Transcription

David Knapp, DAC Beechcroft and the 2nd of the 3rd 2021. Let's see if he's got an opinion on what's actually going on. He's been given a letter of claim on a link to it. Leave a voice mail. After the tone, please record your message. When you're finished recording, hang up or press the hash key for more options.

Hello David, it's Mr Cordell calling again. It's 3/22 and it's the 2/3/2021. I was just phoning to see if the link that I gave you for the letter of claim is sufficient enough for where I stand basically with you because I feel like I've documented enough evidence I can go over anything with you if you was willing and happy to do so which it doesn't seem that you are I basically have gave you the laws and the rest of it in the letter of claim I'm doing. I've just recently updated a lot of them. I was hoping to get a call out of courtesy, like I explained in the last conversation, and I keep checking my email hoping that you will at least message me back by email, and you're not doing so. It's getting to a stage where I'm not happy with the way that DAC Beachcroft is now managing things and the way that you are running your business, your business objectives and I'm getting to the stage where I'm going to message Trading Standards soon and I'm going to open up my pages and show everybody else exactly how I'm being treated throughout this. I'm not happy at the present time and I'm just hoping that you'd give me a call of courtesy which will ease what's going on a bit and explain to me that you've at least gone over the letter of claim and what more you need to fulfil it or what you don't require and stuff like that and be a bit more specific in what you actually want so that I can continue forward in my life once again. Please can you contact me back? Mr Cordell.