Hello, how are you doing? I was wondering if you could help me with an enquiry please?

Yeah, go on. I've got a bell to return to Woodgreen Police Station unfortunately and I believe it's going to be NFA'd. I'm trying to get through to Woodgreen Custody to confirm the position with this. What's your name mate? I'll have a look for you.

Simon Cordell. Spell his surname for me. C-O-R-D-E-L-L.

Date of birth, Simon?

26th of the 1st, '81.

It was suspicion of burglary confusingly, but basically someone pretended that they had broke into the building someone squatted into the flat upstairs Pretended that they've got into it the police believed them as they lied and said they had signed a tenancy with the council I got detained and taken to custody. I think it was a bit malicious process to be honest a malicious prosecution. Yeah, no problem. Pardon? Then afterwards, while I'm in the police station, the police have found out the truth that the woman upstairs that had said she had signed a tenancy didn't really sign a tenancy and she had broke into the premises. So they know there's no prospect of a guilty conviction, plus there's only an hour left on the time. So if I go there, I'm only going to get booked in for an hour and then a custody officer has to get called down. I was in my home at 109 Barencroft Avenue. Some people knocked on my door. I got them on camera. What borough is that in?

Enfield, North London.

Enfield, lovely.

Yeah, suspicion of burglars. There was no prospect of a guilty charge. It was just thrown in the air to hold me for a little while. It's gone now. I left on bail. The arresting officer won't pick up the phone and all of that.

Yeah, unfortunately. Because of the recordings I've got on there.

Yeah, because I was hoping there was something on there.

Yeah, because you're 28th of the 6th.

Pardon? You're back 28th of June, aren't you?

2 o'clock. 28th of June? I thought it was today on the 24th, I've been told.

No, suspect bailed to return with green custody, 28th of the 6th. 2 o'clock. For the burglary charge. Are you an angel? - Yeah, don't worry about that. Yeah, it's funny, he's probably not in them, like, that's probably why he's not answering. - Oh, that's possible. It's gonna get dropped anyway. It's just that they're looking to hold on. Can I say something here? Do you know like, because you've got a lot of colleagues in there, do you know like, obviously they might have told you about the ASBO and the injunction that I've won, do you know what I noticed, what the police officer has done? They changed all of the police names in the ASBO, say like they nicked me for six cases in the ASBO and they're missing the signatures and the timestamps go backwards to the call centre. They changed all the police officers names and badges to all of the cases that I won because I've got a copy of my criminal record. I've done a subject that I've matched all the micro my criminal record up to the real up to the names in there. They're all fake. They're all saying brown this brown that every single one of them takes the mickey out the color of my skin and and set me completely. So I've been stitched in here and we've had all of these problems and all this has happened to Shannon just because they didn't like the color of my skin. Uh something I wanted to put on your on your team like. I'm Now what they've done is they've opened... Stephen Ellsmore went to the computer, yeah? Now when you go to the computer, he knows that I've not done nothing wrong. He's opened up a case from 2011, yeah? So he knows that it's out of the time limitation. Then he changes the Krimmit number on it, yeah? So the date that less than 20 Krimitz before they go in and they open Mill Marsh Lane. Then he changes the Krimitz number, opens a new Krimitz number for it and he creates the Krimitz 20 after Mill Marsh which is in 14 and this event's in 11. So all the Krimitz and the RNs are the same. Then they will force the signatures on it. There's no victim signatures on none of the M's. So each police officer has done four fixed statements. Then all of the CAVs to your ones, yeah, to the call centre that are really supposed to be Progress Way, they're all the time stamps go backwards to them but then there was another rave on Crown Road on the same day which is just up the road he used all the Crown Road ones and forgot to take out the took out the name Crown Road but forgot to take out the x2y locations under oath what gets him under oath yeah in the transcripts that I've got of the day of trial my solicitor asked him are you sure that every event you put in that folder is only is progress way he swears under oath and he gets it and really he knows that he forged all of it and he used all Have you spoken to Citizens Advice about it? I think what you're saying is about overturning the ASBO right? Have you spoken to them? I've spoken to Citizens Advice and I've gone through the legal process but there's been a lot of malicious process and I'm not going to wrap you into it because I'm going to let you have a good day anyway sir man. Ok mate, I'm going to head to the store here Geoff, it's at 28, 2 o'clock. Alright, good luck.
