Hello Chief Executive, Department Head for Seeking. Hello Herbert, how are you doing? It's Mr. Cordell. You said to give you a call back after the holiday in regards to getting an EGM meeting in regards to the errors that your company is in support of that's holding me hostage in my house. You need to speak to someone in the team that deals with that. Can I...

I have emailed them because they're the ones who can set up that sort of thing. What, the EGM? No, only an executive director of the company, Rob Leak, who's on £50,000 more than... The prime minister who's in charge of this area who had all them emails of all of his team members every team member that's on over 110 grand i've wrote to them all kenichiwa every single one of them you're telling me this guy so on that much money he's in pictures in 2015 showing off over property development which i've took i've done a full family tree of him his life's destroyed yeah i'm not playing about with you if you take this night get a pen and paper and write this down yeah Write this down. Please, I'm not being rude. I don't ever mean to be disrespectful to you. I'm just trying to resolve these problems, yeah? - Yeah. - If you write this down, Bristol, yeah? And then you write spot, S-P-O-T, Bristol Spotlight, all one word, yeah? Now you write after that .gov and .co.uk, I believe it is. Bristol Spotlight .co.uk. Now you're looking for a bloke called Robert Taylor in there, yeah? Robert Taylor is the prosecution's barrister, yeah? He's the one that does this for Sally Gilchrist. Now, I've got loads of Sally recordings of Sally. I just had a conversation with Sally on the phone. She's saying she doesn't care, she's going to make me suffer and stay in this house for the next three years, even if there's no signatures on the bottom of the ASBO. Now that Robert Taylor, that link that I just gave you, shows another person the same as me in 2014 that Robert dealt with, and they've locked him in his house, he's online now, there's bare pictures of forensics and evidence of what they've done to him. They've caused a sexual assault in his name as well, he only found it last night. And he's gone public with it and that Taylor, Robert Taylor's been done for it. While this case was going on I kept putting the rights in, Article 6, the right to a fair and speedy trial to all the judges, showing them a detailed table of all the timestamps to the call centre that are wrong, that there's no signatures, that they're accusing me of being a white person in the beginning. And all these things and Sally kept ignoring it, yeah? I never called your company 'cause you're my tenancy so I thought, oh, Yuzok ain't coming, that's helping me. But then Yuzok went and attacked me afterwards with Lemmy and that, yeah, and never done the right thing, yeah? That's why we're having big problems now, yeah? I can't actually help you. Or someone in the anti-social behaviour team, because they're making a lot of... I've got evidence, recordings of all of them doing fraudulent activity. I'm one of the best at case building there is in this country. Sally Gilhurst, the head of this executive, kind of the executive. Lemmy, who went Westminster. I've got all pictures of Lemmy. I've got pictures of Kenechua. Well, Lemmy went Westminster, yeah, law degree. I've done every single one. I've got Rob, I've got all of your team players. I've got all of your pictures, yeah? I've not played about with you. I build paperwork, yeah? I said that. I built the paperwork for a whole festival, yeah? I'm the best at writing, yeah? I'll beat Rob Leake. I'll sit at a table now, have a test on Laws with Lemmy, and I'll beat him £100 on it. And I'll beat Rob Leake at professionalism and due respect and understanding everything that I represent. I can run that Civic Centre better than what he could run it. And I'm not just saying that. I put money to paper on it, yeah? Because that's what I've studied, that's what my birthright is, that's what my destiny was, that's what my mum fed me in my stomach, and that's what I believe that I'm going to be, that's why I'm doing it. You're in the position you're in because you believed in it and people believed in you, yeah? Now, people underestimated me here, yeah? But the cops knew what was right and what was wrong. This Rob Leak, yeah, if I show now the attachments to what Rob Leak's doing and that in 15 of us, show all the emails to your company now online and I show how much this guy's on, 50 grand more, and all the neglect and due responsibilities that he's had and all the fraud and corruption that's in your company and the company's act, he's lost his job and his stuff, yeah? All I've asked for you lot to do is call an EGM meeting and take the reins. Sally Gilhurst is out of control. Yeah, she's lost her... Yahoo, the ESP team that I've been recording. I'm getting them arrested. These people have... The ASB team have fraudulently, in fair processing and due processing of paper, and courtesy for other, Lemmy has acted biased. He's had four meetings and knowing that Pat and Steve and him and all, that the first people... Pat and Steve in your office in ASB made the first ASBO with Jane Johnson and that. Yeah? Now, in the Freedom of Information Act that I've requested, that I've stripped out of Daniel Ellis... You can see the correspondence between your employees saying, yeah, you know the deal about this one. Pat and Steve are the two that put the ASBO on him in the first place. Now, you go to the first ASBO and you look on the first. So all the ASB team are the ones that made this. And they admit it in their correspondence to each other. Now, I don't want you to put me back onto them people. Lemmy broke into my house and he lied. It won't be him.

- Luke, why can't you put me on someone above you? You control the people below you and the people above you. That's why you are Heather Little, senior admin officer, chief executives unit. I want to speak to one of the executives. I want a director, I want a secretary, I want somebody that's in charge of that company, Ed, and I don't want to speak to none of the under people, none of the employees. I don't want the people that have been setting me up. I want the boss. Wow. I don't think she's gonna come back. I take it she's not coming back I'm going to terminate this call
