(0:00 - 0:07)
Hello. Can I ask a question? No, I'm not too happy. You're from the council and you're from the council.

(0:07 - 0:20)
So let's get this straight, yeah? Let's get this straight. I've had a bloke called Lemmy come to my front door. What initially happened is in 2013, I got put on curfew for throwing parties.

(0:20 - 0:37)
I threw parties from 2012 to 2013 in London, yeah? The council come here, the police come here and they nicked me. Arrested me and they put me on bowel conditions for one year in this house. Told me I'm not allowed to leave the house from 2013 to 2014.

(0:37 - 0:49)
So I said, okay, now when I'm on curfew for 2013 to 2014, the police come here and leave another folder which is another case outside my house. They leave it outside here. It can't fit through my letterbox.

(0:50 - 1:06)
Now that curfew, that folder says the organisation of illegal raves in it, yeah? They forgot to ever arrest me. If something's illegal, you're supposed to arrest somebody. Now what this folder done is it tried to make me be a super grass and grass up on Bear and my bredren, so it was throwing parties while I was on curfew.

(1:06 - 1:26)
Okay, Mr. Carter, let me explain. I'm Dr. Dina Caron. I'm a consultant psychiatrist.

I've been instructed by the council. You've been instructed by the council and I'm telling you now. Listen to me.

I'm going to stop you there. I suggest you listen to us. I suggest you listen to me, yeah? I'm acting on the instructions of the court, Mr. Carter.

(1:27 - 1:36)
I'm telling you, the court, I'm telling you now, the court has forged a massive ASBO. I've been phoning the court every single day telling the court what's going on. We're here on a different slide.

(1:36 - 1:43)
No, no, you aren't. The reason you aren't here now is because the police and the council in 2013 served an ASBO. It's not that.

(1:44 - 1:56)
No, please do not lie. Please do not lie because I've got the letters inside here. I've got a full official diary.

I'll never be rude to no person, but I'm not having you abuse your powers. I'm not. Yes, you are abusing your powers under the Mental Health Act 1963.

(1:56 - 2:05)

Can I please take your name? And the council are abusing their position. I'm more than happy to give you money. So I'm more than happy for you to come into my house and I'm happy to do things for you.

(2:05 - 2:36)
But let's get this straight. The reason why you're coming into my house, yeah? I've had the doctors come here 73 times since 2014. 73 days I've been assessed.

You're doing a 75th assessment on me. I'm here for a slightly different reason. No, no, let's get this straight.

You are here to do an assessment on me. The reason you want to do an assessment on me, this is the 75th assessment of the Mental Health Act. I had the doctors in here.

I had your team come in here the other day, but she wouldn't come in my house. Then two days before that, I had another assessment. I had an assessment in this house less than six days ago.

(2:36 - 2:47)
So let's just quickly go to the facts of what really happened here, yeah? In 2013... I'm not going to go through what happened in 2013. I'm going through the case history. I'm going through this case history.

(2:48 - 3:10)
I'm going through this case history. Will you allow us to come in? I'm going to allow you to come in in a second. I'm going to show you my full report.

I'm going to show you all the little audios that I've got of what has happened. Let's talk about the injunction that's against you. No, that's what I'm talking about right now.

So let's get you straight, yeah? Don't start twisting around when you don't know the case history, yeah? I'm telling you the case history right now. I'll never be rude to you, yeah? But do not try and deter me away from it. Don't point your fingers at me.

(3:10 - 3:13)
I'm not pointing my fingers at you. I'm not pointing my fingers. I'm tongue-tied, by the way.

(3:13 - 3:31)
So this is a speech pyramid, yeah? So don't ever think I'm being rude or anything here, yeah? I can't... I've always been on... I'm disabled because of it, yeah? So now I had to go to... I had to go to kids speech therapy and everything. Listen, I'm not interested in your speech therapy. I don't care about your attitude here right now, yeah? I don't care about your attitude.

