Hello, how are you doing? I phoned the Labour office the other day, Enfield Department, which is the department I'm speaking to now, and I got told that someone would call me back within an hour. I never got a phone call back. I waited for the...

You mean you called Joe Ryan MP's office? Yes, that's correct. And when was that, Friday? No, it was on Thursday, actually. I waited for Friday as well for the call back and no-one called me back.

What's that surname? Cordell, C-O-R-D-E-L-L.

Yeah. You will get a call back soon. I've been waiting... It's an emergency issue and I think that I should be taken very seriously. I'm being semi-labelled as a vulnerable person and I really needed to speak to somebody on Thursday when I phoned up the office. You will be called, it's just, again, because there's a certain...

One moment, please. Who am I speaking to? I will call you back. I've had your mum on the phone as well. I speak to her nearly every day.

Yeah, but... I'm happy to speak to you, but I can't give you an update unless I go back and I have to look at the email.

Who am I actually speaking to?

Yeah, my name's Aleph. I'm the lady that deals with Lorraine, your mum.

OK. I have quite a few concerns that my mum hasn't raised with you and they're of emergency, they're about public servants and fraud and corruption, malice of public office and the people are still allowed to work in the public offices and I can clearly prove that they've committed...

Enfield Council and the Metropolitan Police acted in...

Under the breach of...

Under Ethnics, under the Code of Ethnics 2010, it says that Joint Circular, when two official government parties worked together in calibration to set a goal, and the Enfield Council and the Metropolitan Police worked together and they falsified paper that's put me on a nine-year... Well, eight-year curfew, seven years for the ASBO, and the paperwork's forged. They're missing all of their signatures on... Legal advice I'm speaking to an MP and to the MPs office here and I'm saying I have evidence I have evidence that's beyond reasonable doubt I don't need a solicitor to give me advice and I want to act litigant do you know what litigant is? litigant means I act for myself hold on a second we are dealing with numerous complaints around you know from your mum and you in relation to Enfield Council I've only just decided It's not just Enfield Council. Yeah, but not... OK, so you need to put in writing what your complaint is...

Can I have a meeting with yourselves, please?

Not today, you can't. Not today. It doesn't have to be today. It's just a date to be set that I can come down to you with my evidence of what Lemmy Newbus, the fraud that he'd done... If you go to horrificcorruption.com... Horrificcorruption.com is my website. And if you go to... If you spent five minutes and just went on the case... I live in Enfield at Bairncroft Avenue. Yeah, I know. So you're at the right time. I'm being assaulted last night in my house. My neighbours are banging on the wall and banging at me. And the day before. And I've had to live in this house for five years getting attacked every day. No person will take a statement off me. I want prosecution brought against the people that I can prove have fraudulently done stuff. But why has Lemmy still, why has Lemmy not been suspended from Enfield Council then and the people are... They ain't been suspended while they're on active duty and they're touching computers and I'm saying that they've committed fraud and that they've used the victim's statements. Basically the police and the council together created an ASBO folder and in that ASBO folder it's a standalone ASBO. A standalone ASBO is different from a CBO ASBO. A CBO means that you get arrested for something. And I never got arrested for the organisation of illegal race but I've been prosecuted for it the organisation if something's illegal you must be arrested yeah they forgot to arrest me the maximum sentence if they did arrest somebody is six months and a 20 grand fine somehow they've never arrested me and gave me an eight year sentence an eight year curfew sentence yeah I'm riding in my house you can't even if you check if you check This is Labour, you're the Parliament. Usually I just let my name be publicly used. They've labelled me and my girl with a dizzit, with a dizzit. You're the Parliament though. Yeah, you work for the Parliament, you're members of Parliament. I'm not shouting. I don't ever mean to shout at you, madam. I'll never be rude to you. OK, I'm listening. This is the first time I've ever had a conversation with you, madam. She hung up. We are here to help you. We are here, we are on your side. You get paid and go home every night. You get paid a salary and go home every night. And leave me like this. I'm gonna phone them back for that. She's rude. How can Parliament do that? and members do that and all I'm doing is explaining to her what's happened. She won't even let me explain what I'm saying has happened. She's talked to my mum. I'm not my mother, I'm Simon and Simon wants to tell them about my case.

- Hello, your call can't be taken at the moment. So, please leave your message after the tone. I cannot believe that the phone has just been put down on me and I wasn't shouting. I'm recording the conversation. I'm taking the minutes to the meeting. I'm dealing with public servants. Either way, they work for the government. Joanne Ryan's cabinet does and her members do, including herself. So she's a public servant and no matter what way she looks at it. I'll never be disrespectful to any of you, but you allowed for this my name and Shannon's name to be abused in the general public, yeah? And you've all sat in your offices and not one person has come to Simon's or done anything official to protect us, yeah? The Enfield Council falsified all of their paperwork and are holding me in my house for seven years. I just wanted to explain to the woman on the phone what would happen to me. And I thought she should take five minutes to listen to what I'm saying to her has happened to me. Because she's going to go home tonight, like she went home Thursday, Friday, Saturday, Sunday and now Monday and she's done all them other days with my mother being, my mother contacted Joanne Ryan's department in 2014, I've got, so Lemmy and everyone was emailing my mother in all the emails when I didn't know about the emails and what Lemmy and that was doing to my mum, abusing their position, sending my mum all of them emails here, my mum never told me what was happening. Yeah, my mum gave me them emails and showed me when Lemmy went for the procession order and went to steal my flat He frauded all of the paperwork here You can go to horrific corruption.com and you can click on Lemmy's first injunction order press ctrl F and and put the dates in and you can see where Lemmy has added all of these things in and made a processional of 31 claims against me all fraudulent and used Sarah Fletcher, a neighbourhood officers paperwork from the 11th of May, 11th 16 which had 3 claims in it Sarah Fletcher initially had 3 claims when I was in hospital She wrote a letter saying that I was a drug addict and backdated that one month on the 6th of the 6th 16th. She phoned up three times when I was in hospital, yeah, and she made three bogus calls saying stuff, yeah, about me. So the first letter was saying that I was a drug addict when I'm not. I was writing anti-drug policies and building a CIC community interest company in my house, yeah. And then, because I've come out of the hospital and Sarah Fletcher's showing me her work, I said, well I wasn't even living in my house at that time, so Sarah Fletcher left her job and no one would reprimand her when I wanted prosecution brought against Sarah Fletcher. Yeah, and I still do to this day. Then after that, Lemmy started the company on the 16th of October, he's picked up Sarah Fletcher's work and he started messaging my mum saying, if I don't go for a meeting at the Civic Centre, he's going to take my flat off me. I never knew, my mum's wrote loads of emails and used it when messaged in all of them messages. If you'd done your job correctly in 14 like you was asked to and protected me and protected my human rights, I wouldn't be on the phone to you now.
