Yes, I can make the sections much larger than that. The issue is only the total size of the 30-minute transcript.
For example, keeping it very close to the original, the opening section would look like this:

Speaker 2 (Mr Cordell)

Hello.
Can I ask a question?
No, I'm not too happy.
You're from the council and you're from the council, yeah?
So let's get this straight, yeah?
Let's get this straight.
I've had a bloke called Lemmy come to my front door.
What initially happened is in 2013, I got put on curfew for throwing parties.
I threw parties from 2012 to 2013 in London, yeah?
The council come here, the police come here and they arrested me and they put me on bail conditions for one year in this house.
Told me I'm not allowed to leave the house from 2013 to 2014.
So I said, OK.
Now when I'm on curfew from 2013 to 2014, the police come here and leave another folder which is another case outside my house.
They leave it outside here.
It can't fit through my letterbox.
Now that folder says "Organisation of Illegal Raves" in it, yeah?
They forgot to ever arrest me.
If something's illegal, you're supposed to arrest somebody.
Now what this folder's done is it tried to make me be a supergrass and grass up on my bredrens that were throwing parties while I was on curfew.

Speaker 1 (Dr Dinah Karen)

OK, Mr Cordell, let me explain.
I'm Dr Dinah Karen.
I'm a Consultant Psychiatrist.
I've been instructed by the council.

Speaker 2 (Mr Cordell)

You've been instructed by the council and I'm telling you now...
Listen to me.

Speaker 1 (Dr Dinah Karen)

OK.
I'm going to stop you there.
I suggest you listen to us.

Speaker 2 (Mr Cordell)

You suggest...
I suggest you listen to me, yeah?

Speaker 1 (Dr Dinah Karen)

I'm actually on the instructions of the court, Mr Cordell.

Speaker 2 (Mr Cordell)

I'm telling you, the court has forged a massive ASBO.
I've been phoning the court every single day telling the court what's going on.

Speaker 1 (Dr Dinah Karen)

And we're here on a different matter.

No, no, you aren't.
The reason you aren't here now is because the police and the council in 2013 served an ASBO.
No, please do not lie.
Please do not lie because I've got the letters inside here.
I've got a full official diary.
I'll never be rude to no person, but I'm not having you abuse your powers.
Yes, you are abusing your powers under the Mental Health Act.
Can I please take your name?
And the council are abusing their position.
I'm more than happy for you to come into my house.
I'm happy to go through things for you.
But let's get this straight.
The reason why you're coming into my house here, I've had the doctors come here 73 times since 2014.
Seventy-three times I've been assessed.
You're doing a seventy-fifth assessment on me.

Speaker 1 (Dr Dinah Karen)

I'm here for a slightly different...

Speaker 2 (Mr Cordell)

No, no, let's get this straight.
You are here to do an assessment on me.
The reason you want to do an assessment on me, this is the seventy-fifth assessment under the Mental Health Act.
I had the doctors in here.
I had your team come in here the other day, but she wouldn't come into my house.

Then two days before that, I had another assessment.
I had an assessment in this house less than six days ago.
So let's just quickly go to the facts of what really happened here.
In 2013...

Speaker 1 (Dr Dinah Karen)

I'm not going to go through what happened in 2013.

Speaker 2 (Mr Cordell)

I'm going through the case history.
I'm going through this case history.

Speaker 1 (Dr Dinah Karen)

I know the case history.
Will you allow us to come in?

Speaker 2 (Mr Cordell)

I'm going to allow you to come in in a second.
I'm going to show you my full report.
I'm going to show you all the little audios I've got of what has happened.

Speaker 1 (Dr Dinah Karen)

Let's talk about the injunction that's against you.

Speaker 2 (Mr Cordell)

No, that's what I'm talking about right now.
So let's get you straight.
Don't start twisting around when you don't know the case history.
I'm telling you the case history right now.
I'll never be rude to you, but do not try and deter me.
I'm not pointing my fingers at you.
I'm not pointing my fingers.
I'm tongue-tied, by the way.
So this is a speech impairment.
Don't ever think I'm being rude or anything here.
I've always been disabled because of it.
So I had to go to kids' speech therapy and everything.

Speaker 1 (Dr Dinah Karen)

Listen, I'm not interested in your speech.
I don't care about your attitude here right now.

I don't care about your attitude.
I don't care about your attitude here right now.
I'm taking the minutes to this meeting right now.

Speaker 1 (Dr Dinah Karen)

That's very good.

Speaker 2 (Mr Cordell)

This is how this injunction started.
Let me put my dog outside.
I'm going to put my dog outside again for a second.
You wait.
Stupid woman and her stupid attitude.
Get outside, lady.
She wants to get this right.
Let's go through this now.
Come in my house, man.
Do you know what?
You come in my house because I want you not to go to prison.
Come in my house.
You're more than welcome.
Come on, let's go through this.
Come in my house.
Let's get this over with.
Can I have your name as well please, sir?

Speaker 1 (Dr Dinah Karen)

Simon, can I just clarify something?
You mentioned victims and you mentioned your neighbours.
You were getting on okay with the neighbours?

Speaker 2 (Mr Cordell)

Yeah, I never had a problem with the neighbours.

Speaker 1 (Dr Dinah Karen)

So do you think they have made a complaint against you?
Because the injunction is about various complaints.

Speaker 2 (Mr Cordell)

Can I show you?
Can I show you?
An injunction means that I must be served by hand.

What initially happened is from 2014 to 2016...

Speaker 1 (Dr Dinah Karen)

But you went to court in January.
What happened there?

Speaker 2 (Mr Cordell)

I've been to court.
I've been to court over 255 times.

Speaker 1 (Dr Dinah Karen)

Do you trust the court?
The judge is the neutral party.

Speaker 2 (Mr Cordell)

You're not letting me answer the questions that you're asking me.
So I'd like to answer the questions you're asking me.

