talking about dishonour in your company, I'm going to turn my website on soon. I'm happy to do that and I'm confident that your goanna ends up with fraud departments. I'm sending it to the universal duh, duh, and to turn to the European committee, I'm going to send it to Christopher Jedit who's the queen secretary. I'm also going to send it to Teresa and I'm going to go online. I'm going to blast it everywhere. Yeah. You keep telling me to deal with this out of body. Yeah. Rather than inner body of yours.

Speaker 1: 30:32 I'm just, I'm just off just trying to wrap up the main details of your actual complaint.

Speaker 4: 30:36 Yeah. because, well, Lemmy, Lemmy, Lemmy has just try to steel my flat and your initial workers who are.

New Speaker: 30:41 yeah.

New Speaker: 30:41 Pat and Steve, which you are got in your release forms, who use it or who everyone's going to, you know, to do about Mr Cordell when me and my mom are writing Pat and Steve from the ASB team put the Asbo on him. Yeah. And so Pat and Steve are your players in your team and all your mates, all of Lemmy and all of that and in all of their release forms when they're all backstabbing me when overseeing and, and every time my mother writes to them says, please help Simon. Use lot to the doctors because the doctors say, are the councils writing to us again, telling us to come to you? Yes. I've got all the, all letters, all the doc letters off. The doctors proving that every time that use lot are.

Speaker 4: 31:15 phoning them every time my mom sends you an official letter the day after I got the doctor's at my house trying to kill me. Yeah. And that's because you're sending them there because you're receiving official emails telling you now Lemmy went one step further. Yeah. What Lemmy done in his, you can go and check this on page 258 or 248, two five eight or four. Eight of his new indexed Asbo of his new index. I mean injunction, remember, Lemmy went for a possession order and in injunction then another injunction order. Then another injunction order against me over two years. Remember in my recording I told Lemmy that first one and I told him about the time stamps, I'm about the time limitation Act I said to Lemmy on the phone like I'm explaining to you, you go and get the first Asbo folders made in your offices and noticed that each police officer has done four statements each pretending that they're members of the public, but there's no signatures at the bottom of them.

Speaker 4: 32:08 They've got no members of the witness and members of public saying that anything has ever happened. This is illegal. What they're doing to me. Yeah. Even says the white people commit the crime and I never committed the crime. This is nine years of my life. Use lot are steel here. Now I asked Lemmy to go to the folder. Lemmy put the phone down. He goes to the folder and on the third page, fourth page of the Asbo, in 2015 when I got so called found guilty, which I can prove I never in the transcripts because they couldn't prove a legality. The judge says it in the transcripts. We can't prove that nothing illegal happened. Yeah, so but now, but she still gave me an Asbo. Anyway. Yeah. Now what I told Lemmy to do was go when I got found, so-called, found guilty they made, they made my bail conditions up.

Speaker 4: 32:51 I'm not allowed out. I am not allowed to go to a party. I'm not allowed to go to an industrial estate. I'm not allowed to hire no sound equipment without Enfield Councils authority and all the rest of it. Yeah. Now someone went along and made threats out of it all they scribbled little bits of it and it says attend court and we'll re - man and we'll re attend court and dis us and we're re - man, that's what he says. Yeah, they made threats out on my bail conditions. Now I can never prove the person had done this because Sally Gilchrist, who is in charge of all of the cases, what she'd done was gave it to my solicitor Josephine as Josephine was walking away from the case from me. Yeah. Cause she knew how much trouble the case was. So, I fought Josephine could have done it or, or Sally Gilchrist could've done it.

Speaker 4:	33:34	But I've collected the folders from Josephine's office. Yeah, you with me? Yeah sir.
New Speaker:	33:41	With the threats and that.
New Speaker:	33:41	Yeah Mr. Cordell.
New Speaker:	33:41	Now let me just explain this one. Let me just explain this to you because this is quite serious what I'm explaining to you. Yeah, please. Let me just finish this one part and I will stop. I'm not meaning to be rude, but we're talking about seven years and not nine years and me being held in this house. Yeah. Now what Lemmy went and done is I've collected the folders from Josephine Walden, Michael Carol's in hard copy, so I couldn't approve this Sally Gilchrist and put these threats in it, but then somehow Sally Gill, Chris mess gave used or copy of the folders. Now you've got all your mate. I'm Daniel Ellis and all that in order to be his emails messaging me when I'm talking to Daniel Ellis in the recordings and Daniel Ellis is saying he?
Speaker 4:	34:15	He don't have a copy of the first Asbo in that building. There's never been a copy of the first Asbo but now I know that's a lie. Yeah, because it's late being admitted now in paperwork. There is a copy in that in them offices. And what Lemmy went and done when I told him about the misses about the missing signatures on the time limitation, he went to the folder to check them and he took the threats out of page out of the first Asbo and put them into his in-junction order. Yeah. So, if you go to page two four, five eight or two, four, two five eight in his injunction you see the threats Yeah, from the first Asbo. that in 2015 when Sadie Gilchrist sent it to your offices. Now have you checked the emails that my mother was sending you at the same time my mum was sending you asking you lot to protect me and use lot are getting Sally Gilchrist, sending you all this forged paperwork that use lot know and you watching all the threats in it and then Lemmy, and you're watching all this happen and you're doing all of this to me and Shannon and Heidi.
Speaker 4:	35:14	Mr. Cordell.
New Speaker:	35:14	You have caused a sex scandal, in our names, your company has to cover up all of the holding me in my house for nine years. And I told Lemmy about emergency applications.
Speaker 1:	35:23	Mr. Cordell, Mr. Cordell, What I am going to do is speak with Lemmy's manager after this call as soon as we go off the phone. Um, but while I've been advised is that any communication should go through your lawyer,

Speaker 4:	35:37	Throw my lawyer, I'm not going out to a lawyer, I'm going to go public. I'm going to go public year, and you watch the police one into your buildings and grab you lot. if you don't deal with it internally, tell whoever's advising you to, to take sensible advice and to deal with me because I don't mind. I will wipe all of the corruption away like I've said in every recording and I will not talk about it to use lot. If you lot go and call an emergency application like I taught, Lemmy how to do and he's done for the last two years wrecking my life and you get this Asbo of me trespass was never proved. You can I will turn a copy, let me turn the website on for you now and show you lot how much.
New Speaker:	36:11	Mr. Cordell.
New Speaker:	36:12	Have you got Google about you.
New Speaker:	36:14	Mr. Cordell.
New Speaker:	36:14	Have You got Google about yeah. Let me show you how I've updated this website. Let me show you the report and how much trouble will not ask your friend if he wants to advise you to. Same advice after. Do you want to see the website?
Speaker 4:	36:27	Mr. Cordell like I said I have been advised that all communication must go through your lawyer.
New Speaker:	36:29	No, it mustn't. listen to this If you get this right, there's a word called. There's a word, there's a word there which is called, I'm allowed to act for myself here. I don't need a solicitor to act for me. Yeah, I don't need a solicitor in a court. You don't need a solicitor to act for you. I am acting for you. You are my, you take money off me. I am your client under the landlord and reforms act alone. You are in breach of what? Of your agreement. You are signed into a mutual contract with me and you're refusing to talk to me about breaches within your company and within my contract that you've signed with me. We're in contract. So how are you not obliged into your part of the contract and acting with fairness and fair processing in regards to the issues that I'm bringing to you. I'll in a higher standard of evidence that is more relevant and beyond the reasons that I can use your own timestamps to prove what your employee's done when they were acting with neglect and misconduct towards my life and try and steal my property while in trapping me in my home. And you're telling me that you are not prepared to talk to me and to talk to her as Lisa in regards to my contract, but you still want to take money off me.
Speaker 3:	37:41	Hello?

Speaker 1:	00:00	If you wish to report a crime that is happening now or someone is injured and in need of urgent medical attention or in immediate danger, please hang up and dial. Nine, nine, nine now. To report a non-emergency, call on fire website at www.met.police.uk that's www.met.police.uk For custody related inquiries. Please press one please report or not an emergency.
New Speaker:	00:29	crime.
New Speaker:	00:37	Hello police what's your reason for calling?
Speaker 2:	00:39	Hello, I made a complaint, um, official complaint about four days ago through this phone line,
New Speaker:	00:44	ok.
New Speaker:	00:44	I've got told that someone was going to call me back in regards to my emergency, matters and no one called me back. I phoned again yesterday and spoke to somebody. They told me they advised me that I'd put the complaint in four days prior and that someone should have called me. I explained to them that no one had called me. She said she was going to re-highlight it for someone to call me again.
New Speaker:	01:05	Yeah.
New Speaker:	01:05	And I'm still waiting again here today for someone to call me.
New Speaker:	01:08	Ok,
Speaker 1:	01:11	Alright, well I'm sorry to hear that. Do you have a reference number, sir?
Speaker 2:	01:14	Um, I've, I didn't bother taking a reference number down. It was just on the computers. I took recordings of the conference. I do have them, but they're in the recordings I have to play them back to myself.

Speaker 1:	01:22	I see. Okay. Alright then, well, okay, this is goanna help you, can I take your name?
Speaker 2:	01:29	Simon Paul Cordell. C. O. R. D. E double L.
Speaker 1:	01:35	okay, that's fine. and can I take your oh just bear with me just for one second let me just see what I can find about it here. Yeah. Okay. and can I just double confirm your address please Simon.
Speaker 2:	01:49	24 um 109 Burncroft Avenue.
Speaker 1:	01:52	Okay. That is fine thank you, just bear with me and we will see what we have got here.
New Speaker:	01:55	Ok, Thank you.
Speaker 3:	02:05	[inaudible]
Speaker 1:	02:11	Right I am just going to see what we got on our system here to see what is going on with your
Speaker 2:	02:14	how many calls? How many calls have I actually made to the call centre roughly over the last say five years?
Speaker 1:	02:20	Okay. Um, I can't tell that because we don't actually go that far back on our system here. I mean, that the older things would have been archived.
Speaker 2:	02:28	Okay. How far, how far can you truthy go back? may I ask.
New Speaker:	02:32	Um. ,
Speaker 1:	02:33	I mean, like I said, well I think we can go back about a year here.
New Speaker:	02:36	Rufley.
New Speaker:	02:36	in the system. Yeah. I mean I've got I can see here in front of me that there are a few calls that you've made right in front of me and I'm just looking up one of them to see exactly what's happening with that and what the sort of status is for it [inaudible]
Speaker 2:	02:44	I appreciate. I appreciate your time.
Speaker 1:	02:46	Yeah. that's alright, just, bear with me for a second Thanks.
Speaker 3:	02:48	Okay.
New Speaker:	03:00	Okay. let’s see what is going on
New Speaker:	03:00
Speaker 2:	03:09	Do you have Google available to use lot?
Speaker 1:	03:13	Yeah. Yeah, we do.
Speaker 2:	03:15	I've got a website, horrific corruption.com that I've had to put up and it's got loads of corruption and what I'm actually complaining about in the video evidence of what people are doing to me and it's got lots of evidence of what's happened. And I want someone to pay attention to the evidence inside that website and treat my human rights with respect and to treat the company's policies with respect. And that's what I'm,
New Speaker:	03:38	ok.

New Speaker:	03:38	that's what my main, my main concern and my main goal is right now.
Speaker 1:	03:43	Okay. Alright, will you just bear with me for a minute and I will just see what's happening with you I am just going to put you on hold for just one second. alright, just bear with me Simon just stay there, alright thanks
Speaker 3:	04:19	[inaudible]
Speaker 2:	04:25	slam your windows as much as you want.
Speaker 1:	04:28	Hello Simon?
New Speaker:	04:30	Hello.
New Speaker:	04:30	Yeah, HI there I have had a quick look through the notes, so on the system here already, and what I can do is I can sort of just chase it up for you. It is being dealt with by the IPPCO as far as I can see. Okay.
Speaker 2:	04:40	By the who? IPCC
Speaker 1:	04:43	[inaudible]
Speaker 2:	04:43	IOPC they have changed their name now. IOPC.
Speaker 1:	04:48	okay. Well, yeah. Okay. Well yeah, they are dealing with it at the moment.
Speaker 2:	04:51	Who is actually handling that case? I've not been told that and I'm not spoke to anybody and when I phoned them, they say that they're not dealing with the issues and.
New Speaker:	04:57	Right.
New Speaker:	04:57	that this is the police need to deal with their own.
New Speaker:	05:00	yeah.
New Speaker:	05:00	whistle plumbing and policies and efficiently.
Speaker 1:	05:02	Yeah, Well that's the only thing I can do is I can only go on what's on the record in front of me.
Speaker 2:	05:05	Who does it have a name there? Does it have a name?
Speaker 1:	05:08	No, no, it doesn't. I'm afraid. No.
Speaker 2:	05:09	Who actually signed, who actually signed in and actually [inaudible] the ID to the actual log who actually created the log and said that and actually raised that this was going to be dealt with by the.
New Speaker:	05:18	yeah.
New Speaker:	05:18	by the IOPC
Speaker 1:	05:21	when well that would be the Inspector at the time that put that on Um,
Speaker 2:	05:24	what inspector was that inspector Sing or Sang or something there,
Speaker 1:	05:28	No it doesn't say the name of the individual, it's just the pay number is on there and that is all And um, but like if I can actually, put a new note on there now for this call you're making right now.
New Speaker:	05:37	ok.
New Speaker:	05:37	just so you're following this up.
New Speaker:	05:39	Yeah.

New Speaker:	05:40	Yeah, and to see exactly when and where we can go from here. What's going on with this?
Speaker 2:	05:44	Okay. So, can I phone the IOPC now and take a CAD reference number of yourselves and say that.
New Speaker:	05:50	ha.
New Speaker:	05:50	and say that this is now an active complaint with them. That is 100% been dealt with by the IOPC. The metropolitan police have informed me this information
Speaker 1:	05:58	and I would like to speak to a case handler. Is that possible for me to do that?
New Speaker:	06:03	Well, that's just what is on, well I mean, just one second and let me see what is on here again or what else we can get? Um, yeah, I can give you the Cad Number, for were that is mentioned actually. Have you got a pen there?
New Speaker:	06:14	Yeah. I am ready to go.
New Speaker:	06:15	Okay. let me just find it again, just give me one second
New Speaker:	06:19	Um Okay. Yeah. The Cad Number is 4360 okays.
New Speaker:	06:24	4360.
New Speaker:	06:24	Yeah. And that's of the 6th of October.
New Speaker:	06:28	Six of October 2018.
New Speaker:	06:28	Yes that is right, because I think you were saying you did not take a reference number before.
New Speaker:	06:33	Na.
New Speaker:	06:33	You saying that it is recorded but you didn't actually take a reference number so you need to write one down.
New Speaker:	06:40	Okay.
New Speaker:	06:41	Yeah. So that is the one that is making the reference to the IPCC but if you went ahead and called them and quote this cad reference number.
New Speaker:	06:49	Okay.
New Speaker:	06:51	As you suggested Yeah. Okay. Yeah. And See how you um, see how, hopefully they catch they.
New Speaker:	06:57	I would Appreciate that . I appreciate your help today. You'd be most courteous sir. have a good day,
New Speaker:	07:01	Your very welcome.
New Speaker:	07:01	Okay. Thank you for your call,
New Speaker:	07:05	Ok. Bye.
New Speaker:	07:05	Bye now.
New Speaker:	07:05	Bye.

1 The Enfield Council Ludmilla lyavoo & Neighbourhood Watch Team Manager Michael Adu-Gyamfi to Mother about Housing Transfer the Judge Ordered: "We write further to your emails, enquiring about the progress of your son's management transfer application. We advised you by email on 16/08/2018 that Simon could make a management transfer application and if successful, the transfer will be made on a like for like basis. We explained that as Simon lives in a one-bedroom flat, he will be transferred to another property like the one he currently has, if his application is successful. You explained to us that in view of his mental health problems you did not feel that a like for like transfer was appropriate and asked that he be transferred to a supported accommodation or to a larger property. We explained to you that for the Community Safety Unit to consider such an application they would need to have the Mental Health Team involved. You then explained that Simon was given an appointment to see Dr Benyure from the Enfield Community Mental Health Services on 31/08/2018, and it was agreed that the management transfer application will be put on hold until the next Panel meeting on 28/09/2018, to allow time for the Mental Health assessment to be carried out. We have since been advised that Simon failed to attend the scheduled appointment and did not engage with the Mental Health team. As this meant there was no report to support a management transfer application the Community Safety Unit was unable to submit an application on his behalf. The Panel would require medical evidence in support of an application for a supported accommodation or for a larger property and we did not have one by the date of the last Panel meeting on 28/09/2018. Dear Mrs Cordell,
Re: Simon Cordell- 109 Burncroft Avenue, Enfield, EN3 7JQ
We write further to your emails, enquiring about the progress of your son's management transfer application. We advised you by email on 16/08/2018 that Simon could make a management transfer application and if successful, the transfer will be made on a like for like basis. We explained that as Simon lives in a one bedroom flat, he will be transferred to another property like the one he currently has, if his application is successful. You explained to us that in view of his mental health problems you did not feel that a like for like transfer was appropriate and asked that he be transferred to a supported accommodation or to a larger property. ENFIELD ADULT NORTH LOCALITY TEAM

On the 5th Oct I attended a meeting with Lemmy Nwabuisi (Anti-Social Behaviour Coordinator, Community Safety Unit, Environmental & Community Safety, Enfield Council) and Alan Dinala, Forensic CPN. This meeting was part of the safeguarding process for Alan's client.

Si Note: Ambrose

SC has allegedly been aggressive on more than one occasion towards Alan's client. Lemmy informed me that SC has a past and current history of physical and verbal aggression towards residents in the building. Lemmy informed me that the council has tried to work with him but to no avail. Lemmy informed me that SC is getting easily irritated even by the sound of a flushing toilet cistern; this happened very recently and he threatened Alan's client. Lemmy thinks these are signs of mental illness and that BEH should proceed with an MHA. Lemmy argued that this is for the protection of others as well as SC's own safety. I have asked Lemmy to email me a list of incidents in chronological order. Lemmy stated that he would need information from our team to confirm if SC is engaging or not with our service. I have advised Lemmy to email his request to the Team Manager, George Benyure. Enfield Council will be seeking possession of SC's flat via the courts. Lemmy stated that in a recent court case the judge recommended that Enfield Council re-house SC on the proviso that he engages with the MH Team.

Speaker 2:	00:54	[inaudible].
Speaker 1:	00:54	Thank you. You will now be transferred to customer service.
Speaker 2:	01:06	[inaudible]
Speaker 1:	01:07	Its funny your throw to the, IOPC. Helen speaking. Can I take your name please?
Speaker 3:	01:11	My name Simon. Mr. Simon, Paul Cordell C. O. R. D. E. L.L
Speaker 1:	01:19	Thank you have you been in contact with us before
Speaker 3:	01:20	I've had dealings with yourselves.
Speaker 1:	01:23	Have you got an reference number with us at the moment?
Speaker 3:	01:26	um, I can't remember one of the top of my head I'd have to go through my case paperwork. I've got a fresh, I've got a fresh Cad number that I've just spoke to the metropolitan police on the phone for and they've told me that they've passed over a K or they passed over my whole case load to you. Everything that I'm dealing with. Um, they've gave me a CAD number for that and a date that they've passed this over to you. They've told me now to contact you. I have an official website that's live and I'd like to be able to give an assistant that website now and it's got a load of police officers, detailed recordings of them telling me to have been robbed and everything done. The phone it's got evidence that they're holding me hostage in my house for nine years with no first-hand witnesses and no, no nothing. They falsified all of the paperwork and their timestamps go backwards and everything. I would like somebody to be able to deal with, this isn't a matter of emergency.

Speaker 1:	02:14	Um Mr. Cordell . We have no emit over criminal matters but if the force is saying that they've referred a complaint. If you made a police complaint about the way you've been treated by the police.
New Speaker:	02:23	Yes that is correct.
New Speaker:	02:23	Are you saying that they have referred it to us.
New Speaker:	02:26	Yes, that is correct.
New Speaker:	02:26	Okay. Can you just, um, confirm your address for me please?
Speaker 3:	02:31	I'm 24, I'm 109 Burncroft Avenue.
Speaker 3:	02:37	I have problems yeah, because there might be a conflict of work of interest because one of the IOPCS, I've noticed that there's a lot of fraud and investigations going on with inside of your department internally, already, and I've already had a case that's just on gone with the IOPC, and it was dealt with in efficiently and I've had to, and I'm producing, I'm not fully put that up in the website yet, so there isn't a conflict work yet, but this is one of my previous cases that you were there that you've dealt with in all of the work of that I'm employee is going to be all put onto the internet as well and yeah.
Speaker 1:	03:10	Okay. Well, I'm having a look; I'm just having a look on the system. What we've got at the moment and I can't see anything recent. It says the referral but I 'am going to put you through to the team who will be aware if a referral has been made.
New Speaker:	03:19	I would appreciate that madam.
New Speaker:	03:19	And you said that it was the Metropolitan police who issued it.
Speaker 3:	03:23	Yes. That's 100% correct. I've got that on recording.

New Speaker:	03:25	Yes, ok
Speaker 1:	03:26	Alright, bear with me. I'm just going to put you through to that department.
New Speaker:	03:52	Thank you.
New Speaker:	03:52	Hello, you are through to Sake in administration team. How can I help today?
Speaker 3:	03:55	Hello, Sake. My name's Mr. Simon Cordell and I'm just first off hoping that you're up and on a good day. Really?
Speaker 1:	04:03	Okay. Yes, yes. How can I help?
Speaker 3:	04:06	Basically, do you have access to Google may I ask?
Speaker 1:	04:10	Sorry
Speaker 3:	04:10	do you have access to Google may ask?
Speaker 1:	04:14	Um, it depends on what circumstance.
Speaker 3:	04:17	I've got a case number that I have been given. I've had lots of on dealings with the IOPC in the past.
New Speaker:	04:22	ok.
New Speaker:	04:22	and they was dealing with one of my cases where I have recordings of a police officer saying that it's going to set me up the IOPC, through time brushed the, complaint away and I've got the evidence which is 100% condemning. This shouldn't have happened, what should have happened and I shouldn't have taken losses due to that ongoing. To that case, I'm now to, as of today being held hostage in my house by the metropolitan police, I'm on the nine-year curfew and what that, what that curfew is supposedly for is the organization of illegal raves. Now if something's illegal and sure that you would come to the understanding as well as any other person would that you must be arrested. I never got arrested for something that's illegal and if anyone checked my criminal record, you would not find the organization of illegal raves on my criminal record.
Speaker 3:	05:16	The reason that.
New Speaker:	05:17	[inaudible].
New Speaker:	05:17	this is the reason that this is so is that they put this, they put an Asbo injunction on me, falsified the paperwork the police did all of the time stamps are wrong to their nine, nine, nine call Cad centre.
New Speaker:	05:31	[inaudible].
New Speaker:	05:31	when the play, I've got the, when the police were and when the police were under oath in the court, they were asked if the case, if they, when they created the folder did they only put one event in the, in in it on certain dates really they scrubbed out redacted all of the information for the names of the roads and left the X to Y locations in the crimits by mistake.

New Speaker:	05:55	Ok, Mr. Cordell.
New Speaker:	05:55	Now the extra y locations, if you
Speaker 1:	05:56	Mr. Cordell if I could just stop you there
Speaker 3:	05:58	Just because I don't want you to have to repeat yourself twice with this, have you made a complaint to the police force?
New Speaker:	06:04	I've made over. I've made over 400 complaints to the police force over the last five years while they've been holding me and they're telling me on the phone that I'm a black bastard and that I have been robbed. I've recorded all of the recordings and I've put them up in a website called horrific corruption.com now I'd like one of you to go to horrific corruption.com
Speaker 1:	06:22	What I am just trying to do is pass you through to the team here that deals with appeals. If you think in an appeal right by the police force following an investigation into your complaint or if they have chosen or if they think that you're a [inaudible] for them there not going to record your complaint. Then you can submit an appeal to us
Speaker 3:	06:41	I would just like to speak to any person in this department and that can deal with whistleblowing, with police officers refusing to act on the efficiency act 1999 2003 or within their whistle blowing policies or any of their cabinets policies. I've got, I've got police officers down the phone now and I've got all of.
New Speaker:	06:58	ok, I will tell you what I am going to have to do for you Mr. Cordell
New Speaker:	06:58	them recorded. Yeah,
Speaker 1:	06:59	Is Err, I've got to put you back through to our customer contact centre and we would deal with that there in the administration team.
Speaker 3:	07:07	Okay. Well, I would, appreciate that. Okay,
New Speaker:	07:09	Just give me a minute and I will put you through
Speaker 1:	07:09
Speaker 3:	07:10	Just as long as I get through to the correct person. Thank you.
Speaker 1:	08:21	Good morning. you are through to Stacie in the customer contact centre, am I speaking to a Simon Cordell.
New Speaker:	08:24	Yes that is correct.
New Speaker:	08:24	And how is it that we can help today?
Speaker 3:	08:28	I've been past back through to the customer services because I was trying to get somebody that can create an a case with me and go through it and the evidence that I have in regards to it and I basically got transferred to a department and they believed that they can only deal with appeals only. They said that I need to be transferred back through to yourselves and transfer to the correct department.

New Speaker:	08:49	Laughing in the background
Speaker 1:	08:51	Right. Okay. just so that I can have a look on our system in case you've had previous contact with us. Can I just take your address please?
Speaker 3:	08:57	Do you lot have Google available to yourselves.
Speaker 1:	09:00	Google. We can use Google. If we need to,
Speaker 3:	09:04	would you like to check our website out? I'll tell you staff to check a website called horrific corruption.com and it's got all that
Speaker 1:	09:10	I wouldn't all we are here to do basically in this particular department is advise you on the process or where you're up to on the process as far as looking into or investigating a complaint, it actually has to go through the professional standards department first. So, you know, by all means, I can advise you of where you need to go and how you need to put your complaint through to them. Um, but looking into or investigating anything, that's unfortunately not what we do.
Speaker 3:	09:38	Yeah. Well, uh, in your own personal time if you feel to cause the sex scandals caused in mine and my partner's name, where they said that I'd done something to cover up a load and missing signatures and timestamps and what a load of police officers were doing to me, there's loads of recordings of the police officers me making over 200 calls asking them to protect me and that and they are telling me that I am a black bastered. I have been robbed down the phone. I've got all the recordings online, horrific corruption.com. So, even if for your own personal use maybe just to go to and have a look, it's for something good power for the people sorts of thing. Um,
New Speaker:	10:07	ok.
New Speaker:	10:07	yeah. Is it possible to speak to somebody then that can actually deal with this then and start writing down some writing down some notes and efficiently and actually doing an investigation please?
Speaker 1:	10:16	Well it's the professional standards department of the force. You're going to have to put your complaint into writing first of all.
Speaker 3:	10:20	The complaint is in writing it’s in a website and I'd just like to know who I've got to forward that website to and that person.
New Speaker:	10:26	ok.
New Speaker:	10:26	can use the digital website from the second on. There's an official report already drafted up inside the website and I can give.

New Speaker:	10:33	ok.
New Speaker:	10:33	the person access so they can just help me finish off filling out the rest. Every day from 2012 of my life is there. And every efficient of correspondence and every official recording brand new PDF book of all of the case files, everything is built ready to go for your case handlers to be able to handle.
Speaker 1:	10:50	Okay, it won't come to us. It goes to the professional standards first.
Speaker 3:	10:53	I thought that's who I am. Speaking to the.
New Speaker:	10:55	[inaudible].
New Speaker:	10:55	professional standards is that.
New Speaker:	10:56	No.
New Speaker:	10:56	not.
New Speaker:	10:57	no, no.
New Speaker:	10:57	who am I actually speaking to?
Speaker 1:	10:58	Every police force in England and Wales have a professional standard department
Speaker 3:	11:02	I understand that.
New Speaker:	11:02	Yeah.
New Speaker:	11:02	And who am I actually speaking to then? because that's phoned the IOPC
Speaker 1:	11:07	yeah, we're separate body. We're independent of the police.
Speaker 3:	11:11	Yeah you are. You are the, you are the IOP C yes,
Speaker 1:	11:14	yes. And we did it just to oversee that the professional standards deal with the complaints
Speaker 3:	11:19	efficient, efficiently, efficiently.
Speaker 1:	11:21	Yeah, and in line with legislation
Speaker 3:	11:22	They have been telling me that I'm robbed on the phone and they don't give a damn and they're holding me for nine years. They forgot to even arrest me. Yeah. And then they did 25 coppers went to court. None of them would bring any, any, any witnesses to court. I was asking them, can you bring the, they've all done this to somebody else at the same time when they were doing it to me, a sex scandal, they've slept. I can't even walk down the street right now, but it can spitted because.
New Speaker:	11:44	Shut up. (To the people in the background)
New Speaker:	11:44	of the lies they've spread yeah.
New Speaker:	11:46	[inaudible].
New Speaker:	11:46	I never had nothing wrong with me. I've never argued with my partner in my whole life, my partners in danger with the child as well. Right. I can't leave my house. I'm a nine-year curfew. They've just put a possession order, in then, three more injunction orders on top of an Asbo and I've, and I've proved that they falsified all of the cases.

Speaker 3:	12:04	I've won them all at the courts. The judges are telling them to do an out of court settlement with me and they're all telling them they refused and to deal with the deal with it. And leaven the people still working in their companies. Yeah, this is unfair. What's happening.
New Speaker:	12:16	[inaudible].
New Speaker:	12:16	I'm still, no one would call an emergency application. They've run around with a company credit card and they've spent hundreds of grands in real life on and ask him for me to pay custodial fee, pay for all the court fees and everything. You just see the damage. When I go through it with somebody, I can show the damage that they've really caused I' am phoning up everybody correctly and they just tell me, your black bastard, you've been robed. Um, there's nothing that you can do per spitting down.
New Speaker:	12:40	[inaudible].
New Speaker:	12:40	Your dead.
New Speaker:	12:40	the phone at me and all of that. That's not fair. I shouldn't be treated like that. All I've asked for them to do is know is that they force a, at the paperwork, all their timestamps go backwards to their centres.
New Speaker:	12:50	[inaudible].
New Speaker:	12:50	that are not the right colour skin.
New Speaker:	12:52	This is the police sorry.
New Speaker:	12:52	Yeah. This is the police,
New Speaker:	12:53	This is the police sir.
New Speaker:	12:53	the police and the Enfield Council.
Speaker 1:	12:56	You need to get this information to the right place with police force is it.
New Speaker:	12:59	Laughing in the background
Speaker 3:	13:00	The Met, Um, Edmonton police force. It was, but the Borough commander, Jane Johnson got fired throughout this and now she's somehow working back in West Westminster. They've shut Edmonton police station down now and wood green PlayStation deals with it all. Well Edmonton police station. Don't hold custodial no more.

Mrs Lorraine Cordell

Dear Mrs Cordell,

Re: Simon Cordell- 109 Burncroft Avenue, Enfield, EN3 7JQ

We write further to your emails, enquiring about the progress of your son's management transfer application.

We advised you by email on 16/08/2018 that Simon could make a management transfer application and if successful, the transfer will be made on a like for like basis. We explained that as Simon lives in a one bedroom flat he will be transferred to another property like the one he currently has, if his application is successful.

You explained to us that in view of his mental health problems you did not feel that a like for like transfer was appropriate and asked that he be transferred to a supported accommodation or to a larger property. We explained to you that for the Community Safety Unit to consider such an application they would need to have the Mental Health Team involved. You then explained that Simon was given an appointment to see Dr Benyure from the Enfield Community Mental Health Services on 31/08/2018, and it was agreed that the management transfer application will be put on hold until the next Panel meeting on 28/09/2018, to allow time for the Mental Health assessment to be carried out.

We have since been advised that Simon failed to attend the scheduled appointment and did not engage with the Mental Health team. As this meant there was no report to support a management transfer application the Community Safety Unit was unable to submit an application on his behalf. The Panel would require medical evidence in support of an application for a supported accommodation or for a larger property and we did not have one by the date of the last Panel meeting on 28/09/2018.

We have been advised that the next Panel meeting will take place on Thursday 18/10/2018. The next deadline for submitting the management transfer application therefore falls due on Monday 15/10/2018.

Please let me know whether Simon would like his application considered at the next Panel meeting and that you would be able to submit the required medical report.

  Dear Sirs,

Re: Anti-Social Behaviour, Tenancy concerns and breaches- pre-action letter.
We have received several complaints of anti-social behaviour against you and going back to 2016 for which you have been warned numerous times, verbally and formally in writing. Please see below a list of reports made against you:
On 6th July 2016, it is alleged that you approached an elderly neighbour as he came out of his flat and started to shout abuse and swear at him and threatened to burn down his flat. Sometime in July 2016 it is alleged that you damaged the lock of a neighbour's electric cupboard and removed his fuse box resulting in no electricity to his flat. On 6th August 2016, it is alleged that you threatened one of your neighbours and his wife and aggressively demanded money from him. It is also alleged that you repeatedly swore and shouted abuse at him and his wife and called his wife a 'bitch' and tried to stop him from going up the stairs to his flat by standing in front of him. Sometimes in September 2016 it is alleged that you confronted an elderly neighbour outside your block of flats, 109 - 119 Burncroft Avenue as he was going to the local park with another resident and started to shout abuse and threats at him and said to him 'I can get you over at the park, I know you go for a walk'.

1. On 27th September 2016, it is alleged that you confronted one of your neighbours as he was returned to his flat with his family and threatened and swore at him and demanded money from him. It is also alleged that you later banged on his door, shouted further abuse and swear words at him and accused him of making noises inside his flat.
2. On 28th September 2016, it is alleged that you aggressively banged on a neighbour's door and threatened and shouted verbal abuse and swear words at them. It is also alleged that you aggressively demanded money from him.
3. On 4th October 2016, it is alleged that you aggressively banged on your ceiling and accused one of your neighbours of making noises, you then went to your neighbour's flat and started kicking and banging on his front door aggressively, accused him of banging on the floor and was swearing and shouting abuse at him. It is also alleged that you later went downstairs, dragged your neighbour's motorbike from where it was parked and started to hit it with a piece of wood.
4. On 22nd November 2016 during a telephone conversation between you, Mrs Cordell your mother and Ms Sarah Fletcher, neighbourhood officer, Ms Fletcher reported that she overheard you threatened her by saying 'I'm gonna do her over' and then 'I'm gonna take her job just for fun'.
5. On 8th December 2016, it is alleged that you aggressively banged on one of your neighbours' front door, shouted abuse and threats and accused him of making noise.
6. On 11th December 2016, it is alleged that you aggressively banged on your neighbour's door several times and accused them of banging on pipes. It is also alleged that you shouted abuse and threats at them.
7. On 14th December 2016, it is alleged that you were verbally abusive towards a woman who was visiting one of your neighbours as she knocked on your neighbour's door.

12) On 23rd December 2016, it is alleged that you banged on a neighbour's front door, shouted abuse at them and asked them to turn their tap off. You then removed their electricity fuse thereby cutting off their power supply.

13.On 26th December 2016, it is alleged that you ran up the communal stairs to the first floor and confronted one of your neighbours as he was going out with his family and started to shout abuse and threats at him and his wife and accused him of tampering with your water supply, you also attempted to stop him from leaving the block.

48. On 3rd January 2017, it is alleged that you confronted one of your neighbours as he returned to the block with his wife and two-year-old daughter and started shouting abuse and threats at them.

49. On 21st January 2017, it is alleged that you aggressively banged on your neighbour's door, swore and shouted abuse and threats at them and accused them of making noises.

50. On 31st January 2017, it is alleged that you aggressively banged on your neighbour's door, shouted abuse and threats at them and accused them of banging on the floor.

51. We received a report that on 7th February 2017 you approached the leaseholder of 117 Burncroft Avenue and his plumber outside the block as they were attempting to resolve the problem causing low water pressure in the flat. You said to the leaseholder that there were problems between you and his tenants but did not give any specific details. The leaseholder explained to you that his tenants were experiencing low water pressure in the flat and you said to him 'you will not solve the problem as I am restricting their water supply'. The leaseholder later knocked on your door and asked whether you would increase the water pressure and you stated 'I cannot do anything at the moment, I will sort it out later'.

52. On 24th February 2017 Sarah Fletcher (Neighbourhood Officer) and Steve Stirk (Maintenance Surveyor) attended your property at flat 109 Burncroft Avenue to inspect the property following reports of low water pressure from flats 113 and 117 Burncroft Avenue. While inside your flat, they observed that you have installed an iron security gate inside your front door. It also appeared to them that the wall between your kitchen and living room seemed to have been removed thereby creating an open plan effect. Much of the property was taken up industrial type printers, boxes and folders and there were dog faeces in your back garden.

53. On 17th March 2017 Lemmy Nwabuisi, ASB Coordinator visited 109 Burncroft Avenue to post a letter through your door and as he got into his car to drive off after posting the letter, you ran after him shouting and screaming abuse. The letter requested that you attend our offices to discuss the nuisance reports being received from your neighbours. By the time he returned to the office, you had telephoned him several times. He telephoned you back and you asked whether he was the person that posted a letter through your letterbox and he said yes. You asked why he did not stop when you ran after him and he stated that he had another visit and did not have the time to stop and talk to you. You stated that you will not attend the meeting at the Civic Centre or any of the council offices as you are unable to leave your flat and that the meeting should take place in your flat. Mr Nwabuisi offered to have the meeting at a neutral venue and suggested the local library or at your mother's house but you refused saying that you have done nothing wrong and accused him of taking sides with your neighbours.

54. On 5th May 2017, it is alleged that you threatened one of your neighbours by saying that you will ruin his life and that you were going to the police to present evidence about his illegal activities.

55. On 14th May 2017, it is alleged that you aggressively banged on one of your neighbour's door, shouted abuse and threats at her and falsely accused her of making noise and coming into your flat to attack you. You later followed her to her car shouting abuse and wanting to know where she was going.

56. On 14th May 2017 it is alleged that you allowed your dog to run freely in the communal area of your block without a lead.

57. On 28th May 2017, the police issued you with a first instance Harassment letter following reports of harassment and threatening behaviour made to the police by one of your neighbours.

24.) On 9th June 2017, it is alleged that you attacked one of your neighbours in the communal hallway of your block as he returned from work late at night by grabbing him on the arm and neck thereby causing bruising to his arm and neck. You also snatched his phone from him as he tried to video-record the incident.

58. On 16th June 2017 at 11:55hrs it is alleged that you confronted one of your neighbours as she was exiting the main entrance to your building and said to her that you had her bank details and personal details such as date of birth and said to her that you wanted her and her husband to pay you some money.

59. On 18th June 2017 at 11:55hrs it is alleged that you confronted one of your neighbours as she was exiting the main entrance to your building and said to her that you knew what time she went out and what time she returned and to tell her husband that you would like to speak to him.

60. On 23rd June 2017 at 23:35hrs it is alleged that you came out of your flat with your dog without a lead and attacked one of your neighbours as he returned from work by punching him twice on the chest. You tried to push him out of the block and snatched his phone as he brought took it out of his pocket to record the incident.

61. On 28th June 2017 at 11:45hrs it is alleged that you confronted your neighbour as she was leaving the block. You swore and shouted abuse at her and accused her of making noise inside her flat. You told her that you know all her personal details and that of her husband including their full names, phone numbers, date of birth and banking details. You demanded that they pay you some money and asked her to tell her husband to come and see you.

62. On 30th June 2017 at 11:45hrs it is alleged that you confronted your neighbour as she was leaving the block and accused her of slamming the door. She denied slamming the door and called her a liar and proceeded to swear and shout abuse at her.

63. On 2nd July 2017 at 17:18hrs it is alleged that you confronted your neighbour as he was going out with his family with your dog barking and without a lead and asked him when he was going to hand over the money. It is also alleged that as they left the block, you ran after them swearing and shouting abuse at your neighbour and demanding that he must pay you some money if he wants you to leave him alone. You also said to him that you have all their personal details including their dates of birth and bank details.

64. On 12th July 2017 an Enfield Council Surveyor attended your flat to investigate reports of low water pressure to flats above yours but you refused him access. The Surveyor attended your flat again in the evening of the same day following further reports that the water supply to the affected flats had completely ceased and you refused him access. You then followed him to his car swearing and shouting abuse at him and prevented him from entering his car. He then called the police.

65. On 11th November 2017 at 11.30am, it is alleged by one of your neighbours that you came to their front door, opened the letterbox and peeped through it to see who was inside the flat. You then started swearing and shouting abuse and banging on their front door as soon as you saw the neighbour's wife.

66. On 2nd January 2018 at 6.30pm, it is alleged that you stood outside your neighbour's property for more than twenty minutes swearing and shouting abuse. You went away and returned half an hour later, you lifted their letterbox, stuck your mobile phone through the letterbox and started to record his family while swearing and shouting abuse. This went on for about fifteen minutes.

67. On 9th January 2018 at about 12.18pm, you telephone Lemmy Nwabuisi (ASB Behaviour officer) and accused him of forging documents to get an antisocial behaviour order against him and you told him that he had made you a prisoner within your home. You also stated that you knew where he lives in Enfield and that he and his family were not safe from you. You also told him that you would watch him leave the office and you would have followed him home and he needed to watch his back. You called the ASB officer again 30 minutes later and told him that you knew he has a flat in Edmonton and also knew that one of his colleagues lives in Edmonton. You also stated that you knew where they live and they were not safe.

68. On 9th January 2018 you called Kaunchita Maudhub (ASB Behaviour officer) and left a long voicemail on her work telephone number and made threats.

69. On 26th February 2018, at around 11.45pm it is alleged that you came to one of your neighbour's front door and started making loud banging noises and rattling with their letter box. You ran away after the neighbour opened her front door.

70. On 1st March 2018 it is alleged that you knocked on one of your neighbours' door loudly, you started rattling with their letter box and started shouting. This went on for 5 to 10 minutes but you left after you've heard that the neighbour was calling the police.

71. On 15th March 2018 it is alleged that you swore, shouted and assaulted one of you neighbours in front of his wife and his 3 years old child.

72. On 1st May 2018, you attended the Edmonton County Court as there was a hearing listed in relation to an injunction. It is alleged that you started shouting abuse, swore and make threats to two of the Claimant's employees (Lemmy Nwabuisi, ASB officer and Balbinder Kaur Geddes, lawyer) and to one of your neighbours who attended Court to give evidence. You also swore at a judge. These incidents were witnessed by members of staff working at the Court.

73. On 29th May 2018, it is alleged that you attended one of your neighbours' properties; you took your dog with you and waited by their front door. It is alleged that you tried to intimidate them as they were due to attend a hearing in the Edmonton County Court to give evidence in support of a claim for an injunction issued against you.

74. On 30th May 2018, it is alleged that you made threats to kill to one of your neighbours. The matter was reported to the police. You were arrested and released on bail.

75. You assaulted one of your neighbours on the 26th August 2018 for flashing his toilet.

76. You telephoned two council officers (Lemmy Nwabuisi and Ludmilla Iyavoo) on 12th September 2018 and made threats to them over the telephone. You also accused them of fraud and of fabricating evidence to support the Council's claim for an injunction

77. On 12th September 2018 at about 3.50pm, you called one of your neighbours on his mobile phone using a private number. It is not known how you obtained his number, but he terminated the call. You called again using the same private number, but he terminated the call as soon as he heard your voice. You called repeatedly after that.

78. On 24th September 2018 at about 11.30am, one of your neighbours returned home from dropping her daughter at school and as she entered their block of flat, she noticed that the middle door on the ground floor was open as well as your front door. As she went up the stairs to their second floor flat, your dog came out of your flat and started barking at her. The neighbour had to run up the stairs to her flat to escape from the dog. It was reported that your dog is always barking whenever they go out or return to the block and the neighbour and 4 years old daughter are terrified.

79. One of your neighbours reported that his cousin was leaving the block at about on 2nd October 2018 at 12.45pm, and as you exited the block, you followed him and suddenly grabbed his jacket from behind and tried to pull him to the ground. The cousin started shouting to attract neighbours and managed to push you off.

80. There are other reports from one of your neighbours who reported that on 30th September 2018, you attempted to break down his front door by kicking it several times only because he flashed his toilet.

81. It is reported that you continue to harass and intimidate other residents on a regular basis.

The London Borough of Enfield takes all acts of anti-social behaviour very seriously and will not tolerate such behaviour.

You have been served ample warning regarding the complaints made against you. You have breached your tenancy agreement and conditions:

Condition 9

"You, the tenant, are responsible for the behaviour of anyone, including your children, living in or visiting your home. This means that you must ensure that they do not act in breach of any of these conditions. Also, you must not encourage them to act in such a way. This applies in the property, in communal and surrounding areas, any property belonging to the council and or anywhere within Enfield borough."

Condition 10

"You must not act in any way which causes, or is likely to cause, a nuisance or annoyance or is anti-social."

Condition 21

4275,

"You must not abuse, harass, make offensive comments and/or malicious allegations, use or threaten to use violence against any of our officers or agents, or against a councillor. This applies at any time and in any place. We may report the matter to the Police."

Condition 31

"You must take care not to cause damage to your property or the property of your neighbours."

Condition 33

"You must keep the inside of your property clean and in reasonable decorative order."

Condition 34

"You must not use the property in any way that may cause a health or safety hazard or encourage vermin and/or pests (for example, by hoarding items inappropriately)."

Condition 44

"You must obtain our prior written permission before carrying out any alterations, improvements or structural work to the property. You may need to obtain other permissions such as planning permission or building regulations approval."

Condition 53

"You must keep the inside of the property, the fixtures and fittings and all glass in the property in good repair during the tenancy."

Condition 57

"You must allow our employees, representatives and contractors to come into your property to service any electrical and gas supplies and appliances that we are responsible for maintaining."

4276,

Condition 69

"You must not interfere with the electric or gas supply."

Condition 76

"You have the right to keep one pet, or animal such as a cat, a dog, small bird, fish, non-poisonous insect, spider, small snake or lizard, rabbit hamster, guinea pig, mouse, gerbil or domestic rat as long as they do not cause damage to the property, or nuisance or annoyance to anyone in your locality."

Condition 79

"You must always keep your dog(s) on a lead in communal areas and on our land."

This letter should be considered as a pre-action letter If further breaches of the tenancy conditions were to occur, we would reserve the right to commence possession action of 109 Burncroft Avenue, without further notice.

Please note that you are entitled to seek independent legal advice.

Yours sincerely,

Speaker 1:	00:01	How are you doing Paul? It's Mr. Simon Cordell calling here.
New Speaker:	00:04	Hi.
New Speaker:	00:05	I'm quite concerned Paul we've everything that's been going on, I've been going through our conversations that I've recorded recently and I've took a copy of the actual court order, which is just all of the court orders. I've made a new Transition a new, I've made a new menu for it all, so I've got everything that's happened in that courthouse and when I'm actually going through it use lot are trying to kill me in that court house and when I'm going through the tape recordings and what I'm informing you of. I'm concerned that you're still working in your position, Paul and I'm suffering the way that I am inside of my house and the recordings that I've got from beforehand of all the other employees like Lemmy and that use lot are letting Lemmy and that run in that courthouse with that company credit card and spend money on it and make lies and not once since 2016 have I been allowed to speak.

Speaker 1: 00:50 Yeah, and explain myself, but you've let, Lemmy run in there doing X part A's asking him to put 300 pound and no one would tell me whether I needed a criminal solicitor or a civil solicitor. So, I'm not being allowed to solicitor all of the way through this. Yeah. Now I've been told I've got to get a criminal solicitor. I don't even know if the applications on me I, there's over 300 there's over 400 Lemmy just serve me a brand-new application with over 315 pages I have teared it apart and checked every single page for what is in it.

New Speaker: 01:18 Every page is to do with the old claim number and he's just made up is he made up a load of lies on the phone like I explained to you the other day to set off the application. He, he, he says, he said that, I've threatened him when I've got the recording of him telling me, Down, the phone is going to kill me and my mother.

Speaker 1: 01:33 Then he sent the police to my address while I'm in the police station. He's coming to your court again, use lot have let him get the same application again and refile it how, Lemmy started it like I explained to you. Yeah. I've got all the recordings of all the directors Sally Gilchrist who set me up for the first Asbo and I'm explaining to them on the phone calls like, I'm talking to you going through the case saying look I am not a white person and, in this case, says that I'm a white person, so how am I getting sat for nine years? Sally Gilchrist, the legal executives breaking down on the phone to me. Yeah. So, I continue with you've got. No signatures I break her to pieces like I'm breaking, you now? Yeah. You should listen to yourself. When I played back these conversations, Paul that we have had. Yeah, you are. They're all in my report and they're all online now. ready to go public Paul, Paul I do not think, you're going to have your job for much longer after this. Yeah. And use lot are all running to the judges and telling the judges. You're concerned about our conversations. Our compensations are official. Your paid money to deal with me. Are you paid a wage Paul?

Speaker 1: 02:35 Hello?

New Speaker: 02:35 Hello I am here I am here.

New Speaker: 02:35 Yeah. You are paid a wage to deal with the public are you not, so why are you scared and telling the judges that you're scared to talk to me, to deal with me when I'm telling you things that make sense and why are you lot forge. the Magistrate's court. Yeah, at Highbury they called the doctors and the doctors said there was nothing wrong with me. When I started showing them corruption withinside of their court, I went to Wood Green, I showed Wood green corruption within it and they called the doctors and set me up. The first time I attended your lower court, that judge dealt with it and I showed her all the evidence that I had of Lemmy. Cause what Lemmy done is he made a procession. He was trying to threaten me and my mother. Yeah. To go to court to go to the civic centre for a meeting the reason he was trying to threaten me and my mother to go for a meeting is, me and my mother had put to over 500 emails into the MPS and the councils explaining what my neighbours, the Mathiyalagan's were doing to me.

Speaker 1: 03:27 The people that are now supposed to supposedly the victims in your case load that use lot have got against me now. They were attacking me now I've got loads of videos. I showed the doctors, some of them, the other day in my flat and they run out of my flat. Yeh when I showed them the videos of what I've been telling you that I had already and asking you if I can bring them back to the court and you've refused, you use lot told me to put them through in a post box. You're outside the court. Yeah. I don't think that's fair. Yeah. And I'm suffering an injunction order cause use lot have accepted. God knows how much money off for Lemmy. You've not once, let me speak in that courthouse and explain myself or show one bit of evidence and you're making me suffer in mind. Now you're letting this one the upstairs try and sit me up

Speaker 1: 04:06 I can't even walk out to go to the shops cause I go to the shops. They follow me to the shops. Then start saying that I'm setting them up and try and activate this injunction order. Lemmy, yeah, Lemmy after the 500 emails to the MPS and the councils and all to the police and to everyone else, I've got them all in a diary and I've got all the, I've made special pub books, brand new digital books for them all. Yeah. Now I've got all the emails to 500 emails to the council. Then what Lemmy does is he says to me, I arrested for stan case in 2016 supposedly threatening Stan. What I was supposed to have said to Stan is, if you keep doing this to me and Shannon and banging on them walls with pots and pans at me, I'm going to get you in the park now because I said that to Stan in 2016 if you keep in danger mine and Shannon and Heidy's life.

Speaker 1: 04:52 I got, Stan got me arrested by the police for criminal investigation while that case was ongoing. I've got, I've got, I've got refused bail and take them to court the next day the court heard the case and he let me play a couple of video tapes to him of what Stan was doing to me. The judge threw the case straight out of the court. Now once the judge threw the case out of court, I come back home to my flat. But Lemmy got a message off the witness care team in Angel Islington saying that stan had lost the case. So now what's what Stan what, what, what's the, what's the what? Lemmy never gotten the message directly. Lemmy's line manager got it because I've got a copy of it, I strip their computers and got the copies of it. Yeah. And now so, the witness care message team message Lemmy Kenitchwa his line manager and said the case is over.

Speaker 1:	05:39	Then Lemmy started messaging me and my mum and started saying if we don't go from meetings at that civic centre about this dead case that I've already won at court, he's going to put a possession order in. I said to Lemmy that, that is entrapment. I've got all the recordings. That's entrapment. Lemmy please can you go to the first Asbo folder that is in your offices that you made and realize that there's no, no signatures. Now what Lemmy does is he goes to the first Asbo folder in the offices and he notices that there's a page on there that I could never prove before. This is like another part of the story. But in my first Asbo when I was going for trial, every time I went for trial, solicitor firm would try and run and leave the case because they didn't want to do corruption.
Speaker 1:	06:17	Talk about corruption. Yeah. So, what happened is on one of the occasions before the trial, the solicitor my solicitor tried to do this and that, the judge said if, my solicitor, my solicitor can't leave without Michael Carroll the main director come in to court. They can't leave the case. Yeah. So now.
New Speaker:	06:32	[inaudible].
New Speaker:	06:32	now I had to wait another six months for another trial because this was the day before the trial. The day before trial again, solicitor done the same thing again. Try to scream and run out at a court case. Now this time the judge went back on his words, which I've got writing and what he'd done is he said,
New Speaker:	06:49	inaudible.
New Speaker:	06:49	are you're listening to this because this is important this part? Yeah.
New Speaker:	06:52	Yep.

New Speaker:	06:52	What? Lemmy has done what he has done. What, what? what the solicitor done. The second time she tried to run away from the case.
Speaker 1:	06:57	The judge let her do it before I got to the court. Now I went into the court and I had to go at the judge. I've got the paperwork, you said that the solicitors are not allowed to leave me. Yeah. And that they have been paid too much money. already? Yeah, but you've now let them go before I even got to court on the day of my trial for the second time now the judge said there's nothing he can do. He's going against his word, but I need to go to the solicitor firm, collect the folders, the Abo folders. So now I went to the solicitor firm and I collected the, Asbo folders later that evening for court the next day for trial. When I collected the folders, my solicitor had given them all of my paperwork, my defence paperwork for the first Asbo.
Speaker 1:	07:34	And because I had done all the page numbers on it, she gave that to Sally Gilchrist. So, Sally Gilchrist made a brand new Asbo application and changed all the page numbers when she'd done this on the third page, she used my bail conditions and my conditions and she made a threat, attend court and dis us and were re - man scribbling out words on it. Now I collected that of, my Solicitor Josie and I could never prove it because I never had it digitally given to me. No one sent it by email. So, my Josie could have done it to me or, or the legal firm; Sally Gilchrist and that could have done it. Made the threats in the folder. Now Lemmy on the phone. to Lemmy the other day after he forged the possession order what he done was he was forcing me for a meeting at the civic centre on the dead case with Stan, what he'd done is I told him on the phone, can you tell me the last complaint that you've ever had from me about me now this was on the seventh of 2017 yeah, he said each went on the computer like you hear him typing and he goes are the 1st of January is the first complaint.
New Speaker:	07:34
New Speaker:	07:34
New Speaker:	07:34
New Speaker:	07:34
New Speaker:	07:34
New Speaker:	07:34
Speaker 1:	08:34	So I laughed at him. I said, I, the time limitation act is out Lemmy all of your cases are out of date and I've been arrested for them already. Now he got the hump and what he'd done is he copied and pasted all of the dates and slammed them all over. So now everything that's happen in this happened three times and he served me a possession order. Now I've got all the council's history, what he done was, he made a big mistake and put all of the council's history for each claimant inside of the folder as well. So now I've took all the claimants' histories and the dates that they went to the civic centre and they made a phone call and you can see all the extra dates that Lemmy copied and pasted. Now I also went to the council and got a freedom of information act just prior to Lemmy and I've got all of the counsel's information.

Speaker 1:	09:17	Any way that is on their computers. So now all these dates you can prove that Lemmy copied and pasted them, which is under the fraud company at 2006 and tried to Nick my flat off me at the same time. All of the letters he sending me, he is sending me like 15 letters saying if he can't get back into my flat to turn the water back on for the Mathiyalagan family to keep on assaulting me. He's taking my flat. That's what this was over. He wants to turn the water back on to let them, so that they can attack me. I've got loads of videos of what they were doing when the water was on. Yeah. No one's let me play them to them yet. Lemmy. I made 220 phone calls to the nine, nine, nine call centres in regards to them protecting me and I've requested all of them recordings.
Speaker 1:	09:55	It took a year to get them. The cops didn't want to give it to me, but then it gave me the recordings of me phoning about the Mathiyalagan's and that. Yeah, so now I'd like to bring that in. Now Lemmy forged the possession order, which I can prove. Then he also, he also copied and pasted because of the dates. Then he also, when he went to the Asbo folder the first Asbo folder and he took the threats out of the Asbo folder and he forgot to turn he forgot to notice the signatures that were missing and he put the threats inside of the injunction order and he served it to me through email. Now I've got the email here, because Josie never served it to me by email. Neither did, neither did the other firm with all the threats attend court and re - man, and were re - man and do your basically now Lemmy didn't know that.
Speaker 1:	10:41	They didn't send that to me digitally and I couldn't prove that he sent that digitally and he sent it in the latest folder, which means that the writing and the threats come from inside the civic centre because it's in their folders as well. Yeah. Now I want them arrested for this and I don't want your court to keep playing with me and I don't want your court to accept no more money off for Lemmy yeah, in regards to applications or ex - party applications. And not, especially when they're not telling me whether I need a civil solicitor or a criminal solicitor, yeah, now, I'm telling you I'm going to go public unless, you can organize this inside of your court. Paul, I'm telling you I'm going to go public and I believe I'm, I'm, I'm, I'm 1000% sure use lot are all going to get spun by special operation in your goanna buy a IPOC all over you and you're going to have all the public at you as well.

Speaker 1: 11:27 Wanting to throw eggs and tomatoes at use lot. Yeah, because what I've got here, yeah. What, I've built what I've done an investigation on use lot. I knew your court, couldn't touch me the same as the magistrates on the upper courts, because I've got the recordings to prove my innocence. Every time I've knocked on their front door, I phoned the police first before I go upstairs. I go upstairs after the police tell me they're not going to protect me and you can hear me knocking on their door like that normally. But you can watch me in my front room for an hour before I go upstairs and call the police and you can watch them attacking me. Bang, bang, bang, bang. For an hour beforehand. I called the police. Like a reasonable person. The police say they're not goanna do nothing. I'll knock on that door like a reasonable person.

Speaker 1: 12:06 The Lemmy's copied and pasted, aggressively banging and aggressively banging. This isn't fair. Now you've got Lemmy because Lemmy lost all of the cases. He's gone and said he lied. I've got a record and he said that I frightened him on the 9th on the 10th January. That I frightened him down the phone when really in the conversation I'm saying you've been defrauding all this paperwork. Lemmy, how can you do that? I'm phoning all the executive directors. Lemmy's boss main bosses above Konnichiwa on this and I am recording all of them as well. I've got loads of recordings of heavy littler and all the emails to her that my mum sent in from 14 to 16. Every email my mum sent from 14 to 16 to all the MPS I have took all the names and I phoned them all up like I phoned you up Paul. And I've recorded every single one of them. Now I've recorded all of them.

Speaker 2: 12:52 Now everyone that avoided all the them FOI's all of the official complaints. Yeah, I've got them all on recording every everyone. Yeah. I'm telling you; you aren't ready for more case when it comes to that court. Yeah. And half of you are going to get arrested. I'm not joking. I don't need to destroy no lives. I don't need to do that. What I wanted was the keys to the park.

Speaker 3:	13:14	Um, obviously we know one would want anyone's to destroy anyone's life's we are a court.
Speaker 2:	13:19	No you lot do and you're lying.
New Speaker:	13:21	I am a saint.
New Speaker:	13:21	at first. At first you didn't, but that you fought, you fought yet. You know what? At first you didn't use lot, use lot, while I was watching the court and recording it and use it. We're acting reasonably. Then Lemmy started. forging you, you throw. You struck the first Asbo folder out the first injunction order out, which the judge done, which was right that that judge did. Yeah. Then judge Cohn's, wherever his name is, John Cohn's.
New Speaker:	13:41	non auditable.
New Speaker:	13:41	he sat there and he started going against what every other judge has done, reinstate it all, shyness. If you look at the right and the history behind this case and what they've done to me do you know how many times use lot have broken the laws. Yeah, use lot, use lot more than criminals in there more than criminals. I've done nothing wrong.
Speaker 2:	14:00	You've not let me speak once. Lemmy is writing his own caseload, this is Lemmy got me arrested for threats to kill, after forging all of this, after me record in all of the directors saying, Lemmy has forged all the possession order. I can prove it. All that is set me up to cover up the FOI's, he has stopped me from getting these people arrested. Then he's gone to the true perpetrator perpetrators. He's picked them and made them look like victims and made me look like the perpetrator when there's 500 emails and videos proving that these are the ones attacking me and Shannon and Heidi. Yeah, and they're going against you what your constitution says, they'd been let, let, let to do political persuasion and pinpointing me out for like HIV and AIDS and treating me worse than a person that's ever supposed to be treated.
Speaker 2:	14:43	Yeah. And I don't think this is fair. My personal date, it's been spread and I've got all the recordings and the clinics, the hospitals, everyone saying that there's never been nothing wrong with me. Yeah. In real life they banged throw my nans death. I was in my house, they banged throw my nans death yeah, none stop, you watched the videos of what they'd done to me, throw my nans death, I had to put headphones on and listen to audio books on and rock in my front room, while stain and the Mathiyalagan family are banging, banging, banging, bang. I've got another woman after that, met another woman. We had a baby and they bang so much. When you have a woman come into my house that she lost the baby as well and I've got the paper, I've lost the child here. I'm locked in my house on conditions since 2016 because of your court and I've been all conditions from 16 all the way up till now and I and, and I'm not even done. Nothing wrong. Yeah. I'm not even allowed to be an explained myself or give use lot evidence once you, every time I go to your court, you shut me down. The only people that I can speak to, Paul is you lot and I'm telling you the truth. Recording you lot, and you lot are all planning on avoiding it all and putting the phone down and nothing's happening about it. What do you get paid for in there?

