Why are you banging at me like this in this flat, yeah? I can see him through the letterbox banging at me. There's the boy, what? There's the boy. When the boy's all laughing, smiling like he's been banging at me, yeah? Hey! Talk to me on a level, yeah? Why are you banging at me? Why are you assaulting me like that? Why are you assaulting me like that? Why am I watching you bang at me on the floor like that? Why are you banging at the floor of me like that? You killed my baby, my unborn child, yeah, in another woman's stomach. You watched her coming in my house and you kept banging and you killed the baby in my unborn child, in that other woman, in Katie. Yeah, you killed my child. You know you you don't stay in your house he's not he's not a tenant on your lease agreement yet he's just a person you're not secure tenants the a_t_o_ do you live in wolfham story yet you come to the society i hope your husband when he first coming they had been grabbed by the phone yet the young boys next door to the same thing i said that because he's an adult we must respect our adults and i put your husband release year and that back in the day you and you have started to attack me every single day Yeah, you started to attack me every single day of my life and I've not done nothing wrong to you. I keep knocking on your door and recording your voice and asking you to stop and you don't do what's right. How can this boy be left in here? He ain't supposed to be sleeping in here. You have to tell the council under condition 52 that you've got people living in this building with you. And I've got camera evidence of him coming in this building every day for the last three years. He should never be in here. It's a breach of your tenancy. Read it. Condition 52 and condition 54. He ain't paying rent. If you have someone staying in this flat, they're supposed to be in here 14 days. And then you've got to tell the council. So why is this boy living in this flat and why are you letting him attack me every single day? He pretended to live in the other flat there and I'm speaking to him when he's pretending to live in that flat there, telling him that I helped you a lot and to talk to you a lot and to speak to you and to ask you to calm down and stop attacking me and breaching my human rights and with criminal intentions. And your three adults are in here, you're all talking to each other, then you're attacking me. And I helped your husband in the beginning. Speak up for yourselves. And you've got a child in it. Your child's three years old. This has been going on since 2014. And you've been attacking me while that kid's been in there ever first. When I first found out he lived in this flat, because the other neighbours grasped him up in 17 when I got the sofa off him, he started holding that kid every time he went out the block to protect himself. You use that kid like it's a human shield. Yeah, why do you keep attacking me? Why have I got so many video evidence downstairs of yous that are attacking me in this flat? Yeah, why did I just come upstairs, watch you through your letterbox and see him hitting me on the floor and throw the thing on the floor that he's hitting me with? Fam, you live in Walthamstow, fam. Fam, I swear, I swear to God, you're in the ends, fam. Yeah, and you've killed my child. Call the police if you want to call the police. I want you arrested. I've been asking them to arrest you forever and they won't arrest you. Why are you not getting arrested? Speak up then fam. Well you're not going to say nothing, you're going to hide in the flat yeah? What you're hiding in the flat as well yeah? Well you killed my unborn child woman and I've got to look after your child yeah? I've knocked on your door all these times and asked you why do you keep doing this to me yeah? And I helped your husband in the beginning, yeah? I helped you woman, yeah? I helped your husband. That Turkish boy next door had him by the throat. Yeah? On the bend. Yeah? I said to... Your husband was tipping over. The boy was going, I'm going to punch him in his face. I'm going to punch him in his face, yeah? I said to the boy, do not touch this man. This man's an adult to us. He's moved into this block. And he's living in this flat now yeah so I've got to protect him because he's an adult to us then I've watched you I smell you cooking food out your window all summer yeah I'm sitting in my

Yeah, he's been doing it for ages. The banging is very different. You can see it in the recordings. You've admitted that you're doing it and I've got video recordings in every room in my house.