Speaker 1 (Dr Dinah Karen)

Tell me about the victims and your neighbours first.

Speaker 2 (Mr Cordell)

No, you ain't got no victims here.
What you've got is people.
I can prove what happened.
Listen to what happened here for a second.
Listen.
You can go back and tell Lemmy as well, because Lemmy is your friend, yeah, I suspect.
Let me get this straight.
What initially happened there, from there, Sally started making the rest of them bang at me because she wants me out of the country because I'm going on about the missing signatures.
So now, Stan there, I've never been rude to him in 12 years.
He's seeing Debbie upstairs because his wife died.
Now Debbie's the light-skinned alcoholic.
Debbie had her two children taken away from her.
No one told me that.
Now the council come in here under a fake Section 135 or 136 after Goody comes here.
The next day that same black woman came outside my front door and wanted access to my house.
I'm like, hang on, I'm waiting for Goody to come back in two weeks, three weeks.
She says:
"No, we want access to your house now again."
I said:
"No, that's wrong."
Why are you here?

You're abusing your position.
They put in the warrant and they forced entry.
While they're doing that I had loads of recordings on my answerphone asking them to come to meetings whenever they wanted.

Speaker 1 (Dr Dinah Karen)
Who are you talking about now?

Speaker 2 (Mr Cordell)
I'm talking about Goody.

Speaker 1 (Dr Dinah Karen)
Who did you ask to come for a meeting?

Speaker 2 (Mr Cordell)
Goody.
The AMHP worker.
Goody agreed to have a meeting with me.
When Goody agreed to have the meeting...

Speaker 1 (Dr Dinah Karen)
Because you were talking about the neighbours.

Speaker 2 (Mr Cordell)
Yeah, I'm bringing the whole lot together for you.

Speaker 1 (Dr Dinah Karen)
Okay.
You sound a bit confused.

Speaker 2 (Mr Cordell)
I'll leave it so that you're not confused by the end of it.
I'll leave you fully understanding everything.
If you just give me two seconds.
Rather than going through it like this, let me get this site up and show you what is actually happening here.
What initially happened is Goody came here to cover up the missing timestamps and help the police.
Goody left with the police.
After Goody went on holiday and he's supposed to be my case handler, another woman, Siobhan, that came with him tried to take me away.
Now she had to leave and go.
Now when she went and got a Section 135 or 136 and filled in the call, I wouldn't give her access to my house and she forged it illegally.

Speaker 1 (Dr Dinah Karen)

What's 187?

Speaker 2 (Mr Cordell)

Under the Mental Health Act in 1983, if you don't give somebody access to your house, there's different forms of access.
You can have agreed access.
You can have a Section 136.
A Section 136 means somebody could be dangerous or at risk.
I know the Mental Health Act.
So when they came into my house, I got the folders and showed them.
I said:
"You're holding me in my house illegally."
"This paperwork says I'm white and I couldn't have done it."
"I'm on nine years."
So we go through all the folders.
They read them.
I've got the recordings.

Speaker 2 (Mr Cordell)

Now what happened the next day after that is a council officer.
I pulled out my Dictaphone recorder and I said:
"Look, you're in my house illegally."
"You filled out this warrant illegally."
"I let you in my house two days ago."
"I let you in three days before that."
"I let you in four days before that."
She breaks down in my front room in front of my mum, my uncle, Simon Clark and everybody in here and goes:
"Oh, we're sorry."
"The police made us do it."
"They want us to take you away."
So she breaks down in here saying she's used her powers to come and take me away.

Speaker 1 (Dr Dinah Karen)

So how have you been getting on with your neighbours?
Because you said the neighbours...
Because the neighbours have made complaints according to the injunction.

Speaker 2 (Mr Cordell)

The neighbours are lying.
Listen to what happened.
Listen to what happened.
Yeah?

Sally started spreading the idea of disease in the public.
Then these people started to attack me.
The first time I met the Matthew Illigan family upstairs, I'd lived in my flat for 12 years prior.
After living in my flat for 12 years they moved in upstairs.
I noticed they moved in and I didn't really go out of my way to see them.
One day, two or three weeks later, I was parking my car out the front and this Matthew Illigan bloke was outside.
There was a younger bloke that lived nearby.
He had Matthew Illigan by the throat.
As I'm coming into my block he's shouting:
"Oh Simon, shall I bang him?"
"Can I beat this Matthew Illigan guy?"
I'm just coming into my block normally.
I was still doing parties and trying to keep things neutral.
So I didn't ask Matthew Illigan his name or what was happening.
I just said:
"Hang on."
"You're the new bloke who lives in our block upstairs, aren't you?"
He says:
"Yeah."
I turned to the younger bloke and said:
"Listen, he's the new adult in the block."
"We must respect our adults."
"You've got to let him go."
"He's an adult in my block."
The younger boy had to let him go.
He kept saying:
"Please, let me just bang him."
And I said:
"No, let him go."
Matthew Illigan runs upstairs.
After that I don't hear anything from him for months.
At that time Diana had walked out on me.
I was stuck on curfew.
I could smell them cooking upstairs.
I thought she seemed like a lovely wife.
All I had was a good heart towards that family.
Then Sally throws this disease thing into the works.
Then right above me they start banging.
Every day banging.
When I'm sitting here, bang, bang, bang above my head.
When I go to the toilet, bang, bang, bang above the toilet.
I've got hundreds of recordings of it.
Hundreds of videos of it.
I get in my bath and they're above my head banging.
I phone the police and say:

"This is out of order."
"Why are you letting this be done to me?"
Because they want to cover up the missing signatures.
They're telling me:
"You've been robbed."
"You're dead."
"You're a black bastard."
I'm recording it all.
They won't release me from my house.
I go upstairs and knock on their door.
I phone the police first and ask them to protect me.
They say no.
I record myself going upstairs.
I knock normally.
You can see it in all the recordings.
I never knock aggressively.
Because they were allowed from 2014 to 2016 to do this to me, my mum wrote to the council and MPs over 500 times.
There were hundreds of complaints.
At the end of it people were losing their jobs because of it.
Then this bloke Lemmy came in and knocked all the complaints out.