Speaker 3:	15:48	How can I help you on the phone right now?
Speaker 2:	15:50	I've asked you loads of times to call this back to court and stop it before these conversations wouldn't be happening if you had listened to me in the beginning and called it back before court and done the next part. I done, done a declaration of notice. I told you I had evidence to prove that I was innocent and I had videos to prove that I wasn't served. I've told you I had evidence of everything all the way through since 16 on the phone and so was my mother had been telling you and you've allowed it to continue and every time all you say is how can I help you on the phone? I'm suffering in my house. With conditions and this family upstairs are the family that done this to me Shannon and Heidi and made the whole wide world know all this shit about my personal data. That isn't true. Yeah. And now use lot are protecting them in that court and trying to get me five years in prison and I never done nothing. Apart from build a community event in my front room and work hard every day. How are you lot letting this happen. You look court of Law; this is supposed to be the UK. We're supposed to have the best Judicial systems in the whole of the world, in this country. So why are you lot acting so, with so much neglect and misconduct towards me.
Speaker 3:	16:50	Do you have your case number on you?
Speaker 2:	16:52	I've gotten this two case numbers. Yeah, I do. E my electrics just gone off on my house. I'd have to tell you; I'm going to go to the shop and get some more electric. I'm going to let you let go. I'm going to come with my solicitor and sort this out with use lot.
New Speaker:	17:02	ok.

New Speaker:	17:02	Have a good day, Paul. Man,
New Speaker:	17:05	you to, bye.
Speaker 3:	17:05	To bye.

Dear Sirs,

Re: Anti-Social Behaviour, Tenancy concerns and breaches- pre-action letter.

We have received several complaints of anti-social behaviour against you and going back to 2016 for which you have been warned numerous times, verbally and formally in writing. Please see below a list of reports made against you:

1)On 6th July 2016, it is alleged that you approached an elderly neighbour as he came out of his flat and started to shout abuse and swear at him and threatened to burn down his flat.

2) Sometime in July 2016 it is alleged that you damaged the lock of a neighbour's electric cupboard and removed his fuse box resulting in no electricity to his flat.

3) On 6th August 2016, it is alleged that you threatened one of your neighbours and his wife and aggressively demanded money from him. It is also alleged that you repeatedly swore and shouted abuse at him and his wife and called his wife a 'bitch' and tried to stop him from going up the stairs to his flat by standing in front of him.

4)Sometimes in September 2016 it is alleged that you confronted an elderly neighbour outside your block of flats, 109 – 119 Burncroft Avenue as he was going to the local park with another resident and started to shout abuse and threats at him and said to him 'I can get you over at the park, I know you go for a walk'.

5)On 27th September 2016, it is alleged that you confronted one of your neighbours as he was returned to his flat with his family and threatened and swore at him and demanded money from him. It is also alleged that you later banged on his door, shouted further abuse and swear words at him and accused him of making noises inside his flat.

6)On 28th September 2016, it is alleged that you aggressively banged on a neighbour's door and threatened and shouted verbal abuse and swear words at them. It is also alleged that you aggressively demanded money from him.

7)On 4th October 2016, it is alleged that you aggressively banged on your ceiling and accused one of your neighbours of making noises, you then went to your neighbour's flat and started kicking and banging on his front door aggressively, accused him of banging on the floor and was swearing and shouting abuse at him. It is also alleged that you later went downstairs, dragged your neighbour's motorbike from where it was parked and started to hit it with a piece of wood.

8) On 22nd November 2016 during a telephone conversation between you, Mrs Cordell your mother and Ms Sarah Fletcher, neighbourhood officer, Ms Fletcher reported that she overheard you threatened her by saying 'I'm gonna do her over' and then 'I'm gonna take her job just for fun'.

9)On 8th December 2016, it is alleged that you aggressively banged on one of your neighbours' front door, shouted abuse and threats and accused him of making noise.

10) On 11th December 2016, it is alleged that you aggressively banged on your neighbour's door several times and accused them of banging on pipes. It is also alleged that you shouted abuse and threats at them.

11) On 14th December 2016, it is alleged that you were verbally abusive towards a woman who was visiting one of your neighbours as she knocked on your neighbour's door.

12) On 23rd December 2016, it is alleged that you banged on a neighbour's front door, shouted abuse at them and asked them to turn their tap off. You then removed their electricity fuse thereby cutting off their power supply.

13.On 26th December 2016, it is alleged that you ran up the communal stairs to the first floor and confronted one of your neighbours as he was going out with his family and started to shout abuse and threats at him and his wife and accused him of tampering with your water supply, you also attempted to stop him from leaving the block.

14) On 3rd January 2017, it is alleged that you confronted one of your neighbours as he returned to the block with his wife and two-year-old daughter and started shouting abuse and threats at them.

15) On 21st January 2017, it is alleged that you aggressively banged on your neighbour's door, swore and shouted abuse and threats at them and accused them of making noises.

16) On 31st January 2017, it is alleged that you aggressively banged on your neighbour's door, shouted abuse and threats at them and accused them of banging on the floor.

17) We received a report that on 7th February 2017 you approached the leaseholder of 117 Burncroft Avenue and his plumber outside the block as they were attempting to resolve the problem causing low water pressure in the flat. You said to the leaseholder that there were problems between you and his tenants but did not give any specific details. The leaseholder explained to you that his tenants were experiencing low water pressure in the flat and you said to him 'you will not solve the problem as I am restricting their water supply'. The leaseholder later knocked on your door and asked whether you would increase the water pressure and you stated 'I cannot do anything at the moment, I will sort it out later'.

18) On 24th February 2017 Sarah Fletcher (Neighbourhood Officer) and Steve Stirk (Maintenance Surveyor) attended your property at flat 109 Burncroft Avenue to inspect the property following reports of low water pressure from flats 113 and 117 Burncroft Avenue. While inside your flat, they observed that you have installed an iron security gate inside your front door. It also appeared to them that the wall between your kitchen and living room seemed to have been removed thereby creating an open plan effect. Much of the property was taken up industrial type printers, boxes and folders and there were dog faeces in your back garden.

19) On 17th March 2017 Lemmy Nwabuisi, ASB Coordinator visited 109 Burncroft Avenue to post a letter through your door and as he got into his car to drive off after posting the letter, you ran after him shouting and screaming abuse. The letter requested that you attend our offices to discuss the nuisance reports being received from your neighbours. By the time he returned to the office, you had telephoned him several times. He telephoned you back and you asked whether he was the person that posted a letter through your letterbox and he said yes. You asked why he did not stop when you ran after him and he stated that he had another visit and did not have the time to stop and talk to you. You stated that you will not attend the meeting at the Civic Centre or any of the council offices as you are unable to leave your flat and that the meeting should take place in your flat. Mr Nwabuisi offered to have the meeting at a neutral venue and suggested the local library or at your mother's house but you refused saying that you have done nothing wrong and accused him of taking sides with your neighbours.

20)On 5th May 2017, it is alleged that you threatened one of your neighbours by saying that you will ruin his life and that you were going to the police to present evidence about his illegal activities.

21) On 14th May 2017, it is alleged that you aggressively banged on one of your neighbour's door, shouted abuse and threats at her and falsely accused her of making noise and coming into your flat to attack you. You later followed her to her car shouting abuse and wanting to know where she was going.

22) On 14th May 2017 it is alleged that you allowed your dog to run freely in the communal area of your block without a lead.

23) On 28th May 2017, the police issued you with a first instance Harassment letter following reports of harassment and threatening behaviour made to the police by one of your neighbours.

24.) On 9th June 2017, it is alleged that you attacked one of your neighbours in the communal hallway of your block as he returned from work late at night by grabbing him on the arm and neck thereby causing bruising to his arm and neck. You also snatched his phone from him as he tried to video-record the incident.

25) On 16th June 2017 at 11:55hrs it is alleged that you confronted one of your neighbours as she was exiting the main entrance to your building and said to her that you had her bank details and personal details such as date of birth and said to her that you wanted her and her husband to pay you some money.

26) On 18th June 2017 at 11:55hrs it is alleged that you confronted one of your neighbours as she was exiting the main entrance to your building and said to her that you knew what time she went out and what time she returned and to tell her husband that you would like to speak to him.

27) On 23rd June 2017 at 23:35hrs it is alleged that you came out of your flat with your dog without a lead and attacked one of your neighbours as he returned from work by punching him twice on the chest. You tried to push him out of the block and snatched his phone as he brought took it out of his pocket to record the incident.

28) On 28th June 2017 at 11:45hrs it is alleged that you confronted your neighbour as she was leaving the block. You swore and shouted abuse at her and accused her of making noise inside her flat. You told her that you know all her personal details and that of her husband including their full names, phone numbers, date of birth and banking details. You demanded that they pay you some money and asked her to tell her husband to come and see you.

29)On 30th June 2017 at 11:45hrs it is alleged that you confronted your neighbour as she was leaving the block and accused her of slamming the door. She denied slamming the door and called her a liar and proceeded to swear and shout abuse at her.

30) On 2nd July 2017 at 17:18hrs it is alleged that you confronted your neighbour as he was going out with his family with your dog barking and without a lead and asked him when he was going to hand over the money. It is also alleged that as they left the block, you ran after them swearing and shouting abuse at your neighbour and demanding that he must pay you some money if he wants you to leave him alone. You also said to him that you have all their personal details including their dates of birth and bank details.

31) On 12th July 2017 an Enfield Council Surveyor attended your flat to investigate reports of low water pressure to flats above yours but you refused him access. The Surveyor attended your flat again in the evening of the same day following further reports that the water supply to the affected flats had completely ceased and you refused him access. You then followed him to his car swearing and shouting abuse at him and prevented him from entering his car. He then called the police.

32) On 11th November 2017 at 11.30am, it is alleged by one of your neighbours that you came to their front door, opened the letterbox and peeped through it to see who was inside the flat. You then started swearing and shouting abuse and banging on their front door as soon as you saw the neighbour's wife.

33) On 2nd January 2018 at 6.30pm, it is alleged that you stood outside your neighbour's property for more than twenty minutes swearing and shouting abuse. You went away and returned half an hour later, you lifted their letterbox, stuck your mobile phone through the letterbox and started to record his family while swearing and shouting abuse. This went on for about fifteen minutes.

34) On 9th January 2018 at about 12.18pm, you telephone Lemmy Nwabuisi (ASB Behaviour officer) and accused him of forging documents to get an anti-social behaviour order against him and you told him that he had made you a prisoner within your home. You also stated that you knew where he lives in Enfield and that he and his family were not safe from you. You also told him that you would watch him leave the office and you would have followed him home and he needed to watch his back. You called the ASB officer again 30 minutes later and told him that you knew he has a flat in Edmonton and also knew that one of his colleagues lives in Edmonton. You also stated that you knew where they live and they were not safe.

35) On 9th January 2018 you called Kaunchita Maudhub (ASB Behaviour officer) and left a long voicemail on her work telephone number and made threats.

36) On 26th February 2018, at around 11.45pm it is alleged that you came to one of your neighbour's front door and started making loud banging noises and rattling with their letter box. You ran away after the neighbour opened her front door.

37) On 1st March 2018 it is alleged that you knocked on one of your neighbours' door loudly, you started rattling with their letter box and started shouting. This went on for 5 to 10 minutes but you left after you've heard that the neighbour was calling the police.

38) On 15th March 2018 it is alleged that you swore, shouted and assaulted one of you neighbours in front of his wife and his 3 years old child.

39) On 1st May 2018, you attended the Edmonton County Court as there was a hearing listed in relation to an injunction. It is alleged that you started shouting abuse, swore and make threats to two of the Claimant's employees (Lemmy Nwabuisi, ASB officer and Balbinder Kaur Geddes, lawyer) and to one of your neighbours who attended Court to give evidence. You also swore at a judge. These incidents were witnessed by members of staff working at the Court.

40) On 29th May 2018, it is alleged that you attended one of your neighbours' property; you took your dog with you and waited by their front door. It is alleged that you tried to intimidate them as they were due to attend a hearing in the Edmonton County Court to give evidence in support of a claim for an injunction issued against you.

41) On 30th May 2018, it is alleged that you made threats to kill to one of your neighbours. The matter was reported to the police. You were arrested and released on bail.

42) You assaulted one of your neighbours on the 26th August 2018 for flashing his toilet.

43) You telephoned two council officers (Lemmy Nwabuisi and Ludmilla Iyavoo) on 12th September 2018 and made threats to them over the telephone. You also accused them of fraud and of fabricating evidence to support the Council's claim for an injunction

44) On 12th September 2018 at about 3.50pm, you called one of your neighbours on his mobile phone using a private number. It is not known how you obtained his number, but he terminated the call. You called again using the same private number, but he terminated the call as soon as he heard your voice. You called repeatedly after that.

45) On 24th September 2018 at about 11.30am, one of your neighbours returned home from dropping her daughter at school and as she entered their block of flat, she noticed that the middle door on the ground floor was open as well as your front door. As she went up the stairs to their second floor flat, your dog came out of your flat and started barking at her. The neighbour had to run up the stairs to her flat to escape from the dog. It was reported that your dog is always barking whenever they go out or return to the block and the neighbour and 4 years old daughter are terrified.

46) One of your neighbours reported that his cousin was leaving the block at about on 2nd October 2018 at 12.45pm, and as you exited the block, you followed him and suddenly grabbed his jacket from behind and tried to pull him to the ground. The cousin started shouting to attract neighbours and managed to push you off.

47) There are other reports from one of your neighbours who reported that on 30th September 2018, you attempted to break down his front door by kicking it several times only because he flashed his toilet.

48) It is reported that you continue to harass and intimidate other residents on a regular basis.

The London Borough of Enfield takes all acts of anti-social behaviour very seriously and will not tolerate such behaviour.

You have been served ample warning regarding the complaints made against you. You have breached your tenancy agreement and conditions:

Condition 9

"You, the tenant, are responsible for the behaviour of anyone, including your children, living in or visiting your home. This means that you must ensure that they do not act in breach of any of these conditions. Also, you must not encourage them to act in such a way. This applies in the property, in communal and surrounding areas, any property belonging to the council and or anywhere within Enfield borough."

Condition 10

"You must not act in any way which causes, or is likely to cause, a nuisance or annoyance or is anti-social."

Condition 21

"You must not abuse, harass, make offensive comments and/or malicious allegations, use or threaten to use violence against any of our officers or agents, or against a councillor. This applies at any time and in any place. We may report the matter to the Police."

Condition 31

"You must take care not to cause damage to your property or the property of your neighbours."

Condition 33

"You must keep the inside of your property clean and in reasonable decorative order."

Condition 34

"You must not use the property in any way that may cause a health or safety hazard or encourage vermin and/or pests (for example, by hoarding items inappropriately)."

Condition 44

"You must obtain our prior written permission before carrying out any alterations, improvements or structural work to the property. You may need to obtain other permissions such as planning permission or building regulations approval."

Condition 53

"You must keep the inside of the property, the fixtures and fittings and all glass in the property in good repair during the tenancy."

Condition 57

"You must allow our employees, representatives and contractors to come into your property to service any electrical and gas supplies and appliances that we are responsible for maintaining."

Condition 69

"You must not interfere with the electric or gas supply."

Condition 76
"You have the right to keep one pet, or animal such as a cat, a dog, small bird, fish, non-poisonous insect, spider, small snake or lizard, rabbit hamster, guinea pig, mouse, gerbil or domestic rat as long as they do not cause damage to the property, or nuisance or annoyance to anyone in your locality."

Condition 79
"You must always keep your dog(s) on a lead in communal areas and on our land."

This letter should be considered as a pre-action letter If further breaches of the tenancy conditions were to occur, we would reserve the right to commence possession action of 109 Burncroft Avenue, without further notice.

Please note that you are entitled to seek independent legal advice.

65. On 16th June 2017 at 11:55hrs it is alleged that you confronted one of your neighbours as she was exiting the main entrance to your building and said to her that you had her bank details and personal details such as date of birth and said to her that you wanted her and her husband to pay you some money.

66. On 18th June 2017 at 11:55hrs it is alleged that you confronted one of your neighbours as she was exiting the main entrance to your building and said to her that you knew what time she went out and what time she returned and to tell her husband that you would like to speak to him.

67. On 23rd June 2017 at 23:35hrs it is alleged that you came out of your flat with your dog without a lead and attacked one of your neighbours as he returned from work by punching him twice on the chest. You tried to push him out of the block and snatched his phone as he brought took it out of his pocket to record the incident.

68. On 28th June 2017 at 11:45hrs it is alleged that you confronted your neighbour as she was leaving the block. You swore and shouted abuse at her and accused her of making noise inside her flat. You told her that you know all her personal details and that of her husband including their full names, phone numbers, date of birth and banking details. You demanded that they pay you some money and asked her to tell her husband to come and see you.

69. On 30th June 2017 at 11:45hrs it is alleged that you confronted your neighbour as she was leaving the block and accused her of slamming the door. She denied slamming the door and called her a liar and proceeded to swear and shout abuse at her.

70. On 2nd July 2017 at 17:18hrs it is alleged that you confronted your neighbour as he was going out with his family with your dog barking and without a lead and asked him when he was going to hand over the money. It is also alleged that as they left the block, you ran after them swearing and shouting abuse at your neighbour and demanding that he must pay you some money if he wants you to leave him alone. You also said to him that you have all their personal details including their dates of birth and bank details.

71. On 12th July 2017 an Enfield Council Surveyor attended your flat to investigate reports of low water pressure to flats above yours but you refused him access. The Surveyor attended your flat again in the evening of the same day following further reports that the water supply to the affected flats had completely ceased and you refused him access. You then followed him to his car swearing and shouting abuse at him and prevented him from entering his car. He then called the police.

72. On 11th November 2017 at 11.30am, it is alleged by one of your neighbours that you came to their front door, opened the letterbox and peeped through it to see who was inside the flat. You then started swearing and shouting abuse and banging on their front door as soon as you saw the neighbour's wife.

73. On 2nd January 2018 at 6.30pm, it is alleged that you stood outside your neighbour's property for more than twenty minutes swearing and shouting abuse. You went away and returned half an hour later, you lifted their letterbox, stuck your mobile phone through the letterbox and started to record his family while swearing and shouting abuse. This went on for about fifteen minutes.

The Defendant's anti-social behaviour has ceased towards the neighbors and no complaints have not been received from them. Stated by council solicitor on the:
03/01/2018

74. On 9th January 2018 at about 12.18pm, you telephone Lemmy Nwabuisi (ASB Behaviour officer) and accused him of forging documents to get an antisocial behaviour order against him and you told him that he had made you a prisoner within your home. You also stated that you knew where he lives in Enfield and that he and his family were not safe from you. You also told him that you would watch him leave the office and you would have followed him home and he needed to watch his back. You called the ASB officer again 30 minutes later and told him that you knew he has a flat in Edmonton and also knew that one of his colleagues lives in Edmonton. You also stated that you knew where they live and they were not safe.
75. On 9th January 2018 you called Kaunchita Maudhub (ASB Behaviour officer) and left a long voicemail on her work telephone number and made threats.
76. On 26th February 2018, at around 11.45pm it is alleged that you came to one of your neighbour's front doors and started making loud banging noises and rattling with their letter box. You ran away after the neighbour opened her front door.
77. On 1st March 2018 it is alleged that you knocked on one of your neighbours' door loudly, you started rattling with their letter box and started shouting. This went on for 5 to 10 minutes but you left after you've heard that the neighbour was calling the police.
78. On 15th March 2018 it is alleged that you swore, shouted and assaulted one of you neighbours in front of his wife and his 3 years old child.
79. On 1st May 2018, you attended the Edmonton County Court as there was a hearing listed in relation to an injunction. It is alleged that you started shouting abuse, swore and make threats to two of the Claimant's employees (Lemmy Nwabuisi, ASB officer and Balbinder Kaur Geddes, lawyer) and to one of your neighbours who attended Court to give evidence. You also swore at a judge. These incidents were witnessed by members of staff working at the Court.
80. On 29th May 2018, it is alleged that you attended one of your neighbours' property; you took your dog with you and waited by their front door. It is alleged that you tried to intimidate them as they were due to attend a hearing in the Edmonton County Court to give evidence in support of a claim for an injunction issued against you.
81. On 30th May 2018, it is alleged that you made threats to kill to one of your neighbours. The matter was reported to the police. You were arrested and released on bail.
82. You assaulted one of your neighbours on the 26th August 2018 for flashing his toilet.
83. You telephoned two council officers (Lemmy Nwabuisi and Ludmilla lyavoo) on 12th September 2018 and made threats to them over the telephone. You also accused them of fraud and of fabricating evidence to support the Council's claim for an injunction
84. On 12th September 2018 at about 3.50pm, you called one of your neighbours on his mobile phone using a private number. It is not known how you obtained his number, but he terminated the call. You called again using the same private number, but he terminated the call as soon as he heard your voice. You called repeatedly after that.
85. On 24th September 2018 at about 11.30am, one of your neighbours returned home from dropping her daughter at school and as she entered their block of flat, she noticed that the middle door on the ground floor was open as well as your front door. As she went up the stairs to their second floor flat, your dog came out of your flat and started barking at her. The neighbour had to run up the stairs to her flat to escape from the dog. It was reported that your dog is always barking whenever they go out or return to the block and the neighbour and 4 years old daughter are terrified.

86. One of your neighbours reported that his cousin was leaving the block at about on 2nd October 2018 at 12.45pm, and as you exited the block, you followed him and suddenly grabbed his jacket from behind and tried to pull him to the ground. The cousin started shouting to attract neighbours and managed to push you off.

87. There are other reports from one of your neighbours who reported that on 30th September 2018, you attempted to break down his front door by kicking it several times only because he flashed his toilet.

88. It is reported that you continue to harass and intimidate other residents on a regular basis.

The London Borough of Enfield takes all acts of anti-social behaviour very seriously and will not tolerate such behaviour.

You have been served ample warning regarding the complaints made against you. You have breached your tenancy agreement and conditions:

Condition 9

"You, the tenant, are responsible for the behaviour of anyone, including your children, living in or visiting your home. This means that you must ensure that they do not act in breach of any of these conditions. Also, you must not encourage them to act in such a way. This applies in the property, in communal and surrounding areas, any property belonging to the council and or anywhere within Enfield borough."

Condition 10

"You must not act in any way which causes, or is likely to cause, a nuisance or annoyance or is anti-social."

21

"You must not abuse, harass, make offensive comments and/or malicious allegations, use or threaten to use violence against any of our officers or agents, or against a councillor. This applies at any time and in any place. We may report the matter to the Police."

Condition 31

"You must take care not to cause damage to your property or the property of your neighbours."

Condition 33

"You must keep the inside of your property clean and in reasonable decorative order."

Condition 34

"You must not use the property in any way that may cause a health or safety hazard or encourage vermin and/or pests (for example, by hoarding items inappropriately)."

Condition 44

"You must obtain our prior written permission before carrying out any alterations, improvements or structural work to the property. You may need to obtain other permissions such as planning permission or building regulations approval."

Condition 53

"You must keep the inside of the property, the fixtures and fittings and all glass in the property in good repair during the tenancy."

Condition 57

"You must allow our employees, representatives and contractors to come into your property to service any electrical and gas supplies and appliances that we are responsible for maintaining."

22

Condition 69

"You must not interfere with the electric or gas supply."

Condition 76

"You have the right to keep one pet, or animal such as a cat, a dog, small bird, fish, non-poisonous insect, spider, small snake or lizard, rabbit hamster, guinea pig, mouse, gerbil or domestic rat as long as they do not cause damage to the property, or nuisance or annoyance to anyone in your locality."

Condition 79

"You must always keep your dog(s) on a lead in communal areas and on our land."

This letter should be considered as a pre-action letter If further breaches of the tenancy conditions were to occur, we would reserve the right to commence possession action of 109 Burncroft Avenue, without further notice.

Date of this report:	7th November 2018

Who you are and in what capacity you know the patient, how long you have worked with them: My name is Soobah Appadoo? I am a CPN with the above-named team. I have been asked to compile this social circumstance report in support of above-named patient's Mental Health Review Tribunal (MHRT) appeal against his detention under Section 2 of the Mental Health Act. Mr Cordell was admitted on section 2 on the 26th October 2018. Mr Cordell was previously under the care of the Early Intervention Team for 3 years. The Early Intervention Team discharged him in June 2018 and at that point he was referred to our team. There is a suggestion on RIO notes that he did not engage well with that team. I was allocated to Mr Cordell in August 2018. We offered him an appointment at his flat on the 31st August. Mr Cordell rang our office the day before and spoke to me. I informed him that I am his new Care Coordinator. He said that he had been seen for "76 days by his CC" and there was "nothing wrong with me". He said that the reason we want to see him is to "cover for missing signatures?". He said he "will ruin anyone who come to my house" and he has "recording cameras and audios" to ruin us. He said if you come to my house "I f...ing will scar you for life". He used foul languages throughout this contact. He said that I "can take the f...ing referral and stick it up my a..e". He said that he does not want to see us. I could not interrupt him: very verbally aggressive with pressure in speech". I did manage to say that we are a different team from Lucas House and we want him to have a fresh start- He said "I don't f...ing care"

Further to that the MDT advised that we should assess Mr Cordell in clinic due to the potential risks. We then offered him an appointment on the 28th September which Mr Cordell did not attend.

NHS

My report is based on the information which I have extracted from RIO and my telephone conversation with Mr Cordell's mother.

Psychiatric history

On the 16th August 2016 Mr Cordell was admitted to CFH under Section 2 of the MHA. He was discharged on the 27th August 2016. According to RIO notes Mr Cordell "was arrested at his home address after his mother raised concerns about his mental state - he was allegedly verbally threatening towards his neighbour and (?) neighbour's children. Simon's mother called police who arrested him. He was seen by the FME at Wood Green police station, was then referred for MHA."
He appealed against his Section. The Mental Health Review Tribunal discharged him from Section 2 on the 26th August 2016.

Leading to current admission

As I stated above leading to this admission Mr Cordell did not attend appointments offered to him by our service. Subsequently due to the allegations made against him I was advised to attend a Safeguarding meeting for an alleged victim. In that meeting I was informed by the Council that Mr Cordell has a past and current history of physical and verbal aggression towards residents in the building. I was informed that the council has tried to work with Mr Cordell but to no avail. I was informed me that Mr Cordell was getting easily irritated even by the sound of a flushing toilet; this happened very recently and he threatened the resident concerned. The Council was of the opinion that these are signs of mental illness and suggested that BEH should proceed with an MHA. The Council argued that this is for the protection of others as well as Mr Cordell's own safety.
Subsequently the council sent us a copy of 'Anti-Social Behaviour, Tenancy concerns and breaches- pre-action letter' which contained a chronology of alleged incidents dating from 2016. These alleged incidents were in the meaning of an antisocial behaviour presentation.
On the 17th October Mr Cordell was discussed in our MDT meeting. A decision was made to conduct a MHA. A MHA was attempted on the 19th October. Mr Cordell did not cooperate and the assessment did not take place.
On the 23rd October an application for a warrant was made but was declined on the grounds "that there was insufficient recent evidence that he was being "kept under proper control" as he is living alone and "insufficient recent medical evidence that "he is unable to care for himself.
According to RIO, on the 25th October Mr Cordell was arrested for breaching a harassment order. It was alleged that he was aggressive towards the police and spat at them. He was assessed at the police station. On interview he had pressure of speech, delusions about his neighbours and the police and housing ganging up against him. He denied drug use. He said that does not have a mental disorder. The doctors who assessed Mr Cordell found him "hypomanic, with flight of speech, grandiose and thought disordered"

Forensic history

Nil known.

Risk History

According to the Risk Assessment on RIO notes Mr Cordell had expressed suicidal thoughts in the past. This was related to stress from court cases. The date is not stated in the Risk Assessment. Around that time, he said that he had researched ways of harming himself (poisoning, OD, hanging). He had said in the past that he tried to hang himself aged 16 when he was in a young offender's institute. He had said that he needed resuscitation. He tried to hang himself a second time after he was sentenced by a judge aged 20. He had said that he drank Nitrous Oxide in 2014 with intent to die.

According to his Risk Assessment he was regularly a victim or witness of his father's violent behaviour.

There are recent reports from the Council regarding alleged aggressive behaviours towards other residents. In June 2018 he was apparently involved in court case with the neighbours who he apparently threatened to harm.

Social circumstances

Personal History

Mr Cordell is single. He has a partner. He has no children. He was born in Enfield and did his schooling in Edmonton. Left school aged 16. He studied and worked in mechanics and road works, electrical and computers after he left school (mother's report)

Accommodation

Mr Cordell lives in a 1-bedroom flat on the ground floor. The flat has necessary amenities/facilities to allow independent living.

Employment

He is not currently in employment Finances

He claims ESA and needs to make an application for PIP

Views of family

I telephoned Ms Cordell on the 7th November 2018. Ms Cordell told me that neighbours have been "terrorising" his son since 2014 in particular a neighbour on the 2nd floor. Ms Cordell told me that whilst her son is in hospital her nephew has been staying in the flat to look after the dog. The nephew has reported that the occupier on the 2nd floor have been

"banging" on the floor. She said that the neighbour then realised that her son is not in the flat when they saw the nephew coming out of Mr Cordell's flat. She told me that since the 26th October the "banging" has stopped. She said that she has complained about the neighbour herself but thinks these situations are misinterpreted by the council and the mental health services and her son is then seen as the perpetrator and or being mentally unwell. Ms Cordell stated that the sound proofing is lacking and the noise is real. Other neighbours have made allegations that Mr Cordell has been aggressive towards them. She said that there is no evidence of this; police have seen CCTV and found that her son had not left the flat at the time when these incidents were alleged to have happen. Ms Cordell gave another example in 2016 where it was alleged by a neighbour that her son had made threats to kill him. She said that the police initially charged her son with making threats to kill; after seeing video evidence they charged him with a 'Public Order Offence'. She said that around the time of this alleged incident her son was in his flat with some friends. Her son was not allowed to his flat and was bailed to her flat where he stayed until December 2016. She said that the CPS after seeing evidence dismissed the case a day before the trial. She said that the council has never taken the responsibility to look at evidences; the allegations made against her son (physical assault, letting his dog on the loose) have not been proven. She said that on the 9th August in court the Judge ordered Enfield Council to move her son to a 2-bedroom flat but the Council wants/plans to evict him instead. She said that the Council has no grounds to apply for her son's eviction.

She said that her son has a one-bedroom flat. She said that he does not want to live there. She said that he needs a 2-bedroom flat with the plan that his cousin could stay with him to provide emotional support. She said that her son has everything he needs in the flat. She told me that her son is very independent in activities of daily living; his personal care is extremely good; he cooks for himself, maintains the flat and takes responsibility for his bills. She told me that he has no financial difficulties/no debts.

She said that her son has a work history. In 2010 he was planning to set up a business in the entertainment industry. He has also built websites in relation to this. At present he is not in employment. He is in receipt of Employment Support Allowance but needs to make an application for Personal Independent Payment.

I asked her if she thinks her son has a mental illness; she told me that he suffers from stress and anxiety due to issues with the neighbours but does not think he has a mental illness. She said that the judged looked at evidence and did not grant a warrant in October 2018 for a mental health act to take place at her son's flat.

I asked Ms Cordell if she thinks her son could benefit from support from the community team. She said that he could do with some support but "we should stop labelling him as being delusional as he is not delusional".

After-Care

Potentially Mr Cordell care/treatment would be delivered via the Care Programme Approach. I am the allocated Care Coordinator and he will have a responsible clinician in the community.

My role would be first of all to build a relationship with Mr Cordell as I have only met him on 2 occasions. I will try to motivate him to engage with myself and the multidisciplinary team. As his Care Coordinator I will review Mr Cordell regularly independently and with the Community RC.
We have a Team Clinical Psychologist and it would be vital for Mr Cordell to have some form of talking therapy. This is on the basis of the stress and anxiety that his mother states he suffers from.
We have a Dual Diagnosis Worker in the team who could offer drug counselling if necessary.
We have an organisation called 'Remploy' which is funded by the Local Authority. Potentially they could support Mr Cordell to find work. They meet regularly with clients whilst they are in work and also liaise with employers.
I could support Mr Cordell in making an application for PIP. Alternatively, he could get that support from 'Enfield Well-Being Connect'
The Mental Health Enablement Team could provide support in tenancy management as well as support to access education/training and work.
Opinion and recommendations
I have met Mr Cordell on two occasions only and I have not had the opportunity to assess him in the community. A rapport needs to be established with him.
On the basis of recent events, history of risks to self and alleged risks towards others and taking into account the views of the MDT on the ward I think that he would benefit from a longer stay in hospital. This is in-order for the MDT to assess him comprehensively to determine if he has a severe and enduring mental illness such as schizophrenia/psychosis. If it is determined that he has a severe mental illness then this should be treated accordingly whilst he is in hospital.

weight, LFTs, prolactin etc. Admission Summary 17 Oct - referred for MHA due to history of physical and verbal aggression towards his neighbours. EANLT MDT agreed that he is a risk to others and his behaviour could also put him at risk from others. Simon refused to engage with MHA. Application for 135(1) was made - Judge found insufficient evidence for 136. Forensic referral sent on 17/10 25 Oct - Simon was arrested as the police called to his flat re him breaking a harassment order and he assaulted the police who attended. He was taken to Wood Green police station. Found to be him thought disordered, hypomanic with flight of speech and grandiose delusions. Detained under MHA. On initial review he had pressured speech, difficulty interrupting, appeared elated in mood, and had grandiose beliefs e.g., started talking about owning a couple of local festivals and engaging in multiple charities involving children. At the time he has limited insight; he does not want any medication and has never believed he has a mental health disorder. His UDS was positive to THC. He immediately appealed his section. The tribunal was done on 8/11/18 which he lost. On 5/11/18, Dr Greensides reviewed the patient and made an application for Section 3 as there are risks to his health and to others. It was felt that it would not be beneficial to take against his will unless he is subsequently detained on a section 3. However, there was a delay in the assessment so he was started on Risperidone 2mg ON which he refused to take. He had a MHAA for a Section 3 on 14/11/18; it was felt that there was no evidence of Simon posing a risk of harm/safety to himself or others and there was no obvious risk of neglect. As a result, he was not sectioned. It was decided that as a result of this, there was no reason for Simon to remain on an acute psychiatric ward as we are unable to treat him. He was discharged as a result, with Dr Greensides emailing his CC about arranging an O/P consultant review and emailed the forensic consultant regarding an O/P forensic opinion. Thank you for your continued care. Here is his MSE on admission: Simon is a 37-year-old male, who was appropriately dressed. He engaged in conversation and made eye contact throughout. Calm and polite, no aggression but did become mildly restless at points. Pressurised speech, difficult to interrupt. Flight of ideas noted. Described mood as good. High levels of energy and labile mood. Paranoid delusions about the police and MH services and some grandiose delusions noted.

New Speaker:	00:26	Good morning, Enfield Council Housing Sally speaking, how can I help?
Speaker 2:	00:31	How are you doing is it possible to speak to Michael please the my house Estate neighbourhood team manager.
Speaker 1:	00:37	What's your post code
Speaker 2:	00:38	echo November three seven Juliet Quebec

Speaker 1:	00:43	and your door number
Speaker 2:	00:44	109
Speaker 1:	00:47	Do you know what a surname is?
Speaker 2:	00:49	Um, I just know that it's new is new in the offices and I think that he took over Sarah Fletcher's place or um, Jeffry Oman's place possibly.
Speaker 1:	01:01	Alright, let me have a look I'll just reframe your name please.
New Speaker:	01:06	(Staff Banging in the background to upset more and show me how much they are there to protect me)
Speaker 2:	01:07	Mr. Simon.
New Speaker:	01:08	Stop.
New Speaker:	01:08	Paul Cordell
Speaker 1:	01:11	and your contact telephone number?
Speaker 2:	01:13	Um, 0208245745 or the number.
New Speaker:	01:18	Thank you. (Talking to the person in the background)
New Speaker:	01:18	that I'm calling from.
Speaker 1:	01:28	Right. [inaudible] Let me just have a look, let me um, find out [inaudible] your neighbourhood officer
Speaker 2:	01:44	does Dawn Alen still work in the offices?
Speaker 1:	01:47	Sorry,
Speaker 2:	01:48	Does Dawn Allen
Speaker 1:	01:50	[inaudible] not, as far as I know,
Speaker 2:	01:53	she's left the company. Jackie Gubby.
New Speaker:	01:55	Yes,
New Speaker:	01:55	(Staff Banging in the background to upset me more and show me how much they are there to protect me)
Speaker 1:	01:57	I think they've left as well.
Speaker 2:	01:59	Deon Grant
Speaker 1:	02:03	to be honest, I'd have to check on the link, I wouldn't know because we're in a different office. Because this is customer service, so,
Speaker 2:	02:09	Okay. I'd appreciate that.
New Speaker:	02:09
New Speaker:	02:09
New Speaker:	02:09
New Speaker:	02:09
Speaker 1:	02:11	Right, let’s have a look so, that is Burn - Croft [inaudible] [inaudible] Oh yeah. Michael Had you Jeremy Free, will he know what it's regarding.
Speaker 2:	02:36	He should do in the back of his head that he isn't managing these caseloads, very um, correctly with fair process and he's on the eighth is okay. Just to go through it with you on the eight on the 15th of the eight, I won three cases against the Enfield County Court um, against the Enfield Council. The judge ordered that I get a like for like two-bedroom house and um, with back garden front garden and everything the paperwork went over to the Enfield Council solicitor firm. They've signed it and sent it over to my Solicitor firm. We've all agreed and sending over to them on eight for the 15th.

New Speaker:	03:08	Hm, hm.
New Speaker:	03:08	So this was an emergency transfer. Now somehow, they started to boycott the situation and they've said, okay, the next annual general meeting is on the 28th 8 they said that'd be 15 days in time. They, they, they, it's going to take them a bit longer to sort things out.
Speaker 2:	03:24	So the next annual general meeting will be on the ninth the ninth the end of the ninth so I must wait till the end of the ninth I said, this is an emergency transfer judges ordered it and it's for my safety and they've [inaudible] you shouldn't be treating it as an annual general meeting. You should treat it as such as what?
New Speaker:	03:40	hmm.
New Speaker:	03:40	It's classed as they've, they pushed it over, to the turn ninth. Anyway, I allowed for that to happen in the end because I didn't have much options. They've, they've held a S they've held a secret meeting which I'm not allowed to attend in the civic centre, [inaudible]. I found that the, and to try and get them to go to the boardroom, meeting and I wasn't allowed to go on the ninth on in the end of the ninth month. Now, no one has contacted me back since then.
Speaker 2:	04:03	I'm now in the 17th of the 10th and this was all detached.
New Speaker:	04:07	Hm.
New Speaker:	04:07	from the transfer to happen on the eight feet and 15th of the eighth. And I feel that negligence is taking part now on his role because he understands my case load and I've won the cases, I'm in the right and they have no reason to treat me the way that I'm being treated by them. I've had to build a website which shows all the past workers. I just refer to, um, which,
New Speaker:	04:26	um.
New Speaker:	04:26	which is called horrific corruption. And I've, I can show, do you have Google available to you by any chance?
Speaker 2:	04:34	No, not at the moment.
New Speaker:	04:34	But, do none of you lot in the office, because I don't turn it on otherwise cause otherwise the damage it can cause to.
New Speaker:	04:38	[inaudible]
New Speaker:	04:38	everyone's lives. I can turn it on and just let use, lot see into it for half an hour. So, you can have a look at what's actually going on here. They farcified a possession order, which can be proved because of the time stamps that the council did. Then they falsified another injunction order, another injunction order, which I've won. They also farcified an Asbo on me, um, before anything started and the, Asbo is missing all of the signatures of the people, that um, through that through the police officer, the victims, sorry, it says that white people commit the crime on not even white at the time the parties were going on. I never throw them. I, so I copied the Facebook profiles of the people that throw the parties, which proves that, and I'm not the organizer of these events.

Speaker 2: 05:19 Plus there's the timestamps to the. The police are call centre and go backwards. They made up the paperwork and set me up and they keep kept setting me up. So, I've made all brand-new PDF books and made all new websites of all the emails, that was 500 emails that went to your departments in the MP'S before anything happened. And they caught a sex scandal as a smokescreen in my name. When me and my partner have never argued, I never hurt my partner and they have endangered my life and endangered her life. And endangered the young sibling's life and none of us are happy about what they've done. We've got all the clinics, recordings at the time on our phone on up on the website. We've got everything to protect ourselves to prove the truth of what's really happened here and we just want someone to pay attention.

Speaker 2: 05:59 They're trying to let, they're just saying that the last case the judge, judge, judge knew he was in trouble and I could prove that the timestamps are wrong for the council on that. Lemmy Nwabuisi, is a new person who started the company had copied and pasted all of the stuff because I told him about the time limitation Act 1980 on the phone. I asked him, can you go into the computer please in the recording I was recording and he said yeah, I'll go into the computer and check that the day of the last claim. And they said anything about me and he checked in, he goes on at six months ago. So, I said at the time limitation Act is out and he was trying to force me for a meeting at the civic centre. And I was saying that you can't force me for a meeting you're not a police officer. He's saying well if you don't come for this meeting. I'm going to possession order in. So, he copied and pasted like three claimant's claims and he'd made 31 claims, then went for injunction orders possession orders. He was gone. He's lived in the court with the company credit card trying to kill me like he's an assassin since he started the company and I've proved I can prove that. So easy do use lot have not got Google available.

Speaker 1:	06:57	No, not at the moment, but what I will do is it says that his line is busy so I'm going to send him an email to ask him to call you.
Speaker 2:	07:05	He had an email yesterday and he had an email about two days ago and I've had all employees sending him emails already and he's not contacting me back now and it's the 17th and I'm left suffering because of him not following protocol to what a judge has ordered and what has been signed by solicitors and what's under his company Mandate. Under his company reference alone, it says that he must deal with things efficiently and in a timely manner. With fair processing,
New Speaker:	07:28	Hmm.
New Speaker:	07:28	he isn't doing so as you can see by the dates. Now that I am phone in the 17th of the 10th but, I'm going to leave it to yourself, Madam, to make another call and another email to him and I might try again a bit later on this afternoon about two o'clock just after lunch, if that's okay with yourselves.
New Speaker:	07:43	Yeah. that's fine that's fine.
New Speaker:	07:44	And then if not I'm going to continue tomorrow.
New Speaker:	07:47	Okay.
Speaker 1:	07:48	And in mean time, I'll send an email to him.
New Speaker:	07:49	Alright I will appreciate that you lot have a good day.
New Speaker:	07:52	You're welcome. Thank you for calling ok I hope you kill yourself thank you. bye, bye [inaudible].

He also said that Lemmy and I have forged documents, that he's going to get me struck off and will put me in jail. I had to end the conversation. He has tried calling me 6 times after that. I am putting you on notice that I have contacted the police and reported his phone calls as harassment. Finally, I would refer to the letter before claim/warning letter which was sent to you on Monday 15th October 2018. Mr Cordell has clearly breached the warning. We are now instructed to commence possession proceedings.

Care Coordinator:	Soobah Appadoo- Allocated August 2018
Report prepared by:	Soobah Appadoo
Sources of Information:	Electronic Documentation on Rio
Nearest Relative:	Ms Cordell (mother)
Date of this report:	7th November 2018
Who you are and in what capacity you know the patient, how long you have worked with them: My name is Soobah Appadoo? I am a CPN with the above-named team. I have been asked to compile this social circumstance report in support of above-named patient's Mental Health Review Tribunal (MHRT) appeal against his detention under Section 2 of the Mental Health Act. Mr Cordell was admitted on section 2 on the 26th October 2018.

Mr Cordell was previously under the care of the Early Intervention Team for 3 years. The Early Intervention Team discharged him in June 2018 and at that point he was referred to our team. There is a suggestion on RIO notes that he did not engage well with that team.
I was allocated to Mr Cordell in August 2018. We offered him an appointment at his flat on the 31st August. Mr Cordell rang our office the day before and spoke to me. I informed him that I am his new Care Coordinator. He said that he had been seen for "76 days by his CC" and there was "nothing wrong with me". He said that the reason we want to see him is to "cover for missing signatures?". He said he "will ruin anyone who come to my house" and he has "recording cameras and audios" to ruin us. He said if you come to my house "I f...ing will scar you for life". He used foul languages throughout this contact. He said that I "can take the f...ing referral and stick it up my a..e". He said that he does not want to see us. I could not interrupt him: very verbally aggressive with pressure in speech". I did manage to say that we are a different team from Lucas House and we want him to have a fresh start- He said "I don't f...ing care"
Further to that the MDT advised that we should assess Mr Cordell in clinic due to the potential risks. We then offered him an appointment on the 28th September which Mr Cordell did not attend.

NHS

My report is based on the information which I have extracted from RIO and my telephone conversation with Mr Cordell's mother.

Psychiatric history

On the 16th August 2016 Mr Cordell was admitted to CFH under Section 2 of the MHA. He was discharged on the 27th August 2016. According to RIO notes Mr Cordell "was arrested at his home address after his mother raised concerns about his mental state - he was allegedly verbally threatening towards his neighbour and (?) neighbour's children. Simon's mother called police who arrested him. He was seen by the FME at Wood Green police station, was then referred for MHA."
He appealed against his Section. The Mental Health Review Tribunal discharged him from Section 2 on the 26th August 2016.

Leading to current admission

As I stated above leading to this admission Mr Cordell did not attend appointments offered to him by our service. Subsequently due to the allegations made against him I was advised to attend a Safeguarding meeting for an alleged victim. In that meeting I was informed by the Council that Mr Cordell has a past and current history of physical and verbal aggression towards residents in the building. I was informed that the council has tried to work with Mr Cordell but to no avail. I was informed me that Mr Cordell was getting easily irritated even by the sound of a flushing toilet; this happened very recently and he threatened the resident concerned. The Council was of the opinion that these are signs of mental illness and suggested that BEH should proceed with a MHA. The Council argued that this is for the protection of others as well as Mr Cordell's own safety.
Subsequently the council sent us a copy of 'Anti-Social Behaviour, Tenancy concerns and breaches- pre-action letter' which contained a chronology of alleged incidents dating from 2016. These alleged incidents were in the meaning of an antisocial behaviour presentation.

On the 17th October Mr Cordell was discussed in our MDT meeting. A decision was made to conduct an MHA. An MHA was attempted on the 19th October. Mr Cordell did not cooperate and the assessment did not take place.

On the 23rd October an application for a warrant was made but was declined on the grounds "that there was insufficient recent evidence that he was being "kept under proper control" as he is living alone and "insufficient recent medical evidence that "he is unable to care for himself.

According to RIO, on the 25th October Mr Cordell was arrested for breaching a harassment order. It was alleged that he was aggressive towards the police and spat at them. He was assessed at the police station. On interview he had pressure of speech, delusions about his neighbours and the police and housing ganging up against him. He denied drug use. He said that does not have a mental disorder. The doctors who assessed Mr Cordell found him "hypomanic, with flight of speech, grandiose and thought disordered"

Forensic history

Nil known.

Risk History

According to the Risk Assessment on RIO notes Mr Cordell had expressed suicidal thoughts in the past. This was related to stress from court cases. The date is not stated in the Risk Assessment. Around that time, he said that he had researched ways of harming himself (poisoning, OD, hanging). He had said in the past that he tried to hang himself aged 16 when he was in a young offender's institute. He had said that he needed resuscitation. He tried to hang himself a second time after he was sentenced by a judge aged 20. He had said that he drank Nitrous Oxide in 2014 with intent to die.

According to his Risk Assessment he was regularly a victim or witness of his father's violent behaviour.

There are recent reports from the Council regarding alleged aggressive behaviours towards other residents. In June 2018 he was apparently involved in court case with the neighbours who he apparently threatened to harm.

Social circumstances

Personal History

Mr Cordell is single. He has a partner. He has no children. He was born in Enfield and did his schooling in Edmonton. Left school aged 16. He studied and worked in mechanics and road works, electrical and computers after he left school (mother's report)

Accommodation

Mr Cordell lives in a 1-bedroom flat on the ground floor. The flat has necessary amenities/facilities to allow independent living.

Employment

He is not currently in employment Finances

He claims ESA and needs to make an application for PIP

Views of family

I telephoned Ms Cordell on the 7th November 2018. Ms Cordell told me that neighbours have been "terrorising" his son since 2014 in particular a neighbour on the 2nd floor. Ms Cordell told me that whilst her son is in hospital her nephew has been staying in the flat to look after the dog. The nephew has reported that the occupier on the 2nd floor have been "banging" on the floor. She said that the neighbour then realised that her son is not in the flat when they saw the nephew coming out of Mr Cordell's flat. She told me that since the 26th October the "banging" has stopped. She said that she has complained about the neighbour herself but thinks these situations are misinterpreted by the council and the mental health services and her son is then seen as the perpetrator and or being mentally unwell. Ms Cordell stated that the sound proofing is lacking and the noise is real. Other neighbours have made allegations that Mr Cordell has been aggressive towards them. She said that there is no evidence of this; police have seen CCTV and found that her son had not left the flat at the time when these incidents were alleged to have happen. Ms Cordell gave another example in 2016 where it was alleged by a neighbour that her son had made threats to kill him. She said that the police initially charged her son with making threats to kill; after seeing video evidence they charged him with a 'Public Order Offence'. She said that around the time of this alleged incident her son was in his flat with some friends. Her son was not allowed to his flat and was bailed to her flat where he stayed until December 2016. She said that the CPS after seeing evidence dismissed the case a day before the trial. She said that the council has never taken the responsibility to look at evidences; the allegations made against her son (physical assault, letting his dog on the loose) have not been proven. She said that on the 9th August in court the Judge ordered Enfield Council to move her son to a 2-bedroom flat but the Council wants/plans to evict him instead. She said that the Council has no grounds to apply for her son's eviction.

She said that her son has a one-bedroom flat. She said that he does not want to live there. She said that he needs a 2-bedroom flat with the plan that his cousin could stay with him to provide emotional support. She said that her son has everything he needs in the flat. She told me that her son is very independent in activities of daily living; his personal care is extremely good; he cooks for himself, maintains the flat and takes responsibility for his bills. She told me that he has no financial difficulties/no debts.

She said that her son has a work history. In 2010 he was planning to set up a business in the entertainment industry. He has also built websites in relation to this. At present he is not in employment. He is in receipt of Employment Support Allowance but needs to make an application for Personal Independent Payment.

I asked her if she thinks her son has a mental illness; she told me that he suffers from stress and anxiety due to issues with the neighbours but does not think he has a mental illness. She said that the judged looked at evidence and did not grant a warrant in October 2018 for a mental health act to take place at her son's flat.

I asked Ms Cordell if she thinks her son could benefit from support from the community team. She said that he could do with some support but "we should stop labelling him as being delusional as he is not delusional".

After-Care
Potentially Mr Cordell care/treatment would be delivered via the Care Programme Approach. I am the allocated Care Coordinator and he will have a responsible clinician in the community.
My role would be first of all to build a relationship with Mr Cordell as I have only met him on 2 occasions. I will try to motivate him to engage with myself and the multidisciplinary team. As his Care Coordinator I will review Mr Cordell regularly independently and with the Community RC.
We have a Team Clinical Psychologist and it would be vital for Mr Cordell to have some form of talking therapy. This is on the basis of the stress and anxiety that his mother states he suffers from.
We have a Dual Diagnosis Worker in the team who could offer drug counselling if necessary.
We have an organisation called 'Remploy' which is funded by the Local Authority. Potentially they could support Mr Cordell to find work. They meet regularly with clients whilst they are in work and also liaise with employers.
I could support Mr Cordell in making an application for PIP. Alternatively, he could get that support from 'Enfield Well-Being Connect'
The Mental Health Enablement Team could provide support in tenancy management as well as support to access education/training and work.
Opinion and recommendations
I have met Mr Cordell on two occasions only and I have not had the opportunity to assess him in the community. A rapport needs to be established with him.
On the basis of recent events, history of risks to self and alleged risks towards others, and taking into account the views of the MDT on the ward I think that he would benefit from a longer stay in hospital. This is in-order for the MDT to assess him comprehensively to determine if he has a severe and enduring mental illness such as schizophrenia/psychosis. If it is determined that he has a severe mental illness then this should be treated accordingly whilst he is in hospital.

8 NHS: Michelle Butcher Nursing - "Enfield AMHP Service Attempted MHA Assessment Dr Keyhani (S12) Dr Albazaz (S12), Anthony Manning (AMHP) Larry Ryan (Trainee AMHP), Soobah Appadoo (Care Coordinator), Kingsley and Michelle (CRHTT).11:15am Communal door to flat had been broken and closed with tape which opened easily. Simon's flat, 109 is on ground floor and door was closed and had a strap fastened to bottom of door as well. After knocking Simon asked who it was and when told " A social worker from Enfield Mental Health services" he said that he did not wish to see me and to go away, he talked rapidly about being subjected to 75 assaults at the hands of mental health services and that he has documented evidence and is taking action. Claimed he would make us all redundant. He warned us to leave. A dog could be heard barking behind the door. We left the block and gathered outside on the footpath to discuss plan. Shortly after Simon came out and approached as talking with pressured speech about his long battle with the police and legal system, how he is even now subject to a Curfew which keeps him from leaving his flat after 10.30 and this is in force until 2020, he claims. It was difficult to follow his story but appeared to all relate to the organisation of raves and club nights. He recognised Dr Albazaz from a previous assessment and said that he was there and he did not like him. Gradually a level of rapport was established and it was suggested to Simon that it might be a good idea to continue the discussion in his flat rather than in a public place. He agreed to this and I asked him to lock the dog away he said he will lock it in the back garden. Prior to entering the flat I informed Simon that I am a trainee AMHP and myself and the 2 doctors with me will be conducting a Mental Health Act assessment. We then entered the flat which was very cluttered with musical equipment and stacks of books and records. On the coffee table was a modern Apple PC. There was no obvious smell of drugs only cigarette smoke. Upon entering the living room and the mention of the 2 doctors he pointed to Dr Albazaz and said that he will not talk to him and does not want him in the flat. I explained that we could not conduct the assessment without 2 doctors and that we would need to leave. He was very keen to show me things on his computer relating to conspiracies and torments that he perceives he is suffering but we left explain the assessment would need to happen at another time. Plan: Apply for S135 (1) warrant in view of his unwillingness to be assessed. Would require removal to a place of safety for assessment. Plans to be made for care of dog if Service user is removed to POS."

When in doors asleep I got awoke by my neighbours who are 117 the Mathiyalagans and this happened to me when I was in my front room laying on my sofa!
The Mathiyalagans started to jump up and down on the floor above were I got awoke.
This got done to me with evil intentions.
Rather than lead myself into trouble I decided to keep recording what was getting done to me on my camera system that is installed in each and every room in my home.
While I was getting attacked with hate crime I decided to continue to lay down and battened that I had not been awoke as the neighbours can hear my every movement even from to flats above mine as the sound proofing within my rented home is that of anon existence.
After not being able to take any more of what was getting done to me, I decided to head inn to my toilet so that I could have my wash.
When in the bathroom the now
Letter from solicitor Enfield Council / The same paperwork that Sarah Flexure had forged while I was not staying at my home on the 04/10/2015 due to bail conditions that then after got picked up by Lemmy who tried to force me into a trap meeting at the civic centre due to them forged claims. When he then after super forged them and copied and pasted Sarah Flexures work and created 31 different claims then on after giving up on the trap meeting for him to then create a possession order to steel my home from his then on super forged claims against me to then needing the statement makers statements because I requested them of himself for Lemmy too then create an injunction order against me from the same claims to recover the missing victims missing statements to which I won the injunction order at a court he then created another injunction order to cover up what I can prove of threats to kill him while on the phone in turn getting me arrested when I never done what he said so that he could also then illegally reinstated the stuck out Mathiyalagan claims into his own application and then on adding as much lies to tarnish my life.

The Defendant called repeatedly after that. 12/09/2018 45. On 24th September 2018 at about 11.30am, one of the Defendant neighbours returned home from dropping her daughter at school and as she entered their block of flat, she noticed that the middle door on the ground floor was open as well as the Defendant front door. As she went up the stairs to their second floor flat, the Defendant dog came out of the Defendant flat and started barking at her. The neighbours had to run up the stairs to her flat to escape from the dog. It was reported that the Defendant dog is always barking whenever they go out or return to the block and the neighbours and 4 years old daughter are terrified. 24/09/2018	12/09/2018 211. 24/09/2018 212. 30/09/2018 213. 02/09/2018 214. 18/10/2018 215. 19/10/2018 216. 22/10/2018 217. 23/10/2018 218. 24/10/2018 219. 16/12/2018 220. 17/01/2019			16

Date of birth:	26TH January 1981
Home address:	109 Burncroft Avenue, Enfield, Middlesex EN3 7JQ
Date of Admission:	26TH October 2018
Hospital/Ward:	Chase Farm Hospital, Dorset Ward
Care Coordinator:	Soobah Appadoo- Allocated August 2018
Report prepared by:	Soobah Appadoo
Sources of Information:	Electronic Documentation on Rio
Nearest Relative:	Ms Cordell (mother)
Date of this report:	7th November 2018

Who you are and in what capacity you know the patient, how long you have worked with them: My name is Soobah Appadoo? I am a CPN with the above-named team. I have been asked to compile this social circumstance report in support of above-named patient's Mental Health Review Tribunal (MHRT) appeal against his detention under Section 2 of the Mental Health Act. Mr Cordell was admitted on section 2 on the 26th October 2018. Mr Cordell was previously under the care of the Early Intervention Team for 3 years. The Early Intervention Team discharged him in June 2018 and at that point he was referred to our team. There is a suggestion on RIO notes that he did not engage well with that team.
I was allocated to Mr Cordell in August 2018. We offered him an appointment at his flat on the 31st August. Mr Cordell rang our office the day before and spoke to me. I informed him that I am his new Care Coordinator. He said that he had been seen for "76 days by his CC" and there was "nothing wrong with me". He said that the reason we want to see him is to "cover for missing signatures?". He said he "will ruin anyone who come to my house" and he has "recording cameras and audios" to ruin us. He said if you come to my house "I f...ing will scar you for life". He used foul languages throughout this contact. He said that I "can take the f...ing referral and stick it up my a..e". He said that he does not want to see us. I could not interrupt him: very verbally aggressive with pressure in speech". I did manage to say that we are a different team from Lucas House and we want him to have a fresh start- He said "I don't f...ing care"
Further to that the MDT advised that we should assess Mr Cordell in clinic due to the potential risks. We then offered him an appointment on the 28th September which Mr Cordell did not attend.

My report is based on the information which I have extracted from RIO and my telephone conversation with Mr Cordell's mother.

Psychiatric history

On the 16th August 2016 Mr Cordell was admitted to CFH under Section 2 of the MHA. He was discharged on the 27th August 2016. According to RIO notes Mr Cordell "was arrested at his home address after his mother raised concerns about his mental state - he was allegedly verbally threatening towards his neighbour and (?) neighbour's children. Simon's mother called police who arrested him. He was seen by the FME at Wood Green police station, was then referred for MHA."

He appealed against his Section. The Mental Health Review Tribunal discharged him from Section 2 on the 26th August 2016.

Leading to current admission

As I stated above leading to this admission Mr Cordell did not attend appointments offered to him by our service. Subsequently due to the allegations made against him I was advised to attend a Safeguarding meeting for an alleged victim. In that meeting I was informed by the Council that Mr Cordell has a past and current history of physical and verbal aggression towards residents in the building. I was informed that the council has tried to work with Mr Cordell but to no avail. I was informed me that Mr Cordell was getting easily irritated even by the sound of a flushing toilet; this happened very recently and he threatened the resident concerned. The Council was of the opinion that these are signs of mental illness and suggested that BEH should proceed with an MHA. The Council argued that this is for the protection of others as well as Mr Cordell's own safety.

Subsequently the council sent us a copy of 'Anti-Social Behaviour, Tenancy concerns and breaches- pre-action letter' which contained a chronology of alleged incidents dating from 2016. These alleged incidents were in the meaning of an antisocial behaviour presentation.

On the 17th October Mr Cordell was discussed in our MDT meeting. A decision was made to conduct an MHA. An MHA was attempted on the 19th October. Mr Cordell did not cooperate and the assessment did not take place.

On the 23rd October an application for a warrant was made but was declined on the grounds "that there was insufficient recent evidence that he was being "kept under proper control" as he is living alone and "insufficient recent medical evidence that "he is unable to care for himself.

According to RIO, on the 25th October Mr Cordell was arrested for breaching a harassment order. It was alleged that he was aggressive towards the police and spat at them. He was assessed at the police station. On interview he had pressure of speech, delusions about his neighbours and the police and housing ganging up against him. He denied drug use. He said that does not have a mental disorder. The doctors who assessed Mr Cordell found him "hypomanic, with flight of speech, grandiose and thought disordered"

Forensic history

Nil known.

