Hello, is this Julie Leonard? Sorry? Is this Julie Leonard? Hello? Who am I speaking to? Hello? Who am I speaking to? My name's Jackie Carter. Calling, please. Jackie, yeah? And you work for Hugh Gill's Solicitor Firm. Are you a director, an assistant director in the company?

No, no. I work for Jenny Leonard, who's the assistant director.

Mr Cordell, Simon Cordell.

And what's it regarding?

It's regarding an application that Miss Sally Gilhurst put together which is illegally holding me in my house. It was fraudulently put together. It's missing all of the victim's signatures, all the timestamps are wrong. I've continuously recorded her since 2014 asking her to rectify the case. There's a simple option available to all of us which protects the police, me and her company assistants. And that simple thing is that the application was for the organisation of a legal race. I never got arrested for it, yeah? So I should have been arrested for saying it was illegal. I went to court after a year of her trying to get an application on me, an injunction order for the ASBO. The three judges threw the case out and said they wouldn't deal with it. She couldn't get the injunction on me. Finally... Sorry, let me...

Did you say Sally Gilchrist?

Yes, that's correct. Not Jenny Landers section you need to write to you need to write to us at the address and put it all May I explain something to you madam?

This is what I'm just trying to do to resolve the problem right now. I've been speaking to her for a long time on the phone and recording the conversation explaining to her that there's no timestamps and that the timestamps all go backwards. That in the Cads they all say 999... What actually happened is a load of police officers pretended that I threw an event, threw six events, tried to make me be a super grass and grass three people up that I knew while I was on curfew and I couldn't have thrown the parties. Free people free kids that could have been your kids that were next generations I've been building bliss charity working kids set for celipal Z I've been doing everything the chair because I was on curfew anyway Yeah, so now she set me up and tried to make me be a super grass I was missing out late lately. I did order the cats in for progress way That's why the timestamps will go back for progress way lied about another party that was on on the same day and put all the cuts from the other party and in for my money blocked all the locations out but forgot to block the extra while X to Y with numbers when I checked in it showed the upper part in the upper location I went to court kept going to court saying this and drop the case under trespass because you all the police officers have said that this sections on the doors so you ain't talked about money in the application which is a breach under the licensing act Now if I heard doing that it's just an error in law and nobody loses their job. If I walk into the police station after them and follow a complaint of corruption then that's up to me. But I put it on the table as a person that wants to be a valid person in my community and don't want to damage loads of people's lives. I just wanted the keys to the park to be able to hold legal events and pay my taxes. I set up the companies to do that and a charity, a CIC incorporated association I wanted to build. I built them all. I built a new model constitution and everything. Yeah but if I write to her, I've made a website right now yeah and I've made a live website right now and it's got all the evidence of all me calling all the call centres and let down the phone again you're a black bastard you're being robbed. We don't care about you Simon. I've got all my medical notes, me talking to all the clinic and then set up this. Now I made a proper website. I made a proper website. I'm going to, no, I'm not going to write, I'm going to go public with it. I've got 20 million emails here, you know, over 500,000 phone numbers and I've just built a Wix website, fully loaded. I'm good at coding and I've coded everything, hard coded it. I'm going to make sure that they have to leave the country themselves if they do not act as reasonable people. This is neglect and due diligence is what you... You're supposed to act within your stature. No, all you have to do is you have the application in your hat, in the offices. Sorry, sorry, sorry, madam. Sorry, it's not... I'm tongue-tied and I've got a speech impairment. It's my disability under the 1998 act. I'm tongue-tied in real life. I've not had the tongue to sniff under my tongue. I'm not being rude to you. I don't ever mean to be rude to you. I've never been rude to a woman. I've got belt marks all down my legs from my dad beating me and my mum. I've never touched her. I've never argued with a woman, yeah, in my life other than trying to assault these people and to yourself. I've never argued with my partner Shannon, I've never argued with anybody in my life, because of the belt marks on my lips and the person that made me do it. I've got all the emails and texts of me talking to Shannon up to 2016. Sally done this in my name with Ed Sheeran and the rest of it to cover up because I kept winding up the call centre which I've got the recordings for talking how I'm talking to you. So they've done a sex scandal in mine and Shannon's name. While we're together for two years they I've had my neighbours attacking me every day, banging at me, which I've been reformed in, and the police won't be telling me. You're a reasonable person. You've got statutory duties and you work under a constitution. And you work for litigation, and the second that someone tells you a graded issue, a graded issue... A legal secretary to what company? to the metropolitan police. So if I tell you I'm a call for services, CFS, we're calling you under my LSIR, under the CD counter rules, I'm telling you as an employee under your stationary duties that there's fraudulent activity under 2006 company act and that your company is working in joint circular in motion and that I'm having malfeasance of public office I'm explaining to you these things on the phone I'm recording this conversation I'm telling you I can't read and write so I'm asking you to take into effect for my disabilities I'm recording you, Jackie Nellian I'm going to transcribe this up and put it into my report I write to you, there's no turning back from it being wrote. No, I'm telling you I can't read and write. I'm telling you I'm disabled and I can't read and write.