Speaker 1 (Dr Dinah Karen)

Who's Stan?

Speaker 2 (Mr Cordell)

Stan's the old man next door at 111.
Because of Stan I got arrested and held at the police station.

Speaker 1 (Dr Dinah Karen)

So Stan is your neighbour.
What did he get you arrested for?

Speaker 2 (Mr Cordell)

He said that in 2016 I walked outside my front door and said to him:
"If you keep doing this to me and Shannon, I'm going to get you in the park."
That's what he said I told him.
I have videos of him doing things.
He said I told him:
"If you keep doing this to me, Shannon and Heidi, banging on the walls and ruining our names and lives, I'm going to get you in the park."

Speaker 1 (Dr Dinah Karen)

Who's Shannon and Heidi?

Speaker 2 (Mr Cordell)

After Diana broke up with me, I met a new woman called Shannon.
Me and Shannon were together for eight months.
That's who he's talking about.
That's what he's accusing me of saying in 2016.
I told Stan on numerous occasions I wouldn't be around him.

Speaker 1 (Dr Dinah Karen)

Are you telling me that because of what Sally and Lemmy and everybody else have been doing against you, they got the neighbours against you?
Is that a conspiracy?

Speaker 2 (Mr Cordell)

That's a conspiracy.
That's a conspiracy.

Hello. Can I ask a question? No, I'm not too happy. You're from the council and you're from the council, yeah? So let's get this straight, yeah? Let's get this straight.

I've had a bloke called Lemmy come to my front door. What initially happened is in 2013, I got put on curfew for throwing parties. I threw parties from 2012 to 2013 in London, yeah? The council come here, the police come here and they nicked me.

Arrested me and they put me on bowel conditions for one year in this house. Told me I'm not allowed to leave the house from 2013 to 2014. So I said, OK.

Now when I'm on curfew for 2013 to 2014, they please come here and leave another folder which is another case outside my house. They leave it outside here. It can't fit through my letterbox.

Now that, that curfew, that folder says the organisation of illegal raves in it, yeah? They forgot to ever arrest me. If something's illegal, you're supposed to arrest somebody. Now what this folder's done is it tried to make me be a super grass and grass up on Bear and my bredrens that was throwing parties while I was on curfew.

(1:06 - 1:35)

OK, Mr Carter, let me explain. I'm Dr Dinah Karen. Yeah.

I'm a consultant psychiatrist. Yeah. OK.

I've been instructed by the council. You've been instructed by the council and I'm telling you now... Listen to me. OK.

I'm going to stop you there. I suggest you listen to us. You suggest... I suggest you listen to me, yeah? Yeah.

I'm actually on the instructions of the court, Mr Carter. I'm telling you, the court, I'm telling you now, the court has forged a massive ASBO. I've been phoning the court every single day telling the court what's going on.

(1:35 - 2:27)
And we're here on a different slant. No, no, you aren't. The reason you aren't here now is because the police, the police and the council in 2013 served an ASBO... No, please do not lie.

Please do not lie because I've got the letters inside here. I've got a full official diary. I'll never be rude to no person, but I'm not having you abuse your powers.

Yes, you are abusing your powers under the Mental Health Act 1963. Yeah. Can I please take your name? Yeah.

And the council are abusing their position. I'm more than happy to give you money. So I'm more than happy for you to come into my house.

I'm happy to go things for you. But let's get this straight. The reason why you're coming into my house here, I've had the doctors come here 73 times since 2014.

73 days I've been assessed. You're doing a 75th assessment on me. I'm here for a slightly different... No, no, let's get this straight.

You are here to do an assessment on me. The reason you want to do an assessment on me, this is the 75th assessment of the Mental Health Act. I had the doctors in here.

(2:27 - 2:57)
I had your team come in here the other day, but she wouldn't come in my house. Then two days before that, I had another assessment. I had an assessment in this house less than six days ago.

So let's just quickly go to the facts of what really happened here. In 2013... I'm not going to go through what happened in 2013. I'm going through the case history.

I'm going through this case history. I know the case history. I'm going through this case history.

Will you allow us to come in? I'm going to allow you to come in in a second. I'm going to show you my full report. I'm going to show you all the little audios I've got of what has happened.

(2:57 - 3:29)
Let's talk about the injunction that's against you. No, that's what I'm talking about right now. So let's get you straight.

Don't start twisting around when you don't know the case history. I'm telling you the case history right now. I'll never be rude to you, but do not try and deter me.

I'm not pointing my fingers at you. I'm not pointing my fingers. I'm tongue-tied, by the way.

So this is a speech pyramid. So don't ever think I'm being rude or anything here. I've always been disabled because of it.

So now I had to go to kids speech therapy and everything. Listen, I'm not interested in your speech. I don't care about your attitude here right now.

(3:30 - 3:35)
I don't care about your attitude. I don't care about your attitude here right now. I'm taking the minutes to this meeting right now.

(3:36 - 3:51)
That's very good. I'm not going to tell you now. The girls will come here.

This is how this injunction started. Let me put my dog outside. I'm going to put my dog outside again for a second.

You wait. Stupid woman and her stupid attitude. Get outside, lady.

(3:54 - 3:58)
She wants to get this right. Let's go through this now. Come in my house, man.

(3:59 - 4:03)
Do you know what? You come in my house because I want you not to go to prison. Come in my house. You're more than welcome.

(4:03 - 4:28)
Come on, let's go through this. Come in my house. Let's get this over with.

Can I have your name as well, please, sir? Yeah, sure. My name's Nick. Yeah, but where are you from the Enfield Council? Enfield Council, yeah.

