If there is information anywhere, I am guessing its on her laptop which I have no idea of password as yet as she never got downstairs to her pc for at least a year. I would also need access to your flat to put your electrical bits in and also the burger van, car and generator need to go. Not even looked in shed or loft as yet as your mum had a lot of stuff. Trying my best but also making myself feel ill as not handling your mums passing very well. Have Phillip here now so got some help and support so may find things a little less emotional and stressful xxxx
Sent	10 Apr 2026 16:48:30	+159	It will be in her accounts then on pc, thanks.

Received	10 Apr 2026 11:54:58	+159	So am I and i miss her loads every day.
Sent	10 Apr 2026 11:48:23	+159	She had time through it all to do what she wanted a bit till it went really bad when she went away that time, then it got bad, it was a Ballance of everything i believe, I'm just happy she got to live....

Received	10 Apr 2026 11:46:12	+159	I dont think your mum made any choice. She got really ill with her heart pretty quickly and had to wait for heart operation, as soon as she had the heart operation her kidneys failed and she had to go to dialysis, she had a few of months then and was doing ok at that point I went back to Waterloo and would go to Edgeware 3 times a week with her for dialysis . Then she moved to Tottenham hale and almost straight away got pseudomonus, sepsis and pneumonia and ever since then it was a very hard battle. It was not a choice by me or her, she needed help and I stepped in .
Sent	10 Apr 2026 11:33:04	+159	I understand that and say to when you left everyone realised how much support you have given and how much we love you, you say to me were not there for her, but we had all our lives, she wanted time with you. At the end she knew how much it would hurt you and you both argued and it was almost imposable to resolve till i forced you both to speak when she got rushed in again, that force apart is what she done to us to protect us as well, we hated it, do you understand, had she made a different choice we would have never of been away at.
Received	10 Apr 2026 11:02:00	+159	Well maybe the way you feel is wrong most certainly with me getting in-between the family. I looked after your mum for over 3 years; I did a good job as good as I possibly could . You should be thankful not put me down for it...
Sent	10 Apr 2026 10:49:19	+159	Because you told me I'm not there for her, think of what you're saying, because I then explained the truth about how I feel about it

Sent	9 Apr 2026 12:37:10	+159	I listened to mother and never took the stuff out the garage as she was too ill for it. But look at the front door still.
Sent	9 Apr 2026 12:34:45	+159	What I'm being accused of by you and Tyrone are two completely different things
Sent	9 Apr 2026 12:33:54	+159	No it was not your lying, what was said is if dad and mother have shouted at me not to get into trouble and be legit and dad finds life so hard being legit himself and lives like this, without a home in his name, then how can they let this happen, you can imagen the rest, it puts me at an unfair disadvantage and if it was done behind my back i would have done the paperwork myself and brought it to court
Received	9 Apr 2026 12:30:16	+159	Yes, it was Simon ... simple as that
Sent	9 Apr 2026 12:29:53	+159	To leave me and ty feeling like that is out of order or for you to confirm it when that was not said
Sent	9 Apr 2026 12:28:48	+159	Your trying to confirm it to me then when i reminded u of the truth you got angry showing your true intentions towards me
Received	9 Apr 2026 12:25:40	+159	Simon I am trying to sort this house out and do not want to be involved in your and Tyrones drama.
Sent	9 Apr 2026 12:18:54	+159	Treat people how you want to be treated that was out of order!
Sent	26 Mar 2026 09:41:09	+159	Do u want me to open this letter. I don't open them up so texting would be long, u got upset just now for the possibility of me opening Phills letter and I'm glad i did not., i did not mean for this and just tidy up and put them into named piles on the table for dad to check when he gets in, every day, last time i spoke to u, u called me and went mad because i spoke to my sister and had an option, and then switched it to jam and would not pick up after phoning and shouting at me and putting the phone down when i done nothing wrong. It's the same 98% of the time. You and dad get on, so can he help as well from now on, so I'm not left to feel like this and nether, are you?

Received	26 Mar 2026 09:31:28	+159	On a train on the way to the hospital to see your mum . Not having you shut down the phone at me constantly and then not even let me talk. If you listened you might understand how I feel, but your always the victim Simon, there really is no point in us talking.
Received	26 Mar 2026 08:58:45	+159	I gave you my key so I cannot get in the house as you lost yours . Get me a key cut and I will come and collect my own mail. I am the one paying for this, but you will have to sort the bailiffs out.
Received	26 Mar 2026 08:50:07	+159	You put it on the table end of. Call me when I have mail that is what I asked you to do . Not your dad.

Received	26 Mar 2026 08:42:29	+159	Listen your just shouting and shouting . I asked you when i let you stay there to tell me when I had mail. Not too difficult, or is it ? You have not done that so please stop always try to make it someone else's fault. li asked YOU so stop trying to blame your dad . He is not there when the mail gets delivered YOU ARE.