(3:31 - 3:37)
I don't care about your attitude here right now. I'm taking the minutes to this meeting right now in digital format and I do that by law. That's very good.

(3:37 - 3:49)

Now I'm not going to tell you now, yeah? The girls who come here, this is how this injunction started, yeah? Let me put my dog outside. I'm going to put my dog outside again for a second. You wait... Stupid woman, bruh.

(3:49 - 3:56)
And her stupid attitude. Get outside, lady. Back the... She wants to get this right.

(3:56 - 4:01)
Let's go through this, man. Come in my house, man. Do you know what? You come in my house because I want you not to go to prison.

(4:01 - 4:04)
Come in my house. You're more than welcome. Come on, let's go through this.

(4:07 - 4:11)
Come in my house. Let's get this over with. Can I have your name as well, please, sir? Yeah, my name's Nick.

(4:11 - 4:24)
Yeah, but where are you from the Anfield Council? Yeah, but where are you from the Anfield Council? We're here to... They're here to support me. Yeah, so they're here to support you. But what is your job in the council? I'm a social behaviour officer.

(4:24 - 4:32)
You're a social behaviour officer and you are... I'm a neighbourhood officer. And can I take both your names, please? My name's Alex Georgiou. Pardon? You're Alex Georgiou and you're... Come on, let's sit down, then.

(4:33 - 4:48)
Okay, we're going to go through this quickly, yeah? Take a seat on that chair there and take a seat over here, yeah? Mr Kordell, can you explain... No, no... Can you explain why I'm here? Then I'll give you some time to talk, give me your history. Okay, okay. And then I have specific questions to ask you.

(4:48 - 4:58)
Can we sit down and take a few pictures? Yeah. You're having a laugh, you are. Yeah, I'm telling you now, do you want... I'm here for a specific purpose, to talk about the injunction.

(4:59 - 5:02)
Okay. That you were given in January. No, I was not given an injunction in January.

(5:02 - 5:22)
But if you look at my camera here, yeah, because you're all taking the P, yeah, here, I've got a camera right here, yeah? Yeah. Now, I've got a camera there watching you and a camera in every room in this house now watching you all, yeah? Now, when I was in the police station, the council come here, the council come to my cell in the police station and the bloke goes to me, I'm serving you. I said, you can't serve me in my cell.

(5:22 - 5:31)

The affidavit of service says you've got to serve me in my house by law. So while I'm in the police station, the bloke gets the ump, he stomps, because the police let him into the police station. He's a third-party company.

(5:32 - 5:38)
The police want to cover up what's happening here. So what the police done is let him in the police cell. They've agreed that they didn't serve me.

(5:38 - 5:46)
He illegally got let into the police station. He's a third-party company to cover up what's happening. Now, while I'm in the police cell, my mother comes to this house.

(5:47 - 5:55)
My mother comes to the front door here. She comes in my house while I'm in the police cell. She picks up the affidavit of service the bloke put through in the door and she leaves my house with it.

(5:55 - 6:16)
Now, you can see her on camera come to here while I'm in the police station. Then I get released from the police station, come back home, and there's no paperwork in there. So how have I been legally served? Yeah, how can she be here now forcing that I need to be assessed because I've got the camera evidence to prove why I weren't served? Since 2013, this is where it initially happened.

(6:16 - 6:29)
In 2013, I got nicked for that gazebo, yeah, right in the back garden, yeah? Now, when I got nicked for it, they put me on foul condition. They said, you're not allowed in Central London, barred from Central London. I said, OK, I'm not allowed to hire no equipment to nobody.

(6:29 - 6:34)
So I got barred from hiring equipment. I got put on an eight o'clock curfew in this house. I had a tag on my leg.

(6:34 - 6:47)
Plus, I had a four o'clock sign on at the police station every day. So I said, OK, this is because I wouldn't grass up because I was supposed to be done for handling stolen goods from a gazebo not coming out of a building. So I said, OK, one year, I stayed under conditions.