Yeah, but why are you from the Enfield Council? We're here to support me. Yeah, so they're here to support you. But what is your job in the council? I'm a social behaviour officer.

You're a social behaviour officer. I'm a neighbourhood officer. And can I take both your names, please? Your full name.

(4:28 - 5:22)

Alex Georgiou. Pardon? You're Alex Georgiou. Come on, let's sit down then.

Okay, we're going to go through this quickly, yeah? Take a seat on that chair there and take a seat over here, yeah? Mr. Kordell, can you explain why I'm here and then I'll give you some time to talk, give me your history. And then I have specific questions to ask you. You're having a laugh, you are.

Yeah, I'm telling you now. I'm here for a specific purpose, to talk about the injunction that you were given in January. No, I was not given an injunction in January.

If you look at my camera here, yeah, because you're all taking the P, yeah? Here, I've got a camera right here, yeah? Yeah. Now, I've got a camera there watching you and a camera in every room in this house now watching you all, yeah? Now, when I was in the police station, the council come here, the council come to my cell in the police station and the bloke goes to me, I'm serving you. I said, you can't serve me in my cell.

(5:22 - 5:38)
The affidavit of service says you've got to serve me in my house by law. So, when I'm in the police station, the bloke gets the ump, he stomps, because the police let him into the police station. He's a third-party company.

The police want to cover up what's happening here. So, what the police done is let him in the police cell. They've agreed that they didn't serve me.

(5:38 - 5:49)
He illegally got let into the police station as a third-party company to cover up what's happening. Now, while I'm in the police cell, my mother comes to this house. My mother comes to the front door here.

(5:49 - 5:59)
She comes in my house while I'm in the police cell. She picks up the affidavit of service the bloke put through in the door and she leaves my house with it. Now, you can see her on camera come to here while I'm in the police station.

(5:59 - 6:19)
Then I get released from the police station, come back home, and there's no paperwork in the house. So, how have I been legally served? Yeah, how can she be here now forcing that I need to be assessed because I've got the camera evidence to prove why I weren't served? Since 2013, this is where it initially happened. In 2013, I got nicked for that gazebo, yeah, right in the back garden, yeah.

(6:19 - 7:27)
Now, when I got nicked for it, they put me on bail conditions, said you're not allowed in central London, barred from central London. I said, okay, I'm not allowed to hire no equipment to nobody. So, I got barred from hiring equipment.

I got put on an eight o'clock curfew in this house, a tag on my leg. Plus, I had a four o'clock sign on at the police station every day. So, I said, okay, this is because I wouldn't grass up because I was supposed to be done for handling stolen goods from a gazebo that come out of a building.

So, I said, okay, one year, I stayed on the conditions. I won the case. I went to court.

I defended myself correctly. As I won the case, the police got upset that I won the case and threw a massive asbo outside my front door. Now, that asbo tried to make me be a super grass and grass up three people I do not know, younger generations, that were throwing parties while I was on curfew and grass up three in a mandem that used to run around with me, yeah, that run off while I was on curfew.

Now, they're doing their own thing. So, I went to the Facebook profiles and I copied the Facebook profiles of the people that I'm being accused of being, yeah. Now, I've made a website.

I'll show you the Facebook profiles. Now, I wouldn't be a super grass. I'm not playing the police officer's line of wages to give them their paypal to do their job.

(7:27 - 7:36)
They won't do a line of investigation against someone they can't. Now, on their Facebook profiles, the people use their personal names. Oh, I'm Chris Lurcher-Lewis and I'm throwing a party in London and all that.

(7:36 - 7:50)
Now, there's six parties in this asbo folder. The police left the folder. After I won the first gazebo case, the police left the folder outside my front door, yeah, and it had loads of personal DPA in it, personal data, and it shouldn't have been shared about.

(7:50 - 8:13)
So, now, I started looking through the folder. I phoned my mum and said, Mum, they've left something outside my front door and it won't come in. My mum come to my property.

She picked up the folder and she took it to Edmonton Green, lost property, yeah, and she put it in and got a receipt for it and lost property, yeah. Now, that folder got given. Now, that folder, I've never had it given to me, the first gazebo, because my mum took it from me, but she photocopied it and gave me a copy of a photocopy.

(8:13 - 8:32)
Now, I went to court and I said, I went to court to defend myself at trial, and at the beginning of an asbo, yeah, or in the asbo, they put an injunction order on you, and the injunction order's just temporary while they're putting the asbo on you. Now, they put this injunction on me from 14. Now, by 15, they still couldn't get it on me.

(8:32 - 8:54)
Six judges walked out the court, looked at the folder and threw it on the floor and said, We're not dealing with this. Then, one day, I went to court. There's this woman called Sally Gilchrist.

She's the legal executive for the Metropolitan Police. She went to every case for the asbo, and she signed a million pounds to make this asbo on me, yeah. Now, one day, on the day of trial, I've gone to trial, and I've explained to the court that I was never arrested.

(8:54 - 9:12)
This is the Organisation of Illegal Rape. She forgot to arrest me. The maximum sentence, if you do arrest someone and have enough evidence for criminal conviction, is six months to three months in prison.

So, maximum six months if you got arrested. You forgot to arrest me. Now, you're giving me a nine-year curfew in my house, and you couldn't even do that if you had enough for criminal conviction.

(9:13 - 9:23)
You can't hold a terrorist in your house for longer than two years. Sir Lady Howe and Prince Philip and everyone says it under the Supreme Court. You can't hold someone in the house for longer than six months, yeah.

(9:23 - 9:30)
And that's if they're blowing up the country. Now, I'm on a nine-year curfew in my house. Now, I've been phoning up the police saying, Hang on, you forgot to arrest me.

(9:31 - 9:36)
I never done this. I looked at the folder. It says, All white people, white males and females, committed the crime in the folder.

