This transcript appears to contain three parts mixed together:

1. A call with a mental health service regarding Angela Hague.
2. A conversation with another person (possibly family/friend) about a website and case.
3. Personal commentary and background speech.

The reliable speaker split for the actual phone call is:

Speaker 2 (Mr Cordell):
Can I speak to Angela Hague please?

Speaker 1 (Reception/Administrator):
Angela Hague?
Hague, is that how you say it?

Speaker 2 (Mr Cordell):
It's Hague.

Speaker 1 (Reception/Administrator):
Yeah, unfortunately I don't know where she is.
I thought she was at Chase Farm this morning.
But you've got...
You rang earlier, didn't you?

Speaker 2 (Mr Cordell):
Yeah, that's correct.

Speaker 1 (Reception/Administrator):
Yeah, you've got an appointment with her on the 16th.

Speaker 2 (Mr Cordell):
She believes that I've got an appointment with her.
I don't understand under what legal process she believes she's got an appointment with me though.
It wasn't my GP.
It's a judge that sent the referral and the judge is trying to evade justice.

Speaker 1 (Reception/Administrator):
I'll put you through.

Speaker 2 (Mr Cordell):
Perfect, thank you.

Call Transferred

Speaker 2 (Mr Cordell):
Hello.
I wasn't appointed.

I was taken and illegally detained under Section 2 because they were trying to discriminate against me and fabricated statements regarding my personal data.
They said I had a disease to try to scare me out of the country because they had falsified a large ASBO matter.
I would like to speak to somebody because I don't see why I should have to attend this meeting.
I'm not an open patient of theirs.
I was detained under Section 135 illegally.
I went to Tribunal and it was noted under Section 2 that there was nothing wrong with me.
So I don't understand why these people are trying to influence my life.
If she wants information, I've got a website and I can give her the website link.

Speaker 1 (Staff Member):
Can I interrupt you?

Speaker 2 (Mr Cordell):
Yes.

Speaker 1 (Staff Member):
I'm not really sure what's going on here.

Speaker 2 (Mr Cordell):
I understand.
All I'm trying to do is cancel this meeting and ask why they're writing to me.
They're not saying the judge ordered it.
They're saying the police referred me while I was in custody.
I'm saying something different.
I've built most of a website about everything and if Angela wants information she can view it there.

Speaker 1 (Staff Member):
Would you like Angela to contact you?

Speaker 2 (Mr Cordell):
Yes.
Could you ask her to contact me on this number?
I just wanted to talk to her about cancelling the appointment.
I wanted to know whether the appointment could be cancelled.

Speaker 1 (Staff Member):
Okay.
I'll pass the message on.

Speaker 2 (Mr Cordell):
Thank you.

Speaker 1 (Staff Member):

Okay.
Goodbye.

Speaker 2 (Mr Cordell):
Goodbye.