(6:48 - 6:51)
I won the case. I went to court. I defended myself correctly.

(6:51 - 7:09)
As I won the case, the police got upset that I won the case and threw a massive ASBO outside my front door. Now, that ASBO tried to make me be a super grass and grass up. Three people I do not know, younger generations, that were throwing parties while I was on curfew and grass up, three in a mandem that used to run around with me, yeah, that run off while I was on curfew.

(7:09 - 7:19)

Now they're doing their own thing. So I went to the Facebook profiles and I copied the Facebook profiles of the people that I'm being accused of being, yeah. Now, I've got all the Facebook... I've made a website.

(7:19 - 7:27)
I'll show you the Facebook profiles. Now, I wouldn't be a super grass. I'm not playing the peace officer's line of wages to give them their paypal to do their job.

(7:27 - 7:36)
They want to do a line of investigation against someone they can't. Now, on the Facebook profiles, the people use their personal names. Oh, I'm Chris Lurch and Lewis and I'm throwing a party in London and all that.

(7:36 - 7:52)
Now, there's six parties in this ASBO folder. The police left the folder... After I won the first gazebo case, the police left the folder outside my front door, yeah, and it had loads of personal DPA in it, personal data, and it shouldn't have been shared about. So now I started looking through the folder.

(7:52 - 8:10)
I phoned my mum and said, Mum, they left something outside my front door and it won't come in. My mum come to my property, she picked up the folder and she took it to Edmonton Green lost property, yeah, and she put it in and got a receipt for it in lost property. Yeah, now that folder got given... Now, that folder, I've never had it given to me, the first ASBO, because my mum took it from me.

(8:10 - 8:30)
But she photocopied it and gave me a copy of a photocopy. Now, I went to court and I said to... I went to court to defend myself at trial and at the beginning of an ASBO, yeah, or in the ASBO, they put an injunction order on you and the injunction order's just temporary while they're putting the ASBO on you. Now, they put this injunction on me from 14.

(8:30 - 8:42)
Now, by 15, they still couldn't get it on me. Six judges walked out of the court, looked at the folder and threw it on the floor and said, We're not dealing with this. Then one day, I went to court, there's this woman called Sally Gilchrist, she's the legal executive for the Metropolitan Police.

(8:43 - 8:58)
She went to every case for the ASBO and she signed a million pounds to make this ASBO on me, yeah. Now, one day, on the day of trial, I've gone to trial and I've explained to the court that I was never arrested. This says the organisation of illegal rapes, you forgot to arrest me.

(8:58 - 9:12)
The maximum sentence if you do arrest someone and have enough evidence for criminal conviction is six months to three months in prison. So, maximum six months if you got arrested. You forgot to arrest me, now you're giving me a nine-year curfew in my house and you couldn't even do that if you had enough for criminal conviction.

(9:13 - 9:23)
You can't hold a terrorist in your house for longer than two years. Sir Lady Howe and Prince Philip and everyone says it under the Supreme Court. You can't hold someone in the house for longer than six months, yeah.

(9:23 - 9:30)
And that's if they're blowing up the country. Now, I'm on a nine-year curfew in my house. Now, I've been phoning up the police saying, hang on, you forgot to arrest me.

(9:31 - 9:42)
I never done this. I looked at the folder, it says, all white people, white males and females committed the crime in the folder. So, the doctors come here, the counsellors come here and all that on one of the interviews with Simon Clerk and they're in there.

(9:42 - 9:48)
I'm showing them the folder. Look, it says all white people committed it, what colour am I? Can I come in? No. I look at the folder.

(9:48 - 10:01)
I said, look at each of these victim statements because if you're taking a statement off me now, I have to sign the statement at the bottom. Each police officer done four statements each and none of them have signatures at the bottom of them. So now, I start phoning the police saying, I'm not even white.

