Month Summary!
The month the start of more Evidence of a continuation off assault against my person that still to date, continues to persist: - In at the start, be that as it may, I am still fighting strong for my share of a fair reality, that to me would make me my perfect life, but this has taken a drastic turn, for the worst. My Life has definitely changed for me by now and in being granted the quoted and as a further continuation of events, I have noticed that no matter how much I induce myself into good things that I commit my time to, that I always seem to get into some form of speculated: -- “accused trouble.” I and some other people believe that these happenings occur until now, with the police for my, jubilant, denial of not having a deprived lifestyle and also for getting to this age in my life I partly believe that the police just simply will not leave me alone as they want me in prison or dead full stop and this is, because of their running companies" running objectives: -- to me this means that this is because of how misplaced the police force get portrayed by some officers, at different times.

  I stay calm even when I see the damage to my personal property that the damp is causing and this neglect breaks my heart in knowing that if the Enfield Council and Enfield homes where efficient within their timescales that I would not have to go through such sacrilege of my memorabilia and electrical belongings getting damaged even more than ever necessarily and this is more painful to me as this all adds to the demotion of my health and the additional average daily routine in my life of stress and unrightfully so!

  Disrepair!
  When I first moved into this property "109 Burncroft Avenue Enfield London." I never understood the problems of disrepair, which hides underneath its infrastructure. I was contempt and therefore happy while I started to enjoy the enjoyment out of the rented premises but since I noticed these highlighted issues of disrepair that I do mention about that are of utmost of importance of concern towards my landlords who are the Enfield Council and the Enfield homes departments I received no correct follow-ups. This to me means that I feel further unsatisfied and disheartened in believing that the problems with my heating will never get addressed in a fair and responsive time!

The HHSRS and the housing Act 1985 inclusive of many other rights of mine and many other people's rights designate that the Enfield Council and the Enfield Homes teams must not leave these quandaries of disrepair to carry on the way that they do, as it is causing me to have no delectation out of my flat and causes me unneeded negative emotional distress!

The Enfield Council and the Enfield homes have not fulfilled their agreement within the tenancy and by this they continue to act in an uncared free way towards my well-being of life. Subject: RE: Simon Cordell Court case
To Whom It May Concern:
I am writing this email after a call I made to the court about a case that was heard about no insurance which the outcome was 6 points on my driving licence and a £700 fine.
My Name and address are below.
Mr. Simon Cordell
23 Byron terraces
Edmonton
London
N9 7DG
The problem I have with this is yes I was pulled up by the police and was asked to bring my insurance to a police station which I did do, but it seem the police had given me the wrong form so the police station would not accept me to give them my insurance documents and said it would need to go to court, I have never heard anything about this until I got a letter from DVLA saying I had to send my driving licence back to them, I called DVLA to be told that there was a court case which was heard and that I been given 6 points so needed to send my driving licence to them to get these points added, I explained to them that I did not know about any court date and that I did in fact have insurance to drive on the day the police pulled me over. DVLA give me the court information to contract the court which I did and was told I need to put in that I did not know about the court date. I called Enfield court and was told that I need to write a letter to them which I have done but as of today's date 21/12/2012 I have not heard anything back from them. Today 21/12/2012 I got a next letter from DVLA saying that my driving licence was going to be revoked on the 22/12/2012 again, I made a call to them which they have put a next 28 days onto the date that they will revoke my driving licence, I have also made a next call to the court and it seems I was given the wrong information and it should have asked for the case to be reopened which I am doing now by send you this email. Please could you reopen the case so that I can indeed show the court I do in fact have insurance to have been driving on the date I was pulled by the police, and as I said on the phone to the court person, I speak to today I did not know about any dates for court before I got the letter from DVLA. I will enclose in this email my insurance documents so you can see in fact I was insurance, and could you please send me a new date to go to court to prove this.

Many Thanks

Disrepair!

I have told the Enfield Council and Enfield homes about my broken heating system for far too long of a time now and then on stay without any correct action being taken by themselves in pursuit of my caseload and I continue to take pictures of the damage towards my home and belongings, but this adds to extra unwanted pressure and causes me more emotional distress!

In this instance, other, people who were occupying a building were treating it as their home; this was being granted and obtained under a section 144 LASPO notice. On this night, when driving to our destination the police used a wrongly entered intelligence report that had prior got inputted into the police national computer, which explained that there was no insurance policy for my vehicle, but there was a policy in place for me to be driving. It had been dark at night and I was far away from my home, so on this one of many occasions of being pulled over by the police, I felt quite lucky even low insured not to get my car seized afterwards or end up being arrested, not to forget the possibility of both occurrences actuarially taking place towards my person, as to my past experiences with the police, I have learnt that this would be normal in most police cases, when they get involved with I or other members of the public. In a few more words of mine, I would say that I had not prior planned to supply any sound recording equipment on this day to any other person and to strengthen this fact on the day I was driving my car. Two of my points that I raise now is that any sound equipment that had gotten referred to by police on this occasion, just would never have fitted into any car, at the end of everything and after spending time with the police officers, the police did finally release me to go, and I did not end up getting arrested. I knew that the police officers at the time who got involved in pulling me over could have used their powers of law, correctly, or incorrectly, so with this in mind, I for the most parts of our confrontation stayed charmed, as I knew that the officers of the law could have manipulated their power of law, so for it to be; in any form of a crooked way, as has prior happened to I before and this is to be inclusive of other people, this would have g De 67 +achieved so to detain me and or my vehicle at the roadside, so I stayed relaxed and humble! After the Police had driven off and left us alone, I continued to my destination. In the first moments, once we arrived, I and my civil partner settled in with our friends, for the next few hours we had an enjoyable night, when suddenly, at around 200 Hours; clearly; the UK GMT time zone, one intoxicated, drunk man came up behind me and hit me across the back of the head, my first reaction was to defend myself from his be crazed actions and this is what I did. The drunken man attacked me with a glass bottle hitting me from behind on the back of my head and in a truth of a true reality, it was luck that I was not turning around at the time. This took place many hours after the police had left me and my partner at the roadside, when at first on that evening pulling my car over. In the moments of me acting in self-defence I and this person had a brawl against each other and in me taking control of the moments of the incident, I ended up attending the Royal London Hospital soon after, this was for me to get some surgical stitches applied, because I had hurt my head in the beginning. Part of my personal upset is that, now since the day of this incident, somehow, some way, some government official, has used these incidents in the year of 2016 in an appeal stage trespass never got submitted in the first part of the Asbo application. The have also induced extra intel into the Asbo folder but may not have reopened the true CRIMINT. The days accused events have gotten manipulated by getting turned it into an incident against me and illegally, the forged intel got included into the Anti-Social Behaviour Order application and as a conclusion to them officers' "misconduct' I am now left imprisoned within my own home due to such out of time info and wrongful edited information.

STATEMENT OF WITNESS
(C.J. Act 1967, S2,9. M.C. Rules 1968 R58)
STATEMENT OF: Simon Cordell AGE OF WITNESS (if over 21): 34
OCCUPATION OF WITNESS: Unemployed ADDRESS: 109
Burncroft Avenue, Enfield, Middlesex, EN3 7JQ TELEPHONE:
This statement consisting of 7 page(s) each signed by me, is true to the best of my knowledge and belief and I make it knowing that, if it is tendered in evidence, I shall be liable to prosecution if I have willfully stated in it anything which I know to be false or do not believe to be true.

I am Simon Cordell; my date of birth is 26th January 1981. My home address is as stated above. I am making this witness statement in response to members of the police and local authority's application for an anti-social behavior order.
I am currently in the process of trying to establish my company. I have not yet incorporated it; however, I am currently working on having it registered as a company. I am aiming to have it registered as a limited company with charitable status within the articles of the memorandum of association. I have become a member at general meetings held at my local community hall in turn taking part in the daily challenges a community hall can be presented with. This has introduced me to various people who have helped me with good advice.
I have always wanted to give something back to the community. I have established my web site with a lot of help of others and have now "parked" my company, and I exhibit proof of this of this as SC/1. The company is not yet trading, but I aim to trade soon.
I was placed in the care system as a child, and I try to help vulnerable people. I know what it is like to have to fend for yourself. I exhibit letters of proof that I have helped homeless people as exhibit SC/2.

I believe that this application is an attempt by members of the police and local Authority to find me guilty of offences I have not committed in turn having an effect on my health and stopping me from developing my company, and it is not acceptable or reasonable. I am in the process of developing a business plan for a festival at Barley lands in Essex. I had planned to have this event in 2014, however, the stress of the ongoing ASBO proceedings have stopped me from putting this festival on. I exhibit a draft business plan as exhibit SC/3, and a business submission form for a community festival as exhibit SC/4.
I was once arrested by members of the police outside White Sands Nightclub on 14th November 2013 at Brixton Hill and I had my van seized. The reason given for stopping me was that I had "tools of the trade" in my van and my insurance did not cover driving a vehicle on this basis. My vehicle was seized as it was alleged that I did not have insurance. I was actually insured at the time, and there were no tools in my van. I exhibit proof of my insurance as exhibit SC/4. A police officer gave incorrect evidence in court that he had not taken my vehicle because there were tools in it; however, he had made an inconsistent statement previously saying that there were tools in the van. I exhibit proof of this incident as exhibits SC/5, a witness statement authenticating the sound recordings I have submitted, exhibit SC/6, transcripts of sound recordings of conversations with police personnel and my insurance company, and exhibit SC/7, a sound recording of a phone call from a police officer to my insurance company, and exhibit SC/8, a further sound recording of a phone call between the insurance company and the police car pound. I was convicted of driving without insurance on the basis of his evidence. I am appealing against conviction on the basis that the police officer gave incorrect evidence to court. My insurance company has provided me with a letter of indemnity and witness statement in this respect; however, I am currently banned from driving as a result of the officer's incorrect evidence. I exhibit the clerk's notes from the Magistrates Court trial verifying that the police officer told the court that my Van had not been seized because of there being tools in the Van, and a covering email from Lavender Hill Magistrates Court, as exhibit SC/9, and I exhibit proof that I am currently banned from driving as exhibit SC/10. I had a legitimate reason for being at White Sands Nightclub as I was discussing becoming entertainment manager for White Sands Nightclub; I was going to see a friend about the possibility of a job interview. My van was empty on the date in question.
I accept that I own entertainment equipment. I have acquired these for my company. I am trying to build a company, and the aim was to rent the equipment out to people. I have prepared draft terms and conditions of business that I exhibit as SC/11. I was trying to hire the equipment out to conferences, school fates, local community events, private birthday parties until the stress became too.

much. I would hire the equipment out to private parties, and to people who could provide me with sufficient identification, and who could cover any damage to the equipment.
I have worked and attempted to work with charitable organizations, in particular Muswell Hill festival helping kids with cerebral palsy, as well as the local scouts Ponders End festival, Lock to Lock festival, Enfield Town Festival, Durant's Park Festival. I am a member on the committee at my local community hall, I have also been working alongside D.E.M.S event management services in aid of Bliss who are a charity that helps premature babies. I have been building strong relationships with a view to developing a running business helping make a positive effect of today's people and society. I exhibit proof of my business relationship with D.E.M.S as exhibit SC/12. I am very concerned that this application is damaging my attempts to build a legitimate business by way of darkening my name and company brand. I had arranged a community charity children's fashion show fundraiser, and I exhibit proof of this in the form of tickets that had been printed for the event as exhibit SC/13. However, this event did not go ahead as planned as the stress of these ongoing proceedings meant I could not take part in it.
I am currently signed off from work due to problems that I am having. I exhibit proof of this in the form of my doctor's authorisation as exhibit SC/14. These proceedings have taken a large part in the deterioration of my health, by way of the stress caused.
I will now comment on the incidents that I am alleged to have been involved in and that form the substance of the complaint that has been laid against me.
I am alleged to have been involved in the organisation of and/or supplied equipment for and/or attended an illegal rave at Canary Wharf on 12th January 2013. I accept having attended a private party on this date I had been invited to; I did not organise any event on the 12th of January 2013, and I did not hire out or lend any sound equipment or encourage anybody else to do so. I arrived at the occupied building at about 10 or 11pm. I was there for about 3 hours, and then I was attacked by an occupier of the building and I was hospitalised. I was taken to hospital at about 2am. I do not know what happened after I left, but I was not involved in organising any event and I did not rent or lend out any sound equipment in respect of this. I exhibit proof that I was hospitalised as exhibit SC/15. I also dispute that I have any criminal convictions for Class A drugs or for supplying any drugs. I did not cause any Anti-Social Behaviour on the 12th of January 2013.
On the 07th of April 2013, I was going out with my friends and I had some off-road bikes in the back of my van. I was looking forward to this day, and it had been arranged for a Sunday. We were waiting.

at ELLESMORE Road when the police stopped my van outside my friends.' ELLESMORE Road is a house on a housing estate. I do not see how this is relevant to proceedings for an anti-social behaviour order; in addition, the prosecution offered no evidence in respect of the charges that were brought even though they were reliant on police witnesses. I had been wrongfully arrested for not having insurance when I was insured to drive. I did not cause any Anti-Social Behaviour on the 7th of April 2013.

It is alleged that I was looking for venues in which illegal raves could be held on 24th May 2013. I dispute this. I had been contacted by a friend called Joshua who was living at 204 High Street Ponders End EN3 4EZ known as the Old Police Station at Ponders End. As I was driving towards 204 High Street I was stopped by members of the police. I consented to having my person and my car searched; however, I had not done anything wrong and nothing was found. I dispute making any comments about being able to attract people to illegal raves and illegal 3-day events. I did not cause any Anti-Social Behaviour on the 24th of May 2013

In respect of evidence raised concerning an event at Hyde Park on 20th April 2014, I was hired by norml-co.uk to attend the event. I was told it was legal, and I was hired on a dry hire basis. I was doing the job on a 'no profit' basis, and this was because the person who hired me had been let down by someone else. Members of the police told me at the event that I had not been hired by the organisers of the event, and that I was not supposed to be there. I had been hired by normal- co.uk, and I had been told that this was a licensed event. I took the police at their word, and I did not use my equipment on that day. I exhibit proof that I was hired as exhibit SC/16 I did not cause any Anti-Social Behaviour on the 20th of April 2014.

In respect of my presence at Unit 5 St George's Industrial Estate, White Hart Lane on 25th May2014. I attended a commercial building that the occupiers were residing in having displayed s144 LASPO notices and in turn treating the premises as their home. There was no music played. I was not involved in the organisation of an illegal rave of any sort. I drove there in my van VRM CX52JRZ, and I accept that I had 2 speakers in the van; however, I did not have a full sound system with me. I was using my van for storage. I had my van searched by members of the police, nothing was seized, and I went home I did not cause any anti-social behaviour on the 25th of May 2014.

In respect of the 06th of June 2014 at an occupied Warehouse on Progress Way in Enfield; I do not accept that I was present at this warehouse on that date. I was with a friend at my house on this date and attended my mother's house Lorraine Cordell my sister was present D Benjamin and family friend Jamie Duffy who has housing difficulties and lives at all my family's addresses and helps out where needed due to health problems my family has.

In respect of the 07th of June 2014 at a Warehouse on Progress Way in Enfield; I had been having a family drink in the pub/hall with my cousin D Edwards his leaving party went from the 07/06/2014 till the early hours on the 08/06/2014. I had arranged to drop a friend's locker keys off to him, I left the pub/hall to visit my friend who was residing at Progress Way. I accept that I was approached by members of the police, he asked me my name and my details, and I did not reply to him. He asked me to follow him back to where I had just come from, which was where my car was parked along Great Cambridge Road. I did what he asked. I felt like I was being accused of organising a rave, which I had not done. I then waited in the petrol station across the road for my friend so that I could give him his locker keys back. I then left and went back home. I was not involved in organising any event at a Warehouse on Progress Way. At no point was any of my sound equipment used for this event or did I cause any anti-social behaviour on the 7th of June 2014.
I was not present at any event on Progress Way on the 8th of June 2014. I was at my mother's house with my mother, Lorraine Cordell and my Nan, Sister Deon Benjamin, and a family friend, Jamie Duffy.
On the 20th of June 2014 I am alleged to have been involved in the organisation of and/or supplied equipment for and/or attended an illegal rave at 1 Falcon Park, Neasden Lane, NW10. I had been contacted and asked if I would hire a sound system out for a gentleman's birthday party. I agreed to do so, and the sound system and a van were collected from my house. My terms and conditions were signed, and a deposit was given to me. I exhibit the terms and conditions and a copy invoice in respect of the transaction as exhibit SC/18. I received a phone call at 1am in the morning by a client who said that the sound system was being seized, and that the police were in attendance. I remember getting up and attending at around 1am to 2am. It took me 1 hour and 10 minutes to attend. I remember there being lots of members of the police present when approaching the address, I had been given. I parked my car and approached the police at the doors and spoke to the police officers I explained and showed the invoice and a copy of my terms and conditions of hire. I was allowed entry to pack the sound system away, and it was explained to me that it was being confiscated. I was allowed to collect the sound system from the police at a later date. I never returned the sound system to the client as he had breached my terms and conditions. I did not knowingly supply equipment for an illegal party. I did not cause any Anti-Social Behaviour on the 20th of June 2014

On 19th July 2014 I am alleged to have been involved in the organisation of and/or supplied equipment for and/or attended an illegal rave at the 198 Great Cambridge Road, Enfield Town, EN1 1UJ. This road is between my house and my mother's house, and it is the route that I usually drive when going to Mac Donald's. I was passing what is known at the old Carpet right, 198 Great Cambridge Road when I saw a man who I know to be homeless being detained by the police. As I was travelling on the opposite side of the Great Cambridge Road, travelling from Lincoln Road, I had to turn around at the closest traffic lights next to the Odeon Cinema. I noticed a car park a few premises before 198 Great Cambridge Road, a general car park opens to the general public and belonging to Magnet. I parked there as I could see that the police had blocked access to the car park belonging to 198 Great Cambridge Road. I locked my vehicle and walked up to where the police were detaining the person I knew. On doing so, a police officer approached me and told me I was under arrest for a possible breach of the peace. I was later released from police custody without any further action being taken. I was not involved in the organisation of any event on this day at 198 Great Cambridge Road, nor did I supply any equipment. I did not cause any Anti-Social Behaviour on the 19th of July 2014.

On the 24th of July 2014 I am alleged to have admitted to police officers that I organized illegal raves. At about 16:30 I was driving down Alma Road. I use this road to travel between my mother's house and my flat as it is the shortest route between both. My Nan also lived just off Alma Road just before her recent death. On travelling from my mum's house on the 24th of July 2014 after visiting my Nan and my mother due to my Nan's illness my Nan was staying at my mum's house. I was going home to my flat. I used Alma Road as a route to travel as I often do. I noticed an unmarked police car as it was indicating to take a right turn, the opposite way from which I was travelling. I realized it was an unmarked police car as I had seen the driver on active duty in the local area. As I drove past it changed its indication to the way I was heading. It indicated left. The car followed me and then put on its blue lights. I pulled over to the left-hand side of the road, opposite the BMW repair center along Alma Road. On the left-hand side of the pavement leading to the back entrance of Durant's Park a male officer got out of the passenger side and approached my driver's door. I opened my window a little and asked why I had been pulled over. The police officer said he was not sure why, but his colleague had instructed him to do so. He then went back to his unmarked police car and reproached my car window with his colleague, the driver of the police car. I asked again why I had been pulled over, and the driver of the police car pulled out his truncheon and said I had to get out of my car, and that if I declined my window would be smashed. I got out of my vehicle as I did not have anything to hide, I had not committed any offence whatsoever, and I was not wanted. I was told I had been pulled over because I had driven too close to the car in-front of me. This car did not stop and had not been stopped by police. I was then accused of having drugs, and I was searched, and my vehicle.

was searched and nothing was found. I was then asked by the police what I was up to. I said that I was setting up my catalogue that I had been building with a friend, and that my website was nearly completed. I said that I was trying to achieve positive effects within today's society with my business I was trying to build a brand. This was a Thursday at 16:30. Once the police had checked everything, they needed to us part after I had shaken hands with them. I then made my way home. I did not cause any Anti-Social Behaviour on the 24th of July 2014

On 27th July 2014 in respect of an alleged rave on private land with a warehouse being occupied at the rear of Millmarsh Lane, Enfield. I am said to have been involved in the organisation of and/or supplied equipment for and or attended an illegal rave on this date. I attended a 20th birthday party at Millmarsh Lane, and I had dinner with people who were living there. I never knew of any event taking place on. I did not have any sound system on the premises. I understand that the sound system was moved at the request of the police, the owners of the PA equipment were the occupiers, and I did not have a hand in this. I had been invited as a visitor. The occupants had placed LASPO notices on their premises. I did not own any of the sound equipment that was found there, and I did not rent or lend any sound equipment to anyone in respect of this occasion or to take part in the organisation. I did not cause any Anti-Social Behaviour on the 27th of July 2014.

I am further alleged to have been involved in the organisation of and/or supplied equipment for and or attended an illegal rave on the 09th to 10th August 2014 at Millmarsh Lane. I dispute this. I was not involved in organising any rave, and I did not supply equipment. The police have alleged that this event was run by Every Decibel Matters. I can confirm that I am not an employee of this organisation, or a shareholder, or a director and have no controlling interest in this company. I exhibit a letter sent from Every Decibel Matters Ltd "to whom it may concern" verifying this, I exhibit this as exhibit SC/19. I had gone to have a birthday dinner, but I was not present at an illegal rave. Police came and requested that people leave and so I left. I did have a conversation with the police concerning three empty C02 gas canisters that I had in my vehicle, VRM MA57LDY. I did display knowledge of nitrous oxide, but this was just in a general conversation with the police as it is information I had to learn when carrying C02 cylinders for welding. I do remember talking to a police officer about an occupier I had met called Jena having passed her first aid test. This was a general conversation. I dispute encouraging any crowd behind a gate to come in. I did not try to incite others to breach the peace, and I did not try to put anyone in danger.

I deny behaving in an anti-social manner on this date. I did not cause any Anti-Social Behaviour on the 09th 10th August 2014.

I am Steve Elsmore, a Police officer attached to the Anti-Social Behaviour Team within the London Borough of Enfield. I make this further statement regarding an ASBO matter in relation to Simon CORDELL. On 16th May 2016, I was asked to check timings in relation to the schedule that is due to be served on the court. Whilst searching for timings for Crimint HTRT00376798, I found an incident log attached to this Crimint. I do not recall previously seeing this log. Usually, the inputting officer would put an indicator on the Crimint to say that there is an attachment. On this occasion there is no indicator referring to this attachment. It is possible that I may have previously missed this attachment due to the volume of incidents through which I was searching. The attachment itself is an incident report from Canary Wharf Group and the incident summary states -Trespassers on site - illegal rave - forced entry shed 4 - Police tasked - no action - group left site. This is dated 12 January 2013. The incident log details what action was taken by Canary Wharf Group during this particular incident. It also provides details on the impact to the residents. On page 5 of the incident log there is an entry that states “P BOUZON (CW178) informs the ECC that the vehicle registrations that he gave me are actually the 2 vehicles that gained access through the fence and are located within the Shed 4 area”. One of the vehicles is MA57LDY. This vehicle was registered to Simon CORDELL as per the Crimint Report.

S WATERS (B3) contacted the ECC and advised that at 0800hrs the last dozen participants of the 'rave' have left site. It was noticed that 1 of the group was bleeding (Details of injury unknown) and they were attending Hospital. II is thought that the injury happened due to an altercation between the groups. Infrastructure Management are taking steps to secure the breach in the fence and restrict further vehicle access. An electrician has also been tasked to isolate the power to the site. CW Security will remain in the location until further notice. Senior CWG Management informed via email. There is no CCTV of the area and no photos were taken with the hand-held camera as it was thought this would aggravate the situation.
Police updated it on 101.

Operator:	A DEVINE (CW164)

informs the ECC that he has been approached by 2 x members of the public in reference to the illegal rave that happened last night (11-01-13) The 2 x members of the public have informed A DEVINE (CW164) that they heard the commotion at approx. 22:00hrs last night and noticed that there were people going into the shed 4 area via the fence but because they were wearing Hi-Viz, they didn't think that there was anything untoward going on and carried on with their evening. They also added that the music got turned up at 01:30hrs this morning 12-01-13 and that is when they realised that it was a rave that was taking place. The people live right opposite Shed 4 where the hole was placed in the fence so they said that they did witness them breaking in.

was unable to get names or details from the people but has stated that he will try and get details from them as they leave the Wood Wharf area.

From 15:00 when we all viewed the building; I have now had the power within turned off and the appropriate fuses removed. Having sent communication earlier this morning to David Lindop / Joe Bowman, I have not heard back from either, but will inform accordingly and hand over the fuses.
All external doors have now been closed, so the building is as secure as we can make it until we review and carry out more work on Monday morning. This comment also applies to the damaged fence. I am now taking a replacement padlock and chain to replace the one cut off during the break in, to the gate where concrete Jersey Blocks have now been positioned. I shall leave the key with the patrol guard(s), who are now in place and collect this from them on Monday morning. Leaving site now. though available on the phone if needed.

Disrepair!
I continue to highlight my issues of concern causing me dissatisfaction within my home. The broken heating disrepair issues that are within my flat have been left for too long of a time, no reasonable person from Enfield Council or Enfield homes complies with their statutory duties to fix this disrepair problem and in the time that this problem has gotten left to eclipse I have suffered, and I also understand that it is unprofessional behaviour of the Enfield Councils and the Enfield Homes staff to leave me living like this!

Disrepair!
Today my friends visited my home and see me shivering in the cold yet again and still without any working heating system.
I found this unamusing because it is of no fault of my own and I feel that Enfield Council support me within their statutory duties in rectifying the disrepair issues that are contained within my rented home, “such as the non-existent heating!”

I made the relevant phone calls today to the Enfield homes and Enfield Council complaints department so, to receive an efficient service, regarding my re occurrence of the damp and broken heating system inclusive of the sound issues of disrepair that I face on a daily basis that are within my rented home but ended up receiving a service from the staff that caused me intentional infliction of emotional distress from their reckless disregard of lack of concern in addressing the disrepair problems within my flat!

Disrepair!

A full investigation is supposed to have taken place within the first stages of my complaints and this is to mean once the Enfield Councils and the Enfield Homes got put in receipt of the emergency issues that I do raise with them. The disrepair issues within my rented home stay the same and sows that, nothing has changed in the issues getting fixed, also the Enfield Homes and the Enfield Council do not persist to established disciplinary action against their staff in a fair and equal manner, as they pursuit against their client(s,) who are also members of the public. Enfield Council's and the Enfield Homes staff representing my cases should have taken my safety and health into account and did not in regard to the broken heating within my home in a reasonable time, consequential from the start of getting informed of the disrepair issues.

Disrepair!
The Enfield Council and the Enfield homes have left the disrepair of the heating issues for such a long time that the damp dihydrogen monoxide shows on the electrical wiring systems once again and this shows next to the front room wall and sometime causes them to overloaded making the electrical sockets perils and then on causing further damage to my personal property, such as my TV that additionally has mould growing over its cable’s and even low as much as I endeavour my best to keep it all clean and also well-ventilated the problem still posits to come back even after 2008 repairs towards the walls!

Subject: RE: Simon Cordell Court case
To Whom It May Concern:
I am writing this email after a call I made to the court about a case that was heard about no insurance which the outcome was 6 points on my driving licence and a £700 fine.

My Name and address are below.
Mr. Simon Cordell
23 Byron Terrace
Edmonton
London
N9 7DG
The problem I have with this is yes I was pulled up by the police and was asked to bring my insurance to a police station which I did do, but it seem the police had given me the wrong form so the police station would not accept me to give them my insurance documents and said it would need to go to court, I have never heard anything about this until I got a letter from DVLA saying I had to send my driving licence back to them, I called DVLA to be told that there was a court case which was heard and that I been given 6 points so needed to send my driving licence to them to get these points added, I explained to them that I did not know about any court date and that I did in fact have insurance to drive on the day the police pulled me over.

DVLA give me the court information to contract the court which I did and was told I need to put in that I did not know about the court date. I called Enfield court and was told that I need to write a letter to them which I have done but as of today's date 21/12/2012 I have not heard anything back from them. Today 21/12/2012 I got a next letter from DVLA saying that my driving licence was going to be revoked on the 22/12/2012 again I made a call to them which they have put a next 28 days onto the date that they will revoke my driving licence, I have also made a next call to the court and it seems I was given the wrong information and it should have asked for the case to be reopened which I am doing now by send you this email. Please could you reopen the case so that I can indeed show the court I do in fact have insurance to have been driving on the date I was pulled by the police, and as I said on the phone to the court person, I speak to today I did not know about any dates for court before I got the letter from DVLA. I will enclose in this email my insurance documents so you can see in fact I was insurance, and could you please send me a new date to go to court to prove this.
Many Thanks
Mr. Simon Cordell

Subject: RE: Simon Cordell Court case
To Whom It May Concern:
I am writing this email after a call I made to the court about a case that was heard about no insurance which the outcome was 6 points on my driving licence and a £700 fine.
My Name and address are below.
Mr. Simon Cordell 23 Byron terrace Edmonton London N9 7DG

The problem I have with this is yes I was pulled up by the police and was asked to bring my insurance to a police station which I did do, but it seem the police had given me the wrong form so the police station would not accept me to give them my insurance documents and said it would need to go to court, I have never heard anything about this until I got a letter from DVLA saying I had to send my driving licence back to them, I called DVLA to be told that there was a court case which was heard and that I been given 6 points so needed to send my driving licence to them to get these points added,
I explained to them that I did not know about any court date and that I did in fact have insurance to drive on the day the police pulled me over.
DVLA give me the court information to contract the court which I did and was told I need to put in that I did not know about the court date. I called Enfield court and was told that I need to write a letter to them which I have done but as of today's date 21/12/2012 I have not heard anything back from them.
Today 21/12/2012 I got a next letter from DVLA saying that my driving licence was going to be revoked on the 22/12/2012 again I made a call to them which they have put a next 28 days onto the date that they will revoke my driving licence, I have also made a next call to the court and it seems I was given the wrong information and it should have asked for the case to be reopened which I am doing now by send you this email.
Please could you reopen the case so that I can indeed show the court I do in fact have insurance to have been driving on the date I was pulled by the police, and as I said on the phone to the court person, I speak to today I did not know about any dates for court before I got the letter from DVLA.
I will enclose in this email my insurance documents so you can see in fact I was insurance, and could you please send me a new date to go to court to prove this.
Many Thanks Mr. Simon Cordell

Disrepair!

I continue to stay unamused by the circumstances that I get made to live in by the Enfield Council and the Enfield Homes department's years after they have gotten notified about my disrepair issues of concern and their staff still leave me without any official follow up leading to the problems getting fixed!

Dear Mr. Cordell

Housing Benefit Notification

I have changed your Housing Benefit from 01/04/2013 to take account of new year benefit levels from April. I have decided that your benefit is now as follows:
£86.84 per week from 01/04/2013

How You Will Be Paid

Your benefit will be paid by directly crediting your rent account.

Notification of Council Tax Support

I have worked out your council tax support from 01/04/2013 to take account of new year benefit levels from April. I have decided that your benefit is now as follows:
£12.64 per week from 01/04/2013 How You Will Be Paid
£658.99 council tax support has been paid to your council tax account. The total amount of council tax support for 2013/14 is £658.99.
You will soon receive a Council Tax bill dated 14/03/13 that will tell you how much council tax you will now have to pay. On the back of the bill is a summary of how we have calculated your Council Tax.

Other Information

Appeal details for Housing Benefit, information on the Council Tax Support scheme and other information are included with this letter.

About Council Tax Support

In previous years, the Government has funded a national Council Tax Benefit Scheme which may have meant you did not pay Council Tax. The Government is abolishing the national Council Tax Benefit Scheme from 1 April 2013.
In its place, councils have been asked to set up local support schemes for council tax but the Government has given less funding than it currently costs. In Enfield, the shortfall in funding is over £4m a year.

Despite this funding shortfall, Enfield Council has agreed a new local Council Tax Support Scheme based on the previous national benefit scheme with some amendments. Details of the new scheme are available on our website, www.enfield.gov.uk/counciltaxonline.
Your Council Tax Support award has been based on this new scheme.

