HMCTS Probate has received your email. You don't need to contact us again; we'll email you if we need more information.

 PLEASE NOTE

If the email you have sent us relates to your case, it will be automatically uploaded and your case will be placed in a queue to be looked at by an examiner. Your email will be reviewed alongside your case; we may not directly respond to your email and will contact you with an update on your case where appropriate.

How long it takes to get probate

It can take a minimum of 12 weeks from submitting a correct and complete application. It can take longer if you need to provide additional information. To learn more about how to submit an application you can visit - Applying for probate: Apply for probate - GOV.UK

If you need an update on your application

If you applied online, you can track your case by going to www.gov.uk/applying-for-probate . You can login with the same details you used to complete your application.

If you're a probate practitioner, you can check the progress of your case at Apply for probate with MyHMCTS - GOV.UK \(www.gov.uk\).

If you have opted to track your post, you can check if we've received it via the couriers website. You can also check the progress of your application online by visiting <https://www.gov.uk/applying-for-probate/after-youve-applied>, or on your MYHMCTS account for professional users.
