Hello, how you doing? I'm just trying to find out some information about my tenancy. And basically, what I'm trying to do is get through to the 3644 South Mall. And I know that an anti-social behaviour team leader has hired in a third-party solicitor firm, I believe. And I'm trying to find out the company, the solicitor firm's name that's representing Enfield Council, who's going for possession against me.

Are you a council tenant?

Yes, that's correct. Alright, I'll put you free to council housing. I might have more information to spare with me. I'll just put you free now.

Alright, thank you. There's 2619 on the page. I think it was at 6pm, I'd say it was at 6pm.

How are you doing madam? I'm basically a tenancy holder for Enfield Council and a possession order has been placed in against me. It's got signed by the anti-social behaviour team leader. Is that possible that that person will be in your department?

A team leader for anti-social behaviour?

My post code is echo November 3 EN 3 7 Juliet Quebec 7 JK 109 I've got a name Paul Buckridge is the name is there any way that you can check on the cause I've been I've asked a few people some else and they couldn't find a few other names Paul Buckridge is spelt P-A-U-L B-U-C-K Mr Cordell, Simon Cordell. And your contact telephone number? I don't have it, 0208 245 7454.

Right, alright. Mr Cordell, let's have a look. I just want to know... The signature's different to who's actually saying it. Paul Buckridge, P-A-U-L-B-U-C-K-R-I-D-G-E. But no one can seem to find him on the computers. I've been told he might be a third party solicitor that's been hired in, who's representing the council. This would be the second solicitor firm that's been hired in to do this against me. And I have a lot of evidence that I'd like to put his way, so that I don't have to suffer the duration of time to which I am while I'm following through process.

Yeah, that's correct. I'm trying to find Paul Backeridge.

Yes, that's correct. And I've got a contact number to contact him. And I spoke to many tenancy people. But what I'm concerned about is I have a tenancy letter here right this second in front of me. It's signed on behalf of Enfield Council Housing, addressed the Edmonton Centre, 3644 South Mall, London. So this place that I'm contacting now, I think it's 0208 379 2610, Edmonton Council, closes 6pm, South Marlborough, Edmonton, N9. I'm trying to find out who in this department has signed this and what solicitor firm they've called in to do this. So, because you need to speak to your tenancy officer. For what? I haven't managed to get through to him directly. I keep up. I've got like about 50. Just recently I transcribed out of say 300 recordings that I've got. I've already transcribed like 90 of them up. But I've done another 45 this like over the last weekend or so. Out of them 45 phone recordings. They're all to Enfield Council, the neighbourhood team offices and that. Out of 41 of them. Have all of the staff in the background laughing, going, "You're dead, you're not allowed out." All of the neighbourhood officers' teams completely, actually, it's an absolute violation to my human rights and to my rights to equal equality and to equal opportunities. I, the staff inside that's that inside Southmore who's issued this paper, I'm going to put the recordings up live very soon. I just, it's taken me a long time to go through them and I've dealt with lots of different people throughout this and the list of names is pretty much endless that I've requested in the audio recordings that I've recorded. Now I'd just like to go... Okay, Nazir, but who else, there must be somebody else that can tell me who is actually, because Nazir never seems to be available, and I don't really blame him for not wanting to get involved in the past management's problems, but at the end of the day, he's took them problems on as his own now, and I'm suffering every day, they're going home, they're being paid a wage to do this to me and I'm not allowed to leave my house, I'm on a curfew, I'm scared to go out because of them, because of reappersals from government officials for forcing me through the mental health acts and so forth when there's been nothing wrong with me my whole life. So I've got this processional that I've been waiting since the 1st of January, well the 3rd of January this year, and I'm still not getting to go to the first time I get to go to court for this processional that will be the 12th of this month of December, of next month December. So it's taken over a year just to get to court once. And to be able to ask for, well, what the heck's going on here sort of thing. Can you please, because I've never done one of these things that I'm being accused of. A year just in process there, I think it's unfair that I'm even stuck in it. And I've sent these people directly, in all the recordings that I'm transcribing up, I'm speaking to staff officials like yourself, they're saying to me, do you know what Simon, I'm going to put an email through directly to this person and they're going to have to contact you back And I'm going to file this and I've listened to all the staff promising me that this is... And I don't get one phone call back, yet I'm still being held in my hands. I'm suffering badly because of other people's neglect towards me. Right now this says I've not been able to paint a wall in my house for over a year because I'm going to be evicted at some point because of Lemmy and a lot of other officials' fraudulries. I know this is stamped Enfield Civic Centre, 3644 South Mall and I'd just like to be able to talk to somebody who can tell me because they've hired in a separate solicitor firm to do this to me supposedly. I don't believe Paul Buckridge really exists. Because there is one Paul Buckridge that has ever been registered as a solicitor in this country and he's based in Lewisham. I've got his contact details and I've been ringing him but he seems to be quite busy. I'm going to get through to him soon and ask him if Enfield Council employed him. But I've got a funny feeling that this Paul Buckridge isn't going to say that he was employed by this company. I mean, because like you say, with a letter it normally tells you, erm, It says Paul Bucker has sent all the, basically, Laminia and Lemmy were dealing with a case. They forged all of the paperwork after Dawn Allen, Jackie Gubby and Louise Dillon, all of them forged it. I can prove it all from their release notes. Then basically someone's come in on the 29th of November. And sent side email and my mother took over all of their emails said he's the new case holder is Paul Buckeridge has been hired by South Mole. I've got all of the emails he's been hired by South Mole to take over this case, Paul Buckeridge, and he spoke to Lemmy and to the rest of it. They're saying that the judge never ordered for me to have an emergency house transfer unless I have care workers in my house. And that the judge never, and that this, they've lied to this Paul Buckridge. Paul Buckridge has come back and said, Miss Cordell, I've been told that I'm going to be filing procession order against you again right now. And by the South Mall, and I've been advised not to, and that, that, any other, that, that's basically it. Now this Paul, I've got all the emails from this Paul Buckridge. He's signed as paulbuckeridge at enfield.org.co.uk. Now, all of his emails don't have no third-party solicitor firm, as he says. There's no number for him to be taxed or that number at the bottom of it all. There's no contact number for him. There is nothing. He's just like a made-up person. I think that Lavinia and Lemmy made up themselves and the rest of the management team in there who was involved at the time made up to cover up the tracks because they had already hired in Lavinia in the beginning because I started hollering at Lemmy saying to Lemmy well look I think you're going to need a solicitor for the way that you're handling me and these are so Lemmy went and hired a solicitor firm from Enfield Tan and when he hired the solicitor he got Laminia and Laminia decided to continue in fraudgery with Lemmy So they already hired him once a visitor. Why are they and they let not all know that they committed forgery from the beginning trying to set me up and I can put why are they going to involve another solicitor firm and pay them costs again when it comes to lately after I believe that they've just made up Paul Buckridge and I might be mistaken, but he's drafted letters don't seem official enough and he's and no one can no one can chase him down to anywhere. No one seems to know where this Paul Buckridge is working. And he's supposed to be in charge of me getting my flat taken off of me so... The only thing I can suggest is that you know where Edmonton Green Library is? Yes I do madam. That's where the neighbourhood officers are. You can take a visit down there and I'll speak to one of the neighbourhood officers. Okay. Somebody there will probably be able to give you some advice. Okay well thank you for your time today and I hope you have a good day.