How Council Tax Support is worked out

Council Tax Support is worked out using the information supplied in your previous Council Tax Benefit claim and the amount of Council Tax expected for the property you live in.
We start with looking at if you are eligible for any discounts, such as single person discount.
We then turn your remaining amount of council tax into a weekly amount.
Pensioners, war widows of working age, and those receiving war disability payments will continue to be eligible for Council Tax Support for up to 100% of the Council Tax that you have to pay. For the remaining working age claims (aged up to 65) you can receive a maximum benefit of up to 80.5% of council tax due.
Claimants receiving the following benefits will automatically give you the full award less any deductions for non-dependents (other adults living with you):

- Income Support,
- Guaranteed Credit
- Income based job seekers allowance.
- Income related employment and support allowance

This means that if you are working age and not in a protected group, you will get 80.5% of your council tax as a benefit. If you are a pensioner or protected, you will get 100%.
For all other claims we look at your total income, any savings that you have and deduct from that a recommended allowance that you need to live on depending on your circumstances and family make-up.
For every £1 that your total income is over the recommended allowance we deduct 20p from the weekly maximum amount of Council Tax Support you can receive. The amount left is the Council Tax Support we give you each week.
All weekly amounts are then worked out for the year and paid to your Council Tax Account.
You will receive a bill setting out what contribution, if any, you are expected to pay towards Council Tax. See the back of the Council Tax bill which for information on how we can calculate your contribution.
Your sincerely
Enfield Benefits Service

How Your Housing Benefit Has Been Worked Out

From 01/04/2013 your Housing Benefit will be £86.84 each week.
The rent you are charged each week is £92.49.
Housing Benefit cannot pay for some service charges that are included in your rent. The rent you pay has to be reduced by the amount of these service charges. These amounts are shown below:

Actual amount for Ineligible Water	£5.65
Total deductions for services	£5.65

The amount of rent after deducting these charges is called your maximum eligible rent. Your rent of £92.49 must be reduced by £5.65, to £86.84 each week. This is your maximum eligible rent.
The maximum Housing Benefit you can get is £86.84 each week. This figure is used when working out 'your total weekly Housing Benefit'.
Your Total Weekly Housing Benefit
As you are receiving Income Support, I can pay the maximum Housing Benefit of £86.84 each week.

I find it rigorous that the administration departments have not taken these issues I raise to the correct level of consequentiality within their stationery obligations, and I do not get identically tantamount to how other must get treated, within the Enfield Councils and the Enfield Homes compulsory standards that their staff are obliged to follow!

Details of Investigation 07/04/2013 17:12 PC 224810 466HT C SCOTT
PRIMARY INVESTIGATION DETAILS: Immediate action

1. CAD 4619/07APRI3...PC 466HT SCOTT AND PC 997HT ASTON

2. Police were called to Ellesmere Street E14 where an informant had seen a group of males load a flat screen TV into the rear of a white Ford Transit panel van VRM CX52 JRX. The informant was a local resident and was particularly concerned as her neighbour had been recently burgled.

The vehicle was in Ellesmere Street junction of Upper North Sheet There could see there were 4 males sat in tire front cab. The person in the driving seat was a light skinned ic3 male (sus) Police parked behind the van and Pc Aston got out the car to get around to the van. As he rounded our car the van pulled to the right toward Upper North Street. Pc Aston was now in front of the van and the van stopped.

Pc Scott opened the car door to speak to the driver and he said, ‘What the fuck do you want, you can’t stop me’ We identified ourselves as a police officer by displaying my warrant card and he continued to say ‘you have no power to stop me what are your powers’ It was explained why we were there and why we had stopped him.

Pie remained aggressive saying that we did not know how to do our job and that we had no power to search him. The oilier males in the van were telling the male to calm down and let us get on with it. He was still aggressive saying that he was all legit saying that we had no reason to be there. He then turned off the engine and jumped out the van and walked to ward the pavement. We explained he was detained for the search, and he continued to shout, ‘Don’t you Ricking touch me, I can walk around’ He continued to question our grounds and I again explained them to him. An elderly member of the public (view) was walking past, and he shouted at him 'Oi mate the fucking police want to search your coz they think you may be a burglar' The male turned round looked at the male in disgust and walked off again.

Sus continued to walk around by our vehicle, and it was again explained he was detained for a search and as he was walking away from him police took hold of his right arm. As this happened, he shouted, 'Don't fucking touch me' He was continually aggressive.
He was shouting 'Get the flick off me' and members of the public were at their windows trying to see what was going on. Pc Aston was trying to take out his left arm while pc Scott was trying to take out his right. He was shouting 'Get the fuck off me' continually and another unit arrived.
Handcuffs were applied in the rear stack position as he was still being aggressive and uncooperative.
As lie calmed down it was again explained why he was being searched and he said, 'You can't fucking touch me' He was searched under section 1 of pace, and nothing was found. The van was searched and again nothing was found. The other males were searched under the same powers, and nothing was found.
Pc Aston did a check on the van and the PNC stated that it had no insurance. The male who identified himself as Mr. Simon Cordell dob 26/01/1981 of 109 Burncroft Avenue, EN3 7JQ stated that he had trader's insurance and could drive any vehicle. The male gave another registration and that also showed no insurance. Cordell maintained that he had trader's insurance and 'You are not flicking taking my van' Pc Aston was making.

enquires but he stated that there was no insurance for the vehicle and that the vehicle was going to be seized under the road traffic act for no insurance. Cordell's shouted 'You can't fucking take my van' And he then tried to get into the van.
At 1446hrs Pc Aston arrested for no insurance and section 5 of the public order act as he could not provide a valid name or address. Pie was struggling while being led to the van and would not get in to the cage saying that 'You can't fucking arrest me' Pie was eventually put into the van and taken to Bethnal Green

CAD 4619/07APR 13...PC 466HT SCOTT AND PC 997HT ASTON
Police were called to Ellesmere Street El 4 where an informant had seen a group of males load a flat screen TV into the rear of a white Ford Transit panel van VRM CX52 JRX. The informant was a local resident and was particularly concerned as her neighbour had been recently burgled.
The vehicle was in Ellesmere Street junction of Upper North Street There could see there were 4 males sat in the front cab. The person in the driving seat was a light skinned ic3 male (sus) Police parked behind the van and Pc Aston got out the car to get around to the van. As he rounded our car the van pulled to the right toward Upper North Street. Pc Aston was now in front of the van and the van stopped.
Pc Scott opened the car door to speak to the driver and he said 'What the fuck do you want, you can't stop me5 We identified ourselves as a police officer by displaying my warrant card and he continued to say 'you have no power to stop me what are your powers* It was explained why we were there and why we had stopped him.
He remained aggressive saying that we did not know how to do our job and that we had no power to search him. The other males in the van were telling the male to calm down and let us get on with it. He was still aggressive saying that he was all legit saying that we had no reason to be there. He then turned off the engine and jumped out the van and walked to ward the pavement. We explained he was detained for the search, and he continued to shout, 'Don't you fucking touch me, I can walk around' He continued to question our grounds and I again explained them to him. An elderly member of the public (VIW) was walking past, and he shouted at him 'Oi mate the flicking police want to search your coz they think you may be a burglar' The male turned around looked at the male in disgust and walked off again.

Sus continued to walk around by our vehicle, and it was again explained he was detained for a search and as he was walking away from him police took hold of his right arm. As this happened, he shouted, 'Don't fucking touch me' He was continually aggressive.
He was shouting 'Get the fuck off me' and members of the public were at their windows trying to see what was going on. Pc Aston was trying to take out his left arm while pc Scott was trying to take out his right. He was shouting 'Get the fuck off me' continually and another unit arrived.

Handcuffs were applied in the rear stack position as he was still being aggressive and uncooperative.
As he calmed down it was again explained why he was being searched and he said, 'You can't fuck touch me' He was searched under section 1 of pace, and nothing was found. The van was searched and again nothing was found. The other males were searched under the same powers, and nothing was found.
Pc Aston did a check on the van and the PNC stated that it had no insurance. The male who identified himself as Mr. Simon Cordell dob 26/01/1981 of 109 Burncroft Avenue, EN3 7JQ stated that he had trader's insurance and could drive any vehicle. The male gave another registration and that also showed no insurance. Cordell maintained that he had trader's insurance and 'You are not fucking taking my van' Pc Aston was making enquires but he stated that there was no insurance for the vehicle and that the vehicle was going to be seized under the road traffic act for no insurance. Cordell's shouted 'You can't fucking take my van' And he then tried to get into the van.

At 1446hrs Pc Aston arrested for no insurance and section 5 of the public order act as he could not provide a valid name or address. He was struggling while being led to the van and would not get in to the cage saying that 'You cannot flick arrest me* He was eventually put into the van and taken to Bethnal Green

Court Case: "Sunday Going out on my Motorbike for the day."
Wandering Around: --

This fine day was just me wandering around to others and to me it was just another day, very much similar to other days and I guess this would be very much the same; for any other people, who reside in and around, the Great British town's streets off London: - Going out with friends. One of the many of best days of our lives had gotten planned out, so for me and my friends to go out on our own Off-road-Scramblers. What acutely; happened, is that on the

07/04/2013

I had arrived at my friend's house, what is on, an up kept average, London housing estate. This was on the traditional British day of rest and for that fact, it was a Sunday. On this occasion, I and my friends were in London's Streets, EW1. Initially, in the beginning and thought that day's moments, in the start of the days, hours that me and my friends had all been together, I would say that everything was going fine, for me to quote a saying off what happened in the one thousand and four hundred and forty minutes going on in them twenty-four hours that I think many people may already have heard before, so for me to define the days' event's, I would say; all good things must come to an end. Before the police officer's presence, I and my friends had intended to head out on our planned travels and this day would have included us all being able to arrive at our prior planned destination, but as always in my life, the police had stopped us.

Next in, is Just, three out of three, quick short couple of notes; —

Note 1; The day had got set by ourselves, so for us all, to have; a lot of excitement, within the legal constraints of the united Kingdom's Laws and because of this we were all, being silent and relaxed, therefore we caused no trouble and was just waiting to go out for the day.

Note 2; A lot of different people's off-road-motorbikes were present, as, we all were on this day out for me and my friends. When the police officers questioned us all about them, beforehand of arresting my person, everybody's off-road-motorbikes; were already in three different prior arranged vans and soon to us, the true owners of them all, were to be able to go on the move to our chosen place on that day, if not for the police officer's interruption.

Note 3; I also would like to note the point of; I and my friends, definitely supplied no entertainment equipment to anybody, on this date and therefore, as a result of mine and other's good intentions for this day, I did not cause any acts of Anti-Social Behaviour, hence, together I and my friends, did not cause any illegal or civil problems, as a quick briefing towards a summary, on this incident; I did not feel like I could even go out for the day that being said and meant to mean; with some of my friends and not getting harassed, by the police, once again.

A continuation of the same day events: --

So, for me now to only leave the rest of the past day's events to get explained, now down too I explaining even more-extra further truths; The police officers who had commenced, on us, at the time did say to us all, who were present at the incident, that they had got called to a report of a Burglary. When this got explained to us by the police officers it had got confusing to me and my friends, as, we caused no criminal offences that got accused of our persons that the police officers were then alleging to us. Members of the police had approached us, and this was while I and my friends were all together, getting ready to head on an into our travels out; In portraying, to another person the day's predicaments, of one of the now at present, funny parts of this day I would start by explaining; that it was the so called 999 police call / the police officers present at the scene so-called witness. The dilemma of what ended up happening to me is that by the end of me explaining to the police officers, about me being an innocent man, is that the police officers continued with their plans not to trust in me, and they forcibly searched inside of my van, while using their powers of law against me. OK, at the time to me and my friends felt that, how the police officers, made us all feel, got achieved by the copper(s), so that things had got completed wrong by them and this was happening to me and my friends, so, that what was going on to us was not so funny at the time but once the copper did their searches and finished embarrassing me, I can recollect them getting out of the back of my van and in both of them officers managing to doing this, I noticed that they both accepted to me, that I was right from the start and there was no stolen property in my van, in fact there were just two off my own personal off-road-Scramblers, to my own satisfaction.

As a continuation of the

I make it evident that People always claim that God; Loves a person to try hard at good things, out of their life and this is what I done and still do. When the Police took the time after doing their searches inside of my parked van, they had to explain their intelligence to us all, this got done so for the police officers to explain their reasons of search on me and my property, they both explained the following; that it got based upon the so called original 999 call that the police call centre had received and in that report a civilian person claimed to see a burglary, that was supposedly in progress, they continued to further their information to us, by explaining that the police officers witness who had called them had seen some sort of stolen property, such as a TV, being placed into the back of my van. This was never true and now in any off the situations such as, more, neither, nor anything of the right that is expected, the Police are now using this day as a civil case, at a later date, to their own wrong advantage against me, after me being charged and not found guilty for anything for the day, the legal director of the Metropolitan police force just simply refuses to take any of the cases out of the Asbo folder and this case is also out of the time limitation Act 1980. Where the incident has got put into the Anti-Social Behaviour Order case files it has caused me to wrongly suffer and even after me winning the case in court and then to make things worse, the police officers, who are to support taking pursuit of this so called pointed out wrongful actions, who are in charge of creating and the on goings within the Asbo case do not seem to be able to provide, any of the following: — As the police officers said, at the roadside, there should be an official police intelligence CAD, that should relate to this date and time of this incident.

One;

This police cad should also be able to refer to the Pacific details; that must describe a person accusing me or other people of criminal offences.

Two;

Neither do the police show the evidence of the 999 callers, stating that they saw a burglary that was in progress.

Three;

The missing and not induced Cad of police official information, must then introduce true evidence, off the so called; if any, true audio recordings, which would relate to any of the 999 calls, which got said to have got made on this day. The Second part of the day: --

I, can evidently, reminisce, on both of the police officers, being clear and adamant, in what they had together said to us, while still chatting with the police officer's, they continued with what they were doing to my person and also continued to do their Identification checks, on the two-Off-road- Bikes this did also include my van, and they all came back to be legitimate but this never got mentioned again in case that I won at court or even in the up-to-date Asbo on goings. In another addition to the events, of the day, the police said that I had No insurance, so to be driving my van and this become a further negative effect, towards me. This further negative effect got place upon me already knowing, that my insurance company had also tried, for themselves to help me, so to resolve all the problems that we were all then together having. After my van and I got searched, by the attending officers of the law, I continued to get abused by them both at the roadside; the reason to why I got abused is; because of my insurance policy, still not showing up on the police National computer systems, I continued to get frustrated because of this and the following reasons. It was easy to understand that I was getting constantly attacked by members of the police force, attacked as if in to describe a person always getting harassed. This Harassment partly took place on most available Sunday's. I can remember that on this occasion I literally had to freeze on the day; While re-analysing the circumstances that I got presented within by them police officers on the scene, so, to be able to stop any of the tear's that unexpectedly seemed to want to then drizzle down my face; or maybe start too really flood out really fast of my eyes and to then come down both sides of the cheeks, tears running down onto my garments, and straight onto the floor. The police officer in front of me had become criminals "thieves," they wanted my van and the bikes to go to their police compound and for me to pay for it. I knew right there and then that they had no legal rights to do the things that they were doing to me and take my van, and this is that precise moment in time, when I held my breath into stop them tears, I continued to talk to the police about not seizing my van. When I asked them to trust in me in the hope of them police officer is, not doing any of their unusual unwanted actions against me, such as: The Intimidation and Harassment, that I am made to believe that I must get used to, when getting somehow, someway, victimised by some police officers. Referring to another addition of a part to everything, that was going on, I said to the police officers; that there is a harder problem to overcome and this problem was with the day being a Sunday; and I do strengthen this now made announcement about the day being a Sunday, as to the contrary is because this got done to myself wrongly and as to a consequence off the police officers own bad decisions and actions that on the day lead towards their entrusting misplaced behaviour towards me, as they both must have also already understood that; 99%, of insurance companies do not get opened, on a Sunday so, my insurance policy should have covered me alongside with my word, when I told the police officers, whom were present that I had already got insured. With the day being a Sunday, this also meant that they could not have been able to make a phone call to my insurance company, "on this day," besides in my defence, I told the police officers, who were present, at that precise stage that I had already got insured and showed a copy of my policy to them both.

To keep the ball rolling, another key point is, that for many months pre-existing to this incident equalling to the amount of time that it got left to extend to this incident, my mother previously had tried to help me to stop the dilemmas I kept having with my insurance policy. My mother had already tried many times beforehand to resolve the issue of my concern, by contacting the relevant people involved, this included the police, DVLA and my insurance company, as well as the MID database. Throughout her conversations with the relevant people, she come to an agreement with them all and what got agreed is that this problem would get resolved between them all, "as to describe something being fixed, not a problem no more," so to me this meant that together a lot of people had all prior tried to work out why; I was always, not showing up as insured. I noticed myself that on the police computer I did not show up as insured, but I was OK on the mid database and OK on my insurance company's computers, but still, no one could solve the problem. While talking to the police officers at the roadside about my insurance I noticed that there was no more talk about a stolen TV from any house; what next started to persisted to proceed is that, while still standing and talking to the police officer's, I did get a bit upset and by the middle of our discussions, all of our voices, had become at a bit high of a rate, the reason being of my voice getting louder was because I got accused of not having any insurance and they wanted to stop my pre planned day out on my bikes. I did have the correct insurance policy in place, so for me to be driving and able to drive that can then, that was in question at the time, so I do not see why I did get arrested by the police officer on this day and I also do not see why the police officers made this case get continued towards me, by them police officers; following charges against me. After getting humiliated by getting searched for a TV I then having my van seized with my bikes in it. Once arrested, I got taken to the police station, I then after got charged and granted police bail and this got placed on to a further date for me to attend at a courthouse, meaning that in turn I then got to attend to a court hearing and this was for a hearing, so that I could enter my no guilty plea, to establish that I needed to wait for a trial to take place, this further date got set so for me, to be able to defend myself. When in court, and at the first preliminary hearing it then got explained to me by the judge, that if I do not attend to the courthouse; a prison sentence may get issued towards my person and this would work out to be with the possibility of a fine or both. Amusingly, the charges that got brought into motion by the police were for a breach of the peace and for no insurance, which I did not commit, this meant me paying out of my pocket more money to the government official's or even a custodial sentence. Under these circumstances I had already had to pay the Police car compound money who had seized my van and in turn this forwarded the fact that I suffered yet again, for losing my vehicle and the cost of paying, to get it back out of the police car compound. I done nothing wrong, and I paid a lot of money, for my insurance policy, to which I lost, due to these court cases on goings. All of this information to me meant by things just simply; changed in my life and I slowly got depressed, as you can read all about, because of the manner in which the police officers were treating me, as I understood what they were doing to me was so wrong. I look back in time and forward into the present time of today in writing this book / report / diary, when both of the offences had said to have taken place, that the metropolitan police force brought into motion; the reason for this is both of the cases, tarnished my life and got dropped shortly after. Both cases got dropped shortly after in compliance towards a decision that got made of a "No Further Action" being taken place against me, but this case still was not to be over in the copper's eyes. The accusations claimed against me in the case files continued to get used against me. In the moment of these occurrences and a long time after this day protested to proceed, I knew that what they were doing to me would change my life for the worst and that this meant to me that whenever I continue to wake up, at my own home on most mornings since the day's incidents took and take place, I seem to keep thinking to myself the same little thought: repeatedly, and repeatedly, again; how did this day get added to the Anti-Social Behaviour Order Application, at this present time of my life. The original police officers' statements, got held in the police national computer system, after being imputed on the first few days, what did in fact truly happen is that after the incident took place in Elsmere Street, I went to court and got found not guilty and then afterwards; "Some, other, different, police officer's," from another police force alongside with the metropolitan's legal director edited the old NFA case information, by extended their work abilities and decided to take the law into their own deceitful hands, while the original CRIMINT got placed on their working companies' systems. This got done so for it to get fabricated, and then they compiled their falsified redeveloped made and said to be findings, of the day, so to adduced them findings into a copy of the Anti-Social Behaviour Order proceedings, that I am fighting against, up and till date, which has wrongly, got put against me, with no honest reasons, as I already prior won the so-called court case in the court. In add-amusingly, to me, was nothing ever got explained again, that being about any report of a Burglary, which the police officers claimed all about and now it makes me feel furious, in knowing what the police officers are doing to my life all of the time, when regarding this instance and others, it left me being even, moreover, to being intrigued, by the police officers who got involved, I get astonished by them all, for what they have done to me.

Proof of Insurance policy: Link

Points of Facts of Law:
1. I won this case at court and then afterwards the police used it to gain a guilty convection against myself!
2. Mr. Cordell did not involve himself in the organization of any illegal rave.
This was his friends housing estate and because of there is reason there is no party locations within the local housing area, having a party very unlikely.
And the day was a Sunday, very unlikely for a party of any form or concept.
Nor did he supply equipment on said date.
Mr. Simon Cordell will State; "that he was not rude to police, but he did feel like he could not even go out for the day with some of his friends, without getting stopped and searched by members of the police. He states he did not get upset in the manner that the police have said he did and that he does not mean to come across as rude to police. In this case he was just trying to explain the error on the system.
It is also noted that the caller was very clear that they saw a flat screen TV being put into Mr. Cordell's van, which is confusing to why when the police searched the van, they found no TV, but did in fact find two of his off-road motor bikes, which is not included in Steve Elsmore statement.
The police did checks on Mr. Simon Cordell's Off-Road Motor Bikes, but this is also not stated, but should show up on the seizure notice, as Mr. Simon Cordell did ask the police office to take careful note of the two off road motorbikes, as due to the high value of them.
Mr. Simon Cordell will state; "that he did get a bit upset when the police said they were going to seize his van, as he did have insurance in place to be able to drive the van in question, but there was an error on the MID database.
Miss Cordell had been trying to help her son resolve the issue concerning his insurance policy not showing on the mid database alongside with members of their local police force and his insurance company KGM too, together they had tried to work out why Mr. Simon Cordell was showing as uninsured. There was information noted as intelligence on the police National Computer stating this, I had asked the police to check on their systems due to this, but they would not they just wanted to seize Mr. Simon Cordell's van without checking, so he knew he was being wrongfully accused at this point, as he had done nothing wrong, and he did have insurance to be driving and had paid a lot of money for his insurance.
In addition, the prosecution offered no evidence in respect of the charges that were brought even though they were reliant on police witnesses. Mr. Simon Cordell had been wrongfully arrested for not having insurance when he was insured to drive.
He also did not cause any Anti-Social Behaviour on this date in question.
There are no CADs for this date, but yet they were meant to be, a CAD referring to the pacific details that should be relating to a person stating, that they believed a burglary was in progress and of the 999-caller stating that they had seen a person who was putting a flat screen TV into Mr. Simon Cordell's van.

I am Simon Cordell; my date of birth is 26th January 1981. My home address is as stated above. I am making this witness statement in response to members of the police and local authority's application for an anti-social behaviour order.
I am currently in the process of trying to establish my company. I have not yet incorporated it; however, I am currently working on having it registered as a company. I am aiming to have it registered as a limited company with charitable status within the articles of the memorandum of association. I have become a member at general meetings held at my local community hall in turn taking part in the daily challenges a community hall can be presented with. This has introduced me to various people who have helped me with good advice.
I have always wanted to give something back to the community. I have established my web site with a lot of help of others and have now "parked" my company, and I exhibit proof of this of this as SC/1. The company is not yet trading, but I aim to trade soon.
I was placed in the care system as a child, and I try to help vulnerable people. I know what it is like to have to fend for yourself. I exhibit letters of proof that I have helped homeless people as exhibit SC/2.

I believe that this application is an attempt by members of the police and local Authority to find me guilty of offences I have not committed in turn having an effect on my health and stopping me from developing my company, and it is not acceptable or reasonable. I am in the process of developing a business plan for a festival at Barley lands in Essex. I had planned to have this event in 2014, however, the stress of the ongoing ASBO proceedings have stopped me from putting this festival on. I exhibit a draft business plan as exhibit SC/3, and a business submission form for a community festival as exhibit SC/4.

I was once arrested by members of the police outside White Sands Nightclub on 14th November 2013 at Brixton Hill and I had my van seized. The reason given for stopping me was that I had "tools of the trade" in my van and my insurance did not cover driving a vehicle on this basis. My vehicle was seized as it was alleged that I did not have insurance. I was actually insured at the time, and there were no tools in my van. I exhibit proof of my insurance as exhibit SC/4. A police officer gave incorrect evidence in court that he had not taken my vehicle because there were tools in it; however, he had made an inconsistent statement previously saying that there were tools in the van. I exhibit proof of this incident as exhibits SC/5, a witness statement authenticating the sound recordings I have submitted, exhibit SC/6, transcripts of sound recordings of conversations with police personnel and my insurance company, and exhibit SC/7, a sound recording of a phone call from a police officer to my insurance company, and exhibit SC/8, a further sound recording of a phone call between the insurance company and the police car pound. I was convicted of driving without insurance on the basis of his evidence. I am appealing against conviction on the basis that the police officer gave incorrect evidence to court. My insurance company has provided me with a letter of indemnity and witness statement in this respect; however, I am currently banned from driving as a result of the officer's incorrect evidence. I exhibit the clerk's notes from the Magistrates Court trial verifying that the police officer told the court that my Van had not been seized because of there being tools in the Van, and a covering email from Lavender Hill Magistrates Court, as exhibit SC/9, and I exhibit proof that I am currently banned from driving as exhibit SC/10. I had a legitimate reason for being at White Sands Nightclub as I was discussing becoming entertainment manager for White Sands Nightclub; I was going to see a friend about the possibility of a job interview. My van was empty on the date in question.
I accept that I own entertainment equipment. I have acquired these for my company. I am trying to build a company, and the aim was to rent the equipment out to people. I have prepared draft terms and conditions of business that I exhibit as SC/11. I was trying to hire the equipment out to conferences, school fates, local community events, private birthday parties until the stress became too.

much. I would hire the equipment out to private parties, and to people who could provide me with sufficient identification, and who could cover any damage to the equipment.
I have worked and attempted to work with charitable organizations, in particular Muswell Hill festival helping kids with cerebral palsy, as well as the local scouts Ponders End festival, Lock to Lock festival, Enfield Town Festival, Durant's Park Festival. I am a member on the committee at my local community hall, I have also been working alongside D.E.M.S event management services in aid of Bliss who are a charity that helps premature babies. I have been building strong relationships with a view to developing a running business helping make a positive effect of today's people and society. I exhibit proof of my business relationship with D.E.M.S as exhibit SC/12. I am very concerned that this application is damaging my attempts to build a legitimate business by way of darkening my name and company brand. I had arranged a community charity children's fashion show fundraiser, and I exhibit proof of this in the form of tickets that had been printed for the event as exhibit SC/13. However, this event did not go ahead as planned as the stress of these ongoing proceedings meant I could not take part in it.

I am currently signed off from work due to problems that I am having. I exhibit proof of this in the form of my doctor's authorisation as exhibit SC/14. These proceedings have taken a large part in the deterioration of my health, by way of the stress caused.
I will now comment on the incidents that I am alleged to have been involved in and that form the substance of the complaint that has been laid against me.
I am alleged to have been involved in the organisation of and/or supplied equipment for and/or attended an illegal rave at "Redacted Part Not Relevant to Day!"
On the 07th of April 2013, I was going out with my friends and I had some off-road bikes in the back of my van. I was looking forward to this day, and it had been arranged for a Sunday. We were waiting.

at ELLESMORE Road when the police stopped my van outside my friends.' ELLESMORE Road is a house on a housing estate. I do not see how this is relevant to proceedings for an anti-social behaviour order; in addition, the prosecution offered no evidence in respect of the charges that were brought even though they were reliant on police witnesses. I had been wrongfully arrested for not having insurance when I was insured to drive. I did not cause any Anti-Social Behaviour on the 7th of April 2013.

I had insurance at these different times; as any reader of this report would also understand to be true, as well by now; it was simple for the police on this occasion to handle this incident; In a fair manner of law, to accept there was an error on the police and or the MID database and this was at no fault of my own but as in most cases with the police this did not happen. This inelegance on the police national computers got put into place due to me prior being, incorrectly, stopped, so many times beforehand, by random representing police officers of the law. In the start of the case the police used a summons against me, so to take me to court also, which I never receive, adding, even more complications to my daily surprises; I was later to find out that the judge who heard my case at the court, found me guilty in my absence and after his or her hand, he or she added more driving points to my driving license and another fine. A fine got issued in this case by the judge, I and others worked hard for us to get the case reopened in co Hurst towards the rest of the court cases, that I got imposed too. In the final stages of the court case, I ended up showing the court my insurance, so I won the case. The Points did finally get removed of my driving license and the fine ended up being revoked; coincidentally. Proof of Insurance policy: Link15/04/2013

  I am upset that's such an astronomically immense co-operative company such as the Enfield homes and Enfield Council have not balanced out their line of duty's or endeavoured to consummate a genuine need from my heating to get superseded and the damp to get rectified as to being ok and fine for human inhabitant, I perpetuate to do my best in the disrepair circumstances that I'm presented within but I seem to be on a Downward Spiral due to no fault of my own!

  I get made to feel infuriated by the Enfield Councils and the Enfield Homes disorientated practice towards their Statutory Obligation of conduct towards their clients, because it makes me sufferer every day and night by their staff's negligence after their intentional infliction of emotional distress that I do get inflicted upon me, in their staff understanding the exigency of me having heating in my habitation and not rectifying the issues of the Damp, Sound Proofing and of the Heating,

Dear Sir or Madam
I have emailed your court on a number of occasions regarding my conviction and sentence for no insurance. I am making this request to have my case listed in order that I can do the following.

1. Application to set aside the conviction
2. Reopen the case Application to set aside the conviction: On 22/07/2012 I was stopped and given a producer by the police as they did not believe that I held a valid policy of insurance. I attended the police station, and I was advised that my case would be going to court, and I would be summonsed in due course. I never received any summons in relation to this matter and I only became aware that the case had been dealt with in my absence when I received a letter from the DVLA advising me that I had to send in my driving licence. I disputed with the DVLA the points, but I was given an ultimatum that if I did not send in my licence, it would be revoked. I therefore had no choice but to send in my licence. I immediately contacted the Court by telephone, and I was advised to send an email. I sent in a number of emails, and I have been given a number of emails, but I have not received any confirmation from the court. I forwarded a copy of my insurance policy to the court and again this was ignored. The offence of no insurance was allegedly committed on 22/07/2012.
I had a valid policy of insurance from23/03/2012 and this policy was valid until 22/02/2013. The company insuring me was Tradex Insurance Company Limited. I am the named policy holder, Mr. Simon Cordell and my policy number are L/WST/MTP/0192359. I have points on my licence which I should not have. Can you please as a matter of urgency email me back on this matter so that I can have a date so that the conviction can be set aside, and my case heard in order that I can show the court my insurance and the PLO can make the necessary enquiries. Once this has happened, I would be grateful if the court could email the DVLA to advise them that the points have been issued in error and the fine be set aside also. This matter is urgent and is dragging on. I cannot resolve this matter until the case is listed before either a District Judge or Magistrates so I would appreciate your cooperation. I am very disappointed that you have ignored all my emails. This is causing me stress. Can you now please resolve this legal mater by listing the case for an application to set aside the conviction?
I can then forward my documents to the relevant prosecuting authority. I await hearing from you in relation to this matter and I thank you in advance for your anticipated co=operation in this matter.
Yours faithfully
Simon Cordell

To Whom It May Concern:
I am writing this email after a call I made to the court about a case that was heard about no insurance which the outcome was 6 points on my driving licence and a £700 fine.
My Name and address are below.
Mr Simon Cordell 23 Byron terrace Edmonton London N9 7DG
The problem I have with this is yes I was pulled up by the police and was asked to bring my insurance to a police station which I did do, but it seem the police had given me the wrong form so the police station would not accept me to give them my insurance documents and said it would need to go to court, I have never heard anything about this until I got a letter from DVLA saying I had to send my driving licence back to them, I called DVLA to be told that there was a court case which was heard and that I been given 6 points so needed to send my driving licence to them to get these points added,
I explained to them that I did not know about any court date and that I did in fact have insurance to drive on the day the police pulled me over.
Wrongful conviction and request to set aside the conviction and re-open the case->RE_ Simon Cordell Court case message.
DVLA give me the court information to contract the court which I did and was told I need to put in that I did not know about the court date. I called Enfield court and was told that I need to write a letter to them which I have done but as of today's date 21/12/2012 I have not heard anything back from them.
Today 21/12/2012 I got a next letter from DVLA saying that my driving licence was going to be revoked on the 22/12/2012 again I made a call to them which they have put a next 28 days onto the date that they will revoke my driving licence, I have also made a next call to the court and it seems I was given the wrong information and it should have asked for the case to be reopened which I am doing now by send you this email.
Please could you reopen the case so that I can indeed show the court I do in fact have insurance to have been driving on the date I was pulled by the police, and as I said on the phone to the court person, I speak to today I did not know about any dates for court before I got the letter from DVLA.
I will enclose in this email my insurance documents so you can see in fact I was insurance, and could you please send me a new date to go to court to prove this.
Many Thanks Mr Simon Cordell

I am writing this email after a call I made to the court about a case that was heard about no insurance which the outcome was 6 points on my driving licence and a £700 fine.