Risk History

According to the Risk Assessment on RIO notes Mr Cordell had expressed suicidal thoughts in the past. This was related to stress from court cases. The date is not stated in the Risk Assessment. Around that time, he said that he had researched ways of harming himself (poisoning, OD, hanging). He had said in the past that he tried to hang himself aged 16 when he was in a young offender's institute. He had said that he needed resuscitation. He tried to hang himself a second time after he was sentenced by a judge aged 20. He had said that he drank Nitrous Oxide in 2014 with intent to die.

According to his Risk Assessment he was regularly a victim or witness of his father's violent behaviour.

There are recent reports from the Council regarding alleged aggressive behaviours towards other residents. In June 2018 he was apparently involved in court case with the neighbours who he apparently threatened to harm.

Social circumstances

Personal History

Mr Cordell is single. He has a partner. He has no children. He was born in Enfield and did his schooling in Edmonton. Left school aged 16. He studied and worked in mechanics and road works, electrical and computers after he left school (mother's report)

Accommodation

Mr Cordell lives in a 1-bedroom flat on the ground floor. The flat has necessary amenities/facilities to allow independent living.

Employment

He is not currently in employment Finances

He claims ESA and needs to make an application for PIP

Views of family

I telephoned Ms Cordell on the 7th November 2018. Ms Cordell told me that neighbours have been "terrorising" his son since 2014 in particular a neighbour on the 2nd floor. Ms Cordell told me that whilst her son is in hospital her nephew has been staying in the flat to look after the dog. The nephew has reported that the occupier on the 2nd floor have been "banging" on the floor. She said that the neighbour then realised that her son is not in the flat when they saw the nephew coming out of Mr Cordell's flat. She told me that since the 26th October the "banging" has stopped. She said that she has complained about the neighbour herself but thinks these situations are misinterpreted by the council and the mental health services and her son is then seen as the perpetrator and or being mentally unwell. Ms Cordell stated that the sound proofing is lacking and the noise is real. Other neighbours have made allegations that Mr Cordell has been aggressive towards them. She said that there is no evidence of this; police have seen CCTV and found that her son had not left the flat at the time when these incidents were alleged to have happen. Ms Cordell gave another example in 2016 where it was alleged by a neighbour that her son had made threats to kill him. She said that the police initially charged her son with making threats to kill; after seeing video evidence they charged him with a 'Public Order Offence'. She said that around the time of this alleged incident her son was in his flat with some friends. Her son was not allowed to his flat and was bailed to her flat where he stayed until December 2016. She said that the CPS after seeing evidence dismissed the case a day before the trial. She said that the council has never taken the responsibility to look at evidences; the allegations made against her son (physical assault, letting his dog on the loose) have not been proven. She said that on the 9th August in court the Judge ordered Enfield Council to move her son to a 2-bedroom flat but the Council wants/plans to evict him instead. She said that the Council has no grounds to apply for her son's eviction.

She said that her son has a one-bedroom flat. She said that he does not want to live there. She said that he needs a 2-bedroom flat with the plan that his cousin could stay with him to provide emotional support. She said that her son has everything he needs in the flat. She told me that her son is very independent in activities of daily living; his personal care is extremely good; he cooks for himself, maintains the flat and takes responsibility for his bills. She told me that he has no financial difficulties/no debts.

She said that her son has a work history. In 2010 he was planning to set up a business in the entertainment industry. He has also built websites in relation to this. At present he is not in employment. He is in receipt of Employment Support Allowance but needs to make an application for Personal Independent Payment.
I asked her if she thinks her son has a mental illness; she told me that he suffers from stress and anxiety due to issues with the neighbours but does not think he has a mental illness. She said that the judged looked at evidence and did not grant a warrant in October 2018 for a mental health act to take place at her son's flat.
I asked Ms Cordell if she thinks her son could benefit from support from the community team. She said that he could do with some support but "we should stop labelling him as being delusional as he is not delusional".

After-Care
Potentially Mr Cordell care/treatment would be delivered via the Care Programme Approach. I am the allocated Care Coordinator and he will have a responsible clinician in the community.
My role would be first of all to build a relationship with Mr Cordell as I have only met him on 2 occasions. I will try to motivate him to engage with myself and the multidisciplinary team. As his Care Coordinator I will review Mr Cordell regularly independently and with the Community RC.
We have a Team Clinical Psychologist and it would be vital for Mr Cordell to have some form of talking therapy. This is on the basis of the stress and anxiety that his mother states he suffers from.
We have a Dual Diagnosis Worker in the team who could offer drug counselling if necessary.
We have an organisation called 'Remploy' which is funded by the Local Authority. Potentially they could support Mr Cordell to find work. They meet regularly with clients whilst they are in work and also liaise with employers.
I could support Mr Cordell in making an application for PIP. Alternatively, he could get that support from 'Enfield Well-Being Connect'
The Mental Health Enablement Team could provide support in tenancy management as well as support to access education/training and work.
Opinion and recommendations
I have met Mr Cordell on two occasions only and I have not had the opportunity to assess him in the community. A rapport needs to be established with him.
On the basis of recent events, history of risks to self and alleged risks towards others, and taking into account the views of the MDT on the ward I think that he would benefit from a longer stay in hospital. This is in-order for the MDT to assess him comprehensively to determine if he has a severe and enduring mental illness such as schizophrenia/psychosis. If it is determined that he has a severe mental illness then this should be treated accordingly whilst he is in hospital.

2 NHS: Margaret Garrod Social Worker = Boss Amp, I got loads about her! - "Enfield AMHP Service. I made an application today for a Warrant under Section 135(1) of the Mental health Act 1983/2007. The District Judge was of the opinion there was insufficient recent evidence that he was being "kept under proper control" as he is living alone. She further considered that there is insufficient recent medical evidence that "he is unable to care for himself' i.e., particularly his mental health, has he been prescribed / has he been taking it? It could be considered that he is not going out to avoid accusations that he is in breach of his Tenancy conditions. There is a report dated 8.7.2018 which indicates that he may lack capacity to adhere to the conditions of an injunction against him. The District Judge felt that there may be other legal options that could be used in preference to her issuing a S135 (1) warrant for which she considered there is insufficient evidence to consider he is unable to care for himself. To gain the necessary evidence there needs to be a further Psychiatric assessment offered to Mr. Cordell at a time when his mother might be available to facilitate the appointment as had been previously planned."

1 Si Statement

Today I got awoke by my Neighbors once again who are addressed at 117 Burncroft Avenue who are the Mathiyalagan family. What is getting done to me is achieved with evil criminal intentions.
When explain what was on this day getting done to me illegal and what is also a clear breach of my human rights, I explain that, when sitting down at home on my sofa I heard a knock on my front door when I went to answer it, I first took a look through my front door key hole, when doing so, I noticed two police officers one male and on female. I can remember asking the woman officer a question What I asked her was why they were outside of my front door and in short to why I asked the question is I wanted to understand for what reason they wanted to speak to me, I received a reply of the Female police officer who replied to my question by saying that she just wanted to chat to me about something, I can remember replying to her by saying I can chat to you still without opening my front door and in blunt saying to her please can you just explain to me what you want, she said that she just wanted to give me some paperwork and did not want to arrest me for anything I again replied to her in a deeper voice and told her that I will not accept anything from them.
I held my letter box closed so that no mail could enter inside of my flat from the police officers who were outside. Soon afterwards I heard them both leave my communal hallway.
When I was sure that they had left the building, I opened my front door.
I took a look on the floor and noticed that there was a letter left on the floor.
After picking it up I took a short peek at the heading and realised that it was another Harassment Letter against my person in Knowing that I never done anything wrong again so to be able to receive such a notice in a fair motion.
I Decided to question the police officer who had tried to post the letter through m front door.
In doing so I quickly run outside of my front communal door and looked around the streets locations to see if I could still catch up with the two police officers.
I noticed them both to my left when coming out of my building still walking towards their police car so I called out to them in a polite manner / not to load or neither hash in voice.
The police officers turned around towards myself and asked what I wanted, I replied to them both I just wanted to chat to them about what has been going on and as I was doing so I hurried towards them but in a settled manner, as I approached them I took my time as I chose my words and because of this I can remember what I said, what I did say was after noticing that they were both were body cameras and went a little something like this: --
Woman Police Officer:
what do you want?
Simon:

I would like to report a crime. A police officer has caused me to suffer from gross Misconduct and would like to report it to you under the police efficiency Act of Law 1999 or 2003 or under any police whistle blowing policy you must be in accordance to.
What I am reporting to you is that a police Officer that who is name as Steven Elesmore who works for your branch has forge official paper work and then on filed it against me alongside with other members of the Metropolitans Police Force.

Woman Police Officer:
I am not dealing with that; I am here only to serve you a Harassment Letter.

Simon:
That is not correct protocol when I explain to you about corruption that has been caused by one of your colleges must act upon it.

Woman Police Officer:
I am not here to deal with that.

Simon:
But I am reporting a crime to you.

Woman Police Officer:
Can you stop shouting at me?

Simon:
I am not shouting at you I am just talking to you.

Woman Police Officer:
I am going to turn my body camera on

Simon:
Why is it not on already?

Woman Police Officer:
"Woman Police Officer turned on her body cam"

Simon:
I have had another of this harassment from your police force and the council and this does also include the neighbors who choose to forge offal documents. I told the police force that the people making these claims tried to set me up by forging official paperwork to aid in taking my flat of me in the form of a forged possession order and I supported my clams of truth alongside with good evidence that I have to support my clams.

Woman Police Officer:
I am only here to deal with giving you a harassment letter.

Simon:
year, but what I am saying to you has to do with that harassment letter, this is bios.

Simon:
"I took the harassment letter that the police officer had left outside of my front door and decided to tear it up in front of them both and as I done this, I made a spitting sound and said Well that's what I think of the way that the police deal with their laws. I done this as I was turning around to walk back towards my home."

Woman Police Officer:
The female Police Officer shouted out he spotted at me.

Simon:
I noticed a male's arm go around my neck and start to choke me from behind I could feel the man's weight on my back trying to bring me to the ground and after a few seconds I felt him become successful in his ambush against my person I can remember felling my hand and knees hurting me as the hit the concrete floor. I can remember finding it getting harder and harder to breath and with what felt like my last breath I managed to make a voice in the formation of a screech the words that came out of my mouth were that of "you are choking me."

Woman Police Officer:

The woman officer continued to try and get my hands while she continues to scream that I was still spitting even more so than from the start of their unneeded issues of concern with me.

Simon:

I can remember thinking he is going to kill me if I do not stop him and his bad temper, and in realizing so, I remembered the police body cameras were still recording so choose to take caution in doing so, what I did was stand up and run away from the two police officers. I run into my block and felt them hot on my toes I closed my communal door and reminded the polices officers of my dog by shouting my dog my dog my dog be careful my dog.

Woman & Male Police Officers:

Never followed me into my home and I decided to leave through my backdoor due to wanting things too cool down from both parties involved myself and police officers.

I walked through Durant's Park Enfield London and then walked up the Hertford Road And back down Green Street to my home on my route I noticed a police car driving and decided that the best thing to do was stop the petrol car and ask for their assistance

I was happy to see different police officer from the ones that had just attacked me and made this point very clear to them I got told that I was under arrest and then on jumped in the back of the police car with them. While in the police car I got told that I was under arrest for assault "spitting at police officer" I explained the truth to them in short.

Simon:

I got taken out of the police car and then placed into the back of a police van and the transported to the Wood Green Police Station.

Wood Green Police Station

My Detention at wood Green Police Station.

I got transported to the police station and taken straight away out of the police van and brought into a holding cell.

While in the police holding cell, I got to speak to the police officer who had transported me to the police station. I remembered that I had met him before, while talking to him he reminded me where I knew him from, what he said was he was is that he was the police officer whom had come to speak to me at my home address before:

He continued our conversation by saying to me that he was the police officer whom had prior got called about an incident referring towards me hiring out my sound system.

After taken even more understanding towards what he was saying to myself I realised that he is a police officer that is involved in the first Asbo Case.

What did happen was: --

1 Falcon Park, Neasden Lane; NW10: --

On the 20th June 2014 it got alleged by members of the police that I got involved in the organisation of and/or supplied equipment for and/or attended an illegal rave at 1 Falcon Park, Neasden Lane, NW10.

This is not accurate information as the truth is that I had got contacted by way of mobile phone by a client, and he asked me if I would hire a sound system out for a gentleman's, birthday party. After our conversation I agreed to do so and a sound system and a van got hired out to that person and then later collected from outside of my home address.

My terms and conditions got signed, and a deposit got given to me, by the client.

Once the client left me, I continued with my day and then went back to my home.
When at my home, I ended up receiving a phone call at 1:00 hours in the morning by the same client who said that the police were in attendance, and they were seizing the sound system. I remember getting up from what I had prior gotten occupied with and leaving my home address at around 1am hours, so to attend to the private party location, which took place indoors.
Then soon after I arrived at the client's destination, at around the time of; 2:00 hours, I would claim that I took one hour and ten minutes to attend to, as I drove outside of the address that I had to be at so to park my car I can remember there being lots of different members of the police who were already present. When I approached to the address front door on my two feet, to which address I got given by the client, the police were there blocking any persons entrance, so I spoke to the police officers and explained to them by circumstances, this meant that I showed them a copy of the higher invoice and a copy of my terms and conditions of hire, I got allowed entry by the police officers who were present to pack the sound system away and once I finished doing this, I asked to get released with the equipment, it then got explained that the equipment was to get confiscated.
After a lengthy, debate, I had no option but to allow the police officers to seize the equipment, I got allowed to collect the sound system from the police at a later date, without being arrested or any charges being brought into motion. This meant; that I never returned the sound system to the same client ever again as he breached my terms and conditions and at no time did, I knowingly supply equipment for an illegal party. A few months' later this date got added to the Anti-Social Behavior Order against me, even low I caused no problems.

Once our conversation was finished, I knew that A police officer named Steven Elesmore who is the Asbo developer used his statement contained in a Crimit's and edited the intel and placed it inside of the Asbo folder.

End of conversation with the arresting police officer.

While at the Police Station getting Booked in: --

Once put in front of the custody officer so that I could get booked into the police station I asked him if he would document the following down.

1) Please take the police officers cloths and put them into forensics as my DNA will not be on them as I never done what I was getting accused of.

2) For a copy of the Police office seeing an FME / doctor.

3) For the police body cameras to get observed to prove that I never spat at any person or anything.

4) I asked if I could see a doctor about my medical injuries to which did happen.

I got put in a detention cell while I waited for members of the CID Force to put their paper work together.

I look after myself while I was in the police cell by asking the staff to contact my mother and allow me to speak with her also that of my solicitor, to which both legal rights of mine got completed without any issues.

I asked for food on two different occasions in my short time in detention, there was also no issues of concern revving food in the police station.

There was no bedding in the cell when I first entered it and I therefore asked for that to get rectified, this got achieved straight after I requested the bedding.

All of my detention in the cell I was on camera in the police cell.

Finally, the custody officer came up to me and told me that he was dropping the case against me but I could still not leave due to the fact that the Mental Health Doctors wanted to see me.

I asked him am I obliged to speak to them and explained to him that I had not acted with a Mental Illness throughout my detention in the police station in fact I had done the complete opposite and asked for food, drink, blanket, medical care, to speak to a solicitor, to speak to my mother, I managed to sleep for a while also.
The sergeant explained to me that it was not down to the police that the doctors wanted to speak with myself and I continued by explaining to him that it was also not down to anything that I had done while in custody or beforehand as well.
He pleaded with me to be in compliance to his official public servant's request in so many different words, by asked me to confirm to himself that I will do so, I explained to him that I did not want to speak to any doctors and did not see any reason to warrant such forced treatment but due to him having me detained in a police cell I did not feel like I did have any other choose in the matter.

Doctors came to cell door: --

Our conversation came to an end and as he moved his head away from the cell hatch, I noticed a few more people outside of my cell door, when taking a closer look, I can remember that in doing so I noticed quite a few of them from other prior occasions, as if in to mean who they were. The reason I remembered who they were easily is because on the 25/10/2018

Most of them came to my home on an un expected visit: --

What had happened on the 25/10/2018? --

What had happened is that the doctors from Silver Street Crisis Team had made a telephone call to my mother in the morning of the 25/10/2018
I never found this out until later in the evening as I had left my mobile phone turned off from the night before hand and also due to my mother having to go to another court case in Oxford on the same Morning.
While indoor I received a knock on my front door when I went to see who it was, I heard a reply of it is the doctors we want to speak to you about your mental health, I was quite shocked for the doctors to be at my front door again after all that had happened as of so far between me and them self's.
Because I never knew they were coming I never rushed and tydeid up my flat when first waking up and on stead had started work on my computer.
When speaking to the doctors with my home front door closed at first, I heard a man's voice say hello Simon we are the doctors and we want to do an assessment on your Mental Health under the Mental Health Act 1983.
I decided not to open my front door at first and to find out more to why they believed they had the rights to do yet again another assessment on me by speaking to them with the door keep shut.
They would not explain much to me and all preferred to walk away.
I waited for them to go out the door and tried to call my mother but her mobile phone was turned off.
After a few moments I decided to go outside and learn more to why they wanted to use the Mental Health Act against my wellbeing.
When outside of my block of flats I could see a few of the Mental Health team members sitting on a low built wall and the rest standing together all talking.
I approached them and asked why they keep attending my home address without any official person ever taking a statement of myself about what I claim about on stead of victimising me and then on doing the correct follow-up's.

The official public servants outside of my home said the normal reply to myself by this date and that was “we got referred to you”
I explained that some person must do the correct follow ups about what I claim about for once and then these fake claims against me might stop.
The doctors said to me that speaking outside in the road will not help, so I offered for them to come inside of my flat and do their assessment yet again against me.
The doctors accepted my offer and followed me into my flat.
Doctor Abiza Came into my front room of my flat
After the doctors left my home, I made a few telephone calls to understand who sent them and put an official complaint in about what had just happened.
I recorded the recordings of myself making an official complaint to the Mental Health Act’s Department at the Silver Street Department and this is the transcribes of them recordings: --
Back to the Date of the: 00/00/2018, “At the Police Station.”: --
Because of what happened to me the last time with Maggie Fuller who is an Amp Worker for the NHS Mental Health trust,
Dated the: 25/10/2018: --
I understood the situation that I was in with the public servants on the 25/10/2018, so, I started to show why I must not get detained and in other words “put my defense forward to the doctors.”: --
1) That I was not Mentally ill.
2) That my family and friends also did not think that I was Mentally unwell.
3) Why are they at my Police cell door to speak to me in the beginning!
4) That I noticed a few of them like Larry, who works for the Enfield Council, that came to my house to do another assessment against me on the Date of: 25/10/2018, just a few days beforehand and the reason given to me was because of another case of abuse of position and with a bios opinion and unlawful at that, due to another bogus and therefore malicious phone call made by my neighbors about my person.
5) That this was now the 300000000 days that the doctors had come to assess me under the Mental Health Act and on all other occasions that there was nothing wrong with myself.
8)
10)
While putting good reason that an assessment 2 must not get warranted as towards the grounds of the detention not being warranted, the police officer / Sargent allowed for this conversation to continue and opened my cell door and while we were taking.
The Doctors said that they needed a few minutes on their own to discuss with each other what was going on and not to long after he arrived back to my cell door and undone the cell hatch again but this time told me that I was getting sectioned under the Mental Health Act under an assessment 2.
I explained to them all present that I did not think that this was a fair assessment as I had not even been taken into a room with them or neither had they come into a room with me and that the conversation that we had just had with each other was just merely an introduction.
With this the doctors walked away and closed the hatch on the cell door.
Very soon after a normal ambulance arrive and two female officers who were both polite took me to the hospital named as Chaser Farm Hospital and then after brought me on to the Dorset wing.

Mr. Simon Cordell
My reasons for my opinions are: --
Mr. Cordell is known to psychiatric services but has not engaged with them in recent years.
Today he was arrested for spitting at a police officer after they were called about him harassing his neighbors.
He has a number of non- molestation orders
Against him, forbidding him from contacting them.
On examination Mr. Cordell displayed a range of affective and psychiatric symptoms.
He Spoke rapidly and was thought disordered with overinclusive and tangential speech.
He held a number of grandiose and delusional beliefs.
He told us that the police were conspiring with medics and the council to silence him as he had uncovered police corruption.
He said he was targeted by police as they were envies of his abilities.
He told us that his neighbors two floors above were controlling the neighbors below them and caused them to stamp on the floor and disturb Mr. Cordell.
He did not believe that he was Mental unwell and was adamant that he would not see a physiatrist.
He lacked insight into his presentation.
He was irritable and has assaulted police officers and harassed his neighbors in recent days.
He poses a risk to others; therefore, his behavior poses him a risk of retaliatory Symptoms.
This places his Health and safety at risk.
There is evidence that he has a Mental illness of a nature and degree which warrants assessment and treatment in hospital and without this there is a risk of harm to his health and safety and the safety of others.
My reasons for my opinions are: --
This man is hyper mental with flights of speech and ideation.
He has delusions that the police are targeting him are other residents in his block of flats.
He says people in the street are spitting at him because they believe he gave a woman herpes.

He is quite grandiose in his ideas about helping the world.
I got taken to the hospital "Dorset Wing"

Summary of assessment

Patient's name	Simon Cordell
Date of assessment	25/10/2018

1. Referral details and any other precipitating factors

He was arrested today for spitting at a police officer after they were called about him harassing his neighbours. He also has a number of non-molestation orders against him, forbidding him contacting them. It was also reported that he appeared to be thoughts disorder, held a number of grandiose and delusional beliefs. Said the police were conspiring with medics and the council to silence him as he had uncovered police corruption. He also said his neighbours two floors above were controlling the neighbour below them and caused them to stamp on the floor and disturb him.
police liaison requested a mental health act assessment, recent attempted mental health assessment but he refused to engage, a report went to court but they refused a warrant to complete an assessment.

2. Relevant social and medical history

Mr Cordell was a victim of sexual abuse as a child and attended SAFE under Dr Caplan for a long time. He was arrested for burglary as a young man and was remanded in custody in a young offender's institution for a prolonged period. During this period, he was discovered making preparation to kill himself by hanging.
It is recorded that he has used laughing gas and LSD.
He was arrested for organizing illegal raves It seems that he. may base his complaints for Police Harassment as he believes they have obstructed his ability to run this business. It is reported that he was made the subject of an ASBO, required to wear a tag and believed he could not go out at all for about a year. He was banned from visiting bams derelict buildings and factories and had a curfew. Medical: Mr Cordell suffers from Crohn's disease but does not eat properly to manage his symptoms and will not seek medical advice for this. In 2014 there were many deaths in the family from natural causes especially his grandmother to whom he was very close. He was assessed for admission in November 2104 but not detained.
During this period, he spent many hours in doors his mother kept smelling gas but no leak was detected despite repeated complaints. He felt very ill and spent some days in hospital.

Sometime later it was discovered the gas and carbonmonoxy meters were incorrectly installed and he was without heating or hot water for 6 weeks.
3. Record of interview with patient (Include where it was conducted who was present and use of police if required during process) Mental Health Act Assessment Wood Green Police Station, Dr s Hewitt and Dr P Keane.
section 2 application by Anthony manning. The patient seen in the police cell, he was arrested today as the police called to his flat re him breaking a harassment order, he assaulted the police who attended, and spat at them. on interview he had pressure of speech, delusions about his neighbours and the police and housing ganging up against him. He denied drug use. He does not feel he has a mental disorder, spoke about organising ST Ann's when he was admitted in the past, both doctors found him hypomanic, flight of speech, and grandiose. Said the police were conspiring with medics and the council to silence him as he had uncovered police corruption. He also said his neighbours two floors above were controlling the neighbours below them and caused them to stamp on the floor and disturb him. police liaison requested a mental health act assessment, recent attempted mental health assessment but he refused to engage, a report went to court but they refused a warrant to complete an assessment, he was also thought disordered, see medical recommendation for evidence. taking all the circumstances of the case into consideration including his human rights I made a section 2 application based on two medical recommendations. See medical recommendations for details.
4. Assessment of risk to patient and/or to others
Mr. Cordell seems to have a history of deteriorating behaviour and feelings of persecution and since 2014 after the deaths in his family and the carbon monoxide poisoning. He has been taping everything and has Closed circuit TV outside his flat. It is reported that he believes the TV is talking about him. He has been depressed in the past and attempted to take his own life. He seems to have some very grandiose plans to run Raves but no evidence that he has any funds for it. this is a long running issue that has not changed since his admission in 2016. given his presentation today he would be a risk to other if not assessed under the mental health act and then treated.

Summary of assessment
Patient's name	Simon Cordell
Date of assessment	25/10/2018
5. Consultation with Nearest Relative and process of identifying the Nearest Relative Lorraine Cordell his mother is one of the few people he still trusts to support him. He has become dependent on her to do his grocery shopping or care for his dog. He has no regular partner or child over 18 years. I deem his mother to be Nearest Relative, she believes there has been a difference in him since he suffered carbon monoxide poisoning in 2014. she sees no change in him but does feel he needs mental health assistance and treatment, she does feel he got detained under false pretense as we deemed him to be delusional in his thoughts about the police and his neighbours, she does feel he suffers from depression and does need treatment for this.

6. Consultation with Assessing Doctors
Both Doctors were of the opinion that he had pressure of speech and that his thought processes are delusional. they do not feel he can be treated in the community.
7. Views of others consulted
8. Mental Capacity Act 2005
Mr. Cordell seemed to want to demonstrate his innocence and evidence that he was being unreasonably harassed. He had no concept that his behaviour would be seen as unacceptable and was in fact putting his tenancy at risk. He does not accept that his presentation may be the result of a mental disorder and that he needs an assessment of his mental state and treatment for this, so he could not agree to an informal admission. I deemed him to lack capacity to make this decision today.
9. Reason for decision to make the application (including choice of Section)
Mr. Cordell seems to have a history of deteriorating behaviour and feelings of persecution and since 2014 after the deaths in his family and the carbon monoxide poisoning. He has been taping everything and has Closed circuit TV outside his flat. It is reported that he believes the TV is talking about him. He has been depressed in the past and attempted to take his own life. He seems to have some very grandiose plans to run Raves but no evidence that he has any funds for it. this is a long running issue that has not changed since his admission in 2016. given his presentation today he would be a risk to other if not assessed under the mental health act and then treated. section 2 allows a period of assessment and or treatment for his mental disorder so this was the appropriate section to make today.

and delusional beliefs. He told us that the police were conspiring with medics and the council to silence him as he had uncovered police corruption. He said he was targeted by police as they were envious of his abilities. He told us that his neighbour two floors above were controlling the neighbour below them and caused them to stamp on the floor and disturb his Cordell. He did not believe that he was mentally unwell and was adamant he would not see a psychiatrist.
He lacked insight into his presentation. He was irritable and has assaulted police officers and harassed his neighbours in recent days. He poses a risk to others therefore. His behaviour places him at risk of retaliatory attacks from others and he will not accept treatment for his hypomanic symptoms. This places his health and safety at risk. There is evidence therefore that he has a mental illness of a nature and degree which warrants assessment and treatment in hospital and without this there is a risk of harm to his health and safety and the safety of others

Simon is a 37 years old gentleman well known to the services. Admitted on Dorset ward on Section 2 of the MHA. It was reported that he has not been engaging with the services in recent years. He was arrested today for spitting at a police officer after they were called about him harassing his neighbours. He also has a number of non-molestation orders against him, forbidding him contacting them. It was also reported that he appeared to be thoughts disorder, held a number of grandiose and delusional beliefs. He also said his neighbours two floors above were controlling the neighbour below them and caused them to stamp on the floor and disturb him. It was reported that he appeared to lack insight into his presentation as he did not believe he was mentally unwell and was adamant to see a psychiatrist for treatment.
He was bought to the ward by ambulance crew and police officers. On arrival he appeared fairly calm and was observed interacting very well with his peers on the ward. Later, he was observed talking on his mobile phone, suddenly he became very angry talking on loud tone of voice. Later, staff approach him to engage him into conversation, but he showed no interest and informed staff that he shouldn't be admitted in the hospital. Reassurance given. Settled down and had hot chocolate and some toast
He co-operates with the admission procedure.
He was welcomed to the ward and allocated a bed.
He was searched and no contraband found on him
He handed in Barclay's card and a lighter for safe keeping.
Hospital toiletries were given to him.
Disclaimer form signed
He was informed of No smoking policy in the hospital to which he acknowledges. He said he smoke occasionally. He was informed of other alternative nicotine replacement therapy but said he was not interested.

Dear Lorraine,
Please find attached Simon's medical assessment report. Please note that this works in our favour as it will allow us to possibly get rid of the Injunction Order completely.

Dear Sirs URGENT

Re: The London Borough of Enfield v Cordell
Claim number: E00ED049- Edmonton County Court

We write further to the Order made by District Judge Dias following the hearing on 26th June 2018.

Paragraph 1 of the order states the following: 'By 4pm on 10 July 2018 the Defendant shall undergo a mental capacity assessment by a Consultant Psychiatrist at an appointment to be arranged of which the Defendant shall be given at least 24 hours' notice and a report shall be prepared in relation to the Defendant's capacity to litigate and capacity to understand the meaning of the interim injunction dated 09 January 2018 and that report shall be filed at court and served on each party to the litigation'.

We confirm that the Defendant was assessed by Dr Dhinakaran, a psychiatrist consultant on 5th July 2018. A copy of her assessment report is attached to this email and it confirms that the Defendant lacks capacity to litigate/ understand the terms of the injunction order.

The Claimant was also directed to file a witness statement in response to this assessment if so advised by 10th July 2018. We confirm that the Claimant has no comments to make at this stage. We have asked the Defendant's solicitors to contact the Enfield Assessment Mental Health team and instruct them to release the Defendant's medical documents so the Claimant could consider them and make further comments. However we have had no confirmation from the Defendant's solicitors as to whether the Defendant has provided the relevant consent and we therefore reserve the right to make further submissions until these documents are received by the Claimant.

Yours faithfully,

Psychiatric Report On
Mr Simon Cordell
109 Burncroft Avenue
Enfield EN3 7JQ

1. Introduction

This report is prepared at the request of London Borough of Enfield, Antisocial Behaviour Team following directions from the Edmonton County Court to undertake an assessment on Mr Cordell. My instructions were received in a letter dated 5 July 2018 and outlined as below:

1. Whether the defendant has the mental capacity to litigate and give instructions in his defence.
2. Whether the defendant understands the terms of the injunction order dated 9 January 2018.

2. Details of current proceedings

The current proceedings relate to an interim injunction order issued against Mr Cordell, at the Edmonton County Court on 9 January 2018. This followed numerous complaints from neighbours about Mr Cordell's acts of harassment and antisocial behaviour. However it has been reported that Mr Cordell has continued to breach the order. It has been reported that a neighbour has been assaulted, harassed and has received threats from Mr Cordell. He has also made threats towards certain council employees. The local authority issued applications for committal due to Mr Cordell's breach of the injunction, however the applications could not be considered due to concerns about his mental capacity.

3. Sources of information

3.1 I was provided with the following information to aid in the assessment:

1. Claim form for an injunction with supporting documents
2. Order for an injunction dated 9.1.2018
3. Report of Angela Hague from the Enfield Assessment Team
4. Court order made by DJ Dias, Edmonton County Court at the hearing on 30.05.2018 and 26.6.2018.

Getting wrongly detained while Working on my report in the;
Chase Farm Mental Hospital on an Assessment Wing!
I woke up at around the time of 7:00am due to some staff opening the blinds on the bedroom door window to look inside and see what I was doing.
I Cleaned the shower in my room even low it did look clean.
I Made sure my bed was made and the rest of the room that I resided in was clean also.
There was no Doctor available to Assess me!
No Staff came up to me to talk about my detention or on ward care plan!

Social Circumstances Report for S.C Rio no 11214451 on Section 2 of the MHA 1983/2007

Date of birth:	26TH January 1981
Home address:	109 Burncroft Avenue, Enfield, Middlesex EN3 7JQ
Date of Admission:	26TH October 2018
Hospital/Ward:	Chase Farm Hospital, Dorset Ward
Care Coordinator:	Soobah Appadoo- Allocated August 2018
Report prepared by:	Soobah Appadoo
Sources of Information:	Electronic Documentation on Rio
Nearest Relative:	Ms Cordell (mother)
Date of this report:	7th November 2018

Who you are and in what capacity you know the patient, how long you have worked with them: My name is Soobah Appadoo? I am a CPN with the above-named team. I have been asked to compile this social circumstance report in support of above-named patient's Mental Health Review Tribunal (MHRT) appeal against his detention under Section 2 of the Mental Health Act. Mr Cordell was admitted on section 2 on the 26th October 2018.
Mr Cordell was previously under the care of the Early Intervention Team for 3 years. The Early Intervention Team discharged him in June 2018 and at that point he was referred to our team. There is a suggestion on RIO notes that he did not engage well with that team.
I was allocated to Mr Cordell in August 2018.
We offered him an appointment at his flat on the 31st August 2018.
Mr Cordell rang our office the day before and spoke to me.
I informed him that I am his new Care Coordinator.
He said that he had been seen for "76 days by his CC" and there was "nothing wrong with me".
He said that the reason we want to see him is to "cover for missing signatures?".
He said he "will ruin anyone who come to my house" and he has "recording cameras and audios" to ruin us.
He said if you come to my house "I f...ing will scar you for life".

He used foul languages throughout this contact. He said that I "can take the f...ing referral and stick it up my a..e".
He said that he does not want to see us. I could not interrupt him: very verbally aggressive with pressure in speech". I did manage to say that we are a different team from Lucas House and we want him to have a fresh start- He said "I don't f...ing care"
Further to that the MDT advised that we should assess Mr Cordell in clinic due to the potential risks.
We then offered him an appointment on the 28th September which Mr Cordell did not attend.

66,

Barnet, Enfield and Haringey
Mental Health NHS Trust

NHS

My report is based on the information which I have extracted from RIO and my telephone conversation with Mr Cordell's mother.

Psychiatric history

On the 16th August 2016 Mr Cordell was admitted to CFH under Section 2 of the MHA. He was discharged on the 27th August 2016. According to RIO notes Mr Cordell "was arrested at his home address after his mother raised concerns about his mental state - he was allegedly verbally threatening towards his neighbour and (?) neighbour's children. Simon's mother called police who arrested him. He was seen by the FME at Wood Green police station, was then referred for MHA."
He appealed against his Section. The Mental Health Review Tribunal discharged him from Section 2 on the 26th August 2016.

Leading to current admission

As I stated above leading to this admission Mr Cordell did not attend appointments offered to him by our service. Subsequently due to the allegations made against him I was advised to attend a Safeguarding meeting for an alleged victim. In that meeting I was informed by the Council that Mr Cordell has a past and current history of physical and verbal aggression towards residents in the building. I was informed that the council has tried to work with Mr Cordell but to no avail. I was informed me that Mr Cordell was getting easily irritated even by the sound of a flushing toilet; this happened very recently and he threatened the resident concerned. The Council was of the opinion that these are signs of mental illness and suggested that BEH should proceed with a MHA. The Council argued that this is for the protection of others as well as Mr Cordell's own safety.
Subsequently the council sent us a copy of 'Anti-Social Behaviour, Tenancy concerns and breaches- pre-action letter' which contained a chronology of alleged incidents dating from 2016. These alleged incidents were in the meaning of an antisocial behaviour presentation.
On the 17th October Mr Cordell was discussed in our MDT meeting. A decision was made to conduct an MHA. An MHA was attempted on the 19th October. Mr Cordell did not cooperate and the assessment did not take place.
On the 23rd October an application for a warrant was made but was declined on the grounds "that there was insufficient recent evidence that he was being "kept under proper control" as he is living alone and "insufficient recent medical evidence that "he is unable to care for himself.

According to RIO, on the 25th October Mr Cordell was arrested for breaching a harassment order. It was alleged that he was aggressive towards the police and spat at them. He was assessed at the police station. On interview he had pressure of speech, delusions about his neighbours and the police and housing ganging up against him. He denied drug use. He said that does not have a mental disorder. The doctors who assessed Mr Cordell found him "hypomanic, with flight of speech, grandiose and thought disordered"

Forensic history

Nil known.

Risk History

According to the Risk Assessment on RIO notes Mr Cordell had expressed suicidal thoughts in the past. This was related to stress from court cases. The date is not stated in the Risk Assessment. Around that time, he said that he had researched ways of harming himself (poisoning, OD, hanging). He had said in the past that he tried to hang himself aged 16 when he was in a young offender's institute. He had said that he needed resuscitation. He tried to hang himself a second time after he was sentenced by a judge aged 20. He had said that he drank Nitrous Oxide in 2014 with intent to die.

According to his Risk Assessment he was regularly a victim or witness of his father's violent behaviour.

There are recent reports from the Council regarding alleged aggressive behaviours towards other residents. In June 2018 he was apparently involved in court case with the neighbours who he apparently threatened to harm.

Social circumstances

Personal History

Mr Cordell is single. He has a partner. He has no children. He was born in Enfield and did his schooling in Edmonton. Left school aged 16. He studied and worked in mechanics and road works, electrical and computers after he left school (mother's report)

Accommodation

Mr Cordell lives in a 1-bedroom flat on the ground floor. The flat has necessary amenities/facilities to allow independent living.

Employment

He is not currently in employment Finances

He claims ESA and needs to make an application for PIP

Views of family

I telephoned Ms Cordell on the 7th November 2018. Ms Cordell told me that neighbours have been "terrorising" his son since 2014 in particular a neighbour on the 2nd floor.
Ms Cordell told me that whilst her son is in hospital her nephew has been staying in the flat to look after the dog.
The nephew has reported that the occupier on the 2nd floor have been "banging" on the floor.
She said that the neighbour then realised that her son is not in the flat when they saw the nephew coming out of Mr Cordell's flat.
She told me that since the 26th October the "banging" has stopped.
She said that she has complained about the neighbour herself but thinks these situations are misinterpreted by the council and the mental health services and her son is then seen as the perpetrator and or being mentally unwell.
Ms Cordell stated that the sound proofing is lacking and the noise is real. Other neighbours have made allegations that Mr Cordell has been aggressive towards them. She said that there is no evidence of this; police have seen CCTV and found that her son had not left the flat at the time when these incidents were alleged to have happen. Ms Cordell gave another example in 2016 where it was alleged by a neighbour that her son had made threats to kill him. She said that the police initially charged her son with making threats to kill; after seeing video evidence they charged him with a 'Public Order Offence'. She said that around the time of this alleged incident her son was in his flat with some friends. Her son was not allowed to his flat and was bailed to her flat where he stayed until December 2016. She said that the CPS after seeing evidence dismissed the case a day before the trial. She said that the council has never taken the responsibility to look at evidences; the allegations made against her son (physical assault, letting his dog on the loose) have not been proven. She said that on the 9th August in court the Judge ordered Enfield Council to move her son to a 2-bedroom flat but the Council wants/plans to evict him instead. She said that the Council has no grounds to apply for her son's eviction.
She said that her son has a one-bedroom flat. She said that he does not want to live there. She said that he needs a 2-bedroom flat with the plan that his cousin could stay with him to provide emotional support. She said that her son has everything he needs in the flat. She told me that her son is very independent in activities of daily living; his personal care is extremely good; he cooks for himself, maintains the flat and takes responsibility for his bills. She told me that he has no financial difficulties/no debts.
She said that her son has a work history. In 2010 he was planning to set up a business in the entertainment industry. He has also built websites in relation to this. At present he is not in employment. He is in receipt of Employment Support Allowance but needs to make an application for Personal Independent Payment.
I asked her if she thinks her son has a mental illness; she told me that he suffers from stress and anxiety due to issues with the neighbours but does not think he has a mental illness. She said that the judged looked at evidence and did not grant a warrant in October 2018 for a mental health act to take place at her son's flat.
I asked Ms Cordell if she thinks her son could benefit from support from the community team. She said that he could do with some support but "we should stop labelling him as being delusional as he is not delusional".

Mental Health NHS Trust
After-Care Potentially Mr Cordell care/treatment would be delivered via the Care Programme Approach. I am the allocated Care Coordinator and he will have a responsible clinician in the community. My role would be first of all to build a relationship with Mr Cordell as I have only met him on 2 occasions. I will try to motivate him to engage with myself and the multidisciplinary team. As his Care Coordinator I will review Mr Cordell regularly independently and with the Community RC. We have a Team Clinical Psychologist and it would be vital for Mr Cordell to have some form of talking therapy. This is on the basis of the stress and anxiety that his mother states he suffers from. We have a Dual Diagnosis Worker in the team who could offer drug counselling if necessary. We have an organisation called 'Remploy' which is funded by the Local Authority. Potentially they could support Mr Cordell to find work. They meet regularly with clients whilst they are in work and also liaise with employers. I could support Mr Cordell in making an application for PIP. Alternatively, he could get that support from 'Enfield Well-Being Connect' The Mental Health Enablement Team could provide support in tenancy management as well as support to access education/training and work. Opinion and recommendations I have met Mr Cordell on two occasions only and I have not had the opportunity to assess him in the community. A rapport needs to be established with him. On the basis of recent events, history of risks to self and alleged risks towards others, and taking into account the views of the MDT on the ward I think that he would benefit from a longer stay in hospital. This is in-order for the MDT to assess him comprehensively to determine if he has a severe and enduring mental illness such as schizophrenia/psychosis. If it is determined that he has a severe mental illness then this should be treated accordingly whilst he is in hospital. Signed: Soobah Appadoo, CPN Dated: 07/11/2018 5

Dorset Ward Admission meeting CORDELL, Simon P (Mr)
Present: Dr Choudhury (CT1) Dr Bruce (FY2)

PC:
17 Oct - referred for MHA due to history of physical and verbal aggression towards his neighbours. EANLT MDT agreed that he is a risk to others and his behaviour could also put him at risk from others. Simon refused to engage with MHA. Application for 135(1) was made - Judge found insufficient evidence for 136. Forensic referral sent on 17/10
25 Oct - Simon was arrested as the police called to his flat re him breaking a harassment order and he assaulted the police who attended.
He was taken to Wood Green police station. Found to be him thought disordered, hypomanic with flight of speech and grandiose delusions. Detained under MHA.
Past Psychiatric Hx:

11. Disrupted childhood: CSE in pedophile ring, violent father, adolescence in care, under CAMHS
12. Self-reports (from Rio) to have tried to hang himself twice at the age of 16 when in a young offender's institution; He was moved to a high security hospital and kept in seclusion on a number of occasions.
13. Denies any contact with MHS between that point and 2014
14. March 2014 - Adjustment reaction "anxiety and suicidal thoughts over the last nine months in the context of having a pending court case" offered Sertraline 50mg OD
15. November 2014 - Simon's mother called the HTT. Paranoid psychosis - not deemed sanctionable under MHA
16. November 2015 - Simon's mother called the BEH HUB. Simon not eating, not sleeping, paranoid, saying people are talking about him or laughing at him, believes the government is advertising things about him, the TV is talking about him and talking directly to him. Smoking cannabis. Not sanctionable under MHA.
17. February 2016 Warrant 135 (1) - not sufficient evidence of mental illness.
18. August 2016 admitted under Section 2 of the MHA following custody at Wood Green station for threats to kill - section 2 reversed on appeal. Discharged on Olanzapine 5mg and followed up by EIS. Reports noncompliance on discharge. Discharged from EIS Dec 2016 due to non-engagement.
19. Tenancy breach pre action letter 15/10/18 from Enfield council- antisocial behaviour since 2016, 48 accounts of threatening and abusive behavior
20. July 2018 Psychiatric assessment by Dr Dinakaran "Mr. Cordell is currently suffering from symptoms of schizoaffective disorder and presents with florid psychotic symptoms"

Past Medical Hx: Crohn's noted on Rio. Has not attended GP since 2015 Current Medications: nil on SCR, NKDA
Interview with Patient
Simon feels he is in hospital because the police have "falsified" a report that led to him being kept on a curfew for years.
He proceeded to talk at length about circumstance that led him to be charged for handling of stolen goods and suspicion of burglary in 2013. He believes the case was handled poorly and is sure the police were conspiring against him. "The abuse of process by the civil service was unreasonable".

Following this he reports being placed on a 2-year injunction and a 5-year curfew. He feels this has led to a breakdown in a 13-year relationship he had. He also reports this affecting his company -a community interest company he started up. At one-point Simon also mentioned the police targeting him for holding large parties that he was adamant were not hosted by him.

Simon reports owning a couple of local festivals and talks about engaging with multiple charities helping children. He says he had to stop this as police were harassing him in front of the children. He alleges to own his own company, his own paper and has just bought his own book maker for 70000 pounds. He also reports having 180000 friends on Facebook due to all his free parties.
When asked about his neighbours Simon said he believes his neighbours have been making up complaints about him. “My neighbours are calling up the police after forging the paperwork." He feels that his neighbours have been attacking him and reports feeling anxious in his house. Simon says he “kept writing to the police saying please can you protect me”.
He does not think he is unwell and does not think he has a mental health problem. He admits he might be elevated but he believes this is a constructive state.
Simon reports not being compliant with any of his medication at any point.
He is refusing to take any medication during this admission.
“I’ve spent thousands of pounds showing you my brain, me being alert saves lives.”
Simon would like to appeal his section and feels that by keeping him in hospital we are breaching his rights. “Physical or mental suffering amount to torture”
Reports sleeping, eating and drinking well. Later suggested this may not be the case stating “In the night time when my neighbours are asleep that’s the best time for working”.
Personal Hx: Born at? Chase farm hospital (previous entry on Rio NMUH), normal delivery. Was bullied at school by a female pupil. “I have loads of qualifications. My management system is my qualification - motor trade, gas laying, paving lay, I understand the formation of companies, my English is at 92%”
Family Hx: Has one brother and sister - he is the oldest brother. Parents recently broke up. He sees his parents regularly. Denies any issues with his father. His grandmother had some psychotic problems/depression after his grandfather passed away. Rio notes report his maternal grandmother had BPAD/later changed to Schizophrenia, detained formally multiple times, responded well to Clozapine.
Social: Works from home currently. Does 9-10-hour shift building, his website. Previously has had multiple different jobs including working at a market and brick laying. Has a new baby on the way with Katy - due to get married soon? From Rio - “Enfield Council will be seeking possession of SC’s flat via the courts. Lemmy stated that in a recent court case the judge recommended that Enfield Council re-house SC on the proviso that he engages with the MH Team”
Forensic Hx:
Reports being linked to 500 cases but he has won every one. Says these are all linked to driving offences.
From Rio - 2015- 5y ASBO for organising illegal raves- not allowed to enter industrial or disused premises between 10pm and 7 am. Young Offender's Institution at the age of 16 after repeated driving offences (driving without a license). Taken into custody for threats to kill.
Substance Misuse Hx:
“Clean as anything”
“Occasionally have a puff of a cigarrete” Denies drinking any alcohol
Note on Rio previous LSD and cannabis use

MSE
Age: 37-year-old male, mixed origin, slim build. He was wearing casual and dirty clothes. The conversation was one sided with Simon keen to talk.
S: Pressured speech
M: Subjectively "fine, a bit elated". Objectively elated
T: Thought disordered, tangential thinking, grandiose, persecutory delusions
C: Oriented to TPP
I: Limited insight - does not want any medications, never thinks he has had a mental health disorder

Risk

To self - low
Denies any thoughts of self-harm or suicide. Previous reports of suicide attempt as teenager.
To others - moderate
Denies thoughts or plans to hurt others. Has clearly documented history of aggressive behaviour and currently elated.
From others - low/moderate at risk of reciprocal aggression

Physical examination:

Comfortable at rest
Nil abdo/chest/msk pain reported
HS I+11+0, pulse regular, CRT <3s
Chest chear, L=R, nil wheeze or cough
Abdomen SNT, bowel sound present
Neurology intact, normal power, normal gait
CN1-12 intact, PEARL
Obs last night BP 130/74, Temp.36.6, Sat 97% Res. 17, Pulse 86, BM. 6.0 Weight 78.4 Kg, Height 179.0cm - BMI 24.5 ECG: NSR 88bpm QTc 440ms

Impression:

Evidence of grandiose delusions and elated mood. In view of long-term symptoms this is most likely consistent with a schizoaffective disorder. Does not currently have capacity for treatment or admission.

Plan:

1. Formulation meeting on Monday 29/10
2. Review on Monday and /consider starting antipsychotics
3. Chase blood results
4. Upload ECG on Rio
5. PRN Lorazepam

10 NHS Getting wrongly detained: Daniel Dwomoh Nursing – "MEETING WITH LORRAINE CORDELL (MOTHER) AND ANDREW CORDELL (UNCLE) I had a meeting with Simon's mother and uncle. They demanded copies of the detention papers. They were disputing the reasons for detention and more importantly the phrase that Simon is "Grandiose". They were very angry talking over each other and cutting across each other. Lorraine said Simon has been harassed by is neighbours above him. He has reported many times to the authorities but no one is taking action but when the neighbours report of harassment about 15 police officers come to his flat. Lorraine said the Court has ordered Enfield Council to move him to a 2-bedroom accommodation where family members can stay with him. She confirmed that she will appeal against the detention. She was reminded of the formulation meeting on Monday 29th at 3pm. She indicated her willingness to attend."

MEETING WITH LORRAINE CORDELL (MOTHER) AND ANDREW CORDELL (UNCLE)
I had a meeting with Simon's mother and uncle. They demanded copies of the detention papers. They were disputing the reasons for detention and more importantly the phrase that Simon is "Grandiose". They were very angry talking over each other and cutting across each other.
Lorraine said Simon has been harassed by is neighbours above him. He has reported many times to the authorities but no one is taking action but when the neighbours report of harassment about 15 police officers come to his flat.
Lorraine said the Court has ordered Enfield Council to move him to a 2-bedroom accommodation where family members can stay with him.
She confirmed that she will appeal against the detention.
She was reminded of the formulation meeting on Monday 29th at 3pm. She indicated her willingness to attend

15 NHS Getting wrongly detained: Bhavni Shah Medical – This is the night nurse who spoke to me when I first got taken to the hospital after getting taken from wood green police station by abuse of process of the Mental Health system. Bhavni Shah Medical has no powers to release you from the hospital. For any person put under a section 2 of the mental health Act 1963 that has never had a Mental Health Diagnosis before, they are just getting assessed and do not need to accept any medication unless put under a section 3 of the mental health act with a diagnosis. Section 2 is a simulation of how the patient manages the practicalities of day-to-day life. If you arrive at the hospital at night time after getting detained under a section 2 of the mental health Act you will meet a night nurse and the nurse will asks you a load of questions and starts to twist what you are saying to her in a negative way within their notes that will get placed in your Rio file that is attached to your national insurance number. The reason that your remarks and twisted in such a way is so, that the doctors afterwards have some form of bad character text about you on file for them all to build upon. "Notes Inside."

Progress Notes

Duty Doctor (CT1)- New ward admission Patient seen at 10.30
MHA Status: Section 2
PC: Patient was arrested due to complaints received regarding harassment of neighbours. He was taken to Wood green police station, found to have a manic presentation with grandiose delusional ideas and was detained under MHA.
Background: Patient previously given diagnosis of unspecified non-organic psychosis. He has a long-standing MH background and has been under both CAMHS and adult services in the past.
Over the past few years, he has engaged poorly with services and is not currently on any medications.
More recently he has been reviewed by EIS/Enfield north locality team.
Simon was seen in the quiet room with nursing staff present.
Prior to entering the room, Simon started to ask a lot of questions and asked the nurses for a pen for 'the meeting'.
When nursing staff stated that he should wait till we get to the room to ask questions he responded 'she is in a male role so it's only fair that I speak to her in the same way'.
On arrival to the room, he remained calm and polite.
He started the conversation by asking for my name, which he wrote down on a paper.
He then stated he has been detained here illegally because they think he is grandiose.
He then went onto give me a timeline of events which were largely related to the police and his connection with mental health services.
In summary he holds paranoid ideas that the police have charged him 'in illegal ways' for an ASBO for organisation of illegal raves.
This has led to several on-going issues with the police who have involved mental health services and it is a conspiracy against him.
He states he wasn't assessed properly by doctors today and that the doctors who saw him today have previously tried to section him and 'failed' because he has 'video recordings' to prove he is innocent.
He referred to multiple acts and dates which apparently are being broken by keeping him here.
He states he has several businesses that the police have tried to stop, including 'owning festivals' and a newspaper called 'horrific corruption' and associated newsroom which he uses to expose police and doctors who are working in illegal ways.
He states he has 'been wronged 78 times by the police' and will 'expose all of the doctors and police' involved.
He spoke about being a 'privileged member of the community' and has never tried to hurt anyone.
He reports the police have framed him in a 'sex scandal' and caused multiple issues.

He described a negative relationship with neighbours and states that they bang from above continuously.
He states a previous partner was pregnant and the neighbours banging led to the baby being lost.
He denies having a MH illness and states he will get out of here once he has his laptop containing video graphic proof and was requesting a tribunal.
During the course of the conversation, he refused to acknowledge he has been sectioned and was adamant he would be able to leave but was not forceful or physically attempting to leave.
PMH: Nil
DH: Nil
NKDA
SH:
Denies drug or alcohol use (current or past)
Personal history:
Abuse as a child from father.
Mental State Examination:
Simon is a 37-year-old male, who was appropriately dressed.
He engaged in conversation and made eye contact throughout.
Calm and polite, no aggression but did become mildly restless at points.
Pressurised speech, difficult to interrupt.
Flight of ideas noted.
Described mood as good.
High levels of energy and labile mood.

Paranoid delusions about the police and MH services and some grandiose delusions noted.
No perceptual abnormalities noted.
Orientated to TPP
Lacks insight, does not believe he has a MH condition and not willing to engage with services historically or currently.
Unlikely to take medication willingly.
Risk:
No risk to self-identified.
Risk of physical and verbal aggression towards others noted. This in turn, increases risk of others retaliating, therefore harm towards Simon.
Impression:
Simon is a 37-year-old who has a background of a psychotic disorder.
He presents with a deterioration in his mental state, with manic and psychotic symptoms.

Getting wrongly detained while Working on my report in the;

Chase Farm Mental Hospital on an Assessment Wing!

The Mandatory 72 Hour Assessment: --

Dr Greenside arrived at Chase side Hospital today for the first time since I arrived as a detainee

and others such as my so-called care coordinator who is named as: --

A member of the Mental health team Early Prevention Team form silver Street Enfield: Mr. Soobah Appadoo

Dorset Hospital Wing Nurse Named: -- Daisy

A St4 Doctor Named: -- Bruce

My Mother: -- Miss Mother

My Uncial: -- Mr. Andrew Cordell

Myself: Mr. Simon Cordell

When in the meeting the conversation did become slightly high rate from both parties involved.

The reasons to why I am getting detained I know to be Illegal and wrong and are a breach of My Human Rights.

I getting wrongfully held against my free will and without any fair evidence of any form of a mental Health issue.

The final decision; --

xxxx

There is a Bad leak running all across the main floor in the communal room coming from the water machine.

Broken TV

24. EANLT MDT agreed that he is a risk to others and his behaviour could also put him at risk from others.
25. Simon refused to engage with MHA.
26. Application for 135(1) was made - Judge found insufficient evidence for 136. Forensic referral sent on 17/10
27. 25 Oct - Simon was arrested as the police called to his flat re him breaking a harassment order and he assaulted the police who attended.
28. He was taken to Wood Green police station.
29. Found to be him thought disordered, hypomanic with flight of speech and grandiose delusions.
30. Detained under MHA.

Past Psychiatric Hx:

31. Disrupted childhood, CSE in pedophile ring, violent father, adolescence in care, under CAMHS
32. Self-reports to have tried to hang himself twice at the age of 16 when in a young offender's institution;
33. He was moved to a high security hospital and kept in seclusion on a number of occasions.
34. Denies any contact with MHS between that point and 2014
35. March 2014 - Adjustment reaction "anxiety and suicidal thoughts over the last nine months in the context of having a pending court case" offered Sertraline 50mg OD
36. November 2014 - Simon's mother called the HTT. Paranoid psychosis - not deemed sanctionable under MHA
37. November 2015 - Simon's mother called the BEH HUB. Simon not eating, not sleeping, paranoid, saying people are talking about him or laughing at him, believes the government is advertising things about him, the TV is talking about him and talking directly to him. Smoking cannabis. Not sanctionable under MHA.
    - February 2016 Warrant 135 (1) - not sufficient evidence of mental illness.
38. August 2016 admitted under Section 2 of the MHA following custody at Wood Green station for threats to kill - section 2 reversed on appeal.

40. Reports noncompliance on discharge.
41. Discharged from EIS Dec 2016 due to non-engagement.
42. Tenancy breach pre action letter 15/10/18 from Enfield council- antisocial behaviour since 2016, 48 accounts of threatening and abusive behavior
43. July 2018 Psychiatric assessment by Dr Dinakaran "Mr. Cordell is currently suffering from symptoms of schizoaffective disorder and presents with florid psychotic symptoms"

Past Medical Hx: Crohn's noted on Rio.
Has not attended GP since 2015
Current Medications: nil
Physical examination: NAD ECG: NSR 88bpm QTc 440ms
Blood tests: WCC 14.3, Neut 10.1, CRP 13 (BG Crohn's) UPS: THC positive

Care coordinator:
This is only the second time meeting Simon.

There have been issues with reports he is assaulting other residents in his council accommodation.

Nursing report: Appears paranoid on the ward.

Interview with patient:

Simon appears very agitated and vocal and is keen to put across his opinion that he has been illegally detained.

21. Simon reports issues with police actions in regard to not giving him the ASBO folder properly - this was left outside instead of giving it to him directly.
22. Simon continued to explain other problems with the police's treatment of him.
23. This includes the metropolitan police having placed a photo of Simon in a folder in regard to a party he had no involvement with.
24. He denies being involved in any of the parties mentioned in the ASBO.
25. Simon spoke at length about the injustices surrounding his placement on curfew and the ASBO order.
26. He describes how on multiple times doctors have tried to assess him under the MHA and he has explained to them at each time the situation with the police.
27. He was once placed under a section 2 and was able to appeal his section.
28. Simon reports the neighbours (11 floors up) trying to deliberately disturb him by making a lot of noise and flushing the toilet multiple times.
29. He feels they want him to get distressed and go upstairs to address them.
30. They have been doing this over the last 4 years and are doing this throughout the day.
31. From Simons flat you can even hear them talking - there is apparently very poor sound proofing.
32. Simon has described a council official as having forged statements and falsely accusing him of threatening his life.
33. Simon reports that he is being assaulted by his neighbours as is his partner's small child.
34. He feels the stress from this situation may have been linked to his partner's miscarriage. Simon denies any acts of antisocial behaviour, even in retaliation.
35. At every point where he approaches the upstairs neighbours, he states he calls the police to ask then to "protect" him.
36. In regard to the recent arrest, he reports the police attended due to a fraudulent call from the neighbours.
37. The police tried to hand him a breach of harassment order which Simon ripped and spat on the paper.
38. The police officer then yelled that he had spat on her.
39. He was then arrested for assault to a police officer.
40. This charge was dropped in the police station and he was referred for an MHA.

Simon is currently on benefits.

He reports the expensive hardware he owns (e.g., 70000-pound bookmaker) he buys broken and second hand cheaply and fixes them.

Simon works from home.

He built a new model constitution – a community interest company which was a charity farm.

Collateral information:

His mother and uncle would like MHS to stop referring to Simon reporting the police as being prejudice against him as delusional - they believe this can be proved (showing photos of his company truck and hardware).

Simon's mother is very upset that doctors have submitted reports stating that he is delusional and grandiose.
They feel the AMHP report is grossly inaccurate.
Simon's uncle is also upset that the MH team would not provide Simon with a letter to assist with his housing situation.
They explain that the reason Simon has not be prosecuted for the complaints made by the neighbours is because each time Simon is able to "prove his innocence" directly to the police.
Simon's mother believes he is very stressed due to the conditions of the ASBO and his neighbours disturbing him.
His uncle would like us to check the website that Simon has set up to highlight the injustices against him "horrificcorruption.com". (Other websites mentioned by Simon include the Way back machine and too smooth)

He said he did not need to do anything as his family had brought him in what he needed." Si Note; "There was a Therapy section on the ward, I was working on my computer inside on the room they had given me to reside withinside off. I was building my defense paperwork for my tribunal up and coming when the time had arrived for me to be able to attend the therapy section so, I decided to show my respects by passing into the room and saying a quick hello and my reasons for my absinth. When I walked into the room, I could see a lot of patients sitting around a table eating cakes and I was othered by the team leader to join them. I explained my dues and politely left in plan of a better future."

Mr Cordell is known to psychiatric services but has not engaged with them in recent years. Today he was arrested for spitting at a police officer after they were called about him harassing his neighbours. He has a number of non-molestation orders against him, forbidding him from contacting them. On examination Mr Cordell displayed a range of affective and psychotic symptoms. He spoke rapidly and was thought disordered with overinclusive and tensential speech. He held a number of grandiose and delusional beliefs? He told us that the police were conspiring? with medics and the council to silence him as he had uncovered police corruption?. He said he was targeted by police as they were envious of his abilities. He told us that his neighbour two floors above were controlling the neighbour below? them and caused them to stamp on the floor and disturb us Cordell?. He did not believe that he was mentally unwell and was adamant he would not see a psychiatrist.

