Speaker 1:	00:13	[inaudible].
New Speaker:	00:16	Me and my mother and cousin re-entering the meeting room in the Chase Farm Mental hospital. After prior discussion.
New Speaker:	00:16	Hello everyone.
New Speaker:	00:16	Hello, Simon.
New Speaker:	00:16	A quick discussion
Speaker 2:	00:18	A quick discussion , um, based on the information you've given us. Um, we don't feel that your detainable, under section three of the mental health acts. Um, and given that you are prepared to stay here voluntarily, um, of your own free will and agreeing to see a second opinion doctor, um, who can carry out a full assessment, um, we're goanna go with that.
Speaker 1:	00:39	Okay.
New Speaker:	00:39	Excellent. Thank you for your help today.
New Speaker:	00:42	Thank you for your help today.
New Speaker:	00:42	It ok.
New Speaker:	00:42	But I would, you know.
New Speaker:	00:42	I honestly never done what was in them statements.
New Speaker:	00:42	Year.
New Speaker:	00:42	Year, and I think, sorry Larry to interrupt I was just going to say staying on the ward voluntarily means being in compliance.
New Speaker:	00:53	Year of course.
New Speaker:	00:53	Can he, I.
New Speaker:	00:53	[inaudible] and doing what is expected of you
New Speaker:	00:53	Yeah of course.
New Speaker:	00:56	Can I asked a question, Doctor, because of lady the dog she is really missing him.
New Speaker:	01:00	Hmm.

New Speaker:	01:00	Year, and I arranged the other day, but because this has been brought up --- they haven't been able to cop him ---they said that he can come home for a couple of hours.
New Speaker:	01:10	Yes.
New Speaker:	01:10	You need to talk to doctor Greenside about that?
New Speaker:	01:10	Being voluntary changes everything. If they are saying I'm on that, if I'm allowed to do that, as long as I listen to what they are saying,
New Speaker:	01:17	Doctor Greenside gave his consent.
New Speaker:	01:17	Your an angel you lot are.
New Speaker:	01:17	you have had leave any way, haven't you?
New Speaker:	01:17	year I have been able to leave since the second day.
New Speaker:	01:17	Well then.
New Speaker:	01:17	Yeah, I don't have too, I know what to do.
New Speaker:	01:17	but do try and cooperate because they. Doctor Greenside.
New Speaker:	01:28	Hmm.
New Speaker:	01:28	I'm going a circus tenant, I'm going to end up having a claim for the first one and get a circus tent and I will be back working in the community with everyone making something constructive for everyone.
New Speaker:	01:40	Yep of course.
New Speaker:	01:40	Erm, I'm we don't need to sort of elaborate any further.
New Speaker:	01:44	Okay.
New Speaker:	01:44	Okay.
New Speaker:	01:44	Um, that's where we are at as long as you, work with the nurses.
New Speaker:	01:50	Yeah he is a gentleman.
New Speaker:	01:50	God bless you all and I hope you all have a good day.

New Speaker:	01:50	Thank you very much.
New Speaker:	02:06	Your welcome.
New Speaker:	02:06	thank you sorry what is your name.
New Speaker:	02:06	Larry.
New Speaker:	02:06	I am sure I have seen you somewhere before.
New Speaker:	02:06	You probably see me the other day cycling around in Enfield.
New Speaker:	02:06	Oh, maybe.
New Speaker:	02:06	He is a busy person.