The problem I have with this is yes I was pulled up by the police and was asked to bring my insurance to a police station which I did do, but it seem the police had given me the wrong form so the police station would not accept me to give them my insurance documents and said it would need to go to court, I have never heard anything about this until I got a letter from DVLA saying I had to send my driving licence back to them, I called DVLA to be told that there was a court case which was heard and that I been given 6 points so needed to send my driving licence to them to get these points added,
I explained to them that I did not know about any court date and that I did in fact have insurance to drive on the day the police pulled me over.
DVLA give me the court information to contract the court which I did and was told I need to put in that I did not know about the court date. I called Enfield court and was told that I need to write a letter to them which I have done but as of today's date 21/12/2012 I have not heard anything back from them.
Today 21/12/2012 I got a next letter from DVLA saying that my driving licence was going to be revoked on the 22/12/2012 again I made a call to them which they have put a next 28 days onto the date that they will revoke my driving licence, I have also made a next call to the court and it seems I was given the wrong information and it should have asked for the case to be reopened which I am doing now by send you this email.
Please could you reopen the case so that I can indeed show the court I do in fact have insurance to have been driving on the date I was pulled by the police, and as I said on the phone to the court person, I speak to today I did not know about any dates for court before I got the letter from DVLA.
I will enclose in this email my insurance documents so you can see in fact I was insurance, and could you please send me a new date to go to court to prove this.
Many Thanks

Disrepair!

I treat the council officials with a fair reverence in the notion that they will act in a natural manner when dealing with incident relating to their clients and in this case me, but I do not get treated with the same curiously back, when asking for the disrepairs to get fixed within my rented home and in turn making me doubt my own referred words!

Dear Sir or Madam
I have emailed your court on a number of occasions regarding my conviction and sentence for no insurance. I am making this request to have my case listed in order that I can do the following;:
1. Application to set aside the conviction
2. Reopen the case Application to set aside the conviction: On 22nd July 2012 I was stopped and given a producer by the police as they did not believe that I held a valid policy of insurance. I attended the police station, and I was advised that my case would be going to court, and I would be summonsed in due course. I never received any summons in relation to this matter and I only became aware that the case had been dealt with in my absence when I received a letter from the DVLA advising me that I had to send in my driving licence. I disputed with the DVLA the points, but I was given an ultimatum that if I did not send in my licence, it would be revoked. I therefore had no choice but to send in my licence. I immediately contacted the Court by telephone, and I was advised to send an email. I sent in a number of emails, and I have been given a number of emails, but I have not received any confirmation from the court. I forwarded a copy of my insurance policy to the court and again this was ignored. The offence of no insurance was allegedly committed on 22nd July 2012. I had a valid policy of insurance from 23rd March 2012 and this policy was valid until 22nd February 2013

The company insuring me was Tradex Insurance Company Limited. I am the named policy holder, Mr. Simon Cordell and my policy number are L/WST/MTP/0192359. I have points on my licence which I should not have. Can you please as a matter of urgency email me back on this matter so that I can have a date so that the conviction can be set aside, and my case heard in order that I can show the court my insurance and the PLO can make the necessary enquiries. Once this has happened, I would be grateful if the court could email the DVLA to advise them that the points have been issued in error and the fine be set aside also. This matter is urgent and is dragging on. I cannot resolve this matter until the case is listed before either a District Judge or Magistrates so I would appreciate your cooperation. I am very disappointed that you have ignored all my emails. This is causing me stress. Can you now please resolve this legal mater by listing the case for an application to set aside the conviction? I can then forward my documents to the relevant prosecuting.

I await hearing from you in relation to this matter and I thank you in advance for your anticipated co=operation in this matter.

There are many ways to skin a cat. Having thought about Simon's other case it may be better to wait until the hearing as we may be able to make representation to the prosecutor on the day in question that Simon did have a valid insurance policy and the data base could not be accessed. There were no warning markers re the van. The whole reason for the stop of the vehicle had to be ascertained as why was he stopped in the first place, if not for no insurance, then for what?
I can refer them to the case re possession of the bladed article. Basically, I will argue that but for his van being seized for no insurance for which he was not guilty and could have brought his insurance to the station on a producer then the public order offence would not have been committed. We will play it by ear, I think.

Josephine

I sent in a number of emails, and I have been given a number of emails, but I have not received any confirmation from the court. I forwarded a copy of my insurance policy to the court and again this was ignored. The offence of no insurance was allegedly committed on 22nd July 2012. I had a valid policy of insurance from 23rd March 2012 and this policy was valid until 22nd February 2013.
The company insuring me was Tradex Insurance Company Limited. I am the named policy holder, Mr. Simon Cordell and my policy number are L/WST/MTP/0192359. I have points on my licence which I should not have. Can you please as a matter of urgency email me back on this matter so that I can have a date so that the conviction can be set aside, and my case heard in order that I can show the court my insurance and the PLO can make the necessary enquiries. Once this has happened, I would be grateful if the court could email the DVLA to advise them that the points have been issued in error and the fine be set aside also. This matter is urgent and is dragging on. I cannot resolve this matter until the case is listed before either a District Judge or Magistrates so I would appreciate your cooperation. I am very disappointed that you have ignored all my emails. This is causing me stress. Can you now please resolve this legal mater by listing the case for an application to set aside the conviction?
I can then forward my documents to the relevant prosecuting authority. I await hearing from you in relation to this matter and I thank you in advance for your anticipated co=operation in this matter.
Yours faithfully
Simon Cordell

Dear Mr Cordell,
I am in receipt of your email; these have been printed off and passed to the reopening section to deal with. There is a backlog due to the huge number of requests to reopen, but you will hear from someone in due course.

Dear Sir or Madam
I have emailed your court on a number of occasions regarding my conviction and sentence for no insurance. I 59, am making this request to have my case listed in order that I can do the following; -
1. Application to set aside the conviction
2. Re-open the case Application to set aside the conviction: - On 22nd July 2012
I was stopped and given a producer by the police as they did not believe that I held a valid policy of insurance. I attended the police station, and I was advised that my case would be going to court, and I would be summonsed in due course. I never received any summons in relation to this matter and I only became aware that the case had been dealt with in my absence when I received a letter from the DVLA advising me that I had to send in my driving licence. I disputed with the DVLA the points, but I was given an ultimatum that if I did not send in my licence, it would be revoked. I therefore had no choice but to send in my licence. I immediately contacted the Court by telephone, and I was advised to send an email. I sent in a number of emails, and I have been given a number of emails, but I have not received any confirmation from the court. I forwarded a copy of my insurance policy to the court and again this was ignored. The offence of no insurance was allegedly committed on 22nd July 2012. I

  The level of service provided by the Enfield Council and the Enfield Homes teams staff is truly inadequate to the sufficient needs services that I require to fix my flats disrepair, for an example when the staff are using the available granted money that comes from the community repair chest budget that gets granted for repairs they do no manage to maintain and distribute the selfless cash within the relevant emergency sectors of highest priorities to a reasonable standard and in a practical time scale, as my rented council flats conditions are of the highest priorities but still continues to suffer alongside myself, once I had applied for the staff to initialize the capital and reasonable persons to then on be able to rectify the repairs need in my home, so, to fix my home in a relevant time period and to a professional standard!

1 Asbo Si Note: Ponders End - “Helping, a homeless friend, in his time of need I got contacted by a friend, who was living at 204 High Street Ponders End EN3 4EZ: -- It must get Scary for those involved, who are the true instigators and ends up even scarier for those people that they truly, affect. This is the commencement off another day of my life that somehow got added wrongfully into the Anti-Social Behaviour Order case files, as perhaps, it got added in error by police. Part of the reason it got added in error is Cases like this one can only get added into the on goings of the Anti-Social Behaviour Order case files or any other case files, as a case reference, as to the time limitation Act 1980, which states, a case must get applied six months from the incident, to which this case was not. It is incorrect for the police to allege, that on the 24/05/2013, and I was looking for venues in which to hold an illegal rave, so they or it could go ahead, I disputed their accusations at the time and still due to date, I knew that I never committed the crime, so I understood for them not to be true and this got worse as a result of this not being me. I got contacted by a friend, who was living at 204 High Street Ponders End EN3 4EZ, also known as the Old Police Station at Ponders End, as he and some others, were homeless, so was living and living under a section 144 and needed money to get loaned to them, plus I in enjoyed being around them, so to do this, I headed towards 204 High Street, to park the vehicle I was driving. I decided the best option for me was to drive down an alleyway that I always knew to be there, the reason I knew this, is that there was once upon a time a car park behind the two well-known landmarks that were once and still are present. one of them buildings, has now got demolished, so that the land can get redeveloped and got known as the name of the old ponders End police station and the second building being named as the Kinder Garden Centre, I believe many people also probably, know the well-known landmarks, who may live in and around the surrounding areas, who could also be able to remember them. I personally understand the area well, as this is where I have lived all of my life, so I understood the car park that was at the back of the two well-known landmarks. Being from the area meant I also knew that no civilian drivers could park on the high road, because of the double yellow lines or other restrictions, what are or were in place, so I parked in the back-car park like I have done many times before. I believe the police saw my car as I took a right turn to drive down to where I intended to stop; the police had followed me straight away after they see me, because I see them pay attention to me, as I drove past them. What I remember is that of myself locking the vehicle I was driving in as the police approached me. The police were now standing by my side and this is normal for me, their presence is so normal. Where the police have pulled me over so many times before in an addition to this, I just got ready for their police procedures, as I knew that they would want to search me, I was right the police searched me and my car, the police said they done this because they thought that they smelt a strong smell of cannabis. As always, I consented to this search to proceed. The police cannot dispute this knowledge of them police officers that had approached me and who stopped me, as I just got out of my car, or how would they have said the car smelt strongly, of cannabis, and this is to explain, in their police statements, as they do. Even more to this, was the reason to why the police officers gave me the conditions of search and their consent form due to being searched by themselves. In addition, there had been nothing done wrong with my part once everything got clarified to be true of me. When the official police officers, checked me and my car, I have done nothing wrong, so nothing ever got found. I emphasize, as an effect, to what took place, the police watched me leave straight after, completing their procedures, so as an effect of these on going's; after talking to the police, we all dispersed and the police see me head back towards my home. Please take note to the picture above and that of the building on the far right being the old police station, you cannot see the front vehicle entrance as it is in the far right of the picture and is the only entrance. The alleyway in the middle is where I drove my car down and stopped. There is no rear entrance to the police station from the ally as there are two other running companies in-between and to the far right is another running company. 24.05.2013 = Mr. Simon Cordell was looking for venues to set up an illegal rave on the 24.05.2013 Mr. Simon Cordell will state; "that he did not attend any premises on this date to rave neither was he involved in the organization of any illegal raves, nor did he supply equipment. This case was only added as a reference as the limitation Act 1980 which states that a case must be applied 6 months from the date of the incident, to which it was not. Please read my last statement dated the 24/02/2015. It is alleged that Mr. Simon Cordell was looking for venues in which illegal raves could be held, on 24/05/2013 Mr. Simon Cordell disputes this. He will state that he had been contacted by a friend called Joshua, who was living at 204 High Street Ponders End EN3 4EZ, also known as the Old Police Station at Ponders End, as he and some others were homeless, so was living and residing under section 144. as Mr. Simon Cordell was driving towards 204 High Street, he drove his car down the alleyway so that he could park the vehicle he was in, He parked between two well-known landmarks, which is where many people who do live in an around the surrounding areas would be able to remember as the old ponders End police station next to the Kinder Garden Centre. Mr. Cordell states he knows the area very well as this is where he has lived all of his life, so he knew about the car park at the back of the two well-known landmarks, as he states you cannot park on the high road, because of the double yellow lines or other restrictions. He had parked there before, he states he believes and knows that the police saw his car as he began to take a right turn to be able to drive down to where he intended to stop, he knew the police had followed him, as he had seen them pay attention to himself as he had driven past. Mr. Cordell does clearly remember that of himself locking his vehicle as the police approached him and now was standing by his side. He states that this is normal for him and over the years of his life he has become use to the police approaching him for numerous accusations, so that has also made him used to their presents, Mr. Simon Cordell states that that this is so normal for him, so he got ready for the police procedures, as they said they wanted to search him and his car because the police believed that the car he was driving smelt strongly of cannabis, Mr. Simon Cordell sates that he would always consent to this. He is sure of his statements of facts and that the police cannot dispute this, that of the police officers that had approached him and who had stopped him as he had just got out of my car, or how would they have said his car smelt strongly of cannabis, which is the reason that the police officers gave him the conditions of search and their consent form due to a search of himself and that of his vehicle that he was driving. Mr. Simon Cordell will state; "that he had not done anything wrong and nothing was found on his person or in his car." Mr. Simon Cordell will dispute making any comments about being able to attract people to illegal raves and illegal 3-day events, what reason would he have had to say this. Mr. Simon Cordell will state to the applicant that he was a visitor to the location of interest, due to a call from a friend who asked if Mr. Simon Cordell could loan him some money for food. He will also include that he did not cause any Anti-Social Behaviour on the 24/05/2013 Mr. Simon Cordell does not know what Joshua said to the police, as he was never with Joshua. Mr. Simon Cordell does not know why Joshua would have said to the police that he was his lawyer, or if Joshua said this at all to the police. Mr. Simon Cordell has tried to get hold of Joshua to make a statement for this case, but due to him being homeless, it has been very hard. As far as he is aware the building was being occupied by people to live in, he states he does not know anything Joshua said to police about know any think about a rave. Mr. Simon Cordell did not manage to visit him on this day. At no point is Mr. Simon Cordell accused of acting in an anti-social manner on this date, or by any members of the public inclusive of members of the police, nor was he arrested.

"Same as Above"

Ponders End!

Helping, a homeless friend, in his time of need I got contacted by a friend, who was living at 204 High Street Ponders End EN3 4EZ: --

It must get Scary for those involved, who are the true instigators and ends up even scarier for those people that they truly, affect. This is the commencement off another day of my life that somehow got added wrongfully into the Anti-Social Behaviour Order case files, as perhaps, it got added in error by police. Part of the reason it got added in error is; Cases like this one can only get added into the on goings of the Anti-Social Behaviour Order case files or any other case files, as a case reference, as to the time limitation Act 1980, which states, a case must get applied six months from the incident, to which this case was not. It is incorrect for the police to allege, that on the 24/05/2013, and I was looking for venues in which to hold an illegal rave, so they or it could go ahead, I disputed their accusations at the time and still due to date, I knew that I never committed the crime, so I understood for them not to be true, and this got worse as a result of this not being me. I got contacted by a friend, who was living at 204 High Street Ponders End EN3 4EZ, also known as the Old Police Station at Ponders End, as he and some others, were homeless, so was living and living under a section 144 and needed money to get loaned to them, plus I in enjoyed being around them, so to do this, I headed towards 204 High Street, to park the vehicle I was driving. I decided the best option for me, was to drive down an alleyway that I always knew to be there, the reason I knew this, is that there was once upon a time a car park behind the two well-known landmarks, which were once and still are present. one of them buildings, has now got demolished, so that the land can get redeveloped and got known as the name of the old ponders End police station and the second building being named as the Kinder Garden Centre, I believe many people also probably, know the well-known landmarks, who may live in and around the surrounding areas, who could also be able to remember them. I personally understand the area well, as this is where I have lived all of my life, so I understood about the car park that was at the back of the two well-known landmarks. Being, from the area meant I also knew that no civilian drivers could park on the high road, because of the double yellow lines or other restrictions, what are or were in place, so I parked in the back-car park like I have done many times before. The police saw my car as I took a right turn to drive down to where I intended to stop; the police had followed me straight away after they see me, because I see them pay attention to me, as I drove past them. What I remember is that of myself locking the vehicle I was driving in as the police approached me. The police were now standing by my side, and this is normal for me, their presence is so normal. Where the police have pulled me over so many times before in an addition to this, I just got ready for their police procedures, as I knew that they would want to search me, I was right the police searched me and my car, the police said they done this because they thought that they smelt a strong smell of cannabis. As always, I consented to this search to proceed. The police cannot dispute this knowledge of them police officers that had approached me and who stopped me, as I just got out of my car, or how would they have said the car smelt strongly, of cannabis, and this is to explain, in their police statements, as they do. Even more to this, was the reason to why the police officers gave me the conditions of search and their consent form due to being searched by themselves. In an addition, there had been nothing done wrong with my part once everything got clarified to be true of me. When the official police officers, checked me and my car, I have done nothing wrong, so nothing ever got found. I emphasize, as an effect, to what took place, the police watched me leave straight after, completing their procedures, so as an effect of these on going's; after talking to the police, we all dispersed, and the police see me head back towards my home.

Please take note to the picture above and that of the building on the far right being the old police station, you cannot see the front vehicle entrance as it is in the far right of the picture and is the only entrance. The alleyway in the middle is where I drove my car down and stopped there is no rear entrance to the police station from the ally as there is two other running companies in-between and to the far right is another running company.

24.05.2013 = Mr Simon Cordell was looking for venues to set up an illegal rave

On the 24.05.2013

Mr Simon Cordell will state; "that he did not attend any premises on this date to rave neither was he involved in the organization of any illegal raves, nor did he supply equipment. This case was only added as a reference as the limitation Act 1980 which states that a case must be applied 6 months from the date of the incident, to which it was not. Please read my last statement dated the 24/02/2015.

It is alleged that Mr Simon Cordell was looking for venues in which illegal raves could be held, on 24/05/2013.

Mr Simon Cordell disputes this. Subject: Regina v. Simon Cordell for application to clarify bail conditions and vary bail conditions on 16/07/2013
Tuesday16th July 2013
Dear Sir or Madam
We act on behalf of our above-named client under the terms of a legal representation order. Our client's matter was listed at Woolwich Crown Court for a preliminary hearing and an application to vary our client's bail conditions. The Learned Judge on that occasion refused to deal with the application to vary bail and raised issues regarding why the surety was not present. He removed the surety requirement, and our understanding is that our client was admitted to bail on the same terms as before. A number of issues have now arisen as a result of this. Serco attended to insert an electronic tag, and this was never a condition of our client's bail when he was granted bail by Woolwich Crown Court but a curfew with a door step condition was imposed. Our client explained this to Serco who left. We clarified that this information was accurate by reviewing the advocate's attendance note from 10th July and also receiving verbal confirmation from Mr LEMOSA to further verify this. When our client went to report to Edmonton Police Station in compliance with his bail conditions, he was arrested for breaching his bail in that he refused Serco entry to install the electronic monitoring equipment. This was on 16/06/2013 13th July 2013 Fortunately, our client was able to produce a copy of the bail notice from Woolwich Crown Court and also a copy of the advocate's court attendance notes who attended on 13th July 2013. He was released. Ms Cordell contacted Serco and advised Jo badge number 3072 of this development and Serco will now wait until 16/07/2013 Tuesday 16th July 2013 to receive clarification from the court. Can you please list this case tomorrow? 16/07/2013 16th July 2013 in order that matters can be clarified. We thank you in advance for your assistance in this matter and we await clarification of this.

Yours faithfully
MICHAEL CARROLL & CO.

3 Si Note: The Facts - "I will now state the facts and they are that the police knew I could not have done any think of the sort too what they were saying and the errors on the police PNC database caused me to go to prison, and I fell victim to how I was being treated by the courts, because of what was being told to the judge by the police and CPS and, this is also inclusive of the time leading to how long the case had taken due to myself not getting disclosure from the police after the judge ordered it, we did not get disclosed until the trial date. The reason the prosecution would not give disclosure was it because they knew by giving me it, they would have got the case dismissed much earlier and this happened for reasons such as the information I and my family had obtained. I could do nothing with my company and lost loads of contracts due to the bail conditions I was under, knowing I had done nothing wrong so to get put under these conditions. Due to how much the police had kept tarnishing my life when I had not done anything wrong; this caused stress in my long-time relationship till we had to depart from one and other, as she and I could not know more of the police harassment. The case took over a year to deal with, as the CPS would not give the disclosed that me and my solicitors requested thought, this never got given after the judge had ordered it to happen himself, and he told the prosecution to provide us with our request. This case got dismissed in July 2014 and got acquitted before the trial could start. The facts of the gazebo case at Bianca Road are simple; the police knew I could have done nothing of the sort they themselves blamed me for. Errors on the police PNC database all about my criminal recorded had wrongfully caused me to go to prison and because of these issues I felt like a victim to how I was being treated, by the courts and this is to further put it another way, because of what got told to the judge by the police and the CPS, caused the period that this court case ended up getting left to eclipse for escalating to a far much longer time scale than ever would be necessary. Due to me not getting disclosed from the police even after the judge had ordered the information to get passed over, I still did not get given it in the timely manner that I had requested to get disclosed. The court case ended up taking much longer than a year until it got rightfully dropped. This meant that I was invariably on police bail conditions "curfew," wrongfully for over a year.

Changing to a different topic, I knew Debbie to have serious Mental Health problems, so I kept a reasonable close eye on her well-being within the time we got along, while this was going on, beforehand and after hand, at different times, Debbie used to come to mine and my first civil partner front door, asking to borrow money from us, as she did on this day at around the time of 01:33PM, she was always drunk with slurred words, this was not a big problem at first, on most occasions if me and my partner could help, “we would help,” this is as we believed any person should help their neighbors, like if we saw her trying to carry her shopping up to her flat, as the man; I would help her carry it up to her front door as assume this is the right action to take. Only once, did I ever go into her flat and this was only for five minutes to help her! I believe she’d only done these things to me because she was lonely, as can get read about in this report/ book, after me and my first civil partner ended, sadly on 03 July 2013 Debbie came down to my flat more and more frequently, she was trying to bring me alcoholic drinks and still asking me for money, in a summary, as if I was getting stalked by her, I never let Debbie inside my flat whenever she knocked on my front door. Sometimes, the hard liquor she would try to bring me, I believed, was in return for the money I supported her with, as previously said I would never take the drinks of her, this was because I do not drink alcoholic substances regularly. I always tried to do my best to advise her to stop buying hooch and spirits this was inclusive of asking her to stop drinking it. On the whole and shockingly mine and Debbie’s problems started soon after she had sent me numerous ID of peculiar letters, she had done this once she had realized that I was single. I still have those letters of her to date, most of them letters to invite me into her home and it seems from me reading them letters that most of them she had written had got done, while she got intoxicated with drink. For the right reasons, I kept our friendship as it had been for all the five years prior to what I had known her for, “as dated as” and politely declined her offers of a closer friendship. I remember this memory well, as I was going through the court proceedings of the burglary case, at the same time.

1 An Email from mother to my solicitor: About the Gazebo Case. - “Simon is trying to get some information for his case it comes under the Freedom of Information Act Request, but I really not sure how to go about it. This is the sort of information he is after All police call outs and CAD to HYMERLE Road SE15, Bianca Road SE15, Industrial Estate’s for reason of Squatting, Parties, noise abatement, criminal damage, Illegal Raves, Burglary, from 01/05/2012 Till 01/06/2013 Noise abatement orders and dates and council involvement which would cover the name of the council team that come out to the buildings, to these roads HAYMERLE Road SE15, Bianca Road SE15 Industrial Estate. All Police officers’ numbers that attended to these roads HAYMERLE Road SE15, Bianca Road SE15 Industrial Estate’s for dates 01/05/2012 Till 01/06/2013 He also wants the council person name who come with the police on the 04/06/2013 at around I am and talked to Simon and the people that was squatting the building, council office said the noise abatement order was still in place from the 16/02/2013 party, Council and police walked around the building to test the music levels and told Simon he had to keep within safe levels, and they let the party go on. 999 calls and calls that were made to the police due to the noise on the nights of the parties. Some notes here for you. We do know that the other party that went on there was on the 16/02/2013 and there was a next party the week after Simon did his on the 04/05/2013 so that would have been on the 11/05/2013 But over the last year there has been more parties held in that building and other units around it. There has also been squatting in the building for some time and again also other units within them roads. Still trying to get other dates of parties that were held there within the last year at the building, Simon sound system was hire in. Also, the writing on the wall in which they say Simon done the Burglary he wants someone to test it to show he never wrote it. Which will prove also he did not do that damage.”

Mr S Cordell A5698CY
HMP Wormwood Scrubs PO Box 757 Du Cane Road London W12 0AE
04/07/2013
Dear Mr Cordell
109 Burncroft Avenue Enfield EN3 7JQ
Notification of Suspension of Benefit Suspension of Housing Benefit
The law allows me to suspend your Housing Benefit payments in certain circumstances. I am writing to tell you that I have suspended payments from 08/07/2013 because we have been informed you are in prison.
Please confirm if you are on remand or have been sentenced. If you have been sentenced, please confirm the date you were sentenced. Please reply within one calendar month of the date of this letter or we will cancel your benefit. Any delay may mean that you lose some benefit.
If you are awarded any benefit it will start from the Monday following the date, I receive the form. If you want me to consider awarding you benefit back to the date you made your original claim, you must tell me when you want the claim to start from, and the reasons why you failed to give me the information I asked for with your previous application.
Claim Reference: 1623514
NI Reference: JH653811D
Rent Reference: 497630
Council Tax Account:55508596
Suspension of Council Tax Support
The law allows me to suspend council tax support payments in certain circumstances. I am writing to tell you that I have suspended your council tax support payments from 04/07/2013 because we have been advised you are in prison.
Applying for Further Help
If you wish to re-apply for further help to pay your rent based on your new circumstances, you can apply online at: www.enfield.gov.uk/benefitcalculator, within one month of the date of this letter. Any delay may mean that you lose some benefit.
Changes in your circumstances
If your circumstances change, you must tell us about them immediately. For example:
1. You start working or you earn more or less money.
2. Your benefits/tax credits change or are stopped.
3. You move home.
4. Your rent changes.
5. You go to stay with friends, family or go into hospital for more than 2 weeks.
6. You become a student or stop being a student.
7. Anyone comes to live with you, or someone moves out
8. Your savings change.
9. Your child leaves school or other education
10. You have a baby.
11. Someone dies.
12. Any other change which may affect your entitlement to benefit.
13. Someone else in your home has any of these changes.

If you don't tell us about a change, we may fine you or take legal action and you will have to pay back any money that you were not entitled to.
You can report a change in circumstance on our website at www.enfield.gov.uk/benefitsonline or by calling 020 8379 1000,
Alternatively, you can write to us telling us what has changed, when and if there has been a delay in telling us, why. You will also need to send evidence to support your claim. Further information is also available on our website www.enfield.gov.uk/benefits.
Right of Appeal for Housing Benefit
If you do not agree with the Housing Benefit decision, you must challenge it within one month of the date of this letter.
You can:

14. Ask us to explain our decision (by phoning 020 8379 1000)

15. Write and ask us to reconsider.

16. Write to us and ask for our decision to be looked at by the Independent Tribunal run by the Tribunal Service.

Your letter must be written in English, be signed by you and contain your name and address, the benefit you are appealing against and the grounds for your appeal. Please include any evidence that supports your appeal. Appeals about the income used in your Pension Credit Award will be forwarded to the Pension Credit Service as we are legally bound to use the figures, they give us.
If you disagree with a Local Council Tax Support Scheme decision
If you do not agree with the Council Tax Support Scheme decision, you do not have a formal right to appeal. However, you can still:
Ask us to explain our decision (by phoning 020 8379 1000)
Write and ask us to reconsider!
If you are still unhappy you can write to us to make a formal complaint

Your letter must be written in English, be received within one month of the date of this letter, be signed by you and give your name, address, grounds for reconsideration and any evidence.

4 Si Note: - On the 10/07/2013 I had to attend to the court, and this was for the case at Woolwich Crown Court for the gazebo case that took place at Bianca Road for my friend's Birthday party. While in the Courtroom it got said that my mother needed to attend to the court due to the surety she had placed down towards my bail, but on this day, she was in hospital, because she was having an operation. The judge was horrid towards me when he raised his points of law about my mother, who was acting as surety still and her not being at the courthouse, so for her to confirm the position of yet again surety! In the courthouse the judge got informed by me and my acting solicitor that my mother had not declined the positions of surety against me, from still being in place. My mother was in hospital and should never have got ordered by the acting judge; so that she must attend to court or I will get detained, as the surety is continuous from the prior occasions. The judge did not agree and said as the surety got taken at the police station, as ordered by the prior judge that she would need to attend court to reconfirm her position as surety. This is wrong in law and despite me putting a relevant authority; off Choudhry v Birmingham, at the Crown Court before his honor, which is clear on this point of law. Finally, and after much desiccation the judge accept that we were right, this got done by him to all of us present. After this debate the judge continued to say to my barrister that me; His client, has escaped custody by "the skin of his teeth." I was yet again, put in fear for my freedom being taken away from me and this got done for no fair reason. The court case then got put over for the trial date, which had got set to get heard.

Si Note:

On the 10/07/2013 I had to attend to the court, and this was for the case at Woolwich Crown Court for the gazebo case that took place at Bianca Road for my friend's Birthday party. While in the Courtroom it got said that my mother needed to attend to the court due to the surety she had placed down towards my bail, but on this day, she was in hospital, because she was having an operation. The judge was horrid towards me when he raised his points of law about my mother; who was acting as surety still and her not being at the courthouse, so for her to confirm the position of yet again surety! 1 113 Burncroft Avenue: Debra / Moving Bed Day! - “Debbie asked me to go into her bedroom: -- In the days to follow I noticed that outside of my flat, I could hear the wind howling through the streets, as the sun was trying to come out to play, while I was still trying to stay safe inside of my home. By this time Debra’s fire was nearly out, in this instance, Debra Andrews had knocked on my front door but instead of asking the normal question “like can she borrow some money” she had asked the question of whether I can help her by moving her bed out of her flat, I remember having to agree to help her, so I went upstairs to her flat for the first time and only time. When I entered, I noticed that she had been finding life hard, she had not managed to keep her flat to a high level of standard of hygiene and I could smell the odor of cider that she had been consuming, I politely hurried to complete the job that I had agreed to do for her then in hand and quickly made my way back home. After that day, I did always feel like she took an offence for not spending more of my time with her, as she knew I was a single man by then.

As for the Q and A records from PC Almy there is a lot he has lied about. Simon did say to him that he brought a job lot of 5 chairs and 5 gazebos, this is a fact. But he also said the Gazebo that was in his garden was brought from focus along with another thing he got for his kitchen. Also, none of the PC have said that me and Sheila was at the address we got there just after Simon let the police in this should have been noted and has not by any officer. I know they are meant to ask and note anyone that comes to the address when they are there. As for the Nokia phone I was the one that told the police I got it from Tesco for Simon. Also, no colleagues secured the dog. Simons put the dog out before he let the police in. Also, if you look at PC Almy statement where he said Simon was going to set the dog on them, then look at PC golden you see that both are saying something else if it was the case Simon had said he was going to set the dog on them it would have been in both statements. As should have been all the Q and A from PC Almy statements, why is it the case all this is only listed on 1 statement when all officers should have heard what was said. We also have the receipt from the guy at the party, I through Simon had given it to you the other day he must have forgotten. He is looking for the receipt from Focus still. But it must be somewhere at mine or his.

Please find attached copies of the following: Advance information. You will no doubt note that there is no detailed loser statement setting out the stock that was actually stolen, however there are a number of very unhelpful Q and As recorded in the statement of PC Almy. These were also signed by Simon. Can you please, as a matter of urgency locate the receipt for the gazebo in the garden so that we can deal with this issue at trial. I will need confirmation of this so that I can include this in the defence case statement. I am on annual leave as of 3pm today but I am hoping to access my email when I am away so, please feeling free to email me if there are any issues and questions that you have regarding this matter.