He lacked insight into his presentation. He was irritable and has assaulted police officers and harassed his neighbours in recent days?. He poses a risk to others therefore? His behaviour places him at risk of retaliatory attacks from others and he will not accept treatment for his hypomanic symptoms?. This places his health and safety at risk? There is evidence therefore that he has a mental illness of a nature and degree which warrants assessment and treatment in hospital? and without this there is a risk of harm to his health and safety and the safety of others?

Getting wrongly detained while Working on my report in the;
Chase Farm Mental Hospital on an Assessment Wing!
TIME 14:00 Hours
Getting Wrongfully held in Chase Farm Hospital Under a section two of the mental Health Act 1983
Today I asked doctor DR Bruce if I could have ward leave as I wanted to o the cantina on the wing but I got told that I am not allowed to as doctor green ide did not want me to Father came to visit me in the day time.
Mother also came to visit me a bit latter for a little while so that she could get my credit card of me so that she goes to the cash point to get some money out of the bank for me, while I got detained on the ward without any leave after the first meeting with Dr Greenside
The Hospital wing stayed quite peace full through most of the day.
There is a Bad leak running all across the main floor in the communal room coming from the water machine.

Getting wrongly detained while Working on my report in the;

Chase Farm Mental Hospital on an Assessment Wing!
At 11:30 Hours I spoke to a lady called Dr Bruise and I asked her if I could speak to a Dr Green side about getting some trust to be able to leaver the ward, when doing so she agreed to look into the issue for myself.
Soon afterwards I was alone in room 24 on the Dorset Ward when Dr Greenside knocked on the door, I then on answered the door to get invited into a meeting
There were two other doctor presents in the room alongside with Dr greenside himself.
The conversation stayed polite and reasonable through
When taking an understanding to what was getting explained to me, I took the understanding that the doctors still wanted to further assess me, due to having a professional belief that I may have some form of mental health issue to which I know that I did explain
Soon after the meeting with the doctors I received a telephone call of my mother who started to explain to me that she had also received a telephone call of my chosen representing solicitor firm.

Waiting for board room meeting civic center for my housing transfer.

There is a Bad leak running all across the main floor in the communal room coming from the water machine.

Dorset Ward
Admission meeting
CORDELL, Simon P (Mr)
Present: Dr Greensides (consultant), Dr Elia (ST6) Dr Bruce (FY2) MHA: Section 2
Interview with Patient
Simon confirms his problems began in 2013.
He moved into his premises in 2013 - there was evidence of CO poisoning in the flat and all the boiler systems and alarms had to be replaced.
Simon has been held on curfew for a long time for organising a party and? wrongly accused of damaging the premises. Also was accused of burglary and handling of stolen goods - he was found innocent on both accounts.
Simon reports having had a "relationship" with his current partner Katy for the last ?20 years. She has a son from a previous relationship.
The problems with the neighbours have been going on for 4 years now. Simon is concerned about his neighbours, in particular to how their behaviour might affect their child. 6 flats in total in his council building - the neighbours that are problematic are 2 floors above Simons. These particular neighbours bang on the water pipes, stamps on the floor (these echoes through the flat between) - this happens first thing in the morning and goes on through the day.
Simon believes his neighbours sit in their flat eavesdropping on Simon's whereabouts. When he enters the bathroom, they enter their bathroom and flush the toilet a lot. Simon has Video and Audio recordings throughout his flat in order to prove his innocence. There is a husband and wife living there as well as a new born baby. Simon reports he can here this family talking but he can't make out what they are saying - he denies them saying anything negative about him "they've never spoke to me".
Simon has personal information about his neighbour which he feels is proof of? tax evasion - he reports the family own 50 houses in the UK. The neighbour has changed their surname in order to accommodate some scheme to avoid? tax - Simon reports he has "100% evidence" that this is true and feels it is relevant to him because of how they are treating him. Simon believes what the neighbours are doing is a hate crime.
Simon denies ever having felt like the TV was talking to him or that the council was advertising his information. Simon does feel his personal information is being advertised somehow - friends have approached him and have information about him he believes can only have come from secure computer systems.
Simon is not concerned about his tenancy at the moment - he states he has recordings that prove his innocence. Simon is aware the council has told him to stay away from his neighbours - since this time he states he hasn't approached his neighbours. He wants to publish a book about what has been going on. Simon does not appear to accept that he has become fixated on this issue.
Simon does not think his problems with his neighbours are in any way due to him having a mental health problem. Simon wouldn't like to take medication as he doesn't feel he needs it and is concerned medication may impact his ability work. He is particularly concerned that the medication will "dope him out".
Simon states he has a good family support network. He is happy to see the ward psychologist. Simon has been informed that a referral to a forensic psychiatrist who may want to visit him on the ward.

Impression:
Presenting with persecutory delusions. Limited insight. Not currently deemed to be a risk to himself or others. Could be at risk of losing accommodation if continues untreated.
Plan:
For Section 17 leave
3. No medication at present
4. Refer to ward Psychologist - Dr Patkas

Getting wrongly detained while Working on my report in the;
Chase Farm Mental Hospital on an Assessment Wing
Today I took unattended leave from the hospital wing after doctor Greenside agreed for it to be O.K.
I left the wing at the time of 04:40 Hours and returned at the time of 04:10
The day was quiet and I continued to work on my own studies
In the evening time a Nurse came to my room that I have got detained in and explained to me that I am to get moved onto another wing below mine to which is a treatment wing that is named as Sussex Wing
I explained that I did not think that this was a fair or reasonable request from the staff to ask of me due to the fact that doctor Greenside had not diagnosed me with any Mental Health issues as of that time then.
Because of what I got told I decided the best form of action was to make a phone call to my mother
While on the phone to her I explained what the nurse had just said to me.
She was very surprised of what I had just said to her
I again latter decided to ask for leave and this got granted to me without any issues arising.
There is a Bad leak running all across the main floor in the communal room coming from the water machine.

Mental Health Tribunal Report
Date:01/11/18 Patient details
Mr Simon Cordell (11214451)
Date of birth: 26 Jan 1981
Address: 109 Burncroft Avenue, Enfield Post Code: EN3 7JQ
Circumstances of admission and background
Mr Cordell is a 37 years old man with previous diagnosis of F29X - Unspecified nonorganic psychosis. He has been known to CAMHS service in the past and to Adult Mental Health Services since 2014. However, he has not been engaging with the services in recent years despite numerous attempts from mental health teams.
Mr Cordell become significantly unwell in mental health in 2014. He deteriorated significantly in mental state but he refused engage with mental health service and declined to take medication. Consequently, he had to be detained under Section 2 of MHA in 2016. He was treated with medication (Olanzapine) during the admission but soon after discharge he stopped taking his medication. He continued to be seen by Early Intervention service following a discharge but he continued to refuse any treatment for his condition. This led to further deterioration in mental health. When Mr Cordell is unwell, he presents with persecutory delusions about his neighbours, council staff and the police. As a result of paranoid beliefs, he becomes more aggressive and threatening especially towards neighbours. From 2016 to January 2018 there were numerous complaints from neighbours reported about Nr Cordell's acts of harassment and antisocial behaviour. This led to an interim injunction order (harassment order) to be issued against Mr Cordell, at the Edmonton County Court, in January 2018. Mr Cordell breached the order on multiple occasions. It has been reported that his neighbours have been assaulted, harassed and have received threats from Mr Cordell. In addition, Mr Cordell disengaged with EIS.

In April 2018 further deterioration in mental health was observed when he contacted the police and complained about the neighbours making noise. EIS team was contacted and they offered to review Mr Cordell but he refused to work with them again.
On the 1st of June he was arrested for harassing his neighbours and breaching the injunction order against him. He threatened his neighbour who was at the time with her two children that he will kill her and her children " You fucking bitch, I have a bomb for you, I will get in your block, kill you and your children At that point, EIS stated that he has gone beyond EIS three year treatment period and therefore they referred his case to Enfield North Locality Team in June 2018. During the period of next few months (from June 2018 until October 2018 - they were reported numerous accounts of harassment and assaults to his council on his neighbour) Mr Cordell has continued to harass his neighbours and has refused to engage with mental health services. Few neighbours already moved out from their flats due to Mr Cordell's aggressive behaviour and Enfield Council decided to seek possession of Mr Cordell's flat via the courts. In a recent court case, the judge recommended that Enfield Council re-house Mr Cordell on the proviso that he engages with the MH Team. However, he failed to do that.

In October 2018, Mr Cordell was physically aggressive towards another service user who lives in the same building as him. Mr Cordell took him by the throat and left him feeling unable to walk around on the floor or even flush his toilet chain for fear of sparking another altercation (with no basis) about excessive noise.
This triggered a safeguarding process and Enfield Adult North Locality Team decided to organise MHA assessment as Mr Cordell refused to engage with them.
Consequently, he was referred for MHA assessment on the 17th of October 2018. Enfield Adult North Locality Team agreed that he is at risk to others and his behaviour could also put him at risk from others. Application for 135(1) was made however a judge found insufficient evidence presented for a warrant. He was referred to a forensic sector following this event.
On the 25th of October he was arrested as the police were called to his flat regarding him breaking a harassment order and that day, he allegedly assaulted the police who attended by spitting. Consequently, he was taken to Wood Green police station. He was found to be thought disordered with grandiose and persecutory delusions, hypomanic with flight of ideas and pressured speech. Therefore, MHA assessment was organised. He was detained under section 2 of MHA and admitted to Dorset ward, Chase Farm Hospital on the 25th of October 2018.
Mr Cordell explained that the police were conspiring with medics and the council to silence him as he had uncovered police corruption. He also said his neighbours two floors above were controlling the neighbour below them and caused them to stamp on the floor and disturb him. It was reported that he appeared to lack insight into his presentation as he did not believe he was mentally unwell and was adamant to see a psychiatrist for treatment.

Mental state examination on admission

Mr Cordell is 37-year-old male, mixed origin, slim build. He was wearing casual and dirty clothes. He engaged in conversation and made eye contact throughout. He was calm and polite during the interview; no aggression was observed but did become mildly restless at points. The conversation was one sided with Mr Cordell keen to talk. He presented with pressured speech and flight of ideas. Mood, subjectively he described as "fine, a bit elated", objectively he was elated. Thoughts: He presented thought disordered with tangential thinking, grandiose and persecutory delusions. He was oriented to time, place and person. He presented with poor insight - does not want any medications, he does not believe that has a mental health disorder.

Risk

To self - high

Immediate risk to self is low as he denies any thoughts of self-harm or suicide. There are previous reports of suicide attempt as teenager. However, he is at high risk of being evicted from his property at present due to deterioration in his mental state and behaviour and his mental and physical health could be significantly affected if he becomes homeless.

To others - high

He denies thoughts or plans to hurt others. He has clearly documented history of aggressive behaviour and currently elated.

From others - high, as he can be aggressive towards others, he is at risk of retaliation from others.

Risk of physical and verbal aggression towards others noted. This in turn, increases risk of others retaliating, therefore harm towards Mr Cordell.

Past psychiatric history:

Mr Cordell reportedly had disrupted childhood spending some adolescence in care. He was under CAMHS due to anxiety as a teenager.

Mr Cordell tried to hang himself at the age of 16 when in a young offender's institution; he says he lost consciousness and needed to be resuscitated. He was moved to a high security hospital and kept in seclusion on a number of occasions, but he says he would destroy the padded cell with his teeth. He says he was seen regularly by a psychiatrist called Dr Caplin from "the safe project".

Mr Cordell says there was a second occasion where he tried to hang himself when in a cell after he was sentenced.

Mr Cordell denies any contact with Mental Health Services between that point and 2014.

In March 2014 - He was diagnosed with Adjustment reaction "anxiety and suicidal thoughts over the last nine months in the context of having a pending court case (accused of burglary). He was offered Sertraline 50mg OD.

In November 2014 - Mr Cordell was under Home Treatment Team. He was diagnosed with Psychotic episode - not deemed sanctionable under MHA. Following this episode, he disengaged with mental health service.

In November 2015 - He was referred via BEH HUB to mental health services. At that time Mr Cordell was not eating, not sleeping, he was paranoid saying people were talking about him or laughing at him, believed the government was advertising things about him, the TV was talking about him and talking directly to him. He was smoking cannabis at that time. He was again found non sanctionable under MHA and disengaged with the service.

In February 2016 it was applied for Warrant 135 (1) - but not sufficient evidence was presented to the judge for a warrant.

In August 2016, he was admitted under Section 2 of the MHA following custody at Wood Green station for threats to kill - section 2 reversed on appeal. He was discharged on Olanzapine 5mg and followed up by EIS. It was reported poor compliance with medication on discharge. Consequently, he was discharged from EIS due to disengagement.

Personal/family history- information taken from previous assessments/reports

Mr Cordell was born at Chase Farm Hospital. He has a younger brother and sister. Mr Cordell says he knows his maternal grandmother attempted suicide on a number of occasions and had had admissions to mental hospital. Mr Cordell's father worked as a union representative and his mother ran her own computer company. His parents recently divorced. Mr Cordell says he did not get on well with his father who was a violent man. He was violent towards Mr Cordell, Mr Cordell's mother and siblings. Mr Cordell left home at the age of fifteen and was homeless for a while. He was placed in to care after stealing a pint of milk. He was placed in a series of children's care homes around the UK, but says that each time he would steal a car and drive back to London.

Mr Cordell said he was pushed hard to achieve at school by his father and that he was "an A-star student" for most of the time. He says he was intelligent and would do the work at other times and as a result would often just "mess about" in class. He went on to college and studied engine mechanics, completing a city & guilds qualification. After leaving school he went on to get jobs in the construction industry.

Mr Cordell says he has tried to build himself up a business for providing party entertainment. At the moment he says he is not able to earn from this due to the restrictions of his bail.

Mr Cordell has had two long term relationships. First relationship lasted for thirteen years. Mr Cordell thinks they broke up due to the repeated involvement of the police in their lives and the stress this has caused. He is currently in a relationship with Katy and he said that they were expecting a baby.

Mr Cordell says he does not smoke tobacco and does not drink alcohol.

Grandmother (? maternal) had BPAD and/or schizophrenia.

Social history:

Mr Cordell works from home currently. He says that he does 9-10-hour shifts building his website. Previously he has had multiple different jobs including working at a market and brick laying. He has a new baby on the way with Katy - due to get married soon. From Rio - "Enfield Council will be seeking possession of Mr Cordell’s flat via the courts. In a recent court case, the judge recommended that Enfield Council re-house Mr Cordell on the proviso that he engages with the MH Team. He failed to fulfil the requirement.

Drug and alcohol history- information taken from previous assessments/reports

He reported being "Clean as anything, occasionally have a puff of a cigarette”. He denies drinking any alcohol. However, UDS was positive for cannabis on admission.

Note on Rio previous LSD and cannabis use.

Forensic history -information taken from previous assessments/reports

He reported being linked to 500 cases but he has won every one. He says these are all linked to driving offences.

From Rio - 2015- 5y ASBO for organising illegal raves- not allowed to enter industrial or disused premises between 10pm and 7 am. Young Offender's Institution at the age of 16 after repeated driving offences (driving without a license). Taken into custody for threats to kill.
August 2017 an injunction order was issued though this was discharged by the court in November 2017 due to a procedural error
On the 9th of January 2018 an injunction order was issued against him due to verbal and physical abuse towards his neighbours and council employees and antisocial behaviour. He breached the injunction order on multiple occasions. This was discharged in July 2018, following a forensic psychiatry assessment which deemed him to lack capacity to understand the conditions of the injunction (as a result of a psychotic illness).
Enfield council report was issued recently regarding tenancy concerns and breaches: The report says the following:
We have received several complaints of anti-social behaviour against you and going back to 2016 for which you have been warned numerous times, verbally and formally in writing. Please see below a list of reports made against you:

52. Sometimes in September 2016 it is alleged that you confronted an elderly neighbour outside your block of flats, 109-119 Burncroft Avenue as he was going to the local park with another resident and started to shout abuse and He was arrested on the 1st of June due to breaching the injunction order. threats at him and said to him 'I can get you over at the park, I know you go for a walk'.

53. On 27th September 2016, it is alleged that you confronted one of your neighbours as he was returned to his flat with his family and threatened and swore at him and demanded money from him. It is also alleged that you later banged on his door, shouted further abuse and swearwords at him and accused him of making noises inside his flat.

54. On 28th September 2016, it is alleged that you aggressively banged on a neighbour's door and threatened and shouted verbal abuse and swear words at them. It is also alleged that you aggressively demanded money from him.

55. On 4th October 2016, it is alleged that you aggressively banged on your ceiling and accused one of your neighbours of making noises, you then went to your neighbour's flat and started kicking and banging on his front door aggressively, accused him of banging on the floor and was swearing and shouting abuse at him. It is also alleged that you later went downstairs, dragged your neighbour's motorbike from where it was parked and started to hit it with a piece of wood.

56. On 22nd November 2016 during a telephone conversation between you, Mrs Cordell your mother and Ms Sarah Fletcher, neighbourhood officer, Ms Fletcher reported that she overheard you threatened her by saying 'I'm goanna do her over' and then 'I'm goanna take her job just for fun'.

57. On 8th December 2016, it is alleged that you aggressively banged on one of your neighbours' front door, shouted abuse and threats and accused him of making noise.

58. On 11th December 2016, it is alleged that you aggressively banged on your neighbour's door several times and accused them of banging on pipes. It is also alleged that you shouted abuse and threats at them.

59. On 14th December 2016, it is alleged that you were verbally abusive towards a woman who was visiting one of your neighbours as she knocked on your neighbour's door.

60. On 23rd December 2016, it is alleged that you banged on a neighbour's front door, shouted abuse at them and asked them to turn their tap off. You then removed their electricity fuse thereby cutting off their power supply.

61. 0n 26th December 2016, it is alleged that you ran up the communal stairs to the first floor and confronted one of your neighbours as he was going out with his family and started to shout abuse and threats at him and his wife and accused him of tampering with your water supply, you also attempted to stop him from leaving the block.

62. On 3rd January 2017, it is alleged that you confronted one of your neighbours as he returned to the block with his wife and two-year-old daughter and started shouting abuse and threats at them.

64. On 31st January 2017, it is alleged that you aggressively banged on your neighbor's door, shouted abuse and threats at them and accused them of banging on the floor.

65. We received a report that on 7th February 2017 you approached the leaseholder of 117 Burncroft Avenue and his plumber outside the block as they were attempting to resolve the problem causing low water pressure in the flat. You said to the leaseholder that there were problems between you and his tenants but did not give any specific details. The leaseholder explained to you that his tenants were experiencing low water pressure in the flat and you said to him 'you will not solve the problem as I am restricting their water supply'. The leaseholder later knocked on your door and asked whether you would increase the water pressure and you stated 'I cannot do anything at the moment, I will sort it out later'.

66. On 24th February 2017 Sarah Fletcher (Neighbourhood Officer) and Steve Stirk (Maintenance Surveyor) attended your property at flat 109 Burncroft Avenue to inspect the property following reports of low water pressure from flats 113 and 117 Burncroft Avenue. While inside your flat, they observed that you have installed an iron security gate inside your front door. It also appeared to them that the wall between your kitchen and living room seemed to have been removed thereby creating an open plan effect. Much of the property was taken up industrial type printers, boxes and folders and there were dog faeces in your back garden.

67. On 17th March 2017 Lemmy Nwabuisi, ASB Coordinator visited 109 Burncroft Avenue to post a letter through your door and as he got into his car to drive off after posting the letter, you ran after him shouting and screaming abuse. The letter requested that you attend our offices to discuss the nuisance reports being received from your neighbours. By the time he returned to the office, you had telephoned him several times. He telephoned you back and you asked whether he was the person that posted a letter through your letterbox and he said yes. You asked why he did not stop when you ran after him and he stated that he had another visit and did not have the time to stop and talk to you. You stated that you will not attend the meeting at the Civic Centre or any of the council offices as you are unable to leave your flat and that the meeting should take place in your flat. Mr. Nwabuisi offered to have the meeting at a neutral venue and suggested the local library or at your mother's house but you refused saying that you have done nothing wrong and accused him of taking sides with your neighbours.

68. On 5th May 2017, it is alleged that you threatened one of your neighbours by saying that you will ruin his life and that you were going to the police to present evidence about his illegal activities.

69. On 14th May 2017, it is alleged that you aggressively banged on one of your neighbor's door, shouted abuse and threats at her and falsely accused her of making noise and coming into your flat to attack you. You later followed her to her car shouting abuse and wanting to know where she was going.

70. On 14th May 2017 it is alleged that you allowed your dog to run freely in the communal area of your block without a lead.

71. On 28th May 2017, the police issued you with a first instance Harassment letter following reports of harassment and threatening behaviour made to the police by one of your neighbours.

72. On 9th June 2017, it is alleged that you attacked one of your neighbours in the communal hallway of your block as he returned from work late at night by grabbing him on the arm and neck thereby causing bruising to his arm and neck. You also snatched his phone from him as he tried to video-record the incident.

73. On 16th June 2017 at 11:55hrs it is alleged that you confronted one of your neighbours as she was exiting the main entrance to your building and said to her that you had her bank details and personal details such as date of birth and said to her that you wanted her and her husband to pay you some money.

74. On 18th June 2017 at 11:55hrs it is alleged that you confronted one of your neighbours as she was exiting the main entrance to your building and said to her that you knew what time she went out and what time she returned and to tell her husband that you would like to speak to him.

75. On 23rd June 2017 at 23:35hrs it is alleged that you came out of your flat with your dog without a lead and attacked one of your neighbours as he returned from work by punching him twice on the chest. You tried to push him out of the block and snatched his phone as he brought took it out of his pocket to record the incident.

76. On 28th June 2017 at 11:45hrs it is alleged that you confronted your neighbours as she was leaving the block. You swore and shouted abuse at her and accused her of making noise inside her flat. You told her that you know all her personal details and that of her husband including their full names, phone numbers, date of birth and banking details. You demanded that they pay you some money and asked her to tell her husband to come and see you.

77. On 30th June 2017 at 11:45hrs it is alleged that you confronted your neighbours as she was leaving the block and accused her of slamming the door. She denied slamming the door and called her a liar and proceeded to swear and shout abuse at her.

78. On 2nd July 2017 at 17:18hrs it is alleged that you confronted your neighbours as he was going out with his family with your dog barking and without a lead and asked him when he was going to hand over the money. It is also alleged that as they left the block, you ran after them swearing and shouting abuse at your neighbours and demanding that he must pay you some money if he wants you to leave him alone. You also said to him that you have all their personal details including their dates of birth and bank details.

79. On 12th July 2017 an Enfield Council Surveyor attended your flat to investigate reports of low water pressure to flats above yours but you refused him access. The Surveyor attended your flat again in the evening of the same day following further reports that the water supply to the affected flats had completely ceased and you refused him access. You then followed him to his car swearing and shouting abuse at him and prevented him from entering his car. He then called the police.

80. On 11th November 2017 at 11.30am, it is alleged by one of your neighbours that you came to their front door, opened the letterbox and peeped through it to see who was inside the flat. You then started swearing and shouting abuse and banging on their front door as soon as you saw the neighbour's wife.

81. On 2nd January 2018 at 6.30pm, it is alleged that you stood outside your neighbour's property for more than twenty minutes swearing and shouting abuse. You went away and returned half an hour later, you lifted their letterbox, stuck your mobile phone through the letterbox and started to record his family while swearing and shouting abuse. This went on for about fifteen minutes.

82. On 9th January 2018 at about 12.18pm, you telephone Lemmy Nwabuisi (ASB Behaviour officer) and accused him of forging documents to get an anti-social behaviour order against him and you told him that he had made you a prisoner within your home. You also stated that you knew where he lives in Enfield and that he and his family were not safe from you. You also told him that you would watch him leave the office and you would have followed him home and he needed to watch his back. You called the ASB officer again 30 minutes later and told him that you knew he has a flat in Edmonton and also knew that one of his colleagues lives in Edmonton. You also stated that you knew where they live and they were not safe.

83. On 9th January 2018 you called Kaunchita Maudhub (ASB Behaviour officer) and left a long voicemail on her work telephone number and made threats.

84. On 26th February 2018, at around 11.45pm it is alleged that you came to one of your neighbour's front doors and started making loud banging noises and rattling with their letter box.

You ran away after the neighbour opened her front door.

85. On 1st March 2018 it is alleged that you knocked on one of your neighbours' doors loudly, you started rattling with their letter box and started shouting. This went on for 5 to 10 minutes but you left after you've heard that the neighbour was calling the police.

86. On 15th March 2018 it is alleged that you swore, shouted and assaulted one of you neighbours in front of his wife and his 3 years old child.

87. On 1st May 2018, you attended the Edmonton County Court as there was a hearing listed in relation to an injunction. It is alleged that you started shouting abuse, swore and make threats to two of the Claimant's employees (Lemmy Nwabuisi, ASB officer and Balbinder Kaur Geddes, lawyer) and to one of your neighbours who attended Court to give evidence. You also swore at a judge. These incidents were witnessed by members of staff working at the Court.

88. On 29th May 2018, it is alleged that you attended one of your neighbours' property; you took your dog with you and waited by their front door. It is alleged that you tried to intimidate them as they were due to attend a hearing in the Edmonton County Court to give evidence in support of a claim for an injunction issued against you.

89. On 30th May 2018, it is alleged that you made threats to kill to one of your neighbours. The matter was reported to the police. You were arrested and released on bail.
90. You assaulted one of your neighbours on the 26th August 2018 for flashing his toilet.
91. You telephoned two council officers (Lemmy Nwabuisi and Ludmilla lyavoo) on 12th

September 2018 and made threats to them over the telephone. You also accused them of fraud and of fabricating evidence to support the Council's claim for an injunction
92. On 12th September 2018 at about 3.50pm, you called one of your neighbours on his mobile phone using a private number. It is not known how you obtained his number, but he terminated the call. You called again using the same private number, but he terminated the call as soon as he heard your voice. You called repeatedly after that.
93. On 24th September 2018 at about 11.30am, one of your neighbours returned home from dropping her daughter at school and as she entered their block of flat, she noticed that the middle door on the ground floor was open as well as your front door. As she went up the stairs to their second floor flat, your dog came out of your flat and started barking at her. The neighbour had to run up the stairs to her flat to escape from the dog. It was reported that your dog is always barking whenever they go out or return to the block and the neighbour and 4 years old daughter are terrified.

94. One of your neighbours reported that his cousin was leaving the block at about on 2nd October 2018 at 12.45pm, and as you exited the block, you followed him and suddenly grabbed his jacket from behind and tried to pull him to the ground. The cousin started shouting to attract neighbours and managed to push you off.
95. There are other reports from one of your neighbours who reported that on 30th September 2018, you attempted to break down his front door by kicking it several times only because he flashed his toilet.
96. It is reported that you continue to harass and intimidate other residents on a regular basis.
On the 25th of October he was arrested for breaching the injection order and spitting at the police officer on arrest.

Treatment and progress on the ward

On admission to Dorset ward, Mr Cordell presented elated, mildly irritable and thought disordered. On arrival to the room, he remained calm and polite. He started the conversation by asking for duty doctor's name, which he wrote down on a paper. He then stated he has been detained here illegally because they think he is grandiose. He then went onto give the duty doctor a timeline of events which were largely related to the police and his connection with mental health services. In summary, he holds paranoid ideas that the police have charged him 'in illegal ways' for an ASBO for 'organisation of illegal raves. This has led to several on-going issues with the police who have involved mental health services and it is a conspiracy against him.

He states he wasn't assessed properly by doctors today (25/10/18) and that the doctors who saw him today (25/10/18) have previously tried to section him and 'failed' because he has 'video recordings' to prove he is innocent. He referred to multiple acts and dates which apparently are being broken by keeping him here.

He states he has several businesses that the police have tried to stop, including 'owning festivals' and his website called 'horrific corruption' and associated newsroom which he uses to expose police and doctors who are working in illegal ways. He states he has 'been wronged 78 times by the police' and will 'expose all of the doctors and police' involved.

He spoke about being a 'privileged member of the community' and has never tried to hurt anyone. He reports the police have framed him in a 'sex scandal' and caused multiple issues. He described a negative relationship with neighbours and states that they bang from above continuously. He states a previous partner was pregnant and the neighbours banging led to the baby being lost.

He denies having a mental health illness and states he will get out of here once he has his laptop containing video graphic proof and was requesting a tribunal. During the course of the conversation, he refused to acknowledge he has been sectioned and was adamant he would be able to leave but was not forceful or physically attempting to leave.
When he was seen by ward doctor on the 26th of October Mr Cordell feels he is in hospital because the police have "falsified" a report that led to him being kept on a curfew for years. He proceeded to talk at length about circumstance that led him to be charged for handling of stolen goods and suspicion of burglary in 2013. He believes the case was handled poorly and is sure the police were conspiring against him. "The abuse of process by the civil service was unreasonable".
Following this he reports being placed on a 2-year injunction and a 5-year curfew. He feels this has led to a breakdown in a 13-year relationship he had. He also reports this affecting his company -a community interest company he started up. At one-point Mr Cordell also mentioned the police targeting him for holding large parties that he was adamant were not hosted by him.
Mr Cordell reports owning a couple of local festivals and talks about engaging with multiple charities helping children. He says he had to stop this as police were harassing him in front of the children. He alleges to own his own company, his own paper and has just bought his own book maker for 70000 pounds. He also reports having 180000 friends on Facebook due to all his free parties.
When asked about his neighbours Mr Cordell said he believes his neighbours have been making up complaints about him. "My neighbours are calling up the police after forging the paperwork." He feels that his neighbours have been attacking him and reports feeling anxious in his house. Simon says he "kept writing to the police saying please can you protect me".
He does not think he is unwell and does not think he has a mental health problem. He admits he might be elevated but he believes this is a constructive state.
Mr Cordell reports not being compliant with any of his medication at any point. He is refusing to take any medication during this admission. "I've spent thousands of pounds showing you my brain, me being alert saves lives."
Mr Cordell would like to appeal his section and feels that by keeping him in hospital we are breaching his rights. "Physical or mental suffering amount to torture"
He reports sleeping, eating and drinking well. Later he suggested this may not be the case stating "In the night time when my neighbours are asleep that's the best time for working".
Impression was that he presented with paranoid and grandiose delusions with significant mood component. In view of long-term symptoms this is most likely consistent with a schizoaffective disorder. He does not currently have capacity for treatment or admission.
He settled in over the weekend, personal hygiene remained poor, smell of cannabis on him was noticed.

On the 29th October 2018 when he was seen by a nurse, he was irritable and quite hostile. He was on the phone to his relative, complaining about police and claimed to be falsely accused.

On the 29th of October Formulation meeting was held:

Care coordinator 's feedback: This is only the second time meeting Simon. There have been issues with reports he is assaulting other residents in his council accommodation.

Nursing report: He appears paranoid on the ward.

Interview with patient:

Mr Cordell appeared very agitated and vocal and was keen to put across his opinion that he had been illegally detained.

Mr Cordell reports issues with police actions in regards to not giving him the ASBO folder properly - this was left outside instead of giving it to him directly. Mr Cordell continued to explain other problems with the police's treatment of him. This includes the metropolitan police having placed a photo of Mr Cordell in a folder in regards to a party he had no involvement with. He denies being involved in any of the parties mentioned in the ASBO. Mr Cordell spoke at length about the injustices surrounding his placement on curfew and the ASBO order.

He describes how on multiple times doctors have tried to assess him under the MHA and he has explained to them at each time the situation with the police. He was once placed under a section 2 and was able to appeal his section.

Mr Cordell reports the neighbours (72 floors up) trying to deliberately disturb him by making a lot of noise and flushing the toilet multiple times. He feels they want him to get distressed and go upstairs to address them. They have been doing this over the last 4 years and are doing this throughout the day. From Mr Cordell's flat you can even hear them talking - there is apparently very poor sound proofing.

Mr Cordell has described a council official as having forged statements and falsely accusing him of threatening his life. Mr Cordell reports that he is being assaulted by his neighbours as is his partner's small child. He feels the stress from this situation may have been linked to his partner's miscarriage. Mr Cordell denies any acts of antisocial behaviour, even in retaliation. At every point where he approaches the upstairs neighbours, he states he calls the police to ask then to "protect" him.

In regards to the recent arrest he reports the police attended due to a fraudulent call from the neighbours. The police tried to hand him a breach of harassment order which Mr Cordell ripped and spat on the paper. The police officer then yelled that he had spat on her. He was then arrested for assault to a police officer. This charge was dropped in the police station and he was referred for a MHA.

Mr Cordell is currently on benefits. He reports the expensive hardware he owns (e.g., 70000-pound bookmaker) he buys broken and second hand cheaply and fixes them. Mr Cordell works from home. He built a new model constitution - a community interest company which was a charity farm.

Collateral information:

His mother and uncle would like mental health service to stop referring to Mr Cordell reporting the police as being prejudice against him as delusional - they believe this can be proved (showing photos of his company truck and hardware).

Mr Cordell ‘s mother is very upset that doctors have submitted reports stating that he is delusional and grandiose. They feel the AMHP report is grossly inaccurate.
Mr Cordell ‘s uncle is also upset that the mental health team would not provide Mr Cordell with a letter to assist with his housing situation.
They explain that the reason Mr Cordell has not be prosecuted for the complaints made by the neighbours is because each time Mr Cordell is able to "prove his innocence" directly to the police.
Mr Cordell ‘s mother believes he is very stressed due to the conditions of the ASBO and his neighbours disturbing him.
His uncle would like us to check the website that Mr Cordell has set up to highlight the injustices against him “horrificcorruption.com”. (Other websites mentioned by Simon include the Way back machine and TooSmooth).
Impression was that Mr Cordell was unstable in mental state and behaviour. He presented with persecutory delusions and possibly auditory hallucinations.
Plan was:
3. Requires further review of notes
4. Liaise Enfield council re plans for housing - ask Rosie for input
Following the formulation meeting he presented very grandiose - showing staff and peers his website and that he has '20,000 emails and 500,000 phone contacts'. He seems elated and keen to get his message across.
Dr Timothy Rogers e-mailed Dr Greensides on the 30th of October 2018 as Mr Cordell was referred to a forensic sector prior MHAA and wrote that he has terrorised their patient (who lives above him) including one occasion taking him by the throat and left our patient feeling unable to walk around on the floor or even flush his toilet chain for fear of sparking another altercation (with no basis) about excessive noise.
Mr Cordell was reviewed on the 31st of October 2018 by Dr Greensides (Consultant psychiatrist), Dr Elia and Dr Bruce:
Mr Cordell confirms his problems began in 2013. He moved into his premises in 2013 - there was evidence of CO poisoning in the flat and all the boiler systems and alarms had to be replaced.
Mr Cordell has been held on curfew for a long time for organising a party and? wrongly accused of damaging the premises. Also was accused of burglary and handling of stolen goods - he was found innocent on both accounts.
Mr Cordell reports having had a “relationship” with his current partner Katy for the last ?20 years. She has a son from a previous relationship.
The problems with the neighbours have been going on for 4 years now. Mr Cordell is concerned about his neighbours, in particular to how their behaviour might affect their child. 6 flats in total in his council building - the neighbours that are problematic are 2 floors above Mr Cordell’s. These particular neighbours bang on the water pipes, stamps on the floor (this echo through the flat between) - this happens first thing in the morning and goes on through the day.

Mr Cordell believes his neighbours sit in their flat eavesdropping on Mr Cordell's whereabouts. When he enters the bathroom, they enter their bathroom and flush the toilet a lot. Simon has Video and Audio recordings throughout his flat in order to prove his innocence. There is a husband and wife living there as well as a new born baby. Mr Cordell reports he can hear this family talking but he can't make out what they are saying - he denies them saying anything negative about him "they've never spoke to me".
Simon has personal information about his neighbour which he feels is proof of? tax evasion - he reports the family own 50 houses in the UK. The neighbour has changed their surname in order to accommodate some scheme to avoid? tax - Mr Cordell reports he has "100% evidence" that this is true and feels it is relevant to him because of how they are treating him. Mr Cordell believes what the neighbours are doing is a hate crime.
Mr Cordell denies ever having felt like the TV was talking to him or that the council was advertising his information. Mr Cordell does feel his personal information is being advertised somehow - friends have approached him and have information about him he believes can only have come from secure computer systems.
Mr Cordell is not concerned about his tenancy at the moment - he states he has recordings that prove his innocence. Simon is aware the council has told him to stay away from his neighbours - since this time he states he hasn't approached his neighbours. He wants to publish a book about what has been going on. Simon does not appear to accept that he has become fixated on this issue.
Mr Cordell does not think his problems with his neighbours are in any way due to him having a mental health problem. Mr Cordell wouldn't like to take medication as he doesn't feel he needs it and is concerned medication may impact his ability work. He is particularly concerned that the medication will "dope him out".
Mr Cordell states he has a good family support network. He is happy to see the ward psychologist.
Mr Cordell has been informed that a referral to a forensic psychiatrist who may want to visit him on the ward.
Impression was that he presented with persecutory delusions and poor insight into his condition. Not currently deemed to be a risk to himself or others. He could be at high risk of losing accommodation if continues untreated. Plan was:
10. For Section 17 leave
11. No medication at present
12. Refer to ward Psychologist - Dr Patkas
. He has terrorised our patient (who lives above him) including one occasion taking him by the throat and left our patient feeling unable to walk around on the floor or even flush his toilet chain for fear of sparking another altercation (with no basis) about excessive noise.

Opinion and recommendations

13. Mr Cordell suffers from a mental disorder, the symptoms of which at present are persecutory delusions, grandiose beliefs and attitude. In addition, he also presented thought disordered with circumstantial thinking. Probably he has been experiencing auditory hallucinations too. His condition is complicated by poor insight into his mental health illness and substance misuse.
14. This illness is currently of a nature and degree to warrant detention under section 2 of the mental health act.

15. Without this there are risks to his health, principally mental health which is likely to continue to deteriorate without intervention. He is also at high risk from being evicted from his current accommodation which could put his mental and physical health at significant risk. His safety is compromised by possible retaliation from others when he is behaving aggressively towards other people. As well as the safety of others as he was aggressive to his neighbours, council employees and police prior to admission.
16. This cannot be carried out in the community as he has limited insight and refuses intervention, tried for a number of years and failed.
17. Should he be discharged then he will be referred to the HTT, but is not likely to engage.
18. Tribunal need no special arrangements to accommodate Mr Cordell.

  Getting wrongly detained while Working on my report in the;
  Chase Farm Mental Hospital on an Assessment Wing!
  I awoke on Dorset wing and to my own shock, after what had gotten explained to me.
  I asked for Leave at the time of 10:30 and it got agreed that I must arrive back to the wing by the time of 11:00
  I did do so and without any problems occurring thought.
  I spoke to my mother on the telephone at around the time of 8:00pm

When speaking to her she started to explained to me what had happened to her earlier in the day time. What she told me next left me even more in shock than I had been by what was already getting done to me illegally.
She said that doctor greenside had made a phone call to her about me
What she explained to me was in short because she was not too happy with my decisions
What was said is that a Doctor Green side who is the Main Clinician for the Mental Health team North London and manages the Dorset wing at Chase Farm hospital had called her mobile phone.
Part of the reason is that he is in Charge Mainly in charge alongside with other in looking after the patents who are under assessment or on a volunteer's basics while getting detained.
What happens to a person or a least what should happen to a person who is going to get detained under the Mental Health Act 1983 In the United Kingdom can very but in whole the same procedures / Standards and regulations mainly form from these listed same acts of Law.
There is a Bad leak running all across the main floor in the communal room coming from the water machine.

Chase Farm Mental Hospital on an Assessment Wing!
Another day on Dorset ward I aroused at around 6:00 Hours without much to do other than document down my defence so that when I have to deafened my legal rights I will be prepared and ready as well as able.
I had lunch; a bit latter than normal at around the time of 21:300 an di then after continued to work on my commuter.
15:38 still working in my hospital room on the computer.
At 18:00 Hours I asked the staff that were on duty if I could take some of my unescorted leave of the wing this got agreed and I returned back by the time of 18:176 Hours and without any issues of concern.
A lady nurse came to my cell at around 20:00 Hours and explained to me there she was my nurse carer on the wing her name was Bibi and I had met her a few times before we talk about my time on the wing, at the end of our conversation she seemed to be happy with me and left my hospital room.

Dear Ms Cordell
We note that you have raised a request for information which relates to another person. In line with the Data Protection Act 2018, we are unable to correspond with you on these matters. Where a request for information is made on behalf of somebody else, we need to confirm that they are happy for you to access their personal information. Should Simon Cordell want you to act on their behalf and access their personal information, he will need to provide us with their signed written agreement to the complaint issues raised and for you to proceed with these on their behalf.
We note that your request is for 'all data that is held about me on Enfield Council systems all departments'. As your request does not provide us with much detail, we need you to clarify the specific information you are looking for.

In order for us to retrieve relevant records, we would need to know where your personal information could be located and it would greatly help our search if you are able to give us more details regarding:

- Clarifying the type of information that you think the Council may hold about Mr. Cordell
- Clarifying the likely dates or time period when you think the information may have been created
- Clarifying if you only want information relating to a particular issue or specific time period

We have registered your request under case number CRM SAR 1085 and you may quote this when you get back in touch with us.
We look forward to your response. Once we receive the clarification from you, we will contact you with a further update.
Yours sincerely,
Kailey Plahar

Progress Notes
I had a long discussion with his mother on Friday, I was not able to write up on RIO then as it was not working
I explained that I felt Simon was unwell and that he had paranoid psychotic symptoms and I felt at times was thought disordered, and heard things.
I didn't accept that the persecution he described from his neighbour

IMP - I have made an application for a section 3. he suffers with a paranoid psychosis, most likely schizophrenia and there are risks to his health (mental), safety (retaliation) and to others-he has threatened his neighbours, filmed through their letter box etc. in response to his paranoia 6 caused considerable psychological distress.
if this is upheld then we will start a trial of antipsychotic treatment, I do not wish to do this prior to any section 3 as it will not be beneficial to take medication against his will unless he is subsequently detained on a section 3.

Getting wrongly detained while Working on my report in the;
Chase Farm Mental Hospital on an Assessment Wing!
Monday Morning, I awoke to the now normal daily routine and soon after spoke to a kind gentleman who is a part of the estate management team, he oversees my problem of cause and retried it with ease E.G "broken bathroom window due to not being able to shut correctly"
What doctor green explained to me; next I think I took very well. He explained to me that he wanted to put me onto a section three of the Mental Health Act 1983.
How it happened!
Just before lunch time Doctor Greenside came to my room and asked me for a meeting with me. I agreed to what he had asked and walked with him into another room, when sitting down together we were both left quietly alone and then Doctor Greenside started to explain to me that he wanted to place me of the section 2 of the Mental Health Act 1983 and on to A section 3 of that act.
I took my time and asked him why he believed this was warranted as to the initial reasons to why I had been placed on a section two had been proven to be inaccurate to the assessment documentation of its statement of facts.
We went through what I had gotten accused of when first getting detained to hospital, which is: --
1. Mr. Cordell is known to psychiatric services but has not engaged with them in recent years.
Reply: --
This information is undermining towards the defamation of the definition of my character and influences a person belief into believing that I have gotten treated under the Mental Health Act 1983 as a person who has been diagnosed with a mental illness, to which I have not and to further my issues of raised concern it continues to state that I have not then on after accepted treatment as it states that I have not engaged with the Mental health Service in the following years to pass. This information is also not an 100% accurate fact towards the statement of the maker. As I have personal Telephoned Lucas house and also that of the Silver Street Mental Health Assessment Team arranged a meeting that did take place at my home address to which I took the Minutes of them meetings in a digital format to which I still claim the legal rights of and as a conclusion of them meetings I got diagnosed of well sanity.
2. Today he was arrested for spitting at a police officer after they were called about him harassing his neighbors.
Reply: --

3. He has a number of non- molestation orders against him, forbidding him from contacting them.
Reply: --

4. On examination Mr. Cordell displayed a range of affective and psychiatric symptoms.
Reply: --

5. He Spoke rapidly and was thought disordered with overinclusive and tangential speech.
Reply: --

6. He held a number of grandiose and delusional beliefs.
Reply: --

7. He told us that the police were conspiring with medics and the council to silence him as he had uncovered police corruption.
Reply: --

8. He said he was targeted by police as they were envies of his abilities.
Reply: --

9. He told us that his neighbors two floors above were controlling the neighbors below them and caused them to stamp on the floor and disturb Mr. Cordell.
Reply: --

10. He did not believe that he was Mental unwell and was adamant that he would not see a physiatrist.
Reply: --

11. He lacked insight into his presentation.
Reply: --

12. He was irritable and has assaulted police officers and harassed his neighbors in recent days.
Reply: --

13. He poses a risk to others; therefore, his behavior poses him a risk of retaliatory Symptoms. This places his Health and safety at risk.
Reply: --

14. There is evidence that he has a Mental illness of a nature and degree treatment in hospital and without this there is a risk of harm to his health and safety and the safety of others.
Reply: --

Sarah Hewitt reasons are: --
This man is hyper mental with flights of speech and ideation.
He has delusions that the police are targeting him are other residents in his block of flats.
He says people in the street are spitting at him because they believe he gave a woman herpes.

He is quite grandiose in his ideas about helping the world.
While with doctor Greenside he persisted to prosiest thought or conversation that he believed that I was suffering with a Mental Health Disorder such as psychosis.
I continued to stayed adamant that I am of good health and that I do not suffer from any of the symptoms that a person would suffer from if they did have Psychosis and my family and loved ones also agree with myself.
He told me that he wanted to put me onto medication again I told him that this was unfair and would be a breach of the Mental Health process as he had no evidence that warrants my detention or any form of a Mental Health disorder.
I asked doctor greenside if he does believe that I had a mental health illness such as psychosis why would he give me un escorted leave of the Dorset Hospital wing two days into my detention, he never had a fair response to my simple question I also reminded him that I had not failed in that obligation of trust.
The next reply I said to the doctor greenside was that he is abusing his position as a clinical practitioner and that he had no legal right after I had proved that the reason for my detention was flawed within the assessment 2 and therefore incorrect information and also that of misleading information.
Doctor Greenside asked me if I had been smoking any weed, I asked him why he would ask me this and he explained that he thought that he could smell weed from inside my room when he came to it early to take me out for our meeting. I gave him the reply of no I have not been smoking weed in my room and that I was happy to do a urine sample.
I explained to him that I had just left the wing on unescorted leave and could also smell somebody outside smoking it.
While talking I explained that I had applied for my tribunal and wished for an absolute discharge of any Mental Health illness and understood that this would be the correct professional opinion.
At the end of our conversation, I reminded him of a part of or past short conversation, when doing so I explained that he had said to me himself that he did not believe that I was a danger to myself or towards any other person and that is why he had granted me unescorted leave of the Hospital wing that is named as Dorset
Doctor Greenside finished or meeting by explain that he believed in the proof of what I had shown him to be correct as to the assessment 2 sheets wrote context being incorrect and told myself that he believed that since 2014 these problems that I had been questioned about by he had now caused me to suffer with Psychosis. I knew this not to be true.
Our meeting came to an end and I went back to my room on the hospital wing.
I took Leave of the wing at the time of
I arrived back without any issues.
It was about 21:18 Hours when my mother gave me a telephone call while I was in my room writing my defence
The conversation we had was quite up setting due to what had gotten explained to both me and my mother
Mum Told me that she had received another telephone call of a person who is named as Who works at Silver Street Branch of the Mental Health Canter that is based opposite the Enfield Civic canter
They had told her while on the phone that they had been telephoned by Doctor Greenside who had agreed that he would like them to visit the hospital to where I have been placed and for them to do an assessment on me so that I could get placed onto a section three of the Mental Health Act 1983

Enfield AMHP service entry;
Referral received from Dorset ward for a section 3 MHA assessment for Simon.
Currently Simon is under section 2 of the MHA 1983/2007 which is due to expire on 23/11/18. He was detained on section 2 on 26/10/18.
Dr Greensides reviewed/examined Simon today (05/11/18) and felt that Simon is unwell and needing to start on new treatment.
Dr Greensides does not wish to do this prior to any section 3 as feels that it will not be beneficial to take medication against his will unless he is subsequently detained on a section 3 (see Greenside's progress notes below)
However, also, Simon has appealed his section - no confirmed date yet (see Rio entry by Dr BRUCE, Maria on 2 Nov 2018)
Furthermore; when I phoned Simon's mother who I identified to be his Nearest Relative, in order to consult with her regarding carrying out a MHA assessment for section3, she argued that she has not been given sufficient time so that she could attend the assessment.
She requested for notice or more time to enable her attends the assessment when it is set up.
Plan:
Explore above issues when considering setting up assessment
N Relative, mother, Lorraine Cordell, mobile, 078073 and Tel 02082 wants sufficient notice to attend the assessment
Simon is appealing his section 2 detention.

I had a long discussion with his mother on Friday, I was not able to write up on RIO then as it was not working

I explained that I felt Simon was unwell and that he had paranoid psychotic symptoms and I felt at times was thought disordered, and heard things.

I didn't accept that the persecution he described from his neighbour one floor up was happening as I didn't believe this was possible and I felt what was being described was paranoid psychosis.

His mother does not agree and feels that this is to do with poor sound proofing St deliberate targeting by a neighbour and subsequent persecution by the authorities.

she asked me for a letter to be given to the legal dept, of Enfield council, advocating for Simon to have a two-bed property so that someone can stay to provide support for him.

I told her we do not write letters of this nature but that if the dept got in touch with us we would answer any questions they had.

she gave the details as Ludmilla Lyavoo

Tel 02083798323 ludmilla.lvavoo@enfield.gov.uk

I explained to his mother that I intended on applying for a section 3 as I felt he needed some treatment

5/11/18

I interviewed Simon.
we went over some of the things, he maintained that the neighbour one floor above was persecuting him and was able to locate him in his flat and then bang, flush the toilet and make noise, the purpose of which was persecution.
he confirmed that this happens at all times of day and even if he changes his routine etc.
I asked him about the neighbour directly above
he said he was OK. but went on to describe one time when he 'went mad in his flat, following me round and banging on the floor like crazy' He admitted that he confronted him after this, but denied any assault etc (I have been informed that he attacked this neighbour and that he was subsequently very frightened to flush his toilet)
I explained to Simon that I felt he was unwell with a paranoid psychosis and that I felt he needed to take some treatment, he disagreed and then accused me of 'being leaned on by people above you' On closer questioning he was referring to the police.
I asked him if he smoked much cannabis, he said he used to, then said every now & then. I asked him about the smell of cannabis in his room, he said that he'd had a few visitors.
he agreed to provide a urine sample at l/v
he is relatively well presented his speech is rapid but not pressured, he makes frequent legal references some of which I know to be inaccurate (i.e., around the mental health act) and remains very preoccupied with his perceived persecution, of which this admission is part.
he is not elated or depressed in his mood his thinking is unclear and his answers are often very circumstantial, in my view he is at times thought disordered he remains paranoid with a complex system involving his neighbour, the council, police and the NHS I suspect he suffers with auditory hallucinations he is insight less and will not accept any treatment
IMP - I have made an application for a section 3. he suffers with a paranoid psychosis, most likely schizophrenia and there are risks to his health (mental), safety (retaliation) and to others-he has threatened his neighbours, filmed through their letter box etc. in response to his paranoia 6 caused considerable psychological distress.
if this is upheld then we will start a trial of antipsychotic treatment, I do not wish to do this prior to any section 3 as it will not be beneficial to take medication against his will unless he is subsequently detained on a section 3.

1 NHS Getting wrongly detained: "Si Notes."
Getting wrongly detained while Working on my report in the;
Chase Farm Mental Hospital on an Assessment Wing!
00:01 Hours I stayed up late on the hospital wing Dorset because I needed to get my defence ready for my tribunal.
I went to sleep around the time of 02:00 Hours and re awoke at the time of 9:00
After waking up I took a walk on to the Dorset wings communal area to see if I could find out some information about my tribunal
I wanted to know such questions as: --
Can I get a copy of the circumstances reports so that I can prepare myself in a fair and timely manner?

I got told by a member of staff who was in the main shared communal room that I had to go to the office and ask my questions.
When I went to do so I noticed that Mr. Greenside was outside of the main staff office, so I decided to take the opportunity in front of me to take a better understanding to the last days events, I approached the doctor / Clinical Wing Manager of my care treatment in a polite and pace full way.
When I did finally stand in front of him, I waited till I could see that he was not dealing with any other patients on a one-to-one basis.
I asked the Doctor the question of did you request for a section 3 assessment to take place and allow for them other staffs to call my mother and also ask for her permission or acknowledgment in you direct medical order.
He replied with the answer of yes, he did, I then after continued the conversation that we were the having by replying with the following line of questioning relevant to my case history with getting detained: -
1. Can I get a copy of the circumstances reports so that I can prepare myself in a fair and timely manner?
2. I continued to express my facts of truth and them being, that I was trusted without any medication while being detained under the mental health act 1983 and my behaviour has not shown any evidence of a decline from the fabricated statements m
3. There are no Grounds to warrant my detention
4. I have been polite and showed no signs of a menta illness while being on the Dorset Wing and in fact I have help others into resolving some of their problems of cause since I have arrived onto the site, this sensible approach of mine has also meant that I have help the staff in keeping a steady upkeep of the wing.
5. I have been eating well and keep myself hygienic
6. I have managed my personal life with simplicity and elegance while being detained so to not be released in to a state of an un organised life and because of this I look forward to a good future were me and my family are independent from public funded services.
I also said to the doctor that he and the other relevant staff do not have the grounds or evidence to warrant my detention at the present under the assessment 2 initial grounds.
The reason that I gave was as I and my mother alongside with or family members had already proven them claims against my person to be largely fabricated and inaccurate that are contained within side of RIO and therefore must carry no weight of maker of the initial frauded / fabricated statements and in any sense, there is no evidence that I have or do suffer with a mental illness due to these facts of mine.
Soon after doctor green side walked off into another room along the corridor. So, I went to the officer door to finish making me inquires.
When doing this I got told that there was a letter in the office in my name.
I got a bit concerned after what my mother had told me about the assessment for a section 3 that doctor Greenside had ordered to take place while still waiting for my tribunal.
So, at first, I said that I was not sure if I wanted to accept the mail but the staff in the office explained to me that they understood who the sender of the mail is. On listen to them some more I got told that it was in regards to my tribunal date for my request of discharge from the Mental Health Services. As soon as this got explained to myself, I trust in what the staff had displayed to myself.
I took the letter and when reading the content of the letter I was not surprised to find my tribunal date
The date got set for 08/11/2018 at the time of 02:15 hundred Hours and Minutes.

I left the office and went back into my room on the wing an made a phone call to my mother! When on the phone I told her, what had just happened and she explained that she was not happy with the way my medical care was being handled and was following up her own line of complaints regarding my detention.
At around 17:54 Hours
I made a phone call to my solicitor and left her a message on her answering machine asking her to visit me so that I can go over my case with her.
At around the time of: 18:04
I received a visit from my solicitor who had come to see me we took a set in an empty room on the wing and started to go over what has been going on to do with my case load.
She explained to me that she had received some documentation in purist of my detention at the hospital.
After our conversation she allowed me to have a copy of the documents she had received and this was a Circumstances of admission and background report I never had any time to really go over it.
At about 19:30 hours
Mother came to the wing to see me and brought me some trainers and some new tracksuit bottoms and other bits while I got keep at the hospital, I explained to her what had happened when the solicitor arrived to speak to me earlier, I gave her the copy of the report that I had and asked her to send it back to me by email.
While my mother wanted in the waiting room, I rushed to my room on the hospital wing to get the money for what my mother had prior got for me and I could not find my debit card in my room when I went to repay her I am not too sure of how I miss placed it so I just reported it to the bank as lost and stolen after fighting to get through the security procedures I managed to find out that no other money went of the card while it was missing.
Because of the time that my mother arrived to see me I missed my lunch and waited for the staff change over to get some munch, I went back to my room and eat the food.
I then after stayed in my bedroom and continued working on my defence paperwork ready for my tribunal
At 19:08
My mother sent the documentation back to my email and I started to go throw it and this is a copy.
There is a Bad leak running all across the main floor in the communal room coming from the water machine.

Mental Health Tribunal Report
Date: 01/11/18
Patient details
Mr Simon Cordell (11214451)
Date of birth: 26 Jan 1981
Address: 109 Burncroft Avenue,
Enfield
Post Code: EN3 7JQ
Circumstances of admission and background
Mr Cordell is a 37 years old man with previous diagnosis of F29X - Unspecified nonorganic psychosis. He has been known to CAMHS service in the past and to Adult Mental Health Services since 2014. However, he has not been engaging with the services in recent years despite numerous attempts from mental health teams.
Mr Cordell become significantly unwell in mental health in 2014. He deteriorated significantly in mental state, but he refused engage with mental health service and declined to take medication. Consequently, he had to be detained under Section 2 of MHA in 2016. He was treated with medication (Olanzapine) during the admission but soon after discharge he stopped taking his medication. He continued to be seen by Early Intervention service following a discharge, but he continued to refuse any treatment for his condition. This led to further deterioration in mental health. When Mr Cordell is unwell, he presents with persecutory delusions about his neighbours, council staff and the police. As a result of paranoid beliefs, he becomes more aggressive and threatening especially towards neighbours. From 2016 to January 2018 there were numerous complaints from neighbours reported about Nr Cordell's acts of harassment and antisocial behaviour. This led to an interim injunction order (harassment order) to be issued against Mr Cordell, at the Edmonton County Court, in January 2018. Mr Cordell breached the order on multiple occasions. It has been reported that his neighbours have been assaulted, harassed, and have received threats from Mr Cordell. In addition, Mr Cordell disengaged with EIS.

In April 2018 further deterioration in mental health was observed when he contacted the police and complained about the neighbours making noise. EIS team was contacted and they offered to review Mr Cordell, but he refused to work with them again.
On the 1st of June he was arrested for harassing his neighbours and breaching the injunction order against him. He threatened his neighbour who was at the time with her two children that he will kill her and her children "You fucking bitch, I have a bomb for you, I will get in your block, kill you and your children At that point, EIS stated that he has gone beyond EIS three year treatment period and therefore they referred his case to Enfield North Locality Team in June 2018. During the period of next few months (from June 2018 until October 2018 - they were reported numerous accounts of harassment and assaults to his council on his neighbour) Mr Cordell has continued to harass his neighbours and has refused to engage with mental health services. Few neighbours already moved out from their flats due to Mr Cordell's aggressive behaviour and Enfield Council decided to seek possession of Mr Cordell's flat via the courts. In a recent court case, the judge recommended that Enfield Council re-house Mr Cordell on the proviso that he engages with the MH Team. However, he failed to do that.

In October 2018, Mr Cordell was physically aggressive towards another service user who lives in the same building as him. Mr Cordell took him by the throat and left him feeling unable to walk around on the floor or even flush his toilet chain for fear of sparking another altercation (with no basis) about excessive noise.
This triggered a safeguarding process and Enfield Adult North Locality Team decided to organise MHA assessment as Mr Cordell refused to engage with them.
Consequently, he was referred for MHA assessment on the 17th of October 2018. Enfield Adult North Locality Team agreed that he is at risk to others and his behaviour could also put him at risk from others. Application for 135(1) was made however a judge found insufficient evidence presented for a warrant. He was referred to a forensic sector following this event.
On the 25th of October he was arrested as the police were called to his flat regarding him breaking a harassment order and that day, he allegedly assaulted the police who attended by spitting. Consequently, he was taken to Wood Green police station. He was found to be thought disordered with grandiose and persecutory delusions, hypomanic with flight of ideas and pressured speech. Therefore, MHA assessment was organised. He was detained under section 2 of MHA and admitted to Dorset ward, Chase Farm Hospital on the 25th of October 2018.

Mr Cordell explained that the police were conspiring with medics and the council to silence him as he had uncovered police corruption. He also said his neighbours two floors above were controlling the neighbour below them and caused them to stamp on the floor and disturb him. It was reported that he appeared to lack insight into his presentation as he did not believe he was mentally unwell and was adamant to see a psychiatrist for treatment.

Mental state examination on admission

Mr Cordell is 37-year-old male, mixed origin, slim build. He was wearing casual and dirty clothes. He engaged in conversation and made eye contact throughout. He was calm and polite during the interview; no aggression was observed but did become mildly restless at points. The conversation was one sided with Mr Cordell keen to talk. He presented with pressured speech and flight of ideas. Mood, subjectively he described as "fine, a bit elated", objectively he was elated. Thoughts: He presented thought disordered with tangential thinking, grandiose and persecutory delusions. He was oriented to time, place, and person. He presented with poor insight - does not want any medications, he does not believe that has a mental health disorder.

Risk

To self - high

Immediate risk to self is low as he denies any thoughts of self-harm or suicide. There are previous reports of suicide attempt as teenager. However, he is at high risk of being evicted from his property at present due to deterioration in his mental state and behaviour and his mental and physical health could be significantly affected if he becomes homeless.

To others - high

He denies thoughts or plans to hurt others. He has clearly documented history of aggressive behaviour and currently elated.

From others - high, as he can be aggressive towards others, he is at risk of retaliation from others.

Risk of physical and verbal aggression towards others noted. This in turn, increases risk of others retaliating, therefore harm towards Mr Cordell.