(10:01 - 10:11)
How can I be getting a nine-year curfew for this? You didn't even arrest me. Yeah, you're holding me in my house for all this time. I can't even walk out my house before nine, ten o'clock because these cops are trying to grab me every second.

(10:12 - 10:21)
They're not only trying to put an injunction on me outside, they're trying to put an injunction on me inside my house. So, me and my mum, from 14 to 16, now, Sally Gilchrist starts getting worried. Yeah, now, this is Gilchrist, shut up.

(10:21 - 10:41)
I lost Diana for my 13-year relationship, my first love, because of the first curfew. Now, I come to the second curfew that I'm supposed to be on and my mum and me write 500 emails to the MPs and the councils and to everybody. I've got 500 emails in, I'll show them to you, to the MPs and councils, asking them to protect me in this house.

(10:41 - 10:52)
I've never done nothing to my mum and my neighbours. This Sally Gilchrist starts spreading all this shit that I've got a disease. Excuse my... Can I interrupt everyone? Who's Sally? Sally Gilchrist is the legal... Gilchrist.

(10:52 - 11:07)
Gilchrist, she's the legal executive for the Metropolitan Police. Now, what I've had to do, I've had to do a special... These are the council's folders. So, this is, this is the first ASBO, yeah?

That I got served, yeah? I've made all brand-new PDF books for them, yeah? Now, this is the second folder.

(11:08 - 11:25)
Now, if you look at the front, this is... It takes the Metropolitan Police and the council to make this ASBO together. So, if you look here, it says, a consultation has to be required by the Metropolitan Police and the council, Jane Johnson, the Borough Commander and the Metropolitan Police... Listen, come back to Sally Gilchrist. She's the legal executive.

(11:25 - 11:32)
She's the legal executive. And you said something about her signing a million pounds. Well, she spent a million pounds on this case, on the first ASBO.

(11:32 - 11:47)
Why? Against you or for you? Against me. Why? She set me up. Look, what she's done is, she's got all these police officers here and they've only done four statements each, pretending... Simon, I'm here for a specific purpose, OK? No, this is the reason.

(11:47 - 11:53)
I understand all of this, OK? I got the gist of it. OK, let's just move on from there. No, no, no, let's not move on from there.

(11:53 - 12:00)
No, no, no, let's not move on from there. I'm illegally being detained in my house. You're working for the government under section three of my human rights.

(12:00 - 12:11)
It says any state official that degrades me or humiliates me or makes me feel a way, will amount to torture. Yes, it does. I know my human rights.

(12:11 - 12:15)
Don't lie to me. You don't even know your own human rights, woman. I've built a constitution.

(12:16 - 12:26)
I've got every folder from Glastonbury from the beginning past to the end. You've built the constitution? I've got a brand new constitution. I know Leona of Glastonbury and I know Leona of Isle of Wight.

(12:26 - 12:39)
They gave me their own folders. So what does your constitution say? My constitution is a CIC, a Community Interest Charity. And what that allows is six people to be able to sponsor that charity and to be able to work within the community and to be able to fulfil.

(12:40 - 12:48)
It says that they will not discriminate against HIV or AIDS. It says that they will not discriminate against me. It says that they will work in the community and do good things.

(12:48 - 13:02)

So how does that affect your relationship with your neighbours? No, what I was doing was building a festival for my neighbours. I built a charity, which is Toots New Charity, which is there for my neighbours. Because Sally Gilchrist was screwing me.

(13:02 - 13:14)
One of the days I went into court and she offered to get the injunction activated. She was trying to get the conditions activated. One of the judges goes to me, what's your surname? He goes, are you related to a Natalie? I said, no, I'm not related to a Natalie.

(13:14 - 13:23)
He goes, that's good, because my surname's Cordell as well. Because that's my surname. Now Sally Gilchrist is sitting in the court and she's the legal executive director.

(13:23 - 13:31)
She's the main director for the Metropolitan Police, for the legal services. That's who she is. Because she's the main director for the legal services.