Please find attached copies of the following: Advance Information You will no doubt note that there is no detailed loser statement setting out the stock that was actually stolen, however there are a number of very unhelpful Q and A's recorded in the statement of PC Almy. These were also signed by Simon. Can you please as a matter of urgency locate the receipt for the gazebo in the garden so that we can deal with this issue at trial. I will need confirmation of this so that I can include this in the defence case statement. I am on annual leave as of 3pm today but I am hoping to access my email when I am away so please feel-free to email me if there are any issues and questions that you have regarding this matter.

3 My solicitor to the Woolwich Crown Court about the Gazebo Case: - "We act on behalf of our above-named client under the terms of a legal representation order. Our client's matter was listed at Woolwich Crown Court for a preliminary hearing and an application to vary our client's bail conditions. The Learned Judge on that occasion refused to deal with the application to vary bail and raised issues regarding why the surety was not present. He removed the surety requirement and our understanding is that our client was admitted to bail on the same terms as before. A number of issues have now arisen as a result of this. Serco attended to insert an electronic tag, and this was never a condition of our client's bail when he was granted bail by Woolwich Crown Court but a curfew with a doorstep condition was imposed. Our client explained this to Serco who left. We clarified that this information was accurate by reviewing the advocate's attendance note from 10th July and also receiving verbal confirmation from Mr. LEMOSA to further verify this. When our client went to report to Edmonton Police Station in compliance with his bail conditions, he was arrested for breaching his bail in that he refused Serco entry to install the electronic monitoring equipment. This was on 13th July 2013 Fortunately; our client was able to produce a copy of the bail notice from Woolwich Crown Court and also a copy of the advocate's court attendance notes who attended on 13th July 2013. He was released. Ms. Cordell contacted Serco and advise Jo badge number 3072 of this development and Serco will now wait until Tuesday 16th July 2013 to receive clarification from the court. Can you please list this case tomorrow? 16th July 2013 in order that matters can be clarified. We thank you in advance for your assistance in this matter and we await clarification of this."

6 An Email to my solicitor: The Gazebo Case - "As for the Q and A records from PC Almy there is a lot he has lied about. Simon did say to him that he brought a job lot of 5 chairs and 5 gazebos this is a fact. But he also said the Gazebo that was in his garden was brought from focus along with another thing he got for his kitchen. Also, none of the PC have said that me and Sheila was at the address we got there just after Simon let the police in this should have been noted and has not by any officer. I know they are meant to ask and note anyone that comes to the address when they are there. As for the Nokia phone I was the one that told the police I got it from Tesco for Simon. Also, no colleagues secured the dog Simons put the dog out before he let the police in. Also, if you look at PC Almy statement where he said Simon was going to set the dog on them, then look at PC golden you see that both are saying something else if it was the case Simon had said he was going to set the dog on them it would have been in both statements. As should have been all the Q and A from PC Almy statements why is it the case all this is only listed on 1 statement when all officers should have heard what was said. We also have the receipt from the guy at the party, I through Simon had given it to you the other day he must have forgot. He is looking for the receipt from Focus still. But it must be somewhere at mine or his. PS when we Simon know the time for the listing in court tomorrow do you know yet."

  1 An Email to my solicitor: The Gazebo Case - "Look really sorry to bother you on holiday, I tried to get Michael to deal with this, but he seemed to get very upset. Today we went to Woolwich crown court; the judge did not leave the curfew as you said they may not have when we last talked. But the bail conditions were sorted as far as I was aware, curfew with doorstep as before. I even got the guy that was sent to get the bail printed out for me which I will add to this email. I later today called Serco to make sure the tag had been lifted but again they told me the court had again said he was on tag, so I called the court and I got a rude lady who said Well that's the order I have in front of me when I told her what I had she then replied that well you need to get your solicitors to re list it. I told her that was why it was listed for today, but she was still being rude and unhelpful. After I called the office and talked to someone and they called the guy that come to court for Simon, he also told your office it was doorstep. I was told that due to us having the letter from the court that Simon should not let the tag go on. Worried this was when I called Michael to be honest, he did not seem to care and said something I was not happy with. He said this was your case and he was fucking going to email you to find out what the fuck was going on. I told him not to that you were on holiday he said that does not matter you and your husband are not getting on and you would be happy for the email. I am not hiding the way in which Michael talked to me in fact he was just trying to say tell Simon to put the tag on as it did not matter. And really, I think he was thinking that it was a tag from the start as I sure he was not hearing me right. Should I tell Simon to put the Tag on or not as far as Simon said when I told him what Woolwich had done, he said he was not going to let them put the tag on this is causing me so much headache. And I know they will just arrest him like they tried to do the other day. So, I don't know what to do for the best. But I am really not happy how Michael talked to me. I am sorry to have to email you on holiday this should be some time to enjoy yourself and you do need that with the hours you do."

Hi Jose
Look really sorry to bother you on holiday, I tried to get Michael to deal with this, but he seemed to get very upset. Today we went to Woolwich crown court; the judge did not leave the curfew as you said they may not have when we last talked. But the bail conditions were sorted as far as I was aware, curfew with doorstep as before. I even got the guy that was sent to get the bail printed out for me which I will add to this email. I later today called Serco to make sure the tag had been lifted but again they told me the court had again said he was on tag, so I called the court, and I got a rude lady who said Well that's the order I have in front of me when I told her what I had she then replied that well you need to get your solicitors to re list it. As for the Q and A records from PC Almy there is a lot he has lied about. Simon did say to him that he brought a job lot of 5 chairs and 5 gazebos this is a fact. But he also said the Gazebo that was in his garden was brought from focus along with another thing he got for his kitchen. Also, none of the PC have said that me and Sheila was at the address we got there just after Simon let the police in this should have been noted and has not by any officer. I know they are meant to ask and note anyone that comes to the address when they are there. As for the Nokia phone I was the one that told the police I got it from Tesco for Simon. Also, no colleagues secured the dog Simons put the dog out before he let the police in. Also, if you look at PC Almy statement where he said Simon was going to set the dog on them, then look at PC golden you see that both are saying something else if it was the case Simon had said he was going to set the dog on them it would have been in both statements. As should have been all the Q and A from PC Almy statements why is it the case all this is only listed on 1 statement when all officers should have heard what was said. We also have the receipt from the guy at the party, I through Simon had given it to you the other day he must have forgot. He is looking for the receipt from Focus still. But it must be somewhere at mine or his.

Lorraine
PS when we Simon know the time for the listing in court tomorrow do you know yet.

Please find attached copies of the following: Advance Information You will no doubt note that there is no detailed loser statement setting out the stock that was actually stolen, however there are a number of very unhelpful Q and As recorded in the statement of PC Almy. These were also signed by Simon. Can you please as a matter of urgency locate the receipt for the gazebo in the garden so that we can deal with this issue at trial. I will need confirmation of this so that I can include this in the defence case statement. I am on annual leave as of 3pm today but I am hoping to access my email when I am away so please feel-free to email me if there are any issues and questions that you have regarding this matter.

Disrepair!
The accommodations that I perpetuate to get supplied with by the Enfield Homes and Enfield Council are supposed to get keep to a fair living standard and do not. I must get made to be equal to other people as should they get made to live to a set high standard. All people equalling to that of a superior level of accommodation, when agreed to be in support of supplied services but I get let down with my disrepair quandaries still staying in the same bad condition as when I reported them as to my landlords as dysfunctional!

Subject: RE: Wrongful conviction and request to set aside the conviction and reopen the case
Dear Sir or Madam
I am writing this letter as I still do not have a court date to clear this matter up and I still have points on my licence which I should not have due to this. I do understand that in your reply to my email you had a backlog but had passed on the paper to have the case re opened. It has been some time and I have not heard anything about this and wonder if you can check into this and find out how long it will take to get a new date from the court.
Yours faithfully
Simon Cordell

Dear Mr Cordell,

I am in receipt of your email; these have been printed off and passed to the reopening section to deal with. There is a backlog due to the huge number of requests to reopen, but you will hear from someone in due course.
regards,
Andrea (admin officer in Thames Customer Service dept)

Subject: Wrongful conviction and request to set aside the conviction and reopen the case
Dear Sir or Madam
I have emailed your court on a number of occasions regarding my conviction and sentence for no insurance. I am making this request to have my case listed in order that I can do the following;:
1.Application to set aside the conviction
2. Reopen the case
Application to set aside the conviction: On 22nd July 2012
I was stopped and given a producer by the police as they did not believe that I held a valid policy of insurance. I attended the police station, and I was advised that my case would be going to court and I would be summonsed in due course. I never received any summons in relation to this matter and I only became aware that the case had been dealt with in my absence when I received a letter from the DVLA advising me that I had to send in my driving licence. I disputed with the DVLA the points, but I was given an ultimatum that if I did not send in my licence, it would be revoked. I therefore had no choice but to send in my licence. I immediately contacted the Court by telephone and I was advised to send an email. I sent in a number of emails, and I have been given a number of emails but I have not received any confirmation from the court. I forwarded a copy of my insurance policy to the court and again this was ignored. The offence of no insurance was allegedly committed on 22nd July 2012 I had a valid policy of insurance from 23rd March 2012 and this policy was valid until 22nd February 2013 the company insuring me was Tradex Insurance Company Limited. I am the named policy holder, Mr. Simon Cordell and my policy number are L/WST/MTP/0192359. I have points on my licence which I should not have. Can you please as a matter of urgency email me back on this matter so that I can have a date so that the conviction can be set aside, and my case heard in order that I can show the court my insurance and the PLO can make the necessary enquiries. Once this has happened, I would be grateful if the court could email the DVLA to advise them that the points have been issued in error and the fine be set aside also. This matter is urgent and is dragging on. I cannot resolve this matter until the case is listed before either a District Judge or Magistrates so I would appreciate your cooperation. I am very disappointed that you have ignored all my emails. This is causing me stress. Can you now please resolve this legal mater by listing the case for an application to set aside the conviction? I can then forward my documents to the relevant prosecuting authority. I await hearing from you in relation to this matter and I thank you in advance for your anticipated co-operation in this matter.
114,
Yours faithfully
Simon Cordell

2 Housing Benefit Notification: - "I am writing this letter after a letter I got dated 18/07/2013 about my housing benefit and council tax being suspended from the 08/07/2013 due to you getting information as to me being in prison. I was remanded to prison for I day and was released on the 28/06/2013. I did call your offices on the 16/07/2013 to ask if my benefits for housing and council tax were still being paid due to me just finding out my D WP payments had been stopped. I was told on this date they were still being paid and the lady my mum spoke to on the phone told her that due to me having some issue I could get council tax reduction due to mental impairment and that the Lady would send out the paperwork. I have put an appeal into the DWP about my claim being stopped and I am waiting to hear from them. Since I got released from prison after one day on the 28/06/2013 I have had nothing to live on I have not got any food or gas or electricity at my address for the last few days as it has now run out and I have no way to live until the DWP looks at my appeal. I called the DWP today 24/07/2013 to see if there is any update on my claim and have been told as of to date there is no update. But they should have something in the next few days, I told them I have no way to live but they cannot speed anything up. They got my letter on the 19/07/2013 but it has yet to be scanned into their system. I am therefore asking if my housing benefit and council tax can be put back into place so there are no missing payments within my claim."

Disrepair!

All of my personal paraphernalia are suffering as well as am I due to the damp in my flat, but the Enfield Homes and the Enfield Council do not act accordingly to their own stationary policies and regulations or I would not get made to suffer like the way I do when living in my rented home, how can I get left without any working heating system for so long of a time!

  Please find attached copies of the following: Advance Information. You will no doubt note that there is no detailed loser statement setting out the stock that was actually stolen, however there are a number of very unhelpful Q and As recorded in the statement of PC Almy. These were also signed by Simon. Can you please as a matter of urgency locate the receipt for the gazebo in the garden so that we can deal with this issue at trial. I will need confirmation of this so that I can include this in the defence case statement. I am on annual leave as of 3pm today but I am hoping to access my email when I am away so please feel-free to email me if there are any issues and questions that you have regarding this matter.

1 An Email from my solicitor: The Gazebo Case - "Winchester Crown Court This case is in the warned list for 29th August 2013 I am still waiting for Simon to provide witnesses who can corroborate the negotiations between Simon and the "seller" Woolwich Crown Court The main problem in this case is that Simon is unhappy that he is subject to an electronic curfew. As you are aware, I did not request a curfew as I knew that this problem would arise. He was initially given a doorstep curfew, but the Judge changed this to an electronic curfew. This is the preferable option as it is a qualifying curfew and counts half a day towards any custodial sentence, if convicted. The Judge did state an electronic tag as the clerk checked the tapes for what was said. The Judge is within his rights to do this as he will view this as relieving a burden in terms of manpower from the police. I cannot challenge this as it is still a curfew. Bail variation: Simon has to be realistic in terms of what we can achieve here. One of my obligations as a solicitor is to manage a client's expectations. I will of course make an application to vary Simon's bail conditions but as I stated before I will require emails from Simon from clients requesting that he cover events with quotes given by Simon as to how much he will charge. The smartest way to attempt to get Simon's bail varied is to ask for certain dates as opposed to lifting the curfew altogether as the Judge will not do this. If Simon persists in stating that he is not allowed to work and earn his living then Simon will then have to complete a change in financial circumstances statements for both the Woolwich case and the Winchester case and the court will have to assess his monthly contributions for both cases. At present he does not have to make a contribution as he is in receipt of benefits. I can only properly challenge the evidence in this case when I receive the case papers and then make my requests for secondary disclosure. The court would then be more amenable to an application to remove the conditions of bail. I am sorry that Simon feels that his case is not being handled properly. I sent Simon a client care letter at the commencement of this case outlining the complaints procedure. I do not believe that Michael was aware of the calls made by Simon to the office. I tried to deal with Simon's case personally and usually I do. e.g., Going to Birmingham Police Station in 2012, attending home address after his remand from Camberwell Green Magistrates Court to draft bail application. I am not sure what happened when I was on annual leave but based on your email it appears that the complaint should be directed against me as I am the fee earner and I am meant to supervise case workers. Michael is the Principal of the Firm and not the fee earner on this case. The case workers knew I was contactable by email and did not contact me. Michael Carroll has had no dealings with this case. (Since returning from annual leave I have dealt with 2 complex rapes, 3 GBH and a police station duty to date. I did intend to call at your address this weekend, but I was on duty and I had to deal with a complex rape at Colindale on Sunday. This case lasted all day. I can only apologise for this.) If you do not believe that Michael can investigate and deal with your complaint then I must now advise you to address your complaint regarding this matter to EDEL SPEIRITS at the West London office. Her email is edel@michaelcarrollandco.com. If you are not satisfied with her resolution of the complaint, then you can then proceed to complain to the Ombudsman. I am sorry that Simon feels this way and I am sorry that you are disappointed in my conduct of this case. I will forward this email to Michael Carroll in the morning but if you decide over night that you do not want Michael involved in the complaint and want to include him in the complaint then please confirm this so that I can forward your email to EDEL SPEIRITS.

55 JOSEPHINE Ward _Simon's case
From: JOSEPHINE WARD [josephinewardsolicitor@gmail.com]
Sent: 07 August 2013 22:10

Hi Lorraine
Winchester Crown Court This case is in the warned list for 29th August 2013 I am still waiting for Simon to provide witnesses who can corroborate the negotiations between Simon and the "seller" Woolwich Crown Court The main problem in this case is that Simon is unhappy that he is subject to an electronic curfew. As you are aware, I did not request a curfew as I knew that this problem would arise. He was initially given a doorstep curfew, but the Judge changed this to an electronic curfew. This is the preferable option as it is a qualifying curfew and counts half a day towards any custodial sentence, if convicted. The Judge did state an electronic tag as the clerk checked the tapes for what was said. The Judge is within his rights to do this as he will view this as relieving a burden in terms of manpower from the police. I cannot challenge this as it is still a curfew.

Bail variation:

Simon has to be realistic in terms of what we can achieve here. One of my obligations as a solicitor is to manage a client's expectations. I will of course make an application to vary Simon's bail conditions but as I stated before I will require emails from Simon from clients requesting that he cover events with quotes given by Simon as to how much he will charge. The smartest way to attempt to get Simon's bail varied is to ask for certain dates as opposed to lifting the curfew altogether as the Judge will not do this. If Simon persists in stating that he is not allowed to work and earn his living then Simon will then have to complete a change in financial circumstances statements for both the Woolwich case and the Winchester case and the court will have to assess his monthly contributions for both cases. At present he does not have to make a contribution as he is in receipt of benefits. I can only properly challenge the evidence in this case when I receive the case papers and then make my requests for secondary disclosure. The court would then be more amenable to an application to remove conditions of bail. I am sorry that Simon feels that his case is not being handled properly. I sent Simon a client care letter at the commencement of this case outlining the complaints procedure. I do not believe that Michael was aware of the calls made by Simon to the office. I tried to deal with Simon's case personally and usually I do. e.g., Going to Birmingham Police Station in 2012, attending home address after his remand from Camberwell Green Magistrates Court to draft bail application. 2 An Email from my solicitor: The Gazebo Case - "Please see the barrister's back sheet from the 16th of July 2013. This should have been forwarded onto you and would have been by me if it had been emailed to me in Bulgaria. Case workers are not allowed to send over any paperwork on any client file without prior authorisation from the Solicitor with conduct, namely me. I cannot criticise the case workers for this as I am pretty strict on this. If this had been emailed over to me in Bulgaria, then I would have emailed on it but as I was on annual leave the case workers viewed this as nonurgent as the Judge refused to vary the conditions. I am also emailing you the client care letter again which outlines the complaints procedure. PS As indicated when the case papers are served and the secondary disclosure served then it may be possible to make a further attempt to vary bail but at this stage, I do not believe that the Court will entertain it."

Dear Lorraine / Simon
I am in the process of getting Simon's correspondence bundle scanned so that this can be emailed to you and Michael Carroll / EDEL SPEIRITS. Unfortunately, as Simon has raised a complaint and is considering contacting the Legal Ombudsman then this will now have to be resolved as a matter of urgency. I need confirmation as to whether Simon wants Michael himself, or Edel to investigate the complaint. Again, if Simon can confirm this in writing please so that I can get this matter resolved, hopefully to the satisfaction of all parties. I understand that you are saying that Simon does not have a problem with me, but I am the designated fee earner on the file and as such I have the overall responsibility, the buck stops with me. The case papers have arrived this morning and I will scan and email you a copy before the close of business today. Can you please confirm dates when Simon will be available to attend the office to give his instructions on the case papers so that a defence case statement can be prepared?
Lorraine unfortunately I cannot now deal with Simon's case until his complaint has been resolved and another case worker will have to be resolved in the interim. Please confirm the name of the person you want this investigate this matter by return email.

yep, can you pick it up as Simon already left to go home so is not here now. Also, I got for to say I sent the letters over for Tyrone the pc has replied to say she got it the probation has not yet replied. But Tyrone failed his Drugs test today, so I do not know what is going to go on now he has been off of it since he went to court but it still showed up in his system. The person who did the test wants to help Tyrone or so she says Tyrone said before all this went on about Br, he was doing so well to her and passing all the drugs test since all this with Br he was so depressed he started again.

11 An Email from my solicitor: The Gazebo Case - "I am in the process of getting Simon's correspondence bundle scanned so that this can be emailed to you and Michael Carroll / EDEL SPEIRITS. Unfortunately, as Simon has raised a complaint and is considering contacting the Legal Ombudsman then this will now have to be resolved as a matter of urgency. I need confirmation as to whether Simon wants Michael himself, or Edel to investigate the complaint. Again, if Simon can confirm this in writing, please so that I can get this matter resolved, hopefully to the satisfaction of all parties. I understand that you are saying that Simon does not have a problem with me, but I am the designated fee earner on the file and as such I have the overall responsibility, the buck stops with me. The case papers have arrived this morning and I will scan and email you a copy before the close of business today. Can you please confirm the dates when Simon will be available to attend the office to give his instructions on the case papers so that a defence case statement can be prepared? Lorraine unfortunately I cannot now deal with Simon's case until his complaint has been resolved and another case worker will have to be resolved in the interim. Please confirm the name of the person you want to investigate this matter by return email.

1 An Email from my solicitor: The Gazebo Case - Dear Lorraine / Simon Thank you for your telephone call today. I am copying Michael Carroll into this email as he is now overseeing and monitoring all the work that I undertake in this case to ensure that I am preparing your case properly and to your satisfaction and complying with your instructions. I set out below the main content of our conversation but if I have left anything out, please come back to me as soon as possible. INSTRUCTIONS: Simon, you confirmed that your benefits had been suspended and you did not have the funds to attend the police station every day. You stated that Edmonton Police Station is a 2-mile walk from where you currently live. You have asked me to make an application to remove this bail condition. Secondly, you have asked that your curfew be suspended for an up-and-coming festival in Enfield. Thirdly, you have asked me to consider the merits of making an application to dismiss the charges against you based on the fact that you entered a building that was being squatted in and therefore you were not a trespasser. Fourthly you stated that the photographs sent to you were of poor quality and were in black and white. Fifth, you complained that the barrister did not present your case properly. Six, you requested your case papers from the Winchester case. I will deal with each of the points that you have raised and the agreed action. Point (1) I can make this application to remove the reporting the condition. I can source a map from the internet to show the distance and I can also show bus prices on an Oyster card £2.80 per day in fares as I assume only one bus is required. If I am wrong in this assumption, can you please confirm by email the number of buses and the routes that the buses take at your earliest convenience. Can you also please ask your mother to email over the letters that you have sent to the Benefits Agency appealing and requesting the reinstatement of your benefits as this will assist my application. Point (2) Again I can make an application to suspend your curfew on the dates of the festival but again I need the documentation from the Council regarding this to support your application. Point (3) I will have to consider this point in more detail but if I can illustrate an analogy to you which I believe that the Judge will also use. Your case is that you were not a trespasser when you entered the building due to notices on both buildings which confirmed they were legal squats. You may well be right. The law on burglary consists of entry to a building or part of a building, as a trespasser with intent to either steal item, cause GBH or doing unlawful damage or actually does any of the aforementioned. I will deal with the trespass point first. The notices in relation to the legal squat may well highlight that you were not a trespasser when you entered. (I confess that I need to research this point) I think that we can also agree that the squatters were not the owners of the building and had not made any claim for adverse possession. I have included some information on adverse possession for your ease of reference at the end of this email. Even if we can establish that you had a right to be in the building it does not follow that you had a right to any of the contents. These would still remain the property of the owner unless you can provide me with the relevant section / legislation / case law. There are a number of instances when a person can enter premises initially by invitation but once they do an act contrary to the right of entry, they then become a trespasser. i.e., a customer in a shop reaching over the counter and taking a sales assistant's purse / phone. This is burglary because the person has stolen property (a) that was not for sale (b) that was in a part of the building where the public did not have access. The other stumbling block to an application to dismiss is your police interview. You accept presence and you accept purchasing items of garden furniture from a male called Mohammed. You state that you have a receipt. This is a trial point and one to be left to the jury as to whether you believed that Mohammed was lawfully entitled to sell the goods to you. Whilst considering this please bear in mind that although the notices allowed entry once

Mohammed assumed the rights of the owner by disposing of the property and selling it, he then arguably became a trespasser. I am not concerned about the damage caused to the building as you state that this was caused on a previous occasion so I should be able to establish this from the CPS in my disclosure requests in your defence case statement. Point (4) I can easily remedy this issue by bringing the photographs with me when I attend your mother's address near the end of next week. I will confirm the day closer to the time and I am grateful for your consideration and understanding that I cannot at this stage give you a fixed appointment. As you are no doubt aware my diary varies from day to day and emergencies do arise. Point (5) Unfortunately I am only made aware of problems when clients tell me they are unhappy. I forwarded the correspondence bundle to your mother which demonstrated how much work I have actually undertaken in your case to date, both during social and unsocial house and even when I have been on annual leave. Point (6) I will email the case papers over on the Winchester case under separate email as this is a separate case. NEXT ACTION REQUIRED BY YOU: 1. Emails to Benefits Agency are appealing and requesting reinstatement of your Benefits 2. Documentation re negotiations with Enfield Council and confirmation of date when the festival will take place. 3. Receipt from Focus confirming that the gazebo in the back garden of your property was not stolen. 4. List of witnesses present when you purchased the garden furniture 5. Receipt for the garden furniture - I hope that this email clarifies the information that I require. NEXT ACTION BY MICHAEL CARROLL & CO. Once I receive the above information, I will email the Crown Court and the CPS, and I will request an urgent application to remove the reporting conditions on the grounds of financial hardship. I will confirm a visit nearer the end of next week in order that you can see the color photographs. I will confirm with the barrister that they are happy to use black and white pictures and if this is the case, I will give you the color set. Should you have any further questions then please email me back so that I can assist you further. Regards Josephine PS Below I have attached some information regarding the law of adverse possession The new regime – a brief overview Prior to the coming into force of the LRA 2002, a squatter could acquire the right to be registered as proprietor of a registered estate if they had been in adverse possession of the land for a minimum of 12 years. However, the doctrine of adverse possession did not fit easily with the concept of indefeasibility of title that underlies the system of land registration. Nor could it be justified by the uncertainties as to ownership which can arise where land is unregistered; The legal estate is vested in the registered proprietor and they are identified in the register. The LRA 2002 has created a new regime that applies only to registered land. This new regime is set out in Schedule 6 to the Act. It makes it more likely that a registered proprietor will be able to prevent an application for adverse possession of their land being completed. The following paragraphs provide a brief overview of the new regime. The remaining sections of this guide discuss it in more detail. Adverse possession of registered land for 12 years of itself will no longer affect the registered proprietor's title. After 10 years' adverse possession, the squatter will be entitled to apply to be registered as proprietor in place of the registered proprietor of the land. On such an application being made the registered proprietor (and certain other people interested in the land) will be notified and given the opportunity to oppose the application. If the application is not opposed1, the squatter will be registered as proprietor in place of the registered proprietor of the land. If the application is opposed, it will be rejected unless either: it would be unconscionable because of an equity by estoppel for the registered proprietor to seek to dispossess the squatter and the squatter ought in the circumstances to be registered as proprietor the squatter is for some other reason entitled to be registered as proprietor, or the squatter has been in adverse possession of land adjacent to their own under the mistaken but reasonable belief that they are the owner of it, the exact line of the boundary with this adjacent land has not been determined and the estate to which the application relates was registered more than a year prior to the date of the application. In the event that the application is rejected but the squatter remains in adverse possession for a further two years, they will then be able, subject to certain exceptions, to reapply to be registered as proprietor and this time will be so registered whether or not anyone opposes the application. I by 'opposed' we mean that a counter notice is served; See section 8 Giving counter notice to the registrar in response to notice. Instead, or at the same time, the registered proprietor may object to the application on the ground that there has not been the necessary 10 years' adverse possession; see section 7 Objecting to the squatter's application for the implications of such an objection.

Fifth, you complained that the barrister did not present your case properly.

Six, you requested your case papers from the Winchester case. I will deal with each of the points that you have raised and the agreed action.

Point (1) I can make this application to remove the reporting the condition. I can source a map from the internet to show the distance and I can also show bus prices on an Oyster card £2.80 per day in fares as I assume only one bus is required. Point (4) I can easily remedy this issue by bringing the photographs with me when I attend your mother's address near the end of next week. I will confirm the day closer to the time and I am grateful for your consideration and understanding that I cannot at this stage give you a fixed appointment. As you are no doubt aware my diary varies from day to day and emergencies do arise.
Point (5) Unfortunately I am only made aware of problems when clients tell me they are unhappy. I forwarded the correspondence bundle to your mother which demonstrated how much work I have actually undertaken in your case to date, both during social and unsocial house and even when I have been on annual leave.
Point (6) I will email the case papers over on the Winchester case under separate email as this is a separate case.
NEXT ACTION REQUIRED BY YOU:
1. Emails to Benefits Agency re appealing and requesting reinstatement of your Benefits
2. Documentation re negotiations with Enfield Council and confirmation of date when festival will take place.
3. Receipt from Focus confirming that the gazebo in the back garden of your property was not stolen.
4. List of witnesses present when you purchased the garden furniture
5. Receipt for the garden furniture
I hope that this email clarifies the information that I require.
NEXT ACTION BY MICHAEL CARROLL & CO.
Once I receive the above information, I will email the Crown Court and the CPS, and I will request an urgent application to remove the reporting conditions on the grounds of financial hardship.
140,
I will confirm a visit nearer the end of next week in order that you can see the colour photographs. I will confirm with the barrister that they are happy to use black and white pictures and if this is the case, I will give you the colour set. Should you have any further questions then please email me back so that I can assist you further.

Josephine
PS Below I have attached some information regarding the law of adverse possession.
The new regime – a brief overview Prior to the coming into force of the LRA 2002, a squatter could acquire the right to be registered as proprietor of a registered estate if they had been in adverse possession of the land for a minimum of 12 years. However, the doctrine of adverse possession did not fit easily with the concept of indefeasibility of title that underlies the system of land registration. Nor could it be justified by the uncertainties as to ownership which can arise where land is unregistered; the legal estate is vested in the registered proprietor, and they are identified in the register. The LRA 2002 has created a new regime that applies only to registered land. This new regime is set out in Schedule 6 to the Act. It makes it more likely that a registered proprietor will be able to prevent an application for adverse possession of their land being completed. The following paragraphs provide a brief overview of the new regime; the remaining sections of this guide discuss it in more detail. Adverse possession of registered land for 12 years of itself will no longer affect the registered proprietor's title. After 10 years' adverse possession, the squatter will be entitled to apply to be registered as proprietor in place of the registered proprietor of the land. On such an application being made the registered proprietor (and certain other persons interested in the land) will be notified and given the opportunity to oppose the application. If the application is not opposed1, the squatter will be registered as proprietor in place of the registered proprietor of the land. If the application is opposed, it will be rejected unless either: it would be unconscionable because of an equity by estoppel for the registered proprietor to seek to dispossess the squatter and the squatter ought in the circumstances to be registered as proprietor the squatter is for some other reason entitled to be registered as proprietor, or the squatter has been in adverse possession of land adjacent to their own under the mistaken but reasonable belief that they are the owner of it, the exact line of the boundary with this adjacent land has not been determined and the estate to which the application relates was registered more than a year prior to the date of the application. In the event that the application is rejected but the squatter remains in adverse possession for a further two years, they will then be able, subject to certain exceptions, to reapply to be registered as proprietor and this time will be so registered whether or not anyone opposes the

1 By 'opposed' we mean that a counter notice is served; see section 8 Giving counter notice to the registrar in response to notice. Instead, or at the same time, the registered proprietor may object to the application on the ground that there has not been the necessary 10 years' adverse possession; see section 7 Objecting to the squatter's application for the implications of such an objection.

Thank you for the information I am meeting my electrician tomorrow 06/08/2013 where I should get the information that you will need as to all the power cables needed and if we have them in stock or will need to be hire in. The electrical certificate for the Generator you will need to be handed in for the event, and the public liability for the space ball. All of this will be addressed this week, and I will forward you all the information you need and any think that maybe of help for your event.