(9:36 - 9:59)
So, the doctors come here, the counsellors come here and all that on one of the interviews with Simon Clerk. And they're in there. I'm showing them the folder.

Look, it says, All white people committed it. What colour are they? No. I look at the folder.

I said, Look at each of these victim statements. Because if you're taking a statement off me now, I have to sign the statement at the bottom. Each police officer has done four statements each, and none of them have signatures at the bottom of them.

(9:59 - 10:06)
So, now, I started phoning the police saying, I'm not even white. How can I be getting a nine-year curfew? You don't even arrest me. You're holding me in my house for all this time.

(10:06 - 10:20)
I can't even walk out of my house before nine or ten o'clock because these cops are trying to grab me every second. They're not only trying to put an injunction on me outside, they're trying to put an injunction on me inside my house. So, me and my mum, from 14 to 16, now, Sally Gilchrist starts getting worried.

(10:20 - 10:30)
Now, there's this girl called Shanna. I lost Diana for my 13-year relationship, my first love, because of the first curfew. Now, I come to the second curfew that I'm supposed to be on.

(10:30 - 10:43)
My mum and me write 500 emails to the MPs and the councils and to everybody. I've got 500 emails in, I'll show them to you, to the MPs and councils, asking them to protect me in this house. I've never done nothing to my mum and my mates.

(10:43 - 10:51)
This Sally Gilchrist starts spreading all this shit that I've got a disease. Excuse me. Who's this Sally? Sally Gilchrist is the legal... Gilchrist.

(10:52 - 10:59)
She's the legal executive for the Metropolitan Police. Now, what I've had to do, I've had to do a special payment. These are the council's folders.

(10:59 - 11:35)
So, this is, this is the first ASBO, yeah, that I've got served, yeah. I've made all brand new PDF books for them, yeah. Now, this is the second folder.

Now, if you look at the front, this is... It takes the Metropolitan Police and the council to make this ASBO together. So, if you look here, it says a consultation has to be required by the Metropolitan Police and the council. Jane Johnson, the Borough Commander and the Metropolitan Police have to hold... Listen, come back to Sally Gilchrist.

She's the legal executive. And you said something about her signing a million pound... She spent a million pound on this case on the first ASBO. Against you or for you? Against me.

(11:35 - 11:47)
Why? She set me up. Look, what she's done is she got all these police officers here and they've only done four statements each. Simon, I'm here for a specific purpose, OK? No, this is the reason.

(11:47 - 11:53)
I understand all of this, OK? I got the gist of it. OK, let's just move on from there. No, no, no, let's not move on from there.

(11:53 - 12:00)
No, no, no, let's not move on from there. I'm illegally being detained in my house. You're working for the government under section three of my human rights.

(12:00 - 12:11)
It says any state official that degrades me or humiliates me or makes me feel a way will amount to torture. Yes, it does. I know my human rights.

(12:11 - 12:22)
You don't even know your own human rights, woman. I've built a constitution, yeah? I've got every folder from Glastonbury from the beginning of the past to the end. You've built the constitution? I've got a brand new constitution.

(12:22 - 12:39)
I know the owner of Glastonbury and I know the owner of Isle of Wight, yeah? And they gave me their own folder. So what does your constitution say? My constitution's a CIC, a community interest charity. And what that allows is six people to be able to sponsor that charity and to be able to work within the community and to be able to fulfil.

(12:40 - 12:48)
It says that they will not discriminate against HIV or AIDS. It says that they will not discriminate against me. It says that they will work in the community and do specific things.

(12:48 - 13:06)
So how does that affect your relationship with your neighbours? No, what I was doing was building a festival for my neighbours, yeah? I built a charity, which is Tooth's New Charity, which is there for my neighbours. Because Sally Gilchrist was screwing me. Because one of the days I went into court and she offered to get the injunction activated.

(13:06 - 13:17)
She was trying to get the conditions activated. One of the judges goes to me, Ah, what's your surname? He goes, are you related to a Natalie? I said, no, I'm not related to a Natalie. He goes, that's good because my surname's Cordell as well.

(13:17 - 13:26)
Because that's my surname. Now, Sally Gilchrist is sitting in the court and she's the legal executive director. She's the main director for the Metropolitan Police, for the legal services.

(13:27 - 13:31)
That's who she is. Yeah. Because she's the main director for the legal services.

(13:31 - 13:39)
Now, she's sitting in the thing. What she does is, because she's foreshortened things. She gets screwed because the judge says he knows my name and won't put the conditions on me.

(13:39 - 13:51)
And four other judges are throwing her application on the floor before that. So when did this happen? In 14 she put this outside my door. Then by 15, 2015, she still ain't got it on me.

(13:51 - 13:59)
She's been through six judges and they've all thrown it out. So what happened in 2016? I'm just trying to... I'm just going through it quickly. I'll give you five minutes to agree to where we are this year.

(13:59 - 14:03)
I don't have all day. I don't mind if you don't have all day. You're being paid to do something.

(14:03 - 14:06)
Yeah. So don't go on like you're doing this at your own discretion. You're being paid to listen.

(14:06 - 14:11)
I appreciate that. So please listen. So please listen to the full history of what is happening here.

(14:11 - 14:19)
Because what I'm telling you now is that government officials are illegally holding me in my house. I've got hundreds of recordings of them. When I phone in the police station, they're saying, you're a brown bastard, you've been robbed.

(14:19 - 14:22)
Yeah, we don't give a fuck, Simon. Fuck you. You're a cunt.

(14:22 - 14:33)
You've been... They're going, do you want our borough commander? That's what we want of you, if you want our borough commander. Our borough commander, Jane Johnson, who made that folder, she's been put in diplomatic protection. We're putting her in diplomatic protection.

(14:34 - 14:40)
I want to call her to call. Is there somebody called a borough commander? Yeah, Jane Johnson is our borough commander. She's signed it.