(13:31 - 13:39)
Now she's sitting in the thing. What she does is, she's full of things. She gets screwed because the judge says he knows my name and won't put the conditions on me.

(13:39 - 13:51)
And four other judges are throwing her application on the floor before that. When did this happen? In 2014 she put this application on my door. Then by 2015, she still ain't got it on me.

(13:51 - 13:59)
She's been through six judges and they've all thrown it out. So what happened in 2016? I'm just going through it quickly. I'll give you five minutes to agree to where we are this year.

(13:59 - 14:03)
I don't have all day. I don't mind if you don't have all day. You're being paid to do something.

(14:04 - 14:07)
So don't go on like you're doing this at your own discretion. You're being paid to listen. I appreciate that.

(14:08 - 14:16)
So please listen to the full history of what is happening here. Because what I'm telling you now is that government officials are illegally holding me in my house. I've got hundreds of recordings of them.

(14:16 - 14:21)
When I phone in the police station they're saying, you're a brown bastard, you've been robbed. Yeah, we don't give a fuck, Simon. Fuck you.

(14:21 - 14:32)
You're a cunt. They're going, do you want our borough commander? That's what we want of you if you want our borough commander. Our borough commander, Jane Johnson, who made that folder, she's been put in diplomatic protection.

(14:32 - 14:39)
We're putting her in diplomatic protection. I want to call her to court. Is there somebody called a borough commander? Yeah, Jane Johnson is our borough commander.

(14:40 - 14:47)
She's on witness protection. I've got all the recordings. They said, do you want our borough commander? It's on the recordings.

(14:47 - 15:07)
Put, if you're spitting at me, do you want our borough commander? Why do you think you can have our borough commander? Because she signed every page here because she has to, by law, in the civic centre. On the 34th August 2001, the local authority and the police held a consultation meeting together with the relevant organisations to discuss issues concerning the case. You were talking about 2016.

(15:07 - 15:12)
No, because Jane Johnson done this. Because Jane Johnson done this and I'm phoning them up telling them that. They're down the phone.

(15:12 - 15:24)
Now, what they do is they start spreading that I've got a disease here in the public. Who, Jane Johnson? Sally Gilchrist and Jane Johnson, the borough commander, start spreading that I've got a disease. Now, me and my partner have never argued.

(15:24 - 15:29)
What disease? They said that I had herpes. Okay. Now, I recorded the clinic.

(15:29 - 15:35)
I went to the clinic and I've got all my medical notes here. I never had nothing wrong with me. Me and my partner have never argued to this day now.

(15:35 - 15:51)
Me and Shannon never argued. The police just done it to cover up because I was phoning them up going, well, where's the signatures? What about the terms? So, do you think Jane Johnson and Sally Gilchrist are working together with the police to spread all these rumours? They're in the same company. They work together and I've got the recordings to prove it.

(15:52 - 16:01)
And they work together with the police to spread rumours about you? No, they work together and they have chosen to maliciously... Can you reduce the volume? I want to hear from you. I don't need that. I don't care if you don't want to hear from me.

(16:02 - 16:09)
This is where my evidence is. I've built a website and I'm about to show it to you. I've built an official report every single day of what's going on.

(16:09 - 16:17)

What about the injunction again? Now, this is what happened. This is what happened. Now, because I'm complaining about this, it takes the council and the police to make it.

(16:17 - 16:28)
So, we've got the council police... So, they're working together, the council police? The council police and Joint Circular under Ethnos. Now, Joint Circular they're working together. Now, they're supposed to have a victim involved.

(16:29 - 16:46)
Now, they don't have no victims there in real life. They forged all the paperwork and they... You mean the victim meaning the neighbours? No, the victim here for the ASBO, the only reason that this is all this is they're saying that someone got kept up overnight. Now, what I've done, like I said, is I've copied the Facebook profile to prove I've never done nothing here.

