Dear Sir Keir Rodney,

I hope this email finds you well. I am writing to seek your assistance in my ongoing legal cases against The Enfield Council, the Metropolitan Police, and the NHS Mental Health Services, along with those who were privately hired as involved mental health consultants. I would also appreciate your help with any other individuals implicated in my case.

I have made several attempts in the past to seek justice for myself, Mr. Simon Paul Cordell, but unfortunately, these attempts have not yielded satisfactory results. We have provided evidence to support our claims, which clearly demonstrate the mishaps that have occurred when intelligence was shared. These mishaps have led to intentional harm and illegal actions taken against our client and his support network, and this also includes our legal teams, with the intention of deterring us from receiving justice and pursuing an insurance claim.

In order to effectively present my case, I would like to show them the files that I have collected and been handed. I have created a website where these files are accessible. You can find them at the following

I would greatly appreciate it if you could assist me in addressing this issue by providing an email or letter, including the correct details, to the relevant parties. Your support in this matter would be invaluable, and I believe that your involvement can make a significant difference in ensuring justice is served.

For your reference, my contact details are as follows:

Name: Mr. Simon Paul Cordell

Address: 109 Burncroft Avenue, Enfield, London, EN3 7JQ

Telephone: [Provide your telephone number]

Email: Re_wired@ymail.com

Thank you for taking the time to consider my request. I look forward to your positive response and the possibility of finally achieving justice in these cases.

Yours sincerely,

Mr. Simon Paul Cordell