Past psychiatric history:

Mr Cordell reportedly had disrupted childhood spending some adolescence in care. He was under CAMHS due to anxiety as a teenager.
Mr Cordell tried to hang himself at the age of 16 when in a young offender's institution; he says he lost consciousness and needed to be resuscitated. He was moved to a high security hospital and kept in seclusion on a number of occasions, but he says he would destroy the padded cell with his teeth. He says he was seen regularly by a psychiatrist called Dr Caplin from "the safe project".
Mr Cordell says there was a second occasion where he tried to hang himself when in a cell after he was sentenced.
Mr Cordell denies any contact with Mental Health Services between that point and 2014.
In March 2014 - He was diagnosed with Adjustment reaction "anxiety and suicidal thoughts over the last nine months in the context of having a pending court case (accused of burglary). He was offered Sertraline 50mg OD.

In November 2014 - Mr Cordell was under Home Treatment Team. He was diagnosed with Psychotic episode - not deemed sanctionable under MHA. Following this episode, he disengaged with mental health service.
In November 2015 - He was referred via BEH HUB to mental health services. At that time Mr Cordell was not eating, not sleeping, he was paranoid saying people were talking about him or laughing at him, believed the government was advertising things about him, the TV was talking about him and talking directly to him. He was smoking cannabis at that time. He was again found non sanctionable under MHA and disengaged with the service.
In February 2016 it was applied for Warrant 135 (1) - but not sufficient evidence was presented to the judge for a warrant.
In August 2016, he was admitted under Section 2 of the MHA following custody at Wood Green station for threats to kill - section 2 reversed on appeal. He was discharged on Olanzapine 5mg and followed up by EIS. It was reported poor compliance with medication on discharge. Consequently, he was discharged from EIS due to disengagement.

Past medical history:
Simon said he had Crohn's disease as a child. He denied any other physical health problems.

Current medications
Nil.

Personal/family history- information taken from previous assessments/reports
Mr Cordell was born at Chase Farm Hospital. He has a younger brother and sister. Mr Cordell says he knows his maternal grandmother attempted suicide on a number of occasions and had had admissions to mental hospital. Mr Cordell's father worked as a union representative and his mother ran her own computer company. His parents recently divorced. Mr Cordell says he did not get on well with his father who was a violent man. He was violent towards Mr Cordell, Mr Cordell's mother and siblings. Mr Cordell left home at the age of fifteen and was homeless for a while. He was placed in to care after stealing a pint of milk. He was placed in a series of children's care homes around the UK but says that each time he would steal a car and drive back to London.
Mr Cordell said he was pushed hard to achieve at school by his father and that he was "an A-star student" for most of the time. He says he was intelligent and would do the work at other times and as a result would often just "mess about" in class. He went on to college and studied engine mechanics, completing a city & guilds qualification. After leaving school he went on to get jobs in the construction industry.
Mr Cordell says he has tried to build himself up a business for providing party entertainment. At the moment he says he is not able to earn from this due to the restrictions of his bail.
Mr Cordell has had two long term relationships. First relationship lasted for thirteen years. Mr Cordell thinks they broke up due to the repeated involvement of the police in their lives and the stress this has caused. He is currently in a relationship with Katy and he said that they were expecting a baby.
Mr Cordell says he does not smoke tobacco and does not drink alcohol.

Note on Rio previous LSD and cannabis use.

Forensic history -information taken from previous assessments/reports

He reported being linked to 500 cases, but he has won every one. He says these are all linked to driving offences.

From Rio - 2015- 5y ASBO for organising illegal raves- not allowed to enter industrial or disused premises between 10pm and 7 am. Young Offender's Institution at the age of 16 after repeated driving offences (driving without a license). Taken into custody for threats to kill.

August 2017 an injunction order was issued though this was discharged by the court in November 2017 due to a procedural error

On the 9th of January 2018 an injunction order was issued against him due to verbal and physical abuse towards his neighbours and council employees and antisocial behaviour. He breached the injunction order on multiple occasions. This was discharged in July 2018, following a forensic psychiatry assessment which deemed him to lack capacity to understand the conditions of the injunction (as a result of a psychotic illness).

Enfield council report was issued recently regarding tenancy concerns and breaches:

The report says the following:

We have received several complaints of anti-social behaviour against you and going back to 2016 for which you have been warned numerous times, verbally and formally in writing. Please see below a list of reports made against you:

50. Sometime in July 2016 it is alleged that you damaged the lock of a neighbour's electric cupboard and removed his fuse box resulting in no electricity to his flat.

51. On 6th August 2016, it is alleged that you threatened one of your neighbours and his wife and aggressively demanded money from him. It is also alleged that you repeatedly swore and shouted abuse at him and his wife and called his wife a 'bitch' and tried to stop him from going up the stairs to his flat by standing in front of him.

52. Sometimes in September 2016 it is alleged that you confronted an elderly neighbour outside your block of flats, 109-119 Burncroft Avenue as he was going to the local park with another resident and started to shout abuse and He was arrested on the 1st of June due to breaching the injunction order.

53. threats at him and said to him 'I can get you over at the park, I know you go for a walk'.

54. On 27th September 2016, it is alleged that you confronted one of your neighbours as he was returned to his flat with his family and threatened and swore at him and demanded money from him. It is also alleged that you later banged on his door, shouted further abuse, and swear words at him and accused him of making noises inside his flat.

55. On 28th September 2016, it is alleged that you aggressively banged on a neighbour's door and threatened and shouted verbal abuse and swearwords at them. It is also alleged that you aggressively demanded money from him.

56. On 4th October 2016, it is alleged that you aggressively banged on your ceiling and accused one of your neighbours of making noises, you then went to your neighbour's flat and started kicking and banging on his front door aggressively, accused him of banging on the floor and was swearing and shouting abuse at him. It is also alleged that you later went downstairs, dragged your neighbour's motorbike from where it was parked and started to hit it with a piece of wood.

57. On 22nd November 2016 during a telephone conversation between you, Mrs Cordell your mother and Ms Sarah Fletcher, neighbourhood officer, Ms Fletcher reported that she overheard you threatened her by saying 'I'm goanna do her over' and then 'I'm goanna take her job just for fun'.

58. On 8th December 2016, it is alleged that you aggressively banged on one of your neighbours' front door, shouted abuse and threats and accused him of making noise.

59. On 11th December 2016, it is alleged that you aggressively banged on your neighbour's door several times and accused them of banging on pipes. It is also alleged that you shouted abuse and threats at them.

60. On 14th December 2016, it is alleged that you were verbally abusive towards a woman who was visiting one of your neighbours as she knocked on your neighbour's door.

61. On 23rd December 2016, it is alleged that you banged on a neighbour's front door, shouted abuse at them and asked them to turn their tap off. You then removed their electricity fuse thereby cutting off their power supply.

62. 13.On 26th December 2016, it is alleged that you ran up the communal stairs to the first floor and confronted one of your neighbours as he was going out with his family and started to shout abuse and threats at him and his wife and accused him of tampering with your water supply, you also attempted to stop him from leaving the block.

63. On 3rd January 2017, it is alleged that you confronted one of your neighbours as he returned to the block with his wife and two-year-old daughter and started shouting abuse and threats at them.

65. On 31st January 2017, it is alleged that you aggressively banged on your neighbour's door, shouted abuse, and threats at them and accused them of banging on the floor.

66. We received a report that on 7th February 2017 you approached the leaseholder of 117 Burncroft Avenue and his plumber outside the block as they were attempting to resolve the problem causing low water pressure in the flat. You said to the leaseholder that there were problems between you and his tenants but did not give any specific details. The leaseholder explained to you that his tenants were experiencing low water pressure in the flat and you said to him 'you will not solve the problem as I am restricting their water supply'. The leaseholder later knocked on your door and asked whether you would increase the water pressure and you stated, ‘I cannot do anything at the moment, I will sort it out later’.

67. On 24th February 2017 Sarah Fletcher (Neighbourhood Officer) and Steve Stirk (Maintenance Surveyor) attended your property at flat 109 Burncroft Avenue to inspect the property following reports of low water pressure from flats 113 and 117 Burncroft Avenue. While inside your flat, they observed that you have installed an iron security gate inside your front door. It also appeared to them that the wall between your kitchen and living room seemed to have been removed thereby creating an open plan effect. Much of the property was taken up industrial type printers, boxes and folders and there were dog faeces in your back garden.

68. On 17th March 2017 Lemmy Nwabuisi, ASB Coordinator visited 109 Burncroft Avenue to post a letter through your door and as he got into his car to drive off after posting the letter, you ran after him shouting and screaming abuse. The letter requested that you attend our offices to discuss the nuisance reports being received from your neighbours. By the time he returned to the office, you had telephoned him several times. He telephoned you back and you asked whether he was the person that posted a letter through your letterbox and he said yes. You asked why he did not stop when you ran after him and he stated that he had another visit and did not have the time to stop and talk to you. You stated that you will not attend the meeting at the Civic Centre or any of the council offices as you are unable to leave your flat and that the meeting should take place in your flat. Mr Nwabuisi offered to have the meeting at a neutral venue and suggested the local library or at your mother's house, but you refused saying that you have done nothing wrong and accused him of taking sides with your neighbours.

69. On 5th May 2017, it is alleged that you threatened one of your neighbours by saying that you will ruin his life and that you were going to the police to present evidence about his illegal activities.

70. On 14th May 2017, it is alleged that you aggressively banged on one of your neighbour’s door, shouted abuse, and threats at her and falsely accused her of making noise and coming into your flat to attack you. You later followed her to her car shouting abuse and wanting to know where she was going.

71. On 14th May 2017 it is alleged that you allowed your dog to run freely in the communal area of your block without a lead.

72. On 28th May 2017, the police issued you with a first instance Harassment letter following reports of harassment and threatening behaviour made to the police by one of your neighbours. 24.) On 9th June 2017, it is alleged that you attacked one of your neighbours in the communal hallway of your block as he returned from work late at night by grabbing him on the arm and neck thereby causing bruising to his arm and neck. You also snatched his phone from him as he tried to video-record the incident.

73. On 16th June 2017 at 11:55hrs it is alleged that you confronted one of your neighbours as she was exiting the main entrance to your building and said to her that you had her bank details and personal details such as date of birth and said to her that you wanted her and her husband to pay you some money.

74. On 18th June 2017 at 11:55hrs it is alleged that you confronted one of your neighbours as she was exiting the main entrance to your building and said to her that you knew what time she went out and what time she returned and to tell her husband that you would like to speak to him.

75. On 23rd June 2017 at 23:35hrs it is alleged that you came out of your flat with your dog without a lead and attacked one of your neighbours as he returned from work by punching him twice on the chest. You tried to push him out of the block and snatched his phone as he brought took it out of his pocket to record the incident.

76. On 28th June 2017 at 11:45hrs it is alleged that you confronted your neighbour as she was leaving the block. You swore and shouted abuse at her and accused her of making noise inside her flat. You told her that you know all her personal details and that of her husband including their full names, phone numbers, date of birth and banking details. You demanded that they pay you some money and asked her to tell her husband to come and see you.

77. On 30th June 2017 at 11:45hrs it is alleged that you confronted your neighbour as she was leaving the block and accused her of slamming the door. She denied slamming the door and called her a liar and proceeded to swear and shout abuse at her.

78. On 2nd July 2017 at 17:18hrs it is alleged that you confronted your neighbour as he was going out with his family with your dog barking and without a lead and asked him when he was going to hand over the money. It is also alleged that as they left the block, you ran after them swearing and shouting abuse at your neighbour and demanding that he must pay you some money if he wants you to leave him alone. You also said to him that you have all their personal details including their dates of birth and bank details.

79. On 12th July 2017 an Enfield Council Surveyor attended your flat to investigate reports of low water pressure to flats above yours, but you refused him access. The Surveyor attended your flat again in the evening of the same day following further reports that the water supply to the affected flats had completely ceased and you refused him access. You then followed him to his car swearing and shouting abuse at him and prevented him from entering his car. He then called the police.

80. On 11th November 2017 at 11.30am, it is alleged by one of your neighbours that you came to their front door, opened the letterbox, and peeped through it to see who was inside the flat. You then started swearing and shouting abuse and banging on their front door as soon as you saw the neighbour's wife.

81. On 2nd January 2018 at 6.30pm, it is alleged that you stood outside your neighbour's property for more than twenty minutes swearing and shouting abuse. You went away and returned half an hour later, you lifted their letterbox, stuck your mobile phone through the letterbox and started to record his family while swearing and shouting abuse. This went on for about fifteen minutes.

82. On 9th January 2018 at about 12.18pm, you telephone Lemmy Nwabuisi (ASB Behaviour officer) and accused him of forging documents to get an anti-social behaviour order against him and you told him that he had made you a prisoner within your home. You also stated that you knew where he lives in Enfield and that he and his family were not safe from you. You also told him that you would watch him leave the office and you would have followed him home and he needed to watch his back. You called the ASB officer again 30 minutes later and told him that you knew he has a flat in Edmonton and also knew that one of his colleagues lives in Edmonton. You also stated that you knew where they live, and they were not safe.

83. On 9th January 2018 you called Kaunchita Maudhub (ASB Behaviour officer) and left a long voicemail on her work telephone number and made threats.

84. On 26th February 2018, at around 11.45pm it is alleged that you came to one of your neighbour's front doors and started making loud banging noises and rattling with their letter box. You ran away after the neighbour opened her front door.

85. On 1st March 2018 it is alleged that you knocked on one of your neighbours' doors loudly, you started rattling with their letter box and started shouting. This went on for 5 to 10 minutes, but you left after you've heard that the neighbour was calling the police.
86. On 15th March 2018 it is alleged that you swore, shouted, and assaulted one of you neighbours in front of his wife and his 3 years old child.
87. On 1st May 2018, you attended the Edmonton County Court as there was a hearing listed in relation to an injunction. It is alleged that you started shouting abuse, swore and make threats to two of the Claimant's employees (Lemmy Nwabuisi, ASB officer and Balbinder Kaur Geddes, lawyer) and to one of your neighbours who attended Court to give evidence. You also swore at a judge. These incidents were witnessed by members of staff working at the Court.
88. On 29th May 2018, it is alleged that you attended one of your neighbours' properties; you took your dog with you and waited by their front door. It is alleged that you tried to intimidate them as they were due to attend a hearing in the Edmonton County Court to give evidence in support of a claim for an injunction issued against you.
89. On 30th May 2018, it is alleged that you made threats to kill to one of your neighbours. The matter was reported to the police. You were arrested and released on bail.
90. You assaulted one of your neighbours on the 26th August 2018 for flashing his toilet.
91. You telephoned two council officers (Lemmy Nwabuisi and Ludmilla lyavoo) on 12t

September 2018 and made threats to them over the telephone. You also accused them of fraud and of fabricating evidence to support the Council's claim for an injunction
92. On 12th September 2018 at about 3.50pm, you called one of your neighbours on his mobile phone using a private number. It is not known how you obtained his number, but he terminated the call. You called again using the same private number, but he terminated the call as soon as he heard your voice. You called repeatedly after that.
93. On 24th September 2018 at about 11,30am, one of your neighbours returned home from dropping her daughter at school and as she entered their block of flat, she noticed that the middle door on the ground floor was open as well as your front door. As she went up the stairs to their second floor flat, your dog came out of your flat and started barking at her. The neighbour had to run up the stairs to her flat to escape from the dog. It was reported that your dog is always barking whenever they go out or return to the block and the neighbour and 4 years old daughter are terrified.
94. One of your neighbours reported that his cousin was leaving the block at about on 2nd October 2018 at 12.45pm, and as you exited the block, you followed him and suddenly grabbed his jacket from behind and tried to pull him to the ground. The cousin started shouting to attract neighbours and managed to push you off.
95. There are other reports from one of your neighbours who reported that on 30th September 2018, you attempted to break down his front door by kicking it several times only because he flashed his toilet.
96. It is reported that you continue to harass and intimidate other residents on a regular basis.
On the 25th of October he was arrested for breaching the injection order and spitting at the police officer on arrest.

Treatment and progress on the ward

On admission to Dorset ward, Mr Cordell presented elated, mildly irritable and thought disordered. On arrival to the room, he remained calm and polite. He started the conversation by asking for duty doctor's name, which he wrote down on a paper. He then stated he has been detained here illegally because they think he is grandiose. He then went onto give the duty doctor a timeline of events which were largely related to the police and his connection with mental health services. In summary, he holds paranoid ideas that the police have charged him 'in illegal ways' for an ASBO for 'organisation of illegal raves. This has led to several on-going issues with the police who have involved mental health services and it is a conspiracy against him.

He states he wasn't assessed properly by doctors today (25/10/18) and that the doctors who saw him today (25/10/18) have previously tried to section him and 'failed' because he has 'video recordings' to prove he is innocent. He referred to multiple acts and dates which apparently are being broken by keeping him here.
He states he has several businesses that the police have tried to stop, including 'owning festivals' and his website called 'horrific corruption' and associated newsroom which he uses to expose police and doctors who are working in illegal ways. He states he has 'been wronged 78 times by the police' and will 'expose all of the doctors and police' involved.
He spoke about being a 'privileged member of the community' and has never tried to hurt anyone. He reports the police have framed him in a 'sex scandal' and caused multiple issues.
He described a negative relationship with neighbours and states that they bang from above continuously. He states a previous partner was pregnant and the neighbours banging led to the baby being lost.

He denies having a mental health illness and states he will get out of here once he has his laptop containing video graphic proof and was requesting a tribunal. During the course of the conversation, he refused to acknowledge he has been sectioned and was adamant he would be able to leave but was not forceful or physically attempting to leave.
When he was seen by ward doctor on the 26th of October Mr Cordell feels he is in hospital because the police have "falsified" a report that led to him being kept on a curfew for years. He proceeded to talk at length about circumstance that led him to be charged for handling of stolen goods and suspicion of burglary in 2013. He believes the case was handled poorly and is sure the police were conspiring against him. "The abuse of process by the civil service was unreasonable".
Following this he reports being placed on a 2-year injunction and a 5-year curfew. He feels this has led to a breakdown in a 13-year relationship he had. He also reports this affecting his company -a community interest company he started up. At one-point Mr Cordell also mentioned the police targeting him for holding large parties that he was adamant were not hosted by him.
Mr Cordell reports owning a couple of local festivals and talks about engaging with multiple charities helping children. He says he had to stop this as police were harassing him in front of the children. He alleges to own his own company, his own paper and has just bought his own book maker for 70000 pounds. He also reports having 180000 friends on Facebook due to all his free parties.
When asked about his neighbours Mr Cordell said he believes his neighbours have been making up complaints about him. "My neighbours are calling up the police after forging the paperwork." He feels that his neighbours have been attacking him and reports feeling anxious in his house. Simon says he "kept writing to the police saying please can you protect me".

He does not think he is unwell and does not think he has a mental health problem. He admits he might be elevated but he believes this is a constructive state.
Mr Cordell reports not being compliant with any of his medication at any point. He is refusing to take any medication during this admission. "I've spent thousands of pounds showing you my brain, me being alert saves lives."
Mr Cordell would like to appeal his section and feels that by keeping him in hospital we are breaching his rights. "Physical or mental suffering amount to torture"
He reports sleeping, eating, and drinking well. Later he suggested this may not be the case stating, "In the night-time when my neighbours are asleep that's the best time for working".
Impression was that he presented with paranoid and grandiose delusions with significant mood component. In view of long-term symptoms this is most likely consistent with a schizoaffective disorder. He does not currently have capacity for treatment or admission.
He settled in over the weekend, personal hygiene remained poor, smell of cannabis on him was noticed.
On the 29th October 2018 when he was seen by a nurse, he was irritable and quite hostile. He was on the phone to his relative, complaining about police and claimed to be falsely accused.

On the 29th of October Formulation meeting was held:
Care coordinator 's feedback: This is only the second time meeting Simon. There have been issues with reports he is assaulting other residents in his council accommodation.
Nursing report: He appears paranoid on the ward.
interview with patient:
Mr Cordell appeared very agitated and vocal and was keen to put across his opinion that he had been illegally detained.
Mr Cordell reports issues with police actions in regard to not giving him the ASBO folder properly - this was left outside instead of giving it to him directly. Mr Cordell continued to explain other problems with the police's treatment of him. This includes the metropolitan police having placed a photo of Mr Cordell in a folder in regard to a party he had no involvement with. He denies being involved in any of the parties mentioned in the ASBO. Mr Cordell spoke at length about the injustices surrounding his placement on curfew and the ASBO order.
He describes how on multiple times doctors have tried to assess him under the MHA and he has explained to them at each time the situation with the police. He was once placed under a section 2 and was able to appeal his section.
Mr Cordell reports the neighbours (?2 floors up) trying to deliberately disturb him by making a lot of noise and flushing the toilet multiple times. He feels they want him to get distressed and go upstairs to address them. They have been doing this over the last 4 years and are doing this throughout the day. From Mr Cordell's flat you can even hear them talking - there is apparently very poor sound proofing.
Mr Cordell has described a council official as having forged statements and falsely accusing him of threatening his life. Mr Cordell reports that he is being assaulted by his neighbours as is his partner's small child. He feels the stress from this situation may have been linked to his partner's miscarriage. Mr Cordell denies any acts of antisocial behaviour, even in retaliation. At every point where he approaches the upstairs neighbours, he states he calls the police to ask then to "protect" him.

In regard to the recent arrest, he reports the police attended due to a fraudulent call from the neighbours. The police tried to hand him a breach of harassment order which Mr Cordell ripped and spat on the paper. The police officer then yelled that he had spat on her. He was then arrested for assault to a police officer. This charge was dropped in the police station and he was referred for an MHA.
Mr Cordell is currently on benefits. He reports the expensive hardware he owns (e.g. 70000-pound bookmaker) he buys broken and second hand cheaply and fixes them. Mr Cordell works from home. He built a new model constitution - a community interest company which was a charity farm.

Collateral information:

His mother and uncle would like mental health service to stop referring to Mr Cordell reporting the police as being prejudice against him as delusional - they believe this can be proved (showing photos of his company truck and hardware).

Mr Cordell ‘s mother is very upset that doctors have submitted reports stating that he is delusional and grandiose. They feel the AMHP report is grossly inaccurate.
Mr Cordell ‘s uncle is also upset that the mental health team would not provide Mr Cordell with a letter to assist with his housing situation.
They explain that the reason Mr Cordell has not be prosecuted for the complaints made by the neighbours is because each time Mr Cordell is able to "prove his innocence" directly to the police.
Mr Cordell ‘s mother believes he is very stressed due to the conditions of the ASBO and his neighbours disturbing him.
His uncle would like us to check the website that Mr Cordell has set up to highlight the injustices against him “horrificcorruption.com”. (Other websites mentioned by Simon include the Way back machine and too smooth).
Impression was that Mr Cordell was unstable in mental state and behaviour. He presented with persecutory delusions and possibly auditory hallucinations.

Plan was:

3. Requires further review of notes
4. Liaise Enfield council re plans for housing - ask Rosie for input

Following the formulation meeting he presented very grandiose - showing staff and peers his website and that he has '20,000 emails and 500,000 phone contacts'. He seems elated and keen to get his message across.
Dr Timothy Rogers e-mailed Dr Greensides on the 30th of October 2018 as Mr Cordell was referred to a forensic sector prior MHAA and wrote that he has terrorised their patient (who lives above him) including one occasion taking him by the throat and left our patient feeling unable to walk around on the floor or even flush his toilet chain for fear of sparking another altercation (with no basis) about excessive noise.
Mr Cordell was reviewed on the 31st of October 2018 by Dr Greensides (Consultant psychiatrist), Dr Elia and Dr Bruce:
Mr Cordell confirms his problems began in 2013. He moved into his premises in 2013 - there was evidence of CO poisoning in the flat and all the boiler systems and alarms had to be replaced.

Mr Cordell has been held on curfew for a long time for organising a party and? wrongly accused of damaging the premises. Also was accused of burglary and handling of stolen goods - he was found innocent on both accounts.
Mr Cordell reports having had a "relationship" with his current partner Katy for the last ?20 years. She has a son from a previous relationship.
The problems with the neighbours have been going on for 4 years now. Mr Cordell is concerned about his neighbours, in particular to how their behaviour might affect their child. 6 flats in total in his council building - the neighbours that are problematic are 2 floors above Mr Cordell's. These particular neighbours bang on the water pipes, stamps on the floor (this echo through the flat between) - this happens first thing in the morning and goes on through the day.

Mr Cordell believes his neighbours sit in their flat eavesdropping on Mr Cordell's whereabouts. When he enters the bathroom, they enter their bathroom and flush the toilet a lot. Simon has Video and Audio recordings throughout his flat in order to prove his innocence. There is a husband and wife living there as well as a new-born baby. Mr Cordell reports he can hear this family talking but he can't make out what they are saying - he denies them saying anything negative about him "they've never spoke to me".
Simon has personal information about his neighbour which he feels is proof of? tax evasion - he reports the family own 50 houses in the UK. The neighbour has changed their surname in order to accommodate some scheme to avoid? tax - Mr Cordell reports he has "100% evidence" that this is true and feels it is relevant to him because of how they are treating him. Mr Cordell believes what the neighbours are doing is a hate crime.
Mr Cordell denies ever having felt like the TV was talking to him or that the council was advertising his information. Mr Cordell does feel his personal information is being advertised somehow - friends have approached him and have information about him he believes can only have come from secure computer systems.
Mr Cordell is not concerned about his tenancy at the moment - he states he has recordings that prove his innocence. Simon is aware the council has told him to stay away from his neighbours - since this time he states he hasn't approached his neighbours. He wants to publish a book about what has been going on. Simon does not appear to accept that he has become fixated on this issue.
Mr Cordell does not think his problems with his neighbours are in any way due to him having a mental health problem. Mr Cordell wouldn't like to take medication as he doesn't feel he needs it and is concerned medication may impact his ability work. He is particularly concerned that the medication will "dope him out".
Mr Cordell states he has a good family support network. He is happy to see the ward psychologist.
Mr Cordell has been informed that a referral to a forensic psychiatrist who may want to visit him on the ward.
Impression was that he presented with persecutory delusions and poor insight into his condition. Not currently deemed to be a risk to himself or others. He could be at high risk of losing accommodation if continues untreated. Plan was:

4. For Section 17 leave
5. No medication at present
6. Refer to ward Psychologist - Dr Patkas

He has terrorised our patient (who lives above him) including one occasion taking him by the throat and left our patient feeling unable to walk around on the floor or even flush his toilet chain for fear of sparking another altercation (with no basis) about excessive noise.

Opinion and recommendations

7. Mr Cordell suffers from a mental disorder, the symptoms of which at present are persecutory delusions, grandiose beliefs, and attitude. In addition, he also presented thought disordered with circumstantial thinking. Probably he has been experiencing auditory hallucinations too. His condition is complicated by poor insight into his mental health illness and substance misuse.
8. This illness is currently of a nature and degree to warrant detention under section 2 of the mental health act.
9. Without this there are risks to his health, principally mental health which is likely to continue to deteriorate without intervention. He is also at high risk from being evicted from his current accommodation which could put his mental and physical health at significant risk. His safety is compromised by possible retaliation from others when he is behaving aggressively towards other people. As well as the safety of others as he was aggressive to his neighbours, council employees and police prior to admission.
10. This cannot be carried out in the community as he has limited insight and refuses intervention, tried for a number of years, and failed.
11. Should he be discharged then he will be referred to the HTT but is not likely to engage.
12. Tribunal need no special arrangements to accommodate Mr Cordell.

Dear Ms Ryan,
Mr Simon Cordell, 109 Burncroft Avenue, EN3 7JQ
Thank you for your recent enquiry, which I forwarded to my officers in the Community Safety Unit Anti-Social Behaviour team.
I can confirm that the Anti-Social Behaviour Team is aware of the ongoing issues between Mr Cordell and his neighbours. Your enquiry has been added to the Anti-Social Behaviour database (Case Reference 17834) and passed to Anti-Social Behaviour Coordinator Lemmy Nwabuisi to investigate.
I have liaised with Mr Nwabuisi and have been advised that the council was granted an interim injunction with a power of arrest on 9th January 2018 because of reports of anti-social behaviour and harassment made against Mr Cordell by some of his neighbours. The injunction was discharged at a hearing at Edmonton County Court on 9th August 2018 following a mental health assessment report that concluded that Mr Cordell did not have the mental capacity to litigate or understand the terms of the injunction.
Mr Nwabuisi has also advised that there is no court decision whereby the Judge stated that Mr Cordell is entitled to a 2-bedroom property so that his career, his mother, has a spare room to sleep in.
He advised that Mrs Cordell informed the Judge at the hearing that her son requires a 2-bedroom property and the Judge asked the council to consider her request, however the Judge did not make an order that Mr Cordell should be offered a 2-bedroom property.
Mr Nwabuisi further advised that the council is not aware that Mrs Cordell is Mr Cordell's register carer.

Who you are and in what capacity you know the patient, how long you have worked with them?

My name is Soobah Appadoo? I am a CPN with the above-named team. I have been asked to compile this social circumstance report in support of above-named patient's Mental Health Review Tribunal (MHRT) appeal against his detention under Section 2 of the Mental Health Act. Mr Cordell was admitted on section 2 on the 26th October 2018.
Mr Cordell was previously under the care of the Early Intervention Team for 3 years. The Early Intervention Team discharged him in June 2018 and at that point he was referred to our team. There is a suggestion on RIO notes that he did not engage well with that team.
I was allocated to Mr Cordell in August 2018. We offered him an appointment at his flat on the 31st August. Mr Cordell rang our office the day before and spoke to me. I informed him that I am his new Care Coordinator. He said that he had been seen for "76 days by his CC" and there was "nothing wrong with me". He said that the reason we want to see him is to "cover for missing signatures?". He said he "will ruin anyone who come to my house" and he has "recording cameras and audios" to ruin us. He said if you come to my house "I f...ing will scar you for life". He used foul languages throughout this contact. He said that I "can take the f...ing referral and stick it up my a..e". He said that he does not want to see us. I could not interrupt him: very verbally aggressive with pressure in speech". I did manage to say that we are a different team from Lucas House and we want him to have a fresh start- He said "I don't f...ing care"
Further to that the MDT advised that we should assess Mr Cordell in clinic due to the potential risks. We then offered him an appointment on the 28th September which Mr Cordell did not attend.

Barnet, Enfield and Haringey
Mental Health NHS Trust

NHS

My report is based on the information which I have extracted from RIO and my telephone conversation with Mr Cordell's mother.

Psychiatric history

On the 16th August 2016 Mr Cordell was admitted to CFH under Section 2 of the MHA. He was discharged on the 27th August 2016. According to RIO notes Mr Cordell "was arrested at his home address after his mother raised concerns about his mental state - he was allegedly verbally threatening towards his neighbour and (?) neighbour's children. Simon's mother called police who arrested him. He was seen by the FME at Wood Green police station, was then referred for MHA."
He appealed against his Section. The Mental Health Review Tribunal discharged him from Section 2 on the 26th August 2016.

Leading to current admission

As I stated above leading to this admission Mr Cordell did not attend appointments offered to him by our service. Subsequently due to the allegations made against him I was advised to attend a Safeguarding meeting for an alleged victim. In that meeting I was informed by the Council that Mr Cordell has a past and current history of physical and verbal aggression towards residents in the building. I was informed that the council has tried to work with Mr Cordell but to no avail. I was informed me that Mr Cordell was getting easily irritated even by the sound of a flushing toilet; this happened very recently and he threatened the resident concerned. The Council was of the opinion that these are signs of mental illness and suggested that BEH should proceed with a MHA. The Council argued that this is for the protection of others as well as Mr Cordell's own safety.

Subsequently the council sent us a copy of 'Anti-Social Behaviour, Tenancy concerns and breaches- pre-action letter' which contained a chronology of alleged incidents dating from 2016. These alleged incidents were in the meaning of an antisocial behaviour presentation.
On the 17th October Mr Cordell was discussed in our MDT meeting. A decision was made to conduct a MHA. A MHA was attempted on the 19th October. Mr Cordell did not cooperate and the assessment did not take place.
On the 23rd October an application for a warrant was made but was declined on the grounds "that there was insufficient recent evidence that he was being "kept under proper control" as he is living alone and "insufficient recent medical evidence that "he is unable to care for himself.
According to RIO, on the 25th October Mr Cordell was arrested for breaching a harassment order. It was alleged that he was aggressive towards the police and spat at them. He was assessed at the police station. On interview he had pressure of speech, delusions about his neighbours and the police and housing ganging up against him. He denied drug use. He said that does not have a mental disorder. The doctors who assessed Mr Cordell found him "hypomanic, with flight of speech, grandiose and thought disordered"

Forensic history

Nil known.

Risk History

According to the Risk Assessment on RIO notes Mr Cordell had expressed suicidal thoughts in the past. This was related to stress from court cases. The date is not stated in the Risk Assessment. Around that time, he said that he had researched ways of harming himself (poisoning, OD, hanging). He had said in the past that he tried to hang himself aged 16 when he was in a young offender's institute. He had said that he needed resuscitation. He tried to hang himself a second time after he was sentenced by a judge aged 20. He had said that he drank Nitrous Oxide in 2014 with intent to die.
According to his Risk Assessment he was regularly a victim or witness of his father's violent behaviour.
There are recent reports from the Council regarding alleged aggressive behaviours towards other residents. In June 2018 he was apparently involved in court case with the neighbours who he apparently threatened to harm.

Social circumstances

Personal History

Mr Cordell is single. He has a partner. He has no children. He was born in Enfield and did his schooling in Edmonton. Left school aged 16. He studied and worked in mechanics and road works, electrical and computers after he left school (mother's report)

Views of family

I telephoned Ms Cordell on the 7th November 2018. Ms Cordell told me that neighbours have been "terrorising" his son since 2014 in particular a neighbour on the 2nd floor. Ms Cordell told me that whilst her son is in hospital her nephew has been staying in the flat to look after the dog. The nephew has reported that the occupier on the 2nd floor have been "banging" on the floor. She said that the neighbour then realised that her son is not in the flat when they saw the nephew coming out of Mr Cordell's flat. She told me that since the 26th October the "banging" has stopped. She said that she has complained about the neighbour herself but thinks these situations are misinterpreted by the council and the mental health services and her son is then seen as the perpetrator and or being mentally unwell. Ms Cordell stated that the sound proofing is lacking and the noise is real. Other neighbours have made allegations that Mr Cordell has been aggressive towards them. She said that there is no evidence of this; police have seen CCTV and found that her son had not left the flat at the time when these incidents were alleged to have happen. Ms Cordell gave another example in 2016 where it was alleged by a neighbour that her son had made threats to kill him. She said that the police initially charged her son with making threats to kill; after seeing video evidence they charged him with a 'Public Order Offence'. She said that around the time of this alleged incident her son was in his flat with some friends. Her son was not allowed to his flat and was bailed to her flat where he stayed until December 2016. She said that the CPS after seeing evidence dismissed the case a day before the trial. She said that the council has never taken the responsibility to look at evidences; the allegations made against her son (physical assault, letting his dog on the loose) have not been proven. She said that on the 9th August in court the Judge ordered Enfield Council to move her son to a 2-bedroom flat but the Council wants/plans to evict him instead. She said that the Council has no grounds to apply for her son's eviction.
She said that her son has a one-bedroom flat. She said that he does not want to live there. She said that he needs a 2-bedroom flat with the plan that his cousin could stay with him to provide emotional support. She said that her son has everything he needs in the flat. She told me that her son is very independent in activities of daily living; his personal care is extremely good; he cooks for himself, maintains the flat and takes responsibility for his bills. She told me that he has no financial difficulties/no debts.

She said that her son has a work history. In 2010 he was planning to set up a business in the entertainment industry. He has also built websites in relation to this. At present he is not in employment. He is in receipt of Employment Support Allowance but needs to make an application for Personal Independent Payment.
I asked her if she thinks her son has a mental illness; she told me that he suffers from stress and anxiety due to issues with the neighbours but does not think he has a mental illness.
She said that the judged looked at evidence and did not grant a warrant in October 2018 for a mental health act to take place at her son's flat.
I asked Ms Cordell if she thinks her son could benefit from support from the community team. She said that he could do with some support but "we should stop labelling him as being delusional as he is not delusional".

After-Care
Potentially Mr Cordell care/treatment would be delivered via the Care Programme Approach. I am the allocated Care Coordinator and he will have a responsible clinician in the community.
My role would be first of all to build a relationship with Mr Cordell as I have only met him on 2 occasions. I will try to motivate him to engage with myself and the multidisciplinary team. As his Care Coordinator I will review Mr Cordell regularly independently and with the Community RC.
We have a Team Clinical Psychologist and it would be vital for Mr Cordell to have some form of talking therapy. This is on the basis of the stress and anxiety that his mother states he suffers from.
We have a Dual Diagnosis Worker in the team who could offer drug counselling if necessary.
We have an organisation called 'Remploy' which is funded by the Local Authority. Potentially they could support Mr Cordell to find work. They meet regularly with clients whilst they are in work and also liaise with employers.
I could support Mr Cordell in making an application for PIP. Alternatively, he could get that support from 'Enfield Well-Being Connect'
The Mental Health Enablement Team could provide support in tenancy management as well as support to access education/training and work.

Opinion and recommendations
I have met Mr Cordell on two occasions only and I have not had the opportunity to assess him in the community. A rapport needs to be established with him.
On the basis of recent events, history of risks to self and alleged risks towards others, and taking into account the views of the MDT on the ward I think that he would benefit from a longer stay in hospital. This is in-order for the MDT to assess him comprehensively to determine if he has a severe and enduring mental illness such as schizophrenia/psychosis. If it is determined that he has a severe mental illness then this should be treated accordingly whilst he is in hospital.

Health Act 2007
Date: Tribunal at 2:15: -- https://www.legislation.gov.uk/ukpga/2007/12/contents
Notes:
The 2007 Mental Health Act made several key changes to the 1983 Mental Health Act, which laid down provision for the compulsory detention and treatment of people with mental health problems in England and Wales.
Sch -- 13Amendments to Part 5 of 1983 Act
(1) Part 5 of the 1983 Act (Mental Health Review Tribunals) is amended as follows.
(2) In the following provisions, after "registered medical practitioner" insert "or approved clinician"
(a) section 67(2) (power to visit and examine patient for the purposes of a tribunal reference), and
(b) section 76(1) (power to visit and examine patient for the purposes of a tribunal application).
(3) In section 79 (interpretation of Part 5), in subsection (6), for ", and "the responsible medical officer" means the responsible medical officer," substitute "and "the responsible clinician" means the responsible clinician."

My solicitor arrived to Dorset wing but at no fault of her own
She got sent to the wrong part of the Hospital Wing causing her a dely.
The time she arrived was at 1:30 and we took what time we had to go other the reports that she had been given to us as wisely as possible.
My mother turned up just after the solicitor arrived.
Soon after it was time for the tribunal.

Two-time's male nurses brought or meeting to a halt and we all took a short walk together of the Dorset hospital wing into another department on the hospital, I soon after found out that the department is called the; -- Mental health Act Department.
As we entered the department, we walked into the middle of a corridor and I got told by the nurses that the tribunal room is based along the corridor.
We got taken to one end of the corridor and asked to take a seat on some chairs I noticed that there was a reception room at one end of the corridor and at the other end is where the tribunal room is at the other.

There is a Bad leak running all across the main floor in the communal room coming from the water machine.

1	1. The tribunal is satisfied that it has jurisdiction to consider this application. 2. The solicitor for the patient sought permission to submit a 6-page document from Mrs Cordell, the nearest relative. The solicitor indicated that the document expressed the nearest relative's views-and those of a cousin the panel considered the request and noted that Mrs Cordell's views as regards her son's detention and the housing problems he has experienced were fully reflected in the social circumstances report provided. The panel would also allow her to speak at the tribunal hearing if she wished to do so. In those circumstances, we did not accept the submission of the document.

Reasons

3	1.Backqround: Mr. Simon Cordell is aged 37 and is single and resides in council accommodation in the community. There is a longstanding history of difficulties with neighbours at his accommodation which was detailed in the reports. His background and history were documented in the statutory reports provided to the panel. He has been known to Adult Mental Health Services since 2014. He has had varied diagnoses in the past and has been found not to require section under the Mental Health Act in 2014 and 2015. He was however detained subject to Section 2 in August 2016 and was subsequently discharged by a Tribunal. The history indicated that he was discharged on prescribed medication and followed up by EIS. He reportedly did not engage with services or medication and was thereafter discharged from EIS. He has a current working diagnosis of schizophrenia. The current admission follows an incident in October 2018 which led to safeguarding concerns and the Enfield Adult North Locality Team's decision to arrange an MHA assessment. Mr. Cordell was detained subject to Section 2 on the 02 .11.2018.

4	2. The Responsible Authority's case: The clinical case argued that the patient has a chronic and enduring mental illness. It is unclear whether the mental disorder responds to treatment as the patient has not engaged consistently with treatment. Currently, the patient has been assessed without medication as Mr. Cordell does not accept that he requires psychotropic medication.

	Mr. Cordell presents with a number of persecutory, paranoid thoughts in relation to his beliefs that the police and his neighbours are in some way targeting him. Mr. Cordell also exhibits thought disorder and some tangentiality in his response to questions posed. The professional evidence argued that the nature and degree of the mental disorder warranted the patient's continued detention of assessment which is justified in the interests of the patient's health, safety and the protection of others.

5	3. The patient's view: Mr. Cordell was polite and courteous towards the panel. He told the panel that he did not accept that he has a mental illness or any need for medication. He said he experienced anxiety and distress at his accommodation. He indicated that the 48 allegations between the: 06/07/2016 and 02/10/2018 set out in the medical report from an Enfield Council Report regarding concerns and breaches of his tenancy agreement were all fabricated. He did not accept that he was in any way at fault. He repeated on several occasions that his neighbours had submitted a litany of complaints to council officials about him in order to undermine his occupation of the premises.

	He said that he has been stopped from organising festivals and had set up a website to air his frustrations about his perception of the injustice of his treatment. He told the panel that he would remain as a voluntary patient.

6	4. The nature and degree of the mental disorder: As to the nature of the mental disorder, the patient's illness appears to be a chronic illness which has persisted for some time. It is unclear as to the patient's response to treatment as yet. Mr. Cordell told the panel that he did not take the psychotropic medication prescribed following his last discharge in 2016. The clinical team have sought the first recommendation for Section 3 and intend to commence treatment with psychotropic medication in due course.

	Mr. Cordell displayed no insight into his mental health difficulties and sought to minimise his actions prior to the current admission. As to the degree of the mental disorder, the patient's evidence was tangential, guarded and there was clear thought disorder. Dr Greensides told the panel that he had looked at Mr. Cordell's website which indicated the presence of thought disorder. The panel asked Mr. Cordell about a telephone conversation with Mr. Appadoo which is detailed in the social circumstances report; the patient is alleged to have used foul and threatening language throughout the conversation. Mr. Cordell did not dispute the telephone conversation and sought to minimise his actions stating that the content was out of context. He was unable to contain his thoughts on the question posed as to whether, reflecting on the matter now, he thought his response was inappropriate. The nursing evidence in contrast to the panel's observation, indicated that the patient has not exhibited any psychotic symptoms. On a positive note, there has been some improvement in the patient's presentation overall as he is no longer challenging, irritable or confrontational.

7	5. The detention is justified in the interests of the patient's health, safety and the protection of others. As to the patient's health, the professional evidence indicated that psychotropic medication is to be commenced and the patient's response to treatment is to. be monitored. The clinical view is that a period of treatment is now required to address the patient's psychotic symptoms. The clinical view is that the patient is unlikely to engage as an informal patient and a previous attempt at treating the patient in the community was unsuccessful. As to the patient's safety, there is historical information that Mr. Cordell has attempted to self-harm in the past. This is not a current concern.

	Mr. Cordell's difficulties at his accommodation may pose a risk of eviction. However, further clarification is required during the period of the assessment on this point. There is a potential risk of retaliation from others when he is behaving aggressively towards others. As regards the protection of others, Mr. Cordell has entrenched and longstanding views and there have been incidents of aggression involving his neighbours, council officials, and the police prior to admission. He showed little capacity for self- reflection or remorse during his evidence when he was questioned about his telephone interaction with Mr. Appadoo. We note that the allegations of physical and verbal altercations with his neighbours were relied upon to obtain an order for an injunction as recently as the 9.1.2018 which was later discharged in July 2018 due to the patient's lack of capacity to understand the conditions of the injunction due to his psychotic illness.

As to the patient's health, the professional evidence indicated that: --
1) Psychotropic medication is to be commenced and the patient's response to treatment is to. be monitored.

Dear Trishna,
I write further to my email to you and Mrs Lorraine Cordell. Our allocation manager has advised us that as Mr Cordell is an existing council tenant, he is entitled to apply for a transfer of tenancy and cannot make a rehousing application.
I am advised that the application needs to be done via Mr Cordell's neighbourhood officer. I have emailed the officer and asked him to contact Mrs Cordell as soon as possible. Mrs Cordell is also encouraged to contact the Mental Health Team so they can support him with his MH issues and rehousing. I have amended the order to reflect the above and look forward to hearing from you.

1	1. The tribunal is satisfied that it has jurisdiction to consider this application. 2. The solicitor for the patient sought permission to submit a 6-page document from Mrs Cordell, the nearest relative. The solicitor indicated that the document expressed the nearest relative's views-and those of a cousin the panel considered the request and noted that Mrs Cordell's views as regards her son's detention and the housing problems he has experienced were fully reflected in the social circumstances report provided. The panel would also allow her to speak at the tribunal hearing if she wished to do so. In those circumstances, we did not accept the submission of the document.

Reasons

3	1.Backqround: Mr. Simon Cordell is aged 37 and is single and resides in council accommodation in the community. There is a longstanding history of difficulties with neighbours at his accommodation which was detailed in the reports. His background and history were documented in the statutory reports provided to the panel. He has been known to Adult Mental Health Services since 2014. He has had varied diagnoses in the past and has been found not to require section under the Mental Health Act in 2014 and 2015. He was however detained subject to Section 2 in August 2016 and was subsequently discharged by a Tribunal. The history indicated that he was discharged on prescribed medication and followed up by EIS. He reportedly did not engage with services or medication and was thereafter discharged from EIS. He has a current working diagnosis of schizophrenia. The current admission follows an incident in October 2018 which led to safeguarding concerns and the Enfield Adult North Locality Team's decision to arrange an MHA assessment. Mr. Cordell was detained subject to Section 2 on the 02 .11.2018.

4	2. The Responsible Authority's case: The clinical case argued that the patient has a chronic and enduring mental illness. It is unclear whether the mental disorder responds to treatment as the patient has not engaged consistently with treatment. Currently, the patient has been assessed without medication as Mr. Cordell does not accept that he requires psychotropic medication.

	Mr. Cordell presents with a number of persecutory, paranoid thoughts in relation to his beliefs that the police and his neighbours are in some way targeting him. Mr. Cordell also exhibits thought disorder and some tangentiality in his response to questions posed. The professional evidence argued that the nature and degree of the mental disorder warranted the patient's continued detention of assessment which is justified in the interests of the patient's health, safety and the protection of others.

5	3. The patient's view: Mr. Cordell was polite and courteous towards the panel. He told the panel that he did not accept that he has a mental illness or any need for medication. He said he experienced anxiety and distress at his accommodation. He indicated that the 48 allegations between the: 06/07/2016 and 02/10/2018 set out in the medical report from an Enfield Council Report regarding concerns and breaches of his tenancy agreement were all fabricated. He did not accept that he was in any way at fault. He repeated on several occasions that his neighbours had submitted a litany of complaints to council officials about him in order to undermine his occupation of the premises.

	He said that he has been stopped from organising festivals and had set up a website to air his frustrations about his perception of the injustice of his treatment. He told the panel that he would remain as a voluntary patient.

6	4. The nature and degree of the mental disorder: As to the nature of the mental disorder, the patient's illness appears to be a chronic illness which has persisted for some time. It is unclear as to the patient's response to treatment as yet. Mr. Cordell told the panel that he did not take the psychotropic medication prescribed following his last discharge in 2016. The clinical team have sought the first recommendation for Section 3 and intend to commence treatment with psychotropic medication in due course.

	Mr. Cordell displayed no insight into his mental health difficulties and sought to minimise his actions prior to the current admission. As to the degree of the mental disorder, the patient's evidence was tangential, guarded and there was clear thought disorder. Dr Greensides told the panel that he had looked at Mr. Cordell's website which indicated the presence of thought disorder. The panel asked Mr. Cordell about a telephone conversation with Mr. Appadoo which is detailed in the social circumstances report; the patient is alleged to have used foul and threatening language throughout the conversation. Mr. Cordell did not dispute the telephone conversation and sought to minimise his actions stating that the content was out of context. He was unable to contain his thoughts on the question posed as to whether, reflecting on the matter now, he thought his response was inappropriate. The nursing evidence in contrast to the panel's observation, indicated that the patient has not exhibited any psychotic symptoms. On a positive note, there has been some improvement in the patient's presentation overall as he is no longer challenging, irritable or confrontational.

7	5. The detention is justified in the interests of the patient's health, safety and the protection of others. As to the patient's health, the professional evidence indicated that psychotropic medication is to be commenced and the patient's response to treatment is to. be monitored. The clinical view is that a period of treatment is now required to address the patient's psychotic symptoms. The clinical view is that the patient is unlikely to engage as an informal patient and a previous attempt at treating the patient in the community was unsuccessful. As to the patient's safety, there is historical information that Mr. Cordell has attempted to self-harm in the past. This is not a current concern.

	Mr. Cordell's difficulties at his accommodation may pose a risk of eviction. However, further clarification is required during the period of the assessment on this point. There is a potential risk of retaliation from others when he is behaving aggressively towards others. As regards the protection of others, Mr. Cordell has entrenched and longstanding views and there have been incidents of aggression involving his neighbours, council officials, and the police prior to admission. He showed little capacity for self- reflection or remorse during his evidence when he was questioned about his telephone interaction with Mr. Appadoo. We note that the allegations of physical and verbal altercations with his neighbours were relied upon to obtain an order for an injunction as recently as the 9.1.2018 which was later discharged in July 2018 due to the patient's lack of capacity to understand the conditions of the injunction due to his psychotic illness.

9) We note that the allegations of physical and verbal altercations with his neighbours were relied upon to obtain an order for an injunction as recently as the 9.1.2018 which was later discharged in July 2018 due to the patient's lack of capacity to understand the conditions of the injunction due to his psychotic illness.

8	6. Our conclusions We accept the clinical evidence as to the nature arid degree of the mental disorder. We have no doubt that there is some element of neighbour's dispute; however, Mr. Cordell's response to such triggers appears to be rooted in a mental disorder which will need to be assessed during this admission. We also accept that the detention is justified in the interests of the patient's health, safety and the protection of others for the reasons set out above.

Pre-Hearing Medical Examination of the Patient

A pre-hearing examination of the patient was indicated under the Rules.
The interview with the patient took place on 8th November 2018.

The Tribunal considered:

Oral evidence from Dr J. Greensides,
RC; Nurse Thembi Magodlela;
Mr Soobah Appadoo, CPN;
Mr Simon Cordell, patient and Mrs Cordell, patient's mother.
Written evidence from Dr M. Elia, ST6;
Nurse Bibi Khodabux;
Mr Soobah Appadoo, CPN
Other material, namely Responsible Authority Statement of Information,
Observers: Mrs Fiona Bateman, (Judicial Shadowing Scheme) and Student Nurse Skubik

Jurisdiction. Preliminary and Procedural Matters

4. The tribunal is satisfied that it has jurisdiction to consider this application.
5. The solicitor for the patient sought permission to submit a 6-page document from Mrs Cordell, the nearest relative.
6. The solicitor indicated that the document expressed the nearest relative's views and those of a cousin. The panel considered the request and noted that Mrs. Cordell's views as regards her son's detention and the housing problems he has experienced were fully reflected in the social circumstances report provided. The panel would also allow her to speak at the tribunal hearing if she wished to do so. In those circumstances, we did not accept the submission of the document.

Grounds for the Decision

- The tribunal is satisfied that the patient is suffering from mental disorder or from mental disorder of a nature or degree which warrants the patient's detention in a hospital for assessment (or for assessment followed by medical treatment) for at least a limited period.
- The tribunal is satisfied that the patient's detention as aforesaid is justified in the interests of the patient's own health or safety, or with a view to the protection of other persons.
- The tribunal does not consider that it is appropriate to discharge the patient under its discretionary powers.

Reasons

1.Background

Mr Simon Cordell is aged 37 and is single and resides in council accommodation in the community. There is a longstanding history of difficulties with neighbours at his accommodation which was detailed in the reports. His background and history were documented in the statutory reports provided to the panel. He has been known to Adult Mental Health Services since 2014. He has had varied diagnoses in the past and has been found not to require section under the Mental Health Act in 2014 and 2015. He was however detained subject to Section 2 in August 2016 and was subsequently discharged by a Tribunal. The history indicated that he was discharged on prescribed medication and followed up by EIS. He reportedly did not engage with services or medication and was thereafter discharged from EIS. He has a current working diagnosis of schizophrenia. The current admission follows an incident in October 2018 which led to safeguarding concerns and the Enfield Adult North Locality Team's decision to arrange an MHA assessment. Mr Cordell was detained subject to Section 2 on the 25.11.2018.

The Responsible Authority's case

The patient's view

9. Mr. Cordell was polite and courteous towards the panel. He told the panel that he did not accept that he has a mental illness or any need for medication. He said he experienced anxiety and distress at his accommodation. He indicated that the 48 allegations between 6.7.2016 and 2.10.2018 set out in the medical report from an Enfield Council Report regarding concerns and breaches of his tenancy agreement were all fabricated. He did not accept that he was in any way at fault. He repeated on several occasions that his neighbours had submitted a litany of complaints to council officials about him in order to undermine his occupation of the premises. He said that he has been stopped from organising festivals and had set up a website to air his frustrations about his perception of the injustice of his treatment. He told the panel that he would remain as a voluntary patient

The nature and degree of the mental disorder

10. As to the nature of the mental disorder, the patient's illness appears to be a chronic illness which has persisted for some time. It is unclear as to the patient's response to treatment as yet. Mr. Cordell told the panel that he did not take the psychotropic medication prescribed following his last discharge in 2016. The clinical team have sought the first recommendation for Section 3 and intend to commence treatment with psychotropic medication in due course. Mr. Cordell displayed no insight into his mental health difficulties and sought to minimize his actions prior to the current admission. As to the degree of the mental disorder, the patient's evidence was tangential, guarded and there was clear thought disorder. Dr Greensides told the panel that he had looked at Mr. Cordell's website which indicated the presence of thought disorder. The panel asked Mr. Cordell about a telephone conversation with Mr. Appadoo which is detailed in the social circumstances report; the patient is alleged to have used foul and threatening language throughout the conversation. Mr. Cordell did not dispute the telephone conversation and sought to minimise his actions stating that the content was out of context. He was unable to contain his thoughts on the question posed as to whether, reflecting on the matter now, he thought his response was inappropriate. The nursing evidence in contrast to the panel's observation, indicated that the patient has not exhibited any psychotic symptoms. On a positive note, there has been some improvement in the patient's presentation overall as he is no longer challenging, irritable or confrontational.

The detention is justified in the interests of the patient's health, safety and the protection of others

11. As to the patient's health, the professional evidence indicated that psychotropic medication is to be commenced and the patient's response to treatment is to be monitored. The clinical view is that a period of treatment is now required to address the patient's psychotic symptoms. The clinical view is that the patient is unlikely to engage as an informal patient and a previous attempt at treating the patient in the community was unsuccessful.

As to the patient's safety, there is historical information that Mr Cordell has attempted to self-harm in the past. This is not a current concern. Mr Cordell's difficulties at his accommodation may pose a risk of eviction. However, further clarification is required during the period of the assessment on this point. There is a potential risk of retaliation from others when he is behaving aggressively towards others.

As regards the protection of others, Mr Cordell has entrenched and longstanding views and there have been incidents of aggression involving his neighbours, council officials, and the police prior to admission. He showed little capacity for self-reflection or remorse during his evidence when he was questioned about his telephone interaction with Mr Appadoo. We note that the allegations of physical and verbal altercations with his neighbours were relied upon to obtain an order for an injunction as recently as the 9.1.2018 which was later discharged in July 2018 due to the patient's lack of capacity to understand the conditions of the injunction due to his psychotic illness.

Our conclusions

12. We accept the clinical evidence as to the nature and degree of the mental disorder. We have no doubt that there is some element of neighbour dispute; however, Mr Cordell's response to such triggers appear to be rooted in a mental disorder which will need to be assessed during this admission. We also accept that the detention is justified in the interests of the patient's health, safety and the protection of others for the reasons set out above.

Exercise of discretion

13. There were no special features of this case which persuaded us to exercise our discretion to discharge.

Statutory criteria

14. The grounds and statutory criteria are satisfied. The section is upheld

Inpatient Nursing Report on Simon Cordell
Date of birth: 26/01/1981
Home address: 109 Burncroft Avenue Enfield
Post Code: EN3 7JQ
Hospital: Chase Farm Hospital-
The Ridgeway Enfield Middlesex EN2 8JL.
MHA status: Section 2
Named Nurse: Bibi Khodabux
Report prepared by Bibi Khodabux
Sources of Information: Rio notes, observations, feedback from the team and 1:1 session with patient.

- I am a staff nurse on Dorset ward, and I have known Simon since his admission to the ward.

13. Circumstances leading to admission

Simon is a 37-year-old service user admitted on 25/10/18 under section 2 of the MHA. It was reported that he had not been engaging with the services in recent years. He was arrested for spitting at a police officer after they were called about him harassing his neighbours. He also has a number of no molestation orders against him, forbidding him contacting them. He was taken to Wood Green police station and during Mental Health Act assessment he appeared to be thought disordered, had no insight, held several grandiose and delusional beliefs. On admission he was irritable in mood, elated and grandiose.

14. Current nursing care

Simon is nursed in a safe environment. He has been encouraged to approach staff to discuss his feelings. A therapeutic outlet has been provided for him to ventilate his feelings.

15. He has been offered 1:1

- session with staff on each shift to discuss his care plan and also to gain his cooperation and to get him involved in his treatment. He was encouraged to get involved in his care plan and discuss his views. Staff encouraged him to gain insight so that he would engage.
- Staff initiated establishing rapport with him which has gradually improved.
- He has politely declined to attend occupational therapy sessions on the ward. He is currently nursed on general observation.
- Nursing report for inpatient

16. Current medication

He is currently on no regular medication
He is on PRN Lorazepam Maximum 4 mg in 24 hours.
Paracetamol PRN 1g 4-6 hourly.
Ibuprofen 400 mg Maximum TDS in 24 hours

17. Contact with others

He interacts well with fellow patients and staff on the ward.

He has been leaving the ward to proceed on unescorted section 17 leave and he complied with it.

His mother and uncle visited him on the ward and observed to have interacted well with them.

18. Progress on the ward-

On admission he presented with challenging behaviour, intermittently agitated, hostile, argumentative, and demanding to leave the ward but did not make any physical attempt to leave. He has now. calmed down but there is limited progress in his mental state.

He has no insight and complains of being wrongfully detained.

He states that there is a conspiracy by the police and mental health services that are all out to get him. He claims to have set up a website with details, videos, and recordings.

19. During 1:1

with Simon he appears preoccupied with talking about his websites

He states he has several businesses that the police have tried to stop.

He is eating and drinking well.

He has limited insight.

He attends to his personal care which has improved.

He socialises with other patients and staff on the ward.

He engages willingly with staffs.

20. Incidents

There is no report of any incidents on the ward.

21. Risk

At present risk to self is low. He did not express any thoughts of self-harm.

He is at risk of further deterioration in his mental state if he does not comply with medication.

Risk to others is low on the ward. He did not present with any aggressive outburst during admission. Has been reported to be at risk to his neighbours in the community due to his aggressive behaviour.

22. Factors affecting this hearing

23. Nursing report for inpatient

(Reports for MHA Hearings Policy v5.0 - Appendix H)

Barnet, Enfield, and Haringey

Mental Hearth NHS Trust

He should be able to attend this tribunal and also cope with the outcome with the help and support from staffs.

24. Opinion and recommendations

Is detention in hospital for (S2) or the provision of medical treatment in hospital justified or necessary.

It is important that Simon remains in hospital under section 2 so that his mental state can be fully assessed followed by treatment.

He has no insight and is not willing to cooperate with his treatment.

He does not believe that he needs medication.

There is a high probability that he will not cooperate and disengage from services.

He will be putting himself and his neighbours at risk due to his aggressive and confrontational behaviour.

He will be at risk of losing his accommodation.

Who you are and in what capacity you know the patient, how long you have worked with them: My name is Soobah Appadoo? I am a CPN with the above-named team. I have been asked to compile this social circumstance report in support of above-named patient's Mental Health Review Tribunal (MHRT) appeal against his detention under Section 2 of the Mental Health Act.

- Mr Cordell was admitted on section 2 on the 26th October 2018.
- Mr Cordell was previously under the care of the Early Intervention Team for 3 years. The Early Intervention Team discharged him in June 2018 and at that point he was referred to our team. There is a suggestion on RIO notes that he did not engage well with that team.
- I was allocated to Mr Cordell in August 2018. We offered him an appointment at his flat on the 31st August. Mr Cordell rang our office the day before and spoke to me. I informed him that I am his new Care Coordinator. He said that he had been seen for "76 days by his CC" and there was "nothing wrong with me". He said that the reason we want to see him is to "cover for missing signatures?". He said he "will ruin anyone who come to my house" and he has "recording cameras and audios" to ruin us. He said if you come to my house "I f...ing will scar you for life". He used foul languages throughout this contact. He said that I "can take the f...ing referral and stick it up my a..e". He said that he does not want to see us. I could not interrupt him: very verbally aggressive with pressure in speech". I did manage to say that we are a different team from Lucas House and we want him to have a fresh start- He said "I don't f...ing care"
- Further to that the MDT advised that we should assess Mr Cordell in clinic due to the potential risks. We then offered him an appointment on the 28th September which Mr Cordell did not attend.