I sent over a number of emails this weekend which I will try to forward over to you from my trash box. Re: application to remove reporting condition. I confirm that I have lodged this application already. Re: application to suspend curfew for 25th and 26th August 2013 Simon, I have requested written confirmation from Omar Lawrence that you have been awarded the contract together with the particulars of the contract as the Court will undoubtedly ask for this information. There is also a risk that the Court / Police will check that the contract is genuine, and this may well entail telephoning Omar Lawrence to check the details. It is not unusual for the court to check bail addresses by analogy, so I am merely putting you on notice of this fact. I will not have any control over the information that is provided by the police to Mr. Omar Lawrence, but they will have to identify themselves as police officers and this may raise questions about why police are making these enquiries. Your mother has explained that you may lose the contract as a result of this and unfortunately, I do not have any control over this. The options therefore available to you are as follows: (1) Attend the festival during the curfew hours and then go home (2) Apply to the court to vary the electronic curfew and request that the court do not disclose details of your criminal history or current court case. However, Mr. Lawrence may well wonder why an enquiry has been made (3) Do not make any application and take your chances this is not advised as you will be arrested for breaching your bail and there is a high risk of remand to prison until the conclusion of your case (4) Discuss the matter with Omar Lawrence beforehand so that he is aware, and he can confirm this in the email to the court. The risk with this is that he may use you for this festival but may seek an alternative resource next year (5) The final option of course is not to make the application and attend in person during your curfew hours and get an alternative person who you trust to look after your equipment overnight on 25th August 2013 This option allows you to retain the potential for further contracts via your company, ensures that future clients are not aware of your previous criminal history and will also safeguard any future contracts with Enfield Council. Clearly this is a matter that you need to consider very carefully and weigh up the pros and cons of each option. I am aware how important this festival is to you and your business. If you decide to make the application to vary bail, then I will need the following from you by 15th August 2013: 1. Letter from Omar Lawrence that you are hired for the festival I will need this information by 15th August as the court and CPS will require 5 days to agree the matter administratively, failing which I will ask for a fixed hearing on 22nd Or 23rdAugust 2013 I await your instructions with regards to the above matter. I have confirmed to your mother that I will require your instructions in writing. Should you have any questions then please do not hesitate to contact me. Dear Simon / Lorraine
Simon it is my understanding that your mother is having internet difficulties at present. I sent over a number of emails this weekend which I will try to forward over to you from my trash box.
Re: application to remove reporting condition. I confirm that I have lodged this application already.
Re: application to suspend curfew for 25th and 26th August 2013 Simon, I have requested written confirmation from Omar Lawrence that you have been awarded the contract together with the particulars of the contract as the Court will undoubtedly ask for this information. There is also a risk that the Court / Police will check that the contract is genuine, and this may well entail telephoning Omar Lawrence to check the detail. It is not unusual for the court to check bail addresses by analogy, so I am merely putting you on notice of this fact. (4) Discuss the matter with Omar Lawrence beforehand so that he is aware, and he can confirm this in the email to the court. The risk with this is that he may use you for this festival but may seek an alternative resource next year.
(5) The final option of course is not to make the application and attend in person during your curfew hours and get an alternative person who you trust to look after your equipment overnight on 25th August 2013
This option allows you to retain the potential for further contracts via your company, ensures that future clients are not aware of your previous criminal history and will also safeguard any future contracts with Enfield Council. Dear Sir or Madam
We continue to act on behalf of our above-named client under the terms of a legal representation order. Our client has instructed us to make an application to vary his bail conditions so that the reporting condition is removed in its entirety, and if an alternative bail condition is required then his mother is willing to stand surety.
£1,000.
We attach the following:
(1) Reasons for application
(2) Notice of application for court to consider bail
(3) Map printed from internet supporting the distance from the client's address to the local police station. We also add that £19.60 represents 40% of his benefits when they are re-instated, and this will cause our client financial hardship.
We would be grateful if you oppose this application that a representative is available for the application to be determined in Court on 16th August 2013.
We thank you in advance for your assistance in this matter.
Yours faithfully
MICHAEL CARROLL & CO.

at Woolwich Crown Court
Dear Lorraine / Simon
Thank you for your telephone call today. I am copying Michael Carroll into this email as he is now overseeing and monitoring all the work that I undertake in this case to ensure that I am preparing your case properly and to your satisfaction and complying with your instructions. I set out below the main content of our conversation but if I have left anything out, please come back to me as soon as possible.
163,
INSTRUCTIONS:
Simon, you confirmed that your benefits had been suspended and you did not have the funds to attend the police station every day. You stated that Edmonton Police Station is a 2-mile walk from where you currently live. You have asked me to make an application to remove this bail condition.
Secondly, you have asked that your curfew be suspended for an up-and-coming festival in Enfield.
Thirdly, you have asked me to consider the merits of making an application to dismiss the charges against you based on the fact that you entered a building that was being squatted in and therefore you were not a trespasser.
Fourthly you stated that the photographs sent to you were of poor quality and were in black and white.
Fifth, you complained that the barrister did not present your case properly.
Six, you requested your case papers from the Winchester case. I will deal with each of the points that you have raised and the agreed action.
Point (1) I can make this application to remove the reporting the condition. I can source a map from the internet to show the distance and I can also show bus prices on an Oyster card £2.80 per day in fares as I assume only one bus is required. If I am wrong in this assumption, can you please confirm by email the number of buses and the routes that the buses take at your earliest convenience. Can you also please ask your mother to email over the letters that you have sent to the Benefits Agency appealing and requesting the re-instatement of your benefits as this will assist my application.

Point (2) Again I can make an application to suspend your curfew on the dates of the festival but again I need the documentation from the Council regarding this to support your application.
Point (3) I will have to consider this point in more detail but if I can illustrate an analogy to you which I believe that the Judge will also use. Your case is that you were not a trespasser when you entered the building due to notices on both buildings which confirmed they were legal squats. You may well be right. The law on burglary consists of entry to a building or part of a building, as a trespasser with intent to either steal item, cause GBH or doing unlawful damage or actually does any of the aforementioned. I will deal with the trespass point firstly. The notices in relation to the legal squat may well highlight that you were not a trespasser when you entered. (I confess that I need to research this point) I think that we can also agree that the squatters were not the owners of the building and had not made any claim for adverse possession. I have included some information on adverse possession for your ease of reference at the end of this email. Even if we can establish that you had a right to be in the building it does not follow that you had a right to any of the contents. These would still remain the property of the owner unless you can provide me with the relevant section / legislation / case law. There are a number of instances when a person can enter premises initially by invitation but once they do an act contrary to the right of entry, they then become a trespasser. i.e., a customer in a shop reaching over the counter and taking a sales assistant's purse / phone. This is burglary because the person has stolen property.
(a) that was not for sale
(b) that was in a part of the building where the public did not have access. The other stumbling block to an application to dismiss is your police interview. You accept presence and you accept purchasing items of garden furniture from a male called Mohammed. You state that you have a receipt. This is a trial point and one to be left to the jury as to whether you believed that Mohammed was lawfully.

Sim-DWP.doc (27.50 KB)
Sim-Baljit-saimbi-Income-surport.doc (25.50 KB)
165,
Prior to the coming into force of the LRA 2002, a squatter could acquire the right to be registered as proprietor of a registered estate if they had been in adverse possession of the land for a minimum of 12 years. However, the doctrine of adverse possession did not fit easily with the concept of indefeasibility of title that underlies the system of land registration. Nor could it be justified by the uncertainties as to ownership which can arise where land is unregistered; the legal estate is vested in the registered proprietor, and they are identified in the register. The LRA 2002 has created a new regime that applies only to registered land. This new regime is set out in Schedule 6 to the Act. It makes it more likely that a registered proprietor will be able to prevent an application for adverse possession of their land being completed. The following paragraphs provide a brief overview of the new regime; the remaining sections of this guide discuss it in more detail.

- Adverse possession of registered land for 12 years of itself will no longer affect the registered proprietor's title.
- After 10 years' adverse possession, the squatter will be entitled to apply to be registered as proprietor in place of the registered proprietor of the land.
- On such an application being made the registered proprietor (and certain other people interested in the land) will be notified and given the opportunity to oppose the application.

- If the application is not opposed1, the squatter will be registered as proprietor in place of the registered proprietor of the land.
- If the application is opposed, it will be rejected unless either:
- it would be unconscionable because of an equity by estoppel for the registered proprietor to seek to dispossess the squatter and the squatter ought in the circumstances to be registered as proprietor.
- the squatter is for some other reason entitled to be registered as proprietor, or
- the squatter has been in adverse possession of land adjacent to their own under the mistaken but reasonable belief that they are the owner of it, the exact line of the boundary with this adjacent land has not been determined and the estate to which the application relates was registered more than a year prior to the date of the application.
- In the event that the application is rejected but the squatter remains in adverse possession for a further two years, they will then be able, subject to certain exceptions, to reapply to be registered as proprietor and this time will be so registered whether or not anyone opposes the application.

I By 'opposed' we mean that a counter notice is served; see section 8 Giving counter notice to the registrar in response to notice. Instead, or at the same time, the registered proprietor may object to the application on the ground that there has not been the necessary 10 years' adverse possession; see section 7 Objecting to the squatter's application for the implications of such an objection.

entitled to sell the goods to you. Whilst considering this please bear in mind that although the notices allowed entry once Mohammed assumed the rights of the owner by disposing of the property and selling it, he then arguably became a trespasser. I am not concerned about the damage caused to the building as you state that this was caused on a previous occasion so I should be able to establish this from the CPS in my disclosure requests in your defence case statement.

Point (4) I can easily remedy this issue by bringing the photographs with me when I attend your mother's address near the end of next week. I will confirm the day closer to the time and I am grateful for your consideration and understanding that I cannot at this stage give you a fixed appointment. As you are no doubt aware my diary varies from day to day and emergencies do arise.

Point (5) Unfortunately I am only made aware of problems when clients tell me they are unhappy. I forwarded the correspondence bundle to your mother which demonstrated how much work I have actually undertaken in your case to date, both during social and unsocial house and even when I have been on annual leave.

Point (6) I will email the case papers over on the Winchester case under separate email as this is a separate case.

NEXT ACTION REQUIRED BY YOU:

1. Emails to Benefits Agency re appealing and requesting reinstatement of your Benefits

2. Documentation re negotiations with Enfield Council and confirmation of date when festival will take place.

3. Receipt from Focus confirming that the gazebo in the back garden of your property was not stolen.

4. List of witnesses present when you purchased the garden furniture

5. Receipt for the garden furniture

I hope that this email clarifies the information that I require.

NEXT ACTION BY MICHAEL CARROLL & CO.

Once I receive the above information, I will email the Crown Court and the CPS, and I will request an urgent application to remove the reporting conditions on the grounds of financial hardship. I will confirm a visit nearer the end of next week in order that you can see the colour photographs. I will confirm with the barrister that they are happy to use black and white pictures and if this is the case, I will give you the colour set. Should you have any further questions then please email me back so that I can assist you further.
Regards
Josephine

Dear Lorraine / Tyrone
The letters appear to be very short. Can I suggest the following?
Dear Catherine
Thank you for the help that you gave me up until the date of this incident. As you are aware, I have been trying my hardest to beat my addiction to Class A drugs. Up until the date of this incident we worked well together and were making progress. Unfortunately, I reacted quite badly to the news from Social Services that I would not be able to see my daughter or have my daughter stay with me at weekends and this was based on information that you provided to Social Services. I suffer from anxiety and depression and at the time I just thought about not being able to see my daughter and I blamed you for this. I now thought about it, and I know that you only did this out of concern for my daughter. I am very sorry for my behaviour, and I know that you were only doing what you thought was right for my daughter. I should not have reacted as I did. I was extremely anxious and emotional and all I thought about was not being able to see my daughter so please accept my apologies.
Yours sincerely
Tyrone Benjamin
Dear PC?
Please accept this letter as an apology for my behaviour on (date). You were not aware of the reason for my behaviour at the time, but Social Services had notified me that I would not be allowed to see my daughter or have her stay at my flat. I suffer from anxiety and depression and day to day events can affect how I react. PC AINSOWRTH was speaking to me and because I was emotional and crying, I was embarrassed as I could not control my emotions. I did not want people looking at me in that state and I was trying to have a private conversation with PC AINSOWRTH. I now accept that you were only trying to do your job. I did not mean to be offensive, rude or as you perceived threatening. This was not my intention although I accept that my behaviour was extremely erratic.
I am not making any excuses, but I am trying to explain what I was feeling on the day. I am very sorry, and I hope that I do not behave like this in the future. Please accept my apologies.
Yours sincerely

Lorraine the letters are due by 12th August 2013 on my reading of the court note. I do not believe that Tyrone will receive a custodial sentence for this. If you can ask Tyrone to be at your address for 1pm tomorrow I will attend and help with any amendments before they are emailed.
With regards to the drug testing the barrister's attendance note is silent as to who is responsible for arranging this. I will contact Probation tomorrow for confirmation for clarification. You informed me that Tyrone missed an appointment. You did not say why this happened or indeed who had arranged this appointment. I have discussed with you my concerns that Tyrone's behaviour is becoming more erratic and unpredictable. Can you please confirm whether any progress has been made with regards to Tyrone accessing treatment via his GP for his addiction and counselling?
For tomorrow if you can confirm that Tyrone can be at your address for 1pm. If I am delayed at court, I will update you at my earliest convenience.

Josephine

Hi Josephine
I write this to get an update as to Tyrone case that is due in court on the 12/08/2013. Can you please tell me where I will have to call to get an update as to where Tyrone will need to call to get his drugs test done, I am going to start and write the letters the best I can and hand them in tomorrow so they cannot say they never got them. At this time, it looks as if he can end up going to prison as nothing has been done there is only a few days left till he is due in court. Also, can you give me an update to what is going on with Simon case, he is really upset ATM that nothing has been done he also feels that Michael Carroll cannot cope while you are not there. Even though he asked the office more than once while you were away on holiday for his case to be listed in court this was not done. He was just told by the office he will need to wait till you got back from holiday. I have emailed you about his case since you got back from holiday and had no reply to any emails about him. Simon himself has also made many calls to the office and still nothing has been done. It does seem there is a real break down to Simon case and it is just being left with nothing done or no replies. He is now thinking he is going to take this up with the solicitor's ombudsman. He is sad it has had to come to this as he has used Michael Carroll for many years as you yourself know. I do understand that you are very busy with all the caseloads you have. But we are feeling at this point you are the only one doing any work at Michael Carroll. And the other people working there cannot cope as to even list his case to the court for an application to vary/remove bail conditions to be listed at court.
At this point we do not even know if Michael Carroll is dealing with his case any longer and just not been told, there for he is asking at this time is Michael Carroll still dealing with his case or not? If not, then can you let us know by tomorrow the latest so that he can get a new solicitor.

Many Thanks
Lorraine

Lorraine / Simon
Please see the barrister's back sheet from the 16th of July 2013. This should have been forwarded onto you and would have been by me if it had been emailed to me in Bulgaria. Case workers are not allowed to send over any paperwork on any client file without prior authorisation from the Solicitor with conduct, namely me. I cannot criticise the case workers for this as I am pretty strict on this. If this had been emailed over to me in Bulgaria, then I would have emailed on it but as I was on annual leave the case workers viewed this as non-urgent as the Judge refused to vary the conditions. I am also emailing you the client care letter again which outlines the complaints procedure.
Regards
Josephine
PS As indicated when the case papers are served and the secondary disclosure served then it may be possible to make a further attempt to vary bail but at this stage, I do not believe that the Court will entertain it.

Hi Jose
Simon does not blame you at all he knows you got a lot to do, and knows you do your job he just felt while you were away the office did not have a cue on what to do. He just wanted a reply as to what was going on and that was not happening. And did not in fact know that Michael Company was not involved in his case he was thinking that Michael Company was acting for him so when you went away, they could deal with it which they did not. Michael also has talked to Simon about this on the phone more than once so is aware of this Simon did not like the way in which Michael talked to me or him but the last time, he talked to Michael that was sorted over the phone. Josey, we do not have a problem with you at all. The problem we had was no one was able to deal with anything while you were away and that should not be the case the office should be able to deal with things if you are not around.

Subject: Simon's case
Hi Lorraine
Winchester Crown Court
175,
This case is in the warned list for 29th August 2013 I am still waiting for Simon to provide witnesses who can corroborate the negotiations between Simon and the "seller".
Woolwich Crown Court The main problem in this case is that Simon is unhappy that he is subject to an electronic curfew. As you are aware, I did not request a curfew as I knew that this problem would arise. He was initially given a doorstep curfew, but the Judge changed this to an electronic curfew. This is the preferable option as it is a qualifying curfew and counts half a day towards any custodial sentence, if convicted. The Judge did state an electronic tag as the clerk checked the tapes for what was said. The Judge is within his rights to do this as he will view this as relieving a burden in terms of manpower from the police. I cannot challenge this as it is still a curfew.
Bail variation:
Simon has to be realistic in terms of what we can achieve here. One of my obligations as a solicitor is to manage a client's expectations. I will of course make an application to vary Simon's bail conditions but as I stated before I will require emails from Simon from clients requesting that he cover events with quotes given by Simon as to how much he will charge. The smartest way to attempt to get Simon's bail varied is to ask for certain dates as opposed to lifting the curfew altogether as the Judge will not do this. If Simon persists in stating that he is not allowed to work and earn his living then Simon will then have to complete a change in financial circumstances statements for both the Woolwich case and the Winchester case and the court will have to assess his monthly contributions for both cases. At present he does not have to make a contribution as he is in receipt of benefits. I can only properly challenge the evidence in this case when I receive the case papers and then make my requests for secondary disclosure. The court would then be more amenable to an application to remove conditions of bail.

I am sorry that Simon feels that his case is not being handled properly. I sent Simon a client care letter at the commencement of this case outlining the complaints procedure. I do not believe that Michael was aware of the calls made by Simon to the office. I tried to deal with Simon's case personally and usually I do. e.g., Going to Birmingham Police Station in 2012 attending home address after his remand from Camberwell Green Magistrates Court to draft bail application. I am not sure what happened when I was on annual leave but based on your email it appears that the complaint should be directed against me as I am the fee earner, and I am meant to supervise case workers. Michael is the Principal of the Firm and not the fee earner on this case. The case workers knew I was contactable by email and did not contact me. Michael Carroll has had no dealings with this case. (Since returning from annual leave I have dealt with 2 complex rapes, 3 GBH and a police station duty to date. I did intend to call at your address this weekend, but I was on duty, and I had to deal with a complex rape at Colindale on Sunday. This case lasted all day. I can only apologise for this.) If you do not believe that Michael can investigate and deal with your complaint, then I must now advise you to address your complaint regarding this matter to EDEL SPEIRITS at the West London office. Her email is.
edel@michaelcarrollandco.com.
If you are not satisfied with her resolution of the complaint, then you can then proceed to complain to the Ombudsman. I am sorry that Simon feels this way and I am sorry that you are disappointed in my conduct of this case. I will forward this email to Michael Carroll in the morning but if you decide over night that you do not want Michael involved in the complaint and want to include him in the complaint then please confirm this so that I can forward your email to EDEL SPEIRITS.

Dear Simon / Lorraine

Simon it is my understanding that your mother is having internet difficulties at present. I sent over a number of emails this weekend which I will try to forward over to you from my trash box.

Re: application to remove reporting condition. I confirm that I have lodged this application already.

Re: application to suspend curfew for 25th and 26th August 2013

Simon, I have requested written confirmation from Omar Lawrence that you have been awarded the contract together with the particulars of the contract as the Court will undoubtedly ask for this information. There is also a risk that the Court / Police will check that the contract is genuine, and this may well entail telephoning Omar Lawrence to check the detail. It is not unusual for the court to check bail addresses by analogy, so I am merely putting you on notice of this fact. I will not have any control over the information that is provided by the police to Mr Omar Lawrence, but they will have to identify themselves as police officers and this may raise questions about why police are making these enquiries. Your mother has explained that you may lose the contract as a result of this and unfortunately, I do not have any control over this. The options therefore available to you are as follows:

(1) Attend the festival during the curfew hours and then go home

(2) Apply to the court to vary the electronic curfew and request that the court do not disclose details of your criminal history or current court case. However, Mr Lawrence may well wonder why an enquiry has been made.

(3) Do not make any application and take your chances - this is not advised as you will be arrested for breaching your bail and there is a high risk of remand to prison until the conclusion of your case.

(4) Discuss the matter with Omar Lawrence beforehand so that he is aware, and he can confirm this in the email to the court. The risk with this is that he may use you for this festival but may seek an alternative resource next year.

(5) The final option of course is not to make the application and attend in person during your curfew hours and get an alternative person who you trust to look after your equipment overnight on 25th August 2013This option allows you to retain the potential for further contracts via your company, ensures that future clients are not aware of your previous criminal history and will also safeguard any future contracts with Enfield Council. Clearly this is a matter that you need to consider very carefully and weigh up the pros and cons of each option. I am aware how important this festival is to you and your business. If you decide to make the application to vary bail, then I will need the following from you by 15th August 2013:

1. Letter from Omar Lawrence that you are hired for the festival. I will need this information by 15th August as the court and CPS will require 5 days to agree the matter administratively, failing which I will ask for a fixed hearing on 22nd or 23rd August 2013 I await your instructions with regards to the above matter. I have confirmed to your mother that I will require your instructions in writing. Should you have any questions then please do not hesitate to contact me.

Regards
Josephine
PS I will endeavor to send all other emails from trash box. Your mother has copies on her system.

1 An Email to my solicitor: The Gazebo Case - “After talking yesterday and saying about the insurance we will need to get the insurance for the building and insurance of the contents from anyone who owns or rents the property as I think you will find there is more than one insurance for the place, building insurance is something else to contents, and because you got more than one person for the property you are going to need all insurance being held by any person. Also, the guys who said things was taken should be able to do a stock check any real company would be able to do this which will show the amount and numbers of items taken on the 16/02/2013 and what he was saying has been taken on between the 01/05/2013 to the 08/05/2013 a person can't just say it's this amount without listing the items taken and numbers and any company should have done a stock check in Feb 2013 when this 1st happened and then again, a stock check in May 2013 So far, we have no number of items that have been taken just saying it's the amount he has said and that don't add up. Also looking on the Lilo Orders there Venice chairs are not listed on the order invoices he has given, the only item there is the Harrogate Gazebo, but he is saying in his statement that beds, trampolines, so where is the invoice for these items. There has got to be a list of how many items were taken he can't just guess the total amount so has to know the items and numbers that were taken on both dates. Also, on the land registry is this listed as one unit the reason I have asked this is the way the main section is to enter the building there does seem to be only one main section the other side may have been added after to make the unit to make it into 3 units. If this is the case and it was 1 unit to start with has planning permission been granted for the unit to be made into 3 units?

Hi Darren, thank you I did send this to the wrong email please see below. After speaking to you today about the space ball you want to hire, I can confirm that I can do the dates of 07/09/2013 and the 08/09/2013 at the Price of £60 per day and I will send someone down to manage it. Can you confirm the hours that you will need the space ball to be hired for please, also as said when we talked, I would love to get involved with you to the Enfield Fireworks night for the power and anything else you need, also what would be the power requirements, you will need for this night?
Please can you reply to this email to let me know you got it?
Many Thanks, Mr. Simon.

Hi Simon, Thanks for the email. Is there any chance we could also book your bouncy castle for the same weekend?
Please advise price for both activities. We are checking we can get an electricity supply as generators are not allowed. Both activities will need to in place on Friday between 4pm and 8pm. The Park will then be secured, and security guards will patrol through the night. The show is open to the public between 10am and 6pm both days. We are very happy to organise the activities ourselves, including set up and tear down if that keeps the price down, the final takes down is always chaos and if you want, we can tow from the park and return to your address as far as the fireworks are concerned can you quote for your big generator of the day please?
Our display is on Saturday 02nd November in Enfield Town Park.

Many thanks, *****

  Hi Simon, I just, have had a read of your liability policy. Did I read right?
  Your liability is only up to £500k?
  If so, realise I would be taking a risk as the council usually require a liability a lot higher than that. We will have to run with it, but if you are going to do more local jobs, we will need to check this out next week. THX. O.

Sent: 07 August 2013 22:10
To: Lorraine Cordell
Subject: Simon's case
Hi Lorraine
Winchester Crown Court This case is in the warned list for 29th August 2013
I am still waiting for Simon to provide witnesses who can corroborate the negotiations between Simon and the "seller".
Woolwich Crown Court. The main problem in this case is that Simon is unhappy that he is subject to an electronic curfew. As you are aware, I did not request a curfew as I knew that this problem would arise. He was initially given a doorstep curfew, but the Judge changed this to an electronic curfew. This is the preferable option as it is a qualifying curfew and counts half a day towards any custodial sentence, if convicted. The Judge did state an electronic tag as the clerk checked the tapes for what was said. The Judge is within his rights to do this as he will view this as relieving a burden in terms of manpower from the police. I cannot challenge this as it is still a curfew.
Bail variation:

Simon has to be realistic in terms of what we can achieve here. One of my obligations as a solicitor is to manage a client's expectations. I will of course make an application to vary Simon's bail conditions but as I stated before I will require emails from Simon from clients requesting that he cover events with quotes given by Simon as to how much he will charge. The smartest way to attempt to get Simon's bail varied is to ask for certain dates as opposed to lifting the curfew altogether as the Judge will not do this. If Simon persists in stating that he is not allowed to work and earn his living then Simon will then have to complete a change in financial circumstances statements for both the Woolwich case and the Winchester case and the court will have to assess his monthly contributions for both cases. At present he does not have to make a contribution as he is in receipt of benefits. I can only properly challenge the evidence in this case when I receive the case papers and then make my requests for secondary disclosure. The court would then be more amenable to an application to remove conditions of bail. I am sorry that Simon feels that his case is not being handled properly. I sent Simon a client care letter at the commencement of this case outlining the complaints procedure. I do not believe that.

Michael was aware of the calls made by Simon to the office. I tried to deal with Simon's case personally, and usually I do. e.g., Going to Birmingham Police Station in 2012 attending home address after his remand from Camberwell Green Magistrates Court to draft bail application. I am not sure what happened when I was on annual leave but based on your email it appears that the complaint should be directed against me as I am the fee earner, and I am meant to supervise case workers. Michael is the Principal of the Firm and not the fee earner on this case. The case workers knew I was contactable by email and did not contact me. Michael Carroll has had no dealings with this case. (Since returning from annual leave I have dealt with 2 complex rapes, 3 GBH and a police station duty to date. I did intend to call at your address this weekend, but I was on duty, and I had to deal with a complex rape at Colindale on Sunday. This case lasted all day. I can only apologise for this.) If you do not believe that Michael can investigate and deal with your complaint, then I must now advise you to address your complaint regarding this matter to EDEL SPEIRITS at the West London office. Her email is edel@michaelcarrollandco.com.

If you are not satisfied with her resolution of the complaint, then you can then proceed to complain to the Ombudsman. I am sorry that Simon feels this way and I am sorry that you are disappointed in my conduct of this case. I will forward this email to Michael Carroll in the morning but if you decide over night that you do not want Michael involved in the complaint and want to include him in the complaint then please confirm this so that I can forward your email to EDEL SPEIRITS.

Regards

Josephine Ward (Associate Solicitor)

  Hi Darren, sorry for the late reply thank you for the email as we talked the cost of the Space Ball for the event for both days. Bouncy Castles for the event for both days is one kids from up to 3 years old, one adventure playground 5 years old and above, and a 12x12 which is all ages. I will do all of these for £300 this will include a man for the space ball and the Space Ball as this event is for the Enfield Scouts. Can you tell me about the power for this event and how it will be powered?
  Also, the 70 KVA generator with all leads and distributor board for Saturday 2nd November in Enfield Town Park will be a cost of £300 for the generator plus fuel, but the fuel would need to be paid up front which I would say is around £50. The generator has all its Electrical-Certificates.' For Saturday 02nd November 2013 in Enfield Town Park there will be an Electrician with me for safety reasons the Electrician cost will be £80. I will send my public liability insurance and Electrical-Certificates and risk assessment when needed. Can you please confirm the prices, and dates?
  Many Thanks Simon

Hi Darren
The generator with no fuel and an electrician will be £380, this will be due to me not taking a deposit that is why want my own electrician on site. If you want to hire the generator without an electrician then a deposit would need to be paid, this would be given back once my electrician confirms the generator is in the same state as it was before the event. We have already given a 50% discount on the price for this event.

Many Thanks
Simon

Disrepair
I get made to feel like rubbish by the Enfield Councils and the Enfield Home teams after endeavouring to address the wide scale of emergency disrepair quandaries such as the damp, broken heating system and the bad soundproofing disrepair issues of our concerns inclusive of the leaking roof and deplorable guttering and to forget the lack of security on the main communal front door!

My conditions got denied from being ferried once again, by a judge on this day at Woolwich Crown Court, but satisfyingly to me and others in the end, I did manage to get involved and supply the equipment to the event for everybody with extra hardship.

2 Si Notes: I like to be able to explain to everyone that it is a powerful reed, when you write like this: - "Before this Debra had continually attended mine and Ozzie s addresses, she endeavored us with her so-called love. By this stage she has become an occupier of her premises for about five years, in turn living with us as a resident in Burncroft Avenue. Prior to any problems between us all I and Ozzie had both decided not to allow Debra Andrews access into our own flats, as we could understand she has special needs. We managed to look after her, while treating her like a sister, in a short explanation, as much as she attempted to gain access into our homes, we both discretely presided in both politely declining her entry and stayed adamant in our decision. But to our surprise Debra Andrews had found something that would mean to her that she'd not be bored or lonely again, "Stain." Though most of the years that Debra Andrews did live above me, Debra never knocked on Stan's front door, while Stains' wife was present with us all. The reason for this to me was because I believe she knew of Brenda's presence. Debra simply knocked on mine and Ozzy's front doors. Eventually, my own civil partner also raised a large concern about Debra always knocking on our front door, the reason for this was because of the persistent knocking on the front door, which in turn caused my partner weirdly to question me regarding my personal relationship with Debbie. Whenever I needed to, I would go to my front door and look through the spy hole, this was whenever I heard a person at the front doors, that is to mean the front doors of my or Stan's, as his front door is opposite to mine and the other reason was partly as my guard dog always makes me aware of anyone else's presence. Henceforth, as a sense of natural instincts, I will confirm who is there for our safety. Because of security I had noticed Debra had started to knock at the front door of Stan daily a shot while after his wife had passed away, I would notice that he would always grant her access and that she would be carrying a shopping bag full of alcoholic drinks. I could easily tell what she had in her plastic bags as they would always make the clinging sound that glass and plastic bottles do and our metal cans would make. At around the same time, I asked Stan if he would help me, what I asked him to help me to help everybody by reading a proposal that I had prepared for the community event that I had started to build, to which he agreed to read. In the following days, I approached Stan as agreed for an update, as to any amendments that he may advise me to make within the document, when speaking to him, he explained to me that he was grateful that I had asked him to go over the proposal and that he enjoyed reading it very much so, I can remember that his words made me feel very happy, me being me, I questioned him a little more whether there is anything else's that he recommends being updated or changed for the better of the event being created, I received a reply of no it is perfect just how it was alongside with the advice of to send it off, even low I still understood that I was not quite ready at this stage! The slowdown and closing of talking to Stan, at this period was just after I said to him that I treat my work seriously, so because of this reason, I will be indoors working hard, so if he ever needs any help of me just tell me and I will be there for him."

Dear Simon,
I would like to start by thanking you for helping us out at such short notice with the generator. The Muswell Hill Festival is our biggest fundraising community event organised and in aid of the centre and school. We support children with cerebral palsy and their families from across London and the home counties and this event helps raise much needed funds as well as help raise awareness of the specialist work, we do. You can find out about the work we do on our website: http://www.cplondon.org.uk/
Our Facebook page is.

Hello Jas Chadha
Thank you for the email the date is booked for the 08/09/2013
at the cost of £200 out of that we will cover £40 in fuel but if it goes over £40 which I hope it will not then you will have to cover the extra cost for the fuel. Matt will be the electrician for the day and that is also covered in the cost. Daisy we have spoken to Jas, and he said to ask you for a Facebook event page and other event pages as we may be able to help with promotion of the event.
Many Thanks

Hi Simon
Thanks for your help, the generator is needed for the Muswell Hill Festival at Cherry Tree Wood, Summer lee Avenue, Finchley N2 9QH, on Sunday 8th September 2013
Access to the site is from 6am and the event finishes at 6pm. The generator has to be operational by 8.30am. The event is run for the benefit of The London Centre for Children with Cerebral Palsy, this centre is self-funding as it receives no local authority or government funding as it does not use therapies which are approved by these bodies. The centre has a reputation for excellence as it uses therapies developed in other countries. Your generous offer to only £ 200 is very much appreciated and I cannot thank you enough.
Regards
Jas Chadha

1 An Email from my solicitor: The Gazebo Case - "Thank you for your telephone call today. I am sorry that Simon is upset regarding his representation. Can you please send me an email with all of Simon's complaint so that I can discuss this with Michael Carroll? Michael will also want to discuss your concerns with the barrister, and we will change the barrister as it is not acceptable that the barrister did not attend court with the correct paperwork. The amended defence case statement was emailed to the barrister on 4th September 2013 and Simon had to bring the exhibits to accompany the defence case statement to today's hearing. If he did not do this then can you, please ensure that they are scanned and emailed over to me so that I can email them to the CPS and the Crown Court."

