08/12/2024, 13:30 - Mother: Why would you send me a video where he's says I'm waiting for Ella to come here tomorrow night I need the bedroom sorted quick. , the video before the last one.

You can't keep saying he's not with her when he's seeing her of his own back and sleeping with her, why am I being made to feel bad for not contacting him when he is seeing her so what was said is true. Like I said I don't have any hate towards anybody I hope Simon's happy now, I will always be his friend your all family to me, it makes me so sad that things are this way but I'm not going to be made to feel shit when he's with her Lorraine that's not fair when Iv done nothing but sit here trying to sort things for myself because I can't rely on anyone to be there for me, if Simon wants to text and explain himself that's up to him but I'm not going to talk on the phone and be lied to Iv had enough of being lied to all the time.

I'm too old for all these silly games I don't need the stress. I really hope he's found his happiness I guess it just wasn't meant to be with me being anything more than his friend and I will always be there if he needs me x

13/01/2025, 11:15 - SI:

13/01/2025, 13:46 - SI: Mother i just called uncle to ask him how you was. He said he was in asda. He went on horrible in public while on the phone saying him and deon are the ones that have been there for you rather than talking to me in polite about your health as i asked him. He spoke as if me and tyrone dont love you and makes us feel bad if we go to him about you.... He talks crap about us.... As the man of the faimily or uncle looking after his sister, he should manage the family correctly but he gets funny with us instead. I thought he would be ok to call after what happened a few weeks ago with him due to me speaking to him yesterday and him helping me out but i was wrong. He got upset a few weeks ago because i stood up for myself and ty when i called him to ask how you were and he was drunk and again being horrible about us both to me.

While on the phone he keep putting us down in a more than unfair way and asked questions like why do i want to know how you are is it because im after your money, i went mad at him for asking such a question and asked him what money does my mother have, he done this while he was in such a state and being horrible about me and tyronne through the whole conversation. He did not know ty told me about dow that werent right and how ty felt about thing uncle has done, so i told uncle he had no right always going on like this with us.... And he left an audio recording on whatss app that i never listened to anyways i spoke to him again and we were ok with each other but then sometime afterwards i listened to the audio and the things he said demonstrated the way i get upset about him due to the way he thinks of us and talks about dow. This is not fair i am not explaining all on here but he needs to change the way he acts with us. I will send you the audio he sent me what made me call him back and argue before he helped me yesterday. I thought he would be calm but straight away he puts us down and makes us feel like shit for calling him, to make sure you alright.. He even blocked me on whats app for calling him about the audio. I was just worried about you and wanted a update of him as well. But he turns it to shit then says his just stressed....

23/03/2025, 12:19 - Mother: Hi, Sorry for messaging on WhatsApp, This is HeavenlyDream Beds. I'm currently outside and just saw your email about the bed.

It looks like there may be some confusion with an ottoman divan bed. The bed you ordered is a slatted gas lift storage bed, not an ottoman divan. We've sold hundreds of these beds, and no one has had an issue with the gas lift mechanism. I understand how the difference might have caused confusion. Even when selecting the gas lift option, it clearly states (slatted)—I've attached a screenshot for reference.

I'm also sending an example of a gas lift bed to show that it only requires two gas struts, not four.

I'm reaching out via WhatsApp since I don't have access to eBay right now, but I'll send the same message on eBay once I'm back.

That said, we're happy to arrange collection for a full refund if you'd prefer. Let me know how you'd like to proceed.

08/04/2025, 13:47 - Mother: Hello Lorraine,
Thank you for reaching out!

We are sorry to hear that has happened to him, as you know, temporary teeth are made of softer, more fragile material than the permanent teeth and are designed in order to break before any force applied affects the implants, such as when eating more solid foods or bread.

We are slightly concerned about the pain he is experiencing, has he experienced the pain only after the temporary teeth broke?

And could you please send us a picture of his mouth showing the area that has broken as well as a picture of the part that has come out, if any have?

We highly recommend seeing him at the clinic to complete his treatment and resolve the issue with the pain. Posting the temporary teeth over would prevent us from being able to diagnose any existing issues and may compromise his implants and healing, as his healing period has also been completed.

As his healing period is also complete, we are afraid that we cannot provide the temporary teeth free of charge and would come at a cost £500 to remake them and send them over. We are looking forward to hearing from you!

Warmest Regards,
Dentaflly Support Team.

09/09/2025, 10:43 - SI: Shelia shares if sold must be to me then.

09/09/2025, 10:44 - SI: I don't no why Andrew never offered them to me first. I asked him the day he wanted to sell when he came here not to 09/09/2025, 10:45 - SI: You told me to stay out of trouble. I went legit. Now im broke like dad. But that's cool.. not because the devils playing a role in all this. No way its gods work alone.

09/09/2025, 10:46 - SI: So, if sold to devil it i might have owned it as well.

09/09/2025, 10:46 - SI: But listened to u and dad

09/09/2025, 10:48 - Mother: Sheila shares will be to her kids my will be to my 3 kids Andrew wants to sell to someone in the family you been told this over and over again why would you think Sheila shares would be for you she has kids all you think about is yourself and I not talking no more about this. Dad has nothing to do with who my shares go to.

09/09/2025, 10:48 - SI: The devils work must have no business here!

09/09/2025, 10:48 - SI: If she sells as you dad and ty all hope for him

09/09/2025, 10:50 - Mother: I done now got to get ready to go royal free

09/09/2025, 10:51 - SI: That's why ty is doing it to get everyone shares not freeze his money. Everyone said that and he asked me the other day i said i will think about it but now i been here its s NO... if Shelia sells as she said she was thinking about. I must have the rights to them. Or these is s set up...

09/09/2025, 10:52 - SI: Ahe said she is not now. But that may change and if it does. I want them. I should have been offered first, rights... it's in the cordell name

09/09/2025, 10:53 - Mother: Ty asked Andrew which he had every right to do just like you I know Andrew is going to be talking to ty now fuking wait and shop going on.

28/11/2025, 21:42 - Mother: Been sleeping sorry, can't you just put 55,40 in my account each month as it would have to be 3-way call to change it over

30/11/2025, 12:49 - SI: I sent the money into your bank 55 pounds and no i got to sort out more and will. I hope you're alright as i love you loads. I speak to aunt she's kept me updated about you. I been busy on the computer everyday sorting for first, fixing the servers and getting them back online. Community fiber was working with server 2 here as it was bleeping when turned on. Uncle Andrews contact renewed and community fiber added CGNAT, meaning no incoming ports or anything, i installed Cloudflare to get around it or 300 pounds more on top of the existing bill. Legal aid and case have today had files sent to have legal aid reviewed and case ongoings reviewed. They are in the wrong and need to drop the case. I had to change the boards on the machine so i can send the emails as they have exhibits to files in them in the servers and the board works. Quick update... love you lots Si xx