Mental Health NHS Trust

- My report is based on the information which I have extracted from RIO and my telephone conversation with Mr Cordell's mother.

9. Psychiatric history

- On the 16th August 2016 Mr Cordell was admitted to CFH under Section 2 of the MHA. He was discharged on the 27th August 2016. According to RIO notes Mr Cordell "was arrested at his home address after his mother raised concerns about his mental state - he was allegedly verbally threatening towards his neighbour and (?) neighbour's children. Simon's mother called police who arrested him. He was seen by the FME at Wood Green police station, was then referred for MHA."
- He appealed against his Section. The Mental Health Review Tribunal discharged him from Section 2 on the 26th August 2016.

10. Leading to current admission

- As I stated above leading to this admission Mr Cordell did not attend appointments offered to him by our service. Subsequently due to the allegations made against him I was advised to attend a Safeguarding meeting for an alleged victim. In that meeting I was informed by the Council that Mr Cordell has a past and current history of physical and verbal aggression towards residents in the building. I was informed that the council has tried to work with Mr Cordell but to no avail. I had informed me that Mr Cordell was getting easily irritated even by the sound of a flushing toilet; this happened very recently, and he threatened the resident concerned. The Council was of the opinion that these are signs of mental illness and suggested that BEH should proceed with an MHA. The Council argued that this is for the protection of others as well as Mr Cordell's own safety.
- Subsequently the council sent us a copy of 'Anti-Social Behaviour, Tenancy concerns and breaches- pre-action letter' which contained a chronology of alleged incidents dating from 2016. These alleged incidents were in the meaning of an antisocial behaviour presentation.
- On the 17th October Mr Cordell was discussed in our MDT meeting. A decision was made to conduct an MHA. An MHA was attempted on the 19th October. Mr Cordell did not cooperate, and the assessment did not take place.
- On the 23rd October an application for a warrant was made but was declined on the grounds "that there was insufficient recent evidence that he was being "kept under proper control" as he is living alone and "insufficient recent medical evidence that "he is unable to care for himself.
- According to RIO, on the 25th October Mr Cordell was arrested for breaching a harassment order. It was alleged that he was aggressive towards the police and spat at them. He was assessed at the police station. On interview he had pressure of speech, delusions about his neighbours and the police and housing ganging up against him. He denied drug use. He said that does not have a mental disorder. The

- doctors who assessed Mr Cordell found him "hypomanic, with flight of speech, grandiose and thought disordered"

11. Forensic history

- Nil known.

12. Risk History

- According to the Risk Assessment on RIO notes Mr Cordell had expressed suicidal thoughts in the past. This was related to stress from court cases. The date is not stated in the Risk Assessment. Around that time, he said that he had researched ways of harming himself (poisoning, OD, hanging). He had said in the past that he tried to hang himself aged 16 when he was in a young offender's institute. He had said that he needed resuscitation. He tried to hang himself a second time after he was sentenced by a judge aged 20. He had said that he drank Nitrous Oxide in 2014 with intent to die.
- According to his Risk Assessment he was regularly a victim or witness of his father's violent behaviour.
- There are recent reports from the Council regarding alleged aggressive behaviours towards other residents. In June 2018 he was apparently involved in court case with the neighbours who he apparently threatened to harm.

13. Social circumstances

Personal History

- Mr Cordell is single. He has a partner. He has no children. He was born in Enfield and did his schooling in Edmonton. Left school aged 16. He studied and worked in mechanics and road works, electrical and computers after he left school (mother's report)

Accommodation

- Mr Cordell lives in a 1-bedroom flat on the ground floor. The flat has necessary amenities/facilities to allow independent living.

Employment

- He is not currently in employment Finances
- He claims ESA and needs to make an application for PIP

14. Views of family

- I telephoned Ms Cordell on the 7th November 2018. Ms Cordell told me that neighbours have been "terrorising" his son since 2014 in particular a neighbour on the 2nd floor. Ms Cordell told me that whilst her son is in hospital her nephew has been staying in the flat to look after the dog. The nephew has reported that the occupier on the 2nd floor have been "banging" on the floor. She said that the neighbour then realised that her son is not in the flat when they saw the nephew coming out of Mr Cordell's flat. She told me that since the 26th October the "banging" has stopped. She said that she has complained about the neighbour herself but thinks these situations are misinterpreted by the council and the mental health services and her son is then seen as the perpetrator and or being mentally unwell. Ms Cordell stated that the sound proofing is lacking, and the noise is real. Other neighbours have made allegations that Mr Cordell has been aggressive towards them. She said that there is no evidence of this; police have seen CCTV and found that her son had not left the flat at the time when these incidents were alleged to have happen. Ms Cordell gave another example in 2016 where it was alleged by a neighbour that her son had made threats to kill him. She said that the police initially charged her son with making threats to kill; after seeing video evidence they charged him with a 'Public Order Offence'. She said that around the time of this alleged incident her son was in his flat with some friends. Her son was not allowed to his flat and was bailed to her flat where he stayed until December 2016. She said that the CPS after seeing evidence dismissed the case a day before the trial. She said that the council has never taken the responsibility to look at evidences; the allegations made against her son (physical assault, letting his dog on the loose) have not been proven. She said that on the 9th August in court the Judge ordered Enfield Council to move her son to a 2-bedroom flat but the Council wants/plans to evict him instead. She said that the Council has no grounds to apply for her son's eviction.

- She said that her son has a one-bedroom flat. She said that he does not want to live there. She said that he needs a 2-bedroom flat with the plan that his cousin could stay with him to provide emotional support. She said that her son has everything he needs in the flat. She told me that her son is very independent in activities of daily living; his personal care is extremely good; he cooks for himself, maintains the flat and takes responsibility for his bills. She told me that he has no financial difficulties/no debts.
- She said that her son has a work history. In 2010 he was planning to set up a business in the entertainment industry. He has also built websites in relation to this. At present he is not in employment. He is in receipt of Employment Support Allowance but needs to make an application for Personal Independent Payment.
- I asked her if she thinks her son has a mental illness; she told me that he suffers from stress and anxiety due to issues with the neighbours but does not think he has a mental illness. She said that the judged looked at evidence and did not grant a warrant in October 2018 for a mental health act to take place at her son's flat.
- I asked Ms Cordell if she thinks her son could benefit from support from the community team. She said that he could do with some support but "we should stop labelling him as being delusional as he is not delusional".

15. After-Care

- Potentially Mr Cordell care/treatment would be delivered via the Care Programme Approach. I am the allocated Care Coordinator and he will have a responsible clinician in the community.
- My role would be first of all to build a relationship with Mr Cordell as I have only met him on 2 occasions. I will try to motivate him to engage with myself and the multidisciplinary team. As his Care Coordinator I will review Mr Cordell regularly independently and with the Community RC.
- We have a Team Clinical Psychologist and it would be vital for Mr Cordell to have some form of talking therapy. This is on the basis of the stress and anxiety that his mother states he suffers from.
- We have a Dual Diagnosis Worker in the team who could offer drug counselling if necessary.
- We have an organisation called 'Remploy' which is funded by the Local Authority. Potentially they could support Mr Cordell to find work. They meet regularly with clients whilst they are in work and also liaise with employers.
- I could support Mr Cordell in making an application for PIP. Alternatively, he could get that support from 'Enfield Well-Being Connect'
- The Mental Health Enablement Team could provide support in tenancy management as well as support to access education/training and work.

16. Opinion and recommendations

- I have met Mr Cordell on two occasions only and I have not had the opportunity to assess him in the community. A rapport needs to be established with him.
- On the basis of recent events, history of risks to self and alleged risks towards others and taking into account the views of the MDT on the ward I think that he would benefit from a longer stay in hospital. This is in-order for the MDT to assess him comprehensively to determine if he has a severe and enduring mental illness such as schizophrenia/psychosis. If it is determined that he has a severe mental illness, then this should be treated accordingly whilst he is in hospital.

  Chase Farm Mental Hospital on an Assessment Wing!
  I stayed in my room at the hospital for most of the day I never eat breakfast and today I never eat lunch due to what is getting done to my person by the Mental Health team just them explaining that they want to put me on a section 3 and also provide me with medication is enough to make me feel tired.
  Doctor greenside let David go home!
  I eat dinner in the communal room and continued to work on my computer to clean my name from what is getting done to me while having to stay at the Chase Side hospital Wing named Dorset!
  I wondered in and out of the main room and chatted to a few other people a few time thoughts doing my work.
  There is a Bad leak running all across the main floor in the communal room coming from the water machine.

Dear Mrs Cordell,

I write to inform you that the court has discharged the injunction of 9 August 2017 against Simon and the council's claim is struck out because Enfield Council failed to comply with the order to file Directions Questionnaire by the 17 November 2017. Copies of the Court Orders are attached for your information.

Please contact me should you have any query.

Getting wrongly detained while Working on my report in the;
Chase Farm Mental Hospital on an Assessment Wing!
I woke up at around 7:00hours and decided to take a few more hours to sleep I re awoke at the time of 9:00 Hors and soon after went and took my shower.
Then afterwards I went to the communal room to get a cup of tea
While I was there, I see the staff who asked me to take a blood test. This got achieved and now I am back in my room doing my report.
12:00 Hours Lunch time I never bothered to go and get something to eat because I was to busy sorting out my documentation that I needed to defend myself!
I decided to take a break for a little while and laid down on my bed at the time of 13:00 Hours
After sleeping for some time, I re awoke at 14:56 hours and I am yet again typing away.
BIBI IN THE CORRIDOR AT 00:15: -
I spoke to Bibi in the corridor about the circumstances report that she had made
About me
I explained to her that I know what she wrote about me is nothing alike the truth and that she had committed fraud by doing so to aid in my illegal detention under the Mental Health Act 1983, she walked off from me when I was talking to her.
The water Machine in the main communal room got turned off because of the bad leak.
Mother came to the Dorset wing to give me some money of my card I asked Bib if I could go outside to see her and for some reason she was not sure if I had been taken of un escorted leave, she took her time as she was slightly busy checking the computers in the office so that she could confirm whether I was aloud of the wing, so, long that my mother got feed up of waiting outside for me my, my mum must of got feed up of waiting outside in the car and came into the Dorset wing, Bibi was shocked to see her and my mother had a few polite words in regards to my detention on the wing and the conditions imposed upon my person.
She quickly dropped the money off to me and left soon afterwards, about 5 minutes after her departure I noticed that she had not left me my socks that I had asked her to bring with her and called her back on my phone she agreed to meet me outside again and I asked Bibi if I could leave the wing, she agreed this time and I went outside to the car park and collected my socks and went back into the wing and to my room to finish my work.

STATUS Detained under Section 2.
MENTAL STATE — Attempted 1:1 with Simon who became quite distressed and declined to sit down to talk, instead accused staff of colluding with the doctor when writing the tribunal report so that he is further detained on the ward.
He was talking on the corridor and was irritable in mood and did not allow staff to explain or talk to him.
He remains insight less, blaming others and not receptive to any reassurances.
He is preoccupied with his website, computer and spent long hours in his room.
SOCIAL INCLUSION — Minimal interaction with staff and peers.
INVESTIGATION: Nil carried out during this shift.
PHYSICAL HEALTH — He did not report any problem.
Had night snacks.
MEDICATION -- On no medication at the moment.
PERSONAL CARE an ACTIVITIES Good self-care maintained.
RISK AND OBSERVATION LEVEL To self is low.
To others is moderate due to unpredictable behaviour.
Nursed on general observation.
LEAVE STATUS — Section 17 leave.

Getting wrongly detained while Working on my report in the;
Chase Farm Mental Hospital on an Assessment Wing!
I got awoke by the maintenance team coming into my room to fix the blocked sink
After they left if got up to see whether they had fixed the block sink
The answer to my question was no they had not
I decided I could not wait for another person to come along and ty to fix it because I needed to shave and to do this, I needed to use the sink in my hospital room on Dorset Ward.
I got an empty bottle that I had save and put it around the circular sink Basin hole and squeezed it as hard as I could and then Wala, I had fixed it.
I woke up and cleaned my room.
I went and got my lunch at the time of 12:30 and eat in the main communal room.
16:35 My mother came to the wing and told me that I can go home for a few hours because she had spoken to doctor Greenside who had agreed that this would be ok
After staying at the hospital on the Dorset wing for two weeks four days I finally run low on fresh cloths so I decided to use the laundry room, when inside I noticed that that the room was clean as u=is the rest of the wing so decided to continue on my washing mission.
The room got unlocked for me by staff as I requested and without any delays,
I put my cloths into the first wash cycle and continued to work on my commuter in my room.
For Tumble Drier
The water Machine in the main communal room got turned off because of the bad leak.

Dear Lorraine
Further to our earlier conversation, please see below response from Enfield Social Services.
"I've copied to housing colleagues, as I was not currently aware of pending eviction. As a detained patient under assessment, he is not in a position to representative himself in this matter and therefore I will liaise with housing colleague to alert proceedings until such time that appropriate assessment and capacity assessment can be carried out to determine what might be in his best interest."

Getting wrongly detained while Working on my report in the;
Chase Farm Mental Hospital on an Assessment Wing!
00:15:
I am still awake working on my computer and I am really hunger I decided to ask the staff on duty if I could go to the petrol station to buy some food
When I arrived at the office there was 3 staff available and no other persons in the communal area
I explained that because of the extra time that I have been putting into my work
I burn away more energy and this sometimes leaves me starving hungry.
I got laughed at and said no, I asked why and got told that this is because it was late at night
This led me to explaining in a very polite voice again about how hungry I was and further explain that I am a fully-grown man who Is only under an assessment 2 of the Mental Health Act.
10:30: -- Doctor Greenside came into my room and asked me to have a meeting
21:49: I was inside of the communal hall eating some toast at toast time and drinking some hot chocolate
While sitting down I could see into the staff office as it has a clear glass window and I could see Bibi my care coordinator she left the office and went up to the medication room.
"While this was going on I watch Nurse Daisy come into the same room, I had noticed that she had been funny with me since I got here in so many words that she never took a liking to me, what she said was how are you feeling today to me in front of every one in a sarcastic voice I replied to her comment by saying the following How do you think I am feeling today?"
She looked at me funny and gave no reply as she done, she started to walk out of the room.
She walked up the corridor and went into the medication room where Bibi was.
I soon afterwards noticed her presence in the room once again but this time she had medication with her.
I studied her as she walked up to the patient beside me with caution., due to my earlier conversation with Doctor Greenside and with rightfully cause as she had what seemed like more medication in her hands ready to administer to other people.
The next thing I knew she was saying to me with a smile on her face Simon take your medication, I looked at her in disbelief and replied to her that I had explained to Doctor Greenside that I did not wish to take medication under his professional belief alone and that while under a section two of the mental health act I did not ned to take the medication by law. She stormed of and told me that she is going to document down that I would not take the medication of her.

I watched her walk back of to the medication room I decided to go and complain about my concerns and when I also arrived at the medication room, I could see Bibi and Daisy talking to each other and the tablets still in the pot that Daisy was still carrying.
Being worried about my medical care I asked the following questions to the two staff present.
1) I never got given any Pliff / form explaining to me what the medication was neither did any staff talk to me about what medication I was to be take.
2) No Staff had asked me if I had ever taken this medication before and if so, what reverse effects it may have had.
3) No staff talked to me about my health which to me is a fettle part of administering prescribed medication to another person and this being due to my bad heart pains that I keep complaining about since I got to the Dorset Wing and beforehand in letters to the Enfield Council asking them to protect me from what the other tenants were doing to me in regards to banging and stamping above my head,
Including the stress from proving my innocents against the first Asbo and it appeal stage + Justical Review, the Possession Order, the 1st Injunction Order and the 2nd Injunction Order.
4) No person had provided any evidence showing that I had a mental illness to my mother or father who both also disputed that I have any mental illness alongside with many other friends and family.
5) and because I have not acted with any mental illness and the main reason being that doctor Greenside wanted me to get put on to a section 3 of the mental health Act 1983 is because I said to a doctor Sarah Kathrine Hewitt that: --
5.1) My Neighbours had been attacking me and this includes two of their already known patents who are named as

- Miss Debra Andrews;

And: --

- Ambrose Tariq.

5.2) The Doctor Greenside is saying that he wants to put me on a section three of the Mental Health Act and administer medication to myself because I said that the police have set me up and, in the doctors, chosen words "a conspiracy has taken place against me."
5.2.11) I never committed the offences that I am being accused if and then after punished.
5.2.12) I am not the right colour skin to fit the accused allegations that the police have place me on a 7-year curfew for 2 years for the injunction side of the Asbo and 65 years on top at sentencing none concurrent straight after a year on curfew for another crime that I did not commit and won the case at court after a lot of sufferings due to them police and court case on goings.
5.2.13) The time stamps to the 999 calls go backwards
5.2.14) There on no victim or witness signatures.
5.2.15) Hologynic effects
5.2.16) Psychosis
5.2.17) F432 - adjustment disorder 11/03/2015
5.2.18) F29X – Unspecified Nonorganic Psychosis
5.2.19) Pressured speech
5.2.20) Grandiose and Delusional Beliefs, about helping other people in the world
6) Building a legal defence

7) I work with children and this will tarnish my future prospects of a bright future
8) I am building a festival and this will label me as vulnerable person when I am not, when making decisions for my companies' best interest if it gets used against me in the future. I felt upset about my medical treatment and did understand that it was getting administered to me for the right reasons.

3 Mother: To MP Joan Ryan. – "Dear Alev. Thank you for the update email below and sorry it's taken me a few days to get back to you. Would you please be able to send all information that has been sent regarding this to me including what you have written to them, so I can keep this on my records? On the 09/08/2018 the judge did state to me to make sure I keep everything that is being done regarding Enfield Council in case I need it. This is in case they go for the possession proceedings against Simon Cordell which so far, they have not replied back to you regarding if they are going ahead with this or not. It seems very mixed up as they told you from the start when you started to deal with this that they were not going to do this and go for possession proceedings. That only changed due to me due to knowing what Enfield Council has done I chanced this up with their legal team and it only came to light when Paul Buckridge confirmed they were doing this on the 30/11/2018 and me making you aware of this you saw yourself Enfield council had not been telling you the facts, but it seems since then Enfield Council has not replied to you regarding this, that in itself does not surprise me as this is how Enfield Council has been all along when they just stop replying because something has been found out that they have been saying won't happen.

Dear Alev Cazimoglu
I know you said to me today on the phone that you would get back to me if you heard anything from Enfield Council.
But this cannot be allowed to carry on, this is making my son's health worse with what is going on and him being in that flat, the banging does not stop even people I am I getting to stay with my son don't want to be there due to how bad it is it does not stop.

Enfield Council is now making my son stay in a flat living in hell, they know the issues why have they not just moved him out of there?
How long is it going to take with letters going backwards and forwards with no end to it? All awhile my son is suffering badly and it is impacting on his health how far is Enfield Council going to let this go?
Enfield Council has not once asked my son's side to this they only go with what is being said about my son is this right? This are always 2 sides to anything so why is Enfield Council only taking one side to all of this and not once hearing our side?
Enfield Council has had long enough to move my son why have they not.
I need help to deal with this and I can't wait months for anything t be done, and that is not saying you are not doing your best as I know you are it seems Enfield Council are the ones holding this up and really for what reason, is it so they can make my son suffer more?
Regards
Lorraine

She confirmed that she will be available tomorrow and can attend the Ward at 2.00pm. She told me at length about her concerns that her son had been misdiagnosed and that the evidence against him that he has mental illness is based on information from Enfield Council who she considers have been supporting allegations from his neighbours, ignoring his complaints that the neighbours are causing him serious noise nuisance. She said she had attended a court hearing on 9th August when Enfield housing had been giving evidence to evict Simon from his flat. Lorraine said that the Court was impressed with her copies of her evidence that disputed the Evidence from Enfield and no Eviction notice was granted. She told me he has color CCTV that could give documentary evidence that he was in his flat when instances occurred outside. She also said that in the past Simon had agreed to remain in hospital but had been discharged two days later due to lack of beds. She told me that Simon had been given leave to visit his dog who since Simon's admission was found to have cancer and has undergone major surgery. She had felt he needed time to be with the dog, to which he is devoted, and planned to take him to visit her home today. We agreed to meet on the ward tomorrow Wed 14.11.2018 at 2.00pm Dr Rao Independent S12 agreed to meet us on the ward at 2.00pm. Dr Greensides agreed that he would be available on the ward. Simon has been very calm on the ward until the matter of him taking medication was raised. He thought there was sufficient evidence for a new med rec for Section 3 to be completed which he will be doing.

And that now due to this people was going to come and beat us up. Then it changed again to the person who beat Ambrose from 113 up come from my sons flat. Until today I have not wanted to say anything but I think this is going too far now. I could say a lot more but I feel it is pointless as you have done nothing with anything I have said. Since Ambrose has moved in the main door lock has been ripped out and there is drug taking in the block on the level of 113 and people coming in and out of 113 at all times which I do have a few pictures off people taking drugs. After our meeting I went to Simon flat to check on it and put gas and electric on as the Electric had run out, as no one is staying there. This is not the 1st time we have been threatened by 113 and his friends for something we have not done or my son has not done. I have been told that Ambrose is taking drugs but do not know how true this is as it is from a 3 person. When I got home and spoke to the person who called me it seems Ambrose was badly hurt and I believe stabbed. This has nothing to do with my son or my family and I believe now Ambrose is aware this had nothing to do with us or my son, but I am sick of everything being blamed on my son, and the phone calls we get when something goes on in the block. I believe there is a lot Enfield Council is not aware off, and are turning a blind eye just so the blame can be put to my son. I have now seen the reports you have put into the MH services so have this in black and white now so it cannot be said it is not come from you. I will be talking to the MH tomorrow regarding a letter relating to a 2-bedroom property and would like my son moved as soon as possible. I do not think it is right you are trying to get my son to remind in hospital by what is being passed to the MH services via Enfield Council this needs to stop the worst part is that it is incorrect information, which can be proven. There is more I can say but I feel there is very little point as really all Enfield Council has wanted to do is blame my son for everything. Without not one meeting without looking at one bit of Evidence we have and we do have real evidence which the police have seen why do you think my son was not arrested was it due to you thinking they just could not be bothered no it was if they arrested him, it would be unlawful due to what they saw. I want this email kept Strictly confidential and not sent to anyone without my written Permission. I look forward to hearing from you."

3 NHS Getting wrongly detained: Laurence Ryan Social Worker – "Simon was assessed for further detention under S 3 in the quiet room on Dorset Ward with Dr Rao S12, Maggie Garrod AMHP, Larry Ryan Trainee AMHP, Lorraine Cordell, Mother, Jerome, Cousin. Simon was polite and appropriate. At the outset it was noticed that Simon had a mobile phone in his hand and was asked if he was recording the assessment. I informed him that he would require our consent prior to recording. He claimed that he had a legal right to do this. I asked the other professionals present if they objected and they did not. I reinforced with Simon that consent has to be given. Simon talked at length about his experiences of being victimised by the police when asked about reason for arrest. He reported injustices about forged statements, curfew being in place since 2014 which included any area apart from a residential area. He admitted the police believed he had spat but denied doing this. There seemed no evidence of thought disorder. There was some pressure of speech which appeared to be linked to his anxiety that he could be detained under S3 and his need to give us as comprehensive version of his situation in the shortest possible time. No ideas expressed of intention to self-harm ideas or of suicidality. Mother backed up all of his assertions about neighbours making noise. Cousin Jerome claimed to have heard the noises in the flat which he reported stopped once he considered the neighbours in flat above saw him leaving the property and he felt they stopped making noise from then. Denied having any mental health issues but agreed to remain in hospital as an informal patient and would consider taking medication providing, he is seen by a second opinion doctor. It is reported that a referral has been made for a Forensic Assessment by the Care Coordinator and this should be followed up. Dr Rao did not make a recommendation for detainment under S3 as she did not feel the criteria was met as she was not in a position to refute the evidence that Simon gave. No evidence of Simon presenting a risk of harm/safety to himself or others, no obvious risk of neglect. Conclusion; He does not accept that he has a mental illness but is willing to stay in hospital so that, in his own words, "Dr Greensides can get to know me better". Simon will be willing to take medication if a doctor giving a second opinion can justify the need to him. Simon was encouraged to cooperate with Dr Greenside and the community team when discharged. Outcome: Simon is not detained under S3 but remains subject to the conditions of S2 until it's expiry unless Dr Greensides completed a S23 form to discharge him from section 2. Report to follow:"

Speaker 1:	00:27	Inside of Chase Farm Hospital as an Inpatient
New Speaker:	00:31	[inaudible]. Walking from the communal room with my cousin and mother to the meeting room for my second Mental Health Assessment after Doctor Greenside went against my family's will and common sense to keep myself detained to get put onto a section 3 of the Mental Health Act 1983
New Speaker:	00:27	This is Bollocks.
New Speaker:	00:27	Mum get off the phone, please mum, mum I am at a meeting.
New Speaker:	00:27	Alright bye
New Speaker:	00:49	[inaudible].
New Speaker:	00:58	Hello you lot how are you doing?
New Speaker:	01:00	Hi, Simon and how is everybody.
New Speaker:	01:00	I met you before haven't I some were.
New Speaker:	01:00	Year, we met
New Speaker:	01:00	And I met you as well somewhere.
New Speaker:	01:00	I'm Very well thanks. We met briefly at your, place about [inaudible]
New Speaker:	01:06	Year a couple of weeks ago.
New Speaker:	01:06	[inaudible].
New Speaker:	01:06	That's right Simon I just wanted to tell you that I am we are going to have to be carrying out a mental health act assessment today alright and that is the reason that we are all together. I am just going to introduce you to everyone now, that is the physiatrist.
New Speaker:	01:11	How are you doing?
New Speaker:	01:17	I am well thank you. My name is Dr Rale I am Independent of the trust so I do not work in the Trust.
New Speaker:	01:21	Ok who do you work for may I ask.
New Speaker:	01:21	At the moment I do not work for anybody I am independent.
New Speaker:	01:27	You are just an independent person doing a review.
New Speaker:	01:27	Yes, yes.
New Speaker:	01:27	Ok, it a pleasure to meet yourself.
New Speaker:	01:27	And you.
New Speaker:	01:27	I met you I think before somewhere.
New Speaker:	01:27	yes, Err, I came to see you at home I think sometimes some years back.
New Speaker:	01:37	2014.
New Speaker:	01:37	That's very possible
New Speaker:	01:37	Yeah, that's right year. You did not come into a hospital on that occasion.
New Speaker:	01:37	Okay I would have been happy with that.
New Speaker:	01:37	year. Ok, I'm they em, Amp
New Speaker:	01:37	That is perfect.
New Speaker:	01:47	[inaudible] official.

New Speaker:	01:50	Hi and you erm, Simon mother.
New Speaker:	01:50	I am Lorraine, Simon's Mother sufficient.
New Speaker:	01:50	Hello.
New Speaker:	01:50	Hello.
New Speaker:	01:50	And I am his cousin Jermaine.
New Speaker:	01:50	Jermaine.
New Speaker:	01:50	I am the person staying in his flat at the moment, I am looking after his place.
New Speaker:	01:50	Okay, and are you looking after the dog as well.
New Speaker:	02:03	No, the dog is not with me.
New Speaker:	02:04	The dog has just had major surgery so the dog is at my property at the moment.
New Speaker:	02:04	Yeah, so, Simon were going to ask you questions We want to get a clear picture of what's going on at the moment. Um, Nothing's out of view. We may interrupt you because we want to try and keep things on track.
New Speaker:	02:24	That is understandable.
New Speaker:	02:24	Yeah. So, um, we'll just get a clear picture. So, if you can be open and honest with us,
New Speaker:	02:33	Yeah, at all times I will try and help you because I want to go home
New Speaker:	02:33	Okay grate Okay great. I ‘am going to hand over to doctor round now to ask you some questions.
New Speaker:	02:33	Simon, So, we've been called to do this assessments for a section three.
New Speaker:	02:40	Who has called you, Dr. Greenside himself has he referred you is it Dr. Greenside King.
New Speaker:	02:42	It erm, he would not refer to me direct.
New Speaker:	02:42	AR, ok, to yourselves.
New Speaker:	02:42	It would to the Amp Services and the Amp Service.
New Speaker:	02:42	To the Amp Services, okay.
New Speaker:	02:53	He caught me, He is of the opinion that you need to remain in hospital on a section three,
New Speaker:	02:58	I understand.
New Speaker:	02:58	which is why this has been set up
Speaker 3:	03:00	and in he's professional belief.
New Speaker:	03:00	That right.
New Speaker:	03:00	I'm Simon I’m Sorry I just see that you've got your phone there can I ask if you are recording that.
New Speaker:	03:07	I'm taking the minutes to the meeting in a digital format.
New Speaker:	03:09	Well I think that you need to have people permission.
New Speaker:	03:09	No, I don't have to do that! What I am allowed to do is write notes I am allowed to take notes down by pen. If I would like to. I have problem with literature and with writing. I went to speech therapy as a kid so I can't write to well with my hand, by hand but I can talk to my computer and my computer can type for me. Yes, there was a court law case study that says you're a person that's in my situation, or any person has the right to take the minutes to any means in digital format, if they can't if they choose to.

New Speaker:	03:37	Hmm.
New Speaker:	03:37	Right Simon I think that it's quite polite to ask people first. I mean, I don't know what other people feel about how they are recorded.
New Speaker:	03:43	It's I am allowed to have a pen and paper in here and I am allowed to write everything that goes on in here down.
New Speaker:	03:46	Year
New Speaker:	03:46	Your paid for professional servants and because of that your being paid to be here. So, I'm obliged. You're allowed to take the minutes to the meeting.
New Speaker:	03:57	Simon, usually its, You need someone's permission.
New Speaker:	03:58	That's incorrect madam.
New Speaker:	03:58	As professionals.
New Speaker:	03:58	May I ask my mum to explain this as well, the case study in Law as well and that I am correct!
Speaker 2:	04:05	there is a case study law where it counts. And uh, basically yes, I understand a load, of doctors don't like it, but as doctors, um, who actually practice the practice of allowing to be recorded, uh, they say that it's more transparent and open. So why wouldn't a doctor not want to allow it to happen.
New Speaker:	04:28	Hm, Hm.
New Speaker:	04:28	So, basically there's two sides of it. The transparency side of it and the [inaudible].
New Speaker:	04:34	It was won at High Court.
New Speaker:	04:34	Well what I am saying is that I need to ask everyone here if they're okay with that.
New Speaker:	04:42	Well I've had assessments before and the people that didn't want to do the assessments at my house and I've got the recordings of this, they've done checks as well and phoned up the law and governance to their departments and they have agreed that if I, I'm entitled to record the conversation. So, the people that chose not to do it called for other people to come and do other assessments.
New Speaker:	04:59	Yeah.
New Speaker:	04:59	So if you wasn't happy with yourself,
New Speaker:	05:02	I think it's a threat that's fine, um, I think what you do in you flat is fine.
New Speaker:	05:03	anywhere I am. Any government, any government servant who is being paid to deal with me a set fee, I'm allowed to record them minutes to that meeting and take them. And if you choose not to be a part of this meeting because of that.

New Speaker:	05:14	Well, I 'am not saying that.
New Speaker:	05:14	That's up to your own integrity.
New Speaker:	05:14	I do not want to argue with you, I just want to see if everyone is ok with it.
New Speaker:	05:14	Um,
New Speaker:	05:14	You have nothing to hide.
New Speaker:	05:26	What it is [inaudible].
New Speaker:	05:26	I've explained that from the beginning on the Wald that I will be doing this today.
New Speaker:	05:29	But I was not aware.
New Speaker:	05:29	I thought that Dr., Greenside had told you.
New Speaker:	05:29	okay, So, you know I just, Personally, I don't have a problem with it, but I would just like to be asked.
New Speaker:	05:38	I can appreciate that I can appreciate that.
New Speaker:	05:44	[Phone ringing in the background].
New Speaker:	05:44	Like I said it would have been nice if we had been told.
New Speaker:	05:44	I do apologize for that. I do apologise for that in all honesty
New Speaker:	05:44	No, No, that is fine
New Speaker:	05:44	I just want to make safeguards for myself.
Speaker 2:	05:55	All right. I do not have a problem with that I just like to no.
New Speaker:	05:55	Right, just to get back to the assessment, So, Simon why are you in hospital
Speaker 3:	06:01	initially on the 25th I was in my house and I was working on my computer. I was living a normal day. The police came to my house and what I believe happened is abuse of process. A Gentleman called Lemmy in the beginning he started working for the Enfield Council in 2016 and what he actually done this, he picked up another person's work while they had left the company a neighbourhood officer Sarah Fletcher and he kept arranging; trying to arrange meetings at the civic centre with my mother over allegations. So basically, my mother showed me what he was trying to do to get me to go to the civic centre, so I made a phone call to him and I asked him, I said, I'm, hello, Lemmy how are you. I'm recording this conversation. Are you happy for me to record?
Speaker 3:	06:39	We went through the procedure and he said he was happy to talk to me. I said I was concerned about the allegations that he was accusing me of because I hadn't done them, sort of thing and I wasn't happy to go to a meeting with him in that phone conversation he, I asked him, can you go into the computer and tell him the last time the claimant call about me? He told me on the 1st of January, this was 2018 and we were speaking on the 7th of June, 2018 I explained to him, well you are out of the time limitation at 1980 on the phone conversation, he got upset and put the phone down. After that he's copied and pasted Sarah Fletcher work and he copied and pasted 31 times. Now I've got a copy of the Councils history of all the claims history and you can check against them and you can see where these things were maliciously processed and put in.

Speaker 3:	07:21	Fraudulently done now he went for a possession order with 31 fraudulent claims about me, which initially started on the 11 cause while I was in hospital, basically at St Ann's last time going for my tribunal. A Woman upstairs made an allegation that I wrote a letter and she said, I'm a drug addict. I was writing Anti-drug policies in my house. I've never had no problem, I've never been an addict, so now she's backdated that a month while I was in hospital, she made three telephone calls to the council, which are on the system updated complaints, now she got phoned in to go from meeting with Sarah Fletcher on the 11/11/2016 she went there and they didn't. They made a statement and they could, they can remember the date of the drug addict but they couldn't remember the three days that they phoned up while I was in hospital so they made three new dates up, which I couldn't have done because I wasn't living at my premises, so, in total that was seven offenses.
Speaker 3:	08:11	Lemmy has took that and he copied and pasted it. Then after in on the 2nd of August, 2017 because I was asking him for the statements that made the possession order off the people of the people claimant, he didn't have no statement. I've got a bit of a dry mouth here.
New Speaker:	08:33	Do you want a drink of water.
New Speaker:	08:33	Is it possible to get that.
New Speaker:	08:33	yeah.
New Speaker:	08:33	That would be great.
New Speaker:	08:33	Is it ok to continue or
New Speaker:	08:37	Yeah.
New Speaker:	08:37	Yeah.
New Speaker:	08:37	Yeah.
New Speaker:	08:37	basically Sarah Fletcher on the 11th which is in biro pen where she's done it and she's left her job. You've got them on our own free will rather than because I put it to her. I explained to her, I know what you've done.
New Speaker:	08:47	Hmm,
New Speaker:	08:47	I wasn't even in my house at these times, so she left her job. Lemmy start to come in and he picked it up. He started phoning my mum about the initial things that were on it and then because I've had the conversation with him about the time limitation Act he's copying and pasting it before their dates of them ever attending the civic centre or wherever, making the complaint and after made 31 claims put a possession order in and went to steal my flat off me and we explained to him well what are you doing, what are you doing and so [inaudible] committed a statement and so he's put an injunction order in as well and he's called the Mathiyalagan's down for the first time on the 2nd of August.

New Speaker:	09:17	Hmm.
New Speaker:	09:17	and he had, I can't, I think he's had a prepared statement covering all the things that he put in the possession Order and the Mathiyalagan's sign for it all on the 2nd of August and he remember more things than he could ever remember.
Speaker 3:	09:28	On the 11th August , they are temporary accommodation that live upstairs. I'm a secure tenant. I explained that this is causing me to have problems in my home and I'm having problems and I'm paying my rent and so forth. He says in my tendency, that all means will be taken as a secure tenant to protect me. I've asked the Council and asked my mother to ask the council to protect me from what they were doing and to move them out and to take account from my side of the story as well.
New Speaker:	09:52	Just may I stop you there for a moment and ask you a question, So you say you asked your mother for help to stop them from doing what they were doing.
New Speaker:	09:52	Year.
New Speaker:	09:52	Yes that is correct.
New Speaker:	09:52	I'm, well you can ask my cousin, well what have they done to you in the last couple of days.
New Speaker:	09:52	Let me just speak to you and understand what they have done to you.
New Speaker:	09:52	What was initially happening is there is my water pipe that runs through my flat and it feeds the two flats up above me.
New Speaker:	10:13	Right.
New Speaker:	10:13	So when somebody draws; has to use water. It will run through the pipe in my room.
New Speaker:	10:18	Yep, yeah.
New Speaker:	10:18	Now what they was doing is getting the taps and continuously slamming them off and on, off and on, off and on at a fast competitive beat for hours at a time.
New Speaker:	10:25	Here you go. [Man - Larry Re - enters the room]
New Speaker:	10:25	Thank you
Speaker 3:	10:25	Your welcome to it. [Hmm]
New Speaker:	10:25	And this was stopping me and disturbing my studies.

New Speaker:	10:30	Hmm.
New Speaker:	10:30	Now after one or two days it became more than just there's a Law tawt called Christie Vs Davey. When the first person started banging at; A women started banging at a man through his house, it is civil Law and becomes criminal when pushed, what it come under is Environmental Health 1990 a noise problem. Then after, after that noise problem comes hate crime 1998 and after Hate Crime it becomes attempt manslaughter or malicious prosecution. against somebody, So, through the time that this has been escalated for the last five years? I feel that all of them Act of Law have been drawn against me and no person's ever taken a statement off me or watched any of the video evidence of what I'm doing or any of my other cousins or my friends that stayed in my house, that fallen victim as well. If someone that took the statement or when Lemmy pick up the case, he decided to realize I'm a secure tenant, they are temporary accommodation, I'm not going to move out of the borough from my own family.
Speaker 3:	11:19	My mother and my sister,
New Speaker:	11:21	Hmm.
New Speaker:	11:21	They're are going back to Walthamstow anyway, so all he had to do was move them out and then there would be, none of this as none of this would have ever happened.
New Speaker:	11:28	hmm.
New Speaker:	11:28	Just recently on the 08/2016. The judge ordered that I have
New Speaker:	11:32	[inaudible]
New Speaker:	11:32	[inaudible] The judge ordered that all of the cases get dropped against me and I have a new home, because I was highlighting these issues. Basically, what Lemmy done is because he had lost a first Injunction Order; he's, I think the solicitor has given that to Dr. Greenside and he's using them allegations,
New Speaker:	11:49	Yes.
New Speaker:	11:49	which are case number D something. Now after that case got struck out in November, 2017 that I won, without no doctor's help, um, Lemmy go up set.
New Speaker:	11:59	I phoned Lemmy; Is it ok if I have a sip of this.
New Speaker:	11:59	Absolutely.
New Speaker:	11:59	So, I phoned Lemmy and explained to him I knew what he had done obesely his upset because he could lose his job for Targeted Malice, Malice of public Office and Malicious Prosecution. So now he's got a reason an [MO] he doesn't want to lose his career.

Speaker 3:	12:15	His just come out of Westminster. So basically, from explaining to Lemmy what he had done, he decided to, um, basically; I had a conversation with him after lose after he lost that case and I said to him, I checked on company house to see any information of who this person was and I find a woman called Tracy Willis who was a director with him. So, in our conversation I said to him I know who Tracy Williams is, is she related to you and he lost his temper on the phone and he went I'm going to kill you and your mother. Now, I recorded that as well so I've got that on recording. I put the phone down off the conversation straight away he's got off the phone and phoned the Metropolitan Police, told them that I've threatened him down the phone, the police come to my house and arrested me.
Speaker 3:	12:54	Now while I'm in the police station. He's yet again gone to the court called another emergency application, He didn't even know what an emergency application was in the beginning and his called another emergency application and put um, done threats to kill against me under a new claim number. And then what it's done is the strike out case, which has all the stuff um, The 31, 48 allegations,
New Speaker:	13:12	Yes.
New Speaker:	13:12	he's got them and he's called the Mathiyalagan's to come down to the, to the court and they've done an affidavit of service which is fraud under the 1911 Act, perjury. And then what she signed is she signed; I believe in my husband's statements. Yeah. So reinstated the closed day case number. Now she's never done a statement herself and it's all she, she, she sees her, she's doing the banging upstairs with another bloke that's up there while the husbands at work. Then the husband's coming back listening to what they're saying. Then he's going and doing the statements and he's not even there.
New Speaker:	13:43	yeah.
New Speaker:	13:43	So I can't even test the integrity of the true makers of the first time statements at court or nothing. The judge just threw it out by the end of it,
Speaker 2:	13:51	well, no. The judge; --- He was not in court, basically also in the report that there's sending me there stating that for Simon to be the judge stated for Simon to be helped into being removed, which basically I've been trying to do since 2015.
New Speaker:	14:10	HA, HA.
New Speaker:	14:10	Uh, basically Simon had to work with the mental health team.
New Speaker:	14:17	Um

New Speaker:	14:17	Now you should have doctor um, Dr. Greenside's report there and it actually States in that.
New Speaker:	14:22	um.
New Speaker:	14:22	but that's not what was actually stated. The judge demanded they move.
New Speaker:	14:29	He won.
New Speaker:	14:29	because basically they lied in court and I'm going to say they lied, they said that I had they been in contact with the council. Um, they've not been out once to see Simon look at any evidence from Simon.
New Speaker:	14:46	Um.
New Speaker:	14:46	The police have because the neighbours are constantly calling the police, I bought a full CCTV for my son's property for the simple fact to show he hadn't been, wasn't leaving the property.
New Speaker:	14:58	Yeah.
New Speaker:	14:58	The police had been out on a number of occasions to arrested him.
Speaker 2:	15:03	Right.
New Speaker:	15:03	And even doctor Greenside. I wondered why he hadn't been arrested.
New Speaker:	15:08	Yes.
New Speaker:	15:08	And I said, because what's actually happened is the police have looked at the CCTV, which.
New Speaker:	15:14	He won.
New Speaker:	15:14	can't be Edited.
New Speaker:	15:16	EM.
New Speaker:	15:16	If they had actually arrested him, it would've been an unlawful arrest.
New Speaker:	15:18	I have been arrested low.
New Speaker:	15:18	yeah.
New Speaker:	15:18	and.
New Speaker:	15:22	May I say something.
New Speaker:	15:22	Hold on.
New Speaker:	15:22	It would have been an unlawful arrest and yet, we're proved beyond a reasonable doubt. He hadn't left his house we have asked the police to arrest them for false allegation, wasting police time the police are not doing that. So, the police are not doing their job. There's also 200, around 280 calls he's done to the police themselves about what the neighbours are doing.
New Speaker:	15:48	And I have got the recordings.
New Speaker:	15:48	and out of those say 280 calls.
New Speaker:	15:49	Yes.
New Speaker:	15:49	The police have been out three times, but anytime the neighbours call the police are out like 15 of them.
New Speaker:	15:56	What my main issues of concern are.

New Speaker:	15:56	Hold on, let me finish what I'm saying. Um, I have contacted Head - Helen Milkit which is they, um, uh, the police for this area, they, um, commissioner for this area.
Speaker 2:	16:13	And basically she's trying to put a load of stuff in place with Jack and alproof,
New Speaker:	16:19	um.
New Speaker:	16:19	uh,
New Speaker:	16:21	What do you mean by a load of stuff may I ask.
New Speaker:	16:21	Um, basically that the police do their job correctly.
New Speaker:	16:25	Ok.
New Speaker:	16:25	and basically deal with the false allegations because it's all now being written down.
New Speaker:	16:31	What my main concern is.
New Speaker:	16:31	she's dealing with it and basically that's being put into place. But the court order didn't state Simon has to work with the mental health team for Enfield Council to move them.
New Speaker:	16:44	Right.
New Speaker:	16:44	In fact, it actually says that I have got to work with the neighbourhood officer to actually get uh, because the neighbourhood officer is the one that would move Simon.
New Speaker:	16:54	Yeah, [inaudible].
New Speaker:	16:54	and basically that if I needed to contact a member of the Mental Health, no judge is going to demand that Simon interacts with the mental health team.
New Speaker:	17:06	Sometimes they do.
New Speaker:	17:07	Well no, she hasn't I have got the court order here.
New Speaker:	17:08	any way.
New Speaker:	17:08	Yeah, not on this occasion.
New Speaker:	17:08	right. So, you got arrested by the police on that occasion?
New Speaker:	17:14	Yes, that's correct.
New Speaker:	17:14	How did you end up here?-
Speaker 3:	17:16	What happened is I went to the police when I was at my house. They put a letter through my letterbox another harassment letter from a bogus call.
New Speaker:	17:22	yes.
New Speaker:	17:22	while I was working. I decided I went out, I opened up the door for Pcs. I heard them leaving and see the harassment. I went outside to go and speak to the police officers.
New Speaker:	17:30	yes.
New Speaker:	17:30	because I thought I challenge the integrity of it. I checked that they out their webcams on so that everything was being recorded, so I need you to play.
New Speaker:	17:36	Sure.

New Speaker:	17:36	with caution and be sensible.
New Speaker:	17:38	Sure.
New Speaker:	17:38	I spoke to them and it was a male and a female officer there I took the advantage of saying to them, talking to them about their whistle blowing policy and the initial reason why I'm on curfew, um, is, okay, just to split is and show what actually happened from there.
New Speaker:	17:49	yes.
New Speaker:	17:49	what actually happen from there. In 2013 I got put on remand on bail conditions, so I had to stay in my house for a gazebo case handling, burglary.
New Speaker:	17:55	Burglary.
New Speaker:	17:55	suspicion of burglary,
New Speaker:	17:59	hmm.
New Speaker:	17:59	I was on stringent of bail conditions.
Speaker 3:	18:00	I had to be in; sign on the Police Station four o'clock I had to be in doors by eight o'clock I had to, hand over a thousand pound also passport handed in. I won the case after a year.
New Speaker:	18:11	Right.
New Speaker:	18:11	and being stuck indoors, this damage my company, I got upset and went to silver street clinic on the 11th of the fifth and spoke to a doctor Jarvis, on my own free of accord.
New Speaker:	18:18	Right.
New Speaker:	18:18	and I explained to him the case paperwork. He said to me that um, it’s a bit of an adjustment order, but really at the end of the day, that it's not something that your goanna has problems with. He's got to wait for the court case to get the decision.
New Speaker:	18:30	I see it, that's it.
New Speaker:	18:30	Then I won the court case after a year anyway, and I've got released. This caused me to break up my 13-year partner. She could just walk out the door, eight o'clock I can even follow her.
Speaker 3:	18:40	So now straight away I met a new partner. The next thing I knew, I know another Asbo folder got thrown outside my front door.
New Speaker:	18:45	Right.
New Speaker:	18:45	Now it's a massive folder. It couldn't fit through my letterbox box. So, me and my mother took; I phoned, my mother and asked her to come and collect the folder. She come and collected. Without me going outside and she took it to Edmonton green police station Before she done that, she took a copy herself and.
New Speaker:	18:59	[inaudible].
New Speaker:	18:59	she got the stamp for it. Proven that it was handed in. Now, so, saying I never got served. Now what? In the copy that she gave me. I wasn't sure if there's any pages missing or anything, so I did not take it as I was served.

New Speaker:	19:10	Yep.
New Speaker:	19:10	I used it to my advantage. I looked through it and I noticed it was accusing me of being three people I know that I hadn't seen for the last year while I was on curfew and it was accusing me of being three
Speaker 3:	19:18	People that I just didn't even know who they were throwing parties. My mother went to Facebook and copied each one of their profile accounts, which is 100% evidence that they weren't my parties. I was in house building Bliss Charity with premature children working with the keys in my community Hall.
New Speaker:	19:31	So, they can easily say that we were not there if they were asked
New Speaker:	19:31	No, the second you show the Facebook profiles, it shows their name. They used their own personal names to start these events up.
New Speaker:	19:40	Yeah.
New Speaker:	19:40	and it shows them talking and inviting everyone approves it proves that the events had nothing to do with me. Yeah,
New Speaker:	19:45	Right.
New Speaker:	19:45	Hmm.
New Speaker:	19:45	It proves that I'm completely innocent.
New Speaker:	19:47	hm.
New Speaker:	19:47	Yeah, and now what I noticed is that; out of the six offences there is only one of them that had witnesses and victims in it and the victims are supposed to have got keep up overnight. At a party that happened on Lincoln Road opposite the BMW factory, if you know it.
New Speaker:	20:00	I don't [inaudible].
New Speaker:	20:03	AR, well.
New Speaker:	20:03	Yeah, I do.
New Speaker:	20:03	On the A10.
New Speaker:	20:03	Yeah,
New Speaker:	20:03	And on the Southbury
New Speaker:	20:03
Speaker 3:	20:04	And on Southbury Road at the same time, there's the old man building opposite Southbury Road train station. Now there was a load of people in that. The adults I call them. Yeah, inside that and I don't know, I'm on curfew. In my house, I have not even spoken to none of these for a year, now, this bloke spoke let’s call him Chris, he's from Essex, so the police officer called Adrian Combs kept calling his mobile phone. Chris never done his homework on him. He's given Chris an opportunity,

New Speaker:	20:27	yeah.
New Speaker:	20:27	I think Chris see Adrian Combs owns a private company's called big boss limited and what he is. He's in charge of all of the festivals. He's a really nice police officer. I spoke to him in person since this happened. Yeah, and basically, he said. He got Chris kept putting the phone on him so he landed in it.
Speaker 3:	20:42	He got into his helicopter. With a load of reporters and when in search for them and found them in a field in Essex, he landed and shut them all down and done a noise abatement notice with them know he sent the paperwork over to the metropolitan police saying that this is Chris is party and Chris might be coming to London. Now somehow my pictures being taken, Chris's picture got taken out and mine got put into it and I've got set up now all the nine 999 calls in my Asbo folder, actually belonged to the old man building, which is on Southbury Road. When the police officer made it, he tried to cross out all of Crown Road but they got lazy in doing it and forgot to cross out the X to Y grid reference locations so it shows that this other party under the transcripts under oath that police officer got asked by my barrister, are you sure when you made all this list folder every day is the eighth yeah. And every day there was only one party, you're in a progressive way.
New Speaker:	21:29	yeah.
New Speaker:	21:29	The police Officer swears under Oath that there was not another party on that night. Me and my mom FOI into the Council and they've accepted, there was another party there as well. I looked at the nine, nine, nine calls to progress way and all the timestamps go backwards to them ones where the paperwork was made up and put it in the folder.
New Speaker:	21:44	Simon sorry to interrupt you but is this why you came into a Psychiatric Unit rather than being harassed in a
Speaker 3:	21:50	This is, this is, this is what doctor because I explained this to a Catherine, Catherine, Sarah, Catherine Hewitt who is a doctor outside. She un done the cell flat door. When the police officer come to my cell flap like this, I was in there all-day trainer laces had blankets food looking after myself.
New Speaker:	22:05	yeah.
New Speaker:	22:05	Yeah. I've called my solicitor and everything spoke to my mother. So I was, I was independent and acting Okay.
New Speaker:	22:09	yeah.

New Speaker:	22:09	I don't cause no problems. He come to my cell door and he said he's going to drop the charges because the police officer believed that I had spit at her. I told him to watch the webcams. He watched them and realized I never done that. Yeah. So, they dropped, they dropped all charges at the cell.
New Speaker:	22:21	Right.
New Speaker:	22:21	Then they go. Some doctors want to speak to you. I said to him, I'm not too sure if I want the doctors to speak to me, do I have to.
Speaker 3:	22:28	He said you do and please do it for me. Please do it for me. The doctors come to my cell door un done my flap and said you are getting section. So, I un done the flap and said I know who use lot are again, sort of thing, I just put a complaint into Sobo last week about.
New Speaker:	22:40	yeah.
New Speaker:	22:40	you come into my house.
New Speaker:	22:41	yeah.
New Speaker:	22:41	and I have got an official complaint in again I think this is bios for you to ack on this and Now I've got the recordings on this here now of me from super put in that complaint in when they come to my house a couple of days prior. So, I thought, well there's a conflict of interesting in work under the 1998 Act for them to continue with dealing with my case and assess me, Sarah, acted bios in me explain it to Sarah. What happened, what she said is, I'm having grandiose ideas that I am going to help the rest of the world with my company, I don't think that's grandiose I think that's a good opinion to have as a gentleman or as a successor to be. Yeah. And the other thing that they said, I speak with pressured speech. I said that is a disability, that I have, I'm tongue tied and I went to speech therapy. So, I really thought, I find it hard to speak sometimes look see it there.
New Speaker:	23:23	You're doing very well.
New Speaker:	23:23	Yeah, I try my best. I don't want, I don't want to get sectioned for it, so trying to keep you aware. I'm trying to keep things reasonable between us.
Speaker 1:	23:31	Simon you talk about this curfew, I'm going, I am slightly confused because there is an Asbo that you are not allowed to go into disused industrial areas,
New Speaker:	23:38	No what it actually says.
New Speaker:	23:38	After 10:30 [inaudible].
New Speaker:	23:42	No, no, no.
New Speaker:	23:42	No what it actually says.
Speaker 3:	23:42	You have got, hold on, hold on, hold on,

New Speaker:	23:42	Please, let me speak mum. Please, let me speak mum. Please, mother let me answer my questions
Speaker 2:	23:45	I looked at the paperwork. You've got the wrong version of it. You've got the version that the magistrates keep, um, done.
New Speaker:	23:52	So, what is the curfew?
New Speaker:	23:52	You haven't got the version that the Crown Court made.
New Speaker:	23:54	And that is correct.
New Speaker:	23:54	and basically the why that it is worded and this has gone through solicitor after solicitor after solicitor. There is major under those breaches of my son's human rights because it doesn't just say; it basically states, he can only be in residential. Now that would include the present moment if being in this hospital, I don't know. This is not classified as residential.
New Speaker:	24:30	No, It's a commercial.
New Speaker:	24:30	commercial.
New Speaker:	24:31	It's commercial. now basically under his conditions. Really. He'll be in breach by staying here.
New Speaker:	24:35	What is [inaudible].
New Speaker:	24:35	He will be in breach by going to hospital, his being.
New Speaker:	24:39	mum in a short summary [inaudible]
Speaker 3:	24:42	[inaudible]. The Mental Act will trump
New Speaker:	24:49	Yeah, that is obvious, Is it ok if I speak mum, In a short summary in the Magistrates Courts what initially happened in the magistrates' court? Yes. They did set the conditions that you're saying and I knew that I'd won the case. All the way through, only 15 police officers turned up, I asked for witnesses or the victims to turn up.
New Speaker:	25:01	It was eight police.
New Speaker:	25:01	if I can't test the integrity of the people it was wrong and they knew that they were in trouble. Yeah. And so basically after that I went to the, I looked in my folder, my folder, I went, I had to collect my folders from my solicitor because my solicitor started acting funny. I've known them for years. I want and collected the folders of her and in it said in my bail conditions that they made in the courts which you've seen. They scribbled and sent it to me with some subliminal messages, attend court and dis us and we're goanna re - man. And them threats were for me, now I took it that Josie done them, because I had to collect them from her office. I took it that Josie could have made them or Sally Gilchrest who is the Metropolitan Police's Legal Director who went to all of the court cases. So, I didn't know who done it, yeah, to me so, I could not prove it.
New Speaker:	25:33	I am still not clear how you ended up here

Speaker 3:	25:40	Basically.
New Speaker:	25:51	you know that I can completely respect the legal aspect but my role here is to decide whether you should stay or not stay here.
New Speaker:	25:51	Doctor Greenside believes that I was having pressured speech because of what Catherine what Catherine wrote in there and when, when I already had a complaint against Sarah Catherine and also that I was having Grandiose ideas, that I can help the rest of the world. And also, um,
New Speaker:	26:07	he said I was having a halogenic, he believes I was having a Halogenic effects, which is far from the truth.
New Speaker:	26:12	And his neighbours making up all of the stories about him.
New Speaker:	26:12	And him being deluded.
New Speaker:	26:12	I think he was innocent. And I believe that there's a conspiracy of the police against me. Now what the truth is, he says, do organization of a legal raves. If something's illegal, you have to be arrested. I never got arrested the maximum sentence. If you did get arrested for throwing parties is six months, you do three insights on the 20-grand fine. Somehow, I'm doing a seven-year curfew just for that.
Speaker 3:	26:35	After doing the year curfew for the case that I won. That's eight years from 32 I've been locked up to 40 I can prove the timestamps are backwards and I'm scared to walk out my front before 10 o'clock because these police officers aren't being disciplined and they are still working in the area. Now I they advertise; I've got nicked in the paperwork. It doesn't go on my criminal record. There are two things called a standalone as by a CBO Asbo. The standalone Asbo say it's like kicking a football up the wall. It's not a criminal punishment. It doesn't go on your criminal record, which is why I've got. A CBO Asbo means you've been arrested for like the organization of illegal Raves you've done six months and they start the Asbo after. Now because of all of this, I kept saying all of this to, I explained this to Doctor Miss Catherine.
Speaker 3:	27:13	She said to me, she believes that I'm delusional in saying that there is a conspiracy against the police in 2014 and 16 all the doctors come in my house to do a section 135.
New Speaker:	27:25	February 2016.
New Speaker:	27:25	And when they were in there with the Council, I did not realizes that the Council had made the Asbo with them. I've told the police to stay outside because I blame the police for it. Now, really the Council made it. We're going throw all the Asbo and that all of the Doctors and I showed them the missing signatures and it says that a White person committed the crime. I showed them that I am not even the right colour skin to fit the crime, let alone, I'm doing nine years, seven years, an eight-year curfew.

New Speaker:	27:46	Hmm.
New Speaker:	27:46	sort of thing. All the doctors. The doctors agree with me fully in the front room and they discharge me and say, that I'm okay and that there's no issues with me. Now, Doctor, because I've explained this to Catherine when she come to the cell, Sarah, Catherine, she's took it that in some things I might be delusional and she made her judgment on that day.
Speaker 3:	28:03	Now after that, it's just been a follow up between them.
New Speaker:	28:06	What did you get arrested for?
New Speaker:	28:06	They believe that; they believe that's spat at a police officer.
New Speaker:	28:09	What was, what were you arrested for.
New Speaker:	28:10	They believe that I spat, at a police, but I got them to check the videos. I asked for her clothes to be taken and everything and I said, no,
New Speaker:	28:18	Were you angry with her.
New Speaker:	28:18	No, of course not I didn't do nothing wrong. I didn't do nothing. All right. What I done was I upset them maybe I tore the paperwork up that they put throw my letter box in front of them. As I turned my back to them. Yeah, I went [purr] like that I made a noise of doing it yeah, that's what I think of your laws I was being a bit ambitious a bit. Now when I turned my back, she shouted. He spit at me because she believed I didn't, now the bloke police officer grabbed me from behind and put me in a headlock like that straight gone for my neck
Speaker 3:	28:41	Drag me down to the floor, I cut all of my knees and hands. The FME see it all and everything yeah, it is all in the reports and now he's choking me on the floor trying to proper choke me and she's laughing beside on the cameras and she is going he is still spitting he's still spitting and I am not even breathing I managed to get to get a speech out of my throat, your trying to kill me, I Knew that they were not going to let me go. So I stood up with him on me and that and went like that I wiggled out and run away from them, I see another police car coming down the road and said to the other police car; I jumped into the road and stopped it and said I am jumping in the car with use two until we get this sorted. I jumped in the back of the car with the other two police officers I explaining to them what happened because they were angry as well, believing that I had spat at a police officer.

Speaker 3:	29:15	They said, well we'll see how it pans out at the other end and they treated me with respect and took me back to the police station and I explained to the custody officer what I have explained to you. And then they watched the videos come to the cell, and said that we're dropping all charges. We know that they never done that; then Sarah Catherine has come and I have explained to her about the banging and the neighbours are doing and what I have got on video tape and she said that she is sectioning me under the section.
New Speaker:	29:35	You said that the neighbours have started on you as well.
New Speaker:	29:35	Yeah, outside of the front of the block. They see me and they have not banged since because they know that Simon is not there.
New Speaker:	29:41	Okay, fine
Speaker 3:	29:43	so he's not delusional. He's not making up. It is actually happening.
New Speaker:	29:47	[inaudible].
New Speaker:	29:47	[inaudible] I understand that and may I ask what you was going to say
Speaker 1:	29:50	I'm I am a bit confused about this curfews, why do you think there's a curfew?
New Speaker:	29:54	There is a curfew.
New Speaker:	29:54	[inaudible] Um, that's more than not being allowed in industry areas
Speaker 3:	30:03	Can I explain in short.
New Speaker:	30:04	It's not that, hold on, no, no, no,
New Speaker:	30:04	Let me answer the questions mother please.
New Speaker:	30:04	You need to listen and read and read what is in the paperwork.
New Speaker:	30:04	Please and in short the Enfield Council and the metropolitan police had to work together to create an Asbo and if they do not do that the criminal standards are not met. They both put a certificate that they made it in the Enfield Civic Centre together. Now they need victims to have that. They never had that and they forged the timestamps on that. So, in a pretence the Enfield Council. my landlords are saying I'm not allowed to be homeless. Yeah.
New Speaker:	30:33	I'm.
New Speaker:	30:33	What also says, if I stop at McDonald's 24 hours, that I would have to be arrested and go to prison. If I stop at a petrol station on the motorway, it's classed as an industrial estate and I would have to go to prison.

