Reminded of right to free legal advice. Continued detention is authorised as there are reasonable grounds to believe that it is necessary in order To obtain evidence by questioning. The grounds are I am satisfied that the investigation into this matter is ongoing and is being carried out in a prompt and expeditious manner. The detainee has been arrested on suspicion of theft. Reminded of right to free legal advice, to have someone notified of their arrest and to consult a copy of the Codes of Practice. The detainee declines to exercise any of these rights at this time. I have informed the detainee that these rights are ongoing and can be exercised at any time whilst in custody. The detainee states they understand the nature of the allegation against them. No representations were made by the detainee regarding their detention. I have read the risk assessment, and FME care plan and that the custody staff are aware and are following the plan and risk assessment. P/D is being checked in line with the assessments and plans and if on 4R checks that these are being done correctly. The following representations were made None. Mr Cordell stated he was unhappy with being bitten by a police dog, but did admit that when he was told that he was wanted, ran out of the back door and hid in a shed. ASU has found him and he has been bitten by a police dog. He has told me that he has no confidence in police and wishes to complain to ipcc so they can conduct an independant review. I informed him that i could take a complaint but that i would investigate it. He confirmed he wanted to complain to ipcc.	  MEEKE INSP P227426