3 An Email to my solicitor: The Gazebo Case - "After just talking to you on the phone about Jay who was at court today with Simon to deal with the above matter Jay come to court today with no papers. The judge was not happy and ordered him to supply said papers to the court today by 4pm. Also, he had not prepared for the case so when the judge was asking thing Jay did not know what to say and had to say to the judge, I must think about that. I do agree Simon was meant to bring papers with him, but Jay also should have had the paperwork you had sent him and have had a printer to print it off for the court. Lying to the judge to say he had tried to email them does not go down well with any judge. And the Judge saw through this and said don't you mean you tried to print the paperwork to bring to court. This is not the 1st time Jay has turned up with no paperwork for this case and tried to also use he turned to email it as he did not have access to a printer. Does his offices have no printers as I know full well you sent the paperwork to him well on time for him to have had access to a printer before today's hearing. Simon did indeed get upset due to jay no having anything or knowing anything to say to the judge in his case and did stand up and try to explain himself to the judge which the judge did not like and in the end told Simon to leave the court and wait outside. But Simon should not have needed to stand up Jay should have known what to tell the judge and been prepared for the case. It was also said about Simon curfew in court and it has now been said it is a doorstep as the prosecution said also in court it has never been electronic curfew so the judge accepted this and said it was doorstep. Simon no longer wants Jay to act for him on any matters can you please sort a next person to be in court for him if you are able can you get the guy that Simon has had in the pass, I forget his name but he dealt with a case a while ago for him. If you need Simon to sign this then I will get him to do this when he gets home from court, but he does not want Jay on any of his cases again."

Dear Simon / Lorraine
Can you please scan over to me the receipt and the links for the catalogue as referred to in the defence case statement in order that I can serve this document today?
I have discussed what happened with your case yesterday Simon and it is clear that there has been a total breakdown in the relationship between you and the instructed advocate. Michael has approved the immediate removal of your case from Mr LEMOSA'S diary, and I will instruct the Advocate who represented you for the bladed article case.

I am sorry that you were disappointed with the instructed Advocate. I hope that the above is a satisfactory solution. Can you please keep me updated as to any additional concerns that you have regarding any future instructed advocates?
Please do not hesitate to contact me should you have any further problems.
Regards
Josephine
PS, Please ensure that you provide the receipts and the links by return email as the defence case statement should have been served yesterday.

Disrepair

The housing conditions perpetuate that I have to live in and are outrageousness for human inhabitants due to the neglect towards fixing the disrepair issues of damp and the heating system that the Enfield homes are responsible for, once put in receipt of the emergency needed repair as I have put them!

I did find myself helping Stan, at his own requests, this got achieved in helping to complete some following: -

1. A Simple task, like pushing the chair that Stan sits down the road for him, into his house.

2. Taking Stan to the doctors, after he had fallen over, when closing his curtains.

3. My mother and I shared with Stan, at his house, our boxing day.

4. I hand delivered Stan and Debra their Christmas presents early and in time, even low I was finding life hard, as of the police bail conditions and the separate Anti-Social Behaviour Order proceedings. Up to date, I have never asked of anything of any other person that lives on my estate, other than respect. Shortly after the trial, I got released to be free from police bail conditions and was then single due to the burglary case. It took me a long time to get better, after being kept on curfew and for what I had suffered wrongly, because of the damage that the court case and other on goings had caused me.

Disrepair!
I treat the council officials with reverence in the believe that they must act in a natural manner when dealing with incident relating to their clients but they act Inferior with bios decisions against me, resulting in no logic or fair gain at the conclusion of incidents, once put in receipt of true official evidence and this is at my loss of life without any erroneous doings from myself!

1 An Email from my solicitor: The Gazebo Case - "your case has been listed tomorrow for a mention hearing. You are both welcome to attend if you so desire, but you are not required to attend, as you have not been able to provide me with the original receipt of internet link for the Focus catalogue, I edited the defence case statement accordingly. I now attach the amended defence case statement which I instructed your barrister to serve at tomorrow's hearing. This will trigger secondary disclosure in the case, and I will be hoping to offer you an appointment in four weeks' time for a conference with your barrister. If you have any further requests to vary your bail, then please provide me with adequate notice as the courts tend to want the CPS and solicitors to attempt to agree the variation administratively before resorting to the court. Please do not hesitate to contact me should you have any questions."

Dear Simon,
your case has been listed tomorrow for a mention hearing. You are both welcome to attend if you so desire, but you are not required to attend, as you have not been able to provide me with the original receipt of internet link for the Focus catalogue, I edited the defence case statement accordingly. I now attach the amended defence case statement which I instructed your barrister to serve at tomorrow's hearing. This will trigger secondary disclosure in the case, and I will be hoping to offer you an appointment in four weeks' time for a conference with your barrister. If you have any further requests to vary your bail, then please provide me with adequate notice as the courts tend to want the CPS and solicitors to attempt to agree the variation administratively before resorting to the court.
Please do not hesitate to contact me should you have any questions.
Regards, Josephine.

Mr Simon Cordell
109 Burncroft Avenue Enfield Middlesex EN3 7JQ
We have looked again at our decision.
You made an appeal against a decision about not being entitled to Income Support upon release from prison, issued to you on 09-Aug-2013.
We have looked again at the facts and evidence used to make our decision. As a result, we have changed that decision and have decided you retained your entitlement to Income Support following your release from prison but have no entitlement for the two days you were in prison.
What happens now: --
Your appeal will not be sent to an independent tribunal as the decision has been changed in your favour.
As explained in our previous letter, if you still think the decision is wrong you have the right to appeal. You should normally appeal within one month of the date of that letter.
The Income Support payment section will be in touch to advise what happens next.
Yours sincerely,
S Anderson

YOUR CLAIM FOR EMPLOYMENT AND SUPPORT ALLOWANCE
I am pleased to tell you we can pay Employment and Support Allowance from 10 August 2013
You will get £71.70 a week.
We have used the tax years ending 5 April 2011 and 5 April 2012 to assess your claim.
We will credit you with National Insurance contributions while claiming Employment and Support Allowance.
To continue to receive Employment and Support Allowance you may need to attend a Work Focus Interview with a Personal Advisor. You will be notified of this separately If you are required to attend.
To continue to receive Employment and Support Allowance you may need to attend a Work Capability Assessment. You must provide medical certificates until a Work Capability Assessment Is carried out You are required to Immediately report any change in your circumstances to us, or the circumstances of your partner If you have one.
The attached sheet shows how we worked out your money. If you want more information, please contact us. Our phone number and address are at the top of this letter.
This assessment is based on how much the law says you need to live CFL. You have not paid, or been credited with, enough National Insurance Contributions for them to be used in this assessment.
HOW THE MONEY WILL BE PAID

The money will be paid every two weeks for as long as you are still entitled to Employment and Support Allowance.

Can you please scan over to me the receipt and the links for the catalogue as referred to in the defence case statement in order that I can serve this document today?
I have discussed what happened with your case yesterday Simon and it is clear that there has been a total breakdown in the relationship between you and the instructed advocate. Michael has approved the immediate removal of your case from Mr LEMOSA'S diary, and I will instruct the Advocate who represented you for the bladed article case. I am sorry that you were disappointed with the instructed Advocate. I hope that the above is a satisfactory solution. Can you please keep me updated as to any additional concerns that you have regarding any future instructed advocates?
Please do not hesitate to contact me should you have any further problems.

PS, Please ensure that you provide the receipts and the links by return email as the defence case statement should have been served yesterday.

3 An Email from my solicitor: The Gazebo Case - "The loser's statement is not being disputed. He said he was the owner he reported the trailer as being stolen from the location that Simon collected the trailer from. The CCTV will not change the case in any way either as Simon accepts that he collected the trailer and removed the trailer. The issue in the case is whether Simon bought the trailer in good faith. The jury will consider the price paid, where the contract was conducted and also the circumstances. They will undoubtedly question our inability to provide any defence witnesses to corroborate Simon's version of events. With regards to the trial lasting two days, I do not have any control over the trial length. Simon gives his version of events and the jury either believe him or they do not. The CCTV evidence does not add to the case in any way. Simon accepted in his interview collecting the trailer, so I am not sure how the CCTV alters this. With regards to the case being in the Crown Court this was Simon's choice. The issue is when, where and what Simon said to satisfy himself that the person selling the trailer was the true owner. This is a question of fact. I hope that this clarifies the position.

The loser's statement is not being disputed. He said he was the owner he reported the trailer as being stolen from the location that Simon collected the trailer from. The CCTV will not change the case in any way either as Simon accepts that he collected the trailer and removed the trailer. The issue in the case is whether Simon bought the trailer in good faith. The jury will consider the price paid, where the contract was conducted and also the circumstances. They will undoubtedly question our inability to provide any defence witnesses to corroborate Simon's version of events. With regards to the trial lasting two days, I do not have any control over the trial length. Simon gives his version of events and the jury either believe him or they do not. The CCTV evidence does not add to the case in any way. Simon accepted in his interview collecting the trailer, so I am not sure how the CCTV alters this. With regards to the case being in the Crown Court this was Simon's choice. The issue is when, where and what Simon said to satisfy himself that the person selling the trailer was the true owner. This is a question of fact. I hope that this clarifies the position.

Josephine

Hi Josey
I just got a call from Simon, and it seems that the prosecution have seemed to not have the CCTV the judge has also allowed this to go on without it and the prosecution not saying what happened correctly at all in how it was meant to have happened and without the CCTV to prove it how can Simon prove that they are saying is wrong?
Also, there is no one from there side that has tuned up they are just using their statements.
And also, there saying this is a 2-day trial so want Simon back there tomorrow again this is a lot of money to get up there and back.

  Hi Gary
  Thank you for the email. This very late notice has now made me lose contracts to hire out the gen, as I could have had other bookings, but knew I was booked for yourself. I did email Darren last week to confirm the booking, as for the gen not being able to cope with your needs, I know it would be fully capable to cope with all the requirements that we agree on and much more, as you know I did have a problem with my van which due to me knowing I was doing this event with you I made sure I paid to get it fixed so I did not let anyone down, as it was for the local community. Mr. Simon.

1 Si Notes: A Company: Creating [redacted] painters and decorators: --- "Around the same time, I seemed to have a lot of good friends about me who I wanted to help out in life one of them was named Dean would always help out with maintaining the back gardens at my home and other jobs such as painting, so for me to help dean I had decided that the best way forward would be to help him start to build his company. The company that I had built with him, for he was then named Dean's painters and decorators. We both managed to obtain a big job for him regenerating a person's house externally, this included painting, maintaining, and painting the whole front of the house and garages. While the dean was at work, I continued to help him out. I had ordered some business cards for him from Vistaprint. After he had finished the job that he had to hand in, we posted the business cards down the street that he had been working on to gain some more needed work, as he and I, including the client, were proud of the hard work that had been accomplished. We decided the best way for him to gain more clients was to keep advertising the companies that got started, so we split the business card that I had ordered for him in half and in turn I left them on my van's dashboard. I can always remember playing a game when I was driving around London and what I did in this game was take my time to write down any company vans details that I could see driving past, this got done when I believed they would help me with my dreams. In playing this game, I used to stop at shops and talk to the owners about different business opportunities. I can remember stopping at my local churches in my living surrounding areas and taking their details, I always tried my best to open new doors, as one might say.

How Your Housing Benefit Has Been Worked Out for the period
From 08/07/2013 to 11/08/2013 your Housing Benefit will be £86.84 each week.
Claim reference: 1623514.
The rent you are charged each week is £92.49.
Housing Benefit cannot pay for some service charges that are included in your rent. The rent you pay must be reduced by the amount of these service charges. These amounts are shown below:
Actual amount for Ineligible Water £5.65
Total deductions for services £5.65
The amount of rent after deducting these charges is called your maximum eligible rent. Your rent of £92.49 must be reduced by £5.65, to £86.84 each week. This is your maximum eligible rent.
The maximum Housing Benefit you can get is £86.84 each week. This figure is used when working out 'your total weekly Housing Benefit'.
The amount of Housing Benefit has been worked out by comparing the money you have coming in each week, to an amount the Government has decided is the minimum that someone in your circumstances needs to cover basic living expenses.
Your Total Weekly Income
The amount of money you have coming in each week has been worked out as follows:
Total weekly income £0.00
Your Total Savings
If you have savings and capital over £6,000.00, an amount of £1.00 must be added to your weekly income for each additional £250.00, or part of £250.00 you have.
You have told me that you have no savings or capital, so I have added nothing to your weekly income. If you get savings credit in your pension credit, your savings have already been considered by the Pension Service and will not be shown on this letter.
Your Applicable Amount
Your applicable amount is made up of the following allowances and premiums:
Single claimant twenty-five or over
Total applicable amount
Your Total Weekly Housing Benefit
As your total weekly income of £0.00 is the same as or less than your 'applicable amount' of £71.70,1 can pay you your maximum Housing Benefit of £86.84 each week.
You may be entitled to Income Support or Jobseeker's Allowance. You should contact the Jobcentre Plus on 0800 055 6688 for more information.

How Your Housing Benefit Has Been Worked Out for the period
From 12/08/2013 your Housing Benefit will be £86.84 each week.
NI reference: JH653811D
Your maximum housing benefit is £86.84. This amount has not changed since 08/07/2013. Please look at that period for full details of how your maximum benefit has been worked out.
Your Total Weekly Housing Benefit

Since you are receiving Employment and Support Allowance (income related), you are entitled to the maximum Housing Benefit of £86.84 each week.

How Your Council Tax Support Has Been Worked Out

Based on your circumstances I have decided to assess your claim using the Working Age scheme.

From 08/07/2013 to 11/08/2013, your council tax support is £12.64 each week.

The maximum council tax support you could get.

Your council tax liability for the year is £818.62 which for this period is £15.70 each week.

The maximum council tax support you could get is therefore £15.70 each week. This figure is used when working out 'your total weekly council tax support'.

Your Total Weekly Income

The amount of money you have coming in each week has been worked out as follows:

Your Total Savings

The Working Age scheme sets the amounts added to your weekly income if you have savings. If you have savings and capital over £6,000.00, an amount of £1.00 must be added to your weekly income for each additional £250.00, or part of £250.00 you have.

You have told me that you have no savings or capital, so I have added nothing to your weekly income. If you get savings credit in your pension credit, your savings have already been considered by the Pension Service and will not be shown on this letter.

Your applicable amount

Your applicable amount is made up of the following allowances and premiums:

Single claimant twenty-five or over £71.70

Total Applicable Amount £71.70

Your Total Weekly Council Tax Support

As your total weekly income of £0.00 is the same as or less than your 'applicable amount' of £71.70,1 can pay you your maximum council tax support of £15.70 each week.

A reduction of the maximum council tax support of £15.70 that you could get each week must be reduced by £3.06, to £12.64.

4 An Email to My Solicitor: The Gazebo Case - "Today Simon called Gumtree up to see if he could in fact get the ad which was placed on Gumtree from the shop where Mohammad worked and got the items he sold to Simon. Gumtree was very helpful and found the ad for Simon and sent it over in the below email, the only thing they could not put in the email was the contact information of the person who posted the ad on Gumtree but have said they will give this out to the police if the police contact them. The shop was called MJD'S 98 Tower Bridge Road, London SE1 4TP and this is where Mohammad worked. This is the name of the shop were the gazebos chairs and stools were for sale and the shop that advertised them on gumtree. When Simon Ordered the chairs from Mohammad there were two different types of Simons got 4 of the Milan bars stools and one of the Venice Chair. The Venice Chair is what the police have at the police station. He sold four of the Milan Stools he ordered from Mohammad which were different from the one found at Simon address. All of these carry the What! Logo. Simon has since be able to get one of the people he sold the stool to which did keep the box and was able to get the label of it which I have scanned and will send over with this email. Which is clear it is the same chair in the ad on Gumtree. Bar stool.doc is the attachment from gumtree the other attachments are from me. 2 Driving: Met Police Brixton Case. / Getting a job as a night club manager – "I had been out looking for more work when I came across a gentleman who was redeveloped a night club in Brixton, what was to get named, as Brixton's white sands night club. This got done while it was getting built, I spoke to the owner and showed him what I could do for his company. He was very impressed with my CV and as a result offered me the position of nightclub manager. To make sure that I kept on the owners' books of good workers, I travelled backwards and forwards from my home to the club on a regular basis and in doing this I noticed that I could speed up the process and offered to help move some left other demolition materials to an environmental waste site. On the 14/11/2013 I was travelling with my friend named dean, we were together in my van and driving to Brixton, as we were travelling along Brixton high road. We had got about 400 yards to where I was to park my van outside of the night club and the police officers decided to pull us over, as I hit the 400 yards', mark I had to drive past some police stop and search patrol who were doing some; "Roadside" Apr checks, on passing vehicles. They got placed on the same side of the road as the up-and-coming nightclub, club, as I drove past the police and their cars, we never got stopped. I managed to pull over to where I had wanted to stop, outside of the club, without any problems so far. The owner of the club had not arrived yet on this day, so I decided to wait in the van. My friend decided to jump out and quickly go to a local shop to buy some drinks and so forth. When I noticed some police, officer come up to the driver's door window and tell me to get out of my van, I asked him why I should do this and what for. He explained that I had not shown up without any insurance on their computer systems as I had driven past them as always, I understood and knew that I had the correct insurance to be driven. I explained to the police officer that I was attending the location as I had got a manager's job at the new nightclub and continued to show him a copy of my policy while explaining to him why my van may show up as a not insured. A PC Geoghegan decided to do a full search of myself and of the inside of my van, on him doing so he found the business card that I had previously made for my friend on my dashboard On PC Geoghegan doing this I passed him my own mobile phone so that he could speak to my insurance companies as I had called them while he got engaged in my van. I could hear him speaking to the employees on the phone and then explaining that I have social and domestic and a motor trade policy in place this did include high performance cars, my insurance company was adamant to the police officer that I got covered to drive the van now then in question. With this information being provided to the police officer, he decided to say that I would not get covered if I had tools of another trade on me, to which I did not. He decided to seize my van because he had found the business card that I had made for the dean to do painting, so I refused to get out of the van and surrender my keys to him. Eventfully he also decided to arrest me for a breach of the peace. On finally being booked into the police station I had no additional property with me and got held till the next day's early hours of the morning with finally being charged for driving with no insurance as the officer claimed that my insurance policy was not in restraints of the policy underwriting. When I got finally realised, I had to go and pick my van up from the police car compound, in doing so I decided to recorded in audio format the ongoing, what did in fact happen was I asked to speak to the car compounds manager who is a civilian, I asked him to see a copy of the van's seizure notice, the reason I had done this was because it would show any belongings that got left in the van as they have got to get signed for by the arresting or seizing police officer. In the car compounds manager, helping me with my request, he also noticed that there were no other tools of the trade within the side of the van and that it got signed that I never took anything out of the van, I collected the van and then headed back to my home. So, on the 14/11/2013; I had to attend court yet again to defend myself from their wrongful allegations. What in fact did happen to me is that I got left in amazement by being found guilty of the offences after the PC Geoghegan stood and gave evidence from his police notebook from the day's? Being upset with knowing that I was right, and all I did was carry business cards in my van that I had made for dean's own company, I explained to the judge that the police officer was being deceitful with his evidence and asked him to give me a chance to prove the truth by requesting a copy of the sound audio recording from the insurance company from when the police officer had first pulled me over. The Judge granted my request, and I applied to the insurance company for the sound recording evidence to get realised to me. On receiving my request for the recordings, I could prove that I was right as I now had both recording from the roadside and car compound. I applied for an appeal hearing to take place at the courthouse. Very soon after this day arrived, and I was on my way to court, I felt a bit of a mess due to what had been going on to me by every person that got involved in hurting me. In the courtroom the appeal started to go ahead, I can remember the day being a repeat of the trial where I had wrongfully got found guilty in the first instance, till right up until my solicitor asked the police officer to stop going over his evidence from his police notebook. When the police officer did do as he had got asked to do by my barrister on the day made sure to confirm with him that his notes were correct from the day's events and looked at a CD player that he had earlier put a copy of the audio recording made by me with PC Geoghegan, talking to them. On playing the audio CD for a few seconds, my solicitor then stopped the CD and asked PC Geoghegan if this was his voice; for him to confirm the answer: PC Geoghegan, agreed while under oath that it was his voice on the CD and this was to his surprise. There is a copy of the official sound audio transcribed from them days. Hang on first just to confirm one more thing even stronger than before I did not have any other tools of trade in my van on the day of events.

Getting a job as a night club manager; --

I had been out looking for more work when I came across a gentleman who was redeveloped a night club in Brixton, what was to get named, as Brixton's white sands night club. This got done while it had been getting built, I spoke to the owner and showed him what I could do for his company. He got very impressed with my CV and as a result offered me the position of nightclub manager. To make sure that I kept on the owners' books of good workers, I travelled backwards and forwards from my home to the club on a regular basis and in doing this I noticed that I could speed up the process and offered to help move some left other demolition materials to an environmental waste site. On the 14/11/2013 I was travelling with my friend named dean, we were together in my van and driving to Brixton, as we were travelling along Brixton high road. We had got about four hundred yards to where I was to park my van outside of the night club and the police officers decided to pull us over, as I hit the four hundred yards,' mark I had to drive past some police stop and search patrol who were doing some; "Roadside" Apr checks, on passing vehicles. They got placed on the same side of the road as the up-and-coming night club, as I drove past the police and their cars, we never got stopped. I managed to pull over to where I had wanted to stop, outside of the club, without any problems so far. The owner of the club had not arrived yet on this day, so I decided to wait in the van. My friend decided to jump out and quickly go to a local shop to buy some drinks and so forth. When I noticed some police, officer come up to the driver's door window and tell me to get out of my van, I asked him why I should do this and for what. He explained that I had not shown up without any insurance on their computer systems as I had driven past them as always, I understood and knew that I had the correct insured to be driven. I explained to the police officer that I was attending the location as I had got a manager's job at the new nightclub and continued to show him a copy of my policy while explaining to him why my van may show up as a not insured. Thank you for calling KGN accounts department.
To speak to an account handler please press one.
Female: Hello KGM
PC G: Hi there, it is PC Geoghan from the Met Police I need to speak to someone about a policy of insurance a gentleman claims to have with you.
Female: Okay if you hold the line, I will pass you through to our underwriting department
Carl KGM: Good afternoon, Carl speaking how can I help.

PC G: Hi there, it is PC Geoghan from the Metropolitan Police I have got a gentleman stopped and he has produced a certificate of insurance from KGM, and I just wanted to clarify some of the limitation on the use.
Carl: Okay do you have a policy number
PC G: Yeah, I do it is MT3574694.
Carl: It is a Motor trade policy. Yeah, I might have to forward you to another Department.
PC G: Yes sure
Jessica: Hi, you have been passed through to Jessica from KGM how I can help.
PC G: I have a gentleman here who has been stopped with an insurance certificate issued by KGM. I have a policy number and other details.
Jessica: Okay I can see that from my screen.
PC G: Basically, it says motor trade and SDWP and use motor trade purposes- Looking at vehicle it has a load of tools in, and they appear to be workers doing sort of work odd jobs here and there. Is that something motor trade would cover?
Jessica: No, he just covered for road trade, road risk only and SDWP and would not cover for any other occupation.
PC G: Okay right, right. He is claimed he bought the vehicle today or yesterday and he is not able to produce any proof that he has done that.
Jessica: Rights
PC G: Erm, does he have to notify you of any vehicles.
206,
Jessica: When a client purchases a vehicle, they have 14 days to make us aware. If they didn't within 14 days, they don't make us aware then they're not covered but anything like this happened we do need proof to show that he had only had it within the 14 days otherwise it would not cover it we need to obviously we would not ask for proof normally but say if he has like pulled over now, we would ask because he could just say he bought it yesterday or a week ago and we would still cover him.
PC G: So, it definitely does not cover him on the if he literally going around with tools in the van doing jobs that is not something, he is covered for.
Jessica: Certainly not
PC G: That is not something for which he is covered.
Jessica: No certainly not
PC G: Can I just get your name obviously for my notes.

Thank you for calling KGM introduction hold whilst we connect you to our underwriters.
Charlton Car pound: good afternoon, James's speaking
James KMG: Hello James is Kelly there please. Who is calling please?
Charlton Car pound –
Car pound Metropolitan police service James KMG: Yes, one second please. Okay I will just put you through Kelly Tiller – Hello Kelly: speaking.
Gareth: Hello Kelly, my name is Gareth, Manager of Charlton Car Pound Metropolitan Police Service I am dealing with a Mr Simon Paul Cordell something about the tools in the back of his vehicle.
Kelly: Correct yes.
Gareth: All I can do is I have looked at the seizure notice which would be given to Paul at the time and any property left was blank so if there were any tools in the back normally that would be registered as tools in the rear of the vehicle.
Kelly: Right okay because we had a call from the police.
Gareth: Yes
Kelly: He advised that there were tools in the vehicle.
Gareth: Do you want to speak to him a moment.
Kelly: Who Sorry
207,
Gareth: Paul because I have got him in front of me.
Kelly: Yes that is fine.
SC: Hello
Kelly: Hello
SC: You all right Kelly
Kelly: Okay what have they given you there.
SC: They have not given me anything, but he did explain to you on the phone that there's' no tools on the vehicle on their CADs and in any case, they would write those down tools in the vehicle and so forth Kelly: Right okay and has he gives you a print out of this.
SC: No, you will have to ask him yourself
Kelly: Right can you pass me back to him.
Gareth: Hello Kelly
Kelly: Hello, right okay so if there was any kind of tools in the vehicle it would be stated on there.
Gareth: Well yes what happens on the roadside a police officer will issue a seizure notice and he will say do you want to take any property out of the vehicle, normally they take satnavs, wallets, money whatever.
Kelly: He could have taken the tools out of the vehicle.
Gareth: Well, I do not know I am not going to comment on that to be perfectly frank with you all I can do is comment on the paperwork that I see in front of me Right okay.
Gareth: And there was nothing left in the vehicle.
Kelly: At the time of when it come in but obviously Yeah.
Kelly: He has had the opportunity to take items out of that vehicle.
Gareth: But then it would have been mentioned that he had done that and there is nothing there saying that he had, and it would have also mentioned what was taken on the seizure notice yes.
Kelly: Is there any chance you can forward me a copy of this.

Gareth: No, we are not allowed to under the Police Act and God knows what else. All I can confirm is what I have seen on the seizure notice.
Kelly: Can you confirm that in an email to me please.
Gareth: Right, what you do
Kelly: I have already emailed yourselves and Right.
You have replied to say you would not have anything like that on record and I just need you to pop me over an email to say that.
Gareth: If you go to Charlton car Charlton documents and I can reply from there because we have firewalls and God knows what else.
Kelly: So, you do not use the VCES one of whatever it is called.
Gareth: No if you do charltondocuments@met.police.uk. What I am going to do I am going to bring up a copy of this seizure notice just double check that I have done everything right for you Kelly: Are you a police officer.
Gareth: No, I work at the compound I am just one of the little plebs.
Kelly: I have just forwarded you over a copy of the email and the reply that I got from the VRES Charlton@met.pnn.police.co.uk
Gareth: What I will do I can only go on what we have got here, and I am just bringing it up now if you bear with me. I am looking at the copy of
Kelly: Is that from a PC Geoghan
Gareth: Bear with me at the end of the day it is just a signature.
Kelly: Oh, all right okay
Gareth: All I can say is property left in the vehicle there is nothing in their property removed from driver that is blank as well but obviously he did not remove anything else as that would have been registered.
Kelly: Yes
Gareth: He would have told the officer there's tools in there be careful as they are part of me trade.
Kelly: Yes
Gareth: Then that would have been registered they were within there. We take them out and put them into our property store for safe-keeping and then when he comes to collect them, they get given back then.
Kelly: Right okay that fine it is just when we got a call from the officer when he has Mr Cordell at the roadside, he has advised us that he is carrying tools in his vehicle.
Gareth: Well, I cannot comment on that I can only go on the information on that seizure notice and there was nothing been entered that the gentleman removed anything or there was anything left. That is all I can say.
Kelly: That is fine no worries so if you can just reply to my email there and then that will be great. Thanks for your help.

The Ringing Tone:--
Answer machine; Thank you for calling KGM motor insurance to insure the quality of our service to aid tanning and to assist in the prevention of fraud, all calls get recorded.
Answer Machine; thank you for call KGM account department.
The Ringing Sound starts:-- Caller Assistant: Good afternoon accounts.
Police Officer: Hi there it is PC Geoghegan, from hmm the Metropolitan Police.
Caller Assistant: Hello there.
Police Officer: I am trying to speak to someone about a policy of insurance, hum a gentleman, seems to claim to hold with you.
Caller Assistant: OK, right can you just wait a minute and I will pass you on to underwriters.
Police Officer: That would be great thank you cheers.
Caller Assistant: OK
Ringing Sound starts:--
Caller Assistant: Good afternoon Carl speaking; how can I help you?
Police officer: Hi there it is PC Geoghegan from the Metropolitan Police, hum I have got; a gentleman stopped, and he has produced a certificate that is hum from KGM
Caller Assistant: Hmm, hmm, yes,
Police officer: Hmm, and I just wanted to clarify just some limitations on the use.
Caller Assistant: OK, Have you got a policy number at all pleas
Police Officer: Year I do year, I have got it hmm mike tango 3574694
Caller Assistant: yes, all right hmm; ah, it is a motor trade policy I might have to forward you to another department, as I am not very well-trained it this case
Police Officer: Yes that is fine.
Caller Assistant: So hold, on one minute.
Police Officer: Yep, sure.
Silence---
Caller Assistant: Hi you have been passed through to Jessica how could I help.
Police Officer: Hi there I am PC Geoghegan from the Metropolitan Police I have got a gentleman stopped, who has produced a certificate of insurance.
Caller Assistant: Yes.
Police Officer: That got issued by KGM insurance I have got a policy number and the other details on their.
Caller Assistant: Yes, I have got the policy number, I have got that up now on my computer screen how is it that I can help you.
Police Officer: Well basically it is down showing use for stamp and motor trade purposes.
Caller Assistant: Hmm, Hmm.
Police Officer: Hmm, looking at the vertical it has got a load of tools in, hmm obviously workmen doing sort of work doing odd sort of work odd jobs here and there
Caller Assistant: Yes.
Police Officer: Is that something that motor trade would cover, Caller Assistant: No.

Police Officer: No.
Caller Assistant: We just cover motor traders only and stamp, that is it we would not cover him for any other occupation.
Police Officer: Right, Right, He is claiming that he brought the Vehicles today, or yesterday and he is not able to produce any prove that he has actually done that.
Caller Assistant: Right.
Police Officer: Does he have to notify you of any Vehicles that he has got in change?
Caller Assistant: What it is ah when a client purses a vehicle they have fourteen days to make us aware and if in them fourteen days they do not make us aware, then they are not covered.
Police Officer: OK.
Caller Assistant: But if anything like this ever happens we do need prove to show that he has only had it for them fourteen days otherwise we would not cover it, we need to oversee prove, we would not ask for proof normally.
Police Officer: Right.
Caller Assistant: But like say as he has now and got pulled over we would ask for that.
Police Officer: Yes.
Caller Assistant: Because he could just say that he bought it yesterday or a week ago, and we can still cover him.
Police Officer: That is what I am saying, that is what I am saying; that is what I am saying as well all right and, err, so it deferentially does not cover anything that hmm, if he is literally going around with tools in the van doing jobs Caller Assistant: Yep.
Police Officer: That is not something that he is covered for.
Caller Assistant: Nope, nope certainly not.
Police Officer: All Right, can I just get your name hmm, just obviously for my notes so that I can say that I spoke to you guys, OK just hold on one second.
Caller Assistant: Hmm.
Police Officer: Yes if you just go ahead with your name.
Caller Assistant: Yes it is hmm, Jessica Kempton.
Police Officer: Jessica Kempton and just to get your date of birth and a contact number.
Caller Assistant: Yes it is hmm, the 2nd of February 1992.
Police Officer: Yep.
Caller Assistant: And it's 0208-530-1822.
Police Officer: 1822 and you work in the.
Caller Assistant: In the underwriting department under motor trade.
Police Officer: All right brilliant.
Police Officer: All right thank you very much for your help.