(16:47 - 17:04)
Now, what they've done is because they started spreading this disease thing, all my loved ones... I've lived here 12 years before... You mean my loved ones, your neighbours? Yeah, my neighbours. 12 years I've lived here, not one problem. I've never had a drink in this house, never sold a bag of drawer from this house, I've never sold drugs, I've never done nothing.

(17:05 - 17:25)
I used to leave my front door unlocked and come and put a gramme back in there every night. So what happened between you and your neighbours? After 12 years of being with these people, Sally Gilchrist started to realise that I was throwing up saying there's no signatures on your folder. So what she done is she is next door to a bloke called Ed Sturms.

(17:26 - 17:41)
Now, Ed Sturms is in charge of communication for the Metropolitan Police, for public communication. Now, Ed Sturms started spreading... Ed Sturms? Yeah, Ed... I've got all their pictures and everything and all. Ed Sturms started spreading the idea of disease, yeah, to try and scare... You've got 24 hours to get out of this country.

(17:42 - 17:56)
In the folder they started scribbling you're a black boy on the block, it's scribbled everywhere in there, you're a black boy you live on Brancroft Avenue. Because me, I've got a white business partner I did at this time for home parties. So they thought the white guy's the better one, locked me in here, boom and that's it.

(17:57 - 18:06)
Sucked me in here, you're a black boy on the block, blah blah blah. Didn't arrest me, gave me nine years and maximum sentence six months. It says white people committed the offence in here, so I couldn't have done it anyway.

(18:07 - 18:25)
They need victims to have it. Now I'm phoning up the council and saying please, well you've got no signature, can you call an emergency general meeting please, and so that you can get this taken off of me, because it's a breach of my human rights. Now they're getting scared in the council, so the council phoned the doctors, now I've had the doctors come here seventy five times now yeah.

(18:25 - 19:08)
Now I've done official reports for all the seventy five times that the doctors have come here, I've been assessed, I've been checked and all them times have told me there's nothing wrong with me, I've stayed in St Anne's, Julia Krinich is the head over there, I'm suing Julia Krinich right now yeah, she's the head of St Anne's hospital, because she's the one that got me taken away from here. They come in here with a fake 187 under the mental health act, when they come in here I had all the recording equipment recording in here. So now, just before that I'd been phoning up the, they'd been phoning me up, the AMP workers, Goody had been phoning me up, now Goody's saying to me can I come to you, can I meet you, I'm saying why are you phoning my phone, where did you get my phone number from? I said to him okay Goody come to my house because them times I'm quite polite.

(19:09 - 19:32)
When did you go to St Anne's? This was, I'll show you in a second, I'll show you the dates in a second, I'll show you my diary. 2013? No, 16, 16, I'll show you my diary now. What initially happened yeah, was Goody started telling me that he wants to come down to my house, so I agreed for Goody, I agreed for Goody to come to my house as an AMP worker, Goody come here, when Goody come here he come with a black woman, the black woman sat here and Goody sat here.