(14:40 - 14:47)
She's on witness protection. No, because I've got all the recordings. Do you want our borough commander? It's on the recordings.

(14:47 - 15:04)
Put, if you're spitting at me, if you want our borough commander. Why do you think you can have our borough commander? Because she's signed every page here, because she has to, by law, in the civic centre. On the 30th August 2001, the local 4am police held a consultation meeting together with the relevant organisers to discuss issues concerning the case.

(15:05 - 15:08)
You were talking about 2016. No, because Jane Johnson done this. Yeah.

(15:09 - 15:16)
Because Jane Johnson done this and I'm phoning them up, telling them that. They're down the phone. Now, what they do is they start spreading that I've got a disease here in the public.

(15:16 - 15:26)
Who, Jane Johnson? Sally Gilchrist and Jane Johnson, the borough commander, start spreading that I've got a disease. Now, me and my partner have never argued. What disease? They said that I had herpes.

(15:27 - 15:30)
OK. Now, I recorded the clinic. I went to the clinic.

(15:30 - 15:35)
I've got all my medical notes here. I never had nothing wrong with me. Me and my partner never argued to this day now.

(15:35 - 15:49)

Me and Shannon never argued. The police just done it to cover up, because I was phoning them up, going, well, where's the signatures? Do you think Jane Johnson and Sally Gilchrist are working together with the police to spread all these rumours? They're in the same company. They work together.

(15:50 - 15:59)
And I've got the recordings to prove it. And they work together with the police to spread rumours about you? No, they work together and they have chosen to maliciously... This is malicious volume. I want to hear from you.

(15:59 - 16:04)
I don't need that. I don't care if you don't want to hear from me. This is where my evidence is.

(16:04 - 16:09)
I've built a website. I'm about to show it to you. I've built an official report every single day of what's going on.

(16:09 - 16:17)
What about the injunction again? Now, this is what happened. This is what happened. Now, because I'm complaining about this, it takes the council and the police to make it.

(16:17 - 16:28)
So we've got the council police... So they're working together, the council police? The council police and Joint Circular under Ethnos. Now, Joint Circular, they're working together. Now, they're supposed to have a victim involved.

(16:29 - 16:41)
Now, they don't have no victims there in real life. They forged all the paperwork. You mean the victim meaning the neighbours? Now, the victim here for the ASBO, the only reason that this is all is, is they're saying that someone got kept up overnight.

(16:42 - 16:56)
Now, what I've done, like I said, is I've copied the Facebook profile to prove I've never done nothing here. Now, what then we went and done, is because they started spreading this disease thing, all my loved ones... I've lived here 12 years before that. You mean my loved ones, your neighbours? Yeah, my neighbours.

(16:57 - 17:04)
12 years I've lived here, not one problem. I've never had a drink in this house, never sold a bag of drawer from this house. I've never sold drugs, I've never done nothing.

(17:05 - 17:25)
I used to leave my front door unlocked and come and put a grand back in there every night. So what happened between you and your neighbours? After 12 years of being with these people, Sally Gilchrist started to realise that I was throwing up, saying there's no signatures on your folder. So then what she done, sorry, what she done, what she done is, she is next doors to a bloke called Ed Sturms.

(17:25 - 17:39)
Now, Ed Sturms is in charge of communication for the Metropolitan Police, for public communication. Now, Ed Sturms started spreading... Ed Sturms? Yeah, I've got all their pictures and everything. Ed Sturms started spreading that I had the disease, yeah, to try and scare you.

(17:39 - 17:47)
You've got 24 hours to get out of this country. In the folder, they started scribbling, you're a black boy on the block. It's scribbled everywhere in here.

(17:47 - 17:56)
You're a black boy, you live on Brancroft Avenue. Because me, I've got a white business partner, I did at this time, throwing parties. So they thought, oh, the white guy's the better one, locked me in here, boom and that's it.

(17:57 - 18:08)
Sucked me in here, you're a black boy on the block, didn't arrest me, gave me nine years maximum sentence, six months. It says white people committed the offence in here, so I couldn't have done it anyway. They need victims to have it.

(18:08 - 18:22)
Now, I'm phoning up the council, and saying, please, well, you've got no signature, can you call an emergency general meeting, please, so that you can get this taken off of me, because it's a breach of my human rights. Now, they're getting scared in the council. So the council phoned the doctors.

(18:22 - 18:33)
Now, I've had the doctors come here 75 times now, yeah. Now, I've done official reports for all the 75 times that the doctors have come here. I've been assessed, I've been checked, and all them times have told me there's nothing wrong with me.

(18:34 - 18:40)
I've stayed in St. Anne's. Julia Krinich is the head over there. I'm suing Julia Krinich right now, yeah.

(18:40 - 18:51)
She's the head of St. Anne's Hospital, because she's the one that got me taken away from here. They come in here with a fake 187 under the Mental Health Act. When they come in here, I had all recording equipment recording in here.

(18:51 - 19:12)
So now, just before that, I've been phoning up the, they've been phoning me up, the AMP workers, Goody had been phoning me up. Now, Goody's saying to me, can I come to you, can I meet you? I'm saying, why are you phoning my phone? Where did you get my phone number from? I said to him, OK, Goody, come to my house, because them times, I'm quite polite. So Goody comes... When was this, when did you go to St. Anne's? This was, I'll show you in a second.

(19:12 - 19:16)

I'll show you the dates in a second. I'll show you my diary. 2013? No, 16.

(19:17 - 19:23)
16. I'll show you my diary now. Yeah, what initially happened, yeah, was Goody started telling me that he wants to come down to my house.

(19:23 - 19:30)
So I agreed for Goody, I agreed for Goody to come to my house, an AMP worker. Goody come here. When Goody come here, he come with a black woman.