1 Driving: Met Police Brixton Case. / Martin Broadsure direct – "Today the 15/11/2013 I made a call to be able to speak to you regarding what happened yesterday the 14/11/2013 with the police. I have talked to Oilly today and he asked me to write this email to you as they are thinking of closing my insurance policy. Yesterday I went for a meeting with the owner of a night club for a future job position. The meeting was set for 14.00 hours. I drove down for my meeting and got there at around 13.00 hours there were some police at the road side doing stops on cars etc., as I drove pass and pulled over to park by the night club, my friend who was with me got out of the van to get some drinks and food while I waited in the van, as I got to the club early for my meeting. The police that were doing the stops came up to me, they told me they wanted to do some checks on the van I was sitting in, I asked why, and they told me under the road traffic act. I then passed the police my insurance policy for them to go over, the police officer also asked me why I had stopped there. I explained to him I had a meeting in the nightclub that we were outside, as it was due to open to the public in 1 months' time to secure my future position there. While I was there, I was also planning on asking if there were any painting jobs, I explained all this to the police officer I was talking to. The police looked inside the van and clearly saw it was empty and that there were also no signs on the van showing it to be a company van. But the police officer was still unhappy. He talked to yourselves as the insurance company on the phone and was told I was not insured, at what point I called you myself as my insurance company as I knew I was insured. I explained the situation to yourselves to be told I was covered for commuting to work, social and domestic, as well as motor trade, but not for carriage of goods for a company, which did not matter as my van was empty and still is whilst being in the police impound. I am making a complaint to the independent complaints commission regarding the unlawful seizure of my vehicle. Further to this would it please be possible to find out the status of my insurance policy and the reasons as to why I have been told you are in the process of closing my policy.

Caller Assistant: Thank you for calling KGM underwriting department.
Caller Assistant: Good afternoon James speaking how can, we help you.
Police Officer: Hello James is Kelley there please.
Caller Assistant: Hmm, one second who is calling please?
Police Officer: It is John from the car compound for the Metropolitan police service.
Caller Assistant: Err, yes one second hold on their please.
Silence;--
Police Officer:
Caller Assistant: OK, I will just put you through in just one second.
Police Officer: Thank you.
Silence;--
Caller Assistant: Hello Kelley speaking
Police Officer: Hello Kelley my name is Gareth I am the manager at the Charlton car compound for the Metropolitan police car compound services.
Caller Assistant: Hello there.
Police Officer: Hello I am dealing at the moment with a Mr. Simon Paul Cordell
Caller Assistant: Yes.

Police Officer: Something about the tools in the back of his vehicle.
Caller Assistant: Correct.
Police Officer: Right all I can do is I have looked at the seizer notice.
Caller Assistant: OK.
Police Officer: Which would have got given to Paul at the time and any property left is blank so if there was any tools in the back normally that would be registered as tools in the rear of vehicle.
Caller Assistant: Right, OK, because we had a call from the police.
Police Officer: Yes.
Caller Assistant: And he advised that there were tools in the vehicle.
Police Officer: Right do you want to speak to him for one moment Caller Assistant: Who sorry.
Police Officer: To Paul because I have got him in front of me.
Caller Assistant: Yes that is fine yes going ahead,
Police Officer: One moment, that is Kelley.
Simon: Hello.
Caller Assistant: Hello.
Simon: Are you alright Kelley?
Caller Assistant: Yes.
Simon: OK.
Police Officer: year, OK, so what has got given to you there?
Simon: They have not given me anything, but he has explained to you on the phone that there are no tools in the vehicle on their CADS and in any case they would normally write that sort of stuff down such as tools in the vehicle and so forth.
Caller Assistant: OK, hmm, and has he gives you a print out?
Simon: No I have not got a printout you might have to ask him yourselves.
Caller Assistant: Yes, OK, that is fine if you just want to pass me back to him thank you.
Police Officer: Hello Kelley.
Caller Assistant: Hello right so if there were any kind of tools in the vehicle it would get stated on their Police Officer: Well yes, because of what would happen, is on the roadside a police officer will issue a seizure notice
Caller Assistant: OK.
Police Officer: And then he will say do you want to take any property out of the vehicle and normally they would take sat navigation systems and money wallets or whatever.
Caller Assistant: But he could have taken the tools out of the vehicle Police Officer: Well I do not know because I was not even there so I am not going to comment on that to be completely frank with you.
Caller Assistant: All right.
Police Officer: All I can do is comment on the paperwork that I see in front of me.
Caller Assistant: Right OK.
Police Officer: And there was nothing left in the vehicle.
Caller Assistant: Right at the time of when it comes in but obviously, he had the opportunity to take items out of the vehicle.
Police Officer: No because that would have been registered that he had done and there is nothing there when he had.
Caller Assistant: So, it would have also been mentioned with what was taken.
Police Officer: yes, yes, on the seizer notice.
Caller Assistant: OK, is there any chance that you could forward me a copy of this please.

Police Officer: No we are not allowed to under the police Act and good knows what else, all that I can confirm is what I have seen on the seizure notice.
Caller Assistant: OK, and can you confirm that in an email please?
Police Officer: Right, what you do is if you.
Caller Assistant: I have already emailed yourselves and I got a reply to say that hmm you would not have anything like that on records so I just need to pop me over an email to say that.
Police Officer: All right you go to Charlton car, if you go to the Charlton documents.
Caller Assistant: Yes.
Police Officer: And then I can reply from there because we have got fire walls and god knows what else.
Caller Assistant: so you do not use the one vcsc1 or whatever it can get called.
Police Officer: No I will give you the address just one moment, Charlton documents all one word.
Caller Assistant: Yes.
Police Officer: @ Met.police.UK.
Caller Assistant: yes, hmm.
Police Officer: what I am going to do is just bring up the copy of the seizure notice to just double check that I have got everything right for you.
Caller Assistant: OK.
Caller Assistant: And are you a police officer or do you just work?
Police Officer: No, no I just work at the compound I am a civilian.
Caller Assistant: OK.
Police Officer: All I can see is property in the vehicle there is nothing in there and property removed by driver is blank as well, so he never moved anything else as that would have got registered, and he would have told the officer that he had tools in their so can he remove them and be careful with them.
Caller Assistant: Yes.
Police Officer: Because then we would take them out and put them into our property store so that they are for safe keeping and then when they come to collect they get given back that.
Caller Assistant: Right that is OK it is just that when we got a call of the officer when he had Mr. Cordell at the roadside, he advised us that he was carrying tools in his vehicle.
Police Officer: Well I cannot comment on that.
Caller Assistant: No, I know that you cannot.
Police Officer: But what I can go on is the information on that seizer notice and there was nothing noted about the gentlemen removing anything or there is not anything left in the van, that is; all that I can say.
Caller Assistant: That is fine no worries, so if you could just reply to my email then and that would be great.
Police Officer: OK, then.
Caller Assistant: Yes, cheers and goodbye.

Dear Martin
Today the 15/11/2013 I made a call to be able to speak to you regarding what happened yesterday the 14/11/2013 with the police. I have talked to Oilly today and he asked me to write this email to you as they are thinking of closing my insurance policy. Yesterday I went for a meeting with the owner of a night club for a future job position the meeting was set for 14.00 hours. I drove down for my meeting and got there at around 13.00 hours there were some police at the road side doing stops on cars etc, as I drove pass and pulled over to park by the night club, my friend who was with me got out of the van to get some drinks and food while I waited in the van, as I got to the club early for my meeting. The police that were doing the stops came up to me, they told me they wanted to do some checks on the van I was sitting in, I asked why, and they told me under the road traffic act. I then passed the police my insurance policy for them to go over, the police officer also asked me why I had stopped there. I explained to him I had a meeting in the night club that we were outside, as it was due to open to the public in 1-month time to secure my future position there. While I was there, I was also planning to ask if there were any painting jobs, I explained all this to the police officer to whom I was talking. The police looked inside the van and clearly saw it was empty and that there were also no signs on the van showing it to be a company van. But the police officer was still unhappy. He talked to yourselves as the insurance company on the phone and was told I was not insured, at what point I called you myself as my insurance company as I knew I was insured. I explained the situation to yourselves to be told I was covered for commuting to work, social and domestic, as well as motor trade, but not for carriage of goods for a company, which did not matter as my van was empty and still is whilst being in the police impound. I am putting in a complaint to the independent complaints commission regarding the unlawful seizure of my vehicle. Further to this would it please be possible to find out the status of my insurance policy and the reasons as to why I have been told you are in the process of closing my policy.
Yours sincerely
Mr. Simon Cordell

2 Driving: To Broadsure Direct – "After the call you made today and talked to myself Miss Lorraine Cordell, I am sending over the information you asked for. I do feel also that KMG asking to speak to the police office is in breach of my data protection, but I will be willing to write and allow them to do this. As I said to KMG yesterday on a phone that was made to them when I talked to Kelly Tilley, I have not been found guilty at a court of law for not having no insurance and it is for a court of law to find me guilty not a police officer who thinks I done something when I have not. Even if KGM does speak to the police office he will still say what he feels and that is not a fact that I am guilty of anything. To be found guilty it would have to be done in front of a judge. Also, Martin as you said on the phone today when you in fact talked to the police on that day not once did, they say I had anything in my van that would void my insurance, and in fact I believe at this stage if the police did in fact have proof, they would have said to you that my van was full of things which is not the case. I would like to also know if my insurance is going to carry on while this matter is addressed or if it will be closed down on the 27/11/2013 as the letter says that KGM have sent me. And if KMG is going to close my policy I would like full written conditions of what part of my policy I have broken. As for the letter of complain that will be going to the police Simon still has not fully read over it to make sure there is no errors or anything else that needs adding but it does go into details as to what went on, it is only for use by yourself and KGM to read only. Also, as I said on the phone to you today the police are also telling me that the 3 times that my vehicles were seized and I had to pay for them to be taken out of the compound, I will need to claim this back from my insurance company as they had not done their job and put them on the database so they are at fault not the police. You said to me today that KGM are looking into this as they are on the database and it should show to the police that I am in fact injured. This has not been the case for me and I have suffered badly due to this and this is the reason I have to carry my insurance policy at all times so when I get pulled over by the police I can show them my documents, as the police say it does not show up as I am insured, this is also the reason the insurance company have had so many calls from the police to asked if I am insured or not since my policy started. Could you please send me proof that the vehicles were on the database so I can put the claim to the police to get my money back for the times my vehicles were seized. As at this stage I do not want to have to put a freedom of information act into yourselves or the police to the number of times that the police have in fact had to call my insurance company to see if I was insured due to the police saying I was not insured. I have always been very happy with Broadsure Direct that is why I have still use them and would like my insurance to carry on under them."

I do feel also that KMG asking to speak to the police office is in breach of my data protection, but I will be willing to write and allow them to do this. As I said to KMG yesterday on a phone that was made to them when I talked to Kelly Tilley, I have not been found guilty at a court of law for not having insurance and it is for a court of law to find me guilty not a police officer who thinks I done something when I have not. Even if KGM does speak to the police office he will still say what he feels and that is not a fact that I am guilty of anything. To be found guilty it would have to be done in front of a judge. Also, Martin as you said on the phone today when you in fact talked to the police on that day not once did, they say I had anything in my van that would void my insurance, and in fact I believe at this stage if the police did in fact have proof, they would have said to you that my van was full of things which is not the case. I would like to also know if my insurance is going to continue while this matter is addressed or if it will be closed on the 27/11/2013 as the letter says that KGM have sent me. And if KMG is going to close my policy I would like full written conditions of what part of my policy I have broken. As for the letter of complain that will be going to the police Simon still has not fully read over it to make sure there is no errors or anything else that needs adding but it does go into details as to what went on, it is only for use by yourself and KGM to read only. Also, as I said on the phone to you today the police are also telling me that the 3 times that my vehicles were seized and I had to pay for them to be taken out of the compound, I will need to claim this back from my insurance company as they had not done their job and put them on the database so they are at fault not the police. You said to me today that KGM are looking into this as they are on the database, and it should show up to the police that I am in fact insured. This has not been the case for me and I have suffered badly due to this and this is the reason I have to carry my insurance policy at all times so when I get pulled over by the police I can show them my documents, as the police say it does not show up as I am insured, this is also the reason the insurance company have had so many calls from the police to asked if I am insured or not since my policy started. Could you please send me proof that the vehicles where on the database so I can put the claim in to the police to get my money back for the times my vehicles were seized. As at this stage I do not want to have to put a freedom of information act into yourselves or the police to the number of times that the police have in fact had to call my insurance company to see if I was insured due to the police saying I was not insured. I have always been very happy with Broadsure Direct that is why I have still use them and would like my insurance to carry on under them.

Dear Martin
Today the15/11/2013 I made a call to be able to speak to you regarding what happened yesterday the 14/11/2013 with the police. I have talked to Oilly today and he asked me to write this email to you as they are thinking of closing my insurance policy. Yesterday I went for a meeting with the owner of a night club for a future job position the meeting was set for 14.00 hours. I drove down for my meeting and got there at around 13.00 hours there were some police at the road side doing stops on cars etc, as I drove pass and pulled over to park by the night club, my friend who was with me got out of the van to get some drinks and food while I waited in the van, as I got to the club early for my meeting. The police that were doing the stops came up to me, they told me they wanted to do some checks on the van I was sitting in, I asked why, and they told me under the road traffic act. I then passed the police my insurance policy for them to go over, the police officer also asked me why I had stopped there. I explained to him I had a meeting in the night club that we were outside, as it was due to open to the public in 1-month time to secure my future position there. While I was there, I was also planning to ask if there were any painting jobs, I explained all this to the police officer to whom I was talking. The police looked inside the van and clearly saw it was empty and that there were also no signs on the van showing it to be a company van. But the police officer was still unhappy. He talked to yourselves as the insurance company on the phone and was told I was not insured, at what point I called you myself as my insurance company as I knew I was insured. I explained the situation to yourselves to be told I was covered for commuting to work, social and domestic, as well as motor trade, but not for carriage of goods for a company, which did not matter as my van was empty and still is whilst being in the police impound. I am putting in a complaint to the independent complaints commission regarding the unlawful seizure of my vehicle. Further to this would it please be possible to find out the status of my insurance policy and the reasons as to why I have been told you are in the process of closing my policy.

Yours sincerely
Mr. Simon Cordell

The police looked inside the van and clearly saw it was empty and that there were also no signs on the van showing it to be a company van. But the police officer was still unhappy. He talked to yourselves as the insurance company on the phone and was told I was not insured, at what point I called you myself as my insurance company as I knew I was insured. I explained the situation to yourselves to be told I was covered for commuting to work, social and domestic, as well as motor trade, but not for carriage of goods for a company, which did not matter as my van was empty and still is whilst being in the police impound. I am putting in a complaint to the independent complaints commission regarding the unlawful seizure of my vehicle. Further to this would it please be possible to find out the status of my insurance policy and the reasons as to why I have been told you are in the process of closing my policy.

Yours sincerely
Mr. Simon Cordell

How Your Housing Benefit Has Been Worked Out for the period
From 25/11/2013 your Housing Benefit will be £86.84 each week.
The rent you are charged each week is £92.49.
Housing Benefit cannot pay for some service charges that are included in your rent. The rent you pay must be reduced by the amount of these service charges. These amounts are shown below:

Actual amount for Ineligible Water	£5.65
Total deductions for services	£5.65

The amount of rent after deducting these charges is called your maximum eligible rent. Your rent of £92.49 must be reduced by £5.65, to £86.84 each week. This is your maximum eligible rent.
The maximum Housing Benefit you can get is £86.84 each week. This figure is used when working out 'your total weekly Housing Benefit'.
Your Total Weekly Housing Benefit
As you are receiving Income Support, I can pay the maximum Housing Benefit of £86.84 each week.
How Your Council Tax Support Has Been Worked Out
Based on your circumstances I have decided to assess your claim using the Working Age scheme.
From 25/11/2013, your council tax support is £12.64 each week.
The maximum council tax support you could get.
Your council tax liability for the year is £818.62 which for this period is £15.70 each week. The maximum council tax support you could get is therefore £15.70 each week. This figure is used when working out 'your total weekly council tax support'.

Your Total Weekly Council Tax Support
A reduction of the maximum council tax support of £15.70 that you could get each week must be reduced by £3.06, to £12.64.
As you are receiving income support, I can pay you your maximum council tax support of £12.64 each week.

Hello Martin
After the call you made today and talked to myself Miss Lorraine Cordell, I am sending over the information you asked for. I do feel also that KMG asking to speak to the police office is in breach of my data protection, but I will be willing to write and allow them to do this.
As I said to KMG yesterday on a phone that was made to them when I talked to Kelly Tilley, I have not been found guilty at a court of law for not having insurance and it is for a court of law to find me guilty not a police officer who thinks I done something when I have not.
Even if KGM does speak to the police office he will still say what he feels and that is not a fact that I am guilty of anything. To be found guilty it would have to be done in front of a judge.
Also, Martin as you said on the phone today when you in fact talked to the police on that day not once did, they say I had anything in my van that would void my insurance, and in fact I believe at this stage if the police did in fact have proof, they would have said to you that my van was full of things which is not the case.
I would like to also know if my insurance is going to carry on while this matter is addressed or if it will be closed down on the 27/11/2013 as the letter says that KGM have sent me. And if KMG is going to close my policy I would like full written conditions of what part of my policy I have broken.
As for the letter of complain that will be going to the police Simon still has not fully read over it to make sure there is no errors or anything else that needs adding but it does go into details as to what went on, it is only for use by yourself and KGM to read only.
Also, as I said on the phone to you today the police are also telling me that the 3 times that my vehicles were seized and I had to pay for them to be taken out of the compound, I will need to claim this back from my insurance company as they had not done their job and put them on the database so they are at fault not the police.

You said to me today that KGM are looking into this as they are on the database, and it should show up to the police that I am in fact insured. This has not been the case for me and I have suffered badly due to this and this is the reason I have to carry my insurance policy at all times so when I get pulled over by the police I can show them my documents, as the police say it does not show up as I am insured, this is also the reason the insurance company have had so many calls from the police to asked if I am insured or not since my policy started. Could you please send me proof that the vehicles where on the database so I can put the claim in to the police to get my money back for the times my vehicles were seized. As at this stage I do not want to have to put a freedom of information act into yourselves or the police to the number of times that the police have in fact had to call my insurance company to see if I was insured due to the police saying I was not insured.
I have always been very happy with Broadsure Direct that is why I have still use them and would like my insurance to carry on under them.

Hi Martin
Can you let me know by email if I am going to still have insurance as from the 27/11/2013 please, I got a letter saying my insurance will be closed from the 27/11/2013, and I cannot see the reason for this as I have done nothing wrong.
Many Thanks

Dear Martin
Today the 15/11/13 I made a call to be able to speak to you regarding what happened yesterday the 14/11/2013 with the police. I have talked to Oilly today and he asked me to write this email to you as they are thinking of closing my insurance policy.
Yesterday I went for a meeting with the owner of a night club for a future job position the meeting was set for 14.00 hours.
I drove down for my meeting and got there at around 13.00 hours there were some police at the road side doing stops on cars etc, as I drove pass and pulled over to park by the night club, my friend who was with me got out of the van to get some drinks and food while I waited in the van, as I got to the club early for my meeting.

The police that were doing the stops came up to me, they told me they wanted to do some checks on the van I was sitting in, I asked why, and they told me under the road traffic act.
I then passed the police my insurance policy for them to go over, the police officer also asked me why I had stopped there.
I explained to him I had a meeting in the night club that we were outside, as it was due to open to the public in 1-month time to secure my future position there. While I was there, I was also planning to ask if there were any painting jobs, I explained all this to the police officer to whom I was talking.
The police looked inside the van and clearly saw it was empty and that there were also no signs on the van showing it to be a company van. But the police officer was still unhappy. He talked to yourselves as the insurance company on the phone and was told I was not insured, at what point I called you myself as my insurance company as I knew I was insured. I explained the situation to yourselves to be told I was covered for commuting to work, social and domestic, as well as motor trade, but not for carriage of goods for a company, which did not matter as my van was empty and still is whilst being in the police impound.
I am putting in a complaint to the independent complaints commission regarding the unlawful seizure of my vehicle.
Further to this would it please be possible to find out the status of my insurance policy and the reasons as to why I have been told you are in the process of closing my policy.
Yours sincerely
Mr Simon Cordell

I am writing this complaint about the 14/10/2013 when I was going to a meeting with an owner of a night club for a future job position the meeting was set for 14.00 hours at Brixton Hill SW2 1QZ.
When I got to Brixton Hill SW2 1QZ there were some police on the roadside doing some stops of cars etc, I drove pass them and parked up just in front of them.
My friend who was with me got out of my van and went to buy some drinks and food while I waited in the van.
Then next thing a police officer come to my van and said to me he waited to do some checks on my van I asked him the reason for this the police officer replied under the road traffic act he also asked me the reason I had stopped there as I was passing him my insurance documents.
I explained to him I had a meeting in the night club that we were outside, as it was due to open to the public in 1-month time to secure my future position there. While I was there, I was also planning to ask if there were any painting jobs, I explained all this to the police officer to whom I was talking.
The police officer made a call to my insurance company, and he then replied to me they are saying that I was not insured, at this I was very shocked and started to make a call to my mother to ask her to call my insurance company to speak about why they were saying I was not insurance. She is fact talked to a person called Martin who took Simons Number and said he would call him. Martin did call and I explained to him what was going on and he told me I was insured and talked to the police office and told him that I was insured. The police talked on the phone more than once and was told I was in fact insured to drive my van.
The police officer was still not happy and now told me that I was using my Van for work which I told him that was not the case and that I was here for a meeting, I told the police officer to look in my van and see if there were any working tools inside it. The police officer saw this was not the case as the van was empty.
By this time a next police officer had come to the other police officer and I started to talk to him I explained what was going on and what the other officer was saying that I was using my Van to work in, which was not the case and I told him also to look in the van and see if there were any working tools in there. I even showed him a business card I had got made up to give out to people in the hope of work. Which the police officer put in his own wallet to keep for himself.
At this the other officer overheard me and the other officer talking about the business card and then used this to say that I had in fact been working and this is why he was going to seize my van. I told him that where is the print bushes and print in my van as this is what was on the business card it was a printer's business card. The officer then said why have you got paint of your jeans I told him that I did not have money to buy new jeans and that was why I was looking for work to try and better myself. I also told the office to go into the property where I was due to go for a meeting and ask them if I was working there. He refused to do this. I still feel as if there is a big issue here, I am allowed to drive to a meeting and park there if I am not carrying goods for a company which I was not and that could clearly be seen my van was empty so how anyone can think I am doing anything wrong is beyond me.
The police officer did not want to hear anything I had to say and was looking for any reason from the start to arrest me or seize my van this was his aim from the start.
It did not matter that the insurance company told him I was insured, the only thing I would not be insured for were if I was to use my van as a tool for carriage of goods for any company which was clearly not the case as my van was empty.

I am insured to go back and forward to any place of work as my insurance covers for social domestic and pleasure and commuting as well as motor trade.

The police officer for some reason would not hear I was insured and just at this time wanted to seize my Van. He was asking me to sign a ticket to give me six points on my licence and a £300 fine and for my van to be seized. Which I did understand what he was asking me to do as this has not happened to me only this time but a further two times when the police on a Sunday on both other times seized my vehicles due to them not being able to call my insurance company. And it is showing on the database I was not insured.
I refused to sign as I knew I was insured. I told the police officer to arrest me and that we could get this sorted at the police station, due to me refusing to sign the ticket the police officer arrested me as I asked him to do.
All this time I was on the phone to my mother, and she heard all of what was going on. PC Smith spoke to my mum also on the phone two times as well, my mother also asked PC smith was there anything in my Van and PC Smith told her not that the van was empty. My mother also called the insurance company and talked to them they also told her I was insured, and they could not understand why the police was doing this.
I was taken to Southwark police station they were still trying to force me to sign the ticket which I did not want to do, they told me if I did not sign then they would not bail me and take me to court the next morning, I told them to do this I was willing to stay in the police cells till the next day when this could be heard by a judge as I knew I was not in the wrong, they changed their mind and told this would not happen and they wanted me out of the police station. They forced me to sign the ticket and then made me leave the police station,
While waiting outside by reception in the police station I asked to speak to an inspector the police officer who had come to drive me out of Southwark told me if I did not leave with them now then I would have to make my own way or I would break my bail conditions of not being in Southwark, I was on the phone to my mum and she told me she was going to get off the phone and call my solicitors, which she did, my solicitors told my mum to tell me to wait and talk to an inspector and that due to the police taking me to Southwark I would not be breaking my bail conditions as the police had taken me there.
I waited to see an inspector and talked to him, he said due to the police being from Brixton there was very little he could do, but he would get an inspector from Brixton to call me so I could put in my complaint in, this has not happened, and this is the reason I am writing my complaint to yourselves. I had to make my way home with no money each time getting to the stop on the train I needed to change telling the train officer what had happened if it was not for the fact, they let me get back without paying I would have had to walk all the way home as the police officer would not let me get my things out of the van or my money.
I went to pick my van up and again there was a cost to myself of £190, I will be taking this to court as I should have had no need to have six points put on my licence and a £300 fine when I did in fact have insurance to drive.
Due to also the police officer lying to my insurance saying I was working and carrying goods in my van which is clearly a lie as the van was empty, I have also had a letter saying they are closing my insurance over, so I am having to deal with this also.
I do not feel the police officer who dealt with this matter address it as he should have, I feel he did not do his job correctly and I have suffered due to this. My insurance company are saying that the data for my vehicles are on the data base and are looking into the reason it is not showing up when the police are doing their checks.

Yours sincerely Mr Simon Cordell

To Whom It May Concern:

I am writing this email after calling the police and being told to contract yourselves about a matter I am trying to sort out. My Van reg CX52 JRZ was impounded to Charlton Car Pound, 8 Bramshot Avenue, London, SE7 7HY on the 14/11/2013 tickets No: 01/ J63181495 I have been told by the police when I called them that each vehicle that is impounded you do a check on to list what items are in there. I would like to know how I can go about getting a list of items that was in my van reg CX52 JRZ as I need this list to give it to my insurance company. Or if my insurance company emails you, can you give them a list.
Many Thanks

Hello Martin
I have spent all weekend trying to get hold of the Charlton Car Pound as that is where the police have said there will hold a list of what was in the van. The police have told me that the compound must make a list of every vehicle that is impounded so it covers them also so they will have a list. I have sent two emails over the weekend which I do know they have read as I had tracking on them. I have spoken to Kelly today and she has asked me to make sure you have the information for the compound and can you pass it over to her asap. Also, can you find out from Kelly Tiller if Simon will be covered after 12.00 today while she gets hold of the compound, please and let us know as soon as possible.
Emails for the compound charltondocuments@met.police.uk vrescharlton@met.police.uk
Address and ticket number
Charlton Car Pound, 8 Bramshot Avenue, London, SE7 7HY on the 14/11/2013 tickets No: 01/ J63181495 Charlton Car Pound 02082848661 telephone number that I can find. Van Reg CX52JRZ and the date was taken in was the 14/11/2013 I have also been speaking to Sally Browne, duty inspector at Lambeth police station, I have spoken to her on the 22/11/2013 and the 23/11/2013 when she called me back?
I was told that due to this going to court the police would not be able to talk to us and that they will not be back on duty till the end of this week, and they will be doing night shaft. CAD 7548/22Nov13 and CAD 10164/22Nov13 these are the 2 CAD numbers for me asking to speak to the inspector Silly Browne. Please see the read receipts below for the emails I sent over to the compound.

Dear Sir or Madam
Subject access request
Mr Simon Cordell 109 Burncroft Ave Enfield Middlesex EN3 7JQ
Please supply the information about me I am entitled to under the Data Protection Act 1998 relating to:

1. All data to prove that my Vehicles were on the database since my insurance was taken out.
2. Phone recording of the 14/11/2013 with the police officer and Jessica advising that Mr. Simon Cordell was carrying tools in his vehicle.
3. Phone call for 26/11/2013 with Kelly Tiller and the manager of the Charlton vehicle pound, 8 Bramshot Avenue, Charlton, London, SE7 7HY, saying that there were no tools in the van Reg CX52 JRZ when it was impounded on the 14/11/2013.
4. And the reason why it still shows as of today's date 25/11/2013 that my Van Reg CX52 JRZ still shows on the Mid database as uninsured.
5. All phone calls have been made to Broadsure Direct and KGM since my policy started when the police had to call to confirm I was in fact injured.
6. If there is any data that cannot be forwarded to me, please state this when forwarding me my data.

42,
If you need any more information from me, or a fee, please let me know as soon as possible.

It may be helpful for you to know that a request for information under the Data Protection Act 1998 should be responded to within 40 days.
If you do not normally deal with these requests, please pass this letter to your Data Protection Officer. If you need advice on dealing with this request, the Information Commissioner's Office can assist you and can be contacted on 0303 123 1113 or at www.ico.org.uk/
Yours faithfully

Dear Kelly Tiller
Would it please be possible to confirm by email that I am in fact still insured so I have this in writing by KGM.
Also, I have talked to Martin and he has told me that you need the logbook for my Vehicles, I am still waiting for them to come back from DVLA and as soon as I get them back which can take up to 8 weeks, I have been told by DVLA on the phone today, I will scan them in and send them over to Martin.
Also, can you please look into the reason that my Van CX52 JRZ is still showing up on the database as uninsured as of today's date.
My Car MA57 LDY is now showing as insured.
Yours faithfully
Mr Simon Cordell

1 An Email to my solicitor: Met Police Brixton Case. / Broadsure Direct - "Is there any update as to Simon case have you got any of the information from the crown yet and how is the 3-party discloser going with the insurance company as the case is on the WL for the 16/12/2013 and there not many weeks left till this date? Also, an update as to the other day when the police seized Simon case. The police officer called Simon insurance it was at this point he told the Insurance company that Simon had tools in his van. And the insurance company has this recorded. The insurance company was then going to void Simon insurance due to what the police office had told them. The insurance was going to be closed as of the 23/11/2013 Simon then told the insurance company if they close his insurance down that he will sure as he did not have any tools the insurance company give him till the 25/11/2013 at 12.00 hours to prove in fact he did not have tools in his van. We called the police and were told to contract the compound the van was taken to as they must list everything that's in any vehicles that are in a vehicle that is taken to any of these compounds. The insurance company asked Simon to go to the compound and call them when he got there to be able to talk to the police at the compound with Simon being there as they would need Simon to be there to be able give the police permission to talk to the insurance company. Simon did this on the 26/11/2013 when he got to the compound, he asked to speak to a manager which he was allowed to do the manager looked on their system and told Simon his van had nothing in there. A call was then made to his insurance company and the manager told them the Van had no tools in there in fact it had nothing in there as if it did it would have been noted on their system and the items would need to be taken out and locked up or they could be liable. The insurance company now have not closed Simon insurance down and now know that the police officer lied to them. So, in fact the police were setting Simon up again."

Hi Josey
Is there any update as to Simon case have you got any of the information from the crown yet and how is the 3-party discloser going with the insurance company as the case is on the WL for the 16/12/2013 and there few weeks left till this date?
Also, an update as to the other day when the police seized Simon case. The police officer called Simon insurance it was at this point he told the Insurance company that Simon had tools in his van. 2 An Email from my solicitor: Gazebo Case - "please see the CPS response to our defence case statement. This was received in the DX today. It does not advance our case. I am also confirming that your barrister can only hold a conference on 12th December 2013 at 10am in Nexus Chambers. He has personal appointments tomorrow and cannot, as previously advise to a conference at Croydon Crown Court. I therefore booked a fixed conference for 12th December 2013 at 10am at Nexus Chambers so that he will not be caught up in a trial and there is no risk of you breaching your curfew. Before that date I would also like to finalise your proof of evidence and I would hope to do that Tuesday afternoon or the following Monday. Please do not hesitate to contact me should you have any further questions regarding this case."