(19:32 - 29:58)
I showed Goody all of my festival paperwork and what I was building and my constitution, Goody's going this is amazing what you're building, how come you're sending me in here, I've got all the recordings of it, how come your house is clean and that Simon? Now Goody says to me I'm going on annual leave Simon, I'm glad you let me in your house sort of thing, when I get back on annual leave in four weeks would you have another meeting with me? I liked Goody, I thought Goody we might be able to do something, we might be able to raise above all of these wrongful adults around us, trying to ruin our lives, so I said okay Goody, Goody says he's going to come, the next day after Goody goes a load of doctors come to my front door again, but the same black woman that was sitting here, I forgot her name, not being rude, but she was rude when she first came for the meeting, she stormed up outside because she saw my house was tidy, went in the corridor and started making a phone call, like yeah we're in trouble, his house is clean, his fridge is full, we can't take him from him, she came back in and said Goody we've got to go, let's go, she took Goody and left the meeting. Simon, can I just clarify something, you mentioned victims and your neighbours, you were getting on okay with the neighbours, do you think they've made a complaint against you? An injunction means I must be served by hand, what initially happened is from 2014 to 2016, I've been to court over 255 times, do you trust the judge? You're not letting me answer the questions that you're asking me, so I'd like to answer the questions you're Tell me about the victims and your neighbours first. No you ain't got no victims here, what you've got is people, I can prove what happened, listen to what happened here for a second, you can go back and tell Lemmy as well, because Lemmy is your friend I suspect, Lemmy get this straight, what initially happened, from there Sally started making the rest of them bang at me, because she wants me out of the country because I'm banging up about them missing signatures, so now standing up, I've never been rude to him in 12 years, he's checking Debbie upstairs because his wife died, now Debbie's the light skin alcoholic here, now Debbie has her two light skin children taken away from her and no one told me that, now the council come in here under a fake 187 after Goody comes in, the next day that same black woman come outside my front door and she wanted access to my house and I'm like hang on I'm waiting for Lemmy to come back in two weeks, she said no we want access to your house now again, I said no that's wrong, why are you here, you're abusing your position, she goes anyway, they put an 187 in and then they force their way in my house, now while they're doing that I had loads of recordings on my answer phone of asking them to come to a meeting with me and they were asking them to come to a meeting to come to a meeting with me and they were asking them to come to a meeting and they were asking them to a meeting with me and they were to come to a meeting with me to a meeting with me and they were asking them to come to a meeting with me and they were asking them to come to a meeting with me so yes they put them on a meeting like I won't feel you but we probably go in it and they all agree they read from them and then I put the recorders there.

Where did it go from there? Now what happened actually after that is, Elaine's the council officer, I pulled out my recording dictator I said look you're in my house illegally you filled out this warrant illegally because I would let you in my house two days ago I let you in three days before that let you in four days before that she breaks down in my front room in front of my mum and my uncle and Simon Clarke and everyone in there and goes oh we're sorry the police made us do it they want us to take you away so now she breaks down in here that she's come she's used her powers to come and take me away. So how have you been getting on with your neighbours because you said the neighbours... This is what initially happened so... I think because the neighbours have made complaints. Neighbours are lying.

No listen to what happened. Lemmy... Why would they lie? Let's listen to what happened listen to what happened listen to what happened yeah Lemmy, Sally started spreading the idea of the disease yeah in the public these sort of started to attack me the first time I met the Matthew Illigon family upstairs I'd lived in my flat for 12 years prior after living in my flat for 12 years let me just get this up for a second after living in my flat for 12 years they moved in up above I noticed that they had moved in and I didn't really I didn't really go out my way to go and see them sort of thing but one day when I was two three weeks into it I was parking my car up out the front and this Matthew Illigon bloke was outside the front here and there was a boy that lived there next doors I didn't know him too well but he's a bit younger than me but he's a really a bit tipsy and his mental health yeah now this bloke's got Matthew Illigon by the throat like that as I'm coming into my own block and I'll just explain I'm just explaining to you he's going oh Simon shall I bang him can I beat this Matthew Illigon guy and I should come across that going into my block like normal I'm still like quite hippie because I'm doing the parties for everyone yeah I'm quite an RGP person trying to neutralise things so I didn't even ask this Matthew Illigon what is your name or why is this happening why are you two arguing what I said is hang on you're the new bloke that lives in our flats ain't you upstairs he goes yeah yeah yeah yeah getting grabbed up like that I go you're the new bloke so I go to him I go to the young boy listen he's the new adult that's in my block he's an adult to both of us we must respect our adults so you've got to let this man go he's an adult in my block I've got to protect him now he's my adult he's in my block let him go so the young boy had to let him go he's like please sir let me just bang him like bruv let the Matthew Illigon man go the Matthew Illigon runs upstairs yeah the Indian bloke now he goes upstairs I don't hear from him for eight weeks eight months after that yeah I'm