New Speaker:	30:43	year.
New Speaker:	30:44	year but you have had an hearing
New Speaker:	30:44	yeah, and that case never got won.
New Speaker:	30:48	So they put a nine year curfew for that first case.
Speaker 1:	30:53	My understanding, those are forensic reports the Doctor from forensics.
Speaker 3:	30:57	No, that's, that's a long time after.
New Speaker:	31:00	Yeah, this was 2014.
New Speaker:	31:00	That is something total different; 2014 yes
New Speaker:	31:00	Na, there is one most recently. She's correct as well.
New Speaker:	31:10	Because in order of 2014.
New Speaker:	31:10	Can I explained to you what happened.
New Speaker:	31:11	I thought you saw a forensic psychiatrist [inaudible]
New Speaker:	31:11	I think everyone's getting confused here slightly, what's actually happened is that first case happened, which is what the Enfield Council made.
New Speaker:	31:20	I was thinking.
New Speaker:	31:20	Yeah, your right.
New Speaker:	31:20	In this last year last year.
New Speaker:	31:22	Yeah. I'm just trying to explain to you
Speaker 1:	31:24	Someone who regarding the Asbo
Speaker 3:	31:28	No, it's not the Asbo.
New Speaker:	31:28	No.
New Speaker:	31:28	Mum stop for a moment.
New Speaker:	31:28	It’s the one to do with the neighbours.
New Speaker:	31:28	That's what I am just trying to explain. Can I explain it to you?
Speaker 1:	31:34	Go on Yeah, [inaudible] but they felt that there was no point in having it.
Speaker 3:	31:40	No, there's two separate things.
New Speaker:	31:41	No.
New Speaker:	31:41	there is more than two
New Speaker:	31:42	This is where everyone information is incorrect.
New Speaker:	31:42	The one about Industrial raves is about organizing illegal raves.
New Speaker:	31:48	Yes.
New Speaker:	31:48	And that's why you're allowed to go out.
New Speaker:	31:49	And that was 2014 and that is until 2020.
New Speaker:	31:51	And then there was a possession order,
New Speaker:	31:54	That is to do with the neighbours.
New Speaker:	31:54	then there was a possession order that was forged. Then from that forged possession Order that they made an injunction order to get the statements. Then after they lost that completely knew how much trouble they were in. So Lemmy done threats to kill, which is the next injunction order saying I threatened him and he's got the recording so, in total there is a first Asbo, which hasn't been taken off yet, but I've got the evidence when I go Highbury Corner Court.

New Speaker:	32:11	That's at [inaudible].
New Speaker:	32:11	Then there was a possession order, made by the Council Frauded. So basically, what I'm saying is I'm not allowed to be homeless in the first one and then in the possession order they are saying they want my home of me? Then in the new one for the last two new injunction the conditions are, I'm not allowed to phone Enfield Council or make a complaint or I'm not allowed to go to the civic centre or I am not allowed my dog of the lead so I've had to sit there and let these people do this to me and I can't even phone the civic centre. otherwise, I get five years in prison. That's the conditions Enfield Council are so contradicting, in all of the policies and the things that they have aimed at me for.
New Speaker:	32:41	Yes.
New Speaker:	32:41	And they have tarnished my whole life in doing so.
Speaker 2:	32:45	Okay.
New Speaker:	32:46	But what you've got to understand is the restrictions of the first Asbo of 2014 basically really at 10 o'clock at night, he's only allowed in residential. Anything non-residential is not allowed in. So, like he is not allowed to go to the cinema
Speaker 3:	33:02	[inaudible].
New Speaker:	33:02	I can't go Warehouse nightclub, I can't go out
New Speaker:	33:02	I can't go out.
New Speaker:	33:02	He can't go to a pub. He can't go it's like
New Speaker:	33:02	Because I've complained about the time stamps being wrong and the missing signatures on each police officer done five statements each pretending they were victims.
New Speaker:	33:15	On the new restrictions he is allowed to go to one place for 30 while there on.
New Speaker:	33:15	and their missing all of the victim signatures at the bottom. So, there's, like about 15 reports saying that people were kept up overnight. They're all forged. And because of that, I've reported that now they are all still working in my area and no one's getting reprimanded so I won't even go back before 10 o'clock they're sending all their mates to my front door and that's why you lot are getting so many referrals.
New Speaker:	33:34	I mean you haven't been going out of your flat at all, have you [inaudible].
New Speaker:	33:36	I go to the shops a lot. I go to the shops and I go to the in the local facilities.
New Speaker:	33:40	Your mum has been bringing you round taking you around takeaways and things.
New Speaker:	33:40	I bring him around the big shop.

New Speaker:	33:40	Yeah.
New Speaker:	33:40	And I will go and get the milk and the bread and everything in the newspapers.
New Speaker:	33:49	And take the dog out for a walk.
New Speaker:	33:49	Yeah, my dog comes out with me occasionally, but not so much now. She's 12 years old now.
New Speaker:	33:52	And you do not go out much.
New Speaker:	33:52	Because she has not been well
Speaker 3:	33:55	[inaudible] during the day.
New Speaker:	33:55	[inaudible].
New Speaker:	33:57	This is because of the Asbo about the raves. Is this because you don't feel, do you feel safe when you go out?
New Speaker:	34:02	No, because of the 10 o'clock curfew. I've complained about these police officers who have done four statements each.
New Speaker:	34:07	Hmm, hmm
New Speaker:	34:07	and they're all missing their signatures. There's five of them each betending that people got keep up because I've reported that it's a criminal offense and the timestamps and me not being the right colour skin to fit the crime.
New Speaker:	34:16	But what is the reason that you are not going out very often.
New Speaker:	34:16	Because I've been phoning that I want the first Asbo taken off of me. These coppers are still working in the area and they'd been reprimanded.
New Speaker:	34:24	So, you feel vulnerable to the police.
New Speaker:	34:26	So, I feel vulnerable to the police going up before 10 o'clock until someone actually gets told this is wrong and this isn't supposed to happen.
New Speaker:	34:31	His right
Speaker 2:	34:32	See the thing that I've got major problem with is it's like the mental health team is using stuff the police are saying and their use stuff that Enfield Council are saying and at the present moment the original Asbo was with the CCRC. I don't know if understand or know who they are. Yeah. Uh, basically they've took the case up and basically, they know there's breaches in his human rights and everything else. In fact, even in the transcripts from the court, they state that it is okay. To breaches his article 6 and Article.
New Speaker:	35:01	So
New Speaker:	35:01	err, and mutable Articles.
New Speaker:	35:01	Well lets
Speaker 3:	35:04	That may complicate things because everyone may not know what they are.
New Speaker:	35:04	I appreciate that

New Speaker:	35:04	Well lets, why we are here today to have a look at the middle lines.
Speaker 2:	35:13	So, until that is sorted out criminally,
New Speaker:	35:14	[inaudible]. There wasted
New Speaker:	35:14	you can't use that against him.
New Speaker:	35:18	Yeah, because I have not been found guilty for none of it
New Speaker:	35:18	Also,
New Speaker:	35:18	Where out!
New Speaker:	35:18	We've got solicitors that's dealing with everything. The Council, and neighbours are saying, you're using that against him as that is a 100%
Speaker 3:	35:29	Well were not using anything yet.
New Speaker:	35:32	No, not yet.
New Speaker:	35:32	Your having a laugh.
New Speaker:	35:37	But Doctor Greenside has put treatment inside off these papers.
New Speaker:	35:37	No were not.
New Speaker:	35:37	Yes you lot are.
New Speaker:	35:37	Were trying to understand
Speaker 1:	35:38	you are because if.
New Speaker:	35:38	I just want to be allowed out again.
New Speaker:	35:38	One at a time, one at a time.
New Speaker:	35:38	you wasn't listening to the Council why did Dr. Greenside, write everything that the Council put inside of that report? for the section two Tribunal.
New Speaker:	35:50	Again, that's not here something that we need to discuss.
New Speaker:	35:55	I understand.
New Speaker:	35:55	So, basically.
New Speaker:	35:55	I don't have to answer.
New Speaker:	35:55	that is wrong in my eyes, your using stuff that has never been proven.
New Speaker:	35:55	Mum stop calm down for a moment.
New Speaker:	35:55	Lets have a break.
New Speaker:	35:55	Well let's have a break yeah.
New Speaker:	35:55	let's have a break.
New Speaker:	35:55	Lets have a break and we will have a little chat and we will come and get you.
New Speaker:	35:55	God bless you.
New Speaker:	35:55	Thank Simon
New Speaker:	35:55
New Speaker:	36:03	[inaudible].
New Speaker:	36:09	yeah,
New Speaker:	36:12	So are we actually going to be meeting again today or is that the final conclusion to everything.
New Speaker:	36:14	Yeah, yeah, we will meet in a minute.
New Speaker:	36:14	okay. Yes definitely, Thank you.

New Speaker:	36:39	Your welcome.
New Speaker:	36:39	[inaudible].
New Speaker:	36:39	No, you'll interrupt him whenever you want to say what you say. Your car, you jump in when they're talking and everything. Yeah. Amy, she jumps in when they're talking in it. I'm sorry, I didn't even realize you yourself. Is there any way, can you tell him when it comes to try to give me a psychiatric report? Anything that comes to meet me. Wow. Couple of days. The one I wrote in the paperwork. Oh, he's, I think that's possible.

Speaker 1:	00:13	[inaudible].
New Speaker:	00:16	Me and my mother and cousin re-entering the meeting room in the Chase Farm Mental hospital. After prior discussion.
New Speaker:	00:16	Hello everyone.
New Speaker:	00:16	Hello, Simon.
New Speaker:	00:16	A quick discussion
Speaker 2:	00:18	A quick discussion , um, based on the information you've given us. Um, we don't feel that your detainable, under section three of the mental health acts. Um, and given that you are prepared to stay here voluntarily, um, of your own free will and agreeing to see a second opinion doctor, um, who can carry out a full assessment, um, we're goanna go with that.
Speaker 1:	00:39	Okay.
New Speaker:	00:39	Excellent. Thank you for your help today.
New Speaker:	00:42	Thank you for your help today.
New Speaker:	00:42	It ok.
New Speaker:	00:42	But I would, you know.
New Speaker:	00:42	I honestly never done what was in them statements.
New Speaker:	00:42	Year.
New Speaker:	00:42	Year, and I think, sorry Larry to interrupt I was just going to say staying on the ward voluntarily means being in compliance.
New Speaker:	00:53	Year of course.

New Speaker:	00:53	Can he, I.
New Speaker:	00:53	[inaudible] and doing what is expected of you
New Speaker:	00:53	Yeah, of course.
New Speaker:	00:56	Can I asked a question, Doctor, because of lady the dog she is really missing him.
New Speaker:	01:00	Hmm.
New Speaker:	01:00	Year, and I arranged the other day, but because this has been brought up --- they haven't been able to cop him ---they said that he can come home for a couple of hours.
New Speaker:	01:10	Yes.
New Speaker:	01:10	You need to talk to doctor Greenside about that?
New Speaker:	01:10	Being voluntary changes everything. If they are saying I'm on that, if I'm allowed to do that, as long as I listen to what they are saying,
New Speaker:	01:17	Doctor Greenside gave his consent.
New Speaker:	01:17	Your an angel you lot are.
New Speaker:	01:17	you have had leave any way haven't you?
New Speaker:	01:17	year I have been able to leave since the second day.
New Speaker:	01:17	Well then.
New Speaker:	01:17	Yeah, I don't have too, I know what to do.
New Speaker:	01:17	but do try and cooperate because they. Doctor Greenside.
New Speaker:	01:28	Hmm.
New Speaker:	01:28	I'm going a circus tenant, I'm going to end up having a claim for the first one and get a circus tent and I will be back working in the community with everyone making something constructive for everyone.
New Speaker:	01:40	Yep of course.
New Speaker:	01:40	Erm, I'm we don't need to sort of elaborate any further.
New Speaker:	01:44	Okay.
New Speaker:	01:44	Okay.
New Speaker:	01:44	Um, that's where we are at as long as you, work with the nusis.
New Speaker:	01:50	Yeah, his a gentleman.
New Speaker:	01:50	God bless you all and I hope you all have a good day.
New Speaker:	01:50	Thank you very much.
New Speaker:	02:06	Your welcome.
New Speaker:	02:06	thank you sorry what is your name.
New Speaker:	02:06	Larry.
New Speaker:	02:06	I am sure I have seen you somewhere before.
New Speaker:	02:06	You probably see me the other day cycling around in Enfield.
New Speaker:	02:06	Oh, maybe.
New Speaker:	02:06	His a busy person.

  Simon was discharged from the ward. He waited till his mother came to pick him up. When his mother came, she expressed her concerns that he was being discharged as the situation with the flat had not been resolved. I stated that the care coordinator would be able to help with this. She stated that the discharge as " malicious". She was reassured that this was not the case.

Simon maintains that he is not in need of any mental health follow up or treatment. He doesn't think he suffers with any kind of illness and will not accept any treatment I asked him about the 'second opinion' he mentioned yesterday to the assessing team, he told me they had misunderstood him and that he meant he would seek a second opinion if he was detained under a section 3. I asked him if he would see a community psychiatrist-he said that he would not
I asked if he would see his CC Soobah, he said he would not he has agreed to the nursing staff contacting him after his discharge. Plan -discharge from section and discharge home - n/staff to carry out 7-day f/u -I will inform the CC

Subject: Your request for information (Our ref: CRM SAR 1085)
Dear Ms Cordell
4311,
We note that you have raised a request for information which relates to another person. In line with the Data Protection Act 2018, we are unable to correspond with you on these matters. Where a request for information is made on behalf of somebody else, we need to confirm that they are happy for you to access their personal information. Should Simon Cordell want you to act on their behalf and access their personal information, he will need to provide us with their signed written agreement to the complaint issues raised and for you to proceed with these on their behalf.
We note that your request is for 'all data that is held about me on Enfield Council systems all departments'. As your request does not provide us with much detail, we need you to clarify the specific information you are looking for.
In order for us to retrieve relevant records, we would need to know where your personal information could be located and it would greatly help our search if you are able to give us more details regarding:
Clarifying the type of information that you think the Council may hold about Mr Cordell

Clarifying the likely dates or time period when you think the information may have been created
Clarifying if you only want information relating to a particular issue or specific time period
We have registered your request under case number CRM SAR 1085 and you may quote this when you get back in touch with us. We look forward to your response. Once we receive the clarification from you, we will contact you with a further update.
Yours sincerely,

I have emailed his CC about arranging an outpatient consultant review I have also emailed the forensic consultant regarding an outpatient forensic opinion I spoke with PC Tom yesterday, 07506523950. the police intend on charging him with assault. I have told the PC that we will discharge him later today. CC will need to do 7-day f/u.”

Pre-Hearing Medical Examination of the Patient

A pre-hearing examination of the patient was indicated under the Rules.

The interview with the patient took place on 8th November, 2018.

The Tribunal considered:

Oral evidence from Dr J. Greensides, RC; Nurse Thembi Magodlela; Mr Soobah Appadoo, CPN; Mr Simon Cordell, patient and Mrs Cordell, patient's mother.

Written evidence from Dr M. Elia, ST6; Nurse Bibi Khodabux; Mr Soobah Appadoo,CPN

Other material, namely Responsible Authority Statement of Information,

Observers: Mrs Fiona Bateman, (Judicial Shadowing Scheme) and Student Nurse Skubik

Jurisdiction, Preliminary and Procedural Matters

1. The tribunal is satisfied that it has jurisdiction to consider this application.
2. The solicitor for the patient sought permission to submit a 6 page document from Mrs Cordell, the nearest relative. The solicitor indicated that the document expressed the nearest relative's views and those of a cousin. The panel considered the request and noted that Mrs Cordell's views as regards her son's detention and the housing problems he has experienced were fully reflected in the social circumstances report provided. The panel would also allow her to speak at the tribunal hearing if she wished to do so. In those circumstances, we did not accept the submission of the document.

Grounds for the Decision

1. The tribunal is satisfied that the patient is suffering from mental disorder or from mental disorder of a nature or degree which warrants the patient's detention in a hospital for assessment (or for assessment followed by medical treatment) for at least a limited period.
2. The tribunal is satisfied that the patient's detention as aforesaid is justified in the interests of the patient's own health or safety, or with a view to the protection of other persons.
3. The tribunal does not consider that it is appropriate to discharge the patient under its discretionary powers.

Reasons

1.Background

Mr Simon Cordell is aged 37 and is single and resides in council accommodation in the community. There is a longstanding history of difficulties with neighbours at his accommodation which was detailed in the reports. His background and history was documented in the statutory reports provided to the panel. He has been known to Adult Mental Health Services since 2014. He has had varied diagnoses in the past and has been found not to require section under the Mental Health Act in 2014 and 2015. He was however detained subject to Section 2 in August, 2016 and was subsequently discharged by a Tribunal. The history indicated that he was discharged on prescribed medication and followed up by EIS. He reportedly did not engage with services or medication and was thereafter discharged from EIS. He has a current working diagnosis of schizophrenia.

The current admission follows an incident in October, 2018 which led to safeguarding concerns and the Enfield Adult North Locality Team's decision to arrange an MHA assessment. Mr Cordell was detained subject to Section 2 on the 25.11.2018.

Appeal-section-2-Outcome-14-11-2018.pdf

2. The Responsible Authority's case

The clinical case argued that the patient has a chronic and enduring mental illness. It is unclear whether the mental disorder responds to treatment as the patient has not engaged consistently with treatment. Currently, the patient has been assessed without medication as Mr Cordell does not accept that he requires psychotropic medication. Mr Cordell presents with a number of persecutory, paranoid thoughts in relation to his beliefs that the police and his neighbours are in some way targeting him. Mr Cordell also exhibits thought disorder and some tangentiality in his response to questions posed. The professional evidence argued that the nature and degree of the mental disorder warranted the patient's continued detention of assessment which is justified in the interests of the patient's health, safety and the protection of others.

3. The patient's view

Mr Cordell was polite and courteous towards the panel. He told the panel that he did not accept that he has a mental illness or any need for medication. He said he experienced anxiety and distress at his accommodation. He indicated that the 48 allegations between 6.7.2016 and 2.10.2018 set out in the medical report from an Enfield Council Report regarding concerns and breaches of his tenancy agreement were all fabricated. He did not accept that he was in any way at fault. He repeated on several occasions that his neighbours had submitted a litany of complaints to council officials about him in order to undermine his occupation of the premises. He said that he has been stopped from organising festivals and had set up a website to air his frustrations about his perception of the injustice of his treatment. He told the panel that he would remain as a voluntary patient

4. The nature and degree of the mental disorder

As to the nature of the mental disorder, the patient's illness appears to be a chronic illness which has persisted for some time. It is unclear as to the patient's response to treatment as yet. Mr Cordell told the panel that he did not take the psychotropic medication prescribed following his last discharge in 2016. The clinical team have sought the first recommendation for Section 3 and intend to commence treatment with psychotropic medication in due course. Mr Cordell displayed no insight into his mental health difficulties and sought to minimise his actions prior to the current admission.

As to the degree of the mental disorder, the patient's evidence was tangential, guarded and there was clear thought disorder. Dr Greensides told the panel that he had looked at Mr Cordell's website which indicated the presence of thought disorder. The panel asked Mr Cordell about a telephone conversation with Mr Appadoo which is detailed in the social circumstances report; the patient is alleged to have used foul and threatening language throughout the conversation. Mr Cordell did not dispute the telephone conversation and sought to minimise his actions stating that the content was out of context. He was unable to contain his thoughts on the question posed as to whether, reflecting on the matter now, he thought his response was inappropriate.

The nursing evidence in contrast to the panel's observation, indicated that the patient has not exhibited any psychotic symptoms. On a positive note there has been some improvement in the patient's presentation overall as he is no longer challenging, irritable or confrontational.

5. The detention is justified in the interests of the patient's health, safety and the protection of others

As to the patient's health, the professional evidence indicated that psychotropic medication is to be commenced and the patient's response to treatment is to be monitored. The clinical view is that a period of treatment is now required to address the patient's psychotic symptoms. The clinical view is that the patient is unlikely to engage as an informal patient and a previous attempt at treating the patient in the community was unsuccessful.

Appeal-section-2-Outcome-14-11-2018.pdf

As to the patient's safety, there is historical information that Mr Cordell has attempted to self-harm in the past. This is not a current concern. Mr Cordell's difficulties at his accommodation may pose a risk of eviction. However, further clarification is required during the period of the assessment on this point. There is a potential risk of retaliation from others when he is behaving aggressively towards others.

As regards the protection of others, Mr Cordell has entrenched and longstanding views and there have been incidents of aggression involving his neighbours, council officials, and the police prior to admission. He showed little capacity for self-reflection or remorse during his evidence when he was questioned about his telephone interaction with Mr Appadoo. We note that the allegations of physical and verbal altercations with his neighbours were relied upon to obtain an order for an injunction as recently as the 9.1.2018 which was later discharged in July 2018 due to the patient's lack of capacity to understand the conditions of the injunction due to his psychotic illness.

6. Our conclusions

We accept the clinical evidence as to the nature and degree of the mental disorder. We have no doubt that there is some element of neighbour dispute; however Mr Cordell's response to such triggers appear to be rooted in a mental disorder which will need to be assessed during this admission. We also accept that the detention is justified in the interests of the patient's health, safety and the protection of others for the reasons set out above.

7. Exercise of discretion

There were no special features of this case which persuaded us to exercise our discretion to discharge.

8. Statutory criteria

The grounds and statutory criteria are satisfied. The section is upheld

Judge Hyman
Date 8th November, 2018

Notice

A person seeking permission to appeal must make a written application to the tribunal for permission to appeal. An application for permission must:

a. identify the decision of the tribunal to which it relates;
b. identify the alleged error or errors of law in the decision; and
c. state the result the party making the application is seeking.

An application for permission must be sent or delivered to the tribunal so that it is received no later than 28 days after the latest of the dates that the tribunal sends to the person making the application:

a. written reasons for the decision;
b. notification of amended reasons for, or correction of, the decision following a review; or
c. notification that an application for the decision to be set aside has been unsuccessful. (Note: This date only applies if the application for the decision to be set aside was made within the initial 28 day time limit, or any extension of that time previously granted by the tribunal.)

If the person seeking permission to appeal sends or delivers the application to the tribunal later than the time required then:

a. the application must include a request that the tribunal extends the time limit under Rule 5(3)(a), and give the reason(s) why the application was not provided in time; and

b. unless the tribunal extends time for the application to be made, a late application cannot be admitted.

2 Mother: To MP Joan Ryan. – "Further to your enquiry regarding Simon Cordell. Please see the update below from Debbie Morgan. SC was discharged from hospital on 15/11/18 having been detained under the Mental Health Act for the purpose of assessment of his mental health. SC did not believe he required to be in hospital or wish to accept the proposed treatment that was offered. As there is insufficient grounds or risk for further detention or to take any further intrusive measures against his will, he has been discharged. SC does not believe he has a mental illness that requires him to take treatment or to maintain on-going engagement with mental health services. He appears disappointed with services in which he perceives to have received from both housing and metropolitan police believing he is being targeted for things he has not done. His assessment has not elicited he has care needs warranting supported accommodation or a package of care to sustain independent living as he can be adequately supported through universal services. He presents with adequate daily living skills and can live in general needs housing. He appears to be young man who has particular beliefs, which may lead to him having differences in opinion with others, which may impact on relationships with others; particularly those in positions of authority. His mental health/psychological state therefore remains fragile; however, the risk is not such that he can be forced to engage with services. He was offered follow-up by mental health services in the community to which he declined, although agreed the he can be contacted by nurses from the ward to check on progress following discharge. He has been allocated a care coordinator (Soohah Appadoo, North Locality Team - 0208 379 4142) who will continue to try to engage him to build a relationship. SC describes his main presenting need to be that of his relationship with particular neighbours within his block, whom he believes to be intentionally causing him a nuisance by way of making noise, and reports feeling disbelieved and unfairly treated by the housing department and police. He therefore wants to be moved from his current accommodation. His mother approached the ward Consultant for a supporting letter to provide to housing for a 2-bedroom property citing she is his main career. As there is no evidence to suggest SC requires to be looked after due to having care needs requiring a live-in career her request was declined, she was advised to suggest housing put their request in writing should this be housing's request. Mental Health would support relocation to alternative accommodation to reduce further tensions between the residents within the block. His mother advised that SC has/or is in the possess of eviction, and that he was discharged from hospital with no support which does not seem to be the case. Support has been offered which has been declined, and will continue to be offered to assist in managing the current situation or avoid and/or mitigation a situation of eviction.

Hi Alev
Further to your enquiry regarding Simon Cordell. Please see the update below from Debbie Morgan.

SC did not believe he required to be in hospital or wish to accept the proposed treatment that was offered. As there is insufficient grounds or risk for further detention or to take any further intrusive measures against his will, he has been discharged.
SC does not believe he has a mental illness that requires him to take treatment or to maintain on-going engagement with mental health services. He appears disappointed with services in which he perceives to have received from both housing and metropolitan police believing he is being targeted for things he has not done. His assessment has not elicited he has care needs warranting supported accommodation or a package of care to sustain independent living as he can be adequately supported through universal services. He presents with adequate daily living skills and can live in general needs housing. may impact on relationships with others; particularly those in positions of authority. His mental health/psychological state therefore remains fragile; however, the risk is not such that he can be forced to engage with services.
He was offered follow-up by mental health services in the community to which he declined, although agreed the he can be contacted by nurses from the ward to check on progress following discharge. He has been allocated a care coordinator (Soohah Appadoo, North Locality Team - 0208 379 4142) who will continue to try to engage him to build a relationship. Admission Summary

17 Oct - referred for MHA due to history of physical and verbal aggression towards his neighbours.
EANLT MDT agreed that he is a risk to others and his behaviour could also put him at risk from others.
Simon refused to engage with MHA.
Application for 135(1) was made - Judge found insufficient evidence for 136. Forensic referral sent on 17/10
25 Oct - Simon was arrested as the police called to his flat re him breaking a harassment order and he assaulted the police who attended.
He was taken to Wood Green police station.
Found to be him thought disordered, hypomanic with flight of speech and grandiose delusions.
Detained under MHA.
On initial review he had pressured speech, difficulty interrupting, appeared elated in mood, and had grandiose beliefs e.g., started talking about owning a couple of local festivals and engaging in multiple charities involving children.
At the time he has limited insight; he does not want any medication, and has never believed he has a mental health disorder.
His UDS was positive to THC.
He immediately appealed his section.

The tribunal was done on 8/11/18 which he lost.
On 5/11/18, Dr Greensides reviewed the patient and made an application for Section 3 as there are risks to his health and to others.
It was felt that it would not be beneficial to take against his will unless he is subsequently detained on a section 3.
However, there was a delay in the assessment so he was started on Risperidone 2mg ON which he refused to take.
He had a MHAA for a Section 3 on 14/11/18; it was felt that there was no evidence of Simon posing a risk of harm/safety to himself or others and there was no obvious risk of neglect.
As a result, he was not sectioned.
It was decided that as a result of this, there was no reason for Simon to remain on an acute psychiatric ward as we are unable to treat him.
He was discharged as a result, with Dr Greensides emailing his CC about arranging an O/P consultant review and emailed the forensic consultant regarding an O/P forensic opinion.
Thank you for your continued care.
Here is his MSE on admission:
Simon is a 37-year-old male, who was appropriately dressed.
He engaged in conversation and made eye contact throughout.
Calm and polite, no aggression but did become mildly restless at points.
Pressurised speech, difficult to interrupt.
Flight of ideas noted.
Described mood as good.
High levels of energy and labile mood.
Paranoid delusions about the police and MH services and some grandiose delusions noted.

No perceptual abnormalities noted. Orientated to TPP
Lacks insight, does not believe he has a MH condition and not willing to engage with services historically or currently. Unlikely to take medication willingly.

For and on behalf of Mr Simon Cordell from Miss Lorraine Cordell (Mother) 22/11/2018

THE LONDON BOROUGH OF ENFIELD
VS
MR SIMON CORDELL

Dear District Judge Dias

- It is with concern that I must now bring this matter to your attention regarding the hearing of the 09th August 2018 case reference E00ED049 for which you were the presiding judge
- Whereby You asked Enfield Council to draft the order and to be submitted to the court for it to be sealed, Enfield Council contacted Mr Cordell's solicitor regarding amendments that were made, Mr Cordell's solicitor was away on annual leave, when Mr Cordell solicitor came back from annual leave, she made amendments to Enfield Council's draft order but has never heard back regarding the amendments she made.
- Enfield Council's draft order was somehow then sealed by the court a few days after Mr Cordell's solicitor sent the draft order, she had made to Enfield Council and the courts. At this time the 22 November 2018 we still have not had a copy of the courts sealed order.

- I believe there is errors within Enfield Council's draft order to what was actually said in court, and I do not know how to address this, but Enfield Council is stating things to people that was not even stated in court.
- At this time, I am trying to put in an application to obtain the transcripts of the court hearing, but I am waiting for some information from the court in order to be able to do this.
- Mr Cordell has not long been released from hospital where he was under section, Enfield Council have still not moved him and he still living in hell regarding what the neighbours are doing to him.
- It would seem Enfield Council has been relaying incorrect information to the mental health team regarding the court hearings, and I believe they are being able to get away with this due to how they drafted the court order of the 09th August 2018 hearing.
- It seems Enfield Council is doing everything they can not to move my son, they have even stated they are going for a possession order of his flat, in fact they told the mental health team:
  "Enfield Council has decided to seek possession of Mr Cordell's flat via the courts. In a recent court case, the judge recommended that Enfield Council rehouse Mr Cordell on the proviso that he engages with the mental health team which is failed to do."
- This was not said in court in fact when Enfield Council tried to put this in place you told them no you would not allow this.
- It seems as if Enfield Council will stop at nothing to not move my son, I have been trying to liaison with Enfield Council and the mental health team regarding moving my son, it would seem shortly after the court hearing my son was moved over to a new mental health team who I was in contact with asking for help in regards to them writing a letter regarding my son's housing which they refused to do until they had met him, this in itself was going to cause a problem because as you are aware my son does not feel as if he has a mental health problem, I even emailed Angela Hague as she was the last person to have assessed my son in June 2018 which the court had a report of and was read before the court on the 26 June 2018 at the hearing.

- The issue seems to be with the like to like property, which I do not believe is appropriate as I believe my son needs family support and someone staying with him in order for us to try and make him understand that he needs support from the mental health team, I know this was spoken about in court on 9 August 2018 where I believe Enfield Council is stating you told them to consider this, but Enfield Council will not consider this unless I get a letter from the mental health team, Enfield Council is also under the assumption I stated my son needed supported accommodation, I did not state this in court, I said I did not want my son in supported accommodation that if my son had a two-bedroom property his family would support him which I believe in the correct things to do for my son.
- It seems as if Enfield Council is continuously passing information that is incorrect to the mental health team, and the only reason I can see for this is that they are trying to keep him in hospital.
- From the point my son was hospitalised and taken out of that flat his health started to improve greatly in hospital, even the doctors and nurses noticed this, they tried to put in place a section 3 due to what Enfield Council has said to them, the section 3 was not granted due to laws within section 3 and my son not being detain-able under section 3, my son stated he was willing to stay voluntarily in hospital and he was willing to do this, but due to the doctors not getting the section 3 they wanted, they then discharged my son the following day with no support in place because they needed the beds.
- Since my son has gone back to the flat his health has started to decline again, due to what the neighbours are doing. When my son was in hospital his cousin was staying at the flat to look after my son's dog, the first day he stayed there he himself was going to go up to the neighbours regarding the constant banging, the next day the neighbours saw my son's cousin from their window, and I believe at that point they knew my son was not there, so the banging stopped.

- Since my son was getting no help from Enfield Council, I took it upon myself to make an appointment to see his MP, his MP is in contact with Enfield Council, but the longer my son is left in that flat the worst his health is going to get due to what the neighbours are doing. I believe the MP has now also caught adult social services involved in at this time we are waiting for a letter from Enfield Council regarding moving my son, but I am scared due to Enfield Council knowing my son has been released from hospital they are going to start court proceedings for a possession order, although the MP has told me not to worry about my son being evicted I cannot help but worry, I have tried to get hold of my sons solicitor who acted for him but due to them being more involved in criminal law I do not believe as was stated in court on 9 August 2018 they understand civil in the way it should be, a belief they feel that the case was concluded on 9 August 2018, and therefore have little involvement thereafter.
- When I called the court and explained the situation the court bought up the order of 9 August 2018, and stated there is not an order that my son is moved by Enfield Council, I was under the belief that this is what the court did order, therefore I fail to understand why it is not included as part of the court order Enfield Council drafted.
- Any help would be greatly appreciated as at this point in time I am not sure what to do or where I stand to help my son, it seems Enfield Council can do what they want to leave my son in the flat which is affecting his health due to what the neighbours are doing, mislead the mental health service in what Enfield Council is saying to them, not once since this order was made has Enfield Council bothered to even want to see my son to see how he is coping, I'm sure there should be some duty of care towards my son yet Enfield Council don't seem to believe they need to follow that.

- It just like the way throughout all the court hearings Enfield Council was at, where they misled the court regarding to my son's health, I am asking for help as at this point, I don't know where to turn and what to do.

2255,

- I look forward to hearing from you with your views and recommendations in regard to this.

Yours Sincerely
Miss Lorraine Cordell (Mother of Simon Cordell

Hi Alev
Further to your enquiry regarding Simon Cordell. Please see the update below from Debbie Morgan. SC was discharged from hospital on 15/11/18 having been detained under the Mental Health Act for the purpose of assessment of his mental health. SC did not believe he required to be in hospital or wish to accept the proposed treatment that was offered. As there is insufficient grounds or risk for further detention or to take any further intrusive measures against his will, he has been discharged. SC does not believe he has a mental illness that requires him to take treatment or to maintain on-going engagement with mental health services. He appears disappointed with services in which he perceives to have received from both housing and metropolitan police believing he is being targeted for things he has not done. His assessment has not elicited he has care needs warranting supported accommodation or a package of care to sustain independent living as he can be adequately supported through universal services. He presents with adequate daily living skills and can live in general needs housing. He appears to be young man who has particular beliefs, which may lead to him having differences in opinion with others, which may impact on relationships with others; particularly those in positions of authority. His mental health/psychological state therefore remains fragile; however, the risk is not such that he can be forced to engage with services.
He was offered follow-up by mental health services in the community to which he declined, although agreed the he can be contacted by nurses from the ward to check on progress following discharge. He has been allocated a care coordinator (Soohah Appadoo, North Locality Team - 0208 379 4142) who will continue to try to engage him to build a relationship. SC describes his main presenting need to be that of his relationship with particular neighbours within his block, whom he believes to be intentionally causing him a nuisance by way of making noise, and reports feeling disbelieved and unfairly treated by the housing department and police. He therefore wants to be moved from his current accommodation. His mother approached the ward Consultant for a supporting letter to provide to housing for a 2-bedroom property citing she is his main carer. As there is no evidence to suggest SC requires to be looked after due to having care needs requiring a live-in carer her request was declined, she was advised to suggest housing put their request in writing should this be housing's request. Mental Health would support relocation to alternative accommodation to reduce further tensions between the residents within the block. Hi mother advised that SC has/or is in the possess of eviction, and that he was discharged from hospital with no support which does not seem to be the case. Support has been offered which has been declined, and will continue to be offered to assist in managing the current situation or avoid and/or mitigation a situation of eviction.

2 NHS: From: Dr. Tim, to All from the same company - "Dear Basit, Soobah, I hope you are well. I'm just following up on the discharge of the above. It is a shame that it was not possible to start treatment in him but I see that a concerted attempt was made. I have put a note on RIO. I note that Simon was documented to be thought disordered and to experience delusions but to be refusing to take treatment or to see a psychiatrist in the community following not being detained under s3 MHA. He was referred for a forensic assessment but of course we have no additional powers to compel him, so it is difficult for us to add more in the immediate aftermath. We have not closed the referral made to us. Although it seems unlikely that Simon would agree to attend a forensic assessment given the above, I wonder whether the most helpful course of action to take would be to suggest/arrange a professionals' meeting, involving Enfield Housing and also a representative from the Police (perhaps the officer in the case in relation to the assault charge) or even MAPPA (he could be referred here?). FICS would be able to attend this if helpful."

Entries below noted. I note that Simon was documented to be thought disordered and to experience delusions but to be refusing to take treatment or to see a psychiatrist in the community following not being detained under s3 MHA. The forensic team have no additional powers to compel Simon, of course, so it is difficult for us to add more in the immediate aftermath of this concerted attempt to treat him in hospital. We have not closed the referral made to us. It seems unlikely that Simon would agree to attend a forensic assessment given the below but we would be happy to offer advice to his community care coordinator. I wonder whether the most helpful course of action to take would be to suggest/arrange a professionals’ meeting, involving Enfield Housing and also a representative from the Police (perhaps the officer in the case in relation to the assault charge). FICS would be able to attend this if helpful.

Summary!
My Heart has really started to hurt me every day, I am having an early aged mild heart attacks because of what Debra Andrews and the Mathiyalagan Markandu family as well as stain Curtis and George Quinton get and got away with, inclusively of what the police and local council members are getting away with each day by holding me hostage with no first hand witness and then on allowing my estate members to carry out their hate crime in a cover up to send me crazy or to an early death by flushing the toilet below me and bagging at me causing me sufferings and no peace also letting the named attack me when I am in the bath tub and getting undressed and this does not stop their I continue to get assaulted with the water taps getting slammed on and off causing a loud bagging sound at a fast rate and slamming object and or jumping on the floorboards above my head damaging my work studies and private family life and making me a Vulnerable person!

I have also had a lot of problems with eating because of what they keep all doing to me!
My canine has victualing its paws because of what 113 – 117 and 111 are getting away with I have taken pictures of the damage this is doing to us in this flat!

Disrepair!

The correct actions would mean the disrepair problems with my damp got resolved but this does not occur to happen by the Enfield Council and the Enfield Homes teams, as I still continue to suffer!

Summary!
My Heart has really started to hurt me every day, I am having an early aged mild heart attacks because of what Debra Andrews and the Mathiyalagan Markandu family as well as stain Curtis and George Quinton get and got away with, inclusively of what the police and local council members are getting away with each day by holding me hostage with no first hand witness and then on allowing my estate members to carry out their hate crime in a cover up to send me crazy or to an early death by flushing the toilet below me and bagging at me causing me sufferings and no peace also letting the named attack me when I am in the bath tub and getting undressed and this does not stop their I continue to get assaulted with the water taps getting slammed on and off causing a loud bagging sound at a fast rate and slamming object and or jumping on the floorboards above my head damaging my work studies and private family life and making me a Vulnerable person!
I have also had a lot of problems with eating because of what they keep all doing to me!
My canine has victualing its paws because of what 113 – 117 and 111 are getting away with I have taken pictures of the damage this is doing to us in this flat!

Dear Mrs Cordell
Re: Your complaint regarding the sharing of your son's information
Thank you for passing on your concerns in your conversation and initial email with Angela Hague on 30th July 2018, and subsequently with Rachel Yona on 10th August 2018. You raised some key questions relating to information governance and the sharing of information regarding your son. Please accept our sincere apologies for the delay in our response to your queries, which was due to there being a separate ongoing investigation within the Trust regarding the matters you have raised.
Your concerns have been investigated and I am now in a position to respond to your complaint. Your concerns were investigated by Rachel Yona (Enfield Adult Mental Health Community Services Manager), and involved interviews with staff and a review of your son's clinical records.
You stated that a report written by Angela Hague regarding your son, dated 15th June 2018 and 19th June 2018, had been presented in court on 26th June 2018. You stated you had not had prior access to these reports, and explained that you had considered the court case and the assessments by Angela Hague were separate processes.
Please be assured that we have looked into this matter and I can confirm the report used in court was not a formal report, but rather a response by Angela to a request for information. The Trust had communicated to the Council Legal Services that we would not be providing a report for the Court and it was recommended they commission an independent report if this were required. However, as part of the investigation, it has been highlighted that this communication was only shared verbally with the Council Legal Services, and the position of the Trust was not clarified in writing.
During our communications with the Council Legal Services, it was asked whether your son had engaged in his recent assessment, and it was for this reason the information presented in court was given. Our investigation found that the information which was sent was not a limited, direct response to the question posed to the Trust; I sincerely regret therefore that information was overshared and as such this aspect of your complaint is upheld.
This is a matter we have taken very seriously; I would like to offer you our sincere apologies that your son's information was used for anything other than it's intended use whilst in the hands of the

Chief Executive: Jinjer Kandola
4325,
Trust, and assure you that we fully understand our role in ensuring the security and safekeeping of records relating to all of those in our care. We have completed a full internal incident investigation into this matter, and I would like to assure you that all due processes and actions have been taken in relation to this breach.
I understand that you also were concerned about the processing of your son's information by the Court and the Local Authority. We are aware your son did not give consent for his records to be used in Court, and I can confirm the Trust also did not give consent for the sharing of information by the Local Authority with the Court. Our investigation found that the London Borough of Enfield requested to know if your son had engaged in treatment. As part of the legal proceedings the Court had asked for an assessment of your son's capacity to litigate and capacity to understand the meaning of the interim injunction from January 2018. Whilst we cannot speak on behalf of the Courts, we believe that this was why they passed on the information.
I am very sorry to learn that you feel the trust between yourself, your son, and the Mental Health Services has been broken. I understand that your son is now being seen by the Enfield North Locality Team, and I sincerely hope that they will be able to help rebuild the trust and develop a good working relationship with yourself and your son.
I understand that when you discussed your concerns with Rachel Yona (Enfield Community Services Manager) you raised your view that you feel there were inaccuracies within your son's report. Please be advised that whilst we are unable to retrospectively amend records, we are able to add additional entries to reflect your views and comments, and we would be very happy to add any information as you see fit.
Please be assured that the recommendations from this complaint will be shared with the London Borough of Enfield Legal Services and across our Enfield Adult Community Mental Health Teams, to ensure all agencies involved in this situation can learn from this regrettable incident.
We appreciate all feedback from service users' experience of our service as this helps us to assess, reflect on our actions and improve the care we provide. Staff members are committed to providing and delivering a high standard of care to all our service users. We try to ensure that through good support and training opportunities, staff are enabled to deal effectively and sensitively with the needs of all service users and their relatives. When members of our staff fall below the expected levels of performance, we ensure that issues are addressed and dealt with quickly. Our aim is to learn from these experiences and give assurances that any actions as a result of our investigation will be delivered.

Dear Ludmilla lyavoo
I believe what we need as this is what we have just been told on the phone we need to do a housing management transfer to be able to get this done as Simon should not need to fill out a new housing application as he is already a tenant.

4337,
Dear Ludmilla, lyavoo
Could you please send me the link to the application form as I have been looking all day my brother even went up to the civic centre and they could not give him a link they said there is not one.
I wanted to get this done as soon as possible and Enfield Council website is not great to use.
Regards
Lorraine Cordell

Summary!
My Heart has really started to hurt me every day, I am having an early aged mild heart attacks because of what Debra Andrews and the Mathiyalagan Markandu family as well as stain Curtis and George Quinton get and got away with, inclusively of what the police and local council members are getting away with each day by holding me hostage with no first hand witness and then on allowing my estate members to carry out their hate crime in a cover up to send me crazy or to an early death by flushing the toilet below me and bagging at me causing me sufferings and no peace also letting the named attack me when I am in the bath tub and getting undressed and this does not stop their I continue to get assaulted with the water taps getting slammed on and off causing a loud bagging sound at a fast rate and slamming object and or jumping on the floorboards above my head damaging my work studies and private family life and making me a Vulnerable person!
I have also had a lot of problems with eating because of what they keep all doing to me!
My canine has victualing its paws because of what 113 – 117 and 111 are getting away with I have taken pictures of the damage this is doing to us in this flat!

The Enfield Gov / Email's Issue:

/ Page Numbers: 4350,4351,
3. Regarding Mr. Simon Cordell information:
4. New Complaint
Dated: 28/11/2018
Dear Jinjer Kandola
Thank you for the update letter regarding the complaint that was submitted to Angela Hague on the 30th July 2018 and Rachel Vona on the 10th August 2018.
I am very happy that you take the over-sharing of information very seriously, but it would seem that the sharing of my son's information has not stopped by the mental health teams, and is being continually breached even after I put in the complaint the mental health trust is continually passing information to Enfield Council. It would seem if Enfield Council ask for anything it is being passed to them from the mental health team.
There has been a lot of data that is being passed between the mental health trust and Enfield Council this needs to stop, as no consent has ever been given by my son or my son asked if this information can be shared.
It would also seem Enfield Council has not learned anything as they are still sharing said information that is being shared via the mental health team to Enfield Council.
Please see attached email this time is seems it has come from Debbie Morgan who works in the same said department as Angela Hague where the last breach of data happened.

The information was sent to Enfield Council by Debbie Morgan and then Denise Cook-Smith from Enfield Council who is a Note Taker it would seem, then passed it over to the MP's aid Alev Cazimoglu who is trying to address a move from Enfield Council for my son and it seems the only person trying to help my son. The move was ordered via the courts on the 09/08/2018 which Enfield Council has failed to do; it seems Enfield Council will stop at nothing not to do the right thing towards my son. And seems they are only interested in using his mental health and not doing the correct thing and moving my son from the hell he is living in, everything the mental health team is passing to Enfield Council is being used against my son not to help him.
I would like the full details of what was passed to Enfield Council by the Mental health team from Debbie Morgan as it would not surprise me if Enfield Council has changed it to the words they wanted to use to send it to the MP as what is stated in the Email to the MP is not correct on many points and I am very angry it has been written this way as no one has any right to say the things that have been said in the email the way they have been said is plainly wrong why would anyone write this email the way it has been written.
I would like this investigated as it seems the 1st investigation has done nothing to stop this sharing of my son's information without consent via the mental health team.
What right and laws are being used to share this information?
As it seems all the information that is being shared goes against my son. How is any trust meant to be grained when this is happing all the time? This is not the only information that is being shared and I can prove this.
I want all information sharing to stop forthwith with Enfield Council from the mental health teams across all departments, as it seems Enfield Council does not care how this information is being used or shared or if it is correct when they pass it on. From this point if any information is going to be shared with Enfield Council, then the information needs to be sent to this email 1st and written consent obtained before any information is shared this would include all departments in the mental health team.
I have included your letter of response as I am also including in this email the MP as all this incorrect information that is being used against my son needs to stop from this point in time.
I have submitted a subject access request of all data being held for my son by the mental health teams, which I am awaiting as I need to correct a great deal of data being held and find out what other information has been shared.
I look forward to hearing from you regarding this complaint dated 28/11/2018
Regards
Lorraine Cordell

Dear Jinjer Kandola

Please see my reply to the Trust Response regarding Mr. Cordell's information, included in the reply is a new complaint dated 28/11/2018 as it seems the investigation that was done has not worked and data is still being shared incorrectly regarding my son.
I have included the MP in this email so she can keep updated with what is going on.

- We received a report that on 7th February 2017 you approached the leaseholder of 117 Burncroft Avenue and his plumber outside the block as they were attempting to resolve the problem causing low water pressure in the flat. You said to the leaseholder that there were problems between you and his tenants but did not give any specific details. The leaseholder explained to you that his tenants were experiencing low water pressure in the flat and you said to him 'you will not solve the problem as I am restricting their water supply'. The leaseholder later knocked on your door and asked whether you would increase the water pressure and you stated, 'I cannot do anything at the moment, I will sort it out later'.

- On 24th February 2017 Sarah Fletcher (Neighbourhood Officer) and Steve Stirk (Maintenance Surveyor) attended your property at flat 109 Burncroft Avenue to inspect the property following reports of low water pressure from flats 113 and 117 Burncroft Avenue. While inside your flat, they observed that you have installed an iron security gate inside your front door. It also appeared to them that the wall between your kitchen and living room seemed to have been removed thereby creating an open plan effect. Much of the property was taken up industrial type printers, boxes and folders and there were dog faeces in your back garden.
  Please write here what happened with this alleged allegation, write if you got any evidence of this.
- On 17th March 2017 Lemmy Nwabuisi, ASB Coordinator visited 109 Burncroft Avenue to post a letter through your door and as he got into his car to drive off after posting the letter, you ran after him shouting and screaming abuse. The letter requested that you attend our offices to discuss the nuisance reports being received from your neighbours. By the time he returned to the office, you had telephoned him several times. He telephoned you back and you asked whether he was the person that posted a letter through your letterbox and he said yes. You asked why he did not stop when you ran after him and he stated that he had another visit and did not have the time to stop and talk to you. You stated that you will not attend the meeting at the Civic Centre or any of the council offices as you are unable to leave your flat and that the meeting should take place in your flat. Mr Nwabuisi offered to have the meeting at a neutral venue and suggested the local library or at your mother's house, but you refused saying that you have done nothing wrong and accused him of taking sides with your neighbours.
  Please write here what happened with this alleged allegation, write if you got any evidence of this.
- On 5th May 2017, it is alleged that you threatened one of your neighbours by saying that you will ruin his life and that you were going to the police to present evidence about his illegal activities.
  Please write here what happened with this alleged allegation, write if you got any evidence of this.
- On 14th May 2017, it is alleged that you aggressively banged on one of your neighbour's door, shouted abuse, and threats at her and falsely accused her of making noise and coming into your flat to attack you. You later followed her to her car shouting abuse and wanting to know where she was going.

- On 2nd July 2017 at 17:18hrs it is alleged that you confronted your neighbour as he was going out with his family with your dog barking and without a lead and asked him when he was going to hand over the money. It is also alleged that as they left the block, you ran after them swearing and shouting abuse at your neighbour and demanding that he must pay you some money if he wants you to leave him alone. You also said to him that you have all their personal details including their dates of birth and bank details.

Please write here what happened with this alleged allegation, write if you got any evidence of this.

- On 12th July 2017 an Enfield Council Surveyor attended your flat to investigate reports of low water pressure to flats above yours, but you refused him access. The Surveyor attended your flat again in the evening of the same day following further reports that the water supply to the affected flats had completely ceased and you refused him access. You then followed him to his car swearing and shouting abuse at him and prevented him from entering his car. He then called the police.
  Please write here what happened with this alleged allegation, write if you got any evidence of this.
- On 11th November 2017 at 11.30am, it is alleged by one of your neighbours that you came to their front door, opened the letterbox, and peeped through it to see who was inside the flat. You then started swearing and shouting abuse and banging on their front door as soon as you saw the neighbour's wife.

- On 2nd January 2018 at 6.30pm, it is alleged that you stood outside your neighbour's property for more than twenty minutes swearing and shouting abuse. You went away and returned half an hour later, you lifted their letterbox, stuck your mobile phone through the letterbox and started to record his family while swearing and shouting abuse. This went on for about fifteen minutes.
  Please write here what happened with this alleged allegation, write if you got any evidence of this.
- On 9th January 2018 at about 12.18pm, you telephone Lemmy Nwabuisi (ASB Behaviour officer) and accused him of forging documents to get an antisocial behaviour order against him and you told him that he had made you a prisoner within your home. You also stated that you knew where he lives in Enfield and that he and his family were not safe from you. You also told him that you would watch him leave the office and you would have followed him home and he needed to watch his back. You called the ASB officer again 30 minutes later and told him that you knew he has a flat in Edmonton and also knew that one of his colleagues lives in Edmonton. You also stated that you knew where they live and they were not safe.
  Please write here what happened with this alleged allegation, write if you got any evidence of this.
- On 9th January 2018 you called Kaunchita Maudhub (ASB Behaviour officer) and left a long voicemail on her work telephone number and made threats.

- On 24th September 2018 at about 11.30am, one of your neighbours returned home from dropping her daughter at school and as she entered their block of flat, she noticed that the middle door on the ground floor was open as well as your front door. As she went up the stairs to their second floor flat, your dog came out of your flat and started barking at her. The neighbour had to run up the stairs to her flat to escape from the dog. It was reported that your dog is always barking whenever they go out or return to the block and the neighbour and 4 years old daughter are terrified.

Please write here what happened with this alleged allegation, write if you got any evidence of this.

- One of your neighbours reported that his cousin was leaving the block at about on 2 October 2018 at 12.45pm, and as you exited the block, you followed him and suddenly grabbed his jacket from behind and tried to pull him to the ground. The cousin started shouting to attract neighbours and managed to push you off.
  Please write here what happened with this alleged allegation, write if you got any evidence of this.
- There are other reports from one of your neighbours who reported that on 30th September 2018, you attempted to break down his front door by kicking it several times only because he flashed his toilet.
  Please write here what happened with this alleged allegation, write if you got any evidence of this.
- It is reported that you continue to harass and intimidate other residents on a regular basis.

Dear Mrs Cordell
Re: Your complaint regarding the sharing of your son's information

- Thank you for passing on your concerns in your conversation and initial email with Angela Hague on 30th July 2018, and subsequently with Rachel Yona on 10th August 2018. You raised some key questions relating to information governance and the sharing of information regarding your son.
- Please accept our sincere apologies for the delay in our response to your queries, which was due to there being a separate ongoing investigation within the Trust regarding the matters you have raised.
- Your concerns have been investigated and I am now in a position to respond to your complaint.

- Your concerns were investigated by Rachel Yona (Enfield Adult Mental Health Community Services Manager) and involved interviews with staff and a review of your son's clinical records.
- You stated that a report written by Angela Hague regarding your son, dated 15th June 2018 and 19th June 2018, had been presented in court on 26th June 2018. You stated you had not had prior access to these reports and explained that you had considered the court case and the assessments by Angela Hague were separate processes.
- Please be assured that we have looked into this matter and I can confirm the report used in court was not a formal report, but rather a response by Angela to a request for information. The Trust I had communicated to the Council Legal Services that we would not be providing a report for the Court and it was recommended they commission an independent report if this were required.
- However, as part of the investigation, it has been highlighted that this communication was only shared verbally with the Council Legal Services, and the position of the Trust was not clarified in writing.
- During our communications with the Council Legal Services it was asked whether your son had engaged in his recent assessment, and it was for this reason the information presented in court was given. Our investigation found that the information which was sent was not a limited, direct response to the question posed to the Trust; I sincerely regret therefore that information was overshared and as such this aspect of your complaint is upheld.
- This is a matter we have taken very seriously; I would like to offer you our sincere apologies that your son's information was used for anything other than it's intended use whilst in the hands of the

Chairman: Mark Lam
Chief Executive: Jinjer Kandola

2278,

Trust, and assure you that we fully understand our role in ensuring the security and safekeeping of records relating to all of those in our care. We have completed a full internal incident investigation into this matter, and I would like to assure you that all due processes and actions have been taken in relation to this breach.

- I understand that you also were concerned about the processing of your son's information by the Court and the Local Authority. We are aware your son did not give consent for his records to be used in Court, and I can confirm the Trust also did not give consent for the sharing of information by the Local Authority with the Court. Our investigation found that the London Borough of Enfield requested to know if your son had engaged in treatment. As part of the legal proceedings the Court had asked for an assessment of your son's capacity to litigate and capacity to understand the meaning of the interim injunction from January 2018. Whilst we cannot speak on behalf of the Courts, we believe that this was why they passed on the information.
- I am very sorry to learn that you feel the trust between yourself, your son, and the Mental Health Services has been broken. I understand that your son is now being seen by the Enfield North Locality Team, and I sincerely hope that they will be able to help rebuild the trust and develop a good working relationship with yourself and your son.
- I understand that when you discussed your concerns with Rachel Yona (Enfield Community Services Manager) you raised your view that you feel there were inaccuracies within your son's report. Please be advised that whilst we are unable to retrospectively amend records, we are able to add additional entries to reflect your views and comments, and we would be very happy to add any information as you see fit.

- Please be assured that the recommendations from this complaint will be shared with the London Borough of Enfield Legal Services and across our Enfield Adult Community Mental Health Teams, to ensure all agencies involved in this situation can learn from this regrettable incident.
- We appreciate all feedback from service users' experience of our service as this helps us to assess, reflect on our actions and improve the care we provide. Staff members are committed to providing and delivering a high standard of care to all our service users. We try to ensure that through good support and training opportunities, staff are enabled to deal effectively and sensitively with the needs of all service users and their relatives. When members of our staff fall below the expected levels of performance, we ensure that issues are addressed and dealt with quickly. Our aim is to learn from these experiences and give assurances that any actions as a result of our investigation will be delivered.
- If you remain unhappy after this further contact, you have the right to take your complaint to the Parliamentary and Health Service Ombudsman. The contact details are as follows:

- Wherever possible you should provide documentary proof of the information you provide. Failure to do so may delay your application.

About the case

Case/Claim number or Appeal number	E00ED049
Date of order you are appealing/intend to appeal and name of judge who made the order	Date: 09/08/2018 — Name of judge: District Judge Dias
What part of the proceedings do you want to be transcribed?	☐ Judgment only ☐ Evidence only ☑ Entire proceedings
If you have ticked Evidence or Entire proceedings, please give reasons for your request.	Enfield Council has failed to act correctly with what District Judge Dias stated needed to be done in the court order dated 09/08/2018. Enfield Council are using incorrect information and passing that on to other bodies which is incorrect. I need the full transripts of what was said in court so i can try and correct this. Also Enfield Council are now also trying to go for proceedings against Simon Cordell for possession of his flat. District Judge Dias spoke about this to Enfield Council on the 09/08/2018 and i would like the full transripts in order to prove what Enfield Council is stating is misleading.

Summary!

My Heart has really started to hurt me every day, I am having an early aged mild heart attacks because of what Debra Andrews and the Mathiyalagan Markandu family as well as stain Curtis and George Quinton get and got away with, inclusively of what the police and local council members are getting away with each day by holding me hostage with no first hand witness and then on allowing my estate members to carry out their hate crime in a cover up to send me crazy or to an early death by flushing the toilet below me and bagging at me causing me sufferings and no peace also letting the named attack me when I am in the bath tub and getting undressed and this does not stop their I continue to get assaulted with the water taps getting slammed on and off causing a loud bagging sound at a fast rate and slamming object and or jumping on the floorboards above my head damaging my work studies and private family life and making me a Vulnerable person!
I have also had a lot of problems with eating because of what they keep all doing to me!
My canine has victualing its paws because of what 113 – 117 and 111 are getting away with I have taken pictures of the damage this is doing to us in this flat!

Backgrounds facts

18. This matter was allocated to the Claimant's Legal Services department in August 2017, following many complaints received from some of the Claimant's employees and residents living in the same block as the Defendant. The Claimant's anti-social behaviour team instructed our legal services to issue an application for an injunction under the Anti-Social Behaviour, Crime and Policing Act 2014.

19. An ex-parte application was made and the Court made an interim injunction order against the Defendant on 09th August 2017. The matter was re-listed for a return hearing on 21st August 2017 but adjourned to 25th September 2017 where the Defendant attended with his legal representative. The Defendant indicated that it wished to defend the claim and some directions order was made.

20. The parties were ordered to file their directions questionnaire by 23rd October 2017; however, this deadline was overlooked by me and the Court made an order on 06th November 2017 asking the Claimant to file a completed directions questionnaire by 4pm on 17th November 2017. A copy of the Order can be found under exhibit L11.

21. On 17th November 2017 at 11 ;59, I sent an email to the Court on the following address: enauiries@edmonton.countvcourt.asi.Qov.uk. with a copy of the Claimant's directions questionnaire. The Defendant's solicitors were also copied into this email. A copy of this email is attached in exhibit LI2.

22. Just before filing the directions questionnaire with the Court, I contacted the Defendant's solicitors on 16th November 2017, Mr Emmanuel Onwusiri of VLS Solicitors, with a suggested draft directions order. However, he responded by saying that it was not necessary to agree directions in the proposed form. He was therefore fully aware of the fact that I was about to file the Claimant's directions questionnaire. A copy of my email correspondence to Mr Onwusiri can be found in exhibit LI3.

DIRECTIONS ORDER

23. I then received an order from the Court dated 13th December 2017, advising me that a judge has considered the file and having seen that the questionnaire was received on 20th November 2017, has decided to apply the sanction as set out in the order dated 06th November 2017. As a result, the Claim was struck out and the interim injunction made on 09th August 2017 was discharged. A copy of the order is attached under exhibit LI4.

24. Upon receiving the above order, I emailed the Defendant's solicitors Mr Onwusiri and advised him that the Court made the order in error as the Claimant had filed the directions questionnaire electronically on 17th November 2017. Mr Onwusiri was fully aware of this fact as he was copied in to the email. A copy of my email to Mr Onwusiri dated 15th December 2017 can be found under exhibit LI5.