Dear Simon,
please see the CPS response to our defence case statement. This was received in the DX today. It does not advance our case. 3 An Email to my solicitor: Gazebo Case - "Thank you for the email I just got it so will let Simon look over this tomorrow. Can I ask something the receipt from Lilo Leisure is that the receipt for the? 16/02/2013 or the 04/05/2013 as it seems to be the same receipt. What we want is a full list of items and amounts that were taken on the 04/05/2013 and also, the same for the 16/02/2013 someone can't say an amount in £s of damage and items were taken yet not have a full list, or are they saying on each of the receipts for the 04/05/2013and the 16/02/2013 all of the items listed on the receipts were taken it does not make sense as they seem to be the same receipts. There are also no invoices for the repair of the damage on the 16/02/2013 or the 04/05/2013 for someone to come up with the amounts that they have for the damages to this so-called building on the 04/05/2013 Which he would have had to get invoices for his insurance companies. Also, there is no information as to really anything for the 16/02/2013 And no information as to the people that were arrested and what happened to them. There is also nothing to show any work was carried out on the building from 16/02/2013 so, show anything was fixed as I am sure there should have been. There is far too much data that is missing. And I wonder why how can a police officer not have any full lists of items that were taken yet be able to have a total amount of damage that were caused how could they come to these sums? There seems to me a lot in this case is being covered up by the police and I would like this addressed as how can someone have a fair tail without the full facts."

1 An Email to my solicitor: Gazebo Case - "I tried to call you today re Simon case not sure if you got the below email so I will send this again over to you. There are some points I really do not understand and until the crown gives us information as to this it does seem to me that Simon case at court has the claim for Feb 2013 case in it as they are not giving a list of what was taken. 1. Both the invoices from Lilo Leisure Products Ltd that have been given for Simon Case in May 2013 and the information that the crown has just given you are the same. 2. On the invoices the address that the items in the invoice were not delivered to the address the parties were held in, in Feb 2013 and also May 2013 they were delivered to Marks wholesale which is a big shop, so how did they get to the address the parties were held in I am sure Marks wholesale would have storage? space and it does seem very funny that they would move items that were ordered to sell at one of his large shops? 3. There has never been a list of items that Mr. Petal said was taken in May, just an invoice so is Mr. Petal saying that all the items on the list was taken at the party in May 2013 4. So far, we do not even know the list of items that were taken in Feb 2013, and seeing at Mr. petal seems to be using the same invoice for both dates there should be 2 lists of items that were taken 5. what was the cost of the damage to the building in Feb 2013 as it seems from the emails Mr. Petal has listed from his insurance, they have put both claims into one which in fact would then go over to the date Simon hired his sound system out in May 2013 – 2012. 6. Why did the insurance company not pay the Feb 2013 claim-out till after the claim in May 2013? Why did they only pay out after the May 2013 claim is it due that someone was arrested, and they could put both claims over to the court case of Simon. As if you look at the dates of the insurance part it does not make any sense as the last date shows April 2013 yet it says they are paying out both claims, how could they pay out both claims when the party in May had not even happened yet. Or is it the case there was a next party after Feb 2013 and before May 2013. 7. What were the costs of damage to the building in Feb 2013 and the value of the items taken. 8. What was the damage to the building in May 2013 and the value of the items taken. In short how could the property have been stolen in May 2013 if it had already been stolen in Feb 2013 as the invoice is the same? Also, the damage to the building from Feb 2013 seems to have been added to the costs to the May 2013 yet Simon has not been charged with the party in Feb 2013. It seems they have mixed both cases together and Simon is taking the blame for all of it within the costs. The Crown does need to give us all the information to the Feb 2013 case including pictures so we can see ourselves the damage to the building and they need to tell us if anyone was changed in Feb 2013 and what was the outcome. If the crown does not do this then this is an unfair trail they will be holding as to Simon case. Also, we need to see all the insurance claims to see the total costs of damage in Feb 2013 and for the claim in May 2013 and the reasons as to why both cases have been linked together by the insurance company. Also, where is the insurance claim for the items within the warehouse that was meant to have been taken so far, I can only see a claim for the damage to the building? Any claim would need to include a list of the items that were taken and would need to be replaced. Someone cannot just come up with a figure of a cost for items that were taken and so far, it seems as if that has what has been done in both cases Feb 2013 and May 2013."

Hi Josey

I tried to call you today re Simon case not sure if you got the below email so I will send this again over to you. There are some points I really do not understand and until the crown gives us information as to this it does seem to me that Simon case at court has the claim for Feb 2013 case in it as they are not giving a list of what was.

taken.

1. Both the invoices from LiLo Leisure products ltd that have been given for Simon Case in May 2013 and the information that the crown has just given you are the same.

2. On the invoices the address that the items in the invoice were not delivered to the address the parties were held in, in Feb 2013 and also May 2013 they were delivered to Marks wholesale which is a big shop, so how did they get to the address the parties were held in I am sure Marks wholesale would have storage?

space and it does seem very funny that they would move items that were ordered to sell at one of his large shops?

3. There has never been a list of items that Mr petal said was taken in May just an invoice so is Mr Petal saying that all the items on the list was taken at the party in May 2013

4. So far, we do not even know the list of items that were taken in Feb 2013, and seeing at Mr petal seems to be using the same invoice for both dates there should be two lists of items that were taken

5. what was the cost of the damage to the building in Feb 2013 as it seems from the emails Mr Petal has listed from his insurance, they have put both claims into one which in fact would then go over to the date Simon hired his sound system out in May 20131202

6. Why did the insurance company not pay the Feb 2013 claim out till after the claim in May 2013? Why did they only pay out after the May 2013 claim is it due that someone was arrested, and they could put both claims over to the court case of Simon. As if you look at the dates of the insurance part it does not make any sense as the last date shows April 2013, yet it says they are paying out both claims, how could they pay out both claims when the party in May had not even happened yet. Or is it the case there was a next party after Feb 2013 and before May 2013.

7. What was the costs of damage to the building in Feb 2013 and the value of the items taken.
8. What was the damage to the building in May 2013 and the value of the items taken. In short how could the property have been stolen in May 2013 if it had already been stolen in Feb 2013 as the invoice is the same.
Also, the damage to the building from Feb 2013 seems to have been added to the costs to the May 2013 but yet Simon has not been charged with the party in Feb 2013. It seems they have mixed both cases together and Simon is taking the blame for all of it within the costs. Any claim would need to include a list of the items that were taken and would need to be replaced. Someone cannot just produce a figure of a cost for items that were taken and so far, it seems as if that has what has been done in both cases Feb 2013 and May 2013.

Thank you for the email I just got it so will let Simon look over this tomorrow. Can I ask something the receipt from LiLo Leisure is that the receipt for the 16/02/2013 or the? 04/05/2013 as it seems to be the same receipt. What we want is a full list of items and amounts that were taken on the 04/05/2013 and also the same for the 16/02/2013 someone can't say an amount in £s of damage and items were taken yet not have a full list, or are they saying on each of the receipts for the 04/05/2013 and the 16/02/2013 all of the items listed on the receipts were taken it does not make sense as they seem to be the same receipts. There are also no invoices for the repair of the damage on the 16/02/2013 or the 04/05/2013 for someone to produce the amounts that they have for the damages to this so-called building on the 04/05/2013 Which he would have had to get invoices for his insurance companies. Also, there is no information as to really anything for the 16/02/2013 And no information as to the people that were arrested and what happened to them. There is also nothing to show any work was carried out on the building from 16/02/2013.
so, show anything was fixed as I am sure there should have been. There is far too much data that is missing. And I wonder why how can a police officer not have any full lists of items that were taken yet be able to have a total amount of damage that were caused how could they come to these sums?
There seems to me a lot in this case is being covered up by the police and I would like this addressed as how can someone have a fair tail without the full facts.

Subject: CPS response to secondary disclosure and confirmation of conference
Dear Simon / Lorraine
Please see the CPS response to our defence case statement. This was received in the DX today. It does not advance our case. I am also confirming that your barrister can only do a conference on 12th December 2013 at 10am at Nexus Chambers. He has personal appointments tomorrow and cannot as previously advised to a conference at Croydon Crown Court. I have therefore booked a fixed conference for 12th December 2013
314, at 10am at Nexus Chambers so that he will not be caught up in a trial and there is no risk of you breaching your curfew. Before that date I would also like to finalise your proof of evidence and I would hope to do that Tuesday afternoon or the following Monday. Please do not hesitate to contact me should you have any further questions regarding this case.

Hi Lorraine

I am working through my emails slowly and by priority at the moment. I will endeavour to deal with this by Wednesday at the latest. I have been on duty all weekend and today I was in the police station from 9.30am until after midnight. I am aware of the documents being duplicated also. I will deal with each point you raise at the proper time.

Hi Josey

I tried to call you today re Simon case not sure if you got the below email so I will send this again over to you. There are some points I really do not understand and until the crown gives us information as to this it does seem to me that Simon case at court has the claim for Feb 2013 case in it as they are not giving a list of what was taken.

1. Both the invoices from LiLo Leisure products ltd that have been given for Simon Case in May 2013 And the information that the crown has just given you are the same.

2. On the invoices the address that the items in the invoice was not delivered to the address the parties were held in, in Feb 2013 and also May 2013 they were delivered to Marks wholesale which is a big shop, so how did they get to the address the parties were held in I am sure Marks wholesale would have storage space and it does seem very funny that they would move items that were ordered to sell at one of his large shops?

3. There has never been a list of items that Mr petal said was taken in May just an invoice so is Mr Petal saying that all the items on the list was taken at the party in May 2013

4. So far, we do not even know the list of items that were taken in Feb 2013 and seeing at Mr petal seems to be using the same invoice for both dates there should be two lists of items that were taken

5. what was the cost of the damage to the building in Feb 2013 as it seems from the emails Mr Petal has listed from his insurance, they have put both claims into one which in fact would then go over to the date Simon hired his sound system out in May 2013

6. Why did the insurance company does not pay the Feb 2013 claim out till after the claim in May 2013? Why did they only pay out after the? May 2013 claim is it due that someone was arrested, and they could put both claims over to the court case of Simon. As if you look at the dates of the insurance part it does not make any sense as the last date shows April 2013, yet it says they are paying out both claims, how could they pay out both claims when the party in May had not even happened yet. Or is it the case there was a next party after Feb 2013 and before May 2013.

7. What was the costs of damage to the building in Feb 2013 and the value of the items taken.
8. What was the damage to the building in May 2013 and the value of the items taken.
316,
In short how could the property have been stolen in May 2013 if it had already been stolen in Feb 2013 as the invoice is the same? Also, the damage to the building from Feb 2013 seems to have been added to the costs to the May 2013 but yet Simon has not been charged with the party in Feb 2013. It seems they have mixed both cases together and Simon is taking the blame for all of it within the costs. The Crown does need to give us all the information to the Feb 2013 case including pictures so we can see ourselves the damage to the building and they need to tell us if anyone was changed in Feb 2013 and what was the outcome. If the crown does not do this then this is an unfair trail they will be holding as to Simon case. Also, we need to see all the insurance claims to see the total costs of damage in Feb 2013 and also, for the claim in May 2013 and the reasons as to why both cases have been linked together by the insurance company. Also, where is the insurance claim for the items within the warehouse that was meant to have been taken as so far, I can only see a claim for the damage to the building?
Any claim would need to include a list of the items that were taken and would need to be replaced. Someone cannot just produce a figure of a cost for items that were taken and so far, it seems as if that has what has been done in both cases Feb 2013 and May 2013.

The correct actions would mean the disrepair problems with my damp got resolved but this does not occur to happen by the Enfield Council and the Enfield Homes teams, as I still continue to suffer!

Subject: Regina v. Simon Cordell for application to clarify bail conditions and vary bail conditions on Tuesday 16th July 2013
Dear Sir or Madam
We act on behalf of our above-named client under the terms of a legal representation order. 331,
Our client's matter was listed at Woolwich Crown Court for a preliminary hearing and an application to vary us client's bail conditions. The Learned Judge on that occasion refused to deal with the application to vary bail and raised issues regarding why the surety was not present. He removed the surety requirement, and our understanding is that our client was admitted to bail on the same terms as before. A number of issues have now arisen as a result of this. Serco attended to insert an electronic tag, and this was never a condition of our client's bail when he was granted bail by Woolwich Crown Court but a curfew with a door step condition was imposed. Our client explained this to Serco who left. We clarified that this information was accurate by reviewing the advocate's attendance note from 10th July and also receiving verbal confirmation from Mr Lemosa to further verify this. When our client went to report to Edmonton Police Station in compliance with his bail conditions, he was arrested for breaching his bail in that he refused Serco entry to install the electronic monitoring equipment. This was on 13th July 2013 Fortunately; our client was able to produce a copy of the bail notice from Woolwich Crown Court and also a copy of the advocate's court attendance notes who attended on 13th July 2013 He was released. Ms Cordell contacted Serco and advised Jo badge number 3072 of this development and Serco will now wait until Tuesday 16th July 2013 to receive clarification from the court. Can you please list this case tomorrow? 16th July 2013 in order that matters can be clarified. We thank you in advance for your assistance in this matter and we await clarification of this.
Yours faithfully
MICHAEL CARROLL & CO.

Please see the barrister's back sheet from the 16th of July 2013 This should have been forwarded onto you and would have been by me if it had been emailed to me in Bulgaria. Case workers are not allowed to send over any paperwork on any client file without prior authorisation from the Solicitor with conduct, namely me. I cannot criticise the case workers for this as I am pretty strict on this. If this had been emailed over to me in Bulgaria, then I would have emailed on it but as I was on annual leave the case workers viewed this as non-urgent as the Judge refused to vary the conditions. I am also emailing you the client care letter again which outlines the complaints procedure.
Regards
Josephine
PS As indicated when the case papers are served and the secondary disclosure served then it may be possible to make a further attempt to vary bail but at this stage, I do not believe that the Court will entertain it.

Dear Sir or Madam
We continue to act on behalf of our above-named client under the terms of a legal representation order. Our client has instructed us to make an application to vary his bail conditions so that the reporting condition is removed in its entirety, and if an alternative bail condition is required then his mother is willing to stand surety.
£1,000.
We attach the following:
(1) Reasons for application
(2) Notice of application for court to consider bail
(3) Map printed from internet supporting the distance from the client's address to the local police station. We also add that £19.60 represents 40% of his benefits when they are re-instated, and this will cause our client financial hardship. We would be grateful if you oppose this application that a representative is available for the application to be determined in Court on 16th August 2013, We thank you in advance for your assistance in this matter.

I have now read all your case papers, interview transcript and unused material.
Areas for discussion:
1. Premises - need full address of where the rave took place
2. Any emails / Facebook notification of the rave / booking your sound system for the party / any invoices given to the people hosting the party
3. Full contact details for Mohammed in order that I can take a statement confirming the sale to you
4. Receipt that Mohammed gave you, presumably this itemises the goods sold and date of purchase by you – pg. of your interview you refer to leaving with your sound system and then being offered a job lot of chairs - need specifics on this see five below. Please also read your bottom page 20 of your ROTI "I bought it of the person who put the 144 notices on both of them premises that was living there and was a registered squatter Tottenham building. What made you believe that Mohammed had a right to the property?
Where did he tell you he got the property?
5. I need confirmation of the date you purchased the items; the location where the sale took place
6. What made you believe that both premises were linked?
For all intents and purposes, they appear to be separate buildings and entry to Unit 3 appears to have been gained through a hole in the wall not a natural doorway. This is criminal damage and therefore illegal.
7. Confirmation of where the Notices were displayed. Any photographs from the rave to back this up would be very useful.
8. Neighbours who can confirm the date the gazebo was 337

9. More information on the hole in the wall - photographs would be helpful from rave photographs and also any persons who were living there in the Unit 3 squat
10. Recordings of conversation between you and police before entering the party. Any shoulder numbers of officers who attended the premises so we can request statements etc from them re damage.
11. What proof do you have that Unit 3 was not barricaded with wood as the Director alleges and the barricades were not simply moved prior to your arrival?
Simon I will have a full discussion with you regarding the law etc on Friday but if you can concentrate on the above and collating the requested information. I will draft your defence case statement after I have taken a full proof of evidence (statement) from you.
Regards
Josephine

Hi Josey
Just gone over the document you sent over and on number 17 you made a mistake with the date The Defendant denies entering as a trespasser the said premises. The Defendant accepts that his DNA may have been found on a can but that this may have been moved at any time during the night of the party on the 04th February 2013 The Defendant denies stealing from the premises and he denies causing any damage to the Premises It should be the 04th May 2013 Also, the link for the catalogue for focus is correct http://web.archive.org/web/20110321003352/http://diy.focusdiy.co.uk/nav/cat2/gazebos/cat/gardenbuildings/0

341,
It does show the Harrogate Gazebo for the catalogue for focus and it's the website URL archive dated 11 March 2011 It does take a little while to load from the archive servers but does load and you can see the items of gazebos that focus was selling on the 11 March 2011 you have to look down the list to see the Harrogate Gazebo information. If you load the URL and then right click on the page and select Save As in the menu you can save it to your computer also. The only thing I cannot find is the original receipt for Simon Gazebo that was at his home when the police come.

Dear Simon / Lorraine
Your case has been listed tomorrow for a mention hearing. You are both welcome to attend if you so desire, but you are not required to attend. As you have not been able to provide me with the original receipt of internet link for the Focus catalogue, I have edited the defence case statement accordingly. I now attach the amended defence case statement which I have instructed your barrister to serve at tomorrow's hearing. This will trigger secondary disclosure in the case, and I will be hoping to offer you an appointment in four weeks' time for a conference with your barrister. If you have any further requests to vary your bail, then please provide me with adequate notice as the courts tend to want the CPS and solicitors to attempt to agree the variation administratively before resorting to the court.
Please do not hesitate to contact me should you have any questions.
Regards
Josephine
342,
PS Simon can you please sign this defence case statement and either scan and email it back to me or post it to my office.
Thanks

Hi Lorraine

I am working through my emails slowly and by priority at the moment. I will endeavour to deal with this by Wednesday at the latest. I have been on duty all weekend and today I was in the police station from 9.30am until after midnight. I am aware of the documents being duplicated also. I will deal with each point you raise at the proper time.

Lorraine Cordell <lorraine32@blueyonder.co.uk> wrote:
Hi Josey
I tried to call you today re Simon case not sure if you got the below email so I will send this again over to you. There are some points I really do not understand and until the crown gives us information as to this it does seem to me that Simon case at court has the claim for Feb 2013 case in it as they are not giving a list of what was taken.
1. Both the invoices from Li-Lo Leisure products ltd that have been given for Simon Case in May 2013 and the information that the crown has just given you are the same.
346,
2. On the invoices the address that the items in the invoice were not delivered to the address the parties were held in, in Feb 2013 and also May 2013 they were delivered to Marks wholesale which is a big shop, so how did they get to the address the parties were held in I am sure Marks wholesale would have storage space and it does seem very funny that they would move items that were ordered to sell at one of his large shops?
3. There has never been a list of items that Mr petal said was taken in May just an invoice so is Mr Petal saying that all the items on the list was taken at the party in May 2013
4. So far, we do not even know the list of items that were taken in Feb 2013 and seeing at Mr petal seems to be using the same invoice for both dates there should be two lists of items that were taken
5. what was the cost of the damage to the building in Feb 2013 as it seems from the emails Mr Petal has listed from his insurance, they have put both claims into one which in fact would then go over to the date Simon hired his sound system out in May 2013-12-02
6. Why did the insurance company does not pay the Feb 2013 claim out till after the claim in May 2013? Why did they only pay out after the? May 2013 claim is it due that someone was arrested, and they could put both claims over to the court case of Simon. As if you look at the dates of the insurance part it does not make any sense as the last date shows April 2013, yet it says they are paying out both claims, how could they pay out both claims when the party in May had not even happened yet. Or is it the case there was a next party after Feb 2013 and before May 2013
7. What was the costs of damage to the building in Feb 2013 and the value of the items taken.
8. What was the damage to the building in May 2013 and the value of the items taken. In short how could the property have been stolen I May 2013 if it had already been stolen in Feb 2013 as the invoice is the same? Also, the damage to the building from Feb 2013 seems to have been added to the costs to the May 2013 but yet Simon has not been charged with the party in Feb 2013 It seems they have mixed both cases together and Simon is taking the blame for all of it within the costs. The Crown does need to give us all the information to the Feb 2013 case including pictures so we can see ourselves the damage to the building and they need to tell us if anyone was changed in Feb 2013 and what was the outcome. If the crown does not do this then this is an unfair trail they will be holding as to Simon case. Also, we need to see all the insurance claims to see the total costs of damage in Feb 2013 and also, for the claim in May 2013 and the reasons as to why both cases have been linked together by the insurance company. Also, where is the insurance claim for the items within the warehouse that was meant to have been taken as so far, I can only see a claim for the damage to the building?

Any claim would need to include a list of the items that were taken and would need to be replaced. Someone cannot just produce a figure of a cost for items that were taken and so far, it seems as if that has what has been done in both cases Feb 2013 and May 2013

Hi Josey
Thank you for the email I just got it so will let Simon look over this tomorrow. Can I ask something the receipt from Li-Lo Leisure is that the receipt for the? 16/02/2013 or the 04/05/2013 as it seems to be the same receipt. What we want is a full list of items and amounts that were taken on the 04/05/2013 and also, the same for the 16/02/2013 someone can't say an amount in £s of damage and items were taken yet not have a full list, or are they saying on each of the receipts for the 04/05/2013 and the 16/02/2013 all of the items listed on the receipts were taken it does not make sense as they seem to be the same receipts. There are also no invoices for the repair of the damage on the 16/02/2013 or the 04/05/2013 for someone to produce the amounts that they have for the damages to this so-called building on the 04/05/2013 Which he would have had to get invoices for his insurance companies. Also, there is no information as to really anything for the 16/02/2013 and no information as to the people that were arrested and what happened to them. There is also nothing to show any work was carried out on the building from 16/02/2013 so, show anything was fixed as I am sure there should have been. There is far too much data that is missing. And I wonder why how can a police officer not have any full lists of items that were taken yet be able to have a total amount of damage that were caused how could they come to these sums?
There seems to me a lot in this case is being covered up by the police and I would like this addressed as how can someone have a fair tail without the full facts.

Dear Simon / Lorraine
Please see the CPS response to our defence case statement. This was received in the DX today. It does not advance our case. I am also confirming that your barrister can only do a conference on 12th December 2013 at 10am at Nexus Chambers. He has personal appointments tomorrow and cannot as previously advised to a conference at Croydon Crown Court. I have therefore booked a fixed conference for 12th December 2013 at 10am at Nexus Chambers so that he will not be caught up in a trial and there is no risk of you breaching your curfew. Before that date I would also like to finalise your proof of evidence and I would hope to do that Tuesday afternoon or the following Monday. Please do not hesitate to contact me should you have any further questions regarding this case.
Regards
Josephine

So, could you please talk with him and update him as to what has gone on at the court, as we did not know until last week that the judge had said this, we can't have this information. But at any case it seems the barrister needs updating about this case as he does not know anything and did not even understand why Simon had gone to see him when he was on a case already which was going to overrun till this week at some point, but not before Wednesday. And Simon case is in the WL from 16/12/2013. From what we found out when Simon called the insurance company the claim for the insurance that was put in was only for the building and no content. Simon called them on the 13/12/2013 and talked to someone as Nikki Diamond was not due back in the office until 16/12 2013. The insurance company did tell |Simon both claims have been put into one as from what the lady could see who looked up the claim REF could see no one from the insurance saw the damage to the building until after 04/05/2013 which should not come down to Simon as Simon did not cause any damage on the build at any time. Insurance details 1. Cunningham Lindsey 2. The person dealing with the claim is Nikki Diamond claim ref 5005393 Address: Aquila House, 35 London Rd, Redhill, Surrey RH1 1NJ 3. Phone: 01737 784600 4. Email: nikki.diamond@cluk.com They asked Simon to send anything over to them and if he had anything for the Feb 2013 case can he send any information over for this, and that Nikki Diamond would get it on Monday and to include a contact number that she can get hold of us. He also asked about the 3rd party discloser and was told Nikki Diamond could deal with this.

4. And anything else for that case:
5. And any insurance claims: --

As the invoices that have been given are here say due to the fact the guy would need proof that these items were still in fact inside the warehouse. He does not seem to understand when this went to court, and the judge said that we cannot have this information. So, could you please talk with him and update him as to what has gone on at the court, as we did not know until last week that the judge had said this, we cannot have this information. But at any case it seems the barrister needs updating about this case as he does not know anything and did not even understand why Simon had gone to see him when he was on a case already which was going to overrun till this week at some point, but not before Wednesday. And Simon case is in the WL from 16/12/2013. From what we have found out when Simon called the insurance company the claim for the insurance that was put in was only for the building and no content. Simon called them on the 13/12/2013 and talked to someone as Nikki Diamond was not due back in the office until 16/12 2013.
The insurance company did tell |Simon both claims have been put into one as from what the lady could see who looked up the claim REF could see no one from the insurance saw the damage to the building until after 04/05/2013 which should not come down to Simon as Simon did not cause any damage on the build at any time. Insurance details

Person dealing with claim is Nikki Diamond claim ref 5005393.
Address: Aquila House, 35 London Rd, Redhill, Surrey RH1 1NJ
Phone: 01737 784600
Email: nikki.diamond@cluk.com
They asked Simon to send anything over to them and if he had anything for the Feb 2013 case can he send any information over for this, and that Nikki Diamond would get it on Monday and to include a contact number that she can get hold of us. He also asked about third-party discloser and was told Nikki Diamond could deal with this.

1 Si Note: Who stole the Christmas Tree? - "Thought, the rest of the months in 2013 off the summer faded away into the winter and the question to ask was, "Who stole the Christmas tree? While still living in my flat, I remember when stain took his time to place a Christmas tree in the corridor for the entire tenant's pleasure. But little was he to know that this good deed of his was soon after to get disheartened. In the years prior to stain placing the Christmas tree in the corridor the council had never changed the entrance codes, to the front door of the flats, so in layman terms, the entrance code to the front door had never got updated and because of this, the past users' fingerprints, to the door locks, could get seen. The faded ID could get seen by any person's naked eyes, this is due to the wear and tear, making the door entrances vulnerable to prowling eyes. Because of this reason people had started to loaf within side the corridors for shelter or other reasons and so forth. On one of the cold winter nights after stain had done his good deed, the tenants of the block must have got occupied with their own responsibilities. I cannot clearly remember what I personally was doing, but I could bet a pound coin that I was working hard on a good project. On awakening one morning, I went outside into my communal corridor, on doing so, I noticed stain and said to him the usual, "hello and how are you doing." His voice was full of upsets as I heard his reply, he asked me the question of; do I know where his Christmas tree has disappeared too. At first, I took a full glance to see the spot to where he had placed it and continued to notice that it was in fact missing. I had known stain for so long by this time, in my life, so I took it that he personally would already understand the truth and that would be that I never would have been that person what did move the Christmas tree, in sense to any stake, I and my first civil partner already had our own Christmas tree. After talking for some time and doing our own investigation, we never did find out who did steal, “the tree.” So, the question still is who stole, The Christmas Tree?

But not telling Mr Patel that he has spoken to us or would like a meeting with us. He said some other things also about the claim Mr Patel put in, he said that in Feb 2013 he did put a claim in and was asked by the insurance to do some things which Mr Patel did not do so the insurance closed the claim down and Mr Patel did not do anything else with that claim to say he wanted to keep it opened. Then after May 2013 Mr Patel again contacted the insurance and said there was a next claim. In the invoice Mr Patel has handed into the insurance it is all in one invoice for one claim. The Insurance Company also have not paid him out yet for the claim. He told me to contact the solicitor dealing with the case as he did not want to step on

And that Simon was not there on the 16 Feb 2013 and can prove this. I have even told them that 4 people were arrested on 16 Feb 2013 from what I can tell they don't seem to have the information as to even the person in the police who was dealing with the case so it seems that Mr. Patel is not telling the insurance company a lot of the things they should know as when I was telling him about things in the case, he seemed to be very shocked and un aware of a lot of the things for Feb 2013 and May 2013. Hello Martin,
Thank you for the phone call today to tell me I was still insured. Could you please pass on the attached documents to Kelly Tiller at KGM one is a Subject access request under the Data Protection Act 1998. The other letter is just to get Kelly Tiller to confirm by email I am in fact still insured so I have this in writing and also to found out why my van is still not showing up on the database. And also, about the logbooks which I am still waiting for them from DVLA I called DVLA today when I got back from the compound and was told it can take 8 weeks for me to get the new logbooks, I will therefore send then right over to you by email as soon as I get them.

Simon / Mother!
The case was listed in court this morning but unfortunately the application to vary bail was not dealt with, so I asked for the case to be listed again on 23rd December 2013 with regards to the applications and also in relation to non-disclosure that the court have directed that the defence make a section 8, application and also an application for Third Party Disclosure. This has to be made by 16th January 2014. The prosecution must respond by 16th February 2014 If the defence has not yet got provided with disclosure, we need to list the case again after 16th February 2014.
The case has now been placed in the warned list for the week commencing the 30th of June 2014 I will update you regarding the application to vary bail.
Regards, Josephine.

Subject: Regina v. Simon Cordell for application to vary bail on 23rd December 2013
Simon / Lorraine
The case was listed in court this morning but unfortunately the application to vary bail was not dealt with, so I have asked for the case to be listed again on 23rd December 2013.
With regards to the applications in relation to nondisclosure the court have directed that the defence make a section 8 application and also an application for Third Party Disclosure. This has to be made by 16th January 2014.
The prosecution must respond by 16th February 2014.
If the Defence have not been provided with disclosure, we need to list the case again after 16th February 2014.
The case has now been placed in the warned list for the week commencing 30th June 2014
I will update you with regards to the application to vary bail.

Regards
Josephine

1 Si Note: The Gazebo Case - "On the 23rd December 2013 and 24/12/2014 I had to attend at Woolwich Crown Court, yet again, for the gazebo case, that took place on Bianca Road for my friend's Birthday party, for a court case mentioning, what got set, re the disclosed and also for an application to seen by the judge regarding varying the bail conditions got opposed against, as the application to vary the bail conditions got refused to get dealt with. After consultation with my solicitor and barrister regarding what had occurred in the courtroom, my acting barrister then asked for the case to be listed again on 24th December 2013. This case just did not want to end. Christmas was drawing near and the winter had settled in and I knew I had to get out of my flat from the torturous acts that members of my neighbours were indulging in towards me, so I reapplied with my mother to go away to visit family over the Christmas season. On the 24/12/2014 I went back to Woolwich Crown Court with a fresh application to vary my bail conditions for Christmas and New Year periods, so I could spend time with my family's members. I applied to go to Scotland with my family over the New Year and the application to vary bail had gotten granted by the Judge, so I could go. To be honest, I was shocked when the bail variation got granted but I smiled to be out, for the first time in a year. The judge on the day agreed to amend these three conditions. Number two; Home Residence, to be @ 109 Burncroft Road, Enfield, EN3 7JQ. Number five; Report daily to Edmonton Police between the hours of 1400—1600. Number, six; Curfew 8pm — 6am this is to be a doorstep condition — I the Defendant should show myself to any officer upon their requests and with the judge doing this it meant that I still had a curfew off 8pm; till 6am and this was with a change of home address.

1 Si Note: The Gazebo Case I was in Scotland Bail conditions varied! - “Let’s say next. I needed to explain to the judge that on the date of the 31/12/2014 till the 01/01/2014 I was in Scotland and had to leave early with my family to come back home and on the way as I entered London’s streets; the police pulled me over in the early hours of the 01/01/2014 the time then was 05:55 Am, the reason I got pulled over got said to be for the normal accusations of the police force and that being of; No insurance again due to the error in the MID database. Again, I told the police officer’s that I got insured and there were also notes on the police system to prove this, but they still arrested me and seized my van. I got arrested due to the police officers saying I breached my bail conditions and then as a consequence off their actions I got held at the police station and taken to court on the 01/01/2014 My mother also attended the courthouse on this incident and once the judge heard my explanation of what happened to me, in turn, me stating to the judge that I had not breached my bail conditions on this occasion; I was soon then after released to go back to my home. After being released from being detained I had to travel back to the police car compound, so I could pick up my van, I recollect the day being the 03/01/2014 to my upset I once again needed to pay again to get my property released with no guilty offence taking place.