(19:30 - 19:38)
The black woman sat here and Goody sat here. I showed Goody all of my festival paperwork and what I was building and my constitution. Goody's going, this is amazing what you're building.

(19:38 - 19:46)
How come they're sending me in here? I've got all the recordings of it. How come they're coming? Look at your house, it's clean and that, Simon. Now, Goody says to me, look, I'm going on annual leave, Simon.

(19:46 - 19:56)
Yeah, I'm glad that you let me in your house sort of thing. When I get back on annual leave in four weeks, would you have another meeting with me? I like Goody. I thought, yeah, well, Goody, do you know what? You're actually, we might be able to do something.

(19:56 - 20:05)
We might be able to raise above all of these wrongful adults around us, yeah, that are trying to ruin our lives. So, I said, okay, Goody. Goody says, yeah, he's going to come.

(20:05 - 20:24)
Now, the next day after Goody goes, a load of doctors come to my front door again, but the same black woman that was sitting there, I forgot her name, not being rude or disrespectful, I forgot her name, but she was rude when she first came for the meeting. She stormed up outside because she seen my house was tidy, went in the corridor and started making a phone call, like, yeah, we're in trouble. His house is clean.

(20:24 - 20:30)
His fridge is full. We can't take him from here, yeah. She come back in and she said, Goody, we've got to go, Goody.

(20:30 - 20:37)
Let's go. So, she took Goody and left the meeting. Simon, can I just clarify something? You know you mentioned victims and you mentioned your neighbours.

(20:37 - 20:45)
You were getting on okay with the neighbours. Yeah, I never had a problem with the neighbours. So, do you think they have made a complaint against you because their injunction is about various complaints.

(20:45 - 21:00)

Can I show you? Can I show you? An injunction means that I must be served by hand. What initially happened is from 2014 to 16... But you went to court in January What happened there? I've been to court I've been to court over 255 times. Do you trust the court? The judge is the neutral party.

(21:00 - 21:06)
You're not letting me answer the questions that you're asking me. So, I'd like to answer the questions you're asking me. Tell me about the victims and your neighbours first.

(21:06 - 21:10)
No, you ain't got no victims here, yeah. What you've got is people. I can prove what happened.

(21:10 - 21:16)
Listen to what happened here for a second. Listen, you can go back and tell Lemmy as well because Lemmy is your friend, yeah, I suspect, yeah. Let me get this straight, yeah.

(21:17 - 21:32)
What initially happened there? From there, Sally started making the rest of them to bang at me because she wants me out of the country because I'm boning up about them missing signatures. So, now, standing there, I've never been rude to him in 12 years. He's checking Debbie upstairs, yeah, because his wife died.

(21:32 - 21:46)
Now, Debbie's the light-skinned alcoholic, yeah. Now, Debbie has her two light-skinned children taken away from her and no one told me that. Now, the council come in here under a fake 187 after Goody comes here.

(21:47 - 21:56)
The next day, that same black woman come outside my front door and she wanted access to my house. I'm like, hang on, I'm waiting for Lemmy to come back in two weeks, in three weeks. She said, no, we want access to your house now again.

(21:56 - 22:05)
I said, no, that's wrong. Why are you here? You're abusing your position. She says to me, she goes anyway, they put an 187 in and then they forced her away from my house.

(22:05 - 22:24)
Now, while they're doing that, I had loads of recordings on my answer phone of asking them to come to a meeting whenever they would like and that's the only reason I wanted... Who are you talking about now? I'm talking about Goody. Who did you ask to come for a meeting? Goody, the AMP workers, Goody agreed to have a meeting with me. When Goody agreed to have the meeting... Because you were talking about the neighbours.

(22:24 - 22:28)
Yeah, I'm bringing a whole lot of it together for you. Okay. You sound a bit confused.

(22:28 - 22:46)

I'll leave it so that you're not going to be confused by the end of it and I'll leave you fully understanding everything. If you just give me two seconds, rather than going through it like this, let me just get this site up and show you what is actually happening here. What initially happened is Goody come here to cover up the missing time stamps and help the police.

(22:46 - 22:58)
Goody left with the police. After Goody went on holiday and he's supposed to be my case handler, another woman, Siobhan, that came with him tried to take me away. Now she had to leave and go.

(22:58 - 23:28)
Now when she went and got on 187 and filled in the call, I wouldn't give her access to my house and she forged the 187 illegally. Now she come back in... What's 187? 187 is access... Under the Mental Health Act in 1983, if you don't give someone access to your house, yeah, there's two forms of access. You can have a 117 which is an agreed meeting with yourselves to come around a 1197 giving you permission to come in or you can have... or you can have... 136.

(23:28 - 23:33)
Yeah, 136, yeah. 137 or 136, yeah. Basically, or 111.

(23:33 - 23:39)
And the 136 is meaning that someone could be in danger inside of their house. I know the Mental Health Act. Someone could be dangerous like that.

(23:40 - 23:47)
So when they come into my house, I had Karen and all to cancel it. So I got the phone and I showed them, you're holding me in my house illegally. You're the counsel here now.

(23:47 - 23:54)
This says that I'm wired and I couldn't have done it. I'm wired in nine years. So we go through all the folders like I went through you but we probably go in it and they all agree.

(23:54 - 24:04)
They read from them and then I've got the recorders. Where did it go from that? Now, what happened the next day after that is Elaine's the counsel officer. I pulled out my recording dictate and I said, look, you're in my house illegally.

(24:05 - 24:11)
You filled out this warrant illegally because I would let you in my house two days ago. I let you in three days before that. I let you in four days before that.

(24:11 - 24:20)
She breaks down in my front room in front of my mum and my uncle and Simon Clark and everyone in here and goes, oh, we're sorry. The police made us do it. They want us to take you away.

(24:21 - 24:33)

So now she breaks down in here that she's used her powers to come and take me away. So how have you been getting on with your neighbours because you said the neighbours... This is what initially happened. Because the neighbours have made complaints according to the... The neighbours are lying.