25. On 14th December 2017, Ms Zena Ndereyimana on behalf of the Claimant's legal services emailed the Edmonton County Court advising that Claimant's directions questionnaire was emailed to the Court on 17th November 2017 and provided evidence in support. The email requested that the Court reconsider the order dated 13th December 2017 as the Claimant has complied with the earlier directions order made on 06th November 2017. A copy of the email correspondence to the Court can be found in exhibit LI6.

26. The Claimant has received no response from the Court following the email it sent out on 14th November 2017.

27. On 03rd January 2017 I received an order from the Edmonton County Court ordering the Claimant to pay the Defendant's costs of the action on a standard basis to be assessed if not agreed. Please refer to exhibit LI7. The order was made after the Defendant's representatives filed an application notice at Court on 21st December 2017. The application was only received by the Claimant on 27 December 2017 and as l was on annual leave, the application notices only came to my attention on 03rd January 2017, so I was not able to respond.

MR SIMON CORDELL

DIRECTIONS ORDER

28. It was inappropriate for the Defendant's representatives to have made this application as he was fully aware of the fact that our directions questionnaire was dully filed at Court on 17th November 2017. He was copied in to all the correspondence sent to the Court. He was also advised by me that the Court must have made an error when it stated to have received the order on 20th November 2017 while clearly it received it electronically on 17th November 2017.

I am of the view that the Defendant's representatives have taken advantage of the situation as when making this application he already knew of the fact that the Claimant's questionnaire was filed on 17th November 2017 and there could be a possibility of the Court reconsidering its decision of striking out the Claim. I find his conduct against the spirit of the Civil Procedures Rules which encourage parties to cooperate, communicate and try to resolve dispute out of Court. The Court order dated 02nd January 2018 could have been avoided had the Defendant acted with more fairness and this conduct has partly triggered the necessity to make this application notice which means that the Claimant is now incurring more costs.

29. I am also instructed that since the Court made the interim injunction order on 09th August 2017, the Defendant's anti-social behaviour has ceased towards the neighbours and no complaints have been received from them. I am therefore of the view that the residents and employees of the Claimant could be prejudice if the Claim and interim injunction order were not reinstated.

30. As a result of the above, we would like the Court to set aside the orders made on 13th December 2017 and 02nd December 2018. The Claimant would also like the Claim and interim injunction to be reinstated and an order that the Defendant pays the Claimant's costs as his conduct has led to the necessity to make the present application.

Dear Ms Cordell
We note that you have raised a request for information which relates to another person. In line with the Data Protection Act 2018, we are unable to correspond with you on these matters. Where a request for information is made on behalf of somebody else, we need to confirm that they are happy for you to access their personal information. Should Simon Cordell want you to act on their behalf and access their personal information, he will need to provide us with their signed written agreement to the complaint issues raised and for you to proceed with these on their behalf.
We note that your request is for 'all data that is held about me on Enfield Council systems all departments'. As your request does not provide us with much detail, we need you to clarify the specific information you are looking for.
In order for us to retrieve relevant records, we would need to know where your personal information could be located and it would greatly help our search if you are able to give us more details regarding:

4. Clarifying the type of information that you think the Council may hold about Mr Cordell
5. Clarifying the likely dates or time period when you think the information may have been created
6. Clarifying if you only want information relating to a particular issue or specific time period

We have registered your request under case number CRM SAR 1085 and you may quote this when you get back in touch with us. We look forward to your response. Once we receive the clarification from you, we will contact you with a further update.
Yours sincerely,

Summary!
My Heart has really started to hurt me every day, I am having an early aged mild heart attacks because of what Debra Andrews and the Mathiyalagan Markandu family as well as stain Curtis and George Quinton get and got away with, inclusively of what the police and local council members are getting away with each day by holding me hostage with no first hand witness and then on allowing my estate members to carry out their hate crime in a cover up to send me crazy or to an early death by flushing the toilet below me and bagging at me causing me sufferings and no peace also letting the named attack me when I am in the bath tub and getting undressed and this does not stop their I continue to get assaulted with the water taps getting slammed on and off causing a loud bagging sound at a fast rate and slamming object and or jumping on the floorboards above my head damaging my work studies and private family life and making me a Vulnerable person!
I have also had a lot of problems with eating because of what they keep all doing to me!
My canine has victualing its paws because of what 113 – 117 and 111 are getting away with I have taken pictures of the damage this is doing to us in this flat!

  1 Mother to the Enfield Council: Complaint - "I am writing this email due to issues I have regarding a member of staff who works for Enfield Council by the name off Mr. Lemmy Nwabuisi the Anti-Social Behaviour Coordinator, since 2016 when Mr. Lemmy Nwabuisi the Anti-Social Behaviour Coordinator started working for Enfield Council he has been working on investigations relating to my son Mr. Simon Cordell. In this time not once has Mr. Lemmy Nwabuisi the Anti-Social Behaviour Coordinator, come to see my son's side to the alleged allegations regarding what the neighbours have put in about my son. Mr. Lemmy Nwabuisi the Anti-Social Behaviour Coordinator has taken one side to these said alleged allegations without no investigations,' Mr. Lemmy Nwabuisi it seem has taken one side to everything that has been said and that is the side of the neighbours, Mr. Lemmy Nwabuisi has been told many times we have information which would proof my son had not done things which have been stated by the neighbours Mr. Lemmy Nwabuisi the Anti-Social Behaviour Coordinator knows my son does not leave the flat he was told this, and also told that if he wanted to attend a meeting with my son he could do so with police there to have a meeting to hear my son's side, he has never got back to me regarding having a meeting at my son's home because he never wanted to, which I am sure if someone is a vulnerable person where was the duty of care where has it ever been for my son? I believe Mr. Lemmy Nwabuisi the Anti-Social Behaviour Coordinator just through to himself that my son is in the wrong he is a vulnerable person I will put pressure on him and get him out without even thinking there is 2 side to anything. And just blamed my son without even talking to him this is how it has been since Mr. Lemmy Nwabuisi the Anti-Social Behaviour Coordinator starting working for Enfield Council. I also feel Mr. Lemmy Nwabuisi has taken information and not relayed it back correctly many times regarding my son's health even to the courts. Information is being passed and obtained relating to my son which should never have been passed to 3 parties or used, how can this be allowed. There are many other points and failings which have been allowed to happen and this needs to stop. I will be drafting up a full complaint of failings and submitting it but this will take a while to draft up as I have got to go back some years. Mr. Lemmy Nwabuisi also had my son arrested on the 09/01/2018 and even though we asked many times, even my own son's solicitors could not understand why he was the person still investigating my son. When his case was part of the court actions being taken against my son by Enfield Council this is against the law that someone is investigating something within their own case and it beaches many other things. At this point in time, I want Mr. Lemmy Nwabuisi taken off dealing with anything to do with my son or related to him, I feel he has not done acted correctly and feel he has not investigated anything which would prove my son has done nothing wrong and only wanted to blame him for everything, I have asked this before and heard nothing back regarding this. But it has got to the point in time that this needs to happen. Could someone please get back to me as soon as possible regarding this?"

- Complaint 05/12/2018

On behalf of Mr Simon Cordell of 109 Burncroft Ave, Enfield, EN3 7JQ
I am writing this email due to issues I have regarding a member of staff who works for Enfield Council by the name off Mr Lemmy Nwabuisi the Anti-Social Behaviour Coordinator,
Since 2016 when Mr Lemmy Nwabuisi the Anti-Social Behaviour Coordinator started working for Enfield Council he has been working on investigations relating to my son Mr. Simon Cordell.
In this time not once has Mr Lemmy Nwabuisi the Anti-Social Behaviour Coordinator, come to see my son's side to the alleged allegations regarding what the neighbours have put in about my son.
Mr Lemmy Nwabuisi the Anti-Social Behaviour Coordinator has taken one side to these said alleged allegations without no investigations,' Mr Lemmy Nwabuisi it seems has taken one side to everything that has been said and that is the side of the neighbours, Mr Lemmy Nwabuisi has been told many times we have information which would proof my son had not done things which have been stated by the neighbours
Mr Lemmy Nwabuisi the Anti-Social Behaviour Coordinator knows my son does not leave the flat he was told this, and also told that if he wanted to attend a meeting with my son, he could do so with police there to have a meeting to hear my son's side, he has never got back to me regarding having a meeting at my son's home because he never wanted to, which I am sure if someone is a vulnerable person where was the duty of care where has it ever been for my son?
I believe Mr Lemmy Nwabuisi the Anti-Social Behaviour Coordinator just through to himself that my son is in the wrong he is a vulnerable person I will put pressure on him and get him out without even thinking there is 2 side to anything. And just blamed my son without even talking to him this is how it has been since Mr Lemmy
Nwabuisi the Anti-Social Behaviour Coordinator starting working for Enfield Council.
I also feel Mr Lemmy Nwabuisi has taken information and not relayed it back correctly many times regarding my son's health even to the courts. Information is being passed and obtained relating to my son which should never have been passed to 3 parties or used, how can this be allowed. There are many other points and failings which have been allowed to happen and this needs to stop. I will be drafting up a full complaint of failings and submitting it but this will take a while to draft up as I have got to go back some years.

Mr Lemmy Nwabuisi also had my son arrested on the 09/01/2018 and even though we asked many times, even my own son's solicitors could not understand why he was the person still investigating my son. When his case was part of the court actions being taken against my son by Enfield Council this is against the law that someone is investigating something within their own case, and it beaches many other things.
At this point in time, I want Mr Lemmy Nwabuisi taken off dealing with anything to do with my son or related to him, I feel he has not done acted correctly and feel he has not investigated anything which would prove my son has done nothing wrong and only wanted to blame him for everything, I have asked this before and heard nothing back regarding this. But it has got to the point in time that this needs to happen.
Could someone please get back to me as soon as possible regarding this?
Regards
Lorraine Cordell

I Received a Letter
From the court this morning: --
I received a letter from the court this morning with the order from the judge at Edmonton lower court that got ordered on the 15/08/2016 and to my surprise a different order to which had gotten drafted between the claimant the Enfield Council and my solicitor inclusively of my mother and I had been changed for a different document and then after sent to the court and sealed.

The shop next to me never had the electric machine working and I had to call mother to come down and give me a hand to get to the other shop nearby. I also asked mother what was going on with my cases and getting free while getting justice against those who have illegal wronged myself. Thought the day I got a couple of little stamps that were deliberately done to me above my head to where I am working on my computer in the front room.

There are many other points and failings which have been allowed to happen and this needs to stop. I will be drafting up a full complaint of failings and submitting it but this will take a while to draft up as I have got to go back some years.
Mr Lemmy Nwabuisi also had my son arrested on the 09/01/2018 and even though we asked many times, even my own son's solicitors could not understand why he was the person still investigating my son. When his case was part of the court actions being taken against my son by Enfield Council this is against the law that someone is investigating something within their own case, and it beaches many other things.
At this point in time, I want Mr Lemmy Nwabuisi taken off dealing with anything to do with my son or related to him, I feel he has not done acted correctly and feel he has not investigated anything which would prove my son has done nothing wrong and only wanted to blame him for everything, I have asked this before and heard nothing back regarding this. But it has got to the point in time that this needs to happen.
Could someone please get back to me as soon as possible regarding this?
Regards
Lorraine Cordell

5 Mother: To MP Joan Ryan. – "Dear Alev Cazimoglu. I know you said to me today on the phone that you would get back to me if you heard anything from Enfield Council. But this cannot be allowed to carry on, this is making my son's health worse with what is going on and him being in that flat, the banging does not stop even people I am I getting to stay with my son don't want to be there due to how bad it is it does not stop. Enfield Council is now making my son stay in a flat living in hell, they know the issues why have they not just moved him out of there? How long is it going to take with letters going backwards and forwards with no end to it? All awhile my son is suffering badly and it is impacting on his health how far is Enfield Council going to let this go? Enfield Council has not once asked my son's side to this they only go with what is being said about my son is this right? This are always 2 sides to anything so why is Enfield Council only taking one side to all of this and not once hearing our side? Enfield Council has had long enough to move my son why have they not. I need help to deal with this and I can't wait months for anything to be done, and that is not saying you are not doing your best as I know you are it seems Enfield Council are the ones holding this up and really for what reason, is it so they can make my son suffer more?"

Subject: RE: Simon Cordell
Dear Alev Cazimoglu
I know you said to me today on the phone that you would get back to me if you heard anything from Enfield Council.
But this cannot be allowed to carry on, this is making my son's health worse with what is going on and him being in that flat, the banging does not stop even people I am I getting to stay with my son don't want to be there due to how bad it is it does not stop. Enfield Council is now making my son stay in a flat living in hell, they know the issues why have they not just moved him out of there?
How long is it going to take with letters going backwards and forwards with no end to it?
All awhile my son is suffering badly and it is impacting on his health how far is Enfield Council going to let this go?
Enfield Council has not once asked my son's side to this they only go with what is being said about my son is this right?
This are always 2 sides to anything so why is Enfield Council only taking one side to all of this and not once hearing our side?
Enfield Council has had long enough to move my son why have they not. I need help to deal with this and I can't wait months for anything to be done, and that is not saying you are not doing your best as I know you are it seems Enfield Council are the ones holding this up and really for what reason, is it so they can make my son suffer more?

Lorraine

6 An Email to my solicitor: "I am writing this email to see if you can help regarding the case that went on at Edmonton Country Court. There has been a great deal of issues with Enfield Council and not doing what the Judge stated for them to do. I have had to write to the judge regarding what Enfield Council are doing and I have had a reply back from the court. The order that Enfield Council drafted does not even mean they have to move my son; he is living in hell and I am working with the MP also regarding issues. But the order Enfield Council wrote needs to go back into court and get addressed as this can no longer carry on as it is impacting my son's health. Could you please take a look at the letter and order that the court sent as we have never had a sealed copy of the order until the other day due to the letter I wrote. It would also seem that Enfield Council when they got our amended order just asked the court to seal their order. Also, the barrister that attended court for my son on the 09/08/2018 did he make any court notes up if he did could you send them to me. I would be grateful for any help on this matter."

Stain keeps going backwards and forwards in and out a of his house, when I checked out of my bedroom window, I notice it was him and saw him going into Christine's block of flats. I cannot believe that I am made to live beside stain the man that I treated as more than just a good friend, Stain the same man who decided to through all we had away by starting to attack me while knowing that I had never done anything wrong and then onwards damaging my good reputation with his cruel and evil intentions towards me and allowing the problems to have an effect that he was causing on so many other people's life's as well. I have said and proved what he has done to me but yet no person respects my rights to justice by arresting him and the others that have joined in with him on this rampage of a campaign to breach all or most of my Human Rights.

Dear Alev Cazimoglu
I know you said to me today on the phone that you would get back to me if you heard anything from Enfield Council.
But this cannot be allowed to carry on, this is making my son's health worse with what is going on and him being in that flat, the banging does not stop even people I am I getting to stay with my son don't want to be there due to how bad it is it does not stop. Enfield Council is now making my son stay in a flat living in hell, they know the issues why have they not just moved him out of there?
How long is it going to take with letters going backwards and forwards with no end to it? All awhile my son is suffering badly and it is impacting on his health how far is Enfield Council going to let this go?
Enfield Council has not once asked my son's side to this they only go with what is being said about my son is this right? This are always 2 sides to anything so why is Enfield Council only taking one side to all of this and not once hearing our side?
Enfield Council has had long enough to move my son why have they not. I need help to deal with this and I can't wait months for anything to be done, and that is not saying you are not doing your best as I know you are it seems Enfield Council are the ones holding this up and really for what reason, is it so they can make my son suffer more?

Lorraine

5 MP Joan Ryan to Enfield Councill: – “Thank you for your recent enquiry, which I forwarded to my officers in the Community Safety Unit Anti-Social Behaviour team. I can confirm that the Anti-Social Behaviour Team is aware of the ongoing issues between Mr. Cordell and his neighbours. Your enquiry has been added to the Anti-Social Behaviour database (Case Reference 17834). I can confirm that we have liaised with the Council solicitors and have been advised that following the court order of 9 August 2018, the council agreed to consider and assist Mr. Cordell in making a housing management transfer application. This was agreed on the condition that Mr. Cordell should engage with mental health services and provide medical evidence to support the housing management transfer application. I have been advised that Mr. Cordell has not provided any supporting letter from the mental health services to support his application and therefore we do not have sufficient evidence at this time to put in a management transfer application on his behalf. I have also been advised that the council will commence possession proceedings against Mr. Cordell because of the seriousness of the allegations made against him. Please contact me if I can be of any further assistance.”

Simon

I am trying to deal with this; letters are going in and complaints. I need Lemmy taken off case then I can get where we need to be but I also got to wait for things like the SAR and until I got them it's hard as I need to see what is on Enfield Councils systems, I also need other SRA to come back I have asked for.

- We need to see what is down for you we need to see what has been shared there is a lot to deal with and it just can't be done overnight like you think it can.
- I am doing 4 major write-ups, and this is just for Enfield Council and these need to be done we need to get complaints upheld which in turn shows they are in the wrong right now we don't have that.
- I have asked for a list to be completed by you in regard to all the dates I sent over in a letter.
- I am also doing write-ups for the ASBO one for the IPCC, one for human rights and police misconduct solicitors in the hope we get some help, and one for the courts, which outlays everything that went on in court and what the police done.
- Yes, one write-up can help with the next, I also writing a next write-up for the IPCC for what the lack of what the police have done regarding Enfield Council.
- These are not small write-up they are large but have to be kept on point.
- It would help me greatly if you can complete the dates, I outlined in the document I sent you.
- But to me it seems that is too much for you to do.
- I will send it again with this, but I don't think you will do but see attached.
- I think once you see everything, I am doing you will see I am not just sitting on my backside and doing nothing.
- We cannot bring a case into court without there being order and the paperwork correctly done.
- As that will just be all over the place and will go nowhere.
- Yes, something's will take ages to complete but that does not mean other parts are not getting dealt with.
- I want the ASBO back in court as early as I can get it there, but the paperwork needs to be in order, and we have to have a clear outline of what went on.
- Enfield Council are just digging themselves deeper into this, but you got to let it run its cause.
- Things cannot be done overnight like you think they can be, and if you want this done correctly you will let me get on with it without keep abusing me.

- On 24th February 2017 Sarah Fletcher (Neighbourhood Officer) and Steve Stirk (Maintenance Surveyor) attended your property at flat 109 Burncroft Avenue to inspect the property following reports of low water pressure from flats 113 and 117 Burncroft Avenue. While inside your flat, they observed that you have installed an iron security gate inside your front door. It also appeared to them that the wall between your kitchen and living room seemed to have been removed thereby creating an open plan effect. Much of the property was taken up industrial type printers, boxes and folders and there were dog faeces in your back garden.
  Please write here what happened with this alleged allegation, write if you got any evidence of this.
- On 17th March 2017 Lemmy Nwabuisi, ASB Coordinator visited 109 Burncroft Avenue to post a letter through your door and as he got into his car to drive off after posting the letter, you ran after him shouting and screaming abuse. The letter requested that you attend our offices to discuss the nuisance reports being received from your neighbours. By the time he returned to the office, you had telephoned him several times. He telephoned you back and you asked whether he was the person that posted a letter through your letterbox and he said yes. You asked why he did not stop when you ran after him and he stated that he had another visit and did not have the time to stop and talk to you. You stated that you will not attend the meeting at the Civic Centre or any of the council offices as you are unable to leave your flat and that the meeting should take place in your flat. Mr Nwabuisi offered to have the meeting at a neutral venue and suggested the local library or at your mother's house, but you refused saying that you have done nothing wrong and accused him of taking sides with your neighbours.
  Please write here what happened with this alleged allegation, write if you got any evidence of this.
- On 5th May 2017, it is alleged that you threatened one of your neighbours by saying that you will ruin his life and that you were going to the police to present evidence about his illegal activities.
  Please write here what happened with this alleged allegation, write if you got any evidence of this.
- On 14th May 2017, it is alleged that you aggressively banged on one of your neighbour's door, shouted abuse, and threats at her and falsely accused her of making noise and coming into your flat to attack you. You later followed her to her car shouting abuse and wanting to know where she was going.

- On 2nd January 2018 at 6.30pm, it is alleged that you stood outside your neighbour's property for more than twenty minutes swearing and shouting abuse. You went away and returned half an hour later, you lifted their letterbox, stuck your mobile phone through the letterbox and started to record his family while swearing and shouting abuse. This went on for about fifteen minutes.
Please write here what happened with this alleged allegation, write if you got any evidence of this.
- On 9th January 2018 at about 12.18pm, you telephone Lemmy Nwabuisi (ASB Behaviour officer) and accused him of forging documents to get an antisocial behaviour order against him and you told him that he had made you a prisoner within your home. You also stated that you knew where he lives in Enfield and that he and his family were not safe from you. You also told him that you would watch him leave the office and you would have followed him home and he needed to watch his back. You called the ASB officer again 30 minutes later and told him that you knew he has a flat in Edmonton and also knew that one of his colleagues lives in Edmonton. You also stated that you knew where they live, and they were not safe.
Please write here what happened with this alleged allegation, write if you got any evidence of this.
- On 9th January 2018 you called Kaunchita Maudhub (ASB Behaviour officer) and left a long voicemail on her work telephone number and made threats.
Please write here what happened with this alleged allegation, write if you got any evidence of this.
- On 26th February 2018, at around 11.45pm it is alleged that you came to one of your neighbour's front doors and started making loud banging noises and rattling with their letter box. You ran away after the neighbour opened her front door.
Please write here what happened with this alleged allegation, write if you got any evidence of this.
- On 1st March 2018 it is alleged that you knocked on one of your neighbours' door loudly, you started rattling with their letter box and started shouting. This went on for 5 to 10 minutes, but you left after you've heard that the neighbour was calling the police.
Please write here what happened with this alleged allegation, write if you got any evidence of this.

- On 15th March 2018 it is alleged that you swore, shouted, and assaulted one of you neighbours in front of his wife and his 3 years old child.

Please write here what happened with this alleged allegation, write if you got any evidence of this.

- On 1st May 2018, you attended the Edmonton County Court as there was a hearing listed in relation to an injunction. It is alleged that you started shouting abuse, swore and make threats to two of the Claimant's employees (Lemmy Nwabuisi, ASB officer and Balbinder Kaur Geddes, lawyer) and to one of your neighbours who attended Court to give evidence. You also swore at a judge. These incidents were witnessed by members of staff working at the Court.
  Please write here what happened with this alleged allegation, write if you got any evidence of this.
- On 29th May 2018, it is alleged that you attended one of your neighbours' property; you took your dog with you and waited by their front door. It is alleged that you tried to intimidate them as they were due to attend a hearing in the Edmonton County Court to give evidence in support of a claim for an injunction issued against you.
  Please write here what happened with this alleged allegation, write if you got any evidence of this.
- On 30 May 2018, it is alleged that you made threats to kill to one of your neighbours. The matter was reported to the police. You were arrested and released on bail.
  Please write here what happened with this alleged allegation, write if you got any evidence of this.
- You assaulted one of your neighbours on the 26th August 2018 for flashing his toilet.
  Please write here what happened with this alleged allegation, write if you got any evidence of this.
- You telephoned two council officers (Lemmy Nwabuisi and Ludmilla Iyavoo) on 12th September 2018 and made threats to them over the telephone. You also accused them of fraud and of fabricating evidence to support the Council's claim for an injunction
  Please write here what happened with this alleged allegation, write if you got any evidence of this.

- On 12th September 2018 at about 3.50pm, you called one of your neighbours on his mobile phone using a private number. It is not known how you obtained his number, but he terminated the call. You called again using the same private number, but he terminated the call as soon as he heard your voice. You called repeatedly after that.
  Please write here what happened with this alleged allegation, write if you got any evidence of this.
- On 24th September 2018 at about 11.30am, one of your neighbours returned home from dropping her daughter at school and as she entered their block of flat, she noticed that the middle door on the ground floor was open as well as your front door. As she went up the stairs to their second floor flat, your dog came out of your flat and started barking at her. The neighbour had to run up the stairs to her flat to escape from the dog. It was reported that your dog is always barking whenever they go out or return to the block and the neighbour and 4 years old daughter are terrified.
  Please write here what happened with this alleged allegation, write if you got any evidence of this.
- One of your neighbours reported that his cousin was leaving the block at about on 2 October 2018 at 12.45pm, and as you exited the block, you followed him and suddenly grabbed his jacket from behind and tried to pull him to the ground. The cousin started shouting to attract neighbours and managed to push you off.

Please write here what happened with this alleged allegation, write if you got any evidence of this.

- There are other reports from one of your neighbours who reported that on 30th September 2018, you attempted to break down his front door by kicking it several times only because he flashed his toilet.
Please write here what happened with this alleged allegation, write if you got any evidence of this.
- It is reported that you continue to harass and intimidate other residents on a regular basis.

2 Mother to MP Joan Ryan: Sealed Court Order 09-08-2018 got on the 06-12-2018 – "Thank you for the update email, it is shameful what Enfield Council is trying to say, may I ask have you ever seen a copy of the court order? as I believe you will see as I have attached it that it does not state my son has to cooperate with the mental health team to get moved. Please see attached copy of court order. It is me that Enfield Council has to work with not my son and it is also me the mental health team have to work with not my son, the Judge would not order that my son has to work with the mental health team even when Enfield Council asked her to make that order. I have done what I was meant to have done regarding the move the paperwork was completed by Enfield Council which is how it is done; I was not even allowed to see the application that was made for my son, which I have all the emails to prove that. At this time the file is back with the judge to get more directions due to the letter I wrote and asking for the full transcripts from the court, at this time this is being dealt with and the judge has the file and upon speaking to the court this morning we should have a letter by around next week from the judge. If it does not say what I need and I am refused the full transcripts from the court, I will be bring this back into court as I have had a reply from the court dated the 03/12/2018 allowing me to do this, but I have been told this morning to hold off doing this until I hear from the judge regarding the full transcripts and any directions she gives. I have already done my application for the court; I will just need to update once I get the letter from the judge. Please do not show this email to Enfield Council as at this time I do not want Enfield Council to know I have gone to the judge in this matter at this time or what I have asked for. I believe you will see for yourself from the attached court order it does not say my son needs to cooperate with the mental health team to get moved, so I really do not know why Enfield Council is stating this as it is not correct."

Dear Alev

Thank you for the update email, it is shameful what Enfield Council is trying to say, may I ask have you ever seen a copy of the court order? as I believe you will see as I have attached it that it does not state my son has to cooperate with the mental health team to get moved. Please see attached copy of court order.

It is me that Enfield Council has to work with not my son and it is also me the mental health team have to work with not my son, the Judge would not order that my son has to work with the mental health team even when Enfield Council asked her to make that order.

I have done what I was meant to have done regarding the move the paperwork was completed by Enfield Council which is how it is done; I was not even allowed to see the application that was made for my son, which I have all the emails to prove that.

At this time the file is back with the judge to get more directions due to the letter I wrote and asking for the full transcripts from the court, at this time this is being dealt with and the judge has the file and upon speaking to the court this morning we should have a letter by around next week from the judge.

If it does not say what I need and I am refused the full transcripts from the court, I will be bring this back into court as I have had a reply from the court dated the 03/12/2018 allowing me to do this, but I have been told this morning to hold off doing this until I hear from the judge regarding the full transcripts and any directions she gives.

I have already done my application for the court; I will just need to update once I get the letter from the judge.

Please do not show this email to Enfield Council as at this time I do not want Enfield Council to know I have gone to the judge in this matter at this time or what I have asked for.

I believe you will see for yourself from the attached court order it does not say my son needs to cooperate with the mental health team to get moved, so I really do not know why Enfield Council is stating this as it is not correct.

Regards

Lorraine Cordell

Dear Lorraine
Please see the response in relation to your complaint. I know you will be upset with the contents of the letter but I think Simon needs to cooperate with the Mental Health Teams. Joan is happy to write to the Mental Health Trust if Simon needs support from them.

Dear Andrea Clemons

Today the MP's aid for Joan Ryan, Alev Cazimoglu sent me a copy of your letter dated the 12/12/2018, I am shocked to see what is written within it and the misleading information being passed over to the MP Joan Ryan.
It was not agreed on the condition that Mr. Cordell should engage with mental health services and provide medical evidence to support the housing management transfer application.
The court did not state this so I do not know where this is coming from.
I also do not understand where it is coming from that Mr. Cordell had to provided supporting letter from the mental health services to support his management transfer application, and he has not done this, he was never meant to have done this and the management transfer application was completed by Enfield Council to go to the panel on the 17/08/2018 and it was ready to go to the panel on this date, but this was deferred to be considered at the next panel meeting which would have taken place on 28/09/2018, which never happened.
The reason for it being deferred was so that I Miss Lorraine Cordell could try and get a letter from the mental health team, which I could not so it therefore should have gone ahead to the panel on the 28/09/2018, which I do have the emails to prove this.
I also do not understand why Enfield Council is stating supported accommodation was being asked for as this was never asked for.
I did however state in court that a 2 bedroom would be better as my son could have family live with him so he could get support from his family; I have never said I am his career I have never said a lot of things that Enfield Council is stating I have said.
It was stated in the court order.

- UPON the Defendant's mother Mrs. Lorraine Cordell, confirming that she will engage with the Claimant and assist the Defendant's neighborhood officer in making a housing management transfer application on or before 16 August 2018.
- UPON the Claimant agreeing that it will deal with the housing management transfer application as quickly as possible after being made.
- AND UPON the Defendants mother agreeing to engage with the Enfield Mental Health Unit team so the Defendant could receive assistance with his mental health conditions and housing.

The order was to be agreed with my son's solicitor upon being drafted by Enfield Council, but my son's solicitor was on annual leave and therefore did not reply to Enfield Council order until she came back of leave, but when you emailed her, it came back that she was on annual leave so Enfield Council was well aware of this.
Upon her return from annual leave her amended order was sent over to Ludmilla Lyavoo, which my son's solicitor never had a reply back from Ludmilla Lyavoo regarding her amended order, but some days after the amended order was sent over to Ludmilla Lyavoo, it seems an order was sealed at Edmonton Country Court which was not agreed on which was Enfield Council drafted order, which we never agreed to and feel it is misleading as to what was said in court.
I believe a lot of what was said in court is not being told and misleading information is being said, maybe someone should ask Ludmilla Lyavoo what the judge said when Ludmilla Lyavoo said she would go for a possession order to the judge because she did not get what she wanted. This misleading information needs to stop as it is a beach of the data protection act. I look forward to hearing from you regarding this, please can you reply as I did not get a reply from you to my last email, I sent to you.

4424, would go for a possession order to the judge because she did not get what she wanted. There is also the fact that my son was willing to stay in Hospital when he was sectioned on the 25/10/2018, it was the hospital that discharged him on the 15/11/2018 due to not getting the section 3 on my son they wanted, that was heard on the 14/11/2018, my son said as soon as he knew they was not allowing the section 3 on the 14/11/2018 that they would kick him out of the hospital, as this is what they did in 2016, and the next day the 15/11/2018 that is what the doctors did kicked him out the hospital, yet my son was willing to stay and build trust up with the doctors and the mental health team, which had broken down due to what has been ongoing for some time.
Which in fact would have been a lot better as if he had been allowed to stay in hospital like he wanted maybe by now they would have been trust built up with the doctors and teams, this is what Soohah Appadoo wanted to do as he saw that there was a real problem with trust and stated this at the appeal on the section 2 at the hearing.
On the 15/12/2018 I myself spoke to Soohah Appadoo on the phone, but since that we have heard nothing from him is this what is being called support put in place when my son was discharged from hospital?
This misleading information needs to stop as it is a beach of the data protection act.
I look forward to hearing from you regarding this, please can you reply as I did not get a reply from you to my last email, I sent to you.

Dear Mark Randall
Thank you for the update regarding my son Simon Cordell.
Would it please be possible to know if the neighbours have been charged with the Assault on my son Simon, or charged with the weapon they used in the assault on my son Simon as there was an independent witness to the assault, or the criminal damage they caused to the neighbor's car and camper van due to the weapon they used, or charged with anything else as there was evidence, I believe enough to have charged them, or has the charges been dropped also for them?
Regards

Lorraine Cordell

Dear Mark Randall
Thank you for the update regarding my son. But can you tell me if the Neighbours have been charged with the Assault on my son, or the weapon, or the criminal damage they caused to the neighbor's car and camper van or has the charges been dropped also for them?

2 Mother to MP Joan Ryan: "I called and got a call back from Simon case team the other day. From what I am being told they say they sent him an appointment for the 04/12/2018 for a review, which I know nothing about, it was also for Simon to go to their clinic, which I said Well you know Simon does not leave the flat so why would you not have booked to go and see him at home. He stated that it would be better for Simon to go to them, I said but how is he going to do that when he does not leave the flat, and you are well aware of that, are you not meant to be working in the best interest of the client, and you are well aware Simon does not cope when he goes out so you are making it worse for him why don't you go and see Simon at home. He tried all he could to get out of it, but then said he would talk to the team regarding if they can go see Simon at home and would let me know the outcome after the meeting regarding it."

 Simon Cordell – 109 Burncroft Ave, Enfield, EN3 7JQ - 28/12/2018

Dear Kaunchita Maudhub and Andrea Clemons

Thank you for the reply letter to my emails dated the 28/12/18, I have today contracted by email Mr Cordell's solicitors who were acting for my son Trishna Kerai, but she is away until the 2nd January 2019, Trishna Kerai was well aware I did not agree with Enfield Council's draft order, which was sent to me by her on the 13th August 2018 at 15:14, I made a reply to her with the points I did not agree to right away, and she was due to rewrite them points I did not agree with.

Then she went on leave and did not do the rewrite until she came back of leave.

This was when her amended order was sent back to Ludmilla Lyavoo and she got no reply and a few days after this Enfield Council draft order was sealed by the court.

I did not agree to submit a housing management transfer to be considered by the exceptions panel on 17/08/2018, As Ms lyavoo is well aware it is Enfield Council neighbourhood officer that has to complete this application, in fact I have nothing to do with the making of this application I was not even allowed to see it after it was completed by the neighbourhood officer even when I asked to see it, I was not allowed to be sent it as it is only used internally.

I did not only email Ludmilla Lyavoo I had calls with her and we spoke, I also left voice messages for her, when the management transfer application was deferred on the 16/08/2018 it was only due to be deferred until the next panel meeting on 29/09/2018 when it should have gone before the panel even if it was a like to like move but this did not happen.

When I emailed Ms Ludmilla Lyavoo on the 28/09/2018 I asked for an update as I had not heard anything, I did not know I was meant to have given her an update regarding the appointment; and I am sure I said to her on a phone call when the management transfer application was deferred if I got any medical information I would email it to her as soon as I got it, so by not sending anything to her I sure she would have known I had not got anything, in fact the mental health team was not replying to me at all, looking back now I believe that was due to them looking into the complaint I had sent.

But the medical evidence was not necessary for it to have gone to the housing panel.

I did not get any updates from Ludmilla Lyavoo at this stage or any reasons it was not put forward to the panel on that date.

I again emailed Ms Ludmilla Lyavoo on the 01/10/2018 and after talking to Lemmy Nwabuisi on the 02/10/2018 via a phone call I sent a next email to Ms Ludmilla Lyavoo asking for an update on the 02/10/2018, I did get a reply on the 02/10/2018 from Ms Ludmilla Lyavoo stating she had been in meetings and was unable to attend to my voice messages calls or emails, and that she was taking instructions from her office and would get back to me in due cause.

I again emailed Ms Ludmilla Lyavoo on the 07/10/2018 as I still had not had any updates, I did not get a reply so again sent an email on the 09/10/2018 to Ms Ludmilla Lyavoo, on the 12/10/2018 I did get a reply to that email, but from my emailed it would have been very clear I wanted it to go to the panel, at that point I was very busy and did not have time to reply to that email, I then got a next email on the 15/10/2018 from Ms Ludmilla Lyavoo stating court action was going to start.

At this point I knew in my heart Enfield Council was never going to put this to the panel and only wanted one thing and this were the real reason it took Ms Ludmilla Lyavoo so long to reply to my emails and calls, so it was around this time I made arrangements to see my son's MP as I felt I was not getting anywhere and through maybe it was better coming from the MP. The issue with appointments being made they are for my son to go to the clinic; I have told them many times my son does not leave the flat and a home appointment should be made which they are still falling to do.
I spoke to Soohah Appadoo, North Locality Team more than once saying this is an issue and been told he will get back to me regarding it after he has a meeting with his team about it but he has not done this yet.
If you are now agreeing that the court did not actually record that my son submits a housing transfer application on the condition that he engages with mental health team, why has Enfield Council been stating this to everyone as this is incorrect is it not?
I believe this should be corrected should it not?
Yes, I agreed to talk with the mental health team which I have done and it is clear I have done this as it stated in your letters and replies to the MP, so I am doing what I was asked to do by Enfield Council at court, so why is Enfield Council not doing what they were meant to do?
This section in the court order "AND UPON the Defendants mother agreeing to engage with the Enfield Mental Health Unit team so the Defendant could receive assistance with his mental health conditions and housing." is also something I did not agree to, and it was this point I asked to be rewritten or removed along with other sections.
The reason I did not agree to it being written in the court order was due to the fact I knew I was limited in what I could do with the mental health team, and really the way the draft court order is worded by Enfield Council was not said in court that way and was I believe only written this way for Enfield Council to get out of moving my son.
There is only so much I can do as my son has rights even under the mental health act, so, when I agreed I knew I would be limited in what I could do.
It seems Enfield Council are just passing the buck over to anyone they can and not doing anything to help my son, and passing incorrect information over all the time to people.
There is a duty of care and so far, Enfield Council has beached that in every way possible regarding my son, also the beaches in data protection are beyond anything I have ever seen when is this going to stop?
By now you would have the complaint outcome letter that was submitted to the mental health team which was upheld, which should have been learned from, but it seems the sharing of information regarding my son is even worse now than when it was when I submitted the complaint to the mental health team.
There has never been no consent from my son for Enfield Council to share data the way they have with the mental health team the way it has been shared.
When is Enfield Council going to help my son? not leave him to suffer the way Enfield Council has done since the end of 2014 when I started making calls about what was going on with the neighbours, from the start of 2015 I had to start sending emails to Enfield Council regarding what was going on with the neighbours because Enfield Council was just not getting back to me regarding the phone calls and still no one got back to me until 21/09/2015, it seems Enfield Council only acts when it is against my son, as I was putting in reports and complaints regarding what the 4437,

neighbours were doing well before any report or complaint went in regarding my son, I was told so many times by Lemmy Nwabuisi to forget all about the emails I sent and it seems Enfield Council don't seem to have many of the emails I sent begging for help with what was ongoing.
To me this is one sided only and not once has Lemmy Nwabuisi ever asked to see anything this is a beach and discrimination against my son, not even the police take one side to everything at least they do an investigation, which I believe the council also have a duty to do.
Why is Enfield Council also allowed to try and pressure neighbours into doing? statements against their will, against my son and don't think I don't know about this as I do, why am I being told by neighbours Enfield Council is out to get my son really badly and are not going to stop until they do get him out, why are neighbours even being talked to about my son?
It seems Enfield Council will stop at nothing regarding my son.
Why has Lemmy Nwabuisi or any other Enfield Council worker ever taken any report from my son regarding anything when they have been told time and time again, we have proofed my son has not done the things that is being said he has done?
Why does Enfield Council see fit to wait months and months and months to tell us about any reports?
The list can go on and on but we know already Enfield Council will do nothing for my son but disregard him.
Please could you clarify for me whether or not you are seeking possession order for my son flat?
Because you have now admitted in your letter to me dated the 28/12/2018 that the information used in your letter dated the 12/12/2018 was incorrect as it was not stated in the court order my son had to engage with mental health team to be able to get a housing management transfer, and that my son did not need to provide medical evidence to support the housing management transfer application, and you did in fact have enough information to put this to the panel as the application was completed by the 16/08/2018.
As it really seems to me that Enfield Council has not done what was within the court order or taken anything the Judge said in court on the 09/08/2018 into account, and the basic for the seeking possession order on my son's flat was based on facts that was clearly not in the court order, if Enfield Council had put this before the panel, then this would not even be an issue and we would not need to address this now.
Also, I would like to say at this point Trishna Kerai from Stuart miller solicitors is no longer acting solicitors for my son, so there is no need for the legal team or any other team within Enfield Council to forward any documents to her regarding my son.
I apologise for the sternness of this letter but it seems where my son and I are concerned we seem to take one step forward then two back and I am sure you can sympathise with how frustrating this must be.
I look forward to hearing from you soon.
Regards
Lorraine Cordell

Dear Ms Cordell,

Re: Simon Cordell

I am writing in response to your emails dated 17th and 20th December 18 where you have raised that you feel that some of the information provided in my letter to Joan Ryan MP dated 12th December 2018 is incorrect.

I have therefore asked for legal clarification on the points raised. I accept that the order made by the Edmonton County Court on 9th August 2018 did not actually record that your son submits a housing transfer application on the condition that he engages with mental health team.

However, you agreed that you would engage with the Enfield Mental Health Unit Team, so your son could receive assistance with his mental health conditions and housing.

I understand that you. Agreed to submit a housing management transfer to be considered by the exceptions panel on 1710812018.

However, following a discussion held with Ms lyavoo, one of the Council's lawyers on 16th August 2018 you were advised that the application being unsupported by medical evidence, if successful, would only result in a transfer of a property on a like for like basis.

You explained to Ms lyavoo that your son needed support and would benefit from a larger property, so someone could come and live with him and you were advised that this type of application must be supported by medical evidence.

As your son was given an appointment to see the Enfield Mental Health Team on, 31st August 2018, you asked that you son's application be deferred until the next panel meeting which was to take place on 29th September 2018.

This was also confirmed in an email to Ms lyavoo on the same day.

4.20pm where you asked for an update regarding your son's management transfer application.
You were aware that the panel meeting would take place on 29th September 2018 but only contacted Ms lyavoo less than 24 hours before the meeting.
You also failed to provide Ms lyavoo with an update regarding the appointment I and whether you had managed to obtain the necessary medical evidence.
Ms lyavoo contacted you on 12th October 2018 and advised you that the next panel meeting was to take place on 18th October 2018 and any applications would need to be submitted by 18th October 2018.
She also asked that you clarify the basis of the application and whether you were able to provide medical evidence.
Unfortunately, you did not respond to' her. ln relation to the allegations made in regard to the draft Order submitted to the Court.
Ms lyavoo explains that she contacted Ms Trishna Kerai, of Stuart Miller Solicitors; the caseworker instructed on behalf of Simon Cordell on 10th August 2018 and emailed her a draft order.
Ms lyavoo did not hear from Ms Kerai, so she emailed her again on 13th August 2018 and asked that she provides her agreement as soon as possible and if no response was made by 4pm on the same day she will have to email the draft to the Judge.
Ms lyavoo states that she received a response from Ms Kerai on the same day stating that she was in agreement with the order, but she was waiting for your instructions.
As no response was forthcoming, Ms lyavoo had to email the order to the Court on 15th August 2018 and she also copied Simon's case worker to the email.
Ms Kerai has never indicated that she was on annual leave during the time of the correspondence but confirmed that the delay was due to the receipt of your instructions.
Ms lyavoo indicates that the order was following guidance provided by District Judge Dias.
The Court order does not propose to be verbatim or to be a summary of all arguments exchanged in Court.
I apologise for the delay in responding over the Christmas period and I will contact you shortly to advise you about where any future enquiries on this matter should be addressed.

4446,
Subject: RE: Mr Simon Cordell. 109 Burncroft Avenue. EN3 7JQ
Dear Andrea Clemons
Today the MP's aid for Joan Ryan, Alev Cazimoglu sent me a copy of your letter dated the 12/12/2018, I am shocked to see what is written within it and the misleading information being passed over to the MP Joan Ryan.
It was not agreed on the condition that Mr Cordell should engage with mental health services and provide medical evidence to support the housing management transfer application.
The court did not state this so I do not know where this is coming from.
I also do not understand where it is coming from that Mr Cordell had to provided supporting letter from the mental health services to support his management transfer application, and he has not done this, he was never meant to have done this and the management transfer application was completed by Enfield Council to go to the panel on the 17/08/2018 and it was ready to go to the panel on this date, but this was deferred to be considered at the next panel meeting which would have taken place on 28/09/2018, which never happened.
The reason for it being deferred was so that I Miss Lorraine Cordell could try and get a letter from the mental health team, which I could not so it therefore should have gone ahead to the panel on the 28/09/2018, which I do have the emails to prove this. I also do not understand why Enfield Council is stating supported accommodation was being asked for as this was never asked for.
I did however state in court that a 2 bedroom would be better as my son could have family live with him so he could get support from his family; I have never said I am his carer I have never said a lot of things that Enfield Council is stating I have said.
It was stated in the court order. UPON the Defendant's mother Mrs Lorraine Cordell, confirming that she will engage with the Claimant and assist the Defendant's neighbourhood officer in making a housing management transfer application on or before 16 August 2018. UPON the Claimant agreeing that it will deal with the housing management transfer application as quickly as possible after being made. AND UPON the Defendants mother agreeing to engage with the Enfield Mental Health Unit team so the Defendant could receive assistance with his mental health conditions and housing. The order was to be agreed with my son's solicitor upon being drafted by Enfield Council, but my son's solicitor was on annual leave and therefore did not reply to Enfield Council order until she came back of leave, but when you emailed her it came back that she was on annual leave so Enfield Council was well aware of this. Upon her return from annual leave her amended order was sent over to Ludmilla Lyavoo, which my son's solicitor never had a reply back from Ludmilla Lyavoo regarding her amended order, but some days after the amended order was sent over to Ludmilla Lyavoo, it seems an order was sealed at Edmonton Country Court which was not agreed on which was Enfield Council drafted order, which we never agreed to and feel it is misleading as to what was said in court. I believe a lot of what was said in court is not being told and misleading information is being said, maybe someone should ask Ludmilla Lyavoo what the judge said when Ludmilla Lyavoo said she would go for a possession order to the judge because she did not get what she wanted.
There is also the fact that my son was willing to stay in Hospital when he was sectioned on the 25/10/2018, it was the hospital that discharged him on the 15/11/2018 due to not getting the section 3 on my son they wanted, that was heard on the 14/11/2018, my son said as soon as he knew they was not allowing the section 3 on the 14/11/2018 that they would kick him out of the hospital, as this is what they did in 2016, and the next day the 15/11/2018 that is what the doctors did kicked him out the hospital, yet my son was willing to stay and build trust up with the doctors and the mental health team, which had broken down due to what has been ongoing for some time. Which in fact would have been a lot better as if he had been allowed to stay in hospital like he wanted maybe by now they would have been trust built up with the doctors and teams, this is what Soohah Appadoo wanted to do as he saw that there was a real problem with trust and stated this at the appeal on the section 2 at the hearing. On the 16/11/2018 I myself spoke to Soohah Appadoo on the phone, but since that we have heard nothing from him is this what is being called support put in place when my son was discharged from hospital?

This misleading information needs to stop as it is a beach of the data protection act. I look forward to hearing from you regarding this, please can you reply as I did not get a reply from you to my last email, I sent to you.

Lorraine Cordell

5 An Email to my solicitor: "I have sent some emails to you and I have had no replies regarding issues I am having regarding the court order that was made on the 09/08/2018. Today I got a letter from Enfield Council which stated that you agreed with Enfield Council draft order on the 13/08/2018, but was waiting instructions from me. Please see below; In relation to the allegations made in regard to the draft Order submitted to the Court. Ms lyavoo explains that she contacted Ms Trishna Kerai, of Stuart Miller Solicitors; the caseworker instructed on behalf of Simon Cordell on 10th August 2018 and emailed her a draft order. Ms lyavoo did not hear from Ms Kerai, so she emailed her again on 13th August 2018 and asked that she provides her agreement as soon as possible and if no response was made by 4pm on the same day she will have to email the draft to the Judge. Ms lyavoo states that she received a response from Ms Kerai on the same day stating that she was in agreement with the order, but she was waiting for your instructions. As no response was forthcoming, Ms lyavoo had to email the order to the Court on 15th. August 2018 and she also copied Simon's caseworker to the email. Ms. Kerai has never indicated that she was on annual leave during the time of the correspondence but confirmed that the delay was due to the receipt of your instructions." I am very upset as you were well aware when you sent me the draft order on the 13th August 2018 to me, I did not agree to it and you said you was going to try and rewrite it that day, which was not done until after you came back from leave. So how is Enfield Council blaming that on me saying you stated the delay was due to me not getting back to you with instructions? I am having a great deal of issues with Enfield Council they are not moving Simon and are going to take him back to court to try and get his flat. They have not put the management transfer application in front of the panel and are saying they will not do this. It seems due to the way the court order was worded this is being put down to me, due to this section in the order please see below. AND UPON the Defendants mother agreeing to engage with the Enfield Mental Health Unit team so the Defendant could receive assistance with his mental health conditions and housing. I know you feel that this was dealt with and you should not need to do any other work regarding this, but this is a mess and I need some help as my son is suffering due to the on goings of Enfield Council. I await your reply"

It was not agreed on the condition that Mr Cordell should engage with mental health services and provide medical evidence to support the housing management transfer application. I also do not understand where it is coming from that Mr Cordell had to provided supporting letter from the mental health services to support his management transfer application, and he has not done this, he was never meant to have done this and the management transfer application was completed by Enfield Council to go to the panel on the 17/08/2018 and it was ready to go to the panel on this date, but this was deferred to be considered at the next panel meeting which would have taken place on 28/09/2018, which never happened. I also do not understand why Enfield Council is stating supported accommodation was being asked for as this was never asked for. I did however state in court that a 2 bedroom would be better as my son could have family live with him so he could get support from his family; I have never said I am his carer I have never said a lot of things that Enfield Council is stating I have said. Today the MP's aid for Joan Ryan, Alev Cazimoglu sent me a copy of your letter dated the 12/12/2018, I am shocked to see what is written within it and the misleading information being passed over to the MP Joan Ryan.
It was not agreed on the condition that Mr Cordell should engage with mental health services and provide medical evidence to support the housing management transfer application. The court did not state this, so I do not know where this is coming from.
I also do not understand where it is coming from that Mr Cordell had to provided supporting letter from the mental health services to support his management transfer application, and he has not done this, he was never meant to have done this and the management transfer application was completed by Enfield Council to go to the panel on the 17/08/2018 and it was ready to go to the panel on this date, but this was deferred to be considered at the next panel meeting which would have taken place on 28/09/2018, which never happened.
The reason for it being deferred was so that I Miss Lorraine Cordell could try and get a letter from the mental health team, which I could not so it therefore should have gone ahead to the panel on the 28/09/2018, which I do have the emails to prove this. I also do not understand why Enfield Council is stating supported accommodation was being asked for as this was never asked for. I did however state in court that a 2 bedroom would be better as my son could have family live with him so he could get support from his family; I have never said I am his carer I have never said a lot of things that Enfield Council is stating I have said.
It was stated in the court order.

- UPON the Defendant's mother Mrs Lorraine Cordell, confirming that she will engage with the Claimant and assist the Defendant's neighbourhood officer in making a housing management transfer application on or before 16 August 2018.
- UPON the Claimant agreeing that it will deal with the housing management transfer application as quickly as possible after being made.
- AND UPON the Defendants mother agreeing to engage with the Enfield Mental Health Unit team so the Defendant could receive assistance with his mental health conditions and housing.

The order was to be agreed with my son's solicitor upon being drafted by Enfield Council, but my son's solicitor was on annual leave and therefore did not reply to Enfield Council order until she came back of leave, but when you emailed her, it came back that she was on annual leave so Enfield Council was well aware of this.
Upon her return from annual leave her amended order was sent over to Ludmilla Lyavoo, which my son's solicitor never had a reply back from Ludmilla Lyavoo regarding her amended order, but some days after the amended order was sent over to Ludmilla Iyavoo, it seems an order was sealed at Edmonton Country Court which was not agreed on which was Enfield Council drafted order, which we never agreed to and feel it is misleading as to what was said in court.
I believe a lot of what was said in court is not being told and misleading information is being said, maybe someone should ask Ludmilla Lyavoo what the judge said when Ludmilla

Iyavoo said she would go for a possession order to the judge because she did not get what she wanted.
There is also the fact that my son was willing to stay in Hospital when he was sectioned on the 25/10/2018, it was the hospital that discharged him on the 15/11/2018 due to not getting the section 3 on my son they wanted, that was heard on the 14/11/2018, my son said as soon as he knew they was not allowing the section 3 on the 14/11/2018 that they would kick him out of the hospital, as this is what they did in 2016, and the next day the 15/11/2018 that is what the doctors did kicked him out the hospital, yet my son was willing to stay and build trust up with the doctors and the mental health team, which had broken down due to what has been ongoing for some time.
Which in fact would have been a lot better as if he had been allowed to stay in hospital like he wanted maybe by now they would have been trust built up with the doctors and teams, this is what Soohah Appadoo wanted to do as he saw that there was a real problem with trust and stated this at the appeal on the section 2 at the hearing. On the 16/11/2018 I myself spoke to Soohah Appadoo on the phone, but since that we have heard nothing from him is this what is being called support put in place when my son was discharged from hospital?
This misleading information needs to stop as it is a beach of the data protection act.
I look forward to hearing from you regarding this, please can you reply as I did not get a reply from you to my last email, I sent to you.
Regards
Lorraine Cordell

Dear Ms Cordell,

Re: Simon Cordell

I am writing in response to your emails dated 17th and 20th December 18 where you have raised that you feel that some of the information provided in my letter to Joan Ryan MP dated 12th December 2018 is incorrect.

I have therefore asked for legal clarification on the points raised. I accept that the order made by the Edmonton County Court on 9th August 2018 did not actually record that your son submits a housing transfer application on the condition that he engages with mental health team. However, you agreed that you would engage with the Enfield Mental Health Unit Team, so your son could receive assistance with his mental health conditions and housing.

I understand that you agreed to submit a housing management transfer to be considered by the exceptions panel on 17/08/2018. However, following a discussion held with Ms Iyavoo, one of the Council's lawyers on 16th August 2018 you were advised that the application being unsupported by medical evidence, if successful, would only result in a transfer of a property on a like for like basis. You explained to Ms Iyavoo that your son needed support and would benefit from a larger property, so someone could come and live with him and you were advised that this type of application must be supported by medical evidence. As your son was given an appointment to see the Enfield Mental Health Team on 31st August 2018, you asked that you son's application be deferred until the next panel meeting which was to take place on 29th September 2018. This was also confirmed in an email to Ms Iyavoo on the same day.

Unfortunately, you did not contact Ms Iyavoo until 28th September 2018 at 4.20pm where you asked for an update regarding your son's management transfer application. You were aware that the panel meeting would take place on 29th September 2018 but only contacted Ms Iyavoo less than 24 hours before the meeting. You also failed to provide Ms Iyavoo with an update regarding the appointment and whether you had managed to obtain the necessary medical evidence. Ms Iyavoo contacted you on 12th October 2018 and advised you that the next panel meeting was to take place on 18th October 2018 and any applications would need to be submitted by 15th October 2018. She also asked that you clarify the basis of the application and whether you were able to provide medical evidence. Unfortunately, you did not respond to her.

In relation to the allegations made in regard to the draft Order submitted to the Court. Ms Iyavoo explains that she contacted Ms Trishna Kerai, of Stuart Miller Solicitors; the caseworker instructed on behalf of Simon Cordell on 10th August 2018 and emailed her a draft order. Ms Iyavoo did not hear from Ms Kerai, so she emailed her again on 13th August 2018 and asked that she provides her agreement as soon as possible and if no response was made by 4pm on the same day she will have to email the draft to the Judge. Ms Iyavoo states that she received a response from Ms Kerai on the same day stating that she was in agreement with the order, but she was waiting for your instructions. As no response was forthcoming, Ms Iyavoo had to email the order to the Court on 15th August 2018 and she also copied Simon's caseworker to the email. Ms Kerai has never indicated that she was on annual leave during the time of the correspondence but confirmed that the delay was due to the receipt of your instructions.

Ms Iyavoo indicates that the order was following guidance provided by District Judge Dias. The Court order does not propose to be verbatim or to be a summary of all arguments exchanged in Court.

I apologise for the delay in responding over the Christmas period and I will contact you shortly to advise you about where any future enquiries on this matter should be addressed.

Yours Sincerely

Andrea Clemons

Dear Andrea Clemons
Today the MP's aid for Joan Ryan, Alev Cazimoglu sent me a copy of your letter dated the 12/12/2018, I am shocked to see what is written within it and the misleading information being passed over to the MP Joan Ryan.
It was not agreed on the condition that Mr Cordell should engage with mental health services and provide medical evidence to support the housing management transfer application. The court did not state this, so I do not know where this is coming from.
I also do not understand where it is coming from that Mr Cordell had to provided supporting letter from the mental health services to support his management transfer application, and he has not done this, he was never meant to have done this and the management transfer application was completed by Enfield Council to go to the panel on the 17/08/2018 and it was ready to go to the panel on this date, but this was deferred to be considered at the next panel meeting which would have taken place on 28/09/2018, which never happened.
The reason for it being deferred was so that I Miss Lorraine Cordell could try and get a letter from the mental health team, which I could not so it therefore should have gone ahead to the panel on the 28/09/2018, which I do have the emails to prove this. I also do not understand why Enfield Council is stating supported accommodation was being asked for as this was never asked for. I did however state in court that a 2 bedroom would be better as my son could have family live with him so he could get support from his family; I have never said I am his carer I have never said a lot of things that Enfield Council is stating I have said.
It was stated in the court order.

- UPON the Defendant's mother Mrs Lorraine Cordell, confirming that she will engage with the Claimant and assist the Defendant's neighbourhood officer in making a housing management transfer application on or before 16 August 2018.
- UPON the Claimant agreeing that it will deal with the housing management transfer application as quickly as possible after being made.
- AND UPON the Defendants mother agreeing to engage with the Enfield Mental Health Unit team so the Defendant could receive assistance with his mental health conditions and housing.

The order was to be agreed with my son's solicitor upon being drafted by Enfield Council, but my son's solicitor was on annual leave and therefore did not reply to Enfield Council order until she came back of leave, but when you emailed her, it came back that she was on annual leave so Enfield Council was well aware of this.
Upon her return from annual leave her amended order was sent over to Ludmilla Iyavoo, which my son's solicitor never had a reply back from Ludmilla Iyavoo regarding her amended order, but some days after the amended order was sent over to Ludmilla Iyavoo, it seems an order was sealed at Edmonton Country Court which was not agreed on which was Enfield Council drafted order, which we never agreed to and feel it is misleading as to what was said in court.
I believe a lot of what was said in court is not being told and misleading information is being said, maybe someone should ask Ludmilla Iyavoo what the judge said when Ludmilla Iyavoo said she would go for a possession order to the judge because she did not get what she wanted.
There is also the fact that my son was willing to stay in Hospital when he was sectioned on the 25/10/2018, it was the hospital that discharged him on the 15/11/2018 due to not getting the section 3 on my son they wanted, that was heard on the 14/11/2018, my son said as soon as he knew they was not allowing the section 3 on the 14/11/2018 that they would kick him out of the hospital, as this is what they did in 2016, and the next day the 15/11/2018 that is what the doctors did kicked him out the hospital, yet my son was willing to stay and build trust up with the doctors and the mental health team, which had broken down due to what has been ongoing for some time.
Which in fact would have been a lot better as if he had been allowed to stay in hospital like he wanted maybe by now they would have been trust built up with the doctors and teams, this is what Soohah Appadoo wanted to do as he saw that there was a real problem with trust and stated this at the appeal on the section 2 at the hearing. On the 16/11/2018 I myself spoke to Soohah Appadoo on the phone, but since that we have heard nothing from him is this what is being called support put in place when my son was discharged from hospital?

Summary!
My Heart has really started to hurt me every day, I am having an early aged mild heart attacks because of what Debra Andrews and the Mathiyalagan Markandu family as well as stain Curtis and George Quinton get and got away with, inclusively of what the police and local council members are getting away with each day by holding me hostage with no first hand witness and then on allowing my estate members to carry out their hate crime in a cover up to send me crazy or to an early death by flushing the toilet below me and bagging at me causing me sufferings and no peace also letting the named attack me when I am in the bath tub and getting undressed and this does not stop their I continue to get assaulted with the water taps getting slammed on and off causing a loud bagging sound at a fast rate and slamming object and or jumping on the floorboards above my head damaging my work studies and private family life and making me a Vulnerable person!
I have also had a lot of problems with eating because of what they keep all doing to me!
My canine has victualing its paws because of what 113 – 117 and 111 are getting away with I have taken pictures of the damage this is doing to us in this flat!

Disrepair!
I get trapped and left in an uncaring environment not fit for any human at this present stage of my life by my landlords and this continues in reflection to the ongoing issues raised of concern in no ton towards the Damp, Sound problems and the Heating not getting managed as the tenancy agreements quotes must get up kept by themselves!

Disrepair!

Enfield Council and the Enfield Homes response towards the housing disrepair problems that still do not get managed in a timely manner, showing my health a complete disregard for no real business practices, and by this happening them making my safety suffer due to their staff's uninterested and reckless neglect off their behaviour!

Disrepair!
The flat, smells and looks shameful to live in due to the damp conditions, to further the disadvantage that I get to live in every time I pay for paint and wall paper to upkeep my living standards I get faced with the same bills from disrepair a couple of months latter once again!