(24:34 - 24:39)
No, listen to what happened. Lemmy... Why were they lying? Let's listen to what happened. Listen to what happened.

(24:39 - 24:45)
Listen to what happened. Yeah? Lemmy started... Sally started spreading the idea of disease. Yeah? In the public.

(24:46 - 24:56)
These sort of started to attack me. The first time I met the Matthew Illigan family upstairs, I'd lived in my flat for 12 years prior. After living in my flat for 12 years... Let me just get this up for a second.

(24:57 - 25:15)
After living in my flat for 12 years, they moved in up above. I noticed that they had moved in and I didn't really... I didn't really go out of my way to go and see them sort of thing. But one day when I was two, three weeks into it, I was parking my car up out in the front and this Matthew Illigan bloke was outside the front here and there was a boy that lived there next door.

(25:15 - 25:40)
I didn't know him too well but he was a bit younger than me but he was really a bit tipsy and his mental health, yeah? This bloke's got Matthew Illigan by the throat like that as I'm coming into my own block and I'll just explain it to you. He's going, oh Simon, shall I bang him? Can I beat this Matthew Illigan guy? And I'm just coming across going into my block like normal. I'm still quite hippie because I'm doing the parties for everyone here.

(25:40 - 25:56)
I'm quite an RGP person trying to neutralise things. So I didn't even ask this Matthew Illigan, what is your name or why is this happening? Why are you used to arguing? What I said is, hang on, you're the new bloke that lives in our flats, aren't you? Upstairs. He goes, yeah, yeah, yeah, getting grabbed up like that.

(25:56 - 26:04)
I go, you're the new bloke? So I go to the young boy, listen, he's the new adult that's in my block. He's an adult to both of us. We must respect our adults.

(26:04 - 26:08)
So you've got to let this man go. He's an adult in my block. I've got to protect him now.

(26:08 - 26:12)
He's my adult, he's in my block. Let him go. So the young boy had to let him go.

(26:12 - 26:18)

He's like, please sir, let me just bang him. Like bro, let the Matthew Illigan man go. The Matthew Illigan runs upstairs, yeah, the Indian bloke.

(26:18 - 26:26)
Now he goes upstairs. I don't hear from him for eight weeks, eight months after that, yeah. I'm laying down here screaming because Diana's now walked out on me.

(26:26 - 26:32)
Because I'm on curfew for this case. I can smell her cooking the curry up there. I'm thinking, she's a lovely wife.

(26:32 - 26:42)
Why weren't Diana like that? Diana's just ruined a 13 year relationship. All I had was a good heart for this family. Then Sally throws this stick in the works, this disease thing, this disease thing.

(26:42 - 26:56)
Then they start, right above me here, they start banging, every day banging. When I'm going to the toilet inside, to my toilet now, I've got videos because I see the camera there, the camera can see my toilet and it can see in here. This morning, if I lay here, every morning, they go bang, bang, bang above my head, yeah.

(26:57 - 27:09)
Then I go to the toilet, I'm being sick in the toilet, she's sitting above the toilet, bang, bang, bang. I've got hundreds of recordings of it and I've got hundreds of videos of it. I get into my bathtub with no clothes on, yeah, and they're above my head doing that above me, yeah.

(27:10 - 27:29)
Now, I phone the police and say this is out of order, why are you letting this be done to me? Because they want to cover up the missing signatures, they're telling me you've been robbed, you're dead, you're a black bastard, they're on the phone, I'm recording it all, yeah. Now, they won't release me out of my house, yeah. Now, I'll go upstairs and I'll knock on their door and say to with my camera, phone the police, please can you protect me? They say no.

(27:29 - 27:49)
So, I go upstairs recording this woman, I knock on the door normally, you can see it in all the recordings, I will never knock on their door aggressively. Now, because they got allowed from 14 to 16 to do this to me, yeah, my mum wrote to the council 500 times and the MPs, 16, yeah. My mum wrote to the council and the MPs over 500 times.

(27:51 - 28:17)
Now, this is the book for it, yeah. This isn't, no, no, there was hundreds of formal complaints inside, can I just show you what happened? Now, at the end of it, Jackie, Gabby and Louise, Brian and all that were losing their jobs because of it, yeah. So, because they were losing their jobs, this bloke Lemmy come in, knocked all the formal complaints out and he said to me, Stan got me arrested, tried to set me up to cover up what you'd done for two years.

(28:17 - 28:26)

Who's Stan? Stan's the old man next door at 111. So, now, because Stan done that to me, I got arrested and held in the police station. I got taken to court.

(28:27 - 29:05)
So, Stan is your neighbour and he got you arrested for what? He said that in 2016, I walked outside my front door and I see him and I said to him, if you keep doing this to me and Shannon, I'm going to get you in the park. Now, he said that if I walked out my front door in 2016 and I see Stan, I see Stan and I said to Stan, I said to Stan that if you keep doing this to me, Shannon and Heidi, banging on the walls and ruining our names and our lives, the way he is. So, I've got a pair of videos of him doing it.

(29:05 - 29:21)
If you keep doing this to me, Shannon and Heidi, I'm going to get you in the Who's Shannon and Heidi? Shannon and Heidi. After Diana broke up with me, I went back out and got off the gazebo. I met this new woman called Shannon.

(29:22 - 29:28)
Me and Shannon are together for eight months. We've reached another baby. That's what he is accusing.

Because he said that there in 2016. He said if you keep doing this to me, Shannon and Heidi, I'm going to get you in the park. I said to stand on numerous different occasions, close to that, I wouldn't be around him.

(29:51 - 29:59)
Are you telling me that because of what Sally and Lemmy and everybody else have been working against you, they got the neighbours against you? Is that a conspiracy? That's a conspiracy. That's a conspiracy.
